

THE VIRGIN'S REVENGE

Chapter 5 The documen

In some abandoned ware house, agonizing noise was heard and whoever made it was in excruciating pain.

Inside the room was a man tied to a chair his face was all bruised up, his clothes were in tatters drenched in blood, parts of his finger nails were pulled out and it looked like he had been tortured for a considerable amount of days.

"Senator Anderson, you know i can easily put an end to all this pain and misery," an elegant man about six feet tall with an aura of dominance and oppression emerged out of the dark, his presence seemed to tense up every soul in the room.

"You know Senator we could've richly rewarded you all you had to do was sign the document in the senate, grant us your political backing and stay out of our gambling dens but you just had to stick your damn nose in our business."

He moved closer to him squatted superior to him and continued "your meddling cost us major loses,boom a hard slap hit the senator's face and it echoed for the rest to hear, do you know what we do to people like you he paused waiting to see his reaction, we eliminate them in the most devastating way," he spoke the last words like the devil himself.

The senator trembled at his words which caused him to pee in his pants.

"Scarface," he called out and a husky young man responded by handing over the tablet to him.

It contained pictures of a young girl about five years of age.

"I believe this is your daughter Kourtney is her name right," he said with a m alevolent smirk spread across his handsome face.

Upon hearing his daughter's name, the senator writhed restlessly on the chair screaming out death threats but his reaction made the man happier.

"You bastards if you lay your filthy hands on her i swear to the heavens I'll make you pay."

The man grinned wickedly and said "tsk tsk senator may i remind you i call the shots and you are in no position to threaten me."

"Okay i'll do it just please don't hurt my daughter i beg you," He cried out hysterically.

Pleased by his words he said "that's more like it

Scarface bring the document looks like someone's got their senses back."

So they brought out the document and once he was done signing the man ordered for his release "bring the senator some fresh new clothes and get the medical team to treat his wounds we don't want him returning back to his family looking like a mess."

"Please don't hurt my family," the senator still cried out.

"We won't senator all we need is your cooperation anyway it was nice doing business with you remember I've got eyes around you so don't think about double crossing us," he whispered the last words coldly in his ears which sent shivers down the senator's spine.

With that said, the man moved out of the ware house and got into his private jet.

He dialed a number "it's done."

The person on the other end of the phone seemed pleased with the report and it was evident in his devilish smile and tone "well done."
