Advanced Market

Mr. Fu loves and cares about Miss Rong so much. As a personal assistant, he sees it all in his eyes.

Every time Miss Rong called and sent a message, when did Mr. Fu not answer right away?

Even in a meeting, you have to break the rules you set, and in the hall meeting, you have to answer Miss Rong's phone calls and reply to Miss Rong's news, you can say it once.

But this time, Mr. Fu was obviously not busy, and he saw that it was Miss Rong's call, but he chose to treat it coldly and ignore it.

It's not a relationship problem, what is it?

If there is no problem with the relationship, how could President Fu treat Miss Rong like this.

I just don't know, what happened to these two people when he didn't know it, how could President Fu be like this all of a sudden?

It was obvious that the two of them were still in love yesterday. Today, Mr. Fu is still working hard to deal with all kinds of troubles for Miss Rong. It can be seen that Mr. Fu's feelings for Miss Rong have not eased.

So, the problem is with Miss Rong?

Assistant Zhang touched his chin, thinking in his heart.

It seems like this, but I just don't know what Miss Rong has done to feel sorry for President Fu. Fu Jingting is so angry that she doesn't want to answer her phone.

Suddenly, in the quiet atmosphere, a vibrating sound sounded, breaking the strange silence.

Assistant Zhang looked down and saw that it was Fu Jingting's phone again, but this time it was not a phone call, but a short message.

The text message showed that it was still sent by Miss Rong.

Assistant Zhang immediately raised his head quietly and looked at Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting sat on the chair, holding the pen in both hands, still did not reach out to get the phone, but this time, instead of ignoring the phone, he looked at the screen of the phone, wondering what he was thinking.

When Assistant Zhang saw this scene, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but pull out, "Mr. Fu, I don't know what happened between you and Miss Rong, but it's not a good thing for you to treat like this, in case Miss Rong knows that you deliberately didn't answer the phone or read the news. , your previous situation will be even worse, so you should watch it."

He sincerely persuaded.

He knows how much Mr. Fu loves Miss Rong.

In order to recover Miss Rong, she almost gave her life.

So he doesn't like that two people don't make it clear because of a little conflict, and they don't deal with it in time. Then you will cause the final conflict to become bigger and bigger, and President Fu will regret it again in the future.

That would be worth the loss, and it would be pointless.

Fu Jingting could naturally hear that Assistant Zhang said this for his own good, so he was not angry with Assistant Zhang's suggestion.

He just frowned, then waved, "This is my business, I will handle it myself, you don't need to remind me, you go out first."

"Yes." Seeing that he has said so, what else can Assistant Zhang say? Can nodded in response, picked up the documents he had dealt with, and turned around to go out.

Soon, only Fu Jingting was left in the office.

At this moment, the mobile phone screen has returned to darkness.

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, and the expression on his face was a little tense, as if he was tangled, hesitating.

After a while, he sighed slightly, and picked up the phone.

Yes, he knew that Rong Shu had called, but he chose not to answer on purpose.

Rong Shu was reluctant to tell him no matter what, and would rather ask others for help than him, which made him very angry and felt very defeated.

Obviously he is her man, why does she always skip him to find someone else.

Could it be that he was an unreliable person with her?

So he deliberately didn't answer the phone, and also wanted to be cold to her. In this way, he silently told her that he was not happy, that he had an opinion, and let her know how uncomfortable it felt to be deliberately ignored by the one he loved.

It's just that he also knew how naive he was. After all, Rong Shu didn't know that he was deliberately confused about the phone and deliberately cold to her.

Therefore, Rong Shu couldn't understand the feeling of being deliberately ignored by a loved one.

In other words, his cold treatment was still torturing himself in the end, and he didn't mean to take revenge on Rong Shu at all.

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, and the corner of his mouth pulled out a self-deprecating arc.

Even though he was angry and wanted to be cold to Rong Shu on purpose, he was still soft-hearted and could not stay cold forever.

No, I couldn't hold on for a while, so I picked up the phone.

Think about it, sometimes, I'm really quite useless.

Fu Jingting pressed his eyebrows, operated the phone with the other hand, unlocked it, and clicked on the text message from Rong Shu. Sorry, I didn't know you were busy, did the call just now bother you? You don't need to come back, I just want to ask you a question, but if you're busy, forget it. I'll ask you when you come back in the evening. Also, when will you come back in the evening? If you come back too late, just tell me, don't let me worry, of course it's better to come back early, I'll cook you your favorite dishes.

The content is not particularly long, but there is concern everywhere.

The gloom between Fu Jingting's eyebrows has faded a lot, and his complexion has also eased a lot. Then he tapped his finger and replied to the news, I will go back sooner.

You see, after all, he was unilaterally angry.

In the end, because of her few words, the anger quickly diminished.

In this life, he has really planted her on her.

On the other side, after Rong Shu's message passed, just like the phone call, there was no response.

She was not disappointed, she had already confirmed in her heart that Fu Jingting was busy at the moment and didn't see it. After seeing it, she would definitely reply.

So when the text message was sent, she was very smart. Instead of waiting for a reply, she snuffed out the phone and held it in her hand. Just like Lu Qi, she leaned against the car window, closed her eyes, and took a nap. stand up.

Probably because she drank a lot of alcohol, her head was a little dizzy at the moment.

But not as serious as Lu Qi, Lu Qi was completely drunk and slept in the dark.

And she wasn't sleepy.

Not long after Rong Shu closed her eyes, the phone in her hand suddenly vibrated.

Rong Shu's hand was suddenly numb for a moment. If she hadn't reacted in time, she would have threw the phone out subconsciously.

Rong Shu opened her eyes and sat up straight, flipped her wrist, and brought the phone to her.

Seeing that it was Fu Jingting's text message, she laughed and clicked it quickly.

However, there is only a short sentence above, and it does not exceed ten words. Compared with her own dozens or hundreds of words, it is too far away, which makes her feel a little bit of a gap in her heart.

However, Rong Shu quickly adjusted her mind.

No matter how many words he replies, she should be content if she can find time to reply to her while busy.

Rong Shu smoothed the messy hair she just leaned against the car window, and replied again, then I'll wait for you, and be careful when you come back.

After sending it, Rong Shu thought that Fu Jingting should be busy again and would not continue to reply, so she turned off the phone and put it in her bag, then slightly stretched her head and said to the driver who was driving, "Sir, we arrived at Repulse Bay. At that time, you can send me to the door of the nearby high-end market, I am going to buy vegetables, then you can send him to the Lu family, and my car can also be put directly at the Lu family, and it will not be sent back."

"Okay lady." The driver responded with a smile.

Rong Shu nodded and leaned back on the seat back.

Half an hour later, the high-end market in Repulse Bay arrived.

Rong Shu got out of the car and instructed the driver again, and asked the driver to send Lu Qi back, and then called herself back before turning around and entering the market gate.

It's not a big deal

Tonight, she wanted to buy more food, cook more delicious food, and make up for Fu Jingting, and she should also make up for the neglect of him during this period.

Thinking about it, a smile appeared on Rong Shu's face, pushing the supermarket trolley and turning it around the fresh food area.

By the time she finished shopping, it was already past six o'clock in the evening, and the sky outside the supermarket was already dark.

Rong Shu carried two large bags of things, swaying from side to side to Repulse Bay like a penguin.

There are too many things, and they are too heavy. The speed of walking is conceivably slow, and when walking, the two bags of things that she is carrying also bump into her calf from time to time, which brings a lot to her walking. some degree of hindrance.

Fortunately, Repulse Bay is not far from here. After walking out of the market, it will take a few minutes to walk there.

Finally, about ten minutes later, Rong Shu successfully returned to the apartment with two large bags.

After she put the things in the kitchen, she breathed a sigh of relief, leaned against the bottom wall of the kitchen, and took a deep breath to rest.

I can't, I'm so tired.

She was wearing high heels and walking back carrying two heavy bags, not only her feet were sore, but her arms and shoulders were also sore.

Rong Shu leaned against the wall, bent down and rubbed her calf for a while, straightened her body and beat her shoulders and pinched her arms.

After a while, my body was relieved, and then I started to turn over two bags and cook with the ingredients.

Meanwhile, in the underground car park in Repulse Bay.

Assistant Zhang drove the car to a vacant seat and stopped, turned to the man in the back seat with his eyes closed and reminded, "Mr. Fu, here we are."

There were no headlights in the car, and the back seat was pitch black.

Assistant Zhang couldn't see Fu Jingting clearly, but could only see part of his body outline.

But such a man hidden in the dark gives people a full sense of oppression.

When Fu Jingting heard Assistant Zhang's words, he opened his eyes slightly, a dark light flashed in his eyes, and he hummed as a response.

But it was only a response. Fu Jingting still sat there elegantly with his legs folded, his hands resting on the door armrest, his head resting on it, and he had no intention of getting out of the car.

Assistant Zhang turned on the darkest headlights in the car, and finally he could see what Fu Jingting looked like at the moment.

Seeing him staring blankly at the empty parking space outside the car window, Assistant Zhang said in surprise, "Miss Rong's parking space has not been parked, so Miss Rong hasn't come back yet?"

"She is back." said a word.

When she sent a message in the afternoon, she said she was going back to Repulse Bay.

He believed that she would not lie to him.

As for why the car didn't stop here

, Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, "Check if her car is at Lu's house."

"Ah?" Assistant Zhang was stunned, then looked at Fu Jingting's gloomy handsome face, After a shiver, without further delay, he quickly took out his mobile phone and made a call, and gave Rong Shu's license plate to the other party.

After about two minutes, Assistant Zhang got the desired result.

He put down his cell phone, looked at Fu Jingting in surprise, and gave a thumbs up, "Mr. Fu, you really know what to expect. Miss Rong's car is really at Lu's house, but how did you know?"

"We went to dinner together, and after Lu Qi brought her back, he drove her car away." Fu Jingting said lightly raising his eyelids.

Assistant Zhang suddenly said, "I forgot about this."

He couldn't help but patted his forehead.

Then he thought of something. Assistant Zhang's eyes widened and his mouth widened. He seemed to want to say something, but he was worried about something and never made a sound.

Fu Jingting squinted, "What do you want to say?"

Seeing that his own words were found out, Assistant Zhang couldn't hide it, so he could only tell his guess, "Mr. Fu, your attitude towards Miss Rong is so strange today, it shouldn't be because Rong Miss Lu, will you go to dinner with Mr. Lu?"

But it doesn't seem right.

During the day, Mr. Fu knew that Miss Rong and Mr. Lu were going to dinner together. Although they were a little bit appetizing and rushed to pay the bill, Mr. Fu's attitude towards Ms. Rong at that time was not like this.

Moreover, Mr. Fu also said at that time that Mr. Lu was there to help Miss Rong, so it was normal for Miss Rong to invite Mr. Lu to dinner, and he would not be jealous in such a place.

That's why he thought, it seems that his guess is a bit wrong.

But apart from this reason, he really couldn't imagine why President Fu suddenly became indifferent to Miss Rong.

He can only say that love is really a headache.

Fortunately, he has not found his own love now.

"No." Fu Jingting glanced at Assistant Zhang, who was blind, and uttered two words in a low voice.

Assistant Zhang blinked in surprise, "No?"

He actually guessed wrong.

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips and said nothing.

Assistant Zhang saw him like this, and boldly asked again, "Then Mr. Fu, what happened between you and Miss Rong?"

Fu Jingting rubbed his thumb, not intending to answer.

Assistant Zhang sighed helplessly.

Yes, this mouth is really hard, I won't say anything if I bite it to death.

He originally thought about helping President Fu come up with ideas.

As a result, people refused to talk about their farts, and he came up with a fart idea.

Just as he was thinking, a cell phone rang in the car, interrupting Assistant Zhang's complaints.

Assistant Zhang looked at Fu Jingting, his phone was ringing.

Fu Jingting had already taken the phone out of his pocket and was looking down at the phone screen.

Although Assistant Zhang was in the driver's seat and was a little far from the phone, he stretched his neck slightly and could still see the content on the screen.

The call was from Rong Shu. Assistant

Zhang opened his mouth again, then looked at Fu Jingting, wanting to see how he would choose this time. Like Bai Yi, he chose to ignore it on purpose and not answer, but what about choosing to answer? Assistant Zhang did not wait long for this answer. I saw Fu Jingting put his hand down from the armrest of the car door, straightened his head, then swiped the screen with his thumb, and put the phone to his ear. received! Actually took it! Assistant Zhang opened his eyes in surprise. Mr. Fu no longer deliberately refused to answer Miss Rong's calls as he did during the day, but chose to answer. So it seems that the situation between the two people is not particularly bad. Also, if it's bad, why did President Fu choose to go back to Repulse Bay instead of going back to his residence? It seems that you don't have to worry too much. Assistant Zhang breathed a sigh of relief, smiled reassuringly, and then quietly listened to Fu Jingting talking to the person over the phone. "Hello?" Fu Jingting said in a low voice, his tone still seemed a little cold, not at all the gentleness and doting he usually speaks to Rong Shu. But Rong Shu was cooking at the moment. She tilted her head and put her mobile phone on her shoulders. She was busy with both hands, holding the handle of the pot in one hand and the spatula in the other. Stir frying, the sizzling cooking sound is loud, which just covers the indifference in Fu Jingting's tone. That's why Rong Shu didn't hear it, and asked as usual, "Are you done? When will you be back?"

On the phone, Fu Jingting naturally heard the sound of cooking over there, and a busy figure of Rong Shu wearing an apron and cooking for himself in the kitchen began to appear in his mind.

Such a picture, just thinking about it, feels warm.

And this kind of warmth is what a lover can bring.

Fu Jingting's brows loosened, and the indifference in his tone instantly vanished, returning to his usual gentleness.

Carving

"I've already gone downstairs, I'll be back soon." Fu Jingting replied warmly.

Rong Shu heard this and smiled, "That's great, I'm just making the last dish, I'm not afraid that it won't taste good after a while, so hurry up and eat right away."

"Well." Fu Jingting nodded slightly.

After the call, he put down the phone and opened his folded legs.

It looked like he was finally ready to get off.

Sure enough, the next moment, after Fu Jingting put the phone away, he opened the car door and bent down to get out of the car.

Assistant Zhang also hurriedly got out of the driver's window, and stopped the man who was about to walk towards the elevator, "Mr. Fu." Fu

Jingting stopped, frowning, as if he was a little dissatisfied with himself who was calling to go home.

"What's the matter?" Fu Jingting pursed his lips, and his tone was obviously impatient.

Assistant Zhang's mouth twitched and twitched.

Well, is this his fault for delaying his time to go home?

Assistant Zhang rolled his eyes.

Who just stayed in the car and didn't move after the car stopped?

At that time, I didn't see him rushing to get out of the car and go home.

Now that Miss Rong called, she started to go back in a hurry.

O man!

Although he complained so much in his heart, Assistant Zhang didn't show it on his face, and asked with a smile, "Do you want to pick you up tomorrow?"

"What do you think?" Fu Jingting asked blankly.

Assistant Zhang glanced at Rong Shu's empty parking space and fell silent. After a few seconds, he spoke again, "I know Mr. Fu, what time will you be arriving tomorrow morning?"

"Eight o'clock." Fu Jingting thought for a while and gave a time.

Assistant Zhang nodded and took note.

Fu Jingting turned around and wanted to leave again.

Assistant Zhang thought of something again, stretched his hand out of the car window, and stopped him again, "Mr. Fu!" Fu

Jingting was really angry this time, and turned his head with a dark face, "You better be important Otherwise, you should go back to the group to work overtime."

" Assistant Zhang breathed a sigh of relief.

This man is really vicious!

"Mr. Fu, I want to say, no matter what happened between you and Miss Rong, I hope you can have a good talk with Miss Rong after you go back tonight, try to clear up the misunderstanding, and avoid more trouble in the future. Miss, you almost gave your life to pursue it again, I don't want you to get into trouble because of some minor conflicts or misunderstandings, Mr. Fu, do you understand when I say this?" Assistant Zhang looked at Fu Jingting, cautiously. 's question.

As an assistant, it has become more and more normal for him to meddle in the boss's personal feelings.

But he really couldn't bear to see Mr. Fu and Miss Rong separated, Mr. Fu only fell into pain once in love.

Therefore, he mustered up the courage and dared to give his own advice.

I just hope Mr. Fu doesn't blame him.

In fact, Fu Jingting really didn't mean to blame Assistant Zhang.

He's not the kind of person who doesn't know good or bad.

When Assistant Zhang said these words, he also cared about him. He would not be indiscriminate and punish Assistant Zhang because of his behavior.

"You don't need to tell me about this, I'll do it too." The displeasure on Fu Jingting's face disappeared, replaced by a cold calm.

This shows that he no longer cares about Assistant Zhang's behavior of stopping him over and over again.

Nor would he care about Assistant Zhang's rude behavior to meddle in his personal feelings.

When Assistant Zhang heard it, he was relieved. After patting his chest, he laughed, "That's good, then I won't delay the reunion between Mr. Fu and Miss Rong. I'll go first and come back tomorrow morning."

Fu Jingting hummed.

Assistant Zhang rolled up the window, the car backed up, and then turned around and left.

Fu Jingting rubbed his brows and entered the elevator.

Two minutes later, Fu Jingting opened the door of the apartment and walked in.

As soon as you step into the hallway, a refreshing smell of food hits your nostrils.

Smelling this fragrance, Fu Jingting's face softened even more, and the temperament around his body softened, no longer as cold and indifferent as he was in the parking lot.

Fu Jingting changed his shoes and walked into the living room with his feet up.

There was no one in the living room, only a few dishes and soups were placed on the dining table.

Seeing these dishes, Fu Jingting's eyes flashed with surprise.

The meal tonight was so rich!

You know, there are only two of them, and they usually eat at most four dishes, one soup, and the essence is not too expensive.

Sometimes I can't finish it, after all, the appetite is there.

But tonight, she made so many dishes. There were six or seven dishes on the table, not even soup.

Is there anything good tonight?

She does so much!

Fu Jingting took off his coat and hung it on a shelf on the side, then turned and walked towards the kitchen.

The woman was not in the living room, and there was still movement in the kitchen, so it was obvious where the woman was.

Fu Jingting's walking movements were very light, and there was hardly any sound.

When he came to the door of the kitchen, Rong Shu was standing behind the cooking counter, bowing his head and doing something seriously.

But it was blocked by her body, and Fu Jingting couldn't see it either.

But that didn't stop Fu Jingting from leaning against the door frame of the kitchen, staring at her figure with his arms around him.

The woman's figure is very good, 1.68 meters tall, not the tallest among women, but not short.

In particular, Rong Shu's figure is very well proportioned, with a complete nine-headed body proportion, and the overall figure looks very tall and outstanding.

Coupled with the protruding front and back, the slender waist and long legs, the beauty makes people unable to take their eyes off.

Fu Jingting's eyes were constantly gazing back and forth on the woman's waist and upturned buttocks at this moment, his eyes were dark as if he wanted to suck everything in, making people not dare to look at each other too much.

Perhaps his eyes were too straightforward, Rong Shu faintly noticed something, stopped the carving knife in his hand, turned around, and met Fu Jingting's dark eyes.

"Ah!" Rong Shu's body trembled, and she was completely startled.

Hearing her cry, Fu Jingting immediately returned to his senses, and came to her with his long legs, grabbed her shoulders with both hands, and asked eagerly, "What's wrong?"

Rong Shu looked at the man's nervous appearance, funny Said "I'm fine, I was frightened by you, I turned my head suddenly, and saw a person standing at the door, anyone would be frightened, but you too, don't say a word when you come back, not even a sound. , isn't it scary?"

Fu Jingting sighed in relief after hearing this, "I'm sorry, I just wanted to see what you were doing, I didn't expect to scare you."

He really didn't mean it.

She didn't expect her to react so strongly when she saw him.

Rong Shu looked at the man's apologetic look and patted his arm lightly, "Okay, I'm fine, it's not your fault, it's because I was too focused just now, so I was so easily frightened.

"What were you doing just now?" Fu Jingting passed her and looked behind her.

Rong Shu turned around and said, "I'm carving flowers."

She picked up the half-carved pumpkin, and smiled a little embarrassedly, "The last dish needs to be presented before it looks good. I forgot to buy an orchid, so I decided to carve one myself, and I learned it online for a while. It's simple, but it's very difficult to make. After sculpting for a long time, I didn't expect the effect to be so bad. It's crooked, it doesn't look like a flower, but a pool of mud."

Fu Jingting smiled softly, "It's a bit like , but it can still be saved."

"Can this still be saved?" Rong Shu opened her eyes in surprise.

Fu Jingting nodded and replied with certainty, "Yes!"

Almost gone

“Really?” Rong Shu looked at the man without blinking.

The man nodded, “Really, leave it to me if you don’t believe me?”

Rong Shu didn’t say anything, just handed the carving knife over.

After the man took it, he took two steps forward, stood in the position where she just stood, picked up the pumpkin that she carved like mud, and looked carefully, it seemed that it was better to start improving there first.

Rong Shu didn’t know the man’s plan. Seeing the man holding the carving knife and the pumpkin she carved motionless, she thought that the man finally realized that things were not as simple and easy as what he said at the beginning, and was about to start laughing. When he turned his face, he saw that the man suddenly moved.

The man’s slender fingers are holding the carving knife, and he is carving on the pumpkin one by one. The speed is quite fast. He doesn’t look like a novice at all, but an old master with many years of carving experience.

Rong Shu’s surprised red lips parted slightly, “You are so skilled, when did you learn to carve? Could it be that when you were learning to cook, you also learned food carving?”

After all, food carving is also a part of cooking. part.

However, very few people can learn it. Basically, people who have the dream of becoming a hotel chef or a chef in some high-end restaurants will learn it.

It is only in such positions that food tune-ups come in handy.

And the chefs of ordinary small restaurants are basically home-cooked dishes, and there are no complicated food carvings in home-cooked dishes.

Although Fu Jingting is learning to cook recently, he is also learning home-cooked dishes from major cuisines, not those delicate and beautiful dishes.

Therefore, she couldn’t be surprised that he could eat eagles.

“I didn’t study.” Unexpectedly, Fu Jingting’s answer was that he had never studied.

Rong Shu walked up to him in surprise, looking at the movements in his hands, his expression became even more surprised, “Have you never learned? Then how did you know it? And you look so skilled!”

Fu Jingting carves the things in his hand seriously, without looking up, just chuckling back, "I learned jade carving for a while in high school."

"Jade carving?"

"Well." I wanted to give a special gift, but I didn't know what to give. Later, Zhang Cheng suggested that I give a statue of Guanyin."

"Oh, I see." Rong Shu clapped her hands, "Grandma believes in Buddhism, it is really suitable to give a statue of Guanyin. Fu Jingting hummed, "

Yes, but my grandmother has a lot of Guanyin statues, and all of those Guanyin statues are from the first of the famous sculptors. If I send another Guanyin statue carved by those famous sculptors, for my grandmother, it is nothing more than one more. It's exactly the same, it doesn't feel too strange."

"So, you just went to learn jade carving so that your grandmother can see the Guanyin statue and have a bright feeling?" Rong Shu rubbed her chin and guessed.

Fu Jingting curled his lips, "Almost, other than that, at that time, because of my heart condition, I couldn't do many things, and I felt like a crippled person. This gap made me even have symptoms of mania, anger and misanthropy. Learning jade carving, in addition to wanting to give a gift to grandmother, can also be regarded as self-cultivation. Jade carving requires a lot of patience and care. If you have a bad attitude

, you can't learn it at all." Yudiao, you will put a greater burden on your heart because of irritability, so that your heart may not even be able to support the time for a heart change?" Rong Shu bit her lips and asked.

Fu Jingting nodded, "That's right."

Rong Shu's heart shrank suddenly, then stepped back behind him, hugged him from behind, and rested his head on his strong back.

Fu Jingting was stunned for a moment, and the carving on his hand stopped, obviously startled by the woman's sudden action.

He put down the knife in his hand and turned his head slightly to look at the woman behind him.

The woman was holding him, and his head couldn't rotate in a large arc, so he couldn't see the whole woman, only part of the woman's body and side face, but even so, his eyes were still gentle and doting, "What's the matter? Why are you so active today?"

"I'm not the one who took the initiative." Rong Shu raised her head and glanced at the man's profile, then lowered her head and put her forehead against the man's vest, her red lips parted lightly, her voice muffled In the boredom, with a bit of happiness, "I'm just happy, fortunately Assistant Zhang suggested you to send Guanyin, otherwise you wouldn't think about learning jade carving, if you don't learn jade carving, then you can't calm your heart. , can't calm down."

She couldn't go on, her voice was a little trembling, choked, and scared.

She was afraid that he did not learn jade carving and self-cultivation in those days, and his heart could not support and find a suitable heart and died in that year.

Aware that the woman was in a bad mood at the moment, Fu Jingting put down the pumpkin in his hand, turned around, hugged the woman tightly, rubbed his chin on the top of the woman's head, and reassured her softly, "Okay, am I okay? , don't be afraid, that's all in the past, isn't it okay for me now?"

He rubbed the woman's hair as he spoke.

The strength is a little bigger, but also to let her know that he is really good at the moment, standing in front of her, he is not an illusion, let her stop thinking about it, stop being afraid.

Rong Shu raised her head, her eyes were a little red, "I know you are fine now, but what happened back then was still quite scary and dangerous, and it was a close call, if there was no Assistant Zhang's suggestion, if you didn't accept Assistant Zhang's advice Suggestion, you don't have you now!"

Fu Jingting's eyes were full of smiles, "But it turns out that Zhang Cheng made a suggestion, and I accepted it, didn't I?"

"What if you did n't have it at the time?"

"No emergency." Fu Jingting replied seriously.

Rong Shu pursed her lips, "How do you say?"

"Don't forget, at that time, you and I were already pen pals." Fu Jingting squeezed her face gently, "I remember, at that time, we had been pen pals for two years, although I hadn't fallen in love yet. You, but I have already developed an interest in you. I always knew that I needed to calm down and adjust my mentality, and I couldn't be more irritable. So when Zhang Cheng proposed, I immediately thought of learning jade carving and adjusting my own. Mindset, only in this way can I live longer, have more time to insist on finding the right heart, and meet you in the future."

"So, in order to meet me, you will not reject Assistant Zhang's proposal, right? Right?" Rong Shu sniffled and looked at the man.

The man lowered his head and dropped a very gentle kiss on her wet eyes. He answered in a gloomy and pleasant voice, "Of course, so can you feel at ease now?"

Rong Shu snorted and put her forehead on his chest, did not speak, it was the default.

Fu Jingting chuckled lightly, putting one hand around her waist and the other on the back of her head, rubbing lightly, coaxing her like a child.

Rong Shu leaned in his arms, raised the corners of her mouth slightly, and enjoyed him coaxing her very much.

What woman doesn't want to live as a child?

Which woman doesn't like her lover, who treats herself like a child?

Anyway, she likes it.

But Rong Shu knew what time it was, and couldn't live with Fu Jingting forever.

So after Fu Jingting hugged her for about two minutes, she took the initiative to come out of Fu Jingting's arms and looked at the slightly startled man with a smile on her face.

The man seemed to be still wondering, why didn't she let him hug him?

Teach you hands-on

"Okay, it's getting late, you should hurry up and finish carving the remaining orchids. After carving, we can eat well, otherwise the food will be cold in a while." Rong Shu said, arranging her hair that was ruffled by the man.

The man is relieved.

It was because of this that she came out of his arms.

He thought that she despised his embrace.

"Okay, I'll speed up a bit." Fu Jingting nodded slightly, turned around again, picked up the pumpkin and carving knife that he put down just now, and continued to carve.

Rong Shu also stood beside him again and watched him sculpting obediently, "I didn't expect you to learn to carve a statue of Guanyin, and you can actually sculpt an orchid.

"I started carving directly from the beginning? Although I have money, I don't care how much jade is wasted, but the master I worship cares and cares about the rough jade, so let me use the leftovers of jade to start carving from some simple small objects, orchids. It is one of them. After I have learned some carving techniques from carving small objects, and I am almost proficient, I will teach me to carve large objects."

"I see." Rong Shu nodded suddenly, "But it is all like this. It's a long time ago, I didn't expect you to remember it, you are still so skilled, if it were me, I would have become a novice again."

Fu Jingting's eyes flashed, not only intentionally or unintentionally, but he did not answer this sentence.

Rong Shu didn't feel that something was wrong, and looked at the pumpkin in Fu Jingting's hand with glowing eyes.

At the beginning, the pumpkin was carved in a mess by her, saying that it was an orchid, and at the end it looked like an orchid, not to mention that it didn't look like an orchid at all.

But now, after some renovations by Fu Jingting, the appearance of an orchid has already taken shape, and you can tell at a glance that it is indeed an orchid.

Rong Shu was amazed, "It's amazing, it turned out to be really helpful, Fu Jingting, you are amazing!"

The woman's compliment made Fu Jingting feel physically and mentally happy, the curvature of the thin lips became more intense, and even the chin was raised a little higher than before.

Obviously, the woman's compliments made him very useful, and he felt a little proud.

But he didn't take it seriously, and replied indifferently, "It's okay."

Rong Shu didn't know that he was pretending to be humble, and hearing his indifferent answer, he was a little unhappy, and pouted and said, "That's okay? It's very nice, I can't think of it, you still have this ability, I've never heard of you before."

She stared at the man with star eyes.

The men were a little embarrassed by her eyes, pursed their lips and coughed, pretending to be calm, "This is not an important matter, so I haven't told you in the past, as for now, I myself Forget, if you hadn't carved this tonight, I wouldn't even remember."

He lowered his eyelids, covering the flash of a look in his eyes.

Rong Shu didn't see it, and said complacently, "So, I have rediscovered some of your skills?"

Seeing the woman's proud look, Fu Jingting freed his hand and scratched the bridge of her nose, "That's right. Rong Shu smiled brighter, "

It seems that in the future, I have to find something new, so maybe you have other skills that I will discover."

Fu Jingting raised his eyebrows, why? I didn't expect her brain to be so big.

But she was right in saying that he did have some skills that he hadn't told her or showed.

After all, as a Fu family member, he has become the heir from the moment he was born, so he naturally has a lot to learn.

It can be said that all kinds of skills, although he is not proficient, but he knows a little bit.

In short, so far, he doesn't know what he will be.

"Okay, then I expect you to dig out all my skills." Fu Jingting said fondly.

Rong Shu nodded heavily, "Okay, then you wait, I will definitely do it."

"Well, I believe in you." Fu Jingting nodded.

After that, Rong Shu stopped disturbing him and became quiet.

Fu Jingting sculpted for a while, watched her look at her sculpting so seriously, thought for a while, stopped the movement in his hand and asked, "Would you like to try it?"

Rong Shu stood up straight in shock, "Me? Try it? "

She pointed to her nose.

Fu Jingting nodded, "Well."

"No, I can't." Rong Shu shook her head and waved her hands, indicating that she couldn't do it.

Fu Jingting looked at her, "Why not?"

“You saw it just now, I sculpted into that ghost, and I’m different from you, I’m a novice trying it out for the first time today, you’ve already known it, you’ve put me The sculpted ghost has been corrected again, if I were trying to destroy the orchid that you finally corrected, it would be a pity.” Rong Shu said with a hand spread.

Fu Jingting looked at her, looked at the orchid in his hand, and finally chuckled, “It doesn’t matter, if it is destroyed, it will be destroyed. Anyway, it’s just the two of us, and I’m not afraid of other people’s jokes, saying, there is me, I don’t I think it will be ruined, come here and I will teach you.”

He beckoned to the woman.

Rong Shu looked at the orchid in his hand, still very moved.

In fact, when she saw that a man simply brought back her shit-like work, it was not that she was not curious, or that she did not want to try it.

However, she knew her own level, and in order not to make jokes, she had to endure it.

But now that the man took the initiative to mention it, he hooked up her impulse again.

Seeing that the woman was about to move and was a little hesitant, Fu Jingting stretched out his hand, grabbed the woman’s wrist, and pulled the woman over.

Rong Shu was still struggling in public, and was caught off guard by the man, and was taken aback, ahh.

Fu Jingting put his index finger on her lips, “Don’t be afraid, it’s me.”

Rong Shu blinked, then took his hand away from his lips, and said angrily, “I know it’s you, but I was caught by you suddenly. Pull me over and startled.”

Fu Jingting pulled his thin lips, “I’m sorry, I just saw that you wanted to try but didn’t dare, so I’m just helping you decide, okay, let’s try it, don’t worry, there is As for me, I’ll teach you, so you won’t break it.” As he spoke, he pulled her to him, stood behind her, and stuffed the pumpkin and the carving knife into her hands, while he Hold her both hands from the face, and teach her the steps behind the carving.

Not to mention, with Fu Jingting guiding her, Rong Shu was cautious at the beginning, but became smoother and smoother at the back, and she laughed happily, “Fu Jingting, have you seen it? The easiest carving method you taught, but I really learned it.”

She turned to look at the man behind her, her face flushed with excitement.

Seeing her so happy, Fu Jingting also laughed, "Yes, very smart."

"That's it." Rong Shu raised her chin proudly, then poked the man behind her with her elbow, "Let me go first."

"What's wrong?" Fu Jingting looked at her puzzled and asked.

Rong Shu snorted, "Of course it's because I already know it. Next, I have to do it by myself, so I don't need you anymore, you can let me go."

"Fu Jingting twitched his thin lips. Then I confirmed it again, "Are you sure you don't need me to teach you later?"

Pride and Complacency

"Affirmative and affirmative!" Rong Shu nodded with a very serious expression, indicating that she had indeed learned it, and she really didn't need him anymore.

Seeing her so confident, Fu Jingting shook his head with a smile, "Okay, then come, I'll wait to see your results."

He wanted to see if she really didn't need him.

"Don't worry, I won't let you down." She smiled at him, then turned her head back and began to carve the back.

Seeing that she ignored him, Fu Jingting patted her on the head lightly, then walked to the side wall with his arms around to lean against.

Rong Shu turned her head and glared at him, "What are you doing?"

"It's nothing, I'm just teaching a little white-eyed wolf." Fu Jingting shrugged back.

Rong Shu stared, "Who is the wolf? You are the wolf!"

"I'm not wrong." Fu Jingting separated his hands and spread them out, "I taught you, you push me aside and abandon it. No need, this isn't a little white-eyed wolf? It's not just a little white-eyed wolf, but also a little unconscionable."

“You” Rong Shu was blocked by him so much that he couldn’t speak, because what the man said seemed to make some sense. .

I really felt that after I learned, I pushed the man aside.

This is indeed a kind of white-eyed wolf behavior of putting on pants and not recognizing the account.

For a time, Rong Shu’s embarrassed face turned red.

Seeing her like this, Fu Jingting still had the heart to tease her, took a step forward, rubbed her hair lightly, and messed up the hair that she had just managed to straighten out again, “Okay, I’m kidding you, don’t think too much. , Huh?”

Rong Shu waved the man’s hand away from her head angrily, “Go away, I don’t want to ignore you.”

“You really ignore me?” Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes, “If you still want to eat later, don’t bother, aren’t you hungry?”

Fu Jingting nodded, “I’m a little hungry.”

“Then put it aside, and when I finish carving this, I can eat.” Rong Shu waved her hand and urged in disgust.

Fu Jingting smiled softly, “Okay, then I won’t disturb you, you are busy.”

Seeing that she was so impatient, Fu Jingting retreated again and let the venue out.

Rong Shu saw that he had left obediently, and after moving her wrist, she continued to lower her head to carve.

Unexpectedly, I thought it would be very easy to sculpt it next. After all, I have learned it myself, right?

But I don’t know why, the reality is not as good as I imagined.

At the beginning, Fu Jingting took it with her, not to mention how smooth she was to carve.

But how did it get so difficult all of a sudden?

Every time the knife is carved, I can clearly feel the obvious resistance, and it is not as easy as Fu Jingting at the beginning.

When Fu Jingting took her, the flesh of the pumpkin was easily chopped off without a knife.

And now that I do it myself, I need to spend a little more effort before I can cut the pumpkin flesh.

In less than two minutes, she clearly felt that her arm was a little pantothenic, exactly the same as when Fu Jingting sculpted before he came back.

What's going on?

Rong Shu stopped the movement in his hand, looked down at the carving knife in his hand, and the pumpkin orchid that was almost formed, and began to be stunned.

She leaned behind her, and the man leaning on the wall saw her suddenly motionless, his eyes flashed, and he hooked his lips and said, "What's the matter? The carving is over?"

Rong Shu's red lips parted, and after a while, she made a sound of embarrassment. "No."

"Why not?" The smile in Fu Jingting's eyes grew stronger.

Rong Shu clenched the carving knife and said nothing.

Why not engrave?

Of course it was because I was too tired.

Seeing that the woman didn't speak, she tilted her head to look at her arm. Fu Jingting stepped forward in a funny way and took the carving knife and pumpkin orchid in his hand, "Okay, let me do it, is my arm sore?"

Rong Shu was surprised He looked at the man, "Why, you already knew I would do this, right? That's why you asked me if I was sure."

Fu Jingting lowered his head and said, "You are a novice and have never carved before. However, even if I learned a little bit of fur, I still don't know the strength and skills of carving, so I am sure that your arms will be sore in a short time, because I was like this when I started."

"So it turns out . That's it." Rong Shu pouted unhappily, and his eyes fell on the man's hand.

Seeing that the man gently peeled off a piece of pumpkin flesh, she asked again, "Why did I peel off the pumpkin flesh so easily when I first carved it, but it just didn't work?"

Fu Jingting lifted it lightly. Eyelid looked at her, "Of course it's because I took you with me at the beginning, my hand has been holding your hand, it's not so much you sculpting, it's more that I'm exerting force, so of course you will feel very relaxed, Without me, you would find it so difficult."

"Rong Shu was completely silent at this moment.

It turned out that the clown was actually herself.

It's no wonder that when she was with Fu Jingting, her carving was so simple, and she didn't feel any difficulty.

It turned out that he was working behind his back.

To put it bluntly, he was sculpting from beginning to end, and her so-called learning to sculpt was just that Fu Jingting deliberately made her happy.

But she took it seriously, thinking that she really learned it, and she became proud and complacent about it.

Rong Shu covered her face, "Just now, you must be laughing at me, right?"

Fu Jingting chuckled, "No."

"I don't believe it." Rong Shu muttered.

Fu Jingting blew the pumpkin crumbs in his hand, "Okay, it's carved, how about it? "

He handed over the carved orchid.

Rong Shu looked down, and her eyes lit up, "It's so beautiful."

She took the orchid with a smile and put it in her hand to look at it.

Fu Jingting washed the carving knife and put it away. Hearing her words, his smile became even stronger, "It's good if you like it. If you have time in the future, how about I teach you if you want to learn?"

"Okay." Rong Shu put the orchid aside. In the dish, he nodded happily, "In the future, I must carve a good-looking flower myself, and I won't let you see jokes again."

"Then it's settled, let's go and eat first." Fu Jingting Take the initiative to serve the dish.

Rong Shu didn't stop her, and followed behind him except in the kitchen.

Coming to the dining table in the living room, Fu Jingting put the dishes away, then pulled out the chair and patted the back of the chair.

Rong Shu walked over knowingly and sat down.

She knew that this was the chair that the man pulled away for her.

Sure enough, after Rong Shu sat down, Fu Jingting pulled out the chair opposite her and sat down.

After sitting down, he pulled a napkin and wiped his hands, then glanced at the sumptuous dishes on the table, and suddenly asked the question that he had always had since entering the door, "Is there any happy event today?"

"What do you say?" Rong Shu poured Fu Jingting a glass of light juice and handed it over.

Fu Jingting took it, put it aside, pointed to the food on the table, "usually the two of us have four dishes and one soup, tonight is eight dishes and one soup, isn't there a happy event?"

Rong Shu understood what he meant. .

He was saying that she was cooking so many meals, did she want to celebrate something, and smiled, "There is no happy event, I just saw that you didn't answer the phone in the afternoon, I guess you may be very busy, and you have been with you almost all the time during this time. I rarely go to the Fu Group, so I didn't answer the phone because I was busy today. I felt a little guilty, so I thought about making more dishes to make up for you, hurry up, how about a taste?"

Is it important to me

She took some food and put it on his plate.

Fu Jingting's heart was so soft that it was about to turn into a puddle of water.

Because of this table.

He first guessed that she suddenly cooked so many dishes, something good and wanted to celebrate with him.

For example, getting the parts back is a good thing, and it is worth celebrating.

For this reason, he was originally going to open his mouth to suggest whether to have a bottle of wine.

But later she told him that cooking so many dishes was not to celebrate, but to make up for him.

She felt that he left work to accompany her during this period of time, delayed a lot of his things, and felt apologetic, so he cooked so many dishes and wanted to coax him.

In short, this table of dishes was specially made for him.

So in his heart, how could he not be moved, and now he wants to take the woman back to the room, kiss her fiercely, and express his mood at the moment.

But he hasn't eaten yet, so he can only suppress this thought.

After all, eating is the most important thing, and not eating is bad for your health.

"I don't need to taste it, I know the taste must be very good." Fu Jingting chuckled and looked at the woman opposite.

Rong Shujiao glanced at him, "Don't be sloppy, you haven't tasted it yet."

"Although I haven't tasted it, I just know that I have always been confident in your craftsmanship, just like you believe in mine." Fu Jingting said, picked up chopsticks.

It's not that he deliberately said these sweet words to make her happy, what he said was the truth.

Although she did not systematically study cooking, in those six years, she was also honed by Wang Shuqin's pick and choose.

Therefore, her cooking skills are actually quite good.

"As you can say, eat quickly." Rong Shu rolled her eyes at the man with a sweet smile on her face.

After all, one's own craftsmanship is the embodiment of good taste in men's hearts.

How could this make her unhappy?

Rong Shu picked up the spoon and added another bowl of soup to Fu Jingting, "Drink more of this soup, I made it especially for you, you are usually busier than me, and you must be more tired physically than me, this soup is specially made for you. It's good for you to drink."

"Okay." Fu Jingting took the hot bowl, his face full of tenderness, "What about you? You can drink some too."

"I don't need it, I

" He pursed his lips and said in a serious tone, "Since it's good for your body, then you should drink some too. I can't be the only one to take care of it."

He put down the soup bowl and filled her with a bowl.

Men put the soup in front of them, can they still drink it?

Rong Shu took it, dumbfounded, "Okay, I'll drink it."

"That's right." Fu Jingting raised his chin, picked up the spoon and took a sip of soup.

It tastes really good.

"That's right." Suddenly thinking of something, Rong Shu stopped the chopsticks in her hand and looked at the man opposite, "The parts Su Cheng have been sent back. Did you find Su Cheng and let Su Cheng let go?"

she asked.

Hearing this question, the man put down the spoon in his hand and raised his head, "It's me."

He admitted generously.

Rong Shu bit her lip, "Sure enough, I guess it's you, but you, no one else can do it, but how did you know that Su Cheng intercepted Tiancheng's parts? I didn't tell you, do you really Did you put eyeliner in my company again?" "Again?" Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes, "Who told you that I put eyeliner in Tiancheng? Or did you suspect it yourself?

" Make him a little uncomfortable.

The former may be someone deliberately provoking them.

The latter is because she doesn't believe in herself.

Seeing the displeasure on the man's face, Rong Shu also knew her doubts, which made the man unhappy.

After all, no matter who they are, they will not be happy if they are suspected.

"I guessed it myself." Rong Shu lowered her eyes and didn't say it was Lu Qi's words, which made her guess. If she said it, with the jealousy of a man, she would probably be unhappy again.

More is worse than less, so it is better to hide this.

"Why do you think I put eyeliner?" Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu.

Rong Shu took a sip of juice, "During the day, I invited Ah Qi out to eat, I didn't tell you, but you know, I didn't tell you about Tiansheng parts being intercepted, but I didn't tell you. You know it too, so I have to think more about whether you have placed eyeliner in Tiancheng again and reported everything to me."

"It's really reasonable to analyze." Fu Jingting raised his chin slightly, "but I didn't put eyeliner, You said in the past that you asked me to remove the people who stayed in Tiancheng, and I did it, so since then, I have no eyeliner in Tiancheng. As for how do you know that you and Lu Qi are going to dinner, and how do you know Tiansheng parts were intercepted, this is all a coincidence, my people have been staring at Sucheng, and they have not reported all the movements of Sucheng to me all the time, so I know that your company's parts have been robbed, after that I Of course, I will pay attention to you and want to know how you solved this matter, so I naturally have to find out who you have contacted and who you are looking for for help. After all, we are lovers, aren't we? Did something happen to you, I want to pretend that I don't know I don't care?"

Facing the man's insightful eyes, Rong Shu's red lips moved, "It turned out to be so, I thought I was sorry, I misunderstood you, don't be angry."

She felt a little uneasy and guilty. look at the man.

She is ashamed and ashamed of her guesses and doubts about men.

After all, she said before that they must trust each other, but this time, she broke her promise

. Seeing Rong Shu's anxiety at the moment, Fu Jingting sighed, "I'm not angry, and I don't care about you either. Doubt me on this kind of thing, after all, I do have a criminal record, but there are also things that I am really unhappy about, you know what?"

Rong Shu shook her head and said she didn't know.

Fu Jingting rubbed his brows, then looked at her with deep eyes, "What I'm really unhappy about is that you hide everything from me, and you refuse to follow me when such a big thing happened. Said, I would rather carry it by myself and ask for help from outsiders, but do not want to ask me for help, Rong Shu, do you know how I feel?"

One sentence of Rong Shu is enough to show his anger at this matter.

Rong Shu's face froze.

She has not heard him call her by her full name for a long time.

She also understood that he called her directly. Her full name means that he is really angry with her. During the day, President Li and Lu Qi once said that they didn't tell Fu Jingting and did nothing to find Fu Jingting. If Fu Jingting found out, Fu Jingting would definitely not be happy.

At the time, she didn't think so.

But now, when she saw Fu Jingting's appearance, she was silent.

Because of the worst situation, Ah Qi and Chairman Li were really caught.

"Sorry, I"

Rong Shu bit her lower lip, just about to apologize.

Fu Jingting suddenly cut off her words, "Rong Shu, I want to know, is it really that important to me in your heart?"

He looked at her with a very serious look. He really doubted his place in her heart.

Rong Shu suddenly panicked, clenched her chopsticks without thinking, and immediately replied, "Of course it's important!"

If it wasn't important, she wouldn't even think about making this meal to make up for the neglect of him during this time.

It's just his suspicion that still made her a little sad.

At the same time, he also asked himself in his heart if he really did not do well, so he made him doubt himself, did he take him to heart?

did not tell his past

“Since it’s important, why are you unwilling to tell me anything? You’d rather ask outsiders for help than me? Or, in your heart, am I a man who makes you unreliable?”
Fu Jingting didn’t know Rong Shu. What was in his mind, he only knew that he wanted to tell her everything clearly.

Seeing the man doubting his place in her heart again, Rong Shu shook her head, “No, I never thought about it that way, the reason why I don’t tell you or look for you is because I don’t want to depend on you for everything. Done, I have told you about this idea in the past, and you agreed with it. I even told you the reason very clearly. I am afraid that every time I have something to do, I will ask you for help. Over time, I will lose my independence to handle things. The ability to become a person who can no longer walk independently, and will only think of someone who asks you to help when something happens, I don’t want to be like that, other than that”

“What else is there?” Fu Jingting pursed his lips .

For this reason, she had indeed told him before.

He is also very supportive.

But he never thought that she would act so extreme as soon as she did it, and she was completely unwilling to tell him or find him.

It made him feel like an outsider.

Even worse than outsiders.

At least outsiders, she can still find it.

But as for him, she didn’t even think about looking for him.

“Besides,” Rong Shu rubbed his brows wearily, “I don’t want others to mention me every time, and the first reaction is that I am Fu Jingting’s woman, and my Tianzhu was developed by Fu Jingting. It’s like, I am your accessory, like a dodder flower. In everyone’s heart, I only deserve to appear tied to you, and I cannot appear as an independent person and an independent company boss. I am more I don’t want others to think that I, Rong Shu, have no ability, but luckily, I caught a man with the most ability, so I can have my current status and develop the company.”

Speaking of this, the expression on Rong Shu’s face showed a bit of bitterness, and her voice was choked, “I haven’t told you these words in the past, but they have always been like a stone, pressing hard in my heart, Many times, it made me breathless, Fu Jingting, to get back with you, I am under a certain amount of pressure all the time, because the Rong family is down, because the Tiancheng group is down, you don't know how scared I am to hear others in front of me. Saying that I am not worthy of you, saying that I don't have a good family background, how can I have the face to be with you, that I have no parents, quarreling with you, and being dumped by you, no one will support me"

Bang!

A loud noise interrupted Rong Shu's painful words.

It turned out that Fu Jingting slammed the table and stood up, his body was covered with a suffocating chill, and even his face was extremely gloomy and ugly, "You are my woman, who would dare to say that to you!"

Rong Shu smiled bitterly, "Yes, in front of you, of course they dare not, including since the reunion, I have not heard anyone say that, but Fu Jingting, can you guarantee that they will not say this in private, where we can't see it? "

Fu Jingting was silent, unable to answer.

Because he really can't guarantee it.

After all, the mouth grows on others, and what others say in private, can he really control it?

No matter how powerful he is, he can't know what they said in private.

Seeing that Fu Jingting didn't speak, Rong Shu took a breath, "Look, you can't guarantee it, and although I haven't heard these words now, I've heard too much in the past six years."

"What?" Fu Jingting His face changed and his pupils shrank, "You heard them say this before?"

Rong Shu snorted, "In the past six years, you have not seen a half of my existence in your eyes, plus my father passed away and Tiancheng changed hands, there is no one behind me who can support me. The experience is vivid and vivid. For this reason, your stepmother, your brother, your partner, and those who admire you behind you are all laughing at me and insulting me, just because you don't have me in your eyes, you don't care about me, so they can step on me without fear, and in those six years, I felt the greatest malice in the world!"

She said it lightly, but to Fu Jingting's ears, it seemed as if there was a hand, ruthlessly squeezing his heart so hard that his heart was so painful that he could hardly breathe, his handsome face gradually turned white, and his thin lips twitched twice before he said hoarsely, "I don't know, I'm sorry. "

He really doesn't know about this.

He only knew that Wang Shuqin and Jing Lin treated her badly in the past.

Unexpectedly, there are others.

Rong Shu shook her head, "It's normal that you don't know, after all, no one would be stupid enough to say it in front of you, after all, I'm your wife in name, and they can't guarantee that they will bully me. After you find out, will you ask them to settle accounts, so they will naturally hide it from you together."

Another movement.

Fu Jingting pulled away the chair and went around the dining table, straddling his long legs, came to Rong Shu in three or two steps, bent over and hugged her, buried his head in her neck, and kept saying sorry, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry."

He didn't hypocritically ask her why she didn't tell him about these things in the first place.

Because he knew the answer very well, he was still under hypnosis at that time, and his mind was full of Gu Manyin. Even if she said it, he probably wouldn't seek justice for her.

Can't you see this from Wang Shuqin and Jing Lin?

It's not that he doesn't know how Wang Shuqin and Jing Lin treat him, but he has never done anything, and he doesn't even know it.

He didn't even stop his family from bullying her like this, let alone outsiders?

"I'm sorry Little Ye Ye, I'm a bastard, a real bastard!"

Fu Jingting hugged Rong Shu tightly, and there was endless resentment and hatred on his face where Rong Shu couldn't see it.

He really hates it, he can't wait to tear Gu Manyin into tens of thousands of pieces!

Without Gu Manyin, he would not have been hypnotized, nor would he have personally done the bastard acts that hurt his loved ones.

Even if those actions, thinking about it now, knew that it was not out of his original intention, but after all, he did it himself.

Let him hurt his lover himself, so vicious.

When he finds Gu Manyin and doesn't torture Gu Manyin to death, he will not be Fu Jingting!

Fu Jingting raised his head slightly, staring at the void behind Rong Shu with red eyes, as if he had seen Gu Manyin through the void.

Rong Shu didn't care what Fu Jingting was thinking at the moment, she patted his trembling back lightly, lowered her eyelids, didn't say anything, and didn't say anything about not blaming him, not his business.

Yes, she did forgive him.

But she still had some resentment in her heart.

She also knew that what he did in the past was not his original intention, that he was also hypnotized and a victim.

But in the end, what about being hypnotized, he was still Fu Jingting, and he still did those things.

So she still had a lump in her heart.

After hugging for a while, Rong Shu took the initiative to push the man away, and under the man's red eyes, she smiled and said again, "At first, I was very sad about why they bullied me like this, but after getting divorced, I suddenly figured it out."

Rong Shu raised her eyes and looked at Fu Jingting calmly, "Because I'm too weak, because I don't have a good family background, I don't have parents, and I don't have the attention of my husband, because I'm alone and helpless, because they bully the soft and fear the hard, and understand all this After the reason, I swear that I must become strong, and not only want to be strong, but also create a strong background for myself, only in this way, no one dares to bully me, and I can't think of relying on others. Make yourself strong, because no one can be trusted except yourself." This sentence, no one can be trusted except yourself

, undoubtedly made Fu Jingting a little sad.

He clenched his fists and his voice was very hoarse, "Am I one of them?"

Rong Shu turned her head away, ignoring his faintly hurt eyes, "Yes, in this world, everyone can betray each other, including relatives, and more. What about us? Besides, as I just said, one of the reasons is that I am afraid that I will ask you for help every time I have a problem. In the long run, I will lose the ability to solve things independently. In the end, if you don't want me anymore, I What should I do?"

"Who said I don't want you anymore?" Fu Jingting sullenly, pinched her chin, and pulled her head back, so that she could only look at herself, "In the end, you just don't trust our feelings, I don't think we can get to the end." As if he was on his mind, Rong Shu sighed, then no longer dodged his eyes, he just looked at the man, "Yes, I just don't believe we can get to the end, Fu Jingting, life is too long. It's been a long time, we are in love now, but love has a shelf life. After the shelf life, can we still love each other? Who can guarantee how long our previous shelf life is? Three years, ten years? Anyway, I never I don't think there are people in this world who can love each other for a lifetime."

"Who said no!" Fu Jingting said suddenly.

Rong Shu froze for a moment and looked at him blankly.

Fu Jingting rubbed her forehead lightly, and her voice softened, "My grandfather died very early, when I was young, so you haven't seen him, and you don't know that he and my grandmother have been in love with each other for a lifetime, So you see, in this world, there are people who have been in love with each other for a lifetime, but you haven't seen them, but you can't deny their existence, right?"

Rong Shu's red lips parted, "Is there really?"

"Of course, if you don't believe it, next time you see your grandmother, you can ask your grandmother about the love between her and her grandfather, and then you will know that I didn't lie to you." Fu Jingting looked at her.

Rong Shu bit her lower lip and said nothing.

Fu Jingting tapped her lips lightly, "Don't bite, doesn't it hurt?"

Rong Shu shook her head, indicating that it didn't hurt.

Fu Jingting rubbed her hair again and whispered, "Rong Shu, can you give us some confidence?"

"What confidence?" Rong Shu looked up at him.

Fu Jingting's eyes were deep, "We are confident that we can go on forever. Grandfather and grandmother can love each other for a lifetime, and there has never been a quarrel. They have really followed through their marriage vows, so why can't we?"

Rong Shu He lowered his eyes and said nothing.

Yeah, why can't they?

Although Rong Shu was a little touched by Fu Jingting's words, she was still a little unconfident in her heart.

After all, life is really too long, and now there are some things that can of course be said without pressure.

Because no one knows what the future will be like.

Looking at Rong Shu's silent appearance, Fu Jingting knew that after all, she was still not confident that he could love her for a lifetime, and he couldn't help but sigh.

However, he also understood why she did this.

Without seeing the future, it is indeed impossible to believe his guarantees.

"It doesn't matter." Fu Jingting hugged her head and pressed her head on his chest, with a gentle voice, "I will use practical actions to convince you that you will not lose, but that will be in the future, we Forget it, let's get back to business, I only know that you don't want to depend on me for everything, because you want to grow up independently, I don't know, you are still afraid of the eyes and opinions of the outside world, this is my dereliction of duty, as yours Lover, I didn't understand your fear, sorry."

Rong Shu shook her head, "You didn't feel sorry for me in this matter, after all, I didn't tell you, it's normal for you not to know."

"In the future, I will Pay more attention to your psychological state, it will not make you have such concerns again." Fu Jingting lowered his head and kissed Rong Shu's head, "Also, you should not be concerned about the opinions and voices of the world, let alone be influenced by them. , what if I don't have a family background? I'm with you, never because of your family background, and I don't feel that something is not worthy of me, and what is incompetent. In my heart, you are the best one, in this world, No one can compare to you."

Rong Shu was amused by his words, "What do you say? No one can compare to me, there are many better people than me, aren't there?"

"But in me In my heart, you are the best one." Fu Jingting held her face in both hands and told her seriously.

Rong Shu's face was burned by his seriousness.

No way, he touted her so much, it really made her embarrassed and embarrassed, and at the same time there was some secret hilarity.

She is going crazy.

"Look, your image in my heart is so good, you don't have to worry about everything in the world. Of course, I also know that the outside world will never stop those colored glasses, and I can't stop it. I can stop it for a while, but stop it. It won't last a lifetime, so no matter what, those people should say it or will say it, but they do it because they are jealous of you, so you don't need to pay attention to the eyes and words of those who are jealous of you. The more you care, the more it's easy to doubt yourself, doubt our feelings, and they will be happy then, aren't they?"

Rong Shu raised her head sharply.

Yes, she had never thought about this in the past, only thinking about the outside world made her uncomfortable, and she couldn't help but wonder if she had no family background, no ability, and nothing to be with Fu Jingting. correct?

After all, can two people who are completely unequal together really be happy?

Do you really deserve him?

She only thought about these things, but she never thought that those people said this because they were jealous of her, and deliberately attacked her self-confidence. In this way, they didn't have to take action, and she herself would gradually alienate herself because she cared too much. Fu Jingting's feelings.

At that time, those people should be laughing at her stupid behind her back, right?

Laughing at how she easily got what they wanted, but she couldn't do it by herself. Isn't she stupid?

She really couldn't help but patted her head.

Fu Jingting was about to eagerly check if she had photographed where, when Rong Shu took her hand off.

Rong Shu looked at him, her eyes finally softened, "I'm sorry, I didn't think about this, I"

"I know." Fu Jingting cut off her words, "It's because you didn't think about it, that's why you are so attentive to the voices of the world, every time A person who stands at a height beyond the reach of other people will be criticized by the outside world. This is inevitable, even if it is me, I often hear the irony of outsiders in the open and secret, saying that if I hadn't cast a good tire, I was born the heir of the Fu Group, I am afraid that I am not as good as ordinary people now, how can I stand on their heads and show my might."

Rong Shu opened her mouth in surprise, "How could someone say that to you?"

"Of course." Fu Jingting nodded, "It's also because of jealousy, but it's mediocre not to be jealous, so I'll never stop them from talking about me like that, but I won't care, the more you care, the more they will think they're right, so you There is no need to care about those words at all, let alone be brave for it, your care and bravery will only make them look for them and think they have an opportunity."

Didn't Find Others

Rong Shu was silent for a moment, "Perhaps, I'm really a bit of a bull's-eye. I've heard too many of these words in the past. Although I haven't heard them now, they still leave a psychological shadow on me and make me have to pay attention."

"Don't worry about it in the future. Just worry about it." Fu Jingting rubbed her hair lightly.

Rong Shu hummed, "No, you've told me so much, if I still can't figure it out, then I'll really die in the horns."

"Don't talk about this death." Fu Jingting frowned. Some displeasure put a hand in front of her lips.

Rong Shu laughed and took his hand away, "Why are you so serious, didn't I just say a dead word, look at your serious face, I don't know, I thought the sky was falling down when I said something It's such a serious word."

"The word death is also very serious." Fu Jingting said solemnly, "It's unlucky, I hope we are all safe and sound."

That fall from the cliff really left him a great legacy. impression.

He almost lost her.

So, he never wanted her to experience anything life-threatening.

Otherwise, he didn't know what he would do.

"Okay, I won't talk about it." Looking at the man's tight brows, Rong Shu knew that the man was very concerned about the topic of life and death.

Therefore, she will not step on the bottom line of men, and it is best not to say anything.

Sure enough, seeing that she didn't say so, the man's knitted brows finally loosened.

"It's a good thing not to have eyes and words from the unexpected world. Only in this way can we live our own lives without pressure and burden without being affected by them. You must know that a life affected by others is unhappy. It will only make others happy." Fu Jingting hugged the woman tightly again, while stroking the woman's smooth hair, he lowered his head and kissed the top of the woman's hair.

Rong Shu leaned against the man's arms. Although she didn't answer, she listened carefully.

After talking for a while, Fu Jingting stopped the movement of his hands, and then looked down at the woman, "If you don't pay attention to what the world says and look at, you won't be under too much pressure if you ask me for help, right? Of course, I know. , I'm afraid you still don't want to ask me for help, after all, you still have reasons for wanting to solve things independently, but Xiaoye, do you know that you have the ability to solve things independently now?"

Rong Shu looked up at the man's unparalleled face of Junmei, She thought of the words of President Li and Lu Qi in the hotel again, and finally shook her head slightly, "I don't have it now." She still didn't know much about shopping malls and the rules of how to get along in shopping malls. After all, she was a newcomer.

Furthermore, she has no power, nor many relationships.

She doesn't have these most important elements of survival in the shopping mall, so how can she solve things independently?

I don't want to admit it, but it's the truth.

Now, she is really messed up so badly, she has a company and the identity of the chairman, but such a company and such an identity, let alone enter the center circle of the shopping mall, chat and laugh with those big bosses, she Not even qualified to enter the outermost part of the mall.

Seeing the woman's self-awareness admitting that she is indeed incapable of handling some things, Fu Jingting raised his eyebrows, his eyes clearly revealing these surprises.

Rong Shu caught it, and pouted unhappily, "What? I said I didn't, you're surprised?"

Fu Jingting raised his chin, "Indeed, I'm afraid you don't even know that you are actually a very brave person to save face. People, self-esteem is also a little strong, I thought I said that, you won't admit it, I didn't expect you"

Rong Shu snorted, "No matter how brave you are, you have to recognize the reality, if you don't have it, you don't."

Fu Jingting smiled, "Since you don't know, why don't you tell me anything? You don't ask me for anything? I understand your thoughts and support your independence, but the premise of supporting you is that you have enough ability and sufficient Power, only in this way can you solve some troubles without relying on me, but if you don't have these now, then if you want to solve things without me, you are trying to be brave, and being brave often brings more serious consequences. , do you know?"

Rong Shu lowered her eyes, "I know, it won't solve the problem, but it will make it worse and make it even more impossible to end."

These are the words of President Li and Ah Qi admonishing her.

She thought about it later and found that it was indeed the case.

Therefore, she did not hesitate to say this at this moment.

Fu Jingting saw that she was thinking so clearly again, a slight surprise flashed in his eyes again, but it soon disappeared.

In his opinion, she can understand that she has nothing now, so it is not surprising to think about the future situation in the longer term.

Even, it's a good thing.

That means that what he is going to say next will be more acceptable to her.

"Now that you know, you still don't tell me anything?" Fu Jingting pretended to be serious and sunk, "You would rather go to Lu Qi for help than you, do you know how I feel during the day? I don't think you have Treat me as your lover, in your heart, I'm not even important to Lu Qi, I'm not as important as Lu Qi, an outsider, do you know how sad I am?"

“No.” Rong Shu shook her head quickly, “I didn’t look for him. Lu Qi’s help, from the beginning to the end, I never thought of asking Lu Qi to help solve this matter.”

Fu Jingting was startled, “No?”

“Well.”

“Then how did Lu Qi know about the parts? “

“You forgot, Aqi is the nominal director of Tiancheng Group, and the cooperation between Tiancheng and Zhongsi was originally led by Aqi, so the parts were intercepted by Zhongsi, our company. Naturally, the person who is in the relationship will also inform Aqi, that’s how Aqi knows.” Rong Shu explained, looking at the man’s dark handsome face.

There was a glimpse of surprise in the man’s eyes.

It turned out to be so.

About this, he really didn’t know.

“Then you really didn’t ask Lu Qi for help?” Fu Jingting pursed his lips slightly, and asked again in a dull tone.

Rong Shu nodded, “Of course, Ah Qi took the initiative to come to Tiancheng to find me after knowing this, and asked me if I had a solution. At that time, I didn’t think of a solution, and then he gave me a suggestion.”

“What suggestion? ?” Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes.

Rong Shu rubbed against the man’s chest, “The suggestion is, I take out a valuable bargaining chip, go to the bank for a loan, and use the money to settle the lack of parts. I accepted this suggestion and took out the property rights of the Rong family villa. I contacted Huaguo Bank, President Li of the Haishi Headquarters Branch.”

“So you went to see Li Jun after lunch with Lu Qi in the afternoon?” Fu Jingting looked at the woman.

“Yes.” Rong Shu nodded slightly, “President Li, I agreed to the appropriation. Half an hour ago, the loan was disbursed. I originally planned to send the money out within a few hours of the last day after the loan was disbursed. , hand it over to Secretary Tong, and let her arrange follow-up to solve all the bad consequences caused by the lack of parts. I didn’t expect that before the loan came down, you would help me get the parts back, then I will pay for the money. It’s more.”

At this point, she also laughed.

Seems pretty happy with the money.

As if the money was a windfall.

Accept Your Help

Fu Jingting frowned and fell silent.

After a while, he suddenly tightened the strength of his arms and hugged her tightly again, “No wonder the parts have been lost for three days, and you didn’t appear to be in a hurry, so if it wasn’t for my people who found Su Cheng. Zhu Lili went to Zhongsi. I can’t see it from you at all. Such a big thing happened in your company, but you mortgaged the Rong family villa. Do you know what this means? That villa means nothing to you. Same, you” seemed to understand what Fu Jingting was going to say, Rong Shu raised her head and looked at the man with a smile, “It doesn’t matter, to me, that villa is just like an ordinary house, in my heart, there is nothing special about it. The meaning of it.”

“What?” Fu Jingting was obviously taken aback by her words, “It doesn’t have any special meaning? Isn’t that your home?”

Rong Shu smiled, “It used to be home, but it was visited by some people who shouldn’t come here. It was polluted. The stench of those people covered the whole villa, which has long since wiped out the atmosphere of our family of three, so that villa, apart from what I remembered, couldn’t give me anything. I feel like home, so it’s not a pity to mortgage it, it can even be invisible, I think my mother knows and supports me very much.”

Hearing what he said, Fu Jingting was relieved.

Also, that villa was cooked by Liu Xiuzhi’s mother and daughter for 20 years, and there is no trace left by Ms. Fan for a long time.

Then the villa really had no meaning for Rong Shu to stay.

“So, you really didn’t ask Lu Qi for help?” Fu Jingting was no longer upset at all, but he still asked another question.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes, "No, I said so, but you still don't believe it? If you really don't believe it, then there's nothing I can do."

She shrugged.

Fu Jingting grabbed her shoulder, "I believe it, just"

"Anything else?" Rong Shu's mouth twitched, feeling exhausted.

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved slightly, "You asked Li Jun for help, Li Jun is an outsider among outsiders"

The implication is that he is worse than the outsider among the outsiders.

Rong Shu was speechless.

This man, really has to break it up, right?

Then according to what he said, does she find others to cooperate in the future, and he also thinks that she is looking for help from others instead of him, and then gets angry?

Rong Shu supported her forehead, "I'm not looking for President Li, then tell me, who should I look for for a loan? Looking for you?"

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved, just as he was about to say yes.

Rong Shu immediately said again, "It's impossible to find you, at least at that time, it was absolutely impossible for me to do it."

This time, Fu Jingting was speechless.

Rong Shu looked at the man, "Besides, who said I didn't ask you for help?"

"What do you mean?" Fu Jingting squinted at her, "Could it be that you found me in this accident?"

He didn't believe it.

She wouldn't even tell him.

How could he still think about finding him.

"Of course not." Rong Shu shook her head slightly, "I didn't look for you, but you did help me. This is what President Li told me. He said that Tiancheng and my current social status are definitely not enough for him to agree. He came out to meet me to talk about the loan, but he finally agreed to come out to meet me and talk to me about the loan. The reason lies in you, because you are my lover, so he agreed, and before agreeing to the loan, he paid special I asked about our relationship status and confirmed that our relationship was fine before agreeing to lend. So I met him and I took the loan because you helped me invisibly. I've made a loan, and I can't even see President Li's face, are you happier now?"

Rong Shu tapped the man's chest.

Fu Jingting didn't expect that there was such a reason for this. His mood was indeed much better, but he was still arrogant and arrogant, and replied lightly, "It's okay."

Rong Shu shook his head in disbelief, "Just pretend, you can't hide the smugness in your eyes." Fu Jingting touched his eyes.

Is it so obvious?

The man coughed lightly, "Okay, don't look at it."

He covered Rong Shu's eyes, obviously embarrassed after being dismantled.

Rong Shu also let the man cover her eyes, but the curvature of her red lips rose, "Look, who said you didn't help me, you are actually helping me all the time, the dress, the loan, and getting it back. Even if I don't look for you, the one who helps me in the end is always you."

Rong Shu's words undoubtedly spoke of the heart of a man. The child is gone, which makes the man's heart fly.

"But I prefer that I can personally appear by your side to help you until you grow up and become stronger, not in this way." Fu Jingting rubbed Rong Shu's forehead with his thumb.

Rong Shu smiled slightly, "After that, come by my side and help me!"

Fu Jingting's thumb stopped suddenly, then looked at the woman in disbelief, "Now, don't you resist letting me help you? Rong Shu shook her head, "

Didn't you just say that I have nothing right now, trying to do it by myself will only make things worse, not solve them, so since I need someone to support me behind my back, Help me, then why don't I agree to let you come? If I don't agree, then it proves that you are not so important to me, are you even worse than an outsider?"

Fu Jingting got what he wanted to hear the most, and finally With a satisfied smile, "I'm very pleased that you can figure it out."

It seems that she is still very powerful, and she has made her mind clear so quickly.

He thought that with her stubbornness, it would take a long time for him to make sense.

Didn't expect it to be so easy.

However, Rong Shu's next sentence succeeded in making his face black.

Rong Shu pushed her hair behind her ears and said softly, "Actually, I can figure it out. The biggest reason is thanks to President Li and Aqi. It was their persuasion that made me realize this, otherwise I wouldn't think about it now. If I don't look for you, it will not only make you think more, but also make things worse."

"They?" Fu Jingting frowned.

Rong Shu nodded, and then roughly explained everything in the hotel box.

After listening to this, Fu Jingting's complexion returned to normal, and even a hint of softness appeared between his brows, "I didn't expect them to be able to persuade you like this, but they did a good job, and I will reward them."

"Reward them? Rong Shu was delighted, "It's as if they were courtiers and you were the emperor. They did things that made you satisfied, so you have to reward them."

"To the entire sea market, am I not the emperor?" Fu Jingting raised his chin with an undisguised arrogance on his face.

But aside from being funny, Rong Shu didn't think he was doing this without self-knowledge.

After all, he does have this capital, and walks sideways in the sea market like a local emperor.

Fu Jingting didn't know what Rong Shu was thinking, he squeezed her hand lightly, put it on his lips and kissed, and then said again, "But they did do something that satisfied me, and I can't really I didn't say that there are rewards and punishments, this is what it should be, and it is my reward."

They helped him persuade Rong Shu, which saved him a lot of effort, and he accepted the favor.

Now that you have committed it, you have to pay it back.

Therefore, he said that repayment is also due.

However, President Li would persuade Rong Shu, but he could accept it, and Lu Qi would persuade her, which was beyond his expectations.

After all, Lu Qi's thoughts about her are there, and it's good not to expect problems in their relationship, and he actually persuades her to accept his help.

This is undoubtedly to match him and Rong Shu even more.

It seems that Lu Qi should be serious about giving up.

Fu Jingting's Repayment

Otherwise, Lu Qi wouldn't be so generous and push the person he loves into another man's arms.

It seems that this time, he really should completely dispel his vigilance and guard against Lu Qi.

"How are you going to repay them?" Rong Shu curiously took the man's hand and asked.

Fu Jingting touched her forehead, "This is my business, don't worry, I won't treat them badly."

Rong Shu rolled her eyes at him, "I didn't say you would treat them badly, you are so wealthy, I believe I can't do such a stingy move."

Fu Jingting chuckled, "Should I be happy that I have such a good image in your mind?"

"That's not impossible." Rong Shu replied with a smile.

Fu Jingting flicked her forehead, "Okay, now that the reward is over, it's time to talk about the punishment."

"And punishment?" Rong Shu was stunned for a moment, then looked at the man puzzled, "Who are you going to punish?" "The man didn't answer, but his eyes fell deeply on her.

Rong Shu's heart skipped a beat.

What's the meaning?

"Don't you want to punish me?" Rong Shu pointed at her nose in astonishment.

Fu Jingting was noncommittal, "Your concealment still makes me unhappy, so I have to punish you, so I will punish you to stay with me tonight." In the last sentence, he leaned against her ear and bit her. He lowered his voice and spoke with a hint of charm in his tone.

Rong Shu couldn't help but shivered, and instantly understood how he meant to accompany him well when he said that.

This guy

Rong Shu blushed, "You really know how to take advantage of loopholes and benefit yourself when you get the chance, you"

Fu Jingting laughed and cut off her words, "Let's go then."

When the words fell, he bent over, hugged her horizontally, and walked to the room.

Rong Shu screamed out in fright, "Fu Jingting, let me go, you haven't finished eating yet?"

"If you don't eat, it's almost the same."

"You"

Rong Shu's last voice was blocked by a kiss from a man went back.

At the same time, there is a slamming sound of the door, which accompanies the kiss between the two.

Soon, the living room fell silent, only the unfinished meals on the table showed that there were still people in the living room just now.

It didn't take long for an ambiguous and ambiguous sound to come out from under the door of the room, and it also explained in disguise where everyone had gone.

As Rong Shu said before, Fu Jingting is a man who loves to exploit loopholes and benefits himself whenever he gets the chance.

Sure enough, Fu Jingting used the reason of punishing Rong Shu to successfully get Rong Shu to agree to try the posture that she refused to agree before.

There's no way, who made those poses in addition to being difficult, but also embarrassingly tight!

So Fu Jingting wanted to try it, but it didn't work.

Now, he finally succeeded.

A few hours later, Rong Shu fell asleep tiredly, while the man, leaning on the head of the bed, turned his face slightly and lowered his head, looking at the woman who was sleeping soundly in his arms with tender eyes, From time to time, the big hand gently stroked her face, the blush and fatigue on her face were clearly visible, even the sweat was not dry on her forehead, and even the surrounding hair was wet.

It can be seen that the 'war' just now was fierce.

On Fu Jingting's own face, although there was fatigue, there was also a blush that had not yet dissipated, and there were also sweat and sweaty hair on his forehead.

But the satisfaction of eating and drinking is so satisfying that it makes people want to have a meal.

Obviously, in this battle, he not only won the final victory, but also obtained unprecedented satisfaction.

However, Fu Jingting didn't stay in bed for long. When he had enough rest and his breathing was even, he let go of Rong Shu's face, lifted the quilt, got out of bed, and went to the bathroom.

After taking a shower, it was already three o'clock in the middle of the night.

Fu Jingting wore a white bathrobe with a towel around his neck, and let his hair come out of the bathroom wet. When he left, the tips of his hair were still dripping with water, dripping into the white towel, and soon disappearing.

Coming to the coffee table in the living room, Fu Jingting picked up his mobile phone and first checked to see if there was any work information sent by his subordinates, and then dialed Assistant Zhang's phone.

Assistant Zhang is still working overtime in the group at the moment, there is no way, the New Year is coming soon, and the inventory work is about to start.

The Fu Group is so large, with hundreds of subsidiaries and affiliated companies that have invested in and shares, once the inventory is counted, it is definitely an unimaginably huge workload.

No, his assistant hasn't gotten off work yet, and is still staying up late in the group to prepare for the preparatory work before the inventory.

Fortunately, he was not the only one who stayed up late to work overtime, there were many others, and he felt a lot of balance in his heart.

"Hello, Mr. Fu?" Assistant Zhang just finished processing the inventory plan document handed over by a subsidiary, took a sip of the coffee that had been cold for some time, woke up a little, and was about to deal with the next subsidiary I heard the phone rang, picked it up and took a look, my head was bigger, but I still had to pick it up.

Hearing Assistant Zhang's weak voice on the other end of the phone, Fu Jingting remembered that he was still working overtime, and fell silent for a while, thinking that he had gone too far with Zhang Cheng to deal with some things at this time?

But soon, this stingy compassion was thrown out of Fu Jingting's mind.

Fu Jingting thought, anyway, Assistant Zhang hasn't slept at the moment, and he's also busy, so it's just incidental to let him handle some things, what's too much?

Well, yes, that's it.

He is definitely not the kind of boss who does a lot of work and has no sympathy!

"Not finished yet?" Fu Jingting asked in a low voice.

Assistant Zhang looked at the few documents left in front of him, pressed his eyebrows, "There are still some, they can be dealt with at about five o'clock, and then the inventory order can be published directly tomorrow."

Fu Jingting hummed, "After work, you should rest in the group, and you will be at work tomorrow afternoon."

Assistant Zhang paused while pressing his eyebrows, unable to believe what he heard.

Go to work in the afternoon?

Is Mr. Fu serious?

Could it be that President Fu finally began to feel sorry for his subordinate?

"Thank you so much, Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang's face flushed with excitement.

Fu Jingting pursed his lips, "But the premise is that you have to do what I told you to do."

The excitement on Assistant Zhang's face froze in an instant, replaced by a sneer.

Oh, he knew it.

But it doesn't matter, it's a rare conscience to get President Fu to agree to go to work in the afternoon.

He should cherish it.

"Okay, Mr. Fu, please tell me." Assistant Zhang said with a smile on his face.

Fu Jingting took a sip of the water on the coffee table, "I remember, Huaguo Bank Haishi Head Office has been short of current deposits recently, right?"

Assistant Zhang didn't understand why Fu Jingting suddenly asked this, but he nodded seriously and replied. "That's right, some time ago, the head office of Huaguo Bank transferred 70% of the deposit funds in the Haishi branch, so now the Haishi branch lacks a lot of deposits, and President Li Jun has been looking for those. The person in charge of the group hopes that these persons in charge can deposit the money in his head office and branch, not in those foreign banks, otherwise the head office branch will lack funds and the performance will not meet the standard. I am afraid that his position as president must be fulfilled. already."

President Li's Calculation

Fu Jingting was suddenly silent.

Unexpectedly, Li Jun's current situation is so dangerous, but he still gritted his teeth and approved a loan of 200 million yuan to Rong Shu.

It is conceivable that these two hundred million loans were under the pressure of Li Jun to persuade the top executives to pay dividends.

Although he seriously doubted that Li Jun did this on purpose.

The biggest purpose is to take his relationship from Xiaoye's side.

Li Jun, he still understands. When he was young, he did not major in finance, but in psychology. That is to say, Li Jun's grasp and grasp of people's hearts is quite powerful.

What does he need to guarantee the stability of his relationship with Xiaoye, so that he can lend Xiaoye with confidence?

In fact, Li Jun's real purpose is to test whether his relationship with Xiaoye Ye is stable and whether he can achieve his purpose.

After all, Xiaoye Company encountered a problem. Instead of looking for him as a boyfriend, it had to borrow money to solve it. It was easy to think of whether there was a problem between him and Xiaoye, so of course Li Jun had to figure it out.

Only after figuring out that there is no problem with the relationship between him and Xiao Ye, can he achieve his goal, otherwise it will be no use.

Therefore, Li Jun tried to persuade Xiaoye Ye that there was no problem with the relationship between him and Xiaoye Ye, and that Xiaoye did not look for him, but instead borrowed money, and then he readily agreed to lend.

The biggest reason is to make Xiao Ye feel grateful and feel guilty for him.

Li Jun is a psychology student, and he is also a man. It is impossible for him to not know how he would react when he learned that Xiaoye Ye did not ask for help from his lover, but instead asked for help from someone else.

It was because Li Jun knew that he helped him persuade Xiaoye Ye.

At the same time, Li Jun can also take the opportunity to observe Xiaoye Ye's reaction after listening to his persuasion. As long as he realizes that Xiaoye understands that he is not looking for his lover, but instead seeks help from outsiders, it will make his lover unhappy and then feel ashamed.

Li Jun can take this opportunity to attack Xiaoye more in-depth, and propose to let Xiaoye come back and have a good talk with him.

Since it's a talk, Xiaoye Ye will definitely be unavoidable, and will tell Li Jun's persuasion to her.

In this way, Li Jun has achieved his goal.

That is his gratitude to Fu Jingting!

Li Jun can read people's hearts, and Li Jun also understands his character and knows that Fu Jingting doesn't like to owe people's favor, so Li Jun will definitely understand that after learning that Xiao Ye Ye was persuaded like this, he will definitely accept this favor and repay it. .

The outside world knows who he has in Fu Jingting's eyes, that is, he will never treat the other party badly, and he will be generous in repaying the debt of favor. He is never stingy, and it is basically what the other party wants most.

If Li Jun wants to keep his position under his butt, he needs a large amount of deposit funds to be deposited into his total dividends, so that the performance of his head office and branch will meet the standards.

And in the entire sea market, only he, Fu Jingting, has such a huge amount of liquidity and can help him with this.

Therefore, Li Jun must not seize the life-saving straw of Xiaoye Ye, and use Xiaoye Ye as a stepping stone to take the opportunity to make Fu Jingting owe his favor, and then ask him to repay him to help keep the position of president of the head office.

I have to say, this step-by-step calculation is really beautiful.

No wonder Li Jun was able to go from a bank teller to the head of a branch in just ten years.

This scheming, this city government, this calculation, this scrutiny, this measure of grasping people's hearts, has to be admired, making him want to dig people into his own group.

Of course, Li Jun's calculation really made him very unhappy. After all, there are not many people who dare to calculate Fu Jingting.

But looking at Li Jun's calculation, he also helped Xiaoye Ye, and also spoke for him at Xiaoye Ye, he can give up this calculation.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting put down the water glass and asked again on the phone, "For Citibank abroad, is the deposit interest rate this year lower than last year?"

"Yes." Assistant Zhang nodded, "There is a slight difference in foreign countries. The financial crisis caused by the financial crisis, so the interest rate of the bank will naturally decrease a little, but it will be fine after a while, and it will rise back, and the interest rate you have been reduced will be compensated by Citibank, so you will not suffer any losses."

After all, Fu Fu It's always one of Citibank's biggest clients.

Citibank will not offend President Fu.

"Understood." Fu Jingting hummed, and then indifferently instructed, "It happens to be during the day abroad. You inform Citibank to transfer one billion euros, transfer it to Li Jun's head office, and note the deposit.

"Huh?" Assistant Zhang was stunned by Fu Jingting's order, "Mr. Fu, why are you transferring your money to a domestic bank? Interest rates in domestic banks are not as high as those in foreign countries."

And it's not Huaguo Head Office, it's just overseas The city's total dividends.

I don't know what Mr. Fu was thinking.

Assistant Zhang shook his head, expressing incomprehension.

One billion, or euros.

Although it was nothing to Mr. Fu.

But for him, it was something he could never earn in his life.

After all, if it is changed into Huayuan, it is almost tens of billions.

Tens of billions were transferred back to the country and deposited in the bank under Li Jun's jurisdiction. Then Li Jun would have to be promoted, not to mention his position under his ass.

"I know." Fu Jingting held the phone in one hand, twisted the corner of the towel around his neck with the other hand, tilted his head slightly, and began to wipe his wet hair, and said in a cool and indifferent voice, "I don't care about the interest rate.

"Men's understatement, Assistant Zhang was at a loss for words.

Yes, people are so wealthy and wealthy, and they are still short of the annual interest rate?

It's that he's too small.

Assistant Zhang twitched the corners of his mouth, and stopped saying anything, he just answered Fu Jingting's orders.

Afterwards, Fu Jingting instructed again, "Isn't the Lu family looking for a commercial port for a contract recently? Let someone go to the Lu family tomorrow to discuss the cooperation with the commercial port in the Comprehensive Bonded Zone with the Lu family. In terms of benefits, please charge less. ."

Assistant Zhang looked puzzled, not understanding what Fu Jingting was doing.

Just now, I had to transfer the money to Li Jun's bank without interest rates, but now I have let the Lu family have a trade port, and I have deliberately charged a little less.

No matter how you look at it, there is a feeling that President Fu is deliberately helping these two families.

What did Li Jun and the Lu family do to make President Fu so kind?

Although he was puzzled, Assistant Zhang didn't bother to ask.

He knew in his heart that if he asked, he wouldn't be able to answer the question.

"Okay, Mr. Fu, I understand. I will arrange the deposit in a while. For the Lu family's side, I will also arrange it before I get off work, so that someone will come over tomorrow morning to talk about the cooperation at the trading port." Assistant Zhang pushed his glasses. Say.

Fu Jingting hummed and hung up the phone.

Assistant Zhang heard that there was silence on the phone. Knowing that the call was over, he took the phone off his ear, glanced at the screen that jumped back to the main menu, then took a long breath, clicked on an overseas call, and dialed it out. .

At the same time, in the conference room of Huaguo Bank Haishi Headquarters Branch, it was obviously three or four o'clock in the morning, but this time, the conference room was almost full of people.

Everyone was silent, but their eyes were fixed on Mr. Li in the main seat, their eyes were looking forward, or suspicious, or disdainful, or sneered.

All in all.

President Li's Worries

For a time, the atmosphere in the entire conference room was extremely depressing and complicated.

President Li was sitting in the main seat of the conference room, staring at the laptop in front of him calmly at this moment. He didn't look at the expressions of other people in the conference room at all, and he didn't even respond to the eyes of these people when they looked at him.

It was as if none of these people existed.

However, only President Li knew in his heart that his heart was far from being as calm and calm as it appeared on the outside.

The so-called calm and calm, it is just pretending.

At this moment, he is more nervous than anyone else.

“Manager.” At this moment, a middle-aged man in a suit suddenly stood up in the conference room and spoke, first breaking the strange silence in the conference room.

The expressions of the others changed, and they all looked at him.

Including President Li as well.

The moment President Li heard this person calling him, he knew in his heart that what should come will always come, and silence and quiet cannot be maintained forever.

He sighed secretly. After President Li squeezed the mouse in his hand, he raised his head and looked at the middle-aged man, still keeping his surface calm and asked, “What’s the matter?”

“President, you said that President Fu will definitely Because our bank helps Miss Rong, we will be grateful to our bank, and then come forward to help our bank, so that our bank team will not be scattered. We trust you, so under the pressure of the bank’s treasury funds being exhausted, I agree with you Take out a loan of 200 million yuan to Miss Rong, but now? We waited from the daytime until three or four in the morning, and we didn’t hear from Mrs. Fu that they wanted to help us.” The middle-aged man pointed at President Li angrily, begging for help. To speak.

When the others heard it, they nodded in unison, agreeing with what he said.

“Yes, President, you have reassured beforehand that President Fu will definitely accept this favor, but now there is no news from the Fu Group, how can we trust you?”

“That’s right.” Someone else agreed, “If the Fu Group really doesn’t care about us, wouldn’t the 200 million we loaned out become the last straw to speed up the dissolution of our team? If so, President, Can you afford this responsibility? After all, this is what you insist on taking out a loan.”

As soon as these words came out, everyone looked at President Li, their eyes questioning and sharp.

If Li Xing had been in the shopping mall for a long time, facing the doubts of everyone at this moment, he would be a little stressed at this moment, and some even began to doubt himself, was it really wrong?

During this period of time, due to the transfer of bank funds and the fact that they are the head office branch, the annual deposit performance is more than ten times higher than that of the following branches.

Only in this way can he keep his position as the president of the Haishi Headquarters Branch, and the team below can continue to stay, instead of being demoted and transferred to the branch below.

It's just that the rich people in China don't like to keep their money in domestic banks, but choose foreign banks.

Therefore, the performance of their headquarters and branches this year has not been marked for a long time.

The Chinese New Year is coming soon, and the deposit performance is still not up to the standard. You can imagine the pressure on him as the head of the general branch. He goes to those companies every day, and asks the chairman of those companies to persuade them, hoping that they can deposit their money in their banks. .

However, those rich people didn't let go, and his hair was almost gone.

Just when he was anxious and didn't know what to do, he suddenly received a call from Rong Shu, the chairman of Tiansheng Group and the girlfriend of the chairman of Fu Group.

Knowing that Rong Shu's intention was to take out a loan, or to borrow such a large sum of money, he immediately realized that something must have happened to Tiancheng, and his chance had come.

That's right, he immediately agreed to meet with Rong Shu, just to personally confirm whether his opportunity could be seized and implemented.

Because he is a psychology major himself, as long as he sees Rong Shu, he can be sure.

So, in the afternoon, he met with Rong Shu, and using his professional knowledge, he could easily see through what kind of person Rong Shu was, a woman who was conceited and strong, but had no self-knowledge, and had a simple and naive idea.

Such a person, for him, is simply too good a strategy, too good to use.

Therefore, the moment he saw Rong Shu, he knew that most of his plans were settled.

Rong Shu is a woman who wants face, and is more concerned with the eyes of the world. She is afraid that people outside will say that she is a dodder and can only rely on men. In addition, she has a little inferiority herself, so her character has become extraordinarily strong, and she wants to. Relying on herself to solve anything, but ignoring that she doesn't have that ability at all now.

To this end, in the end, the only way to go is to borrow money.

Obviously, as long as you find Fu Jingting, you can easily solve any problem, but she is unwilling and prefers to find outsiders.

All in all, it doesn't matter if Rong Shu has a background or a backer, is this not a fool?

But if Rong Shu did this, it was a good thing for him. If it wasn't for Rong Shu's refusal to ask Fu Jingting for help, he wouldn't have this chance.

And he is a man, and he knows very well how Fu Jingting, who is also a man, will feel when he finds out that his woman would rather ask others than himself for help.

Although he is not sure whether the relationship between Fu Jingting and Rong Shu is stable and unstable at this time, but men are also good-faced.

As long as two people do not break up, no matter whether there is a conflict or not, as long as one of them ignores himself and seeks help from others, the other will not be happy.

Therefore, he deliberately pretended to be good for the two of them, persuaded Rong Shu with all his heart, and also persuaded Rong Shu to have a good talk with Fu Jingting after returning home.

The reason is to hope that Rong Shu will tell Fu Jingting all his persuasion and let Fu Jingting know that he helped them behind the scenes.

In this way, doesn't Fu Jingting owe him a favor?

And he knew that Fu Jingting would never owe any favors, and he would basically return it on the spot when he owed it, and he would never be stingy when he hugged him back.

In short, what he did during the day was gambling.

If the bet is successful, his position will be guaranteed. If the bet is lost, no, during the day, he never thought that he would lose the bet. After all, he has always been very accurate in seeing people, and he has never failed every step of the way.

His plan is perfect.

But now, he is a little less confident, and he has begun to have self-doubt, is he really going to lose the bet?

After Rong Shu went back, he didn't listen to him, talked to Fu Jingting, and didn't say what he said.

So Fu Jingting still doesn't know what he did?

Or there is another possibility, Rong Shu said it, and Fu Jingting also knew it, but he did not take his persuasion to Rong Shu seriously, and he might even feel angry and prepare to retaliate against him!

After all, what he did, he took advantage of Rong Shu and also calculated Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting is a smart person, it is impossible not to think of his purpose and calculation.

In fact, before he implemented this plan, he considered the possibility that Fu Jingting would be furious after guessing his plan, and even attacked him.

After all, no one likes to be calculated.

But he had no choice, this was his only chance, no matter what the result was, he had to give it a try to see if Fu Jingting would be more serious.

If it is true, then he will calmly accept Fu Jingting's revenge. If it is not true, Fu Jingting is willing to accept his favor, which is of course the best.

But the current situation is that he can't guess at all whether Fu Jingting is a serious man or not.

The plan was successful

This kind of situation where you can't guess the answer is really a big one.

Mr. Li took off the eyes on the bridge of his nose, rubbed his sore eyes, suppressed the nervousness and anxiety in his heart, and answered the questions of these people in the conference room, "Okay, I understand the big guy's worries, but it's okay to say this now. Use, be quiet first."

He raised his two hands and squeezed them in the air.

In the end, after being the president for so many years, the prestige was there, and when he heard him say that, everyone did not dare to be presumptuous, and temporarily calmed down.

Even the middle-aged man who was the first to ask questions sat back again at this moment.

Seeing this, President Li was slightly relieved, and then continued, "Don't worry, everyone, since I said that as long as Miss Rong's 200 million yuan is approved, President Fu will definitely help us, this will never be false, but now it's still early, maybe Mr. Fu still doesn't know about us approving the loan for Miss Rong?"

He could only explain this, and temporarily appease these people.

However, there are still some people who are not convinced.

"President, you said it yourself that tonight we will receive the good news of Mr. Fu's help at the latest, so we will stay in the conference room and wait, otherwise we will stay up late here if we are crazy."

"Yes . Ah, President, are you really sure that President Fu will help? What if you don't help?"

"Okay!" President Li slapped the table impatiently and interrupted him, "If President Fu won't help, this matter I proposed and approved the loan, I will bear the consequences myself, you can rest assured?"

Everyone bowed their heads and said nothing.

Seeing this, President Li's anger subsided a little, and he sat down again on the edge of the conference table.

But in my heart, I didn't feel relaxed because I had frightened these subordinates, but even more tense.

This, every step he takes, he basically strategizes and has never failed.

But now, facing Fu Jingting, he is not so confident that he will win.

Now, he somewhat regretted that he took the risk of plotting against Fu Jingting in order to preserve his position.

Thinking about it, President Li showed a wry smile.

Thinking of how happy he was to tell everyone that they were saved, he would come in the afternoon, and now he felt how stupid he was in the afternoon and daytime.

Uncertain things, actually said directly.

Just when President Li began to give up on himself, the door of the conference room was suddenly pushed open with a bang, and a young man also wearing a suit, holding a mobile phone in his hand, hurried in from the outside.

Because he was running too fast, when the young man came to Mr. Li's side, the whole villain was out of breath, and he was out of breath when he spoke

Mr. Li frowned in displeasure, "Okay, what's the matter? I'll talk about it later, you can take a breath."

Then, he brought the water glass on the table to him.

The young man may be too thirsty, he didn't even have time to say thank you, he took the water cup and drank the water.

After drinking, the whole person was relieved and relaxed.

Although he was still a little out of breath, at least there was no problem talking.

"President, good news." The young man looked at President Li excitedly and said loudly.

"Good news?" President Li was stunned for a moment, then realized that, his eyes widened suddenly, and a look of excitement gradually appeared on his face, "You mean" the young man nodded repeatedly, "Yes, the Fu Group is over there. I just contacted us and said that Mr. Fu is willing to transfer one billion euros from Citibank back to China and deposit them in our bank, President, our bank is saved, we don't need to disband our team." The young man said, His entire face was flushed with excitement.

Others in the conference room also stood up happily.

"Is this true?"

They looked at the young man and asked hastily.

The young man kept nodding, "It's true, the billions of euros have already been transferred."

"President, check it out." Someone urged loudly.

After all, such a huge sum of money, only the president has permission to view it.

President Li was stunned with joy at this moment. Hearing this man's shout, a jerking spirit immediately returned to his senses, and he nodded quickly, "Okay, don't worry, I'll check it, I'll check it now.

" Go to the keyboard of the computer and start checking Fu Jingting's account.

He was so excited that his hands were shaking, and he had entered the wrong password several times.

The other people who were watching him were all in a hurry.

If it weren't for him being the president, it is estimated that these people would have pulled him away and sat down to check.

Finally, President Li finally entered the correct password and entered Fu Jingting's personal account. Everyone gasped when they saw the newly added amount in Fu Jingting's personal account.

A billion, or euros!

Converted to Chinese national currency, it is tens of billions.

This is the first time they have seen such a large amount in a person's account.

Moreover, this is not the amount of fixed assets, but liquid funds, which can be taken out and spent at any time.

This is the real rich man.

Some people don't look at the large amount of accounts, but in fact they are the amount of fixed assets, not real money. The so-called rich people are false.

Only Mr. Fu is the real one.

And most importantly, this is just the tip of Mr. Fu's iceberg.

In other domestic and foreign banks, Mr. Fu still does not know how much money there is.

Looking at this string of numbers makes me jealous.

The same people, how can the difference be so big!

Everyone, look at me, I look at you, and see helplessness and envy in each other's eyes.

Of course, envy is envy. What they are most happy about now is that their team does not have to be disbanded, and they can stay in the head office and branch.

"President, you really got it right, Mr. Fu really helped us."

"Yes, President, it's really nice.

"Yes, it's really nice." President Li also nodded, and he was completely relieved. The big stone he mentioned also fell back to its original place.

Isn't it too good?

He took such a big risk and used Miss Rong to calculate Mr. Fu. At this moment?

Facts have proved that he made the right bet, and he still succeeded.

Moreover, President Fu is willing to repay him, which also shows that President Fu does not care about his calculations.

This allows him to finally not have to worry about what President Fu will do next. He took revenge.

President Li rubbed his brows and finally showed a smile, and he felt relieved.

Then, he picked up his mobile phone and called the Fu Group, ready to thank him.

He wanted to call Fu Jingting directly . Come on.

It's a pity that he doesn't have Fu Jingting's private number, so he can only ask for the next best thing and find the Fu Group. In the Fu Group, Assistant Zhang received a thank you call from President Li, and it was not at all unexpected.

As long as you know how to be grateful People will not fail to call to thank you.

"I see, thank you and you don't have to, but Mr. Fu said that this is the first and last time. If this happens again in the future, he will not let you go." Assistant Zhang faced him blankly. said on the phone.

Although it's not clear what President Li did, anyway, what President Fu explained, it was right to say it in a warning tone.

You have to pay back

On the other end of the phone, when President Li heard Assistant Zhang's warning, he shivered and nodded, "I understand, don't worry, Assistant Zhang, please tell President Fu, there is absolutely no future."

He is not a fool, he naturally knows that some things are good to do once.

If you do too much, you are courting death.

"It's good to know, it's okay, I'll hang up." Assistant Zhang hummed arrogantly and cut off the phone.

Afterwards, he sent a message to Fu Jingting about the call from President Li to thank him.

In Repulse Bay, Fu Jingting has finished wiping his hair and is about to go back to his room to sleep for a while.

As soon as he took a step, the mobile phone in the pocket of the bathrobe rang. He took it out and took a look. After replying that he knew, he put the mobile phone back and continued to walk into the room.

When he came to the room, Fu Jingting stood by the bed, looked at the woman with red cheeks sleeping on the bed, smiled helplessly, then bent down and squeezed the woman's neck lightly, and whispered, "Little conscience, you slept soundly, You thought that someone else really helped you, but I don't know that they were tricked by others."

"Humph" Rong Shu was pinched her nose, unable to breathe, frowned in discomfort, and moved her body.

Seeing that she was about to wake up, Fu Jingting quickly released his hand, then patted her on the shoulder lightly and put her back to sleep.

Soon, Rong Shu stopped moving and fell asleep again.

Fu Jingting let out a low laugh, lifted the quilt and lay down, hugged the woman in his arms, turned off the light and closed his eyes.

The next day, Rong Shu was processing documents in the office and received a call from Lu Qi.

Lu Qi asked, "Shushu, what's the situation?"

"What's the situation?" Rong Shu put the phone on her shoulders, and when she heard his sudden words, she was stunned.

Lu Qi rubbed his cheeks, "It's the trade port. When I came to the company this morning, my dad called me to the office and said that Fu Jingting asked a trade port in a free trade zone to cooperate with us Lu's, and in terms of interests, it was still Our Lu family has the majority."

"Is there such a thing?" The pen in Rong Shu's hand paused, and her body couldn't help but sit up straight.

Lu Tou, "Yes, it happened this morning. The Fu Group personally came to our Lu and said it. When I found out, the whole person was stunned. This Fu Jingting's brain is not broken, but he was so arrogant. Is it crazy to cooperate with our Lu family, or to cooperate with a trade port, and also take the initiative to give us the benefits of the Lu family? Isn't he going to give us money for our Lu family?"

Hearing Lu Qi's chatter, Rong Shu thought in his mind. Suddenly, what Fu Jingting said last night to thank Lu Qi and President Li appeared.

Combined with the fact that Fu Corporation took the initiative to cooperate with Lu Corporation as a trade port this morning, the timing was such a coincidence.

It seems that this is Fu Jingting's thanks to Lu Qi.

He really did what he said and was extremely efficient.

Rong Shu shook her head and smiled, "Okay, Aqi, I probably know what's going on with this matter."

"You know?" Lu Qi was lying on the office chair lazily, with his legs still up. on the desk.

Hearing this, he immediately put his feet down and sat up straight, "Then tell me quickly, what's going on, is it that Fu Jingting's brain is broken, and he actually sent money to my Lu family, that guy Isn't it because my eyes are not eyes, and my nose is not nose? Is he crazy to do this?"

Rong Shu laughed, "It's not that his brain is broken, he did it because of you."

“Me?” Lu Qi was stunned, then frowned in confusion, “What does this have to do with me?”

“I already told him about the missing parts.” Rong Shu didn’t answer him directly, but said this first.

Lu Qi’s expression changed slightly, “What? You told him? Then you”

“Don’t worry, I’m fine, he knew that I kept such a big thing from him, didn’t tell him, and didn’t ask him for help. He was really unhappy at first, but we talked about it later and talked about your persuasion with President Li. After that, it will be fine, and he is very grateful to you and President Li for persuading me, and said he would like to thank you.” Rong Shu replied with a smile.

“Thank you?”

“Yeah.”

Lu Qi was silent, then seemed to understand something, and snorted, “So this trade port is his thanks, right?”

“It should be like this.” Rong Shu nodded.

Lu Qi pursed his lips, “Who wants his thanks? I’m telling you that. I just want you to be good, not for anything else. He’s like this.”

“Okay, Qi.” Rong Shu sighed and interrupted him. “You don’t want this cooperation, do you?”

Rong Shu shook her head amusingly, “Who said you won’t be rewarded without merit? Your persuasion to me is merit, you saved Fu Jingting a lot of effort to persuade me, and at the same time made me understand my current situation. , otherwise I won’t become a conceited talent in the future, these are your credits, so you should accept the cooperation given by Fu Jingting, and I heard that the Lu family has recently been short of a good trading port, so that the goods can be delivered. Exporting abroad, but I haven’t found a suitable one. Even if there is, it will suffer in terms of cooperation interests. Now Fu Jingting has offered to give the Lu family a suitable one, why don’t you accept it?”

Lu Qi opened his mouth and was speechless. to right.

Rong Shu persuaded again, “Yesterday you persuaded me to rely on your backers, and now I persuade you to make money if you have money, so why don’t you accept the wound case? And Fu Jingting believes that your persuasion caused him to owe favors. , if you don't accept it, he will give it to others, so why push it around? If you accept this, he will pay back the favor, and you don't have to deal with other things, why not?"

Lu Qi smiled, "Sure enough, you will have to pay it back sooner or later. I was trying to persuade you yesterday, but I was persuaded to come back today, and you made sense. Okay, I will accept the trade port, but I won't. Say thank you to Fu Jingting, just tell him that."

After that, he hung up the phone.

Rong Shu looked at the phone screen that had jumped back to the main menu, and shook her head in a funny way.

Really, all of them are arrogant attributes.

Rong Shu rubbed her brows, then opened Fu Jingting's WeChat, and sent a message to the Lu's business port cooperation. Is that the thank you said last night?

After sending it, Rong Shu put down the phone, not expecting Fu Jingting to reply to the message now.

After all, the Chinese New Year is coming, and major group companies have to carry out inventory.

The Fu Group is even worse, so this time is the busiest time for the Fu Group.

It is normal that Fu Jingting will not reply to the news immediately.

However, what I didn't expect was that as soon as Rong Shu put down the phone, the phone lit up. It was a video invitation from Fu Jingting.

Rong Shu raised an eyebrow.

Good guy, she thought he was busy, but he wasn't, so she quickly replied with a message, or a video.

Rong Shu smiled, picked up the phone, and connected to Fu Jingting's video invitation. The next second, Fu Jingting's handsome face appeared on the screen.

And the background behind him is his office.

"Aren't you busy?" Rong Shu took a sip of coffee and asked the man in the video with a smile.

The man nodded slightly, "Zhang Cheng worked overtime last night and handled a lot of things, so I'm not particularly busy."

"I see." Rong Shu nodded, then squinted at the man, "Assistant Zhang worked overtime all night, you really are Good boss!"

I won't tell you

"Of course I'm a good boss." Fu Jingting raised his chin slightly, the pride on his face undisguised.

The corner of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "Hey, hey, I'm saying something ironic, can't you hear it?"

She knew that he always liked to squeeze Assistant Zhang.

But he never imagined that he would be able to squeeze Assistant Zhang so hard!

As if he didn't think there was anything wrong with it.

"I hear it." Fu Jingting leaned back on the chair and replied with a faint smile.

He is not a fool, how could he not hear it.

"Then you're still complacent." Rong Shu rolled her eyes at the man.

Fu Jingting curled his lips, "If I don't let Zhang Cheng work overtime, then I will be the one who will work overtime, so I will have less time with you, so why not let him work overtime? Anyway, he is single and has a lot of money. It 's time."

"After hearing the man's shameless and righteous remarks, Rong Shu was speechless, angry and funny.

At the same time, I felt a little sympathy for Assistant Zhang.

What's wrong with being single?

Does being single deserve to be oppressed?

Rong Shu helped her forehead helplessly, "Then why don't you think about it, if you didn't keep pressing Assistant Zhang, would Assistant Zhang have no time to find a girlfriend and be single all the time?"

Fu Jingting was silent.

It seems that there is some truth to it.

But he just didn't want to admit it.

Admitted, that Zhang Cheng has been single, isn't it really caused by him?

So he must not admit that it is not his fault.

Thinking, Fu Jingting coughed lightly against his lips, and replied without changing his face, "Zhang Cheng's singleness has nothing to do with me, it's because he doesn't want to find a girlfriend, if he wants to find a girlfriend, no matter how busy he is, he can still find time to find a girlfriend. Friends, get out of singleness."

All in all, it has nothing to do with him.

Rong Shu couldn't hear that the man was deliberately arguing, he refused to admit it, and shook his head dumbfoundedly, "Yes, yes, it has nothing to do with you, our President Fu is the most considerate of employees, so how could such a good boss really be true? You don't give your subordinates any time to get rid of their orders, right?"

Fu Jingting hummed cheekily when he heard this.

Yep, that's it.

The corners of Rong Shu's mouth twitched even more.

This man is really shameless.

She said that on purpose, but he accepted it without any guilt.

It really makes me cry.

"Okay, no matter what, don't squeeze Assistant Zhang too hard. After all, you are still young, and you will have to work together for decades in the future. If you squeeze Assistant Zhang like this now, your body will decline prematurely. What should I do? Are you sure you can find a good subordinate who works well with you and understands you?" Rong Shu rolled her eyes and said.

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved, and after a while he made a voice, "Little Ye Zi."

"Huh?" Rong Shu tilted his head, "What's wrong?"

“You” Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips and dragged his tone. He sighed lightly and said, “You seem to be more ruthless than me, and even squeeze Zhang Cheng’s labor force than me.”

Rong Shu was stunned, “What do you mean? Why am I more ruthless than you?”

Don’t wrong her!

“I admit that my requirements for Zhang Cheng are indeed a bit high, but I never thought that in the future, I would keep him by my side and do things for me, but you have arranged him for the next few decades in one fell swoop. It seems that you want to tie him to the Fu family for the rest of your life and do your best for the Fu family.” Fu Jingting said with a smile in his eyes.

When Rong Shu was told this by the man, she was stunned at first, then her face slammed, her face turned red, and she panicked when she spoke, “I don’t, I didn’t mean that, I just wanted you not to oppress Zhang like this. Assistant, I don’t mean to let Assistant Zhang work for Fu’s life.”

The more she spoke, the lower her voice became, the lower her head became, and the whole person felt guilty.

No way, she really didn’t mean that, but what she said just now, it sounds like this is what she meant.

So, how could she not feel guilty.

After all, what you said was wrong first.

Through the video, Fu Jingting looked at the shy and embarrassed appearance of the woman, and smiled even more in his eyes.

If it wasn’t for her, he would have wanted to hold her in his arms and kiss her hard.

No way, it’s so cute.

She usually behaves very intellectually and dresses in the style of a strong woman, so she rarely shows such a young daughter attitude, and it is rare for him to see it once.

But every time I see her, I will be so cute by her appearance.

Isn’t there a popular saying on the Internet recently?

Hit the center bar!

Well, seeing what Rong Shu looked like just now, Fu Jingting could feel his heart beating fiercely, and a burning, hot feeling rose up.

That feeling is probably what people on the Internet say about poking the center bus.

“I know you don’t mean that, I’m teasing you.” Fu Jingting turned slightly to the side, propped his head, and looked at the woman in the video in a lazy and masculine manner.

The woman glared at him, “You will treat me like this.”

Fu Jingting chuckled, his voice low and charming, “Okay, I won’t tease you anymore.”

Rong Shu snorted, then gave up, and then looked at the man curiously, and asked, “You just said that you don’t plan to keep Assistant Zhang by your side, what do you mean? Do you still want to fire Assistant Zhang?”

Fu Jingting shook his head, “Of course not, Zhang Cheng owns 0.2 of the original shares of the Fu Group, so he is not just my special assistant, but also a shareholder of the Fu Group. He has been with the Fu Group all his life. Binding, what I said is not going to keep him by my side for the rest of my life, I plan to wait until the time comes, and assign him to the subsidiary company below as a manager. Zhang Cheng is a very capable person, and he will always stay with him. Being a special assistant by your side is completely overkill.”

“I see.” Rong Shu nodded suddenly, “I’ve heard for a long time that the person in charge of a large group will indeed delegate the people around him to the subsidiary company as managers. I didn’t expect it to be true.”

“Of course it’s true. I can basically trust the people who can follow me. Delegating them is also a recognition of their ability, and at the same time, I don’t have to worry about the rebellion of the subsidiary.” Fu Jingting squinted slightly.

Rong Shu touched her chin, “I learned again. In a word, Assistant Zhang and your other secretary assistants, you will put them down one by one.”

Fu Jingting hummed, “Yes, I can’t let them be my assistant secretaries all the time. They are all capable people, and I have always made them secretaries and assistants, and I totally despise them. The reason why I keep them by my side now is to experience them.”

“I see.” Rong Shu teased. The hair in the ear, I thought I learned another trick.

But if Tian Sheng didn’t have this condition, she would probably have applied what she had learned.

But it doesn't matter, Tiansheng hasn't developed yet.

Maybe when Tiancheng develops in the future, she will be able to delegate whoever she wants, just like Fu Jingting.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu couldn't help but laugh.

Fu Jingting looked at her smiling like a little squirrel that stole pine nuts, and couldn't help but ask curiously, "What are you laughing at?"

"Nothing." Rong Shu waved her hand, but she didn't want to tell him what she just thought.

She was afraid that he would laugh at her without self-awareness and whimsical.

After all, if Tiancheng wants to achieve his situation, he doesn't know how long it will take.

I don't even know if it can be achieved.

So she still didn't say it, it was just her own secret.

Gossip

Seeing that the woman was unwilling to tell him, Fu Jingting raised his eyebrows and did not force it. He smiled lightly and asked, "Okay, let's not talk about Zhang Cheng, let's talk about other men, I should be uncomfortable. What's the matter with me?"

Rong Shu curled her lips, "How do you know that I'm looking for you, it must be something? What if I'm just bored and want to chat with you?"

Fu Jingting chuckled, "I know you're not that person. Someone who will chat with me during work."

He tapped her back through the camera.

Rong Shu turned her head and saw a whole bookshelf behind her.

He was pointing out that she was in the office at the moment, just like him, during work.

And just as he said, during work, as long as there is no business, she feels that she will not call anyone to chat on the phone, or send messages to chat and desert.

Even his Fu Jingting is the same.

Therefore, if she contacts him at this moment, there must be something.

Rong Shu smiled, "Okay, because you know me so well, I"

"Reward me?" Fu Jingting cut off her words.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes, "Don't interrupt, who said I'm going to reward you?"

"I know you so well, shouldn't you reward me?" Fu Jingting looked at her.

Rong Shu pouted, "According to you, I still know you, do you want to reward me too?"

"Yes." Fu Jingting nodded without hesitation, "What reward do you want? I know what you want, I will do it for you."

He said, looking at her expression, very serious.

Instead, Rong Shu felt a little embarrassed, "Okay, who wants your reward, let's get down to business, let me ask you, is the Lu Corporation's trade port cooperation today what you said last night to thank Ah Qi? "

"How do you know?" A dark light flashed in Fu Jingting's eyes, "I didn't tell you about the cooperation with Lu's trade port."

Rong Shu took a sip, "Aqi said, he just called and asked Do I know what happened and why? Then I remembered what you said last night, so I told him that this is your thanks to him."

Fu Jingting suddenly nodded, "It's me, I always have Kindness must be repaid, I never owe any favors, it just happened that the Lu family needed this recently, so I gave it."

"Aqi was reluctant to accept it at first, but after I persuaded him a few words, he accepted it." Rong Shu said with a smile .

Fu Jingting lightly opened his thin lips, "Even if you don't persuade him, he will have to accept it if he doesn't accept it in the end. Uncle will not let his temper. Recently, uncle has always wanted to cooperate with a suitable trading port. This is related to Lu's reform. So I took the initiative to send it to the door, and my uncle would not miss it. If Lu Qi dared to refuse the door, his legs would not be able to be kept and he would be interrupted by his uncle."

Rong Shu covered her lips and smiled, "That's really possible, So, with my persuasion, Ah Qi saved his legs and saved his legs?"

"Almost." Fu Jingting raised his chin.

Rong Shu giggled, "It seems that Ah Qi should thank me well."

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved, just as he was about to say something, Rong Shu heard a knock on the door from him.

Fu Jingting frowned, obviously dissatisfied that someone knocked on the door and interrupted his video with Rong Shu, but still opened his mouth to answer the office door, "Come in." The door opened, and a secretary pushed in, "President, yesterday The guest who made an appointment with you has arrived and is waiting for you in the reception room."

"I see, I'll be there in a while, so you go to entertain first." Fu Jingting nodded slightly to indicate that he understood, and at the same time he waved his hand to signal that the secretary can go out.

The secretary responded, glanced at the phone in his hand, turned around and went out.

After going out, the secretary closed the door, then leaned against the door panel, patting his chest for the rest of his life.

He said why as soon as he entered, he was greeted with extremely dissatisfied eyes from President Fu, as if he was about to stab him. It turned out that President Fu was videotaping with Miss Rong, and his presence disturbed their video.

So it's strange that President Fu has a good face towards him.

It seems that it is really not the right time to go just now.

Fortunately, Mr. Fu was dissatisfied and didn't really care about his behavior.

Otherwise, your rice bowl will not be full.

The secretary gave a wry smile, put down his hands, and walked towards the elevator.

Sure enough, it is not easy to do this kind of errand.

If you are not careful, you may step on the boss's dissatisfaction, and then the position under the buttocks will not be guaranteed.

In the future, this kind of task should be left to Assistant Zhang.

Shaking his head, the secretary entered the elevator.

At the same time, in the chairman's office, after Fu Jingting watched the office door close, his brows relaxed, and he looked back at the phone screen, and was about to speak.

Rong Shu suddenly smiled at him, "I heard that there seems to be a guest on your side just now."

Fu Jingting snorted, "A good friend of my grandfather's life also had some business with the Fu family. I helped."

"That's it." Rong Shu nodded, "Since you are grandfather's friend, then you can go quickly, don't be sloppy, I'm looking for you mainly to confirm whether the Lu's trading port is your thanks. , Now that it's confirmed, there's nothing else to do, you'll be busy first, and come back later in the evening."

She said so, what else could Fu Jingting say?

And Mr. Liu really doesn't want to be neglected. The old man is not only a friend of his grandfather, but also one of his teachers.

The old man was a professor of economics when he was young. It can be said that his knowledge of economics was basically taught by the old man.

He can have today's achievements, but also a credit to the elderly.

Moreover, the old man's family is also very good. Except for doting too much on his granddaughter and being a little helpless in some matters about his granddaughter, the old man himself has almost no shortcomings.

Therefore, he should respect Liu Lao and not neglect .

"Okay, then I'll go to see Mr. Liu first, and then I'll introduce Mr. Liu to you at the shopping mall banquet." Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu and said.

Rong Shu nodded, "Okay."

"Then I'll hang up first."

"Well, let's go." Rong Shu smiled.

Fu Jingting finally gave her a reluctant look and cut off the video.

Rong Shu looked at the screen that jumped back to the WeChat interface, smiled slightly, put the phone away, and got ready to work.

However, at this moment, the door of the office was suddenly pushed open, Secretary Tong came in from the outside anxiously, and his face was flushed because he walked too quickly.

Seeing her like this, Rong Shu was even startled, blinked her eyes and asked, "What's wrong? What happened?"

Secretary Tong has always been polite. After permission, the door will be pushed open to come in. Only when there is a major incident will they come in without reporting like this.

So now Secretary Tong is suddenly like this, something big must happen.

Sure enough, after Secretary Tong kicked twice, he looked at Rong Shu and replied, "The chairman is not good, you are making a scandal."

"What?" Rong Shu was stunned at first, and it took a few seconds before she realized what she had just heard. , confirmed it with a weird expression, "You just said, I'm having an affair?"

"Well." Secretary Tong nodded.

The corners of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "How is it possible, I'm not a star, what's the scandal?"

After saying that, she smiled with a look of disapproval.

Secretary Tong hurriedly said, "Chairman, although you are not a star, you are also a public figure, don't forget, you are the chairman of Tiancheng and the lover of President Fu. These identities have attracted people's attention. In addition, you have been on the Internet several times before, so your traffic is not bad compared to those in the entertainment industry. Many netizens are following your news online, and now someone has photographed you going out with a man The hotel was naturally rumored to be rumored."

The Internet is boiling

Now Rong Shu understood, she was photographed entering and leaving the hotel with a man, and then she began to speculate on the Internet that she had an affair with that man.

Depend on!

What is this all about?

Rong Shu was speechless in her heart, her eyes were about to roll to the sky, "Which man did I enter or leave the hotel with? Why don't I know?"

Secretary Tong's lips moved, looking at her eyes with a hint of complexity, "Chairman, You forgot, yesterday you and Mr. Lu were the ones who went to see Mr. Li at the hotel."

As soon as these words came out, Rong Shu understood, and her face darkened, "So you mean that someone took a picture of me and Mr. I took photos of Qi in and out of the hotel, and then spread rumors about me and A Qi? That man, is A Qi?"

"Yes." Secretary Tong lowered his eyes.

Rong Shu laughed angrily, "These people are quite good at spreading rumors, but I want to see what they say on the Internet." After she finished speaking, she threw away the pen in her hand and grabbed the mouse, then turned on the computer and went to the website .

As soon as she entered the web page, Rong Shu saw what Secretary Tong said about her scandal.

No way, I really don't want to see it, after all, it is hung high at the top of the web page, and there is a big banner.

There is also a line of fonts that are enlarged and bolded on the banner in between, and the particularly eye-catching title is shocked! The girlfriend of the chairman of the Fu Group actually entered and exited the hotel with a strange man. Is there a reason for this, or is it a moral decline?

" " This line of title really left Rong Shu speechless.

Neuropathy!

At a glance, you can see that it is the style of the squirrel department.

Rong Shu didn't click into the banner immediately, but narrowed her beautiful almond eyes and looked up at Secretary Tong opposite, "Do you know which media first published this rumor?"

Another protagonist of the scandal is Ah Since then, although Secretary Tong keeps saying that he wants to give up Ah Qi, how easy is it to give up.

So at this moment, Secretary Tong must still love Ah Qi in his heart.

Seeing Aqi's scandal, it's impossible for Secretary Tong to ignore it or not investigate it.

Sure enough, as Rong Shu guessed, Secretary Tong quickly answered her question, "It's the squirrel department."

"It's really the squirrel department." Rong Shu sneered.

I just guessed that this title is the style of the squirrel department, and now it has been confirmed that the starting line is also the squirrel department.

This squirrel department is really good.

"In addition to the squirrel department, there are other websites and media that have followed and forwarded it one after another, and then published similar scandals. Now there is a lot of noise online." Secretary Tong said again.

Rong Shu nodded slightly, indicating that she understood, and stared coldly at the exaggerated title banner on the computer in front of her.

After she memorized the three words "Squirrel Department" in her heart, her little face pursed her red lips gloomily, and then clicked her white finger on the mouse and clicked into the banner with the exaggerated title.

The Squirrel Department is just a slightly larger media and web company, but compared to the Fu Group, it is just an ant.

Therefore, the Squirrel Department did not dare to offend Fu Jingting, and published this on the Internet.

Let's not say that she and Aqi have nothing. Even if there is, the squirrels have photographed it. Due to Fu Jingting's identity, the normal way to deal with it, they should find Fu Jingting in private and show Fu Jingting the content of the photograph, saying Maybe you can get a hush money from Fu Jingting instead of publishing it directly.

Sending it out directly is undoubtedly throwing Fu Jingting's face on the ground and stepping on it. It's strange not to offend Fu Jingting.

After all, in this way, everyone knows that he is the chairman of the dignified Fu Group, a person with such a high status, who is actually wearing a cuckold. Which man can stand it?

It's strange not to kill the person who published the news without authorization.

She believed in such a simple truth that the Squirrel Department could not understand.

However, the Squirrel Department would rather take the risk of offending Fu Jingting and publish these. What does this mean?

It means that behind this, there must be someone who supports the Squirrel Department, and even has the ability to protect the Squirrel Department, so the people in the Squirrel Department dare to be so bold and go beyond Fu Jingting to publish such news on the Internet.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu's hand holding the mouse tightened even more forcefully.

She wanted to see what kind of content the Squirrel Department dared to risk offending Fu Jingting to come up with such a title to attract the attention of netizens.

Rong Shu's little face was very cold, and even the aura around her body was cold.

Secretary Tong looked at her like this, and couldn't help showing a little surprise on his face.

When did the chairman have such aura?

And this kind of aura made her feel as if she saw President Fu.

Although this aura was far from the shock that President Fu brought her, it was a bit closer.

It can be seen that the chairman has learned a lot from President Fu.

Rong Shu doesn't know what Secretary Tong is thinking, and is now staring at the computer in front of her intently.

Looking at the content on the computer, she was about to laugh out loud.

I saw that the squirrel department wrote this. According to netizens, on the afternoon of January 20, outside the Huayu Hotel, I encountered Ms. Rong Shu, the chairman of Tiansheng Group, and a strange man entering the hotel side by side. Standing at the gate of the hotel chatting and laughing happily, with ambiguous and ambiguous behavior, until the car arrived, they both looked at each other and smiled, got in the car and left, netizens couldn't help guessing the relationship between the two.

After the text, there are a few photos.

One is a photo of me and Ah Qi when they entered the hotel. Since I and Ah Qi were talking at the time, they walked relatively close, and it looked as if they were holding hands.

A photo of himself and Ah Qi saying goodbye to President Li and standing outside the hotel gate waiting for the bus. In the photo, he lowered his head and breathed at his hands, while Ah Qi was leaning sideways, holding his coat. The coat is being draped over her.

The third photo is of himself wearing Ah Qi's coat and looking up at Ah Qi in astonishment.

But the self in the photo was photographed with red cheeks, surprised eyes, and a shy and sweet sense of sight, which made people imagine.

However, the real situation is that his face was frozen red because he was too cold, and it was not the kind of blush in the photo that people looked like they were blushed.

As for the eyes, it's even more ridiculous.

Don't think that she couldn't see it, the photo was deliberately blurred later, so it seems that her original surprise has become shy and sweet.

This makes it clear that it was the Squirrel Department's intentional, intentional photos, which confounded netizens' judgment and made netizens feel that the relationship between her and Aqi was really unclear.

It's utterly abominable.

And the last photo is of Ah Qi standing in front of the car, opening the door for her, smiling at Ah Qi and thanking Ah Qi.

However, the shooting angle of this photo once again misinterpreted the original content of the photo, becoming the kind of ambiguous and ambiguous smile between men and women described in the text.

All in all, with the words described above and these four meaningful photos, if it wasn't for herself or the person involved, she would probably feel that she and Ah Qi really had something to do with it.

Even when she saw this herself, she had this idea, not to mention the netizens on the Internet.

Netizens have always liked to watch the fun, and they have always had a distorted psychology of watching the fun without taking it too seriously. In addition, the identities of her and Fu Jingting are there, and this distorted psychology is even worse.

It's not that she looks down on these netizens, but that's the truth.

Meaningful Photos

Because of the unequal status and living standards, netizens generally have a kind of hatred for the rich in their hearts for those with status, so netizens prefer to see them fall from the altar rather than seeing them. .

After they fell, netizens would not sympathize with them, but would only laugh at them even more, gloat in misfortune, and even fall into trouble.

It seems that only in this way can netizens express their unbalanced sense of status and living standards in their hearts.

In short, the most terrifying thing in this world is not ghosts and gods, but people's hearts.

So now she knows how ugly the comments are even if she doesn't read the comments below.

Netizens have a herd mentality, and rarely have their own judgments, and they all have blind faith in the media.

Basically, what the media says is what they say, and they rarely doubt it.

Of course, there are also some people who have a clear mind and doubt whether the news is true or false.

But so what?

For the jealousy of these people, this part of netizens with clear minds, even if they think the fake news released by the media, they will take it as true, and they will even say it in the comment area more ugly than those netizens who believe it is true news. , and maybe even add oil and vinegar to it.

While thinking about it, Rong Shu mixed the mouse and moved the page to the comment area below.

Sure enough, it was an unsightly speech.

“Hahaha, I laughed so hard. Some time ago, the two of them were still showing their affection on the Internet. President Fu confessed for her all over the Internet. As a result, she slapped President Fu in the face so quickly and gave President Fu a cuckold.”

“My God, what did I see? Mr. Fu is so handsome. He must be much more handsome than the man in the photo who can't even see his face. This man is dressed in fancy clothes, even in winter. What's the difference between those ducks in the nightclub, they're not good men at first glance, what did this Rong Shu think, to actually see such a man betraying Mr. Fu, how can this man compare to Mr. Fu?”

“Upstairs, don't you know that there is a saying that home flowers are not as fragrant as wild flowers? This sentence is not only for men, but also for women. How about President Fu, no matter how handsome or rich? Managing such a big group is definitely nothing. I spent time with that Rong Shu, so maybe Rong Shu was empty, lonely and cold, and couldn't hold back.”

“I knew from the beginning that Rong Shu was not a good woman, you think, the Rong family fell out many years ago, The Fu family has always been in a top-level family. How did Rong Shu marry Mr. Fu like this? Although Rong Shu explained at the press conference that it was because he saved the daughter of the Gu family, Mr. Fu thanked her for marrying her. But with Mr. Fu's net worth, wouldn't it be better to give money and resources? Why do you have to use marriage as a thank you? So I guess there must be other reasons for this. Maybe it's that Rong Shu's envoy and Fu Mr. Fu had to be responsible for marrying her after the total raw rice cooked the rice?”

“It makes sense, no wonder Mr. Fu didn't like her well for the past six years, it must be the reason, if it was me, I wouldn't It will give her a good face, but what I can't figure out is that President Fu divorced her, shouldn't it be a relief? Why do you want to get back together later?”

“Who knows, there must be reasons we don't know, maybe it is What's the point of catching Boss Fu? For this threat, Boss Fu has to get back with her and show her affection on the Internet. If this is the case, then Boss Fu is too pitiful, and this woman is too She has a plan.”

“That's right, maybe in a place we can't see, President Fu treats her the same as when she was married before, and still doesn't want to see her, and then she harbors resentment and deliberately finds a man to take revenge on President Fu, but it's just that I was accidentally photographed.”

“If that’s the case, it would be great, Mr. Fu can break up with her, and the one who is waiting for the news of the breakup, add me, and I will also wait.”

“And me, if Fu It’s really a celebration of the whole world.”

For a while, the Internet was full of words that Fu Jingting wanted to break up with her, and even for this, they began to congratulate in advance, as if she really said these comments, a very scheming Shen, caught Fu Jingting’s handle and threatened the bad woman Fu Jingting was with him.

There are even more ugly words, saying that she is a slut, a woman, a slut, a slut, so she couldn’t bear the loneliness and gave Fu Jingting a cuckold.

Seeing these comments, Rong Shu’s heart was bursting with anger, her face was bulging, and her eyes were red.

These netizens have a really dark heart to criticize someone who is not related to them so badly.

“Chairman, are you alright?” On the opposite side, Secretary Tong looked at Rong Shu’s appearance and knew why Rong Shu was angry, and asked with concern quickly.

Secretary Tong sighed, “The comments on the Internet are so dirty, it’s uncomfortable for anyone to read, let alone the chairman yourself, so chairman, don’t read it. Now , turn it off.”

Rong Shu took the coffee and sipped, “Don’t worry, Tong Xi, I have something to tell you.”

“Chairman, you say it.” Secretary Tong looked at her.

Rong Shu bit her lower lip, “It’s Secretary Tong like this. The scandals on the Internet are not true. As you know, Ah Qi and I went to the hotel to see President Li, and didn’t do anything, you”

“I thought Chairman, what do you want to tell you and me?” Secretary Tong smiled, “What did you mean, Chairman, you are overthinking it, of course I know that you have nothing to do with Mr. Lu, you and Mr. Fu love each other so much, it’s not the ones on the Internet As the netizens said, you can’t betray President Fu and President Lu. If you had it long ago, would you not know it until now?”

“But those photos”

Secretary Tong shook his head, "Those photos, we know you well. Everyone knows it's fake, and only a fool would believe it, so Chairman, you don't need to think that I will care about the scandal between you and President Fu. I said, I gave up President Lu, so about everything related to President Lu, I wouldn't even care, what's more, it's fake in the first place."

Hearing her say that, Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief, and her heart dropped back to where she was, "Just think about it more, I'm just worried that you will care about this and cause some discomfort to your body."

"Don't worry, chairman." Secretary Tong smiled at her and reassured her again.

Rong Shu snorted, "Okay."

"But Chairman, don't you see anything wrong with the photo?" At this moment, Secretary Tong suddenly pushed his glasses and asked.

Rong Shu rubbed his temples, "Of course I found out, you just said that the photo is fake, and I also know that the photo has been taken in several places, so that the original normal photo has become a misunderstood ambiguous and ambiguous photo. "

No." Secretary Tong shook his head, "Chairman, I'm not referring to this issue."

"What is that?" Rong Shu blinked.

Secretary Tong stepped forward and came to her side.

Rong Shu took the initiative to give her the mouse.

After holding the mouse, she slid down, and as she slid, she said with a serious face, "It's this photo, Mr. Lu's face can't be seen clearly, but your face, chairman, is very clear. The squirrel department deliberately blurred President Lu's face."

Bang!

Rong Shu slapped the table angrily, her face flushed with anger, "What a squirrel!"
