

THE VIRGIN'S REVENGE

Chapter 12 Kyle leave's for Africa

The two chatted happily for a long time Stuart's heart warmed up at hearing Bethany's chuckles.

He was glad she was finally oblivious to all the recent poignancy.

Kyle drove his aston villa with the speed of lightening he clenched his fists on the steering wheel different emotions kept flooding his mind.

He reminsced how cold heartedly his dad spoke about killing the girl.

He parked the car and moved out,punching and screaming out his lungs on just how much he hated them all.

His phone vibrated but he ignored the call, he was not in the right state of mind to speak right now.

After venting out his anger he drove to his safe haven, the beach house.

It was always his sanctuary ever since his mom passed on he was glad she introduced it to him before succumbing to death.

Entering the house, the dust scent penetrated his nostrils, it had been a while since he came over.

He reached for his phone and called EHUD knowing of just how worried he was following the fact that he declined his call.

"Sorry I missed your call but I need you to come to the beach house ASAP."

It didn't take Ehud long to arrive at the beach house especially with the way Kyle spoke to him he sensed right away that something was off.

"Hi bro came as fast as i could, he gasped as soon as he noticed the bandage on his fists,what in the world happened to you Kyle?"

"I got into a fight with Leon,anyway it's not the reason as to why i called you, have a seat," he said.

"Still you need to get it checked out."

Kyle heaved a long sigh and said "I'm leaving for Africa."

Ehud's reaction surprised him he laughed as though he had heard him say the most funniest joke but the seriousness written on his face said otherwise.

"Wait you're serious Kyle why would you want to leave Morado for Africa?"

"Cancer, according to my research the number of death's attributed by it are on a rise due to the compromised health care service and my mom always wanted to do it so i want to make her dreams come true."

"Don't give me that look bro, the least thing you can do for me is support me," Kyle said noticing the dubious look written all over EHUD's face.

"It's just the whole idea of you moving out to a completely different continent freaks me out besides you know we share bond deeper than friendship."

"So when will you be leaving?" He asked knowing that it was pointless to stop him.

Kyle was a man of his words once he made up his mind even the devil himself wouldn't change it.

"Most likely the day after tomorrow i still need to get a medical team but i have it under control."

"So what of your....."

"They care less, he interuppted him, just get all the machine's I'll need down the sea port."
