

There He Is Again, My Ex-Husband

Chapter 81 Find a New Home

‘I’m her biological father. I was hospitalized and she disappeared. Shouldn’t I expose such an unfilial daughter?’

As soon as Emelia walked to the door of the conference room, he heard Oliver shouting at Viggo inside.

Emelia was so angry that she began to laugh.

Oliver was really shameless. How could he say something like ‘I’m her biological father’ without blushing?

Wasn’t he afraid of being struck by lightning if he said such words without conscience?

Perhaps Oliver and his son had always thought that she did not know the inside story of her family, so they bullied her unscrupulously and confidently.

Viggo’s voice came, sounding like he was trying his best to persuade him, ‘But if you make such a scene, both sides will suffer. If Emelia loses everything, you two won’t be able to get anything.’

Oliver scolded angrily, ‘I don’t care! She ruined my life, and I will also ruin hers.’

After Oliver finished speaking, Emelia couldn’t bear it any longer and pushed open the door and walked in.

This was her so-called father and brother. They plotted against her four years ago, and now they were going to destroy her again.

As soon as Oliver and Taylor saw her come in, they immediately rushed towards her with threatening gestures.

‘You unfilial daughter, how dare you show up!’ Oliver was so angry that he wanted to give Emelia a slap.

Viggo rushed over to protect Emelia behind him and scolded the two sternly, ‘If you want to beat her up, don’t blame me for calling the security guards to throw you out.’

Viggo had not expected Oliver and his son to be so mean and even try to hit someone.

Oliver and his son were shocked by Viggo’s imposing manner and took a few steps back.

Chapter 82 Julian hated Her That Much

Suddenly, when Emelia was asked by Viggo, she stopped drinking water and looked a little confused.

After meeting Viggo’s affectionate gaze, she instantly came to her senses.

Nina was right. Viggo was into her.

Emelia had always felt that Nina was talking nonsense, but at this moment, Viggo’s eyes revealed everything.

She put down the glass uneasily, ‘Mr. Johansen, I..’

Before she could finish her words, Viggo directly confessed to her, ‘Emelia, I like you very much.’

Emelia was so terrified that she was on the verge of escaping.

It had been many years since she had been confessed. After graduating from college, she married Julian. Other than Nina, none of her former classmates were in contact with her. She was separated from the world and performed her duty as Mrs. Hughes.

She didn't want to have too much contact with any man, so as not to bring negative news to Julian and the Hughes Family.

At this time, after being suddenly confessed by Viggo, Emelia was not only shocked but also frightened.

Viggo saw her uneasiness and slowed down his tone, 'At first, I was just attracted by your literary talent. Later, when I slowly came into contact with you, I found that your temperament was also charming and gentle, which made me want to cherish and take care of you.'

'I know that you probably don't want to talk about love for the time being. I originally wanted to continue to suppress my feelings, but what happened to Oliver and his son just now made me no longer want to suppress and hide it.'

Viggo looked at her and said word by word sincerely, 'I want to stand by your side and protect you from any harm.'

Emelia admitted that when she was in such a troubled situation, Viggo's words moved her a lot.

But the more moved she was, the more rational she became.

The more rational she became, the more she felt that she could not harm Viggo.

She shook her head and said, 'Mr. Johansen, thank you for your appreciation, but I believe that you will meet a better girl in the future.'

She had once divorced and was not worthy of Viggo.
