

Chapter Fourteen

Alex's P.O.V

I saw red. My head snapped to the side as I fully understood what Nessa was hinting at. She was defaming amber and thinking very low about her.

My wolf stirred within me and made a low, dangerous growl. I had to make a quick attempt at pacifying him as I myself wasn't sure of what was going to happen if I allowed him to take charge.

"I'd handle this. I promise." I spoke under my breath and balled my hands into sts.

"Nessa!" I called out in a low voice that was eerily dangerous. Without a doubt, one would hear the chilly way my voice sounded and would know that something was going awfully dangerous.

Nessa looked at me in confusion and batted her false lashes at me. She knew I was angry but I wouldn't fall for her seduction.

" I dare you to speak another negative word about Amber and you would see what I'm going to do to you." I growled angrily at her.

In spite of the fact that my brothers and I had decided to reject Amber as our mate, I still couldn't let go of her. In my mind's eye, I could see all of her positive traits and all of her beauty.

Because of that, Nessa couldn't be forgiven due to the way she had spoken about Amber. I shifted a little from the love seat we were seated on and gave some distance between us.

Nessa noticed this and she frowned. She sat up smartly and folded her hands in the space between her thighs. I could see her lame attempt at acting coquettishly but I wouldn't be fooled.

" But..but, what have I said to warrant such an outburst from you? I only told the truth! I'm your s*x partner, right?

Although we aren't mates, I still think I'm in a position to tell you the truth." Nessa protested. She snickered after saying this and hissed subtly.

My anger became more incensed at her. I felt like hitting her across the face with my st but I wouldn't dare stoop so low. For what? I questioned myself.

" Nessa! I love the fact that you know you are no more to me than a s*x partner and I would love that you know your role and I would love you to stay within the bounds of your role.

Don't you dare attempt to go beyond where you are supposed to and don't interfere in whatever you aren't supposed to." I lashed out at her with my eyes blazing re at her.

"What? Is she so important to you that you would put me down for her?" Nessa cried out in shock. She obviously didn't expect me to have told her off like I did.

I was angry at her and that was it. Even if I was pacied, my wolf still couldn't let go of the fact that she had gone past her bounds at speaking rubbish about our mate.

I showed my displeasure on my face and buffed off every attempt she made at coming close to me. I stayed mad at her and rebuffed all of her attempts at coming closer to me.

Author's P.O.V

Nessa was alarmed. She never expected the reaction she had gotten from the man seated across from her on the seat.

She felt a crisis was approaching. Alec, who has been unusually sweet to her, was now getting angry at her. To say she hated Amber was an understatement, she now detested her.

Amber was now the cause of the bad blood between her and Alec. She felt like she would need to employ Sophie's services in making Amber more humbled and humiliated.

Seeing that she was losing control of Alec, she decided to give her seduction game a shot. She couldn't afford to lose him.

She looked around her in anger as she worried about what Alec's brothers were going to react if they got to know that she had spoken out against their mate.

Having made her decision, she turned to Alec and batted her eyelids several times. She put on a soft doe-like expression and smiled seductively at him. He didn't seem to notice her so she decided to become more brazen.

Moving closer to Alec, she stretched her hands and began to run her hands all over his back. She took things further and ran her hands across his hardened and well sculpted abs.

She seductively opened her mouth and ran her tongue across her lips while making a soft moaning sound. She noticed Alec was beginning to respond to her and she smiled smugly.

Taking her hand downward, she grabbed his sensitive area and Alec found that he couldn't stay still any longer. He turned towards her and grabbed her mouth in his.

Their tongues raced against each other, while their lips enclosed round themselves. Alec made a deep guttural sound as he was aroused and his wolf was purring with passion in his head.

He stood up from the sofa and gathered Nessa in his hands while their lips were still passionately interlocked. She threw her arms around his neck and he grinded his hips against her core with unbridled passion.

Alec headed towards his room with haste as he couldn't wait to explore all of the secret crevices in Nessa's body. He was about to kick the door open when he felt something boring holes into his back.

He furrowed his brows and snapped his head around to nd a pair of eyes trained on him. For a minute, he was in shock to see whom it was but he was far too aroused to stop.

Kicking the door open, he sauntered into his room in order to have a passionate afternoon with his s*l partner who didn't care about he and his mate but only herself and what age would do ib order to keep him beside her.

Amber's P.O.V

I soon fell out of step with Lena and her mate, Nathan. I could see that they were getting iratious with each other and not wanting to sour the happy mood between them, I held back and gave them room to be with each other.

I grew annoyed with myself and questioned where my resolve was and whatever had made me allow myself to be prevailed upon. I should have stood my ground and not allow Lena guilt trip me into something that I wasn't comfortable doing.

I was exactly what I had feared I would be: A third wheel. Not only was I a third wheel, I was also increasingly being irritated. We were almost at the door when I heard a scraping sound, no, it was like a grunt.

My ears perked up and I zeroed in all around me. Since I was an Omega, the lowest on the ranks amongst werewolves, I had limited powers.

All of my werewolves ability wouldn't be as ne tuned as that of the Beta or Alpha. In fact, even the Gamma was far more powerful than I was.

Since I couldn't nd anything unusual around me, I concentrated on moving forward as Lena and Nathan were now almost out of the house. I was about to step out when I heard a soft thud that came from above me.

I raised my brows and turned around to see a spectacle I wasn't mentally and emotionally prepared to see.

There he was, in all of his glorious body, holding and carrying another woman in his hands while their lips were passionately locked together.

It was Alpha Alec, one of my mates. He was holding onto a woman called Nessa. Everyone knew her in the pack. She was a domesticated version of Sophie.

While Sophie's bullying was glaring for all to see, Nessa's was more subtle. She wouldn't fail to remind any of the Omegas who didn't do her bidding of how important she was to Alpha Alec.

Of course, she was important. It was an open secret that everyone knew that the Alphas all had s*l partners while they were waiting for their mates.

It was also a well known fact that they wouldn't hesitate to discard all of their s*l partners once they found their mates which the moon goddess had graciously decided to be me.

Words escaped me and I didn't know how to explain how I felt or what was going through me. He probably sensed that he was being watched and he turned around amidst the intense romance he was having and our eyes locked upon each other.

I saw a shock register on his face but it was so brief that I wasn't sure it was there. He looked at me bried before turning his back and kicking the door open to get into his room and enjoy the booty he had with him.

I laughed to myself in scorn while asking myself what I had expected.

'You obviously didn't expect him to drop Nessa and come running to you.' I asked myself for the second time.
