Chapter 101 Shameless family

Yun Chang let out a long sigh of relief, "It's fine, if Lin Dani is really my aunt, then I'm going to die! How can I be so stupid, I have a job, but I can't turn over by being bullied by an old woman, and I have to Rely on Dacheng to go out to grab food to save her life!"

"Second brother Gu, did you follow Lin Dani because she looked like my aunt?"

Gu Shinian didn't deny it, but the expression on his face was a bit indescribable.

"That's right. I suspected that Lin Dani was Aunt Wen Jin, and wanted to come over to confirm. I just heard the conversation between Da Cheng and the aunt of the joint defense team, and I have determined that she is not. Aunt Wen Jin is not so incompetent."

It was probably Lin Dani who had the exact same face as Wen Jin. Even though Gu Shinian and Yun Chang knew that she was not Wen Jin, they still felt angry when they knew that she was bullied by Mrs. Zhou and had no power to fight back.

With her short legs, Yun Chang walked around the door of the operating room for several times, and finally rushed to Gu Shinian angrily, puffing her cheeks and asking:

"Second brother Gu, when are we going back?"

"Want to go back?" Gu Shinian took advantage of the situation and hugged Yun Chang, pinching her bulging cheeks to play, "There is a train to Qinghe County in the morning. Let's buy tickets today and go home tomorrow morning, okay?"

"Okay, anyway, there are comrades from the Women's Federation. Lin Dani and Dacheng can always live on. I'm not worried. I'm not worried at all!"

Gu Shinian was also uneasy, but he was amused when he saw that Yun Chang was like an angry little squirrel, with his cheeks puffed up and his eyes bright as if they were about to burst into flames.

"Okay, don't worry. Now that the Women's Federation has intervened, it will definitely take care of this matter to the end. As long as Lin Dani doesn't act stupid, the days to come should not be too sad."

Lin Dani is not stupid?

Yun Chang secretly rolled her eyes in her heart.

If Lin Dani was not stupid, how could she be in such a situation?

Have you ever seen a smart person who can let her mother-in-law control her salary?

Have you ever seen a smart person who wants to live in a firewood room after getting married?

What smart person, obviously has a job, but starved himself into the hospital abruptly?

It is said that eating one cut makes one wiser, but there are many people in the world who fall into the same pit twice.

After all, IQ is innate, it can't be made up by eating a few more walnuts the day after tomorrow!

Yun Chang reluctantly found that even though she shouted to go home, she still couldn't help thinking of Lin Dani and Dacheng in her heart.

"Forget it, second brother, let's stay for another day..."

Before he finished speaking, Dacheng ran upstairs from downstairs.

"Brother Shinian, sister Yunshang, I'm back!"

Yunshang turned back and saw that his ears had been treated, the wound was stitched neatly, and a layer of gauze was lightly placed outside to cover the dust.

"Dacheng, what did the doctor say, can your ears grow? Will it affect your hearing? By the way, aren't you going to the Women's Federation? When are you going?"

Yun Chang asked a series of questions, so that Da Cheng didn't know where to answer them. He scratched his head slyly and answered Yun Chang's questions one by one:

"The doctor said that the ear didn't fall off completely. It should grow well and it won't affect my hearing. I went to the Women's Federation. On the way, I met the aunt of the joint defense team. The aunt asked me to go back to the hospital, and she ran to the Women's Federation for me."

Yun Chang was speechless, this Dacheng looked so honest and honest at the moment, how could he have the courage to go to the restaurant to grab the noodles to eat?

Yun Chang thought so and asked.

I saw Dacheng's face instantly blushed, and after a long time, Ai Ai said:

"I, I just thought, I can't take it from other people's bowls, otherwise people won't have enough. I take it from the restaurant. When they sell rice, one customer will give one less noodles, and the customer will not be hungry. My aunt I have food..."

Yun Chang was stunned by Dacheng's bizarre brain circuit.

This theory is simply the same as picking up wool.

You can't stealthily catch a sheep and sew it desperately, but a flock of sheep take turns smashing it, so that no one notices the wool being smashed.

Gu Shinian was also speechless, pulled back Yun Chang's half-tilted body, motioned Dacheng to sit beside him, "Dacheng, don't do this kind of thing again in the future, this kind of behavior is wrong, after being caught, not only you You will die, and even your aunt will be implicated by you, do you know?"

Dacheng nodded obediently, turned his head and stared at the door of the operating room, his eyes were red again.

"Dacheng, can you tell me something about your family?" Gu Shinian asked again.

"Okay, what do you want to know, Brother Shi Nian?"

"Just talk about the relationship between your aunt and Mrs. Zhou. Why does Mrs. Zhou always bully your aunt."

Dacheng nodded, and began to speak one sentence at a time.

Following Dacheng's narration, the two also pieced together to make things clear.

Lin Dani is 21 years old this year. Her parents passed away one after another before liberation. Lin Dani grew up in that large courtyard with her brother.

Later, my brother entered the factory and became a worker, married a daughter-in-law, and had Dacheng. The family of four lived happily.

In 1957, there was a big riot in Linyang, Lin Dani's brother and sister-in-law died in the riot.

In a family of four, Lin Dani and Dacheng are the only ones left.

Lin Dani had just turned 18 at the time, and with her 6-year-old Dacheng, she couldn't go to high school, so she went to the shoe factory to take her brother's class and became a worker.

A beautiful 18-year-old girl with no father or mother, a formal job, and a large courtyard at home. With such good conditions, Lin Dani became the target of the young men in the factory overnight.

Although there is a nephew in the family, it does not affect Lin Dani's popularity in the factory at all.

At that time, I don't know how many people entrusted matchmakers to kiss Lin Dani, and there were people rushing to do it.

Lin Dani was soft-tempered, but she couldn't escape it, so she chose the most honest and honest one among those who were willing to intervene.

That is, the third son of Mrs. Zhou, Zhou Lai.

After Lai 'married' into the Lin family on Wednesday, he was honest in the first year, and Lin Dani, who had been grinding in the second year, agreed to move the Zhou family into the Lin family. Moved in with the family.

Half a year ago, when Lai was on a business trip on Wednesday, he had an affair with a local woman. He was arrested by the police and sentenced to death in another place.

Lin Dani became a widow, and Dacheng was the only relative left.

However, the large courtyard of the Lin family has more people from the Zhou family.

After Wednesday Lai's death, Mrs. Zhou went to the shoe factory, crying, making trouble, and hanging herself so that the eldest son took over Wednesday Lai's class. Finally, another person in the family stood up in the city.

But the Zhou family not only has Zhou Dalai, but also has a Tuesday Lai idle at home.

The palms of the hands and the backs of the hands were full of meat, so Mrs. Zhou naturally wanted a bowl of water to be level, and found a way to solve the work problem of Lai on Tuesday.

Chapter 102 is it stupid?

In this era, if you want to become a regular worker, you can either take over your own family's job, or buy someone else's job at a high price. Another way is to first become an urban hukou, and then take advantage of the factory to recruit workers and directly join the factory as a worker.

The Zhou family has a rural hukou and cannot meet the recruitment standards. In addition, Zhou's family is weak, and Zhou's wife is shrewd and stingy. Naturally, she will not consider buying a job for Tuesday Lai.

Then, there is only the last simple and cost-effective way to let Lai take over from Lin Dani's job on Tuesday and become a regular worker in the shoe factory.

There is another advantage of doing this, that is, Lin Dani has no job, and can only rely on their Zhou family for the rest of her life, and stay at home honestly to be a widow for the rest of her life.

After all, Lin Dani is only 21 years old now. If she wants to remarry, won't it have nothing to do with their Zhou family?

At that time, the whole family will have to move out of this spacious courtyard, and the Erlaizi family will have to go back to the countryside.

Mrs. Zhou naturally wouldn't let such a thing happen.

Besides, if Wednesday Lai is stuck in the door, then this large courtyard will have a share of Wednesday Lai. Even if Wednesday Lai dies, half of the large courtyard should have the surname Zhou. Why should their old Zhou family move out?

As the daughter-in-law of Wednesday Lai, even if Lin Dani becomes a widow, she is also the widow of their Zhou family, so she has to listen to her and be filial to her instead of Wednesday.

As for the work in the factory, what does a widow want to do if she doesn't stay at home and shows her face?

Mrs. Zhou confidently asked Lin Dani to work, but Lin Dani naturally refused.

She can become a regular worker in a shoe factory, but she only got it after crossing Dacheng and taking over her brother's job.

Lin Dani had already made plans. She would guard Dacheng for this job first, and then return the job to Dacheng when Dacheng became an adult.

Mrs. Zhou asked her to give up her job to Zhou Lai, so what will she give back to Dacheng in the future?

Mrs. Zhou didn't expect Lin Dani to dare to reject her, and immediately ordered her family to beat Lin Dani.

Dacheng wanted to help her, but was also kicked out of the courtyard by Lai on Tuesday.

Mrs. Zhou was still sitting at the gate, crying and wiping her tears, crying and complaining that Lin Dani was not filial, saying that when Lai died on Wednesday, Lin Dani would not treat her as her mother-in-law, and tortured and abused her all day long.

In this way, Lin Dani, who was beaten up and couldn't get out of bed, got the reputation of being unfilial, and even Zhou Dani spread the story of Lin Dani's unfilial piety to the factory, and Lin Dani's reputation was really bad.

Lin Dani has a soft temper. In addition, her parents died early, and her brother is not a few years older than her. No one has ever taught her how to deal with the best husband's family after marriage.

Zhou's family kept testing Lin Dani's bottom line. She gave in one inch, and the other party crossed the line by one point, so little by little, she controlled Lin Dani's salary, occupied Lin Dani's house, and even Dacheng's monthly urban hukou ration was taken by Zhou. The family took over.

Dacheng wiped his tears and said bitterly, "My aunt has been sick for half a month, they won't let my aunt see a doctor, they won't give my aunt any food, and they won't even drink hot water. Madam Zhou just wants to discuss. Kill my aunt, let Tuesday Lai take over the job of my aunt's shoe factory."

Gu Shinian looked at Dacheng, who was thin and small, not much taller than Yun Chang, his face became more gloomy, and he asked, "Did the Zhou family not let you eat recently?"

Dacheng nodded, "I have 16 catties of rations every month, all of which are taken away by the Zhou family. Usually if my aunt is disobedient, they will beat me in front of my aunt, and say that if my aunt dares to marry, she will Find someone to kill me..."

Yun Chang's lungs exploded when she heard it, her cheeks were puffed up, she turned around in place for several times, and finally came to Dacheng's side, raised her hand and stabbed him in the head:

"Are you stupid? Is your aunt also stupid? You're going to be killed, but you still don't know how to resist?"

Seeing that Dacheng was still stunned, Yun Chang continued to say angrily:

"Mother Zhou is more than just trying to kill your aunt! She wants to even kill you and your aunt! In this way, your aunt's job is due to Tuesday,

Your Lin family's large courtyard will become their Zhou family's! Are you and your aunt filled with paste in the seeds? Such a simple thing is unexpected! Can piss me off! "

Dacheng was stunned.

It turns out that Mrs. Zhou has been torturing him and his aunt recently, just to want their lives and occupy their house and work.

The anger in Yun Chang's heart was rising, and he could not wait to punch Dacheng a few fists.

"Why are you so stupid? You were asked to file a complaint with the Women's Federation just now, why did you come back and ask someone else to file a complaint for you? Can others know about your family? Can others know that Mrs. Zhou wants to kill you and your aunt? If you don't do what you do, why are you here to hide for leisure?"

Dacheng couldn't raise his head after being scolded by Yunshang, he sneaked a glance at Gu Shinian, saw that his face was gloomy, and he didn't dare to speak.

After a long while, Dacheng cautiously approached the two of them and asked, "Brother Shi Nian, younger sister Yun Chang, then I... Am I going to the Women's Federation now?"

"Wait!" Yun Chang was still angry, "When the people from the Women's Federation come, you can tell me how the Zhou family scolded you and your aunt. Also, tell the people from the Women's Federation directly, listen. Go to Mrs. Zhou's family to discuss that they will kill you and your aunt, so as to occupy your house and your aunt's work! Remember?"

"Well, um, I remember." Dacheng nodded quickly, and gritted his teeth, "I always thought it was me, but I didn't expect the Zhou family to be so bad. I'll definitely talk to the women's federation later. Get all the Zhou family back to the countryside!"

Yun Chang unceremoniously rolled his eyes,

Silly!

How naive!

If you continue to sue, will the Zhou family still want to go back to the countryside?

Dream it!

All go to the labor camp!

Gu Shinian pulled back the still-fried Yunshang, smoothed her hair smoothly, and added to Dacheng's ear:

"When you file a complaint later, you must make it clear to the women's federation that Mrs. Zhou has two purposes for arguing with you. One is to give Tuesday Lai a job in a shoe factory, and the other is to worry about Wednesday's poor life there. Let your aunt be buried and continue to serve Zhou Lai. Just saying these words are what you heard from Mrs. Zhou and the Zhou family, and the Zhou family agreed. "

In this day and age, it is not uncommon for mothers-in-law to abuse their daughters-in-law. As long as there is no death, the sentence will not be too severe. At most, they can go home after two or three years of reeducation through labor. In the future, this family will be able to cling to Lin Dani as tightly as a leech.

But if the latter reason is added, the charge will be heavier.

Who is Laina on Wednesday?

That's a bad guy who was shot by the police for hooliganism.

Not only did the Zhou family engage in feudal superstition, but they also planned to murder people and find a servant for the bad elements shot by the police. What are they trying to do?

Chapter 103 Complaint

People from the Women's Federation came faster than expected, and the troops were divided into three groups. Some people went to Dazayuan to ask Mrs. Zhou to ask for Lin Dani's work permit, and some went to the shoe factory to learn about Mrs. Zhou receiving Lin Dani's salary. Those who came to the hospital to learn about the situation were An elder sister named Ren.

At this moment, Lin Dani had come out of the emergency room, and with the guarantee of the women's federation, the hospital still went through the hospitalization procedures.

As soon as Sister Ren entered the ward, she stared at Da Cheng's ears covered with white gauze for a long time, and saw that the stitches were lying on his head like a centipede, and her eyes widened in shock:

"Oh, little comrade, why did your ear hurt? Why did you half-pull your ear?"

Dacheng's face turned pale in an instant, and even his body trembled unknowingly.

"Little comrade, don't be afraid! It's a new society now, and all grievances are decided by the party and the people! You won't be oppressed or exploited any more! Tell me, this ear injury is from the Zhou family? of?"

When Yun Chang saw Dacheng's eyes twinkling, he knew that he wanted to follow the words of Sister Ren and throw the pot on the Zhou family's head.

"Comrade Ren, this little comrade named Dacheng went to a state-run restaurant to grab the noodles, and the waiter chased him and injured him. Many people saw it at the time!"

It's not a secret that Dacheng robbed the noodles. People from the Women's Federation can know the ins and outs of the incident. If Dacheng follows Sister Ren's words and framed the Zhou family and waited for the women's federation to find out the truth, then his other testimony would not be credible. .

However, everything has two sides. Dacheng did make a mistake in robbing the noodles, but if it works properly, this mistake may not be another evidence of the Zhou family's evildoing.

At this moment, Da Cheng was completely frightened by Yun Chang.

His mind was blank, he turned his head and looked at Yun Chang blankly, his eyes full of disbelief.

He didn't know why Yunshang did this. Obviously, she could follow the words of Sister Ren and put the matter on the Zhou family. Why did she jump out at a critical moment to stop him, and even pass the bad things he did to the comrades of the Women's Federation.

What if the women's federation sees him as a bad element and doesn't let him and his aunt decide?

Gu Shinian frowned, pulled Yun Chang behind him, blocked Da Cheng's sight, and looked at Da Cheng with a hint of warning, until he turned around in embarrassment before giving up.

Sister Ren can't react a bit at the moment, what did she hear?

This kid named Dacheng actually went to the state-run restaurant to grab the noodles to eat?

They even ripped off the half-pulled ears?

Big Sister Ren opened her mouth in surprise, her expression was not as gentle as before, and her gaze towards Dacheng unconsciously took on a scrutiny.

Dacheng looked embarrassed and lowered his head, not daring to look into Big Sister Ren's eyes.

"...Same, comrade, I was wrong, I, I, I don't want to implicate my aunt, if...if..."

"If Dacheng didn't go and grab the noodles for Mrs. Zhou's eldest grandson, the Zhou family would beat him and kill his aunt! I saw it all!" Yun Chang stuck his head out from behind Gu Shinian and interjected again.

Da Sung was stupid again.

Can this be thrown around like this?

Throw the cause of his mistakes on the Zhou family, then he is not a bad element, but a victim of being coerced by bad elements!

Sister Yunshang's mouth is really... It's really exciting!

Sister Ren didn't expect things to turn around again, and after being stunned, she immediately turned around and asked Yunshang what happened.

Gu Shinian stopped Yun Chang, stepped forward and said to Sister Ren, "Comrade, my sister is young, and some things may not be clear, so let me tell you."

Sister Ren first asked about the identities of Gu Shinian and Yun Chang, and confirmed that the two had nothing to do with Dacheng, then nodded and motioned for Gu Shinian to continue.

Gu Shinian started talking when he and Yun Chang had breakfast. He said that Dacheng stole the noodles and stuffed it into his clothes. He said that Dacheng had his ears torn by the waiter and couldn't hide.

He just ran to the house clutching the noodles in his clothes, saying that he and Yun Chang followed to watch the fun, and they saw the scene of Dacheng being abused by Mrs. Zhou.

"Mr. Zhou said that Dacheng brought back too little braised noodles, and it was not enough for her family Da Liang to eat a bite, so she blocked the door of the firewood house and beat Dacheng with a stick in her hand, not letting Dacheng go in to see his aunt, nor let Dacheng look at his ears, I want him to go out to find Bai Nian'er to eat, or he will kill Da Cheng's aunt."

As soon as Gu Shinian finished speaking, Yun Chang hurriedly added, "I also saw Da Cheng take out the braised noodles from his clothes, put half a bowl in it, and let Mrs. Zhou bring it back, saying that it is for Da Liang to eat slowly! Now! It's definitely not over yet!"

Gu Shinian nodded, "Da Cheng didn't change his clothes, so he must still have soy sauce on his body. Comrade Ren can tell by looking at his clothes."

Dacheng blinked, blinked again, always felt that the picture Gu Shinian and Yun Chang were talking about was very familiar, and he almost thought that he was indeed being coerced by Mrs. Zhou to grab the noodles.

But at this time, Dacheng couldn't think about it anymore, and quickly unbuttoned his padded jacket to let Sister Ren see the oil stains in the clothes.

Sister Ren works in the Women's Federation, and her temper is considered to be soft and warm, but after listening to Gu Shinian talk about the whole thing, and then looking at the oil stains in Dacheng's padded jacket, her face turns blue with anger.

This has been liberated, and there are still women and children being exploited and oppressed by their evil mother-in-law. Isn't this slapping their women's federation in the face?

Emancipating women's minds and improving their status are the work of the Women's Federation.

What has she heard now?

The most honorable and hard-working front-line female worker in New China was sent to the hospital for rescue by the wicked mother-in-law. She was so thin that only a handful of bones were left. molecular.

This is the responsibility of the women's federation, the failure of the women's federation to do its job properly, and the dereliction of duty by the women's federation!

Yun Chang gave Dacheng a wink from the side, Dacheng understood, quickly wiped his tears, and told about the things that he and Lin Dani had been bullied by the Zhou family over the years, including the words Gu Shinian taught him.

Sister Ren became more angry when she heard this.

Murdering other people's lives and occupying other people's property is really bad!

In addition, the whole country is now destroying the Four Olds, but the Zhou family still wants to commit suicide and find someone to serve the bad elements shot by the police. Is this dissatisfaction with the party and the people's trial of the bad elements?

This family must be strictly judged!

At this time, the Women's Federation went to Zhou's house, and the staff who went to the shoe factory also came back, confirming that Lin Dani's work permit was detained in Zhou's hands, and also confirmed that Lin Dani's salary in recent months was taken by Zhou Dalai with Zhou's wife. Sister Ren immediately sent someone to report to the police, planning to cooperate with the police to come and deal with the Zhou family.

Dacheng was worried that Lin Dani, who hadn't woken up yet, was staying in the hospital, while Yun Chang took Gu Shinian and followed Sister Ren and her group to Zhou's house.

Chapter 104 Evidence

The group hula-la entered the large courtyard, and Yun Chang rushed to the door of the West House first, pointing to the thick stick on the ground and said:

"Comrade Ren, look, it's this stick! Madam Zhou is the one who beat him with this stick!"

At the same time as she spoke, Yunshang tapped out her mental strength and looked around in the Westinghouse, and found that the broken bowl was still by the bedside, but the braised noodles in it were gone.

Yun Chang knew in his heart that that little noodle must have been taken away by Mrs. Zhou.

Sister Ren stepped forward to pick up the stick, seeing the blood stains on the top, thinking of Da Cheng's half-pulled ears and the blood stains on his collar that couldn't be cleaned in time, she immediately believed Yun Chang's words in her heart.

Lifting his feet into the Westinghouse, he saw that it was a firewood room, and the clothes of women and children were piled on the bare wooden bed, and he knew that this was Lin Dani and Dacheng's room.

The movement of a group of people coming in is not small. The Zhou family was preparing to eat when they heard the sound and they all came out.

The women's federation's comrades didn't have red sleeves on their arms, nor did they have uniform uniforms, and with a group of people from Wuyangyang, the Zhou family really couldn't see where everyone was coming from for a while.

When Mrs. Zhou saw someone break into the Westinghouse, she immediately shouted, "Who are you? Why don't you say hello and break into someone's house? Get out! Get out of our house! Lai Erlai, hurry up and blast these bandits. Walk!"

Zhou Dalai and Tuesday Lai obediently stepped forward and pushed everyone out of the hospital.

Taking advantage of the chaos, Yunshang slipped to the wall of the main house, and entered the house with spiritual power. He saw two boys eating by the chopping board. One was about five or six years old, and the other was slightly shorter, estimated to be three or four years old. look.

There were no adults in the house at the moment, and the two children were grabbing a bowl of potato chips to eat each with a piece of black wowotou.

Yun Chang picked out the thin fried noodles in the canteen of the store, which looked a bit like braised noodles from a state-run restaurant, put a small half bowl in the empty bowls that the two children had, and then returned to Gu Shinian's side in a hurry.

At this moment, the Zhou family already knew that it was from the Women's Federation. Zhou Dalai and Tuesday Lai shrank to the back and did not dare to say a word, while Mrs. Zhou sat in the yard and started complaining at the top of her voice:

"My God, what kind of evil wife is my family married! I lied at home for half a month without going to work, and I see that Tian'er doesn't work and wants to eat white noodles and rice porridge. I can't afford it. You can just abuse me! Leaders of the Women's Federation, you have to decide for me! This is the new China. She Lin Dani still wants to be a capitalist lady, but she bullies us poor and lower-middle peasants. It's impossible to live, my wife, I can't survive!"

Mrs. Zhou's acting skills exploded, tears and snot flying all over her face, I don't know, I thought she was really wronged.

Big Sister Ren ignored Mrs. Zhou, her eyes burning like a torch, and swept over the Zhou family members present one by one.

Starting from Old Man Zhou, to Zhou Dalai and his wife, and then to Tuesday, Lai and his wife, one by one, these people lowered their heads, wishing they could not get out of the cracks in the ground.

Others don't know, but the Zhou family is very clear in their hearts.

Then Lin Dani has been ill in the firewood house for half a month. None of them went to take a look, and none of them gave a bite to eat. If Mrs. Zhou's words could stand up, would Lin Dani still fall to the point of going to the hospital for rescue?

People from the Women's Federation came over in the morning and asked Lin Dani's work permit to leave. How could they not understand the situation? Now that the wife/old lady is crying and complaining, it is in the eyes of the Women's Federation. , it's all like watching a monkey show.

The Zhou family was both scared and embarrassed. In the end, the old man couldn't stand everyone's attention. He mentioned Mrs. Zhou before and shouted:

"Why are you screaming? The comrades of the Women's Federation are here for business, so don't delay people's work!"

As soon as Old Man Zhou reprimanded, Mrs. Zhou immediately shut up, wiped away tears, and honestly stepped aside, Old Man Zhou hurriedly bowed his head and invited everyone into the room:

"Several women's federation leaders,

Come in quickly, it's cold outside, let's go in and talk slowly about anything..."

As soon as the voice fell, there was a sharp howl of a child in the room, and then two boys chased and ran out of it.

The older boy ran in front, holding a bowl of fried noodles in his hand, stuffing noodles into his mouth as he ran, while the smaller boy ran after him, reaching out to grab the noodles from the bowl.

The Zhou family looked at the noodles in the boy's hand, and they were all stunned. Where did these braised noodles come from?

When did their family have such fine food?

And Sister Ren thought of what Yun Chang said in the hospital: Dacheng robbed half a bowl of braised noodles, and let Madam Zhou bring it back!

Isn't this braised noodles in front of you ready-made evidence!

The boy who ran in front of him smiled and shouted at Mrs. Zhou, "Milk! These braised noodles are so delicious. Did this little bastard get it too?"

After he finished speaking, he avoided the small hand grabbing from behind, and shoved the noodles from the bowl into his mouth in two mouthfuls.

When Sister Ren hears this, yes! The children have admitted it, and with this small half-bowl of braised noodles, the evidence is conclusive, so what else is there to ask.

People in the Women's Federation knew in their hearts that in the entire Zhou family, only Zhou Dalai was a regular worker in a shoe factory, and the rest were all rural household registrations. How can one person's salary be enough to support a family of eight.

Even if Mrs. Zhou controlled Lin Dani's salary and deducted Dacheng's monthly rations, the Zhou family would definitely not have a good time. How could Mrs. Zhou be willing to spend a lot of money on white noodles to feed their children.

That's why Mrs. Zhou sparred with Lin Dani and used her to coerce Dacheng to snatch the noodles, which could not only kill Lin Dani quietly, let her be buried with Zhou Lai, but also force Dacheng into a bad guy.

At that time, there is no need for the Zhou family to do anything, and the great achievement can be turned and sent to the police to be shot. In this way, the work of Dazayuaner and Lin Dani will fall into the hands of the Zhou family.

People from the Women's Federation in the hospital all figured out the Zhou family's motive for committing the crime.

There was a sound of hurried footsteps outside the hospital. Big Sister Ren turned around and found that the police had rushed over. She hurried up to meet them, pointed at the Zhou family, and told about the persecution of Lin Dani's aunt and nephew.

The Zhou family was almost dumbfounded.

They sparred with Lin Dani, that is, they wanted a job in the Lin Dani shoe factory. When did they want to kill Lin Dani and let her go downstairs to serve Wednesday Lai?

Besides, San Lai Zi was a bad person shot by the police, no matter how much they thought about it, they would not dare to oppose the government, and even less dared to spar with Lin Dani to death and send him to serve the San Lai Zi below.

Also, people from the Women's Federation said that they persecuted Dacheng, made Dacheng a bad element, and wanted to use the pistols of the police to kill Dacheng, which is even more nonsense.

Their family's monthly rations are not enough. They kill Dacheng, and they need 16 catties of food supply. They are not stupid. Dacheng is more useful to live than to die. What are they doing to kill Dacheng?

Even if the other party is from the public security and women's federations, we can't help but indiscriminately label them, right?

Chapter 105 Solution

The police handling the case is about evidence. Lin Dani was sent to the emergency room after being negotiated as evidence. The work permit that was detained by Mrs. Zhou is also evidence. .

In addition, Zhou Dalai and Tuesday Lai's daughter-in-law saw that the police had come, and they were so frightened that they cut off ties with the Zhou family on the spot, shouted that they would divorce their man, and spit out a lot of the Zhou family's harassment of Lin Dani and Dacheng.

With all the witnesses and physical evidence available, the old couple from the Zhou family, Zhou Dalai and Tuesday Lai, were bundled up and taken away by police comrades.

The two grandsons of the Zhou family had never seen such a battle before, they were so frightened that they hugged their mothers' thighs, shaking their little bodies, and didn't even dare to make a sound.

Seeing that the matter was over, Sister Ren quickly gave the women's federation a task:

"Xiao Li, go to the post office and send a telegram to the two comrades' hometowns and ask someone from the village to take them back. Xiao He, you stay here, help the two comrades pack their clothes, and bring them back to the Women's Federation before two o'clock. Remember, these two comrades have rural hukou, no jobs, and no food supplies. The furniture and food in this house cannot be taken away."

Although the two daughters-in-law of the Zhou family had severed their relationship with the Zhou family, Big Sister Ren still hated them to the extreme.

In Dacheng's story, these two people usually help Madam Zhou to bully Lin Dani.

If it weren't for the concern that the two grandchildren of the Zhou family still needed someone to take care of them, Sister Ren and the people from the police wouldn't be able to let them off so easily.

Xiao He probably understood what Sister Ren was thinking, glanced at the four people huddled in a ball in the yard, and responded loudly:

"Don't worry, Sister Ren! I will definitely guard the courtyard for Comrade Lin Dani!"

The two daughters-in-law of the Zhou family were dumbfounded. This large courtyard is no longer allowed to live, and only clothes are allowed to be used. How will they live in the future?

The eldest daughter-in-law turned her head a little faster. Seeing that Eldest Sister Ren was leading someone to leave, she quickly dragged her son to chase after her, and boldly asked:

"Comrade Ren, my man... No, Zhou Dalai is a regular worker in a shoe factory and earns a salary every month. I'll raise his son for him, and his salary must be paid to me... Otherwise, our mothers will have a good time. How's it going?"

Sister Ren stopped, looked back at the eldest daughter-in-law of the Zhou family, and said to Xiao He, "Xiao He, the Zhou family received Comrade Lin Dani's salary for four months, you remember to keep this money for Comrade Lin Dani, and the rest Yes, the two comrades are divided equally."

The two daughters-in-law of the Zhou family were dumbfounded again.

Lin Dani is a second-level worker, and her monthly salary is 24 yuan 5, which is 98 yuan in four months. In the Zhou family of eight, only Zhou Dalai earns wages. The family expenses are also large on weekdays. Now the whole family It is estimated that I can't find 50 yuan. Where can I deduct the 98 yuan?

Knowing that the women's federation's comrades were determined not to care about them, the two were sensible and did not come forward to entangle them.

After coming out of the courtyard, Yun Chang trotted close to Sister Ren, tugged at the corner of her clothes, and asked furtively, "Comrade Ren, how many years can someone like the Zhou family be able to reform through labor?"

Big Sister Ren said with a smile, "The Zhou family has committed a lot of things. Zhou Dalai and Tuesday Lai had to reeducate through labor for at least ten years. Zhou Quanfu and his wife, it is estimated that they will not be able to get out in this lifetime."

The comrade next to him said, "This is still a lighter sentence. If the sentence is severe, the Zhou family won't even have a chance to reform through labor!"

Yun Chang hadn't yet reacted to what the other party meant, and someone answered.

"On Wednesday, Lai was sentenced to death for making broken shoes. This is a big case of murder. How can the sentence be lighter. I think the Zhou family really has no chance of reform through labor this time."

Yun Chang blinked and realized that the other party said there was no chance of reform through labor, meaning that the Zhou family was going to be sentenced to death?

This thing... is too serious!

That's right, they've already committed money and murder, how can the public security easily let this family go.

Sister Ren sighed, "This week, the whole family is broken at the root. I asked the comrades of the police to find out about the situation. That Wednesday, Lai didn't break his shoes and was shot, but bought a yellow flower girl outside with food stamps. , was arrested when he abused people... If this is an ordinary broken shoe, he will be sent to labor camp for ten or eight years at most, but he is all about buying and selling women... Tell me, who is this family? !"

People from the Women's Federation were gossiping in front, and Yun Chang retreated to Gu Shinian's side, quietly saying, "Second brother Gu, the Zhou family is likely to die."

"If they want to make money and kill their lives, they have to be prepared to capsize." Gu Shinian glanced at the crowd in front and lowered his voice, "Ah Chang, even without us, Dacheng will find a way to find someone to rescue Lin Dani. As long as someone intervenes, this matter can't be concealed, and the Zhou family will also die. It's just that Dacheng may suffer a little bit of guilt for robbing the noodles."

Yun Chang nodded, but didn't bother about it anymore.

Back at the hospital, Lin Dani was already awake. The people from the shoe factory guild just left after visiting. Big Sister Ren brought people from the Women's Federation in, and first took Lin Dani's hand and gave her a long time. Women can hold up half the sky, and sisters and sisters stand up. Ideological and political lessons. He talked about the Zhou family being taken away by the police again. After confirming that Lin Dani would be okay, he quickly left with someone.

Yun Chang and Gu Shinian waited for the women's federation to leave before entering the ward. Dacheng stood by the bed, and when they saw them coming in, they rushed over excitedly and asked:

"Brother Shi Nian, younger sister Yun Chang, and the comrades of the Women's Federation are telling the truth? Mrs. Zhou's family was really arrested? Da Liang and Er Liang were also driven back to the countryside? Will no one dare to occupy our house in the future... "

Yun Chang felt that Da Cheng's grin was too stupid, turned his head away from him in disgust, and carefully observed Lin Dani's brows on the hospital bed.

On the other hand, Gu Shinian was patient and answered Dacheng's questions one by one.

"Brother Shi Nian, so, I, I... I'll be fine?"

"Well, nothing will happen. You were coerced by Mrs. Zhou's family to do something you didn't want to do, and you are also a victim..."

"That's great! Thank you, Brother Shinian! Thank you, Sister Yunshang..."

Dacheng's mouth grinned happily, but tears kept oozing out of the corners of his eyes. He turned and lay beside Lin Dani's bed, laughing and whimpering in a low voice:

"Aunt! I'm fine! I'm not a bad person...! Oh, aunt, our family's courtyard is saved... Yours, yours, and your job are also saved..."

Most importantly, your life is saved!

Yun Chang belly slandered.

Lin Dani raised her hand and touched Dacheng's head, tears streaming down her cheeks.

Yun Chang was speechless.

These aunts and nephews are really honest, even crying is restrained and restrained, only dare to let out a small whimper.

Gu Shinian rubbed his brows helplessly, stepped forward and pulled Dacheng up, and said to Lin Dani who was choking:

"Comrade Lin Dani, I have something to talk to you about."

Chapter 106 All Picked Up

"...After Lai was shot on Wednesday, the female workers in the factory often talked about my aunt behind their backs. Later, Zhou Dalai went to the factory and said that my aunt was unfilial, and those workers even ignored her. My aunt and I were bullied by the Zhou family. No one told us that we could file a complaint with the guild or the Women's Federation. If we knew we could file a complaint, I definitely couldn't let my aunt be sick for so long..."

Yun Chang squatted at the door of the ward, listening to Da Cheng ramble without a word, and from time to time, she turned her head and stared at the two people in the ward who were talking in secret.

Dacheng sucked the fruit candy in his mouth, turned back and stared at Yunshang tightly, "Sister Yunshang, I think you and my aunt look alike, both look good."

"No vision!" Yun Chang rolled her eyes at Dacheng, "I'm obviously better-looking than your aunt!"

Dacheng shrank his neck and stopped talking.

Yun Chang couldn't see Dacheng's air bag, and reprimanded, "You're a boy! You can't even say a word when you're cringing all day long. How can you protect your aunt in the future? It's useless!"

"But my aunt said that we don't have a man in our family, so we can't quarrel with people, otherwise she won't be able to protect me."

Dacheng has a look of grievance, while Yunshang is stunned.

No wonder Dacheng feels so inconsistent.

When he grabbed the noodles, he was as fierce as a wolf cub rushing down the mountain, but once he returned rationally, he became a pitiful airbag who only shivered and shed tears.

After listening to Da Cheng's words, Yun Chang knew why he was so cowardly.

Think about it too, just like a soft bun like Lin Dani, no matter how fierce a wolf cub, she can use tears to suppress his nature and turn a good wolf into a quail.

Wanting to understand this, Yun Chang slapped Da Cheng angrily, "Don't listen to your aunt! Who said you don't have a man? Aren't you the man from your family? Protect? You have to learn to protect your aunt from being bullied!"

Dacheng's eyes lit up as he looked at Yun Chang and nodded again and again.

"Sister Yunshang is right, I am the man in our family, and I have to protect my aunt."

Yun Chang glanced at the ward again, and asked Dacheng secretly, "Dacheng, let me ask you, do you have any lost children in your family?"

Dacheng thought for a while, then shook his head, "No. My family is just me and my aunt, and there are no other children."

Yun Chang lowered her eyes, feeling very disappointed.

The reason why she and Gu Shinian tried their best to help Lin Dani, in addition to suspecting that Lin Dani is Wen Jin, also suspects that Yun Chang's body is the child of the Lin family, suspects that Da Cheng is Yun Chang's brother, and now knows that Lin Dani is not Wen Jin, Knowing that she has nothing to do with this aunt and nephew, Yun Chang suddenly felt that she was busy working in vain.

In the ward, Gu Shinian also asked Lin Dani the same question. Lin Dani first shook his head in denial, and then hurriedly said to Gu Shinian:

"Comrade Gu, the Lin family has never lost a child, but they have picked up a child! I, I'm not a Dacheng aunt! I'm... a child picked up by my parents! Comrade Gu Xiao, go back and ask your sister's family, See if their family lost a three-year-old girl 18 years ago... To tell you the truth, the first time I saw your sister, I felt close..."

Lin Dani also wants to recognize her relatives?

Gu Shinian was speechless for a while, feeling that things were really tricky.

Both Yunshang and Lin Dani suspected that the other's family was their own relatives, but they searched for it, but found that both of them had picked it up.

At this point, even if Yunshang and Lin Dani are related by blood, they cannot recognize each other because there is no evidence.

Just because the two look alike, you can't just imagine yourself as a relative.

"Comrade Lin Dani, Ah Chang may be related to you by blood, but Ah Chang's current family can never be your family."

Lin Dani raised her head, and after a long while, she shook her lips and asked, "...Comrade Gu Xiao,

You, you mean, you mean, Yun Chang also picked it up? "

Gu Shinian nodded, his brows furrowed tightly together.

"Comrade Lin Dani, do you want to recognize relatives, do you simply want to find your relatives, or do you feel that it is difficult for you to lead Dacheng by yourself, and you want to find yourself a backer?"

Lin Dani quickly denied it, "No! Comrade Gu Xiao, the people from the Women's Federation helped me drive away the Zhou family, and I am a regular worker in a shoe factory, with wages and rations, so I can support Dacheng! I asked about these things... I just want to know why my father and mother don't want me."

Looking at the small figure of Yunshang outside the ward, Lin Dani continued, "Comrade Gu Xiao, can you leave me an address, you and Yunshang have helped me so much, I want to make two new pairs for her. shoes to wear..."

Gu Shinian thought about it, and left the address of Yunshang to Lin Dani.

He had a hunch that even if Lin Dani was not Wen Jin, her background was inextricably linked to Yun Chang's body.

Moreover, Lin Dani has a soft and pure temperament, and there are no other relatives by her side, so she can temporarily go back and forth as a godfather.

...

Yun Chang was extremely depressed at this moment, and she didn't want to stay in the hospital, so she probed in and called Gu Shinian, silently urging him to leave quickly.

Gu Shinian glanced at the sky outside, and seeing that it was getting late, he pulled Yunshang, took out a small bag of brown sugar from the military bag to replenish Lin Dani's body, and told Dacheng a few words, and soon left with Yunshang. Hospital.

The two went to the shopping mall first, bought some inexpensive but very handy gifts to give away, then went to the train station to buy tickets, ate dinner hastily, and hurried back to the guest house to rest.

Early the next morning, when the sky was just getting brighter, Yun Chang was carried by Gu Shinian onto the train in a daze, and it was not until he left Linyang Land Realm that Yun Chang stretched his waist and woke up.

"Second brother Gu, what time do we get to the county?"

Gu Shinian took out the water bottle to feed Yunshang hot water, and answered, "If it's not late, it will be seven o'clock. We will live in the county at night and return to Xinglin Village tomorrow."

Yun Chang nodded, leaned on the window and glanced outside, the bare yellow earth, there was not a trace of greenery in the eyes, and it was indescribably desolate and desolate.

The train galloped all the way and finally stopped in Qinghe County when night fell.

There were snowflakes in the sky again, and there were only a few pedestrians outside the station. Yun Chang buried her head in Gu Shinian's arms, avoiding the biting cold wind blowing her face.

"A-Shang, I'll take you to Zhang Chunni's house to find a door first. I'll stay there at night, and take the mule cart back tomorrow morning."

Yun Chang nodded, "Second brother Gu, I have to go to the old Han's house tomorrow morning before going back."

Last time I took so much delicious food from Mrs. Han, she had to choose some expensive food to give back to the other party, and Grandpa Han also called and asked someone to find her in the provincial capital. This kind of favor can be remembered in Yunshang. In my heart.

Chapter 107: Money fans looking forward to returning

Zhang Chunni's house was not far from Cross Street. The two went down the train station and walked for nearly half an hour before arriving at Linfang.

At the end of the dark alley, the crooked black firewood door was tightly closed, and through the gap of the firewood door, the two saw that the main house was dark, while the east room was dimly lit.

Yun Chang glanced inside and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, there is no one in the main house of your house, and your mother doesn't live at home?"

Gu Shinian held Yun Chang tightly with one hand, raised his hand and knocked on the door, "Well, it's time for the night shift, Gu Panguai is home alone."

"How about Gu Panguai, is it easy to get along?"

Gu Shinian was silent for a moment, then replied, "It's alright, as long as the money is in place, Gu Panguai can get along easily."

Yun Chang was inexplicably nervous in her heart. She stretched out her hand and "touched" her face. She found that except for the ice, her skin was smooth and tender enough to not affect her cuteness, so she breathed a sigh of relief.

Gu Shinian didn't miss Yun Chang's movements, the corners of her mouth twitched slightly, she always felt that she looked a bit like an ugly "wife" who came to see her in-laws.

Anticipation, nervousness, and a little helplessness.

"Ah Chang, Gu Panguai recognizes the money but not the person. If you show her cuteness, it's better to give her two fruit candies."

Yun Chang pouted in disgust, "I don't need money to sell cute, can I buy fruit candy without money?"

Gu Shinian: "..."

The two were talking, and the sound of footsteps came from the yard, and then a slightly low female voice asked through the door panel, "Who is it?"

"Gu Pangui, open the door." When Gu Shinian spoke again, his voice was much colder.

"Yeah! The third one? Where have you been, you bastard? I gave you 20 sloppy eyes, one by one, 'hair', give me two dollars..."

Gu Pangui opened the door, and before he finished speaking, Gu Shinian had already squeezed in through the crack of the door with Yun Chang in his arms, and when he passed by Gu Pangui, his voice coldly dropped three words:

"Five 'hairs'!"

"Why?" Gu Pangui became anxious, and hurriedly followed behind Gu Shinian, "We were good at the beginning, I gave you a sloppy eye, and once you gave me a cent,

If you dare to say nothing, I will tell Comrade Zhang that you have not returned home in your 20s! "

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, and quickly realized that Comrade Zhang in Gu Pangui's mouth was Zhang Chunni.

In my heart, I was curious about Gu Pangui's name for Zhang Chunni, but I heard Gu Shinian's reply in a slow and slow manner:

"Five cents for scolding, and five cents for threats. You still have one dollar left. If you don't shut up, I will continue to deduct."

Gu Pangui suddenly shut up.

Yun Chang almost laughed when she saw it, and finally understood what Gu Shinian's Gu Pangui meant by "recognizing money but not people".

Just looking at the way these two get along with each other, it is more appropriate to have a business relationship rather than siblings.

Seeing that Gu Shinian was about to enter the side room, Gu Pangui hurried forward to stop him, "Hey, hey! Third child! Gu Guangzong emptied all the things in your room a few days ago, and threw feces on your kang. , I can't see this house now, and I can't live in it! If you give me two yuan, I will let you live in my house, and I will live in Comrade Zhang's house, how about it?"

Gu Shinian stopped and turned around to ask Gu Pangui, "Where is Gu Guangzong now?"

"Who knows, I'm going to go out to be a second bastard again!" Gu Guangzong started, and Gu Pangui's tone was full of disgust, "Recently, Gu Guangzong has come back for dinner for nothing, and he doesn't come back to live at night, I always feel that the grandson of the turtle is not good enough. What a shit!"

Gu Shinian turned around and walked into the east room with Yun Chang in his arms, "I'll give you five yuan in total. You can tell me everything about Gu Guangzong's recent movements."

"Okay! Okay, five yuan, you can't make excuses to deduct my money this time..."

Several people were entering the door at this time. Under the dim light, Gu Pangui saw Yun Chang in Gu Shinian's arms at a glance, blinked, blinked again, and suddenly grabbed Gu Shinian's hand and said:

"Hey? The third! Where did you get the girl? Could it be stolen? My third! You can't learn to sell children to make money, this is a brainless thing, in case you do something What's the matter, where will I put my money in the future..."

Yunshang: "... Really, wonderful!

Yun Chang was angry about the fact that Gu Guangzong threw feces in Gu Shinian's room. Now, after hearing Gu Pangui's words, the anger in his stomach was suppressed unconsciously.

This hope is really... too much to describe.

Gu Shinian was also speechless for a long time, shook off Gu Pangui's hand, his tone was helpless, but he said with a hint of warning, "Gu Pangui, this is Yunshang, it's my sister, you will protect her in the future, I will let you back. Make money, if you..."

"I know! This girl looks so cute, but she can kiss the dead. I will definitely protect her!"

Yunshang: "... Just because I'm cute? Isn't he protecting me because he can make money?"

After entering the door for so long, Yun Chang had already "touched" Gu Pangui's "sex".

In front of others, she can probably still brush her face with a tender skin, but in front of Gu Pangui, brushing anything is not as useful as brushing money!

Yun Chang raised her head and looked at Gu Pangui carefully, at the age of fourteen or five, with thick eyebrows, big eyes, a rather upturned nose, and a slightly square face. Under the dim light, Gu Pangui's tough facial features were much softer. She is also a pretty lady.

However, it is still not as good-looking as Gu Erge! I'm not even more beautiful!

Yun Chang said in his heart.

Gu Pangui hurriedly climbed onto the kang, rolled up his quilt, and took out an old quilt from the kang cabinet, "Third, wait a minute, I'll get it for you. Quilt!"

Gu Shinian looked at the familiar old quilt in Gu Pangui's hand, his eyelids jumped a few times, "Gu Pangui! This seems to be my quilt!"

"...Yes, yes...Hi! Then I saw Gu Guangzong went to your house to move things again, so I quickly carried your quilt over. It's a pity that I'm worrying about you, or else you won't even bother. The quilt can't even fall on the bed!"

Yun Chang was speechless again.

This kind of looking forward to returning to greed is too fresh and refined.

And the brains turn fast.

Gu Pangui glanced at Gu Shinian with a guilty conscience, then quickly lowered his head to spread the quilt, not forgetting to change the subject, "You don't make a sound when you enter the door, I can't even see that you are holding a girl in your arms, it's dark outside. Black, I thought you were holding a sack!"

Gu Shinian knew what kind of virtue Gu Pangui was, and ignored her, put Yun Chang on the hot kang head, "touched" her slightly cold face, and asked in a low voice, "Ah Chang, I'm hungry. Right? There are buns and dumplings in the bag, what do you want to eat?"

Yun Chang thought for a while, ordered dumplings, Gu Shinian glanced at Gu Pangui, who was secretly swallowing saliva, and said, "You go to the fire first, I'll wash my face and put the dumplings here."

Gu Pangui Ma slipped into the kang, and asked, "How many 'hairs' to burn the fire?"

Chapter 108 Change rooms

"You don't want to eat dumplings?"

Gu Shinian asked a question in return, and Gu Pangui quickly shut up.

After Gu Pan returned to go out, Yun Chang looked up at Gu Shinian, the expression on her face was indescribable.

"Second brother Gu, this Gu Pangui is really... a wonderful work!"

Gu Shinian smiled, "Such a skirt is easy to deal with, as long as it's good to take it, she won't make a fool of yourself, and she won't slap you in the face. She will also find ways to flatter you and make your life comfortable. comfortable."

Yun Chang squinted, beckoned to Gu Shinian, and whispered into his ear, "Second brother Gu, in the future, you will pay Gu Pangui to take care of you. Like laundry, quilt, and room cleaning... "

At this point, Yun Chang remembered Gu Guangzong throwing feces on Gu Shinian's kang, and instantly changed his tone and said angrily, "Second brother Gu, Gu Guangzong is too bully, dare to throw feces in your room, How are you going to deal with him?"

Gu Shinian patted Yun Chang's head, "No hurry, you wait here. I'll go and throw Gu Guangzong's things in my room, and I'll live in his room in the future."

"Can Gu Guangzong be happy?"

"If he doesn't like it, I'll rush him to go back home. If he's honest, I won't argue with him. Are you willing or not?"

Yun Chang was happy for a while.

This Gu Guangzong did so many actions, the purpose is to look back at home, Gu Shinian's condition, didn't it just hit his lifeline.

In Yun Chang's mind, he imagined that Gu Guangzong was dissatisfied, but he had to endure his disgust, moved into the room where he had thrown a lot of shit, and almost laughed out loud.

Gu Shinian pushed open the door of his room first, and a pungent smell shot straight into his nostrils. He pulled the light cord by the door, glanced at the filthy empty room, turned around and kicked the door of Gu Guangzong's room next door, picked up the quilt on the kang and the clothes in the cabinet, and stood in his room. At the door, one by one was thrown in.

It wasn't until Gu Guangzong's clothes completely blocked the pickled things in the room that Gu Shinian was satisfied, closed the door and exited.

At this moment, Gu Pangui has brought a large pot of hot water over, and he wants Gu Shinian and Yun Chang to wash up, and then hurried back to the kitchen, and boiled water to prepare dumplings.

Yunshang looked busy like a spinning top and looked forward to returning,

Looking at the steaming hot water in the room, I felt that Gu Pangui was really interesting.

After receiving the money, the service will be in place.

If this is left to future generations, it will be a good businessman.

Yun Chang washed her face first, filled a lunch box full of frozen dumplings from the supermarket, took out oil paper, wrapped a few meat buns, and walked on the snow to the kitchen.

"Sister Pangui, there are only 30 frozen dumplings, which is not enough for us. You can reheat some more meat buns."

"Hey, okay! I'm just worried that a box of dumplings isn't enough, and I'm wondering if I should give the third one a couple of nests!"

Gu Pangui Gao Xin's eyes squinted into a slit, and let Yun Chang make the bench under her buttocks, and let her get close to the stove to bake the fire.

"Sister Yunshang, how do you know my third child? Me and you, my third child is still old, and he has to go to school after the new year. He usually earns some pocket money by picking up rubbish, but it's hard work. , I don't know how much effort he has to spend to get it back, you can save some food later... Hey, where are you eating, you are drinking the blood of the third child, oh, I think about it It hurts to eat..."

Yun Chang was speechless, did Gu Pangui mean by these words not to let her eat?

Seeing that Gu Pangui was still going down, Yun Chang stood up and said, "Sister Pangui, these meals are all mine!"

Don't care about the dumbfounded Gu Pangui, and quickly returned to the room.

After washing his face, Gu Shinian was pouring water, he listened to Gu Pangui's words, and walked to the kitchen door, "Gu Pangui, you can't eat it because you feel bad, then just eat three dumplings and taste it later. already."

"The third one! There are buns here, enough for the two of you, I'll eat another bun..."

"Two dumplings!" Gu Shinian said with a cold face, "If you dare to make a fool of yourself in front of Ah Chang, I will let you not even taste the taste of dumplings!"

Gu Pangui shrank his neck, "...What, the third child, I have nothing to do, don't I feel sorry for my third child..."

"Are you distressed about my money?" Gu Shinian was speechless again.

"Gu Pangui, if you are honest in the future, I can let you earn two pocket money. If you are not honest, go to Gu Guangzong to earn money."

Gu Pan was honest when he returned home.

Although the third child has no money in his hand, he is very happy every time he gives money, and he is also generous.

Although Gu Guangzong was a little older and had more pocket money, he was too stubborn about sex. Always instructing her to work and not giving her money, she was so foolish that she let the third child not flatter him, and went to flatter Gu Guangzong.

Gu Shinian put down the washbasin, and returned to Gu Pan, who shrank his neck, "You have a message for Gu Guangzong, and I want his room. If he is honest in the future, I will not scramble with him. Back in the provincial capital, if he dares to provoke me again, I will go to the provincial capital to find Gu Huaiqing to recognize him."

Gu Pangui nodded, then lowered his face and stared blankly at the flames in the stove.

The water in the pot quickly boiled. Gu Shinian glanced at Gu Pangui, who was still in a daze. He stepped forward to lift the lid of the pot, put the dumplings in the pot, and pushed the dumplings around in the pot with a spoon. Cover the pot and remind Gu Pangui to pull the bellows quickly.

"Third, you haven't been at home these days, and Comrade Zhang hasn't asked you. You... You really haven't thought about going back to the provincial capital?"

"Although Comrade Ying Zhang ignored me, he didn't miss my food, he didn't miss my clothes, and I didn't miss anything. Why go to the provincial capital to get angry."

Gu Shinian's answer was very calm, and Gu Pangui heaved a sigh of relief, "It's good if you can think so, our family can't starve you or freeze you, and Comrade Zhang usually doesn't care about what you want. Let me live my life freely, but go to the provincial capital to suffer! Besides, you are gone, I have nowhere to make money."

Gu Shinian's face darkened, but after hearing Gu Pangui, he continued:

"Don't learn from Gu Guangzong, he is a fool, and he will regret it sooner or later. You, in our house, Comrade Zhang gives three yuan of pocket money every month, no matter how we spend it. When he goes to that house, That woman can give him so much money every month? In the future, he will be able to compete with that girl for the family property? If he doesn't die, it's not bad..."

"The dumplings are ready."

Gu Shinian interrupted Gu Pangui's words, picked up the dumplings, only left two for Gu Pangui, put the steamed buns in the pot, picked up the lunch box and went back to the room. rebirth 60 good times

Chapter 109 Stronger than his father

Gu Pangui was dumbfounded. Looking at the two pitiful dumplings at the bottom of the bowl, he took out his chopsticks and stuffed them into his mouth. With a meat bun in his arms, he quickly followed back to the room.

Yunshang sat in front of the kang table, eating dumplings while listening to Gu Pangui and Gu Shinian leaking secrets, and digging up Gu Guangzong's recent actions.

Outside, the snowflakes rustled non-stop, sitting on the hot kang head and eating steaming dumplings, Yunshang's exhaustion from rushing all the way quickly came up.

He still had dumplings in his mouth, but his head fell straight down little by little.

Gu Shinian stopped Gu Pangui's words, held back a smile and took out half of the dumplings in Yunshang's mouth, put her into the bed lightly, turned back a few mouthfuls to finish dinner, and went to the kitchen to get two hot buns, Wrapped in oil paper, pushed the door and walked out in the face of heavy snow.

Yun Chang slept very comfortably this night. When he opened his eyes in the morning, the color was already bright, and there was a thick pile of snow in the yard.

Gu Shinian had already woken up and was sweeping snow in the yard. There was a clean flatbed on the open space beside him.

Gu Pangui wrapped a bright red scarf on his head, greeted Gu Shinian with a cheerful voice, and jumped open the firewood door and walked out.

Yun Chang was lying at the window, watching Gu Shinian busy outside, and suddenly felt that this small and empty courtyard became lively and interesting.

Gu Shinian turned his head and saw Yun Chang lying at the window smiling at him, dropped the broom in his hand, and came over and poked her forehead through the window:

"Wake up? Hurry up and brush your teeth and wash your face, and take you to the old Han's house later."

Yun Chang heard the words and went down to the kang to wash up. After breakfast, I took out half a handful of bananas, four apples, and two large pieces of bread from the space, and put them in a military bag to give to Mrs. Han as a return gift.

Before the two went out, Gu Shinian first asked Yun Chang to put the flatbed in the yard into the space, and then released Wang Widow's "wife", locked the door, and pulled Wang Widow's "wife" one by one with Yun Chang. Shallow feet walked to the old Han's house.

Probably because of the heavy snow, Han Shan and Mrs. Han did not go out. They were very pleasantly surprised to see Yun Chang and Gu Shinian coming over with Widow Wang's "wife".

"Yeah! When did you come back from the provincial capital? Are you okay in the provincial capital? What happened to the doctor? Erchuan asked your grandfather Han to look after you last time.

No one was found! You two children are too bold, fortunately you can find it yourself, or your "milk" will be in such a hurry! "

Mrs. Han took Yun Chang's hand and kept rubbing it, and a series of words blurted out from her mouth.

On the other hand, Han Shan greeted Gu Shinian to sit down by the stove, and also opened his mouth to inquire about the situation of the two in the provincial capital.

Yun Chang was afraid of the endless reprimands from Mrs. Han, so she pulled the bag in Gu Shinian's arms and kept taking things out of it:

"Grandpa Han, Han 'milk', 'milk', we came back last night! It went well in the provincial capital, and I took my mother to see several doctors, but unfortunately I didn't look good.

Han 'milk' 'milk', look, I'll bring you delicious food from the provincial capital! There are bananas, apples, and large bread, all delicious! "

Yun Chang first broke a banana and stuffed it into Widow Wang's "wife"'s hand, then broke a banana each for Mrs. Han and Han Shan, and peeled the skins for both of them intimately.

"Han 'milk', 'milk', try it now, this banana is delicious!"

The old lady Han widened her eyes first, then pulled Yun Chang with a painful face, and shoved the banana into her mouth.

"Ouch! You kid, why don't you know that you care about money! How expensive is this thing! It can be exchanged for food for young and old! Quick, don't eat 'milk' or 'milk', you eat it yourself."

Yun Chang turned her head to the side, avoiding the feeding of Mrs. Han, and did not forget to ask Gu Shinian for help.

"Second Brother Gu! Tell Han I've eaten all the milk! I've eaten a lot!"

Gu Shinian hurriedly pulled Yun Chang out of Mrs. Han's arms and said with a smile, "Han's 'milk' and 'milk', Ah Chang has indeed eaten it, and I also left her bananas and apples. These are Ah Chang's The provincial capital is ready for you, and you and Grandpa Han should have a taste."

Han Shan and Mrs. Han's expressions are distorted one by one. They are happy that Yun Chang is still thinking about them when they go out, but they also feel that these things are too expensive. They take advantage of the two children when they accept them, but they don't accept them. A little sorry for the feelings of the two children, and the contradiction in my heart is tight.

With this interruption, the old couple also forgot the question they asked before, sitting there, nibbling on the banana as if the cat was licking food, while teaching Yunshang not to be extravagant in the future, and not to bring any more things next time you come here if.

It was snowing a little outside, and Gu Shinian noticed that the Han's yard had not been swept away yet, so he went out to find a broom, ready to sweep a path for the old couple.

Seeing this, Han Shan couldn't sit still. He quickly put the remaining bananas in his mouth, went out and snatched the broom in Gu Shinian's hand, and drove him into the house.

"You kid, you just came back from the provincial capital, you haven't rested yet, but you don't dare to work anymore!"

"Grandpa Han, I've slept all night. I don't have much work to do anymore, so I'll just make a way. You and I can walk out of the yard and go to school."

Gu Shinian grabbed the broom from Han Shan's hand and swept out a road more than one meter wide. Han Shan was stunned for a moment.

Old Mrs. Han smiled and squinted in the room, and kept praising to Yun Chang that Gu Shinian was a child with a job and a good heart.

"Shangnan, you and Han's "milk" and "milk, which family's second brother Gu are you? How can you raise it so well!"

Yun Chang didn't hide it from the old lady Han now, got up and got into the old lady's arms and said:

"Han "milk" "milk", my second brother Gu's home is in the county, and his father is Gu Huaiqing, who is a political commissar in the provincial military region."

"Yo! It's his child?" The old lady Han was startled, then turned her head to look at Gu Shinian who was working in the courtyard, and said with a deep meaning, "This kid is better than his father, he is a caring man. of."

Yun Chang nodded, "I also think Second Brother Gu is good. When I go out with him, he won't let me walk on the ground. I'm not tired at all, but it's easy!"

Mrs. Han looked even more pleasing to the eyes of Gu Shinian.

A child who is only so old knows that he loves people, and when he grows up, he must be a "wife" who loves his daughter-in-law.

But you have to be careful, and you can't be cheap for outsiders in the future.

After sweeping the snow, Gu Shinian patted the snowflakes on his body, came in and greeted Yun Chang, ready to leave for Xinglin Village.

The old couple of the Han family wanted to leave a few people to eat before going back, but they were rejected by Gu Shinian, "Grandpa Han, Han "milk" "milk", Ah Chang and I have to clean up the house when we go back, otherwise we won't be able to do it at night. Stay. Wait for the next time, next time I will take Ah Chang to taste the craftsmanship of Han's "milk" and "milk"."

Chapter 110 I heard that your mother eloped with someone

After coming out of Han's house, there was a bamboo basket behind Gu Shinian's back, which contained the delicious food that Mrs. Han had prepared for Yun Chang.

Han Shan, on the other hand, took a few people to the mule cart back to town in the snow, and then followed the handlebars, "Old man, my two children are going back with a patient, I'm not at ease, can you be a little tired? Send it to Xinglin Village?"

"Yes, yes, but this mule cart is a public property, and the snow is heavy, and it will cost a lot of money to send it back."

Han Shan happily took out the money, "Okay! Let's add more money, the old man is a little tired, so help send the two children back."

There were several guests in the mule cart. After Yunshang and Gu Shinian brought Wang Widow's "wife" into the cart, the handlebar style stopped waiting for people. They hit the empty whip and the mule cart started to move.

The daughter-in-law sitting at the front looked back at Yunshang and the widow Wang from time to time, and finally couldn't help raising her voice and asked:

"Daughter girl, are you the daughter of Yun Dachuan's family in Xinglin Village?"

Yunshang nodded, and the daughter-in-law asked again, "I heard that you took Wang Guihua to the provincial capital to see a doctor. Are you coming back?"

"Well, I just came back from the provincial capital."

"Yo! Are you really going to see a doctor?" The daughter-in-law slapped her thigh, moved over from the front, and approached Yunshang, "Oh, you are back, or if you don't come back, this ten-mile-eight-cun Everyone thinks that your mother eloped with someone!"

Yun Chang was stunned, where did the word elopement come from?

The daughter-in-law leaned over to the widow Wang's side and looked at it for a while, and clapped her hands exaggeratedly, "This Wang Guihua is really mad! Girl, can the doctor take care of her?"

Yun Chang shook her head and asked the daughter-in-law, "Auntie, it's really rumored that my mother eloped with someone? We just went to the provincial capital to see a doctor, so why did it become an elopement?"

"That's what happened." The daughter-in-law wentssip with Yunshang, "The first two, the mother-in-law of Sun Datou from Qingpu Village went to your village to make trouble, Sun Datou disappeared, it was you and your mother. Kidnapped, I want your old Yun family to hand over Sun Datou!"

The daughter-in-law patted her thigh angrily, "Aren't you blind! Your mother is so sick, why did you run away with someone? That Sun Datou didn't know who he was running with, so Mrs. Lai couldn't find anyone. It's up to your mother."

Yun Chang glanced at Gu Shinian and saw that his expression did not change, and he continued to speak his daughter-in-law's words quietly,

"Auntie, there's no one in my family. Did Mrs. Sun Datou go to my house to make trouble?"

"It's not that bad! Your "milk" was so angry that you almost passed out. Your second uncle was going to beat that mother-in-law, so your second aunt stopped him. If you want me, your second aunt is not a good thing. Look at the mother-in-law Sun Datou. My parents are rich and powerful, so I don't dare to provoke them, but I'm just making your "milk" wronged."

Someone next to him followed the words of his daughter-in-law and said, "I guess that when I touched Sun Datou, I just couldn't stand the sex of his mother-in-law, so I rolled up the money and ran away with someone. Girl, you bring along with you. It's just right for your mother to come back, let your grandfather and your "milk" come to the door to settle the account with the tiger lady, how can you be so wronged!"

"That is, come to their house to settle accounts, and you can't let people pour dirty water on your mother!"

Yun Chang listened to the advice of these "good-hearted people" without saying a word, thinking about the old lady's body.

That daughter-in-law is gone, the old lady almost succumbed to it, she was greatly stimulated, and I don't know if her body has recovered now

Yun Chang nestled in Gu Shinian's arms, watching the thick snow by the roadside, counting the seconds.

After finally waiting for the mule cart to enter the village, Yun Chang jumped down without waiting for the cart to stop, and ran straight towards the open gate:

"Grandpa! 'Milk'! I'm back! 'Milk'! Are you at home? I'm back!"

When the old lady Yun heard the sound, she took a broom in her hand and came out of the room with her feet upside down. As soon as she saw Yun Chang, her eyes filled with tears:

"I'm back! It's a nightmare for me, I'm afraid you won't be able to come back! Ouch, I'm scared to death!"

"'Milk'! With second brother Gu, I won't lose it. How are you at home? I heard that you were sick a few days ago."

The old lady took Yun Chang's hand to look up and down, and saw that she was more round and white than before, her wrinkled face turned into a chrysanthemum with a smile, "Don't listen to people blind, 'milk' is fine... By the way, Comrade Gu, where is your mother?"

Yun Chang carefully observed the old lady's face. Seeing that her mental state was not bad, she breathed a sigh of relief and pointed to the outside, "Second brother Gu and my mother are in the back!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Gu Shinian carried a bamboo basket on his back and pulled Wang Widow's "wife" into the door, "Yun 'Niu' 'Niu', how is your body and bones, Ah Chang heard that you were sick on the road, and was so anxious The car jumped down before it stopped."

After listening to Gu Shinian's behavior, Mrs. Yun hurriedly took Yun Chang to look at it for a while, "You stupid boy, don't dare to jump like this next time!"

Yun Chang didn't expect Gu Shinian to secretly sue her, and realized that he was angry, she quickly smiled at Gu Shinian, and went back to comfort Mrs. Yun, "'Tan', I'm looking at the road, no Fall! Where is my grandfather? Why are you at home alone?"

"Your father is going to the village chief's house. I'll come over to clean the kang for your mother, and then guard the yard by the way. You can't let the thief come and steal the chicken."

A few people entered the house, and the widow Wang sat in front of the stove without moving. Old Mrs. Yun asked them about their experiences in the provincial capital while cooking for the two of them.

At the end, the old lady said to Gu Shinian with a look of fear, "Wa'er, I know that you treat my family well, and you, Grandpa Yun and I can also trust you, but both of you are still babies, we can't rest assured wherever we go. , I won't dare to run like this in the future."

Gu Shinian nodded with a educated look, "Yun's 'milk' 'milk', don't worry, next time, Ah Chang and I will definitely not leave Uncle Yun alone in the county."

Yun Chang: "... This is to provoke the old lady to vent her anger on Yun Erchuan?

Sure enough, the old lady's attention immediately shifted, and she rambled on Yun Erchuan, "Your uncle Erchuan is a no-brainer! Everyone else is fine, so he had someone detain him, and he could get a letter of introduction. It's useless if you soak it in water!"

Mrs. Yun burned the corn batter, and as soon as it was served on the table, Mr. Yun strode into the yard, followed by the old village chief.

While the person was still in the yard, Mr. Yun shouted in a loud voice:

"Shuying, is Sangnan back? Where's Comrade Gu? Are you back?"

Yun Chang just took a sip of corn batter, and quickly put down the bowl and replied to Mr. Yun's words, "Master! I'm back! Second brother Gu is also back!"

The village chief's footsteps were a little more eager, and he was even more advanced in the back room than Mr. Yun.

Gu Shinian hurriedly greeted the two of them, knowing that the village chief was here for the village's rations. After a few mouthfuls of corn batter, he went outside the house to talk with the village chief.

In the room, Yun Chang put down the bowl and asked with a serious face, "Master, 'milk', I heard that Mrs. Sun Datou came to our house to make trouble, and she was angry with my 'milk', my second uncle did not Do you care?"
