Chapter 1211: Father Liu's Photo

Fu Jingting gracefully folded his legs, one arm lazily rested on the back of the sofa, the other hand held the mobile phone, and slowly clicked on the message of Zhang Assistant.

The above content is very simple, just a sentence Fu Zong, this is the photo that Miss Rong wants to see, I sent it over, please send it to Miss Rong.

Behind it is a thank-you emoji.

Above the emoji and text, there are two photos.

Fixing his eyes on it, it was suddenly Father Liu who was in the hospital, looking for a doctor to see a photo of his mouth.

Only to see in the photo, Father Liu's mouth is high and swollen, like two sausages, coupled with an angry expression, it looks extremely funny.

Fu Jingting furrowed his brows, slightly disgusted to turn off the photo, and then clicked forward it and sent it to Rong Shu's mobile phone.

Rong Shu's mobile phone was placed on the coffee table in the living room, which was directly opposite Fu Jingting.

After sending it over, Rong Shu's mobile phone immediately vibrated and the screen lit up.

Seeing the situation, the man turned off his mobile phone, also threw it on the coffee table, and then picked up the remote control, turned on the TV opposite, and watched today's news.

At the same time, the Liu family villa.

Father Liu was also sitting on the sofa, holding a folded towel in his hand and putting it on his mouth.

While applying it, he kept screaming and crying out in pain.

Mother Liu, who was sitting next to him, saw her husband look like this, not to mention how much pain she had, her eyes were red, and her tears fell down one by one, "Husband, how are you, is it really painful?"

Father

Liu listened to this and stared at her in disgust, "What do you say? Does it not hurt that I would shout like this? Because his mouth was so swollen, coupled with the fact that it was too painful, his mouth could not open and close freely.

Therefore, the words spoken are all incoherent, the urn is angry, and it sounds quite funny.

Mother Liu was murdered by Father Liu, not only did she not feel wronged, but she was even more distressed, and the tears fell even more severely, "How is this Jingting like this, how is it so cruel, you are also his brother, he is so kind to you, he simply does not have any affection, it is too much."

Father

Liu also nodded his head deeply, and his eyes were full of resentment, "Yes, I didn't expect that he would actually give me such a cruel hand, just for a woman, just like this to me, this is an insult to me!" He lived to this age, and no one dared to do anything to him except that he had been beaten by his father when he was a child.

Even if the Liu family's previous status was not as good as it is now, no one would do anything to him.

Now Fu Jingting actually let people directly do something to him, or use the way of slapping his mouth, which is not only corporal punishment, but also humiliation.

When it was passed out, how would he mix in the circle in the future, and how would he meet people?

Mother Liu took the towel that Father Liu had put on his mouth.

Seeing that the ice cubes in the towel had melted, while crying, he stuffed a few ice cubes into it over and over again, and then confidently folded them and gently applied them back to Father Liu's mouth.

Maybe because of the fresh addition of ice cubes, the towels are much colder than before.

As soon as he touched Father Liu's mouth, Father Liu was instantly frozen by a spirit, and his body trembled.

This trembling, swollen mouth and the towel came a fierce friction, the painful Liu Father directly jumped up, the atmosphere of the towel smashed on Liu Mother's body, angrily and red roared, "What are you doing?" Can you be careful, are you afraid that I am not seriously injured, ah? Liu's mother's back was smashed with pain, but she did not dare to resent half a point, nor did she want to resent, so she quickly picked up the towel and stood up, looking at Father Liu with an apologetic face, "I'm sorry husband, I didn't mean it, are you okay?" I look"

She reached out to check on Father Liu's condition, but with one hand she was impatiently slapped away by Father Liu.

With a snap, the back of Mother Liu's hand was patted red.

At this time, Mother Liu was also somewhat aggrieved in her heart, bowed her head and did not speak, and her heart was even more angry and dissatisfied with Rong Shu.

In her opinion, if it were not for Rong Shu, her husband would not have been so kind to herself.

If Rong Shu did not appear in front of Jing Ting and did not use those dirty means to threaten Jing Ting's compound, then Jing Ting would be their Lin Lin's.

Their Liu family and the Fu family are the best kinship relationship, even if it is like Linlin can't courtship now, every day is depressed, their Liu family is also shaken by Rong Shu, so that her husband also began to sprinkle all resentment and injustice on her.

All of this is tolerated.

Mother Liu squeezed the towel in her hand, and her face was a little twisted in thought.

At this moment, two footsteps came from the stairs of the villa, accompanied by an old and dissatisfied voice, "What did you two just do?" Hearing the old man's voice, Father Liu and Mother Liu immediately looked solemn and both turned around.

Old Liu was coming down from the stairs with an old face, and Liu Linlin was obediently holding his arm.

"Dad." Father Liu and Mother Liu hurriedly shouted at the old man.

Elder Liu and Liu Linlin came down from the upstairs and slowly walked to the husband and wife and sat down opposite each other.

The husband and wife also turned around with the movement of the two, and finally saw the grandfather and grandson sit down, which also followed the seat.

"Dad, how did you get down?" Father Liu swollen a sausage mouth and asked with a smile.

Mother Liu quietly poured tea on the side, "Dad, you drink tea."

Elder

Liu took the teacup she handed and took a sip of tea, then he snorted coldly and said, "You are arguing so badly downstairs, my old man has heard it upstairs, how can you say I can't come down to see what happened?" Say, what were you guys just arguing about.

"Yes, Mommy and Daddy, you are arguing below, and my grandfather and I can't discuss things with peace of mind, and I thought something was wrong with you, so I hurried down to check it out." Liu Linlin muttered a mouth, slightly worried about looking at the parents opposite.

But if you look closely, you can see that in addition to worrying about them on her lips and expressions, there is no worry in her eyes, but some are dissatisfied.

Especially when he saw Liu Father's mouth and Liu Mother's only promises, his heart was even more disgusted.

Although his parents were very fond of themselves, they were eager to pluck the moon in the sky for themselves.

But I just can't see them from the bottom of my heart.

The father she wants is powerful and incomprehensible, and the mother she wants is elegant and gentle, not the pair in front of her, a stupid and foolish father, who often loses his face, a cowardly and timid mother who is afraid to mention.

Having such parents is really her biggest failure for Liu Linlin.

Of course, Liu Linlin thought so in her heart, but she did not show half a point on her face.

After all, no matter what, she also needs the parents' unlimited love for herself, and she also needs to use them to charge for herself, so that she can hide behind her back and give advice, and she doesn't have to do everything herself.

Therefore, if they directly show their dislike for them in their hearts, even if they will still be good to her daughter in their hearts, they will have some knots.

Then in the future, if they want them to do something for themselves, they will also think twice instead of agreeing to it.

Liu's father and mother Liu did not know Liu Linlin's calculations in her heart, and thought that her daughter was really worried about them, and one by one she was touched and comforted.

“No, no, baby daughter, you have a lot of heart, I didn’t have anything wrong with your mother, just quarreled twice, you don’t worry.” Father Liu smiled and looked at Liu Linlin like a fool and replied.

Mother Liu also nodded hurriedly, and responded gently, “Yes Linlin, your father is right, we are fine.”

“Since it’s all right, Grandpa and I will be relieved.” Liu Linlin patted her chest and let out a slight breath, looking at the appearance of being at ease.

Chapter 1212: Never Let Go of Her

Father Liu and Mother Liu were more and more touched and warm-hearted when they saw their daughter who cared so much.

It is worthy of their intimate little cotton jacket.

“All right.” Looking at the appearance of his son and daughter-in-law, Elder Liu began to be disgusted, “Tell me, what did you just argue about?” The old father asked, Father Liu did not dare not answer, hurriedly replied, “Not this woman is not this woman, it is not good to put on my mouth, I am angry in pain, this is not what I did not hold, I quarreled with him twice.”

Mother

Liu did not dare to look at the old man’s expression, and could only quickly nod her head and admit her mistake, “I did not do well, it is my fault, I will pay attention to it in the future.”

Seeing her mother so low, Liu Linlin became more and more contemptuous in her heart, snorted and turned her head to the side, without the slightest intention of speaking for her.

Elder Liu looked at Liu Linlin like this, what flashed in his eyes, and soon disappeared, and he said lightly, “Okay, a small thing, the noise is so loud, that we still think something is wrong, in the future, this kind of small thing don’t roar blindly, noisy.” “

Yes.” The husband and wife bowed their heads together in response.

Elder Liu glanced at Father Liu’s sausage mouth, “But your mouth is really serious, Jing Ting’s hands are really fierce, and he doesn’t give me any face to the old man.”

Speaking of this, while Elder Liu was dissatisfied with Fu Jingting in his heart, he also raised a little panic.

Although Jingting ignored the Liu family in the past two days, which made him feel embarrassed, he did not have a panic mood.

After all, Jing Ting said that he wanted to break with the Liu family, but he didn't really do anything to their Liu family, and he didn't even withdraw some cooperation.

For this reason, he felt that the so-called rupture was most likely really Jing Ting's angry words, and he probably knew some of the things that the Liu family had done through the prestige of the Fu family over the years, and wanted to give the Liu family a warning.

Otherwise, why didn't Jingting directly break off the cooperation? Publicly have nothing to do with the Liu family?

That's why he hasn't been in a hurry to find opportunities and wants to reconcile with Jing Ting.

But now, Jing Ting's direct attack on his son made his thoughts less certain.

Maybe it was really that he thought too much, Jing Ting really wanted to break with the Liu family, rather than simply warn them to restrain a little.

Therefore, his heart finally began to panic and tense, and he had a sense of crisis.

"Yes Grandpa, this time Jingting brother is indeed a little too much, you look at Daddy's mouth, it will certainly not get better for a long time, how can Jingting brother be like this?" Liu Linlin hugged Liu Lao's arm, and the cute doll's face was full of grievances.

Her grievances at this time are not pretended, but from the heart.

But she did not wronged her father for being injured, but for herself.

Even though she despised her father in her heart, he was always her father no matter what.

Jing Ting's brother beat her father like this, and it was clear that he would tell the Liu family that he did not even want to see her father, let alone her daughter.

Did Brother Jingting dislike her so much?

But Fan Jingting's brother liked her a little and would not beat her father.

Hitting her father was also punching her in the face!

For a time, Liu Linlin's heart was not only aggrieved, but also sad.

I am sad that I am sincere, but I am never looked at in the eyes.

Elder Liu felt his granddaughter's sadness and patted her head painfully, "Okay Linlin, don't be sad, it will be fine in the future, and Jingting will obey our Liu family's words in the future." "Really , Grandpa?" Liu Linlin's eyes were red as she looked at Elder Liu.

Old Liu narrowed his eyes and nodded his head affirmatively, "Really, you can rest assured, Grandpa knows Jingting, as long as you are with Jingting, when Jingting really falls in love with you, he will pluck his heart and lungs out of our Liu family, he is a very affectionate, but extremely short-term person." Listening to Elder Liu's words, Liu Linlin clenched her fists and smiled, "I believe in your grandfather, you can rest assured, I will definitely get Jingting Brother, not only for myself, but also for the Liu family, I will definitely get Jingting Brother, as long as I get Jingting Brother, I will let him fall in love with me, even if it is by hypnosis." There is no rumor in the circle that Jingting's brother was with Gu Manyin before, because Gu Manyin hypnotized Jingting's brother.

Although she did not know whether the rumors were true or not, the word hypnosis gave her a good idea.

Maybe she can really learn from it?

Liu Linlin's eyes showed a look of madness, Rao was a person like Liu Lao, who had experienced countless storms and rains, and at this moment, he was surprised to see the madness in his granddaughter's eyes, and a bad premonition vaguely arose.

Directly tell Elder Liu that such madness as granddaughter is not good, and perhaps in the end, it will cause something bigger.

But soon, this sanity was suppressed by the future glory and wealth of the Liu family.

Compared with the future development of the Liu family, how about going to the extreme?

Thinking like this, the unhappiness in Elder Liu's heart completely dissipated, and was replaced by relief and satisfaction with his granddaughter's consciousness, "Yes, it is worthy of my granddaughter." Hearing Elder Liu's support, Liu Linlin became more and more determined that her idea was right and correct, and the smile on her face became more and more intense.

On the other side, Father Liu, who couldn't understand the dumb riddles of his grandfather and grandson, didn't bother to ask about them.

He was now full of the insults and injuries he had received, and said with a swollen mouth of resentment, "Dad, the reason why I will be treated like this by Jing Ting, it must be that Rong Shu that woman instigated me behind my back, when I was beaten, I personally heard the person who beat me say that it was my mouth that was too dirty, and scolded the woman, which caused Jing Ting to get angry and attack me, so it must be that woman who knew that I scolded her and let Jing Ting do this. Otherwise, Jing Ting wouldn't have done this to me at all.

Mother Liu on the side also quickly nodded her head in agreement, "Yes Dad, no matter what, you are Jingting's teacher, my husband is Jingting's brother, even if Jingting is dissatisfied with our Liu family because of what Linlin did to Rong Shu this time, according to your relationship with Jingting, Jingting will not be so desperate, to his own brother, so in this, there must be Rong Shu's instigation, it must be Rong Shu using Jingting's handle to threaten Jingting." Let Jing Ting have to do this.

"If that's the case, then this woman is simply disgusting." Liu Linlin bit her lower lip and answered with righteous indignation, "Grandpa, we must rescue Jingting's brother from that woman's demon as soon as possible, and we absolutely cannot let this woman go."

She quickly looked at Elder Liu.

Old Man Liu's eyes were still squinting, and Old Man's hands were also slapping his knees from time to time, as if he was moaning something.

After a while, Elder Liu finally spoke, and there was pity in his voice, "Rest assured, this woman we naturally can't let go, Jingting's side, we will naturally help him get the handle back."

"That's great." Liu Linlin was greatly surprised.

Father Liu pointed to his mouth, "Dad, but before we get the handle back, we must find a way to avenge this first, and I will return all the humiliation and pain I have suffered to that woman!"

Although he also hated Fu Jingting in his heart, he hated Rong Shu even more.

After all, he still knows what Jingting means to the Liu family, so he can focus all his hatred on Rong Shu.

He scolded her, but didn't he just scold her? Without pain or itch, she actually let Jing Ting be so cruel to herself.

So, he would never let her go.

Chapter 1213: The Spooky Telephone

Up to now, Father Liu still feels that he is not wrong, and the beating he has suffered is not his own reason, it is Rong Shu's careful eyes, isn't it just a few scoldings?

It's all about what the eye is, not what the eye is.

How can such a woman be worthy of Jingting!

Not to mention Father Liu, the rest of the Liu family thought the same, especially Liu Linlin.

She didn't like this father, but anyway, it was her father, Rong Shu's father was beaten by Jingting's brother, which also didn't give her face, hit her face.

She would never let that woman go.

The strength of Liu Linlin's arm holding Liu Lao's arm gradually tightened, and her eyes were full of resentment.

When Elder Liu saw it, his heart was shocked again, but he still didn't say anything, nor did he stop his granddaughter's mentality.

In his opinion, how can a granddaughter become a big thing if she is not cruel like this?

Just like when he started, if he didn't make a little trick, how could Jing Ting become his student?

I'm afraid that his Liu family has long been lost to everyone.

"Rest assured, Rong Shu's woman of course has to deal with, but not now, now we and Jing Ting are in a state of fire, if we attack that woman again, the relationship with Jing Ting will only be worse, so even if we have ideas, we have to endure, and after we reconcile with Jing Ting in the future, it is not too late to find a way to clean up that woman." Elder Liu said, looking at Father Liu on the other side with a warning in his eyes, signaling Father Liu not to act rashly.

Father Liu touched the old father's eyes and lowered his head without saying a word.

Elder Liu saw the situation, and only then did he close his eyes back, "Linlin, you too, don't confront that woman for the time being, everything is waiting and seeing first."

At this time, Elder Liu spoke to Liu Linlin, not to mention how kind and gentle he was, and when he spoke to Father Liu, it was completely two extremes.

Rao is that Father Liu doesn't care about these things, and at this moment, he can't help but feel some sour feelings in his heart.

The old father is really a double standard.

"Rest assured, Grandpa, I know." Liu Linlin looked at Elder Liu and nodded, and seriously agreed to come down.

Elder Liu patted her shoulder, "Well, Grandpa believes in you, let's look at it, this woman's enemy family is not just our Liu family, the Gu family is still looking at the tiger, although I don't know what the Gu family is hesitating about in the past two months, why has it not been to this woman, but I believe that one day, between the Gu family and this woman, you will definitely die and I will die, and if we shoot again at this time, we can completely step on that woman." Let her never be a stumbling block for you again.

After Liu Linlin heard Elder

Liu's words, her eyes lit up and she smiled, "What Grandpa said is that there are some hatreds, don't be in a hurry to report them now, there will be opportunities in the future."

She looked into the void, her eyes full of ambition.

Wait, Jingting's brother is hers, and it can only be hers!

Rong Shu did not know that dozens of kilometers away, the Liu family was discussing how to deal with her behind her back.

She came out of the room after taking a shower and wiping her hair, and suddenly a strong smell of bone broth came to her nose.

She couldn't help but put down the towel in her hand and walked toward the kitchen, and as soon as she reached the kitchen door, she saw a man standing in front of the cooking table, holding a soup spoon in his hand, stirring in the pot.

After stirring twice, he put down the spoon, picked up a few slices of green onion from the board and threw them into the pot.

After doing this, the man re-covered the pot, pulled off the wet towel on the side, wiped his hands, and turned around.

As soon as Pu turned around, he saw the woman standing in the doorway smiling at herself, and the man shook his head slightly, and then slightly raised his thin lips and raised a shallow smile, "Finished?"

“Well, after washing, I saw that you weren’t in the living room and smelled the soup again, and I guessed that you were here, so come and see, you are there.” 』 Rong Shu smiled and replied.

The man came over and took her hand and walked outside, “Didn’t you make me look at the soup?” So I can’t come in too often? Just threw your chopped shallots and dried goods into it.

“I saw it.” Rong Shu nodded, and then thought of something, his footsteps were slight, and he looked at the man sideways, his eyes were a little evasive, “You shouldn’t recognize what kind of bone it is, right?” The man listened to her cautious inquiry, and a smile flashed in his eyes, but his face made a dazed look, “Are you asking about the bones of some animal?”

Rong Shu was just about to answer, and the man said, “Didn’t you say that you were a pig bone in the afternoon?” Now suddenly ask this, is it not the big bone of the pig?

He lowered his head slightly and stared into the woman’s eyes.

Rong Shu was afraid that the mood in her eyes would be seen by the man, and she quickly turned her eyes away in a panic and laughed, “Of course, it is a pig bone, how can it be other animal bones, I asked wrong, I asked you if you can recognize what part of the pig bone, yes, I asked this, you don’t think too much.” Looking at the woman’s panicked look, the smile in the man’s eyes became more and more intense.

He coughed lightly against his lips, covering the corner of his lips, “I didn’t think much about it, but the bones were cut into pieces, where can I recognize what part it is, I am not Lin Tianchen, even if Lin Tianchen comes here, he probably can’t recognize it, his understanding of human bones can be deeper than that of animal bones.”

“Haha, that’s what I said.” Rong Shu smiled and was slightly relieved in her heart.

Just don’t recognize it.

Otherwise, she didn’t know how to confuse the past.

Looking at the woman’s small appearance of letting go of her heart, the man smiled lowly, reached out and rubbed her hair, “Okay, let’s go, go to the living room.”

“Hmm.” Rong Shu nodded, re-opened her feet, and was taken to the living room by the man.

As soon as I sat down, my phone rang.

Rong Shu looked up, it was a strange phone, but the display was local, so there was no refusal, picked up the mobile phone to answer, "Hello, I am Rong Shu, which one of you?" There was no sound of someone answering the phone on the other end of the phone, but Rong Shu still heard some movements, it was the sound of breathing.

The breathing on the other end of the phone was a little heavy and slow, like the breathing sound of a person saying when he was emotional.

Or, it's the sound of a person's breathing in extreme anger.

But no matter what it is, listening to such breathing sounds across a phone is somewhat frightening, and it feels like the protagonist in a horror movie has received a ghost call, which is creepy.

Rong Shu couldn't help but wince.

The man was sitting on the side, making coffee.

Seeing her reaction, she stopped the movement in her hand and asked with concern, "What's wrong?" Cold?

Rong Shu shook her head, "It's not cold, it's just thinking of something terrible, so I can't help but shiver." "What terrible thing?" The man turned out the alcohol lamp, got up and came to her and sat down, holding her hand.

Feeling that her hands were actually cold at this moment, her brow suddenly frowned, "Why are your hands so cold." "

"It's okay, I just thought of something terrible, I was shocked, and it will be fine for a while." Rong Shu sighed lightly.

The man rubbed her hand and put it on his chest, "Hang up the phone quickly, warm your hands."

Rong Shu snorted, agreed, and then returned her attention to the phone again.

I don't know how, the breathing on the phone is more rapid and heavier than just now, and even faintly, it also reveals a kind of resentment and jealousy.

What's the situation?

Rong Shu endured the cold and said to the phone with a small frown and a bad tone, "Hello, I don't know if you are deliberately playing a prank to scare me, but it doesn't matter, please don't call again in the future." With that, she was ready to hang up the phone and drag the number into the blacklist.

Chapter 1214: Su Man provokes

But at this moment, the person on the other end of the phone actually spoke, "Rong Shu! It was a woman's voice.

Although the voice was hoarse, like the sound of a very broken bellows, it was indeed a woman's.

And she immediately recognized the owner of the voice.

Su Man!

"It's you, Su Man!" Rong Shu stood up in surprise.

The man's eyes narrowed, too, staring dangerously at her phone.

Obviously, he was surprised by Rong Shu, and he didn't expect that this phone call was actually from this woman.

On the other end of the phone, Su Man sat on the hospital bed in the hospital ward like a crazy woman, with a twisted face and a wild smile on the phone, "It's me, I didn't imagine it, it was the phone I called you."

Rong Shu didn't ask Su Man how he knew his phone number, after all, this was a very stupid question.

Su Man is the daughter of Sioux City, so it is naturally a very simple thing to get her phone.

So, there is no need to ask.

However, she was still somewhat interested in the purpose of Su Man's call.

"I really didn't expect you to call me, so?" What do you want to express? Rong Shu had calmed down at this moment, and after sipping her red lips, she sat back down on the sofa.

The man's arm rested on the back of the sofa behind her, which also took her in his arms, and then listened to the call with her.

On the phone, Su Man squeezed the mobile phone deadly, because he hated it too much, his teeth were grinding and crunching, "Rong Shu, I didn't expect that I would have a day to come out, right?"

Rong Shu raised an eyebrow, "You called and wanted to tell me this?" Tell me, you're out?

Speaking of this, she sneered amusedly, "If this is the case, then I don't think you need to, how did you come out, I know in my heart, it was I and Jing Ting who agreed to sign the letter of understanding, you came out, so you came to show off in front of me, isn't it humiliating yourself?" On the other end of the phone, the pride on Su Man's face suddenly froze, and the words that were supposed to be said were suddenly stuck in his throat, and he couldn't say anything.

Obviously, she didn't expect what came out of her, and Rong Shu already knew it.

Even the reason why he was able to come out was Rong Shu's handwriting.

She thought that only Su Cheng and Fu Jingting, thinking that she could come out, was Fu Jingting carrying the letter of understanding signed by Rong Shu.

After all, she had ruined the dress, and how much Rong Shu hated her, she knew that the woman would never let her out.

Therefore, she never thought that there was still Rong Shu's participation in this, thinking that only Fu Jingting's.

Because I felt that Rong Shu would not let her out, I also felt that Rong Shu would not sign with Fu Jingting, so Fu Jingting naturally had to sign behind Rong Shu's back.

She always thought that this was the case, so tonight she would make this phone call and laugh at Rong Shu, laughing at her even if she was with Fu Jingting, wasn't Fu Jingting still hiding something from her?

She thought that Rong Shu would definitely be hit hard when she heard this, so that all the pain and torture she had endured in the detention center for the past ten days had barely gained some comfort.

But the result? Things were completely different from what she thought, this thing was not done by Fu Jingting behind Rong Shu's back, but by the two of them together, and she foolishly thought that Rong Shu did not know, and wanted to laugh at Rong Shu.

But in the end, it was ridiculed by Rong Shu in turn.

It was like someone slapping her in the face, making her face hurt at the same time, but also very unable to get off the stage, just out of the police station and lost face in Rong Shu's hands, it seems that she is the stupidest person in the world.

The more he thought about it, the more angry he became, and Su Man's breathing began to become rapid again, and Rong Shu was terrified to hear it.

"Okay Su Man, since you have finished showing off now, then I also congratulate you on leaving the police station, since you are out, then reform and re-behave as a person, I hung up first."

After speaking, she quickly hung up the phone.

She didn't want Su Man to really be angry with herself when she was talking to herself, it wasn't her fault, it had become her fault.

This black cauldron, she didn't want to carry.

Moreover, who knows if Su Man is deliberate, originally in bad health, deliberately making this phone call, letting himself be angry with her, and then touching the porcelain with the trend?

Either way, she couldn't talk to the woman for too long.

In saying, take that woman angry, she is also very happy.

Rong Shu smiled and put down the phone, turning her head to tell the man.

As a result, as soon as he turned his head, his lips met the man's thin lips.

Rong Shu was immediately stunned, and then reacted, and immediately shrank her head back.

Otherwise, it will be too late.

Yet she still ignored the man's speed.

Just as she had the thought of withdrawing, the man's large hand immediately grabbed the back of her head, interrupted her retreat, and then deepened the kiss.

Rong Shu couldn't help but roll his eyes at the moment when the man pried open his teeth, and his heart said surely.

If he did not evacuate quickly, he would be pulled by the dog man and kissed deeply.

As it turned out, she guessed right.

But I guessed correctly, did not withdraw in time, or was caught by the dog man.

Rong Shu sighed in her heart, but did not push the man away.

She knew that men belonged to the kind of people who ate soft and did not eat hard, and who had to go inches and inches.

If you rush to push him away at this time, he will certainly not let go of you, but will only kiss you breathlessly.

But if at this time, you ignore him and let him kiss himself, it won't be long before he will be satisfied and let go.

Sure enough, as Rong Shu thought, without her struggling, the man was quickly satisfied and slowly let her go.

The man wiped the corners of his mouth with his thumb and looked at the blushing woman with a full face, "Baby, I didn't expect you to be so active."

Rong Shu glanced at him angrily, "Whoever took the initiative, obviously you came together, as soon as I turned my head, it was all your fault, who let you get so close at that time."

If she knew that the man was so close at that time, she wouldn't immediately turn her head and let him take advantage.

The man chuckled, "I didn't expect you to suddenly turn around, but yes, I like it." Of course you like it.

Rong Shu gave him a blank look again, and then waved his hand, "Okay, don't tell you this, did you hear the phone call just now?"

"Heard a little." Fu Jingting gracefully folded his legs.

Rong Shu seemed to think of happy things, and laughed, "Just now Su Man thought I didn't know that she came out, deliberately came to show off with me, and heard me say that I already knew, and after she came out and had my credit, she didn't speak in an instant, although I couldn't see her expression, but I could imagine that her expression at that time must be ugly, if I wasn't afraid of making her angry, I would be jointly responsible." I wouldn't hang up the phone so quickly, and I would have to choke her up enough. Seeing the woman laughing so happily, Fu Jingting raised his hand to touch her hair, and his eyes also smiled.

This is probably the sentence that she is making trouble, he is laughing.

"Well, you're doing well." The man said softly.

Rong Shu leaned on his shoulder, "I really didn't expect Su Man to get carried away as soon as she came out, ran over to call and provoke me, and ended up losing face with me, I believe that in the next long time, she will die." She had a smile in her eyes.

But Fu Jingting, who was stroking her head, turned cold.

Chapter 1215: Help with a drink

"Although you have her off now, then, be careful." The man's voice was cold and open.

Rong Shu raised her head and looked at the man's perfect side face, "You mean" "

Her phone call is not simply to provoke you, but to declare war." Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes.

Rong Shu pursed her lips, "Declaration of war? The man raised his chin, "She told you again that since she called you provocatively when she first came out, she was obviously telling you that she would not let go of everything she had suffered, and that she would seek revenge on you."

Rong Shu smiled angrily, "She still has the face to seek revenge on me?" These times, which time was not her first to find the stubble, obviously it was she who was wrong, but she did not reflect at all, but she still thought that I should not fight back, should not be so to her, and wanted to retaliate against me, it was really disgusting. The man patted her shoulder, "Don't take it lightly, she is not difficult to deal with, the hard thing is Sioux City behind her."

"I know, rest assured, I'll be careful." Rong Shu smiled reassuringly at the man and signaled him not to be too nervous.

But how could a man not be nervous about her, just not saying anything at this moment.

But in his heart, he had already decided to take action and get the woman of Su Man back to prison.

Sioux City has one less helper, they will also have one less opponent, and it will be much easier to deal with Sioux City in the future.

It was the first time he had taken the initiative to deal with a woman.

As a man, he never does anything to women, and he never uses despicable means to calculate a woman, which is his upbringing from childhood.

But this time, he's going to make an exception.

For the sake of Rong Shu's safety, in order to be able to better clean up Sioux City in the future, he did not want to keep some morality all the time.

After all, at such a time, adhering to morality is to shackle yourself.

Secondly, Su Man, a woman, is not worthy of his respect for upbringing and morality.

The man gently wrapped his arms around Rong Shu, and in the place where Rong Shu could not see, the man looked at the empty eyes behind her, and the extra yin was indifferent.

Rong Shu naturally couldn't feel it, after all, the man's indifference was not directed at her.

All she felt was the gentleness of a man from the heart.

Leaning into the man's warm and wide arms and listening to the man's heartbeat, she did not mention how quiet and reassuring she was.

At this moment, the smart stove in the kitchen suddenly made a dripping sound, and after three sounds, it stopped, and there was no sound.

Rong Shu hurriedly got up from the man's arms, "The time is set, the soup should be good, I will go to fry two dishes and prepare for dinner." With that, she was about to get up.

But the shoulder was pressed down by the man.

The man stood up in her puzzled gaze, "What's wrong?"

"You sit and blow dry your hair, and I'll go get the dishes." After saying that, he rubbed a handful of the woman's still somewhat wet hair, and walked to the kitchen with long legs.

Rong Shu touched the place where he had rubbed it, smiled, and obediently went to get the hair blown by the wind.

By the time she had blown her hair dry, the man had already prepared dinner.

Rong Shu walked to the table, saw the dishes on the table full of color and fragrance, leaned over and smelled it, and then gave the man a thumbs up, "Yes, Jing Ting, your cooking skills are getting better and better now." "Practice more, naturally, let's eat." The man came over and stuffed her with a pair of chopsticks.

Rong Shu pulled open the chair and sat down, saw the man who was serving the meal, suddenly thought of it, and hurriedly stopped, "Wait." The man's movement stopped, and he turned his head and looked at the woman suspiciously, "What's wrong?"

"You don't eat first, you drink soup first." With that, he got up and picked up another bowl and served the man soup.

Looking at her cheerful appearance of serving soup, Fu Jingting's thin lips twitched.

It seems that tonight this soup can not be drunk.

He put down the bowl of rice in his hand and smiled helplessly.

Well, since you can't escape, then drink it.

Anyway, as long as his grandmother made those messy soups during the day, he was not unacceptable.

What's more, this is also Lady Lu's kindness.

Rong Shu treats Lady Lu as a mother-in-law, so naturally, Lady Lu is also his mother-in-law.

How dare a son-in-law disobey his mother-in-law's words?

What if I don't let him marry his daughter?

Just thinking, a jade hand holding the soup and putting it on the bracelet in front of him.

Fu Jingting looked down, and on top of the light brown soup, there were some green onions, and he looked quite appetizing.

“Drink it.” Rong Shu sat down again, holding her chin with both hands, and looked at the man expectantly urging.

Under her watchful eye, the man picked up the soup spoon on the side, scooped a spoonful of soup, slowly put it into his mouth, and drank the soup with a calm face.

“How’s it going?” The man’s expression was really calm, and Rong Shu couldn’t see for a while whether this soup was good or not.

She personally prefers that the soup is delicious, after all, when she comes out of the shower, all she smells is a mouth-watering aroma, without any odor.

So the taste of this soup will certainly not be bad.

It’s just that she has always known that men’s requirements for food have always been relatively high, so she doesn’t know how the soup she thinks is delicious for men.

Not to mention that the raw materials of this soup also made her worry a little, worried that there would be a fishy smell or something.

After all, the fishy smell of beef bones is definitely much larger than pork bones.

If a man smells fishy and recognizes that this soup is not made of pig bones, but of cow bones, then isn’t his lie exposed?

Fu Jingting looked at the woman’s chaotic eyeballs and the panic in her eyes, and her thin lips were slightly hooked, “It’s not bad, the taste is very good.” “Is it really good?” Rong Shu bit her lower lip and asked uneasily, “Is there no other smell?” Such as fishy smell?

Fu Jingting didn’t know what she was worried about, the smile in her eyes was even worse, and then she scooped up a spoonful again and handed it to Rong Shu’s mouth, “Taste? Rong Shu glanced at the soup spoon in front of her and opened her mouth. Try it, try it.

If you don’t taste it, you can’t always be sure whether what the man says is true or false, so you can still taste yourself to be assured. drank the soup handed by the man, and Rong Shu’s eyes instantly lit up, “Delicious! She had a look of surprise on her face, and then looked at the soup on the table, her eyes full of joy, “I didn’t expect it to be so delicious.” Originally

, she was worried that after stewing, there would be some fishy smell. After all, when I first started to cook soup, a strong fishy smell seeped out from the bones, and I couldn't wash it off. That's why I am so worried that after a man drinks a fishy smell, he won't drink it. Unexpectedly, all this was actually too much to think about. Seeing Rong Shu staring at the pot of soup, as if he had discovered some unique treasure, Fu Jingting's heart seemed to be poked by a love arrow, so cute that his breathing stopped. How can it be so cute? Fu Jingting's throat knot slid twice, and his voice was slightly hoarse, "Let's have a drink?" "Okay." Rong Shu didn't even think about it, and immediately agreed to come down. The man took her empty bowl and was about to serve her soup. She reacted suddenly, grabbing the man's wrist in a hurry, "Wait, forget it." "Why?" The man frowned. Rong Shu sipped her red lips, "This soup is specially made for you, I will not grab it, or you drink it, I will not drink it." That being said, her eyes kept falling on the pot of soup and never moved away. Seeing that she was so duplicitous, the man laughed lowly, "So much soup, where did I drink it alone, saying that my aunt is not there, who knows that you also drank it?" So how about you help me have a drink? Well? "

Chapter 1216: Deliberately looking at my jokes

Rong Shu looked at the soup handed by the man, and then looked at the man's begging eyes, and finally his heart was crossed, he nodded, and agreed, "Well, since you said so, then I will reluctantly help you drink it."

She 'reluctantly' took the bowl, picked up the soup spoon on the side, scooped a spoonful of soup into her mouth, and immediately narrowed her eyes happily.

Delicious!

Looking at the woman's appearance of drinking soup, the man shook his head with a low smile, "Well, then thank you Xiaoyezi for helping." Rong Shu listened to the man's thanks, her heart was a little weak, and the tips of her ears were red, but her face still pretended to be indifferent and self-assured, and replied, "Nothing, I am also afraid of waste, well, you drink it." After saying that , she lowered her head and continued to drink the soup, hiding her embarrassment.

Yes, sorry.

In fact, she also knew that the man said this on purpose, in order to let her drink some soup and not to brush her face.

And she didn't have a good word to agree, so she deliberately said a few words to help her.

In fact, they all know that there is nothing that cannot be drunk, and there is nothing difficult to do.

It is purely a person who wants her to drink, and one who wants to drink and is embarrassed to say it directly, so he has made this drama.

And her face is thin, and she will naturally look embarrassed.

The man looked at Rong Shu drinking soup spoon by spoon, and his eyes were full of spoiled smiles.

How could he not take the initiative for her to drink soup so quickly, in order to cover up his embarrassment.

Since she wanted to cover up, he wouldn't expose her, she was so cute like this.

The two of them ate dinner quietly.

Rong Shu packed up the dishes and chopsticks, put them in the dishwasher, and then washed her hands and came out of the kitchen.

As soon as he came out, the man suddenly stood in front of her, slightly bent his knees, and hugged her sideways.

The body lost its center of gravity and took off, Rong Shu did not have the slightest psychological preparation, screamed in fright, and subconsciously wrapped her arms around the man's neck to avoid falling down.

The man looked at her frightened little face white, as if she had been pleased, and laughed lowly.

The voice is good, sexy and sensual.

His laughter also made Rong Shu relax and realize that he was picked up by a man, not a sudden supernatural event, so there was no need to make a fuss.

Realizing this, Rong Shu suddenly breathed a sigh of relief, and then released Fu Jingting's neck and looked at the man holding him in a bad mood, "Fu Jingting, what are you doing, scared me to death."

Fu Jingting looked down at her and smiled, but did not answer.

Rong Shu only felt that his laughter was penetrating, and there was a bad premonition, she patted his chest, "What are you laughing at, hurry up and let me down." "Don't let go." The man shook his head and answered immediately.

Rong Shu's bad premonition in her heart grew deeper, and she swallowed and asked, "What do you want to do again, I tell you, don't mess around." The man's thin lips hooked, "I don't want to mess around, I just want to do a sport with you." "Do sports?" Rong Shu was stunned at first, then her neck fell back, looking at the man's eyes more vigilantly, "What exercise do you want to do?" "Couldn't it be which?"

It seemed to see what Rong Shu was thinking in his heart, and the man's smile deepened, and the meaning was self-evident.

Rong Shu's eyes widened.

It really is.

No, absolutely not!

Rong Shu shook her head and struggled, wanting to get out of the man's arms, "Fu Jingting, don't even think about it, I only accompanied you in the old mansion last night, tonight is definitely not OK, besides, during the day in the old house, you made me bad breath for several hours, I said that you don't even want to enter the bedroom tonight, you can only sleep in the living room sofa, so you still want to talk to me, there is no door, let me down, hear no!" The man ignored her words and put her down, "You said so, but I didn't agree from the beginning to the end, so tonight on this sofa, I will definitely not sleep, and I forgot to tell you that the soup that my grandmother made me cook during the day is very effective, although I didn't drink much, but the effect has been there, so."

"Fu Jingting, who are you cheating on?" Rong Shu interrupted him in a bad way, and at the same time couldn't help but roll her eyes at him, "How long did you drink the soup?" It was drunk in the morning, now it is evening, even if there is an effect, it will not be now, I do not believe that the effect of the soup can be delayed, and delay it for such a long time, don't treat me like a fool!

Fu Jingting was silent.

Well, this point is indeed that he did not think thoughtfully.

No one believes.

Seeing that the man was speechless by himself, Rong Shu raised a proud little expression on his face and patted the man's arm, "Quickly let me down, if I am not worried that your arm is not good, I will not care so much directly down."

Fu Jingting smiled lightly, "I know that you are good for me, but I still won't let you go, you are right, the soup was drunk in the morning, how come it will not take effect until now, but if you add the soup just now?"

Rong Shu chuckled in his heart, "Just the soup? What, what does it mean? The man saw her vague and panicked look, smiled more intensely, faintly, and also revealed an evil charm, "Meaning, do you really think that I don't know that the soup I drank tonight is not a pig bone pot at all, but a cow bone pot?"

Rong Shu's pupils contracted suddenly, "You know what? The man was noncommittal.

Rong Shu's mouth opened for a long time before she made a sound, "When did you know?"

"When you go to the shower, I look at the pot, if I can't cook, I may not really know what kind of bone it is, but you can calculate that I can cook, so you can recognize, even if you can't recognize it, you can recognize it by smell, after all, beef and pork smell is completely different, unless there is a problem with the nose, or a fool can't recognize it." J

The corners of Rong Shu's mouth twitched and twitched.

According to what he meant, is that she the fool?

After all, she can also cook, but she forgot that people who can cook can recognize the difference between cow bones and pig bones, and can also distinguish the difference in smell between the two.

However, not only did she not realize such an obvious problem, but she also loudly lied to him that this was a cow bone, which did not mean that she was a fool.

Rong Shu covered her face, "Well, you don't have a face to see people, since you recognized it long ago, but you deliberately pretended not to recognize it when I tried to test it repeatedly, I believe that it is pig bones, what do you mean?" Is it not deliberately looking at me jokes!

She opened her eyes slightly, glaring at him hard, her eyes full of condemnation.

The man laughed softly, "No, I just don't want you to worry, I know that you will hide, is worried about what I have done during the day, so for the soup made of the things on the cow, there will be a rejection, so I deliberately tried to hide me, I in order not to let your concealment be in vain, this is not deliberately as no." "You know what? "Hmm

, that's a good thing to say, who knows if you're laughing at me when you look at me and test you again and again." Rong Shu pursed her mouth and hummed unhappily.

The man saw this and looked down and pecked at her red lips.

"You," Rong Shu looked at the man in disbelief, "you have seized the opportunity to take advantage of me again." The man licked his lips and replied with a smile, "I didn't laugh at you, on the contrary, I like to act with you, it's fun." "Where it's funny, you're just kidding me." Rong Shu patted the man's chest with resentment and muttered quietly.

"This is not." The man shook his head, "I really just don't want to embarrass you, trust me."

He made her look him in the eye.

Rong Shu saw seriousness in his eyes, and actually believed it in his heart, but he didn't want to admit it on his mouth, and hummed twice.

The man carried her to the room.

Rong Shu's body immediately stiffened, "Fu Jingting, I order you to stop quickly."

Of course, the man could not listen to her and stop, still holding her and walking to the room, "Didn't I say, drinking this soup at night stimulated the effect of the soup drunk during the day, so baby, I can't stop."

At the same time as the words fell, he kicked his calf and the door opened.

Rong Shu shouted loudly, "Fu Jingting, I believe you are a ghost, you are simply an excuse, I have not heard that the effect of the soup will remain in the body and be stimulated by other things." The man let out a low laugh, "Hear it now?" In short, I will not let go of you.

"Fu Jingting!" Rong Shu yelled again.

This time, however, her roar was quickly cut off by the bedroom door.

This night, Rong Shu once again experienced the man's extreme physical strength last night, and finally fell asleep tiredly in the man's arms.

She made the man stop several times, she didn't want to continue any longer, she couldn't stand it.

But the dog man said that he couldn't stop, and the effect of the soup had not yet dissipated, so he had to continue.

Hehe, the effect of what soup has not yet dissipated, it is simply an excuse made by the dog man.

Bah!

Rong Shu snorted at the man in the last lesson of sleeping.

No way, the dog man is too inhuman, she can't help it.

However, even so, the man still did not let her go, and when she slept, the man was not over.

It wasn't until half an hour later that the man finally released and stopped, picked her up and went to the bathroom.

Fu Jingting put Rong Shu into the bathtub where the water was placed, and went to rinse herself under the shower.

Probably the warm bathtub is too comfortable, even Rong Shu, who can't wake up from sleep, can't help but raise a comfortable smile on her face at this time, leaning her head on the edge of the bathtub, and sleeping more peacefully.

Fu Jingting glanced at her, saw her little blushing and sleeping soundly, smiled softly in her eyes, picked up the shower head and continued to bathe.

Put the sleeping Rong Shu in the bathtub and take a bath on the side, Fu Jingting is not worried that Rong Shu will slide into the water and choke on water.

After all, this bathtub is specially designed to have the effect of fixing the body.

Even if you fall asleep, you won't slide into the water.

Therefore, Fu Jingting dared to throw Rong Shu into the bathtub with confidence and take a bath by himself.

After taking a bath, Fu Jingting did not rush forward to help Rong Shu wash, but after putting on a bathrobe, he went straight out of the bathroom and returned to the bedroom.

He stood by the bed, bent down to tear off all the bedding on the bed, threw it on the ground, and then walked to the wardrobe, opened the wardrobe, took out clean bedding from it and changed it again.

After doing this, he picked up the dirty bedding on the floor again, went to the laundry room, threw these into the washing machine to start the cleaning mode, and then returned to the bathroom, squatted on the edge of the bathtub, and bathed the woman.

Fu Jingting bathed Rong Shu very patiently and gently, as if he treated a rare treasure with care, for fear of hurting her.

By the time Rong Shu finished bathing and carried her back to the room, it was already four o'clock in the morning.

Fu Jingting gently put Rong Shu on the bed and covered her with a quilt, so that she had time to look at her mobile phone.

The moment you turn on the phone, a message suddenly pops up and is clearly visible on the screen.

The message was sent by Assistant Zhang, and the time showed that it was three hours ago, that is, around twelve o'clock in the morning.

Fu Jingting knows Assistant Zhang very well, if it is not an important matter, Assistant Zhang will definitely not send him a message at such a late hour.

It can be seen that there must be something big in the message.

Fu Jingting stood by the bed, holding a white towel in one hand to wipe the wet hair on his head, holding a mobile phone in the other hand, and unlocking the screen lock.

The lights in the room were dim, and the screen that suddenly lit up in the room seemed unusually bright.

The light of the screen shines on the man's handsome face, making the man have a little more mysterious temperament in the dim environment, and he looks more dazzling.

However, the next moment, the man's expression suddenly changed slightly, becoming gloomy, and his eyebrows were tightly locked.

Just because the content on the phone Fu Zong, identified it, Su Man and Su Cheng, not father and daughter.

During the day, Assistant Zhang said that he had obtained a DNA sample from Su Cheng, and he could do a paternity test with Su Man's DNA sample to confirm whether these two people were real father and daughter.

Now the results of the identification are out, showing that they are not really father-daughter relationship.

When he saw this result, Fu Jingting did not show any surprise, just because he actually had an answer in his heart, and he had long guessed that these two people were not father-daughter relationships, but they had not been confirmed.

Now that it has been confirmed, there is only a feeling in my heart that I really feel like this, and there is no other feeling.

He had long guessed through the way these two people got along in the police station, and guessed that these two people could not be father and daughter, if Su Man was really Su Cheng's daughter, would Su Cheng be so indifferent to her?

Su Man, will you be afraid of Su City?

Even if it is an illegitimate daughter, she is also her own daughter, her only offspring, Su Cheng is cold-blooded, and it is impossible for even her only offspring to be so indifferent.

So he was thinking that these two people could not be father and daughter.

Now that's not the case.

Seeing such a result, Fu Jingting did not feel a little happy for his mother in his heart, even if Su Cheng did not get an illegitimate daughter, it is also a fact that Su Cheng violated the agreement with his mother and cheated without his mother's knowledge.

So there are no illegitimate children, Sioux City is still the same slag.

The reason why he wanted to determine whether these two people were really father-daughter relationship was not for his mother, because there was no meaning and no need.

He just wanted to know that if these two people were not father-daughter relationships, why did Su Cheng let Su Man pretend to be his daughter, and what was the purpose?

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, secretly pondered for a while, walked out of the room with a light step, gently closed the door and came to the balcony of the living room, and then called Assistant Zhang.

Within two seconds of the call, Assistant Zhang answered, as if he was specifically waiting for Fu Jingting's call, so he never rested, and his voice was undisguised tired, "Mr. Fu." Great

, Mr. Fu finally saw his news and called over.

Whoops , he was so happy that he finally didn't have to wait any longer.

He originally thought that he would have to wait at least until dawn, in which case he would not even have to sleep.

Fortunately, God still loves him and doesn't really treat him so cruelly.

Assistant Zhang thought with emotion in his heart.

On the other end of the phone, Fu Jingting naturally heard Assistant Zhang's tiredness and sleepiness, was silent for a moment, and coughed lightly and said, "Sorry, let you wait for so long, next time unless it is a group accident or something related to Xiaoyezi, you don't have to wait for my call for other things, sleep by yourself." Hearing

Fu Jingting's faint words, Assistant Zhang's eyes widened in disbelief and he was stunned.

What's the situation?

Mr. Fu was taken away?

Assistant Zhang swallowed his saliva in disbelief, unable to believe what he had just heard.

Mr. Fu actually said that in the future, as long as it is not the Fu Group and Miss Rong's affairs, other things, there is no need to wait for Mr. Fu's call, you can go to rest!

God, that's not true, is it?

I'm not dreaming, am I?

When did President Fu become so reasonable and so caring about his subordinate?

You must know that before the change, Mr. Fu didn't care how long his subordinate waited, whether he was tired or not, even if he noticed that he was tired, he would not be reasonable, just like a person without feelings.

But now, President Fu will actually be considerate of his subordinate.

Whoops, he was simply so impressed.

This is definitely Miss Rong's credit, after Mr. Fu and Miss Rong were officially together, they began to gradually care about the people below.

He was really grateful to Miss Rong.

Assistant Zhang thought excitedly in his heart, but his face was still very calm, after all, he was a professional special assistant, and he absolutely could not show any of his private emotions.

Especially when talking to your boss about business.

"Okay, I know Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang nodded in response to Fu Jingting's words.

Fu Jingting sighed lightly, and then narrowed his eyes, "You sent it to me a few hours ago, is it credible?"

Assistant

Zhang pushed the gold-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose, "Mr. Fu, that appraisal was personally stared at the results, the credibility is 100%, Su Cheng and Su Man, it is indeed not father and daughter."

God knows how shocked he was when he saw the result.

Even when Mr. Fu asked him to find a way to collect DNA samples from these two people and do a paternity test for these two people to see if they were real father and daughter, he was not so surprised.

In fact, at that time, he also suspected in his heart that these two people might not really be father and daughter.

After all, Mr. Fu is not the kind of person who let him investigate without a certain certainty.

He has always trusted Mr. Fu very much, so Mr. Fu suspects that they are not father and daughter, so they are most likely not.

Therefore, he was also mentally prepared, but even if he was mentally prepared, the shock in his heart at the moment he saw the result was still beyond expectations.

Thinking of this, Assistant Zhang took a breath and asked, "President Fu, did you say that Su Cheng knew that Su Man was not his daughter?"

"What do you say?" Fu Jingting spat out three words indifferently.

Assistant Zhang was silent.

Nonsense, of course you know.

In fact, as soon as his question just came out, Assistant Zhang reacted and asked what a stupid question he asked.

What kind of person is Su Cheng, a ruthless person who is scheming and calculates others for many years but makes people unable to catch the handle, how can he not know whether he has a daughter or not.

As long as Su Man dares to pretend to be Su Cheng's daughter, Su Cheng will definitely not let her go.

After all, pretending to be Su Cheng's daughter means that Su Man is playing Su Cheng and calculating Su Cheng, how can a ruthless person like Su Cheng let Su Man go.

is saying, when someone comes to recognize relatives, the first time is to do a paternity test, so Su Man really dares to pretend, the paternity test will not pass the pass, how can he live until now.

And now, it has been confirmed that Su Man is not Su Cheng's daughter, but Su Cheng still announced that she is his own daughter, which can only show that Su Man is still calculating Su City, but Su Cheng can't stop coming to see Su Man's purpose.

Either this is Su Cheng's plan from beginning to end, Su Cheng found Su Man, said that the other party was his own daughter, deceived Su Man, so as to achieve some of his own goals.

Assistant Zhang is very inclined to the latter possibility.

If you want to know the purpose of Su Man pretending to be his daughter, why do you want Su Man to come to the sea market?

Just stay in the capital and send someone to monitor?

Bring the sea market to keep surveillance?

How can it be!

That old thing in Su City, at first glance, is a life-sparing person, how can it be possible to put a person who does not know the purpose of the side to monitor, in case Su Man is a killer sent by the enemy family to kill himself, then put it around, wouldn't it be a death?

So it definitely can't be the former, only the latter.

Su Cheng found Su Man and lied to Su Man that she was his daughter, or directly told Su Man to let Su Man be his daughter.

As for the purpose Assistant

Zhang pondered with his eyes, thinking of the grudge between Su Cheng and the Fu family, he suddenly gasped, "President Fu, I think Su Man was deliberately found by Su Cheng to act as his daughter, and as for the purpose, it must be aimed at you."

For Assistant Zhang's guess, Fu Jingting raised his eyebrows, and there was not much surprise, and his face was very calm, "Say it."

"Yes." Assistant Zhang nodded, "You think, the base camp of Su City is in the capital, and in the past thirty years, I have never come to Haishi."

"You're wrong, he came here once three months ago." Fu Jingting pursed his lips to correct him.

Assistant Zhang was stunned for a moment, then understood something, and suddenly slapped his forehead, "Yes, I forgot, your car accident three months ago was done by Su Cheng, he did come to Haishi once, and also settled in a hidden hotel, although he finally found the hotel, but it was already empty, and only found a photo of the lady there."

It was that photo that made Mr. Fu determine that the person who designed the car accident was most likely the murderer of the master.

It's just that at that time, President Fu was still not sure whether the murderer was Sucheng, but now that it is determined, then, naturally, the mastermind of the car accident has also come out.

It's all the same person, Sioux City.

"Go on." Fu Jingting lightly opened his thin lips and reminded.

Assistant Zhang replied and continued, "In the past thirty years in Su City, it has rarely set foot in the sea market, plus the Su family is in the jade antique business, and there is no cooperation with all the enterprises on our side of the sea market, so Su City has no enemies in the sea market, and the only enemy is the Fu family. Speaking of this, Assistant Zhang paused, wanting to hear if Fu Jingting had any reaction.

However, after seeing that Fu Jingting did not speak, and was still silent, Assistant Zhang said again: "So Su Man's appearance in the sea market is definitely not accidental, it is very likely that it is the vanguard soldiers sent by Su City, let Su Man come to the sea market to pass on some news of the Fu family at any time, otherwise why didn't he leave Su Man in the capital?" After becoming his daughter, shouldn't she also be in the capital, why is it in Haishi, so Su Man's appearance in Haishi must be this reason, monitoring the Fu family, of course, there is another possibility. "Say it bluntly." Fu Jingting frowned impatiently.

Assistant Zhang shrunk his neck, and also knew that his sale of the guanzi caused the boss's displeasure, so he no longer delayed, and hurriedly said, "Su Man was deliberately sent by Su Cheng to approach you and confuse you."

Fu Jingting's forehead slipped down a few black lines, "You said beauty meter?"

"Yes." Assistant Zhang nodded, "I admit that Mr. Fu you are very attractive, but I think that not all women will fall in love with you at first sight when they see you, even if they fall in love at first sight, it is impossible to be so affectionate that they don't even figure out how deep the relationship between you and Miss Rong is, and directly deal with Miss Rong herself on the throne, which is stupid, so I guess that Su Man is actually not really in love with President Fu, her so-called love is pretended, in order to have a suitable reason to stay in the sea market and get close to you, even I doubt now, Su Man's plastic surgery is also specially for this purpose, she was ugly before, so she has become the beautiful appearance she is now, and Mr. Fu didn't you find it? Chapter 1219: Similar Faces

"Found what?"

Assistant Zhang swallowed and replied, "Su Man's facial features after plastic surgery are actually highly similar to Miss Rong.

As soon as these words came out, Fu Jingting's expression instantly became gloomy, "Highly similar?"

“Yes.” Assistant Zhang nodded, “I know that Mr. Fu you don’t pay much attention to other women, so you may not have found out, but I was curious about plastic surgery, so I carefully observed Su Man’s face, and found that her facial features were really similar to Miss Rong, but I didn’t doubt Su Man’s purpose of coming to Haishi before, so I didn’t mention this matter to you, and now I realize that Su Man’s appearance in Haishi may be specially sent by Su City to spy on you or confuse you, I only remembered again, I suspect that Su Man was deliberately plastic surgery to be similar to Miss Rong, After all, only in this way can you look at her more, and the probability of her winning President Fu is also higher.

However, Su Man and Su Cheng never expected that President Fu only had Miss Rong in his eyes, and did not look at other women at all.

So until now, Su Man has appeared in the sea market for so long, and President Fu has not carefully looked at what Su Man looks like.

It is estimated that Su Man and Su Cheng will be angry when they know it.

Thinking about it, Assistant Zhang couldn’t help but gloat in his heart.

Fu Jingting didn’t speak, thinking about Assistant Zhang’s words about Su Man’s deliberate plastic surgery according to Rong Shu.

He really had never looked closely at the woman, so he really didn’t know what the woman looked like.

But he did not doubt Assistant Zhang’s words.

After all, Assistant Zhang would not joke with him about this kind of thing.

Just thinking about it, Assistant Zhang said again, “Mr. Fu, I am very suspicious now, Su Man’s sudden appearance in front of our car that night was not accidental, it was also planned, otherwise why would she not appear early and late, other cars did not crash, but crashed into our car?” Therefore, Su Man must have arranged for Miss Rong to undergo plastic surgery, and then sent to the sea market, trying to calculate your chess pieces with beauty.

Fu Jingting’s thin lips pursed a little cold, “No matter what it is, now focus on investigating Su Man’s true identity, and it’s best to get a photo of her before she didn’t have plastic surgery.” Intuition told him that Su Man’s person did not seem to be simple, not just a pawn of Su City, but also seemed to have some other identity.

So just in case, he had to figure out who this woman really was.

“Yes.” Assistant Zhang was not surprised that Fu Jingting would have such an order, and immediately nodded in response.

“Also, send me a photo of Su Man after plastic surgery.” Fu Jingting said again.

Assistant Zhang knew what he was going to do, and as soon as he hung up on the phone, he sent the photo over.

All the photos of Su Man in his mobile phone were also saved when investigating Su Man before, but they have not been deleted.

Now it comes in handy.

Fu Jingting returned to the living room from the balcony, sat on the sofa, poured himself a glass of white water, and began to check the photo that Assistant Zhang had just sent.

The woman in the photo has a full appearance, although it is a plastic face, but there is no trace of plastic surgery, very natural, those stiffness and unnaturalness after plastic surgery are completely absent, as if it is a natural face.

It can be seen that the woman in the photo has spent a huge price on plastic surgery, otherwise it would not be possible to look so natural.

Of course, when he learned that Su Man was a plastic face, he was curious about an ordinary woman, where did she get so much money for plastic surgery, not only plastic surgery, but also a height increase surgery.

These add up to the absolute impossibility without a few million.

Later, after knowing that Su Man was Su Cheng’s ‘illegitimate daughter’, this suspicion was completely dispelled.

However, to spend such a large price on a woman who is not an illegitimate daughter to change her appearance, Su Cheng is really willing to do it.

Now he also gradually believes that Zhang Cheng’s guess is true, Su Man is the eyeliner that Su Cheng planted in Haishi, deliberately plastic surgery into a face similar to Xiaoyezi, appeared in front of him.

“Heh, you really look down on me Fu Jingting too much.” Fu Jingting deleted Su Man’s photo, and his extremely handsome face showed cold killing intent and mockery.

Think that he Fu Jingting, like other men, is so easily seduced?

Other men may see a woman hooked as soon as she hooks her hand, but he will not, upbringing and principles, as well as his self-esteem and feelings for Rong Shu, are doomed to him not to betray Rong Shu.

If he Fu Jingting was really so easily hooked by a man casually, he would look down on himself.

How can someone like him be interested in a fake?

That's why he said that Su Man and Su Cheng, these two people, really looked down on him, thinking that he was like those men, and he couldn't pass the level of women, so he deliberately made a substitute for a small leaf to lure him, thinking that he would hook, which was really naïve and stupid.

However, Su Man's facial features are indeed very similar to Xiaoyezi, which makes him very uncomfortable.

I believe that Xiaoyezi will be uncomfortable if he sees it.

So this face, it's still ruined.

Fu Jingting clenched his mobile phone, exuding a breathless indifference around him.

The next day, when the first rays of sunlight in the morning shone in from the floor-to-ceiling window and hit Rong Shu's eyelids, she finally trembled her eyelashes and showed signs of waking up.

Not long after, the eyeballs under her eyelids began to move, and after turning twice, she slowly opened her eyes.

It's just that the sunlight is too bright and dazzling, and as soon as her eyes open a small slit, she can't stand it a little, and she subconsciously closes her eyes.

But before she could close her eyes, the big white and slender hand stretched out from above her head, and the void covered her eyes, helping her block the sunlight, "Okay, now you can open your eyes." The man's deep and pleasant voice sounded.

Rong Shu completely opened her eyes, and it was the palm of the man's hand.

No wonder in the end I found that it was dark and not so bright, it turned out to be a man's hand, blocking the sun for himself.

"Early." Rong Shu turned her head and looked at the man beside her.

The man didn't know how long he had been awake, he was already wearing a straight suit, and he was sitting on the edge of the bed at the moment, sideways to block the sun for her.

"Early." After Fu Jingting saw that her eyes were adapted, he withdrew his hand, took the clothes on the side and handed them to her, "I'll choose it for you, try it."

Rong Shu sat up and took the clothes he handed over, "Your aesthetic has always been online, and the matching must look good."

She put the clothes on her lap, did not change clothes immediately, but stretched and yawned, "What time is it?"

"It's half-past eight." Fu Jingting raised his wrist and glanced at his watch back.

Rong Shu blinked, "No wonder it's so bright, how long have you been up?"

"It's been a while, okay, let's change your clothes, breakfast is ready, if you don't want to do it, I'll change it for you." The man said, his gaze falling on the clothes she put on her lap, and the expectation in his eyes was not concealed in the slightest.

Rong Shu smiled and hurriedly hugged her clothes, "Don't be, you change it for me, maybe what will I do, okay, you go out quickly, don't delay me to change my clothes, hurry up."

She waved her hand one after another to urge the man to get out quickly.

She knew that if she asked a man to change her clothes, it was estimated that after changing her clothes and coming out, it would be almost noon.

The dog man will definitely eat her tofu in the name of changing her clothes.

Chapter 1220: Thoughtful Security

Seeing that the woman eagerly urged herself to go out, refusing to promise herself to stay and help her change her clothes, a trace of regret flashed in Fu Jingting's eyes, got up and looked at her, and turned to go out.

The reluctance and loss revealed by the back made Rong Shu laugh at it.

"Old color, batch!" Rong Shu muttered, and then thought of the lost look when the man left, and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

A few months ago, she couldn't have imagined that Fu Jingting would have such a side as she is now, and there would be so many changes in her expression.

Now he can be regarded as a normal and ordinary person through and through, not a humanoid ice cube with no expression and no emotions.

Without much thought, after the man went out and closed the door, Rong Shu quickly lifted the quilt and began to change clothes.

Of course, before changing clothes, she did not forget to check her physical condition.

Last night was another crazy night, not to mention the soreness and exhaustion of the body, and the discomfort of a private place, let's say the traces on the body, which also made people look red in the face.

Rong Shu looked at the big and small red marks on her body that were sucked out by the dog man, and her little face couldn't help but turn red.

The dog man seems to have this special fetish and always likes to leave these marks on her.

If she hadn't repeatedly stressed that she wasn't allowed to make these things on her neck, so as not to be embarrassed to be seen, she was sure that her whole body would be covered with these.

"Hey" sighed, Rong Shu looked at these traces on her body, her heart full of helplessness.

The traces left by the previous two days have not yet dissipated, and last night came so many fresh ones.

If this continues, the traces on her body will probably stubble after stubble, and they will not be able to dissipate.

It seems that you have to find a way to change the problem of the dog man, I heard that this kind of thing is not good to stay on the body, it is easy to cause capillaries to rupture Well, decided, find time to talk to the dog man about this problem, I believe he should change it after he knows this.

If you don't change it!

Rong Shu narrowed her good-looking apricot eyes and laughed coldly in her heart.

Don't blame her for being unkind to his third leg.

In the living room, Fu Jingting, who was sitting elegantly on the sofa with his legs folded and waiting for Rong Shu to come out, suddenly felt a chill down his spine, and the hand holding the coffee couldn't help but tremble, and a very ominous premonition surged in his heart.

What's the situation?

How did he feel as if someone was going to treat him badly?

Fu Jingting's thin lips tightened, and he didn't drink the coffee, put down the coffee and stood up, and walked to the balcony.

When he came to the balcony, he looked down to try to find someone suspicious.

His intuition has always been accurate, especially in his position, there are naturally many enemies, so many people have shot at him.

And he has repeatedly avoided a lot of risks with his intuition just now.

Therefore, he did not think that the bad feeling in his heart just now was empty, and he could even be sure that someone really wanted to be bad for him just now.

It's just that he is in the house, and who will want to treat him badly?

There are only two people in the house, he and Xiao Yezi, Xiao Yezi is impossible, so he will come to the balcony to see if it is downstairs.

Fu Jingting's gaze fell on the man sitting by the flower bed under the building.

The man had an ordinary face, dressed ordinarily, and threw it in the crowd without being noticed.

The man sat motionless on the edge of the flower bed, only slightly bowing his head and playing with his mobile phone, as if he was really an ordinary person.

Fu Jingting looked at the man for a while, then took out his mobile phone and sent a message out.

Then, the man on the edge of the flower bed downstairs immediately raised his head, did not look at the mobile phone, stood up and looked left and right, did not see anything, then lowered his head again, and quickly clicked his fingers on the mobile phone.

Immediately after, the man's mobile phone did not listen to the ding-dong, and a lot of news poured towards him like a tide.

After reading them one by one and not finding anything wrong with these news, he breathed a sigh of relief, then raised his head, his eyes accurately locked on Fu Jingting on the balcony of the tall building, and shook his head slightly at Fu Jingting.

Meaning, neither he, nor the other dark whistles around, found suspicious characters.

Fu Jingting's brows tightened.

Actually not?

Then is the ominous premonition he just had fake?

Fu Jingting did not doubt the words of the people downstairs, the people downstairs were his carefully selected bodyguards, and they were also carefully cultivated by the Fu family, and there was definitely no need to say loyalty.

Moreover, the Fu family also held the death cave of these bodyguards in their hands, and they would never dare to betray it, so the bodyguard said no, it must be no.

And throughout the Repulse Bay bungalow apartment, he sent nearly twenty such bodyguards to hide in various places as ordinary residents, in order to quietly solve various hidden risks and protect the safety of Xiaoye.

He knew that Xiao Yezi would not easily go to live with him, so he had made such an arrangement a long time ago, otherwise how could he rest assured that she would live in this kind of community where the safety factor was not particularly high? Or move in yourself?

After all, the danger around him is much higher than her.

If he doesn't arrange these bodyguards, I'm afraid that not long after he moves over, those enemies in the mall feel that it is an opportunity to retaliate against him, and they will definitely not let go of this opportunity to take action against him, how can he live so at ease?

As it turns out, it's not just talk.

When he lived in Repulse Bay, those who had been secretly aware of his whereabouts were indeed very excited, thinking that he was dying if he lived here.

So at the beginning, there were indeed many forces who came here and tried to attack him.

It's just that none of them thought that he had already arranged security work before he moved in.

Therefore, those people's plans against him all failed, and in a fit of anger, they still secretly called him treacherous.

And he didn't tell Rong Shu about these.

He knew that if he told her that she had almost been plotted by so many people, she would definitely blame herself for worrying more, and then urge him to move away quickly.

Of course, she will definitely move away with him, but for her, such a move is forced and unavoidable, not willing.

After all, she is not fully able to accept living in the Fu family's house with him now.

Those six years still brought her a great psychological shadow, so she didn't accept it so quickly, and she didn't let go of it so quickly in her heart and lived with him calmly.

And if she was forced to move in, she would never feel safe in her heart.

He didn't want to embarrass her or let her go through this.

That's why he hides it.

Just thinking about it, the sound of light footsteps behind him came, and the next second, a soft body accompanied by a unique feminine scent stuck to his back.

Then two slender arms reached out from either side of his waist and hugged him, "What are you thinking?"

Rong Shu put her face on the man's back and asked in a delicate voice.

The man turned his face slightly, although he couldn't see her behind him, it didn't prevent him from showing a gentle smile to her like this, "It's nothing, I'm looking at the scenery, the weather is good today."

Rong Shu let go of him, came out from behind him, stood beside him, also looked outside, and answered with a smile, "That's right, it's difficult to have the sun in winter in the sea market, especially the big sun like today, the wind blowing is not cold, and it is quite comfortable to blow on the face."

With that, she closed her eyes and let the breeze blow on her face, cool and itchy.
