Chapter 1311: No Exit

This time, her call was finally answered.

The man's low, heavy voice came from behind her, "I'm here."

Rong Shu hurriedly turned around and saw the man walking over with a serious face, first relieved, and then quickly said, "Where have you been?" Did you know that there was a fire outside?

"I know. The man glanced at the factory door behind her.

At the window of the low ventilation above the factory gate, the orange-red flame has been swooped high, as long as it is not blind, no one will not see it.

"I just left and I heard some noises, so I went over to check and saw that the back door over there was locked and there was a fire outside. Fu Jingting replied with a gloomy face.

Rong Shu was shocked, "What? The back door was also broken and ignited?"

Fu Jingting nodded.

Rong Shu was even more anxious, "This gate is too, my electric key can't open the gate at all."

"Let's go, let's go look at the other doors and windows first." Although the man was also angry that someone had set the fire, he was calmer than her, took her hand, and hurried to find another exit.

Rong Shu couldn't help but say that he also took the initiative to speed up the pace under his feet.

The main and back doors were locked, and they certainly couldn't get out, so they had to pin their hopes on a few other side doors and some windows that were on the low side.

I just hope that these places are not locked up.

The two soon came to a side door, and the fire outside was even bigger, where they could hear the crackling sound of the flames, and they could even feel the scorching temperature of the flames.

Rong Shu looked at the side door in front of her, and a bad premonition suddenly surged in her heart.

The structure of the plant is basically metal, and it stands to reason that if it is only ignited at the front and back doors, it will not burn here so quickly.

Under normal circumstances, they are the most central position of the factory here, and the main entrance and the back door are at both ends of the plant, so the side door here cannot hear the sound of fire.

But inside the side door, they could hear the crackling of the flames and clearly feel the temperature of the flames.

Obviously, outside the side door, someone also poured gasoline and set it on fire.

Therefore, she now wondered if the side door had also been destroyed.

From this, Fu Jingting was also suspicious, and Fu Jingting's face became even more gloomy.

Although it is suspected that the side door has also been destroyed and cannot be obtained, no matter what, it is always necessary to try, in case there are exceptions.

Rong Shu also thought so, and immediately stretched out her hand to open the lock of the side door.

As a result, when her hand just touched the metal lock, she immediately lay down and quickly took her hand back, and her little face turned white.

"What's wrong? Fu Jingting quickly grabbed her hand and checked it.

Rong Shu spread out her palm, revealing the hot red palm, and the corners of her eyes were red, "It's scalded, this lock is very hot, I can't touch it."

Fu Jingting's thin lips pursed a little cold, "It seems that this outside has already been set on fire, otherwise this lock would not have become so hot in such a quick time, and it could burn people all of a sudden, and there was no way out here." "

The outside is all on fire, and naturally the door locks are also broken.

So they don't make much sense here anymore.

"Go, change positions. Fu Jingting grabbed Rong Shu's wrist and led her to continue running to other places.

They can now only pin their hopes on the people who set the fire and do not know all the exits of the factory and miss a door or window.

Only then will they be able to get out.

While Rong Shu and Fu Jingting were walking, they took out their mobile phones and called the police.

In case they don't find an exit, they can only pin their hopes on the outside world.

In the following time, the two kept looking for a way to survive in various doors and windows, but without exception, these doors and windows were destroyed and could not be opened.

Fu Jingting couldn't even kick the door open, not even the window glass, because it was bulletproof, unless there were professional glass smashing tools.

But not here.

Because the machines in the factory are worth a lot, each equipment is also a few mouths, the value is high, plus this is a suburb, it is already a bit chaotic, so these doors and windows are all the highest end anti-breaking technology.

Unless there are professional tools, manpower is absolutely inseparable.

All the doors and windows were broken and could not get out, and the rest that were not destroyed were ventilation windows located several meters overhead.

These windows are so low and small that no small child can climb out, let alone the two of them as adults.

In other words, the two of them were locked in this huge factory building.

The factory building is very large, full of two or three thousand square meters, all the entrances and exits run down, the two of them are already tired.

At this time, the fire outside was already even bigger, almost covering the entire plant.

Although the fire has not yet spread in, it is already a matter of time before it spreads.

Standing in the open space inside the factory, they could feel the abnormally high temperature around them.

That's where the fires out there came in.

And what came in was not only the temperature, but also the thick billowing black smoke.

Rong Shu coughed several times, coughing up tears so that tears came out.

Fu Jingting took out his handkerchief and covered her mouth and nose, "Cover it, don't let the smoke and dust enter the lungs." "

This handkerchief has been wet with water, and before they found out the mouth, Fu Jingting had a hunch that smoke would come in, so he wet the handkerchief early, just for this moment.

Don't say, after this mouth and nose were covered, Rong Shu instantly felt more comfortable, and no longer felt so choking.

She pressed her handkerchief to look at the man, her eyes red and asked, "What about you?"

Fu Jingting knew that she was worried that he had nothing to cover, smiled at her, and then took out a white cloth towel, "I have this, I tore off the hem of my shirt before, don't worry, it's also wet." "

If there were quilts here, he would have already wet the quilts over them."

Seeing that the man also had something to cover his mouth and nose, Rong Shu was slightly relieved, but the guilt and self-blame in her heart were enough to crush her, "I'm sorry, it's me who burdened you, if it weren't for me coming to check the factory, we wouldn't have experienced this kind of thing at all."

"Don't talk nonsense, I want to come with you myself, why are you burdening me." Fu Jingting stretched out his hand and rubbed her head, asking her not to think about it.

However, how could Rong Shu not think much, tears welled upThe big one fell, "It's me who is involved, this is my factory, someone set fire here, just want my life, and you are implicated by me."

"How do you know that the person who set the fire is going to kill you and not me?" Fu Jingting looked at her with a deep expression, "My enemies are more than you."

"But this is my factory" "

It doesn't matter whose place it is, the important thing is the person who appears in this place, if it is coming at me, the other party will not care where I am, as long as there is an opportunity to start, he will not let go." , so it can't be said that you implicated me, more likely, I implicated you. Fu Jingting squeezed her hand.

Rong Shu's mouth opened, and there was nothing more to say.

Because it makes sense.

"Then who do you think it will be?" Rong Shu had just run up and down, plus he had just inhaled some smoke, and he was a little dizzy at this time, so he simply sat down on the ground.

Anyway, the exit is blocked, they might as well sit down to maintain their last physical strength and wait for help from the outside world.

In the meantime, while the fire has not yet spread in, they can also discuss who is behind the arson.

This is probably a bitter pleasure.

Rong Shu thought with a wry smile in her heart.

When Fu Jingting saw her sit down, he did not hesitate and sat down with her.

He had a slight cleanliness fetish, and he had never been able to sit on the floor like this before.

But now they are all in a desperate situation, and some principles naturally do not have to be observed.

After sitting down, Fu Jingting answered Rong Shu's question just now, "I don't know, I have too many enemies, business, family grudges, there are countless of them, but if you really want to say it, there are also a few of the most suspects, one of them is Su Cheng, and the other is the Liu family."

"Su Cheng and the Liu family. Rong Shu lowered her eyes and read it in a low voice.

Fu Jingting changed the cloth towel, "The possibility of the Liu family is not very high, the Liu family has an accident now, it is difficult to protect itself, there should not be much energy to deal with me, the rest is Su Cheng, although the person is still in the hospital and has not been discharged, but what he can directly order, the suspicion is the largest."

Rong Shu nodded and felt that it made sense, "Actually, I also think that it may be an enemy on my side, such as the Gu family."

"It shouldn't be the Gu family. Fu Jingting shook his head.

Rong Shu looked at him in surprise, "Why do you say that?" "

The investigation team has been investigating Sansheng Group, originally the investigation team was ready to leave, it was I who made some trouble for the Gu family again, and told the investigation team that the mine collapsed under the Sansheng Group many years ago, although the investigation team has not yet found any decisive clues and evidence, but Gu Manyin was terrified day after day, his body completely collapsed, and he was admitted to the hospital a few days ago, according to Lin Tianchen, This time Gu Yaotian may not be able to be discharged from the hospital again, can only wait for the kidney source in the hospital, unless the kidney source is found to have a kidney, otherwise he can only lie down and die in the hospital, now Gu Yaotian has very little time to be awake every day, and there is no energy to deal with you, Mrs. Gu and Gu Manqing are all on Gu Yaotian, and there is no that time, let alone that brain.

"So it is. Rong Shu nodded, "I really don't know." I don't know why, hearing that Gu Yaotian is very likely to lie on the hospital bed until death, her heart inexplicably contracted, some of it was not a taste.

But fortunately, this feeling came and went quickly, and it did not affect her.

"Even if it's not the Gu family, but what about the other one? Gu Manyin, who has been hiding in the shadows and has never appeared. Rong Shu clenched her palm.

She felt that it was most likely Gu Manyin.

When Fu Jingting heard this name, his eyes narrowed, "It's not impossible, but the problem now is that we came to the factory department to decide temporarily, before departure, these people can't know where we're going, so it is impossible to set fire to us here, after all, gasoline this kind of thing, must be prepared in advance to be transported here to hide, the factory is so big, the need for gasoline is definitely a lot, A car must be brought over, and if the person who set the fire came with us, we could not have heard a little of the car carrying gasoline, and if we heard the car, it was impossible not to go out and see, and then their plan to set fire would not fail?

These words made Rong Shu stunned, "What you mean is that the reason why we didn't hear the sound of the car transporting the gasoline was because the gasoline arrived long before we came, and why the gasoline was sent over and hidden before we came, it was because the person who set the fire knew that we would come here early on."

“Good. Fu Jingting nodded, “So the person who set the fire is likely to be the person next to you, and the person around you planned to come here in advance, and then arranged all this.” “

The people around me,” Rong Shu’s eyes turned red, “There are not many people around me who know that I will come here, in addition to my current secretary, there is also the director of the factory.

“That means that your whereabouts were revealed by one of these two people.” Fu Jingting pursed his lips.

Rong Shu’s palm gripped tighter, and her nails were embedded in the palm of her hand, “They betrayed me.”

“It doesn’t have to be a betrayal, it may also be accidentally heard and passed out, and we’ll know when we go out.” Fu Jingting parted her palms to comfort her, “Don’t pinch it, there is no medicine here, if you break the skin, you will be infected.”

“I’m sorry. Rong Shu bit her lower lip and fell into self-blame again, “It seems that I still tired you, and the person who set the fire knew my itinerary and came at me.” “

Again, not necessarily. Fu Jingting shook his head, “Who doesn’t know that I will go to your company to pick you up and from work almost every day, so it is not impossible for someone to arrange eyeliner on your side in order to retaliate against me, the people behind the scenes know that you will come here in the afternoon, prepare gasoline in advance, maybe just want to try it, try to see if I will come with you, if I will, then the other party’s plan will soon succeed?” If I don’t come, they can also withdraw things at any time, the probability of half a point thing, they have no reason not to try, in case they hit, it will be successful.

“But,” Rong Shu pursed her red lips.

Although she felt that what the man said made sense, she had the intuition in her heart to tell her again.

This matter is aimed at her.

But she is not ready to say it, she knows very well, said it, in order to enlighten her, in order to make her not guilty and blame herself, the man will also find a way to finally bring the source to himself.

Just when Rong Shu was moved and sad in his heart, the man next to him suddenly looked very wrong, and suddenly became pale.

Chapter 1313 – Fu Jingting Accident

It's not impossible!

"I'll take a look. Rong Shu couldn't help but say, touching the shirt cloth in the man's hand.

However, to her surprise, the cloth was still wet and not dry.

That is, the breathability is too good.

"You use me this. Rong Shu said, handed over the handkerchief, and snatched the cloth towel in the man's hand.

But how can the man be willing, hold the cloth tighter, and do not give her a chance to grab it at all.

Rong Shu was angry and anxious, "Fu Jingting, when is it, you still think about me?" Do you see what you coughed into? "

Coughing so badly, my face turned white.

She was really afraid that if he went on like this, there would be the kind of coughing up blood on TV.

When their people don't come, what should she do?

She's not a doctor, so she doesn't know how to deal with that situation.

Fu Jingting raised his eyes and showed a weak smile to Rong Shu, "It's okay, I'm coughing alone, it's better than both of us like this."

"That's not okay, I'm okay now, I'll be talking about something for a while, and the person who has something now is you, so you quickly cover your mouth and nose with this, and hear that there is no Fu Jingting." Rong Shu said as she went to break the man's hand.

I wanted to take the man's hand off his nose and mouth and cover the handkerchief.

But at this moment, the man suddenly coughed even harder, and finally really vomited out a mouthful of blood as Rong Shu was worried.

Seeing the small piece of blood on the ground, Rong Shu's pupils suddenly shrank, and there was a roar in her brain.

“Blood” she trembled all over, not understanding how this could be.

Why did Fu Jingting vomit blood?

He just coughed a few times.

Although the cough is a little bad, it is definitely not enough to vomit blood.

The coughing and vomiting blood shown on TV are generally in the case of advanced lung cancer or broken internal organs.

But Fu Jingting didn't have anything, just smoked by smoke, how could it be so serious that he vomited blood?

Rong Shu was anxious and panicked, “Jing Ting, why did you vomit blood?” Don't scare me, Jing Ting? Seeing Rong Shu's tears constantly flowing out, anxious to know what to do, Fu Jingting's thin lips moved, wanting to appease her and say that she was fine, but in the end what she said was not a comforting word, but another mouthful of blood spurted out.

At this time, Fu Jingting only felt a piercing pain in his heart, which made him tremble all over his body, and even his whole body was cold, and even his breathing became rapid.

Rong Shu was frightened by Fu Jingting's blood spit out again, and screamed in fright.

Spit again, why did you vomit again?

“Jing Ting, what's going on with you, don't scare me, you really don't scare me”

Rong Shu was so panicked that he quickly held Fu Jingting's somewhat crooked body in his arms, pinching him for a while, and pinching him for a while.

She didn't know what was wrong with him, why he suddenly vomited blood.

The only thing she can do now is this most common first aid.

Although she knew that these first aid methods were not necessarily useful for Fu Jingting's mother's situation, they were at least better than doing nothing.

Fu Jingting leaned into Rong Shu's arms, his eyelids blinking weakly.

To be honest, he himself did not expect that he would suddenly be like this.

He knew exactly where he had come from, and this thick soot had burrowed from his mouth and nose into his lungs and then into his heart.

The heart and lungs were originally connected, and his heart, because of the last fall off a cliff, the body fell on the water, resulting in heart damage.

Although the surface of the water is soft, jumping from a height will not kill people.

However, because of the pressure of the water surface, whether it is the human body or a heavy object, if it falls from a very high height and hits the surface of the water, the water surface will become very hard in an instant.

This is why some divers have so many bruises that seem to have been hit or bumped.

That's why his heart went wrong again.

Lin Tianchen once said that his heart must not be stimulated, no stimulation can be allowed, and even cannot be contaminated with unclean things.

And in the smoke decomposed by the fire, there are various chemical elements, which is nothing more than a huge stimulus and an unclean thing for a heart like him.

Therefore, the already broken heart was suddenly stimulated in this way, naturally overloaded, and then various symptoms began to react.

He thought that the most he could do was heart pain, but he never expected that it would make him cough up blood.

It seems that this time, not only did it scare her a lot, but the secret of her heart could not be hidden from her.

The corner of Fu Jingting's mouth showed a bitter arc, and then raised his hand to touch Rong Shu's face, asking her not to panic first, and cover her mouth and nose first.

Otherwise, she would be uncomfortable in a while.

However, Fu Jingting's heart hurt really unbearably, and that kind of pain almost made people want to die.

Only death is liberation.

Therefore, Fu Jingting's raised hand had not yet touched Rong Shu's face, because the severe pain in his heart caused him to be weak, and his hand hung down in mid-air.

And he coughed even more painfully in Rong Shu's arms, his breathing was almost impossible, and his eyes were very blurry, and he couldn't see things clearly.

Such a weak man made Rong Shu anxious, tears flowed down his eyes, "Fu Jingting, Fu Jingting, wake up, you can't sleep, hear no, you can't sleep!" "

She was scared, afraid that he would suddenly act like he did on TV, and as soon as his eyes were closed, he would never be able to open them again.

If he had simply been smoked, she would not have been so afraid.

But he coughed up blood.

“Fu Jingting, please, don’t close your eyes, open your eyes and look at me, please.” Rong Shu held the man and shook, and the whole person was panicked.

Fu Jingting heard Rong Shu’s fear and her begging, and also wanted to listen to her words and open his eyes.

But his eyelids were really too heavy to open.

So, he was destined to disappoint her.

If he’s unlucky, maybe that’s it.

If he was lucky, he survived, and I hope she doesn’t get angry with him, he really didn’t mean not to open his eyes to look at her.

In the end, Fu Jingting lost consciousness in Rong Shu’s arms, and if it weren’t for the coughing sound from time to time, Rong Shu really thought that he would have died like this.

But even though he was still alive, his situation made her unable to calm down.

Because she didn’t know how long he could last.

She could sense that he was doing badly.

“Come, is there anyone, come! Rong Shu hugged Fu Jingting and shouted loudly in despair.

How she wished that there were people outside at this moment, so that she and Fu Jingting would be saved.

How she regretted why she came here, why she agreed to allow the man to come with her.

The man can’t come, even if there is a fire, it will only be her, not him.

“Cough” smoke is getting thicker and thicker, the surroundings are beginning to become dark, since just now Rong Shu, who has not covered her mouth and nose, also inhaled a lot of smoke at this time, began to cough, coughed so that the lungs were faintly painful.

But she didn't care about her own situation, but tightly covered Fu Jingting's mouth and nose with a handkerchief, trying to let Fu Jingting, who was already in a bad situation, smoke less.

And this price is that she inhales more and more smoke, coughs more and more, her eyes are also dry and astringent, tears flow uncontrollably, her flowing eyes hurt, her vision becomes blurry, and her brain is a little dizzy.

Chapter 1314 – The Savior Has Arrived

She knew that she was dying and couldn't hold on.

The power of these smokes is too great, ordinary people in this environment, simply do not last long before fainting, and then suffocate in sleep.

She could now feel her breathing getting shorter than the next, and her mind was blank, the kind that was about to fall at any moment.

But she knew she couldn't fall, at least not now.

She must hold on, if she holds on, after a while the outside rescue comes, she can still shout for help and respond to them loudly, so that they can find here as soon as possible and save her and Fu Jingting out.

But if she falls and the rescuers come without a response, it will waste a lot of time to find them little by little.

Maybe during this period, she and Fu Jingting are completely gone.

So she must persist, must.

Rong Shu hugged Fu Jingting, and pinched his thigh with his other hand, keeping himself awake and unable to faint.

Even if the breathing becomes more and more uncomfortable, even if the cough becomes more and more severe, you cannot faint.

Her body is not only carrying her own life, but also Fu Jingting's.

In the dark not far outside the factory, Duan Xingbang stood there, looking at the sky-high fire in front of him, laughing not to mention how crazy he was.

Burn it, burn it, the more you burn the better.

Burn the two people inside.

Yes, this fire was put by Duan Xingbang, and he hated Rong Shu and Fu Jingting behind Rong Shu.

Of course, the only person he wanted to kill from beginning to end was Rong Shu, and there was no Fu Jingting.

But who let Fu Jingting himself have to get in this time, and actually came in, then let's die together.

Who let Fu Jingting support the woman behind her back, and let that woman hold the power tightly.

If it weren't for Fu Jingting, that woman was not his opponent at all, and he would have driven that woman out of Tiansheng long ago.

Therefore, the surname Fu is also his enemy.

Now that he killed two enemies together at once, he would not be much happy in his heart.

However, at this moment, a fire alarm suddenly sounded from not far away.

Hearing this voice, Duan Xingbang's face changed, and he suddenly couldn't laugh, and suddenly turned his head to look at the source of the voice.

Seeing that several fiery red fire alarm cars were coming towards this side not far away, his whole popularity was not at all.

Because the arrival of the fire alarm means that Rong Shu and Fu Jingting have been saved, it means that his plan has failed.

"Damn it! Duan Xingbang scolded angrily.

He knew that Rong Shu and Fu Jingting would call the police, but he didn't pay attention to it, this is a suburb, even if he called the police, what if he called the police?

Can they come so fast?

Now it's rush hour, there is so much traffic jam on the road, maybe when they come, the factory building will be burned clean, and the dog man and woman inside will be burned to ashes.

So he was not worried at all that Fu Jingting and Rong Shu would call the police.

But now the truth was beyond his expectations, after Fu Jingting and Rong Shu called the police, these people actually came so quickly.

Now the whole factory building is surrounded by fire, and it has not yet burned inside, there is a lot of space inside, and Rong Shu and Fu Jingting must be fine.

Duan Xingbang was angry, but he also knew that it could only be like this now.

Even if the two people inside are not dead, it is estimated that it will not be good, which can be regarded as some comfort for him.

The most urgent thing now is that you must leave here quickly, and you must not stay here, otherwise you will be in trouble if you are caught.

He had to run quickly and run away to have a chance to make a second shot.

Duan Xingbang took one last sad glance at the approaching convoy of fire alarms, then hunched over and quickly left from the other direction, where his car was.

Shortly after Duan Xingbang left, the fire alarm convoy had stopped outside the factory building, and the team members quickly got out of the car to put out the fire.

Assistant Zhang also came with him, and seeing this sweaty man, he quickly picked up a big speaker and ran to the front to call Rong Shu and Fu Jingting.

Rong Shu was almost unable to hold on at this time, her head was heavy, and her eyelids were also heavy.

She looked at Fu Jingting with a decadent expression, although her vision was blurry and she was almost unable to see the scene clearly, but she still focused her gaze on Fu Jingting.

Touching Fu Jingting's scalding face that was burned, he said, "It seems that we can't get out and are going to die here."

Speaking of this, she smiled bitterly, "I'm sorry, I'm even tired of you"

In fact, she is not afraid of death, really not afraid.

It's just that she is afraid of injuring others, and she is also afraid of how the surviving people will feel when she or Fu Jingting.

Grandmothers, aunts and aunts, they must be sad, right?

Duan Xingbang, Su Cheng, and the Gu family, must be very happy, right?

"I really didn't expect that this time I would die so humiliated. Rong Shu took a breath, meaningless, and coughed badly.

No way, her nose has been blocked and she can't breathe, so she can only use her mouth.

She thought that she would die, die of old age, or die of illness, or be killed by the Gu family when she was fighting with the Gu family.

But it never occurred to her that she did not die on any of these possibilities.

but died under the fire of unknown enemies, smoked alive and roasted to death.

What irony.

"Ahem" Rong Shu really couldn't hold on, and her body was shaky.

At this moment, she faintly heard something.

What is the sound?

Rong Shu's mind was so muddy that she couldn't hear it clearly.

But it doesn't matter, what matters is that there is a sound outside.

She didn't know if the sound outside was coming from the person who set the fire or someone else, but it was a hope anyway.

In case it's not arson.

And this sound of music, still so familiar, where did it come from?

Rong Shu's mind was muddy, and for a while she couldn't remember that this music was Fu Jingting's mobile phone ringing.

It wasn't until her phone rang for a while that she finally remembered.

Ah, it's the phone.

Someone called Fu Jingting.

Rong Shu was in a hurry, and hurriedly went to find Fu Jingting's mobile phone.

Her eyes couldn't see clearly at this time, as if another layer of film was covering her eyes, so she could only listen to the ringtone of her mobile phone to find her mobile phone.

Fortunately, she finally found the phone smoothly and answered the phone according to her memory, "Hello?"

As soon as she spoke, her voice was hoarse as if she had broken her throat.

It's all smoked.

But the assistant Zhang on the other end of the phone still recognized that it was her voice, "Miss Rong, great, great, you are still alive!"

Assistant
Zhang cried with joy.

On the way here, he was really worried that something would happen to them.

Especially after arriving, seeing this fire, the whole soul was scared.

Now hearing Rong Shu's voice, he was greatly relieved.

It's good to be alive, it's good to be alive.

"Assistant Zhang? Rong Shu's mind was chaotic, and it took a while to realize that it was Assistant Zhang's voice, and after realizing it, the whole person became excited, "Is Assistant Zhang you?"

"It's me, it's Miss Rong, it's me." Assistant Zhang Lian Ang, you nodded.

Rong Shu was excited and about to cry, "Quick, Assistant Zhang, you hurry over, quickly open the door of the factory, Fu Jingting fainted, he also vomited blood, hurry, please hurry up." Just by listening, you can know Rong Shu's despair and pleading at the moment.

How she hoped that someone would quickly open the door and send Fu Jingting to the hospital for rescue.

She was afraid that if she was one step late, it would be too late.

Hearing that Fu Jingting fainted and vomited blood, Assistant Zhang's face changed, and he quickly shouted at the team members who were fighting the fire over there: "Quick, someone in the factory fainted, save people quickly." As soon as they heard that someone had fainted, the team members who were already breaking the door quickly increased the speed in their hands and used a large cutter to cut the lock of the gate.

Soon, the gate opened, and Assistant Zhang was the first to go in to save people.

However, the team members saw that he had no equipment on him, and did not know how to save people in the fire, so they quickly stopped him, and then the rest of the team members quickly entered the factory to find someone.

The moment Rong Shu heard Assistant Zhang let him break the door, he knew that Assistant Zhang was already outside the factory, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and finally fainted with relief.

She knew that she and Fu Jingting couldn't die.

She has also been paying attention to Fu Jingting's situation, and he has been breathing, but his breathing is very weak.

But she believed that he would be fine.

They had gone through so many hardships and dangers, and she didn't believe he would fold here.

Ulula, the ambulance drove towards the first hospital at great speed.

Lin Tianchen had already received a call from Assistant Zhang and arranged the rescue room, and at this time he himself was waiting at the gate of the hospital, and when he saw the ambulance coming, he hurried forward.

The first to get out of the ambulance was Rong Shu, and Lin Tianchen was ready to go over to check on her, but was stopped by Assistant Zhang.

"Doctor Lin, first look at our President Fu, Miss Rong's condition is not very serious, that is, she has absorbed a lot of smoke, just clean it up, our General Fu's condition is much more serious, he vomited blood, the doctor in the ambulance said that it is a heart problem, so you check our President Fu first.” Assistant Zhang was emotional, and his eyes were red as he grabbed Lin Tianchen’s sleeve.

“What do you say? Lin Tianchen had a cleanliness fetish, and originally wanted to shake off his paws, but as soon as he heard his words, he immediately froze, and then quickly went to check the situation of Fu Jingting, who got down from the ambulance after that.

Fu Jingting has already been marked with drips at this time, and the medical equipment on the ambulance is limited, so he can only temporarily drag his life with drips.

His situation is still so bad.

Lin Tianchen actually didn’t care about Fu Jingting, he only cared about Rong Shu.

But Fu Jingting is Rong Shu’s man after all, and if something happens to Fu Jingting, Rong Shu will not be happy in the future.

Therefore, in order to keep her from falling into sadness in the future, he could only put her aside for the time being and check on Fu Jingting’s situation.

Of course, before that, he didn’t ask other doctors to check Rong Shu’s condition, and sent Rong Shu to the emergency room first.

Lin Tianchen came to Fu Jingting’s bed, checked his specific situation, and after checking, his face became solemn.

Seeing his solemn expression, Assistant Zhang’s heart sank, “Doctor Lin, what happened to President Fu?”

Lin Tianchen ignored him, directly turned over and pushed the bed, straddled Fu Jingting, gave him CPR with a solemn face, and ordered while doing it, “Prepare for the rescue room, fast!” “

The rescue room is more worrying than the emergency room.

Those who enter the first aid have great hope, and the rescue room means that the person is about to die.

Assistant Zhang’s mind was buzzing, and the whole person almost collapsed to the ground.

But fortunately, he has been with Fu Jingting for more than ten years, and soon adjusted his state again and quickly followed.

President Fu has such a big thing, absolutely cannot be known by the outside world, he must block the news of President Fu's accident as soon as possible, otherwise the outside world knows it, it will definitely make a big fuss, and some people in the group who have ghosts will definitely jump out to make trouble.

Even some enemies in the mall will jump out to make trouble.

As President Fu's henchman, he had to deal with these things before President Fu could recover.

Therefore, he must be calm, and he must not be greatly stimulated because of President Fu's accident, and he will also fall.

If they fall on their own, who will be able to deal with this?

Assistant Zhang kept talking after the rescue team while keeping up with the rescue team, and in just a few minutes, he made several calls out.

Until Fu Jingting entered the rescue room, he arranged some of the arrangements.

The incident of President Fu's accident not only cannot be known to the outside world, but also cannot be known by the old lady and Wang Shuqin.

The old lady's body is almost dead, what if she goes like this after knowing it?

As for Wang Shuqin, although Wang Shuqin cares about President Fu very much, she is a big mouth, and she will be troublesome if she is accidentally exposed.

So keep it hidden.

Assistant Zhang clenched his mobile phone and kept walking around the rescue room, anxiously waiting for Fu Jingting's rescue results.

At this moment, a fire captain and a police station captain walked over together.

Seeing them, Assistant Zhang took a deep breath to calm down and walked over, "Hello."

The two captains glanced at the rescue room with a red light and asked, "How is your boss?"

"Just entered, the specifics are not yet known. Assistant Zhang shook his head and replied a little lowly.

"What about the other Miss Rong?"

“Miss Rong’s side won’t be a big deal, just clean up the smoke and dust in your lungs.”

The two captains nodded, “That’s good.”

“We came this time to tell you that the fire has been extinguished, but the outside of the plant cannot be preserved, but fortunately, the walls of the factory are basically metal structures, so the machinery and equipment inside are still preserved, but the circuit and water channels and so on need to be repaired.” The fire captain said.

This result is actually very good.

They had extinguished so many fires, and it was the first time they had seen so much property under this kind of fire.

“Okay, thank you. Assistant Zhang shook hands with him.

Then he looked at another civilian police captain.

The captain of the police stretched out his hand and shook Assistant Zhang, and then said, “Hello Assistant Zhang, I came to explain to you the preliminary investigation of this fire.” You say. Assistant Zhang nodded.

The captain of the civilian police spoke, “Well, our expert group investigated around the fire and concluded that this fire was indeed caused by malicious arson, and more than thirty barrels of gasoline were found nearby, as well as more than a dozen pairs of different shoe sole prints, as well as the tire prints of two vans, and the tire prints of a private car. That mastermind should have driven a private car. Hearing such a survey result, Assistant Zhang was undoubtedly satisfied.

After all, the number of people who set fire and the mastermind behind it can be speculated in such a short period of time, and it is already the police side that has given strength.

“I know, but what I want to know most is, when exactly did you find out who was behind it?” I will give you police three days, if there is no result in three days, I will report to the above, let the above set up a special team to investigate, captain, you should know that we Fu Shi have such ability. Assistant Zhang looked at the police captain with a serious face.

The captain of the civilian police looked a little bad, after all, this is their jurisdiction, the other party bluntly said that they could not investigate the results, and crossed them to find others to investigate in their jurisdiction, which is undoubtedly not giving them face and not trusting them.

So this time, no matter what they say, they have to make a score for this person to see.

“Assistant Zhang rest assured, three days is enough, these tire prints and gasoline barrels are the key to finding people, we will let the identification department scan the gasoline barrel for fingerprints, if not, we use people to take these gasoline barrels to the market to compare, to see which store these gasoline was bought from, I believe that after finding the store, it should not be difficult to find the buyer, and those tire prints are also the same, although the tire prints of the van are the same difficult to find, But that private car is different, preliminary judgment, that private car is a Rolls-Royce, although not a top phantom, but the price is also within millions, there are so many people who have this kind of car in the sea market, a row of checks can find people out, in short, we will give you, to President Fu an explanation.

After

listening to the captain’s words, Assistant Zhang’s face was slightly better, and then said apologetically to the captain: “Sorry captain, my attitude was a little inappropriate just now, please understand, our boss is like this, I am eager to find out who is behind the scenes, and my emotions are inevitably a little excited, please don’t pay attention to it.”

After listening to his apology, the captain of the police was a little relieved in his heart, “This is nothing, we understand your feelings, rest assured, we will definitely arrest people within three days.”

“Trouble you guys. Assistant Zhang bowed to them, and then thought of something, and said, “There is also this matter, please ask the two of you to disclose it.”

“Don’t worry, Assistant Zhang, we will do this without you reminding us, after all, the case has not been investigated clearly, and we will not spread it outward, which will not do us any good in investigating the case.”

“That’s good.

After that, Assistant Zhang personally sent the two to the elevator, only then turned around and returned to the rescue room, continuing to wait for Fu Jingting to come out.

Of course, during this period, he has not been idle and has not stopped blocking news from the outside world.

Fortunately, Miss Yung's factory was built in a remote suburb and has not yet opened, so there is no one nearby, and no one else has seen the fire.

Someone at a nearby museum may have seen the smoke, but he contacted that side, and it wouldn't leak there.

All in all, this fire, as well as Miss Rong and President Fu, who had an accident in the fire, he could not let the outside world know.

Otherwise, all kinds of troubles will continue one after another.

After finally contacting the people on Tiansheng's side, Assistant Zhang put down his mobile phone with a little relief and looked up at the door of the rescue room in front of him.

He didn't know when the rescue would end, but looking at Dr. Lin's serious expression at that time, it was estimated that it would not end in a short time.

That's it, he better go to the emergency side first.

President Fu loves Miss Rong as if she were a liver, so on Miss Rong's side, he must also pay attention.

Otherwise, what if President Fu wakes up and asks, what if he finds him to settle the account?

Assistant Zhang rubbed his temples and went to the emergency department a little tiredly.

At this time, it was already past nine o'clock in the evening, he had not eaten dinner, and he ran up and down, tired and hungry for a long time.

But ah, even if he is tired and hungry, he can't rest and eat, neither of these two people is out of danger, how can he be in any mood.

It was also good luck that Assistant Zhang had just arrived outside the emergency room, and the door of the emergency room opened.

Seeing this, Assistant Zhang quickly grabbed a neglectful inquiry that came out, "Hello, how is the patient?" The nurse withdrew her hand and replied, "Don't worry, the young lady inside is already fine, she inhaled carbon dioxide, as well as some chemical trace elements, resulting in lung blockage, respiratory infections, now the lungs and respiratory tract have been cleaned up, she is fine, the next few days of rest can recover, but her eyes are smoked a little badly, the next period of time, have to receive light treatment, and even if the treatment is good.” , vision will also be impaired, you need to wear suitable glasses, or directly change the cornea.

“So serious. Assistant Zhang was surprised.

I actually have to change the cornea.

“Yes, the right thing to do when the eyes are exposed to irritating smoke is to close them, but this young lady’s situation only shows that she has always opened her eyes and never closed them. The nurse nodded and said.

Assistant Zhang was speechless, and he felt uncomfortable.

He could guess why Miss Rong didn’t close her eyes, not because Miss Rong wasn’t afraid of being smoked.

It’s because of Mr. Fu.

President Fu should have lost consciousness in Miss Rong’s arms a long time ago, and Miss Rong was afraid that she would close her eyes and not be able to pay attention to President Fu’s situation at any time, so she forcibly opened her eyes uncomfortably.

These two people,

“Okay, I see, the patient will be transferred to the ward in a while, right?” Assistant Zhang looked at the emergency room behind the nurse.

The nurse nodded, “Yes, this young lady is out of danger, just transfer to the general ward.”

“Okay, I’ll go check in for hospitalization.

After

that, Assistant Zhang turned around and left.

He booked two high-class wards for Rong Shu and Fu Jingting, and Rong Shu was quickly transferred in.

After Assistant Zhang looked at her, he hired a female nurse for her to take care of her, after all, how can he take care of a big man.

After doing this, it was confirmed that Rong Shu only needed to cultivate well next, and after something happened, Assistant Zhang left the ward with peace of mind and returned to the rescue room.

He waited outside the rescue room for more than an hour, and finally the red light above the door of the rescue room went out.

Seeing this, Assistant Zhang quickly stood up and walked over, clasped his hands, and stared at the gate with a nervous expression.

The door opened, and the first to come out was Lin Tianchen in green clothes.

“Dr. Lin. Assistant Zhang quickly stopped him.

Lin Tianchen stopped and took off his mask, “Your family Fu has been rescued and temporarily out of danger.” Without waiting for Assistant Zhang to ask, he had already told Fu Jingting’s situation.

Assistant Zhang did not relieve, but his brows furrowed even tighter, “Temporarily out of danger? Do you mean to say that President Fu is not completely out of danger? ”

“That’s what it means.” Lin Tianchen’s slender middle finger pushed the glasses gracefully, looking like Sven scum.

If you put on a suit, it’s Sven scum.

Assistant Zhang stumbled two steps as if he had been shocked, his expression dull, “How so?”

“Why can’t it be. Lin Tianchen wrapped his arms around and said lightly: “Your family Fu always because of the last incident, the heart was originally in a broken state, as long as it is not stimulated by the outside world, do not do strenuous exercise, or can live like a normal person for a year or two, insist on the arrival of a new heart, but this time his heart was stimulated by the fire smoke, inhaled a lot of harmful components in the smoke, so the heart damage is aggravated, if not you rescued is, sent to the hospital quickly, your family Fu is now lying in the morgue, not temporarily rescued.”

Assistant

Zhang grabbed his hair in collapse, his eyes were red, “Then what will happen to President Fu next?”

“Your family Fu is estimated to be bedridden or wheelchair traveling, even so, your Fu is likely to have cardiac arrest and sudden death on the spot, and the probability is not small.”

Assistant Zhang’s face turned white, “That is to say, in addition to changing the heart, President Fu will no longer be able to stand up, and he may die at any time, right?”

“That’s right, otherwise I wouldn’t say I’m out of danger for the time being.” Lin Tianchen nodded.

Assistant Zhang and a big man cried.

Lin Tianchen’s face was full of disgust, “What are you crying?” Your Fu family is not dead now, instead of crying here, why don’t you ask how the carrier of the heart you ordered is now? If you can, directly kill the carrier to fly the heart over, I will immediately change the heart of your family Fu, and then your family Fu will have nothing, okay, your family Fu will be sent to the ICU ward for observation for a few days, if there are no abnormal phenomena in these days, you can consider going to the general ward, I will go first, I will go to see Rong Shu.

After

that, Lin Tianchen ignored Assistant Zhang and turned to leave.

Assistant Zhang didn’t care about him walking, he would be thinking about what Lin Tianchen had just said.

Lin Tianchen said, let him directly kill the carrier of the heart and transport the heart to President Fu to replace it.

Although this sounds creepy and makes people feel that the person who said it is too vicious, but now, Assistant Zhang has to think about it.

If President Fu hadn’t come up with this matter, he would also feel that Lin Tianchen’s words were too ugly, and he wouldn’t support them.

Even if the carrier is not saved, as long as it is not dead, it has the right to live.

What’s more, Mr. Fu’s situation can wait for two years, and the carrier can live for half a year at most, and it is completely possible to wait for the last time of the carrier to take the heart over, so that the carrier can go without regrets.

But now, he doesn’t think so, the carrier can live for three or four months, but President Fu can’t wait.

So the carrier must

Zhang Assistant clench his fist.

Don’t blame him for being ruthless, he just doesn’t want Fu to die.

Everyone has selfishness, he respects President Fu, and regards President Fu as his best friend, and President Fu also gives him glory and wealth, so no matter what the reason, he can’t let President Fu die.

Therefore, he can only choose to sacrifice that carrier.

Thinking of this, Assistant Zhang closed his eyes fiercely, and when he opened his eyes again, only cold and firm remained under his eyes.

Then he took out his mobile phone and dialed an overseas call.

The phone was answered quickly,” said Assistant Zhang.

“How’s the carrier?” Assistant Zhang lowered his eyes and asked with a look of disbelief.

The person on the other end of the phone replied: “It’s still the same, and there is very little time to be awake every day.”

“The doctor said, how long will you live?” Assistant Zhang asked.

The person on the other end of the line thought for a moment, “Three months.”

“I see. Assistant Zhang nodded, “Is the carrier awake now?”

“I’m awake, I’ve just eaten something and I’m talking to my wife and children.” “Good

. Assistant Zhang answered in a hoarse voice, and then fell silent.

After a moment of silence, he finally gritted his teeth and said his purpose, “After the carrier’s wife and children leave, you talk to the carrier, I need his heart now.” Hearing this, the person on the other end of the phone was shocked, “What? Assistant Zhang, you mean, you want the carrier “

” to be. Assistant Zhang nodded, “It just so happens that their country has the condition of euthanasia.”

“I know, but”

“It’s nothing, he wouldn’t have lived long, the last two or three months, there is not much difference between living and not living, I know that I don’t do this to compound international rules, but President Fu had an accident.” Assistant Zhang said.

The person on the other end of the phone is also an employee of Fu Jingting, and he was sent to look at the carrier in order to ensure that the carrier’s heart did not have any accidents.

Now when he heard that Fu Jingting had an accident, he was anxious, “What’s wrong with President Fu?”

“Mr. Fu’s heart has been stimulated by the outside world, and he has just been rescued, but he has not lasted long, and he may not wake up at any time, do you understand what I mean?” If I could, I wouldn’t want to be so inhumane, but I’d rather sacrifice others than Fu’s life. Assistant Zhang gritted his teeth and said with a grim face.

The person on the other end of the phone also understands and understands.

And if it were him, he also chose it this way.

After all, he is also an employee of Fu Jingting.

“I know, I’ll do it. Assistant

Zhang snorted, “Of course, we are not so desperate, compensation must satisfy him, as long as he wants, we will try to agree, let him go without regrets.”

“Okay, I’ll convey it, don’t worry, Assistant Zhang, wait for my good news.” The person on the other end of the phone said and hung up.

Assistant Zhang also put down the mobile phone, put down the mobile phone tightly with both hands, and whispered “sorry” in his eyes, he was doing it for the first time, and his conscience was indeed tortured.

But he doesn’t regret it.

I only hope that when President Fu wakes up, he won’t blame him for making arbitrary claims.

Sighing, Assistant Zhang rubbed his face, and then waited intently for Fu Jingting to come out, and followed Fu Jingting to the ICU.

About an hour later, Assistant Zhang received a reply from abroad, and the carrier agreed.

This is undoubtedly good news.

Assistant Zhang finally showed his first smile since this evening.

Replied that the carrier chose to be happy after two days, and he wanted to say goodbye to his family on these two days.

In addition, the compensation that the carrier needs is also very simple, that is, money, he needs a large amount of money, he wants to live well after his death, his wife and children, and no longer have to worry about money.

they were poor and often worried about money, his wife was incapable, his children were young, and if he died, he did not know how his wife and children would survive.

So he wants to leave a large amount of money to his wife and children before he dies, at least so that they don't have to run for money in the future.

This is not excessive, even very reasonable.

Assistant Zhang did not hesitate, agreed, and also compensated, in addition to money, returned the house.

"Two days. Assistant Zhang exhaled, "When you arrive, Fu has always been saved."
Assistant

Zhang looked at Fu Jingting, who was lying here with a ventilator, through the glass wall of the ICU, and the big stone in his heart finally fell, and the whole person relaxed slightly.

And the consequence of relaxation was hunger and tiredness, which came at him in unison, causing him to collapse on the ground and lose face.

Chapter 1318 – Duan Xingbang Arrested

On the other hand, Duan Xingbang has been silently observing the subsequent development of the plant since he left the plant.

I want to know what happened to Fu Jingting and Rong Shu, whether they were injured or had died as he wished!

If you die, of course it's best.

If he is injured, it will not be a loss for him.

Of course, it would be better to burn them beyond recognition.

Duan Xingbang sat in front of the computer with a glass of red wine, while leisurely imagining, he kept refreshing the web page, wanting to see the follow-up to the fire.

But no matter how he looked at it, there was not a trace of news of the fire coming out on the Internet.

Without this news, he could not see how Fu Jingting and Rong Shu were doing, which made him quite irritated.

It stands to reason that this shouldn't happen.

Now is the information age, no matter what happens, it will soon be posted online and known to the public.

It is impossible for such a big thing that the factory is on fire for so long, it has not been posted on the Internet, and it is impossible that there is no media report.

Of course, Duan Xingbang was not a stupid person, and he quickly reacted, this situation was someone who shot to suppress the fire.

So now there is no news on the Internet.

As for who pressed it down, besides the Fu Group, who else has this ability? Hide all the wind without leaking?

Duan Xingbang put the red wine glass on the table heavily, and the whole person was angry.

I can't see the news, I don't know the situation of Fu Jingting and Rong Shu, this is like a black eye, so that he doesn't know what to do next.

But not without opportunity.

Thinking of this, Duan Xingbang took out his mobile phone and contacted the people below, asking them to go to major hospitals to inquire whether they had accepted people rescued from the scene of the fire, especially a man and a woman.

As long as he knew this, he could still figure out the situation of these two people.

After the order, Duan Xingbang did not stop, and continued to call others, asking the people in the circle if they had heard of the fire tonight.

Of course, when he asked, he was very clever not to mention that Tiansheng's factory was on fire, but directly asked if there was a fire anywhere.

But the answer was all two words of agreement, no.

It can be seen that the Fu Group really blocked the news so tightly, even if the outside world didn't know, the inner circle didn't know.

Of course, he also knew very well why the people of the Fu Group blocked this matter.

If he could, he really wanted to expose this matter directly on the Internet and bring trouble to the Fu Group.

But he knew that if he did so, it would be tantamount to throwing himself into the net, and it would not be long before the Internet police would find him.

After all, the Fu Group has blocked this matter, and others know that this matter is still posted on the Internet, so there is only the person who set the fire.

So now, he can only watch the Fu Group block the news, and he can't do anything, this taste is really not good.

What's even more uncomfortable is that the previous phone has a message.

They have already asked if the major hospitals have accepted people rescued from the fire tonight, and the answer is yes.

After all, fires occur every day all over the world, and the sea market is no exception.

It's just that the fires that his people heard about were all some buildings on fire, and none of the factory buildings were on fire, and the people who sought medical treatment were either a family of three or elderly people, and none of them met the characteristics of Fu Jingting and Rong Shu.

This is tantamount to inquiring about loneliness.

Duan Xingbang's face was gloomy, and he suddenly raised his head and drank the wine, knowing that it seemed impossible to know the situation of Fu Jingting and Rong Shu tonight.

That's it, let's figure it out tomorrow.

Duan Xingbang thought with a look of displeasure.

However, by the next day, Duan Xingbang had not inquired about Fu Jingting and Rong Shu, and as soon as he arrived at the gate of Tiansheng Group, he was arrested and handcuffed by several police officers on the spot and taken away.

This change stunned everyone in Tiansheng Group, and also stunned the paparazzi who were waiting outside in the wind and rain.

Soon, the news that the president of Tiansheng Group was taken away by the police was on the hot search, and the limelight was close to Liu Linlin's murder.

"What's the situation, how come another rich man has been arrested? During this time, it is popular to catch rich people.

“I don’t know, but what was the reason why this one was arrested?” Wouldn’t it be murder again? “It’s not impossible, these rich people have a black heart, wait, it won’t be long before the police will issue an announcement, and then we will know what the reason is.” “

Netizens on the Internet are talking a lot, and the employees of Tiansheng Group are also constantly brushing the screen in the group, even if the leaders see it, they don’t say anything, because they themselves are also eating melons.”

However, no matter how they ate melons, they did not eat the reason why Duan Xingbang was taken away.

The only one who knew was Lina.

Lina received a call from Assistant Zhang last night, and learned that the factory was burned, and the whole person was shocked at that time, and then learned that the chairman fainted in the fire, and was worried and immediately went to the hospital to see.

However, in the end, it was stopped by Assistant Zhang, who said that Rong Shu would not be able to go to work in Tiansheng for a period of time in the next period, in order not to let the outside world know about the fire, as well as Fu Jingting and Rong Shu who were injured in the fire, so Lina needed to explain to Tiansheng Group the news that Rong Shu was temporarily on a business trip to other places and was not in the sea market.

She is Rong Shu’s secretary general, and she came forward to explain that the following people will believe.

Lina also knew that if everyone knew that the chairman had an accident, the whole company would panic, and maybe something would happen.

In order to stabilize the company, she listened to Assistant Zhang’s words, forced herself to calm down, and then came to the company early this morning and announced Rong Shu’s business trip.

The people below really didn’t think much about it.

But before she could breathe a sigh of relief, she heard the news that Duan Xingbang had been arrested.

Duan Xingbang was arrested

Chapter 1319 – Great Compassion and Great Joy

Mr. Fu actually entered the ICU!

Lina was frightened by this realization.

No wonder Assistant Zhang's expression was so heavy at that time, President Fu's situation was even worse than she imagined.

At most, she thought that Mr. Fu's injury was heavier than Miss Rong's, but she never expected that Mr. Fu's situation was more serious than the injury, which was already life-threatening.

President Fu should not have been protecting the chairman, that's why it's like this?

Both of them were at the scene of the fire, Miss Rong only had an eye injury, while Mr. Fu's life was threatened.

It is very likely that but there is some danger, and President Fu endured it alone for Miss Rong.

Mr. Fu is really a good man.

Lina thought with emotion, and then withdrew her gaze and went to Rong Shu's ward.

The one who opened the door was a middle-aged woman who Assistant Zhang had hired for Rong Shu.

After Lina went in, she put her things down and stood by Rong Shu's hospital bed and looked at Rong Shu.

Rong Shu's face was pale and bloodless, and her eyes were covered with gauze, and the whole person was pitiful, and it was distressing to look at.

Lina asked the nurse a few words about Rong Shu's situation, and Lin Tianchen came over in a white coat.

"People haven't woken up yet?"

He asked.

The nurse shook his head, "Miss Rong hasn't woken up yet."

Lin Tianchen nodded, indicating that he understood, and then stepped forward to check Rong Shu's situation.

After reading it, he found that there was no problem, so he put his hand into the pocket of the white coat, "Call us immediately when someone wakes up."

"Good doctor.

Lin Tianchen snorted, turned around and went out.

Fu Jingting's side, he still has to go and see.

Hey, as soon as he came to work, he had to be in charge of these two people, which was also hard.

Lina did not plan to leave the hospital, she planned to wait for Rong Shu to wake up and explain some things before leaving.

Especially Duan Xingbang was arrested.

So in the following time, Lina has been sitting on the side of Rong Shu's hospital bed to accompany Rong Shu, occasionally checking the situation on the Internet to see if the police have issued some notices or something.

This stay, stayed directly until noon, Rong Shu on the hospital bed finally reacted, coughing uncomfortably a few times.

Seeing this, the nurse quickly went to pour a glass of warm water.

Lina put away her phone even before, "Chairman."

"Lina? Rong Shu's eyes hadn't opened yet, but she heard Lina's voice clearly and answered it.

But the sound is like a broken bellows, very ugly, hoarse, and very weak, and even when I speak, my throat hurts so badly, so I cough even harder.

"Chairman, don't talk yet, drink some water first. Together with the nurse, Lina helped Rong Shu up, leaned on the hospital bed, and then passed the water over.

At the same time, Lina also raised Rong Shu's hand so that her hand could accurately hold the cup.

Rong Shu was anxious, "What's wrong with my eyes?" She just wanted to open her eyes, but found that she couldn't open them, there was something covered above her eyes, a bandage or something like that.

The bandages on her eyes made her immediately think of nonsense.

Could it be that her eyes are really blind?

Lina saw that Rong Shu was a little emotional, and she also knew the reason, and quickly calmed down, "Don't worry, chairman, your eyes are fine, but they were smoked yesterday, so their eyes are somewhat injured, and now they are being treated, and they will be fine after treatment." She did not tell Rong Shu that her eyes might need surgery in the future.

Now the situation of the chairman is not very good, if the chairman knows this, the mood may be even more unacceptable.

Hearing that the eyes were fine, Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief.

She didn't suspect that Lina was lying to herself, and she didn't want to.

After all, she also wanted to hear that there was nothing wrong with her eyes, at least she felt a lot of comfort in her heart.

"Chairman, drink water first, your throat will be more comfortable." Lina saw that Rong Shu's mood calmed down, and reminded again.

Rong Shu was already thirsty, so she answered and began to drink water.

She drank very quickly, a glass of water in a few sips, this is not enough, and then the nurse added several glasses, which made her whole person much more comfortable.

"Chairman, is it better? Lina took the glass.

Rong Shu nodded weakly and leaned back on the head of the bed, "Much better." "

My voice is not as uncomfortable as it was just now, and even my voice is better.

Although still so husky.

"Am I in the hospital? Rong Shu touched the gauze on her eyes again and asked.

The smell of disinfectant water in the air made her guess where she was.

Lina nodded, "Yes, Chairman, you fainted at the scene of the fire, so you were sent to the hospital, but Chairman, don't worry, you are fine, you can be discharged after a few days of recuperation."

"What about Fu Jingting? Rong Shu grabbed Lina's hand and hurriedly asked.

She is fine, but Fu Jingting is not necessarily.

He vomited several mouthfuls of blood.

Lina's hand was scratched by Rong Shu a little painfully, but Lina was not angry and did not shake her off.

Lina knew that Rong Shu was very worried about Fu Jingting, and she was also afraid of hearing some bad news.

That's why the emotions are so exciting.

She gently patted the back of Rong Shu's hand, "Don't worry, Chairman, President Fu is out of danger now"

This was a little short-hearted.

After all, Fu Jingting is in the ICU, and the ICU is a place where only critically ill patients can enter, and the people inside are not necessarily out of danger.

But in order to appease Rong Shu, she could only say so.

It's just that she has never been good at lying, so if she says it, it is inevitable that there are big loopholes.

Rong Shu naturally heard it at once, although she couldn't see Lina, she still raised her head and 'looked' at her, "You're lying, are you lying to me, Lina, tell me, what's wrong with Fu Jingting?" Her voice was anxious and emotional.

Why did Lina lie?

Chapter 1320 – She's Awake

Great, great, Fu Jingting is not dead, he is not dead, he is still alive!

Rong Shu's excited body was trembling.

When Lina saw her like this, she didn't think she was crazy.

She knew that the chairman was happy.

When Rong Shu's mood improved a little, Lina handed her a tissue, "Chairman, wipe your tears, don't cry in the future, it's not good for your eyes." "

I know. Rong Shu took a deep breath, took the tissue and wiped the tears that spilled from under the gauze, and then asked again, "Since Fu Jingting is not dead, then why did you just say that tone."

Lina touched the tip of her nose, "It's such a chairman, although President Fu is still alive, but the person is now in the ICU." "

"icu? Rong Shu's voice rose sharply.

Lina nodded, "Yes.

"What the hell is wrong with him? You tell me, what's wrong with him? Rong Shu hurriedly asked.

Lina shook her head, "I don't know what happened to President Fu, Assistant Zhang didn't tell me."

"What about Assistant Zhang? Rong Shu asked again.

"Assistant Zhang is on President Fu's side.

"You give me the phone, no, you call me, call Assistant Zhang, let him come over, I want to know what happened to Fu Jingting's situation, I don't know if I'm not at ease." Rong Shu ordered.

Then he disliked it for being too slow, and directly lifted the quilt on his body, "No, I'd better go over by myself."

However, as soon as she did this, a violent vertigo hit her.

Rong Shu's body instantly fell on the hospital bed.

Lina hurriedly said: "Chairman, don't worry, since yesterday to now, you haven't eaten anything at all, plus you paid off your lungs and respiratory tract, your body hasn't recovered yet, you can't go anywhere, so you still lie down well, I'll call Assistant Zhang."

Rong Shu also knew that his body had no strength, and he didn't force it anymore, and waved his hand, "Then you call."

"Okay, I'll hit it.

Lina picked up her mobile phone and called Assistant Zhang.

Assistant Zhang heard that she was awake and promised to come and see her in a moment.

Then asked about Rong Shu's situation, and then hung up the phone with confidence.

"Chairman, Assistant Zhang will come over in a moment.

"Hmm. Rong Shu nodded.

Lina sat down next to her, "Chairman, last night's fire, the person who set the fire has been caught."

Hearing this, Rong Shu raised her head sharply, "What did you say?" Caught?

"Yes. Lina nodded.

"Who is it? Rong Shu gritted her teeth and hated that person in her heart.

If it weren't for that person, Fu Jingting wouldn't be like this!

"It's Duan Zong. Lina looked at her and replied.

Rong Shu was suddenly shocked, "Duan Xingbang?"

"Yes.

"It turned out to be him!

Rong Shu clenched her palms, her face turned red because of anger, "Yes, I should have thought about it a long time ago, when I had a meeting yesterday, Duan Xingbang looked at me with malicious eyes, I thought he would dig some pit for me, but by the end of the meeting he didn't do anything, so I relaxed my vigilance!" At this moment, Rong Shu regretted ah, self-blame, guilt, all kinds of emotions hit her, overwhelming her breathless.

The person who set the fire either went towards Fu Jingting or came at her.

It was she who burdened Fu Jingting.

Rong Shu was heartbroken and hated Duan Xingbang.

"Someone else is at the police station now? Rong Shu squeezed her palms desperately.

Lina nodded, "Yes.

"How did the police find him so quickly this time?" Rong Shu asked again.

Lina shook her head, "I don't know about this, but Assistant Zhang should know, Chairman You can ask Assistant Zhang later."

Rong Shu snorted, indicating that he understood.

Then Lina asked, "Chairman, Mr. Duan was arrested at the door of our company, in the end, it still has some impact on our company, do you want to issue a statement or something?"

Rong Shu nodded, "Just send Duan Xingbang to set fire to others after getting drunk and burn down other people's factories, don't send it out for specific reasons, otherwise there will be some trouble." "

If you let the outside world know, Duan Xingbang wants to burn her because he is dissatisfied with her.

This is not a good thing for Tiansheng.

The outside world will plummet the image of Tiansheng's internal high-level management, so as to dislike Tiansheng, especially the official, which is not good for Tiansheng's future road.

"Don't worry, Chairman, I know this, Assistant Zhang is also afraid that the injury of you and President Fu will be known to the outside world, so I blocked all the news last night, and the outside world still doesn't know what happened." Lina said, picking up her phone.

Rong Shu snorted, "That's good." Soon

, the statement of Tiansheng Group was issued.

Netizens have been paying attention to this matter, and everyone was stunned when they saw that Duan Xingbang was drunk and played drunk and burned down people's factories.

"Obedient, are rich people so crazy?"

"Don't say a word, burn the factory, now it's okay, burn yourself in." "

People on the Internet are giggling.

Of course, there are also a small number of people who feel that things are not so simple, and always feel that there is something they don't know inside.

That includes Sioux City.

“Go and find out. At another private hospital, Su Cheng instructed his assistant.

After Assistant Li answered, a phone call went out.

After the call, he replied, “I have already asked people to check, and there should be news soon.”

“Hmm. Su Cheng leaned on the hospital bed, one leg bent up, his hand on his knee, lightly touched his knee, and looked imposing, “How is Su Man?”

“I beat her up, and I still haven’t woken up.” Assistant Li mentioned Su Man and replied disdainfully.

was favored by the boss and gave a daughter the title, thinking that it was some kind of smart goods.

Unexpectedly, such a useless one, it was really a waste of everything that the boss spent on her.

Su Cheng snorted, indicating that he knew, and said with grim eyes, “This woman, yet.” Tricked me into saying that the Liu family is a good to use, especially that Liu Linlin, but I didn’t expect that the Liu family was so useless, and it collapsed before I could win over, that Liu Linlin was even more ridiculous, and was directly arrested, because I still believed in her, laid out a series of plans, and all of them were in vain, if it weren’t for keeping her useful, I would have wrung her neck a long time ago.

“It’s not too late later, when the goal is achieved, you can also wring her neck.” Assistant Li said.

Su Cheng laughed, “That’s what I said.” “

In the first hospital, Assistant Zhang soon came to Rong Shu’s ward, and there was Lin Tianchen by his side.

Rong Shu heard the footsteps and knew that they were coming, and immediately opened his mouth to inquire about Fu Jingting’s situation.

Lin Tianchen interrupted her, “It’s not too late for me to check your situation. Saying that, regardless of Rong Shu’s impatience, he examined her together.

Assistant Zhang was also next to persuade: “Miss Rong, let’s cooperate with the inspection first, only if you recover well, President Fu will not worry about you when he wakes up.”

As soon as these words came out, Rong Shu stopped struggling.

Yes, Fu Jingting's personality, as soon as he wakes up, he will definitely care about her first regardless of his own situation.

She really had to recover herself first, so that Fu Jingting didn't have to worry about her distracted.

Rong Shu obediently lay still, and Lin Tianchen's examination of her suddenly became smooth.

After the inspection, Lin Tianchen nodded with satisfaction, "It's not bad, except for the eyes, the rest is enough to completely recover in two days." Hearing this, everyone put their hearts down.

The nurse even asked what Rong Shu could eat at this time, and she could buy it.

After waiting for the nurse to leave, Rong Shu finally asked, "Assistant Zhang, how is Jing Ting?" "
