Chapter 1301: Making It Public

Just for such a ridiculous reason, Liu Linlin was able to do this, and this trip was simply outrageous.

It is true that the Wang family is not a good thing, and they deserve to end up being retaliated against.

But the Wang family and Liu Linlin do not have any hatred and grudges, but Liu Linlin can design the Wang family's car accident for such a reason, causing the Wang family to die.

You can imagine how dangerous a person like Liu Linlin is.

He even realized that Liu Linlin's hand on Rong Shu was light these two times, otherwise Rong Shu was now holding Fu Jingting tightly squeezed his mobile phone and did not continue to think about it.

He only has one idea now, that is, to send Liu Linlin in, otherwise let this woman outside, maybe let Xiao Yezi experience many dangers.

After all, this kind of person, he can prevent it for a while, but he can't let it go for a lifetime, unless he directly kills this woman.

Otherwise, this woman, as long as she has a little chance, will come out to play a prank.

Fu Jingting snapped and closed the document in his hand, his face was full of gloom, "Judging from what was found on this document, Liu Linlin is the mastermind of that driver's revenge on the Wang family." "

Yes, because whether it is breaking the brakes or planning this car accident, it was planned by Liu Linlin from beginning to end, the driver said that it was the mastermind, but now it seems that it is better to be a puppet, after all, the driver did not have the ability to take revenge on the Wang family at the beginning, it was Liu Linlin who gave him the idea and convenience, so even if Liu Linlin did not drive directly to hit someone, but in the sentencing of the criminal case, she is also the mastermind, Even worse in nature than that driver, the driver went to hit the Wang family because he had a feud with the Wang family, but Liu Linlin did not, it was completely because of her own selfish desires, so she was undoubtedly the mastermind. Assistant Zhang nodded back.

Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes, "Do the police know over there?"

Assistant

Zhang shook his head, "I don't know, because the calling card was picked up by our people, so the police don't know that there is such a thing, I guess this calling card should also be Liu Linlin let the driver dispose of before making a move, that is, I was afraid that the calling card would be found by the police, thus exposing her, but she never expected that the driver's way of handling the calling card was not rigorous, and it was directly thrown not far from the scene of the accident, rather than directly damaged, That's what our people picked up.

He thought that God should not be able to see the evil deeds of Liu Linlin, a woman, so they let their people pick up this calling card.

But it's really embarrassing to say.

Liu Linlin has such a cute face, but her heart is full of malice.

"Give this and the calling card to the police. Fu Jingting handed the document to Assistant Zhang.

After Assistant Zhang took it, "President Fu, this is handed over to the police, then what awaits Liu Linlin may be life imprisonment, or even the death penalty, you" "

Do you think I will care?" Fu Jingting raised his eyes and looked at him lightly, "I don't even care about Liu Lao, will I still care about her?"

Assistant

Zhang pushed his glasses and smiled, "I'm sorry Mr. Fu, I said too much, I know what to do, I'll let people send them to the police."

Fu Jingting snorted, "After sending it over, I will also make this matter public on the Internet." "

Open online? Assistant Zhang was slightly surprised.

Fu Jingting was noncommittal, with a cold look in his eyes, "You have already seen the things on the Internet, right?"

"Yes.

"If I just disclose what Liu Linlin did last night, and those fools on the Internet still think that I am cruel to the Liu family, then let this matter out, will they still have something to say?"

Assistant

Zhang suddenly said, "So that's the case, okay, I will notify the public relations department to issue a statement."

Fu Jingting raised his chin, "How are the other two doing now?"

Assistant

Zhang thought for a moment and replied, "The evidence of the two violations of the law and discipline, the people below have all been collected, they are not cautious in doing things, so it is easy to find out the evidence of their violation of the law, I estimate, the people below have been handed over to the discipline inspection department, I believe that soon you can hear the news that these two companies have been thoroughly investigated, as for the two women, they are still lying in the hospital, and they have been kicked out of the house, These two also posted statements online, but there is more news today, so the statements of these two companies did not make any splashes.

Fu Jingting bowed his head slightly, indicating that he understood, "These two and those two women don't have to care, just stare at the Liu family." It was also a pity to say that he originally hoped that these two women could fight with Liu Linlin.

Unexpectedly, Liu Linlin also did this secretly.

Liu Linlin's fate is already predetermined.

When these two women are discharged from the hospital, it is estimated that Liu Linlin has already been sent to prison.

So these two sides are destined to be unable to fight.

But there are no absolutes.

In case Liu Linlin did something they don't know, but these two women know bad things, maybe these two women will report it, and then Liu Linlin's crime will be aggravated?

"Go ahead. Fu Jingting's thin lips slightly curved and waved his hand at Assistant Zhang.

Assistant Zhang went out with the documents.

Soon, the public relations department of Fu Group announced the direct reason why Fu Jingting broke off relations with the Liu family, and there were five reasons.

First, Liu Linlin deliberately created a scandal for Rong Shu, which caused his dissatisfaction, and the Liu family not only did not repent or apologize, but also became arrogant and came to the door to curse people.

Second, at last night's banquet, Liu Linlin incited two attendants to come to the door to provoke and smash the door of his and Rong Shu's lounge.

Third, Liu Linlin attempted to murder Rong Shu's personal safety.

Fourth, Liu Linlin deliberately killed people and planned the Wang family car accident, resulting in the death of the Wang family driver, the brain death of the chairman of the Wang family, and the disabled legs of the Wang family, which was a monstrous crime.

Fifth, evidence collection is not being published.

Below these reasons, corresponding evidence is attached, especially the third and fourth points.

Third, Fu Group attached the surveillance video of Liu Linlin trying to push Rong Shu on the corridor outside the banquet bathroom last night.

Liu Linlin thought that there was no monitoring there, but in fact, the people who participated in the banquet last night were either rich or expensive, and the banquet host and his wife were afraid that these people would have an accident, and they could not be responsible, so they let the hotel install monitoring in various places at their own expense, especially some places where others thought there would be no monitoring.

Although the toilet was not installed, it was installed in the overhead ventilation duct of the corridor outside the bathroom, and all of Liu Linlin's actions towards Rong Shu last night were all monitored and recorded.

When Liu Linlin stretched out her hand towards Rong Shu, the malice on her face was clearly recorded, and it made people look longing, obviously it was an angel-like cute face, but after being dyed with malice, it actually became so ugly and terrible.

Netizens in front of the computer or mobile phone looked at Liu Linlin's face and couldn't help but snort.

In the fourth point, the evidence attached by the Fu Group, although it is not a surveillance video, but a scanned copy, but the content in this scan is more frightening than the surveillance of the third point.

Just because in this scan, it is Liu Linlin and the otherThe content of a text message sent by a stranger, these text messages, in detail, recorded how Liu Linlin planned a car accident, how to let people break the brakes of others, if the perpetrator was waiting to attack people, etc., one by one, it was creepy and heinous to watch.

For a while, the entire network exploded.

Chapter 1302 – The Liu Family Is Over

They are all ordinary people, although they know that the water in the wealthy circle is very deep, and none of the people in the wealthy are clean and good people.

But like Liu Linlin, who is planning to kill people in a car accident, they really see it for the first time.

“God, just to prevent others from attending the banquet, he planned a car accident for someone to kill someone, is this Liu family a devil?”

“It’s terrible, it’s really terrible, I know that these rich people are not clean in their hands, but I can at most think about digging holes for people, now it seems that I am too simple, I never expected that they can easily ask for people’s lives, is it that in the eyes of these rich people, the law is a child’s play?”

“Strongly demand that the above thoroughly investigate these rich people, I am sure that this Liu Linlin is definitely not the first, and certainly not the last, maybe among these rich people, there are more vicious than her.” “

That’s right, support, strong demand for a thorough investigation.” As soon as this comment came out, it was supported by all netizens.

They all asked for a response from these departments to thoroughly investigate these families.

No one doubted the fake published by the Fu Group.

After all, the status of the Fu Group is there, and it is impossible to joke about this kind of thing.

What’s more, the Liu family is still Fu Jingting’s mentor family, and Liu Linlin is also Fu Jingting’s granddaughter.

If Liu Linlin hadn’t really done these things, they believed that even if Liu Linlin targeted Rong Shu several times, Fu Jingting would definitely not do it.

All in all, those netizens who felt that Fu Jingting was ruthless to the Liu family before also turned their backs and supported Fu Jingting at this time.

They are easy to be led by, they are a little stupid, they like to sympathize with the weak, and whoever cries pitifully is easy to believe whom.

But that doesn’t mean they’re going to support a murderer.

A person can be forgiven for making a mistake, but killing someone is absolutely not.

“No wonder President Fu is so determined to break off relations with the Liu family, it turns out that there are still these reasons, I will say, how can President Fu be a deluded and irrational comatose monarch like others say, and he broke off relations with his mentor just because of a small matter.”

“Upstairs, you don’t seem to have said that before.

“That is, I felt from beginning to end that there must be a problem here, and I didn’t doubt President Fu, but now it seems that my foresight is right, haha, those cubs who scolded me for brainlessly believing in President Fu and supporting President Fu were planted to die.” “

Death?

How can it be!

It’s impossible to die, but they can delete the comments about diving.

After Fu Jingting publicly explained that he broke off relations with the mentor family, some netizens who jumped out to accuse Fu Jingting of wolf heart and dog lungs, white-eyed wolf, and the six relatives did not recognize each other turned red and red, deleted their speeches one after another, and even changed their original screen names.

I was afraid that I would be ridiculed by netizens who did not say Fu Jingting.

In short, now they feel embarrassed in their hearts, and at the same time, they also hate Liu Linlin.

This woman is so vicious and has done these things, how can she be embarrassed to cry on the Internet that she didn’t do anything, and only accidentally did a small thing wrong?

So this group of netizens began to pour into the video that Liu Linlin cried about before, and began to attack, and all kinds of vicious words and curse words were all sent.

When the network administrator saw these comments, although he frowned and found it difficult to hear, he did not stop it selfishly.

Just because Liu Linlin’s behavior is too vicious, it is completely beyond everyone’s imagination.

This is murder.

Even if the Wang family is not a good thing, the Wang family has no feud with Liu Linlin.

But Liu Linlin was able to attack the Wang family, who had no hatred, for a ridiculous reason.

Think about it differently, is it if they accidentally provoke her one day, will they also be solved by her?

Because of this, netizens will have such a big anger towards Liu Linlin.

Of course, although the vast majority of netizens are attacking Liu Linlin and the Liu family at this time, there are also a small number of them who continue to eat melons.

And the content of their melon eating is the fifth article of the statement issued by the Fu Group.

“What do you mean? What is insufficient evidence and not published for the time being? Could it be that this Liu Linlin, or what else did the Liu family do?”

“It should be, otherwise there would be no evidence, that is, I don’t know how to do things compared to the fourth point?”

“I think it’s definitely heavier than the fourth point.”

“What did the upstairs say, explain and explain?”

“yes, explain the explanation. The netizen who was kept on getting up was also a little fluttering at this time, and slowly typed back: “You see, the crimes released by the Fu Group about that Liu Linlin are all heavier than one by one, especially the third and fourth points, the third point Liu Linlin is ready to harm Miss Rong behind her back, but everyone knows that this is flat ground, after pushing down, it will not necessarily kill people, but the fourth point Liu Linlin directly destroys the brakes of others, This is obviously mortal, so the fourth point of crime is heavier than the third point, so in the same way, the fifth point must be heavier than the fourth point.

“Makes sense, if that’s the case, then what does this undisclosed fifth point do?”

“This is for the Fu Group.

So under the trend of curiosity, netizens rumored under Fu Jingting’s platform, hoping that Fu Jingting could tell them.

Fu Jingting naturally couldn't tell them that they were not dead, and went to those relevant departments of Aite, hoping that the relevant departments would investigate, find out as soon as possible, and give them an explanation to their netizens.

Not only ordinary people eat melons, people in wealthy circles are also secretly rubbing melons, when they see these netizens Menaite these relevant departments, to thoroughly investigate these wealthy families, they are all terrified.

They knew very well what they had done, even if they were not as frustrated as Liu Linlin, they were definitely not clean.

So these people scolded the nosy netizens one by one not lightly, but also quickly swept their tails, evaded taxes, began to secretly make up, did not compensate the employees in place, but also secretly made up, some use defective materials to produce products, but also replaced with good materials.

In short, they are really afraid that these departments will check them in order to calm the clamor of these netizens, and if they really find out, what awaits them is the same fate as the Wang family.

So just in case, make up for what should be made, pay for what should be paid, and change what should be exchanged.

I have to say that it is still beneficial for Fu Jingting to publish these things.

His reputation was cleansed, and he also cleaned the foul-smelling mall.

This is also a good thing for Rong Shu and Fu Jingting.

Especially Rong Shu, she didn't expect that behind the Wang family's car accident, there was actually Liu Linlin's shadow.

No, not a shadow.

Liu Linlin is the mastermind.

Fu Jingting announced this matter, and Liu Linlin spent the rest of her life in prison without running.

Send a poisonous snake in, and you don't have to worry about jumping out and biting people at any time in the future, isn't it a good thing for Rong Shu?

And this is not a good thing for the Liu family and Liu Linlin.

It's a bad thing.

Damn a bad thing!

At this time, Liu Lao, who was still hospitalized with the Liu family, did not know about the Internet.

Chapter 1303 – The End Is Doomed

Liu Lao suddenly fell, like a bomb, exploding in the hearts of everyone in the Liu family, making them become panicked.

They all knew that the pillar of the Liu family was not any of them, but the old man.

The old man's status as a professor allows the old man to have a lot of contacts in the academic community.

These old people in academia also have a network of relationships in various industries.

Therefore, as long as the Liu family has something and needs to find someone to help, as long as the old man comes forward and contacts these friends in academia, most of them can solve it.

And the most important point is that the old man is still Jing Ting's mentor.

There are some things that the old man's friends in academia can't accomplish, and finding Jing Ting can definitely do.

It can be said that the reason why the Liu family has been able to stand tall is precisely because of the presence of the old man.

Once the old man suddenly dies, those old men in academia will no longer take care of their Liu family.

Even Jing Ting will slowly break off contact with their Liu family.

Although Jing Ting has now broken off contact with their Liu family, at least if the old man survives, it is possible to regain the relationship.

But if the old man dies, then there is no hope.

Therefore, they didn't want the old man to have an accident at all, so after learning that the old man issued a statement severing relations because of Jing Ting, they were greatly stimulated to fall, and they were almost scared to the point that their souls flew, and then they hurriedly left their work to accompany them in the hospital.

Unexpectedly, the diagnosis and treatment results given by the hospital were that the old man had symptoms of moderate stroke, and his physical condition would drop significantly after waking up.

For example, before the old man walked without a pestle crutches, in the future, he must also use crutches to be able to walk, a little more serious, and even have to travel in a wheelchair.

For example, in the past, the old man spoke and moved very neatly, and in the future, his speech may become vague, or his stutter is not light, his movements will become slow, and he may even be unable to hold things steadily.

All in all, this time, the old man will no longer be tough, and will become a sick and weak old man who needs to be taken care of at any time.

And this is also a considerable blow to the Liu family.

Even if the old man did not die made them relieved, but the old man's body was completely collapsed, and I don't know how long he can live in the future.

As soon as this result came out, the Liu family was sad one by one, making the atmosphere of the entire ward low.

Liu Mu even cried several times.

Although Father Liu did not cry, he also looked stunned, while Liu Linlin stood by the window sill, expressionless, not knowing what she was thinking.

As for the rest of the Liu family, they also got the news at this time, and those who were abroad were preparing to return to China, and those who were in other places were also preparing to return to Hai City.

After all, Liu Lao is like this, can they not come back to see him?

What if I don't see it?

"Oh, husband, how did you say things got like this? Mother Liu sat next to Father Liu, still sobbing softly, "Why did you say that Dad suddenly fell down?"

Father Liu was very impatient by her crying, "Okay, don't cry, you ask me who I ask?" I also want to know how my father and Lin Lin went to a banquet, how did they anger Jing Ting again, and let Jing Ting directly issue a statement to sever relations with our Liu family. The husband and wife said, looking at Liu Linlin standing by the window together.

Obviously, their conversation was for her.

The husband and wife did not ask Liu Linlin this question.

Liu Lao has not woken up yet, so they can only ask Liu Linlin.

After all, it was Liu Linlin and Old Master Liu who went to the banquet.

However, Liu Linlin never opened her mouth to tell them what happened at the banquet, no matter how they asked.

No way, they can only stage such a play.

But Liu Linlin's heart was like a scale, hard and cold, no matter how sad Liu Mu cried, she never spoke.

Even asked too much, and was impatient.

"Okay, cry what to cry, what to ask, the priority now is to figure out how to solve this matter, and when grandpa wakes up, it is better to see that we have solved the matter instead of crying here." Liu Linlin glanced at her parents impatiently.

Rao is Liu's father and Liu mother, who are accustomed to their daughters not being kind to Liu Lao, and hitting Liu Linlin's eyes like this still hurts the hearts of the husband and wife.

Father Liu scolded, "Liu Linlin, we are your parents, what is your attitude?" Did you talk to your parents like that?

Liu Linlin smiled disdainfully, "If I could, I wouldn't want to be your daughter at all, two useless waste." "

You"

Father Liu and Mother Liu were not lightly angry.

At this moment, the door of the ward was pushed open by the nurse, and the nurse walked in with a displeased face, "Endlessly, do you know what place this is?" Don't you see the words of the still noise on the wall? It's still noisy here, your patients don't need to rest, other patients do. The nurse's voice fell, and the ward instantly fell silent, and everyone looked at her with incredulous eyes.

Obviously, I couldn't believe how this nurse could use such an attitude, and then she could only talk to them in a tone.

Soon, Liu Linlin reacted, her eyes widened, and her face was distorted, "What are you, dare to talk to us like this, you don't want to do it, do you?" "

Yes, her Liu family is now down.

But not yet.

It's easy to get a whole little nurse.

However, the nurse did not have the slightest fear of Liu Linlin's words, but laughed disdainfully, "If before today, Miss Liu, you said so, I might still be afraid, but now I am not afraid, after all, you are a murderer, you will soon go to prison, what else can you do with me?"

A murderer, Liu Linlin's face changed greatly, and her pupils contracted, "What do you mean?" What murderer? "

Does this man know what happened last night?

No, it can't be!

This matter, she did so hidden, even Jing Ting's brother didn't know, how could she know.

So it's fake, it must be fake.

Liu Linlin comforted herself so much in her heart, but I don't know why, the more comforting she was, the more calm her heart became, and the more flustered she was.

Although Father Liu and Mother Liu were also hurt by Liu Linlin just now, they still love this daughter after all, naturally they can't hear others say so about their daughter, and immediately stood up with an ugly face, pointing at the nurse is a scolding, "What nonsense are you talking about, what murderer, do you believe us to sue you for slander?" "

It is. Father Liu nodded.

The nurse despised Pouted, "slander? I didn't slander your daughter, your daughter is a murderer, extremely vicious, now it has been spread on the Internet, your daughter designed the Wang family car accident for a ridiculous reason, instead of arguing with me here, you should think about what greetings you will bring to see your daughter in prison in the future.

After

that, the nurse glanced at Liu Linlin with a sneer, and pushed the small medicine cart away.

In the ward, Liu's father and Liu's mother were full of blanks.

What did the nurse just say?

It is said that their daughter planned the car accident of the Wang family last night, and now it has spread all over the Internet?

How is this possible!

How could their daughter be so vicious, and how could she have this ability!

It must have been rumored by people on the Internet.

Yes, it must be!

The two thought like this, and looked towards Liu Linlin in unison.

However, when they saw Liu Linlin's pale and flustered appearance, the hearts of the husband and wife suddenly fell to the bottom.

Chapter 1304 – Door-to-door arrest

They were her parents and naturally knew her very well.

They knew that from childhood to adulthood, as long as what she had done was exposed, she was so pale and flustered.

That is, what the nurse just said is true, their daughter, really killed someone!

Realizing this, Liu Mu only felt that the roar in her ears was constantly sounding, and she couldn't breathe up, and her eyes were dark, and she fainted.

Father Liu was startled when he saw Liu Mu, who had fainted, and quickly caught her and put her on the sofa on the side.

This is a high-class ward with a sofa lounge.

After Father Liu put the person on the sofa, he looked at Liu Linlin with a pair of eyes full of disbelief, "Linlin, what the nurse said just now is true?" Did you really kill someone?
Father

Liu's voice was hoarse, and it took a while to finish a complete sentence.

Although he is not a good person, he has never wanted to kill people.

He would never be able to do such a thing as killing, and he would not dare to do it.

But he never expected that his daughter would dare.

When Liu Linlin saw Father Liu's eyes that had completely recognized her killing, a burst of anger suddenly rushed to the sky, and she roared with a fierce face: "What do you mean, you believe that nurse's words, really think I killed someone?" Father

Liu's mouth twitched twice, "I don't believe it either, but your performance makes me" "

I don't!" Liu Linlin seemed to be greatly stimulated, and her voice interrupted his phone with a sharp voice, and the volume was surprisingly high, "I didn't kill anyone, I didn't!" "

She just did something on the Wang family's car, and just notified the fisherman who had a feud with the Wang family."

For the rest, she didn't do anything.

It was not the Wang family that she crashed to death, so why say that she killed someone.

She didn't kill, she just didn't.

Looking at Liu Linlin's roaring like crazy, Father Liu's mouth opened and he couldn't speak.

He was now fully convinced that his daughter had really killed someone.

Otherwise, her emotions and reactions would not have been so great.

Father Liu only felt cold, pointing at Liu Linlin's fingers were trembling, looking at her eyes, it was the same as looking at a stranger, "Linlin, how did you do this kind of thing of killing!"

He asked bitterly.

He is a bad person, and the worst thing he can do is to frame others and cause others to be taken away by disciplinary inspections.

In addition, the most is to take advantage of some small advantages, and rob others of cooperation and business with Fu Jingting, and does not harm other people's names.

But his daughter saw

Father Liu's sad look, Liu Linlin knew that no matter what he said, he would not believe that she did not kill, and his heart suddenly broke off the idea of explaining, and sneered, "Anyway, you decided that I killed someone, right?" And then what? Report me? Okay, if you want to report me, go quickly. "

She looked fearless.

Anyway, in her opinion, she just let people destroy the Wang family's car, leak the Wang family's travel with the fisherman, and help the fisherman come up with an idea of revenge.

These were not her own hands, how can it be said that she also killed people.

She was innocent, she didn't kill anyone if she didn't do it herself.

She even thought that even if Father Liu reported herself and was arrested, she would definitely be fine.

Father Liu was stunned by Liu Linlin's words.

Report your daughter?

No, he never thought about it.

Even if Lin Lin does not wait to see his father, even if Lin Lin kills someone, she is always his daughter.

He never thought of calling the police to get his daughter.

Therefore, he naturally did not go back to report it.

When he said these words, he was just shocked, shocked at how his daughter dared.

For a while, Father Liu was speechless, and the whole person fell into silence.

Because he didn't know what to say.

Liu Linlin didn't care what he thought, seeing that he didn't speak, stopped those ridiculous questions, and was happy to see it in his heart.

Then, she took out her mobile phone and prepared to see what the nurse said, and the news of her murder was all over the Internet, what was going on.

How was the car accident she designed for the Liu family exposed?

Didn't the fisherman already promise her to dispose of all the evidence of her connection before hitting someone?

Why are you still exposed online?

Liu Linlin bit her lip and rummaged through her mobile phone, and soon knew the reason, it was Fu Jingting.

It's Brother Jing Ting!

Liu Linlin's eyes were blood-red, and the hand holding the mobile phone was shaking, looking at the content of the mobile phone in disbelief.

It was actually Fu Jingting who exposed it on the Internet.

But how did he know?

Liu Linlin thought for a moment in her heart, and after she couldn't think of an answer, her eyes stared at the mobile phone, and her breathing became rapid.

Brother Jing Ting, what does this mean?

How could he do that!

He exposed these online, do you know how much trouble it will cause her? How damaging was it to her reputation?

Liu Linlin's scarlet eyes overflowed with tears, and not only her hands were shaking, but her whole body was trembling.

She couldn't accept Fu Jingting treating her like this.

Fu Jingting treated her like this, he was cold-blooded and ruthless, and he didn't think about what it would bring her.

"Brother Jing Ting, you are really ruthless. Liu Linlin bit her lower lip desperately, her voice full of hatred and sadness.

She felt that by doing this, Fu Jingting betrayed her and betrayed her feelings for him.

She loved him so much and treated him so well, but at this time, Liu

Linlin didn't think about how she treated Fu Jingting.

When she cried on the Internet, deliberately distorted the facts, concealed other things she had done, let netizens misunderstand Fu Jingting, and scolded Fu Jingting for being wolf-hearted, she didn't want to think about what she would bring to Fu Jingting by doing so?

In short, Liu Linlin is a person who is right no matter what she does, it is all right, but if others treat her in the same way, it is not okay, it is sorry for her, it is to fail her.

It's one anyway Only she can fail others, and cannot be responsible for her extreme existence.

For a time, Liu Linlin was heartbroken, and at the same time, a huge hatred for Fu Jingting rose in her heart.

She even swore that since Fu Jingting hurt her and failed her every time, then she wouldn't love him either.

She also wanted to take revenge on him and let him taste her pain.

And these stupid netizens who jumped around and scolded her on the Internet, she also had to clean up them all one by one.

It's just that the imagination is beautiful, but the reality is cruel.

The moment Liu Linlin was just raising the idea of revenge, there was a knock on the ward door.

Father Liu didn't think much about it, took a deep breath and went to open the door, but after the door opened, when he saw two people in police uniforms standing outside the door, his face suddenly changed.

If he saw the police officers, not only would he not panic, but he would impatiently ask them what they were doing here.

But now, knowing that his daughter had killed someone, when he looked at the police officer again, he could only be panicked and nervous.

"Do you have something going on? Father Liu held the door handle tightly with both hands and asked with a worried expression.

In fact, he knew very well in his heart the purpose of these two people coming here.

But if he could, he would rather follow the two people and send them away.

Then your daughter will be safe.

The two police officers naturally also saw all the reactions of Father Liu when he saw them.

After the two looked at each other, one of the police officers took out his certificate and shook it in front of Liu's father, and said coldly: "Hello Mr. Liu, we have a case involving your daughter, so I want to see your daughter, is your daughter there?" "

Sure enough, he came to find Linlin.

Father Liu's mind exploded, and he hurriedly replied loudly: "No, my daughter is not there, you go, hurry up, you want to find my daughter to find it elsewhere, this is my father's ward, only me and my father, there is no one else, you go quickly." With that, he was closing the door.

But where are the two police officers so easy to send, as soon as their feet arrive at the crack of the door, Father Liu's door cannot be closed.

The policeman who spoke just now looked at Father Liu with a smile, "Mr. Liu, we went to your house before we came, and the maid of your family told us that all three of you are accompanying Mr. Liu in the hospital, and we have just asked the nurse front desk on this floor, and the front desk said that I did not see Miss Liu come and leave, that is to say, Miss Liu is still here, so Mr. Liu, please cooperate with us and let Miss Liu come out." Otherwise, you are obstructing official business, and according to the regulations, we can also take you away. "

Take him away too?

Liu Lao's face froze.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the two police officers directly pushed Father Liu aside and walked into the ward.

Father Liu's shoulder hit the wall, only then did he react, his face changed greatly, and he hurriedly turned around and followed the ward, "What do you mean?" Is that how you become a police officer? Do you know what your behavior is called, this is called illegal invasion, you "

The two police officers don't care about Father Liu's words."

The officer who spoke before nodded to the other officer.

The police officer turned around directly, opened his arms, and stopped Father Liu, preventing Father Liu from coming forward to stop them.

Of course, Father Liu was not willing to be stopped just like this, and struggled several times.

But the body, which had long been hollowed out by alcohol and pleasure, could not compare with the police officer who exercised every day, and was quickly escorted out of the ward by the police officer.

They decided to take Father Liu to the police station for questioning as well.

This person repeatedly prevented them from coming to Liu Linlin, obviously knowing what Liu Linlin had done.

Since this is the case, there is a suspicion of shielding Liu Linlin, so it is best to bring it back together.

Father Liu was taken out, and the ward was quiet all of a sudden.

The policeman who remained in the ward first glanced at the ward, and there was no Liu Linlin in the ward except for the old man lying on the bed and Mrs. Liu lying on the sofa.

This made the officer's brows furrow and become a little irritable.

Is Liu Linlin really not here?

But no matter what the news shows, Liu Linlin did come here and did not leave.

Even Mr. Liu's reaction just now undoubtedly did not mean that Liu Linlin was here.

So now Liu Linlin is hiding somewhere in the ward?

Just as the police officer was thinking about whether to look for it, the bathroom door opened, and Liu Linlin came out of it with a gloomy face and wet hands.

Seeing her, the policeman's eyes lit up, and the corners of his mouth also hooked a smile.

It seems that there is no need to look for it, the people themselves came out.

Liu Linlin also noticed that Father Liu was no longer in the ward, and there was another stranger.

At first, Liu Linlin still wanted to ask who the other party was, but the next second, when she saw the police uniform on the other party, her face turned white.

Even if she still didn't think that her actions were murder, she still felt inexplicably afraid when she saw the police officer behind her.

"You"

Liu Linlin gritted her teeth, and was about to preemptively drive people away, thinking that maybe the other party was just going wrong, and after driving people away, it should be fine.

However, just after she finished saying a word, the other party took out his own evidence and looked at her with a cold face, "Hello Miss Liu, we found out that you are suspicious in the Wang family car accident case last night, so please come with us."

Liu Linlin's pupils shrank and subconsciously retreated, "What are you talking nonsense? Who is suspicious? What does the Wang family car accident have to do with me? I don't go with you, please go back, otherwise I will call to complain about you, don't think it's a police officer is great, hurry up, otherwise don't blame me for being unkind. The police officer was not surprised by Liu Linlin's reaction, after all, he had seen too much.

Almost every suspect who sees these police officers reacts this way.

Therefore, the police officer laughed, "Miss Liu, whether the car accident has anything to do with you, it's not that you have the final say, it's not me who has the final say, but the evidence has the final say, and now according to the evidence we have, you can't get rid of this matter, so please come with us, otherwise you are resisting arrest, and the consequences are very serious."

However, as if she hadn't heard the words resisting arrest, Liu Linlin roared emotionally, "Roll, you give me a roll, I didn't do anything, you have no right to let me pass, hurry up and roll me!"

She pointed to the door.

The policeman's face sank, and he lost patience, and directly removed the handcuffs from his waist, "Miss Liu, we have invited you twice, and both times you refused to cooperate, since this is the case, then don't blame me for being unkind, I came this time with the arrest warrant issued above, so I have the right to handcuff you, sorry."
After

that, the police officer moved quickly, grabbed Liu Linlin at once, pressed her backhand against the wall, and then handcuffed her two hands.

Liu Linlin couldn't move, especially at the moment when she felt the cold handcuffs roasting her, her whole person was completely panicked, completely afraid, and kept struggling and screaming, "Let go of me, you let go of me, I didn't kill, I didn't kill, you have no right to torture me, let go of me!"

Her screams were particularly harsh, and the officer's face became pained when she heard it, and she quickly put a hand over her ear.

It has to be said.

Chapter 1306 – Hi Da Benpu

How could the people who the police want to take away not take away because they were blocked.

In that case, wouldn't it be possible for people to trample on the ground with the majesty of their police?

The policeman's face turned bad, and he looked at Liu Mu with a serious expression, "Mrs. Liu, I advise you to get out of the way, your obstruction is obstructing official business, and we can also take you away with us, so Mrs. Liu, if you don't want to go to the police station with us for investigation, please get out of the way, otherwise you will go with us."

As soon as these words came out, Mrs. Liu's open arm subconsciously lowered some.

But soon he thought of something, raised his arm again, and his expression returned to firmness, "I don't know what doesn't hinder official business, I just know that you are going to take my daughter, and as a mother, I will never allow you to do this."

The officer rubbed his temples, "It seems that it doesn't make sense, since that's the case, let's go over together."

After

that, the police officer stopped being reasonable, and no longer continued to give face to Liu Mu, and stepped forward to push Liu Mu away and rearrested Liu Linlin.

Liu Linlin roared and shouted, "Mom, save me, save my mother." Hearing her daughter's heart-rending cry for help, Liu Mu only felt that her heart hurt so much that she couldn't breathe.

After she stabilized her figure, she pounced again, "Let go of my daughter, you robbers, let go of my daughter, or I will fight with you." Liu's mother was so unreasonable, the police officer was also angry, and directly opened his mouth to call the police officer outside in.

The police officer outside naturally also heard the movement inside the ward, but he still had to look at Father Liu, so he never came in.

Now that he was called in, he simply took off his handcuffs, handcuffed Father Liu, and then took Father Liu into the ward together.

After entering, the police officer who grabbed Liu Linlin said, "This Mrs. Liu is obstructing official business, let's take them over together."

The police officer who came in nodded, "It's okay, it seems that their husband and wife know that their daughter is suspected of murder, and they have a strong attitude to prevent us from taking people away, they are already suspected of the crime of cover-up, according to the regulations, they can indeed be taken away together for investigation."

The

conversation between the two police officers naturally fell into the ears of the Liu family of three.

Liu Linlin didn't say anything, the two husband and wife of the Liu family immediately couldn't accept it, and yelled at the two police officers, "What nonsense are you talking about?" Our daughter did not kill anyone, we did not cover up, you are slander, we must report and complain about you, let you take off this skin. Although the husband and wife roared fiercely, the two police officers were unmoved.

They have heard a lot of threats like this.

Every time a suspect is arrested, the suspect and the suspect's family always have to say something like this to resist, in an attempt to make them back down and give up arresting.

But which one was successful?

The two police officers ignored the family of three, directly took out their mobile phones, and notified the driver waiting in the police car downstairs of the hospital.

After the driver was notified, he immediately rushed over.

In this way, the three people were forcibly taken out of Liu Lao's ward by three police officers.

Along the way, this family of three did not want to be taken away, they were struggling and abusive, and the words were ugly and jaw-dropping, and they couldn't believe that such ugly words were actually from the mouth of a rich man who prided himself on being a wealthy man.

Isn't it said that these rich people receive elite education one by one?

The openings are all kinds of polite honorifics, and they can't swear words?

But now it seems that this will not be, this will be a lot, some words, even ordinary people can not say, but in the mouth of the Liu family, but can blurt out.

It can be seen that the education of the Liu family is really criticized.

The Liu family of three, under the watchful eyes of all the patients in the hospital, as well as doctors and nurses, was taken into a police car and left.

During this period, naturally many people took out their mobile phones to take photos and videos.

So there were soon relevant photos and videos on the Internet, and the news that the Liu family was taken away by a police car also immediately rushed to the Internet hot search list.

Netizens were happy to hear it, and all applauded and fireworks and other expressions on the Internet to celebrate the removal of Liu's family.

And the Liu family was taken away by the police car, which undoubtedly confirmed the statement issued by the Fu Group that Liu Linlin did kill someone.

And now that the murderers are taken away, they are naturally happy and rejoice in the big Benpu.

And these, Rong Shu also saw it, red lips slightly hooked, let go of the mouse and raised his hand, stretched out.

Liu Linlin was taken away this time, and it is estimated that she will not be able to come out in the future.

Now it's a matter on her mind.

She doesn't have to feel irritated by one more love rival, nor does she have to worry that this love rival will often appear in front of her and Fu Jingting in the future, and she will be disgusted by his great dedication to Fu Jingting and her calculations.

In short, a demon like Liu Linlin should squat in prison.

Just as I was thinking about it, the phone rang.

Rong Shu put her thoughts aside for the time being, looked down at the mobile phone on the desk, it was Secretary Tong's mother calling.

As Lina said, Secretary Tong's phone could not be reached, and in order to find out whether Secretary Tong had gone abroad for further study, she could only contact Secretary Tong's mother.

However, when I called Secretary Tong's mother just now, the phone was connected, but no one answered.

Unexpectedly, the other party actually called over now.

"Hello, Aunt Tong. Rong Shu picked up the mobile phone and put a polite smile on her face, "Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Rong Shu, and I am Secretary Tong's previous boss." "

"Oh, it's the boss of Xixi, I know I know." On the other end of the phone, the woman with a somewhat old voice was puzzled for a moment, and then laughed in surprise, "Hello Boss Rong, Xixi told me about you and said that you took good care of her, I am really grateful."

Rong Shu touched her cheek embarrassedly, "Auntie is too polite, if you really want to take care, it is Secretary Tong who takes care of me, I almost didn't understand anything when I first took over the company, if it weren't for Secretary Tong assisting me from the side, I guess I would have caught my eyes."

"Oh, where and where, is to help each other. Madame smiled kindly, and then asked, "By the way, Boss Rong, you called me, is there anything wrong?"

"That's right, didn't Secretary Tong resign from my place to study abroad?" Auntie, you know about this, right?

"I know. Speaking of this, the woman's heart was slow and gratified, "In fact, Xixi has always wanted to go to study and improve herself, but in the past for some reasons did not make a decision, I also persuaded her, she never agreed, worried that she wanted to go inside, so under the pull of these two moods, she has never been really happy, my mother's eyes hurt in my heart, now well, she finally made up her mind to go abroad for further study, but a wish, I can finally breathe a sigh of relief as a mother."

At this, the woman laughed happily.

Rong Shu was silent.

After a while, he asked, "Auntie, do you know the name of the company where Secretary Tong is studying?" That's right, our side missed the statistics at that time, and now we can't contact Secretary Tong, so I specially called you to ask.

The woman did not doubt her words, and said the name of the company with a smile.

Rong Shu pursed her red lips, "Okay, I see, thank you Auntie."

"You're welcome. The woman replied with a smile, and then asked, "Is there anything else Boss Rong wants to know?" "

Rong Shu bit her lip and hesitated for a few seconds, "There really is, Auntie, are you sure that Secretary Tong really went abroad for further study?"

As soon as these words came out, the smile on the face of the woman on the other end of the phone immediately froze, "Boss Rong, what do you mean by this?"

Rong Shu forced a smile, "It's like this, this morning, when a secretary of my company went out, I saw a person who looked a lot like Secretary Tong, plus Secretary Tong's phone has not been able to get through, so my secretary is wondering if the one she saw is Secretary Tong, Secretary Tong has not gone abroad for further study, Auntie, you also know that I have a good relationship with Secretary Tong, naturally I have to find out the specific whereabouts of Secretary Tong, so don't worry?"

"So it is. The woman nodded with relief, and a smile rose again on her face, "Boss Rong, rest assured, Xixi is abroad, your current secretary should see people who look very similar to Xixi, now this year, there are many people who look similar, and Xixi is abroad, and he also took photos of himself and the company." "

In this way, good aunt, I know, since Secretary Tong is still abroad, then I will rest assured, I will not disturb the aunt, aunt goodbye."

"Goodbye, I have time to play at home, Boss Rong." The woman warmly invited.

Rong Shu politely responded.

After hanging up the phone, she put down the phone, crossed her fingers on the table, and the whole person fell into deep thought.

She was wondering if Secretary Tong was abroad.

She called Secretary Tong's mother, and did not ask Secretary Tong if he was abroad at first, just to test it.

To test whether Secretary Tong's mother knew that Secretary Tong did not study in a foreign company.

After all, Secretary Tong's mother is just an ordinary person, she can't act, and she will definitely show flaws under the temptation, even if she can act, her acting skills are no better, and she can hear some problems.

But just now, after she specially tried down, she found that Secretary Tong's mother's performance was very natural and normal, and there was no manifestation of panic.

That is to say, Secretary Tong's mother did not lie, it was Secretary Tong who lied.

Secretary Tong also lied to his mother, telling him that he went abroad for further study, but in fact, he did not go abroad at all.

So what does Secretary Tong want to do when he does this?

Why lie to everyone?

Did something happen and get into some danger?

Rong Shu's heart was full of worry.

Then, she separated her hands, picked up her mobile phone again, and contacted the detective agency she had found in the past, intending to let them check on Secretary Tong's situation.

After the office took the order, Rong Shu's heart fell slightly.

In any case, since Secretary Tong can still walk outside, it should mean that Secretary Tong is safe for the time being.

Just find her and figure out what really happened to her, maybe this will help her completely.

Rong Shu rubbed her temples.

At this time, the door of the office was knocked on by the popularity.

Rong Shu's thoughts were interrupted, and when she looked up, it was Lina who walked in holding a stack of documents, "Chairman, these are the employee New Year welfare plans sent by the departments below, you can take a look at which plan to choose in the end." Hearing her say this, Rong Shu laughed, "Yes, it's almost the New Year." "It's half a month away." Lina put the document in front of Rong Shu.

Rong Shu stretched out his hand and pulled the document over, "Half a month in a blink of an eye, okay, I will look at it urgently, notify you before the end of work in the afternoon, and then you let the procurement department arrange it, try to buy the welfare materials as early as possible, and send them before the holiday."

"Okay. Lina nodded, "By the way, chairman, there is another thing, the machines on the factory side have all been installed, and preliminary tests have been carried out, the machine is running well, the director asked you when to cut the ribbon for the opening of the factory?" "

The so-called ribbon cutting is actually the same as the opening of a new store.

Pick a good day, put on flowers and firecrackers, and have an opening ceremony.

If you are more particular or believe in God, you can also come to a desk.

In short, it's all up to you.

"I haven't booked the time yet, so let's go to the factory after work in the afternoon, and after confirming that it is correct, I will give a ribbon-cutting date tomorrow." Rong Shu thought for a moment and replied.

Lina smiled and answered, "Okay, I'll talk to the director later."

"Hmm. Rong Shu nodded, then thought of something, and said, "By the way, about Secretary Tong, I have contacted a detective agency to let them investigate the whereabouts of Secretary Tong, and I will inform you when there is news." "

Yes. Lina smiled even happier.

She and Secretary Tong are also friends, and naturally they are also very concerned about Secretary Tong, and want to know what happened to Secretary Tong.

That's why I was so happy when I heard Rong Shu's words.

"Then Chairman, I'll go do something else first.

“Go ahead. Rong Shu nodded.

After Lina left, she picked up the top document and opened it.

These are all kinds of suggestions for employee New Year benefits, not official business.

So it seems to be very fast, just choose the most suitable one among these suggestions.

Therefore, Rong Shu processed these documents in less than two hours, and then selected the suggestions that he felt good to integrate, added some of his own ideas, and sent them to the procurement department.

Time flew by, and it was already afternoon.

Rong Shu stood up, tidied up her office, and prepared to send a message to Fu Jingting, asking him not to come to pick her up from work for a while, she was going to the factory to take a look, and drive back to Repulse Bay later.

As a result, the news had just been entered and had not yet been sent, and a man's light cough came from the office door.

Rong Shu subconsciously looked up and saw Fu Jingting leaning against the edge of the door frame, his thin lips slightly hooked, and he was smiling at her.

Rong Shu also laughed, “Why are you here?”

“Pick you up from work. “The man walked in.

Rong Shu put the phone down, “I was about to send you a message, don't come.” The man frowned, “Why?”

“The factory is completely built, I am ready to go over and take a look, I have said to go several times before, but not several times, this time I said that I have to go to see everything, so you have to go back first.” Rong Shu said apologetically.

Fu Jingting put his arm around her waist and hugged her into his arms, “It's all coming, how good it's good for me to go back alone, I'll accompany you.”

“Really? Rong Shu tiptoed slightly and put her arms around his neck.

The man bowed his head, “How else?” Can I still lie to you? Let's go.
After

that, he let go of her waist, took her hand and walked towards the door instead, "Let's go early and go back early, just to see, it won't stay long, right?"

Rong Shu shook her head, "Of course, just take a look and go."

"That'll do. The two went out together.

Along the way, it was natural to be paid attention to by the employees.

At the beginning, Rong Shu was still a little embarrassed in the face of the various gazes of the employees, but now that she is used to it, she can also be cheeky and face it calmly.

However, luck was not very good, and when Rong Shu got out of the elevator, he met Duan Xingbang again.

Duan Xingbang stood outside the elevator, probably also going to enter the elevator and go upstairs.

Seeing Rong Shu and Fu Jingting coming out of it, they were first surprised, and then thought of something, and a trace of excitement appeared in their eyes, but they quickly disappeared again, quickly making people think that it was an illusion.

"Mr. Fu, are you picking up your niece from work again? Duan Xingbang glanced at Rong Shu lightly, and then showed a flattering smile to Fu Jingting.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes.

This man is really hypocritical.

The mouth asked her niece intimately, but the look in her eyes was very disgusting, isn't it hypocrisy?

If you want her to say, really disgust her, isn't it better to call her full name directly?

That way she could even look up at him.

"Let's go, ignore him. Rong Shu hugged Fu Jingting's arm and said something to Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting didn't intend to pay attention to Duan Xingbang, and when he heard her words, he snorted slightly, and walked past Duan Xingbang.

Looking at the backs of the two, Duan Xingbang narrowed his eyes, and then laughed excitedly.

The assistant behind him saw Duan Xingbang laughing like this, and asked puzzled, "President Duan, what good thing happened to you?"

Duan Xingbang turned his watch and replied with some meaning, "It's a good thing, a very good thing, after tonight, my dream will be fulfilled." "

Huh? The assistant still looked puzzled.

Duan Xingbang didn't mean to elaborate, and walked directly into the elevator.

On the other side, in the car.

Rong Shu closed the co-pilot's door and lowered her head to fasten her seat belt.

Fu Jingting was also wearing a seat belt, and when she fastened it, she turned the car keys and started the car, "Sit down?"

"Okay. Rong Shu nodded.

Fu Jingting released the brakes and the car began to move forward.

Rong Shu lowered the window a little, and suddenly smiled and spoke, "There are really a lot of things that happened today."

Fu Jingting knew that she was referring to the news on the Internet, and raised his chin, "It's quite a lot."

"How did you know that the mastermind of the Wang family's car accident was Liu Linlin?" Rong Shu turned her head curiously to look at the man and asked.

The man wrinkled his eyebrows, "I didn't know at first, I thought that the force that helped the driver was also one of the enemies of the Wang family, so I didn't plan to mix, let Zhang Cheng withdraw the manpower, just when it was withdrawn, my people saw the calling card that the driver processed in advance, and found that the person who contacted him was Liu Linlin."

Rong Shu was surprised, "This development is really dramatic, it is estimated that God can't stand Liu Linlin's behavior, so let your people find the calling card, in order to expose Liu Linlin's evil deeds."

“You’re right. The man laughed and echoed her words.

Rong Shu then pursed her red lips again, “Speaking of which, this Liu Linlin’s heart is really vicious, last night I thought that she was trying to murder me behind my back, which was already a very vicious act, but I never expected that she could be so calm and natural to plan a car accident and harm people’s lives.” “

This woman is comparable to Gu Manyin.

Both of them are crazy women who do everything like crazy people.

So she is destined to spend the rest of her life in prison, most likely even the death penalty. Fu Jingting turned the steering wheel and said quietly.

Rong Shu sighed, “Although this Wang family is not a good person, but after all, there is no grudge with Liu Linlin, Liu Linlin can design a Wang family car accident because she wants to prevent Miss Wang from appearing in front of you, speaking of which, the Wang family is also unlucky to meet Liu Linlin.”

“The wicked are only the wicked, and now that the Wang family and Liu Linlin have suffered retribution, we don’t need to bother.” Fu Jingting turned to look at her.

Rong Shu also happened to be looking at him, “Liu Linlin can’t come out, the Liu family because of you, bankruptcy is also a sure thing, I believe it won’t be long before you can hear the news of the bankruptcy of the Liu family, the rest of the Liu family, what do you plan to do?” Especially Liu Lao? “

Liu Lao had a stroke, and now he is still unconscious in the hospital, and he doesn’t know about Liu Linlin’s arrest, the Liu family did not participate in Liu Linlin’s evil deeds, so it will be released soon, they have hands and feet, the company is bankrupt, and they can’t starve to death, not to mention that there are other people in the Liu family, although they are all abroad or abroad, but this time Liu Lao fell ill, and also let them rush to the sea market in an expedite, they will take care of these three people, of course, It can only be taken care of before the evidence of Liu Lao’s murder of Professor Wang is collected. Fu Jingting squinted his eyes and said with an icy expression.

Rong Shu smiled, “That’s what happened, how is the evidence collection now?”

At the mention of this, Fu Jingting’s eyebrows twisted into Sichuan characters, “It’s still like that, after so many years, Liu Lao has long removed all traces, and what he found is only a few and far between, and it can’t constitute conclusive evidence at all, so I have already invited Shi Mo to come to Hai City.” Hearing this name, Rong Shu’s pupils shrank, “Is that Shimo who helped Gu Manyin and hypnotized you?” The man she met once and who still has left her with a deep influence.

The man with an expressionless face, long white hair, and an extremely beautiful face.

This man not only helped Gu Manyin, but also Lin Tianchen's senior brother.

"It's him. Fu Jingting bowed.

Rong Shu was a little puzzled, "Shouldn't you plan to let him hypnotize Liu Lao and let Liu Lao take the initiative to explain the facts?"

Fu Jingting was noncommittal, "In fact, hypnosis is not allowed, because it is easy to destroy the spiritual field of people, so the police handle cases, except for some extremely vicious people, usually do not use hypnosis to solve the case, like Liu Lao, it is not up to the use of hypnosis to let him explain the case, but now I can't manage so much, Liu Lao's age, plus this stroke, I don't know how long I can live, I have to get him to confess everything before he is alive and his body can still move normally, only then will the law convict him, otherwise when he dies, or when he is really paralyzed, even if I find evidence, the law will not do anything to him, then I will not avenge my professor.

"So it is. Rong Shu nodded abruptly, understanding the man's approach.

In extraordinary times, it is natural to use some extraordinary means.

"But there are quite a few hypnotists, Lin.

No, Gu Manyin is not even as good as the devil.

When the devil falls in love with someone, it is possible to pay for it.

And Gu Manyin, like this, is nothing.

"What the hell is going on, you say. Rong Shu pulled the man's arm and urged the man to quickly tell her the details of the investigation.

Fu Jingting did not disappoint her, and said lightly with thin lips: "Gu Manyin was with Shi Qing at the beginning, because Shi Qing's face was good enough, and Shi Qing was able to make her have face.

“This is, Shi Mo looks like that, although I have not seen that Shi Qing, but according to Shi Mo’s appearance, I can also guess that Shi Qing’s appearance should not be much different from Shi Mo, such a boyfriend to take out, it is indeed very face-saving.” Rong Shu nodded and said, “And I suddenly remembered something, when I was in college, I heard someone asking Gu Manyin’s fairy-like boyfriend, it is estimated to be Shi Mo.”
The

man snorted, “It’s him, the two have been dating for three years, Shi Qing has feelings for Gu Manyin, but Gu Manyin is not clear to Shi Qing, it should be no, otherwise how can it be so ruthless.” “

Say yes.

“The first time I met Gu Manyin was at a charity banquet, when my heart disease was already so severe that I couldn’t stand at all, I could only sit in a wheelchair, and Gu Manyin came to talk to me at that time.

“What did I tell you?” Rong Shu looked at him with a faint look.

Men naturally perceive the taste of women, and their hearts are very happy.

Eating taste means caring.

“She didn’t say anything else, just asked some questions, some questions confirming my pen name. Fu Jingting replied.

Rong Shu was stunned, and then her face became ugly, “I have a college dormitory with Gu Manyin, and when I exchanged letters with you, I was ridiculed by Gu Manyin, what age is it, and I still deal with pen pals, at that time, she obviously looked down on me writing to you, but not later, and I was very concerned about whether I wrote to you, whether I received your letters, I didn’t understand it at first, I figured it out later, she peeked at our letters, Then I don’t know how to know that the person who wrote to me is you, so I will test you at this banquet you said and confirm whether it is you who is writing to me.

“It should be, but at first, I didn’t think much about it, just casually talked to her and sent her off, and then the second time we met, that is, my heart was completely broken, and when I was dying in the hospital, a week before my heart exchange surgery, she came to the hospital and told me that she was Maple Leaf, and said something about our letter, and I believed it.

Speaking of this, Fu Jingting turned his head to look at Rong Shu, his eyes were more guilty, “Sorry, I didn’t recognize that it wasn’t you at the beginning, and by the time I noticed that something was wrong, it was too late, and I had been hypnotized.” Before he underwent the operation, he really didn't suspect that Gu Manyin was not Maple Leaf.

Because he was sick like that, he had very little time to wake up every day, and he had no energy or time to detect that something was wrong.

It wasn't until after the operation, when his body recovered a little, that he had time and energy to talk to Gu Manyin, and only then did he detect some doubts from the conversation.

But before he could solve these doubts, Gu Manyin let Shi Mo hypnotize him, making him firmly believe that Gu Manyin was Maple Leaf.

Rong Shu shook her head, "It's okay, when I didn't know the truth, I did complain about you, but if I know it, I can understand that you are also a victim, so you don't have to feel sorry for me."

She gave him a reassuring smile and told him not to think too much.

The man was still driving, and after seeing her smile, his heart did settle down a lot, and he turned his head back to continue driving, "Gu Manyin came to my ward a week before I agreed to meet you and told me that she is Maple Leaf, maybe I think I can see you before I die, it's already God's mercy, so I subconsciously ignored how she knew that Xiao Zhong was mine, how I knew which ward I was in, because of these, I never wrote in the letter, I planned to tell you personally after we met, I thought that my body could last for a while, who knew that before we agreed to meet, I would not be able to hold it completely and fall, otherwise Gu Manyin would not have the opportunity to impersonate you.

"Although we have been through a lot, we still recognize each other after all, don't we? Rong Shu smiled, "Okay, don't talk about this, every time you talk about this, you will always feel very guilty, or go back to Shi Qing's affairs, how did Gu Manyin know that Shi Qing's heart matched you?" "

After Gu Manyin came to the hospital to see me, she began to stay in the hospital to take care of me, my treatment plan, condition, etc., she has seen it, and my blood type is the same as Shi Qing, Gu Manyin this person is vain, at that time, as a Gu family, the Gu family has money, but she values the Fu family more, and does not take the Gu family's money seriously at all, now that I think about it, I guess it should be Gu Manyin who knew from the beginning that she was not the Gu family's biological daughter, Therefore, it is unknown whether he can inherit the Gu family in the future.

"She wanted to find a way back for herself. Rong Shu was stunned.

Fu Jingting nodded, "It should be, the Fu family and the Fu group at that time were not as huge as they are now, but they were also the leaders of the sea market, Gu Manyin wanted to ensure a lifetime of prosperity and wealth, coupled with her greedy nature, so after learning that the person I communicated with you was me, I came up with Li Daitao's way to replace you to be with me, otherwise she would have no chance to approach me at all, in order to become Mrs. Fu, she could only find a way to save my life, It just so happened that Shi Qing's blood type was also with me, so she tricked things into going to the hospital for a physical examination with the idea of giving it a try.

"Then the results showed that Shi Qing's heart just matched you." Rong Shu sighed.

In the end, Shi Qing also suffered a calamity of innocence and was indirectly killed by Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting was favored by Gu Manyin, and he just happened to have a heart attack and needed a heart.

And Shi Qing, who was Gu Manyin's boyfriend at the time, had a heart that matched Fu Jingting, so Shi Qing was killed by Gu Manyin.

"Shi Qing became my substitute ghost, the person who should have died at that time was me instead of him, it was he who treated me to die, so I owe Shi Qing a life, Shi Qing died, I can't pay his debt, so I can only make up for the debt to Shi Qing on Shi Mo, so what Shi Mo did to me, I will not retaliate, this time let Shi Mo come, in addition to wanting Shi Mo to help, I also want to tell him the results of Shi Qing's investigation, Give him an explanation.

"It's ironic to say, Shi Qing should not know until death, his car accident was carefully designed by his girlfriend, and he thought his car accident was an accident?" As everyone knows, his car accident began to be planned at the beginning of his physical examination, and when he was in the physical examination, was he still touching his girlfriend to care about him? Rong Shu's face showed a touch of emotion, and she sincerely felt sorry for the boy.

Among these things, only this boy is the most innocent and innocent.

"Shi Mo told me that Shi Qing was not dead when he was sent to the hospital, he had learned that Gu Manyin did not love him, but had thoughts about me, and also knew that I needed a heart, and the heart just matched him, let Gu Manyin give me the heart, at that time Gu Manyin lied to him, Gu Manyin told him that I also love her, so Shi Qing would give me the heart so willingly, Because I think I can give Gu Manyin happiness. Gu Manyin's thin lips pursed slightly, and his tone was a little heavy.

Chapter 1310 – The factory building is on fire

Rong Shu took a cold breath, "What do you mean?" You shouldn't want to say that Shi Qing is likely to know that his car accident was not an accident, but Gu Manyin: "

Fu Jingting pursed his lips, that's what he meant."

"After all, it's too much of a coincidence, as long as people with a little brain, they can think that something is wrong, but Shi Qing is too kind and loves Gu Manyin too much, so he is willing to accept such a result." Fu Jingting gripped the steering wheel.

Rong Shu's mouth opened, and it took a long time to find her voice, "What a fool, it is really ridiculous and pathetic that Gu Manyin can actually get the favor of such a person."

Shi Mo didn't know that Shi Qing was likely to know that the car accident was not an accident, and the reason why he would help Gu Manyin was also because Gu Manyin deceived him, but this was not important, and it did not prevent Shi Mo from taking revenge. The man looked at the factory building in front of him and found a position to put the car in a good position.

Rong Shu unfastened her seat belt, "But we haven't found Gu Manyin yet, so let's talk about revenge." "

Will find out. The man soothed her, "Now I have collected the evidence of Gu Manyin's murder of Shiqing, and the human evidence and material evidence of that year have also been found, and when Gu Manyin appears, it will be her retribution, okay, get off the car, it's here."

"Hmm. Rong Shu squeezed the corner of her mouth, opened the car door and went down.

After two or three months have not come here, this place has been completely new, the original vacant land, has been built thousands of square meters of large-scale factory buildings, looking particularly spectacular.

Since it has not yet officially opened, there are only people guarding this side of the factory during the day, and now it is the end of work, and the people guarding the factory naturally go back from work.

In addition, Rong Shu just came to see, not to patrol, so there was no need for someone to accompany her to help explain something, so when Rong Shu came, she also rejected Lina's suggestion to let the person guarding the factory leave work later and accompany her to check it together.

"Not bad. Rong Shu closed the car door, looked up at the magnificent factory in front of him, and was satisfied and amazed.

Fu Jingting came over and smiled, "The national construction team built it, naturally it is good."

"My factory building is built, so the museum next door is probably also done?" Rong Shu looked in the direction of the museum.

However, it is a bit far away and cannot be seen at all.

But that doesn't stop the man from telling her, "Don't you know yet? The museum has long been built, probably a month ago, and has already held an exhibition.

"Yes. Rong Shu was slightly surprised, "I really don't know about this, I haven't heard of it."

"If you haven't heard of it, it's not very important, let's go, go in and see, go back early after reading, you should be hungry in a while." The man took her hand and walked towards the factory gate.

"Do you have a key?"

"Nonsense, you can come here without a key." The man chuckled, "It's my fault." The two came to the gate, and Rong Shu took out the key to the electric gate and snorted.

Soon, the factory door slowly opened to both sides.

Rong Shu couldn't help but exclaim, "It's quite high-tech."

"It's just an ordinary electric gate." The man glanced at it and was not surprised, he saw too much.

Rong Shu glanced at the man and felt that the man was in Versailles.

He saw too much, but she wasn't.

Forget it, it's too lazy to say, in case the man pops up again in a while what Versailles says, it is himself who is speechless.

Rong Shu let go of Fu Jingting's hand, walked between the rectangular large machine and some assembly line tracks, looking at these brand new machines, Rong Shu's heart suddenly surged with a sense of satisfaction that she had never felt before.

These are all her own efforts to get it.

In the past, she couldn't believe that she still had this ability.

"How's that, my factory is not bad, right? Rong Shu ran forward two steps, then turned around and opened her arms, smiling brightly at the man.

The man saw her so happy, his eyebrows were full of gentle pampering, "Not bad."

"Although my factory is not as large as any of the Fu Group, I believe that one day, it will grow slowly."

"I believe it too. Fu Jingting walked over and held her in his arms.

Rong Shu also retracted her arms, hugged the man's waist, leaned into his arms at ease, and enjoyed his warm embrace.

But after hugging for a while, Rong Shu suddenly smelled a smell of gasoline, and her good-looking eyebrows frowned.

"What's the situation? How can there be a gasoline smell? She quickly came out of the man's arms and poked left and right to find out where the smell came from.

Fu Jingting also smelled it, and his eyes narrowed.

Rong Shu leaned over to the nearest large machine, and arched her small nose, "Strange, it's not that this thing leaked oil." The man was immediately laughed by her laughter, "This is engine oil, not gasoline."

Rong Shu was embarrassed for a moment, and soon her little face turned straight again, "Since it's engine oil, how can there be a smell of gasoline here?" "

The smell came from over there. Fu Jingting suddenly pointed in one direction, which was exactly the direction of the gate of the warehouse.

"Go over and take a look. Rong Shu said and walked over there.

Fu Jingting originally wanted to follow, but then he noticed something and walked to the opposite place.

Rong Shu didn't know that the man didn't follow, and said as he walked, "It's really hit by you, the taste is getting heavier and heavier, what is that?"

Rong Shu paused and looked at the red light flashing outside the ventilation window on the top of the warehouse door, and her whole face changed greatly.

That's fire!

Someone set it on fire!

Rong Shu's pupils contracted suddenly, and her face turned white.

How could anyone set it on fire?

Yes, just arson.

She didn't think the fire was an accidental misfire, after all, when they came in.
