Evelyn

It was almost midnight, i was laying on my bed, thousands of tears were flowing down my eyes.

Today's events played in my mind again and again. "We will kill him in front of your eyes"their voices rang in my mind, i put my hands on my ears "stop" "STOP" i shouted and the voices faded away. I cried my heart out.

"I-I trusted t-them, i thought t-they were my f-friends" i whispered. My voice was hoarse from all the crying. Whenever i closed my eyes their faces came in front of me.

My mind went back to all those memories when they used to touch me everywhere and i never gave it a single thought, i cringed in disgust. I started to feel tired from all the crying and slowly my eyes closed.

Sun rays fell on evelyn's sleeping figure, she groaned in irritation and placed a pillow on her face to block the rays but her sleep was already disturbed.

She yawned and rubbed her eyes. Suddenly yesterday's events came crashing down to her. She just wanted it to be a nightmare but when her eyes fell on the mirror she knew that was all real.

She had bloodshot eyes and had tearstained face. She just wanted to stay in her bed.

With a heavy heart she started doing her morning routine. She wore her clothes and brushed her hair.

She clasped her cross chain around her neck and stared at her reflection.

Evelyn's eyes started to water when she saw her slightly bruised cheek, she still couldn't believe that ace slapped her.

She sighed and started applying makeup to hide it. She picked her backpack and headed downstairs.

"Good morning dad" she said kissing henry's cheek. "Good morning princess" he replied. Martha placed their breakfast and they started eating. "Evie how's your project going" henry asked "project?" she asked him puzzled "yeah, for which you went to melissa's house yesterday" he said while eating his toast.

"Oh yeah t-that project, its going great" she replied looking down at her plate, tears were threatening to spill from her eyes. "That's good" he said with a smile. And with that they started conversing about other things, evelyn felt a little better.

They were still talking when henry's phone went o , evelyn continued eating her breakfast. He picked it up, it was noah.

"Hello" henry said.

"Hy henry" said noah and continued "actually we wanted to meet you, so can you come to our o ice"

"Um sure" he replied.

"Ok good" he said and before henry could say furthur he cut the call.

That was strange, they always inform me in advance about the work, thought henry. He could sense that something was going on with the storms but he shrugged it o . "Lets go dad" said evelyn and he nodded.

Evelyn got out of the car "bye bye dad" she said while waving at him.

"Bye" henry said with a chuckle, her innocent behaviour always made him smile and with that he drove o .

She made her way towards the entrance, her thoughts were still clouded by the storms. They didn't called or anything, which she was glad about. What if they found someone else. Yes! maybe they forgot about meshe thought with a smile.

Only if she knew...

Meanwhile

"HOW DARE YOU SAY THAT" shouted henry and slammed his hands on the table. "ARE YOU OUT OF YOUR MIND, this is never going to happen" henry sneered, he was beyond pissed.

If someone else was talking to the storms like that they would have slitted their throat in a second but right now the situation was di erent. "Well it is going to happen henry whether you like it or not" said elijah while twirling a pen around his fingers.

"NO" he shouted, he took a deep breathe and calmly said "look, what you are saying is ridiculous"

Ace got up from his chair and went towards henry and gave him a dark look. If any other person would have been standing in henry's place they would have pissed their pants but he wasn't going to back out.

"Henry as elijah said, we don't care about your opinion, evelyn is ours" ace said with a clenched jaw. Seeing ace's expression a feeling of dread settled inside henry but he kept his composure.

He turned towards noah "noah at least you try to understand please, what you all are asking is impossible. She is just an innocent kid and I'm sure there are thousands of girls dying to be with you three.

Evelyn could be just your attraction" henry said in a defeated voice.

"Trust me henry we love her a lot and she is not just an attraction, she is our needAnd the main point is, that she will be ours" noah said.

"NEVER" shouted henry and their jaws clenched. "You know, we can easily kill you but we know ourevelyn loves you a lot. But that doesn't mean you are safe" sneered elijah "if you got between our way of having evelyn...we won't hesitate to kill you" ace said with a wicked smile.

"And you know how much we enjoy to kill people" finished noah.

Henry was scared but angry as well. He glared at the trio and stormed out of their o ice. "He better not come in our way" said elijah gritting his teeth.

Henry was sitting in his study drinking wine, papers and books were lying on the floor. When he reached his house and entered inside his study room he started trashing it. Its all my fault, i should have kept her away from them!he thought.

Evelyn

It was evening time, i was doing my homework but my mind was wondering around the storms. They didn't show up today a er school and i was really glad about that. But i did received messages from them and when i say messages like a lot of messages.

Hy kitten.

What are you doing puppy.

Did you eat your breakfast little one.

God! I miss you so much kitten.

You better not be talking to those pathetic boys or else you know what will happen puppy!❤

Stop avoiding our messages little one or else...

And these were just few of them. I tried to ignore them but one warning from noah and i was scared as hell. I was deep in my thoughts when suddenly my bedroom door opened. Dad was standing in front of me and i could tell something was o . He never barges into my room like that and his clothes were all wrinkled.

I went towards his hand "dad what happened" i asked, he stared at me and then held my hand. We sat on my bed "princess you know i love you a lot" he said in a nervous voice.

"Yes i know, dad but what's wrong" i asked, "i want something from you evie" he replied. I stared at him "you can ask for anything" i said with a smile. He gave me a small smile in return.

"I want you to cut all your ties with the storms" he said. "What" i whispered "dad wha-" he cut me o "you were friends with them" he asked with a sigh and i nodded. "Why didn't you tell me that" he asked.

"Dad i tried to tell you but either you got busy or we used to get disturbed by someone else" i replied and dad hummed in response.

"Evie forget those things, from now on i want you to stay away from them. They are bad news" dad said and honestly i couldn't help but agree.

"Ok dad" i happily agreed. Henry frowned a little, she agreed without any question.

"Good" he said and patted my head. "I'm doing this for your own good" he whispered "i know" i said and hugged him. I hope they just leave us alone.

"WHAT THE FUCK" roared elijah and threw his phone on the floor "that little bitch, how dare she block us" sneered ace.

A er a meeting the trio came back in their o ice, they wanted to hear evelyn's voice so ace tried to call her then they found out that she blocked their numbers, they all were fuming with anger.

"She is going to regret this" said noah in a dangerously calm voice.

There was a knock on their door, an employee entered inside. "S-Sirs t-the file of the n-new p-project" said the guy and placed a black file on their desk. He was trying hard not to tremble but all his e orts went in vain.

Noah got up from his chair "when did we ask you to bring the file" he asked while slowly walking towards the scared employee. "Y-Yesterday. I-I'm e-extremely sorry s-sir i-i t-ried to c-complete i-it on time" stuttered the guy, he was on the verge of passing out.

Noah stood behind the guy, ace spoke up getting the guy's attention "we don't pay you to do our work late." "I know sir, i-it won-" the guy got cut o by elijah "there is no place for mercy in our world" he said with a sinister smile and the guy turned pale. "P-Please si-

BANG!

A shot echoed in the storms o ice. That guy fell on the floor, noah shot him in his right eye. He put down his gun and the brothers stared at the poor guy's lifeless corpse.

A er killing someone the trio always have a smile on their faces but today things were di erent, they were not smiling infact they were even more angry. They killed that guy to calm themselves but they weren't satisfied, they wanted to teach evelyn a lesson.

"CHRISTOPHER" yelled ace and he entered. "Sir" christopher said. He ignored the corpse who was missing its right eye. It was normal for him to see corpses in the storms o ice.

"Get this trash out" ordered elijah referring to the body. Christopher nodded his head and easily dragged the body out of the o ice.

"Its time to pay a small visit to our babygirl" said ace with a sinister smile.
