Chapter 18 Scare and torture

A gentle wind blew across his cheeks, and in front of Gu Shinian appeared a green grass field that was five acres in size. A few potatoes and corn were thrown not far from his feet, and an old hen stood beside him. It was a cluster of green radishes that was fifty centimeters high, with long vines dragging the ground far away, and there was a spring with bubbling bubbling next to it. There was mist above the spring water, as if a layer of veil was covering the green radishes.

The temperature in the space is pleasant, the air is very fresh, and there is a faint fragrance of grass in the breath, as if there are a few white clouds hanging from the sky, half-covered behind the building at the end of the grass.

Gu Shinian turned his attention to the building. The whole building was brightly lit. The word 'Shang' at the top was dazzling white light. The door of the store on the first floor was open, and the goods inside were clearly visible.

There is a half-person-high water tank in the open space in front of the building. Standing next to the water tank is a round-faced woman in her thirties, wearing a large cotton jacket, with thick eyebrows and big eyes. From the aesthetic point of view of this era, she can be considered a good-looking woman. logo.

Gu Shinian knew that this was Widow Wang, and saw Widow Wang standing motionless like a wooden man, with one arm raised and a transparent plastic bag full of pills hanging from her wrist.

"Second brother Gu, try to see if you can leave!"

Yun Chang looked at Gu Shinian expectantly.

After Widow Wang entered the space, she clearly felt that she could control Widow Wang, but when Gu Shinian entered the space, she had no such feeling at all.

Thinking that this store was Gu Shinian's business, Yun Chang suddenly had a hunch that her space could not restrain Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian didn't feel restrained and couldn't move, and his consciousness could clearly see every inch of space inside the building.

He even had a hunch that as long as he entered the building, as long as he wanted to, he could take over the space for himself at any time.

Gu Shinian's heart sank, and in the urging voice of Yunshang, he forcibly suppressed the connection between himself and the building, tried to lift his feet, and walked a few steps easily.

"You can move! You can move! Second brother Gu can move!"

Yun Chang is really happy. If Gu Shinian is bound by space like Widow Wang, then she would have to give orders to Gu Shinian to move around in space. This kind of feeling is very bad. The most important thing is that she doesn't want to. Make Gu Shinian feel like a puppet, and worry that doing so will hurt Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian smiled and touched Yunshang's head, dragged her around in the space, and finally stopped in front of Widow Wang.

"A Chang, it's time to give her medicine."

Gu Shinian's voice was low and light, but he heard Widow Wang horrified.

Facing Yun Chang, Widow Wang still had a glimmer of hope in her heart, but facing the sudden appearance of Gu Shinian, a completely unfamiliar young man, who still spoke in a casual tone about giving her medicine, Widow Wang said. There was only fear and despair left in my heart.

She desperately opened her mouth to beg for mercy, and a faint 'giggle' sounded in her throat, but it didn't attract the attention of the two at all.

Gu Shinian circled Widow Wang twice with his eyes looking at the goods, and told Yun Chang in his mouth:

"I'll fill the medicine. You go to the supermarket to get a rope, and then find a knife. By the way, bring the electric baton from the security room."

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, then turned and ran to the supermarket quickly, while Gu Shinian violently removed Widow Wang's chin, grabbed the pills from the bag in her hand, and shoved them into her mouth one by one.

It wasn't until Widow Wang couldn't take it anymore that Gu Shinian poured a little water on her with a water ladle like a charity.

Widow Wang was quickly turned pale, cold sweat broke out layer by layer, but Gu Shinian didn't even change her eyes, she was still cold and frightening.

Although it had only been a few days since he and Yunshang had passed through, he had already confirmed that the two bodies were exactly the same as their previous lives, and even the position and size of the red mole at the corner of Yunshang's eyes had not changed.

And the small scars on his body are also exactly the same.

Thinking of Widow Wang's torture of Yun Chang's body for so many years, the anger in Gu Shinian's heart rose in waves, even if the original owner suffered, Gu Shinian still felt extremely distressed.

"Second brother Gu, bring it here."

Yun Chang handed the things to Gu Shinian. Seeing that Gu Shinian tied the widow Wang into a ball like a zongzi, he couldn't help asking curiously, "Second brother Gu, what is this for?"

"Take it out and ask a few questions. If you can't ask, you'll just kill it, and tell the public that she eloped with someone, so you don't have to take care of a fool in the future."

Gu Shinian spoke easily, Yun Chang listened carefully, and nodded again and again, and Widow Wang almost lost her soul.

Don't you want to make her a fool?

Why can't you talk, she will be killed before the medicine is finished!

No, she wants to take medicine, she can be a fool, not a dead person!

Yun Chang had mentioned the original owner's life experience to Gu Shinian before, but now watching Gu Shinian seriously frightening Widow Wang, she immediately understood what he wanted to ask, and excitedly grabbed the knife and electric baton, and took Widow Wang out. space.

The two first threw Widow Wang on the ground, and then took out two chairs from the space, sitting on either side of Widow Wang.

"Widow Wang, Ah Chang's birthday is not March 5th, but March 3rd, isn't it?"

The birthday of Yunshang's last life was March 3, and the original owner's birthday was March 5. Gu Shinian instinctively became suspicious, and now he started asking Widow Wang directly from his birthday and hit her directly. Unprepared.

I saw Widow Wang's eyes widened, her eyes full of panic, her chin dropped slightly, and an indistinct grunt came from her throat.

Yun Chang couldn't hear what Widow Wang said, and looked back at Gu Shinian, her eyes full of curiosity.

Gu Shinian stretched out his hand and took Yun Chang over, and pressed her head into his arms to prevent her from looking at Widow Wang. With the other hand, he picked up an electric baton and quickly stabbed Widow Wang. I saw Widow Wang suddenly straighten up, followed by a violent convulsion.

"Widow Wang, it's just that your chin is off, not your tongue. If you pretend you can't speak again, I don't mind cutting your tongue."

Gu Shinian's tone was still flat, but Widow Wang shivered involuntarily.

"It's natural for me to ask you something. It doesn't matter if you don't admit it. I can ask the people from the Lao Yun family. It's just that on your side, you will suffer more."

"No tongue... Department, Department."

Yun Chang tried to distinguish it for a while before she heard what Widow Wang said: I said, yes, yes.

Here, Gu Shinian went on to ask the second question, "A-Shang is not your daughter and Yun Dasheng's daughter. She should have a lock-shaped jade plaque on her body. Where is that jade plaque?"
