Part 2 Chapter 67

Dave's POV

I can't believe it, the entire pack was wiped out. Almost, but still all the adults were gone but we found baby Hannes and his brother. They have almost the same scent so perhaps half- brothers?

Then we got six more kids to transport home, I wonder how we will deal with this. Anna seemed happy with one of the girls. Her sister was the girl's grandmother and I think Anna is happy with hearing that her sister was happy in the end.

The children were scared and hungry but I think they felt calm when David told them to stop worrying so much. David seems to be the kind of child that is much more grown up on the inside. An old soul so to speak.

I stopped by a fast food restaurant and got the children something to eat and I now can understand Nora's fascination with food in the castle. The children had no idea what a burger was at all. Scary to think about. Anna suggested pizza next time and the children got curious about that and we started talking about all the toppings on a pizza.

And a few hours later all the children were lo on as we got near to the border. I had to stop the car as I felt my heart rip and I threw myself out of the car.

*Brother, what is going on?* I pushed the mindlink on him and his answer was gruesome.

*Helios is on the verge of death. A rouge lycan pierced his heart with its claws* he answered and I held in the howl that I wanted to release.

I got up and into the car after a few minutes and I noticed Anna was crying while holding baby Hannes in her arms.

I drove over our border as fast as I could, the guards at the gates recognized us and opened the gatès quickly and shut them just as quickly again. I drove as fast as I could all the way up to the castle gate and I looked at Anna in the rear mirror and she nodded at me and I rushed out of the car.

I ran inside the castle and noticed the gloomy atmosphere but I didn't care.

"Melinda." Anna needs help outside" I call at her and she gets up and walks out.

I open the door to the doctor's office and I stop and totally stare at them before banging down my fist into the doctor's desk.

Making everyone flinch.

"Why such a hurry, uncle?" Ares asks smirking.

"I thought" I say and stare at them.

Nora giggled as she was sitting in Helios lap and Helios just smiled like a cat that got cream for breakfast.

"Stupid kids, don't give me another heart attack" I say and go over to Helios and hug him.

He seems a bit surprised over it but I don't care about that right now. I turn to face Nora and I hesitate to ask her but better come from me than the kids out there.

"I know that today has been rough but I have something to tell you, could you please listen?" I ask her and she seems worried but nods.

Anna's POV

To think that my sister Amanda got kids and they got kids of their own. The little girl that talked about Amanda is called Annie after myself. I was so touched to hear that and I promised her that she was not going to be alone anymore. Neither her little brother, Andy.

I take it they liked the letter "A" in the family. Near the border when the kids had finally fallen asleep this pain came and Dave threw himself out of the car so as not to scare the kids. I thought someone was trying to kill me, that kind of pain but it vanished in a matter of seconds.

Dave came back and told me in the mindlink that Helios was hurt and I got scared. I nodded at him to hurry home and also when he rushed into the castle. I tried to hold it together, not to break down in front of the children.

Melinda, Ben, Daniel and Sam came out after Dave went inside and I sneaked out of the car.

"Wait, perhaps Ben and Daniel can stay back. The kids are scared to death of lycans." I say and hold up my hand.

"What kids?" Daniel asks just as David gets out of the car and Daniel gasps.

"Uncle Daniel?" David say and I am shocked

“Yeah kiddo, come here” he says and David walks over to him. Daniel picks him up in his arms and he hugs him tightly.

“I met David when we were at Nora’s pack at the mateball, we got to be friends, he is a funny boy this one” Daniel laughs and David seems comfortable in his arms.

“Well that’s good but what about the rest of the children” I say and point at the car.

“How many are there?” Ben asks and I sigh.

“Eight in total” I answer and he stares at me

“The silver stream pack is wiped out and they even took. children from there, only these ones got away and stayed hidden” I say and they nod.

Melinda helped me get the children out from the car when suddenly a loud wailing noise could be heard. Nora.

“What the?” Ben said and I felt sad.

“Her parents.. I found her parents dead” I whisper and Ben and Daniel growl.

“What is going on?” Melinda asks

“It was lycans but there was something wrong with them, their eyes were blood red and their movement seemed forced as they walked” David tells us and Ben sighs.

“Rogue lycans”. They have begun to kidnap children from werewolf packs again. In a way to experiment on them before they gain their wolves” Ben explained but I just stared at them. Not again.

“For what?” Melinda asked

“They are trying to get a mate to balance up the madness that took hold of them when the curse killed their mates.” Ares says as he comes out with Helios behind him I smile but then I walk right up to Helios and slap him in the face and I hold up my finger at him as he stares at me.

“You stupid little boy. Don’t you ever do something like this again. Next time I will kill you and you will stay dead.

Understood” I say as terror is shaking through my body and Helios just nods.

“Wow, Anna can be pretty cool” David says and I blush

Part 2 Chapter 68

Nora's POV

Dave showed me a photo of my parents and I froze. I thought they looked weird and when Helios saw the photo and hugged me I knew in an instant that something was wrong. Dave told me that he found them like that and that he didn't want to keep secrets from me.

I listened to him but I couldn't understand what he was talking about. I tried to mindlink them but the link was silent like they were blocking me. But at the same time I just knew but I didn't want to admit it to myself. They were my parents, the very people that made me, raised me and loved me.

And now. Now they are gone. Dead. My mom and my dad. I stared down at my hands and I felt the first tear roll down my cheek.

I heard Aurelie and Lillie trying to speak with me and I think I heard Artemis as well but everything was empty.

I took a shaking breath until everything broke down as I screamed out my anguish. I felt a sharp pain in my thigh and I looked around for the source. Ares had put a syringe there and it made my entire world go white.

I woke up later in my room and I noticed that it was early in the morning. Have I been sleeping for half a day? No that can't be right, how long was I sleeping. I move in my bed and I stand up and walk to the bathroom.

I stare at myself in the mirror. I look drugged. My skin is pale and I have dark circles under my eyes and they look sunk in.

My hair looks ugly and really, I smell like I haven't showered in weeks.

I take off my pj and go take a hot shower when I hear the bathroom door open and the scent of both Helios and Ares fills the bathroom. I turn around at them and I am shocked as they look like hell itself. Has something bad happened since yesterday?

I finished showering and went out when Helios gave me a towel, I dried myself just to notice that I have lost weight, you can see my ribs sticking out. There is no way that I have been, sleeping for a day. I look up at them and they just watch me.

I reach out my hand to touch them just to confirm that this isn't a dream and when I feel the tingles on my hand I sigh. It isn't a dream, they are really here with me.

"Nora, how are you feeling?" Ares asks and I look at him.

"Hungry" I croak out, my voice is hoarse and he nods while pouring me a glass of water.

I drink slowly as I feel like I haven't drank anything for a while. Confused, I go inside the room to find clothes, the room is dark so I stumble around to find my closet. I step on something that cuts through my foot and I wince in pain.

The light floods the room and I must blink several times before see a piece of wood sticking up through my foot. Helios takes me in his arms and puts me down at the bed, Ares comes over and he shifts before he takes the wood out and licks the wound on my foot. I can tell that I am not healing properly.

I look up as he shifts back and I gasp as I look around in my room. everything in here is trashed. Like someone has attacked every piece of furniture and there are holes in the walls and claw marks on the floor.

Was this my doing?

“What happened?” I ask them and both of them look away from me.

“I will have someone to clean this room up” Helios says but I shake my head and step down onto the floor.

“Did I do this?” I ask them but they don’t say anything so instead I walk into the closet just to find all my clothes shredded into small pieces. What in the world happened here.

Then I feel it, my neck stings and I touch it just to flinch. I tried to look at the mirror there but it was also shattered. So I ran to the bathroom and both guys followed me. I stare at the marks on my neck. These aren't made from needles. I feel through the bond and yes, they have marked me.

"What happened?" I ask them as I can see them in the mirror.

"A lot has happened since that day, Nora," Ares says and I can see now that both of them have lost weight.

"Tell me, please. Help me understand" I plead with them.

"Let's go down to the dining room, you need to eat" Helios says and holds out a dress for me.

I take the dress and put it on me, it is a bit big but I don't care about that right now.

We walk through the castle and it's deadly quiet here and even the air feels cold. Something is definitely wrong.

We sit down in the dining room and Ares goes to the kitchen to find something to eat, Helios looks sad and I just feel lost. Ares comes back with water and sandwiches for me and I eat slowly.

"Tell me" I say when I have eaten.

“How long have I been sleeping?” I ask them.

“It has been 10 years since your parents died” Helios says and I am so shocked that I just stare at him.

“What? 10 years? How? So you mean to say that you have been drugging me for 10 years and apparently marked me as well.

Where are the others? What has happened?” I stand up and yell, not believing a word they are saying.

“Calm down, Nora. We are going to tell you now. We tried to break the curse so the rogue lycans would stop raping and force marks on too young female wolves. But it didn’t work by marking you even under the blood moon. Your wolf Aurelie died at us marking you and Lillie came forward instead.

She forced the shift and you were forced to stay inside her form for over three years. She went on a rampage and she.. she killed everyone. Dad, Dave, Anna, Daniel, Melinda, Ben, Sam, Hannes, David, everyone died in her hands.” Ares explains and I just stare at him, too shocked to believe anything he says.

“You have been controlling this land ever since and you have ordered us to never command you or subdue you ever again. So now we just have to live with that” Helios says and I rush out of the dining room. I run out of the castle and see that the entire thing is burned down to the ground, the sky is red but everything else is black. Nothing is alive and I just stare at it when both Helios and Ares come out. I turn to look at them when they suddenly kill me with a knife through my heart and the last thing I see is them killing themselves. The world becomes black as I die..

Part 2 Chapter 69

Melinda's POV

I sit up in my bed with a cream from my lips and Daniel wakes up in an instant as well. I look around and when Daniel hugs me I sigh. That was an evil premonition.

“What’s wrong?” Daniel asks but I just shake my head and run out of our room.

As I ran towards Nora’s room I noticed that I woke up Anna as she had opened their door and was looking out.

I knock on Nora’s door before opening it and Helios comes out in the corridor with me. He holds on to my arms as tremble, still in shock of what I saw. The king also comes. down with his brother and Ares comes out looking concerned.

“Whatever you do, don’t give Nora’s more drugs. Don’t mark her because it won’t end the curse, it will only release her lycan and she will go on a rampage.” I say but all I am met with is confusion.

“Wait, Melinda, you talk too fast, we can’t keep up” Helios says. and I nod and try to breathe slowly.

“Well since everyone is up I will go down and make breakfast and a lot of coffee. Perhaps Daniel can take Melinda with him and make sure she puts something more on her than just panties” Anna says and yawns before going down. Just panties? I look down and realize that she is right, I am only wearing panties. Oh, how embarrassing. I cover my boobs and Helios releases me and they go back to their rooms to get dressed.

Daniel guides me back to our room so I can get dressed and so does he. Then we went down to the dining room. A lot of things have happened that I haven’t realized that Anna has switched out the table and all the chairs in here. I take a seat when Anna comes out with a tray and Dave comes out with another one. Coffee, tea, toast, pancakes and fruit. I grab a mug and make some fruit tea, trying to calm myself down.

“Tell us Melinda, everything” the king says and I nod.

“Okay, so I must have linked myself to Nora in some way because I saw everything from Nora’s eyes. I felt everything that she did.

It happened ten years in the future when she woke up and she was marked. Helios and Ares explained that the rogue lycans had started to mark young werewolf girls to try to imprint on them but it didn’t succeed so you guys tried to haste the markings to break the curse.

But for some reason the curse was intact, so marking Nora, isn’t a part of breaking the curse more like to solidify it. Then her lycan woke up and they shifted, Nora got stuck in her lycan form for three years and then she killed everyone and everything.

She commanded both Ares and Helios that they couldn’t command her back or keep her drugged anymore. And so the world was blood red and everything else was black as coal.

But what I did remember was that you kept drugging Nora, after her parents death. So please don't do that. Let her/out on a rampage rather than this vision, please." I explain everything that I say.

Everyone was quiet at first then they started discussing and baby Hannes woke up so Anna walked there to fetch him here.

Helios POV

I cant believe what Melinda saw in her vision, Nora killing everyone and her lycan took over and went on a rampage. I can't believe it, I won't believe it.

But one thing was good: we actually got confirmed that the lycans are kidnapping young werewolf children. Now we just need to get them before they kill them in an attempt to mark them.

But to think that we would keep drugging Nora to prevent her from destroying something, if that were the case then she should have been a threat to the children or something.

"Prince?" A small voice says and I look down to see one of the boys has gotten up.

"Yes, little guy?" I say back and he smiles.

"What is your name?" he asks and I pick him up so he sits in my lap, “Helios and what is yours?” I answer and he smiles even bigger.

“The same” he says and I tilt my head

“What do you mean by that?” I ask confused.

“My mommy named me Helios as well.” he smiles big and I nod my head.

“Well it’s a good name” I say and the boy pouts

“Does this mean that I am a prince too?” he asks but I laugh at him.

“Are you sure that you want to be one?” I ask him.

“No it seems to be a pain in the butt” he says and Ares laughs hard.

“Yeah sometimes it is” I agree with him.

Can we go play?” the little Helios asks me and I smile

“After breakfast” I say and he smiles even bigger.

“You have always been good with kids,” Ares mutters.

“Well if you try to smile more, you can also be good with kids. you know” I say to him and he glares at me.

Ares groans and gets up and walks out of the dining room. I know that he is jealous of me but if he would just stop pouting it would work better.

“Is he your brother? You look similar” Little Helios says and I chuckle at him.

“Yes, he is my twin brother. His name is Ares” I say and little Helios nods and watches Ares before the door closes.

“I will go ask him if he wants to play too” he says and jumps down from me and rushes after Ares.

I shake my head when I suddenly feel a tugging sensation on the bond, Nora has woken up. I stand from the table and pour some coffee and take a toast before going up to Nora. As I open our door I see Nora sitting in the bed.

“Breakfast” I say and Nora looks at me and nods.

“Yes”

Part 2 Chapter 70

Nora's POV

I felt hollow, like there was this huge hole inside of me. I don't know how many days have passed but I feel like I am going on a routine and everyone is walking on their toes around me.

All I want to do is crawl into a ball and cry myself to sleep. But I can't do that, I know that isn't the greatest idea

"Ares?" Can we go back to the knight kingdom?" I ask him suddenly after we had lunch and he looks at me.

"Are you sure of that?" he asks and I shake my head.

“No, but I need something to do, to distract myself. Through my hardest times in life I was training like hell. I fought until I broke down. I don’t want to feel like this anymore so please, can we go back?” I ask him and look up at him.

“What are you talking about?” Helios asks as he comes into the room.

“Nora said she wanted to go back to the knight kingdom” Ares says and I nod at him.

“That sounds good but I can’t come, I need to investigate the thing with the rogue lycans” Helios say and I nod and then I tilt my head

“What thing?” I ask him.

He seems surprised but shakes it off quickly.

“I didn’t want to tell you but I don’t want any secrets between us either. The remaining rogue lycans have been kidnapping you werewolf girls to mark them before their wolf surface as to calm down their own lycans rage” Helios explains and I stare at him in shock and disgust.

“But for the bond to take effect, they would have to.. to..” I say and feel like I need to throw up

“Yes and that is why I am going to find them and rescue the children” he says and I nod my head.

“So the children I have heard from the last few days?” I say and both nod.

“They are from your old pack” Ares says and I look down.

“How many?” I ask and look at them.

“Seven, and baby Hannes is one of them” Helios says and I feel happy for Anna.

“Can I come and say hello?” I ask and they both smile at me and nod.

“Please get dressed first” Ares says and I look down as I am naked.

“I need new clothes” I sigh and look at the closet. Apparently I went crazy the other day and shredded all my clothes. Since then I have been going around naked.

“Yes, do you want to go shopping?” Helios asks and I look up and nod.

“Yes, I would like that” I say and I feel that my hole inside isn’t getting any smaller but a little bit of joy is spreading throughout my body.

My mates never left my side and they have been the support I needed in my darkest days. Aurelie and Lillie have helped me as well. Aurelie forced the shift after shredded the clothes in a way for me to calm down.

Ares found me in her form and he sat down next to us just keeping us company while Helios cleaned up and made food for us.

After that he took us out so. Aurelie could run around in the forest.

“I think Melinda said something about going shopping as well and I know Sam needs to go to her house as well” Ares says as

Helios had walked into his room and just came back with some clothes for me.

“What should we do about our rooms? I mean we cant have three separate rooms if we are going to live together” I say suddenly.

The guys look at each other and smile suddenly.

“The grand wing” they say and I tilt my head.

“Come we will show you” they say and take my hand and they need to steady me as the floor spins as I get up too fast.

Then we walk through the corridors and finally come to a pair of double doors and they open them and I walk inside. I gasp as I look at the size of the wing.

It’s huge. It’s like a smaller house here. The first room is like a sitting area and it has shelves on the walls. Then Ares shows me the bathroom, big bathtub and four shower heads. I look at him confused. But Helios showed me the closet, it was separated into three parts so each one of us had our own part of it.

Then they guide me to an empty room and I tilt my head until Helios points up. I bend my neck and look up at the ceiling. It's beautiful. A painting of wolf cubs playing on a flower field. Oh, it's a baby room. I look at him with a slight blush on my cheeks and then a blue door on the other end of the room and when I open that. It's the master bedroom. A real big bed like they have taken two double beds and put them together. And I saw another door and I opened that one just to come out between the shelves in the sitting area. Cool.

"The wing is built like an "o" shape so everything fits together.

"1

'Ares explains but I am thinking deeply until it hits me.

"This is the tower, right?" I ask them and they both nod.

"Yep, we can move our things here if you want to but you will need to help us go shopping for furniture and stuff." Helios answered and I nodded.

“Perhaps Anna can come along?” I say and clap my hands together.

“Oh no, I was with Anna last time she was in the city. Your turn brother” Ares says and runs out of the wing.

I look at Helios and he laughs at Ares.

“Don’t worry, I would love to go shopping with you. Perhaps we can make a whole day field trip tomorrow. Early.” Helios winks and I nod my head.

I go after Ares when I bump into Melinda in the corridor. She was coming out of my room when I called out to her.

“Melinda, do you wanna come with us shopping?” I ask and she releases a breath when she sees me and then she nods and smiles.

“Hell yeah, when?” she asks

“Early tomorrow” Helios says and we walk down to the hall.

“Shopping trip tomorrow, who of you are up for it?” Helios announces when we see everyone gathered. A lot of groans and whining from the guys but the girls cheers. So tomorrow, it’s me, Helios, Melinda, Daniel, Sam, Ben, Anna, Tristan, Grey, Andrei and his mate.

I don't really like Andrei's mate, perhaps I need to put her in her place later on...

Shopping trip tomorrow!!

Part 2 Chapter 71

Helios POV

I watch as Nora struggles with her loss of her parents. I can feel that she has a hollow feeling inside but still she tries to keep herself distracted as she finds new things to be busy with.

I knew she wasn't that excited about going shopping but I do know that she needs to get out of the castle. So when I asked dad about the tower he thought it was a great idea. I planned on driving to the city with her and picking out stuff to decorate it.

But now I am smiling as I look at Nora playing with the kids from her old pack. Her shock was evident when David came running at her and practically jumped up on her, screaming her name. She hasn't released him since then and it has been about three hours.

I know that all the grown ups in the pack shunned her but the children didn't understand so her company was the children and this young boy, David was someone Nora was pretty close with.

I watch over her as I am suddenly attacked by a small hurricane, little Helios runs up to me.

Nora turns her head and tilts it while looking at the boy.

“Who is that?” she asks and I look down at the boy and I feel her confusion through the bond.

“He is Emily’s son” David say and shrug

“Emily?” Like the alpha’s daughter Emily?” I say shocked.

“Yeah she got pregnant and then they hid him within an omega family. He isn’t of pure blood, whatever that means” David explained and I felt Nora’s rage through the bond.

“That means that they were stupid” Nora says and David nods his head.

“Yeah but I already knew that” David says and Naugh making David turn his head and look at me.

“Are you Nora’s mate?” he asks and I nod.

“Hmm, can you shift?” he asks and I nod my head.

“Do you want to see?” I ask him back and he looks at Nora and then back at me before shrugging.

“Sure” he said in a tone that sounded more excited than he wanted to show.

I walk outside with Nora and the children are following us. Anna's little girl is already outside along with another child and they come over as well to watch us.

"Perhaps we should have made a playground here" Nora says thoughtfully and I nod.

I definitely need to remember that, since Nora seems to like kids and if she wants her own we will need something for them to play at.

We walked to the training area and I took off my shorts and shirt. Werewolves are used to nudity so the children didn't care at all as I stripped and then I smiled and David tilted his head at me.

I shifted slowly so they could see how lycans shift and when I was done I sat down in the grass and Nora wandered over.

Touching my head and she actually grabbed an ear and she giggled.

"I have wanted to do that for a long time now." she says and I huff.

A werewolves fur is smooth while a lycan isn't except for our ears. I take my revenge as I run my tongue over the side of her face and she shivers at the feeling and I laugh.

"Can I come closer?" David asks and I look at him and nod.

He comes closer and when he stands at a safe distance, he starts to circle me and I wondered what he was doing.

*Nora, can you ask what he is doing?* I ask her through the mindlink and she giggles.

*No need, he is studying you, trying to find your weak spot* she answers and I look at David again as he stretches out a hand but stops in the middle of the air.

I reach out my hand with my palm against his and he flinches as he feels my rough pad.

“Hmm, it feels the same as when dad shifts but your paw is formed like a hand but.. Where are your claws?” he wonders and I move my hand away from his as I don’t want to hurt him.

I turned my palm’up and I let my claws slip out slowly and David took a step forward fascinated by what he saw and Nora chuckled.

*Do I need to be worried about him trying to kill me in my sleep?* I ask Nora and she loses it. She laughs so da mn hard that David actually takes a few steps backwards.

“What’s wrong, Nora? What did he do to you?” David asks, worried laces his voice.

“Nothing, Helios didn’t do anything.” Nora says when she finally stops laughing.

I huff and get up from the grass and stretch my body when David comes up to me again but this time I jump away from him. He looks at me with an expression I can't fully read.

"Helios, David's parents were the first delta couple.

He is used to fighting but not really playing, you are confusing him" Nora chuckles and I huff.

Nora starts to take off her clothes and I growl when I see her body naked.

"Dad used to make that sound too when mom got undressed. That means he wants to make puppies"

David points out and I watch as Nora's face gets a deep red shade.

Nora shifts quickly and this time David tries to run the opposite way but Aurelie takes chase and catches him in a few steps. She grabs him by the collar and throws him backwards so he lands on her back.

But he wasn't ready for her to do that so he lands on his stomach and Aurelie looks annoyed so I walk over to them to help him sit properly on her and then she begins walking while David shows a face that fits his age. Fear and excitement at the same time.

"Nora, run"

Part 2 Chapter 72

Nora's POV

We played with the kids for several hours until dinner was ready and honestly I kind of forgot everything that made me sad as the children kept me busy. David was easy to be with as I used to train with his dad so we have known each other for a while now.

However when dinner was ready and we walked inside and were about to take our seats Helios growled and I looked up at him wondering what the problem was about now. That damn girl is sitting in my chair and Grey looks like he wants to rip her head off. I put my hand on Helios arm and shake my head at him and then I walk out.

“Andrei, can I talk to you for a minute?” I call him as I see him and Melinda speaking.

He looks up and then he looks nervous as I am a bit worried as well.

“Your mate.. I don’t know if I heard her name or not but she is sitting in my chair and it seems like she wont move. I know I should handle this myself but please for all of our sakes, talk to her otherwise someone will rip her head clean off her shoulders.”

I explain and Andrei’s eyes widen in shock.

“Is she sitting in your chair? Are you sure, Nora?” Melinda asks and I nod.

will speak to her,” Andrei says and walks into the dining room.

“Melinda, I don’t trust that girl. Something is off with her.” I say and Melinda nods.

“I know I can feel it too and that is why I refused to help with the marking” Melinda explains and I sigh in relief.

We walk together back into the dining room and I am quite shocked at the sight in there. When I went out, she was the only one sitting and my mate was standing on the other side of the table glaring at her.

But now, I raise my eyebrow at them. She is sitting in the king’s chair and both Andrei and Helios are sitting by her feet, massaging her legs like it was the most neutral thing to do.

“Oh there they are. Darling, that is the girl I was talking about before. The one that wants me dead” she says with a smile on her lips and Andrei growls while he turns to me.

*Ares, can you get to the dining room. The girl that Andrei is mate with have spellbound both him and Helios I mindlink and he growls as I send him a mental image.

*I’m coming* Is all the answer I get,

“Seriously, why can’t I have a normal day here?” I ask Melinda and she shrug

“I am actually wondering the same, don’t you have enough of thing’s already” Melinda complains and we ignore her and Andrei.

The door swings open and in comes Samantha.

Sam stares at the girl and I look at her.

“Hmm someone wants to play, please tell me that you know what she is?” Sam asks us and we nod.

“Good then you won’t have any problem” Sam says and shrugs.

Ares storms in through the kitchen and before Andrei or Helios has the time to react he takes a hold of the girl’s shirt and lifts her up in the air.

“Don’t touch her skin” Sam says to Ares and he nods.

“Break it off or I will break your neck this time. I warned you earlier today, witch” Ares growls and she cries and a purple mist surrounds both Andrei and Helios.

Both of them get up and they look confused.

“What the hell did you do to make me do that?”

Helios growls and Andrei looks down at his hands, trying to shake something away.

Melinda walks over with a bracelet that she puts on the girl's arm and she stops crying and Ares lets her down on the floor again.

"Are you okay, Nora?" Helios asks and I nod my head.

"Yes, but I am so tired of all the girl drama and what not" I say and sigh.

"Anna?" I want to eat in my room tonight" I called out to her.

She pops out her head from the kitchen and smiles.

"Is the coast clear now? It was starting to get tiresome with her commanding Helios and Andrei to do whatever she wanted." she shakes her head when the girl suddenly screams. "It burns, take it off me, please. I won't do it again, I am sorry" she screams and begs Andrei but he is too busy to say sorry to me. "I can't be with you" he whispers and look at him "What do you mean, Andrei? She is your mate isn't she?" I ask worriedly. Knowing this can destroy him. "No she isn't, she has used her powers to make him believe it all along" Samantha says and I look over at her. "How do you know that?" I ask with curiosity.

"The scent, all mates have a unique scent that fits together and Andrei and "that" doesn't belong to each other. You, Helios and Ares smell like coffee and cookies. Melinda and Daniel smell like raspberries and cream. Anna and Dave smell like cake and blueberries” Sam explains and I tilt my head at her. “Don’t try to sniff yourselves, you won’t be able to smell it anyway. It is only known to vampires” she explains while giggling and I can see the guys sniffing themselves “So what do we do with her?” Helios says disgustedly and points at her. “Send her back,” Andrei said with a sad voice. “No, please don’t. I don’t want to live there anymore” she pleads but Andrei walks to me and give me a hug, “Sorry, Nora” he whispers and I nod before he walks out. A few seconds later we hear him howl. “Nora, what do you think we should do?” Melinda asks and I sigh. “Put her in that cell and contact her village. “I sigh and Helios nods. “I will take her there” Grey says from the doorway, he has a hand on his head. “I will come along” Melinda says and he nods. “What happened to you?” Ares asks of Grey. “Anna knocked me out” he mutters and I chuckle as she comes out with a pig plate with pizza slices on it.

“Yeah, serve you right. Here you go, Nora and I wanted to tell you that I am looking forward to tomorrow” she says and I was about to take the plate when Helios took it before me.

Ares comes over too and we walk up to my room to eat and I am actually excited about tomorrow.

Something feels like it is calling me.

I sniff the air before I stop and growl and so do the guys. It wasn't the smell of pizza that made me stop but the scent of blood.

The question is, whose blood?

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!
