Part 2 Chapter 73

Helios POV

To think that, that girl was a descendant of sirens, sheesh. I remember reading about the war between the sirens and the vampires. The war was huge and not many were left on both sides.

As we walk back to Nora's room to eat the pizza that Anna made we stop in the corridor as we can smell blood.

Ares nods to me and he goes before us sniffing in the air.

"When will we move to the tower?" Nora suddenly asks

"I thought about tomorrow. Ares and uncle Dave and probably dad will help with moving our stuff in there tomorrow when we are going to the town. I have spoken to Sam about it and she called her workplace, said it is a huge order coming tomorrow so she got two of the biggest trucks. And we will go there with a minivan" I explain and she nods and I can feel her sadness bleed through but also excitement.

"Helios, I don't know how to make it much longer. So much has happened and now with my parents.." Nora begins and I lean to kiss her on the head.

"Perhaps you need to get Alfred, you know one of the rogue lycans that you brought back. He is a psychologist and he can help you" I explain and she looks at me, on her way to protest when she suddenly nods.

"Yeah perhaps I should do that. Will that make me look weak?" she wonders and I take one of my arms and pull her into my chest

“No one will think that you are weak. “I say and she nods against my chest.

“Soo there has been a tiny accident almost at the library” Ares comes back and stops when he sees us in a confusing hug.

It must have been funny to see as Ares suddenly hold his nose so as not to laugh.

“What sort of accident?” Nora asks and Ares comes up to her.

“That kind of accident only girls have once every year” he says and I tilt my head.

“Or in this case, once every month” Ares chuckles.

“But only humans have periods?” Nora says confused.

“And witches” I say and Nora nods

Then we laughed as we walked up to Nora’s room and sat on the floor and started to eat the pizza that wasn’t as hot as they were before.

Nora’s POV

The next morning.

I woke up on the floor, cuddled in between Helios and Ares and I have the biggest urge to pee so I get up and walk quickly into my bathroom but turn and run into Heliós room and use his bathroom instead.

Perhaps I wasn’t so quick as the guys started to shout from my room. But I didn’t care that I needed to pee and if they saw the bathroom they would understand why I took Helios instead.

I finish and wash my hands and are about to go out when I see guards in the corridor and Ares are standing there giving out orders. I stand still until Grey notices me and he lets out a breath.

“I found her” Grey says and stretches up an arm and I raise an eyebrow.

“Here” I say and Ares whips his head towards me and sighs and then he comes and lifts me up in his arms.

“I am not a child, Ares, let me go” I say as he presses his nose into my neck and snuffles.

“Yeah yeah” is all the response I get.

“Let me down. I need to see Melinda and ask if I can borrow some clothes. I am not going to the city in one of your shirts.” I say and he releases me and I walk towards Melinda and Daniel’s room.

“Melinda, can I borrow some clothes?” I call out while knocking on the door.

“Well duh, you can’t go out in just that, you know” Melinda answers and opens the door.

I walk in and she opens her closet and takes out a pair of tights and I choose a cute top. I then get dressed in their bathroom after checking it.

“Why did you check our bathroom first?” Daniel asks

“Well some idiot left a dead rabbit in mine so I was just checking if you got one too” I say and come out fully dressed.

“A rabbit?” Melinda scrunches her nose and shakes her head.

“Yeah but that problem is Ares as he will stay here when we go.” I say and Melinda chuckles.

“I will get ready, let’s meet downstairs then.” Melinda said and I nodded.

Walking out of their room I bump into a fully dressed Helios and he has my backpack with him. Right, my bag tore before and I feel sad about that, I liked that bag.

“You can design another bag and they will make it for you” Helios says and kisses me on my lips. I moan and lean into him and he chuckles.

“Is your heat getting close, Nora?” Helios asks and I blush while shrugging my shoulders.

“Who knows” I say and take my backpack..

We walk downstairs and Anna, Sam, Ben, Grey are waiting for us and we can hear Melinda and Daniel running after us.

“I have packed breakfast into the car already” Anna says and I smile at her.

We all get out and into the car. Ben is driving and Sam is sitting next to him. Daniel, Grey and Helios are in the back while I, Melinda and Anna are in the middle.

We are chatting away while having breakfast. And I watch the outside while I drink tea that Melinda had fixed the day before. It’s a very soothing tea and it makes me relaxed.

“Hey, Sam, can I ask you something?” I suddenly say and she looks back at me and nods.

“How old are you? I mean I know that you are probably several hundred years old but at what age did you stop, well, aging?” I ask and she seems surprised before she glances at Ben and then at me again.

“Not even he has asked me that question but okay I stopped aging at the age of 23” she smiles and I smile back.

“Okay, I thought you looked so young, can I ask you another one?” I say and she smiles.

“Well of course, I would love to be friends, Nora, if that is okay with you?” she says and I smile at her

“I would love that actually” I say and nod my head.

“Do you need blood?” I ask and the entire car becomes quiet.

“No, actually I don’t. I eat and drink the same things you do but I prefer my meat a little bloodier than normal” she laughs and I nod.

“Is it okay if I ask you in return?” She asks me and I nod excitedly

“How does it feel to get a di ck up in the butt?”

Part 2 Chapter 74

Nora’s POV

Wow, to think a furniture store could be this bl oody big! Helios told me that this city is mostly run by werewolves, But sometimes humans could slip past the town but it wasn’t as usual.

We all took a cart and we began loading stuff in them. We went straight for the furniture and I admit, I am lost. There are so many different types and colors and sizes. Like what the hell am I even doing here?

“Helios, I don’t know what I am looking for, it’s too much” I say and turn to speak with him and notice he isn’t behind me anymore. Da mn.

“Anna, help me” I say and she comes to my side.

“Sure, what room do you want to decorate first? Bedroom, office, the extra room or the sitting room?” Anna asks and I stare at her.

“I can take over Anna” Helios says as he comes back.

“Here I brought a catalog so we can check things out and then go look at them, okay?” Helios says and I nod

We take a seat and we look at the catalog, starting with the sitting room. I think purple lounge sofas would be good and a dark table along with arm chairs. I tried making it comfy and nice to sit there as well.

I told Helios I wanted a desk in there so I could sit and sketch and he thought it was a good idea. Anna told me about the curtains and rugs and tapestry. So I took both of them with me and we looked at the

and curtains. Anna and I were discussing colors while Helios talked to one of the floor managers.

He was Samantha's boss and he was nice enough to help us. Samantha was happy too as she was not in the actual store so much. We walked around and then we came to the bedroom and I thought about a deep green color for the bed.

Ben helped me with the colors when I remembered that the best one would have been Tristan but I didn't see him.

*Tristan, where are you?* I ask him in the mindlink and he answers.

*Uhm, sorry that I can't come with you I am a bit busy* Tristan answers and I was about to ask why when I heard someone else

*Nora, I am having wild and hot sex with Tristan right now. Go and do girly stuff and leave us alone, thanks* Isaac says cheerfully and closes the link.

I stare at Anna and she looks worried when Melinda comes up to me as well.

"Are you running a fever Nora? You are deep red" Melinda says and Helios looks at me before laughing.

"I'm fine" I say and start walking.

"So for the extra room, we will let that one be for the time being and for the office.." Helios says and I tilt my head at him. What office?

"Oh, right, I didn't show you the office. It's where we will do the most boring work. Handling the pack. Often we have help from the beta, but I don't think Tristan will stick around for that job anymore.

So our beta is Ben and Samantha, well if she is up for the job" Helios says and Samantha looks at us before she smiles and comes over and hugs me and I hug her back.

"That is settled then. Then we should go around and look for desks, six of them just to be sure. And rugs, curtains, lamps and all that other things" Helios counts on his fingers and I sigh.

"Can I just choose the colors and you take the furniture?" I ask him hopefully.

“Sure, I get it, you don’t like shopping for furniture.” he responds and I nod.

Then I chose the colors and Helios picked them out while I was wandering around. I found some cute figurines that I took and some paintings. Melinda said to restrain from too many mirrors so I skipped those.

“Perhaps a jewelry box?” Melinda said and pointed at me and I nodded.

I took down one that was black but the inside was very large and Anna said I would need it. We walked together to the registry and Helios and the others came as well and paid for everything.

Then the workers started with loading everything into the two trucks that Samantha fixed.

“Well then let’s go shopping for clothes” Anna says and drags me along with her.

Melinda and Samantha came running behind us and then it was utter chaos. We went into an exclusive shop and the customers left the store when Helios came in after us. We had the whole store for ourselves and Helios pulled me down on a sofa so I could rest.

My feet are killing me, I can’t believe that most girls enjoy going shopping for a whole weekend. It’s just so tiresome.

But looking at clothes and accessories was fun, the personnel came out to us with some showcases with jewelry and we could look slowly together. It ended with Helios as he bought almost everything that I touched or looked at so when we got out of there I closed my eyes and held my hands tightly.

“What are you doing, Nora? Let Helios spoil you rotten and then we can have lunch at this fancy restaurant or perhaps a buffet so you can test any kind of food from everywhere?” Melinda says and I open my eyes.

Damn, the food sounded nice so I took her advice and boy. Helios really spoiled me so rotten that it was a miracle if he had any money left.

“It’s okay, Nora. I have Ares card with me as well” Helios kisses me on the cheek and laughs as he shows me Ares card and I groan.

“Good then Ares, can pay for some sexy underwear. You boys can go and take some seats by the buffet” Anna takes Ares card as Samantha drags me away while I am blushing and Helios chuckles.

“Now lets see if we can make Ares broke”

Chapter 159

Part 2 Chapter 75

Ares POV

Da mn, what are they doing? I checked my bank account as I caught Helios stealing my card and then I got a notification on my account. I needed to permit Nora to use it so I did but after that I am hesitant to do it again.

To think girls could be this scary and when I saw what store.. Well, I hope she finds something good in there.,

“Hi, Helios’? Yeah, I saw my account, you are having fun right? Stu pid brother, anyway can I speak to Nora? Thanks.

Hi, love. Yeah, it’s all good we have just finished with your room and Helios. Yeah I am doing my room just now. By the way, I have permitted you to use my bankcard as much as you want. No, it’s fine.

Yeah, I checked the bank but it’s okay. You can’t spend all of my money in one day you know. If you don’t buy another country of course. No, please don’t do that, I was joking. But I want you to spend something on yourself you know.

I know for a fact that there is a store around there with artistic stuff, you can ask Sam, she knows what I mean. I hope so.

Yeah and then you can go and buy a laptop and perhaps a tablet for yourself. Oh those are well things you will need, trust me. Oh, Ben knows what kind of laptop you will need.

Well he is the beta.

Yeah have fun, love. Bye bye”

As I hung up on Nora on the phone I heard a whistle and turned around to see uncle Dave and dad making kissing faces. I shake my head and think that they can be so childish at times.

“Ares and Nora, sitting in a tree and ..” Uncle Dave begins when I lob my pillow at him.

Then we began cleaning out my room and moving my stuff over to the tower. It is a lot bigger there and I think it will be better than running around all over the castle.

Samantha's POV

I really like Nora. She is just like her. I had a friend for about 50 years ago and they are so alike in spirit. Her other mate, Ares called and said that she should buy some artistic stuff and he asked her to ask me so now we are on our own!

Going into the craft shop to look around. Nora told me that she likes to design things like shoes and bags. I suggested clothes for her to design and perhaps she thought that would be fun.

I showed her different kinds of pencils and papers that I thought she could need. She was so excited about everything. She chose about three different sizes of paper pads and pencils both coal and colors.

I bought her a crafting bag so she could store it in a better way and take it with her whenever she wanted. We also checked out a hobby of mine, knitting. She seemed interested in that as well and I promised her I would teach her to crochet instead since she became confused about holding two needles instead of one.

But then again she seemed satisfied about designing for me and I could knit for her, I liked that idea. I think we will become great friends over time.

While we were going around there, this amazing smell hit me and I knew that my mate had found us. To think that I would meet him again. I was so shocked the other time when he and Prince Ares came by with Anna.

Ben and "him" don't look like each other at all but they have the same soul and my soul will always recognize him. I haven't told Ben this yet because I know the shock will be too much to bear and since we haven't done that just yet. He can still push me aside.

Ben talked about this Emily girl that was his mate and how he rejected her. I can't believe even after this long time how cruel people can be. To do that to this girl and be so cruel just because she was late in shifting. I feel sorry for Nora even if I will never show it to her.

Nora is strong and weak at the same time, raised by loving parents, shunned by her pack. Trained harder than she needed and still to be cast away because of one little mistake? And it wasn't even her mistake to be made either.

Sometimes I just want to let my desires play out, give myself over to my vampire side and kill those that have done wrong..

“Sam, are you alright?” Ben is asking me and I look at him. Strange it’s as if the world has become red.

“Samantha, close your eyes and listen to my voice” Nora suddenly says and I think she is silly and I was about to say it when I felt that my fangs had slipped out. Instead I close my eyes.

“Good.” Hold your breath for about ten seconds, that should be a piece of cake and whatever you do. “Don’t laugh!” Nora says and I am thinking about her words. What did she mean by not laughing?

Then she did an awful thing. She began to tickle me and I tried to move away but Ben held me into him as she proceeded in attacking me. At last I couldn’t hold it in so I opened my eyes and laughed so hard that I thought I would get hiccups.

“Noooo, don’t laugh, I said” Nora laughs out as well.

“Do you feel better now?” Ben asks and I nod, feeling with my tongue over my teeth and the fangs are gone and the world isn’t red anymore.

“You know, Nora.” There hasn’t been many times that I can break free from these episodes so thank you for your help” say and she surprises me with a big hug and I hug her back, or as much as I could as Ben was still holding me.

“Nora, Sam, Ben, hurry we need to get out of here” Melinda’s voice comes in a shriek.

What now then?

“Hunters!”

Chapter 160

Part 2 Chapter 76 Nora’s POV Melinda came after us and yelled one word that could set panic in every werewolf. Hunter. The hunters are quite a large number and they are equal to those lycans with royal blood but if they are given an order they have to do it no matter the consequences.- So when Melinda came with the warning I felt panic wash over me, both my own and Helios’. But we didn’t get out of the store in time as Melinda suddenly pushed us back inside and we hid ourselves amongst the shelves in the store. “Shh, there is five of them in total” Melinda whispered “Who are they looking for?” I whisper back and Melinda shrugs “I am not sure.” They came to the restaurant and when they saw Helios they came over and talked to him and then they walked away so Helios sent me here.” Melinda explains and I feel this prickling sensation inside my mind. I open my mindlink as I get the feeling from Helios. “Are you okay, Nora? Did Melinda reach you?” Helios asks and I answer “Yes, we are hiding in the store. What do they want?” I ask him and he sighs. “I am with one of the leaders of the hunters and what I can gather is that there are a criminal that they are looking for” Helios explains and I was just about to answer when.. “Found you” an unknown voice said and grabbed my hair and pulled me out of my hiding place.

I scream as I feel my hair being pulled out. Ben growls and stands up but he doesn't move as the hunter that grabbed me has a gun towards my head. “Aha, stay there or I will shoot her” The hunter say “Helios, are they looking for me?” I mindlink him and let him see what is happening. Helios didn't answer my mind, instead he let out a thunderous roar that made the hunter flinch and he loosened the grip on my hair. In the same moment he dropped my hair, Ben ripped me behind him and Melinda felt my head and I hissed at her. “Sorry, but you are bleeding. He tore your skin, Nora” she whispers and the hunter turns against us again “Are you called Nora? The future queen of the silver kingdom?” He asks and before I can answer so does Ben “Yes, she is now giving me your answer as to why you are harming her or would you rather get ripped to pieces by her mate, Prince Helios?” Ben asks and stretches out his hand and points. I look in the direction he is pointing and there is Helios in his fully shifted form. Shit. But by his side stands another hunter. All dressed in black with a “H” on their chest, the same as this one. The hunter holds his hands up in the air and backs away slowly. Helios comes into the store along with the hunter. The hunter with Helios is shaking his head and removes his helmet and is revealed to be a woman. I tilt my head when I look at her. I have seen her somewhere else. And when she looks at me she too seems shocked. “Nora?” she asks and I nod my head. “Nina?” I ask and she nods as well. “Wow, it has been so many years since the last time, hasn't it, Nora?” Nina say and I go over to her and she hugs me “Wait, wait, I am so confused now. How do you know each other?” Ben asks and even Helios tilts his head at us. “Do you remember when I told you about the rogue attack and the one that slashed me up with a silver blade? Well Nina was the one that helped me heal from that wound” I say and smile “Well technically it was our fault for chasing those damned rogues to your territory so..” Nina says and shrugs.

“By the way, who are you looking for?” I ask and she sigh “A vampire or more a hybrid” she sighs and I see Ben tense up “Why a vampire?” Samantha asks and look at them “Samantha, are you here as well?” Nina says surprised and looks at us. 10310, “Well, yes it so happens that Ben here is my mate” Sam says and takes Ben’s outstretched hand. “Oh my, congratulations, I am so happy for you Samantha. Can I give you a hug?” Nina squeals and Sam comes over for the hugging part. “Why do you believe it’s a vampire?” Helios asks as he shifts back and covers himself. Ben looks through his backpack and finds some shorts for him to put on. *Helios, can I choose some clothes for you?* I mindlink him and he looks up at me and nods *Sure, but not any pink though* he shudders. “Because we found two guys drained of blood and puncture holes on their necks,” Nina explains and sends the other guy out. I growl at him when he glares at me. “Wait, what did he do?” Nina says and holds the guy’s arm. “Nothing” I begin to say when Ben says it right out in the air “He grabbed her hair so hard that her skin tore” Ben growls and Helios growls as well. But what Nina does shocked everyone. She took out her gun and shot him in his knee. The guy fell down screaming his guts out. “Rather harsh punishment, don’t you think?” Melinda said and tried not to throw up “Yeah I know” Nina says and goes to the store keeper

“I am sorry for the mess I created, I hope your boss will let me clean up” she smiles but I know that smile. I look at the shopkeeper and notice what Nina did. I snicker and shake my head. “Perhaps you did a good thing, with choosing this store then” I say to the glaring guy on the floor and he looks surprised at me. In one swift movement Nina takes out a rather large blade and takes the shopkeeper’s head clean off of his shoulders. Honestly I thought vampires would just say “po of” and turn to dust but this is more gross. “Uhh, I didn’t want to see that” Samantha says and shudders. While I look rather interested at what is happening to its body. It’s kind of melting, first the skin, it just melts away from the body and falls on the floor and then the flesh, blood, muscles and then it’s the skeleton that is left. So imagine a black skeleton with all flesh and skin and stuff melted on the floor like a pool around the skeleton. But then again you have to put it on fire to ensure it doesn’t heal itself and return to life. “Hmm, hybrids are interesting” I say when Melinda suddenly puts it on fire. “Yep and so are you”
