Chapter 1291 – Poor Driver

“So, this driver held a grudge and chose to take revenge on the Wang family by dying together?” Rong Shu said.

Assistant Zhang shook his head slightly, “Our people learned from the housekeeper of the Wang family that the driver had a direct conflict with the Wang family, so they immediately contacted the driver’s relatives and friends, asking what kind of person this driver was, and found that this driver was not ready to take revenge on the Wang family from time to time, and he couldn’t ask for compensation many times, The families of the dead fishermen under him began to vent their anger on him, thinking that if he had refused the Wang family’s order and did not take the fishermen under him to the sea, these fishermen would not have died, and blamed him for indirectly killing the fishermen under him, but he could not even win compensation for them, and over time, the huge guilt and resentment to the Wang family made him start to have the idea of taking revenge on the players. “

“So it is.” Rong Shu sighed, “It’s also a pitiful person. “

“Didn’t you find any problems here?” Fu Jingting folded his legs and suddenly spoke.

Rong Shu blinked, “What do you mean?” “

“There is no problem with this driver’s idea of taking revenge on the Wang family, in other words, no one will easily forgive the Wang family’s actions, I mean, how can this driver know the Wang family’s itinerary?” How could you know so accurately that the Wang family was coming to the banquet tonight, and when the Wang family went out? Is this something that an ordinary person can grasp? Fu Jingting picked up the red wine in front of him, gently shook the wine glass, and looked at the bright red liquid in the wine glass, his eyes were extremely deep.

Rong Shu was stunned for a moment, and then reacted, “Yes, this is indeed not something that an ordinary person like the driver can master, unless he can buy the housekeeper or maid of the Wang family, but this is also impossible, he does not have this money.” “

“So the problem here is self-evident.” Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes, “The most important thing is who moved the hands and feet of the Wang family’s car, and when did they move.” “

“You mean, this matter is not just as simple as the driver seeking revenge, but also other people are involved.” Rong Shu immediately understood what the man meant.

The man is more than non-committal, "This driver does have plans to take revenge on the Wang family, but with his ability as an ordinary person, it is not so easy to easily retaliate against the Wang family, even if the current Wang family is down, it is not easy for the driver to break down, the driver is not even easy to contact them, not to mention that he can be so prepared to grasp the news of the Wang family's travel, This can only show that there is another force that has a feud with the Wang family is helping this driver, this force is not weaker than the Wang family, so it can easily grasp the itinerary of the Wang family, and can easily destroy the Wang family's car, and then contact this driver and let this driver wait in advance on the Wang family's necessary road, and then we know. "

"It's really possible." Rong Shu sighed twice, "According to the way this shipwreck is handled, it means that the Wang family is not a good thing, and there are other enemies who are not surprised, the enemies of the enemy are friends, and they have united to take revenge on the Wang family, and the Wang family also found it themselves, and they deserve it." "

Fu Jingting was noncommittal about her evaluation.

"It's just that this driver is a pity, he paid for his life, and he didn't take anyone from the Wang family, what's the point of such revenge?" Rong Shu sighed.

Fu Jingting raised his chin, "Actually, this driver's revenge has been successful. "

"Oh?" Rong Shu looked at him in surprise, "What do you say?" "

"This driver has carried too much, the life of his wife, the lives of the fishermen under his hands, these have already crushed him and made him lose the belief to live, which can be seen from the way he chose to take revenge on the Wang family by dying together, so he is willing to cooperate with another force, even if the other force also wants him to die."

"He wants to be free." Rong Shu bit her lip and said.

Fu Jingting took a sip of wine, "Not bad, before liberation, pull away a Wang family, the best of both worlds, why not?" Even if he did not bring people down, but his death, can make the Wang family's actions exposed on the Internet, ordinary people on the Internet are easy to empathize with ordinary people like themselves, especially more pitiful than themselves, once they know the story behind this driver, they will trigger online public opinion and set off a network war on the Internet. "

"I know that, just like I've been before." Rong Shu had a little headache.

Fu Jingting grabbed her hand and squeezed it gently, "And the state in order to calm the people's anger, will definitely thoroughly investigate the Wang family, by that time, all the illegal acts of the Wang family will be found out and the Wang family will be liquidated, even if the Wang family has not done anything else illegal, just with this shipwreck time, the Wang family will be completely finished.” “

“Yes, according to the law, the Wang family ignored the typhoon to let the fishermen go to sea, and caused the fishermen to die, which is already a great crime, plus the Wang family’s compensation is not in place, the state will not let the Wang family go.” Assistant Zhang also said.

Rong Shu now understood, “It turns out that this is why you said that the driver is actually a big revenge.” “

“Yes, the collapse of the Wang family is a sure thing, plus this car accident, the Wang family will definitely have disabilities, which is more painful for the Wang family than death, why not another success in revenge.” Fu Jingting hooked his lips coldly, and his eyes were full of contempt for the Wang family.

At this time, Assistant Zhang suddenly asked, “President Fu, do you need to investigate another force that helped that driver?” “

Fu Jingting shook his head, “No, this has nothing to do with us, it is the Wang family’s own grudge, there is no need to investigate, on the contrary, the other party also indirectly helped me, helped me stop the Wang family’s entanglement with me, we don’t have to take revenge, of course, if the police find out, it is also their own life.” “

Assistant Zhang nodded and stopped asking.

Then, not long after, his cell phone rang.

With Fu Jingting’s nod, he took out his mobile phone and answered the call.

Two minutes later, the call ended, Assistant Zhang put down the mobile phone and looked at Fu Jing with a subtle expression Ting and Rong Shu.

Fu Jingting pursed his lips, “Just say anything.” ”

Assistant Zhang answered, “We sent over, staring at the Wang family people called, saying that the Wang family’s casualties came out, the driver did not rescue and died, Chairman Wang was lucky, rescued, but brain death became a vegetative person, and Miss Wang was not very lucky, a leg was broken and amputated, Mrs. Wang was the luckiest, only suffered some skin trauma, nothing else is a big deal, but even if the Wang family faces things next, it may not be possible for her to hold on.” “

In short, miserable.

Of course, the most innocent is the driver of the Wang family.

He did not have any grudges with people, but because he became the driver of the Wang family, he paid for his life, which is also sad and pitiful.

“Okay, the affairs of the Wang family, that’s the end, no need to pay attention anymore, withdraw everyone.” Fu Jingting rubbed his eyebrows and stood up.

Rong Shu, who had been holding his hand, naturally got up.

He looked at her, “Next, I’m going to see the Liu family, will you go?” “ he asked.

Rong Shu shook her head, “No, I don’t want to see them, and I guess they don’t want to see me.” “

“Okay, then you go to the car and wait for me, I’ll be back soon.” He gently ruffled the hair around her ear.

To be honest, he didn’t want her to go either.

He knows exactly what virtues the Liu family has.

Although in front of him, the Liu family will not treat her well, but there must be some bad eyes.

He didn’t want her to suffer such grievances.

“Then I’ll go to the car first, you come back quickly.” Rong Shu did not refuse the man’s proposal, nodded and agreed.

The man touched her hair, “Soon, half an hour.” “

“Okay, then I’ll wait for you.” Rong Shu snorted.

Fu Jingting looked at Assistant Zhang, “You send Xiaoyezi to the car.” “

Let her go alone, he is not at ease.

Rong Shu also knew that Fu Jingting was worried about someone she was meeting, so she asked Assistant Zhang to send her, but did not refuse, and followed Assistant Zhang away.

Fu Jingting waited until the two figures disappeared, then put his hands in his trouser pockets and walked in the direction of the elevator.

The box where Liu Lao and Liu Linlin were located was still a few floors below, not on the banquet hall floor.

When Fu Jingting came to the outside of the box, the two bodyguards guarding the box immediately saluted respectfully, "President Fu." "

"How are people?" Fu Jingting stopped and asked quietly.

A bodyguard glanced at the closed box door and replied, "Both of us are inside, we go in every ten minutes to see, and we didn't let them make any trouble." "

Fu Jingting bowed his head slightly, "Open the door." "

"Yes."

The two bodyguards nodded, and at the same time reached out and pushed the door of the box open.

Inside the box, I heard the door of the box open, and neither Liu Lao nor Liu Linlin looked up.

They thought that bodyguards came in to patrol, so naturally they were not interested.

Liu Lao sat on the Taishi chair, his old eyes slightly closed, as if he was asleep, and seemed to be thinking about something.

And Liu Linlin, who was sitting next to him, lowered her head, biting her nails, and looked restless.

The two people look like this, and the atmosphere in the box is very strange.

It wasn't until Fu Jingting's cold voice sounded that this strange atmosphere was broken.

"Liu Lao." Fu Jingting walked in, his gaze swept over Liu Linlin, fixed on Liu Lao on the Imperial Master's chair, and shouted coldly with thin lips.

His voice immediately made Liu Lao open his eyes, and Liu Linlin stopped biting her nails and raised her head sharply.

“Brother Jing Ting.” When Liu Linlin saw him, she immediately got up, and her mind instantly put aside her resentment against him and became pleasantly surprised.

She loves him.

Even if he treated her like this for that Rong Shu, she had a trace of resentment towards him in her heart.

But when she really saw him, the resentment disappeared again, leaving only joy and excitement.

However, Fu Jingting didn't seem to hear anything, so Li ignored her, didn't even give her a look, and only looked at Liu Lao coldly.

This made Liu Linlin angry, but she tended to be afraid of him, so that she did not dare to mess around, she could only stomp her foot there unhappily, snorted, and sat back in anger, don't overdo it and ignore him.

Hmph, her off.

Brother Jing Ting actually ignored her.

Then she ignored him.

Unless he came to coax her, she would never say a word to him.

Liu Linlin thought in her heart with a little nature.

But he never thought that Fu Jingting didn't wait to see her in the first place, so how could he pay attention to her?

She is not who he is.

It can only be said that she has no self-knowledge, and also thinks too highly of herself and is too confident.

If Fu Jingting was so indifferent to his granddaughter in normal times, Liu Lao would be unhappy in his heart, and he would also say two words to Fu Jingting.

But now he knew that Fu Jingting was completely unwelcome to their Liu family, and he had completely lost patience with their Liu family.

So even if you are unhappy in your heart, it is not good to say anything about Fu Jingting.

After all, it is still the most important thing to coax people's hearts back.

If you want to talk about him at this time, don't say that you have coaxed his heart back, you will push him further and further.

Not worth it.

Liu Lao thought so in his heart, but his face showed a lonely look, "Jing Ting, you hate it so now My Liu family? Don't even shout a teacher to my old man? "

The sound of Liu Lao when Fu Jingting entered the door just now really made his heart sink to the bottom.

It can be seen that Fu Jingting is not only to the Liu family, but also to Linlin, to his son, and even to him as a teacher.

He originally thought that even if Jing Ting hated their Liu family, he was a teacher, Jing Ting should be better.

At least superficially it will do well.

But who would have thought that in Fu Jingting, this teacher of him was no different from the rest of the Liu family, and he didn't even bother to do superficial work.

This is by no means good news.

Fu Jingting pulled out the chair opposite Liu Lao and sat down, looking at the old man who was faintly displeased because of his name, "Liu Lao, do you think that what you do is still suitable to be a teacher?" "

Listening to Fu Jingting's questioning, Liu Lao frowned, "Jingting, what do you mean by this?" What does it mean that what I do is not suitable to be a teacher? You explain this clearly, otherwise my old man will not follow. "

Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes slightly, "Since Elder Liu wants to know, then I won't sell it, first of all, as a teacher, you should establish good teacher morality, teach students and future generations the correct three views, in addition to kindness, integrity, honesty and other beautiful qualities, but Elder Liu, do you think you have done this?" "

Old Liu blushed and white, his mouth opened, and he couldn't speak.

What does this make him say?

Say he did it?

But the actions of these descendants of the Liu family made him embarrassed to open this mouth.

not to mention that he himself But if he said that he didn't do it, he couldn't say it.

After all, if he says it, doesn't that mean that he is really not suitable to be a teacher?

So no matter how he answers, it doesn't seem to work.

For a while, Liu Laocheng's whole person sat stiffly on the chair, only feeling ashamed and indignant.

Fu Jingting was not surprised by Liu Lao's silence, a trace of mockery flashed in his eyes, and he lightly opened his thin lips and said, "These, teacher, you have not done it, as a teacher, openly tell bad things about the student's lover in front of your own students, and degrade the student's lover as worthless, I also advise students to break up with their lovers, which teacher will do this like Liu Lao? "

He looked at Liu Lao and asked.

Liu Lao still couldn't say a word.

Fu Jingting's eyes drooped slightly, "As a teacher, shouldn't it be a blessing to know that your students are in love?" Shouldn't it be congratulations? Like Liu Lao, you persuade like this, I still see it for the first time, persuasion is just that, but also to talk bad things about people behind their backs, so demeaning people, is this a style that a teacher should have? In addition to these, Liu Lao, you have not done your best to educate your family, your family is selfish, insidious and vicious, you, as a teacher, as the biggest elder, not only do not correct their mistakes, but also have no brain protection support, think that they are not at fault, so Liu Lao, such you, why should I be my teacher? Why do I call you a teacher? "

Liu Lao looked at him with red eyes, and his heart was both angry and weak.

Angry, Fu Jingting, a student, actually dared to say this about him, he didn't understand what it was to respect the teacher.

And the weak heart, Fu Jingting's saying this is tantamount to tearing off his fig leaf and exposing his most despicable and dark side to the air.

Yes, vile and shady.

In fact, he himself knows exactly what kind of person he is, but he has long been accustomed to using masks to cover up.

Over time, he really forgot his ugly side.

Therefore, when Fu Jingting exposed his ugly side, he would be so weak and unacceptable.

Chapter 1293 – All Canceled

Also unacceptable, there is Liu Linlin on the side.

When Liu Linlin heard Fu Jingting say that their Liu family was selfish and insidious and vicious, she instantly exploded, jumped up and pointed at Fu Jingting, “Brother Jingting, what do you mean by this, our Liu family has what you said, you say this, it is too hurtful, also, my grandfather is your teacher, you actually said that grandpa is not worthy of being your teacher, you”

“Did I say something wrong?” Fu Jingting looked at her coldly and interrupted her directly, “Isn’t that what I said about your Liu family?” “

“I” faced Fu Jingting’s cold eyes that did not have a trace of human emotion at all, Liu Linlin’s arrogance suddenly became arrogant, and she couldn’t say a complete sentence.

Fu Jingting did not let her go, and continued: “As for your grandfather, he is indeed not worthy of being my teacher, after all, the teacher I chose back then is not your grandfather, but Professor Wang, if it were not for Professor Wang’s accident, and I urgently needed a teacher to carry out deeper topics, I would definitely not worship your grandfather as a teacher.” “

Hearing this, Liu Lao almost spewed out a mouthful of old blood.

At the beginning, Fu Jingting’s words of ‘indeed unworthy to be my teacher’ already made him angry enough.

When Fu Jingting said this, he was vetoing everything about him.

However, when he heard the latter sentence ‘Professor Wang’, his face changed in an instant, and his feelings of weakness, panic, nervousness and other emotions kept flashing on his face.

Fu Jingting had been observing him, and when he saw these expressions on his face, his eyes darkened.

Yes, he mentioned Professor Wang on purpose.

Before he suspected that Professor Wang’s death was not an accident, it was likely to be related to Liu Lao.

After all, once Professor Wang died, it was Liu Lao who made the biggest profit.

He is also asking people to secretly investigate whether Professor Wang's death was done by Liu Lao, but this matter has happened for so many years, and the clue traces and so on no longer exist, so it is not an easy task to find out the specific results.

Therefore, it has been so many days, and there is no news from Zhang Cheng's side.

Just now, he specifically mentioned Professor Wang, just to see what kind of reaction Liu Lao would have when he heard this title.

If there is no reaction and no reaction, it means that Professor Wang's death may be really an accident and has nothing to do with Liu Lao.

But if Liu Lao reacts big, it means that it is related.

Now it turns out that Professor Wang's death is related to Liu Lao, otherwise why would Liu Lao show his heart and panic, which is problematic at first glance?

Doesn't this mean that being a thief is weak-hearted?

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting laughed at himself in his heart, and also owed Professor Wang.

When he was in college, the teacher he consulted the most was Professor Wang.

It can be said that he and Professor Wang have a good relationship, and it is not an exaggeration to say that they are father and son.

Therefore, Professor Wang's original death was undoubtedly a huge blow to him.

He had thought that if Professor Wang's death was an accident, he would not say anything, but if Professor Wang's death was man-made, he would definitely avenge Professor Wang.

It's just that at the beginning, the final report given by the police station was an accident, and he didn't doubt and believe it.

It wasn't until now, a few years later, when he looked back at Professor Wang's death, that he found so many problems.

Now that it is determined that Professor Wang's death is related to the old man in front of him, he can no longer suppress the anger and hatred in his heart, and is determined to avenge Professor Wang.

After all, he said that the teacher he chose from the beginning was not Liu Lao, but Professor Wang.

He and Professor Wang are not father and son more like father and son, and with this relationship, he cannot do nothing about Professor Wang's death.

And most importantly, he also worshiped the enemy who killed Professor Wang as a teacher, and at this point, he was already sorry for Professor Wang.

A huge guilt hit Fu Jingting, making Fu Jingting's fists clench, and the green tendons on the back of his hands were exposed.

He didn't just feel guilty, he regretted it.

I regret that I shouldn't have been in a hurry for my degree, I didn't have a good understanding of the clues behind Professor Wang's death, and I regretted that I was so anxious to worship Liu Lao as a teacher for my degree, instead of investigating Liu Lao's behavior.

If you understand some of the violations behind Professor Wang's death, and understand Liu Lao's personality and conduct.

Then now he is not Liu Lao's student, and he has avenged Professor Wang, and the Liu family has no chance to hurt Xiaoyezi.

All this was his negligence.

Because of him, no one has done justice for Professor Wang's death for several years, and he also worshiped Professor Wang's enemies as a teacher, and gave Professor Wang's enemies many years of support, so that Professor Wang's enemies and familiesIt's a good time.

Even if he didn't know this, he indirectly became Professor Wang's accomplice.

I'm afraid Professor Wang will hate him below.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting's breathing became a little heavier, and his eyes were faintly scarlet.

However, his eyelids were half-drooping, so Liu Lao and Liu Linlin on the opposite side did not find it.

Liu Linlin was so blocked by Fu Jingting's words that she couldn't speak, and sat back in the chair in a huff, pinning her head to the side, not wanting to pay attention to Fu Jingting.

She looked like this, not realizing the importance of the matter at all.

Liu Lao realized it, and his heart was full of anxiety.

What does it mean?

Why did Jing Ting suddenly mention the surname Wang?

Could it be that something is suspected?

No, probably not.

In the past few years, Jing Ting has never mentioned this person, nor has he ever suspected that there is anything wrong with this person's death.

So it is impossible to suddenly suspect now

Isn't this forcing their Liu family to a corner?

Thinking of this, Liu Lao was anxious, and quickly walked towards Fu Jingting, "Jingting, you can't do this, you are forcing me to death, forcing your teacher to death!" Aren't you afraid that someone will poke you in the spine? "

He looked at Fu Jingting with a blank eye and asked loudly.

Fu Jingting's expression was still cold and indifferent, "Why should I be afraid, if my teacher is fair and strict, and does not do anything to be sorry for my student, then my student may be poked in the spine by doing this, but my teacher, have you been fair and strict?" "

Liu Lao's pupils shrank, and he took two steps back as if he was shocked.

Fu Jingting said coldly: "You didn't do this, but instead provoked the previous feelings of your students and lovers, and also connived at the behavior of your descendants against the students' lovers, and even did not even apologize afterwards, so why do you expect me to let you go?" "

After that, he didn't stop and turned around and walked towards the door.

Liu Lao knew that this time the Liu family was really going to end, and Fu Jingting couldn't coax it back, and under the anger attack, his eyes were black, and his body fell straight back.

Seeing this, Liu Linlin's face changed greatly in fright, and she screamed, "Grandpa! "

After Fu Jingting heard this, he paused slightly and turned his head to take a look.

Seeing Liu Lao who fell to the ground with a bang, his eyes flashed, and finally suppressed the idea of helping in the past, let the bodyguard at the door come in, and sent the person to the hospital.

Anyway, at least at this time, Liu Lao can't be allowed to die like this.

Otherwise it will be a nuisance for him.

Liu Lao was put on a stretcher and put on the car, and Liu Linlin, as the only family member, naturally had to follow the ambulance.

However, before getting into the ambulance, she suddenly stopped and looked at Fu Jingting with red eyes, her eyes full of anger and resentment.

"Brother Jing Ting, if my grandfather has something, I will definitely not forgive you."

After speaking, she looked sad by Fu Jingting and turned to the ambulance.

Fu Jingting stood in place, watching the ambulance Ulaula go away, the expression on his face did not change in the slightest, still indifferent as frost.

Assistant Zhang behind him rolled his eyes and said, "Mr. Fu, it's really funny to listen to what she said, and I definitely won't forgive you, do you care about her forgiveness?" "

To Mr. Fu, Liu Linlin is an irrelevant person.

Who cares what an insignificant person thinks of themselves?

It can only be said that Liu Linlin is just self-inflicted, as if President Fu cares about her.

"Okay, let's go." Fu Jingting turned around, stopped looking, and walked towards the hotel.

Assistant Zhang naturally withdrew his gaze and followed closely.

Come to the hotel's car park.

Assistant Zhang took out the car key from a distance and pressed it.

Not far away, the Maybach rang out, and the headlights came on.

The sleepy Rong Shu, who was waiting for people in the car, heard the car ringing, and immediately opened her eyes, looked out the window, and saw two tall and tall figures coming this way, with a knowing smile on her face.

Then she unlocked the car, opened the door and prepared to get out of the car.

However, as soon as the door opened a crack, a large white and slender hand immediately pressed the door against it, preventing it from continuing to open.

Rong Shu blinked her eyes suspiciously, "How?" "

Fu Jingting bent down and looked at her through the slit in the car door, "Don't get out of the car, it's cold outside the car, it's in the car, I'll come up immediately." "

She said and closed her car door.

Seeing this, Rong Shu immediately stopped him, "Wait." "

The man stopped the movement in his hand and looked down at her again.

Rong Shu smiled and said, "You don't have to get on the bus from the other side, just go here." "

After that, she moved her butt to the side and gave up her original position.

Seeing this, Fu Jingting chuckled and got into the car.

After he went up, Assistant Zhang also sat down in the driver's seat, "Mr. Fu, go back to Repulse Bay next?" "

"Repulse Bay is too far away, go to my nearest property." Fu Jingting replied as he looked at the woman who yawned and had sleepiness and exhaustion written on her face.

Assistant Zhang nodded, indicating that he understood, and then startedThe car.

When Rong Shu yawned, her mind was full of sleepiness, and she didn't hear what the two were saying at all, and she didn't care about the conversation between the two.

For her, it doesn't matter where she goes, just don't buy her.

"Sleepy?" Fu Jingting asked.

Rong Shu nodded, hmm, her voice was extremely soft, as if there was a feather tickling in Fu Jingting's heart, making his heart itch.

After sliding his Adam's apple slightly, he stretched out his arm to stop her shoulder and pressed her body down to his side, "If you are sleepy, lean on my lap and sleep for a while, I will call you." "

"OK." Rong Shu did not refuse the man's suggestion, yawned again and agreed, her body obediently followed his strength, half lying on his lap, her head resting on his thigh and closing her eyes.

Fu Jingting looked down at her, afraid that the small crown jewelry on her head would press her scalp and bring her an uncomfortable feeling, and gently removed the small crown on her head.

However, in addition to being good-looking, the role of the little crown is to fix her coiled hair.

When he took it, the coiled hair instantly scattered, and Rong Shu's long hair instantly scattered like a waterfall, burying Fu Jingting's hands.

The smooth and delicate and cold touch of her hair swept Fu Jingting's entire palm, making Fu Jingting suddenly caress.

And just stroking was not enough, occasionally he picked up a wisp, lowered his head to the tip of his nose and sniffed.

refreshing.

"Yes." Fu Jingting replied lightly.

"I heard that it was beaten quite badly." Assistant Zhang glanced at the rearview mirror, "But I have been following you, I didn't go over to take a look, only the news sent by our people, our people are professional bodyguards, they said that the beating was quite bad, it is estimated that it is really miserable." "

"It's just for us." Fu Jingting continued to stroke Rong Shu's delicate face, "The worse the beating, the more we tell us more about their determination to educate their children, so that I think we will be soft-hearted and spare them this time." "

"To put it bluntly, it's bitter meat again." Assistant Zhang shrugged.

“Don’t care, how to do or how to do it, let people check whether these two have violated the law and discipline, if so, collect the evidence and hand it over to the discipline inspection, it just so happens that the discipline inspection is still investigating Sansheng Group recently and did not leave.” Fu Jingting said coldly with thin lips.

Assistant Zhang nodded in agreement, and then asked, “What if there is no violation of the law?” “

“If not, let the companies that cooperate with their company cancel some of the cooperation and teach them a lesson.” Fu Jingting’s eyes were cold.

Assistant Zhang replied, “Understood. “

In fact, he knew in his heart that Fu Jingting was also merciful when he did this.

It is said that if the two companies do not violate the law and discipline, part of the cooperation will be canceled.

Not canceling all cooperation, but also giving the two families a way to live.

“Of course, just because the children raised by these two families have such virtues, I don’t believe that they have not broken the law.” Fu Jingting mocked lightly.

Assistant Zhang nodded and felt the same, “Then are these two families sent back now?” “

“There is no point in buckling there, send it back, let people stare, don’t let them run, after collecting evidence, immediately hand it over to the police.” Fu Jingting tugged Rong Shu’s coat and said.

Assistant Zhang answered, “Understood.” “

After that, the two did not speak again, only the shallow breathing sound in the car could be heard, and there was no other sound.

Almost half an hour later, Fu Jingting’s luxurious flat in the center of the city arrived.

Assistant Zhang parked the car, quickly got out of the car and opened the door.

Fu Jingting hugged Rong Shu and got down from the car, “All packed?” “

“Don’t worry, Mr. Fu, when I was in the car, I let the property go up to clean the house, and also made the bed, after you go up, you can rest directly.” Assistant Zhang closed the door and replied.

Fu Jingting snorted and walked to the elevator with Rong Shu in his arms.

Assistant Zhang followed behind and helped him press the elevator.

Soon, the elevator arrived, and the three took the elevator directly to the top floor.

Assistant Zhang entered the password and opened the heavy metal door of the large flat floor, "Then President Fu, I won't disturb you and Miss Rong to rest." "

Fu Jingting nodded, "You also go back to rest, but until then, do what I told you to do first." "

"Don't worry, Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang replied.

After Fu Jingting carried Rong Shu in, he helped the two close the door, only then sighed with relief, turned around and walked to the elevator again, took out his mobile phone as he walked, and ordered something to the other end of the phone.

After listening to it, the person on the other end of the phone nodded his head repeatedly, then put down the phone and beckoned to another person next to him.

"Boss." The man stepped forward quickly.

The bodyguard who answered the phone put down his mobile phone, "Just now, Assistant Zhang called over, saying that it was President Fu's order, let them all go back, no need to guard, secretly stare at it, go open the door." "

"Yes." The bodyguard answered and turned to open the door of the box.

The door of the box opened, and the lifeless box suddenly became alive.

In addition to the fat and thin two women lying on the ground, the other four middle-aged men and women immediately got up from the chairs and sofas like chicken blood, and walked towards the door one by one with excitement or excitement.

"Is Mr. Fu here?"

These words were recognized by the three parents present, and they nodded their heads in unison like chickens pecking rice.

Only the two women behind them, who were lying on the ground, unable to move in pain, were full of sadness in their hearts.

They are their parents, so desperate, they will not hesitate to abandon them for the sake of the family.

They admit that they are stupid and have been used to do the wrong things, but they are always their daughters.

How could they give up on them so easily.

Do they still have hearts?

Although they thought so sadly in their hearts, the two women knew very well that they had hearts, but they were just not mindful enough for the two of them.

The wealthy family has a weak family affection, compared to the family, what is it to give up a daughter?

If they give up a daughter and can sustain their prosperity for decades, centuries, why don't they?

What's more, they are not unable to give birth, and they are not the only daughter, they also have other children, especially sons.

If there is a son, a daughter is even nothing, and if you give up, you will give up.

Oh, it's really ironic.

The fat and thin two women lay on the ground, sad tears slipped from the corners of their eyes, but their hearts were full of endless hatred.

Hate the family, hate the parents, and hate Liu Linlin even more.

They will not do anything to their parents to the family, after all, they have raised them, and they have not been treated badly for more than twenty years.

But for Liu Linlin, they will not let go.

She hurt them like this, and if they don't take revenge, they're sorry for today's end.

The two women looked at each other and swore fiercely in their hearts that they would make Liu Linlin pay.

At the door, these four parents still don't know that their daughter hates them, and they are still trying to communicate with the bodyguard, hoping that the bodyguard will convey their meaning to Fu Jingting, and how to deal with these two unfilial daughters, don't start with them and their family.

The bodyguard looked at them in order to save their lives, with a disgusting face that desperately threw away their troublesome daughter, and a hint of mockery flashed in his eyes, fleeting, "Don't worry, I will bring your words, but in the end, what President Fu did, that is what President Fu himself meant, it has nothing to do with me, you can go back now."

"Can you go back?" Several people were stunned.

The bodyguard snorted, then pointed to the two women lying on the ground behind them, "Take them away too." "

Yes, yes, yes. Several people hurriedly responded.

Although I don't know what Fu Jingting is going to do with the two of them, they are still worried in their hearts until now.

But being able to go back also made them feel a little relieved.

After all, who wants to be locked up here all the time to be able to go home?

And after going back, you can also contact relatives and friends to discuss how to dispel Fu Zong's anger and save the family.

So after getting the bodyguard's permission, several people hurriedly picked up their daughter and left in a hurry.

After they left, the bodyguard immediately picked up his mobile phone and reported everything here to Assistant Zhang.

After Assistant Zhang listened, he immediately conveyed it to Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting had just taken a shower and stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window of the living room wearing a loose bathrobe.

He is the top floor, more than two hundred meters high from the first floor of the ground, and when he looks down slightly, the prosperous night view of the entire city can be seen in full view, which is particularly spectacular.

Fu Jingting stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, holding a white towel in one hand and wiping his wet hair, holding his mobile phone to his ear with the other hand, listening to Assistant Zhang's call.

After listening, Fu Jingting's expression did not change in the slightest, and he only said lightly; "Don't bother, just do as I said before, as for those two women, don't ask those two to send them abroad, send them abroad, who will trip Liu Linlin?"

Assistant Zhang understood.

Dog eats dog.

In terms of mental planning, it has to be President Fu.

“Okay Mr. Fu, I see.

Fu Jingting raised his chin slightly, “Go and rest.” After that, the phone hung up.

After putting down the mobile phone, Fu Jingting did not immediately go back to the room, but continued to stand in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, looking at the night scene outside, his eyes flickered and flickered, not knowing what he was thinking, until his hair was dry, he threw the towel on the sofa, walked back to the room, and slept with the woman who slept soundly on the bed.

The next day, when Rong Shu woke up, it was already nine o'clock in the morning.

The unfamiliar environment, the unfamiliar room, and the unfamiliar bed made her whole person shocked, and quickly sat down from the bed, lifted the quilt to look at her body.

Seeing the wide nightgown on her body, which obviously did not belong to her, she snorted in her heart, and a bad premonition suddenly surged up.

But then carefully sensed the body and found that there was no discomfort on the body, which was greatly relieved.

So, she shouldn't have been by that.

But where is this?

Rong Shu lifted the quilt and got out of bed, wearing the soft-soled slippers next to the bed, and then looked around the room with a solemn expression on the thick cashmere carpet.

The room is very large, at first glance, there are at least more than a hundred square meters, and this is not counting the area of rooms such as bathrooms and cloakrooms, just the area of this space where the bed is placed.

And such a large space, actually only put a bed, two bedside tables, there is no other arrangement, it seems that the whole space is particularly cold and cold.

She probably has an answer when she wants to speak.

So, where the hell is this?

And why is she here?

What about her clothes yesterday?

What about bags?

What about cell phones?

Rong Shu's heart tensed, and she quickly looked left and right to look for personal items such as mobile phones.

Although it was not found, something was found on the bedside table, a water cup with a note pressed underneath.

Rong Shu hurriedly went over and removed the water cup and picked up the note, and the familiar sharp handwriting immediately relaxed her uneasy and tense heart.

It turned out that this was not another place, but another residence of Fu Jingting.

She was not tied up here, but Fu Jingting felt that it was too far to return to Repulse Bay, so she came to rest temporarily, just because it was close to the hotel.

Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief, sat down on the edge of the bed again, looked at the note and laughed, "I scared you to death." "

Chapter 1297 – Fu Jingting's Reputation Is Damaged

Rong Shu sat down in front of the sofa and turned on the phone.

As soon as the phone was turned on, it kept ringing.

It took about ten seconds for the phone to completely regain its calm.

It can be seen that after one night, there are still many people looking for her.

Rong Shu flipped her thumb and checked the messages one by one.

A total of three people approached her, one was the current secretary general Lina, asking when she was going to the company today, and there was a meeting to be held at eleven o'clock in the morning.

The other two, one was Mrs. Lu, asked her how the banquet was last night, whether the Wang family harassed Fu Jingting, and whether she suffered any losses.

The last one surprised Rong Shu, it was sent by Cheng Huai, saying that he was about to return to Hai City after the rural inspection tomorrow, and he wanted to invite her to dinner, and tell her something very important by the way.

Rong Shu didn't know what was very important, so she didn't pay attention to it for the time being, but replied to their messages in an instant.

She replied to Lina first, telling the other party that she would return to the company around ten o'clock, and the meeting would be held as usual, without shirking.

Lina was probably waiting for her message, and within a few seconds of her message, she immediately replied and replied with a good sentence.

Rong Shu smiled and sent a message back to Mrs. Lu, telling the other party that the Wang family did not attend last night's banquet, and there was a car accident, and neither she nor Fu Jingting suffered a loss, so Mrs. Lu should not worry.

After sending it, Rong Shu waited for a while, did not wait for Mrs. Lu's reply, and then went to reply to Cheng Huai's message.

Cheng Huai, like Mrs. Lu, probably didn't look at his mobile phone, or he was busy at this time, and he didn't reply to the message.

Rong Shu was also not in a hurry, knowing that they would naturally reply when they saw the message in a while, so there was no need to keep reading, simply put down the mobile phone and go to the kitchen to see the breakfast Fu Jingting left for himself.

Breakfast in the microwave with porridge, dumplings and buns.

He knew that she had never liked Western breakfast, so after being with her, he gradually changed his habit of eating Western breakfast and ate Chinese breakfast.

Therefore, every Chinese breakfast prepared is a variety and tastes good.

Rong Shu turned on the microwave oven, touched the breakfast inside, and found that it was not very hot, so she pressed the switch again to heat.

Two minutes later, Rong Shu was already sitting at the dining table in the living room and had breakfast.

During this time, Mrs. Lu called.

"Aunt. Rong Shu took a sip of porridge and shouted cordially and dependently.

Mrs. Lu responded equally kindly, "Shushu, I saw the news you just had, this matter, I also saw it on the news early this morning, ouch, it scared me a lot, this Wang family, actually had a car accident, or was deliberately retaliated by the enemy, but it is also their retribution, actually deducted the death compensation of the employees, don't blame the family for retaliation, this is good, so as not to let this family, in the future in Huo Huo others."

Rong Shu nodded, "Yes, ruthless people, in the end, there will be no good ending." In short, she did not sympathize with the current fate of the Wang family at all.

"Although the news did not say how much the Wang family was injured, but it has long been spread in our circle, Chairman Wang has become a vegetative person, his daughter has become disabled, although Chairman Wang's wife is fine, but the fact that the Wang family does not compensate employees for death has caused national anger, the above has been thoroughly investigated by the Wang family, the bankruptcy of the Wang family is already a sure thing, if not for Chairman Wang becoming a vegetative person, I estimate that I will have to sit through the bottom of the prison, All in all, the next Wang family will face huge compensation and debts, Chairman Wang has become a vegetative person and has no ability to repay, and his daughter is not disabled, so these debts and compensation must be pressed on Chairman Wang's wife.

Mrs.

Lu sighed, but her face was full of schadenfreude.

Their Lu family is a good family, and they look down on the Wang family the most.

Therefore, the Wang family ended up in this situation, not what it should be.

"Maybe God can't look past them, so I specially let them have an accident before calculating the Jing Court, God is really eye-opening." Mrs. Lu smiled again.

Rong Shu also laughed, "Auntie said so."

"I estimate that the next two days will be the news of the Wang family, and I believe that I will be able to hear the news that the Wang family has filed for bankruptcy this afternoon." Mrs. Lu said.

Rong Shu took a small crystal dumpling and put it in her mouth, and only after eating it did she answer, "This is for sure, the behavior of the Wang family has caused the public indignation of the people of the whole country, and all netizens will pay special attention to this matter, in order to give an explanation to the netizens, they will also report the process of dealing with the Wang family at any time until the end, so in the next few days, there will be news of the Wang family."

"This Wang family's affairs are so big that the news of the Liu family has been suppressed." "

News from the Liu family? Rong Shu was stunned.

Now it was the turn of the old lady to be stunned, “Shushu, don’t you know?”

Rong Shu shook her head, “I don’t know what news the Liu family has been doing recently.” Mrs

. Lu’s face was full of doubts, “This is strange, didn’t Jing Ting tell you, last night the Fu Group issued a statement to the outside world to terminate the teacher-student relationship with Liu Lao, as well as to withdraw all kinds of shelters for the Liu family, and since then there is no connection with the Liu family, this statement came out, instantly on the news headlines, caused an uproar, until this morning the Wang family’s affairs appeared, it was slightly suppressed, but even so, the heat is still very high, Especially in the circle, there is a lot of discussion and want to know.

Chapter 1298 – False Complaints

In fact, Mrs. Lu also felt that if it was really because of Liu Linlin’s behavior last time, Fu Jingting chose to dissolve the teacher-student relationship with his mentor, and also took back all the care for his mentor, it would indeed be too ruthless and cold.

Even if Liu Linlin was really wrong, the Liu family was not kind in doing things, but it would not let Fu Jingting be so indifferent to them.

If Fu Jingting was really so cold, to be honest, let him be with Shushu, she would not be at ease.

However, after meeting Fu Jingting once, she understood that Fu Jingting could not be such a ruthless person, nor could she be a person who implicated the whole family because one person made a mistake.

Therefore, Fu Jingting can treat the Liu family like this, and there are probably other reasons for this.

It’s just that no one knows why.

Hearing Mrs. Lu ask this, Rong Shu did not hide her meaning, and said what Liu Linlin and her two doglegs did last night.

After Mrs. Lu listened, she slapped her thigh in anger, “I said, I must have done something else in this Liu family, otherwise how could Jing Ting do this?” This Liu family is simply a poisonous snake, and the rest of the Liu family is also, one by one, like the maggots in the gutter, there is no moral three views, the younger generation makes mistakes, when the elder not only does not educate well, take the younger generation to apologize together, but actually make trouble with the younger generation, that old man Liu, is simply disrespectful, such an old guy, it is embarrassing to be a teacher. When

Mrs. Lu mentioned Liu Lao, her face was full of contempt and disdain.

Rong Shu pushed the porridge she had eaten to the side, "Yes, I am also very puzzled by this old man, aunt, you don't know, this old man still said bad things about me to Jing Ting before, and persuaded Jing Ting to break up with me."

"And what's going on?" Mrs. Lu was shocked, and then full of anger, "This old thing is really shameless, the student's emotional situation has to intervene, I guess, he said this for his granddaughter, you broke up, isn't his granddaughter a chance?" And also said bad things about people behind their backs, which simply made people laugh off their big teeth, how could there be such an old guy, Jing Ting too, such an old guy who is disrespectful for the old, how does he look at the worship teacher.

"Speaking of which, it may also be a conspiracy. Rong Shu narrowed her eyes.

Mrs. Lu began to be curious, "What do you mean, Shushu?" "

This has to start more than ten years ago, when Jingting University, to carry out more in-depth research on economics topics and obtain a doctorate, so to find a professor supervisor, at that time, the two best economics acceptances in the country were Liu Lao and another Professor Wang, Jingting chose Professor Wang, and the two also made an appointment to visit the teacher, but the day before the visit, Professor Wang suddenly died in an accident, so Jingting could only retreat to the second, chose Liu Lao, otherwise Jing Ting's mentor now is Professor Wang, not Liu Lao.

"So that's the case, I don't have a choice." The old lady nodded abruptly, "I just said, a person like Old Man Liu, Jing Ting can still fancy him as his teacher, how bad Jing Ting's vision is, but the Professor Wang he fancy at the beginning, it's really a pity, it was actually gone the day before the teacher, hey"

Mrs. Lu sighed.

Rong Shu pursed her red lips, "Jing Ting now suspects that Professor Wang's death may be inseparable from Liu Lao, after all, once Professor Wang dies, Liu Lao profits the most, and the details of Professor Wang's death prove that Professor Wang's death is not an accident, but man-made, so Jing Ting thinks in his heart that maybe Professor Wang was killed by Liu Lao, coupled with what Liu Linlin did to me, and the rest of the Liu family's handling of things, Jing Ting was completely dissatisfied with Liu Lao, Only then did he choose to dissolve the teacher-student relationship, otherwise it was really based on Liu Linlin's actions, Jing Ting wanted to dissolve the teacher-student relationship, and also take back the care of the Liu family, which is indeed a bit too much.

“That’s right. The old lady nodded, “So that Professor Wang’s matter, is Jing Ting investigating?”

“That’s right. Rong Shu stood up and walked towards the sofa, “Jing Ting began to suspect, naturally to investigate, Jing Ting intends to avenge Professor Wang, if it is really done by Liu Lao in the end, Jing Ting will certainly not let Liu Lao go, now out of the teacher-student relationship, but also for the next revenge, after all, there is no relationship, revenge does not need to be merciful.”

“Well, I understand, but won’t Jing Ting come out and explain?” Now the Internet does not know that he and Old Man Liu dissolved the relationship, there are these reasons behind it, just think that Liu Linlin did the thing to make Jing Ting dissolve the relationship, so he strongly condemned Jing Ting’s behavior, which is not good for his reputation, not to mention that the group of people in the Liu family are still fanning the flames on the Internet, and the white paper is shaped by how innocent and innocent, it is really infuriating. Mrs. Lu was very upset.

Rong Shu smiled, “Jing Ting will not explain, I don’t know, he didn’t tell me, but I think he is not the kind of person who makes himself suffer, he will definitely do something, finally the Liu family, let them jump, anyway, it won’t be long.”

“Okay, but you better ask Jing Ting, okay Shushu, I won’t tell you first, your uncle’s assistant came, saying that there was a document in the study that I forgot to take, let me find it and bring it to the assistant.” Mrs. Lu stood up and walked upstairs.

Rong Shu snorted, “Okay, my aunt will be busy if she has something, I will also go to work, goodbye.” Putting down the mobile phone, Rong Shu looked at the mobile phone screen, and then quickly went online to check the situation on the Internet.

She didn’t watch the news of the Wang family, so she skipped it directly, after all, she didn’t care about her.

So she went directly to find the news of Fu Jingting and the Liu family.

Although this news is not as hot as the Wang family, it is casual.

said that he was obviously for Jing Ting's brother, even if he was at fault, it would be good to punish her alone, and he shouldn't harm his family, Jing Ting's brother was too much.

also said that grandpa was hit hard by this statement and was already hospitalized in the hospital, and brother Jing Ting didn't even ask a word, and after taking a look, it was too ruthless.

This sentence of crying, said netizens soft-hearted, one after another support her, said that Fu Jingting is indeed too much, the little sister is obviously for him, although he did not understand the facts, the method is also wrong, but it is indeed dedicated to him, he is so cold to the little sister's family, it is indeed too wolf-hearted, not to mention the grandfather of the little sister, or his mentor.

Some netizens also said that Fu Jingting is full of Rong Shu, for a woman, treat his mentor's family like this, are the products under such a person really reliable?

After all, even their own teacher's family is so desperate, will they be responsible for the products of these ordinary people?

For a while, there were many opinions on the Internet.

The vast majority of them stood on Liu Linlin's side and accused Fu Jingting, and a small number of people chose to wait and see.

After all, they have already been punched in the face several times and do not want to be slapped in the face again.

Especially now that Fu Jingting has not come forward to explain, this Liu Linlin's own words alone are nothing.

Of course, this part of the sane people is only a small part, and the vast majority of them believe whoever cries pitifully, and are completely led away.

In the face of this part of netizens, Rong Shu was not angry, but felt that they were quite pitiful, had no brains, and did not have the ability to distinguish the truth.

So, why should she be angry with imbeciles?

Rong Shu shook her head, not looking at the brainless speeches of these netizens, nor at Liu Linlin's fake crying.

She knew why Liu Linlin posted such a live broadcast on the Internet at this time.

It is nothing more than using the sympathy of netizens to force Fu Jingting.

I feel that netizens pity her, sympathize with her, help her speak, and resist Fu Jingting, Fu Jingting will not be able to stand the public's pointing and let the Liu family go.

Oh, it's really naïve and ridiculous.

Fu Jingting was not a successful existence who would be threatened by others, and he hated being threatened.

Liu Linlin's doing this will not only not achieve her goal, but even make Fu Jingting dislike her and the Liu family even more.

And even if netizens boycott the Fu Group, can they really succeed?

Not to mention that Fu's Group is not doing food and daily chemicals, these are easy to be boycotted by netizens for successful businesses.

Fushi Group is mainly engaged in heavy industry, real estate, tourism, electronic technology industry and other industries that involve all aspects of people's lives.

Unless netizens are willing to go into seclusion in the mountains and forests and never set foot in human civilization again, they must buy these to live.

So netizens boycotting the Fu Group is simply a joke.

Don't look at these netizens saying this on the Internet, in fact, they know in their hearts that they are doing this without any use at all, and the vast majority of them are just paying lip service.

Liu Linlin thought she could succeed.

Rong Shu shook her head with a mocking smile, and then called Fu Jingting, wanting to ask him how to solve things on the Internet.

However, Fu Jingting may probably be busy, so Rong Shu's phone called, but no one answered.

Seeing this, Rong Shu was also helpless in his heart, so he had to cut off the phone, intending to call him again later.

Or maybe he's done calling himself.

Of course, now it's imperative for you to change your clothes, pack up and go to work.

Rong Shu picked up several bags containing clothes and returned to the previous room.

By the time she changed her clothes and put on her makeup, it was already ten o'clock.

Rong Shu picked up her bag, picked up the garbage after breakfast, left Fu Jingting's residence, and went to Tiansheng Group.

When it arrived, it was 10:55, five minutes before the meeting time.

This made Rong Shu couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief, fortunately she wasn't late.

"Chairman, are you here? Rong Shu walked out of the elevator and saw Lina waiting for her outside the elevator door.

Rong Shu smiled at him, "Here, sorry to keep you waiting."

Lina shook her head, "The chairman said and smiled, chairman, this is the information for your meeting."

She handed over the paperwork in her hand.

Rong Shu reached out and took it, opened it and glanced at it, and closed it again, "Okay, I know, I'll go to the conference room, trouble you to send my bag to my office, thank you."

"Okay chairman.

Rong Shu took the documents to the conference room, and Lina also put the bag for her.

The meeting is actually not very important, but it also involves the next development direction of Tiansheng Group, so it is still important.

In the conference room, Duan Xingbang glanced at Rong Shu from time to time, his eyes were like poisonous snakes, fierce and poisonous, which made people feel chills.

Even though Rong Shu had long been accustomed to Duan Xingbang often looking at him with malicious eyes, he couldn't help but be uncomfortable by Duan Xingbang's eyes at this time.

In fact, now Duan Xingbang looked at her eyes, and the malice in it was much heavier than before, as if it was about to overflow.

Rong Shu's eyelids drooped slightly, knowing that Duan Xingbang might want to make trouble, or he would calculate her with bad intentions.

Otherwise he wouldn't have looked at her that way.

So Rong Shu straightened her back and secretly became vigilant, so as not to be successfully calculated by him later.

However, strangely, from the beginning to the end of the meeting, Duan Xingbang did not say a word or do anything.

Even after the meeting, he left the conference room directly, ignoring Rong Shu.

Rong Shu “

She felt that she was vigilant in the meeting, vigilant and vigilant against loneliness.

He regarded the other party as an enemy who was ready to strike at any time, so he was fully prepared and ready to make a move.

But who would have thought that the other party did nothing.

It's like singing a one-man show.

But this is fine, at least he has not been harmed.

Rong Shu's body that had been tense finally relaxed, and the whole person curled up on the chair.

Don't say, after being stiff for so long, after relaxing, I was really sore and tired.

Of course, Rong Shu's body relaxed, but not in her heart.

The way Duan Xingbang looked at her at the meeting is still vividly remembered, and she can't ignore it.

People like Duan Xingbang were originally like a poisonous snake, lurking in the grass, waiting for the opportunity to jump out and bite people.

Therefore, Duan Xingbang looked at her like that, definitely not just simply looking at her unpleasantly, he must have secretly planned to do something to her, but he didn't do it now.

But if she didn't do it now, it doesn't mean she won't in the future, so she still can't let her guard down.

Rong Shu thought until the door of the conference room was knocked, and then her thoughts returned, and she turned her head to see that it was Lina standing at the door.

“Chairman, just now I went to your office to put the documents and heard the mobile phone in your bag ringing, so I took it out to help you answer it, it was Mr. Fu calling.

After Lina came in, she handed her mobile phone to Rong Shu, "I told Mr. Fu that you were in a meeting, and that you would call him after the meeting."

"Okay, I see, thank you." Rong Shu took the phone and smiled.

Lina should have turned and left, but then suddenly bit her lower lip and stopped talking.

Rong Shu noticed her abnormality, stopped calling Fu Jingting, and asked with concern, "What's wrong?" Did something happen? "

Chapter 1300: It's Liu Linlin again

"Chairman, it's like this, this morning I went to the cooperative company to deliver documents, and when I drove through a street, I seemed to see Secretary Tong." Lina said.

Rong Shu was surprised, "What did you say?" Secretary Tong?

"Hmm. Lina nodded.

Rong Shu's expression became solemn, "Lina, you're not kidding, how can you see Secretary Tong, didn't she go abroad for further study?" It can't be that you're still abroad, you should be mistaken.

Lina bit her lower lip, "I also thought that I was wrong at first, but the more I thought about it, the more I felt impossible, I worked with Secretary Tong for so long, I know her very well, I am very familiar with her, so later I am sure that I am absolutely not mistaken, that is, Secretary Tong, because I also called Secretary Tong later, the phone could not be reached, and then called Secretary Tong to study at the company where to ask, chairman, guess what to say over there?"

"Secretary Tong is not in their company? Rong Shu squinted.

Lina snorted, "The people in their company said that this year they did recruit a few talents who went to their company for further study, but they were all from Europe and the United States, and there were no Asians, so Secretary Tong lied, she did not go abroad for further study, so I am more sure that the person I saw at that time was Secretary Tong."

"How so? Rong Shu's good-looking eyebrows tightened.

Lina shook her head, "I don't know, no one knows why Secretary Tong told such a lie."

Rong Shu pondered for a moment, "What street did you see her on?"

Lina did not hide it and said the address where she saw Secretary Tong in the morning.

Rong Shu bowed his head slightly, "I know, I also know that you told me that you are concerned about Secretary Tong, don't worry, leave this matter to me, and I will figure out what Secretary Tong is doing."

"Well, I trust you, Chairman. Lina bowed slightly and turned to go out.

After she left, Rong Shu rubbed her temples, temporarily put down Secretary Tong's affairs, and continued to call Fu Jingting.

Although he is friends with Secretary Tong, people are selfish, and of course, it is more important than friends.

After calling Fu Jingting, it is not too late to check Secretary Tong's affairs.

Soon, Fu Jingting's phone was connected, and the man's low and pleasant voice came over, "The meeting is over?" "

It's over. Rong Shu replied with a smile at the corner of her mouth.

On the other end of the phone, Fu Jingting sat reclining behind his desk, holding the mobile phone in one hand and turning the precious fountain pen in the other, not to mention how leisurely and comfortable his posture was.

"You called me before for something online? The man immediately guessed the purpose of Rong Shu's previous call.

Rong Shu smiled, "I know that I can't hide from you, that's right, it's just for this matter, now people on the Internet are saying that you are ruthless and ruthless, and you are too ruthless to the mentor family, is it a white-eyed wolf, don't you come forward to explain and explain?"

Fu Jingting's gaze fell on the computer in front of him, and the corners of his mouth hooked an icy arc.

Apparently, he is also watching what is happening online.

"There is nothing to explain to these brainless ones, wouldn't it be more useful to just throw out evidence and hit them in the face? The end of the man's pen tapped lightly on the cold tabletop.

Rong Shu smiled, "That's what I said, so you're going to directly post what the Liu family has done online?" Including Professor Wang's thing?

Fu Jingting was noncommittal, "They dare to do it, naturally they must be mentally prepared to be made public one day, as for Professor Wang's matter, I have now determined that it is indeed related to Liu Lao, but there is no definite evidence, so I will not send it for the time being."

Rong Shu nodded, and then said, "It's just that in this way, there are still people who think that you are excessive, it is true that Liu Linlin tried to murder me last night, but I am currently fine, some netizens with brains will grasp this point, saying that I am fine, you are still so desperate."

Fu Jingting's eyes burst with a cold light, "These people are stupid, let them commit, we don't need to consider their mood, after all, the things I publish are never for them to show these fools, but for those who are smart, those who understand the concept of right and wrong."

Rong Shu was amused by the man's words, "That's what I said, so you are now" "

President Fu."

Before she finished speaking, she heard a knock on the door from the man's end, and the voice of Assistant Zhang calling Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting raised his eyes, "What happened?"

Rong Shu knew that the man was not asking himself, and smiled and said, "Since Assistant Zhang has something to find you, then you talk to Assistant Zhang first, I also have something to prepare, the mall counter that was negotiated last night, the better the contract is signed at two o'clock this afternoon, now the time is about the same, I should also go busy." Before she could say a few words or hear her voice, the phone was about to hang up.

To be honest, Fu Jingting was a little unhappy in his heart.

However, he also knew that she was actually very career-minded, and she didn't want to delay his time to talk about things, so she chose this time to interrupt the phone.

Let's go back in the evening and continue.

Fu Jingting answered, ended the call with Rong Shu, and then put down the mobile phone, his eyes looked at Assistant Zhang who walked in with compassion.

Assistant Zhang paused in his steps.

What's the situation?

Mr. Fu seemed to be a little unwilling to see him.

Did he do something wrong?

Just as Assistant Zhang was thinking worriedly, Fu Jingting spoke coldly, "What happened?"

Assistant

Zhang had to suppress the confusion in his head, restored his positive appearance, pushed his glasses and replied, "President Fu, our people have found an important clue about the Wang family's car accident. "

Wang family car accident?" Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes, "Didn't I say it, this matter has nothing to do with us, no need to continue to stare, how?" No one listens to me now?

Assistant Zhang quickly shook his head, "President Fu, it's not like this, after you ordered it down yesterday, I let people withdraw as soon as possible, but when our people withdrew again, they picked up a calling card at the scene, and then our people curiously checked the calling card, and found that the card holder was the driver who retaliated against the Wang family, and the most important thing was that this driver saved Liu Linlin's phone number in the card, There are also some text messages that Liu Linlin gave him. "

Liu Linlin?" Fu Jingting's face was stunned.

Assistant Zhang hurriedly handed over the document in his hand, "Yes, it's Liu Linlin, last night we didn't speculate, this car accident is not as simple as the driver seeking revenge, there is still a force involved, but because it has nothing to do with us, we didn't investigate, who knew that our people saw the calling card and found that the force was Liu Linlin, This is the call record and text message content between Liu Linlin and the driver, you can take a look.

Fu Jingting reached out and took it.

There are a total of ten call logs, each of which is about five minutes long.

But. Since the calling card does not have the function of storing the content of the call, it only knows the number and time of calls, and does not know the content of the call.

But the content of the SMS can be stored.

Fu Jingting will let him look at the content of these text messages, and the more he looks at it, the deeper his brows wrinkle.

As Assistant Zhang said, Liu Linlin is indeed this force.

Funnily, last night they guessed that another force should also have a feud with the Wang family, so they helped the driver take revenge on the Wang family.

But now reality has slapped them, Liu Linlin has no feud with the Wang family, and the reason why she did this is completely because she wants to prevent the Wang family from attending the banquet.
