Part 2 Chapter 11

Nora's POV

I had the best dreams ever but I know that when I wake up eventually I will take responsibility for my actions against the guys last night or was it the night before? It feels like my body is burning up so I take off the cover and kick it off of my feet.

I hear Ares whine that it's cold but I don't care. His back is against my own and I lean closer to him, he's colder than I am, and that is strange for a lycan. Both Helios and Ares are burning hot usually but I don't care now. Ares groans and he pushes me lightly away from him and I bump into Helios.

Helios is also colder than me so I begin to rub myself on him instead and he gasps and sits up and growls.

I try to make him lay back down but my mind is a bit hazy. I hear Helios wake Ares and then I can hear them sniff in the air and both of them growl.

“Don’t forget the potion” a voice says out loud in the room and I open my eyes but I don’t see anyone else. Magic then.

Both guys groan but get out of the bed. I hear them mutter about something and they walk into the closet so I take the chance to go to the toilet but when I am finished and I am washing myself in the shower I remember a tiny, tiny detail. Anna’s bags are in the closet and by the sound of silence they have realized it too.

Oh sh it. I turn off the shower and dry myself with a towel quickly and then I turn to open the door and notice that I left it open. I also notice that the bedroom door is open, phew, the guys went out so I quickly get into the closet and close the door and listen for sounds but don’t hear any so I turn around and freeze.

They tricked me, da mn. Ares looks really pleased with himself as he holds up a body with just strings attached and Helios holds

.. I don't know what that is, but it looks like a mini dick but it's too thin. I blush and then run the hell away from them.

I actually make it out in the corridor before Helios catches me and grabs me and puts me over his shoulder and carries me back while humming happily.

Anna POV

I wonder how it's going for Nora, I hope she got her revenge. Dave said that the scent got stronger and then it disappeared And we got about four nights and days off, Nora's scent was weak the day after but then it got stronger and stronger by the day.

Even I got hit by it and Dave was out of the castle that day so asked Melinda to take care of baby Hannes that night. I love that little boy but right now I need to jump Dave's bone so I took a long shower and shaved my legs and I was thinking about the hair between my legs but then I ignored it.

If he finds it bad then I will force him to lick down there until he loves it. Such a bad girl, perhaps I should take my toys out. +clap my hands excited and get into my closet and search through all my bags and boxes until it hits me. O hell, sh it, da mn, what am I gonna do?

I didn't just give Nora s**y underwear, I also gave her my s*x toys. Oh shi t, I wonder if she knows what those are for. Oh, I am so done for.

Nora POV

*Anna, I will get you for this and what the f**k is the little black di ck toy for?* I send out a mindlink to my friend

*Nora, uhm, the little black one is called a an al di ldo. It's for your butt you know since they are two, I bet they want your butt as well so just have fun, sweetie. Talk to you later, bye bye* Anna answers and then I can't contact her again.

“No, no, no, you are not going to get away by mindlinking anyone. You tied us up by the bed before and now it's our turn to play with your s**y, bad a*s body and your ..” Ares says and I pout at him but I feel myself getting wet by what he says.

“But first we will help you get into that, ” Helios said and nodded at the string thing that Ares had put onto the bed.

I swallow hard and glare at them both when Helios puts me down on the floor.

“Yeah that’s not gonna help, Nora. Tonight we will take your virginity whether you like it or not. But we won’t force you Ares winks and I blush.

“Come on now” Helios says and takes my hand and about ten minutes later I have this stringy thingy thing on me.

I look down at my body and I will have to remember to do some punishment on Anna later on. This thing barely covers anything.

It looks like a body, one piece thing. Shoulder straps that go down on top of my breasts and then parts to go around my breasts and meet in a string that go under them.

Then four more strings go down on my sides down to where the panties would be and the strings merge into two that goes down to my pu ssy and then it merges into one that goes between my a*s.

So both my pus sy and nipples are entirely bare. I feel extremely naked right now but when I hear the guys making a strange noise I look up and then I see them, their eyes are golden and I gasp.

I take a step backwards and I shouldn’t have done that as Helios stretches out his arm way too quickly for me to see and he grabs my arm and pulls me forward smiling and holding up the an al toy.

“Let our game begin” Ares says and I shiver by the dominance in his voice.

“Yes, please”

Part 2 Chapter 12

Nora's POV

Being in heat is so da mn hot and I just love and hate it. Thinking back on these few days before the third wave will hit even though the guys said it will come any minute now..

I blush as I remember the other night when the guys helped me together with getting used to a nal s*x. I get it that I have two mates and that I will have to take them both but didn't think that I would have to take them at the same time.

But after I had tried on a nal s*x, well, let me just say that I want to do it more often. Da mn, I thought I could come from just my butt a couple of times and even though both the guys are big but it felt so da mn good.

*Flashback*

"Come here Nora, we will be gentle" Ares winks and I walk over to him and notices a bottle next to the bed.

“That is something that will make it easier” Helios whispered and pushed me onto the bed.

Ares grabs me and puts me in his lap, my back against his chest. He spread my legs wide and Helios took his place between my legs, fingering, tickling and licking my pussy. I tried to buck my hips but Helios held me in place.

Ares licked and nipped at my skin at the marking spot, sending shivers down to my spine. Ares squeezed my breasts and I moaned like crazy but as I was about to touch Helios Ares grabbed my arms and snickered.

“Nah, this time you will not touch us”

I pouted but let them decide and I felt myself getting closer and closer to the orgasm and I think Helios felt it as well because he suddenly stopped and I was about to scream out my frustration.

Both guys chuckled and I pouted, but I actually squealed when they flipped me over so I landed on my stomach and got Ares huge and very hard dick right in my face. He laughed as I felt my cheek burn.

“Oh, Nora, if you knew what we plan to do with you know” he whispered and I moaned. I stretched out my tongue and licked his dick and he groaned while looking down at me.

“Oh, right, I wasn’t allowed to touch, ops” I tease him and he growls.

“She got you there, brother,” Helios laughed.

Then Helios said that I should have my knees under my stomach, like I was kneeling but up with my butt in the air. I turned my head and looked at him like he had lost his brains on the way somewhere.

“I will help you” Ares said and I nodded.

After some time I finally got it. Such an easy position but yet difficult. Typical guys make everything so damn difficult and neither can they ask for directions. Or help.

Anyway half sitting half lying on the bed and I feel Helios massage my butt while Ares starts to touch my face with his dick and glare at him.

“Open up” Helios said and I shake my head, testing the boundaries.

Ares takes a hold of my nose and pinches it. I was wondering what the hell he meant by that when I realized that I can’t breathe. He forces me to open my mouth and then he suddenly puts his dick inside my mouth and I glare at him. Fine, if he wants to play this game, I can play it too.

I hold my head still and refuse to move and he just laughs at me. Helios suddenly pull away his hands and I hear them open the lid of that bottle. And a few seconds later I feel something cold between my butt. Then I feel Helios' finger as he rubs my opening and slips it inside of me and I turn my head so fast that I release Ares' d ick!

"It's okay Nora, concentrate on Ares and just try to relax." Helios says and Ares pinch my nipples and I moan.

I turn back and focus on Ares, he kisses me with so much passion that my head was going dizzy. Ares chuckles in my mouth and I moan as he squeezes my breast.

I looked down at his di ck and I smiled as I blew on it and it twitches. Ares took a hold of it and started play with it before my eyes and at the same time I felt Helios put in another finger in my a*s. I froze as I was trying to relax around him.

Ares caressed my cheek and I bent down my head and opened my mouth. I took him inside my mouth and started to play with his di ck with my tongue. I tickled him all around and as I tried to touch him with my hand he poked at my nose and I grunted.

He gently put his hand on the back of my head and pushed it down and then he released it. But I got what he wanted me to do so I started going up and down with my head and I felt Ares' di ck going deeper into my mouth. But it hit the back of my throat and I started to cough and I was forced to release him.

"Not that far back, princess" Ares whispered and stroked away my tears that I hadn't noticed...

I nodded and took a deep breath just as Helios took out his fingers and I wondered what he was doing.

When I felt it and I tensed up in panic, he put his di ck against my opening.

"No, stop" I tried to get away from them but Ares grabbed me.

"No, you promised if I said no, you would stop." I cried.

"Yes, Nora, we will let you go but you will get hurt if you move now. Just breathe slowly" Ares whispered in a gentle voice.

"Why?" I ask and panic really sets in now and I try to move when I feel that cold sensation again.

"You were so focused on Ares that you didn't even notice when I put my di ck inside of you, princess.

We are connected right now, you and me" Helios say and I stop and try to feel.

I stretch back my hand and Helios takes it and guides me to where we are connected and I calm down but now I am unsure of what I should do.

Ares chuckled and got off the bed, I watched him come on to the bed again but on my side. And he puts his legs between mine and Helios so I have to spread my legs wider and I finally get what he is about to do.

“You are so wet, Nora but I can stop anytime now,” Ares says.

I shake my head and slowly move and Helios chuckles as he knows what I am about to do. Ares grabs his di ck and I position myself over it and very slowly we all help each other and. I get myself down at his di ck.

It hurts like hell but when the guys move I hear something like a pulse and both guys growl along with Aurelie.

A sickly sweet scent perfumes the room and I think I know what happened.

The third heat wave is here.

Part 2 Chapter 13

Helios POV

Taking Nora's virginity was a piece of cake but to keep up afterwards was another tale. When her third heat wave came she was gone, out of her mind. She followed her instinct and rode us like we were some crazy horses that she needed to tame.

I was so scared that I would hurt her but her a*s relaxed by itself and it became soft on the inside so I almost slipped out. I grabbed her hips but Ares was already holding her there so I grabbed her arms instead and pulled her up so she almost sat on top of Ares.

I held her in place as Ares took a hold of her rhythm and steadied it so we wouldn't lose our di cks. I pulled out of her and she grunted and probably pouted as well, she whined when I let her go and I walked away from the bed.

My lycan is whining and growling while I get into the bathroom, I need to dry my d ick since I got something on it.. Ugh. Girls.

But when I got out I got to see something good, Ares had finally taken control over her as he had flipped her over and she was on her back on the bed and he was pounding into her. Her moans and her scent were all over the place and I felt my resistance slip and suddenly I was kneeling by her head.

She looked up and reached out a hand to my rock hard di ck and I let her take it in her warm hand. She stroked it up and down in the same rhythm Ares' was using as he f**ked her.

“Turn her over” I say to Ares and he tilts his head at me but nods. He pulls out of her and Nora whines but we don't care about that right now.

We pulled her into the doggy position and Ares entered her rather rough as she screamed in ecstasy but I put my di ck in her mouth.

“Be quiet now and concentrate on us” I say and I feel my hunger for her to take over.

Ares and I keep pounding into her until all three of us come and then we shift positions, all night long. Actually we kept it up without resting for four days...

Daniel POV

The king and his brother needed to empty the entire castle, so we underestimated Nora's heat. I almost went insane at her third wave, I shifted and along with six other lycans tried to run to the room and rape her and mark her by force.

Melinda stopped us thank go d but her scent, it was addictive and sweet and sent almost every man into a rut. I know for sure that Anna has been marked and Melinda locked me inside a small cage and turned me into a puppy.

After all, I had marked her by force and probably scared the crap out of her. We didn't have sex, thank the goddess. I want to make love to her when I am not high on another woman's pheromones.

Right now we are camping in the forest and in the village, Melinda put a barrier around the castle so the scent of Nora stays inside it. But she couldn't bear with the sight of me so she has been avoiding me.

My life was easier before but now it's so damn complicated but I wouldn't want it another way either. It's been two days since I saw Melinda and Ari is killing me with his constant whining and growling.

I get up from the rock and begin to walk towards where Melinda is. I let Ari and the bond guide me and it didn't take long until I found her. She was sitting in a meadow filled with flowers, on a picnic blanket with a basket beside her. She looks like she is waiting for someone so I hold myself back in the shadows and I was right, an unknown man comes towards her and she looks happy to see him. She gets up and they kiss each other and I watch as they do more.

They start to take off their clothes and even if Ari tries to warn me I can't move or look away. I see how they are joined together, how they make love with each other and how Melinda says it over and over. "I love you"

Melinda POV

He forcefully marked me? Me? Stupid puppy dogs. I have been avoiding him for two days but today I feel it's time so pack a basket and take with me a blanket and go out to my favorite meadow and start to lay the blanket on the bed of flowers.

The scent from these flowers is soft but good, I open up the bond between us and send him a thought that he should come and find me and I feel him getting closer and I smile for myself. I feel that he is close enough now but something holds him off, is he hesitating?

I turn around and see him walk towards me but there is something wrong with him and then I see it, in the grass. A black crystal,

I look around and find four more, they are around me like in a circle. Black magic. Maya!

"Daniel, stop. Whatever you think you are seeing it isn't real. I am right here, can you hear me?" I try to get his attention but I fail and I notice that he follows my movement but he doesn't see it's me.

Maya has created an illusion. Is she after my magic since she couldn't have Mia's? Or is she going after mothers? With me out of the way, it is a free way to mother. I raise my arm up in the air and send out an emergency call for witches.

+watches it go up in the air and then in the direction I wanted it to go. But I couldn't have guessed what would happen right now.

Maya came walking inside the meadow and I looked at her in confusion and she just smiled at me.

Daniel turned his head at her but didn't seem to care so much. She walked up to him and said.

"Daniel, he forced me, I didn't want to but he threatened me. He is keeping us apart but if you kill him I will never leave your side.

Will you do that for me, I love you Daniel" she giggled and smiled cruelly at me.

I watched as Daniel nodded and then he shifted into Ari and he stalked towards me with his claws ready and his fangs sharp and white. Oh sh it.

I am doomed, a witch can't hurt her own mate without harming herself as well.

Part 2 Chapter 14

Melinda's POV

I don't know what to do as I watch Ari stalk towards me, I don't know what the illusion showed Daniel but it had to be heartbreaking for him to lose his mind to Maya.

Maya said with my voice that someone forced me, that he would stand in mine and Daniel's way. What if? No, can she really be that cruel?

"Ari, it's me Melinda." You know in your heart if that was really me you would have felt that betrayal even if it was by force" tried to reason with him but I saw that the black crystal blinked.

I needed Ari to step on the crystal so I moved to the side and Ari followed me then I started to go against him and he walked faster towards me. A frustrated scream came from Maya the moment Ari stepped on the crystal and it broke.

Ari looked confused at me and then he looked around and found Maya but I stopped him from going after her. I shook my head and leaned myself on him.

I watched as Maya disappeared into the forest and I knew she was being hunted by the coven.

"Sorry, I lost my mind there" Daniel said as he shifted back.

“It’s fine, my sister has always been good at using illusion tricks, I don’t know what you saw but I can guess. But nothing happened. Will you still eat with me?” I ask him and he nods but looks concerned at the blanket and I glance at it and then smile.

I walk toward the blanket and lift the basket away and then I take the blanket and fold it into a tiny square and put it behind a tree. Then I take the remaining four crystals and deactivate the magic inside them so the crystals become white once more.

I put the crystals on the blanket and go back to the basket and then I kneel on the ground and dig my fingers into the ground. I let my energy flow down into the earth and the earth responds. Latching onto my energy and I ask gently and the earth responds.

“What are you doing?” Daniel asks but gasps just a second later and I look as the purple flowers weave themselves together into a flower blanket.

“Beautiful” Daniel says and I smile and nod.

“It’s easy if you know how to do it. All you need is some love and gentleness and give yourself over to nature.” I explain and then

I blush as I realize that what I just said has a double meaning in it.

Daniel walked over to me and gently stepped on the flowers and kneeled right in front of me and hugged me and I hugged him back. He kissed me gently on the forehead and he caressed my cheek. I looked at him and he showed so much guilt in his handsome face.

“It’s fine, Daniel. I will take my revenge later on” I smile and he tilts his head in confusion.

“What do you mean by that?” He asks and I just wink at him and open the basket.

“I packed a lot, what do you want to eat? I have fruit, sandwiches, salad, some meat wraps and of course lemonade and also coffee” I say and start to unpack when Daniel suddenly helps me.

We eat in silence but something is still bothering Daniel so I make a tiny spell, he watches me as I create a blue orb and let it explode and the wave goes in all directions in the forest.

“What was that?” Daniel asks and I lift an eyebrow

“Well I don’t have lycan hearing so I cast a tiny spell to prevent anyone from hearing us and it will also notify me if someone is coming” I say and Daniel looks at me with “that” expression again.

I smile and I stand up and take slowly off my dress and Daniel watches me with hungry eyes.

“Come here” I say and wink at him. Daniel stands up slowly and takes one step towards me but then he looks sad.

“My turn, on your knees” I say and he nods but sinks down on his knees.

He is so da mn tall and so hot, his muscles are lick worthy and I will take my time to run my hands all over him one day.

But now I will do something else and Daniel is patiently waiting for me so I create a blue orb in my hand.

“I, Melinda, accept you Daniel, as my mate and partner. I hope you will love me as me and that you will trust me ” I say and I bend down towards Daniel and the orb in my hand glows brighter.

Daniel closes his eyes as I place my hand on his marking spot with the orb in my hand and then a searing light comes from that spot. Daniel groans and I get the feeling from our bond that it hurts a lot.

I kiss him on his lips and the light fades and I feel the pain subside. When I turn to look at the mark I notice that Daniel's lycan Ari is looking out but what surprised me the most was his eyes. I have heard about this before but I have never seen it as it is highly rare.

Daniel's eyes are changing color into a blue, turquoise color and then back to his normal ones but there are some bluish spots in his eyes and I smile.

Then I look at the mark as I take away my hand. It's beautiful, truly. It looks like a tribal tattoo but in blue, the same hue as my magic. And my core sign on the marking spot and I gasp as I look at the marking grow.

I start at the markingspot and then travel down on his arm all the way to his hand, wrapping and clinging around him.

"Now we are even"

Part 2 Chapter 15

Dave POV

Finally. Nora's heat went down, we have been away from the castle for a week by now and I really just want to sleep in my own bed with Anna beside me. Even though we had fun in her little cabin. She marked me and my brother is still teasing me about that. Usually, the male marks first and then the female but she turned the tables on me.

Not that it matters, I love her anyway and I will mark her next time, I just need Melinda's help, so nothing happens. I heard that Daniel marked Melinda forcefully but she was lucky as Mariah and the coven helped her and that she is a fated pair with Daniel helped as well.

I tried to find Melinda but when I saw Daniel walking into the forest I backed away, hoping they would sort things out so I went to find my brother instead.

"Hello Dave, have you thought anymore about the younglings you want to start train?" He asked me and actually I had totally forgotten about that so I shook my head at him.

"Nope, I forgot about that actually but I wanted to ask you if you have heard any news from the boys."

I say and my brother looks away to look at the castle.

"Yeah, her heat went down so we are going to go back this evening. Nora is still sleeping and I think she will choose that room as her own for the time being anyway” he says and I nod.

“That would-be good, she can’t keep sleeping in that destroyed room or in the kitchen” I say and he turns to look at

“Didn’t you know?” I ask and he shakes his head.

“Hmm, I guess she was trying to find her place but I wonder what she will think now. When the heat is gone and her instincts will fade. She will still be the girl that has no memories and we have no idea how to get her back. “ I say and sigh.

“I don’t think it is just a curse. If you think about it, Mia knew that she couldn’t let Maya have her magic so she put this curse down in the ground and in Nora to prevent Maya from getting stronger. I don’t think the curse was directed for Nora, I think it’s because of my sons. This curse was created for them” My brother says and I think about the curse.

“The future queen will wake up but my curse will doom her and her mates. She will lose something important and only redemption will regain it”

But whose redemption?

“Brother, did you hear about the meeting?” I ask him and he sighs.

“Yes, everyone knows about Nora now. And I suppose they want to know why we hid her and why the curse isn’t broken.” He says and I try to think.

“What about holding it here then and everyone can meet her?” I say and he looks at me.

“She isn’t marked, Dave,” brother says but I just smile and he looks at me confused but I nod at someone behind him.

Brother turns around and sees Mariah standing there.

“A fake mark?” If you think that will work and if the boys think it’s okay then yes, we should try this” he says and I nod and we walk towards Mariah.

“I have something I would like to ask of you, Mariah. Can you create a fake mark on Nora and change her scent?” I ask her and she seems to think but slowly nods later.

“Yes, so you have heard that she is no longer a secret then? It seems that Maya has spread around the news of her along with that mage. That Nora exists and that she is the loophole of the curse.” Mariah says and I growl and turn around and walk away.

“We will talk later” my brother said to me and I waved him off.

I find Anna outside of her cabin, she is playing with the kitten and the baby and I notice another woman there, a witch. She looks happy to see Anna and Anna smiles back at her but they can't fool me. Something has happened between them.

"Anna" I say and she looks up and smiles brightly at me and comes over to welcome me back.

I put my arm around her waist and kiss her and then I look at the witch and she averts her eyes.

"Dave, don't be jealous, she is just a friend and she also raised my cats. Do you remember Pumpkin, the orange cat?" Anna says and I nod.

"Anyway I will put baby Hannes to bed, do you want some tea?" Anna asks but her friend shakes her head.

"We can return to the castle in the evening and I will ask my brother for a bigger room" I say and Anna turns, smiles and nods.

"Perhaps I will start packing a few things then" she says and goes into the cabin.

When I know she can't hear us anymore I turn to her friend and she smiles at me.

"I am not here to take her away from you, I just wanted to see her after all this time." she say and I nod “Good.” Perhaps you have heard but I don’t trust witches” say and narrow my eyes at her.

“Yes, I know.” You have a very fast point of view and we witches are happy over that. You are also brave and you protect the ones that are yours so I came by to also say hi to you. To see with my own eyes who you are and I can say that am not disappointed in you” the woman says and I nod at her.

She walks away and when I couldn’t see her anymore I realized that I missed my chance to ask her about Mia’s curse.

The part of redemption bothers me still and I really want to help them solve it. And I think where I should start. With Nora’ s heritage and closest would be her parents.

Part 2 Chapter 16

Helios POV

Oh da mn. Her heat was long and I needed to take a shower so I sneaked out of the room and across the corridor to my room.

My room. I have missed it. Not that I mind being with Nora all the time, even without her original memories she is still Nora.

*Helios. Is everything fine? We are entering the castle now* Dad mindlinked me.

*Yes, everything is okay. Come on in* I answer and smile

*Ares, everyone else are coming into the castle now, just so you know* I mindlink Ares and he huffs back. I chuckle at my brother but go straight into my shower and start the water and wash off all sweat and other bodily fluids. I laugh as I think about Nora, when she said she didn't like the taste of my cu m.

As I shower I am reminded of when her heat started, we were on our way to the library when she was sucked into that door. She kept talking about a girl on the door but I have never seen one before.

Elder William taught us about one of the king's before dad, he was a bit crazy and almost destroyed every piece of nature. Like he was haunted by something or hunting someone. Anyway Elder William told us about dryads that lived in the elements of nature, like water, wind, trees, flowers. And I know for a fact that the library doors were made of the biggest oak on the border to the moon goddess land.

Perhaps the doors are hiding a dryad and Nora found it? But what does that mean?

Ugh too many questions for my pounding head.

*Helios? I am going to use the shower here. Can I borrow some clothes from you, not any boring ones though. And can you fetch us breakfast?* Ares' voice comes through my head and I shake my head.

*You can leave Nora and go to your own room, you know.* | say and I hear him huff

*You are a pain in the a*s, you know that right?, I don't have any clothes here and I don't want to shift when I am still dirty he says and I laugh.

*I'll grab you a pair of pants and don't want them back until you have washed them, are we clear?* I say and I feel him laughing at me

One time he borrowed my favorite pair of jeans and then Mia sucked him off when he was still wearing them and he gave them back to me. Unwashed. I had them on me for half a day until Ben asked why I had lipstick on them. I almost killed Ares' that day.

I hop out of the shower and dry myself and look into the mirror while I brush my teeth and I drop my toothbrush when I notice a mark on my neck. I touch it and I feel her, Nora. She marked me.

I stare at my reflection and I am happy and sad at the same time because I don't remember this happening.

I wash my mouth and rinse it and then I go and put some clothes on. I look through my closet and find the perfect pair of shorts for Ares to wear and I also grab my phone. I need a picture of him in these.

I walk back to the other room and I sniff the air but it's back to normal now so I guess it's fine. I can hear people chattering downstairs and I smile but as I look out I see it's evening and not morning.

I walk through the door and see Ares waiting for me by the wall next to the bed, he is watching Nora sleeping.

"Here" I whisper and throw the shorts for him to catch them. He nods and puts them on and I hold on to my phone.

"Da mn, Helios, are you really this tiny?" He teases and touches the front.

I try to hold in the laugh so I hold up the door for him to walk through and he does but when I close the door I laugh and take a photo. But Ares turns around and I take another photo, da mn this was fun.

Ares tilts his head and then looks down and quickly covers himself. The shorts are pink with white flowers on them and they have cut outs on the sides so his di ck is peeking through to say "hi".

"Peek a bo, Ares" Ben says and I laugh so hard that I cry. I turned to see that Ben wasn't alone.

Daniel, Dave, dad, Ben, elder William and Anna were all standing there trying not to laugh their asses off.

Ares gets red as a tomato in his face and runs but I laugh even more as-a ripping sound is heard and the shorts really ripped a hole in the back and Daniel whistled at him. Ares growled and I clapped my hands.

"That wasn't Nora's shorts, right?" Anna asked, terrified.

"Yes, but she never liked them. Too girly she said" I smile and turn to them.

"Coffee?" I asked and all of them looked like they wanted to sleep for a month at least.

“Oh, you go to sleep, I need coffee and food.” I say and keep my hands up but I glance at the door where Nora is resting. Should I lock the door?

“She is safe, Helios.” Dad says and I nod and go ahead towards the kitchen when Anna stops me.

“If I let any of you boys into my kitchen, I will wake up tomorrow morning and find my kitchen burned down again. So no way am I going to let you boys be down there by yourselves.” Anna says and I laugh at her expression.

“Again?” Has it happened before?” Dave asks and I blush.

“We didn’t burn the entire kitchen” I mumble.

“No, just all the benches,” Ben said with guilt in my voice.

“Okay, I am coming as well. I am in dire need of coffee” both dad and Dave agree on that.

But Anna leads the way down to the kitchen and she screams when we come into it.

What now?

“Fire!”

Part 2 Chapter 17

Ares POV

I will kill Helios someday, da mn that was embarrassing. Should I poison his food? Or maybe tell Nora about his visit to her room the other week. There are so many stories I can tell her about little Helios. Or when he was going to pick flowers for mom and he touched poison ivy and his entire face was red and swollen for about one week.

I laugh and take a quick shower and then I put on some real clothes and run down to the kitchen. I know exactly what I am going to do to Helios as a payback. I start with boiling water and then I am going for the eggs in the fridge and then I will make him some pancakes a la Ares. Haha

But doesn't it smell weird here? I sniff around the kitchen until I find it, ugh. The food in the fridge has gone bad, yuck.

Oh the water is boiling and I turn around to see that it is not the water that sounds because I forgot to put the water on the stove.

Oh sh it, Anna is gonna kill me. There is a small fire.

Anna said something about putting a lid on it so I tried to find one but I only found a towel and in my panic mind I threw the towel on the small fire and saw it go out. Phew.

No, stupid me, the fire is eating the towel. Sh it, what am I going to do now then? I hear the kitchen door open and Anna's scream. "Fire!"

I cover my ears as she has a high pitch scream but I didn't count on Anna coming over and actually pinch my ear. Ouch.

Then everyone else comes inside and Anna orders us out so now I am sitting on the floor while dad stands in front of me. Helios looks at a spot on the wall while avoiding us and I sit still like a statue, waiting for dad to say something when Dave comes out of the kitchen.

"How is it there?" dad ask him and he huffs in answer

"We need a new stove and dishwasher and if Anna wanted she would like to renovate the entire kitchen" Uncle Dave say and I smile

That sounds exactly like what Anna would want. The kitchen is like her baby.

"Where is baby Hannes?" I ask and uncle Dave groans.

"Oh he is with Mariah. She said that me and Anna deserved a night off so she borrowed him" Uncle Dave growled low.

Yeah, Uncle Dave hates witches. It is no secret but no one is really certain when it started.

“Hmm, renovating the kitchen, perhaps we should do that. I will send Ares and Ben into the neighboring town and buy stuff but perhaps it’s better that Anna comes as well.” dad says and I nod my head.

I think it would do some good if I could get away for a while, even if it’s only a day.

“I think she would like that as well” uncle Dave says and I sigh

The doors open and we can smell fresh coffee and toast and my stomach grumbles but I sit still on the floor as dad is still glaring at me.

“What were you talking about?” Anna asks as she comes over to us and gives my dad a toast and a cup of coffee.

“We decided to renovate the kitchen so you will take Ben and Ares with you to the human town and do some shopping for the new kitchen tomorrow. And the rest of us will tear the old kitchen down.” dad says and I hear Anna squeal with joy.

She throws her arms around dad’s neck and kisses him on the mouth and I stare at them and uncle Dave growls.

“Oh right, sorry, I was just so happy” Anna says and hugs uncle Dave.

Dad just shakes his head and chuckles but uncle Dave is still growling. "Sit, brother" Uncle Dave says and dad looks at him but does what he asks.

Dad sits on his knees on the floor opposite of me. Anna sighs and glares at uncle Dave and I just want to laugh but I can't. The feeling in the room is filled with pressure so I don't dare to do anything.

Anna and uncle Dave walk away but Anna comes back with coffee and toast for me and I apologize to her.

"Anna, I am sorry for the kitchen, I was just so mad at Helios and I wanted to take revenge on him, I promise it was an accident" I say and look down on the floor

"Yeah it wasn't very good but the end result will be better. Oh so much fun I will have tomorrow. You and Ben will have a lot of work to do" Anna claps her hand and is still smiling happily.

"Yeah, I am probably going along for the sake of economy so Ares is the one that is going to carry everything" Ben laughs and I growl

I get it, it's my fault but I have this feeling in the back of my head that it is bigger than that. The smell, it didn't just smell of bad food, it smelled weird in there.

“Dad, can you come with me into the kitchen?” I ask and he nods at me and we get up.

We have eaten up the toasts but we take our coffee with us and walk into the kitchen. I walk toward the fridge and sniff the air. It is still there but it’s weaker now.

“Can you smell this?” I ask dad and point at the bench between the fridge and the stove.

Dad bends down and smells the spot I point at and he makes a disgusting expression.

“Are you guys sure that there was no one else in the castle?” he asks and I shrug

“I am not sure but we were quite occupied, dad” I say and dad nods and opens the door under the bench and I throw up on the floor.

We found the missing head of Anna’s black cat..

“I won’t complain at all tomorrow, I will carry everything that she wants” I promise my dad and he looks sad and nods.

Part 2 Chapter 18

Anna's POV

I feel young again, I am accompanied by the very boys I saw grow up, almost anyway. Now there is a new day and I am sitting in the front but it is Ben that is driving. Ares muttered about my old style driving so we switched places. We have just entered the human city after three hours in the car, one hour stuck in the traffic after some accident on the road.

But now we are walking inside a store that sells kitchen stuff, the boys each have a cart so I can fill the big stuff on and I have a smaller one.

The king told me to buy new utensils and everything else for a kitchen, even lamps and chairs. I think it would be best to rent a truck.

“Hey, Ben, shouldn’t we rent a truck?” I ask and turn around just to see about 10 girls swarming around him and Ares.

Nevermind, I sigh and go ahead of them and I chuckle as I hear them tell the girls to get lost. I wander around and am currently looking at all different colors of a kitchen. Our old kitchen was white and trust me I don’t want a white kitchen again. It felt like hell to clean so no more white.

“How about a black or steel color?” A man’s voice says behind me and I turn around to see a sales person.

“Not black, but steel sounds nice. I make a lot of food so it has to be a stove that can handle anything.” I say and he nods and writes it down on some paper he had in his hand.

“Do you want to check out some colors for the kitchen drawers and cabinets and benches?” The man asks and I nod my head slowly.

“Yes I would like to see some other colors but no white or brown or black.” I say and smile at him.

“Of course, if you come with me here to one of our show kitchens can show you the colors and different styles.” he says and I nod.

I glance around and notice that Ben has finally torn away from the girls, but they are still flocking for Ares’ attention.

“Finally, now Ares can handle that so I don’t have to.” Ben snickers and I giggle as I look at Ares.

“Yeah, he can have that and you can come with me and help me with the salesperson. He was a little bit too personal” I say and shiver and Ben raises an eyebrow.

“Anna, you are beautiful. You know that right?” Ben says and I look surprised at him.

“No, I didn’t know that. But.. What about my scars?” I say and touch my cheek and look down “Anna you are beautiful on the inside and on the outside, with and without the scars. But I have to tell you, you look like a woman that you should never mess with” Ben cheers me up and I smile.

We go to the show kitchen and Ben says hello to the sales person and then we look at the colors and we decide on a simple design for the kitchen.

One big fridge and one big freezer with an ice machine inside it. Ben looked happy about that little detail. They are both stainless steel along with the stove and the microwave. But the kitchen colors will be a dark forest green color.

But the bench tops. I am having a problem with the color on top of it. Gray? A dark brown? Light brown?

Black? Pink?! Who the hell has pink benchtops?

“I think a light gray would fit better with a dark green color” the salesperson says.

“No, a darker color with marble inside of it” Ares says and huffs. He looks all tousled over.

“Marble”? That would be nice” I say, surprised that I didn’t think of that.

“Then let’s go with a dark marble benchtop. ” the salesperson said and wrote it down.

“Now we need new pans and pots, glasses, utensils, plates, bowls and baking stuff. What about a baking machine or whatever they are called?” Ares says and I stare at him.

“What?!” I say and I can’t comprehend what he said.

“Yeah I called dad and asked what more was needed and he said to let Anna decide that we have a lot of money from the budget. So shop away. Oh and we need at least four kitchen islands. “Ares shrugs but smiles large.

“Then I shall help you at once” the sales person says and waves over a few of his colleagues.

“Here, pack everything on this list and use one of our trucks” he says and gives over the list to them and I tilt my head.

“You can borrow one of our trucks for free when you buy a complete kitchen and we have this kitchen in the warehouse so you can take it home right away.” he says and I smile.

“Perfect.” Ben says and he gives the salesperson space to lead the way.

I pick a couple of pans and pots but when I turn around I see Ben and Ares take a few more in different sizes. I tilt-my head at them and they just smile and shrug, I shake my head at them. Crazy guys.

Then glasses but I let the boys choose the coffee mugs and told them to take tea cups as well. For some reason they took different colors for the mugs and cups but I thought they were cute.

The utensils were easiest to choose. even though the human looked at us strangely for picking so much of everything but we didn't care.

"Anna, what about those cutting boards that you like so much?" Ben suddenly asks and I nod.

"Yew, we need at least three of them" I answer and Ares takes out six and shrugs with a silly smile on his face.

"Have we missed something?" I ask and the boys start counting everything we have in our carts.

"Check out." Ben says and I laugh.

"We need to eat something yummy" Ares says and I shake my head at him:

"How about Chinese food?" I suggest and both guys give me high five.

"Hey, isn't that woman too old and pretty disgusting and ugly for those guys?" I turn around and see the same group of girls that surrounded the boys when we came inside the store, standing around and giggling.

This human town is inside our kingdom's border and they know very well that werewolves and lycans exist and still they are cruel with their words. Perhaps they don't have werewolf blood in them?

"Don't bother about them, they are passing through. I think they came from another human town from another country." The salesperson says and I nod but I still feel sad.

I turn around to talk to Ben and Ares but they are gone. Then I hear them talk to the girls and then multiple screams. I turn around and see that Ben has semi shifted and Ares has released his aura and the girls are terrified.

I walk over there and put my hand on their arms.

"Boys not here, they are pathetic anyway" I say and smile sweetly.

The girls look terrified but I hold my head high and when Ares pulls his aura in and Ben shifts back, all the girls faint.

Qoops.

Part 2 Chapter 19

Ben's POV

Well Anna showed those humans how much their words were worth but their faces were so damn funny the second before they fainted.

But something has bothered me for a while now actually. I feel like someone is following us, but I haven't seen anyone, strange.

We ate Chinese food, one of Anna's favorites and me and Ares almost got thrown out of the restaurant. Apparently we ate too much from the buffet but then why have a "all you can eat buffet" if you aren't able to eat everything there?

Anna laughed and I was happy to see a smile on her face. I see Anna as a mom since my mother died while giving birth to me.

But I am happy that my mom and dad weren't fated mates because dad didn't break when my mother died.

He raised me and Anna was one of the females that took care of me as well. There have been a lot of faces around the castle but it feels like Anna has always been there. I wonder if it's because of the curse that Anna hasn't aged like she should have.

She has been with us for almost 80 years and she still looks like she is in her mid thirties. She told us once that her parents are pureblood werewolves but she has never shifted or talked to her wolf. But she can feel its presence like she is sleeping. I hope she will wake up when Uncle Dave marks her. She deserves to feel the freedom like a werewolf would. We wait until the truck is ready and I have decided to ride in the truck with the driver and Ares will take the car with Anna. I told her that she has to be fast at the radio because Ares has a weird music taste. There it is again, that strange feeling, I try to shake it but there is something strange. I shake my head again at the same time as the truck driver unlocks the truck and we get in. I sniff the air but it doesn't smell anything different and the driver is an ordinary guy. But his smile is beautiful. What?

Helios POV

Land Daniel took turns tearing down the kitchen. Dad told Anna and Ares to buy everything new and I didn't understand why in the beginning but now absolutely. After we had our turns and the kitchen was completely gone we noticed something on the rug and we took it away.

But under the rug was a wooden floor and it had dark brown stains on it. The smell was gone long ago but the color said everything, blood.

So we tore up the floor and the secret under it left us speechless. A blood drawn pentagram with old symbols around it and a witch symbol in the middle. Dad called for Mariah and Melinda, they came in an instant and I remember the horror on Mariah's face when she saw the symbol.

I took the opportunity and asked Melinda about the library doors and she happily answered that the tree dryads are still alive in the doors. But she was surprised that she had spoken to Nora and even invited her inside.

Melinda called the coven to come and they were all scared of the pentagram and the symbols but they cleansed the floor and the symbols sunk through the floor. It didn't disappear but took root inside the castle stones.

Mariah explained with tears in her eyes that the pentagram was drawn by one of their ancestors and the symbols around give its meaning to the spell. The symbol in the middle means "eternity".

So all curses that are placed on my fathers bloodline will for eternity hold its grasp until the very last royal drop of blood disappears and then the long wait will finally be over. Or something like that.

Mariah believes that this pentagram is a power source for Mia's and the other witch's curse to stay alive.

I didn't quite understand that but when everything was done we put back the floorboards but we took some new ones where there was dried blood and Mariah and the coven blessed the wood. Protecting it from anything evil and by doing that, the kitchen will be protected and if something evil is happening in the kitchen it will sing out.

Yep witches have their thing, strange and even more strange but we have our thing as well, instincts they call it. And my instinct right now is to go outside. So I do and when I get outside I meet Felix and Kara.

"What are you guys doing here?" I ask them and they look surprised at that.

"What are you talking about Helios? Your father has invited every king from the lycan kingdoms for a grand meeting in three days' time." Felix says and I stare at him in shock.

Why the hell did he do that for? Oh, goddess. I show them inside while Felix tells me that Pete is running the kingdom right now and that they almost caught the witch that has killed so many of their people.

I explain about Nora's heat and Kara giggles at my mark that I had totally forgotten about. But she also told me that it would fade, if Nora's mark would truly stick, she needs to mark us at every heat wave and then we need to mark her after the third heat wave but before it ends.

I thought it sounded crazy but Felix mentioned something about the "golden hour" and I got it. The hour after the heat dies down but the scent is still strong. I need to tell Ares this as well so he knows about it.

Melinda comes out along with Daniel and Felix smiles large as he hugs Daniel. Bro hug...

Then Daniel introduces Melinda but before I can stop him he has already told Felix that Melinda is a witch and then Felix attacked Melinda.

Daniel jumped into the middle and there was some fighting and a bit of chaos, they shifted into their lycans and I sighed but just as I tried to step into the middle a voice interrupted all of us.

“Kara?”

“Nora?”

Part 2 Chapter 20

Nora's POV

My dreams were restless like a memory trying so hard to come forth but not really reaching its goal. It was like a part of the old me was trying to speak with me now. But I had a hard time hearing, I couldn't catch everything she said. But some words came through, love, promise, trust. So damn, confusing.

I wake up slowly and feel that none of the guys are left in the room. Ares left a note on the other pillow.

"Nora". Me and Helios have some things to do but when you wake up come down and meet us or call for us. Love Ares"

So sweet. I get up from the bed and I can feel that I am totally refreshed by now but I stink so a shower it is. But first, the toilet! I practically run for it. Then I take a shower and wash everywhere, even under my feet and between my toes.

I noticed that someone had brought me clothes and left them on the washbasin along with a pair of flats.

I turn the shower off and dry myself, then I pick up the clothes and nod for myself. I wonder if I have picked these clothes or if I got any help?

Black panties and a black sports bra, a pair of jeans leggings, a cute light purple top and a pair of white socks. I put everything on me except for the socks, they were too small for me. The flats are black and comfy with this little silver detail on them, a ribbon at the back.

Then I take Ares' note with me Ares note and walk out, on the backside of the note Ares has written how I am going to go to get down to the kitchen. So I followed his directions but instead of going into the kitchen I stopped on the stairs and saw two lycans clash with each other but what surprised me more was the girl.

She looked exactly like me except her eyes were green but I knew directly who she was.

"Kara?" I said and she looked up and saw me.

"Nora?" she answered and I nodded.

She squealed and ran up to me on the stairs and hugged me hard.

"I have missed you, Nora," she says but I tilt my head.

"I am sorry, I knew by instinct who you are but I don't remember, I am sorry" I say and look down.

"It's fine, you know, we have only met once in our life anyway but we did exchange a lot of letters," Kara says and smiles.

I look up at her and smile back.

“So what are they fighting about?” I ask and look at the two lycans that Helios are trying to calm down.

“Oh, well, Daniel introduced his mate to us and told us that she is a witch and then my mate, Felix, kind of lost it and attacked her and Daniel went in between and then, well you see” Kara explains and I nod.

“I understand that a lot of people have troubles with witches and I know they can be a real pain in the a*s sometimes but Melinda isn't that kind of witch. She is good” I defend her and both lycans stop.

I see Daniel shift back and so does the other guy, Felix, I assume. He is cute, not like Helios and Ares but I understand why Kara was drawn to him. He is her type. And how the hell can I know that? Confusing.

“I am sorry if I frightened you, Miss Nora. My name is Felix and I am way you and I are related to each other” he introduces himself and I just blink at him

“Related?” I ask him and he nods and smiles.

“Yes, a cousin of mine is your grandfather” he says and I tilt my head. His cousin is my grandfather?

How old is he?

“Well they aren’t exactly cousins but more distant relatives but it’s easier to say cousin instead of explaining how and what all the relatives are to each other” Kara giggles and Felix scratches his head.

“Anyway, Miss Melinda, I am sorry that I over reacted, I was just thinking of my people and all the problems I have because of a witch” Felix says and nods at Melinda.

“Yes, I have heard about it from Helios and I am willing to help- you if you would trust me for a bit.” She says and Felix glances at Kara and me.

“Do you trust her Nora?” Kara asked me suddenly. “Yes, I do and you can trust her as well” I say and smile.

“Then I will gratefully accept your help” Felix says and Melinda gives him a small smile.

“Good, now when everyone is friends with each other. We can proceed with finishing the kitchen because I

5. have just heard that Ares, Ben and Anna are on their way back now” Helios says and I look at him.

“Oh they went to the human town for some shopping for the kitchen. The king decided suddenly that we needed to renovate the kitchen so that's what we were doing" Daniel explained and I watched him go to Melinda and kiss her and she giggled.

"Okay but I am a little bit hungry. " I say and look down when my stomach rumbles loudly.

"We can eat in the village, there is a small restaurant there" Helios chuckles and I nod.

"Oh I have a present for you, Nora," Kara says and starts to look for something.

"Your handbag is in the car" Felix chuckles and Kara blushes.

"Right, I forgot about that" She says and she grabs my hand and pulls me down and out of the castle. The sun is high in the sky and I have to blink to get used to its brightness.

Kara goes to a black car and opens the door and takes out her handbag and looks through it until she finds the gift.

"Helios said you didn't have one and even if we have our special gift it can still be useful" Kara smiles.

I take the box when she gives it to me and I open it just to find some strange device, I look up at Kara with a confused look on my face.

"It's a mobile phone, Helios can teach you to use it and then you can put in my number in it as well and we can call each other anyday.” Kara say and I nod

But I don’t know where to put it, I need a handbag as well.

“Can we go shopping after eating something?” I ask and Helios look stunned for a second.

“Yes, we can do that” he answers and I smile

“Yes, let’s go shopping and spend all of Helios’ money” Kara squealed.

Helios growls. “Hell no”
