

THEIR LYCAN QUEEN BY FOXTAIL

Chapter 166

Part 2 Chapter 82

Nora's POV

I let Helios be in charge even if it was a struggle in the beginning as I couldn't move my hands. He dipped his head down to my pussy and I tried not to squirm as he blew on it gently before licking between my folds.

I was about to scream when he sucked my clit into his mouth but he dropped his hips and I got his dick inside of my mouth. I felt him laugh as he trembled, but I didn't give up. I let my teeth gently graze the skin on his shaft and he groaned.

I knew that I didn't hurt him but I guess it wasn't pleasant either as he hissed when I licked at the same place. I let my tongue swirl around him the best I could before I took a deep breath through my nose and relaxed my throat so I could take him even deeper. Then I started to work, I raised my head and lowered it again until I found a rhythm that made Helios groan.

I really wanted to free my hands but I couldn't so instead I sucked and bobbed my head up and down while Helios groaned and in one moment he raised his hips again so his dick left my mouth with a "pop" sound.

I tried to reach up for him again but I couldn't so instead I licked the tip of his dick and then I tried licking his balls. Weird sensation but why not.

Helios continued licking and sucking on my clit and I felt another orgasm coming fast and he pushed me over the edge when he put his tongue inside of me. The or gasm rolled out of me like a giant wave.

Helios licked up all the juices that spilled out of me and I bucked my hips on his tongue as I chased my or gasm. Instead Helios sat up and looked at me and shook his head while sucking on his fingers that I could see my own juices.

He turned around and straddled my waist and smiled dangerously. I gulped at the predator's look in his eyes when I felt Ares staring at us. I look at my other mate and he seems. amused by the position that I am in right now.

Helios growls when he stretches out his hand to touch me and

A Ares puts his hands up in surrender and instead sits down and watches us and I pout. I wanted him as well but Helios just chuckled at me.

Helios grabs his di ck and then he puts it against my lips but I refuse to open my mouth. Two can play this game but as I don't open my mouth Helios smirks and I glance at Ares but he isn't there anymore.

I try to look around but I can't see him when I suddenly feel a slap on my bare pu ssy and I gasp. Helios tries again to put his dic k inside my mouth but I close it again and shake my head. He slapped my pu ssy again but this time I bit my lip so as not to gasp.

Then I feel Ares and I know it was him that had slapped my pu ssy and I glare at Helios but he just takes it as a challenge as he pinches my nose and at first it didn't understand why but now I do. I struggle against him but I lose as I open my mouth and take a deep breath and Helios puts his di ck inside my mouth.

But he is completely still and I am wondering what he is about to do when I feel Ares thrusting inside of me and I moan around Helios di ck. Helios chuckles as he comes closer to my head and he grips my hair and helps me set the pace as I am sucking on his di ck.

Helios is gentle but I know that he is in control and I let him have it completely as I am curious as to what he will do and I am also so da mn attracted to his dominance.

I feel him on the verge of coming and by the feeling from him it seems he has forgotten that I don't like it but I relax my throat instead and swallow him down and as he comes I try to breathe and relax. He pulls back out and he stares at me as I cough and choke afterwards but da mn that was hot.

Ares picks up his pace when he suddenly pulls out and Helios flips me over to my stomach and spreads my legs. I feel Ares as he puts his di ck against my p ussy and once again in one single and very hard thrust he is inside of me. I moan at the feeling.

This position feels deeper and more, just more. I love it. I feel Helios smacking my butt as Ares grabs my hips and thrust in hard and I moan at the same time as he groans and all you can hear is flesh hitting on flesh. And when Ares comes he does it in one full blow and I thought I saw stars in front of Ares slips out of me and I lay there breathing hard when Helios suddenly lifts me up and I was about to tell him no when he just chuckles at me.

"Let's take a shower or perhaps a bath" he says and I nod. Too tired to lift a finger. I am wondering how the third stage of the heat will be. I just want to rest now.

But no Helios takes me to the bathroom and while in there he turns the water on in the tub before he sits me down on the toilet and then he groans and I look at him.

“Ares, I think your money went in the right direction” Helios calls out to him and Ares comes in and whistles at me.

I look down and then I just smile at them

“This is nothing, you should see the rest of them”

Chapter 167

Part 2 Chapter 83

The king's POV

I have to tell Melinda that she is my daughter to break the curse but otherwise I wouldn't have done that. It's not like I don't love her but it's just that after everything that has happened since her mother created the curse. I couldn't look at the girl, I was afraid that I would hurt her so I gave her to Mariah to care for.

Mariah didn't even seem surprised like she was waiting for Melinda. I watched over her as she grew up but at the time when her lycan should have come forth, she didn't ask me and Mariah killed her off when Melinda was just a baby.

I couldn't, even as she grew older, bring myself to take her in and give her the title of “princess” even though it was hers. My first born daughter should have been given that title, Gaia, but I lost her and so I gave Melinda up as well.

She is not a substitute for her. I do care for her and I am happy that she found her mate in Daniel. Daniel is a good guy and I know he will take care of her. But if Nora now is right and by giving Melinda the title of princess, accepting her as my daughter will break the curse I guess I will have to take that.

I just hope that Helios and Ares will see past my errors this time. I was wrong to give Melinda up, I can see that now but I was so hurt that time. My mate and daughter died just because I refused to make the witch a queen. It is all my fault and now I will have to take the consequences and admit my mistakes.

Bow down to a witch, to my daughter and let everyone see that even I have emotions and I am not controlled by them. I walk downstairs to find Melinda and Daniel, we have effectively sealed off the tower as Nora's heat hits us all like a cannon blast.

I look around in the hall but no one is here so I go to the dining room but even that is empty except for one little girl. She must be Anna's relative, she reminds me of her and I smile gently as she sees me.

"It's okay sweet girl, do you know where the others are?" I ask her and she blinks and nods.

I have missed the bustling life inside of the castle but ever since my brother and Anna brought the children here I can enjoy it once again. The children from Nora's former pack are all adorable and even little Helios is funny.

I follow the girl outside and down to the training area where the warriors seem busy with building something. I tilted my head to try to see what they were building.

"It's a playground or it will be a playground when it's finished" Melinda says as she comes with Mariah to stand beside me.

"Why?" I ask and stare at them

"Nora's idea and the warrior thought it would be a good idea to combine a playground and a training ground so it's a combo with play things and training things." Mariah explains and I nod my head.

"So what brings you out of your stinky office?" Mariah asks and Melinda gasp

"Mom, you can't just say stuff like that" Melinda says and groans and I chuckle

"But it does stink" Mariah says and smile

"Yep someone left something nasty in there but I came out since I wanted to talk with you" I say and look down at Mariah and she meets my eyes.

She sighs and nods her head.

"I knew this day would come, when do you plan to do it?" She asks and Melinda seems confused

"After Nora is marked and that part of the curse is broken" I say and Mariah nods while Melinda seems to think before she suddenly throws up a shield over our heads.

I look up and see the glass shards falling at us at a blinding speed before my son comes flying through the window. Helios shifts in the air and lands relatively nice, I hope he didn't break any bones.

“Did she get tired of you already?” I ask him and he growls.

“Damn, Aurelie threw me out of the window” Helios says and shakes his head before stalking towards the doors again.

“I wonder how Nora is able to keep up, that girl needs some rest” Melinda says and giggles.

I agree, both Helios and Ares are a handful each and she has both of them. Oh how I wonder what the future holds in play for them.

Ares POV

Nora’s second heat died down and Helios helped to dry her after the bath and put her on the bed while I sneaked into her closet and while looking around I found a bag with a particular brand in it.

I took it with me out in the bedroom and started to look through it and Helios came to look as well.

“I like this one” Helios says and holds up a black lace set. I nod but when my eyes caught the purple set I growled.

I pulled it out and Helios eyed it and then looked at Nora and nodded his head. It is a body with holes for the nipples and her pussy. It’s nice to touch and I smile when I stroke the fabric. It is made of satin, silky and nice. I want her to put it on and show it to me.

I put it on the bed and Helios chuckles when Nora suddenly shudders and her scent gets stronger all of the sudden, I feel my lycan stir inside of me.

Nora sits up on the bed and her eyes are completely black. Here comes round three. I watch as he picks up the satin body and she smiles while walking into the bathroom and I put the bag back in its place in her closet.

I sit on the bed and notice that Helios is gone but I finally get it when I hear glass shatter and then I hear Helios swear on Nora’s name. I don’t care what he did as the bathroom door opens and Nora comes sliding out in the purple body.

Her nipples are standing out and her scent is strong in the air as she glides over the floor towards me. She puts each foot beside my legs on the bed and she holds on to the bed frame as she stands over me. With just one foot on my chest she pushes gently as I fall behind and then she starts to massage her breasts, playing with her nipples.

Letting her hands slide down to her pussy while she looks me in the eyes all the time. I move my hands and caress her legs and she shivers by the feeling.

“Please, Nora, sit”

Chapter 168

Part 2 Chapter 84

Nora's POV

I lowered myself on Ares' face slowly so he could have the time to taste me before Helios came back. I was highly amused by Aurelie as she threw him out of the window, telling him that she and I were in control now.

Right now we are absolutely in control and Ares seems to enjoy the very idea of me being in control over him. I rub my pussy against his face as I try to reach my orgasm but it isn't enough. Ares is good with his tongue but right now I need more.

I feel that I am trying to control Aurelie as well as Lillie as they are trying to push their way through, it feels like I will lose control over myself. I growl and my claws slip out and I dig them inside of my thighs and Ares stops licking me as he sniffs in the air. He can probably smell my blood in the room.

I get off of him as I start to claw at my skin, Aurelie trying to force the shift and I am afraid of what she is going to do. Ares tries to reach for me but he stops as the doors are being slammed open and Helios lycan comes barging in.

He walks fast over to me and rips me towards him, taking my hands into his one hand and growls in my face. It is a very demonic growl and I tremble but not in fear, more of anger that my own mate is trying to make me submit as his aura pushes out and I gasp for air.

Lillie struggles to come forward and I feel fur sprout from my skin and I cry out as Aurelie forces the shift. My shoulders pop out of place and try to relocate themselves and Helios drops me onto the floor.

Both Helios and Ares watch me with horror through the bond when I feel the bond snap, Lille shoves Aurelie down and forces her own shift. It hurts all over my body as they are both fighting for control and I scream out my agony as I feel my bones break again.

I see my hands shifting to Aurelies paws but my legs get longer and my back as well, the fur doesn't sprout out normally, leaving some patches with just skin and I hear Ares gasp while Helios whines when it's finally over.

I try to stand on all four but I am shoved forward and I faceplant into the floor with a loud cracking noise. What the hell? I try to howl but instead it comes out as a scream.

"What is happening?" I ask Ares as I lock eyes with him.

He is pale as he looks at me and he looks like he is close to throwing up. What is happening, I can hear running footsteps and the door is opening again and I can smell Melinda, Mariah, Daniel, Dave and the king.

All of them gasp and now I am really wondering what the hell is happening.

"Go get Samantha, now" Dave says and I feel Daniel is going to fetch her.

"What can she do?" Ares asks with a tremble in his voice.

"Much more than we can right now. Can I approach her?" Dave asks and I see Ares nodding and Helios is.. I don't know where he is.

"Helios?" I ask and Ares shakes his head.

"He fainted as he tried to pull the pain from you" Ares says and I look at him again and I can see that he tried as well but with Helios in his lycan form he had it easier to pull on it.

"Don't even think about it Ares" Melinda warns him and I am wondering what he was thinking about doing.

I try to move my front legs or arms and I stand up right as Dave comes into my vision. He looks concerned and then I hear Samantha's voice floating in the air before it stops completely and I just knew that she could see me.

"Oh my goddess." I have seen this once before but .." Sam is saying and she approaches me as well.

"Nora, did you know that you have both a werewolf and a lycan inside of you?" she asks me and I nod.

"Lillie is my original lycan and Aurelie is my first lycans daughter, she is a wolf, the first wolf" I explain and I am wondering how my voice sounds so normal.

When other lycans talk it sounds like they have gravel inside of their mouth and that they are underwater at the same time. But my voice is steady like I never even shifted.

"Okay, so you have two strong ones inside of your mind. They are battling out to see which one of them is stronger and since you are equally strong as they are. You are stuck in the middle of a power trip." she says and all I feel is a headache coming up with all the confusion I am feeling so I just stare at her.

"Okay, let me be perfectly honest and please don't hate me afterwards. Your legs, butt and back are all lycan. Your arms, breast, stomach and neck are werewolves or more like super wolf. But your head is your own, human" she says slowly and at first I just stare at her and then I look at Dave and he looks away and I turn to look at Ares and he has tears in his eyes.

*Aurelie and Lillie, what the hell is happening?* I ask them both and I feel their guilt smash into me.

*Sorry, Nora but we are equally strong, all three and when we tried to shift we got stuck.* Aurelius whimper.

I started crying and Ares tried to comfort me when I started to shake.

“Please can’t you just command me to shift back?” I turn my head and glance at the king and he stares at me and shakes his head.

“No because you are so much stronger than me already” he says and I begin to sob

“I don’t want to stay like this” I cry and Mariah comes over to me.

“Nora, sweetie, you need to listen closely now. Your wolf and lycan need to melt into each other. Let them bleed into one another, let them become one” she says and I look at her

Chapter 169

Part 2 Chapter 85

Nora’s POV

I hate this, I am a freak, I have always been one and I will always be. Aurelie and Lillie are equally strong and so am I and with the goddess powers I can feel both of them.

Mariah and Samantha try to explain that Aurelie and Lillie need to accept each other so we can shift back. But a lycan is possessive and really stubborn and Aurelie is filled with so much pride that it is hurting me.

I close my eyes and let their voices guide me when I enter my own mind and with the goddess power I set up a meeting place of sorts. Aurelie and Lille are there as well and I shake my head at them.

*Both of you stop it right now* I say and both stop and look at me

*But Nora, I am your lycan I should have been by your side since the day you were born* Lille huffs and Aurelie growls

*No, I don't want to hear any of your excuses. It is enough now. Either accept each other or I will banish you from my mind, forever* I threaten them and they actually shut up.

"Good, Nora." Now you just need to take control over them, show them both which one of you is in control" The moon goddess voice comes and I turn to see her standing there with Artemis by her side.

"Yes, but how." Lillie' is jealous because of Artemis and Aurelie is defending her mother." I say with a sigh

"Well you have already got to the point where you know what is troubling them. Now you just need to put your foot down and tell them what place they have" the moon goddess giggles and I look at Aurelie and Lillie again

Sure I can make them submit and shove them back in my mind, a lot of werewolves do that to their wolves but I don't want it to be that way.

I walk over to Aurelie and Lillie, I stand in front of them and I force them to submit by letting out the powers that I have.

*Submit* I say to both of them and Lillie growls and claws at herself so I concentrate more on her and even though it is killing me she finally submits.

*Weakling* Aurelie laughs at her and Lillie growls at her where she is kneeling and showing her neck at me.

I turn and put out my hand towards Aurelie and she takes a step backwards.

*Submit* I say to her and she whines. She put her tail under her stomach as I released my powers on her, forcing her will to bend in the way I wanted her to.

She growls and tries to break my powers, she tries to attack me but Artemis is faster as her aura comes easy and I turn to look at her when I feel her aura smash into me and I gasp and lose my hold over Aurelie.

I feel Artemis' aura smash into me, not just my mind but into my entire being, I feel it blend inside of me and I know by pure instinct that I can use it on my own.

I turn to face Aurélie again and this time I smile sadly and hold out my hand again and release Artemis' aura that is mine now and force Aurelie to submit.

*Submit* I scream at Aurelie and she tries to fight my aura but she whimpers and whines as my aura is more powerful than her and I can see that I am hurting her but I can't let her control me.

Lillie growls at her and I glance at her when an idea comes to me, since Lillie has submitted to me already I borrow her strength and put weight on my aura and Aurelie howls in pain. I hate that I am forced to break her will but she fights with all her might.

"Keep it together Nora, you aren't hurting her, she is just so damn stubborn just like her mother" the moon goddess says and I nod and take a deep breath when I hear Ares' voice.

"Keep going Nora, you can do it, I love you" Ares says and I pull on my bond to him. He lends me his strength and this time Aurelie whelps and I look at her

She is laying on her stomach, clawing the ground as she is fighting my command when I realized that I am hesitating and she can feel it. I think about all of my friends, my mates, the kids and then I think about myself and I put away all my worries and let the love I have received and given, let it fill me up.

I opened my eyes to see Aurelie and this time put all pressure on her.

*Submit* I say and she doesn't say anything, she just bares her neck at me and I keep holding her there until I see her give up at last and I drop the command.

"Well done Nora, it took me about a week to make Artemis submit to me" the moon goddess says and I nod.

Then I walk so I stand between Aurelie and Lillie and I crouch there. I put a hand on Lillie's cheek and the other hand on Aurelie's cheek and then I speak to them

*I made the two of you submit so you will listen to me. I love both of you and it is time that both of you accept each other. Not only for me but for yourselves as well. Submit to each other and accept each other and become one.. with me* I say and both of them look up at me in surprise

"Nóra?" what are you doing?" the moon goddess asks but I don't have time to answer her yet.

*Lillie and Aurelie, please* Is all I say when Lillie reach out her paw and put it over my heart and Aurelie does the same and I can feel both of them

Not just physically but inside of me as well I watch in surprise how both of them are fading until they are both gone and I look around. The moon goddess and Artemis are smiling when I feel them and I shift into Aurelie's beautiful form until I jump so I stand on my back legs and Lillie takes over and I shift into her lycan form.

Lillie is also black but with a white head and white tail. Beautiful. I can feel both of my girls inside of me, they are no longer a part of me, they are me and I am them. We belong to each other as one.

I smile brightly as I shift back to my human form and the moon goddess comes over to me.

“Well done, Nora and just because you found the balance between you and Aurelie and Lillie I will give you a gift that I think that you will need.

But please be careful with it because if you do too much you will feel the consequences.” The moon goddess says and I nod when she suddenly fades along with Artemis and then the entire place fades away.

Chapter 170

Part 2 Chapter 86

Nora's POV

I blinked my eyes a few times and wondered how I came to be on the floor, naked. Someone had laid a blanket over my body but I could still feel that I was naked underneath. I looked up at a very worried Helios, he had shifted back and I smiled at him when I saw him.

“Hi” I mumbled and he smiled as he scooped me up from the floor and I noticed that everyone was still in here and I blushed as I sniffed the air.

“Are you feeling okay now Nora?” Samantha asks and I nod and smile at her.

“Yes, both Aurelie and Lillie are fine now. But I am so buzzed up, like I have been hit with so much energy that I want to dance the day away or something” I giggle and she laughs at me

“Well the day is pretty much over since the moon is up. I think it would be good if you would let your mates mark you under the moon actually, outside” she says and points at the window.

I turn my head and gasp at the full moon outside, it is blood red. This moon doesn't come very often, a blood moon or wolf moon also called. I nod my head and put my arms around Helios neck.

“Perhaps a nightgown first since I don't want to show everyone your body just yet” Ares says and grabs one for me.

“Take the black one” Samantha and I say at the same time and Ares stops and looks at us while we laugh.

Samantha takes everyone else out of our room and I get dressed before taking my mates downstairs and out in the warm night. I stop as I get out and Melinda stands there, smiling before I go over and hug her.

“Can you put up a shield around the garden? Luca is here” I say in warning and she nods while glancing around.

“Daniel, protect Melinda okay?” I tell him and he seems confused and so does she but I just smile at them.

We walk towards the garden and I can feel the energy from the moon being absorbed into my body.

“Here” I say and point. I look at Helios and Ares and they seem a bit awkward and at first I couldn’t understand but then I felt it.

There were not just us anymore, animals, people, lycans, witches, all had come to watch and I didn’t feel nervous as I looked around and then I focused on Helios. I walked to him and kissed him on his lips and then I hugged him and he chuckled as he hugged me back.

“Sit, please” I say and he nods before sitting on the ground and I sit on his lap with my legs on each side of him.

*Nora, your mates needs to mark you on each side of your neck* I hear the moon goddess’ voice flitting through my mind.

Cool, I can speak to her in my mind. Is that her gift?

“Helios, can you mark me on one side and Ares the other?” I ask and Ares chuckles and comes to sit behind me.

Okay, now I get a little nervous but they make me calm as they both sniff my neck and kiss me there. I glance up at the moon when I suddenly hear her voice.

“Now” I whisper and I feel both of my mates’ fangs pierce my skin and the pressure down till their fangs hit the bond at the same time and I feel the bonds snap into place.

I feel both of them, not just their emotions and feelings. I can feel everything that is them, I can feel their very souls, their lycans as they are howling inside of them.

And when they take out their fangs from my skin and seal their marks on my neck. I shiver and I stand up as I feel my whole body shiver and the energy explodes out of me and I shift. At first I shift into Aurelie's form and I hear a lot of gasps around me.

Then I feel for Lillie and I look at Helios and Ares as I lick their cheeks and nudge them to shift as well. Both of them do that in an instant and so do I. I let Lillie's energy wash over me and I rose on my back paws and this time there was not a single gasp. Everything was so quiet.

Helios grabs my arms first and I look at him and tilt my head at one side before he sinks his lycan fangs into my neck and I whimper. They are much sharper in this form, I feel them hit the bone and both Lillie and Aurelie are happy.

Helios slips out of my neck and licks the mark to seal it. Ares comes closer and he does the same so I tilt my head in the other direction and with their bonds snapping into place I can feel the tears coming. I shake my head and grab Helios and rip his head to the side and remark on him again.

I seal my mark on his lycan before turning to Ares and I do the same and then we stand there and just stare at each other until we hear the king howl. Then every lycan howls and so do we.

Then this out worldly voice is heard through the sky.

"I was hurt and angry, I couldn't get what I wanted the most. But now piece for piece the wanted one has come and claimed the blood for her own, redemption is fulfilled"

And this massive energy wave is released from within me and comes out and hits everyone. I see how the king is kneeling on the ground and then he releases a roar and I can see the blood falling like tears from his eyes.

"The curse is broken!"

Authors note

Part 2 is finished and I will now begin on part 3, I don't know how long the part 3 will be but I hope you will enjoy it anyway.
