This Time, I Will Get My Divorce Chapter 1191

The enemy of the enemy is a friend

The indifference and murderous aura in his eyes made Su Cheng realize that Fu Jingting really didn't just let loose words and threaten him.

Fu Jingting is serious.

If he really dared to deceive him a little bit, and he knew it, he would definitely not hesitate, and he would definitely break his neck immediately.

If he was young, Su Cheng felt that he might not be so afraid of death.

But as he got older and experienced more and more things, and witnessed the people around him die one by one, his courage and courage gradually diminished over time, and he became more and more afraid of death.

The older you get, the more you fear death.

In particular, his identity made him even more afraid of death.

Once he dies, there is nothing left. He can no longer enjoy the title, rights, and money of the Su family, but falls back to the hands of the Su family's supporters.

He didn't want to see that kind of result. He wanted to be the head of the Su family until he was a hundred years old, and he always controlled most of his life.

Therefore, he absolutely does not want to die early, absolutely!

Su Cheng lowered his eyelids slightly, avoiding Fu Jingting's murderous eyes. Only in this way would his inner fear be reduced.

"Nephew, don't worry. Since I said again and again that I didn't lie to you, I naturally won't lie to you. You can rest assured and give me the letter of understanding, and I will present the relics together." Su Cheng said.

Fu Jingting's thin lips pursed into a straight line, and it took a while before he said, "I will have someone come over before five o'clock in the afternoon. After Su Man comes out, you'd better take care of the person, and then you will end up with me if you dare to offend my woman. It will never be this simple again."

"Don't worry, I will." Su Cheng raised his head and smiled at Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting's purpose of coming here has been achieved, so naturally he has no intention to stay any longer. With his hands in his trouser pockets, he turns around and leaves.

Assistant Zhang naturally followed closely behind.

The two took two steps, and Su Cheng's voice suddenly came from behind them.

"My nephew, I didn't publicize the fact that I was beaten. The outside world still doesn't know what I went through. If you can know in such a short time, it means that there is someone watching you by my side. Follow me." Su Cheng looked at the backs of the two and said in a gloomy voice.

Fu Jingting stopped.

He stopped, and Assistant Zhang naturally followed.

"So what? You still want to trouble me?" Fu Jingting's thin lips pulled out a sarcastic arc, without turning his head, he looked at the door of the ward and said.

Su Cheng's eyes flashed with resentment, and it was fleeting, "Of course not, nephew is joking, in Haishi, how dare I directly trouble you, isn't this courting death? I just want to ask nephew, since your nephew People have been staring at me, so your people should have seen the faces of those who beat me?"

"Oh?" Fu Jingting raised his eyebrows, then turned his head and looked at Su Cheng sarcastically, "So what do you mean? , do you want to find the people who beat you from me?"

Su Cheng's hand under the quilt slowly clenched into a fist, "That's right."

"Then you found the wrong person." Fu Jingting sneered I said, "What is my relationship with you? You actually want to get the clues you want from me, do you think it's possible? I tell you, it's impossible, I won't help you, on the contrary, I will help those people cover up Their traces, the enemy of the enemy is a friend, you haven't heard this sentence, right? So you want to find people from me, it's naive." After the words were finished, he turned his head back, no longer stopped, Soon he walked out of the door of the ward.

Su Cheng looked at the figures they were leaving, his face was red and white with anger, and his chest was constantly heaving, as if he was going to turn his back at any time.

But the scourges have remained for thousands of years, even if these scourges seem weak and will die at any time.

But in fact, they are able to support their weak bodies and live a long time, so that they have a lot of time to go to other people.

“Boss.” At this time, Assistant Li came in from the outside while covering his swollen forehead.

He called Su Cheng, closed the door of the ward, walked towards the hospital bed, and stopped in front of Su Cheng’s bed.

Su Cheng closed his eyes fiercely. After a while, he suppressed the anger that erupted in his heart and regained his calm, “How are the people who asked you to investigate?”

Assistant Li lowered his head in shame, “The boss is very sorry, the person has not been found out, the place where your accident happened is an old alley, there is no surveillance, I was also taken away at that time, I was not by your side, and I have not seen those people, so it is not easy to find.”

Su Cheng also knowing that what the assistant said was true, even if he didn’t want to, he didn’t want to hear such a result, so he had to accept the reality at this moment.

He took a deep breath and tried not to make himself angry again, then waved his hand, “Continue to check.”

“Yes.” Assistant Li was relieved when he saw that the boss was not angry.

As long as the boss doesn’t get angry, you don’t have to worry about being implicated.

“You go to the police station in a while and negotiate with the police, and say that Fu Jingting has the idea of understanding, first submit the bail application, and when Fu Jingting’s letter of understanding arrives, he will immediately send it to the police station.” Su Cheng ordered again.

Assistant Li bowed, “Yes, I’ll do it right away.”

Su Cheng hummed and stopped talking, then closed his eyes and lay down, as if he was asleep.

When Assistant Li saw this, he didn’t dare to disturb him, so he turned around and walked out.

On the other side, Fu Jingting and Assistant Zhang got into the car.

In the car, Fu Jingting rubbed his temples and asked, “How?”

Assistant Li started the car and replied, “Because Su Cheng has never been out of the hotel before, our people can’t directly break into his room, so about his DNA, we have never been able to get it, so about the relationship between him and Su Man, only I haven't been able to get an answer, but today Su Cheng was beaten and sent to the hospital. The hospital shaved Su Cheng's head and bandaged the wound on his head. There was some blood-stained hair, which was secretly picked up by our people from the trash can. , has been sent to the appraisal department, and I believe it will not be long before I get the answer."

After so long, he finally heard good news, Fu Jingting's complexion improved a little, and he nodded slightly, "Let's go. , go back to the group."

"Yes." Assistant Zhang nodded.

Tiancheng Group, after Rong Shu finished processing an urgent document, she leaned back on the back of the chair and stretched to ease the pain in her lower back.

After stretching, she simply curled up in the chair and stayed still, taking a break for a while before continuing with the rest of the less anxious documents.

"Chairman." At this time, the door of the office was knocked twice, and a refreshing female voice came.

Rong Shu looked up and saw one of her secretary, Lina, standing outside the wide-open office door.

He is also a person who temporarily works for Secretary Tong during Secretary Tong's leave for surgery and recuperation.

"Come in." Rong Shu smiled at her, then quickly sat down.

There is no way, the subordinates are here, and it is not good to curl up in the chair so unremarkably, which makes people laugh.

Maybe it will make her subordinates feel that she, the chairman, has no manners.

"Okay." Lina responded, put her hand down from the door, walked in with her feet up, and stopped in front of Rong Shu's desk, "Chairman, you just asked me to get the documents"

"Here is it. ." Rong Shu pointed to a document on the table, "Hurry up and send it to the department below, don't make them wait any longer."

Secretary Tong wants to resign

“Okay, I’ll go right now.” The secretary nodded and picked up the document, “The chairman, I’ll leave first.”

Rong Shu waved her hand, “Go, thank you for your hard work.”

“Director It’s getting serious.” Lina smiled, turned and walked towards the door.

But after walking a few steps, he suddenly thought of something, stopped, and turned around again, “By the way, Chairman, there is something I don’t know whether to say or not.”

“Speak.” Rong Shu raised her head slightly. He lifted his chin and motioned for her.

Lina saw that she let herself speak, and she no longer hesitated in her heart. After standing up again, she said, “This is the chairman. I went to the personnel department this morning. Our secretary department needs a new assistant recently, so I Go over there and ask if there are any suitable candidates.”

“Well, I know about the need for new assistants.” Rong Shu nodded, “And then?”

She knew that as a secretary, she would definitely not say what she wanted to say. it is this.

Sure enough, Lina took a breath and continued to say, “Then I heard Secretary Tong from the HR department, saying that Secretary Tong called the HR department in the morning and asked the HR department to prepare a resignation letter for her. Send the application to her.”

“What did you say?” Rong Shu’s expression changed slightly, “If I heard correctly, you are talking about a resignation application? Secretary Tong and the personnel department want a resignation application?”

“Yes Yes.” Lina nodded, proving that she had heard it right.

Rong Shu’s brows were tightly locked, and her expression was ugly, “Secretary Tong is going to resign?”

“At present, it seems to be the case. After I found out, I immediately checked with the head of the personnel department to confirm whether the employees of the personnel department were talking nonsense. The head of the personnel department told me later that this is indeed the case. , Secretary Tong’s call was answered by the Minister of Personnel. According to the Minister of Personnel himself, he was surprised when he heard Secretary Tong’s words, and even planned to tell you, but sadly, Secretary Tong stopped him, and Secretary Tong told the Minister of Personnel not to let him You know, so I was hesitating whether I should tell the chairman or not. After all, if I told you, it would violate Secretary Tong's hospital, but if I didn't say it, I felt unwilling. It's so strange that Secretary Tong is resigning at this time. , and Secretary Tong has always had a good relationship with the chairman, so after tangled again and again, I think I should tell you. I also hope that the chairman will ask why Secretary Tong is resigning. All our secretaries and assistants have a good relationship. Let Secretary Tong just resign and leave, and"

"And what?" Rong Shu looked at her.

Lina bit her lower lip, obviously unsure of something.

After a few seconds, she finally persuaded herself. After pinching the palm of her hand twice, she looked at Rong Shu and replied, "Chairman, it's like this, I have a suspicion that Secretary Tong suddenly resigned, something must have happened, I know Secretary Tong. Secretary Tong loves this job very much. She will not think about resigning for no reason. Even if she is pregnant, we have never heard of her resignation. Even if she wants to shed her children, I didn't see her thinking of resigning until she asked for leave for surgery, and then she suddenly offered to resign. I wonder if there was an accident in Secretary Tong's operation, which caused physical damage, so she could no longer be competent for the job, so she resigned. "

Wait a minute, how do you know that Secretary Tong is pregnant? Will she still have a baby?" Rong Shu stood up in surprise, her eyes fixed on Lina.

Lina didn't hide it, and immediately replied, "I found it myself, Chairman, you know, I'm married and have children, so some signs of a woman's pregnancy are better than other unmarried sisters in the office who have no children. You need to know more. During this period of time, Secretary Tong will occasionally have some situations that only appear in the early stage of pregnancy. One or two times may be sick, but if the number of times is more, I am sure that Secretary Tong is not sick, but pregnant. That day, I saw a list of appointments for abortion surgery in Secretary Tong's trash can, and I was sure that Secretary Tong was indeed pregnant, and I didn't plan to keep the child."

"That's it." Rong Shu was relieved With a sigh, she sat back on the chair again, "I thought, who told you that."

"No, I found it myself." Lina shook her head, then realized something, looked at Rong Shu and asked, "Chairman , Do you also know about Secretary Tong's pregnancy?"

Rong Shu looked at her and didn't want to say anything, but thinking that she already knew, she didn't plan to hide it, so she nodded slightly and said, "That's right, I knew it from the beginning, but Secretary Tong asked me to help keep it a secret, so I didn't tell you either, so I was so surprised when I heard that Secretary Tong was pregnant, thinking that there were other people besides me who knew about it and also It 's publicized."

“No.” Lina waved her hand, and then said with some guilty conscience, “But I told the other sisters in the office.”

“What?” Rong Shu was shocked.

Lina was even more guilty, and finally lowered her head, “I didn’t do it on purpose, but Secretary Tong didn’t come the next day after asking for leave. I looked at Secretary Tong’s desk and murmured, “I’m not going to have surgery, right?” When the other sisters in the office heard it, everyone asked me to clarify, and I couldn’t help but tell them.”

“” Rong Shu twitched the corners of her mouth, and the whole person was quite helpless.

What is this called?

This made her blocked on one side and leaked on the other side?

Seeing Rong Shu’s face full of black lines, Lina hurried to find a remedy, “But Chairman, I didn’t let the sisters publicize it, I was thinking about Secretary Tong’s pregnancy, and I didn’t tell us sisters at first., I knew that Secretary Tong definitely didn’t want us to know, so after I told the sisters, I also instructed them not to say it, just a few of us knew, and they agreed, and everyone was assistants and secretaries. Confidentiality is definitely fine. Hearing this, Rong Shu was indeed slightly relieved, “

That’s good, but are you sure that none of them said anything, really only you yourself know?” “

I’m sure, anyway, in the past two days, I haven’t heard that anyone other than us is talking about Secretary Tong’s pregnancy, so everyone must have not said it, otherwise, as Secretary Tong’s identity in the group, Everyone has long been rumored. Lina replied.

Rong Shu nodded slightly.

This is true.

It seems that he did not say anything.

“That’s fine, as long as you know it, don’t say it, Secretary Tong doesn’t want people to know, we She can’t be disappointed, after all, this is Secretary Tong’s own privacy. Rong Shu told Lina again.

Lina promised repeatedly, “Don’t worry, Chairman, I’ll go back to the office in a while and remind my sisters to deepen their self-awareness. It’s absolutely not going to be rumored. outsiders know. “

Speaking of this, Lina suddenly got stuck, and suddenly remembered that besides the sisters in their office, it seems that there is indeed an outsider who knows.

That is President Lu.

But for Secretary Tong and the chairman, President Lu is not an outsider, right? ?

So Mr. Lu should be all right when he knows it?

Mr. Lu and Secretary Tong are college classmates. They have had a relationship between subordinates and subordinates for more than ten years, and they are also friends. What happened to Secretary Tong, Mr. Lu looks at these relationships for the sake of it. , I will definitely not do anything to disappoint Secretary Tong.

It seems that I don't have to worry about it.

Can't get in touch

Lina nodded secretly in her heart, but in the end she kept Lu Qi's knowledge of the matter a secret and didn't tell Rong Shu.

Because I feel that it is the same whether to tell or not, and there is no need.

Anyway, Mr. Lu will not hurt Secretary Tong.

Thinking about it, Lina was completely relieved, looked at Rong Shu and asked again, "Chairman, do you think Secretary Tong's resignation at this time is what I guessed?"

"I don't know, but your guess is not without it. Maybe." Rong Shu pursed her lips, her eyes filled with worry about Secretary Tong.

She has no female friends, the only two are Secretary Tong and Chen Xingnuo.

Chen Xingnuo followed Xiaochuan back to the capital, and there was almost no contact in the past few months.

She had contacted several times, but Chen Xingnuo never answered, probably because the bodyguard was too busy.

It is also possible that Xiaochuan transferred Chen Xingnuo away from his side and arranged other tasks, making it inconvenient to contact him.

After all, when he contacted Chen Xingnuo for the last time, Chen Xingnuo said that now Xiaochuan doesn't trust her, and he didn't let her be personally protected.

In short, she couldn't contact Chen Xingnuo. She didn't know Xiaochuan's current situation, nor Chen Xingnuo's own situation, so she was always worried about him.

Can not contact, worry is useless.

Now the only one by her side who can accompany her to talk about the secrets between women at any time is Secretary Tong.

So when something might happen to Secretary Tong, she naturally couldn't feel at ease.

"When you knew that Secretary Tong wanted to resign, didn't you contact her to ask?" Rong Shu looked at Lina and asked.

Lina nodded, "Of course I did, but I didn't get in touch."

"Can't get through the phone?"

"No." Lina shook her head, "I got through, but I got hung up later. Secretary Tong seems to have guessed that someone would ask her this. It's something, so I don't plan to take it." I don't plan to take it

Rong Shu's red lips pursed, and she was more worried and more certain that Secretary Tong's resignation was not that simple.

If you simply don't want to do it and want to resign, why do you avoid telling others why?

So Lina's guess is right, there is definitely something wrong with Secretary Tong's resignation.

The biggest question is what happened to her.

"I see, I'll contact her later, thank you for your concern for her, and thank you for telling me this, you've done a good job." Rong Shu temporarily restrained her unease and worries, squeezed out a smile and smiled at Li Thanks Na.

Lina waved her hand embarrassedly, "the chairman is serious, and Secretary Tong and I are also good sisters, so this is what I should do, then Secretary Tong will trouble the chairman, if there is any news, I hope the chairman will let us know. , we are also very worried about her.”

“I will.” Rong Shu hummed and agreed to her.

“The chairman, I’ll go out first.” Lina bowed slightly to Rong Shu and turned to leave.

After she left, Rong Shu didn’t delay, she quickly picked up her mobile phone and dialed Secretary Tong’s number.

Fortunately, Secretary Tong’s phone call was still available, but Rong Shu was afraid that she would encounter the situation that Lina said next, so she didn’t want to answer and hung up.

In that case, it is really impossible to contact Secretary Tong.

So, God bless Secretary Tong must pick it up.

Rong Shu clenched her phone tightly, not feeling confident.

Meanwhile, on the other end of the phone.

Secretary Tong was pale and half-lying on the bed weakly, holding a delicate porcelain bowl in his hand. The porcelain bowl was filled with liquid that was dark all night and didn’t know what to do.

Secretary Tong lowered his head and took a sip of the liquid in the bowl. As soon as he drank it, his whole face wrinkled up and became a bun, not to mention how painful it was.

It can be seen that the taste of this liquid is not very good.

After taking a sip, Secretary Tong didn’t want to drink anymore. She put down the bowl and looked up at the floor-to-ceiling window opposite.

There is still a figure in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. Judging by the figure’s height, it should be a man.

It’s just that the man stood in the sun, and the sun cast a golden light on him, covering his face, making it difficult to see what he looked like.

However, looking at a man’s body shape and height, you can also know that a man is in good shape, and his appearance is probably not too bad.

“Mr. Lu.” At this moment, Secretary Tong opened his mouth and shouted to the figure in front of the floor-to-ceiling window.

The figure finally moved, no longer standing there motionless, but slowly turned around.

When he turned around, the man's face was finally exposed to the sun, revealing a handsome face, which was undoubtedly Lu Qi.

"What's the matter?" Lu Qi looked at Secretary Tong on the bed, opened his mouth slowly, and asked in a cold voice.

At this time, Lu Qi's temperament was completely different from usual.

Usually Lu Qi likes to wear fancy clothes.

In fact, this is also the case. Isn't his usual character a sloppy person, without a straight face?

People who don't know him, just by looking at his appearance, will feel that he is unreliable, like a playboy hooligan.

But now Lu Qi not only dressed differently from usual, but even his personality suddenly became calm.

Instead of wearing those fancy clothes that make people dislike at first glance, he looks at the straight men's black suit seriously, even his hair is well organized, not messy and beautiful like usual, What colourful.

Anyway, the current Lu Qi is standing there, not every normal playboy, but a calm and reliable domineering president.

This outfit and temperament are somewhat close to Fu Jingting.

Those who knew him would be surprised to see him like this, wondering if he was stimulated by something, and why he suddenly changed his style.

To be honest, I was surprised to see Secretary Tong in the end today.

But she dared not ask why.

"Can I not drink this medicine?" Secretary Tong pointed to the bowl in his hand, looked at Lu Qi carefully and asked.

Lu Qi frowned, and answered directly without thinking, "No, I have to drink."

Secretary Tong's face became bitter and he didn't speak. He picked up the bowl again and endured the bitter taste and continued to drink.

She only fought for herself once, and had no plans to fight for herself a second time.

She knew that if the first attempt was unsuccessful, then no matter how many times she fought in the future, it would be useless, and it would anger the man.

So why should she take the risk?

On the opposite side, Lu Qi saw that Secretary Tong was not talking, so he drank the medicine obediently, his brows furrowed even tighter, and his face darkened.

It stands to reason that he should be satisfied when he sees her so good-natured, after all, he doesn't like her going against him.

But now that he really saw her being so obedient, he didn't feel that much satisfaction, instead, there was an indescribable sense of irritability and anger in his heart.

On the bed, Secretary Tong noticed that he was a little unhappy, paused the act of drinking the medicine, and looked up at him.

Seeing his dark and cold face, Secretary Tong's hand holding the bowl could not help but tighten slightly, full of doubts in his heart.

Why is he unhappy again?

She didn't seem to have done anything to offend him, did she?

Secretary Tong was very uneasy, but he didn't dare to ask more, for fear that he would be even more angry when he heard her voice.

So Secretary Tong lowered his head and pretended he didn't know anything, just drank his medicine quietly.

Over there, Lu Weitong, Secretary Tong obviously found out that he was unhappy, but he didn't pay attention, and his face became even more difficult for a while.

Give birth to the child

He wanted to ask her, didn't he see that he was unhappy?

But when the words came to his mouth, he couldn't get out.

Depressed, Lu Qi took out a pack of cigarettes from his suit pocket, opened it, shook one out of it and put it in his mouth, and then took out a lighter to light it.

But at the moment when the flame was close to the smoke, he suddenly thought of something, he was still drinking medicine on the bed, he glanced at Secretary Tong who didn't pay attention to his side, then stopped the act of preparing to smoke, and put away the lighter again. , and put the cigarettes back into the cigarette case.

Forget it, stop smoking.

This cigarette is not easy to smoke at all. Next time he will change the taste.

That's right, this cigarette is not good, he didn't stop smoking because of this woman.

Lu Qi pursed his lips, thinking complicatedly in his heart.

At this moment, a cell phone ringing suddenly broke the silence of the room.

Secretary Tong drank the medicine in the bowl in a few sips, then endured the bitter taste in his mouth, put the bowl back on the bedside, and quickly picked up the water glass by the bedside to take a sip of water, and then barely diluted the bitter taste in his mouth. So uncomfortable.

Seeing her like this, Lu couldn't help but hit her, "Isn't it just drinking a medicine, is it necessary to make a uncomfortable appearance?"

Secretary Tong opened his mouth and replied in a low voice, "But, this medicine is really It's bitter."

Bitter than unsweetened Blue Mountain coffee.

Lu Qi snorted disdainfully, "How bitter can it be? After talking so much, I just don't want to drink it."

Secretary Tong didn't answer.

Because what Mr. Lu said was right.

She really didn't want to drink.

"It's just for you to drink medicine, not for you to do anything else, show this bitter melon face to who?" Lu Qi's mouth was irritating.

Secretary Tong bit his lip, "I didn't mean it, I am"

Having said that, she suddenly stopped again and stopped talking.

She suddenly realized that for a person who hates herself, no matter what she does, it makes sense, and it doesn't make sense for someone who hates herself, and she is not welcome.

If so, what is she arguing for herself?

No matter how much you argue, in President Lu's eyes, she is wrong.

So, she doesn't want to argue anymore, whatever.

"Sorry, I won't in the future. I'll drink it well in the future, and I won't make such an expression again." Secretary Tong lowered his eyes and replied with a slightly self-deprecating tone.

Hearing her dejected words, Lu Qi felt unhappy again.

But seeing her self-abandoned appearance, he originally wanted to hurt her a few words, but he couldn't say it now. , hurry up and take a look, it's so noisy."

"Sorry, I'll watch it now." Secretary Tong apologized again, rubbed his cheeks, reached out and took the phone over, looking at the caller ID, Secretary Tong was stunned for a moment, Then he immediately sat up from the bed and looked at Lu Qi in a panic, "Mr. Lu, the chairman is calling."

Lu Qi's pupils shrank slightly, "Shushu is calling?"

"Well." Secretary Tong nodded, then He asked tentatively, "Lu Qi, do you want to pick it up?"

Lu Qi pursed his lips, as if thinking about it.

After a few seconds, he waved his hand, "Yes, but don't tell her what she shouldn't tell, or else" there was a cold look in his eyes.

Seeing that the man he loves treats him like this, Secretary Tong feels like a needle in his heart, but he doesn't show it on his face, he just nods sadly, "I know, I won't tell the chairman."

"Take it." Only then did Lu Qi raise his chin in satisfaction and let her answer the phone.

Secretary Tong took a deep breath, slid his finger on the screen, and put the phone to his ear, "Chairman."

“Secretary Tong, are you okay?” On the other end of the phone, Rong Shu could hear the lowness in Secretary Tong’s tone. I became more and more sure of Lina’s guess before, so I hurriedly asked.

Secretary Tong didn’t know what Rong Shu was asking about, and thought that what Rong Shu was asking was about her surgery.

After all, Rong Shu knew the reason for her leave. With a warm heart, she quickly replied, “Chairman, I’m fine.”

“Is it really fine? Did the operation go well?” Rong Shu asked again worriedly.

Secretary Tong touched his stomach, looked at the man in front of the floor-to-ceiling window with complex and puzzled eyes, and then stared at the man outside, ok, “the surgery is good.”

“It’s really good?” Rong Shu narrowed her eyes, obviously disbelieving , “Since the operation is very good, why did you hesitate just now? Secretary Tong, I hope you don’t lie to me. Besides being your boss, I am also your friend. I am very worried about you now, so you must not lie to me. , otherwise I would be more worried.”

It could be heard that the chairman was really worried about himself, and Secretary Tong was more and more moved.

She knew that the chairman was a good person.

So this is why, she knows the person she likes, likes the chairman, and is not jealous of the chairman.

After all, the chairman is such a good person, what face does she have, and what qualifications does she have to be jealous?

Good people should never be envied.

“Chairman, thank you for your concern, don’t worry, I’m really fine, the operation went really well, the reason why I hesitated is that I suddenly thought of something, which has nothing to do with the operation, Chairman, I don’t need to worry about this kind of thing. Lie to you, listen, my voice is very spiritual, isn’t it? If there is any problem with the operation, I should be weak as a whole, but my voice is not weak at all, which shows that what I said is true. “

Secretary Tong explained this, and Rong Shu suddenly felt that something made sense.

Indeed, listening to Secretary Tong’s voice is indeed very energetic. Except , there is really no weakness.

Even more energetic than when she had an abortion.

She had the surgery, and the surgery went well, but she also needed to rest in bed afterwards. She was also weak, and her voice was far less energetic than Secretary Tong's.

The spirit is so high, it seems that Secretary Tong has not performed surgery at all.

Of course, this should be impossible, and Secretary Tong didn't say that he didn't have surgery.

Perhaps Secretary Tong's spirit is due to the system.

But her blind concern just now was real.

"It's good that the operation went well. So, Secretary Tong, your body is not damaged, right?" Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief and was relieved.

Secretary Tong shook her head, "of course not, my body is fine."

She lowered her eyes.

Of course, her body is better, after all, she hasn't really had surgery.

The moment before she entered the operating room, President Lu suddenly arrived, stopped her directly, and brought her here.

She didn't know why Mr. Lu didn't let her take away the child, why he chose to let her be born.

But she knew that the reason would never be because she liked her.

"By the way, chairman, why are you suddenly so worried about my body being damaged? And according to your words, you seem to be sure that my body is damaged before?" Secretary Tong suddenly realized this and hurriedly asked the reason.

Hearing Secretary Tong's question, Rong Shu smiled awkwardly, "That's right, I guessed it too, I heard you're going to resign, right?"

Secretary Tong's face changed slightly, "Chairman, how do you know? I didn't tell you about this matter, and the personnel department is there"

"The personnel department also promised to help you keep it a secret for the time being, right?" Rong Shu knew what she was going to say, so she took the lead in saying what she was going to say later.

Secretary Tong was silent.

Reasons for Resignation

Rong Shu sighed, "It wasn't the personnel department that told me, it was Lina who went to the personnel department to have something to do and heard it, so Lina told me."

"So that's what happened." Secretary Tong suddenly .

It was Lina who said it.

Didn't expect it to be so coincidental.

It seems that God doesn't want her to hide from the chairman, otherwise how could Lina be so coincidental and appear in the personnel department at that time?

"So, is it true that you want to resign?" Rong Shu pursed her lips and asked.

Secretary Tong snorted, "yes."

Getting the exact answer from Secretary Tong, the party involved, Rong Shu's heart sank, "Why? There must be a reason, right? I don't believe that you have thought about resigning for a long time. , neither I nor Lina, before you asked for leave, I never heard that you were going to resign, nor did I feel that you had the intention to resign. Until this time, after you asked for leave, you suddenly offered to resign, and I didn't want to believe it. Nothing happened to you. At first, Lina and I guessed that there was something wrong with your operation, causing physical damage, and you could no longer be competent for your job, so you resigned, but now I am sure that your operation went well and your body is not healthy. damage, then Secretary Tong, tell me, what is the reason for your resignation?"

After listening to Rong Shu's words, Secretary Tong sighed in his heart and had to admire Rong Shu's insight.

You can even guess that her resignation was sudden rather than decided a long time ago.

The chairman is indeed a very smart person.

"Secretary Tong?" Seeing that Secretary Tong was silent, Rong Shu called to her.

Secretary Tong came back to his senses and responded, "I'm here, chairman."

"Since I'm still here, tell me why you resigned, Secretary Tong, you know, I appreciate you very much, and I'm used to you being my secretary. , so if there is no suitable reason, I don't want to let you go, do you understand?" Rong Shu asked.

Secretary Tong bit his lower lip, full of bitterness in his heart, "I understand."

In fact, she doesn't want to quit either.

But

Secretary Tong looked at Lu Qi again, his eyes were full of various complicated emotions.

It was President Lu who asked her to resign, and she had to listen.

Rong Shu didn't know what Secretary Tong was looking at or thinking on the other end of the phone, she rubbed her eyebrows, "since you understand, then you must give me a reasonable explanation, I always want to know, what exactly did you experience? , don't make me worry, if you have any difficulties, you can raise it, I can help you solve it, I will help, if I can't, I can also ask Fu Jingting to take action, it can always be solved, so you don't need to resign. "

Chairman, nothing happened to me." Secretary Tong reluctantly replied with a smile.

In order not to let Rong Shu hear anything, she tried her best to calm herself down and make her voice sound natural, "I resigned because I was going to study abroad for a while."

"Going to study abroad?" Rong Shu was slightly surprised , "But I haven't heard that you have any intention to go abroad before."

Secretary Tong lowered his eyelids, covering his eyes, "I really didn't, until I asked for leave, I didn't have this intention, I only did it yesterday. Yes."

"Oh?" Rong Shu asked, "Yesterday?"

"Well." Secretary Tong clenched the phone tightly and continued to panic.

No way, if a lie goes out, there must be countless lies to make up for it.

Otherwise, it will be exposed at any time.

"Yesterday, I went home after the operation, and I saw the recruitment of a foreign company on the Internet. The job position is very suitable for my major. In the past two years, I have always had the idea of professional examination, but because I have never been in I have a resume of working abroad, so my application for the grade test has never been passed. I originally wanted to just forget about it and not take the grade test, but until I saw this recruitment, I was tempted, so I wrote a paper last night and sent it over, The review there is very fast, and it has been decided to hire me, so today I decided to resign and go to their company abroad to study for a year, and after a year, I can successfully pass the grade test.” Secretary Tong said.

No one saw her, and sarcasm was written all over her face.

I don't know if I'm satirizing Lu Qi, who made her lie, or herself who lied.

Maybe Secretary Tong's lie was very natural, Rong Shu didn't hear the slightest problem, so she believed it, “So that's the case, I thought it was because of your health that you wanted to leave, since it's not because of your health, then I'm relieved.”

“I'm sorry chairman.” Secretary Tong apologized.

Rong Shu was completely relieved at this moment. Hearing her apology, she smiled slightly, “Why do you apologize suddenly?”

“Because I didn't tell you in advance and wanted to change jobs, but only after I got an offer from another company. Let me tell you, this is a major taboo in the workplace. I”

“Okay, don't blame yourself.” Rong Shu waved her hand, “I don't mean to blame you, on the contrary, I'm very happy for you.”

“Happy for me?” Secretary Tong was startled.

Rong Shu smiled and said, “Yes, you want to study and make yourself better and better, why am I not happy for you? I have always been a person who likes to see others work hard, so for any one I support those who work hard. As long as their efforts don't hinder others or hurt others, I can help and accomplish everything, and I will definitely accomplish everything. What's more, we are still friends, and friends want to go further. , Higher, of course I support you.”

“I understand what you mean, Chairman, Chairman, you are really a very good person, no wonder many people like you, even I like you very much.”

But she still felt sorry for the chairman.

She lied to the chairman, she would not go to further studies at all.

But to hide and give birth to the child in the womb.

She is sorry for the trust of the chairman.

She suddenly felt that she was a very despicable person.

“Thank you for your liking, I also like you very much.” Rong Shu was very happy when she heard Secretary Tong’s confession, and asked with a smile, “By the way, when are you leaving?”

She was referring to when to go abroad.

Secretary Tong didn’t really go abroad, so naturally he couldn’t give a definite time, so he could only think for a moment and reply, “a week later, the next week, I have to apply for a visa or something.”

“Will it be too rushed? Not a week. I can definitely sign it.”

“No, I have a classmate at the embassy, and he will help with expedited processing, so one week is enough.” Secretary Tong lied again.

She has never lied, and in just a few minutes today, she has told one lie after another.

She spread so many lies that she didn’t have the face to raise her head.

But Rong Shu didn’t know, she was relieved when she heard that she had classmates to help her, “That’s good, then you can submit your resignation application after you have finished it. I will approve it for you, and return to China after a year. If you are willing to come to my small temple, I warmly welcome you.”

“Okay, thank you, Chairman, thank you.” Secretary Tong’s nose was sore, and his eyes became hot.

Rong Shu smiled, “Then I won’t disturb you next time. You have a good rest. I’ll see you off on the day you leave.

” She quickly shook her head and refused, “You don’t need to send me off, I’ll just go by myself.”

“Why?” Rong Shu blinked, not understanding why she refused to send her off.

Are they not friends?

Friends say goodbye to each other, right?

Strange Lu Qi

However, Secretary Tong was so panicked at the moment.

Why?

Of course, it's to keep your lies from being exposed!

She doesn't really want to go abroad, so how could she ask the chairman to bid her farewell?

Secretary Tong held the mobile phone in both hands and hurriedly explained, "because I bought a ticket for 11 o'clock in the evening, it's so late, so I don't want to let you toss back and forth, chairman, it's too troublesome, I'm talking about you coming to deliver it so late I, President Fu must not be at ease."

That's right.

Rong Shu touched her chin, "but why did you buy it so late?"

Secretary Tong continued to lie, "I bought it so late to catch up on sleep on the plane, so that when I get abroad, I can report for the job immediately. That's it."

"That's it, that's fine, then I won't send you off, but before you get on the plane, send me a message and let me know that you boarded the plane smoothly, and I'll be relieved."
Rong Shu said .

Knowing that she had given up the idea of sending her off, Secretary Tong breathed a sigh of relief, "Okay chairman."

"That's fine, then I won't disturb the rest, I'll hang up first." Rong Shu looked at the time, and she didn't early.

Secretary Tong didn't want to continue talking to Rong Shu. The more she talked, the more she felt sorry for Rong Shu.

In the end, she was even more afraid that she would not be able to withstand the guilt in her heart, so she confessed everything directly.

So after Rong Shu offered to hang up, she was relieved.

"Okay, goodbye, chairman."

"Goodbye."

After hanging up, Secretary Tong put down the phone, and the big stone he mentioned in his heart finally fell back to its original place.

President Lu came over, sat down beside the bed, and looked at her with a half-smile, "I didn't expect you to be lying now, but your face is not blushing."

Listening to the man's sarcasm, Secretary Tong laughed at himself and said in a low voice, "this is what you asked for, Mr. Lu. In order not to let the chairman know that you brought me here, you asked me to resign, I can't tell you. The only thing the chairman can do is lie."

"Oh? So you blame me?" Lu Qi narrowed his eyes.

Secretary Tong didn't turn his head, "No, I just blame myself." I blame myself for not pushing him away in the first place.

Blame myself why I didn't get rid of this child sooner.

Otherwise, what is happening now would not have happened.

It's just that she was curious, how did Mr. Lu know that she was pregnant?

How did she know that she wanted to take away the child?

And what he knew was very accurate, and he rushed to her before her surgery.

All of this made her curious.

She didn't know how he knew. The only thing she knew for sure was that it would not be the chairman who told President Lu.

Because the chairman never asked Mr. Lu from the beginning to the end, the chairman himself did not know that Mr. Lu knew about her pregnancy and came to stop her.

Then the reason why Mr. Lu knows it needs to be investigated.

"What are you thinking?" Lu Qitong's eyes kept flickering and Secretary Tong couldn't help but ask.

Secretary Tong avoided his gaze, "No."

She didn't intend to directly ask Lu Qi how he knew.

She knew that she could not get an answer if she asked.

He won't tell him.

So it's better not to ask.

Maybe after a long time, she will figure it out.

Seeing Secretary Tong's concealment, Lu Qi grimaced in displeasure, then stood up, "Okay, it's getting late, I should go, you stay here, a servant will come to take care of you later, if there is nothing to do, don't contact the outside world, let alone go out, otherwise I don't know what I will do, understand?"

Secretary Tong looked up at him suddenly, his face pale, "Mr. Lu, you want house arrest. Me?"

Lu Qi smiled incredulously, "If you like it, it's not impossible."

Secretary Tong's face was even more ugly.

Who liked it?

"Okay, I'm leaving, call me if you have anything." Lu Qi stretched out his hand and subconsciously wanted to pat her head.

But then thinking that she is not Rong Shu, but Tong Xi, she stretched out her hand above Secretary Tong's head, and stopped abruptly, with a very ugly expression.

He didn't understand, how could he want to pat her on the head?

Obviously many women are not Shushu, and I have never patted the heads of those women.

But now for Tong Xi, he wants to do that.

Obviously Tong Xi is not Rong Shu either.

Lu Qi retracted his hand, lowered his head and stared at his hand for a while, the more he looked, the worse his face became.

He only felt that he was crazy, obviously he didn't think of Tong Xi as a Shushu, but he also wanted to pat her on the head. What is it?

Lu Qi put his hand down and looked at Secretary Tong with a deep look, as if he wanted to see why Secretary Tong was.

But after watching for a while, not only did he not see it, but in the end, he became even more irritable. After a snort, he turned and left.

Secretary Tong looked at his back as he left angrily, only to think that he was a little inexplicable.

He didn't offend him, why was he suddenly angry again?

At this time, Secretary Tong found that President Lu's temper seemed to be getting worse and worse.

In the past, Mr. Lu's temper was very good, and he would not be so uncertain and unpredictable as he is now.

It's like this now, it's probably because she sees this annoying person, right?

Secretary Tong smiled bitterly, looked up at the ceiling slightly, and started dumbfounded.

Over there, Lu Qi walked out of his private villa and returned to his car.

He didn't drive away in a hurry, but sat in the driver's seat, leaning on the back of the seat, raising one hand over his eyes, and looking very tired.

Of course, he wasn't really tired, he just felt irritable and had an indescribable feeling.

This kind of feeling made him unable to be peaceful, and it also made him unable to control, and even intuitively told him that this feeling would not go away, but would even get heavier with the passage of time.

And he clearly knew that he would become like this because of Tong Xi.

Because when he faces others, he never becomes like this.

Only in the face of Tong Xi, he becomes unlike himself.

It stands to reason that in the face of such an uncertain factor that can drive oneself away from oneself.

But for some unknown reason, he didn't do that, and he didn't even want to do it. Instead, he kept this uncertain factor directly beside him.

That's why he said he was crazy.

Just thinking about it, the phone in the bag suddenly rang, temporarily interrupting Lu Qi's confusion.

He rubbed his face and stopped thinking about the things that made him nervous. After sitting up straight, he took out his phone.

Seeing the caller ID, he showed a smile between his brows, and then answered the phone, "Shu Shu." The call was from Rong Shu.

Knowing that Secretary Tong was not what she and Lina had guessed, she was completely relieved.

After that, after hanging up the phone with Secretary Tong, she remembered what Assistant Zhang said when she left the old house at noon, so she called Lu Qi again.

"Aqi, are you busy?" Rong Shu asked.

Lu Qi glanced at the villa opposite outside the car, and his eyes flashed back, "No, I'm not busy, Shushu, do you have anything to do with me?"

"It's nothing really, I just want to tell you that Su Cheng has been arrested. Hit." Rong Shu said with a smile.

Lu Qi was surprised, "So fast? That guy Erwa is very efficient now. In the past, that guy was slow, and he was told to do things a beat slower. I thought it would take at least a day or two for him to do it. Yes, I didn't expect that I only told him last night that he was beaten up today, it's not like that."

He smiled in surprise and joy.

Leaving is also a good thing

Erwa is one of his best friends, so he knows what kind of person Erwa is.

To make a slow person do something so quickly, one can imagine that in Erwa's heart, her friend's position is very important.

Otherwise, I wouldn't take the matter of asking him for help to my heart.

So can he not be surprised, can he not be happy?

As for Rong Shu, she didn't know Li Erwa, and she didn't know what kind of person he was.

Now that I heard Lu Qi's words, I realized that the other party was a very slow person.

But even such a slow person, she completed her work so quickly, she said she was also very moved.

"It may be because you are looking for him that he finished it so quickly. Of course, it is also possible that he has become the boss over the years, and his personality has changed from being gentle to a lot." Rong Shu guessed with a smile.

Lu Qi touched his chin and nodded, "It makes sense, but no matter what it is, it's also a good thing that Erwa does things quickly."

"Yeah, so I'm calling you mainly because I want you to help me with Thank you." Rong Shu said.

"Thank you?"

"Yeah."

"For Erwa?"

"Otherwise?" Rong Shu shrugged, "He helped me teach Su Cheng a lesson, of course I should give a thank you gift, but I can't do everything. Don't do it? Isn't that a matter of course? That's not possible, so I have to prepare a thank you gift, after all, besides thanking the other party, I don't want to owe others."

Lu Qi tapped the steering wheel with his fingers. "That's true. You're not familiar with Erwa, so you really don't really owe him anything."

"So, I came to you specially, just to ask you what he likes, so I'm ready, you can help me when the time comes. Send it, of course, with your thank you." Rong Shu said with a smile.

Lu Qi's face was filled with joy again, "Oh? And mine?"

"Of course, you're the middleman, Li Erwa who helped me get in touch, so of course you have it too, so I can't tell you to work for nothing, right?"

"Hey, then thank you Shushu." Lu Qi rubbed his hands excitedly. , "Actually, even if you don't give anything, I'm willing to help you."

"I know, but I can't really do nothing just because you want it? Then what am I? Well, you first Tell me what Li Erwa likes, as for what you like, you don't need to say, I know what you like." Rong Shu squeezed her sore shoulders and urged.

“Okay, I won’t talk about mine, just look at the preparations. As for Erwa, don’t look at him as the boss, but in fact he also has a sparkling childlike innocence. It may be because of his life experience. The orphanage grew up on aid, and it is a blessing to be able to eat and clothe himself, so naturally he cannot be satisfied with toys, so when he grows up, he likes to buy all kinds of Lego toys for himself, you give him Prepare a limited edition adult Lego set, he must like it very much.” Lu Qi said affirmatively.

Rong Shu nodded slowly, “Okay, then I’ll prepare this, Ah Qi, thank you.”

“All right.” Lu Qi waved his hand, “Is there anything else?”

” No, I guess there are, and you don’t like to listen to it either.” Rong Shu leaned slightly and propped her head up.

Lu became interested, “Oh? What is it, so sure I don’t like listening to it?”

“Secretary Tong is going to study abroad. Do you think you want to hear about Secretary Tong?” Rong Shu asked tentatively.

No matter what, Secretary Tong is going abroad.

She also hopes that Ah Qi can stop hating Secretary Tong.

After all, that incident was not the cause of Secretary Tong alone.

Ah Qi’s own fault too.

Ah Qi can’t just blame Secretary Tong and ignore his own.

To know that kind of thing, Secretary Tong can’t do it himself.

On the other end of the phone, Lu Qi suddenly heard Rong Shu mention Secretary Tong, and his face instantly froze.

Never thought that the things she said he didn’t like to hear were actually about that woman.

That’s true, he doesn’t like to hear it! Seeing that Lu Qi suddenly stopped talking, Rong

Shu knew that he couldn’t accept the mention of Secretary Tong, and she couldn’t help sighing, “Aqi, did you know that Secretary Tong is going abroad?”

Shu thinks that he should not know.

However, unexpectedly, Lu Qi’s answer surprised her.

"I know."

"You know?" Rong Shu was surprised.

Lu Qi snorted, "She told me."

Rong Shu opened her mouth, and it took a while before she made a sound, "Secretary Tong told you personally?"

"Well, call and tell me." Lu Qichui Eyes lie.

But Rong Shu believed it, "Is that so, I thought you didn't know."

Also, after all, he is the person that Secretary Tong likes. Even if the relationship between the two people is becoming more complicated now, Ah Qi's attitude towards Secretary Tong is also indifferent. horrible.

But after all, it is the person Secretary Tong likes.

Secretary Tong also wants to tell the person he likes before leaving, right?

Perhaps, there is also a kind of tempting idea, to test the person you like, if you hear that you are leaving, will you keep yourself.

But Rong Shu felt that Secretary Tong might still be disappointed in the end.

Looking at Ah Qi like this, it doesn't seem like he will keep Secretary Tong.

"I know, but so what? She can leave if she wants to, how can I stop her from letting her go?" Lu Qi leaned back on the seat back and tilted his head to look at the villa outside the car window, his expression changed The loneliness and complexity that he himself did not know.

Rong Shu rubbed her brows, "Even if you say that, you still have some friendship after all. She's leaving, do you really feel nothing at all?"

"How can you feel? I don't have any friendship with her either. , where's the feeling?" Lu Qi replied stubbornly.

Rong Shu shook her head helplessly, "you, you've known each other for almost ten years, and she's leaving, don't you want to send her off?"

She wanted to fight for Secretary Tong.

I believe that Secretary Tong will be very happy that the person he likes will send him away, right?

Maybe Secretary Tong told Lu Qi that he was leaving, not just to let Lu Qi keep him, maybe he also hoped that Lu Qi would send him off.

In any case, she wants to try to be Secretary Tong.

It's just that Rong Shu still underestimated Lu Qi's cruelty towards Secretary Tong.

Hearing her words, Lu Qi's eyes darkened, "I don't want to, I don't even want to see her, let alone send her away? Okay Shushu, if you're here to tell me this, let me tell you. If she is better, then there is no need, I still have something to do, so hang up first."

After that, he hung up the phone directly, showing no mercy.

Rong Shu looked at the phone screen that jumped back to the main menu, and spread her hands helplessly.

Well, the plan to help Secretary Tong failed.

Ah Qi really doesn't usually hate Secretary Tong.

It seems that there is really no way for the two of them to reconcile.

Maybe that's okay. Secretary Tong has already removed the child and the last contact with Ah Qi has been cut off. It's not necessarily a bad thing to see him, at least Secretary Tong can leave without a memory.

It's fine to leave. When abroad, Secretary Tong doesn't need to think about Aqi all the time, and think about seeing Aqi all the time.

Maybe after a long time, Secretary Tong can gradually let go of Aqi and find another man he likes abroad?

Thinking, Rong Shu let out a sigh of relief, put down her phone, and continued to immerse herself in her work. It wasn't until the afternoon when Fu Jingting's figure appeared at the door of her office that she ended her work and stood up with a smile, "Why did you come up here? ?"

I will teach you

There was surprise in her eyes.

The man saw it, but deliberately teased her, "What? I can't come up?" "How can I?"

"Rong Shu walked over, took his hand, and said with a smile, "You come to Tiancheng, the employees treat you better than me. The chairman also needs to be enthusiastic, even if I tell the following not to let you come up, they will definitely not listen, and they will still come up secretly, so why can't you come up?"

"It's useless." The man shook his head truthfully.

"Isn't that what it is?" Rong Shu pulled the man inside, "but I didn't expect you to come so early, I thought it would be later, you usually only come around six o'clock, and now it's just five o'clock. A little more."

That's why she was so surprised when she saw him.

"I just finished my work, so I came here early, how about you? Are you finished?" The man let the woman take him away, and while walking, he swept to her desk and asked.

At this moment, Rong Shu's desk was messy, documents and other materials were scattered everywhere, which made Fu Jingting's brows raised when he had a slight obsessive-compulsive disorder. "Are you busy today?"

Otherwise, this desk can't be so messy.

Rong Shu took Fu Jingting to the desk, then let go of his hand, and sighed a little tiredly and returned, "It's quite busy, the factory has been renovated, and the pickle country has been done. The machine has also arrived. After the installation is complete, our factory can officially start construction, so I have been busy contacting those factories today, discussing various matters such as termination of the contract, and at the same time, I have to contact the following departments to prepare for the factory. In addition to the various production licenses for the opening of the department, and the recruitment of employees such as the assembly line, in addition to these, we have to deal with some other miscellaneous documents. One of the first two is busy, and these materials are too late to organize, so I can only put them here first. I plan to clean up after I'm done, but there are still some documents that have not been processed yet."

She pointed to the stack of documents that she had deliberately put far away in the upper right corner of the desk, with a scowling expression on her face.

"Is there any problem with these documents?" Fu Jingting asked.

He knew her usual placement habits.

Books that you don't like to read, or books that you don't really understand or understand, and still have questions about, like to put them far away. After you've read the ones that you understand well, you can read them again and re-check the information to understand them.

In the same way, these documents that she has put so far away and have not yet been processed should be difficult for her, at least not by her now, and they can be handled smoothly. Only then can.

But in this way, it is a waste of time. It will make the difficult ones here and not finished, and the simple ones on the other side, and there is no time to deal with them.

Therefore, Rong Shu put aside the difficult and dealt with the simple first, which was a very sensible approach.

Hearing the man asking, Rong Shu rubbed her brows, "There are too many questions, so I roughly read some, and there are a lot of professional things designed in it, I'm a newbie halfway through, so I can't understand many of them, so I just read them. I don't know how to deal with it, and I don't even know if the random signature was hacked, so I will throw it aside and plan to take it slow later."

"Are you in a hurry?" The man walked over to the stack of documents and picked up the top side, "Can you do it? See?"

He turned to look at Rong Shu and asked.

Rong Shu shook her head and nodded again, "Don't worry, look, this is not an encrypted file, even if it is, my small company can't even compare to a subsidiary of yours, and encryption is not worth much to you, so You can look at it."

Seriously, although his company is nothing in the eyes of men.

But she was still moved by the man's act of asking her if she could read it before reading the document.

After all, the man didn't rely on his relationship with her, so he didn't ask anything and checked it without authorization.

Such an inquiry is not only a respect for her as a person, but also a respect for Tian Cheng.

It also let her know that men have never looked down on Tiancheng because Tiancheng is small.

Although the man didn't know what Rong Shu was thinking, he could not help but chuckle after listening to Rong Shu's words, "Who said it was worthless to me, you are here, and this place is the most valuable to me."

Rong Shu His face flushed at the words of his sudden love, and he pushed him coquettishly, "Okay, if you want to see it, hurry up and watch it. What are you talking about, hurry up and look at it, we'll get off work after reading it."

"Okay." The man Raised her arm, rubbed her head dotingly, then opened the file and looked at it.

After reading a page, he raised his chin slightly and said, "This document is indeed a bit difficult for you, but it doesn't matter, I will teach you."

"You teach you?" Rong Shu was taken aback.

The man closed the document, "What? Don't want a free teacher?"

"Yes!" Rong Shu quickly nodded and replied, then, as if afraid that the man would go back on it, she hurriedly cleaned the table, and while cleaning up, she looked at the man warmly and said, "I don't want one for a fool. A teacher who has the ability to teach himself, not to mention this teacher is free." The man was amused by the cute appearance of the woman, his laughter was low and sweet.

People on the Internet often say that the sound can make people's ears pregnant, and that's probably the case.

"The last sentence of "free" is the most important thing, right?" Fu Jingting said while pinching Rong Shu's face lightly.

Rong Shu pouted, "It's not important, the important thing is that you teach me quickly."

She patted her office chair, "You sit."

"Where are you sitting?" The man did not sit down immediately, but looked at asked her.

He had to make sure that she also had a place to sit so that he could sit down with confidence, otherwise he would not be able to sit comfortably.

Of course, if she really has no place , it's not impossible for him to sit down.

She could sit on his lap. He held her like this and taught her, it should be very exciting.

Thinking about it, Fu Jingting's eyes darkened as he looked at the woman.

Rong Shu felt uncomfortable when he looked at her, her body could not help tensing up, she squinted at the man and said, "Why are you looking at me?"

“No.” The man replied with a light cough.

He didn't dare to say what he wanted her to sit on his lap.

Otherwise, he will have to fry again in a while.

And if he didn't say it, she might actually sit on his lap.

But if he did, there would be no chance at all.

Therefore, smart people will never say.

Although Rong Shu thought the man was weird, she also guessed that the look in the man's eyes just now was definitely not bad or good, but seeing that the man quickly took his eyes back, she didn't bother to ask what the man's eyes meant just now. The empty chair opposite the desk, put aside his own office chair, and then patted the empty chair and said, “I will sit here.”

Fu Jingting frowned slightly, looking at the empty chair she pulled over with some disgust, “This chair sits on. If this is not comfortable, change it, I will sit on that.”

After speaking, he was about to switch the two chairs.

But Bi Rongshu stopped her by holding her arm, “No, you are a teacher, you are here to teach me, I can't let you contribute knowledge, and it's uncomfortable to sit, so you can sit on mine, and I can sit on this one. Well, and I am a student, and I have something to ask of you. I can't take all the benefits myself. On the contrary, you, the person I begged for, can't get any benefits, and you have to contribute your own knowledge. It doesn't make sense. So listen to me, you sit here, if you don't agree, then you don't teach me, and not only don't teach me this time, you don't teach me the courses of the advanced school, otherwise I will accept your teaching, can't be at ease.”

Teachers and Students

Seeing the woman's serious face, she said it seriously.

Fu Jingting knew that if she was not willing to do so, she would definitely come.

Because women are like that.

Even with their current relationship, she was unwilling to take advantage of him.

“You!” Fu Jingting shook his head helplessly, pulled her office chair and sat down, “Is it alright now?”

Rong Shu nodded with satisfaction, “It’s alright.” After the words were finished

, she was also a little worse on the other one. I sat down on a chair that was a little bit lower, and then said, “Jing Ting, don’t think I’m stubborn and don’t want to accept your kindness to me, I know, you want to do more for me, and you want me to sit more comfortably. Some, I am moved and accepted, but if I really accept all of them, especially when you are still paying for me, I still accept all of your kindness to me, it will only fuel my greed, make me become more and more greedy, so that in the end, I will take all the good things you do to me for granted, and over time, I will even forget to do something for you, and pay for you, and then become a People who only know how to enjoy you and pay for me, but do nothing by themselves, such people are selfish, and even one day you may treat me a little bit badly, or ignore me a little bit, and I will become unable to do anything. Accept it, maybe you will make unreasonable behaviors, so Jing Ting.”

She looked up at the man, “You will only spoil me by doing this, I don’t think you want me to become such an unrecognizable woman. That kind of me, it’s not me anymore.”

The

man looked at her, and after looking at each other for a while, he finally sighed and was relieved, “I understand, I will treat you well in the future. Think more about the consequences, and then make a decision as appropriate. You are right, the bottomless doting will indeed make a person change too much and become less and less like the original, which is my fault.”

“I know. Alright, alright, start teaching me, let’s finish these things early, go back early, and I’ll make soup for you.” Rong Shu took the stack of documents and put them in front of the man.

The man’s eyelids jumped, “Soup?”

At this moment, the soup he drank in the old house in the morning appeared in his mind again, and for a while, his face was full of resistance.

“No, I don’t want to drink soup for the time being.” He picked up the top document and replied in a stiff voice.

There was even a hint of fear on his expression.

It can be seen how much fear is dominated by that soup and how serious the psychological shadow is.

It was the first time that Rong Shu had seen such an emotion of fear in a man.

All along, a man seems to be omnipotent, and he has never seen him be afraid, afraid.

It was as if these emotions were not born to him.

So now that she sees this kind of emotion that shouldn't appear in him, but it appears in him, she still thinks it's quite fresh.

Of course, she also knew why such emotions appeared.

It seems that the soup really brought him a great psychological shadow.

Rong Shu couldn't help laughing.

Of course, the soup also gave her some shadows.

But compared to the man who directly drank the belly, the shadow was nothing. When I think about it now, it is more sigh than fear.

"Alright, it's not the weird soup that grandmother and Feng Ma made, it's just ordinary bone soup, which my aunt specially made for you, told me to make it specially for you, saying it's good for your arm's recovery, After all, your arm hasn't fully recovered yet. Although it looks good, you still can't lift too many heavy objects, and you can't swing it a lot. After knowing this, my aunt came back to her parents' house this time and looked for that kind of big stick." Rong Shu said.

When Ah Qi delivered it yesterday, she still didn't know what her aunt had made for Fu Jingting, so she had to stew it for Fu Jingting to drink.

It wasn't until after Ah Qi left, that she distributed special products to her grandmother, only to see that it was a beef bone.

"You mean Lu Qi's mother?" Fu Jingting was slightly surprised.

Rong Shu nodded, "Yeah, besides her, which aunt is there?"

"I went to the old house yesterday. I know she prepared a lot of souvenirs for you. You also gave some to grandmother, but I never heard that she also Prepared something for me." Fu Jingting said again.

Rong Shu smiled, "I forgot to tell you, but maybe I don't think it's necessary to bring this thing to the old house, so I don't think it's necessary." The man nodded her forehead, as if to say that she can do it too . forget.

“What kind of big stick bone is it, and I still need my aunt to go to her mother’s house to get it? Can’t tell us, we will buy it here?” Fu Jingting’s slender fingers turned the pen, expressing curiosity.

Wouldn’t it be the bones of some wild animal?

He expressed doubts and felt that the possibility was very high.

Seeing the man’s serious face, Rong Shu knew what he was thinking.

Because she had thought about whether it was such a thing before, and she even sent a message to ask her aunt. Later, her aunt told her that she knew that it was not what she thought, and that the big stick bone was the big stick bone of a cow.

Because the cows in the countryside of my aunt’s mother’s family are purely grass-fed and even fed with herbs, they are better than the cows in the city. Find, not buy in town.

After knowing this, she was completely at ease, otherwise she would still worry about whether she would get into the game.

“Don’t worry, it’s just an ordinary pig bone. The reason why my aunt didn’t let us buy it is because it’s not easy to buy it in the city, not to mention the city, those foreign farms can’t buy it, because almost every farm in my aunt’s family can’t buy it. Every household grows Chinese herbal medicine, which is the largest Chinese herbal medicine planting base in China, so the pigs over there are considered to have grown up eating Chinese herbal medicine, and you can drink the soup stewed from the big bones of the pig.” Rong Shu is half-truth and half-truth. Say.

The fake is that she called the cow a pig.

There is no way, who made the man drink the tons of tonic soup from the cow in the morning, it is estimated that he really hates seeing the animal like the cow in his heart.

If he knew that the big bone soup he was going to stew for him tonight was produced by cows, he would not be able to drink anything.

So, she still didn’t say anything.

Sure enough, when he heard that it was a pig bone, the man did not resist at all, but instead wrote a touch of thanks, “Thank you for my aunt, and I will ask Zhang Cheng to send a gift over there.”

“Don’t worry, I have already thanked me. But if the gift is too expensive, don’t prepare too expensive, or aunt won’t accept it.” Rong Shu pointed.

The man nodded slightly, “I know.”

“But speaking of it, Auntie is really kind to you. Yesterday, Ah Qi delivered it. When I told me about it, don’t mention eating too much.” Rong Shu teased.

Fu Jingting first raised his eyebrows, and then his thin lips curled up, “Yeah, that’s good.”

Anyway, knowing that Lu Qi was not happy, he was happy.

How could Rong Shu not know what the man was thinking, she shook her head in disbelief, “You’re really good, it’s getting late, teach me quickly and deal with it back.” The man nodded, “Sit closer.”

” Mmmm.” Rong Shu responded, lifted the chair and sat closer.

After that, the two sat side by side, head to head, immersed in study and work.

Fu Jingting has a cold personality, and looks like he doesn’t have much patience.

Besides, he doesn’t seem like a person who can teach students. The students see his cold face, let alone learn something, they are probably afraid of him the whole time and tremble at him.

Not only that, even if he studies, he still has to worry that he is not good enough or fast enough to satisfy him, and he will be unilaterally expelled from the school.

All in all, with a teacher like Fu Jingting, it is estimated that the students are under a lot of pressure, right?

Chapter 1200 Good teachers and students

There is no doubt about this.

But the premise is that those students are other people, not Rong Shu.

As long as Rong Shu is a special case to Fu Jingting.

In the face of Rong Shu, he will always be that gentle man.

Even now, his identity is temporarily Rong Shu’s teacher, and when he teaches Rong Shu, he is still gentle and patient.

At first, Rong Shu was really worried that when she didn't understand, the man would definitely feel that she was too stupid, and thus gradually lost the patience to teach her.

After all, men are not very patient people, and she is very clear about this.

So she was always very uneasy in her heart, and she was apprehensive, because she was afraid that the man would not be able to teach her how to teach her, so she would not teach at all.

At that time, her embarrassment is light, and she will have to find a teacher again when she is admitted to an advanced school, which is also very troublesome.

But in the end, it turned out that she was overthinking all of this.

The man is really patient with her, even if she really doesn't understand some parts, the man is not impatient at all, thinking that she is stupid, but over and over again, taking it apart, smashing it and talking to her again, until she understood, let alone how patient she was, she didn't even want to get angry at all.

Gradually, after Rong Shu realized that he would not think she was stupid and would not be impatient with her, the uneasiness in his heart finally dissipated.

It was probably because of the dissipation of these emotions that when Rong Shu learned it, it became easier and easier. Many people didn't understand it at first, but the men who later talked about it also caught some clues.

So in the following time, men taught her a lot faster, and Rong Shu herself learned a lot of knowledge that she couldn't understand in the past.

All in all, Fu Jingting is a very good teacher and has taught her a lot.

She is very grateful to him.

At the same time, today's teaching also gave Rong Shu complete peace of mind for the upcoming private teaching time of nearly half a year.

At first, she decided to study abroad, and when she planned to take the entrance exam in half a year, she accepted a man's proposal to give her private tutoring.

Of course, acceptance is acceptance, but I am somewhat uneasy about the next counseling.

It's not that she is worried about Fu Jingting's ability, on the contrary, she has never doubted Fu Jingting's professional ability in these areas.

After all, several doctorates are no joke.

Give it to him, and he will definitely teach himself.

She was worried about herself.

She has never learned anything about managing a company, and what she has now is what she has figured out by herself in the past few months after taking over Tiansheng. To put it bluntly, she is not even qualified for entry, she just knows some fur and simple handling. document.

More esoteric, such as the documents that Fu Jingting taught her now, she would not be able to handle it. She had to spend a lot of time and ask many people before she could handle it.

That is to say, you cannot handle it by yourself.

And this is an Achilles heel for the chairman of a company.

That is to say, I have always been lucky, and no one has cheated on me, so I have not made any mistakes in these documents, but if there is a little mistake, Duan Xingbang will definitely seize this opportunity and suppress her to death.

In this way, the following people will not stand on her side and help her speak, just because these documents involve a lot of money, and these funds are also their salaries, so they can't accept a document that even looks at the document. I don't understand, a boss who can't handle it alone.

And it's the same with her. After all, with such a boss, is the company really worth it?

I believe that everyone will have such doubts in their hearts. Even she herself feels that there has been no problem with the company for so long. It is really God pity her. long gone.

So, she must go to study, she must go to further education, she must make herself stronger and better, this is not only responsible for herself, but also responsible for Tiansheng and hundreds of Tiansheng employees.

Otherwise, if you let Tiancheng collapse, what should these employees who still have to support their families and survive?

Therefore, she did not resist Fu Jingting's proposal to teach her, she was even very grateful and looked forward to it with great joy.

After all, when a person like Fu Jingting is his teacher, he should laugh in his dreams, and others will not dare to think about it, and if he thinks about it, it will not come true.

And with Fu Jingting's guidance, her success rate in getting into the advanced school will definitely increase greatly, and it can even be said that she has already obtained the admission notice.

Of course, while he was happy, he was also a little apprehensive.

She was just afraid that she didn't know anything about these aspects, it would be hard to learn, and it would make it hard for men to teach. She felt that she was stupid, and that she couldn't teach no matter what, so she gradually developed the idea of not wanting to teach her.

But after the current teaching time, she found that all this seemed to be because she thought too much. In fact, she was not that stupid, and the man was not as stupid as she thought. She felt that she was stupid, and gradually lost patience with her and did not want to teach she is.

On the contrary, the man taught her to be really serious, very careful, and very patient.

Even if she was just starting out, she really couldn't understand it after listening to it several times, the man didn't have the slightest impatience, and didn't reveal her stupidity in the slightest. There is another method, and when she finally understands it, after she has learned it, there will be a glimpse in the man's eyes.

It seems to be certain that there is indeed a problem with my own teaching method.

In short, she is not afraid of the next man to teach her.

Thinking about it, Rong Shu let out a light sigh, and a slight smile appeared on her face.

Fu Jingting was sorting out the documents they had just dealt with together, and suddenly saw her giggling suddenly, she couldn't help raising her eyebrows, then tapped her head gently, and asked softly, "What are you thinking, smiling like this?"

Although her head didn't hurt, Rong Shu subconsciously covered the place he had knocked on, turned her head and smiled and replied, "It's nothing, I just think you taught me well, I'm also worried that you will think I'm too stupid, so I'm teaching. You will be impatient."

"How could it be?" Fu Jingting put the sorted documents aside, "Why do I think you are stupid and impatient?"

"That's what I thought, after all, when I first started, I really don't understand, but after listening to you a few times, I managed to grasp the point. I feel stupid myself. If I don't want to talk about others, if I don't think of not teaching, I'm already in a good mood. After all, I study. When I was a student, a few poor students in the class faced this kind of thing, so I was also afraid that I would face such a situation, but unexpectedly, you didn't treat me like this, so of course I laughed.”

Said, Rong Shu looked up at the man, with gratitude in her eyes.

Yes, grateful.

She was grateful that the men did not treat the poor students like the teachers did when she was studying.

Otherwise, it would be really embarrassing, and it would make her feel that she was really useless.

“Don't worry, I don't do this to others, and I won't do this to you. What's more, I never think that students are stupid, and students can't learn, not because they are really stupid, but because the current methods taught by teachers are not suitable for them, So stupid is also a teacher, not a student. After all, I can't even find a good way to teach students. What is stupid? So you can't understand it at first, I will only find the reason in myself, not in you body, so you can rest assured that the situation you are worried about will never happen.” The man touched her head and looked at her with the most reassuring eyes.
