

18. Fear

Evelyn washed her hair, she applied her rose shampoo and then conditioner. She came out of the shower and towel dried her hair. She wore her clothes, applied light makeup and started wearing her shoes.

She brushed her hair and started braiding it. Evelyn packed her bag and went downstairs

"Good morning dad" she said to henry who was reading newspaper quite intensely. "Morning princess" he said and placed the newspaper on the table.

A maid served their breakfast. Evelyn was eating her breakfast when her gaze fell on the newspaper. 'The storms called it quits with jason evans daughter' was written in bold letters on the front page. Henry saw evelyn looking at the news "i was quite surprised when i saw that news" said henry. Evelyn looked at her dad "why? I mean maybe they fell in love with other girls" she asked.

The brothers promised evelyn that they will tell her everything about their special person, so right now the only thing she could do was think. And her only guess was that they fell in love with someone. Evelyn was happy for the storms and also excited about meeting the girls with whom they will get married.

"Because honey you don't know the storm brothers. Once they decide something then not even god can make them change it, if they decided to marry the daughters of jason evans then they would have never changed it unless something big has happened. And about them falling in love "sigh" i don't know what to say about that" said henry and evelyn frowned.

Dad is not wrong, a er all they are famous for their anger, she thought. But they are nice to me, but what if someday they got angry with me. No no, they wouldn't hurt me. I'm their friend, her inner thoughts battled.

I didn't make a mistake by being friends with them. Right? This thought came in her mind out of nowhere and a sudden chill ran down to her spine.

Evelyn and henry finished their breakfast "come on princess i'll drop you a er that i have a meeting" he said, she nodded. She picked up her backpack and they le .

Evelyn was making notes when she heard some whispers, some girls were talking in hushed tone. "Damn, they are hot" said a blonde girl, "hell yeah but they are extremely dangerous too" said another girl. Evelyn was confused, she wondered whom they were talking about.

Melissa lightly elbowed her gaining her attention. "What happened" she asked, "nothing, i am just curious that what are they taking about" evelyn replied pointing towards those girls.

"Now i'm curious too, let's listen" melissa said with a grin and evelyn chuckled. Brendon was talking to kyle so he wasn't paying attention to evelyn. He never told melissa about his deal with the storms, she genuinely considered evelyn as her good friend.

The blonde girl continued "they broke the engagement with those girls, yeah it was on the news"

"I hated those gold digger bitches anyways. God! If i get a chance i can totally make one of them fall for me" said the other girl flipping her hair. Evelyn slightly flinched from their cussing but kept listening with melissa.

"They do kill people you guys know that right" said the third girl and the other two girls glared at her "we know that but have you looked at their tattooed body its so sexy" said the blonde girl.

Melissa nudged evelyn and said "i think i know what and who they are talking about" evelyn silently nodded, she knew that too. They were talking about the storms.

' They do kill peoplèthis line kept repeating in evelyn's mind, she shivered a little. She knew that from the start but still accepted to be their friend. I really made a mistake, she thought.

You need to stay away from thegher subconscious said 'how can i, they are my friends' evelyn thought. So that means you are not scared of them, and you don't get this creepy weird feeling when you are around themher subconscious shot back and evelyn had no answer because she do get creepy vibes sometimes when she is around them. They stare at her way too hard for her comfort.

Evelyn could feel her anxiety getting high just from thinking about the brothers, she could feel some kind of feeling bubble up in her chest but couldn't put a finger on it. ' They do kill peopleagain this sentence started repeating in her mind.

Last bell rang indicating that school is over. Evelyn walked out of her classroom with melissa, brendon and kyle.

Melissa hugged her bye and brendon smiled at her but out of nowhere kyle hugged her "bye beautiful" he whispered in her ear and she shivered uncomfortably. "Kyle let's go" brendon suddenly said breaking him away from her. "B-Bye bye" evelyn said looking at them and le . "That was weird" she thought and walked out of the school.

Evelyn was walking but suddenly stopped dead in her tracks when she saw who was standing in front of her. They were none other than the storms.

The trio was currently sitting in their car, they were going to meet evelyn. Her classes were about to end. Today was the day they were going to tell her that she belongs to them.

"Why the fuck are you driving so slow" elijah barked at the driver who wiped the sweat from his forehead in fear. They all were impatient to see her, ace was bouncing his leg up and down, noah kept checking his watch again and again and elijah just wanted to murder that driver.

Ace was looking out of the car window when suddenly his mind went to the night of the party when they told jason and his whore daughters that they are breaking this engagement.

Flashback

Jason evans slammed his hands on the table "what do you mean that you are ending this engagement" he said through gritted teeth. They all were currently sitting in the storms o ice which is in their mansion.

When evelyn le , shortly a er that they ended the party and told jason and his daughters olivia, elle and crystal that they want to talk to them. When they settled on the chairs noah wasted no time and told them that they are breaking this engagement.

" We had a deal noah" jason said "yeah and now we're ending that deal" said ace in a bored tone.

"Baby why are you saying like that" said crystal to elijah with fake tears. "Listen we are saying it very politely that the deal is over now you all can leave, don't make us angry or else..." elijah sneered and crystal flinched.

"No, you can't end this engagement like that" jason said "well we tried to warn you" said noah, he stood up from his chair and pulled a shiny metal object from his waistband, it was a gun.

Jason and his daughters broke into cold sweat. "Y-You can't s-shoot us, w-we wil-"

BANG!

A shot echoed in the room, jason and his daughters screamed in fear. Jason looked up and his eyes widen when he saw that the bullet went just an inch away from his face. Noah lowered the gun and smirked seeing their terrified faces.

He spinned the gun around his fingers "take this as a last warning, i would have shot you but me and my brothers had a really nice time with our babygirl and we don't want to spoil our mood. Now get out" said noah.

"Oh so you found other girls" said elle. "Who are they" olivia asked with gritted teeth. "Tell us who are those whores" said crystal and it was the breaking point. In a blink of an eye ace pulled out his gun and shot crystal in her le knee "ahhhhh" her scream echoed in the mansion. He marched towards her.

"HOW DARE YOU. THE ONLY WHORE I CAN SEE IS YOU AND YOUR PATHETIC SISTERS" roared ace and kicked her in the stomach.

"No no please ace stop, i beg you. We will never bother you i promise but please leave her" said jason while olivia and elle were a crying mess. Elijah got up from his seat "get out before we change our mind" he sneered, they raced out of their o ice with crystal limping away too.

End of flashback

Ace smirked thinking about their scared faces.

Soon the trio reached her school and started waiting for her.

"She better not deny our feelings" elijah mumbled balling his fists, noah chuckled "do you think if she denied us we are going to let her go he said. "It'll be fun when we'll teach her a lesson if she denied us" ace said with a grin.

Storms smiled seeing evelyn coming out of the school. Their eyes met and their smile widened, they went towards her and hugged her tightly, they practically picked her up from the ground.

Evelyn could feel sweat forming on her forehead a er seeing the storms. "They do kill peoplèthat girls words rang again in her mind. She watched as they came towards her and hugged her tightly.

She had no idea how to react, they were still hugging her or more like carrying her. Smell of their colognes hit her nose. They had a really calming scents but still her heartbeat was picking up. "They do kill peoplé

Evelyn now understood what was that feeling in her chest while thinking about the brothers. It was nothing but pure fear.
