Chapter 17 Worry

Yun Chang was small and thickly dressed, and her whole body was like a round meatball. Gu Shinian couldn't wrap her arms around it, so she simply led her to the house.

On the dark muddy road, only the flashlight emitted a bright white light. Gu Shinian reached out and turned off the flashlight, and taught Yunshang as he walked:

"Ah Chang, the current flashlight is not so bright, and it emits yellow light. In the future, don't use this flashlight outside, understand?"

Yun Chang really didn't know this. After listening to Gu Shinian talking about it, she quickly nodded and agreed.

The two entered the village in the dark, and when they reached the gate, Yingyingchaochuo saw a dark figure outside the front courtyard wall, wandering left and right along the courtyard wall.

Yunshang was originally timid, and when he was frightened by this figure, the cold hairs all over his body stood up, and a fine layer of cold sweat appeared on his back.

Gu Shinian noticed that the little hand in his palm became sweaty, and immediately realized that Yun Chang was frightened, pulled her behind him, and asked sharply:

"Who is there!?"

The shadow paused for a while, but came over slowly, "Is it Chang Nan?"

Yun Chang stretched out her head from behind Gu Shinian and looked at the short and thin figure in front of her in surprise, "Master, why are you here?"

"I'll see you..." The old man Yun didn't expect that he would be caught by Yun Chang in the corner of the wall, and there was a trace of embarrassment in his voice, "Shang Nan, you, didn't you get beaten at night? You didn't talk to you two. Uncle go back, your mother is worried that your mother will beat you, let me come and see..."

Yunshang dug such a big hole for Widow Wang today, and it was spread all over the village. Naturally, the old couple of the Yun family also heard about it. While they were angry with Widow Wang for her indiscretion, they were even more worried that Widow Wang would kill Yun Chang. hand.

Originally thought to wait for Yun Erchuan to return from the county seat, take Yun Chang back to Lao Yun's house for a few days, and then go home after Widow Wang's anger subsides. Who knew Yun Erchuan had such a big idea, Yun Erchuan couldn't control her at all, let her A man ran back.

Ever since Yun Erchuan and Yun Shuilian arrived home, the hearts of the old Yun family have not been put down, and Mrs. Yun is even more worried that she can't even eat. Sitting on the kang wiping her tears, she shouted that she heard Yun The voice of Chang crying and begging for mercy, just called the old man Yun to come here to have a look. If Widow Wang really beats and scolds Yun Chang, let the old man take Yun Chang back.

Yun Chang didn't expect that the old man Yun came here for this reason, and his heart warmed, and he got out from behind Gu Shinian:

"Master, my mother is not feeling well today, she went to bed early, and I didn't get beaten."

Afraid that Mr. Yun would not be at ease, Yun Chang added, "Master, the second uncle taught me, if my mother wants to beat me, let me run quickly, not to be beaten, I will remember the second uncle's words."

The old man Yun was relieved, and he didn't ask Widow Wang what was uncomfortable, raised his hand and touched Yun Chang's small head, and looked at Gu Shinian again.

Yunshang is very clever to introduce the old man:

"Master, this is brother Shi Nian. Brother Shi Nian wants to stay at my house for a few days, and my mother agrees."

Gu Shinian also greeted Mr. Yun earnestly, the timing was not right, Mr. Yun was not easy to investigate Gu Shinian's origin, and I heard that the widow Wang agreed that Gu Shinian stayed at home, thinking With such a small backer, Widow Wang is not easy to beat Yun Chang, but she is relieved a lot.

"Shangnan, go back and tell your mother that the walls of this courtyard are too short, let her sleep a little more at night, and don't let people climb into the house and touch the chickens away." Thinking of the second-rate boy I saw at the door of Widow Wang before, Father Yun explained to Yun Chang again.

"Hey, lord, I know."

"Okay, it's cold, hurry in."

After Mr. Yun left, Gu Shinian circled around the courtyard wall without raising his brows. "This courtyard wall is too short to stop people. When I go back, remember to move to Lao Yun's house."

Yunshang responded and hurriedly pulled Gu Shinian into the door, lighting the oil lamp,

Picking the lamp twister high, he took out the food from the space and placed it on the chopping board one after another.

As soon as Gu Shinian entered the door, he noticed the Simmons and the cashmere quilt on the kang head, and saw Yun Chang's eyebrows and eyes, excited to prepare meals for him, the eyebrows couldn't help jumping.

"Ah Chang, the outer courtyard wall is only about one meter five, so it can't prevent people. If you go out in the future, remember to put these away."

Gu Shinian first pointed at Simmons and said a word, then walked to the chopping board, looking at a small pot of rice, and a dozen or so dishes that were properly matched with meat and vegetables, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but start to twitch.

"A-shang, just keep two dishes, and try not to eat out the dishes with great taste in the future."

Yun Chang slapped his head suddenly, "I just said that I forgot something when I went out!"

She said and shook Gu Shinian's hand to please, "Second brother Gu, I didn't mean to not accept Simmons, I just forgot. And these dishes are for you today, just this time, you finish eating I'll put it away, and I'll definitely not do this in the future."

Seeing what she said, Gu Shinian knew that she knew what she had in mind, so he stopped talking and sat down while eating and asked about Widow Wang's situation.

"Second brother Gu, I found something."

With a small face, Yunshang recounted the fact that she could completely control Widow Wang in the space, and then asked worriedly:

"You said that after a long time, will Widow Wang really become a puppet? There is still a chance to recover if she becomes a fool. If she becomes a mindless puppet, then... it's terrible."

Gu Shinian held the hand of chopsticks for a while, thought about it, and comforted Yun Chang:

"No, you should only be able to control Widow Wang in the space, and you won't be able to restrain her outside the space."

Seeing that Yun Chang was still frowning, Gu Shinian put down his chopsticks, turned around, and told his guesses.

Yunshang is the master of the space. Entering the space is equivalent to coming to the world of Yunshang. As the master, she can easily control anything in her world. And out of the space, Yun Chang is just a normal person, and naturally there is no binding force on others.

"Ah Chang, that widow Wang is also idle when she is idle. When the medicine is finished, you ask her to make you new clothes. Also, aren't you worried that the land in the space is unplanted, so you will leave the widow Wang in the future? Space for you to farm."

Yunshang: "..."

What should she say?

Do you think she has a good heart with Gu Shinian?

When she first came through, she had the idea of locking Widow Wang in the space to farm, but she didn't expect Gu Shinian to say the same thing at this moment.

"A-shang, put away these meals and take me into the space to have a look."

Gu Shinian only ate a bowl of rice and put down his chopsticks, Yun Chang silently took the rest of the meal back into the space, then took Gu Shinian's hand, dodged, and entered the space.
