Chapter 1201 I like to call him that

Rong Shu felt very secure in the eyes of the man in front of her, she smiled at the man and nodded her head, "I believe in you, but your words make me think that if you are not the chairman of the Fu Group If you become a teacher, you will definitely be the most popular teacher among the students. You must know that the teacher that the students like is the one like you who does not find mistakes in the students, but in yourself."

The man patted her head and chuckled, "But I don't like to be the teacher of other people, I only like to be you alone, and I just want to teach you alone, as for the others, it's not worthy!"

"Shu, she couldn't help but patted the man on the chest, "You are really a double standard."

"You don't like a double standard like me?" The man raised his eyebrows, then stared at her deeply.

Rong Shu's face was hot when he saw him, and she snorted, "I'm too lazy to care about you, okay, it's getting late, these are all done, let's go back first, I'm a little hungry."

She rubbed her stomach .

How could a man not know that she was deliberately changing the subject and didn't want to answer his question.

The man shook his head helplessly and smiled.

Still so thin.

"Okay, let's go back first, I have something else to tell you." The man got up and moved his neck a little.

Rong Shu was also moving her shoulders and legs at the moment, and when she heard the man's words, she immediately turned to look at him, "What's the matter?"

"All the materials that I asked Zhang Cheng to prepare for the next counseling you have been prepared, It's in my car now, starting tonight, I'll officially become your tutor."

"So soon?" Rong Shu was slightly surprised, "You said before that the materials must be collected from foreign schools, so that's the best way to go. Teach me in a targeted manner, and the exam is easier to deal with. I thought it would take at least a few days to get the materials from abroad, but I didn't expect it to arrive in just one day."

The man nodded, "An associate professor at that school is my college classmate. I asked him to collect it and bring it directly by air, so naturally it won't take long in terms of time."

"I see." Rong Shu nodded suddenly, then stared at The man's little face was full of seriousness, "Since it's here, from tonight, Mr. Fu, please give me more advice."

She smiled and stretched out her hand to the man.

"Mr. Fu" The man whispered these three words in a low voice.

His voice was low and sensual, and he pronounced these three words in a particularly eloquent manner, which made people feel numb all over, and there was an astringent feeling throughout.

Rong Shu's cheeks, which were already hot, couldn't help but get even hotter now, and even started to turn red.

She glared at the man coquettishly, "Fu Jingting, why do you pronounce the three words Teacher Fu like this? It seems that the profession of a teacher is not serious." The corner of the man's lips raised a playful look, "I didn't say that. It's not serious, you said it yourself, but you reminded me that the title of teacher is indeed not serious in a certain way."

As for what it is, everyone knows it.

Rong Shu's face really turned red, and she stamped her feet, "You really knew that you started driving stealthily again, so I won't call you teacher."

This dog man is not worthy!

"Don't." The man grabbed Rong Shu's arm, "Since next, I want to teach you how to deal with the exam, then of course you have to call me teacher, I like this title very much, not only can it make me a teacher you know, Can also be a teacher who teaches you new poses."

New poses?

Rong Shu not only blushed, but her ears were all red.

What new pose could it be?

Of course that kind of thing!

This dog man really doesn't know what to say.

Rong Shu can't regret it in her heart at this moment. She knew that Mr. Fu would make the dog man think of these things, so she wouldn't call him that.

What a headache.

And those who originally called the heroines of those videos teachers were enough.

If it weren't for those people, how could this dog man have come out today?

Even the title of teacher is really just a simple teacher, and has no other meaning.

It's not like now, the title of teacher is so indecent.

"Enough is enough, Fu Jingting, if you do this again, I'll ignore you." Rong Shu stepped on the man's foot angrily, leaving a cute footprint on the man's leather shoes, while waiting for her eyes to warn the man to let the dog Men, stop talking nonsense.

Otherwise, she will join him.

She threw her small fists and looked fierce.

As everyone knows, she falls in the eyes of men like this, but there is no deterrence at all, and some are just cute.

Fierce milk, that's probably the case.

The man nodded with a smile, "Okay, I won't talk about it, but from today, as long as I teach you, you can call me teacher, I like it when you call me that."

When teaching her the knowledge points for the exam, he is a glorious and great disseminator of knowledge.

Of course, when she was in bed, she called him teacher, and the smell naturally changed to another.

In addition, there is also the feeling of a forbidden relationship between teachers and students. Thinking about it, it should be quite exciting.

Fu Jingting's eyes flickered, and the curvature of his thin lips became more intense.

Maybe try this feeling tonight.

The man looked at Rong Shu and thought.

When Rong Shu met his eyes, she groaned in her heart, and a bad premonition suddenly rose.

What's up with this guy's eyes?

How do you feel, as if you are going to eat her.

Rong Shu pursed her red lips, and her beautiful almond eyes narrowed slightly, becoming a little wary.

This guy must have thought of nothing good.

Otherwise why look at her like that?

"Fu Jingting, you've had enough, quickly take your eyes back to me, what do you want to look at me like this?" Rong Shu shouted with akimbo.

The man's Adam's apple moved, and after holding it for a while, he didn't say those two words, "It's nothing, let's go, aren't you hungry?"

He stretched out his hand, wanting to hold her hand.

Rong Shu was silent for a few seconds, but in the end she didn't refuse, she stretched out her hand and let the man hold her.

Anyway, the dog man's eyes are so rude.

But in her heart, she was still a little secretly happy.

After all, if you are attractive to men, you will let men see you like this.

Otherwise, why do men show such eyes?

So, for the sake of the man being so fascinated by her, she still doesn't reject him, or what should he do if he hurts his heart?

Holding hands, the two walked out of Tiancheng's gate and got into the car as usual in the presence of a group of employees.

In the car, Fu Jingting leaned forward to fasten Rong Shu's seat belt.

Rong Shu obediently leaned on the seat back and let the man fasten her seat belt.

Anyway, if a man likes it, let him do it.

If he rejected him, he would definitely look at her with lost and resentful eyes, making her feel guilty and wondering if she was really wrong.

So, simply let him do it.

Anyway, this kind of feeling of others serving you and enjoying yourself is also quite good. In this case, why not let it?

After fastening his seat belt, the man also sat back in his driver's seat, fastened his seat belt, and drove to Tiancheng.

On the way, Rong Shu suddenly thought of something, turned to look at the man who was driving seriously and asked, "By the way, Jing Ting, you went to Su Cheng this afternoon, how is it?"

"Sign the letter of understanding, when I came to find you, Zhang Cheng had already brought someone to deliver the letter of understanding." Fu Jingting turned the steering wheel and asked.

"That's fine." Hearing the man say that the negotiation was settled, Rong Shu nodded reassuringly.

At this time, Fu Jingting suddenly narrowed his eyes, "Our previous guess was wrong.

"Huh?" Rong Shu's face was full of doubts, "Which guess are you talking about?"

"Relic's

." Fu Jingting pursed his lips, "At first we thought that the relics in Sioux City's mouth were photos and videos, but after I went to find Sioux City in the afternoon, I revealed from his words that the relics were not what we guessed, but other things." "Something else?" Rong Shu sat up straight in surprise, "What is that?"

Fu Jingting shook his head, "I don't know, Sioux City didn't reveal it, but we can be sure that it is not the ones we guessed."

So this is also the reason why he can let Zhang Cheng get the relics back.

Otherwise, he will go on his own.

As long as it wasn't what he and Xiaoyezi thought, they weren't afraid that others would know what the relics were.

"It's okay if you don't." Rong Shu leaned back on the back of the chair, "If it wasn't those things, we wouldn't have to worry about the possibility of being exposed at all."

Fu Jingting sighed, "That being said, it is still unpleasant, and there is a feeling of being deceived." Isn't it.

At first, he and Rong Shu thought it was a photo video or something, so they had to agree to the conditions of Sioux City and let Su Man go.

But now that they find out that it is not, then they promised to let Su Man go, which has become an unfair transaction.

Therefore, it is not wrong to say that I was deceived by Sioux City.

Rong Shu also sighed, "It's quite unpleasant, Sioux City took advantage of our psychology of defending your mother's reputation, so he dared to deliberately guide us to think about those things, otherwise his lies would have been exposed long ago."

"So I wrote down this matter and settled the general account with him in the future." Fu Jingting said with a calm and handsome face, and his voice said calmly.

Rong Shu nodded, "That's the way it should be." As he spoke, the mobile phone in Fu Jingting's pocket rang.

He glanced at the woman in the co-pilot, "You help me pick up, I don't have time to drive."

"In case someone from your group calls, what business is it going to do?" Rong Shu did not immediately agree to help him answer the phone, but looked at the man and inquired.

The man gently opened his thin lips and replied, "Even if this is the case, it doesn't matter, you are not an outsider, pick it up, just turn on the amplification."

"That's OK." Rong Shu sighed, put her hand into the pocket of his suit, and felt his mobile phone.

As soon as she looked at the electric display, Rong Shu put the mobile phone in front of him again and showed him a look.

It was only a glance that I put the phone away, after all, the man was driving, there was not so much time to look closely, just take a look.

"It was Assistant Zhang who called." Rong Shu said.

Fu Jingting raised his chin slightly, "It should be a relic thing, take it." Hearing him say this, Rong Shu did not dare to delay, and quickly answered the phone, "Hey? On the other end of the phone, Assistant Zhang heard her voice, first stunned, and soon regained her composure, asking, "Miss Rong, is Fu always here?" It is estimated that Mr. Fu is not with Miss Rong at this time.

Otherwise, how can Miss Yung answer the phone?

However, this thought just arose, and the next second Zhang Assistant was punched in the face by Rong Shu.

"Yes, he's driving." Rong Shu watched the man return, and then turned on the amplification.

The corners of his mouth twitched, "Okay. It was because he thought too much about it and thought that Fu Zong was not there at this time.

Also, as long as these two people get together, they are inseparable, so how can Fu Zong not be around Miss Rong.

After saying that, who stipulated that Miss Rong could help Fu Zong answer the phone without being around?

Fu Zong is by Miss Rong's side, Miss Rong can also help Fu Zong answer the phone, what if Fu Zong is lazy and does not want to answer?

Well, it seems that you can't think about some things with fixed thinking in the future, otherwise you will be punched in the face.

Especially in the face of these two people, it is even more impossible to think with fixed thinking.

Assistant Zhang touched his chin and thought.

Rong Shu didn't know what Assistant Zhang was thinking, put the mobile phone next to the gear lever, and said, "Assistant Zhang, your Fu Zong is next to me, I have turned on the amplification, you want to say anything to him, don't worry about him not hearing."

Hearing Rong Shu's reminder, Assistant Zhang gathered his thoughts and smiled gratefully, "Okay, thank you Miss Rong." "You're welcome." Rong Shu smiled back.

Although neither side can see it, the sense of ceremony is still required.

“Mr. Fu, I have already sent the letter of understanding to Sioux City, and I have now obtained the relics.” On the other end of the phone, Assistant Zhang sat in the car and looked down at a quaint antique box placed on the co-pilot.

The box is not large, the size of the palm of an adult man.

The box as a whole presents a kind of black, and the black shiny, the outside of the box is also engraved with a variety of patterns, those patterns look at people to give people a sense of mystery, let people unconsciously realize that the meaning of these patterns is definitely not simple.

It is also true that more than a hundred years ago, the Zhongjia family was also a big family.

At that time, the country was still in the last feudal dynasty, and the ancestors of the Zhongjia family were also once members of Yipin, so the Zhongjia family at that time was naturally extremely brilliant.

It was not until the establishment of the new state that the Zhongjia family withered away, so that the Zhongjia family fell.

But the skinny camel was bigger than the horse, and even if the Zhongjia family fell, some of the rules and belongings left by the ancestors, although they were destroyed a lot in those years, but in the end they hid a lot, until after the reform, they were turned over again.

This box and the contents of the box are one of them.

The box is huanghuali, the wood itself is very valuable, coupled with the precipitation of a hundred years, it is even more valuable.

A box is so valuable, let alone what is packed in the box.

It is really emotional that Madame can give such a valuable thing to Sioux City.

Assistant Zhang thought.

Fu Jingting heard that the relics had been returned, and his eyebrows stretched out.

Rong Shu was also slightly relieved.

God knows how nervous she and Fu Jingting were when they heard Assistant Zhang say that the letter of understanding had been sent.

I was worried that the relics were not in hand, and they were played by Sioux City again.

But fortunately, this time Sioux City is still keeping its word.

“What is a relic?” Fu Jingting looked at the red light in front of him, stopped the car, and finally had the opportunity to turn his head to look at his mobile phone and asked in a deep voice.

Rong Shu also stared at her mobile phone, wondering for the answer.

Assistant Zhang simply turned on the phone video.

Seeing the situation, Rong Shu did not put the mobile phone away, but picked up the mobile phone and put it between herself and Fu Jingting, and watched it.

Assistant Zhang leaned over, took the rosewood box on the co-pilot, and pointed it at the phone camera, “That’s it.” “This box looks like it’s worth a lot, is it an antique?” Rong Shu blinked and asked.

The man bowed his head slightly, “It is a yellow pear, looking at the color of the box, this box has a history of more than a hundred years, not an antique, can only be counted as a modern cultural relic, but it is also worth a little money, probably a million.” Hissing

Rong Shu inhaled a cool breath, “Millions are also called worth a little money, do you have a different understanding of the three words of value and money?”

“Huh?” The man looked up at her, and there was a clear look of doubt in his eyes.

Obviously, I didn’t understand her very well.

Rong Shu amused the forehead, “I was wrong, I just wanted to understand, I mean, probably because you are too rich, so for millions of such an amount, you only think it is small money, so it is not surprising that you say that this box is worth some money.”

For men, a few million, that is, is about the same as a few dollars.

But for her, a few million is a big amount.

The man retracted his gaze and fell back to the phone screen, "You like this box?"

Rong Shu quickly shook her head, "I don't like it, this kind of box, although it is indeed very valuable to me, but at the same time it also makes me feel afraid." "Scared

?" Men raise eyebrows, do not understand a box, there is nothing to be afraid of.

Rong Shu explained, "This box has been around for so many years, and looking at the pattern on it, it is quite mysterious, which makes me think of some of the things in horror movies, some props in many horror movies, these old objects, look at it to give people a gloomy feeling, so I don't like it." The man didn't expect that the reason she was afraid was actually this, and was amused.

Only then did she know that she was still quite afraid of this.

"I also want to say that if you like it, I'll give it to you." The man chuckled and said, "Now it seems that it can't be sent out."

Rong Shu quickly shook her head and waved her hand, "Don't, you don't send it, I'm afraid of nightmares, you keep it for yourself." "If you don't like it, I won't send it." The man nodded slightly.

Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief, "That's fine, but what's inside the box?"

She looked curiously at the box in the video and asked.

Assistant Zhang put the mobile phone on the mobile phone rack and fixed it, then held up the box with one hand and opened the box with the other, and the contents were naturally exposed under the camera.

It is an imperial green jade pendant with a green color and no trace of impurities.

No wonder it is packed in such an expensive box, the original contents are several times more expensive than the box.

When Rong Shu saw this jade pendant, she couldn't help but cover her lips and exclaim, "So beautiful."

This jade pendant is carved into the shape of a plum blossom, the petals are vivid, if it is not the material is jade, the color is emerald green, it looks as if it is a real plum blossom, beautiful to the extreme.

Even if Rong Shu doesn't play with jade and doesn't know much about jade, she also knows that jade of this color must be worth a lot.

Not only that, this carving level, even a layman can see, is definitely the top master-level carving level.

Such a top-level carving, coupled with such a precious and rare jade, the combination of two and two, so that the value of this jade pendant, is even more doubled.

If she hadn't guessed, the value of this jade pendant would definitely be tens of millions.

Compared with Rong Shu's amazement at the jade pendant, the man sitting in the driver's seat looked at the jade pendant, but his eyebrows were deeply twisted, and a trace of surprise appeared under his eyes, "The relic is actually this." Hearing the man's words, Rong Shu looked at him curiously and asked, "Do you know this jade pendant?" But no, this jade pendant was given to Sioux City when your mother was in contact with Sioux City, and you didn't have a shadow at that time, how would you know? When his mother was associated with Sioux City, she was not married to his father.

Naturally, there would be no him.

So this jade pendant, logically, he should not know.

The same woman, she doesn't think his mother would say what she gave to her first love, to her current husband and son.

However, the man nodded slowly under Rong Shu's book, "I know."

"You really know?" Rong Shu was surprised.

Assistant Zhang was also quite surprised.

But I quickly figured it out, probably the lady told Fu Zong.

From this point of view, the thinking of men and women is still different after all.

Rong Shu felt that Fu Jingting's mother could not tell Fu Jingting.

But Assistant Zhang felt that he would still tell.

This is the difference in thinking between men and women.

"The Zhong family used to be a big family, and it was an old family, even older than the Fu family." Fu Jingting saw the red light pass, restarted the car, and said while driving.

Rong Shu expressed surprise, "Older than the Fu family?"

“Hmm.” Fu Jingting nodded.

Rong Shu was amazed, “I thought that the Zhongjia family was also a new family that had emerged in recent decades, but I didn’t expect it to be so old.” The Zhongjia family is also a family in the capital, but it is already a third-rate family, and now it is only squeezed into the ranks of the upper-class family, and I believe that it may be squeezed down at any time.

After all, the current Zhong family is no longer the branch of Fu Jingting’s mother’s mother’s family, but the side branch of Fu Jingting’s mother’s mother’s family, so it has nothing to do with Fu Jingting, at best, it is a little blood related.

Probably the current Zhongjia also knew that Fu Jingting was unwilling to take care of them, and even though the Zhongjia family could fall at any time, they had never come to Fu Jingting for help.

However, she always thought that the Zhongjia family, that is, Fu Jingting’s mother’s grandfather, began to make a fortune, just like the Fu family.

After all, the Fu family was the one who made the fortune of Old Master Fu.

Unexpectedly, the history of the Zhongjia family is even more ancient than that of the Fu family.

“Because the current Zhongjia family is no longer the original lineage, so a lot of the past about the Zhongjia family has been buried in the past and is not known, so it is normal for you not to know.” The man explained softly.

Rong Shu nodded, “Then what the hell is going on with this jade pendant?” The man turned the steering wheel and replied again, “Zhongjia Zushang, once served as a member of the imperial court, but also a corrupt official, scavenged a lot of people’s fat and people’s ointment, after the collapse of the imperial court, the Zhongjia ancestors even forcibly occupied a lot of palace treasures, the Zhongjia family at that time, it can be said that it is strong to the extreme, but the prosperity will decline, and then the descendants born of the Zhongjia family, one more mediocre than one, in addition to sitting on the mountain and eating the sky, There was no ability to earn back the squandered finances, so in just two or three generations, the Zhongjia family fell directly from the top family to the middle-class family, and most of the property that had been looted by the ancestors also went away. Hearing the man say this, Rong Shu sighed with emotion, “It is true that if the descendants of the future generations do not argue, no matter how big the family inheritance is, it will not be squandered.” The man did not comment, "In that decade, the Zhongjia family became one of the objects of the severe crackdown, and the remaining belongings were almost looted, but in the end there were still some wise people, before being looted, they also secretly hid some of the property, which is the dependence of the Zhongjia family to re-emerge, this jade pendant, is one of the parts of the property that was hidden, because this jade pendant is worth a lot, the Zhongjia family behind it, that is, my grandfather, I did not sell this jade pendant together in exchange for the capital of the Zhongjia family's fortune, but left it to my mother, as a symbol representing the identity of the Zhongjia family, my grandfather himself was a very ambitious person, and he tried to develop the Zhongjia family into the powerful family of a hundred years ago, so I also picked up the past rules that some family members had status symbols, and the reason why I knew this was also told to me by my grandfather. "That's the way it is." Rong Shu suddenly lifted her chin.

She said that he knew the origin of this jade pendant, and it was absolutely impossible for his mother to tell him.

At the end of the video, Assistant Zhang listened to Fu Jingting's words and suddenly realized.

Well, good.

He guessed wrong again.

"I remember, your past name was not Fu Jingting, was it?" At this time, Rong Shu suddenly thought of something and looked at the man and asked.

"Jong-hyuk." The man nodded, "That's the acronym of my WeChat name, which I told you before."

Rong Shu muttered twice, "I remember, you said that you used to follow your mother's surname, and then you changed it to your current name."

"Before my father knew my stepmother, the person he loved was always my mother, plus my grandfather only had one daughter from my mother, and no other children, so at the beginning, my father's idea was to have two children with my mother, one to follow my mother's surname, and then to inherit the Zhongjia family, not to let the Zhongjia family fall into the hands of the side branch, and one to follow his own surname and inherit the Fu family, so after I was born, I followed my mother's surname and took the name Zhonghe, but at that time, My father didn't know that my mother wasn't planning to have a second child with him.

"I understand that your mother's heart has always been Sioux City, and having a child to give an account to the Fu family is already the limit of what your mother can do." Rong Shu said with a sigh.

As a woman, she could understand Fu Jingting's mother's thoughts.

After all, giving birth to a man who does not love, having one is already the limit of psychological endurance, let alone having a second?

"Good value for money" Fu Jingting bowed his head and recognized her words, "In fact, when they first got married, the two people had already agreed that my mother would give birth to an heir to the Fu family, and my father would let her go free, but at that time, my father loved her and couldn't help himself, when he heard my mother say this, how could he accept it in his heart, but he was reluctant to be angry with my mother, and he could only bear to agree to my mother's agreement, but at that time, my father also had selfish intentions, after all, my mother only said that she would give birth to an heir to the Fu family and leave, and did not say how many were born. So my father took advantage of this loophole and said that the first child did not follow the Fu family name, but followed the Zhong family name.

"Your father wanted to delay time, deliberately delaying the time for your mother to leave the Fu family." Rong Shu touched her chin and said Fu Jingting's father's careful thoughts.

The man nodded his head without comment, "You are right, my father did play this idea, as long as my mother's first child is not the heir of the Fu family, then he has a reason to let my mother continue to have a second child, so that my mother stays in the Fu family, the time to stay with him will be longer and longer, and my father also has more time to cultivate feelings with my mother, he thinks very well, he feels that feelings are such things, Even if my mother loves Sioux City in her heart, but after all, two people are one in the sea market, one in the capital, separated by thousands of miles, coupled with the fact that the technology was not developed at that time, it was not so easy to meet each other, so I felt that when time passed, my mother's feelings for Sioux City would become weaker and weaker, and the feelings for him would begin to rise, and in the end, my mother might fall in love with my father. "Unfortunately , your father's idea was still frustrated, he thought too innocently and underestimated your mother's feelings for Sioux City." Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting with some pain.

The man's expression is still flat, but there is no emotion, "You are right, my father thinks too simple, he only thinks that after a long time, my mother will give up Sioux City to fall in love with him, my mother is not a fool, naturally I can see my father's plan, but it was not debunked, until the two went to the hospital IVF to successfully conceive me, after successfully letting me be born, my mother also followed my father's meaning, let me follow her surname, my father was very happy at that time." Seeing that my mother did not resist in the slightest, she let me follow her surname, and thought that my mother had already begun to have him in her heart and was willing to stay by his side and live with him, but in fact, what my mother thought in her heart, she did not know at all.

"I can probably guess that your mother never intended you to inherit the Zhongjia family, never intended to have a second one, so she didn't care at all about whose surname you really had, right?" Rong Shu looked at the man's cold side face.

The man did not look at her, focused on the road ahead, and softly muttered, "Yes, this is what it means, the idea in my mother's heart is that no matter what my surname is, she will only give birth to me, in the end, I am still the heir of the Fu family, and even I can directly inherit the Zhong family and merge the two families, in short, for the future of the Zhong family, she did not think about it at all, nor did she care, in her heart, everything, None of her love mattered.

At this point, a look of sarcasm appeared on the man's face.

Rong Shu saw it and sighed in her heart.

Love brain.

His mother was the most loving woman she had ever met.

In the past six years, she has not been able to let go of her feelings for Fu Jingting, and she also knows that she has some love brains.

But it is not as serious as Fu Jingting's mother.

At the very least, she can get lost, close in time, and minimize the loss.

Fu Jingting's mother, on the other hand, was completely trapped in her feelings for Sioux City and could not extricate herself, and finally ended up with a suicide death.

Poor and hateful.

For Sioux City, Fu Jingting's mother is a qualified lover and a loyal licking dog.

But for Fu Jingting's father and Fu Jingting, she was not a good wife or a good mother.

Even if there is indeed maternal love for Fu Jingting, using Fu Jingting's small child as a substitute for Sioux City as a consolation can also show how impure her mother is.

“But later, your father doesn’t love your mother, but it’s a good thing, otherwise your father will be the second your mother.” Rong Shu brushed her hair and sighed softly.

But no, fortunately, Fu Jingting’s father finally woke up and fell in love with Wang Shuqin, otherwise he would have been deeply trapped in a woman who did not love himself, and in the end, if he saw Fu Jingting’s mother really leave, I am afraid that he would also commit extreme suicide.

The man clenched the steering wheel, and his voice sank a lot, “Father he just started, really loved my mother, love to the bone, from my birth, from my mother did not refute me and her surname, my father really thought that my mother had him in her heart, but as my mother’s body recovered a little, he was not willing to sleep with my father, still insisted on living in two rooms, and after being estranged from my father, my father gradually realized, Even if the two of them had children, my mother’s heart had not been with him, and had not been open to him, at that moment, my father changed, not only his feelings for my mother faded, but even his personality changed, from a sunny and talkative man, to a person with less sinister words, he did not drink much, he also began to smoke and drink, often making himself drunk.

Rong Shu’s red lips moved, “Grandmother must be very sad, right?” “Yes, grandmother, she is really sad, the son who has been carefully cultivated for decades, once her personality has changed greatly, as a mother, her heart is the most painful, at that time, although I was young, I already remembered, and I could see the scene of my father’s drunken death and the way my grandmother wiped her tears.” Fu Jingting tightened his brows and said.

“What about your mother?” Rong Shu looked at the man and asked.

The man’s thin lips pursed in a straight line, “She? She didn’t react at all, a man she didn’t love, no matter what it became, she wouldn’t care, as long as it didn’t affect her life, didn’t stop her from leaving, she wouldn’t care.

“Suddenly, I felt that some of it was too cold-blooded.” Rong Shu sighed.

Chapter 1205: How to Dispose of It

In any case, Fu Jingting’s father is always the husband of Fu Jingting’s mother, even if he does not love, but at least he should look at the relationship between husband and wife, and care about each other, right?

What's more, the other party is still because she has become like that, and she has a part of the responsibility.

But Fu Jingting's mother didn't do anything, it was really too cold-hearted.

"It's very cold-blooded, and I wonder if sometimes I have cold blood on other people, is it inherited from her." Fu Jingting's thin lips pulled out a touch of self-deprecating curvature.

Rong Shu put her hand on his arm and gently squeezed it, "Don't think like this, you are you, she is her, even if you are mother and son, but you are always two individuals, you don't want to be affected by her." The man took a moment to turn his head and look at her, his eyes gentle, "Good, listen to you."

"Hmm." Rong Shu put her hand back with confidence.

Otherwise it will affect men driving.

At the end of the video, Assistant Zhang has not spoken, just quietly listening to Rong Shu and Fu Jingting.

Hearing Fu Jingting say some details that he didn't know in the past, his heart was also full of emotions.

When Fu Zong was a child, he was really pitiful.

Sandwiched between such parents, watching parents torture each other, not getting worse is also the old lady spent a lot of effort.

"Later, how did your father fall in love with Wang Shuqin?" Rong Shu asked.

That's what she wants to know the most at the moment.

In particular, Wang Shuqin was still a rough woman, and she really didn't know that Fu Jingting's father, a rich man's brother, had fallen in love with her.

In order to marry her, he was willing to bear the family law.

It's also unbelievable.

Of course, it is not Wang Shuqin, who degrades women of the same position, but Wang Shuqin, not to mention men, even women hate it.

Therefore, for a rich brother like Fu Jingting's father to look at Wang Shuqin, everyone was shocked and wanted to know the reason.

"I don't know how my father fell in love with my stepmother, but at that time I was taken to the old mansion by my grandmother and rarely went back to the Fu Mansion to live with my parents." Fu Jingting said.

Rong Shu nodded understandingly, "It is estimated that at that time, your grandmother had discovered that your mother had deliberately raised you to be like Sioux City, so she took you away, in addition, the atmosphere between your parents let you have a child in the middle, and it is also easy to affect your physical and mental health." The man slightly tickled his lips, "You guessed it is absolutely correct, my grandmother took me to the old house because of these, personally cultivated, but also deliberately blocked the contact between me and my parents, and during this period, my father and Wang Shuqin knew, and together, the two people's affairs did not hide from my mother, the reason you know, my mother wants my father to find a new love, so that he will let her go faster, and when I know about this matter, it was already my father who had been punished by the family in order to marry Wang Shuqin. "That's the way it is." Rong Shu looked at the front with emotion, "Then you learned that your father was going to find you a stepmother, did you not resist?" The man chuckled, "Why resist?" Who my father wants to marry is his own business, and as a son, I will not ask, let alone interfere. "That being said, but at that time you were less than ten years old, and you weren't afraid that your stepmother would beat you, torture you, and abuse you?" After all, your existence is an obstacle to her son's succession to the Fu family. Rong Shu said.

The man's laughter deepened, "I don't deny that there are such stepmothers in the circle, and there are not a few, but I am not worried, first of all, at that time, the Fu family has always been the grandmother's family, my father is only a nominal president, before my father has been drunk and dreaming of death, so my grandmother is not at all at ease to hand over the Fu family to him, my father has no opinion on this, so there is a grandmother to protect me, I am not worried about what Wang Shuqin will do to me if she is a bad stepmother. Secondly, although I was small at that time, I was not a good bully, as long as Wang Shuqin really dared to attack me, I also had a way to clean her up, even if my father came forward and could not stop her, but fortunately, Wang Shuqin was not that kind of person, although she was stupid and stupid, a little rough, but people were not bad, after her mother died, she gave me maternal love, although most of the reason is that she attributed her mother's suicide to herself, but what she did was true.

Rong Shu snorted, "I also know that she is not an absolute bad person, so I taught her a little lesson, and I didn't really do anything to her, otherwise with my current vengeful personality, even if you protect her behind her back, what she did to me, I just fought with you to die, and I wouldn't let her go." The man raised an eyebrow and then smiled, "Sorry, my fault." "It's good to know." Rong Shu snorted at the man again.

The man's smile was even stronger, "I know, keep remembering, rest assured, I will double my favor to you and help her make up for you."

Although

Rong Shu sneered at him, her heart was still used for his words, and she felt a sweet feeling.

"Okay, that's a long way off, let's talk about this jade pendant." Rong Shu nodded her finger on the phone screen.

Assistant Zhang raised the box a little higher, so that Rong Shu could point to the jade pendant in the box more prepared.

"You just said that this jade pendant was made by your grandfather to prove the Zhong's family and to prove your identity, and you used to be surnamed Zhong, and in the eyes of everyone, you are the next heir of the Zhongjia family, so this jade pendant, according to theory, should be passed on to you, right?"

The man bowed his head, "Yes, this is also the reason why my grandfather told me about the jade pendant, at that time, my grandfather did not know that my mother had already given the jade pendant to Su Cheng as a promise letter, and thought that the jade pendant was in my mother's hands, at that time I was six years old, my grandfather came to the sea market to visit my mother and me, and when I saw that my mother did not pass the jade pendant to me, I asked my mother to quickly take the jade pendant out to me, but my mother said that the jade pendant was lost. My grandfather almost fainted on the spot, in order to calm my grandfather's emotions, I took the initiative to ask what kind of jade pendant it was, and my grandfather told me about the jade pendant, so I just saw this jade pendant, I recognized it at once, and I knew that my mother lied that year, and the jade pendant was not lost, but in the hands of Sioux City. The man looked at the jade pendant with a hint of disgust in his eyes.

Hearing this and seeing here, Rong Shu didn't know what to say except for the emotion.

Sending such an important jade pendant as a promise of love, she really served Fu Jingting's mother's love brain.

Fortunately, Sioux City itself was not short of money, and the jade pendant was not sold.

But Fan Sioux City is a poor boy, today you can't see this jade pendant, maybe the jade pendant has long been in the hands of some collector, and it will never see the light of day.

"Don't think about it, or think about it in a happy direction? At least now the jade pendant is still back in your hands. Rong Shu looked at the man to soothe the man's emotions, "Don't think that the jade pendant has been in Sioux City for so long, and you are disgusted, after all, this jade pendant is not left to you by your mother, but left to you by your grandfather, think of your grandfather, you will not hate this jade pendant." On the day of the video, Assistant Zhang also quickly nodded his head in agreement with Rong Shu's words.

Fu Jingting looked at the jade pendant, and then looked at himself, encouraging and comforting the woman who comforted him, and finally nodded his head slightly, "I will not hate this jade pendant, but I will not leave it." In this regard, Rong Shu was not surprised.

Not hating is one thing, but there should be a diaphragm in the heart.

So it's not surprising that men have to say that.

"But what are you going to do?" Rong Shu pointed to Yu Pei and asked.

Assistant Zhang also looked at Fu Jingting curiously, "Yes, Mr. Fu." "

"Give it to my cousin." Fu Jingting groaned for a few seconds before finally making a decision.

"Cousin?" Rong Shu was stunned at first, and then a somewhat heroic woman's face appeared in her mind, and she suddenly patted her thigh and asked, "The cousin you are talking about is the lady who danced with you at a banquet a few months ago, right?" The tall, tall woman with a somewhat westernized face.

Fu Jingting bowed his head, "It's her, her grandfather and my grandfather are brothers, so their collateral line, the relationship with my grandfather is not bad, when I was a child, I was not less taken care of by her, so the relationship with her is not bad, but she does not live in the country for many years, because her mother is a foreigner, after the death of her grandfather, their branch basically left the country, settled in her mother's country, only some things happened in the country that must be attended.” , they will come back. “It turned out to be so.” Rong Shu understood, “Give this jade pendant to your cousin, they are all members of the Zhong family, and this jade pendant can also be regarded as returning to the hands of the Zhong family.”

“I think so.” Fu Jingting bowed his head, and then looked at the mobile phone screen she held up, “You find time, say to your cousin, and send her the jade pendant, I believe that the little grandfather will be very happy to know.” Little Grandpa

, that is, Fu Jingting’s younger brother.

He settled abroad decades ago and has never returned.

Therefore, the relationship with Fu Jingting is not close, but the degree of knowing the existence of the other party.

“Okay Mr. Fu.” Assistant Zhang nodded in agreement, then closed the box and put it back on the side of the co-pilot.

“Is there anything else?” Fu Jingting freed up a hand, rubbed his temples, and asked softly.

Assistant Zhang originally wanted to say no, but then thought of something, did not stop laughing, “Another thing, is that our people said, early this morning, Mr. Liu went to the hospital to see the mouth, heard that the mouth is swollen old high, at least for several days can not open too much, can not eat, can only in the hospital has been infusion nutrient solution to survive.”

“Yeah, good job.” Fu Jingting’s thin lips were slightly raised, and a look of satisfaction flashed in his eyes.

Rong Shu heard this, realized something, squinted her eyes and stared at the man, “Jing Ting, what you and Assistant Zhang said, should it be, what did you do to Liu Zong?”

“Hmm.” The men had no intention of hiding it, and admitted very happily that they had just done something to Father Liu.

Rong Shu took a breath, “It’s true, just now Assistant Zhang said that Liu Zong’s mouth is swollen very large, should you let people hit Liu Zong’s mouth?”

“Miss Yung is just smart, and she guessed it at once.” At the end of the video, Assistant Zhang did not hesitate to give Rong Shu a thumbs up.

The corners of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "Really hit the mouth? The man raised his chin nonchalantly, "He is rude to you, his mouth is too dirty, he should teach him a lesson, let him know what to say and what not to say." At this point, the man's expression became much more grim.

Assistant Zhang also nodded hurriedly, "Yes Miss Rong, you also know how ugly he was scolded when he was driven out of Tiansheng by you, so how could Fu Zong endure after seeing the video posted by your employees on the Internet, immediately let me order the people below to teach him a lesson, I thought that casually teaching him is not cheap for him, since it is his oral business, then hit him in the mouth, teach him from the root, in addition to making him feel pain, It can also let him know why he was beaten this time, and I believe that he must feel humiliated in his heart.

After listening to Assistant Zhang's explanation, Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting and her heart was warm.

"It turns out that you are because he came to Tiansheng yesterday to trouble me and teach him a lesson, Jing Ting, thank you." Rong Shu raised a smile on her face and was touched in her heart.

The man once again freed his hand and touched her hair, although he did not speak, but this action had told her again that he would not let her suffer in vain.

He will get back for all the wrongs she has suffered.

"By the way, Assistant, is there a picture?" I wanted to see what his mouth was swollen into. After the man took his hand away, Rong Shu rubbed his cheeks, rubbed the redness and emotion on his face, hid it in his heart, and after returning to his usual appearance, he looked at Assistant Zhang and asked.

Assistant Zhang shook her head, "Sorry Miss Rong, I don't have it now, but if you want to see it, I'll let you see it later from the hospital monitoring." "That line, that's bothering you." Rong Shu smiled and thanked her.

Assistant Zhang waved his hand, "Miss Rong is polite, just a little thing, not a thing."

After saying that, he looked at Fu Jingting, who was driving, "General Manager Fu, I don't have anything to report here for the time being, but I still need to go over to the police station to prove that the letter of understanding is indeed your instructions."

Fu Jingting snorted faintly, "Go ahead." The video hung up, Rong Shu put down the phone, "You let people beat Liu this time, did you deliberately let your people hide their identities?" If not, then didn't the Liu family know that it was you who hit them? "There is no concealment, the Liu family probably already knows that I did it." Fu Jingting drove back to the road.

Rong Shu sighed, "Then, your relationship with the Liu family will be even more irremediable."

"I didn't intend to ease relations with the Liu family, and secondly, I also told them in this way this time how firm I was not going to ease the relationship." Fu Jingting said softly.

But no, when there was no such thing before, he didn't want to pay attention to the Liu family.

Now that they have beaten the people of the Liu family, it is even more obvious that they do not want to ease their relationship with the Liu family.

"But I think it's okay, even so, the Liu family is still unwilling."

Chapter 1207: Leave it to those who are prepared

Don't look at the calm look of this owner when he talks to Fu Jingting, in fact, don't mention how nervous he is.

Although their community is also a concentration of rich people in the eyes of ordinary people, those who live here are basically worth tens of millions, and there are hundreds of millions of people.

But in fact, these people are not rich at all, in the eyes of the real rich people, that is, ordinary people.

So they also dream of making friends with these tycoons, taking the opportunity to climb up, and strive for one day, and also become a new tycoon.

However, their status is here, and they can't get into the eyes of those tycoons, and those tycoons don't care to make friends with them at all, let alone see them.

So much so that they want to make friends with big guys, but they can't find a way.

Even the most senior giants could not be touched, not to mention the top giants such as the Fu family and the super big guys like Fu Jingting.

So now to see Fu Jingting here, the owner did not want to miss this opportunity to make friends with the big guy, after giving himself enough courage in the car, he finally opened the car door and got out of the car, and took the initiative to talk to Fu Jingting.

He now looked calm on the surface, but his heart was already panicked, and he even regretted why he had to come down to talk.

What if Mr. Fu ignores him?

Isn't it humiliating for so many people to watch?

Of course, shame is not nothing, I am afraid that Fu will always feel that his appearance has disturbed them, and what should I do if I feel dissatisfied with him in my heart?

Then his small company didn't think more and more afraid, the man couldn't help but swallow the saliva, the smile on his face gradually stiffened, and the forehead horns even began to sweat.

He was still too impulsive.

The man's heart was bitter.

Especially after seeing that after he finished speaking, Fu Jingting really ignored himself, and did not even look back at his own scene, and the man's heart was even more flustered.

He could even feel that everyone else was faintly beginning to look at his jokes.

For a while, the man was embarrassed to find a seam to drill into, and it was not to stand in the same place and walk, nor to go.

Fortunately, Rong Shu saw the man's embarrassment and gently patted the back of Fu Jingting's hand, "Jing Ting, someone is talking to you."

Hearing Rong Shu say this, the man's eyes instantly lit up, looked at Rong Shu gratefully, and bowed to Rong Shu.

After all, Rong Shu reminded Fu Jingting that in addition to wanting Fu Jingting to notice him, she also gave him this embarrassing siege.

However, Fu Jingting still did not pay attention to the man's meaning, just took Rong Shu's hand, looked at Rong Shu, and said in a warm voice, "Irrelevant people, don't pay attention, let's go, let's go home."

As he spoke, he gently straightened Rong Shu's hair.

Rong Shu smiled at the man in embarrassment and prepared to leave with Fu Jingting.

The man looked at her and Fu Jingting in a daze, as if he was thinking of something.

After two seconds, the man returned to his senses, suddenly smiled, and there was no longer the slightest embarrassment or nervousness on his face, but instead became confident.

He squeezed his fists, looked at the two with confidence and said, "Fu Zong and Miss Rong have a really good relationship, I will say how Fu Zong came back to live in such a place, it was originally for Miss Rong, also, Miss Rong is so beautiful, the character connotation is also good, no wonder Fu Zong loves Miss Rong so much, Miss Rong is indeed a woman who thinks that she is very good and worthy of love, Fu Zong and Miss Rong are together, and they will be happy forever." As soon as these words came out, Fu Jingting's footsteps immediately stopped.

Rong Shu also stopped, looking sideways at the man next to her.

The man lowered his head slightly, unable to see the expression on his face and the thoughts in his heart.

The owner who spoke behind him also stared at Fu Jingting's back at this time, and his heartbeat quickened.

Fu Zong should take care of him this time and give him the opportunity to get acquainted, right?

As long as you have a relationship with Fu Zong, he will soar into the sky.

Hopefully, God forbid, the guess he just made was not wrong.

The man's heart is full of thoughts.

Then the next second, he saw Fu Jingting turn around, although he did not come to him, but his eyes had already fallen on him, "What is your name?" The man's eyes widened in disbelief and he was stunned.

Fu Jingting frowned disapprovingly, "I ask you, what is your name?"

Rong Shu hugged Fu Jingting's arm and also looked at the man, "Say quickly, miss this opportunity, but there is no Oh." Hearing this, the man quickly turned back, his excited face turned red, his heart was ecstatic, and he quickly and excitedly replied, "General Manager Fu, I, my name is Zhang Jiaying, I'm sorry, I'm a little excited, this is my business card."

As he spoke, he quickly pulled a business card out of his pocket.

Perhaps too excited, he took out his business card a few times before he pulled out his business card and handed it to Fu Jingting with both hands.

Fu Jingting took it with one hand, looked down, saw the company introduction above, flashed a trace of essence in his eyes, and then looked up at the man and asked, "Are you doing this part of the network?" "

Yes." The man did not dare to delay, and quickly nodded his head back, "When I was in college, I founded my own company, and then I have been developing a network system, but because this system is far more than all the network systems now, so many venture capital companies, as well as capital bosses, do not believe that our small company can successfully develop it, so it has not been able to pull funds, so that now for so many years, I still have not developed this system, and only one-third of the research and development." The man smiled bitterly.

"You say that the system that your company is developing now far exceeds all current systems for several years, is it true?" Can you give me an affirmative answer? Fu Jingting squinted and stared at the man.

The man knew that this was Fu Jingting's test for himself, and it was also his only chance, and after taking a deep breath, his expression returned seriously, "Yes, I can say with certainty that as long as the research and development is successful, it is absolutely far more than all network systems, and I can guarantee this with my own personality."

"If that's the case, are you sure you can develop it?"

"Yes, as long as I am given enough financial support, I can definitely develop it, because I have a specific outline for a long time, and I have also been calculated by many professors, and it is unanimously determined that it is feasible." The man nodded.

Fu Jingting snorted slightly, "Well, I'll give you a chance, tomorrow take your outline, bring your current research and development progress to Fu Group, if I am sure that what you say is true, I can support you with unlimited funds." The man was ecstatic, "Thank you Mr. Fu.

He hurriedly bowed to Fu Jingting, bowing several times in a row before slightly suppressing some of his inner excitement, and said with a smile on his face, "You can rest assured General Fu, I will definitely not let you down."

"I hope so." The man bowed his head slightly, then looked at Rong Shu, and his expression was gentle, "Let's go." "

"Hmm." Rong Shu smiled and nodded, turned around with Fu Jingting, and walked in the direction of the elevator.

Behind him, the man watched the two men leave all the way, and when the two entered the elevator, he also bowed to the two until the elevator door closed, then straightened up and clenched his fists excitedly, "Yes! Sure enough, the opportunity is reserved for those who are prepared.

As long as you have the courage to fight, there is a half probability of failure and success.

If you don't fight, the probability of success is zero, and the probability of failure is 100%.

So why not give it a try?

Chapter 1208: Each has its own calculations

Now it turns out that he plucked up the courage to say that what he fought for was right, and that he succeeded.

Successfully got to know Fu Zong and got on the line.

As long as his research results are finally recognized by Fu Zong, his future is already visible.

The more I thought about it, the more excited I became, and the man's heartbeat not only sped up a lot.

At first, he was still a little worried and a little afraid that not only did he not succeed in getting to know Fu Zong, but he was afraid that he would be disliked by Fu Zong.

After all, at that time, Fu Zongzheng and Miss Rong were getting along, and his sudden speech meant that he disturbed the two of them.

In fact, it was also true that Fu Zong was already dissatisfied with him at that time, and did not pay attention to his meaning.

It was Miss Rong who helped him and said a word, so that Fu Zong had no intention of thinking about him and prepared to leave with Miss Rong.

It was at that time that he saw that Fu Zong was exceptionally gentle to Miss Rong, and that Miss Rong's eyes were particularly affectionate.

He realized that maybe talking directly to Fu Zong would not work, and the real way to go was Miss Rong's side.

Maybe praise Miss Rong more, exaggerate their feelings, maybe Fu Zong is happy, maybe he is willing to take care of him?

Then he said to do it, and after some praise for Miss Rong, sure enough, he succeeded, and Mr. Fu took care of him and was willing to give him a chance.

Therefore, people sometimes have to have not only courage, but also eyesight.

As long as the eyesight is good enough and the right medicine is prescribed, it is not afraid of unsuccess.

At this moment, the man is very grateful to his parents for explaining to him, so that he has developed a good pair of eyes from an early age, otherwise he may not succeed.

At the same time, it also made him understand how much Fu Zong loved Miss Rong, and loved that others only praised Miss Rong a few words, and Fu Zong was happy to give people the opportunity to climb up.

Miss Yung is really his lucky star.

The man laughed heavily.

When the other owners around him saw him like this, there was sourness, envy, and jealousy.

There are more people who want to climb Fu Zong, and they also think.

But they didn't have the courage at all, and they knew that even if they went, Fu Zong wouldn't take care of them.

No, this person first Baba came up, Fu Zong took care of him?

At that time, they still laughed in their hearts at this person's inability to measure up to his own strength, and actually tried to climb up to such a big figure as Fu Zong.

So when they saw that Fu Zong didn't care about this person, they didn't mention how happy they were.

People are like this, knowing that everyone can't climb the big man, but for the kind of people who know the result and are still willing to pluck up enough courage to try to climb up, their hearts are also jealous and dissatisfied.

Because all along, they felt that they were the same, and then suddenly one day, they suddenly realized that not all of them had to be the same.

At least, there are some people in between them who have courage that they don't have.

They can accept that other people are not as good as they are, and they can accept that they are living as well as themselves, but they absolutely cannot accept that one of them suddenly surpasses them and lives better than them.

This man is like this, attaching to Fu Zong, which means that the class between him and them will soon be pulled apart, he will step into a higher level, and they are still standing still.

This man is undoubtedly a traitor between them.

At first, they didn't know that this person would succeed in attaching themselves to Fu Zong, and they thought that after Fu Zong left, they would laugh at this person and laugh at his inability to measure up.

But who would have thought that would be the case?

This person successfully climbed to Fu Zong, they could not laugh at him, what if this person really climbed to a height that they could only look up to in the future, and then came to them for trouble?

So instead of laughing, they had to be hardened and congratulated on him.

This is undoubtedly humiliating, but it is impossible not to do so.

So, after the next few minutes, the man listened to the congratulations of stubble after stubble.

Among these congratulations are pure envy, happy for him, but more than that, they are still full of reluctant and unscrupulous sour congratulations.

In the face of these jealous Daoxi, men do not care about the smile.

Jealousy is jealousy.

Anyway, not being jealous is mediocre.

These people are jealous of him, which shows that he is excellent!

On the other side, in the elevator.

Rong Shu took Fu Jingting's arm and suddenly laughed.

Fu Jingting turned his head to look at her and said softly, "Laughing at what?"

"I'm laughing at you." Rong Shu looked up at the man and replied with a smile.

Fu Jingting raised an eyebrow, "Laugh at me for what?" Something on my face? "Of course not." Rong Shu shook her head, "I was laughing at your attitude just now, I can see that you originally didn't want to take care of that person, but after that person praised me, you immediately changed your mind, willing to give him a chance to catch up with you, so fickle, but not like your style, that's why I think it's funny." The man played with her soft hand and laughed lowly, "I don't want to, but he is a person who has great eyesight and knows that it is useless to go directly to my path, so he immediately changed his mind and went your way, you know, the most important person in my heart is you, someone praises you, and blesses our feelings, of course I am happy, a happy, naturally willing to give this person a chance, after all, this person talks, I really love to listen."

Rong Shujiao sneered at him, and his heart was funny, "If others praise me a few times, they will make you happy and don't even care about your own principles, and you are not afraid of others saying that you are a faint prince who is confused by the demon concubine?" "Do you think I'll be afraid?" The man's eyes were deep in his eyes at her.

Rong Shu could clearly see the affection in the man's eyes, blushing and shaking his head, "You are not the kind of person who will be afraid of things."

"That's not okay, so what other people think, we don't have to care, as for the person just now, the reason why I am willing to give him a chance, not only is he talking well, but more, or for other reasons."] The man's expression was slightly more serious at this time.

Rong Shu blinked, "What reason?"

"This human creation company is a network company, just like the Liu family, and the Liu family's network is like other networks on the market, there is nothing special, but the reason why it can stand first in the industry is because my Fu family is behind it." Fu Jingting said.

When Rong Shu heard this, she suddenly understood something, "Do you want to support this Mr. Zhang and replace the Liu family?" Fu Jingting raised his chin without comment, "The Liu family's network itself is average, since this is the case, with a better network system, then why don't I choose better support?" After all, I am a businessman, not a philanthropist, over the years, supporting the Liu family, my Fu Group has not earned any good. Before I broke up with the Liu family, I didn't care about the money posted in, but now that I broke with the Liu family, then my money naturally can't flow out in vain, not even a ring, instead of this, why don't I support another network company to replace the Liu family? At least I still have a head to make. "That's what it says." Rong Shu smiled.

But if the Liu family knew, they should cry.

"And just now that person developed the network system, I am really interested, this time to invest in him, occupy a part of the shares, and so after the person rises, I can earn, there will be more, I am a businessman, interests first, since I met people who can make money for me, he intends to find investors, I intend him to earn for me before, so naturally I will not let go." The man tickled his lips slightly, and a trace of calculation flashed in his eyes.

Rong Shu smiled, "You are really worthy of being a mercenary businessman, compared to you, I am not qualified at all." The man rubbed her hair, "Now you have just stepped into this step, wait for a long time, you have become a shopping mall old man, you will be like this, but this is not a bad thing, do not feel that this is not good, businessman, you have to do what businessmen should do, not to mention, I calculated the person just now, just now that person is not calculating me?" And it's using you to calculate me.

"I know, but I think you seem to like the man's calculations about you." Rong Shu looked up and looked at the man with a smirk.

The man tickled his lips, "I like it a lot, after all, he is praising you, so such a calculation, I am also willing to jump in." "Hmm

, poor mouth." Rong Shu couldn't hide the sweet smile on her face.

Soon, the lift arrived.

The two men stepped out of the elevator and returned to the apartment.

After changing her shoes, Rong Shu hung her bag aside, looked at the man who was still bending down to change his shoes, and said, "You go to the shower first, I will go and make soup for you." Listening to the two words of boiling soup, Fu Jingting felt a stalk in his heart, but then he thought of this soup and then took a deep breath to suppress the disgusting feeling in his heart, and gently nodded his head, "Well, then I will go first, and put water for you later."

"Hmm." Rong Shu answered, pulled the apron and went into the kitchen.

The man stood where he was and watched her enter, before turning and walking in the other direction.

In the kitchen, Rong Shu opened the refrigerator, took out the beef bones that the secretary had asked the secretary to help send back into the refrigerator yesterday, and some dried mushrooms, and began to wash her hands and cook soup.

Madame Lu was very careful, perhaps considering that she did not have the tools to cut off the big bones here early on, so the big bones sent were cut early in the morning.

This makes it very convenient for her to cook soup.

Rong Shu put the washed bones into the pot, the lid of the pot was covered, the heat was turned on to medium heat, and then the dried mushrooms were soaked in hot water, clapped their hands, and the first stage of the soup process was completed.

Wait until the mushrooms are almost soaked, stew with the big bones, simmer for two or three hours, and the soup will be completely good.

Now that Rong Shu had just put the big bone into it, she could smell a faint fragrance, and if it was boiled for a while, the taste of the soup, not to mention how fragrant.

Rong Shu leaned over, sniffed deeply, smiled satisfactorily, and then took off the apron around her waist and prepared to go out and let the soup simmer slowly.

As soon as he turned around, he hit a hard wall of flesh.

The walls were wet and hot, and there was a clear mint aroma that smelled very good.

Rong Shu raised her head, faced the man's handsome face and those ink-like eyes, and suddenly said in a nonchalant manner, "Fu Jingting, you walk without a sound, suddenly appeared behind me, startling me!" It turned out that the wall of flesh just now was the man's chest.

The man listened to Rong Shu's reproach, and some innocently pursed his thin lips, "I have a sound when I walk, it is because you yourself are too focused to hear, and I dare not call you, for fear that you will be shocked to burn." The tone was rather aggrieved.

Rong Shu saw the situation, and he couldn't say what he wanted to kill later, and he wasn't embarrassed to say it.

After all, he was like this, so that her heart suddenly softened, and no matter how hard it was, she couldn't say it at once.

This dog man, sure enough, took her to death, knew which set she would eat, and he showed what kind of appearance he would eat, and ate her to death.

At the same time, Rong Shu was helpless, but also a little funny.

At this time, the man suddenly put his hand on her forehead, "Did you just have a bump?"

Rong Shu shook her head, "No, although your chest is a little harder, but it is also made of meat, where can it really hurt?" But have you ever been hit by me?

She looked up at the man, her eyes full of concern.

The man shook his head slightly and smiled, "No.

"That's fine, but" Rong Shu squinted at the man's open chest, and the corners of his mouth twitched, "Fu Jingting, can you put on the nightgown?" This nightgown is what I bought for you specially, it is a serious nightgown, do not show the chest, you are good, the belt is loose and collapsed, exposing such a large piece of chest, what do you want to do? Although the apartment is not very cold with the heating on, after all, it is winter, you are not afraid of getting cold? The man looked down at his chest, a dark light flashed in his eyes, and the thin lips slightly ticked back, "It won't catch a cold, as for what I want to do when I wear this, can't you see it?" "What do I see?" Rong Shu looked up at the man's eyes, just to catch the darkness and heat in the man's eyes.

At that moment, her heart skipped a beat.

What does this dog man want to do, what does this look mean?

Rong Shu subconsciously stepped back, feeling the urge to flee.

The man realized her behavior, extended his big hand, directly wrapped his arms around her waist, took her into his arms, and said in a hoarse and low voice, "I wear this to show you and give you welfare."

I just knew!

After listening to the man's words, these four words suddenly appeared in Rong Shu's heart.

She knew what the dog man had just seen meant by this.

Really, the dog man is really seducing her anytime, anywhere, complaining, paparazzi, trying to do that kind of thing with her.

Is it true that as long as the dog man is private time, all the things in his mind are that?

Rong Shu looked at the man fixedly, expressing deep doubt in her heart.

She leaned back slightly, and put her hands on the man's shoulders, trying to distance herself from the man.

There was no way, the man imprisoned her waist, and she could not push the man away, and could only distance herself from the man in this way.

"Who wants these benefits from you, Fu Jingting, you give me a little more serious." Rong Shu slightly did not look at the man.

The man saw that the roots of her ears were red, and smiled lowly.

The laughter is low, sexy, and like the cello, it is very pleasant to the ear.

It made people feel crisp.

“How could I be immodest? I’ve always been serious. The man stared at her, “I’m serious.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes, “What are you serious, where is the seriousness of what you are like, deliberately dressing like this?”

The man asked with a glint in his eyes.

Rong Shu is good at saying that men are tempting themselves.

If after a while, the man comes to say that you have not been tempted by me, then how should you answer?

If you answer no, will the man be more crazy and find a way to do something else to seduce her?

If the answer is yes, then the dog man should be inching forward and going to the next step?

In short, she couldn’t answer anything.

Rong Shu closed her eyes with some headache, “Not much, Fu Jingting, you quickly let go of me, I’m going to take a shower.” When I was just cooking soup, there were some oil stains on my clothes.

She had to go and change her clothes and take a shower as soon as possible, otherwise it would become more and more unbearable as the time passed.

I always feel that there is something dirty on my clothes, and I am uncomfortable.

However, if a man is so obedient, it is not Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting still tightly hugged Rong Shu’s will, bowed his head and pressed his forehead against her forehead, and asked in a low voice, “You haven’t answered me yet, what are you coming?”

Rong Shu pushed the man, “What’s there to know about this?” I’ve forgotten what I was going to say, so don’t ask me again, and ask me again to no avail. Anyway

, she just wouldn’t tell him.

The man saw her thoughts, and sighed with some regret in his heart.

I wish she could be a little more blunt and say it directly.

The man laughed helplessly, “Well, then I don’t ask this, you can let me let go, but you have to answer me first, don’t you like me?” ”

Chapter 1210: Tacit Knowledge

“I don’t like it.” Rong Shu did not hesitate in the slightest, and directly ruined these three words.

But in fact, she didn’t think so in her heart.

Dislike?

How could it not be liked!

Men like women’s beauty, but in fact, women don’t like men’s beauty?

Men like women’s chest and waist, women like men’s pectoral muscles and abs.

She is only an ordinary woman among all sentient beings, and naturally she cannot escape this certain law.

So, she also likes men’s pectoral muscles and abs.

Especially Fu Jingting’s chest muscles and abs are so perfect, she likes it even more.

Every time she did that kind of thing, her hand habitually touched his pectoral abs.

Seriously, it feels super good.

But like to like, but can not admit in front of the face of men that they like.

Otherwise the man’s tail should be cocked triumphantly.

Listening to Rong Shu answer his question so quickly, the smile on the man’s face froze for a moment.

Dislike?

How can it be!

She obviously likes to touch his chest and touch his abs every time, which shows that she is very satisfied with his abdominal muscles.

For this reason, every time he took a bath, he carefully opened the nightgown a little, in order to deliberately seduce her?

As a result she now told him she didn't like it.

This is definitely not true, absolutely she is lying!

Fu Jingting stared at the woman with thin lips, and his voice became deeper and lower, "Really don't like it? "Really

."

Rong Shu nodded hesitantly.

Fu Jingting's thin lips tightened even more.

Oh, still mouth hard.

Don't be because he didn't see it, the heart in her eyes was empty.

But it doesn't matter, he has a way to make her like.

But not now, but for a while after eating in the room, in bed.

He would ask her to say two words of liking in person.

Thinking, the man's eyes flashed, and he let go of Rong Shu, "Well, since you don't like it, it seems that my exercise is not good enough, wait until I practice again." Tonight

, he'll practice well.

The man thought in his heart, lowered his eyelids, covered the look in his eyes, and did not let the woman find out.

Rong Shu really did not find the man's abnormality, she listened to the man's words just now, the whole person was stunned.

What's the situation?

Does the dog man know what he's talking about?

He actually said he didn't like it!

How is this possible!

How could a dog man say such a thing?

Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting, her eyes were full of disbelief, and her expression was also surprised.

You must know that the dog man is not an easy person to lose.

In the past, dog men exuded their charm in front of her like a peacock, asking themselves if they liked it or not, if their answers did not meet the man's wishes.

A man will absolutely not be spared, and he must let her change her mouth, knowing that he hears a satisfactory answer to be satisfied.

She thought that this time it must be the same, she was mentally prepared, wanted to see how the dog man forced herself to change her mouth.

As a result, the dog man actually did not follow the routine!

Say what you don't like!

Is this still him?

Rong Shu stared at Fu Jingting, and did not look back for half a moment, looking at his eyes, as if he wanted to see a stranger.

The man saw this and flicked her forehead lightly, "Okay, what's the fuss?" Isn't it time to take a shower, go ahead, the water is already in place for you.

"Why don't you push me?" Rong Shu's red lips opened and she asked stupidly.

The man raised an eyebrow, "What is forcing you?"

Rong Shu subconsciously said what she had just thought.

The man listened, leaned over, "Oh? So you're expecting me to do that? I can satisfy you if you expect it.

When he finished, he was going to bow his head and kiss her.

Rong Shu's eyes widened sharply, and she directly pushed him away, running towards the kitchen door with a red face.

When she ran to the kitchen door, she stopped and turned to look at him, "Who is expecting, you don't say anything, I don't expect it, I just don't think it's like you, I always feel that you are not such a person who gives up easily, so I think it is strange." The man's eyes flickered.

Unexpectedly, she was so vigilant!

Seeing that the man did not speak, Rong Shu narrowed his good-looking eyes, "Fu Jingting, are you playing some ghost idea?" The man looked solemn and immediately shook his head, "No." "Really

?" Rong Shu squinted at him, obviously not very unconvinced.

But the man nodded seriously, "There really isn't, you think too much, well, you go to the shower, the water will be cold in a while."

He waved his hand and urged the woman to hurry up and leave, not to ask again.

Otherwise, what will be exposed for a while, and it is not yourself who suffers losses tonight?

So, hurry up and send the woman away.

Rong Shuhu looked at the man suspiciously, saw that there was nothing strange about the man's expression, and couldn't help but have some doubts in her heart, was it really that she thought too much?

Skimming her lips, Rong Shu had no choice but to suppress the doubts in her heart and said, "Okay, then I'll go first, but you look at the soup in the pot, don't let it spill out for a while." "Well

, you can go with confidence." The man nodded.

He can cook, and many dishes are actually better than what she makes, so Rong Shu is also very relieved to entrust these things to him.

Therefore, when he heard the man let himself be relieved to go, he did not say anything more, turned around and went outside, and went back to the bedroom to take a shower.

After she left, Fu Jingting opened the lid of the soup pot.

As soon as the lid was lifted, a fragrance, with a faint fishy smell, came directly to the face.

Fu Jingting took a step back, waited until the white smoke cleared, then returned to the pot, picked up the soup spoon and stirred it in the pot, and then scooped up a bone and looked at it carefully.

After reading it, he laughed helplessly.

“Stupid woman, do you really think you can fool me?” Fu Jingting whispered.

If he hadn't learned to cook before, he might have been deceived by her, believing that this was indeed a pig's bone.

After all, he couldn't tell the difference between pig bones and cow bones.

But now he has learned a lot of dishes, including many dishes that need to be made of beef or beef stocks, so naturally he can recognize at a glance that the bones in this pot are definitely not pork bones, but beef bones.

Not to mention, there was the fishy smell just now.

The fishy smell of pig bones is not as big as cow bones.

In saying that even if he doesn't look at it now, in a moment she will give him a bowl and bring it to him, even if the soup is deliberately removed from the bones, the taste of the soup will still be exposed, what kind of soup is this bowl.

So, what is not a stupid woman?

The man put the spoon down, covered the lid of the pot, and washed his hands out of the kitchen.

He probably knew why Rong Shu had specifically concealed that this was a cow bone.

It must be because of the bowl of soup I drank at the old house in the morning.

The bowl of soup cast a certain psychological shadow on him, and the soup was also made of the contents of the ox.

She was afraid that after he learned that it was soup made of something from cows, she recalled the fear of being dominated by the soup in the morning, so she deliberately lied to him that it was pork bones.

This stupid woman actually thought of him so vulnerably.

Although the bowl of soup in the morning did give him a certain psychological shadow, he would not be so shadowed by other things on the cow from then on.

Therefore, Rong Shu's worries are superfluous.

But she could think so much about him, and it was also her kindness, and he certainly wouldn't fail her.

Since she said it was a pig bone, he thought it was really a pig bone.

As long as she is at ease.

The man chuckled, sat down in front of the couch, and then took out his phone.

As soon as the mobile phone was taken out, the screen suddenly lit up, and it was a message from Zhang Assistant.
