Chapter 111 A dazzling gift

Mr. Yun glanced at the widow Wang who was sitting in the corner of the room, and asked Yun Chang, "Shang Nan, who are you listening to?"

"When I came back, I heard about the daughter-in-law from the neighboring village on the mule cart. She and my "milk" were so angry that the second aunt stopped the second uncle from taking care of her! Lord, when did the mother-in-law Sun come? Dare to come and let Gu Erge beat her!"

Mrs. Yun 'touched' Yun Chang's head, and laughed so hard that she could not close her mouth, "Oh, I'm really good, I know it hurts people, but I'm better than your second uncle."

The old man Yun also showed a rare smile, "That mother-in-law came to make a fuss, and she didn't make a fuss. Later, she left without seeing anyone."

Yun Chang stopped talking while holding the bowl, thinking in her heart that she would teach Li Hongmei a lesson, so that she would never dare to be unfilial to her grandfather in the future.

After the village chief and Gu Shinian finished talking outside, they said hello to the old couple of the Yun family through the window and went home. When Gu Shinian entered the door, the old man Yun hurriedly asked in a low voice:

"Comrade Gu, I heard the village chief that you are going to get food for the villagers. Is there anything wrong with this? If it is really difficult, it doesn't matter if you push the job, and I will go to the village chief."

"Grandpa Yun, if this can be done, I will take Ah Chang to the county to make a phone call, and the food will be shipped back in three or four hours."

When the old man and the old lady heard that they were going to take Yunshang out, they were immediately unhappy.

This stinker took his eldest granddaughter to the provincial capital for more than ten years. He just came back today, and Ming wants to take his granddaughter out for a wave. How can it be done!

Mr. Yun frowned and said with a look of disapproval, "... Comrade Gu, it's too cold here. Chang Nan will always freeze when running outside. Look, can you let Chang Nan wait for you at home?"

As soon as these words came out, before Gu Shinian said anything, Yun Chang first took down Old Master Yun's stage.

"Master, Gu Erge and I went to the county to get some things in addition to making phone calls! Gu Erge bought me a stove, an iron pot, a teapot, charcoal, and new clothes. Go and move things home.

By the way, Master, Gu Erge and I also bought a big iron pot for you and my "milk", as well as a catch, a total of 17 industrial coupons, and the iron pot is very thick! "

A big thick iron pot fell down, and Mr. Yun suddenly refused to refuse. He originally wanted Yun Erchuan to go to the county to help, but when he thought of his son colliding with the county, he pushed Yun Shuilian out.

"Tomorrow let her aunt go with you,

Can help push a car on the road or something. "

Gu Shinian refused again, "Grandpa Yun, Aunt Yun is a girl's family, how can you do this kind of work, tomorrow I will take a mule car and go back to school with Ah Chang"

Seeing that the two of them insisted on refusing, Mr. Yun had no choice but to nod his head, "That's alright, you can come back in the mule cart tomorrow, and I'll pick you up in the town with the village car next morning."

The old lady had cleaned up the pots and bowls now, and Yunshang hurriedly pulled the old lady to the bamboo basket, digging out the same thing.

"'Milk', this big bag of red dates and walnuts was given to me by Han's 'milk' and 'milk'. These big pieces of bread, as well as apples and bananas, were bought by Gu Erge and I at the Friendship Store. Let me try it for you and my grandfather. This clam oil is for you and my aunt's hands, and this vanishing cream is for my aunt's face.

Also, these two pairs of thick gloves were bought for my grandfather and my second uncle. There is also this bucket of wheat "milk" essence, which Gu Erge and I rush to buy in the department store, to supplement the body with emboli. By the way, I also bought white sugar, as well as fruit candy and trough cake, which we use during Chinese New Year. "

Yunshang came and went, but there was no gift from Li Hongmei.

The old couple was frightened by Yunshang's generosity and did not notice it.

After the reaction, Yunshang's gift to Yun Jiarao was already full of kang heads.

The old lady Yun "touched" her chest and took in the air-conditioning, "Oh, my mother, Sang-nan, why are you banned from money! How much does it cost! You, you also bought a stove and a pot. , I bought new clothes again, you... these days can make you Huo Huo, and you can't spend comrade Gu's money like this in the future!"

The old man Yun also twitched the corners of his mouth in distress, and murmured, "This is too banned for money, too much for banned things, how can these two foolish kids know about foolish flowers. Shuying, quickly ask how much these things are. Money, our family has to smash the pot and sell iron to pay attention to the famine of comrades..."

Yun Chang heard the old man Yun's muttering and almost laughed out loud:

"Master, these things are bread, bananas, apples, and wheat 'milk' that are a little more expensive. Other things are not expensive, and they are also sold in the county."

Yun Chang blinked and asked Gu Shinian maliciously, "Second brother Gu, didn't we get back the rice and white noodles we bought?"

"It's put together with the stove and the iron pot. I'll go get it tomorrow."

"What? And rice... white flour?" The old lady couldn't sit still after hearing this, and swayed around the room with her feet upside down, "Why are these two foolish children "worrying", you, bring There are so many old things, what should I do if someone grabs them on the road, oh yo, my heart skips a beat..."

The old man regained his senses now, and quickly pulled the old lady to sit down on the head of the kang, "Shuying, don't turn around, these things are too eye-catching, let's put them away quickly, don't let people see them arrive."

"Yes, yes! Sangnan, listen to your master, don't you buy old things and come back when you go out in the future, you will be remembered by thieves! I will put the delicious food in the box for you, and you and Comrade Gu will come back. eat slowly!"

Yun Chang neatly put the gifts he prepared for the old Yun family into the basket, and helped the old lady put away the red dates, walnuts, sugar, fruit candy and other things. After a while, the kang was tidy, as if the full kang gift did not exist before.

The old lady sat on the head of the kang and gasped, "Oh, there is nothing on the kang, and my vision is much clearer. The old stuff just now made my eyes dizzy!"

Mr. Yun was already holding Gu Shinian's hand and asking for the price of the big iron pot and the catch, and he wanted to return the cash to him, but he couldn't let Gu Shinian lose money after losing industrial coupons.

Gu Shinian thought about it for a while, but did not refuse, and reported the price of the big iron pot to Mr. Yun.

The gifts that Yun Chang prepared were her intentions for the old Yun family, but the big iron pot was too precious for the villagers who didn't earn industrial coupons. Since the old man Yun is determined not to let him and Yun Chang suffer too much, then he will accept the money for Yun Chang.

After all, in addition to the old couple and Yun Shuilian, the old Yun family also has Yun Erchuan and his wife. He can't let Yun Chang be too generous and slowly raise those appetites.

Snowflakes were flying outside, and the four grandparents and grandchildren in the house were sitting on the kang head and talking affectionately.

The lively and warm atmosphere in the house came to an abrupt end when the sturdy door outside the courtyard was kicked open.

"Wang Osmanthus! Get out of here, you bastard! You are so mean, you won't be able to live if you don't let a man do it? Get out of here now! If you dare to seduce my man to run away, I'll let you walk around the street with your broken shoes on! "Rebirth Sixty Good Times"

Chapter 112 Roll up your sleeves and fuck her!

No need to ask, no need to think, just relying on these domineering and harsh insults, Yun Chang knew that the person who came was Sun Datou's mother-in-law.

In Gu Shinian's surprised eyes, Yun Chang almost subconsciously jumped off the kang, and she didn't even have time to put on her shoes, so she picked up the rolling pin and rushed out.

That Sun Datou's mother-in-law has come to the door. As the head of this family, of course she rolls up her sleeves and fights the other party to the end!

Even if she is short and strong, isn't she blessed with spiritual power? If she can't beat her again, the second brother Gu who is behind will help her vent her anger.

No matter how bad it is, she can still go and bring the village chief's big thick legs over, and she can't be bullied by people from other villages in her own village.

In any case, she had to put on a gesture so that the old man Yun and the old lady Yun could see clearly that with her in front of her, that wicked woman wouldn't want to be angry with the old lady Yun again. It is also necessary for the old couple to realize that at the critical moment, she is more reliable than the soft-boiled and useless Yun Erchuan couple!

When Li Yuxiang heard that Wang Widow's "wife" came back from the provincial capital, she didn't even ask if she had seen Sun Datou, and rushed to Xinglin Village like a gust of wind.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he entered the yard of Wang Widow's "wife", he was smashed in the face by Yun Chang who rushed out of the door with a rolling pin.

Unprepared, Li Yuxiang was almost knocked unconscious, and the whole person took a few steps back.

Yunshang stood at the door of the main house, with one hand on his hips, and the other pointing at Li Yuxiang's face, and cursed fiercely:

"Where did the shrewd woman come from! If you dare to throw dirty water on my mother's head again, I will go to the police to sue you for slander! I will sue you for persecuting women and children! Let you go to the labor camp!"

Li Yuxiang got angry, wiped her flushed face, and while cursing, she strode forward, twirling her arms and wanting to smoke Yunshang:

"How dare you fight with the old lady? I can't kill you bastard! I learned from your mother abducting a man and eloping at a young age..."

Once again being insulted by such words, Yun Chang immediately lowered his face, stretched out his mental strength, and shoveled under Li Yuxiang's feet, only to see Li Yuxiang's round body like worshipping his ancestors, kneeling directly in front of Yunshang.

Li Yuxiang had a huge physique and was born fat. This time, she fell so hard and hard that she was lying on the ground and could not get up.

Yun Chang resented Li Yuxiang for being too stinky,

He slammed into her big fat ass.

With mental strength to cheat, Yun Chang's foot is as strong as an adult man. Li Yuxiang just got up and was kicked by a dog.

And Gu Shinian, who went out after Yun Chang, happened to see this scene in his eyes, and his eyes widened, and his eyelids jumped a few times.

His silly white sweet sister seems... the more she is raised, the more crooked she is...

Yun Chang didn't know that Gu Shinian had come out yet, but she still couldn't understand the hatred in her heart. She kicked Li Yuxiang's big butt like a grinding disc a few times, then turned to the front, stretched out her claws and scratched her face hard.

"You are a bastard! Your whole family is a bastard! Let you bully my "milk"! Let you pour dirty water on me!"

Li Yuxiang never thought that one of them would be kicked by a girl and couldn't get up. After struggling a few times, she simply raised her head and cursed.

"Wang Guihua! You stinky bitch! Get out of my mother! You black-hearted and rotten prostitute! How dare you do it! Take your prostitute to seduce my man and run away, I'm going to sue you! Let you two mothers and daughters hang up their broken shoes and walk in the streets! Let you be shot!"

The more Li Yuxiang cursed, the harder Yunshang pressed her down.

In the end, he simply turned Li Yuxiang over, used her soft belly as a trampoline, stepped on her stomach and jumped back and forth.

She was obviously a three-inch pea, but her body was as heavy as a rock, and every hit made Li Yuxiang breathless, and she couldn't even scold her.

There was so much movement in the yard, and the gate quickly filled with crowds of onlookers. Seeing Yunshang alone, Li Yuxiang couldn't get up, and she was not in a hurry to pull the frame. Everyone formed a circle outside, watching the excitement with great interest.

Aunt Li didn't think it was lively enough, so she leaned halfway over the wall of her house and shouted at Li Yuxiang with a smile:

"Li Yuxiang! Look at you, fat people can't walk anymore, and their mouths are still stinky. No wonder Sun Datou doesn't want you and eloped with someone! If you leave me alone, I wouldn't be happy to put my arms around the old sow to sleep. !"

"That's right, if you want to find your man, you have to find out first. Then Wang Guihua hugged a chicken trough and regarded it as her man. Why, your man is that chicken trough?"

"Yo! You don't dare to ban Director Sun like this! The chicken trough is for feeding chickens, Director Sun, it's not necessarily for feeding..."

"What else can I feed? Feed the pigs!"

Li Yuxiang felt her lungs explode.

All the people in Xinglin Village are liars!

The "widow" of the king's widow is mad, and what goes to the provincial capital to see a doctor, it's all fake!

Last month, she had also seen Wang Widow's "wife". She was dressed in flamboyant fashion, and her waist was twisted like a water snake. If she wanted to be coquettish, she would be as coquettish and coquettish.

These people are working together to deceive her!

No matter what Li Yuxiang thought, Yun Chang jumped on her a few times, and then rushed to Gu Shinian's side, and raised her feet to let him put her shoes on.

Aware that the big stone on her body was gone, Li Yuxiang got up and was about to chase after Yun Chang, but she saw Wang Widow's "wife" holding the chicken trough, with a foolish look on her face, being held between the left and the right by the old couple of the Yun family. pushed out.

Li Yuxiang jumped and pointed at Wang Widow's "wife", "Wang Guihua! Don't play stupid to me!"

Aunt Li rolled her eyes and shouted on the wall, "Li Yuxiang! Let's see if the chicken trough in Wang Guihua's arms is your grandson!"

"Is this really stupid?" Li Yuxiang asked again.

The old lady Yun took two steps forward and said with a bluff face: "The big head's family! The first two, you came to our Lao Yun's house to make trouble, our family teamed up to deceive you, and Wang Guihua and my granddaughter kidnapped your man. Now Come on, just as Wang Guihua is now, how did she kidnap your man?"

"Why can't she be kidnapped? Who knows if she is pretending to be crazy!"

Li Yuxiang was obviously unwilling to cut off the clues about Sun Datou's whereabouts. She pulled out Wang Widow's "wife", raised her hand and slapped her, "Wang Guihua! Don't pretend to be stupid to my old lady, someone saw Sun Datou coming to you more than ten years ago. !"

No one would have thought that Li Yuxiang would do something to the silly Wang Widow "wife", and even Yun Chang was stunned if she didn't watch the crowd.

The widow of the king was beaten!

The matter of Sun Datou has been exposed!

Two thoughts flashed in Yun Chang's mind at the same time.

At the same time, Mrs. Yun quickly pulled back Widow Wang's "wife", while Gu Shinian raised her foot and directly kicked Li Yuxiang to the ground.

Yun Chang rushed over and said to Mrs. Yun:

""Damn"! She beat my mother! Let's sue the police! Sue her for deliberately hurting the disabled! Sue her for slandering and persecuting the poor and lower-middle peasants!"

Chapter 113: Provoking Discord

"Sue! I'm going to sue your family for kidnapping my man!" Li Yuxiang patted the ground with her hands and feet, "Why am I slandering you? My family came to your house ten years ago! Everyone saw it! What is widow Wang's elopement?"

Gu Shinian raised his head, raised his voice and asked Aunt Li who was standing on the wall, "Auntie, do you still remember where my Aunt Wang got sick?"

"I think about it... ouch! It's already twenty!" Aunt Li clapped her palms, her emotions were very excited, "After Xu Dalan's trouble, the second Wang Guihua became ill! Didn't you go to the county hospital to see a doctor, after you come back? The provincial capital I just went to!"

Gu Shinian turned back and asked Li Yuxiang, who was still unrelenting, "You heard it all. Aunt Wang fell ill twenty years ago, but Sun Datou eloped with Aunt Wang more than ten years ago. Do you believe this?"

Li Yuxiang hesitated for a while, "But someone saw the big head coming to your house..."

Yun Chang grabbed Gu Shinian and spoke in front of him, "Then why haven't I seen Sun Datou? Who is this? You find the person, let's go to the county and let the public security comrades interrogate. If the public security judges Our family abducted your man, then we plead guilty! If it is judged that you are falsely accusing, then you will go to labor reform!"

Aunt Li laughed again, "Oh, it's ridiculous! This family is crazy, yes, the public security comrade must be so blind to decide that Sun Datou eloped with Wang Guihua. Li Yuxiang, why do I think you are good? You've had enough time, you've changed your mind, you're not willing to toss yourself in, aren't you?"

Yun Chang continued to ask Aunt Li's words, "Have you made up your mind? When will we go to the police?"

Li Yuxiang's eyes were dodging, and she didn't dare to speak.

She had always suspected that Sun Datou and Wang Widow were getting together, but she had never caught the current situation, so she had to endure this bad breath.

Now that Datou Sun was missing, and someone saw him in the dark and went to Xinglin Village before he disappeared, Li Yuxiang decided that Datou Sun's disappearance must be related to Widow Wang's "wife".

Even if the two did not elope, the widow Wang would definitely know the whereabouts of Datou Sun.

Even if she can't find Sun Datou in the end, her trouble with this is enough to disgust the widow Wang's "wife".

It's just that Li Yuxiang never imagined that Widow Wang's "wife" was indeed mad, and although Yun Chang was young, she was more troublesome than everyone in the old Yun family combined.

Li Yuxiang not only did not inquire about Sun Datou's whereabouts, but also did not feel disgusted to Wang Widow's "wife", but was put on the fire by Yun Chang's words and could not get off the grill.

At this point, Li Yuxiang didn't know how to end it if she wanted to.

Yun Chang saw that Li Yuxiang was thinking, and with a smirk, she approached Widow Wang's "wife", touched the chicken trough in her arms, pointed at Li Yuxiang and said, "Mom! She wants to rob my father's chicken trough!"

After Wang Widow's "wife" had mental problems, she always regarded the chicken trough as Yun Dachuan. When she heard that someone was trying to rob her man, she immediately showed a fierce look, hugged the chicken trough tightly, and spat at Li Yuxiang.

"Pfft! Shameless! The "saucy" fox! You are not allowed to steal my man!"

Li Yuxiang didn't expect that Yunshang would blatantly provoke Widow Wang to disgust her, she retched twice, got up and ran outside.

Just two steps away, Yun Chang continued, "Mom, look! This bad woman is going to seduce my dad to run away!"

How could Widow Wang's "wife" endure this stimulation, and immediately slammed the chicken trough in her hand towards Li Yuxiang.

Li Yuxiang turned her head in horror, and half of her face was directly hit by the chicken trough.

A chicken trough weighed ten pounds, plus the widow Wang's "wife" shot in anger, Li Yuxiang's head was immediately smashed, and half of her face became a big dye house.

Widow Wang rushed up, grabbed Li Yuxiang's hair, and bit her when she opened her mouth.

The two instantly twisted into a ball.

Don't look at Li Yuxiang's delicious food, but she really doesn't have much energy in her hands, and after the widow Wang's "wife" goes crazy, she doesn't even know what it is to be afraid of retreating, catching and seducing her man to spare the fox spirit and risking her life. beating.

Biting, scratching, twisting, kicking, steady and ruthless, Li Yuxiang soon couldn't resist.

Yun Chang watched it with interest, and said unhurriedly, "Li Yuxiang, you were angry with me before, if you don't apologize, my mother can tear you apart!"

"I apologize! I apologize! Aunt Yun, I apologize to you, please stop this lunatic! Ouch, my god, this lunatic is so aggressive!"

Afraid of hitting someone out, Mrs. Yun was anxiously circling beside her, "Shangnan, what is your mother doing like this? How can you stop it?"

"'Milk', calling my mother with a chicken trough works."

The old lady quickly picked up the chicken trough and shouted to Wang Guihua, "Hua'er, look, the chicken trough in Dachuancao..."

Widow Wang was very sensitive to the word "Dachuan", she turned her head, looked at the chicken trough in the old lady's hand, and then looked at the old lady's face, and silently let go of Li Yuxiang.

Li Yuxiang was almost fooled, wiped a nosebleed, and didn't dare to entangle any more. In the eyes of the neighbors watching the good show, she ran out in despair.

When the matter was over, the melon-eating crowd onlookers outside asked a few words about Yun Chang and Wang Widow's "wife" going to the provincial capital to see a doctor. After satisfying their curiosity, they quickly dispersed.

Mr. Yun squatted on the threshold, said nothing, raised his hand from time to time to wipe the corner of his eyes.

And the old lady took Yunshang's hand and kept talking, "Shangnan, oh, you stupid girl, you can't rush forward next time. What if someone hits you?"

Yun Chang responded with a smile, and asked again, "'Milk', what's wrong with my grandfather?"

The old lady glanced at the old man and "touched" Yunshang's head, "You can withstand the door, your father is happy for your father."

"'Damn', I will definitely give my dad a good door in the future. With me here, I can't let you be bullied!"

The voice fell, Yun Erchuan hugged the embankment, and ran in with Yun Shuilian, just in time to hear Yun Chang's last sentence.

Yun Shuilian couldn't help bending the corners of her mouth, while Yun Erchuan blushed, half daring to approach.

Seeing this, Yun Chang added in a very wicked way, "'Milk', if you are bullied, come back and tell me, I will definitely hit his house to vent your anger! I can't let you be wronged."

Hearing this, Yun Erchuan blushed even more, hiding his head behind the embankment.

The old lady was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth, "Okay! I'm a capable baby, and I will rely on you to protect my milk from now on."

When a few people entered the house, Yun Shuilian couldn't help but pull Yun Chang over to "knead", and then asked the old lady, "Mother, grandma Sun is making trouble again? Are you mad at you?"

"Don't be angry! We, Changnan, cleaned up that mother-in-law alone, oh, but you can give me a face! Better than your second brother!"

Yun Erchuan's head was buried even lower, and he could not wait to find a crack in the ground to get in.

Yun Chang smiled and waved to Shuanzi and asked Yun Erchuan, "Second uncle, why didn't the second aunt come?"

Chapter 114 win over

Shuanzi struggled to Xia Lin, like a squirrel, while secretly observing the "color" of Yun Chang's face, he moved over little by little. It wasn't until Yun Chang reached out and pulled Shuan Zi into his arms that the guy smiled and hugged Yun Chang.

Yun Erchuan sat on the bench and moved his body restrainedly, "Your second aunt is... busy cooking."

Yun Chang didn't say anything, just a mocking smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

That's right, cooking is the most important job, and it's more important than whether the old couple is bullied.

Yun Shuilian sneered, turned her head, and reached out to tease the embolism in Yun Chang's arms.

No one said anything in the room, but the silence was like a slap, slapped on Yun Erchuan's face so hard that he couldn't lift his ashamed head.

Yun Dachuan was gone, Yun Erchuan was the only male of the old Yun family, but he disappointed the old couple of the Yun family and Yun Shuilian.

When Mrs. Sun Datou came to make trouble, he did not hold up the door of Lao Yun's family, and was dragged and dragged by Li Hongmei as an unfilial son, and the old lady was bullied by outsiders in her own home.

Today, Li Yuxiang also came to make trouble at home, but Yun Chang was in front of her. She didn't need the old couple to come forward, she took care of Li Yuxiang by herself.

Comparing the hatchbacks, Yun Erchuan felt that the face he dropped on the ground could not be retrieved at all.

Seeing the family talking affectionately around the kang head, and no one paid any attention to him, Yun Erchuan became more and more uncomfortable.

After hesitating for a while, Yun Erchuan stood up, tugging at the trouser legs with his fingers unconsciously, and said, "Father, mother, Chang Nan and Comrade Gu rushed all the way, I think they're tired from touching, let's go back first, let me The two children should rest early."

The old man Yun didn't say a word, the old lady snorted softly, the voice was so loud that it was almost impossible to hear it if you didn't listen carefully.

Only then did Yun Chang realize that the old couple was angry with Yun Erchuan and ignored him.

Ouch, what a great opportunity!

Yun Chang was very happy in her heart.

The old couple ignored Yun Erchuan and his wife, so she had to take the opportunity to trap the whole family on her side, and let Li Hongmei hang out.

Since Li Hongmei disregarded the life and death of the old couple,

If she wants to live her own life, then let her live alone!

See if she can endure this quiet day.

"'Milk', you and my grandfather can stay at my house! Ming, second brother Gu and I want to bring back the old and young things, and also point to you and my grandfather to put them back and help me clean up the house."

Yun Chang's proposal made Yun Erchuan suddenly nervous and silenced the old couple.

It's not that they don't care about Yunshang, it's just that the old Yun family and Wang Widow's "wife" have long since separated. This yard was originally built for Wang's "wife" and has nothing to do with the Old Yun family.

Now, when the widow Wang's "wife" fell ill, they moved in right after them. They would invite people from the village to gossip, and they might even invite the old Wang's house to make trouble. At that time, the most difficult thing would be Yunshang.

The old man Yun thought about the last time the old Wang family came to the door, sighed, and opened his mouth to discuss with Yun Chang, "Shang Nan, look at this, I'll come over with your "milk" to put things back for you in the future. , clean up the house, and go back to live at night. It won't delay your business, and you don't have to carry the bed and roll around, so we don't have to worry about it, okay?"

Out of the corner of Yun Chang's eyes, he saw Yun Erchuan let out a sigh of relief, his stiff posture relaxed a lot, and a smile flashed in his eyes.

Being rejected by the old couple was something that Yun Chang expected, but she was not too disappointed.

One of her words is to mention Yun Erchuan. If he doesn't care about Li Hongmei, even if he is the only son of the old Yun family, the old couple may not have to follow him.

The second is to find a way to trap the old couple in her house, and then use the two giant Buddhas to hook Yun Erchuan and Yun Shuilian together, so that Li Hongmei can cook by herself, take care of her own children, clean up the house by herself, and live by herself. of cool taste.

See if she will dare to be selfish and unfilial in the future.

Yun Chang pursed her lips deliberately, and said with an aggrieved face, "Master, then we'll be fine, you and my "milk" Bai Ke will have to stay at my house in the future. Cook for me, clean up the house for me, and have to wait until it gets dark. to go back."

The granddaughter's request for the next best thing, the old man complied with one bite:

"Okay! You and I will come with rations, and we will have dinner with you in the future!"

After getting the old couple, Yun Chang turned around and climbed to Yun Shuilian's side, "Gu, you can stay at my house for nothing! Second brother Gu bought me a pencil, a book, and a lot of new fabrics. You will teach me at home in the future. I can read, and make me new clothes to wear."

Yun Shuilian hasn't married yet, so she naturally has to follow the old couple for dinner. Seeing Yun Chang moving out of her legitimate reason to get close to her, she agrees happily, "Okay, auntie will stay here and teach you to study in the future. You make new clothes to wear! By the way, your "milk" made you a pair of new cotton shoes, and I will bring you here later!"

The three generations of grandparents and grandchildren were in full swing, Yun Erchuan blinked, and realized that something was wrong.

Is this the rhythm of his parents and sisters trying to get rid of the rhythm of his single life?

"Father, mother... this can't be done, we... we have to eat at home, right..."

"What's wrong? Me and your mother can serve your family, work for my granddaughter, and cook for my granddaughter?"

The old man Yun sneered at Yun Erchuan, and Yun Erchuan immediately shrank his neck and did not dare to say a word.

Yun Chang saw that Yun Erchuan's brows were all twisted into knots, and he couldn't help laughing in his heart, and asked him:

"Second uncle, I still have work to do for you! Are you free recently?"

"I'm free! The village didn't have to go to work a few years ago. I'm free recently!" Yun Erchuan's brows flew up, and he patted his chest to assure Yun Chang, "Shangnan, just talk about what you have to do, two Uncle must have done a good job for you!"

Seeing that he was about to be abandoned by his parents and sisters, and now he finally had a chance to catch up with the big army of the old Yun family, Yun Erchuan immediately left Li Hongmei behind, grabbed the steps handed out by Yunshang, and chased after him.

Yunshang thought of the coals piled up like mountains in the space, and smiled innocently and innocently, "Second uncle, second brother Gu bought me a stove, and tried to buy me a lot of coal, and the second uncle helped me make all the coals. Will it be briquettes?"

Yun Erchuan hesitated for a moment, "Shangnan, our village can't borrow a mold for making briquettes..."

"Second uncle, second brother Gu also bought the mold." Yun Chang took the conversation with a smile.

"Okay, the second uncle will come to help you make briquettes!"

Gu Shinian held back his laughter until his stomach hurt. Seeing that she finally stopped talking, he hurriedly asked Mr. Yun:

"Grandpa Yun, have the old Wang family returned from the county? The compensation for Ah Chang hasn't been sent yet."

"The first two just came back from the county. I heard that the family is making trouble now. I'll tell the village chief tomorrow and ask the village chief to come forward and get the things back."

Chapter 115 Isolation

After being assigned by Yunshang, the discomfort in Yun Erchuan disappeared immediately, and he did not shout to go back sooner.

In the cold eyes of the old man Yun, Yun Erchuan shyly squeezed in to listen to what he and Gu Shinian had to say.

Yun Shuilian went back to Lao Yun's house to get a few nests, half a cabbage, and also brought the new cotton shoes that the old lady made for Yun Chang.

Yun Chang sat on the head of the kang, wearing new cotton shoes that fit her feet, holding a piece of bread in her hand to tease Shuan, listening to him calling her sister inarticulately, she couldn't stop laughing.

Mrs. Yun and Yun Shuilian were busy in front of the stove, preparing dinner for the family.

Yun Erchuan raised his head, looked at the smiling faces of the old couple of the Yun family, and then watched Shuan Zi sitting on the head of the kang, smiling and sharing meals with Yun Chang, you and me. He felt that without Li Hongmei, the atmosphere at home was much better than usual.

Li Hongmei, who was disliked and ruined the atmosphere, was sitting alone at the kang table at the moment, sulking at a grate of black wowotou and a bowl of thickly sliced pickles.

She worked hard to cook dinner for a large family, but a group of people didn't come back for dinner without even saying hello.

The two old men and Yun Shuilian didn't come back, but it didn't matter if Yun Erchuan didn't come back, and he didn't even bring Shuanzi back to her.

There are six members of the family, and she is the only one left to eat at this deserted table.

Li Hongmei beat her chest, thinking that when Yun Shuilian came back to get her rations just now, she clearly saw her cooking on a fire, but she didn't even look at her, and directly regarded her as air and ignored the past scene.

At that time, Li Hongmei had the feeling she had when she faced Widow Wang's "wife" back then. It was like a fire in her chest. She couldn't get up, and she went down.

The "color" gradually darkened, and there was a grunting sound from the quiet room.

Li Hongmei came back to her senses, "touched" her shriveled stomach, and reached out to grab a wowou head that had already lost its heat.

At the same time, at the dinner table at the widow Wang's "wife"'s house, Yun Chang and Gu Shinian made the excuse that they had just eaten corn batter and were not hungry. Others ate black wowatou.

It's not that Yun Chang didn't think about letting the old couple eat some refined grains,

Just to use the old lady's words, she and the old man are both half-buried, how can they grab food from the mouth of the child.

Fortunately, the cabbage fried in the big iron pot tastes better than the cabbage that Lao Yun's family used to boil in water.

After dinner, Yunshang handed the gift that was in the basket to everyone, and pushed the wheat milk essence bought for Shuanzi to the old lady, "Milk, you can take this wheat milk essence. Well, make a bowl for Shuan every morning and before going to bed."

This wheat "milk" essence was handed over to Yun Erchuan. After he returned, he would still hand it over to Li Hongmei. Yunshang was naturally unhappy, even if Li Hongmei didn't want to eat the emboldens, she would not be happy.

Therefore, it is better to leave this wheat "milk" essence in the hands of the old lady.

This time, the old couple finally noticed that Yunshang had not prepared a gift for Li Hongmei, and saw that Yunshang handed the wheat milk essence bought for Shuanzi to the old lady instead of Yun Erchuan, and they knew in their hearts that Yun Chang is dissatisfied with Li Hongmei.

Yun Erchuan also realized this, his mouth moved, and after all, he didn't dare to spoil the atmosphere and help Li Hongmei with good words.

After the people from the old Yun family left, Yun Chang placed the widow Wang on the kang in the side room, and came back directly paralyzed on the hot kang head and did not move.

Gu Shinian went out to close the door, and came back on the kang to spread the quilt. Yun Chang rolled onto the quilt and asked, "Second brother Gu, what's the matter with the village chief this afternoon? How much food does the village need?"

Gu Shinian grabbed Yunshang's feet and took off her socks neatly, "Each team counts more than 9,000 catties, the village chief, no matter what kind of food, as long as you can eat..."

"So much?" Yun Chang was startled. "

"These grains are not too much. There are about 200 families in the village, and each family can only get about 50 catties. How long can a large family eat 50 catties of grain."

"Some of the village has boiled." Gu Shinian sighed, "The village chief means that we can get as much grain as we can, and the money to buy the grain will be paid out of the village first, and he will pay the villagers at the end of the year. House-to-house deductions."

Yun Chang nodded and silently counted the amount of coarse grains in the warehouse, "Second brother Gu, there doesn't seem to be a lot of coarse grains in the warehouse."

"Sweet potatoes and potatoes are also considered grains now. The sorghum rice, millet, and buckwheat oats in stock in the supermarket should add up to the same amount. If it's not enough, add some corn brown rice."

Yun Chang responded, and her consciousness entered the space again to take an inventory. She found that there were quite a lot of sweet potatoes and potatoes in the warehouse, and she was really relieved.

In the old Yun family, Li Hongmei was lying on the bed, thinking about the beautifully packaged vanishing cream in Yun Shuilian's hand, and a dark fire rose in her heart.

Turning his head, he pushed Yun Erchuan who was beside him, "Er Chuan, are you asleep?"

"Um."

Even without seeing Yun Erchuan's face, Li Hongmei could feel the impatience and indifference in his voice.

Li Hongmei bit her lip, and the grievances in her heart surged again, "... Erchuan, Chang Nan bought a box of cream for Shuilian."

"Um."

In the darkness, Yun Erchuan turned over and responded more loudly.

"I also bought clam oil for my mother..."

"Li Hongmei, what on earth are you thinking?" Yun Erchuan pressed his impatience and asked as calmly as possible.

"Shangnan also bought gifts for you and Dad, but as a family, they didn't buy anything for me and Shuanzi."

"Shangnan bought a bucket of wheat 'milk' essence for Shuanzi, and I asked my mother to take her house."

Li Hongmei: "..."

So, everyone in this family has gifts, but they didn't buy gifts for her?

Li Hongmei's face turned red, she was very angry.

"...Er Chuan, does Chang Nan have any opinion on me?" Afraid that Yun Er Chuan would think too much, Li Hongmei quickly explained, "I'm not greedy for Chang Nan's gift, but it's just that this should not be done. That clam oil doesn't work. Expensive, shangnan can buy a han for my mother..."

"Clam oil is not expensive, you can buy a box of it yourself, and go to sleep."

Yun Erchuan listened impatiently to her long-winded words, covered his head with the quilt, and directly pulled up his snoring.

Li Hongmei almost spat out a mouthful of old blood when she heard Yun Erchuan's snoring.

Is this a box of clam oil thing?

It's a matter of mind!

That girl didn't care about her at all, so Yun Erchuan couldn't see it?

Li Hongmei couldn't stand the grievance, and secretly scolded Yunshang for being incapable of personnel, she stretched her foot out of the bed and kicked Yun Erchuan fiercely, which made her anger a little more.

Chapter 116 Give book friends 2,017,629,000,000 rewards and more!

In the morning, the snow stopped.

Mr. Yun sent the iron pot money early in the morning, asked about the approximate time when Yun Chang and Gu Shinian returned from the county, and sent a tall and long-legged Yun Erchuan to send the two to the town.

It's so cold, Yun Chang is really reluctant to go out, but in order to clear the way for the things in the space, she has to wrap herself into a zongzi and make a trip to the county.

Gu Shinian had a plan in mind for a long time. When he arrived at the county seat, he took Yun Chang and Wei Jianjun to have a meal. The two chatted about the recent situation in the county and what Gu Shinian had seen in the provincial capital.

Yunshang raised her ears and listened for a while, but she didn't hear much useful things. She only knew that the New Year was coming, and the county's investigation was very strict, and basically no one sold anything on the black market. I also know that Gu Guangzong has been mixed with a bunch of second-rate boys recently, and he is talking in the county town, so that Gu Shinian dare not go home...

After eating, Wei Jianjun took out a key from his pocket and handed it to Gu Shinian:

"This is the key to my house. You put it away. When it's empty, help me clean the room. Don't let my house collapse and then proofread it. You can use the flatbed first, and I won't need it soon."

"You don't plan to stay in the county?" Gu Shinian asked after taking the key.

"Yeah." Wei Jianjun replied, "I have talked to my uncle, and I am going to join the army."

"Your uncle agrees?"

"Agreed, go back and wait for the matter to be settled before I'm milk."

Gu Shinian nodded, Wei Jianjun came over again, lowered his voice and said, "My uncle originally wanted me to enter the winery, but unfortunately the winery has not received sorghum recently and is about to stop production. The first two factories still caught a few. All the workers who stole sorghum were taken away by the police, and some people stole the lees of wine to eat... In short, the "chaos" of the winery now is not a good place."

Probably because he was preparing to join the army, Wei Jianjun looked a lot more stable and thought things had become more mature.

During the conversation, intentionally or unintentionally "revealed" many things to Gu Shinian.

After a few people finished speaking, they left the state-run hotel. Wei Jianjun took out a red sleeve from his pocket, put it on his arm, waved to the two of them, turned his head and walked towards the street.

It wasn't until Wei Jianjun disappeared on the street corner that Gu Shinian took Yun Chang and slowly walked up the Cross Street.

The two went to the post office first.

I bought two editions of stamps for Yunshang to collect, and I bought an envelope and a single stamp, and wrote a letter to each of the Han Yang brothers and Lin Dani to send.

After coming out of the post office, the two found a place to release the flatbed truck that was already full of things, and pushed and pulled to the place where the mule cart was parked.

The handlebar style that sent the two home yesterday saw a mountain moving over from a distance. When they got closer, they found that they were still the two children who took the car yesterday, and they greeted them enthusiastically.

"Comrade, I'm in the county again today! Oh, are all these old things going to be sent back to the village?"

Gu Shinian put down the flatbed truck and greeted the other person very familiarly, "Yes, sir, do you think I can fit these things on the truck?"

"If you can fit it, even if it is loaded with things, this car can't hold people! Why don't you hang the flatbed truck at the back of the car, and I will use a mule cart to pull you back with the car and the things?"

Gu Shinian glanced at the mule cart, which was only one lap bigger than the flatbed cart, and nodded, "Okay, sir, look and help me arrange it!"

Yun Chang also sweetly "plugged in" next to him, "Thank you, Comrade Uncle!"

The handlebar style was amused by Yunshang's title of "Comrade Uncle", smiled and teased Yunshang for a few words, and then turned around to help Gu Shinian put the flatbed cart on the mule cart. After that, while fixing it with ropes, I looked at the things on the car, and I admired it while looking at it:

"Comrade, your car is full of good stuff! It's rare to find one for sale in Daluzi County! Oh, and there's a big iron pan! Hey, these two tables are good, go back and use a planer, and then update with new ones. It's no different..."

Gu Shinian listened with a smile, nodding from time to time to echo the handlebar-style words.

As the Chinese New Year is approaching, all production teams do not have to go to work, and every time the town comes to the county, there are many more people than usual.

Yun Chang and Gu Shinian only waited for more than ten minutes, and there were many guests sitting on the mule cart.

After seeing the car, many people pulled a flatbed car with a lot of good things tied to it. They all came over to watch it consciously or unintentionally. They also looked at Yunshang and Gu Shinian from time to time. Obviously, there are so many good things for the two of them. very curious.

The handlebar style is a person with a strong sense of time. He looked up at the gloomy man, shouted for the guests to sit down, and then hit the empty whip and drove the mule to the town.

This time, Gu Shinian didn't ask him to send the two back to Xinglin Village in a handlebar style, but asked him to park his car at the intersection outside the town leading to Xinglin Village, where they waited for Mr. Yun's bullock cart.

When there was no one around, Yun Chang consciously entered the space, filled several bags of grain, and filled several large baskets with coal, and stuffed them under the flatbed truck parked on the side of the road.

After that, various objects were stuffed into the car, such as old newspapers, hot pots, teapots, traps, copper hot pots, etc.

As soon as the two of them sorted out their things, Mr. Yun appeared at the end of the road with the ox cart.

Gu Shinian looked at the time, it was less than four o'clock, and Mr. Yun came half an hour earlier.

As soon as the few people met, the old man Yun was shocked by the materials on the ground and the car, and Yun Chang could even see the corners of the old man's mouth twitching.

"Master! We still have coal to move!" Yun Chang teased the old man with a smirk.

Mr. Yun wiped off the cold sweat that did not exist on his head, shook his lips, and took a long time to say a word, "... There is still coal that has not been moved? How much?"

Yun Chang blinked and reported a fairly reliable number, "There are still two thousand pounds!"

"Gudong!" The old man swallowed and asked Yunshang, "What about the remaining coal? Ouch, it's too eye-catching, let's move it back for you quickly!"

Gu Shinian helplessly "touched" Yun Chang's head, and said to the old man Yun, "Grandpa Yun, the rest of the coal is still in the county, I'm fine with the people, and my uncle will deliver food to the village after two days. , will help deliver the coal together."

Mr. Yun breathed a sigh of relief, and for the first time taught Gu Shinian with a straight face, "Comrade Gu, you are still old, you don't know how hard it is to earn money, and you have a hard time. You really can't spend money so recklessly in the future!"

Gu Shinian, the bearer: "..."

Conscience, these are all coal lumps that Yunshang brought when he rescued people, and they have nothing to do with him!

This pot bears... a thief.

Several people moved things neatly onto the ox cart, and tied the flatbed cart behind the cart in the same way, and the group returned to Xinglin Village slowly and leisurely.

Fortunately, the door of the widow Wang's house was wide enough, and the ox cart could easily drive into the yard, preventing the two carts full of supplies from being surrounded by villagers.

Chapter 117 Add more rewards to Lan Xiaolan!

Yun Chang is now serving as a solution for the old lady. Every time Yun Erchuan moves something into the house, Yun Chang will explain to the old lady:

"Milk! This big bag contains 20 catties of white flour, 20 catties of refined white rice, 50 catties of brown rice, and a bag of corn ballast."

Seeing so many high-quality refined grains, the old lady's eyes straightened.

With red eyes, he kept thanking the master:

"Thank you for your blessing, I didn't let our two children get thieves, and let us two children come back from the provincial capital safely! Thank you Bodhisattva for your blessing, I will have refined grains to eat in the future, and I can no longer starve!"

"Shangnan, hurry up, find a place to hide this food, you and Comrade Gu will eat it slowly in the future, but you dare not take it out to attract people's attention! Ouch, this food is so good! I will have good luck in the future. "

Seeing the old lady so nervous, Yun Chang was both moved and wanted to laugh. She leaned into the old lady's ear and coaxed her:

"'Milk', don't worry, I'll hide it secretly when I don't let it go at night. No one will tell you where I hide it. I'll take as much as I eat in the future, it's definitely safe!"

"Yes, yes! Just do it. You know for yourself how much you eat and how much you take. When you take it, you take it quietly in the middle of the night, but you don't dare to let anyone know."

The grandparents and grandsons exchanged some experience on Tibetan food, and Yunshang showed the old lady her spoils.

"'Tits', look, this is a woolen coat, made by second brother Gu for me in the shopping mall, two pieces! They are the latest styles in big cities, do they look good?"

"Good-looking! This red color is bright and bright, my dress will definitely look good!"

"'Milk', this is a tin kettle. Second brother Gu bought two, and I will use one for you and my grandfather. It is convenient to drink hot water at night!"

"If your father and I want to drink water, it's just a matter of adding a handful of firewood. Where can we use a thermos... Hey! This is a thermos with red iron belt peony flowers, but it's so beautiful and big, one pot can hold two jars. Hot water! Hurry up, hurry up and hide one, such a good thermos, and I will use it as a dowry in the future!"

Yunshang: "... As a dowry?"

"Milk" "Milk" Hey! You seem to be thinking a bit far.

Yunshang held his forehead and sighed. There are only two kinds of warm pots in this era: bamboo woven shells and iron pots.

And they are all pots, there is no choice at all. Unlike later generations, many people use large pots, and the casing has been replaced with more eye-catching plastic and stainless steel.

Even if she uses a thermos as her dowry, it will be more than ten years later, and this old antique will be outdated by then.

The old lady insisted not to use the kettle, and Yun Chang did not force her, she made up her mind to find an opportunity to give the old lady a pass.

"Shangnan, what else did you buy, give it to 'milk'."

"'Milk', look at my iron pot. It's a flat bottom, just right on the stove, and it has a handle for stewing soup."

The iron pot that Yun Chang was carrying was showing off to the old lady, who smiled and said:

"You can also spread pancakes for me!"

"..."

"Oh, I also bought a teapot and a hot pot? Changnan, when the New Year is coming, 'milk' will make a pot for you to eat!"

Yunshang's eyes lit up and nodded again and again, "'Milk', Second Brother Gu bought 30 catties of charcoal, enough for us to eat the pot."

The grandfather and grandson turned to the old newspapers again now, Yun Chang picked out a pile of the ones she and Gu Shinian had read and put them beside the old lady, "'Tan', these newspapers are not broken, you can take them back and use them to paste the wall. ."

The old lady flipped through the old newspapers, and finally did not refuse, "Okay, then the 'milk' will take advantage of my clothes, and I will take it back and paste it on the wall."

"Hey, Comrade Gu is more reliable than your second uncle, your second uncle... The year before last, I went to the purchasing station to buy old newspapers to paste the walls, but the newspapers I bought were unusable at all. When I spread them out, there was a hole in the east and a hole in the west. Later, it was your grandfather Han who found out and sent old newspapers over, and your grandfather plastered the wall on the 28th of the twelfth lunar month."

Listening to the old lady's chatter, Yun Chang was curious in her heart and asked the old lady, "'Milk', how did my grandfather and grandpa Han know each other?"

These two old men are seven or eight years apart in age, and their status and status are also different. Why is their relationship so good?

The old lady first glanced at the yard, and seeing that the old man went to return the ox cart and has not returned, she quickly lowered her voice and said to Yun Chang:

"Your grandfather and your grandfather Han used to work as long-term workers in the landlord's house! They lived in the same house. Your grandfather was old, and your grandfather Han always secretly took care of him. Later, the world became "chaotic", and your grandfather Han sent a few children away. Go to the army, your grandfather has the guts to take our family back to the countryside..."

Yun Chang suddenly realized that the old man and Han Shan were actually 'workers' who slept in the same room. This is a friendship we slept with together, no wonder the relationship is so good!

Thinking of this, Yun Chang had to say "sex" to decide his fate.

Han Shan's "nature" is a bit more aggressive. Only then did the decision to send a few children to join the army was made, and because of this, the Han family has now become a well-known 'big family' in Qinghe County.

On the other hand, Mr. Yun's "temperament" is soft, and his courage is not too big. When the world was "chaotic", he quickly took his wife and children back to the country.

With this hiding, the Lao Yun family took root in Xinglin Village.

Two people with the same identity who lived in the same house at the time have very different fates now.

It is estimated that when Han Shan was working for a long time, he would never have imagined that he would become a 'grandfather'.

While Yun Chang listened to the past of the old lady and the two families, she stepped on her short legs and ran around to pack her things.

When Yun Erchuan and Gu Shinian piled the coal in the basket in the backyard, only the iron stove and chimney remained in the house.

Yunshang remembered that the stoves in the TV series were always placed in the middle of the house, or they were used outside as a stove. At this moment, the old lady took out a piece of blue brick from the head of the kang, and "exposed" a square, leading to the The passage in the kang, only then did I know that this was the place to put the stove.

Seeing the curiosity on Yunshang's face, the old lady smiled and said, "The stove is connected to the head of the kang, and all the firepower will go to the kang. After the stove is born, the kang at this end will be warm without burning it."

The old lady obviously liked the big stove, and sat by the stove with a bench and wiped the stove clean and spotless with a dry cloth.

"This big stove is good. It will be born later. I put two sweet potatoes in it at night, and I can eat roasted sweet potatoes when it's on!"

The old lady smiled and spoke slowly and slowly, but Yun Chang almost drooled when she heard it.

I can't see it, the old lady will be greedy too.

Another pot, another pancake, and another roasted sweet potato, isn't this deliberately trying to lure the greedy worm in her stomach!

Fortunately, the old man who finished paying off the ox cart pushed the door and entered, successfully diverting Yunshang's attention.

Chapter 118 The Heart of the Old Two

The old man entered the door, and his eyes first turned around on the big iron pot that Yunshang bought for Laoyun's family, and praised Yunshang that this pot was well bought and thick.

The old lady pouted and asked the old man to put the iron pan in the house first, and then take it back after a while.

The old man was puzzled, "I bought all the clothes. It would be better if I took them back and put them in the stove at night. Why do I have to wait?"

The old lady made a rare "sex", patted the kang and leaned against the wall, "The whole family is not at home for dinner, are you going to take the pot back for Li Hongmei?"

After that, he muttered, "That nasty thing doesn't want to see me, so why use the pot that I brought back?"

The old man stopped talking immediately, and hurriedly carried the cauldron to the side house.

Yun Chang didn't expect that the old lady would do such a thing, and she didn't even let Li Hongmei use the pot.

And even playing "sex" is so cute, so confident, and not annoying at all.

The old lady was still angry at the moment. After seeing the old man coming back, she leaned over to the table to study the objects on the table. Old man, don't let him touch the things on the table.

"You can just take a look on the side, why are you lying down and watching endlessly? Hurry up and look at things, what do I use for my clothes?"

The old man got angry, glared at the old lady for a while, and finally said a few words, "...I just take a look, and I don't use "touch", how can I see it bad?"

"Why can't you see it badly? Don't you want to "touch" when you look at it? Don't you want to touch it when you "touch" it?"

Old man: "..."

Yun Chang watched happily from the side, thinking that the old couple was too fun, and even their bickering was so cute.

After being scolded by the old lady for a few words, the old man hummed uncomfortably, turned around and said to Yun Chang who was sitting on the edge of the kang:

"Shangnan, has the provincial hospital issued a medical certificate for your mother? The village chief is going to Wangzhuang to ask for something for you tomorrow, so let's bring the medical certificate, lest the old Wang family use your mother's illness to argue with our family again. ."

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, unable to figure out how to go to the old Wang's family to ask Xu Dalan to pay her compensation, why should she hold the diagnosis certificate of Wang Widow's "wife", just seeing that the old man's face is not very good-looking,

Yun Chang did not ask any further questions, turned around and climbed onto the kang, "touched" half of the military bag in the kang head, and took out the neatly folded medical certificate and handed it to the old man.

The old man was illiterate, and after taking the diagnosis certificate, he couldn't see anything, but only saw the red official seal on it. He said hello to the old lady, and went to the village chief with the diagnosis certificate in hand.

Yun Chang slipped off the kang, ran to the old lady in a few steps, and asked curiously, "'Milk', have the people of the old Wang family have done something wrong again?"

"It's not a jerk! A whole bunch of heartless scumbags!"

Speaking of the old Wang's house, the old lady's face turned dark, she scolded her back molars, and again brought the old man Wang with his two daughters to the door to make trouble.

"You, do you have such a father? The daughter-in-law makes her daughter-in-law mad. If you don't ask if the daughter's illness is good, let's start the daughter's house first. People stab in the spine, don't show up, let the two girls make trouble with our family! What a sin!"

Yun Chang frowned, and hurriedly followed the old lady to scold the people of the old Wang family: "Well, it's a sin, a whole bunch of shit!"

The old lady was amused, she stretched out her hand and "touched" Yun Chang's head, regardless of whether she could understand it or not, she babbled about the purpose of the old man's medical certificate.

"Xu Dalan is angry with your mother. His old Wang family has to give him a law, otherwise you two will live in the future. I can't let you all work in the fields and earn centimeters to support Wang Guihua..."

"...You are so big, you can't even lift a hoe, how can you earn centimeters? You can't even earn your own rations, where can you get food for Wang Guihua to eat..."

"...Your grandfather and I are still active, and with your aunt's help, we can pull you out for a few years. When your aunt gets married, my grandfather and I won't be able to work together anymore. What can I do with my dress?

As far as Li Hongmei's nasty thing is concerned, even your father and I don't want to be filial, so how can I expect her to support you. Even if Li Hongmei is willing to give you a bite to eat, she can't support Wang Guihua together. "

"My grandfather and I just thought, this time the old Wang family has lost your mother, so let the old Wang family pay and provide food to support your mother, and your grandfather and I can support you! In the future, my grandfather and I will earn more centimeters, Let your aunt stay at home for two more years, and save some money for me, so that when your grandfather and I can't work anymore, with a family to support me, I won't starve..."

The old lady was saying something, and she would go wherever she thought of, but Yun Chang could hear the meaning of the old lady's words clearly.

She didn't expect that the old couple would think so far and thoughtfully for her. For her sake, she even planned to let Yun Shuilian get married later, just to save her family.

Yun Chang lowered her head, her eyes slightly reddened.

She is not Yun Dachuan's biological daughter, but these two simple and kind old people are able to cross the blood relationship and give her more than affection and love.

Yun Chang used to hug the old lady's waist and rubbed her head on the old lady's body, "'Tan', I've grown up, I can work to support myself, and I have second brother Gu, you and my grandfather will Rest, don't always think about working more to save my family..."

"You silly girl." The old lady patted Yunshang's head, "Comrade Gu is still a child, how can he be with you all the time! As the old saying goes, it is better to rely on everyone to run, and it is better to rely on anyone. Rely on yourself, no one has it as well as yourself! This family, you still have to save the milk for you."

Yun Chang didn't expect the old lady to say such wise words, she opened her mouth and half didn't know how to persuade the old lady.

"'Milk', can I go to Wangzhuang with the village chief?" But the old lady, Yun Chang simply changed the subject.

"Shangnan wants to go to see the fun?" Seeing Yunshang nodding again and again, the old lady responded for the old man, "Okay, let your grandfather take you there."

When the "color" was getting dark, the old lady was about to cook a fire, and Yun Shuilian, who had disappeared all afternoon, also pushed the door and walked in against the wind.

First pinched Yunshang's face, then went to the stove to help the old lady make the fire.

Yun Chang lay on the head of the kang and asked Yun Shuilian, "Gu, why did you come here? Where's Shuanzi? You didn't bring Shuanzi here?"

"Shuanzi is at home. It's not easy for you to eat fine grains, don't always think about Shuanzi." Yun Shuilian smiled and mentioned Yunshang, "Shuanzi is taken care of by your second aunt, and the wheat you gave." Drink the milk, and I won't starve him." The Good Times of Rebirth 60

Chapter 119 Come to ask for compensation

In the old Yun's house, Li Hongmei nibbled at the head of the nest, and glared at the embolism who was sitting across from the kang table and wanted to cry.

"Why are you so greedy? The fox den can let you eat mountain delicacies or let you eat seafood!"

"Let me tell you, your father let Wang Guihua's old slut go away, and he doesn't want you anymore!"

"Why are you crying? Don't you think that the fox spirit bought you wheat 'milk' essence is a good thing! There is a mother who is a dark kiln, where can she clean up? Even the money to buy you wheat 'milk' essence is also a good thing! Dirty money!"

"There are wild species born and not raised by a mother, and people don't make sense. What can you learn from the past?"

"Like her mother, the whole man doesn't know what to do at home and it's embarrassing! How else can someone buy her a lot of things for no reason? I tell you! In the future, stay away from that bastard!"

As Li Hongmei denounced one after another, Shuanzi threw away the wowotou in his hand, opened his mouth, and cried out with a "wow".

Li Hongmei slammed the kang table, and Shuan Zi's crying stopped immediately, only the sobbing sound she dared to make.

"I'm all gone, the old Yun family don't want us anymore! Your father doesn't want you, those two old things don't want you, and Yun Shuilian doesn't want you anymore! It's useless for you to cry!" He picked up half of the wow head on the table and shoved it into Shuan Zi's hands, "Eat! Eat hard! Don't save it for the Lao Yun family!"

Li Hongmei's anger had piled up from yesterday to now, but when Shuanzi saw that Yun Shuilian was going to go out, she cried and wanted to go to Qiancun for dinner.

This made Li Hongmei, who was suffocating with fire, explode in an instant.

Even if a man can't be trusted, he can't even trust his son!

Seeing that Yun Shuilian was about to go out with Shuan Zi, she chased after a few steps, squeezed out a stiff smile, and regardless of Shuan Zi's crying, she just left Shuan Zi behind.

Yun Shuilian didn't like Li Hongmei's arrogant appearance. Seeing that Li Hongmei deliberately beat Shuanzi and slapped her face, she immediately turned black and left without ignoring Shuanzi's crying.

She just saw that Yunshang likes Shuanzi and likes to feed Shuanzi secretly, so she thought of taking Shuanzi over to play with Yunshang, and feeding Shuanzi some fine grains to supplement by the way. Who knew that Li Hongmei would be stopped by this ignorant thing.

Since Li Hongmei, who is a mother, doesn't feel bad for her son, what does she care about as an aunt!

Yun Shuilian did not mention it,

Yun Chang naturally didn't know that Li Hongmei couldn't hold back the fire.

After the Yun family left after dinner, Yun Chang found a new dress for herself and put it on the kang head, ready to wear new clothes to watch the fun in Wangzhuang tomorrow.

.....

The second is a rare sunny day. Yun Chang got up early, put on new clothes, and went to Wangzhuang with Gu Shinian and the village chief and Mr. Yun to ask for something.

With the village chief there, they first went to the old branch secretary's house in Wangzhuang, and then the old branch secretary took the group to Lao Wang's house.

The condition of Lao Wang's house is not very good. A few sticks with thick arms are tied together, which becomes the door of Lao Wang's house.

The yard behind the door is not big, and the snow in the yard has not been swept away before. Now the sun comes out, the snow melts, and the whole yard becomes muddy.

The old party secretary walked in front, and the group jumped away eagerly, avoiding the muddy water in the courtyard and entering the house.

The people of Lao Wang's family were all in the house. Seeing that the old party secretary brought in the person they didn't want to see the most, except for the second child, the other Rao's face was not very good-looking.

Anna Maeju was more alive than the old Wang family, so she quickly poked the Wang family's second child in the waist, got up to say hello to a few people:

"The party secretary is here! When did the village chief and Uncle Yun come here? Come on, let's all sit on the kang!"

After that, he went out and poured a few bowls of hot water in, but even Yun Chang and Gu Shinian didn't fall.

Old lady Wang leaned on the quilt, her face was sallow and her eyes were cloudy. Seeing Yunshang also coming, she quickly opened her mouth to ask about the situation of Wang Widow's "wife".

"Shang girl, how is your mother now, what about the doctor in the provincial capital, can you take care of this disease?"

"Doctor, taking "medicine" may not make you look good. If you don't take "medicine", you will become more and more crazy." Yunshang held her face, a serious coat.

Mrs. Wang grabbed the enamel tank at hand and smashed it at Xu Dalan, "Sangmenxing! You are satisfied with my flowers like this! Why don't you go away? My old Wang family doesn't want you anymore, go back to Houyashan!"

Old Man Wang frowned and lit his tobacco pouch without saying a word, but the old secretary coughed and stopped old Mrs. Wang.

"Brother Wang, why haven't we delivered the things our family promised to give to Chang girl? It's not too short, but it can't be delayed any longer."

The old party secretary was very prestigious in Wangzhuang. As soon as he opened his mouth, the old man nodded and agreed. Even if the old lady Wang was aching, she did not dare to say anything about Yunshang. His eyes circled around the room, and finally fell on Anna Mae:

"The second one, go and get the blue cotton bag in my box."

"mother....."

Anna May's voice was deliberately prolonged, and her face showed a pained expression at the right time, which made the old lady give her a sullen look, and then rebuked:

"If you want to go, you can go, there is so much nonsense!"

Anna May shrank her neck, turned and walked outside the house.

Yun Chang could clearly see that at the moment Anna Mae Ju turned around, the pain in her face was completely removed, and her eyes changed to a look of schadenfreude.

This is also a showman!

Yun Chang secretly complained in her heart.

Anna Mae moved quickly, and came in with a big bag in just a few minutes. Mrs. Wang lifted a corner of the bag, reached in and "touched" half of it, took out two blue cotton cloths, and prepared it for the morning. The soles of her shoes were wrapped in cloth, and she motioned Anna May to bring it to Yunshang.

Yun Chang took the cloth head and smiled at Anna Mae Ju with her eyebrows bent, "Second daughter, there is still a pound of cotton left for me."

When old lady Wang heard this, her face became longer, she glared at Xu Dalan, and scolded, "What are you doing here with a pestle? Why don't you bring the cotton from your house!"

Xu Dalan did not dare to resist, and quickly brought the packaged cotton.

The old party secretary saw that the old Wang's family was still in the right place, and his face was much better, and he said again, "Brother Wang, your daughter is getting sicker and older, what is your family thinking? Are you planning to lose money or food, or are you planning to kill your daughter? Take it home and raise it?"

Old man Wang thought he had heard it wrong, so he stood up from the stool and asked the old secretary, "... Secretary, this, what do you mean?"

The old party secretary took the diagnosis certificate from the old man Yun, put it on the kang table, and motioned to the old man Wang to come and see it himself.

"It's clearly written on the medical certificate. Your daughter's illness was caused by the troubles in your family in the past. If your family doesn't ask about it, you'll be sued by the police, but you'll have to go to reform through labor."

Chapter 120 Watch the fun

Before the old man Wang said anything, the old lady Wang raised her neck and shouted.

"Then let Xu Dalan go to the labor camp! You hurry up and report to the police, and let the police take this mourning star away! Our old Wang family can't afford such a woman!"

Mrs. Wang hated Xu Dalan deeply. If it wasn't for Xu Dalan, her old daughter would not have been mad, and she would not have broken her bones and lay on the kang and couldn't get up.

From Mrs. Wang's point of view, Xu Dalan was a broom star who was destined to be evil, who came to conquer their old Wang family.

Yun Chang looked at Madam Wang's eyes widened in shock because of her anger, and she suspected that if she hadn't been paralyzed on the kang and unable to move, she would have smashed Xu Dalan's head violently...

Xu Dalan was startled by Mrs. Wang's words, and quickly raised her head to look at Mrs. Wang and her man. Seeing that both of them lowered their heads and said nothing, she seemed to have acquiesced to Mrs. Wang's suggestion, and immediately turned pale.

Yun Chang secretly rolled her eyes, thinking that Mrs. Wang and Xu Dalan are really a perfect match. The mother-in-law only knows how to be arrogant, and the daughter-in-law is also a brainless woman. .

She didn't even think about it, even if Mrs. Wang wanted to send her to a labor camp, Mr. Wang couldn't agree.

First of all, whether the old Wang family can lose this face, it is for the four grandchildren of the old Wang family, and the old Wang has to protect Xu Dalan.

I don't know how long Xu Dalan's brain is. She is so stupid. She still wants to learn from the old lady Wang's behavior and go to her aunt's house to play her prestige. She deserves to be tricked!

While complaining about Xu Dalan, Yun Chang raised her hand and "touched" her face, feeling a little proud. A good-looking and smart girl like her is really hard to find!

As Yunshang expected, as soon as Old Man Wang came back to his senses, he refuted Mrs. Wang's words, "What are you talking about! You have sent people to labor camps, so our old Wang's face will look good? There is a labor reformer. Mother, will your four eldest grandchildren marry a "wife" in the future?"

Mrs. Wang's expression froze, and then she patted the kang and cried, "Aiya, what the hell have I done, why did I bring such a bad embryo into the house! She's trying so hard Damn our old king's family..."

"Okay! Stop howling first, and listen to your in-laws!"

In front of all the guests, Old Man Wang was still very embarrassed, so he hurriedly stopped Old Madam Wang from crying.

Yun Chang nestled in Gu Shinian's arms,

Out of the corner of his eyes, he glanced at Xu Dalan's quietly relaxed body, and couldn't help laughing in his heart.

Wouldn't Xu Dalan really think that if Old Man Wang kept her, it would be okay?

Really... idiot!

If the Wang family chooses to keep Xu Dalan, they will have to pay the widow Wang's "wife" with money and food, or take the "wife" of the widow Wang home to raise them. The two brothers of the Wang family share equally. How could the second child of the Wang family have no complaints in their hearts?

Just by looking at the annoyed look on Anna Maeju's face, you can tell that there will be trouble in the future of the old Wang family!

It's a pity that she didn't like the excitement.

Yun Chang pouted regretfully, and turned back to listen to Old Master Yun's request from the old Wang family:

"...Two ways, one is that you don't need to give Wang Guihua a pension for the aunt, your old Wang family will take Wang Guihua back to raise it, and when the two old people are gone, let the eldest, the second, and the four below give Wang Guihua to the end of life. .

The second is that your Lao Wang family compensated Wang Guihua for ten years of chewing, and our Lao Yun family raised the dress. Ten years later, there will also be sixteen in Chang'an, and at that time, Chang'an will give Wang Guihua the care of the elderly..."

Before the old man could finish his words, Mrs. Wang hurriedly said, "We'll keep it! We'll take it back and keep it! Old man, let's take the flower back, and let the flower be in front of us in the future..."

Mrs. Wang's last sentence was addressed to Old Man Wang. When she came out, she wiped the corners of her eyes and started crying.

Old Man Wang's face turned darker, "What are you doing! How can a married girl be brought back!"

Old Madam Wang stared blankly at Old Man Wang, as if she couldn't believe her ears.

What's the matter, old man?

Didn't she always hurt her the most, why did she suddenly speak loudly to her?

Old man Wang felt irritable. If there was an old girl who was mad at home, he would have to have four nephews to take care of him in the future. If this matter spreads out, which girl would dare to enter his house in the future?

Besides, it is the right thing for this generation to be filial and support her in-laws, but I have never seen an aunt who married out of her home take her home for the aged.

The family needs to support one more elder who is insane, just eats and does not work, and is not sure when he will make trouble. Whose girl would be happy?

Mr. Yun ignored the eyebrow-raising lawsuit between the old couple, and then said, "You can take it back and raise it. It's just that Chang Nan doesn't have to give Wang Guihua a pension, and it's not to cut off the mother-daughter relationship. In the future, Chang Nan will come to see it every now and then. , if Wang Guihua goes wrong in your house, Chang Nan can go to the police at any time to report your abuse!"

Yun Chang almost applauded Mr. Yun when he heard it.

With him like this, how could the old Wang family dare to take back the widow of Wang's wife?

When they brought home food and drink, they would not let the widow Wang's "wife" suffer. If there was a little problem, the virtuous daughter would go to the police and sue them.

How could this be picking up my daughter home, this is simply picking up my ancestors home!

Even raising ancestors is not so meticulous!

However, when did Mr. Yun become so eloquent?

Yun Chang looked over curiously, and saw that Mr. Yun secretly glanced at the village chief from time to time, and immediately reacted. It turned out that these words were taught by the old village chief in advance.

This is fun.

Old Man Wang probably didn't expect Old Man Yun to do this, so he subconsciously followed his words to look at Yun Chang, only to see the girl nod her head like pounding garlic, and said crisply,

"I don't worry about my mother, anyway, the two villages are far apart. If you get close, I will try to come to see my mother once every three or five!"

Everyone in the Wang family: "..."

The old party secretary could also see it at this moment, the old Yun family had no intention of sending the widow Wang's "wife" back. It seemed that there were two ways to solve the problem, but the old Wang family had only one choice.

That's right, if the old Wang family really wants to bring back the daughter, then the blue brick house under her name will be another trouble.

The people of Lao Wang's family definitely want that house, but the people of Lao Yun's family also want to leave the house to Chang girl, and then the two families will have to fight.

If the old Wang family chooses to lose money and food, the big tiled house will naturally belong to the widow Wang's wife and Yunshang.

No matter how greedy the old Wang family is, there is no excuse to go to the house to occupy the house of the married woman.

What the old party secretary thought of, Old Man Wang also thought of it.

He was determined not to lose money or food, but Mr. Yun made a gesture that he would sue the police if he disagreed, so Mr. Wang really didn't have the courage to challenge the bottom line of the Lao Yun family, so he had to squeeze his nose and swallowed this useless breath. .

Even Mrs. Wang wanted to continue making trouble, but she was stunned by Old Man Wang's sharp eyes.
