Chapter 671 Finally Sober Up

Hearing Rong Shu's question, the man finally moved and raised his head.

Unexpectedly, Rong Shu still couldn't see the man's face. He only saw that the man was wearing a black mask, and the half face exposed above the mask was wrapped in bandages, with only a pair of eyes showing.

Seeing this scene, Rong Shu widened her eyes in surprise.

This man is actually undergoing plastic surgery.

From the bandages wrapped around this person's face and the cut marks of the double eyelids that have not yet subsided, it can be seen that this person is not a small plastic surgery, but a completely changed look.

How painful this is.

Rong Shu couldn't help shuddering, and at the same time he was surprised.

After all, not everyone has the courage to take such a big risk and have a complete cosmetic surgery.

"Miss, what's the matter with you? Are you looking for someone?" Rong Shu suppressed her surprise. Seeing that the people outside the door were slow to answer, she had to ask again.

Just now the man lowered his head, she couldn't tell whether the man was a man or a woman. After all, although this man was sitting in a wheelchair, he was very tall and looked about 1.7 meters or so, so it could be a man.

However, after the person raised his head, she determined that this person was a woman only through the description of the person's eyes and the strands of hair exposed under the brim of the hat.

Therefore, she will call each other Miss.

The woman outside the door still didn't answer, just raised her head and stared at Rong Shu.

She was calm on the surface, but a turbulent wave had already set off in her heart.

Why is Rong Shu here?

Could it be that the outside rumors are true, that she and Fu Jingting got back together?

Thinking of this, the woman's hands, which were placed on the armrest of the wheelchair and hidden in the sleeves, suddenly clenched tightly, and the nails were embedded in the flesh of the palms.

The next second, she hurriedly lowered her head, her face could no longer be kept calm, her eyes were full of viciousness, as if quenched by poison.

They are together again!

They are together again!

The woman could not accept such a result, and her body trembled slightly.

Seeing that she still didn't speak, Rong Shu became more vigilant in her heart, and her voice was no longer so polite and polite, and became much colder, "Miss, if you don't answer again, I will call the security guard."

After speaking, she took out mobile phone.

The woman raised her head again, her eyes that were full of resentment at the moment also returned to the original calm and naturalness, as if nothing had happened.

She coughed and replied in a low voice, "Sorry, I seem to have gone wrong."

"Wrong?" Rong Shu looked suspiciously at the woman in front of her, and was still wondering why the woman's voice was so unpleasant and hoarse. It was as if sand had been poured into his throat, even worse than Fu Jingting's hoarse voice when he was drunk.

"Yes." The woman nodded.

Rong Shu obviously didn't believe it, "This is the top floor, not the middle floor."

So how could he accidentally go wrong.

After all, this building is on the top floor, and only a special elevator can go up.

The elevator has only one floor button, which is the floor on the top floor.

It is obviously impossible to say that it is wrong.

Seeing Rong Shu doubting herself, the woman's eyes flickered, and she replied calmly, "I know this is the top floor, because the person I'm looking for also lives on the top floor" of this luxury community, but it's not this building. I thought he belonged to this building at first, but I didn't know until I saw you, Miss."

"Oh?" Rong Shu pursed her lips, "How can you be sure that you are in the wrong building when you see me? In case you're right, and I just happened to be coming out of the house of the person you're looking for?"

She stared at the woman, as if trying to see something.

The woman was still very calm, "It's impossible, because my friend is seriously ill and will not allow anyone other than me and his family to enter his house."

"Since that's the case, then I just asked You twice, why didn't you answer?" Rong Shu asked blankly.

The woman lowered her eyelids, "I'm sorry, miss, when I first came here, I was stunned when I saw you, and then I kept thinking about which building he was in, so I'm really sorry, I'll leave now. "

After that, the woman controlled the wheelchair and turned around, heading towards the elevator.

Rong Shu stood at the door and looked at her lightly, but did not stop her from leaving.

It wasn't until the woman got into the elevator that Rong Shu went out with the trash can and threw the trash into the big trash can in the safety stairwell.

After throwing it away, she clapped her hands and went back to the house, while thinking thoughtfully.

By the way, is she related to plastic surgery recently?

In just half a month, she actually saw two people who had plastic surgery in a row.

Once in kimchi country, once just now, and they are all women.

Are there so many people who have plastic surgery now?

So much that she can see it often.

Shaking her head, Rong Shu didn't think about it any further, and quickly forgot about this little episode and went to the kitchen to watch the chicken soup she made.

Time passed quickly, and the afternoon passed, and the sky was dark.

Rong Shu raised her wrist and looked at her watch. It was half past seven in the evening, and she didn't know if Fu Jingting was awake.

She put down her wrist and the remote control in her hand, got up and walked to Fu Jingting's room, ready to see him.

If he didn't wake up, she was ready to wake him up too.

I can't let him sleep like this all the time, he has to get up and eat something.

After all, on this day, I only ate a small bowl of millet porridge.

Arriving at the door of Fu Jingting's room, Rong Shu twisted the door handle and went in.

As soon as she turned on the light, she saw the man she thought was still sleeping, sitting on the bed at the moment.

It was probably because she suddenly turned on the light, which irritated his eyes. At this moment, he was frowning and closing his eyes, adjusting to the light.

Rong Shu leaned against the door frame and asked with a light smile, "Awake?"

Fu Jingting was almost used to it, opened his eyes and looked at her, a hint of surprise flashed in his deep eyes, "Why are you here? "

He thought it was Zhang Cheng who turned on the light.

Rong Shu raised her eyebrows unexpectedly, "Why am I here? Don't you forget?"

She walked over and sat down beside the bed, "Did you really forget?"

Fu Jingting raised his hand to softly touch his temples , "Sorry, I'm a little dizzy."

"Dizzy?" Rong Shu's expression tightened, then raised his hand to touch his head, wanting to see if he had a fever or something.

After all, many drunk people will have a fever and fever.

However, this touch made her heart return to its original place.

He didn't have a fever, and the dizziness should be the sequelae of sobering up.

Rong Shu picked up the water that had been put on the bed early in the morning and handed it to Fu Jingting, "Drink a little, there is a hangover medicine in it, and it will be much better if you drink a little."

Fu Jingting reached out to take it and drank slowly.

After waiting for about a minute, Rong Shu looked at him and asked, "How is it now?"

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, "It's better."

"Now that it's better, you can now think back about why I am here. Well, and all the things that happened during the day, there are surprises." Rong Shu said with a half-smile.

Seeing her expression like this, Fu Jingting froze for a while, and had an inexplicable bad feeling.

What she said was probably not a surprise, but a horror.

"What's wrong? Why are you looking at me like that?" Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting's trembling pupils, and naturally guessed what he was thinking, but she pretended not to know, and smiled knowingly.

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved but did not answer.

Rong Shu didn't mind either and stood up from the bed, "Okay, I won't disturb you. I'll go out to prepare dinner first. You can think about it for yourself. When you think about it, come out to eat."

She expected him to come out. After that, the embarrassed dare not look at her.

Chapter 672 is very embarrassed

Seeing Rong Shu's figure disappearing outside the door, Fu Jingting's bad premonition grew stronger.

When Rong Shu left just now, the meaningful smile made him realize that he might have done something strange while drunk.

Otherwise, she wouldn't show that expression.

So, what have you done?

Fu Jingting lowered his head slightly, raised his hand to support his forehead, and began to recall hard, trying to retrieve all the memories of the drunken period.

In the end, the memories of this period really brought him back.

After all, he didn't really have amnesia, he just forgot it temporarily. If he really wanted to recall it, he could definitely recall it.

Thinking that he had become mentally retarded when he was drunk, Fu Jingting was immediately stunned.

Although the expression on his face did not change, his trembling pupils completely revealed that he was doubting life at the moment.

It was him!

He would actually do those childish behaviors to Rong Shu like a child of a few years old. No wonder Rong Shu would look at him with such schadenfreude and joking eyes.

Because she just wanted to see what he looked like when he remembered his actions, so that she could laugh at him.

For a time, Fu Jingting fell into deep self-doubt, wondering if he shouldn't drink, or he wouldn't be like that because of being drunk, and he wouldn't be seen by Rong Shu.

But now it's too late to regret it, Rong Shu has already seen all the things that should be seen.

His image of being tall and wise in Rong Shu's heart is probably all gone now, replaced by a stupid and naive self.

Fu Jingting wiped his face, his emotions were very complicated.

Now, he doesn't know how to go out and face Rong Shu.

As soon as you go out, you will definitely see Rong Shu joking.

Fu Jingting rubbed his brows, thinking with mixed feelings in his heart.

At this time, someone knocked on the door, and Rong Shu's voice came from outside, "Fu Jingting, are you ready? It's time to eat."

Fu Jingting moved her thin lips and replied in a hoarse voice, "Okay, I'll be here soon. ."

Hearing the weakness and embarrassment in his tone, Rong Shu outside the door raised his eyebrows.

It looks like he has already remembered it.

Rong Shu covered her lips and smiled, "Then hurry up."

"Yeah." Fu Jingting replied.

Rong Shu turned around and walked towards the restaurant.

In the room, when Fu Jingting heard the footsteps go away, he put the clock down from his eyebrows, then lifted the quilt and prepared to get out of bed.

Forget it, even if you don't know how to face it, you have to face it.

After all, I can't help but meet her.

And she has already committed stupidity, this is a fact that cannot be changed, so she can laugh if she wants to.

With this thought in mind, Fu Jingting calmed down a little, then moved his legs and got out of bed.

Just as he took one leg out of the quilt, he realized that the clothes on his body were actually pajamas, not the suit he wore before drinking.

So, the clothes on his body were also changed by her?

Fu Jingting glanced at the pajamas on his body, and after a glimmer of light flashed in his dark eyes, he stood up and walked towards the door.

When he opened the door, he could smell a strong aroma of food.

Fu Jingting's expression suddenly became gentle, and he raised his feet and walked towards the restaurant.

The closer you get to the restaurant, the stronger the aroma of food in the air.

Soon, Fu Jingting came to the restaurant.

The innermost room of the restaurant is the kitchen.

Fu Jingting walked to the dining table and could clearly see the busy figure of the woman with her back to him in the kitchen.

Of course, this is not what Fu Jingting is most concerned about.

What he really cared about was the clothes she was wearing.

He hadn't noticed it when he was in the room just now, and now he realized that the clothes the woman was wearing were actually his pajamas, and his belt was tied around his waist.

She was not wearing anything underneath, revealing two straight and slender legs with white flowers.

The proportions of the legs are very good, it is not an exaggeration to say that it is the golden ratio, and the reflection of the white is simply a crime.

Fu Jingting's eyes darkened, and he rubbed his fingers to speak, "Rong Shu."

Hearing the man's voice, Rong Shu turned around and came out with two bowls of good rice, and smiled at him, "Come out?"

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, "hmm."

Rong Shu put down the two bowls of rice, then pulled out the chair, "How do you feel now? Are you strong?"

"Yes." Fu Jingting nodded.

Rong Shu was relieved, "That's great, it looks like I'm almost sober."

Fu Jingting sat down in front of the chair she pulled away, glanced down at her thigh, and said with a slight movement of her Adam's apple. "The clothes on your body..."

Hearing this, Rong Shu, who had just sat down, rolled his eyes at him, "You're too embarrassed to ask, you are so drunk and clamoring to take a bath, and you have to ask me to help you... She blushed and coughed in embarrassment before continuing, "

If you want me to undress for you, if you say you won't take it off yourself, if I don't want to, you just drag me into the bath. , I got all my clothes wet, so I have no choice but to find one of your clothes to wear."

When Fu Jingting heard her say this, this memory immediately popped into his mind.

He knew that he was wrong and turned his head away, "I'm sorry..."

Rong Shu snorted, "You didn't veto it, it seems that you have already remembered it all?"

Fu Jingting twitched the corner of his mouth, "Well... that's it."

Rong Shu smiled, "How is it? Is it to you? The childish behavior is unbelievable?"

"..." Fu Jingting picked up the water she had just poured and sipped, without answering.

Seeing this scene, Rong Shu didn't know where he was. He acquiesced in embarrassment and said with a smile, "To be honest, I'm also incredulous. I didn't expect you to react like this when you're drunk, but it's quite cute."

"Cute?" Fu Jingting looked at her.

Rong Shu nodded, "Yeah, it's cute, it's definitely impossible for you to do these childish behaviors in normal times, so if you hadn't been drunk, I might never have seen you in my life. It's so cute."

"Cough." Fu Jingting coughed against his lips, and the tips of his ears were obviously a little red.

Rong Shu opened her eyes in surprise.

How could he be shy because of her compliments?

This is really strange.

"Rong Shu, thank you for your hard work today." Fu Jingting, who had recovered his calmness, suddenly opened his mouth to thank Rong Shu.

Although he didn't know when she came here, he must have come very early.

She has been taking care of him, educating him, and being tossed around by that stupid man, she must be very tired.

Rong Shu looked at the distressed look in Fu Jingting's eyes and knew what he was thanking her for, her heart warmed, she smiled and waved her hand, "It's okay, it's not hard, as long as you're fine, but I'm looking at you now, it's no different from usual, have you come out temporarily?"

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes, and after a few seconds, he hummed, "That's it."

"It's great." Rong Shu clapped her hands, "I heard from my grandmother before that you only walked out temporarily on the second day, and now it's not even the next day, just a few hours away, and you've already walked out. This shows that you are a little more open."

"It's your enlightenment." Fu Jingting met her eyes and replied with a serious look.

He remembered everything during the day, naturally, he also remembered her enlightenment during the day.

Chapter 673 Compounding

He never told anyone what his real knot was.

Therefore, no one told him that his existence was not wrong, let alone the culprit who killed his mother.

So over the years, the knot in his heart has been inextricable, even getting bigger and bigger. From the beginning, he only drank to numb himself, and finally self-harmed.

And now, Rong Shu was the first to tell him that his mother never regretted giving birth to him, and he didn't kill his own mother. His existence was affirmed, and it was the affirmation of the person he loved the most.

Naturally, the knot in his heart eased a little, and he looked a little further.

Rong Shu didn't know what Fu Jingting was thinking.

But she was very happy when she heard that he said that he looked away a little because of her enlightenment.

This shows that, whether before or after getting drunk, he listened to her words and recorded them.

It also means that even if he is drunk, he is the most loyal to her.

"Fu Jingting." Rong Shu gave Fu Jingting a chicken leg and put it in his bowl, "We have time, can we see a psychiatrist?"

"Psychiatrist?" Fu Jingting frowned subconsciously.

Rong Shu nodded slightly, "Yeah, see a psychiatrist, your mother has been dead for more than ten years, you should let it go, is it possible that you really want to be unable to let go of it because of your psychology, and then it goes on like this every day? Having said that, she put down the chopsticks in her hand and looked at the man with a serious look, "Fu Jingting, do you know? Grandma has always been worried about you. Now that grandma is old, to put it nasty, grandma may have been in the past few years." , do you still want your grandmother to worry about you all the time? At this age, grandmother should be enjoying a happy old age, not worrying about the children and grandchildren. We have been selfish and let my grandmother worry too much, I really I don't want to worry about us in the days after seeing my grandmother."

Fu Jingting pursed his lips, and did not answer in silence.

Rong Shu rubbed her temples and said, "And me, Fu Jingting, is it possible, do you want me to worry about you like this once a year?"

"Of course not!" Fu Jingting immediately replied.

Rong Shu stared at him, "If not, then you agree to see a doctor."

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes, "I will consider it."

"What is there to consider." Rong Shu frowned, "This matter should be Promise directly, not think about it, so you have to promise, otherwise we will cancel this matter of getting back together. I don't want to have a lover with an indeterminate temperament, and I don't want to worry about him every year. This is very tiring for me. No matter what happens to you, I don't care, I won't worry about you, and I won't feel tired."

Hearing her say that, Fu Jingting's pupils shrank suddenly, Then he clenched his chopsticks and stood up abruptly, holding her shoulders tightly with both hands, the blue veins on the back of his hands were showing, and he was obviously a little excited, "No cancellation, Rong Shu, no cancellation!"

He finally restarted . Move her heart, let her forgive him, and be willing to get back with him.

Now it is about two or three days to get back together, but the reconciliation was canceled at the juncture of these two or three days.

Then what is the effort he has been working on for so long?

He finally managed to get her back, and he must never lose her again.

He will go crazy!

Seeing Fu Jingting's agitated and manic appearance, Rong Shu knew that his threat of not compounding had stimulated him.

After all, he has been pursuing himself hard for a long time. Although he has promised to reunite with him now, he has not really reunited.

Therefore, he has always been in a situation of worrying about gains and losses, and he has no sense of security in his heart.

That's why he suddenly became so excited when he heard that he said he would not get back together.

With a sigh in her heart, Rong Shu began to squeeze her hands, soothing Fu Jingting's emotions, "It's okay not to cancel the reunion, but you must promise me to see a psychiatrist obediently, as I said, if you don't get better, even if we reunite , but after that, I will still be so tired because of you every year, maybe at that time, we will eventually be separated."

“No.” Fu Jingting’s hand on her shoulder tightened, “We won’t. Separated, I promise you, I see.”

In fact, he always knew that he couldn’t go on like this, sooner or later, he would destroy himself.

Even if he did not destroy himself, his weakness would be known to the outside world.

After all, nothing in this world can be hidden for a lifetime.

Once he is known by outside opponents, his temperament will change drastically every year, and if he is targeted, he will most likely harm himself and cause the Fu family to suffer heavy losses.

Therefore, it is not that he has not considered finding a psychiatrist to relieve himself.

It’s just that every time he has to make a decision, he backs down again.

Because once he sees a psychiatrist, it means that he will never dream of his mother again.

But now, he thought, it was time for him to let go.

For grandmother, even more for Rong Shu.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting calmed down suddenly, then hugged Rong Shu, put his head in her ear and whispered, “Rong Shu, I will see a psychiatrist, so don’t cancel the recombination, okay?”

” A trace of begging.

He is begging her!

Rong Shu didn’t know what he was thinking, she raised her hand and patted the man’s back lightly, and put her chin on the man’s shoulder, “Okay, I won’t cancel, as long as you promise to go to the doctor, I will never cancel it. “

”I’ll do what I say, I’ll let Zhang Cheng arrange a psychiatrist.” As he said that, he pushed her away to take the phone.

But Rong Shu turned around and hugged him, looked at him and replied, “No, during the day, I already asked Assistant Zhang to look for it. I believe there will be results tomorrow.”

“Okay.” Fu Jingting nodded.

Rong Shu suddenly laughed, "I just said, as long as you don't agree to see a psychiatrist, I will cancel the reunion. Similarly, as long as you agree to see a psychiatrist, how about I give you a reward?"

"A reward?" Fu Jingting Eyes brightened.

Rong Shu hummed, "Yes, reward, reward, how about we get back together now? Get back together in advance!"

Fu Jingting was stunned by these words, and there was no response for a while.

Rong Shu raised a hand and waved in front of him, "Fu Jingting, are you alright? Wake up, you're back to your senses!"

Fu Jingting's eyes flashed, and he recovered from his daze, then grabbed her by the hand. Hands, squeeze tightly.

From his slightly trembling hands, he could see how excited he was at the moment, "You...are you serious?"

His Adam's apple slipped, his voice rarely lost his composure, and he became a little unbelievable.

Obviously, Rong Shu's early reconciliation made him unstable.

"Really." Rong Shu nodded seriously and replied seriously, "Fu Jingting, you heard right, this is indeed true, we got back together in advance, how about it, are you happy?"

Fu Jingting did not speak, but raised his voice Her chin, instead of answering with a strong, intense kiss, answered his mood at the moment.

He was really excited.

He didn't expect that the good thing came so suddenly, and she was willing to get back with him in advance.

If I had known, he had agreed to see a psychiatrist earlier, maybe a few minutes earlier.

Rong Shu didn't expect that just after she reunited with the man, the man happily kissed him directly. She was stunned for a while, and after reacting, she took the initiative to wrap her arms around the man's neck and kissed back.

The man noticed it, paused for a while, and then pressed the woman directly on the back of the chair as if he had been encouraged.

Chapter 674 Promise to remarry later

His kiss was even more fanatical and powerful.

Because of the woman's response, he made him bolder.

Rong Shu didn't even have room to breathe, she was about to suffocate.

She patted the man on the back lightly, indicating that the man can stop.

Although the man was excited, his reason was still there. After receiving Rong Shu's hint, his movements gradually softened. Finally, he bit her lips and let go of her. He only pressed his forehead against her forehead, his eyes darkened. Looking at her, she shouted in a hoarse and sultry voice, "Rong Shu."

Rong Shu was panting and breathing fresh air at the moment, when she heard him calling her, she responded slightly.

"Rong Shu." Fu Jingting called again.

Rong Shu's breathing returned to a normal rhythm, and she asked, "What's the matter?"

Fu Jingting shook his head, "It's okay, I just wanted to call you twice."

Rong Shu rolled his eyes at him, "What is there to shout about?"

Fu Jingting He hugged her tightly, "Rong Shu, I'm very happy."

"What are you happy about?" Rong Shu put her head on his shoulder, smelled the mint fragrance on him, and asked knowingly.

She knew that he was glad they finally got back together.

However, she didn't have to say it directly.

Because she was willing to be his best listener.

Fu Jingting lowered his head and kissed the top of Rong Shu's hair, his voice was very gentle, "I'm glad you are finally with me, Rong Shu, shall we remarry?"

He looked at her with anticipation in his eyes.

Rong Shu's mouth twitched, almost choking on her own saliva.

"Re...Remarriage?"

“Hmm!” Fu Jingting nodded hurriedly.

For him, reconciliation is not enough, remarriage is his ultimate goal.

Only when they remarried and she became his wife again would he be considered a real success in getting her back.

And he didn't have to worry, someone else robbed him.

Rong Shu stared at the man quite speechlessly, without having to guess too much, he knew what the man was slandering in his heart.

However, she was indeed shocked by the man's remarriage.

They had just gotten back together, and in less than ten minutes, he was already thinking about remarrying.

He must have been a little too fast.

“Sorry.” Rong Shu gently pushed the man away, lowered his eyelids and didn't look at the man, “I can't remarry you now.”

“Why?” Fu Jingting's face changed slightly, and his brows were so wrinkled that a mosquito could be caught.

They are all reunited, reunited, and remarriage is a matter of course.

But why did she refuse?

This point, Fu Jingting could not understand.

Rong Shu sat up straight and replied in a somber voice, “Because now is not the time.”

“What do you mean?” Fu Jingting also sat down again, staring at the woman.

The woman sighed, “Because of Gu's family.”

“Gu's family?”

“Well.” The woman nodded, “The hatred between the Rong and Gu families is too great. I'm not in the mood to think about marriage until I get revenge completely.”

Fu Jingting Hearing this, his frowning brows stretched slightly, “So you want to consider remarrying me after taking revenge?”

Rong Shu nodded, "Yes! Revenge is not a trivial matter, and remarriage is not a trivial matter, so I don't want to. Putting these two things together, you also know that my biggest wish right now is to avenge my father, so I don't want to affect or delay my revenge because of other things, not even marriage, Fu Jingting, can you understand?"

Fu Jingting chuckled, "I understand, I promise you, I won't mention remarriage until you get your revenge, but Rong Shu, I want to hear you give me a definite answer, that is, you are willing to Will you remarry me?"

"As long as there are no accidents between us, I am willing to remarry you." Rong Shu looked at the man and answered without hesitation.

This is her promise to him.

As long as they can keep it like this, remarriage is not a problem.

Hearing Rong Shu's affirmative answer, Fu Jingting's brows fully stretched out, "That's enough, as long as you are willing to remarry me, then I can wait until you get revenge and remarry."

Rong Shu held the man's hand, "Fu Jingting, thank you."

His understanding and respect made her feel like a warm flow in her heart, and she was very moved.

"You don't need to thank me, we should have been mutual. You think about me, and I will think about you too, right?" Fu Jingting raised his hand and straightened Rong Shu's hair.

Rong Shu nodded heavily, "You're right."

"Although we can't remarry for the time being, can you put the ring back on for me?" Fu Jingting raised her face with one hand and asked hopefully.

Rong Shu's eyes dropped and landed on the ring finger of his left hand, "Because you put it on again, you also want me to put it on again?"

"Half the reason." Fu Jingting also looked at his ring, and a trace of tenderness flashed in his eyes. , "The real reason is that I want Lu Qi and the others to know that we are together, and you have the master."

Although Lu Qi and Cheng Huai had already made it clear that they would let Rong Shu go.

But they still had Rong Shu in mind after all.

Therefore, it is impossible for him not to respond.

Since he is uncomfortable, naturally, he has to do something to make them uncomfortable.

And this ring, isn't it the best way?

Hearing his explanation, Rong Shu snorted and smiled, "You, you are not naive."

"Not naive." Fu Jingting shook his head, "It's not just you, I also want to tell others that I also have a master."

Saying that, he raised his left hand and specially showed the ring to show her.

Rong Shu didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "Okay, since you have said so, can I still not agree to you? I will wear it."

Anyway, they have already promised to remarry him in the future, and they will still wear a ring at that time.

Hearing Rong Shu's agreement, Fu Jingting's eyes brightened for a moment, "I'll go get the ring now."

"Is your ring here?" Rong Shu was slightly surprised.

She knew that at the time of the charity auction, she donated the wedding ring, and he finally bought it at a high price of five million.

So her wedding ring was always in his hand.

I just didn't expect that he would put it here.

After all, it wasn't long before he moved here. It stands to reason that the ring should have been put in the Fu Mansion by him, but it is here. It can be seen that he has always carried the ring with him, probably for this day.

Thinking about it, Rong Shu couldn't help but smile.

Fu Jingting raised his chin slightly, "It's in the drawer in my room. I always carry it with me. Every time I come back, I put it in the drawer. When I go out in the morning, I put it in my pocket."

Hearing this, Rong Shu raised her eyebrows . .

It seems that she guessed right, he has always been ready to return the ring to her at any time, otherwise why would he take it with him?

“When did it happen?” Rong Shu asked again.

Fu Jingting thought for a while, then lightly opened his thin lips and replied, “Before going to Kimchi Country.”

Rong Shu’s mouth twitched, “So, from that time on, you put on your ring?”

Fu Jingting snorted, “Yes, I thought you could find out that I put on the ring again, and then ask me, as long as you ask, I can take out your ring and design it for you to wear it. Come on, but you never found out.”

Speaking of this, his tone was obviously helpless.

It has been a long time since she went to Kimchi Country, and she discovered the ring on his hand, which shows how big she is.

Rong Shu was a little embarrassed, “I’m sorry, I haven’t noticed your hands very much.”

“Well, I know.” Fu Jingting rubbed her hair, “so I don’t blame you.”

Rong Shu stuck out her tongue, “Actually, you can take the initiative to tell me about the ring earlier, there is no need to wait. I found out, in case I can’t find it now, won’t you tell me now that you’re wearing a ring?”

“Of course not.” Fu Jingting shook his head slightly, “If you haven’t found out, I’ll look for it too. I have a chance to tell you, okay, wait for me here, and I’ll get the ring.” After he finished speaking, he got up and walked to the room.

Rong Shu just looked at him like that, watched him go in, and then watched him come out.

Returning to the position just now, Fu Jingting held a fist and stretched it out in front of Rong Shu. Then, under Rong Shu’s gaze, he slowly opened his fist, revealing the shining ring in his palm.

Rong Shu reached out and picked up the ring, held it in front of her eyes and looked at it carefully for a while, confirming that it was indeed hers.

She played with the ring, "I originally thought that you bought this ring for five million as a gift to Gu Manyin, but I didn't see a ring on Gu Manyin's finger until I knew about you. I didn't give it to her, otherwise, with her character, she would definitely wear it and show off in front of me on purpose."

"I never thought about giving her a ring." Fu Jingting took the ring from her hand and said. "If I love her, I can't buy her a ring that someone else has worn. Since I don't love her, it's even more impossible for me to give her a ring."

"You didn't know that Gu Manqing wasn't me at the time . . . , did not release the hypnosis, that is to say, at that time, you loved Man Yin." Rong Shu looked at her and said in a sour tone.

Fu Jingting picked up her left hand hanging down, "No, I didn't love her at that time either, it was just a hypnotic effect that made me feel that I loved her, but in fact, my actions many times showed that I didn't love her, and I never loved her. I never loved her. On the day of the charity auction, when I saw you donate this ring, my first reaction was to be angry. I was angry that you didn't want the ring, and then I secretly decided that I must take it, absolutely not. Let it fall into the hands of others, because at that time, I knew that I couldn't let this ring appear on the fingers of anyone other than you, so at that time Gu Manyin asked me for a ring, and I didn't think about it at all. Give it to her."

"Really or not?" Rong Shu was a little unconvinced, "You were still under hypnosis at that time, how could you feel this way?"

"It's true." Fu Jingting nodded affirmatively, "I didn't lie to you, in fact, when we first got married, I cared about you very much, because before I was hypnotized, the person I always loved was you, so even if I was hypnotized, I forgot my feelings for you, but my Subconsciously, I still care about you, this pair of rings is proof."

"What... what do you mean?" Rong Shu was stunned, why did she not understand?

Fu Jingting lifted the ring slowly, revealing the inner ring to show her, "Actually, you don't know, I bought this pair of rings."

"Impossible!" Rong Shu immediately retorted, "I bought this ring, yes I went to the jewelry store to choose it by myself."

Fu Jingting nodded, "It is true that you went to the jewelry store to choose it, but I was the one who bought it. Do you see what's in the inner circle?"

Rong Shu glanced at it. . . , "It's your initials."

His ring was her initials.

Fu Jingting nodded, "Apart from this, what else?"

"Also?" Rong Shu frowned.

After she chose the ring, she only asked the store owner to engrave their name on the ring, and there was nothing else.

But now that he said that, is it possible that there is something else in it?

Thinking about it, Rong Shu took the ring and observed it carefully, and finally saw that there was indeed something inside the ring, it was a figure.

She was quite familiar with that graphic. After all, she had seen it for six years. It was a graphic unique to the Fu family.

That is, the family totem of the Fu family.

Rong Shu's eyes widened in surprise, "Why is there a totem of the Fu family in this place?"

She had never discovered it before.

Also, after putting on the ring, she never took it off, and after adding the totem, it was in the ring, so she didn't find it, and it was normal.

It's just that she was surprised when there was a totem in the ring.

When she bought the ring, she didn't say that the store owner would carve a totem in it, and the store owner didn't know who she married.

Seeing Rong Shu's shocked expression of being unable to calm down, Fu Jingting raised his thin lips, "The day you went to choose a ring, I happened to be checking accounts in the shopping mall. The biggest shareholder of that shopping mall was me. After I checked the accounts, I happened to see you. When I was choosing a ring, I was no longer hypnotized. I felt that I didn't love you, but when I saw that you were choosing a ring, I didn't know why, so I asked Zhang Cheng to say hello to the store manager, and asked the store manager to In the ring you chose, the Fu family's totem is engraved, and in addition, there is the price of the pair of rings."

Fu Jingting took the ring from her hand again and brought it to her left ring finger, "This pair of rings is actually It was the treasure of the jewelry store. The original price was more than one million. At that time, the Rong family was already at the juncture of bankruptcy. I knew that you had no money, so I specially asked Zhang Cheng to tell the store manager that only a fraction of your ring would be charged. The other big heads, let me come out."

After hearing the man's words, Rong Shu opened her mouth, and she couldn't calm down in a messy heart.

It turns out that there is still such a secret here?

No wonder she thought the ring was a little too cheap at the time.

This pair of cut-off center diamonds are made of naturally formed blue diamonds, not artificially colored blue diamonds. Coupled with the design of a famous designer, the price of the ring is definitely very high.

But at that time, the store told her that the price of the pair of rings was 300,000 yuan. Her first reaction was that she didn't believe it. Later, the store said that she was the 100th guest of the day, so she gave her special benefits, so she believed it. .

As a result, she now realizes that she is not the hundredth guest at all, but because of his big head.

"So it is." Rong Shu turned around the ring on her ring finger, "I always thought that I bought the ring independently, but it turns out that it was you who bought him."

Fu Jingting took her finger and lowered his head to look at her. He kissed on the ring, "At that time, I obviously forgot my feelings for you, but when I saw you choosing the ring with joy, I was in a happy mood, so I asked Zhang Cheng to do these things. , this is enough to show that even if hypnosis makes me forget my feelings for you, you are special to me, subconsciously, I still remember that I love you, otherwise I would not do anything on the ring, so I just Said, the ring is the evidence, and besides the ring, there is also the blue heart, which is also the evidence."

"And the blue heart?" Rong Shu looked up at him, surprise in his eyes again.

Fu Jingting stroked her hair lightly, "Yes, that blue heart was not given to Gu Manyin by me, but I prepared it for you from the beginning."

"How could it be?" Rong Shu was stunned.

Fu Jingting rubbed her face with her thumb, "It's true, after the divorce, I was not happy in my heart, it was just hypnosis, so I didn't know why I was unhappy, I only knew that I wanted to pay attention to you, so during that time, I have been keeping people staring at you, wanting to see how you are doing, good or bad. During that time, I also went on a business trip and saw Azure Heart at an auction abroad. In my mind, I thought you were a good fit, so I shot it directly."

Chapter 676 It Was All About Him

"Then what?" Rong Shu clenched her hands tightly.

It turned out that the blue heart was not given to Gu Manyin.

But from the beginning, it was for her.

“Then after the filming, I suddenly realized that I don’t know how to give you the blue heart.” Fu Jingting looked directly into Rong Shu’s eyes, “At that time, we were already divorced, so no matter what identity I used, what The method, it is not suitable to give you the blue heart, so at that time, I thought that I would not give it at all. , and spread rumors that it was the engagement gift I bought for Gu Manyin.”

“But, you didn’t explain, did you?” Rong Shu pursed her red lips, a little appetizing.

Can you not taste it.

Since it wasn’t an engagement gift for Gu Manyin, why didn’t he clarify it, instead he acquiesced?

This, to be honest, made her feel quite uncomfortable.

Fu Jingting stroked Rong Shu’s hair and chuckled, “I’m sorry, it’s my fault, but I have a reason.”

“What’s the reason?” Rong Shu looked at him resentfully, most likely he didn’t give her a satisfaction To explain, she was in an endless stance with him.

But since he lightly opened his thin lips and replied, “In the beginning, I didn’t know this rumor, you know, I don’t pay attention to these news on the Internet, and finally Zhang Cheng told me, I just knew, I did intend to clarify at first, but At that time, something suddenly happened.”

“I was framed by Gu Manyin for bumping into her?” Rong Shu immediately guessed what he was referring to.

After all, at that time, the biggest thing was this.

Fu Jingting nodded, “Yes, the Gu family spread rumors that you bumped into Gu Manyin outside, and deliberately caused public opinion to attack you. I sent someone who was staring at you to spread the news to me, saying that you were angry, and Lu Qi Li Chuan and the others discussed finding out the surveillance of Gu Manyin’s car accident to prove his innocence. It was at that time that I realized that I really wronged you, that I was deceived by the Gu family, and you didn’t bump into Gu Manyin, sorry. “

He hooked the back of Rong Shu’s head, pushed her head down on his chest, and apologized apologetically.

After six years of marriage, he was indifferent to her. Apart from feeling that he didn't love her, the most important reason was that he thought she had hit Gu Manyin with his car.

So later, knowing that she and Lu Qi were looking for the surveillance of the year, he realized how wrong he was.

Hearing Fu Jingting's apology for the injustice that year, the tip of Rong Shu's nose was sour, and a sour feeling also appeared in her heart.

She felt aggrieved for her injustice for so many years, and at the same time she felt relieved for his apology.

It turned out that she had always cared about his misunderstanding for her.

Otherwise, hearing his apology now, she wouldn't be so emotional.

Feeling that the woman in his arms was shaking, Fu Jingting hugged her tighter and apologized again, "I'm sorry Rong Shu, really, I'm sorry."

Rong Shu shook her head in his arms, her voice choked, "It's okay, you have already Make up for it, right? We will find the monitoring of the car accident that year so smoothly, right?"

She raised her head and looked at him.

Fu Jingting's expression changed obviously.

Seeing this, Rong Shu still didn't understand what she was guessing, so she put her head back on his chest, "Sure enough, it's really you. Back then, Aqi and Xiaochuan found the traffic accident monitoring process very smoothly. I was suspicious of this. Is there anyone out there to help? After all, the surveillance at that time was only available to the traffic control department. Since it has been six years since the incident, those monitoring and traffic control departments have already sealed it up. With Aqi and Xiaochuan still having my influence, it is not enough for the traffic control department. Call for the monitoring of the year."

Speaking of which, she put her hand on the man's waist and wrapped it a little tighter, "But when we went there, the supervisory department readily agreed to take it. I thought it was strange at the time, but I was only immersed in finding the surveillance camera. I didn't think much of it until I heard you say that before Gu Manyin's recovery banquet, you knew that I was innocent, so I guessed that you did it."

"It's me." Fu Jingting He bowed his head, kissed her on the top of her head, and admitted that it was indeed he who did it.

“I have wronged you for six years, so it is naturally impossible for me to see you continue to be wronged. At the same time, I also want to teach the Gu family a lesson, because I will wrong you, but the Gu family insisted that it was you who bumped into Gu Manyin.” Fu Jingting said.

Rong Shu nodded suddenly, “So, I played that monitor at Gu Manyin’s recovery banquet, and you didn’t block it?”

It’s just that she was thinking about cleaning the dirty water on her body at the time, but she didn’t realize it.

Looking back now, I realize that he felt so much disobedience at the banquet.

After all, with his ability, if he really wanted to stop her from broadcasting the surveillance at the banquet, he could definitely do it easily and have her and Aqi Xiaochuan thrown out, but he didn’t.

So it can be seen that of course he let go of her.

“Yes.” Fu Jingting hummed, with a faint smile in his eyes, “In order for you to enter the banquet smoothly, I also asked Zhang Cheng to specially replace the person who checked the invitations outside the banquet gate with mine, otherwise you would not be at all. I can’t get into the banquet.”

“I see.” Rong Shu raised her head, “I’ll just say, before Aqi Xiaochuan and the others entered the banquet, we were still thinking that this trip would not be so easy, maybe we would get hurt a little bit. We came back, but that night, we went surprisingly smoothly, and there were strange things everywhere, but we couldn’t tell why it was strange, and now I know that you made some arrangements in it.”

“Well.”

“Okay.” Rong Shu patted him on the chest, “Look, after you know you have wronged me, you didn’t make a mistake, but instead helped us find evidence. I will forgive you for the wrong you have wronged me for the past six years.”

After speaking, She bit the man’s chest through her clothes.

She didn’t bite hard, and she was wearing clothes, so it obviously wouldn’t hurt.

But the man still pretended to be in pain and snorted.

Rong Shu heard his muffled sound, and quickly released her mouth and rubbed the place where she had just bitten, “Fu Jingting, does it hurt?”

Fu Jingting took her hand and squeezed lightly, “No, I lied to you. .”

Fu Jingting chuckled and put his hand back on her waist.

Rong Shu looked at him, “You haven’t said it yet, Zhan Lan Xin, what’s going on?”

“The person I sent over to stare at you said, you and Lu Qi and the others discuss to find out the monitoring of the car accident that year, find After coming out, I went to join Gu Manyin’s recovery banquet, not only to debunk the Gu family’s conspiracy to splash dirty water, but also to make Gu family and Gu Manyin lose face at the banquet. The blue heart is my engagement to Gu Manyin. After the rumor of the gift spread, the Gu family also believed it, and believed that the blue heart was indeed given to Gu Manyin by me, so the Gu family not only did not suppress the rumors on the Internet, but also added a fire. Said, if you take away the blue heart at the banquet, Gu family and Gu Manyin’s faces will definitely be thrown away...”

Hearing this, Rong Shu already understood everything, and opened her mouth suddenly, “Then you will Take the plan and deliberately no longer clarify that the blue heart is not an engagement gift for Gu Manyin, just because I feel like this, I will come to grab it?”

“Yes, only in this way can I send the blue heart to you without being suspected by anyone.” Fu Jingting brushed the hair around her ear, “It was just at that time that you took over Tiancheng, Tiancheng. Sheng needs a lot of information, I hope you can sell Azure Heart to save Tian Sheng, but in the end, you didn’t do that.”

“How can you sell such a valuable thing, and sell it, others ca n’t decide. What can you say about me, it’s better to donate it, at least the reputation will be better.” Rong Shu said while playing with his hand.

Fu Jingting was stunned for a moment, “You donated the blue heart?”

Rong Shu nodded, a little embarrassed, “Yes, I asked Aqi to donate it for me, but Aqi didn’t do that, but kept helping me save it. That’s why I was able to give it back to you some time ago, otherwise... I wouldn’t be able to take it out at all.”

So, she was quite fortunate, and thanked Ah Qi for not really donating to her.

Otherwise, neither the ring nor the blue heart will be found.

Hearing Rong Shu's words, Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, obviously a little unhappy, "That's what I gave you to get you through this difficult time, how can you donate it?"

"I'm sorry." Rong Shu I also knew that what I did at the time was not right. I took the man's hand and said coquettishly, "At that time, we were in trouble, so I could only do this, but now the result is not good, the blue heart is still there. "

But it has already been worn by my mother, I can't give it to you again."

Fu Jingting touched her neck where she was wearing nothing. "In the future, I will give you other things, but don't donate any more this time." "

Well." Rong Shu nodded quickly, "No way."

"That's good." Fu Jingting was satisfied, but the hand on her neck didn't mean to take it away at all, and lingered on it with a light touch. stroking.

Her neck was warm, soft, and slippery, and it was so addicting to the touch that she was reluctant to take it away.

Fu Jingting stared at her neck and couldn't help but think, it feels so appealing to the touch, what about kissing?

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting's eyes staring at Rong Shu's neck became deeper and darker, and even slowly, his head got closer and closer, obviously ready to put it into practice.

Rong Shu felt the man's breath hitting her neck, which was hot. When she looked up, she saw the man's enlarged handsome face, which was only a few centimeters away from her.

She looked at the man's fiery, hot eyes that seemed to swallow her up. She was startled and raised her hand to cover the man's face, "Fu Jingting, don't mess around.

But when he saw that he was being blocked and was not allowed to approach, a pitiful feeling appeared on his stern face, "Rong Shu, I..."

"No." Rong Shu knew what he was going to say and what he wanted to say. What did he do? He blushed and didn't look at him, "Not now."

"When will we get back together." Fu Jingting wanted to fight for himself.

No one knew how much he wanted her.

But they hadn't gotten back together before, so he endured and he respected.

But now that they are back together, some things are naturally possible, right?

Rong Shu coughed and didn't look away, "I can't do it during this time, I... I'm here." It's not a lie, she's indeed here.

At the same time, she is not yet mentally prepared for that.

She needs to do a good job of psychological construction, otherwise she won't be able to do that with him at all.

When Fu Jingting heard that Rong Shu was coming, there was a trace of loss in his eyes, but he disappeared quickly and regained his calm, "Okay, let's talk about it when it's clean."

After so long, he endured it, and waited for a few more days. Why not?

Rong Shu didn't respond to Fu Jingting's clean words, because she didn't know whether her psychological construction was done well after her menstrual period was over.

If he didn't do it well, wouldn't he promise him in vain?

So, just don't talk about it.

"Keep eating." Rong Shu changed the subject.

Fu Jingting raised his chin, pulled her to sit down, and continued to eat.

After the meal, Rong Shu packed up the dishes and put them in the dishwasher in the kitchen.

Fu Jingting followed behind her step by step. Wherever she went, he would follow her, wishing it was her tail.

Rong Shu thought it was funny at first, but it got annoying later.

It's not that he's bothering him, but that he follows her like this, she's inconvenient to do things, and always gets in her way.

After Rong Shu dried her clothes, she turned around and looked helplessly at the man behind him who looked like a big dog, "Fu Jingting, why are you following me?"

"I just want to follow you." Fu Jingting replied.

The corner of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "What's the reason for this? Do you have nothing to do?"

"Yes!" Fu Jingting nodded.

He still has a lot of documents to deal with.

Rong Shu rubbed his temples, "Since there is something to do, then do it, what are you doing behind me."

"I am going to do something, are you leaving?" Fu Jingting looked at her and asked.

Rong Shu raised her eyebrows, "So you followed me because you were afraid I would leave?"

Fu Jingting was noncommittal.

Rong Shu didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "Fu Jingting, don't look at what I'm doing just now. I'm washing my clothes. You think I've lost all my clothes. How can I leave? Just wear this?

" Fan's pajamas.

Although it looks a bit casual, it is not really casual after all.

So when you wear it out, you will always be recognized as pajamas or men's pajamas, and you may be laughed at at that time.

It might even be posted online.

So, why did she take the risk when she was okay?

Hearing Rong Shu's words, Fu Jingting finally let go.

He was just worried that she would leave in a while.

She is not him, not as thick-skinned as he is. With her, he will think of Fa'er to stay.

And she won't, she is here with him, and the possibility of leaving is very high.

That's why he followed her all the time, thinking about leaving her behind.

It turned out that she had no intention of leaving at all.

At this moment, Fu Jingting was suddenly very happy that he childishly pulled her into the bath after being drunk.

Otherwise, she will definitely leave.

“I’ll make the bed for you.” Fu Jingting’s face became obviously excited, and he turned and walked to the room.

Rong Shu looked at his back and wanted to hold him and asked him if he could make a bed?

But looking at him so hot and eager, he finally gave up.

Forget it, since he was so happy to do something for her, let him go.

The big deal is that in the end, she is re-spreading it.

Thinking, Rong Shu put the clothes basket back in the bathroom.

After she came out, her cell phone in the living room suddenly rang.

Rong Shu walked over and picked up the phone. Lin Tianchen called.

Rong Shu frowned suspiciously.

At this time, he called, what’s the matter?

Without thinking much, she tapped the green answer button and answered the call.

“Doctor Lin.” Rong Shu put the phone to her ear.

Lin Tianchen’s voice came, “Rong Shu, that Rong Yuan is clamoring to be discharged from the hospital.”

“Discharged?” Rong Shu narrowed her eyes.

Lin Tianchen pushed on his glasses, “Yeah, I’m making a fuss in the hospital right now, and I broke some equipment in the ward a lot. If it wasn’t for you to keep her still useful, I’d just take out half of her. Blood, or gouge out one of her kidneys as compensation.”

After all, that Rong Yuan was just a small person to him, and he could kill that kind of thing at any time.

Therefore, he can really do such a thing as blood and kidney digging as compensation.

Chapter 678 Rong Yuan’s Doubt

Rong Shu didn't doubt Lin Tianchen's words either.

She could hear that Lin Tianchen was angry.

But he suppressed the qi because of her, otherwise what she heard now was not Rong Yuan clamoring to be discharged from the hospital, but asking her to collect Rong Yuan's body.

Rubbing her eyebrows, Rong Shu replied apologetically, "I'm sorry Dr. Lin for causing you trouble. Don't worry, I will let her compensate for the things in your hospital."

She will directly deduct from Rong Yuan's share dividend. .

It doesn't matter whether Rong Yuan agrees or not.

Since Rong Yuan dared to damage other people's belongings, she should naturally compensate.

"What about that person?" Lin Tianchen asked while leaning on the back of the chair, "Are you allowed to be discharged from the hospital or not? If not, I will ask someone to give her another tranquilizer, and then find someone with strong isolation. The ward is closed."

"No." Rong Shu shook her head, "Let her be discharged. If we keep her in the hospital, it will make us suspicious, and if she guesses something, it will be troublesome."

"Even if she guesses, it's fine. , the chip in the wound on her forehead has been activated, no matter where she runs, she can't escape, right?" Lin Tianchen said with reflective glasses, "If it's a big deal, it's enough to force her to have a baby?"

It's obviously a terrible crime. words, but in his mouth, it was such an understatement.

Obviously, there is no reverence for the law in him.

Rong Shu was used to it, and when he heard these words, he didn't feel much scared.

After all, this is a lot better than killing someone.

"No, I haven't chosen the father's genes, so I have to wait." Rong Shu shook her head and rejected Lin Tianchen's proposal, "Let her be discharged from the hospital temporarily, don't worry, she won't run away, after all, I have my hands on it. She hasn't grabbed all of her shares yet, how could she be willing to run? Even if she runs away, didn't you say that the chip in her body has been activated, we can catch her back at any time, so don't worry about anything else."

Last time, she asked Rong Yuan to kowtow in front of her father's tombstone, and after smashing her forehead, Fu Jingting asked someone to get a small positioning chip, and asked Lin Tianchen to put the chip on Rong Yuan's forehead wound. Into Rongyuan's skin.

In this way, Rong Yuan's trace has nowhere to hide.

No matter if Rong Yuan goes to the ends of the earth, they can also find people.

Therefore, she was not worried that Rong Yuan would run away, but was very relieved that Rong Yuan would walk outside.

"Okay, since you said so, then it's up to you." Lin Tianchen pushed his glasses, "I'll have her kicked out of the hospital in a while." "I'm sorry

." Rong Shu smiled. back.

Lin Tianchen suddenly narrowed his eyes, "By the way, there is one thing, you have to be careful."

"What?" Rong Shu heard his tone suddenly become serious, and her expression began to become serious.

Lin Tianchen said, "Last night, in the middle of the night, Rong Yuan took a nurse's uniform from the nurse's desk, and then secretly went to the hospital's reference room to check all your treatment information in my hospital."

"What did she do with that? ?" Rong Shu frowned suddenly.

Lin Tianchen turned the scalpel back and said, "I only found out about this matter when I heard the nurse's comments this morning. When Rong Yuan came out of the reference room after reading your documents, she was caught by the administrator. I learned that After this incident, I went to her and asked her why she wanted to check your information. Her answer was that she knew that you had been in the hospital several times a while ago. As a younger sister, I was very concerned about what happened to you, so I went to find you. information."

"False excuse." Rong Shu sneered.

Rong Yuan cares about her?

Who believes this?

Rong Yuan wished she was too late and still cared.

When you say that you care about her, why don't you ask her what's wrong, and you have to sneak into the nurse's uniform and go to the hospital's data room to secretly check her information?

Even if you don't ask her, you can directly ask the nurses at the hospital to help with the investigation.

But Rong Shu didn't, and instead avoided everything to investigate, making it clear that there was a ghost.

"Yeah, this reason is a lie, so I didn't cheat with her, and hypnotized her directly. I heard the real reason from her mouth. She suspected that there might be some problems with your identity, so I went. Check your profile to confirm whether her guess is true or not. Now that she sees your profile and compares your blood type with that of your father, she will know that you are not born to your parents, maybe in the future. What do you do with your status, in short, you have to be careful." Lin Tianchen warned earnestly.

Hearing his words, Rong Shu tightened her hand on the phone, "She doubts my identity? How did she doubt it? Where did the doubt come from?"

" personal.

She, Ah Qi, Fu Jingting, Uncle Lu, and Lin Tianchen.

Except for them, that is, grandfather, even Xiaochuan didn't know.

So, how did Rong Yuan know?

Who else told Rong Yuan?

Lin Tianchen shook his head slightly, "This is not clear, I also asked Rong Yuan, Rong Yuan's answer was very vague, she only said that she heard it, but where did she hear it, she was hypnotized, and she did not answer. "

I see." Rong Shu bit her lip.

Lin Tianchen warned again, "Rong Shu will definitely use your status to make trouble for you, or I'll just kill her?"

Rong Shu was in a gloomy mood, but he was immediately amused by him. , "You killed her, how can I let her be the heir to the Rong family? So don't mess around."

Lin Tianchen pushed his glasses, "Then you can only be careful yourself."

"Yeah." Rong Shu nodded, "Don't worry, I will, thank you for your reminder, no matter where she heard that I wasn't my parents, she couldn't drive me away from Tiancheng."

After all The shares in her hands were not inherited from her father.

Of course, even if she inherited it from her father, she still has the right of inheritance when she is registered with the Rong family.

So no matter what Rong Yuan did, the result would be the same.

Hearing Rong Shu's answer, Lin Tianchen raised his chin slightly, "Okay, then I won't say anything else, I'll go and issue a discharge certificate for that Rong Yuan."

Rong Shu hummed, "You go, but Rong Yuan's next recuperation..."

"Don't worry, while she was hospitalized, I gave her a special medicine, and that medicine would give her migraine headaches from time to time, so I will give her a lot of conditioning in the future. , the medicine to promote the secondary development of her uterus and uterus, lied to her and said that it was a medicine to treat her migraine, so that she would also unknowingly adjust her body well, and the conditioning was almost done. , the embryo transfer operation can be performed at any time."

"Okay, sorry to bother you." Rong Shu nodded, now completely relieved.

When the call was over, she put down the phone, but her eyebrows were slow to stretch.

Fu Jingting made the bed and came out of the room, walked behind her, hugged her from behind, his voice was low and provocative, "What's the matter? Whose phone number?"

Rong Shu tilted her head and glanced at the man who was clinging to her behind her, and pushed her gently. I tried to push him, but after I couldn't push it away, I just hugged him.

"Lin Tianchen's."

"He?" Fu Jingting frowned, "It's so late, what's the matter with him?"

"Rong Yuan is going to be discharged from the hospital, so he specifically told me." Rong Shu lightly opened her red lips and returned.

Chapter 679

She didn't tell him that Rong Yuan also knew that she was not the biological daughter of her parents.

Otherwise, given the importance he attached to her, he would definitely investigate how Rong Yuan knew about it.

And this matter, she can do it herself, and doesn't want to rely on him for everything.

Otherwise, it would appear to be too useless.

Fu Jingting didn't notice that Rong Shu was still hiding, so he lowered his head and rubbed her shoulder, and asked, "Then you agree?"

" , Besides, she won't run."

"That's fine, it's getting late, rest." Fu Jingting glanced at the clock on the wall.

It's almost ten o'clock now.

Rong Shu yawned, "Okay, I'm really sleepy too."

She knitted a scarf for him last night, and she didn't rest all night. In order to take care of him during the day, he was tossed a lot by him, and she was already exhausted. .

Now she just wanted to lie down and have a good sleep.

"I'll take you to the room." Fu Jingting took Rong Shu's hand.

Rong Shu glanced down and didn't mean to break free.

When they were together, it was natural to hold hands.

Follow Fu Jingting to the door of a room.

Rong Shu's expression suddenly became subtle.

She stopped walking.

Fu Jingting naturally stopped and turned to look at her, "What's wrong?"

"This is your room." Rong Shu lifted her chin towards the door in front of her.

Fu Jingting nodded, "I know."

Rong Shu's eyes widened, "Fu Jingting, shouldn't you let me sleep in your room?"

“Don’t you want to?” Fu Jingting looked at her.

Rong Shu was silent for a while.

Sure enough, it was exactly what she thought.

Just now, he said he was going to make the bed, and then walked to his own room.

At that time, she didn’t think much about it, thinking that he might have gone into her room to hug the quilt or something.

After all the other rooms are empty and probably have no quilts.

It turned out that she thought too much, he didn’t mean to arrange a room for her at all, he just wanted her to sleep in his room.

Thinking of Fu Jingting’s behavior of crawling and bedding secretly at his place in the middle of the night before, and looking at his current behavior, it seems less surprising.

In order to sleep with her, what else could he do that he couldn’t do?

Maybe it will be able to climb the bed in the future.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu held her forehead, somewhat dumbfounded, “No, that’s it.”

After she finished speaking, she squeezed the door handle and twisted it gently.

The door opened and she walked in first.

Seeing that Rong Shu was willing to sleep with him, Fu Jingting’s eyes brightened obviously, and then he walked quickly into the room and followed.

Just now, he was quite worried that she would refuse.

But now seeing that she did not refuse, he was finally relieved.

Rong Shu walked into Fu Jingting’s room, looked at Fu Jingting’s big bed that could sleep several people, and couldn’t help blushing.

Although she and Fu Jingting won’t have that kind of thing happening now, she couldn’t help thinking about that in her mind.

Especially since his bed is so big, it seems easy to get fancied.

Rong Shu rubbed his temples.

It seems that she is really influenced by Fu Jingting, the old man who is thinking about her, otherwise, why do you think about it when you see the bed?

Stop thinking about it, stop thinking about it.

Rong Shu tapped her forehead lightly, took a deep breath, and calmed herself down.

Seeing her action, Fu Jingting quickly took her hand off her head and looked at her with a serious expression, "What's wrong? Is it a headache?"

"No." Rong Shu shook her head.

She forced a smile, "I just thought of some subtle things."

"Subtle things?" Fu Jingting obviously didn't understand what she meant.

Rong Shu waved her hand, "It's nothing, go to sleep, I'm so tired."

She yawned again.

Fu Jingting looked at the tiredness on her face and the blue and black where the silkworm was lying. A hint of distress flashed in his eyes. He gently touched her hair, and his voice became gentle, "Okay, go to sleep."

Rong Shu hummed, He took off the quilt and lay down.

Fu Jingting walked around from the end of the bed, lay down on the other half of the bed, then stretched out his arms and put her in his arms, his movements were very natural, as if they had been sleeping like this for a long time, just like a real couple for many years.

Rong Shu touched the man's hand on her waist under the quilt, and the corner of her mouth couldn't help twitching twice.

He was really familiar with him, so he hugged him without her consent.

It can be seen that he is not as shy and nervous as his new boyfriend.

Really cheeky.

Shaking her head helplessly, Rong Shu didn't take the man's hand away and went with him.

She was so sleepy now that as soon as she lay on the bed, her eyelids began to be heavy and kept pressing down.

All in all, she just wants to sleep now and doesn't care about anything else.

Soon, Rong Shu couldn't bear sleep anymore and fell asleep.

Because she was so tired, she was breathing louder than usual when she was asleep.

Fu Jingting had just woken up not long ago, and now he was naturally not sleepy, so he leaned on his side, propped his head, and stared at her sleeping face.

Even if she didn't move, no matter how she looked, her face wouldn't change, but he couldn't get tired of seeing it no matter how he looked, and he never looked away.

I don't know how long it took, until Rong Shu turned over, so he turned off the headlights, leaving only a dim yellow light, and lay down and closed his eyes.

The next day, Fu Jingting was woken up by the ringing of his mobile phone.

He opened his eyes and looked at the woman in his arms first.

The woman's eyes were still closed, she was still sleeping soundly, and she was not affected by the ringing of the mobile phone at all.

But he was still worried that the phone ringing would wake her up, so he got up gently and took the phone from the bedside. It was Rong Shu's cell phone that was ringing, and the three characters of Secretary Tong were flashing constantly on the screen. Fu Jingting swiped his thumb, answered the phone, and said in a low voice, "Speak." Upon hearing his voice, Secretary Tong on the other end of the phone was stunned for a moment, then quickly took the phone to him and looked at it, and saw that it was indeed Rong Shu's number, after typing it correctly, put the phone to her ear again, and asked cautiously, "Is it... Mr. Fu?" Fu Jingting hummed. Secretary Tong breathed a sigh of relief. It's really Mr. Fu. She thought it was some other man just now, startling her. But how does President Fu answer the phone with the chairman's mobile phone? Still this morning. Could it be the two of them... Realizing that the two might have spent the night together last night, Secretary Tong suddenly had no doubts in his heart. She pushed the black-rimmed glasses on the bridge of her nose and asked politely, "Mr. Fu, may I ask, is the chairman here?"

"She hasn't woken up yet." Fu Jingting held the phone in one hand and played with a strand of Rong Shu's hair with the other, and replied in a cold voice.

Secretary Tong raised his eyebrows.

Not awake yet?

She looked at the clock on the wall in her office, it was almost ten o'clock, and she was exclaimed.

God, the chairman is still awake at this time. It can be seen how much the chairman and President Fu played last night.

I was too tired to wake up.

Fu Jingting didn't know what Secretary Tong had misunderstood, he said lightly, "if you have anything, you can tell me first, and I'll tell her later. If you're not in a hurry, I'll ask her to call you back when she wakes up. You can say it again."

"That's fine, then please Mr. Fu, please wait for the chairman to wake up and ask the chairman to call me back. It's not important, so don't worry." Secretary Tong replied politely.

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, "Got it."

He hung up the phone, put the phone back on the bedside table, and was about to pick up his phone and contact Zhang Cheng.

At this moment, two beautiful hands got out of the quilt and suddenly hugged his arms, "What time is it?"

Chapter 680

Her voice was hoarse and soft, with a strong sense of sleepiness, and her eyes hadn't opened yet, so she obviously wasn't fully awake yet.

She hasn't fully woken up yet, but she can ask him what time it is now, which shows that she has always known that she herself is sleeping beside him.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be calm now, she would have sat up long ago and questioned why he was here.

"It's ten o'clock." Fu Jingting glanced at his watch and replied.

Rong Shu opened her eyes suddenly, "What? It's ten o'clock?"

She raised her voice, obviously shocked by this time.

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, "It's ten o'clock."

Rong Shu hurriedly sat up, "It's over, I'm late, I have a meeting to start this morning."

She scratched her hair that was messed up in sleep, and asked Take off the quilt and get out of bed.

Fu Jingting suddenly hooked her waist from behind and pulled her back into his arms.

Rong Shu hurriedly broke the man's arm, "Fu Jingting, what are you doing, let me go, I'm going to wash up."

"Don't worry." Fu Jingting chuckled, "Your secretary called just now, probably just to ask you Why hasn't this time passed yet, but after she learned that you were with me, she hung up the phone and didn't ask me to urge you to go to Tianzhu quickly. It's not very important to come to your meeting today, so don't be in such a hurry to go there, It's not too late to go after breakfast."

"But..." Rong Shu knew that today's meeting was not particularly urgent, but she was a person who didn't like to let pigeons go.

Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu's frowning eyebrows, and knew what she was thinking, he reached out and nodded her brows, smoothing her frown, "I know what you mean, sometimes being late and letting go of pigeons, It's not a bad thing, on the contrary, it can increase your deterrence in the group, because you are the chairman of the board, so you have the right to be late."

Hearing what he said, Rong Shu gradually calmed down and was anxious. also slowly dissipated.

She nodded, "Since you said so, then I'll be self-willed this time." Not to mention that as the president and chairman of the Fu Group, it is impossible for him to deliberately lie to her.

It is said that she herself is very clear that being late this time will indeed not cause any loss to the group.

So since it's already late, it's better to be late.

"But even if you're not in a hurry to go to Tiancheng, it's time for me to get up, aren't you hungry?" Rong Shu turned her head and asked the man who was holding her behind her.

The man lowered his head and was playing with the hand she put on his.

Her hands are small and soft, very playful, the kind that people can't put it down.

"It's okay, then get up." After Fu Jingting finished speaking, he let go of Rong Shu's hand.

Rong Shu felt the reluctance when he let go of her hand, and couldn't help laughing.

Is her hand so fun?

Rong Shu turned his hand back and forth and looked at it, but he didn't have any extra fingers.

Without thinking much, Rong Shu lifted the quilt and got out of bed, and walked to Fu Jingting's bathroom.

Fu Jingting followed closely behind, wanting to wash up with her.

They almost washed up together last night, so Rong Shu didn't drive him away and acquiesced to his behavior.

In saying, this is his site, and she is a guest.

As a guest, can you drive away the host?

After washing up, Fu Jingting went to his cloakroom to change his clothes.

Rong Shu also went to the balcony to collect her clothes.

Her clothes are dried before drying, so there is no need to worry about the clothes not drying.

Fu Jingting changed his clothes and came out of the room. Rong Yuan had also changed. She was sitting on the sofa in the living room, holding a small mirror and drawing her eyebrows.

"What would you like to have for breakfast in a while?" Rong Shu asked while drawing her eyebrows while looking at the man from the corner of her eyes.

The man walked towards her, his eyes fell on the clothes on her body, "Would you like to go out to eat in a while?"

Rong Shu put down the mirror in her hand, "Okay."

"Then go to the Imperial Restaurant, you like to eat seafood there. Crystal dumplings." Fu Jingting said as he adjusted his tie.

The clothes on her are from yesterday.

He also said just now that he asked Zhang Cheng to send her a new set of clothes, but she refused, saying that he didn't know how long he would have to wait, so he would just do it.

But now, he suddenly felt that he could prepare some of her clothes here.

Thinking that Rong Shu's clothes would be mixed with Fu Jingting's clothes in his cloakroom, Fu Jingting expected fire and heat in his heart.

His Adam's apple moved, and seeing that Rong Shu was already packing his bag, he said in a hoarse voice, "Let's go."

"What's wrong with your voice?" Rong Shu put the bag on his shoulder and looked at him with concern. Asked, "Is it because of drinking yesterday and my throat hasn't recovered yet?"

But no, when he woke up, he was fine.

Rong Shu tilted her head slightly, her face puzzled.

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes, "No, it's just because of thirst."

He wouldn't tell her, he just imagined that they would be too excited to put their clothes together.

Otherwise, she should laugh at him.

Rong Shu heard that Fu Jingting was thirsty, and did not suspect that he was lying.

After all, when I woke up in the morning, I did not drink water.

Rong Shu bent down, poured a glass of water and handed it to Fu Jingting, "Drink a little to moisten the sore throat before leaving."

Fu Jingting hummed, took the glass and took a sip.

If you don't drink, you can't do it, doesn't that mean you're not thirsty, you just lied?

After drinking the water, the two walked towards the door side by side.

As soon as he got to the door, the doorbell rang.

Fu Jingting opened the view, and the person standing outside the door was Assistant Zhang.

Assistant Zhang kept pacing with his hands together, taking deep breaths from time to time, looking very nervous and worried.

Seeing this, Rong Shu raised her eyebrows, "Assistant Zhang is here to confess to you, right?"

“Admit?” Fu Jingting was about to speak, but stopped when he heard her words.

Rong Shu flipped her hair around her ear, “Well, I forgot to tell you one thing, after you were drunk yesterday, Assistant Zhang was here too. At that time, grandmother called to ask how your situation was. The assistant didn’t know what he told grandma, but grandma passed out.”

“Grandma passed out?” Fu Jingting’s pupils shrank, and his face suddenly became ugly and tense.

Rong Shu took his hand, “Don’t get excited, don’t worry, grandmother is fine, grandmother was in a hurry, she fainted after being stimulated for a while, in the afternoon, assistant Zhang called and said that grandmother is all right, I I originally planned to tell you this after you sober up, but I just kept taking care of you and forgot about it, and I didn’t remember it until I saw Assistant Zhang’s uneasy look.”

Hearing her words, Fu Jingting mentioned it. The heart, finally reluctantly fell back to its original place.

Grandma is fine, otherwise...

Fu Jingting’s eyes flashed gloomily, then he held the door handle and opened the door forcefully.

When Assistant Zhang outside the door saw the door open, he straightened his back and stood up straight, “Mr. Fu!” Fu Jingting looked at him coldly and did not respond.

When Assistant Zhang saw Fu Jingting like this, he smiled bitterly in his heart.

Well, it seems that President Fu already knew that the old lady was stunned by him.

Assistant Zhang was not surprised that Fu Jingting would know, even if Miss Rong didn’t say it, he would take the initiative to plead guilty.

No, he has come here specially to plead guilty.

Thinking about it, Assistant Zhang took a breath, and then bowed 90 degrees to Fu Jingting, “I’m sorry Mr. Fu... It’s my fault for the old lady, please punish me.”

He almost killed the old lady. Although the old lady didn't have an accident in the end, she was very frightened.

Therefore, he is still to blame, and he is willing to accept any departure.

After all, it was his fault.

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes and looked at the person bowing in front of him, his thin lips were tightly pursed, his body was full of cold air, and he had no intention of asking Assistant Zhang to get up.

Because of him, he was really angry.

For a time, the atmosphere at the door became very depressed, no one spoke, except for the shallow breathing, there was no sound at all, which made it easy for people to feel fear in their hearts.

Assistant Zhang is like that.

Fu Jingting didn't speak, didn't ask him to get up, just stared at him like that, which made him very nervous.

He would rather President Fu give him a kick or scold him, and he wouldn't be so scared that cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

"Fu Jingting." Rong Shu knew the pressure on Assistant Zhang's heart at the moment, and after sighing, she pulled the sleeve of the man next to her, ready to speak for Assistant Zhang.

Fu Jingting noticed her thoughts, glanced at her, and finally obeyed her. After looking at Assistant Zhang, he said in a cold voice, "What did you say to your grandmother?"
When

Assistant Zhang saw him talking, he finally felt relieved breathed.

When Mr. Fu spoke, it meant that Mr. Fu's inner anger was lessened, and it also meant that he could survive from Mr. Fu's hands.

This is all due to Miss Rong.

If Miss Rong hadn't called Mr. Fu just now, Mr. Fu would definitely not have let him go so easily now.

"Mr. Fu, what I told the old lady is..." Assistant Zhang looked at Rong Shu with an apologetic smile on his face.

Rong Shu knew that Assistant Zhang didn't want her to listen, so she smiled knowingly, "Go ahead, I'll go in first, and come out when you're done talking."

She turned around and walked towards the door.

I knew yesterday that Assistant Zhang was not going to tell her, so now she is not angry.

Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu's back as she walked into the house, but did not hold her.

Zhang Cheng is a very measured person.

Since Zhang Cheng deliberately did not let Rong Shu know, it means that what Zhang Cheng said to his grandmother must be about his body.

Otherwise, someone like my grandmother, who has experienced so much hardship, would not be able to stand the stimulation and faint.

Even if the Fu Group goes bankrupt, the grandmother will never faint.

Grandmother's only weakness is him and Jing Lin.

Therefore, only when it comes to his and Jinglin's lives can grandmother be greatly stimulated.

After Rong Shu's figure disappeared completely and was invisible, Fu Jingting turned his eyes to Assistant Zhang again, his eyes narrowed dangerously, "Did you tell my grandmother about my heart?"

At present, he is the only one involved in his life. heart.

So obviously, grandmother fainted after knowing this.

Assistant Zhang buried his head deeply, "Yes."

The air pressure around Fu Jingting's body dropped, and his voice was cold as if from the ice hell, "Why did you say it? They know that you actually said that now!"

"I'm sorry, Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang replied embarrassedly, "I wanted to keep this matter from the old lady, but the old lady realized it was wrong, because you I was drunk after drinking red wine. With such a big flaw, it is impossible for the old lady to not know that there is something wrong with your body. In addition, the old lady forced me to ask me at the time, I... I couldn't help telling her, and even if I didn't Said, the old lady will also go to investigate, when the time comes, the old lady will not be able to hide it."

Fu Jingting's thin lips pursed a bit cold, and he did not speak.

He is not an unreasonable person. After listening to Assistant Zhang's words, he also knows that he really can't blame Zhang Cheng entirely.

The more fault lies with him.

He overestimated his current body.

He never thought that his current body could even get drunk with red wine.

Fu Jingting rubbed his forehead, "For grandmother's sake, I will not pursue this matter."

Assistant Zhang's eyes lit up and he smiled in surprise, "Thank you, Mr. Fu."

"How is grandmother now?" Fu Jingting said. The lips pursed tightly.

Assistant Zhang pushed his glasses back and said, "The old lady is all right. She was sent to the doctor in time, so she recovered quickly when she went to the hospital, but she is still in the hospital. She will not be discharged until tomorrow, and she will need to take care of herself.

"When it came to his words, Fu Jingting hummed, "Got it."

"Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang thought of something and looked at Fu Jingting, "Although Miss Rong doesn't know about your heart, she is suspicious. Yesterday I also specifically asked me what happened to you, which made the old lady faint. Although I hid Miss Rong from the past, I think she will definitely not give up what she wants to know. Maybe she will find time. Ask you, you..."

"I see, Rong Shu's side, I'll handle it myself, you just keep your mouth shut, and if you let me know next time, who else did you tell me, the mines in Africa? Over there, there is still a supervisor, you are quite suitable." Fu Jingting looked up and down at Assistant Zhang, and said coolly.

A look of panic appeared on Assistant Zhang's face and he nodded again and again, "Don't worry, Mr. Fu, I will keep my mouth shut this time, no one will say anything."

He didn't want to go to Africa to be a supervisor at all.

There was a lot of chaos over there, maybe he went there, and when he came back, he didn't even know himself.

"Okay, let's drive." Fu Jingting rubbed his eyebrows, "Send Rong Shu to Tiancheng first, and then go to the hospital."

“Yes.” Assistant Zhang replied, turned and walked towards the elevator.

Fu Jingting also turned around and walked into the house.

Rong Shu was sitting on the sofa and was calling someone.

Hearing the footsteps, she turned her head and glanced at the man, and quickly said to the other end of the phone, “I know, I’ll be back in a while, see you later.” When the words were over, she put down her phone and stood up, “I’ve finished talking with Assistant Zhang. “

Well.” Fu Jingting nodded, “I made you wait a long time.”

“No.” Rong Shu shook her head, “I just have time to call Secretary Tong.”

“Finished?” Fu Jingting looked at her hand mobile phone.

“Let’s go then.” Fu Jingting put his arms together, the meaning was obvious.

Rong Shu smiled, walked over, and took his arm.

This time, the two finally went out smoothly.

Assistant Zhang drove the car, first let the two go to the Imperial Dining Hall for breakfast, and then drove to Tiansheng Group.

When he arrived at Tiancheng, Rong Shu opened the door and got off.

When she walked to the other side of the car, Fu Jingting rolled down the car window and called her, “Little Leaf.”

Rong Shu paused, turned her head sharply with wide eyes, and looked at the man in surprise, “You... what did you call me? “

Little Leaf.” Fu Jingting lightly opened his thin lips and shouted again.

Rong Shu’s eyes warmed, her mouth opened, and her voice became a little choked, “How... do you know my nickname?”

This nickname was called by her father in the past.

I heard from my father that my mother got it because my mother liked maple leaves. One year before my mother died, my father and my mother took her to see the authentic red maple leaves abroad.

This nickname, that is, at that time, my mother got it, because my mother wanted to keep it as a souvenir.

At the same time, her pseudonym, Maple Leaf, came from that.

But since her father's death, she has never heard anyone call her Xiaoye Ye, they call her Shushu, because they don't even know that she still has this nickname.

Ah Qi and Aunt Lu knew it, but they didn't choose to call it that.

Because this nickname has different meanings to her, only her parents can call her.

But now, after six years, she actually heard the name Xiaoye Ye again from Fu Jingting.

Chapter 682 Fu Jingting's Exclusive Title

So nostalgic, so kind, her body couldn't help trembling, and her eyes were red.

"Didn't you tell me this yourself?" Fu Jingting put one hand on the window sill and turned back.

Rong Shu blinked in confusion, "I told you?"

"Well."

"What... when?" Rong Shu became even more puzzled.

She never told him that she had this nickname.

This nickname was sealed after her father died six years ago.

Even if he didn't call her today, she might have forgotten that she still has this name.

"Eleven years ago." Fu Jingting replied looking at the confused woman outside the window.

Rong Shu's eyes widened, "Eleven years ago?"

"That's right." Fu Jingting nodded.

Rong Shu swallowed, "You mean, I told you in the letter before?"

Eleven years ago, she hadn't seen him, so it was impossible to tell him her nickname.

The only possibility is that it was mentioned in the letter, because at that time, they had been pen pals for a long time.

Seeing that Rong Shu had guessed it, Fu Jingting nodded and admitted, "Yes, you said in the letter that you were bullied by Rong Yuan at that time, and Rong Yuan was very dissatisfied with your father's nickname, and cried and told your father to stop calling you that way in the future. You, you were very aggrieved, and then told me about it in the letter. As mentioned above, your nickname is Xiao Ye, although you only mentioned it this time, I have never forgotten it."

"So...that's the case. Rong Shu bit her lower lip, her voice becoming more and more choked, "You still remember what happened so long ago, but I forgot."

If he didn't say it, she forgot about it.

But when he said that, she remembered.

She did mention it in her letter.

When she was fifteen years old, her father came back from a business trip abroad and bought a gift for her and Rong Yuan each.

At that time, she and Rong Yuan were very happy, but when Rong Yuan heard her father call her Xiao Ye Ye, she immediately became dissatisfied.

For a long time, her father called her Xiaoye Ye and Rong Yuanyuanyuan, but Rong Yuan didn't like the nickname Yuanyuan very much. , is too perfunctory, so she has always been dissatisfied with her father calling her Xiao Ye.

But she was not satisfied. Rong Yuan had never made trouble before, at most she was angry with her, but when her father gave a gift, Rong Yuan suddenly made a scene, insisting that her father would not be allowed to call her Xiao Ye Ye in the future.

Although her father did not agree, she was still very aggrieved, so she was sad, so she wrote this matter in a letter and sent it to Xiao Zhong, her pen pal at the time.

Because Xiao Zhong is a very gentle person, he will enlighten her when she doesn't understand or is sad, so she trusts him very much.

Sure enough, in the reply to that letter, there was Xiao Zhong's comfort and enlightenment.

"I always remember about you." Fu Jingting said with a gentle expression.

Rong Shu took a breath and managed to calm down the messy mood aroused by this nickname, "By the way, why do you suddenly call me this nickname?"

Fu Jingting looked at her and replied, "We are together, we can't stay forever. It's too unfamiliar to call you by your full name, but I don't want to call you like Lu Qi and the others, I wanted to have a special name for you, so I thought of this."

"Really." Rong Shu flipped her hair. , "Then this nickname, have you called Gu Manyin before?"

After all, Gu Manyin pretended to be her, so it is very likely that he called Gu Manyin like this.

If that's the case, she must be very upset.

However, Fu Jingting shook his head, "No."

"Really or not?" Rong Shu narrowed her eyes, obviously not convinced.

Fu Jingting nodded seriously, "Really, you said in the letter that this nickname was obtained by your mother, and only your parents can call it that, so even if I regard Gu Manyin as you, I have never called Gu like that. Man Yin, this nickname always belongs to you and is clean."

Rong Shu looked into his eyes and could see that he didn't lie to her, and the worry in her heart was finally put down.

"Thank you." Rong Shu showed him a beautiful smile, "Thank you for keeping the name pure for me and not letting Gu Manyin dirty it."

This name was obtained by her mother, even if it was really Gu Man If the sound is occupied, she will take back the name.

But after that, she won't use it again.

Fortunately, the result was good. He respected what she said in the letter. Only her parents could call this name, so he never called Gu Manyin like that.

The name, from start to finish, still belonged to her, and it wasn't smeared.

"I'm glad I didn't dirty it myself." Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu and replied.

Rong Shu smiled lightly, "Because you know how to respect people."

Fu Jingting curled his lips, "I like your compliments, Rong Shu, can I call you that in the future? I know, this is the exclusive name of your parents, but now they It's gone, and you can't hear them calling you that, so I hope that I will inherit this name and call you, okay?"

In the days to come, he will also spoil her as a child.

Just like her parents.

Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting's expectation, and her red lips moved, as if she was tangled.

But soon, she nodded, "Okay."

He was right. After her parents died, she never heard anyone call her Xiaoye Ye again.

Now that she heard Fu Jingting call her like that, she realized that she really wanted to hear someone call her like that again.

So since he wanted to call her that, so be it.

He wanted an exclusive title for her, and she was willing to fulfill him.

Hearing Rong Shu's agreement, Fu Jingting's mouth became more curved, and he immediately shouted, "Little Leaf."

Rong Shu's face flushed, a little embarrassed.

In the past, it was her parents who called her like this, and she naturally agreed without any psychological pressure.

But now it was her ex-husband and current boyfriend who called her like that.

And this title has also changed from between parent and child to between men and women, so she is somewhat unaccustomed to it.

You have to get used to the change slowly.

Thinking about it, Rong Shu rubbed her cheeks and hummed like a mosquito, which was a response.

After Fu Jingting heard it, there was a glint in his eyes, and he shouted again, "Little Ye Zi."

Rong Shu glared at him, "Fu Jingting, you have a lot to finish, are you addicted?"

Fu Jingting laughed softly.

Rong Shu waved her hand, "Okay, hurry up, don't you want to go to the hospital to see your grandmother? Go there early and say hello to my grandmother by the way. I'll see her in the afternoon." "I'll pick you up in the afternoon." Fu Jingting looked Glancing at his watch, he said.

Rong Shu wanted to say no, but after thinking about it, they were together, shouldn't he pick her up, so he swallowed the urgent refusal and replied, "Okay, tell me before you come over, I wonder if I was busy at that time."

"Well." Fu Jingting nodded slightly.

Rong Shu waved at him, turned around and walked towards the group building.

Fu Jingting just looked at her differently.

Assistant Zhang in the driver's seat suddenly turned his head, "Mr. Fu, have you and Miss Rong got back together?"

He listened to the conversation between President Fu and Miss Rong just now, and vaguely heard about being together.

So I wanted to ask if it was what I thought.

Fu Jingting looked back at Assistant Zhang with an undisguised smug look on his face, "You guessed it right, we really got back together."

Chapter 683 Secretary Tong is Pregnant

Assistant Zhang exclaimed, and then quickly clapped his hands to congratulate, "Congratulations to President Fu, congratulations to President Fu, and finally all the hard work has come."

He was really happy for President Fu.

In the past few months, how hard Mr. Fu has been chasing his wife, and he almost took his life, he saw it all.

So now that he knows that President Fu has finally caught up with Miss Rong, he is really happy.

Fu Jingting snorted when he heard Assistant Zhang's congratulations.

Can still speak.

"That's right, Mr. Fu." Assistant Zhang looked at Fu Jingting and smiled hehely, "President Fu, you and Miss Rong are back together, do you have any benefits for us? Look, other bosses are off the list or When you get married, it's not to invite employees to dinner, but to give employees bonuses or candy, just to ask for auspiciousness, do you want to express it too?"

He rubbed his hands and asked.

Fu Jingting's face darkened immediately, "Welfare?"

He didn't blame Zhang Cheng for almost mad at his grandmother, but Zhang Cheng had the face to ask him for welfare.

Of course, although Fu Jingting was very dissatisfied with Assistant Zhang's behavior of asking for welfare.

But Assistant Zhang said something that touched his heart.

That is to give benefits to employees and seek good luck for themselves and Rong Shu.

He and Rong Shu had just been together once, and they should indeed seek auspiciousness.

Although he doesn't believe this, he has to pay attention to this meaning here.

Therefore, it is still necessary to give benefits to Assistant Zhang.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting said with a cold face, "Everyone in the group will be paid an extra month's salary."

Assistant Zhang's eyes instantly turned into lanterns, "Thank you, Mr. Fu.

" In the chair, eyes closed.

Assistant Zhang also doesn't care about Fu Jingting's indifference. It's too late to be happy after receiving benefits. Why do you care about other things?

"Drive." Fu Jingting spit out two words impatiently.

Assistant Zhang adjusted his tie, quickly put away his pride, and started the car.

On the other side, Rong Shu finally returned to her office.

Secretary Tong came in behind her, looking at her unchanging clothes, she couldn't help teasing, "Chairman, have you and President Fu already lived together?"

Rong Shu knew that Fu Jingting answered the phone for her this morning, and pulled Crossing the chair and sitting down, "no, it's just for some reason last night, I just stayed with him."

"That's it." Secretary Tong smiled, "but we're about to live together."

Secretary Tong's eyes fell on Rong On the ring on the ring finger of Shu's left hand.

I didn't have this ring yesterday, but I got it after staying at Mr. Fu's place for one night.

This shows that it is not easy, it shows that the chairman and President Fu have officially reunited.

And the current lovers will live together as long as they are together, so she guessed that the chairman may live with President Fu.

Even if they don't live together, they definitely won't be living together for a long time.

To be honest, she was completely relieved when she saw the ring on the chairman's finger.

Although it was a bit shameful, she was very happy to see the chairman and President Fu together.

Only when they are together can President Lu give up on the chairman.

Rong Shu didn't know what Secretary Tong was thinking, she wanted to retort that it was impossible to live together so soon.

But then when I thought about what Fu Jingting had done in order to stay at her place, it seemed that it was not impossible.

After all, Fu Jingting is cheeky, and the probability of letting her live with him is very high.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu suddenly felt a little funny.

She rubbed her temples, and then said in vain, "Okay, let's not talk about that, how about the morning meeting?"

Secretary Tong heard her talking about business, and her expression became serious, "the morning meeting, because you weren't there, ended early, but luckily it's not a very important meeting, so I didn't ask you to Come here, although those senior management are not satisfied that you did not attend, but now because of your status as chairman, they have not said anything. I have recorded the meeting process, chairman, you can review it later.”

“Okay, Thank you so much.” Rong Shu nodded.

Secretary Tong was about to answer something when suddenly a sense of disgust came up.

Her face changed, she couldn't help covering her mouth, lowered her head and retched.

Seeing this, Rong Shu hurriedly stood up from the chair, went around the desk to check on Secretary Tong's condition, “Secretary Tong, what's wrong with you?”

Secretary Tong was so uncomfortable, his stomach was churning so badly, that nausea, Nothing can go away.

She didn't care about answering Rong Shu's question, she ran directly to the bathroom in Rong Shu's office, and then lay on the sink, vomiting non-stop.

Listening to Secretary Tong's painful vomiting from the bathroom, Rong Shu hurried to the water dispenser, took a disposable cup, put a little honey in the quilt, then took some warm water, and put the honey with a clean straw. After stirring a few times until it melted, I put down the cup and followed to the bathroom.

When she came to the door of the bathroom, Rong Shu saw that Secretary Tong had turned on the faucet and was pouring water into her mouth and face.

After Secretary Tong finished rinsing his mouth and turned off the faucet, Rong Shu went in and took a quick tissue and handed it to her, “Secretary Tong, are you alright?”

Secretary Tong took the tissue and wiped the water off his face. , shook his head with a pale face, and replied weakly, “It's all right, thank the chairman for your concern.”

Rong Shu looked at her, “Are you feeling unwell? Or is it because of a cold? Why don't I take you there? Let's take a look at the infirmary?”

“No need for the chairman.” Secretary Tong threw away the tissue, shook his head and refused, “I don't have a cold, maybe it's because I didn't pay attention to my diet these two days, so I feel a little uncomfortable in my stomach., It's alright, maybe in two days.”

How could she say that she might be pregnant, with Mr. Lu's child?

If the chairman knew, he would definitely tell Mr. Lu.

At that time Mr. Lu would definitely take her to the hospital for a check-up. If the test turns out to be true If she has a child, Mr. Lu will definitely force her into the operating room.

How could Mr. Lu allow her to give birth to his child!

Secretary Tong's eyes drooped sadly, and there was an air of grief all over his body.

Rong Shu felt it, and raised her eyebrows Wrinkled, "You also said that you don't pay attention to your diet, Secretary Tong, don't you know how serious the consequences of not paying attention to your diet will be? Food poisoning, stomach accumulation, etc., and it has been two days, why do you care so much about your body? Look at what you vomited just now? No, you have to see a doctor, go, I'll take you down, or I'll call the doctor up.

Saying that, she took out her mobile phone. Secretary

Tong immediately pressed her hand down and said emotionally, "Chairman, don't call a doctor, I don't see a doctor, I really don't see a doctor, please, don't force how am I? "

Secretary Tong looked at Rong Shu, his eyes were full of begging.

Rong Shu's red lips opened, and it took a while before she made a sound, "You... what's the matter with you? Secretary Tong, why do you resist seeing the doctor so much? Are you lying to me? It's not that you don't pay attention to your diet, but that you're sick, right? And you know, that's why you don't see a doctor, right? "The first reaction in her mind was that Secretary Tong had a very serious disease such as stomach cancer.

Otherwise, why would Secretary Tong react so much.

When Secretary Tong saw Rong Shu, she only thought she was sick, but did not guess that she might be pregnant. With more and more lips, he decided to admit that he was sick.

Thinking about it, Secretary Tong squeezed a reluctant smile on his face, "Yes, I have a cyst in my stomach. "

"What? Rong Shu's face changed slightly, "Cyst? Benign or malignant? "

Chapter 684 Good Omen

Secretary Tong lowered her eyelids and replied with a guilty conscience, "I don't know, I haven't been diagnosed yet."

These days, she often vomits like just now.

In addition, the menstrual period that was supposed to come this month did not come, so she suspected that she might be pregnant.

But she didn't know whether she was pregnant or not. She planned to go to the pharmacy to buy a pregnancy test stick to check it out after get off work today.

As a result, I didn't expect that before I got off work, I retched in front of the chairman.

In order not to expose that she might be pregnant, she also lied to deceive the chairman.

She is really, really sorry for the chairman.

"It's such a big thing, you haven't been diagnosed yet!" Rong Shu was stunned when she heard Secretary Tong's words.

This is done because of how little attention is paid to one's own body.

Seeing Rong Shu's indifference to herself, Secretary Tong felt even more ashamed for her concealment.

But she still had to continue to lie down.

Secretary Tong buried his head deeply and whispered, "My mother is here with me these days, so I didn't rush to the hospital for a diagnosis, because I was afraid that my mother would see me taking medicine or something, and it would be bad, She's getting old and she's ill, so I don't want her to worry about me."

"That said, you can't keep dragging it on, right?" Rong Shu pursed her red lips.

Secretary Tong hummed like a mosquito, "I'll go in the afternoon."

"Really?" Rong Shu squinted at her.

Secretary Tong nodded, "really, I also know that it can't be delayed."

If she is really pregnant, after she is diagnosed, it is better to arrange a retreat earlier.

If it is not pregnant, it is real life, she can also be treated earlier.

This is not a bad thing for her.

Seeing Secretary Tong's affirmative answer, Rong Shu's face looked much better, but she was still full of worries, "since you know you can't delay, then you must do what you say, go to the hospital in the afternoon, you are my secretary, She's also my only female friend now, I don't want you to have an accident, if you have an accident, who can I talk to in the future, and who will help me at work?"

Hearing Rong Shu's words, Secretary Tong felt a warm feeling in his heart, and his eyes were a little hot. Blushing, "Chairman, thank you for caring about me."

Rong Shu patted her on the shoulder, "You are my friend, of course I care about you, but don't you really need to go to the infirmary now?"

Rong Shu still Some are worried.

Secretary Tong shook his head like a rattle, "I really don't need it, I'm fine now."

She insisted repeatedly that she would not go to the infirmary, and Rong Shu could only give up.

After all, she said that she would go to the hospital for an examination in the afternoon, so there was no need to force her to go to the infirmary.

"Well, let's go out first." Rong Shu took her hand from Secretary Tong's shoulder.

Secretary Tong snorted and followed her out of the bathroom.

Back in the office, Rong Shu handed over the honey water that had just been soaked to Secretary Tong, "Drink this, it is good for the stomach."

Secretary Tong looked at the yellowed honey water in front of him, and was moved again, and the tip of his nose was sore. .

She took the water glass with both hands, and said in a choked voice, "Thank you, Chairman."

"Okay, I said, we are friends, and this is a child who has done a lot of work. If you have anything to thank, drink it." Rong Shu Pull out the office chair and sit down again.

Secretary Tong nodded again and again, and then sipped the honey water from the cup.

Seeing her drink, Rong Shu smiled knowingly, then took out her phone and started playing with it.

There was a message from Fu Jingting on her phone. She clicked to check it. There was only one sentence on it. I went to the hospital.

The time was one minute ago.

Rong Shu opened the typing bar and typed quickly with her fingers. Remember to say hello to my grandmother.

After sending it, she waited for a while, but didn't wait for Fu Jingting's reply. She guessed that Fu Jingting didn't have her phone in her hand at the moment, so she didn't see any news from her.

This made Rong Shu a little disappointed and put down the phone.

Seeing this, Secretary Tong smiled and asked, "Chairman, are you in contact with President Fu?"

Rong Shu didn't hide it from her, and nodded slightly, "Well."

"The chairman and President Fu have such a good relationship that they separated. How long has it been before I start to miss it again." Secretary Tong threw away the quilt he had finished drinking and said with a smile.

Rong Shu smiled herself, "Now the relationship is good, but who knows in the future, love is like this, when we were first together, the relationship was not good, but after a long time together, it became as light as water, so I am now That is to grasp the moment."

Now that you have a good relationship with Fu Jingting, you will naturally cherish it.

Don't lose time, don't lose yourself.

"I think the chairman and President Fu will be happy for a lifetime." Secretary Tong looked at Rong Shu and wished sincerely.

Rong Shu smiled, "I hope, but thank you anyway."

"The chairman, if there is nothing else, I'll go out first?" Secretary Tong pointed to the door.

Rong Shu nodded slightly, "Go ahead, by the way, let the people who have the meeting in the morning be informed that I'm sorry for keeping them waiting for the morning meeting..." Before she could finish her words, there was a knock on the door of the office.

Rong Shu frowned, then looked at the door, "Come in."

The door of the office was pushed open, and an assistant entered.

The assistant came to Rong Shu, "Chairman."

“What’s the matter?” Rong Shu took a sip of her tea cup and asked.

The assistant replied excitedly, “Chairman, the Fu Group has come, and brought a lot of red envelopes, snacks and candies.”

“What?” Rong Shu was stunned for a moment, then quickly put down the teacup in her hand and looked at her, “You said that the people from the Fu Group sent a lot of food and red envelopes?”

“Yeah, it’s a gift from President Fu to all our Tiancheng employees.” The assistant nodded quickly.

Secretary Tong pushed the black-rimmed glasses, “Chairman, I guess, this should be made by President Fu to celebrate your reunion, just like sending wedding candy to relatives, friends, colleagues and employees when you get married.”

Rong Shu raised her eyebrows, “I think With his level of sophistication, he can’t think of this.”

Hearing her conversation with Secretary Tong, the assistant’s eyes lit up and asked excitedly, “Chairman, did you and Mr. Fu really talk to Xin a few days ago? As the news said, they got back together?”

After seeing the gossip in the assistant’s eyes, Rong Shu shook her head amusingly, “Since I’ve heard it all, why don’t I ask?”

“Aren’t I going to confirm this?” About to scream.

Oh my god, it’s really combined.

This is really exciting news.

Rong Shu ignored the assistant’s excitement, she picked up the phone again to unlock it, “I’ll ask Fu Jingting first, what the hell is going on with him sending these.”

After that, she was about to call Fu Jingting.

As a result, before the call was broadcast, her cell phone rang.

It was Assistant Zhang’s call.

Rong Shu hurriedly answered, and Assistant Zhang’s voice came over the phone, “Miss Rong.”

“Hello Assistant Zhang.” Rong Shu nodded and replied.

Assistant Zhang stood outside the old lady's ward, "Miss Rong, have the Fu Group arrived?"

"It's here." Rong Shu hummed, and then asked, "Assistant Zhang, what's the matter with those red envelopes and food?"

Assistant Zhang smiled, "It's Caitou, the chairman is here to celebrate the reunion with you, so he specially Let me prepare these for all the employees of Tiansheng, in order to ask for auspiciousness and good omens, not only Tiansheng, but all of our Fu employees."

Rong Shu looked up at Secretary Tong, "I'm really told by you. bingo."

Secretary Tong smiled embarrassedly.

Rong Shu said to the other end of the phone, "It seems that this time, he bleeds a lot."

Fu Jingting has money, so with his pride, he will definitely give these employee benefits a lot.

"Miss Rong is joking. President Fu is not a big bleeding. After all, this money is just a piece of cake for President Fu." Assistant Zhang said with a polite smile.

Rong Shu leaned back on the chair, "Did he bring this up by himself?"

Assistant Zhang shook his head, "No, it's actually me, I know that you and Mr. Fu got back together, and ask Mr. Fu for a lot of money. , so President Fu simply prepared for Fu Shi and Tiancheng's employees."

"So that's the case." Rong Shu was stunned.

She just said that Fu Jingting has a pitiful understanding of the world. If no one reminded him, he would not have realized it at all.

But once he realizes it, he expands across the board to do his best.

So this is invaluable.

“Miss Rong, those red envelopes and food are all Mr. Fu’s wishes, and they are also for the sake of your relationship with Mr. Fu, so I hope you don’t refuse to send them back.” Assistant Zhang sincerely asked.

After all, because of Miss Rong’s previous rejections to President Fu, he was really afraid of her sending it back.

Rong Shu heard the worry in Assistant Zhang’s tone, and also knew why he was worried. She brushed the hair around her ear and coughed lightly, “It won’t be sent back, don’t worry.”

“That’s good.” Assistant Zhang relieved.

Rong Shu asked again, “What about him? Why did you call?”

“President Fu was talking to the old lady, so I asked me to call and tell you about it.” Assistant Zhang replied.

Rong Shu nodded, “I see, thank Assistant Zhang.”

“You’re welcome.” Assistant Zhang replied.

The two said a few more words before cutting off the phone.

Putting down the phone, Rong Shu looked at Secretary Tong and his assistant, “The red envelopes and food are indeed sent by the Fu Group, Secretary Tong, you and Xiao Chen go down to receive them, and then send them to the employees below. “

Yes.” Secretary Tong nodded in response.

The assistant also happily agreed, “Thank you, Chairman, and President Fu.”

She really did not expect that when the Chairman and President Fu reunited, President Fu actually gave them so many benefits to Tiansheng.

Not to mention those who eat, they are all imported snacks.

What really made her happy were those red envelopes.

She glanced at it before, and it was bulging, and there were probably quite a few in it.

Mr. Fu was really proud.

Rong Shu looked at the excited assistant, laughed lightly, and then set her eyes on Secretary Tong, “After you send these to the employees, let me know and say that I will give all the employees a day off, of course, this vacation will be on rotation. , otherwise we will go on vacation together, who will do the work?”

Hearing this, before Secretary Tong answered, the assistant called out excitedly, “Chairman, is what you said true? Are you really on vacation?”

“Of course. Rong Shu nodded, “Fu Jingting has given you and his own employees these benefits. As one of the parties, how can I not give them, but I am not as rich as him, so I can’t give you red envelopes. All I can give is vacation.” I’m done.”

“Thank you, Chairman, the holiday has been very good, we haven’t had a holiday for a long time.” The assistant was so excited that he was about to cry.

In the past few months, Tiansheng has been developing, so they rarely have holidays.

Being able to take a day off is the biggest surprise for them.

“I’m sorry.” Rong Shu looked at the assistant’s appearance, feeling somewhat guilty, “I’ve worked hard for you these past few months.”

“No no no.” The assistant waved his hand quickly, “We don’t work hard, it’s all for Tiancheng, and we can’t blame you, Chairman, we all know what happened to Tiansheng before, so we have never complained about the lack of holidays and overtime. , I believe that in the future when Tiancheng is fully up, we can stop doing this.”

“Of course.” Rong Shu responded affirmatively, then looked at Secretary Tong and said, “As for the Fu Group, you can also buy some sugar. Pack it up and send it to them, it’s also a little bit of my heart.”

Fu Jingting sent her so many things to Tiancheng, and it is naturally impossible for her not to send it to the Fu Group.

Although I can’t afford the gifts Fu Jingting gave, I can still afford some candies.

It wasn’t until an hour later that Secretary Tong came back again with a gift box in his hand, “Chairman, everything that Mr. Fu has sent has been sent to the following, and the announcement of the holiday has also been sent out. The candy on the side, I also called the candy company to make an order, and they will deliver the candy before the Fu Group gets off work.”

“Thank you for your hard work.” Rong Shu smiled.

“Chairman, you’re welcome.” After replying, Secretary Tong handed over the gift box in his hand, “Chairman, this is what someone from the Fu Group asked me to hand to you, saying that it was given to you by President Fu.”

“Oh ?” Rong Shu reached out and took it in surprise.

Turns out he didn’t just deliver things to the employees.

It was even prepared for her.

Rong Shu chuckled, and instead of opening the gift box immediately, she put it aside, “Have the people from the Fu family returned?”

“He has already left, but he did not go back, but went to the Lu family and Cheng’s house.” Secretary Tong shook his head.

Rong Shu frowned suspiciously, “Why are you going to the Lu family and Cheng’s house?”

Secretary Tong’s mouth twitched, “Send candy.”

“What?” Rong Shu was stunned for a moment.

Secretary Tong repeated, “Send the candy, the man said that Lu is always your friend of the chairman, so President Fu asked him to prepare candy for all Lu’s employees, so that all Lu’s employees are also happy, and Cheng The same is true of Mr. Cheng, the man said that Mr. Cheng was a friend of Mr. Fu, so Mr. Fu also made Mr. Cheng feel happy.”

“...” A few black lines slid down Rong Shu’s forehead.

Feeling happy?

Hehe, she didn’t think Fu Jingting’s purpose was this.

His real purpose is probably to get rid of Aqi and Cheng Huai, right?

Fu Jingting had always known that Aqi and Cheng Huai had feelings for her, and he cared about it very much.

So it was fake for him to let Aqi and Cheng Huai get candy, but he actually wanted to anger them, and took the opportunity to tell them that he and her got back together, and then show them off.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu held her forehead, and she didn’t know whether to laugh or cry, “It’s childish.”

Secretary Tong also guessed Fu Jingting's purpose and looked at Rong Shu worriedly, "Chairman, is it okay for the vice president to do this? President Lu will definitely get angry. Rong Shu waved her hand, "

"It's fine, I'll just apologize to Aqi later."

Secretary Tong nodded, then thought of something, clenched his palms and looked at her, "Chairman, please contact President Lu later. When the time comes, can you not mention me? Especially when I vomited today."

If the chairman mentioned this to President Lu, President Lu would definitely think of pregnancy.

If that happens, it will be troublesome.

Although Rong Shu didn't understand why Secretary Tong specifically told her to do this, she nodded and agreed, looking at Secretary Tong's begging eyes, "Okay, I won't mention it."

"Thank you, chairman."

"No thanks."

"Then Chairman, I'm going out first."

"Go." Rong Shu smiled.

Secretary Tong exhaled and turned to go out.

After she left, Rong Shu picked up the gift box she just put down and opened it.

She wanted to see what Fu Jingting gave her.

Soon, the gift box was opened, and there was actually a green jade bracelet inside.

The jade bracelet was green and black, and it was a top-quality emerald.

However, the appearance of the bracelet is not bright, and there are even scratches on it, so that the bracelet is full of traces of time.

This bracelet, some years old, might still be an antique.

Why did Fu Jingting give her this?

Chapter 686 The limit of the old lady

Rong Shu looked at the bracelet and was full of confusion.

Afterwards, she put the bracelet back in the box, picked up the phone and dug out Fu Jingting's phone number, ready to call and ask.

But when her finger landed on the dial key, she suddenly thought that Assistant Zhang had just said that he was talking with her grandmother.

So if you call it now, it's a little inappropriate.

Forget it, let's talk about it in the afternoon.

Anyway, we have to meet in the afternoon.

Thinking, Rong Shu closed the box, put it in the drawer and locked it.

After all, it is an antique, and its value is very high. If it is lost, with her current financial resources, she cannot afford it at all.

After locking the bracelet, Rong Shu put the key in her bag, picked up a document, and got busy.

At the same time, the two employees who received the benefits of Rong Shu and Fu Jingting have posted on their circle of friends and social platforms, thanking them for the benefits and wishing them happiness.

If only one person posted it, it certainly wouldn't attract the attention of others.

But there were many people who posted it, and it was soon noticed by major media. They also guessed that it was Rong Shu and Fu Jingting who got back together and sent 'happy candy' to these employees.

For a while, the news that Rong Shu and Fu Jingting officially reunited immediately hit the hot search list of major platforms.

A few days ago, there have been media reports that the two may get back together, but neither of them has come forward to explain it, so it is uncertain whether the two have gotten back together.

But it is believed that the two are indeed reunited, and they still occupy the vast majority.

Otherwise, why didn't the parties come out to clarify?

If it is not clarified, there must be a ghost.

Therefore, now that the media has released the news that the two are indeed getting back together, there are not too many surprises on the Internet.

After all, most people have already guessed it, and they have already prepared for it.

Now the confirmation from the media only makes them sigh that they did not guess wrong.

And they have different opinions and views on the reconciliation of Fu Jingting and Rong Shu.

There are blessings, and there are bad ones.

In short, the polarization is quite serious.

In the hospital, Assistant Zhang looked at Fu Jingting, who was staring at the phone with a dark face, and asked cautiously, "Mr. Fu, why don't I call these platforms and let them ban these bad-talking accounts?"

Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes. "No."

"Then let them slander you and Miss Rong online?" Assistant Zhang was surprised.

Fu Jingting raised his eyes and gave him a cool look, "Do you think I am that kind of person?"

"No!" Assistant Zhang immediately shook his head.

Isn't it clear that Mr. Fu's jealousy must be reported to him?

It's impossible for President Fu to repay grievances with virtue.

It's just that he couldn't figure out what Mr. Fu was going to do!

Seemingly seeing what Assistant Zhang was thinking, Fu Jingting's mouth curled into a thin arc, "Don't these people like to sing bad, then I'll just let them say goodbye to me."

"Mr. Fu, what do you mean... "..."

"Isn't there a retweet lottery activity online? You can get one too. As long as you retweet and say good things, you can get red envelopes and prizes. Do you think they won't do it?" Fu Jingting said lightly with thin lips.

Assistant Zhang's eyes lit up, "This method is good, I know about President Fu, so I'll make arrangements."

Fu Jingting hummed, "Go."

Assistant Zhang nodded and went out.

After he left, only Fu Jingting and the old lady asleep on the bed were left in the ward.

Fu Jingting tucked the old lady's quilt, and then looked at the old lady's old face, and there was a trace of guilt in the dark eyes.

This year, because of him, my grandmother has aged too much at once.

Before, my grandmother took good care of her, and her hair was not completely white.

And now, my grandmother's hair is white and not a single black hair.

The doctor said that my grandmother suddenly accelerated aging because she was worried about too many things and couldn't let go of her mind. Coupled with several times of anger and shock, her body became worse.

Originally, my grandmother could live a few more years, but now, I am afraid it will only be two years.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting held the old lady's hand and felt remorse.

The old lady seemed to sense his depressed mood, and her old eyes slowly opened, "Jing Ting."

"Grandmother." Hearing the old lady's voice, Fu Jingting quickly calmed down and sat up straight to look at Madam Lu, "You wake up. Already?" The old lady hummed, "Help me sit up."

"Sleep a little longer." Fu Jingting frowned and persuaded, "You just fell asleep for a while."

"No more." The old lady shook her head, "Old man Now, I can't sleep, help me up, I'm lying down and my body is very stiff."

Seeing that the old lady insisted on sitting up, Fu Jingting had no choice but to do it, helped her up, stuffed her back with a pillow and let her Can be leaned against the head of the bed.

After sitting down, Fu Jingting let go of the old lady and turned to pour water beside him.

The old lady rubbed her brows and asked, "Where's Xiao Feng?"

“Mother Feng went back to the old house to make soup with you, and I’ll come back later.” Fu Jingting poured the water back to the hospital bed, and put a straw in the cup, “Grandma , drink some water.” The old lady smiled comfortingly, “Well, well.”

After drinking the water, Fu Jingting took the cup away.

The old lady wiped the corner of her mouth and said, “Jing Ting, my old lady is fine now, you can go back first, the group can’t live without you.”

“It’s fine, grandma, don’t worry.” Fu Jingting sat down again, and while tidying up the quilt on the old lady’s body, he turned back, “It’s nothing if you haven’t been there for a day, if there is no one to support this big group because I’m not here, then What am I raising them for?”

“You.” The old lady was amused by what he said, and her heart warmed.

She knew that her grandson didn’t leave because she wanted to stay here with her.

That being the case, she wouldn’t chase him away.

“Jing Ting, I heard what you said to the doctor just now.” The old lady folded her hands on her stomach and said suddenly.

Although people are dying, the elegance is still there.

Every movement of the old lady, even if it is very slow, is still so pleasing to the eyes.

Time has never defeated beauty, and that’s probably the case.

Hearing the old lady’s words, Fu Jingting’s pupils shrank slightly, “Grandmother, you...”
The

old lady smiled slightly, “Don’t get excited, look at me, I heard that I only have a good life for two years, I’m not too bad. Is it a big reaction?”

Fu Jingting lowered his eyes and said nothing.

The old lady suddenly patted him on the shoulder, “Get up and be in such a low mood, this doesn’t look like my eldest grandson.”

be sorry for? Life and death are determined. I have lived for so many years, and I have enough. Besides, Jing Ting, I miss your grandfather.”

If the old lady was admitted to a sanatorium and received good recuperation, if she could live for a few more years, it was blocked in her throat and she couldn't say it.

Because of my grandmother, I miss my grandfather.

This made him, what else to say?

Stop grandmother from thinking about grandfather? Don't think about meeting your grandfather?

For the grandmother who loves her grandfather dearly, this is tantamount to embarrassing her.

Seeing Fu Jingting's tense mood, the old lady laughed, “Okay Jingting, don't frown like this, it's so ugly, be careful if you leave wrinkles, Shu Shu will despise you, you are a few years older than Shu Shu. , It's the old cow eating the tender grass, so if you have wrinkles now, you stand together, not like a lover, but like a father and daughter, even if Shushu doesn't despise you, others will say you are not worthy Shang Shushu.”

Hearing this, Fu Jingting immediately frowned, then raised his hand and touched his face.

He knew that he was a few years older than Rong Shu.

However, he wouldn't let the old cow eat the tender grass!

Rong Shu will think that he is a few years older than her, is it an old cow eating tender grass?

Seeing her eldest grandson's skeptical face and suddenly unconfident expression, the old lady was amused again, “Jing Ting, why are you so funny now.”

Fu Jingting's face sank, “Grandma, so Are you making fun of me just now?”

“No, you will definitely be immersed in the sadness that my old woman is going to see your grandfather.” The old lady patted the back of his hand and said, “Don't worry, although your grandmother, I am here. It's been two years, and I really want to see your grandfather, but I won't go to see your grandfather right away. At the very least, I want to see you and Shu Shu remarry. It's not too late to leave if you have a child. In two years, it should be enough, right?"

Fu Jingting's thin lips moved, as if he wanted to say something, but seeing the expectant look in the old lady's eyes, he finally swallowed what he was going to say, and hummed, "Enough, don't worry, Rong Shu and I will work hard."

He originally wanted to say that Rong Shu would not be pregnant within two years, so it was impossible for the grandmother to see her great-grandson within two years.

But in the end he thought about it and decided not to say anything. It would be better to leave an expectation for his grandmother.

With this expectation, the grandmother will think about living for a while longer.

Maybe after two years, the grandmother will continue to choose to live until she sees the child without seeing him and Rong Shu's child?

The old lady didn't know Fu Jingting's plan, but when she heard Fu Jingting's assurance, she smiled gratified, "That's good, by the way, did you send the bracelet to Shushu?"

"Well." Fu Jingting nodded, "She should have received it, but she may not know why we gave her the bracelet." Strangely, Rong Shu didn't call to ask.

The old lady smiled and said, "It's okay, didn't you say she would come in the afternoon? When she comes, it's not too late for us to tell her."

"Well." Fu Jingting nodded.

The grandfather and grandson continued to talk, and the atmosphere was extraordinarily warm.

And some people will be pissed off.

These people are Lu Qi, Cheng Huai, and Rong Yuan.

Lu Qi and Cheng Huai were furious because they received red packets and candies from Fu Jingting's people.

Fu Jingting's purpose of sending these people, they are not fools, naturally they cannot guess.

Just to show off on purpose, to laugh at them.

They have already let go, and Fu Jingting still treats them like this, which shows how vicious Fu Jingting is.

Of course, compared to Lu Qi and Cheng Huai's indignant appearance, Rong Yuan was really going to be mad to death.

She had just been discharged from the hospital when she saw the news that Rong Shu and Fu Jingting were officially reunited.

Is there anyone more unlucky than her?

She even wondered if Rong Shu knew that she was interested in Fu Jingting, so she calculated it, and it was estimated that on the day she was discharged from the hospital, she would buy the media and publish the news to piss her off!

It's not that Rong Shu can't do this kind of thing.

So it must be Rong Shu's intention!

Thinking about it, Rong Yuan angrily swept the candy and red envelopes on the desk to the ground, and even stood up and walked over to the red envelopes and candies. Looked like a crazy woman.

I don't know how long it took, Rong Yuan finally calmed down, leaning on the desk, exhaling with a slightly distorted expression.

After a while, a ferocious smile suddenly appeared on her face, "So what if they get back together, even if they get married, they still get divorced."

In her opinion, even if Rong Shu and Fu Jingting get back together, they won't be able to live for long.

These two people have been divorced once before because they have no feelings.

Now that they are reunited, even if there is an emotional recombination, the feelings are definitely not that deep.

And as far as she knows, people who get divorced and get back together usually get separated again.

Because the first time together couldn't make it through, how could it be possible to make it through the second time together.

So, as long as there is any small misunderstanding or conflict between these two people, their relationship will collapse.

Just wait, she will separate them sooner or later, and then snatch Fu Jingting over.

She must get the man she likes.

Thinking of Fu Jingting's incomparably handsome face, and the power and wealth he possessed, Rong Yuan's breathing became quicker, her heartbeat was so fast that she couldn't calm down, and her eyes were full of ambition.

She must not let go of such a high-quality man.

She has always believed that there is no corner that cannot be dug.

What's more, it was the corner of the wall dug by calmly Shu, and it was even more exciting to think about it.

Rong Yuan clenched her fists, her eyes flashing with determination to win.

But now this is not enough, where people are, she can snatch it at any time.

The most urgent thing right now is Rong Yuan's life experience.

Thinking of this, Rong Shu tidied up the messy clothes and hair she had just struggled to vent, and then called in her assistant.

"Vice President Rong, do you have any orders?" The assistant asked in a formulaic manner when he saw the mess in the office, a flash of surprise flashed in his eyes, and soon disappeared.

Rong Yuan raised her chin and looked arrogant, "You, clean my office, remember, there can be no dust, if I find you haven't cleaned it before I come back, wait for me Come on, hum."

After speaking, she stepped on her high heels and ran away from the assistant and left the office.

The assistant rubbed his shoulders, his face full of grievances and humiliation.

She hated this vice president.

Since she was transferred to this vice president, she has been tossed by this vice president.

This vice president can't do anything, and he is a good hand in torturing people.

Just wait, she must find a chance to be transferred away from this idiot vice president.

The assistant took a breath, sorted out his mood, picked up the broom and started cleaning.

On the other side, Rong Yuan came to Rong Shu's office, raised her hand and slammed the door hard.

Rong Shu was signing a document at the moment, and suddenly heard the sound of bang bang bang on the door. She was so frightened that she made a mistake with the tip of her pen and scratched a long mark on the document.

Seeing this trace, Rong Shu's face suddenly sank, and there was even more anger in his eyes.

"Who's knocking on the door?" Rong Shu pursed her red lips and asked in a cold voice.

She still politely said knock on the door, but did not say knock on the door.

This sound, it is not an exaggeration to say that a robber smashed the door.

"It's me." The people outside heard Rong Shu's question and replied in a high voice.

Rong Shu narrowed her beautiful eyes, and a sneer appeared on her face.

Yes, only Rong Yuan would do such a thing.

Even Duan Xingbang would not be stupid enough to smash the door.

It seems that you still want to go to the hospital when you have trouble just after being discharged from the hospital?

Rong Shu put down the pen in his hand, closed the torn document, and put it aside, planning to have Secretary Tong reprint it later.

Fortunately, this is not a particularly important document, nor is it an original with the official seal of another company that cannot be reprinted.

Otherwise, she must make Rong Yuan look good.

"What's the matter with you?" Rong Shu moved her slightly sore wrists and asked directly, without letting Rong Yuan come in.

Rong Yuan outside the door also heard it, and her face was full of dissatisfaction.

But soon, she smiled proudly, then pushed open the door of Rong Shu's office and walked in.

Seeing this, Rong Shu's face became even more ugly, and her voice became even colder, "Who let you in, get out!"

She pointed to the door.

Chapter 688 Raging Shu

However, not only was Rong Yuan not frightened by her majesty, but instead she curled her lips in disdain and walked towards her desk.

Rong Shu clenched her palms tightly, her voice full of anger, "Rong Yuan, do you dare not listen to me?"

Rong Yuan sneered, "Why should I listen to you, you really consider yourself my sister? Oh, a wild breed is also worthy of being my sister!"

Rong Shu's pupils shrank, "You..."

"Are you surprised, how did I know that you are not my father's biological daughter?" Rong Yuan stood opposite her desk, He crossed his arms and said sarcastically.

Rong Shu pursed her red lips and said nothing.

She fell into Rong Yuan's eyes like this, which was obviously the default meaning.

Rong Yuan picked up the big burgundy wave, "At first, I really didn't know your true identity, I thought you were really my father's daughter, until I heard some words in the hospital a few days ago, and then I didn't know your true identity. The body became very interested, I was thinking, why would you match Gu Yaotian's kidney, and then I went to check your physical examination information and found that your blood type is very different from your father's blood type, father is blood type B, not at all. You may have been born, so of course you are not your father's daughter, but a wild child born to your mother and some wild man!"

"Don't slander my mother." Rong Shu's face changed suddenly, and she suddenly slapped the table and stood up .

That voice made the unprepared Rong Yuan tremble and her face turned pale, "You...why are you so excited?"

Rong Shu's eyes were red and she stared at her coldly, "Apologize to my mother. !"

"Why?" Rong Yuan's neck froze, and she was suddenly unconvinced.

Rong Shu's hand on the table slowly held a water glass, her voice was cold as if from the ice hell, "It's up to you to insult my mother!"

Rong Yuan rolled her eyes, with a contemptuous smile on her face, "I didn't insult your mother, I'm telling the truth, otherwise your blood type, why is this, it can be seen that your mother cheated and betrayed father, I'm sorry that my father was kept in the dark all his life, foolishly acting as a pick-up man, raising other people's wild seeds to eat and drink, so Rong Shu, your mother is a bitch..." Before she finished, Rong Shu couldn't listen anymore, and slammed the water glass in her hand at her.

The water cup just hit Rong Yuan's forehead, Rong Yuan's forehead was torn, and the blood mixed with the tea that she was drinking water flowed down, looking very oozing and embarrassed.

And Rong Yuan was also smashed and took two steps back. Finally, the heels of her high-heeled shoes were blocked by the wrinkled carpet. She lost her footing and sat on the ground.

But she didn't care about the pain in her buttocks. She quickly touched the thing that was about to fall off her face with her hands. The touch was wet.

She quickly put her hands in front of her and saw the blood on her hands, she screamed in fright, "Ah! I'm bleeding, I'm bleeding!"

Rong Shu grabbed the desk with both hands. He was panting hard.

While panting, she looked at the crazy Rong Yuan, not regretting her actions just now.

Who made Rong Yuan dare to insult her mother?

Her mother, no one is qualified to insult her!

"Rong Shu, you dare to smash me, you dare to smash me!" Rong Yuan suddenly stood up from the ground, looked left and right, saw the solid wood pen holder on Rong Shu's desk, a trace of resentment flashed in her eyes, and then violently He grabbed the pen holder and smashed it towards Rong Shu.

Rong Shu knew that Rong Yuan was a person who always wanted to retaliate, and also knew that she had just hit her, and she would call back.

So, she was prepared from the beginning. When she saw the pen holder flying towards her, not only was she not surprised at all, but she calmly turned to the side and avoided the pen holder.

The pen holder smashed onto the bookshelf behind Rong Shu, smashing the glass of a bookcase, making a loud noise.

Secretary Tong in the next office heard it, and ran over to check the situation quickly, "Chairman, what happened?"

She saw Rong Shu and Rong Yuan standing face to face, and immediately understood what happened.

That Rong Yuan's face was distorted, like an evil spirit, and now she is here to trouble the chairman.

"Chairman, are you okay?" Secretary Tong asked worriedly, standing at the door.

Rong Shu waved her hand, "It's okay."

"Chairman, do you need me to call the security guard?" Secretary Tong looked at Rong Yuan vigilantly.

Rong Shu shook her head, "No, I don't need it for the time being, you go out first, I can handle it."

"But..."

Secretary Tong was worried and wanted to say something, Rong Shu waved again, "Go."

No way, Tong The secretary could only nod, "Yes."

She withdrew, but did not call the security guard as Rong Shu said.

On the contrary, she not only called the security guard, but also kept the security guard closely at the door. If there was anything wrong with the chairman inside, she hurried in to help.

In the office, when Rong Yuan saw that Rong Shu had dodged her attack, her face was hideous.

She pointed at Rong Shu, and said sharply, "You... how dare you hide?"

Wild?

A glint flashed in Rong Shu's eyes, and then she walked directly around the desk to Rong Yuan, then raised her palm and slapped Rong Yuan.

The sound was very clear and loud.

Rong Yuan fell to the ground again, raised her hand to cover her hot face, and was completely stunned.

She... she was beaten again?

Rong Shu didn't slap Rong Yuan, she let go of Rong Yuan's intention, she squatted down, grabbed Rong Yuan's chin with her left hand, broke Rong Yuan's face over, and then slapped her with her right hand again.

With a few crisp snaps, Rong Shu opened her bow from side to side, directly smashing Rong Yuan's face.

Rong Yuan finally came to her senses. She couldn't believe that she was being beaten like a dead dog. While angry, she felt even more humiliated.

She pushed Rong Shu hard, and then screamed and rushed towards Rong Shu, "Rong Shu, you bitch, you dare to beat me, then look I won't kill you!" Outside the door, Secretary Tong Hearing this, his expression became condensed, and then he waved his hand quickly, "Go in, keep people under control, and don't let her really hurt the chairman."

"Yes." After the two security guards responded, they pushed the door and went in, and acted resolutely. He put Rong Yuan's hands in his arms and pulled Rong Yuan away from Rong Shu.

Rong Shu breathed a sigh of relief, then moved the wrist that resisted Rong Yuan's strength and looked at Rong Yuan coldly.

Rong Yuan was inferior to her in height and strength.

But once a person goes berserk, his strength will naturally double.

Rong Yuan was like this just now, she probably lost her mind after being beaten by her, so the strength was not just blowing, she was starting to struggle to resist.

If the two security guards hadn't arrived in time, I'm afraid she would have been hit by Rong Yuan in the end.

"Ah ah, let go of me, you let me go, do you know who I am? I am the vice president of Tiansheng Group and the real owner of Tiansheng Group. You dare to treat me like this, believe it or not, I want you to look good! Rong Yuan struggled hard under the restraint of the two security guards, while struggling, she roared with her eyes split open.

Rong Shu cast a look at the two security guards, motioning them to ignore Rong Yuan and just grab the person.

The two security guards naturally listened to her. After all, the chairman and the vice president were older, and they could still clearly distinguish.

“Oh? The real owner of Tiancheng Group?” Rong Shu came to the captured Rong Yuan and snorted sarcastically, “You still have the guts to say this? Just rely on the five percent in your hand. What qualifications do you have to say that you are the owner of Tianzhu?”

Chapter 689

“Just because Tiancheng is the family business of the Rong family, just because I am my father’s biological daughter, the only biological daughter!” Rong Shu’s face showed a crazy and smug smile, “And you, Rong Shu, are just your mother. The one who cheated and gave birth, even the father doesn’t know whose wild species, so the person who is least qualified to inherit Tianzhu is you!”

As soon as these words came out, the two security guards and Secretary Tong were stunned.

The security guards are okay, although they are surprised, although they really want to know if what Vice President Rong said is true, and whether the chairman is really not the daughter of the former chairman, but they are more aware that they are only the lowest security guards.

No matter how much gossip they gossip, they have to pretend they didn’t hear anything, just be a deaf person and do their own thing, otherwise they will lose their jobs.

Secretary Tong didn’t have to worry too much, she stepped forward and glared at Rong Yuan, “What nonsense are you talking about, the chairman is not the wife of the derailment!”

She actually knew that the chairman was not the daughter of the Rong family.

This matter, as the secretary of the chairman, the chairman told her.

Therefore, the chairman was adopted by the ex-chairman’s wife, not the ex-chairman’s wife who cheated on him.

This Rong Yuan didn’t understand the situation at first glance, she was talking nonsense here.

But Rong Yuan didn't know what Secretary Tong was thinking, she stared at Rong Shu and smiled sullenly, "I'm talking nonsense? If you have the ability, let Rong Shu do an appraisal with me, once it is identified, we are not Sister, that Rong Shu is naturally the wild seed of her mother's derailment. If her mother hadn't cheated and gave birth to her secretly, and kept her father secret, how could her father raise her, how could she inherit Tianzhu and become Tianzhu The chairman of the group, Tiansheng Group is the family business of the Rong family. All of this should be mine. She is a wild breed. Why should she step on the head of my serious Rong family daughter? , so Rong Shu, you'd better return the shares in your hand to me, and then get out of Tiancheng!"

"Ha." Rong Shu sneered, then reached out and patted Rong Yuan's face, looking at Rong Yuan like an idiot, "You are right, I am indeed not the biological daughter of the Rong family, but I am not me either. Mom cheated, so you want to use this to get me to hand over the shares in my hand, but I'm afraid it won't come true."

"You are the party, and of course you refuse to admit that you were cheating." Rong Yuan raised her head, contemptuous. said.

Rong Shu snapped her nails, "You're stupid, you're really not smart, Rong Yuan, you don't know the inheritance law, don't say I'm not a cheating student, even if I am, as long as I get into the Rong family's account , I am a serious member of the Rong family, the heir of the Rong family, I also own it, so you are still not qualified to let me hand over the shares."

"This is impossible!" Rong Yuan's face changed slightly, and she roared sharply. .

Before Rong Shu could speak, Secretary Tong rolled her eyes at her, "Vice President Rong, this is indeed a fact, whether it is our country or other countries, the inheritance law is the same, if you don't believe it, you can consult Lawyer."

"How could..." Rong Yuan opened her mouth, obviously unable to accept this fact.

"Why, this is unbearable?" The corner of Rong Shu's mouth pulled out a cool arc, "And what makes you even more unbearable, you have just been emphasizing that Tiancheng Group is the family business of the Rong family, so it can only be The Rong family inherited it, yes, the Tiancheng Group six years ago was indeed a family business, but the current Tiancheng is not."

"You are talking nonsense!" Rong Yuan's face was grim.

"The chairman is not talking nonsense." Secretary Tong pushed the black-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose, "don't you know that the former chairman six years ago mortgaged 40% of his shares to prepare for funds. , so from that moment on, Tiancheng Group is no longer the family business of the Rong family, but a joint fundraising company."

“Tongxi, if you tell her this, she can’t understand it, so let’s make it simpler.” Rong Shu sneered and glanced at Tong Xi.

“Yes.” Secretary Tong responded, and then said again, “Vice President Rong, let me tell you this, the part in the chairman’s hands is not inherited from the previous chairman, you come to Tiancheng for this point. It was known from time to time that the shares in the chairman’s hands belonged to the chairman’s grandfather, and Mr. Lu and the others helped to acquire them from other shareholders. They no longer belonged to the original shares of the Rong family, but belonged to the chairman himself. Whether the chairman is the Rong family or not, you are not qualified to take this share, even if you go to a lawsuit.”

“Did you hear it clearly?” Rong Shu patted Rong Yuan’s face again, “So you want to use me It’s not about the Rong family, grabbing my shares is simply impossible, from the beginning, you will not succeed.”

After listening to them, Rong Yuan’s face was dull, her eyes were full of confusion and confusion. The color of the color, she even muttered in disbelief, “How... is this possible, how can things turn out like this?”

When she came, she was so high-spirited that she even thought that she would definitely not fail this trip. .

She had even thought about how to humiliate Rong Shu after grabbing the shares.

But it turned out to be so!

“Chairman, she seems stupid.” Secretary Tong looked at Rong Yuan blankly and said in a low voice.

Rong Shu took her hand off Rong Yuan’s face, went back to the desk, took out two wet wipes, wiped her fingers carefully, and replied lightly, “I didn’t get what I wanted, can you be stupid?”

“Tell me that she is stupid.” Secretary Tong sarcastically, “if you have a little brain, you will definitely find out if you can come this trip, but she is good, knowing that you are not the daughter of the Rong family, so she is hot-headed. Running over, he doesn’t even have basic legal knowledge, such a person is destined to fail.”

“You’re right.” Rong Shu smiled, and quickly suppressed the smile on her face, her face expressionless. Instructed the two security guards, “Throw her out to me. “

“Yes, chairman.” The two security guards responded, and then went out with Rong Yuan, who had not recovered.

Secretary Tong thought for a while and said, "I'll go too, by the way, tell them not to talk nonsense."

"Well." Rong Shu nodded.

After Secretary Tong left, she pulled out the chair and sat down again, then rubbed her eyebrows and took a long breath.

Being so troubled by Rong Yuan, her whole head was aching at the moment.

But this time it wasn't without unexpected gains, at least I knew how Rong Yuan knew that she was not the biological daughter of the Rong family.

Rong Yuan said that she heard in the hospital that after she and Shen and Gu Yaotian were matched, she suspected that she was not the daughter of the Rong family.

It was obviously the scene where he had a conversation with Li Zhaodi that day, and was seen by Rong Yuan.

At that time, Rong Yuan happened to be hospitalized in the hospital.

What she didn't expect was that Rong Yuan was actually so alert, just because she and Gu Yaotian's kidneys were matched, she began to doubt her identity.

However, during this time, she had been thinking about why she matched Gu Yaotian's kidney.

Lin Tianchen said before that Gu Yaotian's body and blood type are special, so it is difficult to find a suitable match.

But it happened that such a difficult thing happened to her, and she actually matched with Gu Yaotian.

Does this really mean that the grievances between the Rong Gu family are the most ridiculous pranks of God?

Rong Shu helplessly sneered, then went to get the broom in the corner, ready to clean up the mess on the ground.

She didn't doubt that her kidney was compatible with Gu Yaotian, and it had nothing to do with Gu Yaotian, and she didn't even think about the fact that she was Gu Yaotian's daughter.

After all, more than 20 years ago, the hatred between Dad and Gu Yaotian was so deep, how could he possibly raise the enemy's daughter.

Chapter 690 Never Let Go

Therefore, the reason why her kidneys matched with Gu Yaotian was pure coincidence.

It's just too disgusting to be coincidental.

Rong Shu rubbed her cheeks, she stopped thinking about it, picked up the broom and started to clean the ground.

On the other side, Rong Yuan, who was thrown back to her office by the security guard, was in a panic, and she was furious.

Not to mention that she was beaten all over by Rong Shu and was injured, let's just say that this surnamed Tong actually let two security guards take her past the doors of various departments, deliberately letting everyone see her embarrassed appearance. To humiliate her on purpose.

"Ah ah ah!" Rong Yuan, who had been freed, stood in her office, her hands clenched into fists, stomping her feet angrily and screaming, "Tong Xi, wait for me, I will never let go. You, even if you have Rong Shu's backing, I will return Jing Ting's shame to you sooner or later."

Secretary Tong, who had walked to the door with the two security guards, stopped when he heard this, turned his head and looked at it with a light smile. Rong Yuan, like a mad woman, said, "Well, then I'll wait."

She wasn't afraid of this Rong Yuan.

Not to mention that the chairman would not watch her being bullied by Rong Yuan, but she could confidently fight this Rong Yuan's stupid brain.

Seeing Secretary Tong's look of contempt and indifference, Rong Yuan almost fell over in anger.

This woman didn't even care about her at all.

Even her cruel words are considered a joke, which is too proud!

"You...you..." Rong Yuan's face was flushed, and she pointed at Secretary Tong with trembling fingers, unable to speak.

Secretary Tong pushed his glasses, turned his head, and ignored her.

Otherwise, it will be troublesome if the real qi faints in a while.

“Let’s go.” Secretary Tong ordered the two security guards and left Rong Yuan’s office first.

The two security guards then went out and politely closed the door.

Rong Yuan was the only one left in the office. She stomped her hands and feet again, screaming like she was venting.

The loud voices in the next office can be heard.

Someone even stuck their head out the door and looked in the direction of her office, “What’s going on here?”

Someone didn’t know what was going on.

But some people guessed a little bit, curled their lips and said, “What else could happen? It must have been eaten by the chairman, and now I have a temper in the office.”

“This voice sounds terrible.”

“What’s this? If you saw her angry face, it would be scary. It’s like an evil ghost, not to mention scary.

” It’s funny.”

For a while, the assistant secretaries in this office all laughed, and they didn’t feel that there was anything wrong with making fun of their boss behind their backs.

Who made them dislike the newly appointed Vice President Rong.

Obviously they are not the secretary and assistant of Vice President Rong, but the Vice President Rong treats them like slaves, and if they do anything wrong, they will be scolded.

In their hearts, they had long complained about Vice President Rong.

Now that they learned that the vice president Rong had been deflated by the chairman, they couldn’t be more happy.

Rong Yuan didn’t know that she had become the ugly devil in the mouths of others. She smashed all the things in her office that could be smashed and smashed all the things that could not be smashed, and she also kicked them all over the place.

After so much venting, she managed to calm down, sitting on the sofa and gasping for breath.

She has grown up so much, and she has never suffered so much humiliation.

After returning to China, every humiliation she suffered was brought to her by Rong Shu.

She absolutely, will never let Rong Shu go!

Since she can't use Rong Shu's identity to regain Tiancheng's shares, then she will ruin Rong Shu's reputation and let everyone know that Rong Shu is a wild breed!

Thinking about it, Rong Yuan raised her scarlet eyes with a sinister and malicious smile on her face. She picked up her mobile phone and made a call, "It's me, I have a big idea.

" afternoon.

Rong Shu was still busy with her work, when the phone she put aside suddenly rang.

She put down the pen in her hand, picked up the phone and glanced at it, Fu Jingting's three words kept beating on the screen.

Rong Shu smiled, and the somewhat confused head tortured by work gradually became clearer at this moment.

She leaned back on the back of the chair, then swiped her thumb on the screen, and put the phone to her ear, "Hello?"

"Are you done?" Fu Jingting's low and sweet voice came from the phone, and it made everyone feel numb. .

Rong Shu subconsciously sat up straight and hummed, "It's almost there, have you already come?"

"I'm already here, downstairs." Fu Jingting rolled down the car window, sat on the front of the car and raised his head towards the building in front of him. A balcony to see.

After hearing what he said, Rong Shu immediately got up, "Wait a minute, I'll take a look." After she finished speaking, she trotted to the balcony, leaned on the railing with one hand and looked down, and she saw the familiar Phantom.

Due to the raised floor, Rong Shu couldn't see the people in the car, but that didn't prevent her from raising her hand and waving at the people in the car twice.

Fu Jingting chuckled, "I saw you."

“Okay, then wait for me, I’ll come down immediately.” Rong Shu put down her hand and said.

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, “Don’t be in a hurry, it doesn’t matter if you come down later, I’m right here, I’m not going anywhere, you can see me when you want to come down.”

Rong Shu’s heartbeat quickened when he said this, and his face couldn’t help turning red, “Okay, shut up now, where did you learn these words?”

“Learn?” Fu Jingting tilted his head slightly, “These words Do you still need to learn?” Is n’t it all natural to say it out of love?

Rong Shu didn’t know whether to laugh or cry, “Okay, okay, you don’t have to learn, you are born to talk so sweetly, okay, okay, okay, I won’t tell you, I’ll go in and pack my things.”

“Go.” Fu Jingting nodded.

Hanging up the phone, Rong Shu smiled at the Phantom below and turned back to the office.

When Fu Jingting saw her go in, he also rolled up the car window to cut off the different eyes from outside.

In the office, after Rong Shu returned to her desk, she closed all the documents and stuffed them in the drawer, then took out the bracelet that was locked during the day and put it in her bag, turned off the computer, and walked to the door.

Soon, Rong Shu came to Fu Jingting’s car.

Before she could lift her hand to knock on the door and window of the car, the door suddenly opened and was pushed out.

Rong Shu took a step back, allowing the door to be pushed further open.

Fu Jingting got out of the car and saw that the hair in front of Rong Shu’s forehead was a little messy. He stretched out his hand to straighten it for her, his movements were very gentle, “He ran over?”

“How do you know?” Rong Shu opened her eyes in surprise.

After she left the office, she trotted all the way to the elevator.

After getting out of the elevator, he trotted all the way out.

When she came out, she also met a department manager. The manager teased her for running in such a hurry, was she in a hurry to see President Fu.

She immediately reacted, yes, even if she wanted to see Fu Jingting, she didn't need to be in such a hurry.

Otherwise, it will make people feel that she can't wait to see a man.

So, she slowed down and walked to Fu Jingting's car after leaving the group.

Unexpectedly, he still saw that she was running.

Does he see through?

Seeing to see what Rong Shu was thinking, Fu Jingting chuckled, "I can see that your hair is messed up."
