Chapter 1381 – Fu Jingting Recovered

“Of course.” Men do not hide their happiness, generously admitting that no man can accept that his wife values the ring given by another man so much.

“Then now that I take the ring off, you won’t look good in the future, right?” Rong Shu gave the man a blank look.

The man smiled generously at her, “No.”

“Hmph.” Rong Shujiao scorned him, lifted the quilt and got out of bed, put the ring in his bag, intending to buy a box on the way to work later, and put it in his safe.

Fu Jingting also did not sleep and sat up.

Now he is recovering well, and he no longer needs to be supported all the time to sit up on his own.

He can sit up by himself with his arms, although it is a little laborious, but he can do things by himself, he always likes to do it by himself, rather than let Rong Shu help.

He didn’t want to be a burden to her himself.

“Hungry, huh?” After putting the ring away, Rong Shu returned to the bedside.

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, “A little.”

“Then I’ll take you to wash up first, and then order breakfast for people to bring over.” Saying that, Rong Shu pushed the wheelchair over.

Fu Jingting agreed, got out of bed and sat in a wheelchair.

Rong Shu did not help the whole time.

Because she knew that men didn’t want her to help either, men had always been like this, and they didn’t like her for really treating him as a waste who couldn’t do anything.

So since he can do it, then she doesn’t force it and lets him do it himself.

Breakfast was delivered quickly, almost as soon as the two of them washed, breakfast had already been delivered, all of them were light and could not be more light breakfast.

No way, who told Fu Jingting that now she can’t eat a lot of things, and so does she herself.

So no matter how light it is, you can only endure it for a while, and it will be good later.

After breakfast, Rong Shu said goodbye to Fu Jingting and went to work.

On the way, while passing a shopping mall, she went to a jewelry store inside, bought a delicate ring box, then returned to the car, took out the wrapped ring from the bag, and carefully put the ring into the box.

From now on, this ring, she will only take it out when she misses Xiaochuan, take it out.

Other times, she wouldn't want to see it again, and she was afraid to touch the scene.

Time passed quickly, and a month passed in the blink of an eye.

In the past month, Fu Jingting's recovery made Rong Shu feel extremely surprised.

Now Fu Jingting can already enter and exit the hospital and go back to work in the Fu Group, although he still has to go back to the hospital at night, but he can not stay in the hospital during the day, but can be discharged to do his own things.

In addition, he does not have to use a wheelchair, but can walk normally, as long as he does not run and jump, he does not have to worry about his heart displacement.

That is to say, at least on the outside, the current Fu Jingting is already a normal person who has almost recovered.

And Fu Jingting recovered well, but Rong Shu's own hard life came.

Her current body is not very suitable for pregnancy, but she is pregnant, and it is naturally impossible to choose to remove it.

Not to mention that this child is the crystallization of her and Fu Jingting's love, let's say that if she removes this child, she will never be able to conceive this in the future, and she cannot choose to remove the child.

And the price of conceiving this child means that she has to suffer several times more pain than a normal pregnant mother, because her body has not yet recovered and she is pregnant with a child, so relatively, the suffering must be admitted more.

For example, now, she is only one and a half months pregnant, and the pregnancy reaction began to appear, and her face was pale and sour every day.

Ordinary pregnant mothers generally have a pregnancy reaction in about two months, and she only appears in one and a half months.

And in order to save this child, she also has to take a lot of medicine every day to protect the fetus, and even has injections.

So much so that now she is scared when she sees these things, but she can't be afraid not to do it.

Otherwise, the child will definitely not be saved.

Therefore, in the past month, Rong Shu's whole person has lost weight, and her face is very pale and very bad, and Fu Jingting who looks at it is distressed.

On this day, it was the day of Rong Shu's maternity examination again.

Rong Shu was still in the maternity examination room, and Fu Jingting and Lin Tianchen stood outside waiting.

During this period, Fu Jingting's brows have been wrinkled tightly, and his fists have also been clenched tightly, if he can't go in, he may not be able to stand and rush in directly.

No way, he really couldn't rest assured Rong Shu.

He still remembered Rong Shu's pale and emaciated face when he entered.

Lin Tianchen looked at Fu Jingting like this, pushed his glasses, and said coolly: "You are worried about her now, what did you do in the first place?" "What ?" Fu Jingting squinted and turned his head.

Lin Tianchen put his hands in the pockets of his white coat, "I mean, you let her get pregnant, you feel sorry for her now, why didn't you take measures in the first place?"

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, "You said that she is not easy to get pregnant in the past two years, and it is difficult to get pregnant, so she did not do anything."

Otherwise, he would not have chosen this time for her to conceive a child.

Seeing that she was only more than a month pregnant, she was tortured like this, and there were still eight months left, he couldn't imagine what she would be tortured into.

"I said so, but there is never a shortage of miracles in this world." Lin Tianchen shrugged.

Fu Jingting glanced at him coldly, "Yes, there is never a shortage of miracles, but miracles are not so lucky to befall everyone."

Where would he have thought that they were so lucky to be visited by miracles.

At this moment, even Lin Tianchen had nothing to say.

Yes, the miracle thing is really unpredictable.

Some people hope for a miracle, but miracles do not take care of it.

And Fu Jingting and Rong Shu did not want a miracle to happen, but a miracle came to them.

What can people do about this kind of thing?

“This kid, can’t you really not do without?” At this time, Fu Jingting looked at Lin Tianchen and suddenly asked.

Lin Tianchen was stunned, “What do you mean?” You don’t want to leave this child?

“If the existence of this child makes her so painful and tormented, I can not want him, I would rather have a child after she is completely healed than see her so painful.” Fu Jingting said with a gloomy face.

Lin Tianchen spread out his hands, “Then there is no way, you must have this child, I said before, if you choose to end your pregnancy, with her current physical fitness, she will not conceive a child at all, so even if this child makes her feel tormented again, she can only stay, unless she can also accept that she will not have children in the future, but do you think, can she accept it?” That’s definitely not possible!

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes, knowing this answer.

He now knew that she still felt guilty about the child she had shed before, and how could she not want this child.

“Look, you have nothing to say, it means that you yourself know the result Oh, this child, you can only keep it.” Lin Tianchen put his hand back into the pocket of his white coat.

Fu Jingting closed his eyes, “Then is there any way to make her not suffer so much?”

“Nope.” Lin Tianchen didn’t want to tell him directly, “Although the current medicine is in a daze, but it is not enough to do everything, leaving the child, she can only bear this torture, but you can rest assured, we will try to alleviate some of her torture, I said before, her situation, in the future, to stay in bed rest, but I didn’t expect her to be about a month, the reaction is so big, it seems that she must start more bed rest now, otherwise in this way, even if we keep her fetus, the child is easy to keep.” ”

Chapter 1382 – The situation is serious

“So you mean, she’d better be hospitalized from now on, right?” Fu Jingting squinted and asked.

Lin Tianchen was noncommittal, “That’s right, her body is too weak, and her son and palace have not recovered, and she can’t walk outside for a long time, otherwise there will be a miscarriage if you are not careful, and it is even very likely that the rescue will not be in time, one corpse and two lives.”

Fu Jingting’s pupils shrank sharply, “One corpse, two lives?”

How could it be so serious?

“Yes, it’s quite possible.” Lin Tianchen’s expression was serious, and he didn’t mean to joke at all.

What’s more, he never jokes.

“So I recommend that she start hospitalization now, which is best for her, for the baby in her belly.”

Fu Jingting clenched his fists, “I know, when she comes out, I will discuss with her, you go and help arrange all this first.”

“Okay, then I’ll go.” Lin Tianchen bowed his head slightly and turned to leave.

Fu Jingting remained in place alone, his eyes still staring at the gate in front of him, waiting for Rong Shu to come out from inside with a heavy and worried heart.

In this way, it was as if Rong Shu was waiting for him outside when he had surgery.

Fu Jingting waited for almost two hours before Rong Shu finally came out of it.

She hugged her stomach and walked over with a pale face.

Seeing this, Fu Jingting quickly walked over and held her in his arms, “How is it?” Still very uncomfortable?

Rong Shu leaned into his arms, her voice weak, "It's better now, it's not as uncomfortable as it was at the beginning."

Fu Jingting helped her to the chair next to her and sat down, "What are the results of the examination?"

Rong Shu leaned on his shoulder and closed his eyes slightly, "The result is okay, the doctor said that the reaction was very large, so it made the mother too uncomfortable, and there was nothing else." Hearing this, Fu Jingting's hanging heart let go a little.

Then, he told her about the conversation he had with Lin Tianchen just now, "Lin Tianchen suggested that you be hospitalized from now on to raise a fetus, and I also hope that you will do this, so that it will be good for you and the child, what do you think?"

Although he was tempted to make the decision directly for her, he ultimately did not choose to do so.

He respected her opinion.

Rong Shu listened to the man's words, and raised her head, "Hospitalized to raise a fetus now?"

"Yes." Fu Jingting looked into her eyes and nodded.

Rong Shu bit her lower lip and hesitated, "But if you are hospitalized to raise a fetus now, what should Tiansheng do?"

"I can send someone over to help you manage, or you can arrange someone to manage it yourself, but either way, I hope you are hospitalized, your current situation is very dangerous, Lin Tianchen said, in your situation, one corpse and two lives are possible." Fu Jingting hugged her very tightly, eager to integrate her into his body.

As if this were the case, she would not have any situation of one corpse and two lives.

To be honest, Rong Shu was also frightened by the man's words, and her already white little face was even paler now.

"How could it be so serious?" Her eyes blinked in confusion.

Fu Jingting grabbed the back of her head with a big hand and let her head rest on his chest, "Because you are not in good health and have not fully recovered, so pregnancy is already very dangerous, your current situation, you can't run outside for a long time, and you can't work for a long time, so wife, I hope you promise to be hospitalized, you don't have to worry about Tiansheng, in this world, there are many people, even if you can't rest assured, sometimes, you should let go."

Rong Shu's mouth opened, unable to speak.

After a while, she sighed, "Well, I promised to be hospitalized."

He is right, Tiansheng is important, but life and children are more important.

And Tiansheng is already stable, and there will be no turmoil because she is not there for a long time.

But if she can't let go of Tiansheng and has to stay in Tiansheng, the final result is not only that the child cannot be saved, but even her own life may be lost.

So she really shouldn't let go of Tiansheng, and put her and her child's lives second.

Seeing that Rong Shu figured it out and agreed, Fu Jingting's eyebrows relaxed, "Okay, then we will go through the procedures now, the rest, I have asked Lin Tianchen to arrange, in the future, you take good care of your body, don't worry about anything else, everything has me."

Speaking of this, he kissed her forehead, "Actually, I have already thought about it, even if you don't agree, I will force you to agree, I can't watch you willfully disregard your own life, but fortunately, you didn't let me down in the end."

Rong Shu was amused, "Don't make what I say so extreme, only care about the company, don't care about myself and my children, I can still tell who is lighter and who is heavier in life and the company." "That's good." Fu Jingting touched her hair.

At this time, the doctor who did the prenatal examination for Rong Shu came over, gave her the checklist, and also told her some precautions and some opinions.

One of the opinions, the same as Lin Tianchen said, is to hope that she will be hospitalized to raise a baby, and her current situation is very dangerous, and she is not suitable for running outside.

Now everyone is persuading her so, which shows that her current situation is really serious.

So she was glad that she was able to figure it out and agree to be hospitalized.

Otherwise, the consequences are unimaginable.

That night, Rong Shu was admitted to the rearranged ward.

This ward is dedicated to pregnant women like her.

When Rong Shu was hospitalized, Fu Jingting also told the old lady about it.

After all, such a big thing should not be hidden, and it cannot be hidden.

The old lady is constantly calling about them, so it will be easy to know their current situation.

Instead of letting the old lady know to be angry, it is better for them to tell the old lady.

The old lady learned that Rong Shu's current situation was very bad, and she immediately rushed to come to the hospital to see her, and finally Rong Shu and Feng Mama united to persuade and dismiss the old lady's actions.

After all, it's so late, the old lady is so old again, running around outside, and these juniors are not at ease.

However, the old lady did not come, but Mother Feng came, and brought a lot of supplements to help the old lady visit Rong Shu.

Seeing Rong Shu's pale and emaciated appearance, Mother Feng was also shocked, "God, how did you lose weight like this, young lady?"

Rong Shu sat on the hospital bed and smiled, "Don't worry Mama Feng, I just vomited badly recently and can't eat, so it's like this, it should be fine in a while."

Although she said this, whether it would be good or not, she herself had no confidence, but it was used to comfort Mother Feng and let Mother Feng don'tJust worry.

Fu Jingting gave Rong Shu hot milk on the side, and after it was warmed, he handed it to her, and then looked at Mother Feng and said, "Don't worry, Mother Feng, next I will find a way to let her eat and raise her body as soon as possible."

Mother Feng nodded, "It's time to raise your body earlier, what did the doctor say?"

She asked.

Ask these questions clearly, and go back and tell the old lady.

Fu Jingting also knew, so he didn't hide it, and said the doctor's words and Rong Shu's current situation one by one.

After hearing this, Mother Feng sighed again and again, "How so."

“Mama Feng is fine, I’m already in the hospital now, so don’t worry about the rest, and those things won’t happen, don’t worry.” Rong Shu smiled, but thought quickly.

Mother Feng looked at her, “Young lady, let’s do this, next I’ll tell the old lady, how about I take care of you here?” The eldest young master is a man, in the end, he will not take care of pregnant women carefully, I will stay to take care of you, so that everyone can rest assured.

Rong Shu’s eyes lit up, and she was a little moved.

Mother Feng took care of Fu Jingting’s biological mother when she was pregnant, and also took care of Wang Shuqin when she was pregnant, so for how to take care of pregnant women, Mother Feng is definitely the most professional.

With the care of Mother Feng, she, a new mother, will not understand anything, and find other concubines, she is not at ease, so with Mother Feng by her side, of course she is willing.

“But when you come, what about grandmother?” Rong Shu is most worried about this.

After all, the grandmother is not in good health, and she can’t do without someone to take care of her.

Mother Feng also knew what Rong Shu was worried about, and was about to speak, Fu Jingting took the lead in speaking, “Don’t worry, grandmother’s side I will let Mother Zhang take care of it, Mother Feng will stay here to take care of you, I can rest assured.”

Mother Feng nodded repeatedly, “Yes, yes, Mrs. Da Shao, I also want to say this, Sister Zhang is also in the old mansion, although she usually only does the work of the back kitchen, but in fact, in the early years, I took care of the old lady with her, but she cooked deliciously, so in the end, I invited myself to the back kitchen to cook specifically for the old lady, but in fact, the ability to take care of the old lady is still there, so don’t worry about the young lady.” Hearing the two say this, Rong Shu felt relieved in her heart, and smiled at Mother Feng, “Okay, then I’ll trouble Mother Feng from now on.”

“What is this.” Mother Feng said with a smile: “We all hope that Mrs. Da Shao will be well and give birth to the child safely, okay, I’ll go and say hello to the old lady first.”

“I’ll go.” Fu Jingting took out his mobile phone, “This kind of thing, it’s better for me as a husband, Mother Feng, you can help Xiao Yezi get something she can eat at this stage, she hasn’t eaten much today.”

He did prepare a lot of food for her, and he coaxed and lied to her in order to get her to eat something.

But she was very uncomfortable as long as she ate it, so she hadn’t eaten much so far, and she vomited everything she ate.

He was distressed to see it, but he was helpless.

After all, she is a new mother, and why is he not a new father?

Many of the two novices didn’t understand, so even if Mother Feng didn’t come and didn’t offer to take care of her, he planned to find an experienced confinement sister-in-law to take care of her.

With professionals around, they can all feel at ease.

However, compared to outsiders, he wanted Mother Feng to be by his side to take care of him, so that he would be more at ease.

Hearing that Rong Shu hadn’t eaten anything yet, Mother Feng was extremely surprised at that time, and quickly responded, “Okay, okay, I’ll go and prepare.”

After that, he immediately took action.

And Fu Jingting sat down next to Rong Shu, gently hugged her, dialed the old lady’s phone, and told the old lady about Mama Feng’s stay here.

The old lady learned that Rong Shu’s current situation was not good, and she was distressed, and when she heard that Fu Jingting wanted to borrow Mother Feng, she immediately agreed without thinking, and also said that she would send Mother Zhang with her.

However, it was eventually rejected by Fu Jingting and Rong Shu together.

Mother Feng is already experienced, with Mother Feng alone, plus Fu Jingting will often come over, the two of them take care of Rong Shu together, which is more than enough.

Let Mother Zhang come over again, wouldn’t that be overkill?

Moreover, when Mother Zhang comes again, there will be no skilled person around the old lady to take care of the old lady, and the two juniors will not be at ease.

So one on one side is best.

Seeing that the little couple was so insistent, the old lady could only dispel the idea of sending Mother Zhang over, and then told the two that if they still needed someone, they must tell her old woman and not hide it from her old woman.

This time, neither Rong Shu nor Fu Jingting refused and agreed.

In the time after that, the old lady told Rong Shu a lot about pregnancy, and Rong Shu also changed from a little white who didn't understand anything to a new mother with a little experience.

At the same time, Fu Jingting changed.

Fu Jingting not only listened carefully, but also prepared a notebook, while listening to the old lady, he quickly took notes in the notebook, and while reading Rong Shu was funny, his heart was also very warm.

And Fu Jingting did more than that, before Mother Feng came, he asked Assistant Zhang to send someone to the bookstore outside to buy a lot of books like pregnant mothers and new fathers.

In order to raise herself in the months of her pregnancy, she will be a good husband who can take good care of his pregnant wife, and a good father who can take good care of his children after the birth of his child.

Seriously, not many men can do this, and even many men don't care from start to finish.

But Fu Jingting, the chairman of such a busy large group, was able to put down a lot of work, free up a lot of time to take care of him, and learn these things that had nothing to do with managing the company, and she was really moved by it.

Fu Jingting didn't know what Rong Shu was thinking, looked at Rong Shu's red eyes, and kissed her eyebrows distressedly, "Are you hungry?"

He asked.

Rong Shu put down the mobile phone that had ended the call and hummed gently, "It's a little." Can you not be hungry?

She couldn't eat anything, knowing that she couldn't eat without eating, so she endured the nausea and uncomfortable and forced herself to eat something.

However, it is still useless, what to eat and vomit, until now the stomach is also empty, early hunger is not good, the head is dizzy.

If it weren't for a nutritional injection before, I guess I would have fainted.

"No matter how much you endure, Mother Feng has experience, and it is estimated that you can eat the prepared things." Fu Jingting held her in his arms and said softly.

Rong Shu leaned on his chest, "I believe."

Moreover, even if she can't eat, she must eat, even if she still vomits up in the end.

After all, you can't always get nutrition injections, right?

Mother Feng moved quickly, and in less than half an hour, she was ready to eat, which was a gruel with red color.

The moment the box opened, Rong Shu immediately smelled a strong smell of hawthorn.

Unexpectedly, the smell made her not feel sick or unpleasant.

Before she was not used to smelling anything and was disgusting, but smelling this did not, but she had a comfortable feeling.

This made Rong Shu feel a little strange.

When Rong Shu was about to ask what the reason was, Mother Feng had already explained with a smile, "When I went to prepare food for Mrs. Da Shao, I specially sniffed the nurse in charge of Mrs. Da Shao, knowing that Mrs. Da Shao is now eating this aspect of the situation, and immediately guessed that Mrs. Da Shao should be suitable for eating sour things, and sour things originally have the effect of suppressing nausea, so I specially went to buy a hawthorn porridge, However, the taste of buying it is not as good as that of my own pot, but now the time is limited, the young lady will be there first, I will prepare some ingredients later, and then I will make it for you to eat.

"Well, thank you Mama Feng." Rong Shu smiled gratefully.

Fu Jingting took the bowl in Mother Feng's hand, scooped up a spoon with a spoon and blew it gently, not so hot and fed it to Rong Shu's lips.

In front of Mama Feng, Rong Shu was still a little embarrassed, but her stomach was really hungry, and there was no nausea when she smelled this porridge, she knew that she should be able to eat this porridge, so she didn't care about any embarrassing thoughts, and opened her mouth to eat the porridge.

Mama Feng stood by and watched happily.

It's so good, the eldest young master will take care of people.

And looking at the relationship of the little couple, it's really good.

"How does it taste? Fu Jingting saw Rong Shu eat the porridge, and did not show any uncomfortable expression, his frowning brows stretched, and the heart he lifted also fell back to his original place slightly.

Great, she finally has something to eat.

"It tastes good, although a little sour, but acceptable." Rong Shu nodded and said.

In fact, she loves sweets, never eats sour, and hates to eat sour, and even with a little sour things she eats, she will amplify the feeling of acid many times, completely unacceptable.

But now, she not only accepts it, but likes it.

"By the way, Mama Feng, if you are pregnant, will your appetite also change?" She looked at Mother Feng and asked, "I never ate sour before, and I couldn't eat it, but now I can eat it, it's so strange."

As soon as these words came out, Fu Jingting also looked at Feng Ma curiously, wanting to know the answer.

He would pay attention to all the puzzles she had during her pregnancy, and then find a way to figure it out.

Only in this way can he take better care of her.

Looking at Rong Shu's curiosity and Fu Jingting's serious look, Mother Feng did not hide it, and said everything she knew, "Yes, during a woman's pregnancy, there will indeed be a lot of completely opposite behaviors from before, taste is one of them, there are many women who did not eat spicy before, but when they are pregnant, they suddenly like to eat spicy, and they are also very able to eat spicy, some women are like Mrs. Da Shao You don't eat acid before, after pregnancy like to eat acid, these are normal, and like to eat sour more than like to eat spicy."

“Why?” Rong Shu was puzzled.

Mother Feng replied with a smile, “Because of the influence of hormones in the body of pregnant women, especially if you have a relatively large pregnancy reaction like Mrs. Da Shao, you can’t eat anything, if you change to eat sour or spicy, there will be no nausea and vomiting.”

“So it is.” Rong Shu nodded abruptly.

Fu Jingting was even more direct and recorded these words.

And he didn’t just record it, but also asked Mother Feng some other questions, not to mention how careful.

These Fu Jingting all asked while feeding Rong Shu to eat.

After Rong Shu finished eating the small half bowl and stopped eating, he relied on his memory and wrote these into his notebook.

In the afternoon, Assistant Zhang came, and brought a tall stack of books, all of which were books about pregnant mothers and new fathers that Fu Jingting wanted.

Rong Shu took a cursory glance, at least twenty or thirty copies.

So many books, I don’t know if men can read them all in these months.

Not to mention Rong Shu, even Mother Feng was taken aback by Fu Jingting’s posture.

But after the shock, there is relief.

As a woman, Mother Feng certainly likes Rong Shu to live well and be able to get the sincere care and care of men.

So seeing Fu Jingting like this, Mother Feng felt happy and news from her heart.

The Fu family’s education was successful, even if Young Master Fu Huai found Wang Shuqin, a third party, he had to admit that Young Master Fu Huai was not sorry for anyone.

When Young Master Fu Huai loved the eldest young master’s mother, he was also dedicated to the eldest young master’s mother.

But the eldest young master’s mother really had no feelings for Young Master Fu Huai, and supported Young Master Fu Huai to go out to find other women.

Later, Young Master Fu Huai really looked for it, found Wang Shuqin, and fell in love with Wang Shuqin, and in order to marry Wang Shuqin, he would rather suffer the family law than give up.

It can be said that the men of the Fu family are really infatuated.

At the same time, infatuation, but also enough care for women.

Therefore, the Fu family's education of men was successful.

I believe that in the future, Young Master Jing Lin will be the same.

Mother Feng thought with a smile, and then gently exited the ward, leaving the ward for the little two to get along with.

She knew they had a lot to say.

She, the old lady, would not go in and disturb them except when necessary.

Rong Shu's pregnancy was eventually reported by the media.

Coincidentally, during her maternity examination, it happened that the wife of a media worker was also in the hospital for maternity examination, and happened to see Rong Shu and Fu Jingting.

The identity and status of the two are here, plus they are not deliberately hidden, so they will be found and recognized.

So the wife told her husband after she went back, and then the news of Rong Shu's suspected pregnancy was posted on the Internet by the media, and the Internet exploded.

Many netizens speculated that the reason why the two remarried so suddenly and received a license was because they were pregnant.

This speculation has been recognized by the vast majority of people.

I have to say that the master is in the people, and netizens are indeed very smart.

When Rong Shu and Fu Jingting knew about this, Assistant Zhang called them to tell them.

After all, these points of the mobile phone have radiation in the product, and in the ward, the two can not use it, naturally they will not pay attention to the trend on the Internet, and they will not find out that they are on the hot search again.

Knowing that some media exposed Rong Shu's pregnancy, Fu Jingting's brows furrowed and he could almost kill a mosquito.

Because of this matter, he had no intention of making it public.

At least for the time being, it is not intended to be made public.

And no matter what circle, there is a saying that it is not appropriate to be public before the third month of pregnancy, otherwise it is unlucky.

Although he didn't believe it, for the sake of Rong Shu and the child, he was also willing to believe in these mysterious things.

Most importantly, they still had so many enemies in the shadows, and he had to pay more attention, so he didn't plan to make it public so early.

But I didn't expect that people are not as good as heavenly calculations, and they are actually exposed by the media now.

Fu Jingting looked at the bustle on the Internet, his thin lips were pursed into straight lines, and his face was gloomy.

Rong Shu looked amused, reached out and pinched his face and pulled it to the sides, "Okay husband, don't be upset, it's exposed if it's exposed, anyway, it's only a matter of time, it's saying that we didn't deliberately hide it, so it's not strange to be exposed, early exposure, and save us in the future, right?"

"These media, really have them everywhere." Fu Jingting said coldly.

Rong Shu smiled, "They are eating this bowl of rice, of course, they must be pervasive, well, I'm not angry, don't be angry, since they are all exposed, we can't say that they are not pregnant, otherwise when the child is born, it will be speculated by the outside world, it's better to admit it now." That's all there is to it.

Fu Jingting rubbed his eyebrows, "I will increase my manpower to protect you in the future."

Rong Shu snorted, and also knew that after exposing the pregnancy, it would definitely cause many people to think.

So her safety really needs to pay more attention.

Subsequently, Fu Jingting boarded his social platform and posted content, telling everyone that Rong Shu was indeed pregnant, a month and a half.

Fu Jingting's admission set off another wave of enthusiasm on the Internet.

Everyone rushed to rumor blessings and congratulations under Fu Jingting's comment area.

After all, the benefits issued by Fu Jingting and Rong Shu last time they got married made netizens happy for a while.

And the winning rate is high, and the vast majority of netizens have received benefits, even if not those grand prizes, but there are one or two hundred red envelopes.

For the sake of these benefits, netizens will not say anything ugly at this time.

In saying that the two were boyfriend and girlfriend before, married again, pregnancy is also normal, and it is not cheating or immoral, netizens will bless even if they do not have those benefits.

Otherwise, they are the ones who are really immoral.

Fu Jingting saw the blessings of these netizens, and his dissatisfaction with the media privately announcing this matter also eased a little.

Subsequently, he posted another piece of content, another raffle.

The activity benefits were exactly the same as the last time he and Rong Shu got married.

After netizens saw it, they became excited again, and then quickly forwarded the comments, for fear that if others were lucky to be one step slower, they would be separated.

Then, the online platforms all collapsed at one point.

The staff hurriedly repaired, and after repairing, netizens continued to forward comments, and the network was not lively.

After all, these are all money, real money.

Last time, some netizens also made a special inventory to count how much these benefits taken out by Fu Jingting were worth.

The Fu Group disclosed that it was 100 million, but after netizens took inventory, they found that it was far more than 100 million, at least 200 million.

Because in addition to the online lottery, Fushi Group and Tiansheng Group also specially sent employees to distribute joy candy to passers-by downstairs in the company that day.

Those candy are all foreign high-grade candies, the price is not cheap, many citizens in the sea market after knowing, have come to line up to receive the candy, and some like tobacco and wine, all in all, almost 200 million.

Chapter 1385 – Grandpa Calls

Such a big deal, netizens are still the first time to see.

And I heard that these funds are all Fu Jingting's private money, and they do not go through the group's public accounts.

It can be seen that Fu Jingting is rich, 200 million, said to give it to netizens.

In fact, netizens have not seen someone take 200 million to give benefits to netizens.

Every year during the New Year, the companies behind the big websites will do this, but these companies are not like Fu Jingting, but go to the public account.

It is said that it is necessary to take 200 million to netizens to grab red envelopes, but in fact, what coupons and messy things are robbed, and the real cash is good with a few dollars, and a few cents are lucky.

The most ridiculous thing is that it is said to be two hundred million, but in fact, there are no two hundred million at all, but it is just a gimmick.

Like Fu Jingting, who really took out 200 million, it was the first.

And now, Fu Jingting has to take out so much money to play with everyone, for a while, Fu Jingting's popularity and fame have risen to the highest, and those who are the top of the line with him are simply small witches.

The title of national husband was steadily worn on Fu Jingting's head.

Rong Shu watched netizens shout a husband under Fu Jingting's comment area, and smiled badly, "Are you happy?"

She showed the man her phone, "Being the husband of so many people."

Fu Jingtingjun's face was dark and ugly, "I'm not happy, I'm not their husband." Said , took the mobile phone and began to send messages again, asking netizens not to shout like this, he is just Rong Shu's husband alone.

Netizens laughed and laughed at whether he was tracheitis.

However, these were all kind laughs, and Fu Jingting did not mean to be angry, but told them again that they were not allowed to call him husband again, and he did not like this title.

Netizens all agreed well.

After all, they are really afraid that he will be angry and what should he do if he takes back the benefits?

Seeing that netizens were no longer continuing to call her husband, Fu Jingting's face completely improved, and then notified Assistant Zhang to get a lottery for everyone and take his private account.

Assistant Zhang quickly made the lottery link, and as soon as it was posted on the Internet, netizens stopped making trouble in his comment area, and left to forward the lottery under the official website of Fu Group.

For the rest, Fu Jingting stopped caring and put the phone down.

However, as soon as he put his mobile phone down, Rong Shu's mobile phone rang.

At first glance, it was Mrs. Lu who called, apparently to ask her about her pregnancy.

However, it was Fu Jingting who answered the phone, not Rong Shu.

Fu Jingting forced her to contact less electronic products in the future, although the radiation is not high, but her health is not good now, a little radiation, he is not very willing to let her contaminate.

Rong Shu had no choice but to go with him.

In fact, he managed her like this, but also cared about her performance, she was too late to be sweet in her heart, and she would not be angry with him for caring about this.

Sure enough, after Fu Jingting answered the phone, Mrs. Lu quickly asked about his Rong Shu pregnancy.

How is Rong Shu's body, how is the child, and so on.

Fu Jingting patiently answered one by one, except for concealing that Rong Shu's current situation was not very good, everyone else answered very carefully.

This is also what Rong Shu asked him to do, in order not to worry Mrs. Lu.

Otherwise, with Mrs. Lu's personality, she would definitely come here often to take care of her.

She also didn't want to trouble Mrs. Lu too much, so there were some things that should be hidden, after all, there were enough people who were worried about her.

After Mrs. Lu learned from Fu Jingting that Rong Shu was now in a good condition and the baby was also very good, she was relieved, and after telling Fu Jingting to take good care of Rong Shu, she had time to come and see Rong Shu, so she ended the call.

But before Fu Jingting could put down his mobile phone, Rong Shu's mobile phone rang again, this time from Rong Shu's grandfather.

As a leading professor of archaeology, my grandfather often worked in ancient tombs deep in the mountains and old forests, and rarely made contact.

Otherwise, when she remarries, she will call your grandfather directly, instead of just sending a message to tell him.

Because she knew that even if she called, her grandfather might not be able to receive it.

So about the pregnancy, she didn't tell her grandfather, but just told her grandfather that she was married.

Unexpectedly, this time her pregnancy had just been made public, and her grandfather actually took the initiative to call.

And this time, Fu Jingting did not answer the phone by himself and did not let her answer it.

He knew that she had always missed this only relative, so even if there was radiation, he could only let her pick it up.

It turned out that my grandfather did not know that she was married, nor did he know that she was pregnant.

It was my grandfather's assistant who saw it on the Internet during a casual break, and after seeing it, he felt that she was also my grandfather's only relative, so the assistant drove to the mountain and told my grandfather about it.

Then a foreign satellite phone called.

The moment she heard her grandfather's voice, Rong Shu's eyes suddenly turned red, and her voice choked down.

Especially when she heard her grandfather apologize to her and tell her about his neglect of her in the past few months, her heart was even more sour, and tears fell down her eyes.

Fu Jingting was distressed when he saw it, took the phone directly, and talked to his grandfather himself.

Speaking of which, this is the first time Fu Jingting has spoken to Grandpa Rong Shu.

Grandpa is a very old-fashioned and stern old man, only when he is to Rong Shu, he will be pleasant, and he will not be happy with Fu Jingting, his grandson-in-law.

Especially this grandson-in-law has hurt his granddaughter, so his attitude towards Fu Jingting is actually not very good, and the tone of speech is very cold.

Fu Jingting didn't mind either, nor was he angry.

He knew that he couldn't help but mind what he had done in the past, so he listened patiently and humbly to his grandfather's lessons.

It was probably because of his attitude, so my grandfather's attitude towards Fu Jingting was slightly better in the end.

Especially when I heard that Fu Jingting was now taking care of Rong Shu in the hospital, his attitude was even better.

It must be good, he is not with his granddaughter, so his granddaughter can only let Fu Jingting take care of it.

If he has a bad attitude, what if Fu Jingting is not good for his granddaughter?

Fu Jingting turned on the amplification, of course, Rong Shu could know what her grandfather's change in attitude towards Fu Jingting meant, and her heart was even more sour.

In this world, only relatives will bend for her Lower spine.

After ending the call with his grandfather, Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu's red eyes, pulled out two pieces of paper and handed them to her, "Don't cry, think about your grandfather in the future, I'll take you to see him, you can go away."

Rong Shu took the tissue and wiped the corners of her eyes, "Let's talk about it later, I just haven't heard my grandfather's voice for a long time, so I was a little sad and a little happy for a while, so I didn't hold back."

"It's okay." Fu Jingting hugged her, "Grandpa said that when you give birth, he will take leave to come back to accompany you, so that you can have a relative by your side and give birth with peace of mind."

"I know, I heard you." Rong Shu sniffled, "And I'm very happy, I really haven't seen him for a long time."

"Soon, we'll see you in a few months." Fu Jingting kissed the top of her head, "Just now grandpa also said that he would bring you a gift."

"Well, I'm looking forward to it." Rong Shu smiled.

As he spoke, the phone rang again, this time it was Lu Qi.

Fu Jingting's face suddenly looked difficult.

"What is this guy calling?" He frowned.

Rong Shu chuckled, "I also came to ask me about my pregnancy, what else can I do?" "

"What's there to ask?" Fu Jingting muttered unwillingly, swiped his thumb, and answered the phone.

As soon as the phone was connected, Lu Qi's big voice came over, "Shushu, I just said that you didn't repay the revenge and remarried Fu Jingting's dog thing, it turned out that Fu Jingting's dog thing caused human life!" "

Dog stuff?

Fu Jingting's temple tendons jumped several times but could not calm down, and finally he simply stopped suppressing his anger, and his voice was cold, "Lu Qi, do you want to die?" On the other end of the phone, Lu Qi's whole person jumped up in fright, "I lean, why is Fu Jingting you?" What about Shushu? Mom

, it was actually Fu Jingting who answered the phone.

Wouldn't

Lu Qi gasp for breath of cold breath when he said those words just now.

After finishing the calf, he scolded Fu Jingting's words, and was listened to by Fu Jingting's dog thing.

Now Fu Jingting, this dog thing should take revenge.

"I don't know!" Fu Jingting was too lazy to answer Lu Qi, and he didn't want Lu Qi to talk to Rong Shu, and after replying to him in a cold voice, he hung up the phone directly.

Rong Shu looked at the man's gloomy handsome face and covered her lips funny, "Okay, don't be angry, Ah Qi is like this."

"This bastard, actually scolded me, scolded me what did you hear?" Fu Jingting put the phone down and looked at her and asked.

Rong Shu nodded, "I heard it." Not only did she hear it, she heard it often.

In the past, every time Ah Qi mentioned Fu Jingting, it was either a dog thing or that bastard.

So she was not surprised that Ah Qi would scold Fu Jingting so much.

"Don't answer Lu Qi's phone in the future, I quickly hang up when I see it, I'm afraid he will teach our children badly." Fu Jingting pursed his lips and said coldly.

Rong Shu was amused, "The baby is only the size of a green bean now, what can you know?"

"No matter how young you are, the book says that the education of children must begin before birth, that is, when they are still in your belly, this is called prenatal education." Fu Jingting looked at her stomach, a serious popular science.

Rong Shu snorted twice, "And what?"

"So we can't care how young the child is, we as parents, we must pay attention to our words and deeds, and we can't let the child learn all the bad habits when it is in the belly." Fu Jingting said with a serious face.

Rong Shu cried and laughed, "Okay.

Saying that, she touched her belly, and her voice was gentle, "Baby, do you hear that?" Your dad loves you so much, now it's time to start paying attention to your education.

"It's our kid and of course I love it." Fu Jingting also looked at her stomach, his eyes full of pride.

Finally, he thought of something and added, "But don't worry, wife, even if I love children, I will not surpass you, you are the most important in my heart, I love the most."

Rong Shu really laughed out loud now, "It's like I'll be jealous with the child."

"I know you won't." Fu Jingting shook his head, "I just want you to know that you are the one I care about the most, and the children are not as good as you."

"I'm so happy that you say that." Rong Shu leaned into his arms and said with a smile.

Admittedly, she loves children, too, but who doesn't want to be the most special one in someone else's heart?

That's what she thought.

The husband and wife were talking, and in the next second, the mobile phone rang again.

Fu Jingting's brows tightened again, his eyes looked at the woman accusingly, and he was clearly asking, why do you have so many calls?

Rong Shu spread her hands, saying that she didn't know, social extensive, blame her?

Besides, if others weren't afraid of him, it is estimated that they knew that he was going to be a father, and there must be many more people who called him than those who called her.

Fu Jingting sighed and took Rong Shu's mobile phone again.

As a result, as soon as he looked at the ID, his handsome face became gloomy again.

Rong Shu felt the man's unhappiness, turned his head curiously, saw the caller ID on the mobile phone, and cried and laughed.

It turned out to be Cheng Huai's call.

For Fu Jingting, no matter who called, as long as it was a man, he was not happy.

"Don't pick up yet?" Rong Shu raised her eyes to look at the man.

The man hung up the phone expressionlessly, "If you don't answer, I'm afraid I'll teach my child badly." The corner of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "You didn't answer the phone, and Cheng Huai didn't say anything, how can you teach a bad boy?" Isn't that vexatious?

Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips and told her righteously, "Of course you can, he is a frivolous person, he has penetrated his bones, even his voice is not in a hurry, I am afraid that our children will be taught by him when they hear his voice." Rong

Shu supported his forehead and sincerely sympathized with Cheng Huai in his heart.

If Cheng Huai knew that Fu Jingting smeared him like this, he would probably jump up and beat someone, right?

That's it, just let him go, he's happy.

And Cheng Huai should have guessed that it was definitely not her who hung up his phone, but Fu Jingting.

This is indeed the case, seeing that he hung up the phone, Cheng Huai was stunned at first, and then rolled his eyes, "It must be Fu Jingting's work!"

In order not to let others call again to disturb their cleanliness, Fu Jingting simply turned off Rong Shu's mobile phone.

After closing, his tightly locked eyebrows stretched.

Rong Shu also followed him, and he was not afraid of what would happen if the mobile phone was turned off.

Anyway, she has already handed over the company to the person he arranged to manage, no one will call her again, even if there is a need for her to sign for processing, Lina will personally send it to the hospital.

As for the rest, Duan Xingbang's side, she also participated in the first trial, and the second one was still a month away.

So it's nothing to shut down now.

In other words, even if someone really wants to look for her, she can find Fu Jingting if they can't find her.

"Happy now?" Rong Shu asked the man with a smile.

The man was not embarrassed, and generously admitted, "Happy."

Rong Shu shook her head and smiled.

All in all, the vast majority of people are blessed with her pregnancy, but there are also a few people who are extremely angry and unacceptable.

Among them are Liu Linlin and Su Man.

On Liu Linlin's side, someone specifically told her everything outside, especially Fu Jingting and Rong Shu.

This was all arranged by Fu Jingting, just to make Liu Linlin miserable.

They are also happy, and the more painful Liu Linlin is.

So as long as something good happens between them, the person he arranged will immediately tell Liu Linlin about this good thing, and then Liu Linlin will have an emotional breakdown and yelling like crazy.

This is all Fu Jingting's punishment for Liu Linlin.

Who let Liu Linlin almost murder Rong Shu.

Last time, Liu Linlin learned that Fu Jingting and Rong Shu had remarried, and she went crazy in the detention center.

It's the same this time.

Although she is bad, she really loves Fu Jingting.

Where can he accept his affection with other women, marry, and have children?

Therefore, after hearing this, she will naturally go crazy and make a big fuss in the detention center, and then what awaits her is to close the small black room.

In the past two months, she has been locked up in the small black room many times, each time because she heard the loving deeds between Rong Shu and Fu Jingting.

Now, she herself felt like she was going crazy.

Days like this are too painful, too torturous.

However, she had to go on and on, she didn't want to die.

But even if you don't want to die again, the second trial, that is, the final trial, is coming.

In a shorter and shorter time, coupled with hearing about the loving relationship between Rong Shu and Fu Jingting every day, she felt that she really couldn't last long, and she would go crazy.

Why?

Why did Brother Jing Ting treat her like this?

She loved him so much, but he treated her like this, he was so cruel!

Chapter 1387 – Cutting Hair

Liu Linlin in the small black room collapsed and sat on the ground, crying desperately.

Crying Fu Jingting's desperate feelings for her, and also crying his statement that he is coming to an end.

In addition to Liu Linlin, Su Man is also going crazy at the moment.

She couldn't believe what she saw, Rong Shu was actually pregnant.

They actually have children!

How ridiculous, they actually have children!

Su Man covered his face and laughed nervously.

After laughing for a while, he lowered his hand from his face, revealing an ugly face that was grimly twisted.

Pregnant, huh?

Never mind!

One day, she will kill the two of them, as well as their little sinister.

Of course, Rong Shu and Fu Jingting did not know all this.

When Mother Feng came back after buying fruit, she saw that Fu Jingting was combing Rong Shu's hair, and suddenly thought of something, and after putting the fruit down, she proposed, "Do you want to cut your hair short?" "

Cut your hair short?" Rong Shu was puzzled.

Fu Jingting stopped the movement in his hand and asked, "Why cut it short?" "

During pregnancy, pregnant women need a lot of nutrition, and hair is the most nutritious, so when a woman is pregnant, it is best to cut her hair, if the pregnant woman is in good health, of course you can stay, but in this case, it is best to cut it short." Mama Feng took out a few fruits from the fruit basket to explain.

Rong Shu blinked, "And this statement?"

"Of course, the vast majority of pregnant women will have short hair during pregnancy, one is to take care of, and the other is to prevent the hair from eating too much nutrition."

"This way," Rong Shu nodded, indicating that she understood.

Fu Jingting touched her silky black hair and asked, "Do you want to cut it?"

Rong Shu also took a strand of hair and looked at it reluctantly, "Seriously, let me cut it, I really don't want it, and I can't take courage, but I believe what Mother Feng said, so I still cut it, in the future, with a big belly, it is true that long hair is not easy to take care of."

"Then I'll call the stylist over and cut it for you." Fu Jingting loosened her hair and said.

In fact, he also couldn't bear her beautiful long hair.

He loves to stroke her hair, kiss her or sniff deeply.

However, if this hair would rob her of nutrients and make her uncomfortable during her pregnancy, he would rather she cut it.

Anyway, the hair can grow again in the future.

"No need," Rong Shu took the man's hand that wanted to call, "It's just a haircut, where is it so much effort, you help me cut it!"

"Me?" Fu Jingting was stunned.

Rong Shu snorted, "Yes, you help me cut it, just cut it short, you don't need to cut out any shape."

"But I've never cut my hair, and you're not afraid I'll cut it?" Fu Jingting touched her hair, a little moved, and a little worried.

Of course, he wanted anything from her to be done by him.

But I'm also afraid of messing it up.

Although he knows a lot, he will not know everything.

"It's okay." Rong Shu smiled at the man, "Didn't I say, you don't need to cut the shape, so you don't need to cut it to look good, just cut it short, and I basically won't leave the hospital in the future." And if you don't see outsiders, you don't need to pay so much attention to it, as long as you don't dislike it.

"Of course it won't be disgusted." Fu Jingting shook his head.

"That'll do, cut it." Rong Shu said, turned around, and turned her back to him, so that he could cut his hair.

Mother Feng also smiled and persuaded: "Young Master, since the Young Master believes in you, then you can cut it, if you don't know how to cut it, search on the Internet, Young Master you have such a strong hands-on ability, I believe you will cut it."

"Yes, search the Internet for simple short hair." Rong Shu's eyes lit up, Mama Feng's suggestion was good.

Fu Jingting also felt that it was feasible, so he took his mobile phone to search for simple short hair styles on the Internet, and after searching out, he looked at it with Rong Shu to see the style she liked.

Mother Feng watched the two intimately discuss what hairstyle to see, smiled heartily, and took the fruit to wash.

When she finished washing out, Fu Jingting also cut Rong Shu's hair, and was sorting out her long hair, and the cherished look was sour to watch.

Mother Feng was too lazy to look, and directly turned her gaze to Rong Shu.

And seeing the smile on her lips, she was obviously very satisfied with her new hairstyle.

Mother Feng saw it, and was quite satisfied, and walked over with the fruit plate, "Ouch, the eldest young master cut it well."

Rong Shu put down the mirror and said, "Yes, it's really good, I chose this hairstyle on the Internet, I didn't expect that he could perfectly replicate it."

When she cut her hair, she didn't look at it the whole time with her eyes closed, anyway, she had already handed over the work to the man, and no matter how the man cut it in the end, she would accept it perfectly.

After all, she chose it herself.

Unexpectedly, the man gave her a full score answer sheet, and it was cut so well.

She chose a short shoulder-length hair and a little air bangs, which looked like a student head during the Republic of China, but in fact it was a little more refreshing than that kind of student head, not so thick.

But the same can reduce her age, making her look like a college student, and the whole person is several years younger.

God knows how surprised she was when she opened her eyes and looked at herself in the mirror, and directly hugged the man's face and kissed it.

And the man almost inched in, wanting to kiss back, and not face, but to give her a deep kiss.

Finally, she heard the sound of water in the direction of the kitchen and stopped, knowing that Feng Mama might be coming out, so she stopped the man.

Or they're still kissing now.

Fu Jingting had already sorted out Rong Shu's hair at this time, tied it together with a rope, and tied a beautiful bow.

Seeing this, Rong Shu couldn't help but ask, "Why don't you throw away the trash can, why do you collect it?"

"I'm going to put it away." Fu Jingting came over, sat on the edge of the bed, grabbed her shoulders and said.

Rong Shu frowned in disgust, "What is there to collect this hair?" "

Don't you feel obedient?

"Of course you have to collect." Fu Jingting raised his chin, "This is the hair I personally cut for you, it has a special meaning, so collect it, maybe when we have white hair in the future, when we look at it again, we can remember when we were young."

Mother Feng felt good, and also nodded in agreement, "What the eldest young master said makes sense, and it is indeed worth collecting." Seeing that Mother Feng still agreed, Rong Shu shook her head funny, “As you like, anyway, don’t let me see it in the future, it feels weird.”

Even if it was her own hair, she felt strange.

Seeing her think so, Fu Jingting did not force her to accept it, picked up a strawberry and handed it to her, and then looked at Mama Feng, “Mama Feng, help me find a box in a moment.”

“Okay, young master.” Mother Feng readily agreed.

While eating strawberries, Rong Shu bumped the man’s abs with his elbow, “Don’t you go to work in the group?”

“Not going today, here with you today, and going again tomorrow.” Fu Jingting also twisted a grape to eat.

Rong Shu also really wanted him to accompany, so when she heard the man say that she couldn’t go, she didn’t say anything.

Anyway, nothing will happen to the group if he leaves him, and there is an assistant on top.

“Yo, eat.” At this time, Lin Tianchen’s voice came from outside the door of the ward.

The three looked up.

Lin Tianchen put his hands in the pockets of his white coat and walked in with a casual step.

“Doctor Lin, you’re here.” Rong Shu put down the fork in her hand and greeted him with a smile.

Lin Tianchen snorted, and then saw her hair, and a trace of surprise flashed in his eyes behind his glasses, “When did you cut your hair?” In the morning, he saw that she still had long hair.

Rong Shu touched her new hairstyle and told him proudly, “My husband cut it for me, how about it?” Not bad, right? Seeing that she was not only satisfied with her craftsmanship, but also proud to show off like others, Fu Jingting's heart was about to turn into a puddle of water, soft no.

Lin Tianchen nodded, "It's not bad, I originally wanted you to cut your hair earlier, but I didn't expect you to cut it yourself, but it saved me a lot of effort."

Rong Shu smiled, "We didn't know at first, it was Mama Feng who told us that it was better to cut our hair, so we cut it."

"What are you going to do?" Fu Jingting looked at Lin Tianchen and asked.

Lin Tianchen glanced at him, "I heard that you can't eat, come and see if there is any way to ease your discomfort, I didn't expect that I see that you eat very fragrant now."

Rong Shu looked at Mother Feng gratefully, "It was Mother Feng who helped me prepare something appetizing, so I can eat some, and I don't feel uncomfortable eating these fruits now."

"Since that's the case, then it's good, I have nothing to do, go first, something calls me." Lin Tianchen looked at her.

Rong Shu answered with a smile.

He turned and went out.

He comes and goes fast.

Mother Feng also sighed, "This Doctor Lin is really quite responsible, he is not the attending doctor of the young lady, nor is he a doctor of obstetrics and gynecology, but he made a special trip for the young lady, what a good person."

Rong Shu replied approvingly, "Yes, he is very good to us, and Jing Ting and I have also troubled him a lot."

It is said that he is an emotionless monster, but she feels that he is not without feelings, but his feelings are slow and hot.

Just like she saved him when she was a child, he was willing to repay her so sincerely.

This is simply not something that an emotionless person can do.

A person without feelings will not appreciate others at all, even if that person saved his life.

Although Fu Jingting was not happy for Rong Shu to praise other men, he also knew that they did trouble Lin Tianchen a lot.

Therefore, no matter how unhappy, he did not say anything.

Jealousy and human favor, he can still tell the difference.

On the other side, the Gu family villa.

The originally calm villa was suddenly broken by a sharp and frightened female voice.

“Yaotian!” Mrs. Gu looked at Gu Yaotian who fainted after suddenly vomiting a mouthful of blood on the hospital bed, and the whole person was so frightened that her face turned pale and cried directly.

Gu Manqing heard a voice from another room, and hurried over, “Mom, what’s wrong with Dad?”

“Your dad vomited blood, manqing, your dad vomited blood.” When Mrs. Gu saw Gu Manqing, as if she saw a life-saving straw, she quickly took her hand and cried breathlessly.

Gu Manqing knew that she was frightened, and patted her on the back, signaling her to calm down first, and then go to see Gu Yaotian herself.

Seeing Gu Yaotian’s unconscious yang finger lying on the bed with blood at the corner of his mouth, Gu Manqing’s heart also contracted violently, and his face gradually turned pale.

“Dad,” she gently pushed Gu Yaotian.

But Gu Yaotian did not react.

Gu Manqing couldn’t hold back her emotions at this time, and cried, “Mom, call an ambulance, call an ambulance.”

“Oh, yes, ambulance, ambulance.” Mrs. Gu was just frightened and didn’t know what to do.

Now he was reminded by Gu Manqing, only then did he react to what he should do, quickly took out his mobile phone, and dialed the emergency number with trembling fingers.

She was not calling the number of the first hospital, but from another hospital.

She knew that the First Hospital would not accept Yaotian.

So she can only pin her hopes on other hospitals.

Fortunately, the other hospitals listened to Gu Yaotian's situation and did not refuse, and soon sent an ambulance over.

Gu Yaotian was sent to the ambulance, and Mrs. Gu, as a family member, naturally followed the car.

Gu Manqing originally wanted to go, but at the moment she got on the car, she saw the familiar bodyguard uniform, and she immediately did not dare to get on the car.

Mrs. Gu saw that she suddenly stopped getting into the car again, and did not suspect that she had encountered something, but ordered, "Manqing, mother accompanies Dad to the hospital, you pack some things at home."

Gu Manqing's stiff expression nodded, "Good"

Mrs. Gu did not hear the reluctance in her words, and after hearing that she answered, she followed the ambulance and left with confidence.

Gu Manqing watched the ambulance go away and stood in place for a long time before turning around and walking towards the villa.

After she left, the bodyguard took out his mobile phone and made a call out.

Fu Jingting looked at the phone caller ID, his eyes flashed, got up and walked to the window before answering the phone.

Seeing this, Rong Shu was also curious, so she was not curious, but learned to knit sweaters for children with Mother Feng.

She can knit scarves, but only one stitch.

Other stitches or something, she won't.

And knitting sweaters is more difficult than knitting scarves, and there are more stitches, she learned it at the beginning, she had no patience, and she didn't learn it after learning for a while.

But now she has nothing to do, she can only stay in the hospital all day, and she doesn't have to be busy with work, the whole person is relaxed, and she can't look at her phone for a long time, so when she is bored, she also wants to find something to do.

At first, she didn't know what to do, but then Feng's mother proposed to teach her to knit a sweater and knit one for her unborn baby.

She thought it was funny, and wanted to see her children wearing sweaters she had knitted by herself, so she agreed to study.

Don't say, I didn't have patience in the past, and I didn't want to learn it after studying for a while.

But now, probably because of her age, and probably because she is going to be a mother, her whole heart has calmed down, and she found that it is quite interesting to learn.

And she wants to knit a sweater for everyone.

However, it will take a month or two to knit a sweater, let alone a month, and she wants to knit one for her grandmother, Fu Jingting and others, and it is estimated that it will not be completed until next winter.

But what is given to them can not be in a hurry, she only thinks about knitting one for her child as a birth gift for her mother to give to her baby.

In addition, she wanted to knit one for that child as well.

It was also her child, although gone, but now living in her heart she did not intend to and would not forget it.

When she wanted to prepare something for the child in her belly, she also prepared a copy for that child.

This is the only thing she can do as a mother.

However, she has not yet discussed this matter with Fu Jingting, and she does not know if he can understand her.

Just thinking about it, I saw an extra shadow in front of me.

Rong Shu raised her head just in time to see the man looking down at her.

"What's wrong?" She asked.

Fu Jingting rubbed her hair, "It should be me asking you what's wrong, why did your mood suddenly drop?"

Rong Shu bit her lower lip, hesitated for a few seconds, and finally said her idea of preparing something for that child.

After Fu Jingting listened, he agreed with a chuckle, "Okay, if you want to prepare, let's prepare, in the future, we will also prepare a room for him, specifically for him, as long as we buy something for this child, we will also prepare a copy for that child."

Rong Shu smiled, "I thought you wouldn't understand me."

After all, this kind of thing is not understandable to many people.

Some find it unlucky.

Some of them will think that she is sick.

She was also worried that the man would be like this, but fortunately he did not disappoint her.

“Why do you think I won’t understand you?” Fu Jingting held her face and looked at her seriously, “I will understand, and I never think that your idea is very bad, because it is our child, we as parents, we originally owe him, now to prepare this for him, we should be.”

Rong Shu’s eyes were red, and her voice choked and nodded.

“By the way, where do you want to arrange the wedding room?” Fu Jingting let go of her face and asked.

Now that they have remarried, it is natural that they should prepare a new wedding room.

But recently they are both in the hospital, and they have not returned to Repulse Bay, nor have they returned to other accommodation.

Now you can re-prepare the marriage room, and when the child is born in the future, you can move in directly.

Repulse Bay is definitely not going to work, it is too small, now that they have children, it is not enough where to live.

The child also has to have a room, which the nanny and babysitter have to look after at all times.

Can’t you let the kids sleep with them and then babysitters come and go in their rooms at any time?

Rong Shu also knew this truth, so when she heard the man ask about the marriage room, she also began to think about where to choose.

But after thinking about it for a long time, I didn't come up with a suitable place.

In the end, it was Mother Feng who gave a suggestion, "Young lady, how about you live over there in the Four O'clock Mansion?"

"Four O'clock Mansion?" Rong Shu was stunned.

She knew that it was a newly opened villa area in the previous two years, and any villa in it was hundreds of millions.

Rong Shu looked at the man, "Where do you also have a house?"

Fu Jingting was noncommittal, "Of course, when the developer repaired it, he specifically asked me if I wanted one, I asked him to keep one casually, and as a result, in order to earn my money, the man specially left the king of the building to me, just the style of the king of the building is good, I bought it, now think about it, it is indeed good as a wedding room, and it is far from the Fu mansion, but it is not very far from Tiansheng, what do you think?"

Rong Shu thought about it, felt that it was okay, and nodded in agreement.

Mother Feng smiled and said, "Young Master there, you have never been to live there, although it is decorated, but there are many things, do you want me to let people arrange and arrange it?"

In fact, it stands to reason that the marriage room is such a thing, or it makes more sense for the hostess to decorate.

But Rong Shu's current situation, where is the experience to do that, listening to Mother Feng's saying that let people decorate, she has no objection.

"Then trouble you Mother Feng." Rong Shu smiled gratefully.

Mama Feng waved her hand, "What is this, what does the eldest young master and the eldest young lady like, I let people prepare?"

"Don't worry about what you like first, and write it on paper after we discuss it and give it to you." Fu Jingting took the fruit plate and said.

Fruit can be eaten more, but it is not suitable for eating too much at once.

He saw that she had eaten a lot, and the rest was eating for a while.

Mother Feng felt that it made sense, so she said no more.

Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu, "The building king of the Four Times Mansion is very large, covering an area of one thousand square meters, a total of four floors, we can prepare one floor for each of the two children as their room and entertainment room, study room and toy room, so that no matter what, you can put it down."

"Hmm." Rong Shu nodded.

Mother Feng listened to the words of the two, and also knew who the other child in their mouth was referring to, and sighed in her heart.

Speaking of which, the first child is really pitiful.

If it's yes, it's all fate.

It's all to blame for that Gu Manyin.

If it weren't for that woman, the eldest young master and the eldest young lady would not have experienced so many tribulations at all.

That woman was really guilty.

Mother Feng hated Gu Manyin in her heart.

"By the way, whose phone just now?" I see that your face is very serious, is there something wrong with the group? If there's something to do, go get busy first. Rong Shu thought of the man's expression just now, and asked with concern.

The man shook his head slightly, "It's not the group's business, it's Gu Yaotian."

"What's wrong with him again?" Rong Shu squinted.

It's not going to die, is it?

If this is the case

, Rong Shu suddenly felt a little indescribable in her heart, not a taste.

She wanted to say that if that was the case, it would be a great joy.

But in this way, she couldn't say it at all, and even if she thought about it, she didn't dare to think about it completely.

Why is that?

A trace of dazedness flashed in Rong Shu's eyes, unable to understand the reason for his abnormality.

Fu Jingting did not notice her abnormality, picked up the water cup on the side and took a sip, only then replied: "I heard that the condition has worsened again, and I was sent to another hospital by ambulance."

"This way." Rong Shu raised her chin, indicating that she understood, and then stopped asking.

Because she didn't know what to ask anymore.

She was panicked at this time, and she didn't know why.

Fu Jingting saw that she was in a low mood and touched her head, "What's wrong?"

Rong Shu barely squeezed out a smile, "It's okay, I just don't know why, my mood suddenly became a lot heavier." Hearing this, Fu Jingting's eyes flashed a dark light, and he didn't speak, just quietly held her in his arms.

At the same time, in the Gu family villa, Gu Manqing was worried about Gu Yaotian in his heart, and on the other hand, he resented the roadblockers outside.

She knew that the roadblockers outside were deliberately guarding her and not letting her leave here to find Rong Shu.

I really didn't expect that Fu Jingting would be so desperate.

I really want to watch my father die.

Didn't he know that his father was also his father-in-law?

No, he knew that he just didn't want her to go to Rong Shu to save her father, just wanted her father to die early.

But ah, she definitely didn't want her father to die, and when her father died, she would lose her father's love again, and she would have to live again in poverty.

No matter what the outcome, she is not willing to accept it, so no matter what, she must save her father.

But to save Dad, you must leave from here and find Rong Shu.

But there were people watching outside, how could she leave?

Gu Manqing walked around the living room, looking restless.

Finally, she saw Mrs. Gu's coat on the sofa and had a plan.

Then, she hurried upstairs, painted herself a relatively old makeup, then changed into Mrs. Gu's clothes and rolled out through the window at the back of the villa.

After turning out, she went around the bush to another villa, walked out from the back of that villa, and walked generously towards the gate of the villa area.

On the way, of course, she also felt a line of sight fall on her, and knew who that line of sight was, but she didn't look back and pretended that she didn't find anything.

Otherwise, you will definitely be taken out when you turn back.

So, she didn't see anything, didn't find anything, just walked straight forward.

So Gu Manqing walked out of the villa gate smoothly.

At that moment, the breath she lifted completely fell, and the whole person gasped and patted her chest.

Great, great, she finally mixed it up.

Gu Manqing held back the excitement in her heart and hurriedly stopped a taxi, "Tiansheng Group." The taxi driver nodded and started the car.

An hour later, Gu Manqing arrived at Tiansheng Group smoothly.

This time, when she went to the front desk, she did not say that she was Gu Manqing, but said that she was a salesman of a company, and wanted to come to talk to Tiansheng about cooperation and ask if their chairman could meet.

However, unexpectedly, the front desk told her that their chairman was not in the group.

Gu Manqing was shocked, "Not in the group? Where did that go?"

The front desk looked at her suspiciously, "Don't you read the news on the Internet?"

"News? What news? Gu Manqing subconsciously asked, and then realized that his reaction was not good, it was easy to arouse people's suspicion, and hurriedly changed his words, "I run business, I run outside every day, I don't have time to go online, so I don't know about things on the Internet, what happened to your chairman?" "

This successfully dispelled the suspicion of the front desk, who smiled and politely replied, "Our chairman is pregnant and is now receiving inpatient fetal treatment in the hospital."

"Pregnant?" Gu Manqing's voice became sharp.

The front desk frowned, "This lady, what do you mean?" Listening to your tone, you don't seem to be very happy that our chairman is pregnant? There is not a single person in their group who is not happy about the pregnancy of their chairman.

What's more, the chairman was pregnant, and President Fu gave them a lot of benefits.

Even the netizens on the Internet have it, who doesn't say a word of blessing now?

As a result, some people didn't look very happy, which really made her a little dissatisfied.

Gu Man clenched his palms desperately.

Glad?

Of course she was not happy, how could she be happy about this kind of thing?

Rong Shu is pregnant, so isn't it even more impossible to donate a kidney?

Gu Manqing walked out in dismay, and after walking out of the gate of Tiansheng, she looked up at the sky.

The sky was foggy, exactly the same as her mood at the moment.

Pregnant, why did Rong Shu get pregnant at this time?

She hated it to death.

But soon, Gu Manqing perked up again.

No matter what, even if Rong Shu is pregnant, she will not give up letting Rong Shu donate a kidney to her father.

Rong Shu is her father's biological daughter, so she has the obligation to save her father, even if she is pregnant, she is obliged to take the child to save her father.

After all, the father is almost dead, and Rong Shu is still young, this child is gone, and he can regenerate in the future.

So a child who has not yet formed, where is it more important than the life of the father?

Yes, that's it.

Go find Rong Shu, go now!

Gu Manqing gritted her teeth and reached out again to stop a taxi, "First Hospital." Rong Shu must be in the First Hospital.

She knew that there was a genius doctor in the First Hospital, surnamed Lin.

This doctor is very good to Rong Shu and does his best.

So Rong Shu will definitely choose this hospital.

Soon, the first hospital arrived.

After Gu Manqing got out of the car, took out the mirror from the bag and carefully looked at himself, confirming that there was no problem with his makeup, hair and clothes, and was not so easy to be recognized, he put away the mirror with confidence and stepped into the door of the first hospital.

With the identities of Rong Shu and Fu Jingting, it must be impossible to live in an ordinary ward.

Therefore, Gu Manqing did not hesitate at all, and walked towards the building of the senior ward.

She entered the building smoothly, and the security guard did not stop her, she was dressed in a name tag, and the security guard thought that she was the family of a rich patient, so he let her register and let her in.

After Gu Manqing entered, he found a front desk and inquired about the floor and house number of Rong Shu's ward.

She took the elevator all the way up.

The moment she stepped out of the elevator, her heart beat like thunder, and the whole person was nervous, because she didn't know that Fu Jingting was not here.

Fu Jingting loves Rong Shu so much, Rong Shu is pregnant and hospitalized, and that man is likely to accompany Rong Shu all the time.

So now she is worried that when she goes to Rong Shu's ward, she will bump into Fu Jingting.

What to do?

Want to pass?

Gu Manqing stood at the elevator door, thinking anxiously.

At this time, the bodyguard on patrol came over, and when he saw her like this, he immediately aroused suspicion, and came over and asked coldly, "Who are you?" What to do here? Gu

Manqing was agitated, and his body shook.

Fortunately, she reacted in time, and soon forcibly calmed down, and immediately pretended to be her biological mother's unreasonable and spiteful appearance to dispel the vigilance and suspicion of this bodyguard.

"Who do you care about me?" Gu Manqing crossed her waist with both hands, and vividly interpreted the appearance of a rather unreasonable and very arrogant shrew, "This is a hospital, what do you say I am here for?" Of course I came to see the patient, how? Do you say that I shouldn't have come in an interrogatory tone? This hospital is opened by your family? The bodyguard was scolded like this for no reason, and the corners of his mouth twitched.

Yes, a nouveau riche who is arrogant when he has money, and the quality has not yet kept up.

This kind of woman, these bodyguards, have seen more.

The bodyguard dispelled the suspicion in his heart, and said coldly with a look of disgust: "The hospital is not opened by my family, but this floor is covered by my boss, only my wife is alone, and there are no other patients, so you went wrong, please go back."

He pointed to the elevator behind her.

Gu Manqing pretended to be surprised, "What? This layer is all wrapped? Is your boss so rich? My husband didn't dare to do that.

The
bodyguard rolled his eyes.

Your husband?

Your husband is a new nouveau riche, where can he compare with Fu?

Mr. Fu's net worth can be on the World Forbes list.

Whether your husband can make Shanghai's Forbes list is a question.

"Okay, whether my boss has money or nothing matters to you, you hurry up, don't come up again, otherwise don't blame us for being rude." The bodyguard's face sank, and he deliberately warned.

Gu Manqing looked frightened, "If you don't come, don't come, what are you fierce, don't think that your boss is rich and great, wait, sooner or later my husband will be richer than your boss, when the time comes, I see if you dare to be fierce in front of me, hum!"

She said as she walked to the elevator, cursing and cursing in her mouth.

She knew that only the more she looked like a shrew, the less these bodyguards would suspect her, and the more she would only feel that she was really just a nouveau riche who had gone wrong.

Sure enough, Gu Manqing entered the elevator smoothly until the elevator door closed, which did not arouse the bodyguard's suspicion.

While she let out a long sigh of relief, her heart became more irritable.

She didn't expect that Fu Jingting actually protected Rong Shu so dripping without leakage, wrapping up a whole layer without saying anything, and also sent bodyguards to patrol at all times.

So.
