

Chapter 951

Prince William was now spirited and poised, his previous wretchedness and wimpiness gone.

He received the admiration of thousands of people, incomparable scenery.

Only Tom and Alice saw his embarrassment that day. None of these people had seen his embarrassment, let alone his fear of death. They thought he was the noble prince in their hearts.

When Tom saw him like this, he smiled faintly and did not expose him.

For Tom, a person like Prince William was just an ant and could not interest him at all.

It was Alice who would marry such a person that made him somewhat regretful. It was not that he liked Alice, but that Prince William was not worthy of her.

But this was Alice's business. As an outsider, he had no right to meddle.

He stood in the corner, drinking quietly, waiting for the arrival of Her Majesty the Queen.

Vaguely, he could already feel the aura of the Queen, as if it was not far away, but it did not come to this castle.

And, he doesn't know if it was his illusion that he could feel the queen's aura seemed to be a little weak?

Was the Queen injured?

This thought just flashed through his mind. First, Her Majesty the Queen was so powerful that she should not be hurt. Second, he came here only to ask Her Majesty the Queen for advice. The situation of her had nothing to do with him.

Prince William enjoyed this environment very much. He was the center of attention and the most honorable person in the room. He accepted the admiration of the people and thought that he was the true emperor. His status was more honorable than anyone else in the world!

Besides Her Majesty the Queen, he was the most honorable, and the queen was old now. After a few years, he would be in charge of Eagle Country.

Marrying Alice meant a marriage with the Alexander family. His position would be further consolidated. No one could threaten him!

Just as he accepted everyone's admiration, someone in the crowd shouted.

"Look, it's miss Alice!"

Everyone's attention turned towards the door after hearing this...

There was a group of people appeared at the door. The one in the front was wearing an elegant evening dress with a light gauze on her face, but it didn't hide her beauty!

Her figure, in particular, is superb. It was a perfect combination of angels and demons.

Her appearance instantly became a new focus and attracted everyone's attention. She outshone all women presented!

At this moment, she was the most beautiful being.

Many men could not help but lose their minds when they saw her.

Even Tom was a little stunned when saw her and sighed sincerely. He had to admit that Alice was really beautiful.

As a mixed-race between china and the west, she not only had the enthusiasm of the west, but also the implicitness of the east. In particular, her appearance was refined to a new height, and every inch of skin looks like it was sculpted by God.

Tom had seen a lot of beautiful women, but he had to admit that Alice was very beautiful, at least on the same level as Phoebe and Amelia.

Especially the mixed-race temperament on her, which no other woman had.

Tonight, Alice had obviously had some special dressing, which made her even more beautiful and sexy!

Prince William couldn't even move his eyes when he saw her. His mouth opened and even was even about to drool. He muttered, "She's so beautiful, so beautiful..."

At the same time, his eyes were also emitting a fiery light, staring at Alice closely, wishing he could swallow Alice right away.

His possessiveness to Alice was at its peak at this moment.

Soon, Alice noticed his look. She frowned slightly and some disgust and sadness appeared in her eyes.

She was going to marry this man soon, and her life would be involved.

She sighed...

No matter how unwilling she was, she had to accept fate!

But in her heart, she could not help but think that what would happen if Tom was here?

She really wanted Tom to elope with her. Even if she would go to the ends of the earth and lived a poor life in the future, she would not hesitate.

However, she knew that this was just her wishful thinking. As a H Country citizen, Tom was obviously not qualified to enter such an engagement ceremony.

Especially in the face of the entire royal family, no one in the world would offend Eagle Country for her.

She sighed again.

However, when she was disappointed, her eyes suddenly lit up and she caught a familiar figure, which made her stop for a moment!

Her breathing quickened, and she even became shocked and excited.

It was Tom!

It must be him!

She couldn't help but quicken her step and subconsciously walked towards the figure.

Soon, her strange behavior attracted the attention of the Alexander Clan Horton next to her. He frowned slightly and said to Alice unhappily, "Alice, what are you doing? Keep your image."

Alice's heart tightened when she heard her father's voice. Tom was nowhere to be seen when she looked over again. She couldn't help but feel disappointed and sigh. Had she missed Tom so much that she was hallucinating?

Then a bitter smile appeared on the corner of her mouth. Yes, it must be like this. She was hallucinating.

Tom had just been noticed by Alice. He changed his position, and Alice immediately couldn't see him.

On such an occasion tonight, he could not interfere in the wedding of the royal family of Eagle Country. Otherwise, he would offend Her Majesty the Queen. There was no need for this.

Besides, he and Alice were just acquaintances.

"Wow, miss Alice is too beautiful! No wonder everyone calls her our number one beauty in Eagle Country. She has the face of an angel, the body of a devil!"

"Of course. Otherwise, how could she be qualified to marry the honorable Prince William?"

"That's true. Prince William is the most honorable young man in Eagle Country... But I still envy Prince William for marrying such a beautiful miss Alice..."

Many people were admiring Alice's beauty.

Prince William, the protagonist of today, was even more proud when he heard it.

Hmph, you still have to marry me even if you like that damn H Country citizen.

Chapter 952

Prince William strode towards Alice with a bright smile on his face.

Behind him, there was also a group of royal family members.

When Alice saw him coming over, her eyes flashed with sadness, but in order to take the overall situation into account, she had to hide this emotion in her heart and listen to her father. She put a smile on her face.

In the corner, Tom saw the changes in Alice's expression. He shook his head and felt sorry for Alice.

Prince William quickly walked up to Alice and greeted the Alexander Clan

Horton with a gentlemanly greeting. Then he showed a smile which he thought he was handsome and held Alice's hand. "Hello, my most beautiful miss Alice. From now on, you are the most honorable princess in my heart!"

When everyone heard Prince William's love words, they clapped and cheered for him.

The women present were even more envious, jealous, and hateful. They wished they could become Alice and marry Prince William.

As for those men who were present, they were all envious of Prince William. It was a man's ultimate dream to marry such a wonderful woman as Alice!

Alice felt a little disgusted when she saw Prince William's pride because she also thought of the scene when she faced the killer that day.

At that time, how could Prince William be as calm and brave as a prince? He was nothing more than a coward. Fortunately, she had always thought that although Prince William's character was not good, he was at least brave.

In the end, she was extremely disappointed by his performance that day.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but think of Tom again. She didn't know where Tom was now.

If Tom was here, she would feel better.

Prince William was waiting for Alice's response, but when he saw Alice in a daze, he couldn't help but feel a little angry and hold Alice's hand slightly harder.

Alice was in pain and realized that Prince William's eyes flashed with anger. She said, "Thank you, your highness. You are also very handsome today."

Only then did Prince William show a better expression.

Then he greeted the Alexander Clan-Horton, completely displaying the demeanor and etiquette that a prince should have.

It had to be said that Prince William was a coward, but he did a good job in social communication. The vanity project was especially well done. Now everyone thought that he had the king's demeanor, and they admired him more.

In this regard, Alice only felt that he was more and more hypocritical.

Next, the engagement ceremony began. Alice held Prince William's arm. He kept greeting the distinguished guests at the scene.

The queen had not appeared. It was obvious that she would not appear until the last moment. In the name of the queen and her elders, she would bless the newlyweds Alice and Prince William.

Everyone was also waiting for that scene. This must be the most glorious moment.

Many women envied Alice. Tom heard a lot of envious words in the corner.

He just shook his head and had to admire Prince William for doing a good job in the vanity project.

Just then, a distinguished guest asked Prince William, "Your royal highness, I heard that you and Miss Alice were ambushed by assassins a while ago. I want to know what happened."

Hearing this, everyone else's eyes were immediately attracted, and they all looked at Prince William curiously.

After all, it was too dangerous for them to be assassinated.

Alice was also slightly stunned. There was a look of reminiscence in her eyes. That day, if it weren't for Tom, they would have already been caught by the assassins, and the outcome would have been extremely tragic.

Prince William's eyes flashed with lingering fear, but soon, he showed a proud and confident expression again and said, "What happened that day was an accident..."

Then, he began to shoot off his mouth in detail about what happened that day.

However, the version he said was completely contrary to the truth!

He had portrayed himself as a heroic and vengeful man. At the same time, he also depicted himself as a savior with unlimited power.

Instead, it was Tom, who was with them at that time, who became a cowardly existence. In his words, if he hadn't fought hard against the enemy, Tom would have died now.

"Wow! Your highness is really excellent. You are incomparable in wisdom and courage. You are a model for our Eagle Country!"

"Yes, our Eagle Country will definitely become more brilliant with such a great leader like you!"

"That man from H Country is really a bustard. Our princess saved him, but he's still so arrogant. He's so ungrateful!"

"Hmph, as I said, the people from H Country were despicable and shameless. How can they be as brave and noble as our Eagle Country people? I suggest that we don't let them set foot in our Eagle Country in the future. They don't have the rights!"

"Yes, they are all inferior. I never like to greet them..."

Such words resounded throughout the audience, and many people began to flatter Prince William and began to belittle the people from H Country without any bottom line.

Especially after Prince William especially stirred up the trouble, Tom was described by them as an unforgivable, despicable and ugly existence, just like the underground rats.

Prince William was really satisfied with the situation and revealed a smug smile.

"Hmph, damn people from H Country! How dare you treat me so disrespectfully that day. This is your punishment!" He thought.

"And Alice, don't you like that man? I'll slander him in front of you, and you can do nothing."

Alice was indeed very angry now. She clenched her fists, gritted her teeth, and a wave of anger rushed into her mind.

At the same time, she also felt very aggrieved and puzzled. Why did Prince William, as the prince of Eagle Country and the next successor, have such a bad character.

Prince William saw Alice's reaction now, and his eyes flashed with joy again. He said to Alice deliberately, "Alice, don't make friends with the people from H Country in the future. They are all despicable and shameless people."

Hearing Prince William's shameless words, Alice became even angrier.

What she couldn't stand the most was that the others also slandered Tom like this.

"How could that be? It was Tom who saved them. Tom was a good person. How could Prince William slander Tom like this?!" She thought.

He just bit the hand that fed him.

Finally, under extreme anger and disgust, she couldn't help but shout out, "You're lying. The person who was a coward that day was obviously you, not Tom!!!"

Chapter 953

With that, there was a sudden silence. Everyone widened their eyes and looked at Alice in astonishment.

What was going on?

Was Prince William a coward?

Was this the meaning of that woman's words?

Tom, who was in the corner, also heard it. He sighed secretly. Alice was stubborn.

However, he was a little touched. Alice was different from other women who were snobbish and had a good moral character. However, when she told the truth like this, she put herself in the spotlight.

Sure enough, after two seconds' silence, Prince William's expression looked awful. He stared at Alice.

It was not surprising. Prince William was vilifying Tom hard to show off himself. But now that Alice said so, it was undoubtedly a slap on his face.

The point was, Alice was still his fiancée. That was surely a humiliation.

At that moment, he clenched his fists and a wave of anger swept through his body. He stared at Alice, and said with his teeth gritted, "Alice, what are you talking about?"

After Alice said this, she also realized that she must have caused trouble, especially when she saw Prince William gritting his teeth and burning with anger, she knew that she had caused big trouble.

It was impossible to say that she was not afraid.

However, she did not regret it, because this was the truth. It was clearly Tom who saved them. Prince William was afraid of death. She owed Tom such a big favor. If she could not even protect Tom's reputation and watched Tom being slandered by Prince William, then she would feel guilty.

So she took a deep breath, straightened her back, looked like she was going to go all out, and said loudly, "That's right. It was Tom who saved us that day. If he hadn't done it in time, we would have..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, Prince William slapped her hard on the face, making an unusually loud sound.

A clear palm print appeared immediately on Alice's fair flawless face, and she staggered back two steps. If the maid behind her hadn't held her in time, she would have fallen down.

And this scene was also beyond everyone's expectations. Although Alice's words just now were a little inappropriate, Prince William wouldn't slap her. This was too ungentlemanly.

So all of a sudden, many people frowned at Prince William and thought that Prince William had gone too far. Anyway, Alice was his fiancée. Besides, Alice was still a member of the Alexander family now.

When Tom saw this scene, his eyes became cold and filled with anger. He held tightly the glass, and it was crushed into a ball of powder with a click.

At this moment, he had an intention to kill Prince William.

He even hit a woman. His character was extremely bad.

Prince William was also furious. He was angry about Alice, as his fiancée, she did not protect his reputation, but even took the lead in slandering it.

He was an incomparably noble prince. That man of H Country was just a lowly martial artist. Was Tom's reputation comparable to his?

Especially now, she said it in front of so many people. He hated Alice so much.

Alice covered her face and tears immediately appeared in her eyes. Prince William's slap hurt her too much. She opened her eyes wide. Obviously, she did not expect Prince William to be so violent that he dared to hit her in front of so many people. If she really married him, how was she going to be tortured by him?

"Prince William, how dare you hit me?"

Alice was also shocked.

The Alexander family members on the side frowned and stared at Prince William unhappily, thinking that he was too much. Slapping Alice like this showed that he didn't take the Alexander family seriously at all.

Alexander Horton stood up and said unhappily, "Prince William, I need an explanation!"

Although Horton was very close to the Royal family and did not care much about Alice's happiness, as the head of the Alexander family, his own daughter was slapped by Prince William. This was a dishonor to their family, and he naturally could not stand it.

When Prince William saw this, he was a little flustered. He didn't know how to answer Horton's question for a while.

But immediately, a Royal Minister next to him stood up and said, "Mr. Alexander, didn't you see it just now? It was your daughter Alice who slandered His Highness first! You should teach your daughter more manners. Prince William is not an ordinary man. He represents the royal family!"

"Yes, that's right!" Prince William immediately came to his senses and said quickly, "Alice slandered me first. I am the prince. Even if she is my fiancée, she can't slander me like this!"

Horton didn't say anything. But there was anger in his eyes. Although he agreed with his daughter to marry Prince William, he also knew her character. If there was no such thing, she would not have said it.

Besides, after what happened that day, Horton also knew that even the army could not stop Tom. How could he be a coward?

Prince William, on the other hand, had always had a bad reputation in the upper class. He was a playboy. Her Majesty was a master of God Becoming Level. However, Prince William did not even reach the Innate Realm, which was no different from a loser.

But he could not say this out. Otherwise, the Alexander family would get in trouble.

He looked at Alice, took a deep breath, and said, "Apologies to Prince William."

Alice immediately felt very aggrieved. It was clearly not her fault. Why did she apologize to Prince William?

"No! I didn't say anything wrong. He was the one who was afraid of death that day. He was so scared that he was trembling, and was going to hide under the car. When the killers walked up to him, he was so scared that he peed his pants. It was Tom who killed those killers in time to save us!"

Prince William's face turned ashen when he heard it.

Chapter 954

At this moment, someone in the crowd gave out a chuckle.

It was a lady, and after the chuckle, the others couldn't help but do the same thing, covering their mouths, snickering.

In fact, they were all smart people and had their own ability to know right from wrong. They could tell in a flash that Alice was not lying. Combined with Prince William's reputation in the circle, if there was really an assassin attacked, then what Alice said was obviously true.

Prince William was so scared that he wetted his pants. It was too embarrassing. He was the prince of Eagle Country!

If the public knew about this, his image in their hearts would plummet. In this way, how could he lead them in the future?

Not to mention these distinguished guests, even some ministers in the royal family began to laugh.

Seeing this, Prince William was extremely angry. He gritted his teeth and was almost lost it. His eyes were spitting fire!

Alice, this bitch, was dicing with death!

"Alice!!" He yelled. He looked very ferocious and had already lost his composure. "You have to apologize to me! For your slander on me just now!!"

Alice was even more afraid when she saw him like this, but she did not retreat. She bravely raised her head and said, "I refuse to apologize because I didn't say anything wrong. What I said is the truth! Instead, you, Prince William, as the prince of Eagle Country and the grandson of the queen, you twisted the truth and maliciously slandered the savior. You should apologize to Tom!"

When Alice said this, Tom sighed in his heart again. Because of her words, he completely offended the Eagle Country.

The royal family would take revenge on him.

As everyone knew, Eagle Country valued their reputations the most, and its royal family would not allow any slander and provocation by anyone. Alice's behavior was actually provocative, even if she was telling the truth. But under such circumstances, the royal family would never let her go easily.

"This silly girl was impulsive." Tom thought.

It was obvious that after she said this, many Alexander's men frowned, including the Alexander Horton felt she was impetuous, and he was already weighing whether to give up on her.

After all, the Alexander Clan family could not compete with the royal family at all.

Not to mention the mighty queen, he was also very angry now. Alice was too headstrong and disobedient. Now, she was in a big trouble!

"What the hell! How dare you slander the dignity of the royal family? Someone!"

A minister next to Prince William waved his hand and a dozen elite guards immediately appeared. They surrounded Alice and said in a low voice, "Alexander Clan - Alice, I order you in the name of the royal family. Apologize to prince William immediately and to the royal family!"

In this situation, Alice's pressure increased.

Everyone could tell that if she didn't bend down, the royal family would definitely punish her and it was possible to send her straight to jail!

Faced with this situation, many members of the Alexander Clan family did not dare to speak, and even many of them were still complaining about her. They felt that she was simply unreasonable, bringing shame to Alexander Clan, provoking the hatred of the royal family, which was a jinx!

Prince William's eyes flashed with joy. He stared at Alice and said, "If you want to protect the reputation of that Chinese, I won't give you this chance at all."

When she realized what he meant, she became even angrier. She gritted her teeth, making an uneasy decision in her heart.

In the end, she still chose to obey her conscience. Instead of giving in, she took a deep breath and said loudly, "I refuse to apologize! Because I didn't lie, you are the one to apologize!"

"Impudent!!!"

This time, Prince William was completely angry. He directly ordered her to be arrested.

At this moment, the dozen elite guards began to arrest Alice, with extraordinary momentum.

Faced with this situation, Alice's face flashed with some sadness, but more relieved. She did not do anything wrong, and she protected Tom's reputation.

Even if the price was her being imprisoned, she would not regret her decision.

Just then, a lazy voice sounded from the crowd. "Prince William, if you dare to arrest Alice, I don't mind giving you an unforgettable punishment."

This voice appeared very suddenly. Although it was not loud, it was clearly heard by everyone present, and it was full of resolution.

It could tell that what he said was not a joke and he would actually do it. If Prince William really dared to arrest Alice, he would punish him.

But who was this person?

They had never heard of it.

In an instant, they all looked towards the source of the sound.

Soon, they saw a slender Chinese man walking over unhurriedly with a cynical smile on his face. It was as if no one here was taken seriously by him, and he was extremely relaxed, just like he was playing a game.

This person was naturally Tom.

When Prince William heard this, he suddenly felt a chill all over his body and his face became much paler.

Because what Tom said just now exploded in his mind like a bomb, making him feel scared.

He quickly looked at Tom and saw his cynical smile. Especially the way Tom looked at him, he had no doubt that Tom would really do something to him if he arrested Alice.

In his mind, he could not help but think that Tom's devilish killing that day, even those terrifying killers, were so vulnerable in front of this Chinese, and they were no match at all!

At this moment, he was scared, petrified.

But then, he shouted, "Assassin! This is an assassin!! Where's the guard? Come and protect me! Take this assassin down!!"

He looked even more out of control now, completely panicked. How could a prince have such demeanor and calmness?

Tom shook his head and felt sorry for her highness. At least her highness was a God Becoming Level expert and a legend. How came her descendants was such a trash?

Chapter 955

Prince William's current appearance was abnormal as if he had seen the most terrifying thing in the world. He was extremely frightened. It had nothing to do with the heroic image he spoke of.

On the contrary, it fit the image of his words, who was afraid of death and scared to pee.

Prince William's reaction immediately shocked everyone present. Obviously, none of them expected Prince William they admired to be like this. How could he be such panic!

This performance was no different from an ordinary person.

No, he was even worse than ordinary people.

The people who could attend the engagement ceremony were not idiots. On the contrary, they were all people with status and power. Naturally, they were smart. In an instant, they guessed what really happened.

Alice was right. Prince William was really the coward. Instead, it was that man in H Country who was truly unparalleled in bravery.

To be honest, when they found out the truth, they didn't feel good. After all, Prince William was their prince, the future leader of their Eagle Country, but now, he was so cowardly and out of control that he did not have the demeanor and calmness that a prince should have!

And most importantly, the other party was a man from H Country, who had just been mocked by them and thought of as inferior.

At this moment, many people expressed extreme dissatisfaction with Prince William, and they even thought that Prince William was not qualified to inherit the queen's throne!

At the same time, Alice, who was already in despair, opened her eyes wide and showed surprise and excitement when she saw Tom's sudden appearance!

She was right. Tom was really here, and he showed up when she needed help the most, just like last time.

At this moment, she felt a great crush, feeling unprecedented happiness and fulfillment!

And this feeling was something that she had never experienced before. It was even stronger than the last time Tom saved her from those killers.

So she was so excited that she rushed towards Tom without thinking and exclaimed in surprise, "Tom! Great, you're finally here! I knew you wouldn't give up on me. You definitely wouldn't give up on me!"

She threw herself into Tom's arms and hugged Tom tightly, burying her face deep in his chest.

She was too excited. It was the excitement from the despair. She was reborn. Even if the whole world had given up on her, Tom had not given up on her yet!

This strong emotion made her tear ducts collapse, and she burst into tears. Tears soon soaked Tom's lapels.

Tom was held so tightly by her that he was a little surprised for a moment. After all, it was really awkward on such an occasion.

That was right. Everyone in the room was now staring at him with wide eyes. Obviously, they did not expect that a man from H Country would appear, especially Alice, who was so excited to throw herself into his arms.

This plot was something they had never thought of.

Especially for Prince William. His face was now extremely sullen, and his whole body was trembling!

Pointing at Tom, he shivered. "You, you, you... Bitchy couple!!"

He was so angry that Tom dared to appear at his engagement ceremony. As his fiancée, Alice, who was such a bitch woman, threw herself into the arms of another man, which did not give him any face at all... No, it was a great blow to him.

He had never lost so much face before.

It was much more serious than when Alice exposed him just now. Because Alice's action was undoubtedly a betrayal of him.

The others also reacted now, looking at Prince William with different expressions. Some were mocking, some were angry, some were sympathetic, but more people were gloating.

Especially those men, in fact, they would still be dissatisfied with Prince William, or jealous. After all, Prince William's reputation in the circle was not good, and he had offended many people.

It was just that they did not dare to be retort for the sake of the royal family.

But now, when they saw Prince William lose face, they were still very pleased.

Many people couldn't help but laugh at him.

This was a huge blow to Prince William. He lost control of himself and shouted hysterically, "What are you all waiting for? Kill them! Kill this man and woman!!!"

He began to go crazy, and his face was ferocious, which was no different from the devil. His appearance made those nobles present feel even worse about him.

Not only the nobles but also a lot of people in the royal family and those ministers also slightly frowned. Prince William was really too embarrassing. It not only hurt his but also the royal family's whole reputation.

But no matter what, in this situation, they still couldn't let Tom and Alice go. After all, no matter how much Prince William lost his composure, he was still a prince, and Tom was a man from H Country, a foreigner. As for Alice, she was now treated like a foreigner.

A minister immediately ordered, "Guards! Catch this killer!"

Immediately, a group of guards began to attack Tom.

They wanted to take Tom down directly.

When Tom saw this, he shook his head. He did not expect that he would encounter these things again when coming to the queen this time.

However, for him, since everything had happened, he would not escape. Moreover, the power of the royal family was not enough for him to escape.

Alice had already taken that step today. If he left directly, Alice would be miserable.

In any case, he had been Alice's friend, and he couldn't leave her alone.

So he said indifferently, "Prince

William, you know my strength. Are you sure you want to send your escort here to die?"

His eyes were fixed on Prince William, and Prince William couldn't help but shudder when he saw this.

But he did not give up. Now that he was in the castle, he did not believe that Tom had such a great ability to fight against the power of the entire royal family!

"Guards, kill him!" He gave the order directly.

Chapter 956

Kill him.

He was going to beat Tom to death. To be honest, Tom was not too angry when he heard this, because to him, no matter how noble Prince William was, he was just an ordinary person, an ant.

He just felt unworthy for the queen of Eagle Country. As a powerful Strong of the God Becoming Level and the head of a country, her descendants were such people.

Immediately, many guards appeared from all directions...

No, they were actually armies.

And they were elite armies, even were absolutely elite in the special forces. They were almost at the same level as the agents of the third group of Xuanyuan.

The two leaders were also masters in the Innate Realm. They held weapons and all at once aimed their guns at Tom.

If Tom made any rash moves, they would immediately shoot.

The distinguished guests present had never seen such a battle. Their expressions immediately changed and they all retreated, afraid that they would get hurt.

These were all troops with live loaded guns. If they were hit, they would definitely die here.

Alice saw this scene and trembled in panic. She was so scared that she held Tom's hand tightly.

But she didn't regret it. There was determination and bravery in her eyes. She even stepped forward and stood in front of Tom, saying loudly, "Arrest me! This has nothing to do with Tom. He's innocent!"

Tom was a little surprised by her words. He did not expect Alice, as a woman, to be able to stand out and face death bravely in this situation. This was really something few people could do.

This strengthened his desire to save Alice, even if he would go against the queen.

In fact, the higher you reached, the more you had to obey your heart.

Especially after arriving at the God Becoming Level, you could not do anything against your heart even more, because once you did something against your heart, then a line of scars would appear in your tough heart, and over time, the scars would become bigger and bigger, and finally, you would possibly die!

Prince William was even angrier when he saw that Alice was so reckless. He had to torture Alice after he killed Tom.

The others were also frightened by Alice's actions. But some of them secretly appreciated her. They could see that Alice was the real brave person.

In fact, they had probably guessed that the truth of the matter was as Alice had said. Tom was Prince William and Alice's savior, but in order to brag about himself, Prince William not only didn't appreciate the people of H Country, but also maliciously slandered them. What he did was really too bad and shameless. It was simply an action of requiting kindness with enmity. Even though Prince William was the son of king, they still despised him in their hearts!

Of course, they didn't dare to show such disdain.

"What are you waiting for? Catch them!" Prince William was already crazy. He shouted loudly, and his face looked even more ferocious.

When the guards heard Prince William's orders, they just had to force themselves to carry out the mission.

One of the generals in the Innate Realm waved his hand and said, "Attack, catch them!"

"Yes!"

Then they attacked together.

Tom shook his head. Of course, he would not be caught easily at this time. He hugged Alice with one hand and whispered in her ear, "Don't be afraid. I will protect you."

Alice heard Tom's words in her ears. That itchy feeling made her especially sensitive, and she was immersed in happiness and sweetness!

It was so romantic that it even made her have some subtle physical reactions.

"Okay..." She nodded gently with a sweet smile on her face.

At that moment, the guards had already launched an attack on Tom.

Because it was still in the castle, they did not shoot immediately, but wanted to catch Tom by close combat.

They all had high voltage batons in their hands. As long as they touched Tom, they could electrocute him!

"A mantis trying to stop a chariot."

When Tom saw this, he was very disdainful. He just shook his head lightly and then began to fight back.

He did not take these people who frightened the distinguished guests seriously. He put one hand around Alice, then used another hand to fight back.

He moved quickly, but without losing his composure. With a few clicks, he immediately killed the guards who were close to him.

These aggressive guards were like paper. Tom just touched them, and they immediately fell to the ground.

In less than ten seconds, more than twenty guards were killed by Tom.

It was as if Tom was bullying children..

This change stunned everyone present. They did not expect that Tom was so strong that he was no different from the superman!

Could it be that the people of H Country are really like they were in the movies? Every one of them was a descendant of the dragon and knew how to play Kungfu?

The other guards all saw Tom's strength. It was completely beyond their understanding.

They became nervous all of a sudden.

And they all took out their guns and pointed at Tom.

Prince William was even more furious and said loudly, "All of you, attack him! Shoot, you trash! Why are you still standing there? Shoot him!"

Hearing Prince William's order, the rest of the guards didn't care much and started shooting at Tom.

Bang, bang...

Suddenly, the loud gunshots were incessantly lingering on.

Seeing this, everyone in the Alexander Clan put on a sad and pained expression. They thought that Alice must be killed too!

Even Horton clenched his fists and looked sad.

Alice closed her eyes in despair when she saw that they were about to shoot.

She thought that the gun was the most powerful weapon. How could a mortal body fight a gun?

She must be dying here...

However, Tom's eyes flashed a trace of coldness, and the disdain at the corner of his mouth became even deeper.

Chapter 957

"Hmph, you were overrating yourself."

As Tom finished speaking, his figure disappeared without any harbinger, as if it had really disappeared out of thin air.

Alice also disappeared with him.

Tom was not as fast as a bullet. After all, he was still a human, not a god.

Even if his consciousness could reach such a fast speed, his body could not bear such a pulling force in the high-speed movement.

But he didn't have to be faster than a bullet at all. As long as he was fast enough to make them invisible to the guards, that's okay.

So he started moving before the guards fired. He hugged Alice, dodged, and fought back.

To him, it was easy to handle these guards. These guards were just like children in kindergarten.

He had come to Eagle Country this time to look for the Her Majesty, but he could not predict what would happen. Since something had happened, he would not escape.

Bang...Bang...

The loud gunshots kept banging. This happened in the castle of the royal family and there were so many important people of the Eagle Country in the scene. They were all nervous and panicked. They were afraid that if they would be hit by the bullet accidentally.

And in a confined space, these bullets might bounce back and hit the innocents.

As expected, these bullets didn't hit Tom and instead hit the wall, the pillar, or something hard and bounce back. These bullets actually hit the distinguished guest present. A burst of howl in grief and screams sounded loud.

"Ah!! I was shot!!!"

"I was shot. It hurts..."

"I'm dying, I'm dying..."

"What's wrong with Prince William?
How could he ask his guards to fire in the castle? He is hurting us!"

"Yes! He's still a coward. Such a person wasn't fit to be our prince!"

"Ah... I got shot in the thigh!"

"I was shot in the chest..."

In less than a few seconds, there was a commotion. Many people were shot.

Even some members of the royal family, as well as ministers, were not exceptional. Many of them were shot too.

Someone was even killed on the spot!

Prince William had never expected this to happen. He was at a loss.

For a moment, he was a little flustered.

The minister began to shout, "Stop! All of you, stop! You can't shoot anymore!"

The guards' foreheads were sweating profusely. They realized that it was too bad for them to shoot here. More than 20 people had been accidentally injured by them. This was an extremely bad situation!

Besides, these people were not ordinary people, but big shots, who have great clout in their field.

Tom and Alice weren't shot. They appeared on their side and no one knew how they do it. Tom was holding Alice with one hand, and Alice grasped him tightly. It could be said that Alice was hanging on to Tom.

This was an intimate gesture as if indicating that they were in a close relationship. Alice's chest was squeezed when she was with Tom who had been bouncing and jumping all around. She experienced unprecedented excitement so that her cheek turned red and her heart was beating. There were thrills in her eyes.

Now Tom stopped moving. She stared straight at Tom with obvious admiration and worship.

Now Tom was too man and too handsome. People would have a sense of security with him.

Tom noticed Alice's stare, he felt embarrassed especially now that Alice was hugging him so tight. Alice was so hot that no healthy man could resist her charms. And Tom was a hormonal man...

So he coughed and said to Alice, "Alice, actually you don't have to hold me so tight. I can protect you."

Alice was slightly panting. She looked up at Tom and said, "Tom, you're so handsome. I find that I really fall in love with you and I'm willing to do everything for you..."

"Well..."

Tom felt more embarrassed. He came to Eagle Country and capture the heart of a girl from Eagle Country?

On the other side, Prince William saw that Tom and Alice were still flirting with each other, and he became angrier. He roared out again, "There they are! Kill them, kill this bitch couple. You all trash! You can't even handle a man from H Country!"

Prince William had completely lost his mind. He was so angry that his eyes were bloodshot and his expression was ugly. Now he only had one thought, by all means, he wanted to kill Tom and Alice.

A minister next to him said, "Your highness! Don't shoot anymore, or more people will be hurt!"

"I don't care!!!" Prince William gritted his teeth and his eyes were red. "No matter what, I will kill this bitch couple!!!"

The guards had no choice but to continue shooting at Tom and Alice.

Tom said, "For the sake of her highness, I have tolerated you again and again but you keep troubling me. In that case, you should accept my punishment."

As Tom finished speaking, he launched his attack on Prince William.

Tom moved fast at big steps. In just two or three paces, he was already arrived at Prince William, and then he grabbed Prince William. He grabbed Prince William by the neck with one hand and lifted him up.

The whole process happened so suddenly that no one expected it.

Prince William also did not expect it. He just felt a flash in front of him and then he was strangled. When he looked closely, he saw icy eyes of Tom.

"Do you really think I don't dare to kill you?"

Tom's voice was as from the death god in hell. Hearing it, a jolting was in his mind that his entire body was trembling violently. His face turned pale and he kept begging for mercy.

Chapter 958

Others were also shocked. They did not expect that Tom could break through and capture Prince William alive, who was under the protection of many guards.

However, they did not make a sound and just looked at Tom quietly.

If it had been before, they would have fought desperately to save Prince William.

But after what happened just now, they were disappointed with Prince William.

He was not only afraid of death but also ignored life and ordered the guards to shoot at the castle, regardless of their lives.

"Don't kill me. Please, don't kill me."

Strangled by Tom, Prince William couldn't breathe, with fear and pleading in his eyes. He was so scared that he almost wetted his pants.

As for the other guards, they did not act immediately.

At this moment, Tom had become a devil in everyone's eyes.

You knew, in the history in Eagle Country, there had never been a person who had turned the royal family upside down.

At this moment, they deeply remembered Tom's appearance.

Especially for the people of the Alexander family, it was even more complicated. They could notice that Tom and Alice's relationship was not simple.

And Tom was a powerful big shot. If Alice could be with Tom, it would be a good thing.

Of course, they thought of another possibility that Her Majesty had not appeared yet. If she appeared, could she take this person from H Country?

Of course, they thought of another possibility that Her Majesty had not appeared yet. If she appeared, could she take this person from H Country?

By the way, where had Her Majesty gone? Why didn't she appear? Had she abandoned Prince William?

After all, Prince William was also the representative of the royal family. Being humiliated by the people of H Country like this was also a great challenge to Her Majesty.

But just as everyone was puzzled, suddenly, Tom looked at the door, with a meaningful smile on his face.

Hearing the voice, in an instant, Prince

William, who was frightened and desperate, suddenly burst out with extreme excitement on his face. He screamed out "Ah" sound, looking especially excited.

And the next moment, everyone looked in the direction of the door. When they saw the woman coming in, they immediately felt nervous. Everyone knelt, worshipped, and shouted excitedly, "Her Majesty!"

That's right, the person who was coming was Her Majesty of the Eagle Country, the only master of the God Becoming Level in Eagle Country, and the absolute defender of Eagle Country.

In fact, Tom had sensed her breath just now, so he was not in a hurry to retaliate when he faced the first wave of gunfire from the guards.

It could be said that he had given the queen enough face. He thought that Her Majesty would appear just now, but she remained silent unexpectedly.

So later, he fought back and captured Prince William.

Now that Her Majesty appeared, Tom naturally would not continue to make things difficult for Prince William. No matter what, he would give Her Majesty a face. Besides, he didn't take Prince William seriously at all. He was just an ant.

How could he argue with a nobody?

After letting go of Prince William, he greeted with a gentlemanly smile, "Her Majesty."

Alice, on the other hand, was stunned. When she came to her senses, she quickly knelt and shouted for "Her Majesty."

Although Prince William was an annoying person, he did not affect her worship and respect for Her Majesty.

Ever since she was young, she had heard a lot of legendary stories about Her Majesty, the guardian of Eagle Country, whom she admired and respected from the bottom of her heart.

Seeing Her Majesty, Prince William burst into laughter and pointed at Tom, shouting arrogantly, "My grandmother is here. You're dead. You despicable people from H Country. You're dead!"

He looked annoying. He was not like the highness at all.

Tom's expression did not change, but he looked at him with a mocking and sympathetic expression.

Not only him, but the others present did not have a good impression of Prince William, thinking that Prince William was looking for death.

Sure enough, Her Majesty did not hide her disappointment and anger when she looked at him.

Many people noticed that, but Prince William didn't. He felt arrogant, thinking that Tom must be dead.

Then, he quickly ran over to Her Majesty and complained, "Grandma, you're finally here. I'm almost ambushed to death by this despicable man from H Country. Grandma, you must execute this despicable man."

He ran to Her Majesty, pointing at Tom, and spoke ill of him.

However, Her Majesty did not say anything but looked at him coldly.

As for the others present, they had the same expression.

Finally, Prince William realized something was wrong. When he turned to look at Her Majesty, he found the coldness, disappointment, and anger in her eyes.

Which immediately made his whole body tremble and he realized something was wrong.

Sure enough, Her Majesty immediately said, "William, you disappoint me much."

Hearing this, Prince William's face turned paler. However, he was not immediately out of his mind because he knew that Her Majesty loved him the most. Ever since he was young, as long as he made a mistake, he would admit it, act coquettishly, and kneel, Her Majesty would always forgive him.

With a slap, he slapped himself and knelt. Tears welled up in his eyes and he confessed, "Grandma, I was wrong. I made a big mistake this time."

It had to be said that his acting skills were good. Now that he looked pitiful, and people couldn't bear to blame him anymore.

He was extremely familiar with this routine. In the past, as long as he did this, Her Majesty would definitely forgive him.

But this time, he overestimated himself.

"You did make a big mistake." Her Majesty said faintly. She looked up around, disappointment, anger, and shame appeared on her face again.

These were all her people, but she couldn't bear to see so many of them hurt because of her grandson.

Just as Prince William was gloating, he heard something like a terrible ruckus.

"From now on, your status as Prince was stripped and you will be imprisoned in the underground palace for five years." Her Majesty said solemnly. What she said was an imperial edict.

When Princess William heard this, he was dumbfounded.

Not only him, but also the people present seemed disbelieving.

Chapter 959

William was a prince, the grandson of Her Majesty the Queen. Was he deprived of his identity easily?

Besides, Prince William's mistake was not so unforgivable!

To everyone present, it was ridiculous as if the crown prince in ancient times had been abolished by the emperor!

So everyone was dumbfounded. For Prince William himself, it was even more unacceptable.

He stood there in a daze with a suspicious expression. He felt terrible as if he had been struck by lightning.

What was going on? His grandmother abolished his position in front of so many people and decided to imprison him in the underground palace for five years. was that true?

It could be said that Tom was the only one who was calm and not too surprised.

In fact, he had already known Her Majesty the Queen's decision by the eye contact.

However, he still had to admire her decisiveness and justice.

It was easy to say, but it was difficult to do it.

After all, almost everyone shielded relatives from punishment. It was difficult to exterminate one's family with justice.

Finally, Prince William came back to his senses. He exclaimed, "Grandma! Are you mistaken? It wasn't me who made the mistake. It was the bitch, Alice, and the despicable person from H Country!!"

He screamed hysterically.

Her Majesty the Queen, who was his grandmother, was his greatest reliance and his only family in this world. Even if he made any mistakes, she would forgive him and even shield him. But today, she actually abolished his position and gave him the harshest punishment for the sake of a person from H Country.

Why?

Some sadness flashed across in Her Majesty the Queen's eyes. There were also resoluteness and exasperation!

She stared at Prince William coldly and said, "Because you return kindness with ingratitude. Because you ignore the lives of your people. Because you order the guards to shoot with your determination."

Hearing that, Prince William's body shook a few times. His legs were trembling, and the color drain from her face. Because he could tell that she was not joking!

His lips kept trembling. He wanted to speak, but he couldn't say a complete sentence. Now he was out of his wits, being frightened and panicked!

The others present were also stunned when they heard this. It turned out that what Alice had just said was true...

Even Her Majesty the Queen knew.

At this moment, they despised Prince William and voiced out their dissatisfaction.

"How shameless! Such a despicable person is not worthy to be our prince, nor is he qualified to be our heir!"

"This is a disgrace to our Eagle Country. I agree with Her Majesty the Queen's decision. He should be deprived of his position! Such a person is not fit to lead us!"

"I thought he was mighty before, but it turned out to be fake, bah!"

"We support Her Majesty the Queen's decision."

They were all echoing with increasingly loud voices.

For a moment, Prince William was universally condemned.

He staggered back. His whole body trembled so much that he almost lost his balance. And he was out of his wits and was completely panicked.

Kneeling down in front of Her Majesty the Queen with a plop, he hugged her thigh tightly, and pleaded, "Grandma, grandma, I was wrong, William was wrong! Please don't abolish my position. I won't dare to do it again, grandma..."

He sniveled in an embarrassed manner. How could there be any posture that a prince should have?

Seeing him like this, Her Majesty the Queen was even more disappointed.

At last, she shook her head and pushed him away. She ordered coldly and sternly, "Escort, imprison him in the underground palace."

"Yes, Her Majesty the Queen!"

Immediately, a guard came over and detain William directly.

He resisted desperately, but he was already "hollowed out" by the wine and women. He was no match for these guards and was soon captured.

He went crazy, "Hahaha... I'm Prince William. You dare to get rough with me. I want you to die! I want you all to die!!"

"I am the king of Eagle Country. I am the king. You traitors dare to be rude to me!!"

He was mad. Finally, he was stabbed by the guard's electric baton. Then his whole body convulsed. He froze and fainted.

Her Majesty the Queen watched this scene coldly. No one could see her emotions. Only Tom could capture the sadness and regret in the depths of her eyes.

It was her indulgence that caused Prince William to become like this, which was her fault.

Prince William's parents died early and grew up with her. He was the heir to the monarch of Eagle Country. Unfortunately, Her Majesty the Queen was too focused on her martial arts and ignored his education.

In any case, he was her grandson. Now that he was like this, it was impossible to say that she was not heartbroken.

But it was done. As the monarch of Eagle Country, she could not show this side.

The scene suddenly fell silent. Everyone except Tom knelt down to show their loyalty and respect to Her Majesty the Queen.

One of the ministers, trembling, said, "Her Majesty the Queen, since Prince William... was mad, what's your successor?"

When they heard this question, everyone was staring straight at Her Majesty the Queen. Their hearts beat extremely fast. They all wondered who was the heir to the monarch!

Especially for the earls of the royal family, they were extremely nervous. Filled with anticipation in their hearts, they fixed on her, hoping that she would favor them and they would attain the highest level in one step!!!

She smiled and said, "Yes, it's time to establish a new heir. I have already decided.

Hearing this, everyone became even more nervous and excited!

Especially when Her Majesty the Queen's gaze swept over them, they became more excited.

Tom also had a faint smile on his face, and he was curious about who she would choose as her successor.

Everyone thought that she would definitely choose someone from the royal family, but her next words were greatly beyond everyone's expectations!

Her Majesty the Queen's eyes rested on Alice with a kind and appreciative smile, then she walked towards Alice. "Alice, are you willing to be my successor?"

Chapter 960

It was silent!

There was no sound.

They were all stunned.

They were more stunned than before!

The queen chose Alice as her heir?

Did they mishear?

Alice was not a member of the royal family. She was an Alexander and was a civilian. How could she be the queen's heir?

Would Alice be the queen of Eagle Country when their monarch died?

At this moment, they really suspected that it was their illusion. They couldn't believe it. It was crazy!

No one would have expected the queen's decision.

They even thought that the queen was so old that she was mad.

Alice was also stunned. She knelt on the ground and looked up. She looked at the queen, who was walking towards her step by step. She was the queen, who she admired the most in her life! Alice was blank and couldn't react to it.

Only Tom smiled and pushed Alice slightly. He said with a smile, "Your Majesty is talking to you. You should answer quickly."

To be honest, even Tom did not expect that he would do it. After all, Alice was not a member of the royal family, and she was also powerless. How could she be qualified to be the heir?

Not to mention her will and ability, she had no networking and resources in the royal family. How could she compete with the royal family?

It was likely that Alice would be tragic. It's inevitable that she would be assassinated.

But all of a sudden, he thought of something and understood it. And then he smiled wryly...

The queen wanted to depend on him!

She looked at him with a meaningful smile.

She was so smart and could indicate a lot with a look.

Although she chose Alice, she wanted to choose Tom actually.

In everyone's opinion, Alice was already his woman.

Moreover, if Alice ascended the throne, she had to go through difficulties. With Alice's own strength, she would definitely not live long.

Tom had karma with Alice and he would not stand by.

The queen was visionary.

Although Tom figured out her purpose, he still didn't understand why she did it to invite him?

He hadn't reached God Becoming Level, but the queen had been God Becoming Level for a long time!

After a while, Alice finally came back to her senses. She said in disbelief, "Your Majesty, have you made a mistake? I am not a royal."

Others were also confused. Alice was not a royal! If she was the heir, the country would belong to the Alexander Clan.

And the members of the Alexander Clan were extremely excited!

Horton Alexander, in particular, was so excited that he trembled violently.

But he endured it and he didn't dare to show it. He couldn't help smiling, so he lowered his head. If the queen saw him, she might regret it!

The queen smiled kindly and helped Alice up. She said with a smile, "No. It is you, Alice. Would you like to call me grandma?"

Alice was in a mess and subconsciously said, "Grandma..."

"Good! Very good, my good girl..." The queen gently stroked Alice's head.

Then she said, "Can you be my heir?"

Alice was shocked a lot!

She experienced ups and downs today and couldn't accept it for a while.

It was more stunning than before!

"I... I don't know..." Alice said in a daze.

It meant a lot for her to be the monarch. She had never thought about it before!

Tom realized that the queen had made her mind and couldn't be stopped. What's more, to some extent, it was good for him.

So he stood up and said to Alice with a smile, "Just say yes. It is your mission."

"I..." Alice was stunned.

At this moment, a member of the royal family could not help but shout out, "Your Majesty! It is not appropriate. Alice is an Alexander and is not a royal. How could you choose her as your heir?"

"Yes, Your Majesty, you can't choose her! You are giving your country to the Alexander Clan. Don't do it!"

"Your Majesty, you are impacted by William, but you should calm down. Don't make rash decisions!"

"Your Majesty, please withdraw your order. We do not agree to choose Alice Alexander as your heir, or we would rather die!"

All of a sudden, more and more people resist her decision. Even some people threatened the queen by committing suicide. If the queen didn't change her mind, they would kill themselves.

As for the members of the Alexander Clan, they were nervous. They would be blamed and didn't dare to speak.

If they showed their desire, they would be accused.

Alice was more ashamed and flustered when she saw it. She gritted her teeth and said, "Your Majesty, I can't be your heir."

"Why?" The queen smiled kindly. She held Alice's hand and gave her confidence and courage.

"I... am not a royal. I have no right to be your heir." Alice said dejectedly. It was her thought and she was not playing hard-to-get.

When the others heard her, they began to despise her. She was just a woman and couldn't take the responsibility even with the queen's support.

But they were scared for the queen's next words.

"I am the queen. I say you have the right, and you have it. If anyone dares to deny it, I'll kill him."

She said calmly, but they could tell that she was murderous and dignified!
