This Time, I Will Get My Divorce Chapter 901

"It's not funny!" Fu Jingting replied with a cold expression.

Rong Shu smiled, "Are you angry?"

She looked at the man's stern face, obviously very angry.

Fu Jingting held Rong Shu's face in both hands, "I'm angry, and I'm very angry, do you know why?"

Rong Shu blinked and didn't answer, obviously she didn't know.

Fu Jingting sighed, "I'm angry because you teased him in front of Su Cheng. Do you know that if you tease him, he becomes angry and starts to do something to you on the spot, what should you do?"

"I know it's wrong?" "Rong Shu finally knew where the man was angry, because he was afraid that she would get hurt.

She took the man's hand away from her face, "Actually, after I finished teasing, I realized that I was a little impulsive, and I regretted it, and I was worried that Su Cheng would do something to me, but fortunately Su Cheng still He didn't do anything to me if he had scruples."

"You should be glad that he has scruples, if he didn't, I'm afraid you would not be here now, but at Lin Tianchen's place." Fu Jingting frowned.

Rong Shu shook his arm, "Okay, don't be angry, didn't I know I was wrong, I won't be so impulsive in the future."

She said coquettishly.

Fu Jingting looked at her pitifully blinking eyes, and frowned helplessly, "It's fine if not."

"Definitely not." Rong Shu nodded quickly to assure.

Fu Jingting flicked her forehead, "Besides, what did Su Cheng say after he turned his face?"

"He told me not to rush to make a conclusion so early, and gave me two days to think about it, and said maybe I would change. The idea is not necessarily." Rong Shu said lightly with red lips.

Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes, "Change your mind?"

"Well, that's what he said, and from what I saw at the time, he was very sure, as if he had decided that after two days of thinking about it, he would definitely change his mind."

Fu Jingting's thin lips pursed, "So, he should have some bargaining chips in his hand, otherwise he wouldn't say such a thing."

"I think so too." Rong Shu played with his big hand, her eyes filled with puzzlement. "It's just, I don't think I have any bargaining chips in his hands, so that he can threaten me."

She has been thinking about this issue since she came back. After thinking about it for so long, she didn't think of any problems place.

Therefore, she was sure that she had no bargaining chip in Su Cheng's hands.

Fu Jingting looked at Rong Shu, "Since you don't know, don't think about it. After two days, you will know what he is thinking about."

"Well." Rong Shu nodded, "I think so too."

"When the time comes, I will see him with you." Fu Jingting said again.

Rong Shu did not refuse.

Facing Su Cheng by herself, she was indeed a little worried. With Fu Jingting, she would definitely feel more at ease.

Speaking of, Su Cheng didn't say that she couldn't bring anyone to see her in two days.

"Is there anything else?" Fu Jingting asked again.

Rong Shu shook her head, "No, he just said this to me, but" she looked up at him with obvious hesitation in her eyes.

Seeing her like this, Fu Jingting immediately realized that she still had something to say, and it was related to him.

"Just say what you want." Fu Jingting stroked her smooth hair.

Rong Shu took a breath, "Okay, then I'll say it. Before Su Cheng mentioned to me that before letting me let Su Man go, he once told me that he came here not only for Su Man's business, but also for Su Man's business. I want to see an old friend, although he didn't clearly say who that old friend is, but I'm pretty sure he's talking about your mother."

Hearing this, Fu Jingting's face changed instantly, and his breath was suppressed.

Rong Shu felt it, and quickly clenched his hand, "Fu Jingting, you"

She was about to say something when Fu Jingting suddenly spoke first, "I'm fine."

His voice was hoarse, mixed with deep coldness, "Look at my mother? Oh, a betrayal, he still has the face to look at her? In the past 30 years, I have never come to Fu's house to see her, and after her death, I have never paid tribute to her, but to come to see her now makes people feel extremely hypocritical."

Rong Shu nodded in agreement.

But no, after 30 years of indifference, and now running here, it doesn't make people feel so moved or affectionate, and some, it's just nausea.

If this Su Cheng has a heart and has seen Fu Jingting's mother in Haishi in the past, or worshipped Fu Jingting's mother, she can also say that this person has a little conscience.

But now, it's fine if she doesn't spit it out directly.

"By the way, Fu Jingting, do you know?" Suddenly thinking of something, Rong Shu patted Fu Jingting's thigh.

Fu Jingting felt his thighs go numb for a moment, and couldn't help raising his eyebrows, "What did you say?"

Rong Shu said quickly, "It's Su Cheng's appearance, I originally thought that he must be a man with five big and three thick, and fierce. The man, but did not expect that he is actually very elegant and has a very gentle temperament. He wears a white Tang suit and holds a short cane that symbolizes his status. He looks like a scholar and artist. Two extremes."

"I know, I've seen his picture." After Fu Jingting heard the woman's words, nothing changed on his face.

Obviously, he already knew Su Cheng's appearance and temperament.

That's right, Su Cheng is what he thinks is the enemy who killed his father. Even if he doesn't die, it's just like Su Cheng's old relationship with his mother.

It is also impossible for him not to get to know Sucheng.

But what Rong Shu was trying to tell him was not Su Cheng's appearance, but Su Cheng's character and temperament.

Rong Shu bit her lower lip and asked tentatively, "Fu Jingting, do you remember what character you used to be? I mean, before you were hypnotized."

Fu Jingting squinted, "Why are you asking this?"

Rong Shu's eyes flashed, "Don't ask me first, answer me first, hurry up."

She urged him by shaking his arm.

Fu Jingting couldn't help but couldn't stand her coquettishness, so he could only answer, "gentle?"

"What else?" Rong Shu looked at him and continued to ask.

Fu Jingting smiled, "I love to laugh, and I often have a gentle smile on my face."

These were all her descriptions of him in the past.

Now, he moved out and copied it.

But in fact, he didn't even remember what he was like in the past.

Because of hypnosis, he has long forgotten about his past self, and now his character is formed after being hypnotized.

It can't change back to what it used to be.

Rong Shu sighed, "You're right, you were like this in the past, but I want to know, who cultivated your character in the past?"

"My mother." Fu Jingting didn't hesitate. He replied, "My father and my grandmother only pay attention to my education and morality. They don't interfere in terms of personality, because everyone's personality is independent, and they don't care about my personality. After all, as long as education and morality are correct, it doesn't matter what the personality is, but my mother doesn't think so, so my past personality journey was largely influenced by her. She hopes that her son will be a gentle person. She is my mother. Abolish me, I will not rebel against her."

To him, he doesn't really care about his personality.

Because the thought is his own.

Thought does not conflict with character, his mind is clear, and the mismatch between character and thought will not affect any of his decisions.

So he grew up the way his mother wanted him to, until ten years after his mother's death, he still did.

It was not until after being hypnotized that he regained a new indifference and the gentle Fu Jingting from the past disappeared.

Although it's a pity, some are sorry for his mother, but for some reason, he is actually relieved to have changed his personality.

In the past, Fu Jingting was praised by everyone and his mother was very proud, but he was under a lot of pressure.

No one knew that he didn't like his old self.

Because he could feel many times that his mother was looking at others through himself.

"As expected." After hearing the man's words, Rong Shu sighed with emotion.

Seeing this, Fu Jingting had a vague premonition in his heart. He raised her chin and asked her to look at him, "What really happened? You suddenly mentioned my past character, is there something wrong?" The man's insight was still so sharp.

Rong Shu's red lips moved, and after a while, she bit her lips and hummed, "Fu Jingting, the first time I saw Su Cheng today, I thought of you in the past."

"What?" Fu Jingting frowned.

Rong Shu took a breath and said again, "When I see Su Cheng, I seem to see you in the past, that gentle, elegant boy in white, you know? You both feel the same to me, you are too similar, it's not your appearance, it's your character and temperament. Of course, I'm referring to you in the past. You are completely different from him now. You were almost exactly the same as him in the past. So, do you understand?"

She looked at him, and the meaning was clear.

His character is exactly the same as Su Cheng.

Even bluntly, his character was deliberately cultivated towards Su Cheng.

And that person was his mother.

Because she just asked who cultivated his past character.

Now she said that he used to have the same character as Su Cheng, and that's what she meant.

Fu Jingting was not a fool, so it was impossible for him to understand what Rong Shu was saying.

Just because he understood it, at this moment he felt that his mind was blank, and his body was tense again.

He clenched his fists suddenly, stared at Rong Shu, and asked in a hoarse and trembling voice, "What did you say? I used to have the same character as Su Cheng?"

He never really saw Su Cheng, only I have seen photos of Sioux City.

Although I have heard others say about Su Cheng's character and how he behaves in the world, he never thinks that he is very similar to Su Cheng.

No one else will tell him.

Therefore, he really didn't know that he and Su Cheng were actually similar!

Seeing the man's apparent excitement, Rong Shu nodded reluctantly, "Yes."

She knew that the man must be feeling very uncomfortable at this moment.

After all, he grew up as his mother wanted him to grow up. In order to realize his mother's wish, he gave up the character he wanted and finally grew into a character that his mother liked.

He did it all to make his mother happy.

But in the end, someone told him that his mother raised him like this, not because the mother likes a gentle son, but because the mother wants to realize her longing for another man through him.

Anyone who knows this will not feel good.

What's more, he was a proud man like Fu Jingting.

Fu Jingting lowered his head slightly and said nothing, making it difficult to see his expression at the moment.

But Rong Shu knew from the repressed air-conditioning exuding from his body that he was very angry at the moment, very angry.

I just don't know who he is mad at.

Angry at Su Cheng, mad at her, or mad at his own mother!

After a while, Fu Jingting suddenly raised his head, revealing a pair of red, bloodshot eyes looking at Rong Shu, his voice became more hoarse, and there was an indescribable feeling in it, "I want to calm down."

Rong Shu knew that he was not feeling well at the moment, and all kinds of emotions were intertwined. If he didn't calm down, problems would arise sooner or later.

Thinking, Rong Shu nodded and agreed, "Okay, then I'll go back to the room first."

"No." Fu Jingting took her hand and stopped her from getting up, "I'll just go to the study."

He let go of the words. With her hands, she stood up and walked towards the study.

Even at this time, even if his heart was already in chaos, he did not let her back down, but chose to back down himself.

This man

, Rong Shu looked at his tall and straight back, but now it was bent a little, as if something was piercing his heart, it was very uncomfortable, and his eyes were full of distress.

A proud man whose birth is the end of others, who is looked up to by others, and who is outstanding and unmatched, suddenly bends his spine at this moment, how can it not be shocking and sighing.

And the person who made him bend his spine was his biological mother, the biological mother he had always respected.

Although his biological mother brought him into this world because he wanted to be free, he still loves and respects her.

But he didn't expect that he has always loved him, and his good biological mother, in the mother's love for him, was also mixed with heart-piercing glass slag.

His biological mother wants a son with a gentle character, just because the person she loves is gentle, and she can't see the person she loves, so she raises her son to be exactly the same as the person she loves, so that through her son, to ease your thoughts of your lover.

Is it really what a mother should do to treat her son as a substitute for her lover?

It was precisely because he was Su Cheng's stand-in that Fu Jingting bent his back.

In this world, everyone is unique and should not be a substitute for anyone.

But a proud man like Fu Jingting became a stand-in when he didn't know it. How could he not be beaten? Under this blow, no matter how hard his spine was, he had to bend.

Because the fatal blow to him was his beloved and respected mother, not his own enemy!

Sometimes, the most painful wound on the body is not given by the enemy, but by the closest person. Thinking of this, Rong Shu

's eyes turned red, she squeezed her palms and stood up suddenly from the sofa, and shouted to Fu Jingting's back, "Fu Jingting."

The door handle was about to open the door when he heard Rong Shu's voice and stopped again, but he didn't turn his head or respond.

Rong Shu looked at his back and said seriously, "Fu Jingting, in fact, I never told you. I always regret that you have not changed back to the gentle Fu Jingting you used to be."

Hearing this, Fu Jingting froze for a moment. , the eyes became more and more red.

what does she mean?

She wants him to continue to be Sioux City's stand-in?

Just when Fu Jingting was about to turn around and ask the question clearly, Rong Shu spoke again, "But I don't think so now, I'm glad you didn't change back to the old Fu Jingting, because I only know now that you were the only person in the past. It's not the real you. Although the current you is a re-formed character due to hypnosis, it was formed by yourself, not influenced by others. Perhaps, this is the character you should have originally, and it is also what you like and want. His character, so I am very happy now, and I am happy for you, Fu Jingting congratulations, you have finally become yourself!"

When she didn't know the source of his character in the past, she really regretted that he did not change back to the way he used to be. Because what she loves most is the gentle him in the past.

Who doesn't love a gentle and elegant boy in white.

But now that she knew that his tenderness in the past came like this, she no longer felt pity.

Even, she suddenly thanked Gu Manyin for finding Shi Mo and hypnotized Fu Jingting, so that Fu Jingting indirectly had his true character.

Rong Shu's Appeasement

When Fu Jingting heard Rong Shu's words, his eyes widened, and then he turned around suddenly.

Although his eyes were still red, his pupils were trembling.

He was excited, in ecstasy.

Because of what Rong Shu said!

He thought that she was regretting why he didn't continue to be Su Cheng's stand-in and didn't change back to the gentle Fu Jingting in the past.

For this reason, there was a surge of anger in his heart, and he wanted to ask her if she really liked him so much in the past?

If he in the past was really just a character purely cultivated by his mother and not cultivated by anyone, then she liked him in the past, and although he would still be a little unhappy in his heart, he would not be angry.

Because that's the real him.

But it happens that he was trained according to Su Cheng in the past. If she still misses it, how can he bear it?

It's like, she never loved him, only an illusory character.

But fortunately, her next words completely calmed his anger.

It turned out that what she loved was not the illusory character, but the real him.

Otherwise, why would she say that she is glad that he has not changed back to the past?

Because she knew very well that he was not Su Cheng's stand-in, he was Fu Jingting, and he should have his own character, not someone else's character.

So she congratulated him and became herself!

The ecstasy and excitement in his heart could no longer be suppressed. Fu Jingting took three steps at a time, stepped forward quickly, and then hugged Rong Shu fiercely in his arms, as if he wanted to melt the person into his own. the same in the body.

"Rong Shu, Rong Shu, Rong Shu!" Fu Jingting leaned against Rong Shu's ear and kept calling her name.

Every sound is so heavy, and the emotion in it is as heavy as his tone.

Rong Shu looked at the man who was so excited and knew why he was so excited.

Because of what she said.

She knew very well how her words would affect men.

When a man knows that he is a substitute that his mother can cultivate, he will subconsciously veto his existence, thinking that he should not come into the world.

He came into the world, but he couldn't be his true self, he could only be a substitute for a person.

So he will feel a sense of disgust and rejection of himself.

And her words are recognition of him, telling him that his existence is meaningful and that he is not someone's substitute.

He is him, he is Fu Jingting.

So Fu Jingting would naturally be excited and hug her to express his joy at the moment.

"Okay." Rong Shu patted Fu Jingting's back with a smile, and said softly, "Let go of me first, you are holding me too tightly, I can't breathe."

Fu Jingting loosened up a little, but didn't Let her go completely and still hold her.

At this moment, he can't let her go, because only by holding her can he be sure that what he just heard is not fake.

Rong Shu felt the attachment from Fu Jingting, helpless and funny.

A man who has always been independent and cold, now sticks to her like a child, the contrast is really funny.

Forget it, if he wants to hold it like this, let him hold it.

Rong Shu didn't let the man let go of her anymore, let the man hold her tightly, then continued to pat him on the back and comforted, "Don't worry, no matter what, you have me and your grandmother by your side. And Wang Shuqin and Fu Jinglin, we all know that you are you, not anyone's substitute."

Although she didn't want to mention Wang Shuqin.

But now, in order to appease the man, she could only endure her disgust towards Wang Shuqin and mentioned Wang Shuqin's name.

Fu Jingting buried his head deeply in Rong Shu's neck. He didn't say a word, but just hummed, saying that he heard her words and took her words to heart.

So Rong Shu didn't say any more after that, the two of them hugged quietly like this.

Knowing that Rong Shu's phone rang, Fu Jingting reluctantly let her go.

She took out her mobile phone and looked at it, and smiled when she saw the caller ID, "It's my aunt, I guess she's here to ask what you like to eat, so that I can prepare dinner tonight."

Fu Jingting glanced at the caller ID, the original negative mood was good After a lot, "You pick it up, I'll go to the study first."

He still had to calm down.

Although she said so much, it gave him some comfort.

But there are other things that he needs to figure out for himself.

After all, that was his mother, and what his mother did to him can only be digested by his son.

Rong Shu also knew this, so when he heard him go back to the study, he didn't object and nodded in agreement.

However, she believed that after her previous enlightenment, he would come out soon.

So she was also assured that he was keeping himself alone.

“Go, I’ll call you at lunch.” Rong Shu looked at Fu Jingting and said.

Fu Jingting nodded slightly, turned around again, and walked to the study.

Rong Shu only called Madam Lu back after seeing him go in.

Just looking at him, Mrs. Lu hung up the phone because she didn’t answer the phone for a long time.

Now she will take the initiative to call over.

In the study, Fu Jingting closed the door of the study, stood with his back against the door, closed his eyes slightly, raised his hand and pinched the bridge of his nose, his expression full of exhaustion.

Physically, spiritually.

He has always believed that although he is a child born by his mother in exchange for freedom, his mother loves him and her feelings for him are pure and nothing else is mixed in it.

But now he realizes how wrong he was.

Mother loves him, but this love is not pure, at least he is far less than Su Cheng’s position in his mother’s heart.

For the sake of Su Cheng, the mother can cultivate herself to look like Su Cheng. In the mother’s heart, as long as she can comfort her pain of not being able to see her lover, it doesn’t matter whether her son has his own character or not!

Thanks to him, in order to make his mother happy and not to disappoint her, he obviously doesn’t like being gentle, but he still tries to make himself gentle.

Just because my mother likes it.

Because he knew that when his mother married his father, he was not happy at all in Fu’s family, so he wanted his mother to be happy, and he would rather become someone he didn’t like.

But in the end, it’s all lies, all lies!

Fu Jingting lowered his head, his two hands beside him tightly clasped together, his arms trembled slightly because of too much force, the veins on the back of his hands bulged, and the breath around him was terrifyingly cold.

He had no doubts about what Rong Shu said, and even believed it immediately.

In the past, he had a feeling that his mother looked at other people through him, but he had never been able to confirm it, thinking that he was wrong.

Now, when Rong Shu said that he had almost the same character as Su Cheng in the past, he understood that he did not read or feel wrong.

The mother is looking at others through him, because he is the substitute of Sucheng specially cultivated by the mother.

Substitute!

What an ironic word.

He, Fu Jingting, the head of the dignified Fu family, could one day become a substitute for a person.

That person may even be his father's enemy!

He couldn't forgive his mother's actions.

He will still respect her, but he will never love her again!

No one can accept that he is another person's stand-in.

He, Fu Jingting, couldn't even more!

The mother took him as a substitute, but did not fully regard him as a son, nor did she love him wholeheartedly.

It doesn't matter, he is not rare anymore.

He has someone who loves him now, Xiao Ye, and his grandmother, and they all love him.

After Xiaoye Ye knew that the past he was cultivated according to others, he could immediately forget the past he left her with a deep memory and accept the new him now.

This feeling is enough to make him remember for a lifetime!

I really want to be desperate

And the grandmother

thought of his wife, and Fu Jingting suddenly realized how surprised and relieved the old lady was when she saw him six years ago.

Six years ago, he had just had a heart transplant and was about to fulfill his promise to meet with Xiaoye Ye.

But before meeting again, he was hypnotized by Shimo.

After hypnosis, his personality changed immediately, he lost his tenderness and was replaced by indifference and indifference.

He remembered clearly that after his personality changed, the first time he saw his grandmother, he also thought of what was wrong at that time.

That is, the grandmother was surprised at the sudden change in his personality, but did not ask him why.

Normally, when a person's personality changes drastically, shouldn't he be asked why he has changed?

Did something happen?

But the grandmother didn't. After a moment of surprise, she immediately grabbed his hand and kept saying that it's good, it's good.

At that time, my grandmother's eyes were all red, and her tears were faintly shed. Those tears were excited and happy.

At that time, he didn't understand why his grandmother was like this, but now he realizes that maybe his grandmother already knew at that time that his character was cultivated by his mother according to Su Cheng.

So seeing his personality change, my grandmother would say that's fine.

And a few months ago, when he had a car accident, his personality changed back to the past.

Although the grandmother didn't say anything at the time, her eyes were worried.

He always thought that the worry was that he was injured in a car accident.

Now that I think about it, my grandmother should be worried that he really changed back to the old Fu Jingting.

The grandmother was worried that he would change back to the old Fu Jingting. Obviously, the grandmother didn't want him to be a stand-in for Su City again.

Grandmother thinks the same as Rong Shu.

So he can say with certainty that both grandmother and Rong Shu love him.

As long as they were behind him and loved him all the time, he wouldn't have to feel self-loathing and self-doubt because of being a stand-in for him.

He also doesn't have to care about his mother's thoughts, and care about his mother's mother's love that is mixed with too many things.

He can let go of his feelings for his mother, because he is someone who cares about him, someone who really and purely looks at him.

Of course, although he figured it out, he was relieved, and he wouldn't hold grudges against his mother. After all, she gave him his life no matter what.

But Su Cheng, he will never let go.

Absolutely not!

Lord, right?

He will let Su Cheng know that there is no one in this world who is the master of his Fu Jingting!

Fu Jingting clenched his fists tightly, his eyes were scarlet, full of killing intent.

At this moment, the phone in his pocket rang, dispelling the depression in the room a little.

Fu Jingting let go of his fists, took out his phone from his pocket and looked at it.

Seeing that it was Assistant Zhang's call, he walked towards the desk and answered the call indifferently, "What's the matter?"

“Mr. Fu, it’s not good, Su Cheng is in the sea market.” On the other end of the phone, Zhang The assistant replied with a very solemn tone.

Fu Jingting hummed, “I already know.”

He pulled out the chair and sat down.

Assistant Zhang was stunned, “Understood?”

Fu Jingting pursed his lips, “Su Cheng came to look for Xiao Ye Zi, and Xiao Ye told me about this.”

After hearing this, Assistant Zhang suddenly realized, “So you are here I received a call from Miss Rong in the conference room, that’s what I said.”

He was also in the conference room at the time, and he also knew that Miss Rong called President Fu.

After all, Mr. Fu had the cell phone in his hand at the time, and he kept it, so he was the first to know of any incoming call.

If it was someone else, he would just hang up and not give it to Mr. Fu. After all, Mr. Fu didn’t like to answer the phone at a meeting.

Except for Miss Rong.

So when he saw that it was Miss Rong’s call, he immediately gave the phone to President Fu.

Sure enough, Mr. Fu answered without hesitation. When he answered, there was a gentle expression on his face, and everyone in the conference room got goosebumps.

They thought that they would be able to see Mr. Fu put down his body and please Miss Rong’s side.

After all, men, once they fall in love, will bend their spines to please women. Everyone comes here. Even if they are as proud as Fu Jingting, they will definitely not be able to escape this curse.

Didn’t you see Mr. Fu’s face blooming when he learned that it was Miss Rong’s phone number?

Based on this alone, President Fu will definitely be able to bend his spine for Miss Rong.

Surprisingly, they didn't see Mr. Fu courting Miss Rong. They only saw Mr. Fu's expression changed immediately after answering the phone. Then, without saying a word, they hung up the phone, grabbed their jackets, and hurried away. In the conference room, the gloomy face is frightening now when I think of it.

As an assistant, he should have left with President Fu.

But that time was at a meeting, so instead of leaving, he stayed and continued to lead the meeting.

Therefore, I don't know what Miss Rong said to Mr. Fu, which made Mr. Fu suddenly change his face and become so angry.

He also guessed if something happened to Miss Rong, such as being injured or something.

But now he learned that it was neither, it was Su Cheng who came to the sea market and went to find Miss Rong.

Su Cheng was the enemy that President Fu identified as murdering his father and mother, and Miss Rong was the person at the heart of President Fu.

When these two people met, how could Fu Jingting's expression remain the same? His anger towards President Fu and his worries towards Miss Rong were intertwined. Naturally, President Fu couldn't sit still and would leave quickly.

After thinking about this, Assistant Zhang was relieved, and then asked with concern, "Then Mr. Fu, is Miss Rong okay? Did Su Cheng do anything to Miss Rong?"

"No." Fu Jingting shook his head slightly.

If Su Cheng dared to take action against Rong Shu, he would no longer care about the national regulations, let alone the Fu family fighting with the Su family, which would make many people homeless and lose their jobs.

He only wants Su Cheng to die!

Yes, if it weren't for the regulations of the state, if it weren't for the hundreds of thousands of employees of the Fu Group, and the hundreds of thousands of innocent employees of the Su Group.

He would not endure it all the time, but went directly to Su Cheng and used extraordinary means to ask whether Su Cheng had killed his father.

He thought, no one can resist illegal interrogation, right?

But he is kind after all. He knows that if he doesn't care about anything and asks Su Cheng, the Fu and Su families will naturally fight.

Once they fight, the most pitiful person is not him and Su Cheng, but all the employees of the two groups.

By then, there will be many people who commit suicide because they cannot survive because of unemployment.

Although he was cold-hearted and didn't take these people to heart, his sense of responsibility and morality from a young age prevented him from doing so.

Otherwise, he might have gotten his revenge long ago.

"It's fine if you don't." Assistant Zhang was relieved when he heard Fu Jingting's answer.

It's not that Rong Shu is nervous, it's that President Fu is nervous.

How much President Fu cares about Miss Rong, it almost goes without saying.

If there is something wrong with Miss Rong, it would be strange that Mr. Fu is not crazy.

"By the way, how did you know that Su Cheng came to Hai Shi?" Fu Jingting asked with narrowed eyes.

He didn't tell anyone about this.

"Did Su Cheng go to the Fu family?" Fu Jingting guessed.

Assistant Zhang shook his head, "No, Mr. Fu, Su Cheng didn't go to the Fu family. The police station told me that half an hour ago, Su Cheng went to the police station and saw Su Man."

"That's it." Fu Jingting nodded slightly.

He was not surprised that Su Cheng went to the police station.

Su Man is his daughter, and he came to the sea market just for Su Cheng, so it is impossible not to see Su Man!

Not necessarily father and daughter

“And then, did the police get any news, and what did they say?” Fu Jingting pinched the bridge of his nose and asked in a deep voice.

Assistant Zhang shook his head, “I’m sorry Boss Fu, but that’s not true. The police said that when Su Cheng went, he asked to meet Su Man alone. Although the police couldn’t promise him to let Su Man go privately, Su Cheng was also a big taxpayer. , This small request, the police will not refuse, so the police do not know what they said when they met alone, but”

“Speak!” Fu Jingting frowned in disapproval.

Assistant Zhang coughed, not daring to delay, and hurriedly continued, “A police officer who brought Su Cheng to see Su Man has received some strange news, that is, Su Cheng’s attitude towards Su Man, and Su Man’s attitude towards Su Man. Su Cheng’s attitude said that these two people are not like father and daughter, but like superiors and subordinates.”

“Oh?” Fu Jingting paused while holding the bridge of his nose, his expression a bit suspicious, “Subordinates?”

“Police That’s what the clerk said, but I don’t know exactly how, after all, I didn’t see it.” Assistant Zhang replied knowingly.

Fu Jingting rubbed his thumb a few times, “Did you explain in detail why they are not like father and daughter, like superiors and subordinates?”

“Yes.” Assistant Zhang nodded, “It was said that when Su Cheng saw Su Man, he didn’t see anything on his face. The daughter’s excitement and joy, even if she is not happy, she should be angry. After all, the daughter has caused such a big disaster, and as a father, he should also have the anger of hating iron and not steel, but there is none. Su Cheng saw Su Man’s She looked very calm, so calm as if it wasn’t his daughter, but someone who had nothing to do with it.”

“Really?” Fu Jingting lowered his eyes and murmured thoughtfully before asking again, “Then Su Man What about it?”

“Su Man is the same, seeing Su Cheng doesn’t look like seeing his father, his expression is not at all happy, normal father and daughter, shouldn’t be excited to see his father come to save him, but Su Man No, when I saw Su Cheng, there was only panic.”

“Fright?”

Assistant Zhang nodded, "Yes, I've confirmed it again and again. The police officer said that he was scared. They have seen all kinds of people in their line, and it's impossible to read this expression wrong."

Fu Jingting didn't speak anymore, because it was indeed the case. .

It wasn't until after a while that he spoke again, "Continue."

"Yes." Assistant Zhang responded and continued, "Su Man is very afraid of Su Cheng, and that kind of fear comes from the heart, the police officer said. , it should be what Su Cheng did to her, so she was so frightened when she saw Su Cheng, and when Su Man saw Su Cheng, she didn't call his father or husband and wife, but called Mr. Su, That's why the police officer wondered if the pair were father and daughter." The father saw that his daughter was not happy, nor was he angry.

When the daughter saw her father, she was not excited about being saved. Some were just terrified.

It's weird anyway.

Fu Jingting narrowed his eyes and did not speak, but was thinking about something.

Su Man was very afraid of Su Cheng.

What terrifying thing did Su Cheng do to Su Man?

Would a father do terrible things to his daughter?

There must be such fathers in this world, but he still believes that there are only a few.

Even if Su Cheng changed, he probably wouldn't do anything terrible to his daughter.

Unless, they are not father and daughter!

It's not the father and daughter

When this thought came to mind, Fu Jingting's eyes flashed.

Yeah, if they weren't father and daughter, then it all made sense.

"Zhang Cheng." Fu Jingting shouted.

When Assistant Zhang heard it, he stood tall, "Mr. Fu, do you have any instructions?"

“Find a way to get Su Man and Su Cheng’s DNA.” Fu Jingting instructed in a deep voice.

Assistant Zhang realized something and hurriedly asked, “Mr. Fu, are you suspicious?”
Fu

Jingting hummed.

Assistant Zhang took a breath, “It’s really possible, but I don’t understand, if they are really not father and daughter, why are they pretending to be father and daughter?”

Fu Jingting’s eyes were deep, “It’s useless to think about this now, just check it out. .”

“Yes.” Assistant Zhang responded.

Fu Jingting rubbed his temples, “How about the meeting after I leave?”

Assistant Zhang rolled his eyes when he heard this.

Yo, Mr. Fu, the old man still remembers that he is the president, and the group and the meeting that he left behind!

He really wanted to throw out such a sentence, but he didn’t dare to let him do it.

So he could only take a deep breath to calm his mind, then raised a formulaic smile and replied, “Mr. Fu, don’t worry, there is no problem with the meeting. After you leave, I will organize everyone to continue the meeting. “

This meeting is not a particularly important meeting, and the boss, President Fu, must be present.

In fact, even if the boss, Mr. Fu, was not present, the meeting could continue because the industry and amount involved were not large.

Therefore, his special assistant dared to continue the meeting.

If there are many industries involved and the amount of money is huge, then as a special assistant, he naturally cannot help President Fu to preside over the meeting.

Hearing that the meeting went smoothly and ended, Fu Jingting hummed with satisfaction, “That’s good, it’s nothing, hang up.” When the words were finished, he hung up the phone directly. The whole process was extremely ruthless.

In Fu's Group, Assistant Zhang's eyes almost rolled to the sky when he listened to the silent mobile phone.

Mr. Fu, Mr. Fu, you can hang up if you want, but before you hang up, can you say whether you want to come to work in the group today?

There is a table of documents waiting for you to sign and process!

Assistant Zhang turned his head to look at the high stack of documents on Fu Jingting's desk, and sighed with a headache.

There are so many documents, all of them are urgent, when will President Fu come back to deal with it, this is all money, it is all money!

Assistant Zhang frantically grabbed his hair.

But after a while, Assistant Zhang suddenly stayed calm again, looking at the pair of documents, not to mention being indifferent.

Oh, don't come back if you don't come back.

Anyway, this is Mr. Fu's own group, and the loss is also Mr. Fu's own money.

The boss is not in a hurry, he is a part-timer, what is the hurry?

Thinking about it, Assistant Zhang instantly felt much more relaxed, and then walked out of Fu Jingting's office humming a song.

In Repulse Bay, after Fu Jingting put down his phone, he sat on a chair with his fingers crossed on the desk in front of him.

There were no lights on in the study, and the curtains were closed, so the study looked very dark.

Fu Jingting's whole person was almost shrouded in the dark night, making people completely unable to see his expression, which seemed very mysterious and gloomy.

At this moment, there was a knock on the study door, and Rong Shu's soft voice came from outside, "Jing Ting?"

Hearing the woman's call, Fu Jingting raised his head, put his hand down from the desk, and then Get up and walk towards the door, opening the door.

Rong Shu saw the dark study, then looked at the man in front of him, frowned slightly and said, "You don't turn on the light?"

“Forgot.” Fu Jingting opened his thin lips and replied two words.

Rong Shu didn’t bother to ask him whether he really forgot or did not open it on purpose. He just asked others, “Is it better?”

He was referring to digesting the fact that he was a substitute.

Fu Jingting’s eyelids drooped, “It’s better.”

“That aunt.”

“I don’t blame her, but I won’t have feelings for her anymore. Now, I only have respect for her.” Fu Jingting lowered his eyes and said softly.

Although his mother is also kind to him, he really can’t stand the fact that he is a substitute.

This is not what a mother should do!

The man who is easily moved

Listening to the man’s words, Rong Shu nodded understandingly, “That’s good, no matter what, we still have us by your side, and we won’t take you as a substitute for anyone, so don’t think too much about it, understand?”

She looked at him.

Looking at the woman’s serious appearance, Fu Jingting felt warm in his heart, touched the woman’s soft cheek, and said softly, “Okay, I understand.”

“That’s alright, then will you still be sad?” His own hand was also attached to the back of his hand touching her cheek and asked.

Fu Jingting shook his head, “I’m not sad, I’m not sad anymore, because you said, I have you by my side.”

He only initially knew that when he was actually a substitute for Su Cheng raised by his mother, he would feel pain, anger, and sadness .

Because that’s his mother.

But after the anger was over, he gradually calmed down.

He began to understand that although his mother used him as a stand-in, his mother had been dead for nearly twenty years.

He didn't have to bother with someone who had been dead for so long.

But he couldn't let it out, so he could only put all the anger and shame on Su Cheng.

Regardless of whether Su Cheng knew that he was a substitute, even if he didn't know, he would not let Su Cheng go.

If something goes wrong, someone has to bear it. When his mother died, the person who took the responsibility should naturally be Su Cheng.

After thinking about this, his anger lessened a lot, and the violence in his heart gradually disappeared.

Even if he didn't figure it out, he wouldn't stay angry all the time, and he would quickly sort out his emotions.

He couldn't let Rong Shu worry about him all the time, his anger would also scare her and make her uneasy.

What's more, she has been comforting him, and he can't live up to her worries and comforts.

Thinking of this, Fu Jingting's gesture of stroking Rong Shu became more gentle. The hand lingered on her face, as if to describe the outline of her face.

Rong Shu's face was itchy when she touched her, so she grabbed his wrist and took his hand away from his face, "Okay, since it's all right, let's eat first, it's already noon now, I'm hungry, so are you?"

Fu Jingting didn't answer whether he was hungry or not, but when he heard she was hungry, he dragged her hurriedly towards the kitchen, "I'll cook for you."

"Wait a minute. ." Rong Shu saw that he was in a hurry and held him in tears.

Fu Jingting stopped and looked back at her, "What's wrong?"

"I don't need you to cook, I've already done it." Rong Shu took the apron on her body.

Only then did Fu Jingting realize that she was still wearing this.

After he opened the door and saw her just now, his attention was always on her face, and he really didn't realize that she was wearing this.

Rong Shu put down her apron, "I've cooked a lot of your favorite dishes. You can eat more in a while, but I made them specially for you."

"I made them specially for me?" Fu Jingting's eyes lit up obviously.

Rong Shu nodded and said, "Of course, a certain man is angry and sad, so I can't coax him and cook him some of his favorite dishes?"

Fu Jingting understood, she cooked for him and said she wanted He cheered up, don't lose his mind, even self-doubt and give up because he knows this cruel truth.

Thinking about it, Fu Jingting slammed again and hugged Rong Shu tightly in his arms.

Rong Shu's nose hit his hard chest, and the pain made her eyes turn red instantly.

But she held back her voice, otherwise, with the man's temperament, she would definitely get nervous after a while, checking and looking at her.

So in order to avoid being tossed by her for a while, she should hold back.

In a place where Fu Jingting couldn't see, Rong Shu raised her hand and gently rubbed the tip of her nose. After the tip of her nose was better, she finally exhaled and put her hand down.

She knew that the man suddenly hugged her because the meal she cooked for him touched him.

Therefore, he suddenly let out his emotions and expressed his excitement and joy at the moment with hugs.

This is how this man is. He doesn't verbally say that he is very moved and happy, but expresses it in a hotter, hotter and more direct way.

Like hugs, like kisses.

In fact, these direct expressions can also better explain whether a person is really moved or really happy.

"Alright, alright." Rong Shu stretched out her index finger and poked the man's waist lightly, "Isn't it just a meal, how is it so touching? People who don't know, think I'm crying because I've done a shocking act. What's your moving move?"

Speaking of which, although this man's appearance is indifferent and ruthless, he is usually cold to outsiders, arrogant, powerful, and omnipotent.

But only she knew that in private, especially when facing her, he would laugh, speak softly, and speak rudely.

At the same time, he is easily moved.

And a person who is easily moved has a soft heart.

But she knew very well that he was soft-hearted, not towards others, but towards her and the people he cared about the most.

How could such a person not be charming?

Maybe it was because of this that she fell in love with him again.

Fu Jingting didn't know what Rong Shu was thinking, he rubbed his chin on the top of her head, "For me, everything you do for me is more touching than crying."

Rong Shu didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "I'm really embarrassed to accept what you said. Okay, let's eat now, aren't you hungry?"

She patted the man on the back.

The man reluctantly let her go.

Then, instead, Rong Shu held his hand, walked towards the kitchen, served meals with him, served the dishes, and went to the dining table to have lunch together.

Seeing that the man was eating deliciously, there was absolutely nothing between his brows when he knew that he was a stand-in. After the terrifying coldness, Rong Shu was completely relieved.

In fact, during the time when the man went to the study by himself to calm down, she was not idle outside, but was reflecting on whether it was right to tell him this by herself.

It's not good news after all.

But then she suppressed this suspicion and still felt that she should tell him.

He is a party and has the right to know.

And if you know it early, you can prevent it early, and it will not be known by others and used as a bargaining chip to ridicule him.

Such as Sioux City.

If Su Cheng is really his father's enemy, then there will definitely be a fight between Su Cheng and him.

If Su Cheng knew that he was a substitute, laughed at him, and attacked him, and he didn't know this at that time, his heart would definitely be hit hard.

Even if it's not Sucheng, he has other enemies in the mall. Those people know and will use them to attack him.

So, let him know earlier, and erase all traces that may be known to others, so that he will not hear anyone using this to attack him in the future.

She is also good for him.

So, she didn't think she did something wrong by telling him about it.

"What are you thinking?" Seeing the woman holding the chopsticks in a daze, Fu Jingting frowned slightly.

Rong Shu's eyes flashed, she came back to her senses, and shook her head, "It's nothing, I was just thinking about the phone call with my aunt before."

She didn't plan to tell him what she just thought.

He had let it go, and there was no need to bring it up again.

"What did you say?" Fu Jingting took a sip from the glass beside him.

Rong Shu took a piece of fish and put it on his plate, "Aunt asked us what time to go in the evening, so she would have someone go to the door to meet her, and she asked what do you like to eat, and asked someone to buy the ingredients early to prepare, and more"

Rong Shu's Self-Reproach

There was a sly look in her eyes.

Fu Jingting caught it, his heart skipped a beat, but his face remained calm, as if nothing had happened, "What else?"

"Aunt asked me, are you treating me well, and if not?" Rong Shu recalled. red lips.

Fu Jingting's hand holding the water cup tightened slightly, "What happens if it's not good?"

Rong Shu looked at his tightened hand, covered her lips and smiled, "Of course I'm kicking you out, not letting you into the Lu family. The door, I also suggested that I separate directly from you."

Hearing this, Fu Jingtingjun's face turned black.

Although he knew that Mrs. Lu meant that if he was not good to Xiaoye, let Xiaoye separate from him.

But he was still a little reluctant to hear the two words separated.

It was not easy for him to retrieve her again, and to separate the two words was not auspicious for him.

So, how could he be happy!

"What about you? How did you answer?" Fu Jingting pursed his thin lips, his voice a little muffled.

Rong Shu looked at his unhappy appearance, and laughed out loud, "Of course I answered very well. If I didn't answer well, my aunt would have killed him already."

Hearing this, Fu Jingting felt a little uncomfortable. Disappeared in an instant.

He knew that she would not let him down.

"Don't worry, I know how good you are to me. I can't open my eyes and lie to you." Rong Shu raised her glass and took a sip.

Fu Jingting snorted, with a smile on his face, "I know."

"When will we go that night? I'll reply to my aunt." Rong Shu put down the cup and looked at him and asked.

Fu Jingting raised his arm, looked at his watch, and thought for a while before answering, "Seven o'clock. I'll go to the old house later to find my grandmother. There are some things I want to confirm with my grandmother."

Speaking of this, he narrowed his eyes and his face was a little gloomy.

He needs to know if his grandmother knew long ago that he was raised by his mother as a substitute for Su Cheng.

Seeing the change in Fu Jingting's expression, Rong Shu opened her red lips, as if she wanted to say something.

But in the end, she closed her mouth and chose not to say anything.

Well, even if he didn't directly say what he wanted to find out about his grandmother, she still didn't ask.

Obviously, he didn't say it, and he didn't want her to know.

After lunch, Fu Jingting hugged Rong Shu for a while, put her on the sofa, kissed her in a daze, and stared at the ceiling blankly. Then he chuckled contentedly and got up and left.

Hearing the footsteps of the man leaving, Rong Shu didn't get up to send it off.

She was kissed so weakly that she didn't want to get up at all, where would she want to send him off?

She has a good temper for not scolding him.

This stinky man, after she finished cleaning up the dishes and came out of the kitchen, excused herself to be someone else's stand-in and was very sad, and she hadn't put it down completely. She needed her comfort before going out, and pressed her on the sofa and kissed her again. Touch, take advantage of her.

It's so shameless!

Rong Shu looked away from the ceiling and touched her red and swollen lips, her face angry, shy and funny.

Then, she sat up with the back of the sofa and looked towards the entrance.

There is no one there anymore.

Obviously, Fu Jingting had already left.

Rong Shu retracted her gaze, got up and walked to her room, preparing to pack up and go to Tianzhu.

I was going to go in the morning, but I couldn't because I was stopped by Sioux City.

That afternoon, we couldn't delay, we had to go.

If she doesn't go in the afternoon, then she will not go to the group for two consecutive days. Those high-level executives will have opinions. After all, she is the chairman now, not the vice president of the past.

With a sigh, Rong Shu took out the clothes she was going to wear from the closet and put it on, put on a new make-up, twisted her bag and went out.

After not going to the group for a day and a half, after Rong Shu came to Tiancheng, she actually felt like a lifetime.

Shaking her head and smiling, Rong Shu walked into the elevator with the greetings of passing employees, went up to the top floor, and came to her office.

As soon as I entered the office, I put down my bag, and before I could sit down, the door of the office was knocked.

Rong Shu pulled out the chair and sat down, then turned back to the door, "Please come in."

The knocking on the door stopped, the next second, the door opened, and a figure in a black professional suit walked in.

It's Secretary Tong.

At this moment, Secretary Tong has changed a lot. His hair is cut very short, almost reaching his ears. The high heels under his feet have been changed to flat shoes at this moment, and even his glasses have been changed.

Although it is still black, it is much smaller than the previous one.

Looking at Secretary Tong's change, a trace of surprise appeared on Rong Shu's face, "Secretary Tong, why did you come back to work so soon? How many days of rest? And you?"

She pointed to her hair.

Secretary Tong put the documents on Rong Shu's desk, and then returned with a smile, "After two days of rest, I feel better, and I can almost go back to work, so I came back and got used to the high-intensity work. , If you rest for a long time and get lazy, you will feel uncomfortable when you come back. As for the hair"

Secretary Tong touched his hair, "One of my best friends said that my previous hairstyle was too dirty, and seeing that I have been very worried recently, so He took me to change a hairstyle, and said that after changing the hairstyle, the mood will be more cheerful, but I have never had such a short haircut, so I don't know whether it looks good or not."

"Good-looking." Rong Shu nodded quickly, "It's really good, it suits you very well, your best friend is very discerning."

She praised with a thumbs up.

Secretary Tong seemed to be a little embarrassed, his face was slightly red, "Thank you, chairman for your praise."

"I'm not complimenting you, I'm telling the truth, you are really good, and I see the sadness on your eyebrows. It has also faded a lot. It seems that you have indeed adjusted your mentality well in the past two days when you went home."

"Yes." Secretary Tong nodded, "Since President Lu doesn't know about my pregnancy, I won't tell you. He secretly removed him, as long as he removed it, everything would have never happened. As for Mr. Lu's attitude towards me, I also thought about it. Emotional matters cannot be forced. Mr. Lu doesn't like me, and neither do I. What are you expecting, I choose to let him go, and I will only treat him as my college classmate and former boss. In this case, even if President Lu treats me badly, I will not feel sad, right?"

said She showed a forced smile.

Looking at her, Rong Shu felt a little distressed, "Did you really decide to give up? Wouldn't it be a pity to just let go of your secret love for so many years?"

Secretary Tong shook his head, "Maybe it will be a pity, but I won't give up What can I do? Mr. Lu doesn't like me, but if I continue to insist, he still won't like it, and even my insistence is just making fun of myself, making him even more annoying."

This left Rong Shu speechless.

Indeed, if you don't like it, you don't like it. Sometimes, you can get results if you don't insist.

Secretary Tong can't get results here in Ah Qi.

But in the same way, Ah Qi is here with her, so why not?

With a sigh, Rong Shu looked at Secretary Tong apologetically, "Perhaps, I shouldn't have let you pursue A Qi boldly from the beginning."

Secretary Tong had feelings for A Qi since college, until a few days later . A few months ago, it was not exposed, and it was well hidden.

It was she who encouraged Secretary Tong to pursue it after discovering Secretary Tong's feelings.

Secretary Tong had the courage under her encouragement, and then this situation came about.

It's her fault!

Never Regret

If she didn't find out, or found out, she didn't encourage Secretary Tong.

Perhaps, Secretary Tong still has not had the courage to express his intentions to Aqi.

As long as Secretary Tong doesn't express his intentions and still treats Aqi with the same attitude as before, all this may be different today.

Seeing Rong Shu's face full of remorse, Secretary Tong waved his hand and smiled, "Chairman, don't do this, you are not wrong, you just want to be good for me, and even if you don't suggest me to take the initiative to chase after President Lu, I will I will pursue it myself."

"Oh?" Rong Shu sat up slightly.

Secretary Tong lowered his eyes and smiled, "In the past, Mr. Lu has never expressed his intentions to you, so you don't know that he has feelings for you, and you can't refuse Mr. Lu if you don't know. As a bystander, I don't know what you will do in the future. I won't promise to be with Mr. Lu, so I keep my feelings well hidden and never let anyone know, until Mr. Lu expresses his intentions to you, and after you expressly refuse, I will know that Mr. Lu and you are not. It's possible, then can I go after President Lu with confidence, without worrying about any changes?"

"So, you haven't expressed your intentions to Aqi all the time, just because I'm not sure that I know Aqi's intentions. Will you be with Ah Qi?" Rong Shu looked at her.

Secretary Tong nodded, "yes, knowing that you won't be with President Lu, I just started to express my thoughts to President Lu, so even if you don't support me or persuade me, President Rong, I will pursue Lu. All in all, you just started to support me when I hadn't figured out how to pursue it."

"That's it." Rong Shu was stunned.

Secretary Tong looked at her, “so Chairman, you don’t have to blame yourself, although I did feel pain because of President Lu’s disgust, but now I have fully understood that things like feelings cannot be forced, can’t. Because I love him, I ask him to love me too, I was wrong that night with him, I and he are both responsible, so I won’t let him be responsible, I will handle things where he doesn’t know. Clean, as if nothing happened after that night, even if he still treats me like this in the future, I don’t care anymore, I will try to forget him and put him down, find a man who loves me, and start a new relationship.”

Look . With the seriousness of Secretary Tong’s speech and the hope for the future in her eyes, Rong Shu felt relieved and a little emotional at the same time.

“It’s fine if you think so, then I wish you to find someone who loves you very much and treats you well.” Rong Shu sincerely hoped.

Secretary Tong smiled and nodded, “Xie Chairman’s auspicious words, I will definitely do it.”

“Definitely!” Rong Shu also looked at her and smiled, “However, child, did you really decide to take it away?”

“Of course.” Secretary Tong hummed, “since I want to start a new relationship, then I will naturally deal with this child, otherwise it will be unfair to my future husband, saying, if I give birth to him, my future What if my husband doesn’t accept it? Even if I don’t choose to get married for him, then I can’t give him fatherly love. How should I answer when he asks me why he doesn’t have a father? It’s cruel to take it off once it’s formed, but isn’t it good for everyone?”

She didn’t say a word.

If he was born and raised the child, Mr. Lu would know that the child was his queen.

President Lu will definitely take the child away.

After all, even if President Lu doesn’t accept the child’s mother, the child is his after all, and he will definitely not let his child wander outside, and will definitely bring it back to the Lu family.

At that time, she would definitely not be able to compete with President Lu.

That is to say, if President Lu discovers the existence of the child, that is when their mother and child are separated.

At that time, could she really accept that President Lu took the child away?

She thought that she would definitely not be able to accept it. She gave birth to the child and raised it, so she naturally had no need to say about her feelings for the child.

The child was taken away, and she was unable to take it back. What awaited her was like excruciating pain and despair.

She could not accept the consequences of that.

So it's better to take it away, while the mother's love is not so strong now.

Thinking of this, Secretary Tong lowered his head and touched his lower abdomen, his eyes darkened.

Obviously, she was not as open as she thought, and her heart was still very heavy.

"It's okay to take it off." Rong Shu sighed, "Take it off is also a good thing for you. When will the surgery be done?"

Originally, Secretary Tong had decided to take the child off before going back to rest, and had already decided the operation time. .

But later, after a phone call, she persuaded Secretary Tong to stop.

She is also someone who has had the same experience as Secretary Tong.

At the moment of her pregnancy, she felt like the sky was falling, because she could never have imagined that she was someone who was drunk and was pregnant with a child.

Most importantly, the child's father is unknown.

So at that time, she had no feelings or feelings for the child in her womb. She never thought about keeping the child. She was very determined to take the child away. It was just because she was too busy with work or other things happened, so She was not in a hurry to remove the child, so Xiaochuan fell into a frenzy and poisoned her, so she had to remove the child as soon as possible.

When she took the child away, she was a little disappointed, but more than that, she was relieved.

The absence of that child meant that the bitter fruit of her absurd night was finally over.

However, she regretted it later.

After finding out that she fell in love with Fu Jingting again, she regretted taking away the child.

Women are so contradictory. When they don't love someone, they will feel awkward when they are pregnant with that person's child, and can't wait to get rid of the child quickly.

But when you fall in love with that person, you don't think like that.

Therefore, she hopes that Secretary Tong will not be like her, who decides to take away the child at the beginning, and regrets it after taking it away.

Therefore, on the night when Secretary Tong asked for leave to go back, she called Secretary Tong and asked Secretary Tong not to rush to the hospital to remove the child, to rest at home for the day, and then to rethink the question of whether to keep the child for a while. Impulsive, and then do something you regret.

And she felt that Secretary Tong had a high probability of regretting it.

After all, Secretary Tong was different from her at that time. At that time, she didn't know who the bad child was, but Secretary Tong herself knew very well that she was pregnant with Ah Qi.

Secretary Tong loves Aqi so much, one can imagine how much courage he used when he decided to get rid of the child.

Of course, this courage may have come on impulse, so she asked Secretary Tong to calm down and think about it.

She was afraid that after Secretary Tong took away the child, thinking of Ah Qi, she would regret taking away the child again.

But I didn't expect that two days later, Secretary Tong's attitude was still so determined, and he was determined to take away the child.

It seems that Secretary Tong really thought about it.

Now that she has made up her mind, she doesn't have to worry that Secretary Tong will regret it later.

"Tomorrow." Secretary Tong pushed his glasses and replied, "I have made an appointment with the First Hospital, and the operation time is tomorrow noon."

Rong Shu nodded, "Okay, tomorrow is the weekend. After the operation, you are in. Come back after a month's rest at home and do confinement."

The priceless gift

Confinement is not just for women who have given birth to children.

A woman who did not give birth to a child, had a miscarriage, or took the initiative to abort her child could still be confinement.

Even more should be confinement.

This is very beneficial for women's physical recovery.

However, Secretary Tong shook his head and refused, "I don't need the chairman, I don't need confinement, you know, what I accept is basically Western culture, Western women don't have confinement, and I don't want to, just like me As I said before, when I take a few days off, I am afraid that I will be lazy and I will not be able to adapt to the high-intensity work when I come back, let alone a month. laugh.

Rong Shu frowned, "Work is more important or body is more important? Tong Xi, I know you are a career woman, but you can't take your body seriously for the sake of your career, yes, Western women don't sit Confinement, but confinement in our country has been handed down since ancient times. There is a certain reason. I am also doing it for your own good. If you come back to work after the operation, if your body can't support it, your career will not continue. Ah."

"Secretary Tong lowered his head and said nothing.

Because she knew that Rong Shu was really for her good.

Therefore, I persuaded her to take confinement.

In fact, she didn't really want to have confinement, she was just afraid that she would not be able to let go of the child she just took because of her physical discomfort during the confinement period.

She was afraid that when she thought of her child, she would think of President Lu.

Then when I think of President Lu, I start to miss the child who was taken away.

As soon as she misses her child, she can't help but regret it.

That's why she doesn't want to confine herself to confinement, so she thinks about going back to work. The busy work will numb her mind, make her ignore her physical discomfort, and don't think about the child she takes away. and Mr. Lu.

But these words, she can't say, can't let the chairman know.

When the chairman knew about it, he would definitely think that she was deliberately using her work to hurt herself.

Seeing Secretary Tong lowered his head and didn't speak, Rong Shu sighed, "Anyway, this time you listen to me, after the operation, rest at home obediently, don't come to work if you don't rest for a month, you can come, I They will also send you back, you know?"

She pretended to be serious and strong.

Secretary Tong's mouth moved, as if he wanted to fight for himself.

Rong Shu immediately stared, "Okay, don't talk about it, this matter is not negotiable, so it's decided, I will visit you at your house when I have time, if I find out that you haven't rested obediently, I will definitely turn your back on you. ."

Secretary Tong looked at her incomparably serious look, first stunned, then laughed, "Chairman, you are really nice, I see, thank you for your concern, I will rest well." I have to say , She is really lucky to have such a good boss.

Secretary Tong thought warmly in his heart.

Rong Shu's face softened again, "That's right, will anyone accompany you for the surgery tomorrow?"

"Yes, my girlfriend." Secretary Tong nodded back.

Rong Shu was relieved, "it's good to have someone to accompany you, and I'm also relieved. I'll go to the hospital to see you then."

"Okay." Secretary Tong agreed.

Afterwards, Rong Shu reached out and took the document she just put down, "Okay, it's nothing, you go out first, you will get off work early today to prepare for tomorrow."

"I see, thank you, Chairman." Secretary Tong He bowed slightly, then turned and walked towards the door.

After Secretary Tong left, Rong Shu rubbed his eyebrows, reached out and took a pen from the pen holder, and started to process the documents.

Halfway through the process, the landline on the desk rang.

Rong Shu reached out and picked up the microphone and put it on her shoulder. While signing the document, she asked, "This is the chairman's office, what's the matter?"

"Chairman." A polite female voice came from the phone, "Chairman, this is the front desk. Someone from the Fu Group just came over and mentioned a lot of things, saying that they were prepared by President Fu for the elders. The gift, let the chairman take a look at it to see if it is suitable, and if there is anything else that needs to be added."

Hearing this, Rong Shu's nose paused, and she immediately reacted.

It is estimated that it was a gift prepared by Fu Jingting for his uncle and aunt.

She thought that when Fu Jingting was ready, he would take him directly to the Lu family in the evening.

Unexpectedly, he was actually afraid that something would be missing, so let someone bring it over to her to see.

Smiling, Rong Shu lightly opened her red lips and replied to the phone, "Understood, you can have someone bring it up."

"Okay chairman." The front desk responded.

Rong Shu put the microphone back on the landline and continued to work.

About ten minutes later, the office was ringing.

Rong Shu let them in, and soon two security guards came in with big bags and small bags.

Rong Shu instructed them to put things on the sofa in the lounge area, "Be careful, don't bump into it."

"Don't worry, Chairman." The two security guards returned while putting things down.

After it was finished, Rong Shu handed over two bottles of water, "It's hard work."

"The chairman is too kind." The two security guards were a little flattered when they saw the water handed over, and quickly waved their hands and dared not accept it.

They didn't dare to reach out to take it until Rong Shu asked them to accept it.

After they finished receiving the water, Rong Shu let them go down.

The office was quiet again.

Rong Shu came to those bags.

Those bags are very delicate, and you can tell at a glance that the things inside are of great value.

Rong Shu slightly opened each bag to see which ones were wine and which ones were cosmetics.

In the end, Rong Shu separated the things that were given to Mrs. Lu and Chairman Lu and checked them one by one.

Fu Jingting gave Chairman Lu a few bottles of original wine.

She doesn't understand wine, but she also knows the value of original wine.

The value of a bottle of original wine is no longer limited, and it is still the kind that cannot be bought with money. You must have money, health, status, and several conditions to buy it.

And owning a bottle of original wine is enough to boast pride.

Not to mention several bottles.

Fu Jingting was very generous in his actions. One gift was five bottles, and it was the original wine from different wineries. It was sent to Chairman Lu just like a stamp collector.

I believe that when my uncle saw it, he must be so happy that he could not wait to faint.

Rong Shu smiled, put the bottles of wine aside carefully, and continued to check the gifts for Mrs. Lu.

She opened each bag and looked at it, and found that Fu Jingting prepared not only cosmetics, but also perfume, bags, silk scarves, shoes and jewelry.

This is simply a full package of gifts that women like.

Although the combined value of these is not as valuable as those few bottles of wine, women like things different from men, even if their gifts are not as valuable as their husbands.

But these are what I like.

What's more, it's a full set.

I believe that when the aunt sees this, it is estimated that she will faint with joy like her uncle.

Rong Shu wrapped the package again, and there was no sign that it had been opened again. Then she rubbed her brows and sighed, "This person has prepared too much."

He just went to have a meal and prepared a gift by himself. That's it.

Unexpectedly, he actually prepared so much.

Do you really want to make her uncle and aunt happy?

Just thinking about it, the phone at work suddenly rang.

Rong Shu put down her hands, got up and walked towards the desk. She looked down at her phone and saw the words Fu Jingting dancing on the screen. She raised her red lips without any surprise.

Something Happened

Obviously, she had known for a long time that he would call.

After all, he asked people to bring these gifts over to show her first. How could he not figure out as soon as possible whether the gifts he prepared were appropriate?

Thinking about it, Rong Shu answered the phone without hesitation, "Hello?"

"Have you seen the gift?" A man's low and pleasant voice came from the phone.

Rong Shu sat down on the single sofa, looked at the rows of gift boxes and gift bags opposite, smiled and nodded, "I see."

"Then do you think what I have prepared is suitable? Do you still need it? Add a little more?" Fu Jingting asked while sitting on the antique pear-flower wood chair in the old house, straightening his body slightly.

The corners of Rong Shu's mouth twitched, "Add it? But don't."

"Why?"

“Why?” Rong Shu couldn’t help laughing and crying, “You have prepared so much, do you want to scare my uncle and aunt to death?”

” A lot?” Fu Jingting tilted his head slightly, obviously not feeling that he had prepared a lot of gifts.

Rong Shu rolled her eyes, “Of course, not much for you, a big family, but for me, my uncle and aunt, it’s a lot. It’s your first time here, so why prepare so much? It is enough for one person to prepare the same gift, even if it is the same, the uncles and aunts will be very happy and satisfied.”

After all, it is the original wine, a new type of cosmetics that has not yet been released.

Happy to be replaced.

Fu Jingting chuckled, “It doesn’t matter, there aren’t many gifts here, so don’t you say that you treat them as your parents? Naturally, you can’t just give your parents something casual.

” .” Rong Shu frowned.

Fu Jingting shook his head, “No, I have the ability to afford it. Secondly, they treat you very well, so I will naturally give them the best, thank them for taking care of you.”

Rong Shu was stunned, “So, you deliberately prepared so much because of your gratitude?”

“Well.” Fu Jingting nodded slightly, “They are worth it, if they are just normal to you, you are just Treat them as ordinary elders, then I will naturally not bother to prepare these gifts, but just let someone give them as they please, but you said that you treat them as parents, they also treat you as their daughters, you The relationship between them is very deep, so as your man, naturally I can’t be perfunctory about anything about them. If I’m perfunctory, it means that I don’t pay enough attention to you. On the contrary, I prepared so many things because I wanted Lu The wife and husband know that I am willing to spend a lot of money to make them happy because of you, and indirectly tell them how much I value you, and you have made no wrong choice to get back with me.”

Because of the importance, they are willing to spend money.

Although it is a bit vulgar, it is the truth. Being willing to spend money for a person is indeed the best way to show that you don’t care about that person.

Rong Shu didn’t expect the man to prepare so many gifts, and the real purpose was actually because of her.

It made her heart warm and funny.

“Forget it, since you’re ready, so be it.” Rong Shu’s voice softened a lot.

Originally, she planned to let him take back some of the gifts, and it would be enough for one person to give them the same.

But for now, forget it.

In addition to thanking her uncle and aunt for their care, he did this to tell her uncle and aunt that he was really kind to her.

Then she naturally couldn’t let him take it back.

She can’t stop what he wants to do, can she?

When Fu Jingting heard Rong Shu’s words, his thin lips hooked, “Is there any other problem with the gifts?”

“No.” Rong Shu shook his head, “If there are problems with these gifts, how can you make other gift-givers feel good?”

Fu Jingting With a low smile, “That’s good, I’ll come to you at seven o’clock in the evening.”

Rong Shu snorted, “Okay, I’ll wait for you downstairs in Tiancheng. By the way, are you still with grandmother?”

“Yes.” Fu Jingting nodded, “Grandma is on her lunch break and hasn’t gotten up yet, so I’m waiting. She.”

“Is that so, I thought you had left the old house for the Fu family.” Rong Shu picked up the teapot on the coffee table and poured herself a cup of tea.

The tea is cold and a little bitter to drink.

After frowning, she put the teacup back and didn’t take another sip.

“I won’t go to Fu’s family today. After talking with my grandmother, I will go directly to Tiancheng to find you.” Fu Jingting replied softly.

Rong Shu smiled, “That’s fine. Grandma hasn’t woken up yet. If you’re bored, how about I accompany you to talk?”

Fu Jingting’s back straightened, and his deep eyes instantly flashed a ray of light. “Of course!”

She took the initiative to talk to him, and he would refuse if he was stupid.

Rong Shu heard the joy and urgency in the man's tone, and couldn't help laughing out loud.

The two chatted in this way, from the gifts to the troubles they would encounter at work.

From some troubles encountered at work, I talked about the gossip between Lu Qi and Secretary Tong.

Of course, the gossip between Lu Qi and Secretary Tong is basically what Rong Shu is talking about and Fu Jingting listening to.

Only occasionally will take a sentence, or comment to give an opinion.

Before I knew it, a phone call lasted almost two hours.

After two hours, it was five o'clock in the afternoon.

This afternoon, Rong Shu hardly did any work. When she came to the office, she was comforting Secretary Tong, and then she called Fu Jingting.

Looking at the documents piled up on the desk, and thinking about the possibility of more documents tomorrow, Rong Shu could hardly laugh or cry.

But she has no regrets. These documents are not urgent documents, nor are they particularly important, so she dared to call Fu Jingting all afternoon and put her work aside.

If it was important or urgent, she wouldn't have been on the phone with Fu Jingting for so long.

She can still distinguish the priorities of things.

"Chairman." At this moment, the door of the office was suddenly pushed open, and an assistant of Secretary Tong appeared hurriedly at the door, "The chairman is not good, something has happened." The assistant's expression was so anxious that even the door Don't care, it seems that something really happened.

Rong Shu couldn't care about the call with Fu Jingting anymore. She put down the phone and her face became serious, "What's wrong?" The assistant took a few breaths and calmed down a little bit of eagerness before quickly replying, "We will cooperate. The factory said that the batch of parts we ordered was cut off by someone else."

“What?” Rong Shu stood up suddenly, “It was cut off by someone?”

Fu Jingting couldn't hear him on the other end of the phone. The assistant's voice, but Rong Shu's voice could be vaguely heard.

Hearing the shock and disbelief in her voice, Fu Jingting frowned and looked solemn, “Little Leaf, what's the matter?”

Rong Shu put the phone on the desk and naturally couldn't hear Fu Jingting's question. So there is no answer.

She crossed the desk and walked towards the assistant, “How could someone cut off her beard? Those parts are all made to order by us, and the deposit has been paid, and the final payment will be paid after the parts are delivered. It can be said that the parts are already stamped. Our Tiansheng label, who would go to cut Hu? Where is the cooperative factory? We cooperated with them and signed a contract, and they dare to give our parts to others?” The assistant smiled bitterly, “They really dare to , just now we received a call from the cooperative factory, saying that the batch of parts has been shipped to the people who cut Hu, they know that they are sorry for us and violated the contract, so they are willing to double the liquidated damages and indemnity to us.”
