Evelyn bit her lower lip, she hated this. One moment they were these maniacs and in a blink of an eye they turn into these sad puppies. "I'm sorry its my fault too, i-i should've told you earlier" she said. "That means you're not going" ace asked happily. Evelyn shake her head "he needs me, please try to understand. already knowing what was coming.

anger. "We'll just be back" she said to him.

"Henry will stay with us then" noah said smiling. Evelyn looked up at him "no" she said instantly. "Why not?" Elijah asked. She sighed "you know very well that dad...he doesn't like you" she said lowly. Their jaws clenched. "So what now?" Noah growled in frustration. Evelyn placed a hand on hs shoulder "its just about couple of weeks" she said so ly. She needed to keep her calm. "No, you're not leaving us" ace said desperately. "I'm not leavng you, you three can come to meet me and when dad's health get better i will come back" she replied. They remained quiet, she was leaving them.

Evelyn held noah's hand, she caressed his cheek pulling him close "it'll be okay" she whispered. He stared at her. Noah's hands wrapped around her waist holding it tightly. "Fine" he growled and slammed his lips on hers, evelyn gasped but allowed his tongue inside her mouth. She slowly kissed him back letting him dominate her. She heard groans from aside. Elijah and ace dipped their head on her neck. They nipped on her skin making her whimper. "When you come back...you're not leaving the bedroom for weeks" elijah whispered making her shiver. Noah pulled away leaving her gasping for air. Storms rubbed their hard dicks on her delicate body. Evelyn groaned "n-no" she mumbled "d-dad is waiting" They growled loudly making her jump. "Jack will be going with you too" ace ordered. "But-" he raised a finger making evelyn shut her mouth. "Its already very tough for us to let you go for fucking weeks, don't make this any harder" elijah warned. She nodded quietly. "Let's go" elijah grumbled, they were upset, sad. "Um you three go, i'll be back" evelyn said, her cheeks turning red. She needed to hide the bite marks from her neck. "Ok" they replied lowly and le. "And we'll inform you on the call about the coming appointments" the doctor said. Evelyn nodded. They were all set to leave the hospital. Henry was standing with her. Storms were also there, henry coud tell by looking at their dull faces that something was wrong. "Thank you so much doctor" evelyn said shakng his hand. "Its my duty Mrs. Storm" he said smiling. The trio glared at his hand which were touching hers. They were loosing their minds minute by minute. "Careful dad" evelyn said as she helped henry sit inside storms car, they begged her to let them at least drop her and henry. "I'm fine sweetheart, don't worry" he assured her, she smiled sadly. A er all this evelyn would get scared whenever henry would make a movement thinking that he might get hurt. Evelyn sat inside the storm's huge car. The trio also settled inside and what she was fearing happened.

As soon as they sat inside the car, ace buried his face on her neck, elijah placed his head on her shoulder breathing in her scent and noah intertwined his fingers with hers tightly. Evelyn was dying of embarrassment since henry was watching all this. She slowly looked up and found her dad looking at them. But storms didn't cared. Evelyn gave henry a forced smile. Oh the things the brothers wanted to do with her right than and

"Cose che voglio fare con te" (things i wanna do with you)ace growled in her ear. Her heart raced, noah was teaching her italian so she understood what he was saying but henry was confused. She turned her head, evelyn begged from her eyes for them to keep quiet. Noah smirked. "La nostra piccola troia sporca deve essere bagnata" (Our dirty little slut must be wethoah taunted. Evelyn clutched the hem of her dress, she couldn't understand all the words but knew some of it. And henry remained oblivious to all this. Soon they reached evelyn's house. The trio's heart dropped. They didn't wanted her to leave. Jack and chase opened the car doors for them. Henry came out, he sighed seeing his house. For a moment it felt like he won't be able to see it again, that he will die without even seeing his daughter's face last time.

The trio weren't moving, they were still holding her tightly. Evelyn placed her hand on top of elijah's who grolwed in response. "Dad is waiting for me" she said. "You don't care about us" noah said accusingly. "You know that its not true" she replied calmly. "Then don't leave, we'll assign the best nurses for henry's care and we'll take you to visit him whenever you'll ask" ace said desperately. They were ready to do anything for her to stay with them. She cupped his face making ace nuzzle his face on her hands "dad needs me right now not any nurse. I'm his daughter, when mom ddied he didn't drown himself in the grief instead he took even more care of me. He spent his life looking a er me, now when he needs me do you want me to leave him like that" she asked. Ace looked down and shake his head. Evelyn kissed his cheek. She looked at noah and elijah who were giving her sad looks. "You can call me any time you want" she said rubbing their hands. Evelyn was thinking all this as their overprotective nature. She was failing to understand someing was brewing inside their heart, something bad. They came out of the car. The trio came inside the house with evelyn, all the servants were standing there to welcome henry. Evelyn smiled widely a er seeing martha. "Martha" she called and walked towards her. She hugged her tightly "i missed you so much" evelyn mumbled "i missed you too honey" she cooed. They broke the hug. Martha cupped evelyn's face, admiring her. Its been so long since she saw her. She looked so much more mature. "Martha, open evelyn's room. She is staying here" henry said happily. Martha smiled widely "ok sir" she replied. Storms were standing there burning in jealousy. Evelyn turned towards them. Elijah gulped, he wanted to make any excuse just to let her come back to 'their' home. "I'll be ok" she said. They didn't replied. Evelyn hugged them "please stop worrying" she whispered. They hugged her back. "We'll come to visit you" noah said or more like demanded. She nodded. Ace's phone went o, he groaned and pulled it out. "What" he grumbled. Claire was calling him. "Sir the investors have arrived, they are waiting for you" she said sweetly ignoring his angry voice. "Ok" he said and hung up. She smiled "its okay, you go" evelyn said. Storms wanted to leave but not without her. "They looked quite hesitant" henry said as him and evelyn sat in the backyard. "Huh?" She mumbled. "I'm talking about storms" he said. She hummed "they weren't so happy about me staying here" she said honestly, there was no use of hiding it from henry. She knew that he probably understood everything. "No, they weren't happy about youleaving them" he corrected her. She raised a brow in confusion. "They're way too attached with you evelyn" he said. "Its not that dad, they're just overprotective, that's it" she said. But henry remained quiet. He could see that evelyn was way too naive to understand how storms eyes were fixed only on her. Even when they had to leave her hand, it was like the most di icult thing for them to do. It was like they would rather die than leaving her. "And we really liked the presentation" that investor said. But elijah and noah weren't listening. And ace wasn't even attending this meeting, he was in his o ice. It was the first time evelyn le them like this, they couldn't blame her for that but they felt alone...all over again. "Mr. Storm" that investor called as he noticed both elijah and noah looked lost. "Yeah" noah replied coming out of the trance. "So we were saying that we can start the work f-" elijah raised a finger stopping that man. "Can we discuss this tomorrow, i'm not feeling well" he said getting up from his chair. Noah also got up buttoning up his suit jacket, those people nodded quietly. There was no way they were going to argue with them. Ace groaned in frustration. What the fuck was happening?

That was the only question running in his mind, it was about couple of weeks that's it. She'll come back, then why the fuck he couldn't concentrate. The door of the o ice opened. Elijah and noah entered inside, irritation visible on their faces. They were also asking the same question to themselves. Storms always got anxious whenever she wasn't around them and they thought of it only as their extreme possessiveness for her. But it was something else but they couldn't put their finger on it. "I feel weird" noah admitted out of nowhere. Ace and elijah looked at him. Elijah ran his fingers through his curly hair "me too" he replied. And ace didn't even need to say anything, he was quite since morning. Something was really wrong with them. Evelyn stirred the soup. She was sitting in henry's bedroom feeding him. She fed him another spoonful "i can't eat anymore" he said. "Not much is le dad please" she cooed taking another spoonful. He sighed and quietly opened his mouth. Evelyn smiled "finish" she said, he chuckled "you've grown so much" he said. She tilted her head in confusion. "It feels like yesterday, when i used to run behind you to feed you" he said smiling. She grinned. "I missed you a lot sweetheart, this house used to feel so empty without you" he said kissing her hand. Her grin fell "i missed you too dad" she whispered. "Okay now stop making me emotional, let me get your meds" she said. He chuckled and nodded. Evelyn opened the side drawer in which she kept all his medicines. She picked up two dierent pills and passed it to henry. He placed it in his mouth as evelyn passed him the glass of water. He drank it. She took the glass and kept it aside. "Now get some sleep, if you feel any discomfort just call me" she said. He smiled and nodded. "Good night dad" she said "good night princess" henry said. She helped him lay back on the bed and placed a blanket on him. Evelyn kissed his forehead and walked out of the room. It was almost midnight. Every servant had already le. She checked her phone. No missed calls, no messages. She frowned. Its been only one day but storms were calling her every minute and the fact that there wasn't any calls from them was quite odd for her. 36 She decided to call them tomorrow since it was quite late and they must be asleep right now.

Evelyn entered inside her bedroom. It was all dark. She sighed, it was a little weird for her, a er all, a er the marriage there wasn't any night when she wasn't surrounded with those three giants. She turned the lights on. She took her towel from the closet and entered the bathroom to take a shower. She sighed as hot water hit her body, her sore muscles started to relax. The whole day she was either taking care of her dad or answering the calls of storms. They weren't stopping calling her so she switched o her phone. Biggest mistake of her life. Because as soon as she turned on her phone it started to ring. On the phone were three angry storms. She had to talk to them for hours until they calmed down, or that's what she thought. Evelyn wrapped a towel around her naked body. She came out of the bathroom and entered her bedroom again. Evelyn was running fingers through her damp hair when suddenly a hand was placed on her mouth. She started to scream in fear. But it came out mu led due to the tight grip of that hand on her mouth. That person's arms wrapped around her small frame making her fidget harder on his hold. Tears fell from her eyes in fear. "Little one" her eyes shot open at that familiar voice. She stopped struggling. The hand was removed from her mouth, evelyn hurriedly turned around. Her jaw dropped. Storms were standing there. Noah grabbed the back of her neck and pulled her close. "Scared?" He asked wiping her tears. "W-What is
