Chapter 151 Arrive in Shenshi

At four o'clock in the afternoon, Gu Shinian held Yunshang in one hand, the letter of introduction and the train ticket in the other, passed the ticket gate, and boarded the train to Shenshi.

This time, the two also bought seat tickets. They entered Anxi and transferred trains. After two days and two nights, the train finally stopped at Shenshi Huoshi Station on the morning of the third day.

As the crowded people got out of the car, the old buildings that belonged to Shenshi style came into view, and all kinds of Wu Nong soft words were also in their ears.

After three days of riding in the car, Yun Chang felt that her bones were falling apart. When Gu Shinian found the guest house to live in, and laid out the bed sheet, Yun Chang was paralyzed on the bed like a piece of cake.

Gu Shinian was also very tired. He didn't lay out another ***** list, so he lay down next to Yun Chang and lay down beside her.

Yun Chang turned over, put her hands and feet on Gu Shinian, and asked lazily, "Second brother Gu, shall we go to see Grandpa Gu tomorrow?"

"Well, take a day off today, and go find someone tomorrow." Gu Shinian replied, not feeling very high.

Gu Zongming was his grandfather in the last life, and he was the one who silently protected him from the wind and rain after he left the capital with Yunshang.

If there was no grandfather sitting in the capital back then, their Gu family would have completely collapsed, and his business in other places would not have been so smooth.

And his scumbag, who was an accomplice in the murder, would not be used by his grandfather to forcibly remove him from public office and put him under house arrest.

In this life, he also met the scumbag, but the difference is that this time he dug a hole in advance, and used Zhou Mingjuan's careful thought to dissolve the father-son relationship with the scumbag.

If he is not mistaken, Han Chen has already spread his initiative to cut off the father-son relationship with Gu Huaqing to the provincial military area compound. After a few years, even if Gu Huaqing has an accident, he will not be implicated, and he can continue to protect him. Wearing cloud clothes...

Yun Chang noticed that Gu Shinian was in a bad mood, raised his head, smoothed Gu Shinian's frown bit by bit, and then asked, "Second brother Gu, if you can find Grandpa Gu tomorrow, how are you going to recognize your relatives?"

You can't just rush over and call Grandpa, right? Yun Chang slandered from the bottom of his heart.

Gu Shinian was silent for a while, then raised his hand and touched Yunshang's head, "...Ah Chang, this is not our world... If you can find it, it doesn't matter whether you recognize your relatives or not,

As long as grandpa is safe. "

In the last life, my grandfather was sent down for a few years, and his bones were broken in the countryside. When he was just over seventy years old, he had to rely on crutches to walk.

If grandpa was really in this world, he should only be 31 years old this year. He has just been transferred to the Armed Forces Department. Grandma is a teacher at the Normal University. The scumbag of his last life has not yet been born.

And in a few days, it will be the day when the uncle, whom he has never met in his last life, has an accident...

Gu Shinian stopped talking, and Yun Chang also fell silent.

Second Brother Gu remembers Grandpa Gu's name, and the current workplace and address of Grandpa Gu and Grandma Gu. No matter if they can find someone tomorrow, at least they still have some thoughts in their hearts.

But besides her grandfather's name, she couldn't even answer where he worked, how old he was, and what his grandma's name was.

Alas, if she can remember, she will go to her grandparents, and when she sees someone, she will rush up to hug her thigh and cry.

She has no relatives by her side in her two lives, and she lives like a lonely ghost. If she doesn't cry hard, how can she appear to be particularly aggrieved and pitiful?

Gu Shinian lowered his head and saw that Yun Chang's brows were also tightly knit together, he couldn't help feeling amused, he reached out and squeezed her face, coaxing her:

"A-shang, rest for a while, and take you out for shopping later."

As soon as she heard the word shopping, Yun Chang's eyes lit up.

This is Shen City!

It is the big Shanghai of their world!

It is the most prosperous and foreign-style city in the country. If you don't take a good stroll, how can you be worthy of her painful buttocks?

Yun Chang woke up, took a bath in the space, put on the Nizi coat that was made in the provincial capital and had been stored in the space, and went out of the space happily.

Gu Shinian also came out of the shower and put on new clothes. The whole person is handsome and energetic, and he looks amazing!

At four o'clock in the afternoon, Gu Shinian held Yunshang in one hand, the letter of introduction and the train ticket in the other, passed the ticket gate, and boarded the train to Shenshi.

Chapter 152 Big Purchase

Gu Shinian first cut the steak on the plate into small pieces, put it in front of Yun Chang, and then took the steak that Yun Chang had eaten, and ate it slowly.

Yun Chang forked a small piece of fried yellow steak, and said with a bitter face, "Second brother Gu, did the waiter think we were young and deliberately let the chef fry the steak until it was fully cooked?"

Otherwise, how can you explain that they are eating steak, the steak on their table is fully cooked, while the steak on the next table looks just right?

"Well, it should be." Gu Shinian responded with a smile, and whispered a few words to Yun Chang.

"It's a waste of ingredients..." Yun Chang said aggrievedly, bowing her head and slowly eating this extravagant meal.

The two of them ate this meal for a full hour and left the western restaurant. Yun Chang was lying on the window of the Friendship Store next door, looking at the dazzling array of goods inside, her greedy mouth could not close.

There is a special cosmetics counter inside, with the famous international brands that Yunshang is familiar with, and the food counter next to it also has bread, cream cakes, chocolates, and a basket of fresh fruits next to each other.

In the clothing area next to it, there are long woolen coats with bright colors, as well as several sets of men's suits, a silk scarf on the counter, and a few pairs of high-heeled shoes.

The things in the living area are even more eye-catching, table lamps, small crystal chandeliers, hair dryers, irons... There are also refrigerators that are not much higher than the cabinets.

Although Yunshang has all the things in the Friendship Store, but seeing the goods displayed on the counter, Yunshang's legs want to step in and have a stroll. This is probably the nature of women.

It's a pity that the two of them didn't have overseas remittance vouchers, so Yunshang could only lie outside to enjoy themselves.

After watching for a while, Yunshang's interest in shopping was immediately picked up, she turned around, waved her small hand, and motioned for Gu Shinian to follow,

"Second brother Gu, let's go! Let's go to the department store!!!"

Isn't it just shopping? It's not shopping where you go!

There are more customers in the department store, and it is much more interesting to go shopping than the Friendship Store...

Gu Shinian asked passers-by about the location of the department store, picked up Yunshang, and continued down the street. Soon, he saw the sign of the department store at the end of the street where people came and went.

Shenshi Department Store is more spacious than Linyang Department Store, with more complete goods and more modern facilities.

certainly,

There are more customers too.

When Yun Chang squeezed from the door to the counter, she could hear dozens of dialects in her ears.

The two looked at each counter one by one, and when they came across something that was inexpensive and agreeable, Yunshang would choose to buy it and keep it as a gift for others.

Going to the stationery counter, Gu Shinian spent 12 yuan and 80 cents to choose two identical pens, ready to give Han Yang and Han Chen brothers as gifts.

The Han brothers have a good relationship. Since he promised to bring gifts for Han Chen, it is not easy to miss Han Yang.

The two walked upstairs all the way to the fabric area on the third floor. They saw that there were two counters with the silk scarves she had seen in the Friendship Store. They were mixed with gray, blue and black cloth. .

Gu Shinian really knew Yun Chang too well, and before she could speak, he had already raised his legs and walked over.

Yunshang looked at these colorful silk scarves, and his eyes were straight.

In this era, the main tone of clothing is black, blue and green. Girls who love beauty have no way to find new patterns on their clothes, so they can only work on accessories.

A handkerchief for tying their hair, a brightly colored hair tie, and a silk scarf tied around their necks are all tools they use to dress up.

Yun Chang thought silently in her heart, Yun Shuilian is 18 years old this year, she is the most beautiful and the most beautiful age, a silk scarf can decorate her whole youth, buy one for her!

There is also Lin Dani, although she met a scumbag and became an adulterer, but she is still young, beautiful, and has no children. I bought my own silk scarf too!

As for herself, she must buy them, and one is not enough, so she has to buy three, and change the line every day in the future.

Yun Chang was lying on the counter, and she quickly chose five, costing a total of 60 yuan, and the distressed Yun Chang twitched at the corner of her mouth.

Looking at the large and small bags in Gu Shinian's hand, and thinking about the tickets spent today, Yunshang suddenly lost her desire to go shopping.

He dragged Gu Shinian out of the department store, walked along the street, and slowly returned to the guest house.

In the courtyard of the Provincial Military Region, Zhou Mingjuan carried a vegetable basket with a faint smile on her face, humming a little tune, and walked towards the house with ease.

Several family members gathered on the side of the road to talk when they saw Zhou Mingjuan coming, and asked with a raised voice, "Director Zhou, are you shopping for groceries? I haven't seen you for a few days. Are you on a business trip?"

Zhou Mingjuan nodded reservedly, and the curvature of the corners of her mouth narrowed slightly, looking polite and distant, "Yes, I went out for a few days."

Several people gathered together let out a burst of laughter, and someone exaggeratedly catered to Zhou Mingjuan's words:

"Director Zhou really deserves to be a family member of the political commissar. His consciousness is high. He is scrambling to go on business trips to small places. As soon as he comes back, he is busy cooking and cooking, and has a good grasp of work and life. Blessed to take care of the political commissar!"

"Isn't it! The woman doesn't allow men, she is talking about a powerful person like Director Zhou~, even more powerful than Political Commissar Gu!"

"I said, we all have to learn from Director Zhou in the future. We must take care of the family affairs, and we can't let men worry about family affairs."

The smile on Zhou Mingjuan's face froze, she always felt that these people were smiling maliciously, and the tone of their speech was strange, like a gun and a stick.

But she never had a dispute with the people in the compound. Why did these people target her?

She must be overthinking it!

Zhou Mingjuan nodded to several people, quickened her pace, and continued to walk home.

Pushing the door in, Gu Guangzong who was sitting on the sofa quickly got up, shouted "Aunt Zhou", and hurried over to take the basket in her hand.

Zhou Mingjuan's face sank, and she quickly put on a smile again, "Guangzong, your dad doesn't know about your coming to the provincial capital. I'll cook first, and when your dad comes back from get off work, we'll give him a surprise."

Gu Guangzong's nervous palms were sweating coldly, he nodded, followed behind Zhou Mingjuan, and put the vegetable basket in the kitchen.

With Gu Guangzong helping him, Zhou Mingjuan quickly prepared four dishes and one soup. As soon as the food was on the table, Gu Huaiqing pushed open the door and walked in.

"Huaiqing, are you back? Wash your hands and eat."

Zhou Mingjuan pushed Gu Guangzong into the kitchen, walked over with a smile, took the military coat that Gu Huaiqing had taken off, and stretched out her hand again, ready to take off the hat on his head.

Chapter 153 She is taking revenge!

The smile on Zhou Mingjuan's face froze for a moment, and her expression looked a little distorted, "Gu, Gu Guang...Huaiqing, you already know? I also told you to give you a surprise."

Gu Huaiqing ignored Zhou Mingjuan, took off his hat and hung it on the hanger, entered the room without saying a word, glanced at the steaming four dishes and one soup on the dining table, and frowned even more.

Zhou Mingjuan quickly put down her clothes, called Gu Guangzong out of the kitchen, and pulled him to Gu Huaiqing's side, "Huaiqing, this is Guangzong, I brought him back to you."

After saying that, he ignored Gu Huaiqing's cold face and pushed Gu Guangzong's arm with a smile, "Guangzong, this is our political commissar Gu, call me Dad!"

Gu Guangzong didn't expect Gu Huaiqing to give him a cold look as soon as they met, his nervous face turned pale, he clutched the corner of his clothes, hesitated for a while, and whispered, "...Dad."

"Well, since I'm back, I'll treat this place as my own from now on. Tell me to Aunt Zhou if I'm missing anything."

Gu Huaiqing looked at his eldest son, who was about to catch up with him, and his brows stretched a little, but his heart was still on fire, and his tone of speech seemed a little stiff.

Moreover, the unfamiliar and polite words he said were like entertaining relatives who had defected to him, which made Gu Guangzong a little puzzled and a little overwhelmed.

However, Zhou Mingjuan also smiled and said, "Guangzong, your dad is right, tell me what you need in the future, don't be polite."

Gu Guangzong's head was in a mess, his face stiffened, and he thanked Zhou Mingjuan, "I see, thank you Aunt Zhou."

"Okay, go back to your room to rest first, and wait for your sister to come back before dinner." Gu Huaiqing sent Gu Guangzong away, and said to Zhou Mingjuan with a cold face, "Come with me to the study."

Zhou Mingjuan didn't know what kind of evil fire Gu Huaiqing was sending out, so she had to suppress her inner doubts, bit her lip, put on a wronged but stubborn gesture, and followed behind Gu Huaiqing into the study.

Gu Huaiqing sat down on the chair, opened the drawer, and found that Zhou Mingjuan had put the private seal back, and his face immediately turned gloomy.

Thinking of all the people in the military region looking at an idiot all day, Gu Huaiqing's face turned black.

"Mingjuan, why did you do this? I've said it before. After the year, bring the two children, observe them for a while, and then choose one to stay. Why did you go to Qinghe County on your own initiative to embarrass Zhang Chunni?"

Zhou Mingjuan rested on the edge of the table with one hand, various desks, stubbornly glared at Gu Huaiqing, and a layer of water mist that could not fall off quickly formed in her eyes.

"Gu Huaiqing! Do you still have a conscience! Who am I doing this for? I didn't see that you were too busy with work and worried about the return of your two children all day, so I wanted to help you with this. You're a surprise... if you don't appreciate it, why do you want to slap me in front of your son, don't you want your son to see me clearly..."

Gu Huaiqing didn't expect that he would stab the hornet's nest with a single word, making Zhou Mingjuan relentlessly settle accounts with him, and his posture was just right, both stubborn and pitiful, and lovable, causing his anger to stagnate in his chest for a long time. Can't post either.

Seeing that Gu Huaiqing's attitude was softening, Zhou Mingjuan came over from behind the table, stretched out her finger and poked at Gu Huaiqing's chest.

"Do you think I ruined your good deeds? Comrade Zhang Chunni gave you two sons. If I can't give birth to a son, you don't want to see me anymore. You want to go to Qinghe County to see Zhang Chunni, right?"

You know what kind of person I am, because of you, I pulled down my face to have a good relationship with Zhang Chunni's son, and you are still dissatisfied with me, tell me, do you regret that you divorced Zhang Chunni and married me..."

Gu Huaiqing was so angry that he was poked by Zhou Mingjuan one by one.

Seeing her blushing with anger and anger at this moment, with tears in her eyes, but stubbornly refusing to fall, she could not help but take a few steps back along with her strength, defending herself with a black face.

"What nonsense are you talking about? When did I miss Zhang Chunni? If I missed her, would I be able to ignore her for so many years? Besides, when did I ever dislike you because you didn't give birth to a son? Stop messing with me!"

"Then why don't you want me to pick up your son for you? Why do you want to slap me in front of your son?"

Speaking of this, Gu Huaiqing's face darkened again, "I'm very happy that you can take the initiative to bring Guangzong back, but why did you cut off the father-son relationship with me for ten years? Do you know that this matter has affected me? How bad?"

And my private chapter, who allowed you to secretly touch my private chapter? I am a political commissar of the military region, and the private seal represents my signature. If this matter is known, both of us will have to be punished! "

Zhou Mingjuan is completely stupid at this moment. The reason why she forced Gu Shinian to cut off the father-son relationship with Gu Guangzong is because she is sure that this incident will not spread to the provincial capital and will not affect her life.

After all, Gu Shinian is only a half-year-old boy, and he has dropped out of school and stopped studying. If there is no accident, he can only live in Qinghe County for the rest of his life, working as a temporary worker or a second bastard.

As long as she can treat Gu Guangzong well, even if this incident comes out later, with an excellent Gu Guangzong for comparison, others will only think that Gu Huaiqing has the vision and can see through the gap between the two sons early.

Why did something so foolproof suddenly come to this point?

Even when she was still in Qinghe County, the news spread in the military compound. What went wrong?

Zhou Mingjuan's face was pale, and she finally understood why the family members who had met on the road before spoke in a strange way.

When Zhang Chunni had a big belly and left the provincial capital with her two children, she and Gu Huaqing were given the reputations of "vicious" and "not cultivating personal morality" respectively.

Over the years, she has never argued with the people in the compound, and always greeted them with a smile. It was only with difficulty that she reversed everyone's opinion of her. This time, she took the initiative to bring Gu Guangzong back, and her instinct was to gain a wave of favorability, but now because of this accident, her reputation has been smeared again.

Zhou Mingjuan's face was ashen, she leaned against the edge of the table, and sat down on the chair, "This must have been reported by Zhang Chunni! She did it on purpose, she must have done it on purpose, she was revenge on me for robbing her son!"

Gu Huaqing's brows furrowed tightly, "The question now is, how did she spread this matter to the military region? Who is helping her spread the word? Zhang Chunni has been in contact with people in the military region all these years, what is the purpose?"

Chapter 154 Bring Gu Shinian back!

Now the matter is spreading in the compound, and it will not be long before it will reach the hospital, no, maybe it has already spread to the hospital now!

In the future, strange eyes and ridicule from outsiders will fill the corners and corners around her, whether at work or in life.

There is also Gu Huaqing, he is a political commissar of the military region, and a cadre who is in charge of ideological and political work. If this incident occurs now, he will inevitably be attacked and annihilated by people who use his own ideology to fail, which will affect his future work, and even his promotion.

Wanting to understand this, Zhou Mingjuan's teeth itch with hatred.

She tried to provoke the relationship between Zhang Chunni's family and made Zhang Chunni's son her puppet. At first, she was quite proud. She felt that Zhang Chunni was as stupid as ever, and swallowed the worthless face.

But she never imagined that Zhang Chunni, who had always been straight and had no scheming, would stab her with such a neat backhand, and hit the red heart, putting her and Gu Huaiqing in such an embarrassing situation.

The current situation is that the Gu Guangzong she brought home is no longer a pawn to fool people, but a hot potato.

Even if she was kicked out, it wouldn't help. Instead, it made people feel that she was guilty and afraid, which would only make her and Gu Huaiqing's reputation worse.

But continuing to leave Gu Guangzong at home is like a nail in her eye, reminding her all the time what a stupid and ridiculous thing she has done:

Originally wanted to calculate people, the results were counter-calculated.

Knowing that she was dragging Gu Huaiqing, Zhou Mingjuan did not dare to be angry like before, suppressed her inner grievance, and shook Gu Huaiqing's sleeve twice, and said softly:

"Brother Qing, this time I was careless and dragged you down again. Now that things have happened, do you have any ideas?"

Gu Huaiqing rubbed his throbbing temples, "Mingjuan, whether it's Guangzong or ten years, I never thought of leaving my family to the two of them, you really don't need to force that child to cut ties with me.

There is also Guangzong, who has a bad reputation as soon as he came back, and it will be difficult to get into the circle of the sons and brothers of the compound in the future, and even if he joins the army, his development will be limited..." After all, no one dares to give his back to a selfish person. Heartless, white-eyed wolf who forgets about profit and righteousness.

Thinking that the white-eyed wolf was his son after all, Gu Huaiqing silently swallowed the last sentence, paused, and continued:

"It's not without room for change,

In two days, I will take time to go to Qinghe County and bring back ten years. At that time, you will endure for a while, even if you are acting, you will take good care of the two children on the bright side. "

Absolutely not!

She spent so much time trying to convince Gu Huaiqing to bring back only one son, but now she still has to bring back all of Zhang Chunni's little cubs, so what is she doing so much for?

And the wolf cub Gu Shien, who looks at her like a bed bug, will you take her back every day?

Zhou Mingjuan took a deep breath, quickly flushed the corners of her eyes, and said aggrievedly, "Brother Qing, it's not that I don't want to endure it, it's really... It's really different from Guangzong in ten years."

"Why is it different?"

"Brother Qing, I don't know what the eldest sister said to Ten Years. That child didn't want to see me, and the matter of severing the father-son relationship with you was also brought up by Ten Years."

Zhou Mingjuan said, took out the statement of severing the relationship between father and son from her body, bit her lip, and handed it to Gu Huaiqing with a look of embarrassment, "Look, this statement was written by the child himself... "

Gu Huaiqing took the yellow manuscript paper, and the blue veins on his forehead jumped up just at a glance, his face was black and red, and the hand holding the manuscript paper was shaking.

The conspicuous words in the statement, "I have a low character, I don't deserve to be a father, I disdain to be with him" were like slaps, and they were slapped on his face, until he was so embarrassed that he could hardly raise his head.

Thinking that this statement was brought back by Zhou Mingjuan and Gu Guangzong, Gu Huaiqing had a feeling of stripping off his clothes again, making the two of them read a joke.

Thinking of this, Gu Guangzong looked at Zhou Mingjuan wrongly, but Zhou Mingjuan hadn't noticed it yet. He held Gu Huaiqing's hand, stroked the back of his hand, and said again:

"Brother Qing, the child has resentment in his heart for ten years, and he refuses to come back. Even if we bring people back through Zhang Chunni... through the eldest sister, the child's temper will make life uneasy at home. What do you do if you win over and use it, and then turn around and deal with you?"

Gu Huaiqing's heart skipped a beat, and he could no longer care about the embarrassment in his heart. He stared at Zhou Mingjuan's eyes and asked:

"That kid really doesn't want to come back with you?"

"Yeah." Zhou Mingjuan nodded with certainty, "As soon as I arrived in Qinghe County, I had contact with two children, and Guangzong was fine. I have been thinking about you all these years, but I haven't even seen me for ten years. Said he...has no father."

Gu Huaiqing's face darkened again, and he was silent for a long time before he said, "The matter of going to Qinghe County will be slowed down for a while, and we will take a look at it in a few years."

The reason why he was in a hurry to take Gu Shinian back was not only because Gu Guangzong had a bad reputation and needed to choose another heir, but the most important reason was to wash away his stigma.

If Gu Shinian was a good man, things would be easy to solve.

But if Gu Shinian really hated him as Zhou Mingjuan said, then what he brought back would not be an heir, but a bomb from time to time, and it would blow up when he couldn't turn over.

He couldn't take this risk.

Gu Huaiqing took a sip of the hot water handed over by Zhou Mingjuan, undid the first button on his clothes, and let out a long sigh.

Zhou Mingjuan's eyes flickered, she squatted down, and stroked Gu Huaiqing's chest all at once, soothing his chest that heaved violently from anger.

At the same time, he continued to fan the flames and said, "Brother Qing, have you asked who spread the gossip in the courtyard first? I thought about it carefully, and I don't think it was necessarily the eldest sister who did this."

"Even if the eldest sister doesn't want to see me and wants to ruin my reputation, there is no need to ruin Guangzong's reputation. Guangzong is her son no matter what."

When Zhou Mingjuan said this, she glanced at the direction of the door and lowered her voice, "The kid in Ten Years is a big idea. Do you think Ten Years did this?"

"He has never been out of Qinghe County when he grew up, where can he meet people in the military region?"

Gu Huaiqing subconsciously denied it, frowned and pushed Zhou Mingjuan's hand away, "You don't need to worry about this, I'll ask someone to inquire later, and see where the gossip came from."

Chapter 155 Looking for relatives

In Shen Shi, after washing up with Yun Chang, Gu Shinian and Yun Chang lay head-to-head on the bed, talking about the Gu Huaiqing family.

Gu Shinian had no way to get in touch with people in the military region before, so he didn't plan to spread the matter to the military region compound, which ruined Zhou Mingjuan's reputation.

But he happened to meet Han Chen in the county seat, and Han Chen just happened to be able to get in touch with people in the military region. Gu Shinian naturally had to seize the opportunity to stumble upon Zhou Mingjuan.

Not for himself, just to give Zhang Chunni a bad breath.

Since Zhou Mingjuan wants to take Gu Guangzong back to the provincial capital, she can contact Gu Guangzong in private and ask Gu Guangzong to come forward and cut off ties with Zhang Chunni.

As a mistress, she should not try to smear the reputation of her original spouse who has given way to her for more than ten years while trying to win over the son of her original spouse.

In this day and age, the life of a divorced woman is not easy. If she has the reputation of hindering the progress of the descendants of revolutionary officers, which unit can still want her?

This is to cut off the life of Zhang Chunni's family and force Zhang Chunni to die.

Even if Zhang Chunni's role as a mother was unqualified, she finally took on the responsibility of a mother and raised three children by herself.

Just because of this, Gu Shinian couldn't let Zhou Mingjuan bully Zhang Chunni like this.

Since she has a vicious mind and wants to smear Zhang Chunni's reputation, Gu Shinian also retaliated, so that Zhou Mingjuan can also taste the taste of the famous street.

Let Gu Huaiqing take a good look at it, what kind of thing is he who abandoned his wife and children to marry a woman who entered the house.

I also hope that Zhou Mingjuan's stealing of private chapters will be exposed and affect Gu Huaiqing's work.

Early the next morning, Yun Chang was woken up by Gu Shinian pinching his nose, took a bite of Gu Shinian's hand, pouted his mouth, and couldn't get up for a long time.

"Ah Chang, there are state-run restaurants here that sell fried buns, crab yellow buns, spring rolls, sweet bean curd..."

"Second brother Gu, I'll have sex now."

Yun Chang took a sip of saliva, turned over suddenly and sat up, spread her arms, and let Gu Shinian put on a fitted woolen coat for her.

After packing up, the two found a state-run hotel,

I found that the food Gu Shinian said was only fried buns and sweet bean curd, and crab yellow buns and spring rolls had not been provided for a long time.

Yun Chang was not disappointed either, he ate two fried buns, drank a bowl of sweet bean flowers, and then followed Gu Shinian obediently to start today's trip.

Gu Shinian inquired about the approximate route with passers-by, hugged the crowded tram, and staggered all the way to find the Normal University.

It was breakfast time, and from time to time students from the city crowded out of the tram and hurried through the school gate.

Gu Shinian first took Yunshang to find a small alley where there was no one, and put three catties of brown rice in the cloth bag that had been prepared long ago, and two pieces of defective cloth, tied with hemp rope, and pulled Yunshang. Go to the communication room at the school gate.

"Comrade, has Professor Chen Minzhi from the English Department come to the class? Someone asked me to bring something for Professor Chen."

An old man and a young man sat in the reception room. The old man was drinking tea from a tea jar. Hearing Gu Shinian's words, he raised his head in surprise, "Who are you talking about?"

"Professor Chen Minzhi, who teaches English, is 30 years old this year, and is a professor who just came from Capital University this year."

The old man looked back at the young man beside him, "Xiao Li, does our Normal University have such a number one person? Why didn't I know?"

Xiao Li also shook his head, "I also don't remember a professor from Capital University, Comrade Xiao, did you remember it wrong?"

Gu Shinian's heart sank for a while, but he still said unwillingly, "It should have been transferred in May this year. She has two sons, the eldest son is eight years old this year, and the youngest son is five years old. He doesn't usually live in the school..."

"Little comrade, if you want to ask me if there is anyone named Chen Minzhi in the English department, I may also ask others, but if you want to say that there are professors from Capital University this year, there really isn't one!"

The old man said it decisively, and Gu Shinian's face was even more disappointed. Xiao Li next to him took out a notebook from the drawer, and the name of the school teacher was registered on it.

He turned to the English Department, searched it carefully, and shook his head at Gu Shinian, "Little comrade, there is no professor named Chen Minzhi in the English Department, go back and ask your adults to see if you have misremembered the university. ."

"Okay, then I'll go back and ask again, thank you two comrades." Gu Shinian got up, thanked the two of them, and pulled Yun Chang out of the reception room.

Although Gu Shinian knew that this world was not their original world, when he really couldn't find anyone, he would inevitably feel lost.

Without his family in this world, does that mean that his uncle will have an accident in a few days?

When the movement comes, grandma will still encounter unexpected events, and grandpa will also be sent down?

Gu Shinian thought about these things, with a serious expression and a little loss, he pulled Yun Chang and jumped onto the streetcar.

Yun Chang hugged Gu Shinian's neck, rubbed his forehead against his face, and said worriedly, "Second brother Gu, let's go to the Armed Forces Department to find Grandpa Gu first, if we can't find it again, we'll go to the street to find him. "

Gu Shinian cheered up and smiled at Yun Chang, "Ah Chang, don't worry about me, I thought of this result before I came, I just came over to confirm."

Yun Chang responded, hugged Gu Shinian's neck tightly, resting his head on his shoulder, and was reluctant to lift it up for a long time.

If there was no Grandpa Gu family in this world, there would naturally be no Yun family. Her parents, as well as her brother Yunzhou City, she would never have the chance to meet again.

Even if she changed to another world, the only one she could rely on and trust was Gu Erge...

The tram stopped quickly, and Gu Shinian squeezed Yunshang out of the car. Instead of going directly to the Armed Forces Department to inquire about the news, he went to the newspaper office opposite the Armed Forces Department to find an excuse to chat with the uncle who was guarding the door.

It took half an hour for Gu Shinian to finally get the news he wanted from the uncle. Knowing that Gu Zongming was not among the leaders of the Armed Forces Department, the two got on the tram again, holding the last glimmer of hope. Go straight to the street where my grandfather lived in Shanghai.

In the last life, Gu Shinian had accompanied his grandfather back to Shanghai several times. Therefore, even if the street names in the two worlds were different, he still found the correct address with vague memory.

Standing outside the walls of the courtyard, which was both familiar and unfamiliar, Gu Shinian instantly felt a feeling of being close to home.

Looking at the closed log-colored door, Gu Shinian raised his hand, put it down, back and forth several times, until the door opened from the inside.

Chapter 156 Suspected missing relatives

The man in the 'four-pocket' cadre outfit held the door frame and looked at Gu Shinian suspiciously, "Little comrade, who are you looking for?"

Gu Shinian didn't say a word, stared at the man's face tightly, and his expression was in a trance.

This face, from the outline, to the scar on the brow, to the small black mole on the lower jaw, is exactly the same as the face in the old photo in Grandpa's study!

It's just that the person in the photo is at most twenty years old, while the person in front of him is about thirty years old.

Gu Shinian once asked about the origin of the old photo, and knew that it was the only photo taken between the three brothers. Grandpa was the eldest, and the owner of that face was the third.

He should call the third grandpa.

It's a pity that not long after the group photo was taken, the third grandfather disappeared while he was on the mission. No one was born, no dead body was seen, and there was no news of the third grandpa until he passed through.

Gu Shinian could never have imagined that he did not find grandpa and grandma at the same time and place, but found the third grandpa who was suspected to be missing!

Gu Shinian's heart trembled for a while, and he held Yun Chang's hand a little tighter unconsciously.

I met a Lin Dani who looked exactly like the deceased Aunt Wen Jin in the provincial capital, and now there is a man who looks exactly like the missing third grandpa. Is this really just a coincidence?

Gu Shinian carefully looked at the person in front of him again. Compared with the sharpness of the third grandfather in the photo, the person in front of him looked like a scholar, with a sharp edge and a more calm and elegant temperament.

The man turned and closed the door behind him, his eyes swept across Gu Shinian and Yun Chang, and asked again, "Little comrade? What's the matter with you?"

Gu Shinian came back to his senses, pulled Yun Chang back a few steps, stared at the man's eyes tightly, and tentatively said:

"Comrade, I'm here to find Comrade Gu Zongming."

The voice fell, and Gu Shinian clearly saw that the man's pupils shrank sharply, and soon he showed a blank expression, his voice was neither high nor low, "Little comrade, did you find the wrong address? I'm not calling. Gu Zongming, our neighbors here are not named Gu Zongming!"

"What about Professor Chen Minzhi?" Gu Shinian spoke again, his eyes still fixed on the man's eyes, not wanting to miss the slightest change in his expression.

"Ah? Asking for saliva?" The man raised his voice in response to the question, and then pushed open the door behind him, "Okay, come in. But hurry up, I'm going to be late for work."

Gu Shinian reacted instantly, and immediately replied with a smile, "Thank you, Comrade! Don't worry, my sister and I will drink water and leave, we will definitely not delay your work."

A few people entered the door, and there was a beautiful two-story small western building. A small flower bed was opened in the yard. There were no flowers in it, and all kinds of sundries and firewood were stacked.

Looking at the familiar bungalows and the familiar small flower beds in the courtyard, Gu Shinian became more and more sure of his guess.

Several people entered the living room on the first floor. The man motioned for Gu Shinian to pour water from the kettle himself, then took out a pen and paper from his pocket, wrote a string of addresses, stuffed it into Gu Shinian's hand, and said in a low voice, "Ming Two o'clock in the evening."

The man's mysterious and tense gesture made Gu Shinian's heart also lift up. After weighing the dangers and pros and cons, he nodded at the man.

Yun Chang held the bowl aside, took two sips of water in a loud voice, wiped her mouth and said, "Second brother, I've finished drinking!"

Outside, especially when the situation was obviously wrong, she always only called "Second Brother" and would not take his surname.

Gu Shinian cooperated with Yun Chang very well, said two words of thanks to the man, got up and left.

When they went out, the two did not go back to the guest house immediately, but continued to inquire along the street. When they saw someone, they asked if they knew Gu Zongming and Chen Minzhi. When they reached the end of the street, they turned around and left in disappointment.

As soon as he walked out of the street, Yun Chang hugged Gu Shinian's neck and whispered, "Second brother Gu, someone is following us."

Yunshang's spiritual power is very outstanding, even if he doesn't look back, he can see the sneaky figure of the person following him.

Gu Shinian's expression remained the same, but the hand holding Yun Chang became even tighter.

He already regretted entering the door with the man.

Even if that person was really the third grandfather, Gu Shinian didn't want to put Yun Chang in a dangerous situation because of him.

"Ah Chang, don't look back, let's go directly to the department store and throw people away there." Gu Shinian paused, then said, "Buy train tickets when we go back, and we'll go home as soon as possible."

Yun Chang didn't feel afraid, there was room, she could save her life no matter what.

Leaving a trace of mental power on the person behind him, he inquired about the news with Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, who was that person just now? He looks a lot like Grandpa Gu."

Grandpa Gu in Yunshang's impression, even in his old age, his facial features are still handsome and dignified. If he were a few decades younger, he would be more like the man he just met.

Gu Shinian didn't expect Yun Chang to still gossip under such circumstances, so he patted her head helplessly, "Be obedient, wait until you go back."

Yun Chang is honest.

The two got on the tram with their tails behind them, and got off at the department store, blending into the crowd in the blink of an eye.

On the most crowded first floor, Yunshang stretched out his mental strength and stumbled on the man. When the man fell and the crowd was chaotic, he quickly dragged Gu Shinian out of the department store.

Back at the guest house, Yun Chang closed the door and dragged Gu Shinian directly into the space.

Knowing that the person was probably the third grandfather of Gu Shinian, and when Gu Shinian planned to act alone tomorrow night, Yun Chang was angry.

Sitting cross-legged on the open space in front of the building, holding his face in his hands, he looked at Gu Shinian coldly.

And Gu Shinian put a plate of grapes on his legs, peeled the grape skins very seriously, and then carefully fed them into Yunshang's mouth.

Yun Chang still didn't appreciate it, wrinkling her nose from time to time to express her dissatisfaction.

"You wanted to run away and take me home before, and now you want to date yourself without me!"

Gu Shinian: "..."

"A-Shang, you have seen it too, that person is in trouble now and it's not safe, so you can stay at the guest house and wait for me, okay?"

"No! You said it all, he is probably your third grandfather. Your third grandfather is in trouble now, can you ignore it?"

Gu Shinian wanted to say "neng" very much, but he swallowed the word "neng" when he saw Shang Yunshang's clear eyes.

Judging from today's situation, the man was clearly in a predicament, almost to the point of being unable to walk, and he was not even free to speak to others.

Just look at that face, even if he is not the third grandfather, as long as he doesn't involve Yun Chang, as long as he doesn't do bad things, he wants to help him.

Chapter 157 beaten again

Gu Shinian sighed and put the grape in his hand into Yunshang's mouth, "A-shang, don't worry, I'll go see him tomorrow night to see who he is, maybe we've got the wrong person. ..."

Yun Chang wanted to pouted, but with grapes in his mouth, he couldn't make a pouting expression, so he rolled his eyes, showing the look of you making up and continuing to make up.

"You're fooling me as a child again!" Yun Chang swallowed the grapes and complained about Gu Shinian, "If you really admit the wrong person, you won't see strangers in the middle of the night!"

Just look at the face that looks very much like Grandpa Gu, if you want to say that the two are not related, who are you fooling!

And don't think that the expression on Gu Shinian's face can fool her!

Gu Shinian still wanted to lecture, but Yun Chang stretched out her hand to cover Gu Shinian's mouth, and scare him with a straight face, "Second brother Gu, if you don't take me, I will lock you in the space and go on a date instead of you. !"

After Yun Chang finished speaking, she stepped out of the space, leaned on the **, holding the villain book and looked at it beautifully.

ah! Finally, I can overwhelmingly clean up Second Brother Gu!

This taste, Intuit cool!

Looking at the grapes that were not fed out in his hands, a row of black lines appeared on his forehead.

He has always known that Yun Chang is difficult to deal with. From childhood to adulthood, as long as it is her request, he will always try his best to make him agree.

In the past, there was no space, and her methods were nothing more than two kinds of coquettishness and cuteness. Now that there is space, the villain threatened him with ambition, and she also played the role of imprisoning him boldly.

She's so used to it that she's not big or small!

Yun Chang didn't know that Gu Shinian was gearing up to clean up her. After reading the villain book for an hour, her consciousness entered the space and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, do you want to take me to see your third grandfather?"

Gu Shinian checked the growth of the fruit seedlings, and when he heard Yunshang's desolate little milk voice, he said angrily and funny, "Okay, I'll take you with me tomorrow."

After getting the answer he wanted, Yun Chang generously released Gu Shinian.

"Second brother Gu, I will definitely listen to you tomorrow..."

Before the words were finished, Yun Chang was picked up by Gu Shinian from his cock, and then he was beaten when he pressed it on his lap.

Yun Chang didn't expect the present newspaper to come so quickly,

Before she finished what she was going to say to coax Gu Shinian, she was beaten on the butt again.

Gu Shinian is so bad!

She is a big girl, how can she beat her ass all the time?

Yun Chang struggled a few times, unable to break free from Gu Shinian's 'magic claws', so she had to cover her butt with both hands to prevent Gu Shinian from beating her.

It's not pain, it's mostly shame.

"Gu Shinian! If you beat me again, I'll go back and report to your comrade Zhang!"

Gu Shinian was about to stop, but upon hearing this, he threw off Yun Chang's hand and continued beating.

"I'm going to sue my grandparents and I won't let you go to my house in the future!"

When Gu Shinian heard this, he became even more angry.

After being raised for so many years, I want to split up with him for the two slaps, and split up your family and my family. What a fool!

Keep beating!

Yun Chang was about to cry, blushing, sobbing and shouting, "Second brother Gu, I know it's wrong, I won't dare to shut you down again."

"How did you promise me when you were in the coal mine last time?" Gu Shinian slapped his face with a cold face, "Have the courage to admit your mistakes, never change your mind, it's you!"

"This time it's true, I really know I'm wrong."

Yun Chang turned over, hugged Gu Shinian's waist and climbed up, hugging his neck and not letting go, and said all kinds of coaxing words to Gu Shinian.

What is the second brother Gu is the best, the second brother Gu is the most wise and martial, the second brother Gu is the most handsome little fresh meat in the world... It's just about calling the second brother Gu to rule the world for all generations.

Gu Shinian was amused by Yun Chang's insincere coaxing words, raised the corners of his mouth, reached out and rubbed her little ass, but he didn't hit anyone again.

"Okay, I'll let you go for the time being. Next time I dare to make a fool of myself, I won't take you anywhere in the future."

Yun Chang hurriedly nodded and agreed, very well-behaved.

At four o'clock in the morning, Yun Chang was called out by Gu Shinian, rubbed her eyes, put on her clothes, and followed Gu Shinian out of the hostel.

It was pitch black outside, except for the faint yellow light of the dim light bulbs on the telephone poles. The damp and cold air was blowing from all directions, and the chill drilled down the pores straight into the bones of the human body, and the clothes on the body quickly became sticky.

The two found a dark corner, took out their bicycles from the space, and galloped all the way to the welfare home in the suburbs.

After riding for about an hour, the gate of the orphanage finally showed its shape in the bright sky.

Yun Chang did not get out of the car. When Gu Shinian slowed down and passed the gate of the orphanage, he threw Sun Datou in the space at the gate of the orphanage. After that, the two left the scene at the same speed.

When they returned to the city, the two found a corner with no one, put their bicycles in the space, and mixed in with the crowd waiting for the tram.

After dealing with Sun Datou's affairs, Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, feeling that the air in the space was a little fresher, and even the food in the fields, she felt refreshed.

Yun Chang didn't feel that he was vicious either. Sun Datou did those disgusting things to the original owner, and it would not be an exaggeration to kill him.

She only received a part of the original owner's memory, and she could feel Sun Datou's malice and desire to face the original owner.

And the original owner was molested by Sun Datou in a different way for a whole year. If Wang ** was not too shrewd and took Sun Datou seriously, the original owner might have been poisoned by Sun Datou.

Yun Chang clearly felt that the original owner's fear of Sun Datou was engraved in his bones. Even if the core was changed, as long as he thought of Sun Datou's malicious eyes, this body trembled like a conditioned reflex.

So even if Sun Datou is not as good as death now, Yun Chang only feels happy!

The two returned to the guest house, slept for a day, and went out hand in hand at seven o'clock in the evening.

I found a state-run restaurant near the place where the man agreed, went in and ordered two servings of rice, one serving of braised fish, and one serving of fried tofu.

The two avoided the patrols on the street all the way and stood outside the agreed house.

Yunshang stretched out her mental strength, scanned the house inside and out, took Gu Shinian's hand, turned into a remote alley and dodged into the space.

"Second brother Gu, the house is not big. There are only three rooms. No one lives in it. There is a tunnel under the yard. I don't know where it leads."

Gu Shinian nodded, thought for a moment, and said, "That person is being watched and can't get out. He should pass through the tunnel later."

Chapter 158: Recognize the relatives

Yunshang's spiritual power has been shrouded in the entire small courtyard. At the appointed time, the tunnel entrance was pushed open from below, and a figure rushed up quickly, dodging into the empty room.

Not long after, an oil lamp was lit in the room. The man he had seen during the day took out a dark lampshade from his arms and put it on the oil lamp, and the surrounding light immediately dimmed.

Seeing that there was only one person on the other side, and that he acted very carefully, and there was no tail behind, Yun Chang was a little relieved.

Pulling Gu Shinian out of the space, he closed his eyes to adjust to the dark night, leaned against the wall, tiptoed to the door of the small courtyard, entered quickly, and covered the small door.

The half-broken door of the main house was open, and a man stood at the door, leading the two of them into a dark room where people's faces could hardly be seen.

The man lifted the lampshade, took a careful look at Nurse Nian's face, and smiled suddenly, "Boy, your surname is Gu too? What's your name?"

With this smile, the atmosphere in the room suddenly became less tense.

Gu Shinian could feel the kindness radiating from the man, and there was a slight smile between his eyebrows, "My name is Gu Shinian, and Gu Zongming is my grandfather."

"Oh? Gu Zongming's grandson?" The man circled around Gu Shinian twice and raised his eyebrows proudly, "I'm Gu Zonglin, what should you call me?"

The smile on Gu Shinian's face froze for a moment, and in Gu Zonglin's playful eyes, he shouted generously, "Third grandpa!"

This time, it was Gu Zonglin's turn to be dumbfounded.

He took two steps back, touched the fairly smooth and delicate skin on his face, bared his lips like a toothache, and said with a displeased expression, "I should be happy, why am I so embarrassed! I have So youngest?"

After speaking, he muttered to himself, "I'm only 27, and suddenly such a big grandson pops up. How can I marry a daughter-in-law in the future?"

Yun Chang was speechless, not his own grandson, but the grandson of the next room, how could he prevent him from marrying a daughter-in-law? The thorns are not so picky!

Gu Shinian's eyes became more and more full of smiles. After thinking about it, he discussed with Gu Zonglin seriously, "If you are not satisfied with the title of 'third grandfather', I can also call you Brother Gu."

Yunshang: "...". Are these grandparents serious? With such a close relationship, can the seniority be added or subtracted at will?

However, Gu Zonglin didn't think there was anything wrong with descending from the grandfather generation to the grandchild generation, so he put his face on his face and seriously considered Gu Shinian's suggestion.

Seeing Yunshang's pouting lips,

Gu Zonglin squatted down and asked with a grin,

"This girl is also from our Gu family? Not bad! She looks better than Gu Shinian. When you grow up, the third grandpa will find a good family for you!"

Yun Chang frowned, "Third grandpa, my surname is Yun, I'm not from the Gu family."

"It doesn't matter if your surname is Yun. When you grow up, you will be the Gu family when you marry into the Gu family."

Gu Zonglin scratched his chin as he spoke, turned to Gu Shinian, and pointedly said, "Eldest grandson, it's a pity that such a beautiful girl doesn't take care of her family!"

Gu Shinian: "..."

Yunshang: "..."

Seeing Gu Zonglin running farther and farther on the unreasonable road, Gu Shinian said helplessly, "Third grandpa, stop playing, let's talk about business first."

He didn't believe that this cheerful temperament was Gu Zonglin's true face. How could the person who was selected by the organization to carry out the secret mission in those days be someone who was not calm enough and could not distinguish between priority and secondary?

Seeing that Gu Shinian was not cooperating with him, Gu Zonglin sighed, straightened his back, and retracted the sullen look between his brows. The funny temperament on his body disappeared instantly, and it was replaced by a cold, stern and calm attitude.

"Tell me about things at home, your grandfather, your second grandfather, and... what happened to you."

In front of Yun Chang, Gu Shinian didn't dare to say too much. He chose what he could say briefly, and then asked about Gu Zonglin's disappearance.

"Like you, there was an accident when I was performing the mission, and I came here after waking up..." Seeing Gu Shinian staring at him for a moment, Gu Zonglin added, "Now in the Shenshi Propaganda Department Work."

After briefly introducing his situation, Gu Zonglin closed his mouth and stopped talking.

Gu Shinian knew in his heart that the work of the city's propaganda department should be used by Gu Zonglin to cover up.

Gu Zonglin was silent for a while, then asked Gu Shinian, "What's your current situation? It's almost New Year's Eve and you came to apply for the market. The family doesn't care about you?"

"It doesn't matter." Gu Shinian smiled and asked tentatively, "Does the third grandpa know about Gu Huaiqing from the Linxi Provincial Military Region?"

Gu Zonglin was stunned for a moment, looked at Gu Shinian and said "slippery", then said with a solemn face, "...I know Gu Huaiqing, speaking of which, Gu Huaiqing is also a nephew of the Gu family's side, but he has five clothes, and he is with him. There is no contact with the family."

Seeing that Gu Shinian and Yun Chang's faces were not good-looking, Gu Zonglin lowered his face and asked, "What's the matter, is your current status related to Gu Huaiqing?"

"Gu Huaiqing is a cheap father in my life, but I cut off the father-son relationship with him two days ago. It is estimated that this story has already spread in the military region."

Gu Zonglin was stunned for a while, but after realizing it, he clenched his hands into fists and smiled a few times, "Do you know why Gu Huaiqing has become a political commissar, but no one in the Gu family has any dealings with him?"

Gu Shinian thought for a moment and replied, "Is it because Gu Huaiqing abandoned his wife and children?"

"Well, if you just dumped your wife, it wasn't too outrageous ten years ago, and no one would pursue it. But Gu Huaiqing doesn't even want a few children, especially one in her womb. Too immoral.

Because of this, Gu Huaiqing has a very bad reputation in several military regions in the north, and it is estimated that he will be a political commissar at the end of his life.

The people of the Gu family despised Gu Huaiqing, and since they had already released five servers, they had never contacted him. "

Gu Zonglin looked at Gu Shinian with a look of approval in his eyes, "It's fine if you cut ties with him, and if you follow a person like that, you can even break a good seedling."

Having said that, Gu Zonglin has revealed his identity in a subtle way.

After all, the quality of Gu Huaqing's reputation, and whether he will have further opportunities in the future, are far from something that a small staff in the propaganda department thousands of miles away can know.

It was getting late, Yun Chang was lying on Gu Shinian's body, sleepy little by little.

Gu Shinian bent down and picked up Yun Chang, lowered his voice and asked Gu Zonglin, "Third grandpa, I came out of you yesterday with a tail attached to my body. What's your current situation, do you need my help?"

It's not that he can't trust Gu Shinian, but that he doesn't want to involve Gu Shinian in trouble.

Chapter 159 Letter from Lin Dani

Gu Zonglin glanced at the sky outside, took out a kraft paper envelope from his arms, the inside was bulging, and stuffed it into Gu Shinian's hand.

"Here is the house deed of Xiaoyanglou, and the gift that Grandpa Yisan gave you, all of which have been collected."

Seeing that Gu Shinian wanted to refuse, Gu Zonglin waved his hand again and said, "I don't lack this little family background, you can just keep it at ease. Also, in a few days it will be the New Year's Eve, the Shenshi side is more strict, you If you have nothing to do, go back quickly."

Gu Shinian took the envelope and was silent for a while before asking, "Third grandpa... Are you the only one applying for the market?"

Gu Zonglin understood what Gu Shinian meant, sighed, and patted him on the shoulder, "Isn't it okay to be alone? It means that your grandfather is doing well now."

Gu Shinian nodded, put the envelope in his pocket, and asked Gu Zonglin again, "What is the origin of the person staring at you? You really don't need my help?"

"No, don't move the few Ronaldinhos because I don't want to force the other side to jump over the wall. With just a few people, I can't be trapped."

Gu Zonglin said, wrapping his clothes tightly, and walking out of the house, "The envelope I just gave you has my phone number in the capital, I will be able to go back almost after the year, remember to call me then, and take some time, I'll show you the people from the Gu family."

Gu Shinian responded.

The two walked to the corner of the yard, Gu Zonglin opened the tunnel entrance in front of Gu Shinian, and told him a few words, jumped into the tunnel, and quickly disappeared into the darkness.

The sky is not yet white, but the night is not so dark.

Gu Shinian stood in the yard with Yun Chang in his arms, and his heart was in a trance. If it weren't for the bulging kraft paper envelopes in his pockets, he would have thought that he had a dream at night.

Turning his head to the side, he wrapped Yun Chang's soft little face in a scarf, and quickly left the yard with her in his arms.

At this moment, there are people who get up and do activities sporadically on the street, and Gu Shinian is not so conspicuous when he walks on the street.

Yun Chang woke up and found that he was already lying on the bed in the guest house, while Gu Shinian was sleeping soundly on the other bed.

A large envelope was placed on the cabinet between the two beds. It was bulging, and at a glance, it contained a lot of things.

Yun Chang took the envelope lightly, spread out the quilt, held it with both hands, and poured out a pile of colorful tickets, as well as money, and a piece of paper with a big red stamp on top.

He picked it up and saw that it was the real estate certificate of the Xiaoyang Building they went to the day before yesterday.

Yunshang secretly stunned, the third grandfather was really arrogant, and when he shot it, it was a bungalow in Shenshi.

In this era when the family squeezed into a small single room, this house is worth the old nose money.

He reached out and dialed the coupons on the quilt, and found that many of the coupons were stamped with special military stamps, and there were many coupons that could only be purchased in Shenshi, such as cloth tickets, wool tickets, cake tickets, and sugar tickets. There is also a radio purchase voucher.

The food stamps are all national food stamps, with a full weight of 50 catties.

At the bottom are ten light pink remittance coupons, each with a face value of ten yuan, for a total of one hundred yuan.

In addition to these coupons, there was a pile of money on the quilt, Yunshang counted it, and there were a total of 300 yuan.

Yunshang happily put the overseas remittance coupons aside, sorted out the remaining coupons, and stuffed them back into the envelope.

Two days ago, she could only lie outside the window of the Friendship Store, watching other people shopping inside. Now that she has these foreign exchange coupons, she can go in and take a good look.

When Yun Chang was happy enough alone, she realized that Gu Shinian had already opened her eyes and was looking at her softly.

"Second brother Gu, you're awake!" Yun Chang jumped off the bed and climbed onto Gu Shinian's bed with both hands and feet, "Second brother Gu, we'll go to the Friendship Store later!"

"Well, I bought all the tickets for Shenshi today, and went back on the evening train."

Yun Chang blinked, and suddenly approached Gu Shinian and said,

"Second brother Gu, you now have a small house in Shenshi, and I don't even have a single tile..."

Gu Shinian smiled, this was urging him to buy her a house quickly!

"Okay, I'll let someone find a house when I go back, and move out your registered permanent residence as soon as possible."

It was getting late, and the two didn't dare to waste time. After hurriedly washing up, they checked out of the room and went straight to the Friendship Store they had seen a few days ago.

When he arrived at the Friendship Store, Gu Shinian showed his overseas remittance voucher, and after the staff checked it, he took Yun Chang into the bright and clean hall.

The two walked around the first floor to the fourth floor, and finally spent 85 yuan to buy a bottle of imported red wine. The rest of the money was used to buy chocolate, which was used to find a source for the chocolate in the space.

After coming out of the Friendship Store, the two went straight to the department store again.

This time, they wandered from counter to counter until they used up all the tickets for Shen Shi given by Gu Zonglin, and the two of them left the department store in large and small bags.

Fortunately, as the New Year is approaching, most of the people who came out to buy New Year's goods were carrying large and small bags in their hands, and the two were not very conspicuous in the crowd.

After that, I found a remote place to put things into the space, and had dinner at the state-run hotel, and then hurried to the train station.

After staying in the car for three days, the two finally returned to Qinghe County on the 26th day of the twelfth lunar month.

Gu Shinian didn't go home, so he took Yun Chang to the ox cart and returned to the village before dark.

In the twilight, the yellow mud wall of the house was surrounded by a circle of sour jujube branches of about thirty centimeters. The branches were covered with sharp thorns. From a distance, it looked like a black hat was put on the wall, and it felt very safe. .

The gate of the yard was open, and the old man was holding a broom, sweeping the dust from the gate. Seeing the figures of Yun Chang and Gu Shinian, the old man quickly dropped the broom and greeted them.

"Master! I'm back!"

Yun Chang ran for a few steps, threw herself into the old man's arms, and coaxed people sweetly, "Master, I miss you and my grandma when I'm outside! Do you and my grandma miss me?"

"Hey~ I think about it, I think about it, your grandma keeps talking about you every day!"

The old man Le's mouth couldn't close, he took Yun Chang's hand, looked up and down carefully, and then turned back to say hello to Gu Shinian, "Shinian baby, hurry up, go ahead and warm up the house."

As soon as a few people entered the house, the old lady put Yun Chang on the head of the kang with her feet upside down, touched her little face, and then touched her little hands, and said with a smile, "Shangnan is going out with Comrade Gu Xiao to enjoy happiness again! Is it fun to apply for the market? ?"

"It's fun!" Yun Chang replied with a smile, "Grandma, are you and my grandfather at home?"

"Okay, it's all good! Your father and your second uncle have finished making the briquettes for you, and they're all in the backyard! We'll build the stove tomorrow, and my clothes won't freeze during the day."

The old lady nodded and agreed with what Yun Chang said, coaxing the old lady's wrinkled face into a chrysanthemum, pulling Yun Chang for a good kiss.

When the old man was talking, he first poured hot water for Yun Chang and Gu Shinian to drink, and then brought in a parcel from outside.

"Shangnan, the postman sent you a package yesterday, and it was sent from the provincial capital. Is it someone you know in the provincial capital?"

Gu Shinian put down the tea jar in his hand, helped the old man put the package on the kang head, and opened it with scissors.

I saw a letter on the top of the package, and below it were two pairs of shoes, one large and one small, a red and white plaid blouse, and a blue jacket that was ironed.

Yun Chang opened the envelope and saw the sender's address clearly, her face instantly burst into joy, "Second brother Gu, it's Lin Dani's letter!"

Chapter 160 Fancy touts

In the small eyes of Yunshang's expectation, Gu Shinian spread out the letter and read it quickly, then smiled and said to Yunshang:

"Auntie Lin said she made a pair of clothes and shoes for each of us to wear during the Chinese New Year, and she also said that she would make you a small skirt in summer. The fabrics used for making the clothes were all flaws that she asked the textile factory workers to replace. Fabric, it doesn't cost a few dollars, let's not worry."

Yun Chang smiled and rolled her eyes. She likes to wear new clothes the most, and Nicole Lin is really good!

However, the money Lin Dani earns has to support her and Da Cheng, and she is not well-off. Even if it is defective fabrics, she has to spend time and effort to find it, and she will not accept gifts from Lin Dani in the future.

"The letter said that the Zhou family's eldest couple were sentenced to 15 years of labor reform, and the Zhou family's eldest and second child, as accomplices, were sentenced to 7 years. The Zhou family's two daughters-in-law were detained by the Women's Federation for three days, and then the village brigade received a report from the Women's Federation. Telegram, sent people to the provincial capital to bring people back."

Yun Chang was even happier this time, "Second brother Gu, when they return to their hometown, they will be taken care of by the village, right? Will they not be able to go to the provincial capital in the future?"

"Well, they belonged to being driven back by the Women's Federation, and it is considered a shame to throw them in the provincial capital. The village cadres can't afford to be ashamed, and they will definitely not let them leave the village in the future."

Yun Chang was relieved.

The people of the old Zhou family are forced to reform through labor, get out of the way, they will never be able to bully Lin Dani in the future.

As long as Lin Dani can stand up by herself, her life with Dacheng will definitely get better.

"Second brother Gu, Aunt Lin wrote three pieces of paper. What else did she say?"

"I also talked about work. The Women's Federation intervened. The factory committee and the factory guild have given her a lot of help recently. No workers in the workshop rejected her. Said that the work has been relatively smooth recently.

By the way, Auntie Lin has been transferring shifts with her co-workers recently. She plans to save her days off together and bring Dacheng to see us after the year. "

Yunshang nodded dignifiedly, "Second brother Gu, write back to Aunt Lin later, remember to welcome her and Dacheng to our house, and let the milk cook them delicious food!"

"Okay!" Gu Shinian turned to the last page with a smile on the corner of his mouth, "Dacheng has grown better than before."

Yun Chang raised her head and looked at Gu Shinian suspiciously.

"Auntie Lin said in the letter that Dacheng had fought three times with the children on the street recently because of an argument, and he still refused to admit his mistake. He was no longer as sensible as before. However, he was more diligent than before. When Aunt Lin went to work, he did laundry and cooking at home. All the work is covered."

Yun Chang suddenly understood what Gu Shinian meant by 'progress'.

He said that Dacheng has grown, but he only meant that Dacheng is learning how to be the pillar of the family, learning to protect Lin Dani with his own strength.

Instead of blindly obeying Lin Dani's words as before, when she was bullied, she would just swallow her anger and avoid it.

Even if Lin Dani didn't write clearly the reason for Dacheng's fight with others in the letter, Yunshang could still guess a score of seven or eight.

It's just that Dacheng heard someone insulting Lin Dani and gossiping about Lin Dani and the Zhou family.

This is precisely Dacheng's sensible and growing performance, not what Lin Dani said in the letter, "Dacheng is not as sensible as before".

Yun Chang felt that Lin Dani's temper was still too soft. When she saw Lin Dani after a few years, she must teach her well, but she couldn't let her drag Dacheng's hind legs and turn Dacheng back into a soft bun who only knew how to cry.

Anyway, I have a face exactly like my aunt. Even if my aunt is not smart and tough, it can't be soft to the mud that can't stick to the wall.

When Yun Chang and Gu Shinian discussed the content of the letter, the old couple also put up their ears and listened carefully.

Although I don't know who Lin Dani is,

How did you know the two children, but after listening to the content of the letter, I also knew that Lin Dani was suffering.

Seeing that Lin Dani also made clothes and shoes for Yun Chang and Gu Shinian, she felt that Lin Dani was a sincere person in addition to her life.

The two children were young, but Lin Dani still treated them as adults politely.

This is really sincere to have a relationship with two children.

Yun Chang opened the package, picked up the plaid blouse and put it on her body, flung her small arms on the ground for two times, and finally got close to the old lady in a beautiful way, "Mother, don't I look good in my new blouse?"

"Good-looking! Bright and bright, it's eye-catching when you go out!"

After the old lady finished speaking, she pinned Yunshang's braid behind her ear, and looked at Yunshang's small face for a long time, with her eyebrows bent, she said, "The main reason is that my dress is good-looking, Looks good in anything!"

Yun Chang's eyes suddenly turned into crescent moons, and she held the old lady's hand and shook it back and forth, "Damn! You are also good-looking, you are the most beautiful and tough old lady in our village! No one can compare to you!"

The old lady was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth, she just rubbed Yunshang, "Oh, my little mouth can really say it! When I grow up, I will definitely be a big cadre!"

Gu Shinian: "..."

These grandparents are really good!

The little ones who love to be smug and beautiful, coax people to be sweet and die for their lives, and the old ones are becoming more and more devoid of bottom-line fancy flattery.

When these two people get together, Yun Chang's little head can't be raised to the sky?

The old man was also speechless, the corners of his eyes twitched a few times, he glanced at Yun Chang and the old lady, turned around silently, and put on his dry tobacco bag.

However, Yunshang and the old lady were addicted to boasting. They opened the bag that Gu Shinian brought back from Shenshi, took out five silk scarves that he bought at a high price, and wrapped them one by one for the old lady to see. Go modelling.

When the old lady saw the silk scarf, her eyes were almost straight, and she didn't dare to touch it, so she let Yun Chang try to show her one by one. Little fairy.

Yun Chang was so addicted to it that she pulled out a water-red silk scarf to show the old lady, "Mother, this silk scarf is for my aunt. My aunt's face is pale, and the water-red silk scarf looks good."

"Oh, no, this silk scarf is so precious! Your aunt's rough hand can draw a line when you touch it, and it's a good thing to be banned!"

Yunshang pretended not to hear the old lady's words, and took out a lavender silk scarf, "Mother, I bought this for Aunt Lin, tomorrow I will go to the county to send it to Aunt Lin, Aunt Lin will definitely like it. "

"This color is so pretty!" The old lady nodded. "You did the right thing. It's time for a gift in return for taking away the clothes and shoes."

Yun Chang put the remaining three silk scarves together, and said to the old lady, "Mom, these silk scarves are all mine, and they will be tied when I grow up."

"Such a good thing, quickly put it away as a dowry!"
