

THEIR LYCAN QUEEN BY FOXTAIL

Chapter 161

Part 2 Chapter 77

Helios POV

Of course, I mean why not, Nora should know one of the team leaders inside the hunter organization, what else?

I am surprised by her. I always thought she was isolated in her former pack but for some reason she knows more people than I thought. Even if she met them by coincidence.

Right now we are in a clothing store and Nora is looking at all the clothes. For me and Ares. I am having fun as she looks at all the colors. Sometimes I find her glancing at me but I don't give away that I have caught her doing it.

Nina told everyone to come inside the mall again but the owners closed it early but let us stay so we could take our time relaxing and shopping slowly. I sent Ben and Samantha to buy laptops and tablets since Ben knows what they are for, he will know which ones to get.

"Helios, how about green?" Nora interrupts my thoughts and I look at her and nod.

She shows a forest green shirt, it's really nice actually. Then she takes out a midnight blue in the same style.

"That one is nice as well, but more of Ares style than mine" I say and she smiles.

Oh she is shopping for him as well. Hmpf.

I wander around the store and I find some clothes that I am buying for Nora. A dress amongst other things.

She seems to have fun as she looks around the store and I have discovered that she would rather shop for others than herself.

But that doesn't matter as I like to shop for her even though I know that Anna, Melinda and Samantha had their fun earlier. It's great that she has friends, and I think she will have even more after the curse has been broken but I have a thought that it isn't Nora that should break it. Not completely.

I must speak with Mariah when we come home because something isn't right there and with Melinda's premonition...

And when I didn't even notice it, Nora has paid for her stuff and is now holding onto two bags and I shake my head and walk over to pay also. The girl behind the register looks up at me and smiles but I don't respond to hers and she seems to be pouting but I don't care.

I glance at Nora and she seems pretty amused by something as she looks at the girl. Nora comes over to me and reaches up to my neck and lets her fingers touch my mark and I shiver by the contact. I glance at the girl and she is blushing hard and refuses to look up to meet my eyes.

Females are such territorial creatures and I snicker and pull Nora towards me and kiss her passionately. The girl gasps and Nora releases me and then she leans over the desk and whispers something to the girl that I didn't catch but the girl becomes beet red in her face and looks down in shame.

We walk out of there and run into Daniel and Melinda that are waiting for us outside the store and Daniel winks at us.

"Havin fun and putting the female wolves into their place?" Daniel asks Nora and she smiles and links her arm with Melinda.

"Well, yes, in a matter of fact I do. They should know their place but now. I want to go home" Nora answers and sighs. I can feel how tired she is.

"Wait, Nora" I hear someone shout and we stop and turn around to see Nina comes running.

"Nina, I thought you had left already," Nora says and hugs her.

"Nah, I need to do more cleaning, but here is a gift from me and I have put my number in it. Your mate told me that you're broke so I bought a new one for you." Nina explains.

"I will make sure not to break this one." Nora says and we say goodbye to her and then we walk out.

Daniel POV

Finally we are done, I forgot how boring it can be going shopping. Melinda wished for a shopping trip on her next birthday. I feel like I will throw up if I have to go on another one, perhaps I can make it so Nora and the others can go as well. But if Nora is going then I am going as well.

Sigh, there is no way out of this, is there? Sometimes I miss my old life, I mean when I was a child, running around without a care in the world. That would be nice if it could happen again.

I sincerely hope that I and Melinda will be together forever and ever. I love her so damn much but there is this matter about her lycan. I wonder if she is dead or just dormant in reality. A hybrid between witch and lycan is quite powerful as they can pull on the strength from their lycan and they will be a force to be reckoned with.

As we get the trucks I hop into the front seat in one of them and Melinda comes along well. She smiles and hugs me before she puts on the seatbelt. It's just the two of us now and I am more than happy to be with her.

I watch as Sam and Ben take the other truck. Sam is driving, I chuckle at how Ben is pouting and she pecks his lips before they get into the truck. I shake my head at them but I get one hell of a surprise when I see that Nora, Helios and Anna are taking the minivan.

Where is? Oh there with Nina? The leader of the hunters? Oh sh it, how will this end now? I mean, a lycan warrior along with a hunter? Well, Grey is in for a hell of a surprise in that relationship.

I wonder which one will wear the pants?

Chapter 162

Part 2 Chapter 78

Nora's POV

It has been about two weeks since we moved into the tower and everyone helped us move our stuff, and the girls helped me decorate. The sitting room is absolutely lovely, I love spending time here. Take a book and sit in the lounge with a cup of tea. I never thought I was going to be this kind of person but sometimes it feels nice to relax.

Oh and I have seen Alfred a couple of times now and talking to him is actually nice. He brings me to the forest and we walk around there while I talk about everything and nothing. He is one of our biggest supporters now, Aurelie likes his lycan as well.

But now I am sitting in the library with elder William and Mariah as we have been studying the curse in secret from everyone else. Even if I had access to the witch's memories there is something that bothers me. Helios said the same thing, Elder William believes that I am the loophole of the curse and it might be so..

Magic always comes with a price and every spell or curse has its own loophole. The witch bound herself to the king and the queen but never got their love. I have marked both Helios and Ares and Mariah believes when they have marked me I can break the curse on the female lycans but the rogue lycans will still be affected by the curse.

So we got so far that the curse must have two locks and I am just one key. The other key must be the king or his brother.

And Mariah believes that we must find out which one is the other key before my mates mark me. And with the pace I am releasing pheromones, my heat is getting near. We must work faster.

I must meet with the moon goddess and Artemis because those two must know something about this other key person. But how do I get up to the goddess realm by myself? Should I try knocking myself out? Perhaps run at full speed, head first into a brick wall? No, that sounds just crazy.

"Ah, I got something, I hope" Elder William say and both me and Mariah looks up at him

"well it's just a short thing written here but it's something" he adds and smile nervously and I nod

"A curse cast by revenge can find its purpose on its end" Mariah reads and I tilt my head.

"On what end?" I ask and feel the headache coming.

"Yeah, I am wondering the same" Ares says and I turn around to see him standing there. Never heard the door open. Sh it.

"Ares, what are you doing here?" I ask and smile, while elder William sighs along with Mariah.

"Oh I have known about your meetings since three days ago" he says and sits beside me.

"Why didn't you say anything? You could have helped us you know" I scold him and he chuckles.

"Because I wanted to see if you could figure it out by yourselves. And by the way the witch was crazy and that is why she cast the curse" Ares ads and I flinch.

"No, she was hurt and felt betrayed and.." I began when a sudden thought occurred to me.

"Nora?" Mariah asks and I stand up.

"I need to go" I say and rush out of the library.

I run down the corridors and run into Davè, he catches me before I trip and fall.

"Are you okay Nora?" he ask me and I nod trying to catch my breath www.

"Where is your brother?" I ask him and he can see that I am serious right now.

"He is outside with Helios" Dave says and I nod and continue to run outside. I look around until I find both of them, walking on top of the wall.

"Hi Nora, come and jump up," Helios said and held out his hand to me.

I walk over and grab his hand and jump at the same time. Helios steadies me and I look at him and smile.

"Helios, can you go away please. I need to talk to your father" I say and he seems shocked but he nods and jumps down.

The king sits down on the wall and helps me with my balance so I can also sit down. I watch Helios and I wave my hand and make him walk away.

"Okay, now I am curious, what is it you want to talk about?" the king asks and I look at him and takes a deep breath

"I have been studying the curse the entire week and now I think I found something. I am only one part to break it and I think I have almost found the second part to break it but I need to ask you one thing first, if that is okay?" I say and he nods at me.

"Of course, Nora, you can ask me anything" he says and looks away like he knew that my question was a big one.

"Did you make the witch pregnant?" I ask and he huffs and turns to me and he seems so old suddenly.

"Yes, she became pregnant and yes she did have the baby before the curse was placed" he says and I nod

"Did she, I mean.." I try to ask as I try to organize my thoughts.

"You know who it is" he says and I look confused by now.

"I do?" I ask and he nods.

I try to wreck my brain and it starts to hurt me and I shake my head.

"She never sacrificed her baby but she gave it away for another to raise it. If you believe that the baby could break the curse alongside you then it's quite easy since she is here. In the castle." the king says and I turn my head to look at him and then I slowly look at the castle when I finally get it.

"Melinda"

Chapter 163

Part 2 Chapter 79

Nora's POV

"Melinda, is your daughter" I say and he nods.

"Yes but she doesn't know that" he says and I nod and look at the castle.

"You must recognize her. I mean for real, let her be a princess; and.." I begin to say when he growls

"I can't do that" he says and I look at him.

"Then the curse can't be broken" I say sadly. He looks at me confused

"Do you trust me?" I ask him and he nods.

Helios, Ares, I need your help. Can you come outside? I mindlink them.

"What are you going to do?" the king asks and I smile sadly

"I am going to make you see" I say and he growls higher as my mates walk outside.

"You are not telling them" he says and I shake my head.

"No, they are just going to help us" I say and he nods.

"Nora, is everything okay?" Ares asks at the same time that Mariah also comes out and she looks at us nervously.

"She knows," I whisper and the king nods.

"Yes, of course she does," he whispered back at me.

"Mariah, can you make a binding spell between me and the king?" I ask and she looks at us and then she nods.

"Of course, Nora" she answers

"Good, Helios, can you mark me?" I ask Helios and he seems confused.

"But it won't hold" he says and I nod

"I know but the power will send me where I need to go and to take your father with me I need to bind your father to me" I say when I am interrupted.

Why do you go the hard way instead of asking us? We are your link to Selene anyway Lillie huffs and Aurelie whines.

She didn't know that, Lillie aurelie answer her and Lillie huffs again

Fine help me then I say to them.

Take his hand Aurelie says and I nod.

"Helios, Mariah, I will let my wolf try first, okay?" I say and they tilt their heads at me and I just smile.

"Please, take my hand" I say and reach out for the king.

He takes it and I close my eyes.

Aurelie, Lillie, now I say and they howl together and I feel this burning sensation.

"Nora, open up your eyes" I hear the moon goddess say and I

"Selene, I need your help. I know how to break the curse" I say and she nods.

"Finally" she says and looks away from me.

"King" she says curtly.

"Moon goddess" the king says and bows his head.

"Don't let go of Nora's hand or the link might break. I will take you to see them now" she says and we walk after her.

The moon goddess land is big and wild and beautiful as it stretches so far and yet so short. We walked to a waterfall and I recognized this place at once. I was here with my mates one time.

But now I see another woman that I too recognize. Helios and Ares' mother. She is playing in the water with her daughter. The king takes a sharp breath and I smile as the little princess notices us.

“Let me know when you have talked “the moon goddess says and I nod at her.

“Mate” the queen says.

“I have missed you so much”

“My queen” the king says and we walk together towards them and she looks at our hands

“Yeah, if I let him go he can’t be in this realm” I say and she looks at me and smiles.

“I understand, Nora, thank you” she says and I smile at her. She is so beautiful.

“My love, I am so sorry. It is my fault that you died and our princess died because of me as well” the king says and reaches out his hand and touches the queen’s cheek.

“Daddy?” the little princess says and he nods.

“Yes, my little darling” he says and we sit down on the rocks while the little princess crawls up in his lap.

“Will you give me my name now?” she asks and he seems confused

“But don’t you have a name already?” I ask her and she nods.

“Yes but mommy couldn’t ask daddy if he liked it” she says and I giggle. Such a smart child. I wonder how she can grow when she isn’t alive.

“If you would have stayed, my darling. I would have named you after my grandmother, if your mother would have liked that” he says and now I am curious at the name when the queen laughs.

“We had the same idea then. Why don’t you present yourself?” she says and the little princess looks at us.

“My name is Gaia and I am the princess of the silver kingdom” she says with so much pride in her voice.

“I love you, Gaia,” The king said and hugged her.

“My queen. I have a serious question for you” I say and she smiles and nod

“I know about the curse and about Melinda. I think that Noral is right. Take her as the princess of the kingdom and break the stupid curse, I want to see my grandchildren soon” she says and laughs and I blush.

“But her lycan, we killed it” the king says and I shake my head.

“No she is just dormant, I can bring her forth” I say and the queen nods.

“Thank you, Nora. Or should I call you goddess Nora?” she says and bow her head.

“Goddess?” The king says surprised and I blush,

“The moon goddess shared her powers with me and I am almost equal with her.” I say and he looks to be thinking.

“Do you know what that is called in our world?” He asks and I shake my head.

“High priestess” he answers and I look surprised at him. The very title that Mia wanted.

“A high priestess is the moon goddess’ proxy” the queen clarified.

“So we will break the curse then when you recognize Melinda as your daughter and I will break the curse when my heat begins” I say and smile and blush.

“Yes, and you should return now, Nora because you are creating quite the chaos down there” the queen chuckles and points at the water with a laugh.

We look down and see ourselves unconscious on the ground While both my mates have shifted and try not to go crazy over my scent while Mariah is protecting the king..

Oh sh it

Chapter 164

Part 2 Chapter 80

Nora’s POV

“Selene, we need to get back now” I shout and she appear and gives a big smile

“Yes, I noticed that as well but I need you to do one more thing before you can go down there but please let go of the king’s hand first” The moon goddess says and Inod.

“Please, tell them that I will come back soon” I say to the king and he smiles and nods

I let go of him and he fades away, the little princess pouts and goes back to play in the water.

“Nora, please before you go. Please tell my boys to accept Melinda because no matter what she is their sister and I knew she existed and I had no negative feelings about that. And tell them that I watch over them, always” the queen asks and then she hugs me and I hug her back.

“I promise” I say and walk after the moon goddess.

We walk back to the fountain and I sit down there and are approached by Artemis at once and a gray with black spots over its body.

“Hello” I say to it and it nods towards me.

“This is Aro, he is a great warrior” Artemis says and I look at Aro with a smile.

“Right, there you are. Nora, this will be a different task I will give you. Aro, here is ready for a new life with a human counterpart” The moon goddess says and I stare at her

“But how can I do that? I mean there aren’t any lycans born now, are there?” I ask her and she nods “Actually you have one little boy down there that was born without a wolf or lycan” she says and I think to myself. Baby Hannes?

“Baby Hannes? But his mother was a wolf?” I say confused and she smiles.

“Yes but if you look at her parents then you will find a long line of lycans. It was highly unusual for lycans to mate werewolves but not anymore. But still Hannes was born without a counterpart and I think Aro here will fit nicely” she explains and I slowly nod

“I wish to be around you” Aro said and I looked up at him and smiled.

“Thank you, Aro. Okay how do I do this?” I ask the moon goddess and she smiles.

“Well think of Hannes, how he smells, his laugh, how he looks, think of him entirely. It should be easy as you have met him. And then you touch Aro on his chest, over his heart and when you feel his “soul” all you need to say is “Hannes and Aro, connect”, do you want to try?” She explains and I nod.

Aro crouches next to me and I turn so I could look at him and I feel his aura and then I close my eyes, picturing Hannes. All those times that I held him, the feeling of him. I felt like he was in my hands as they started to get warm.

“Good, Nora, now open your eyes” I heard the moon goddess guide me.

I slowly open my eyes, still concentrating on my task and see a light orb floating above my hands. When I looked at it I could see Hannes and hear his laughter, smell his scent. Then I felt for Aro’s aura and I looked up at him but he was staring at the orb.

I put my hand on Aro’s chest, above his heart and I felt it and the orb matching each other. I felt Aro’s soul, how excited he was, how happy he seemed and how much he adored the little boy.

“Hannes and Aro, connect” I said gently but with a bit of command behind it.

At first nothing happened and I looked up at Aro’s eyes and he was staring at mine then a white blinding light surrounded us. It was warm and I could see Hannes’ memories. Ares, Anna, Melinda, myself, his cruel father that took him away and then the rogue lycans.

Then I saw Aro and him together in the future. Their first shift, the first run, how they protect their mate and their children. They belonged together.

The light dimmed and the little light orb was gone and I wondered if I had failed when I heard it, all the lycans here howled.

“They are happy, you know. You succeeded in your first try. And when you have broken that troublesome curse you will help me with this task. Connecting lycans to their human counterparts.” the moon goddess says and kisses my forehead

“Time for you to go back, I will see you soon again, my child” she says and before I can say anything I am plunged back.

I open my heavy eyes and look up. Oh, I am in our bed. I turn my head to see both of my mates on each side of me and I smile.

“Good, you are finally back, now it’s our turn” Ares growls and I feel the heat in my lower regions.

“Yes, now I am yours, always” I say and grab him and kiss him hard.

I feel Helios moving his hand up my side to my breast and he palms it hard and I moan. While I do that Ares plunges his tongue inside my mouth and we dance and play.

I let him have it when Helios suddenly bites into my nipple and I squirm and then he licks gently and sucks on it. Soothing the pain. His hand travels down to my pu ssy and he cups it.

I wonder when they undressed me? Never mind.

Helios puts in three fingers and I hear how wet I am. He is pumping his fingers in and out hard and fast and I squeal as the noise becomes louder and both of them attack my nipples when I feel myself explode and Helios chuckles.

“Your first squirting or gasm was mine to give” he teases and I glare at him. That was nothing to satisfy my need.

I push him down on his back on the bed and climb on top of him and I grab his di ck and position myself over him and I sink down slowly. Helios grips my hips and he slams me down making me moan as I feel myself come again.

Then I start riding him, I roll my hips against him and he takes his thumb and plays with my cli t. I moan even more now as he pinches it lightly and I begin to massage my own breasts but I am getting frustrated. The friction isn't enough and I look at Ares and he seems to understand my problem.

I lean down on Helios and Ares positions himself behind me but he doesn't move and I can feel his worry through the bond.

"Don't worry Ares, she is so mo che will not get hurt. Just do it" Helios says and I growl when Ares doesn't move fast enough.

I begin to sit up when Ares shoves me down on Helios chest and then he with one thrust drives in his di ck inside me along with Helios. Oh, holy sh it!

Chapter 165

Part 2 Chapter 81

Helios POV

We had a tough day when Nora and our dad suddenly fainted and then Nora's heat came smashing in full force at us. We had a big problem in keeping us in check but with some help we did and when dad woke up we could take Nora back up to our room.

We undressed her and put her on the bed while I took a shower, a very cold shower. After about three hours she woke up and in an instant we attacked her. Her scent was driving us mad.

She rode me like I was a wild horse but she wasn't satisfied with just that so Ares put his dick in the same hole as I was in and we both tensed up but Nora didn't notice. This feels awkward, really awkward. Nora squeezes us so Ares can't slip out either and I lean up towards her and lick at her neck so she relaxes and Ares slips out.

"Don't ever do that again" I mind link him and he nods, clearly disgusted as well.

Nora whines at the loss of Ares inside her when he chuckles. I reach down to her butt and stroke her butt hole before slowly putting one finger inside. She moans at the intrusion and I feel Ares putting some lube there. I pull out my finger and he squeezes some more on my fingers.

I slowly put in two of my fingers, stretching her and she moans even louder. Ares takes over and stretches her while I play with her nipples and her clit. I love the sounds that she makes and she begins to move her hips against mine when I see Ares pull out his fingers.

He positions himself behind her and pushes against her and she gasps when he slowly comes inside of her. I feel that she has this overwhelming feeling inside of her and she needs a second to adjust herself and then she surprises us by moving along with us.

Ares moves with her and meets her thrusts and they move in sync and I can feel that she is on the verge of another orgasm. But she can't by herself and so I meet Ares' eyes and nod at him. I move my legs and hook them on hers and I raise my hips so she falls down on me and then Ares thrusts into her harder.

It doesn't take long until she screams as the orgasm washes over her. She collapses on top of me and Ares pulls out and Nora rolls down on the bed beside me, breathing hard. But she can't stay awake and she falls asleep.

I pull myself out of her and Ares goes to fetch some cloth to clean her up with.

"You know that the second part of her heat is coming soon?" I say and he smirks at me.

"I am waiting" he says

Nora's POV

I had totally forgotten how exhausting it can be with the heat. And it comes in three steps as well. That was just the first step and now onto the second step.

I remember Artemis when she asked if she could eat Helios S&M play. I almost choked when she asked it but I am curious as to why he is holding himself back.

I get up from the bed and walk into my closet while the guys are resting on the bed. I go to the bag with all those underwear that the girls helped me choose and I take out this little red thing that I promised Anna I would wear.

It's like a mini dress, but you can see my skin through it and my nipples are poking out as there are small slits over there and I decide to not take the panties as they don't have any clrotch anyway so it seems pointless. But I put the cuffs on each wrist and ankle, they are soft lace and they don't hurt me but I guess I look more daring and sy now. I hope.

I walk out of the closet and crawl up on the bed and sit down on my knees and wait for them to wake up. Five minutes later and they still haven't woken up, stupid guys. I am losing my nerve here, idiots.

But I do get some reactions even if they are asleep doesn't mean their dicks are but I can't choose which one. Ares' dicks are long and Helios' dicks are thicker but they do look worthy of a lick both of them.

I reach out my hand for Helios at first but then I get a better idea. I turn my butt on Helios and I lay on my stomach and touch Ares' dick first. I touch his shaft, it's warm and pulsating and I lick at the top of it. Ares groans in his sleep but doesn't wake up, I take his dick inside my mouth and start sucking.

I move my hand up and down along his shaft while bobbing my head up and down and at the same time I let my tongue swirl around his head and I put my tip inside and I almost choke as Ares raises his hips and his dick hits me in the back of my throat.

I release him and coughs and I feel tingles on the inside of my legs until I am ripped backwards over the bed and I am staring right into Helios' black eyes.

"Mine" he growls and I nod while sitting up.

"Come and play then" I say and move my legs apart so he can see my wet pussy.

Helios shoves me on my back and without much effort he moves to stand above me in a 69 position. I have his dick directly above me and I reach out my tongue and lick him there and he groans by it. I feel happy that I aroused him and I try to touch him when he suddenly puts his knees on my hands and growls.

"No hands this time, Nora"
