Chapter 211 Routines

Yun Chang pouted, quietly pulled Gu Shinian's arm, lowered his head and stopped talking.

Gu Shinian put the chicken cake in his hand on the table, raised his head and asked Zhang Shouyi, "Did you regret your marriage today because of Director Yang's family?"

Zhang Shouyi's face flickered with hostility, and shook his head again in denial, "...No."

"You're still talking nonsense!" Yun Chang was so angry, she pointed her little finger at Zhang Shouyi's nose and said, "Second brother Gu and I have figured out, you are being played as a hooligan by the nympho of Director Yang's family!"

Yun Chang originally wanted to deceive Zhang Shouyi, but as soon as the words fell, Zhang Shouyi stood up like a cannonball, clenching his fists, and his face was ashen.

Seeing Zhang Shouyi's reaction, Yun Chang and Gu Shinian still didn't know what to do.

The two of them came from the era of the information explosion. They have seen a lot of strange things about robbing men by tricks, and their brains are much bigger than people in this era.

The reason for Zhang Shouyi's temporary repentance of the marriage could be guessed by the two of them.

Gu Shinian held down Yun Chang's irritable little hand, protected her in his arms, and continued to ask Zhang Shouyi, "Did the Yang family get together to plot against you? If you don't regret your marriage, the Yang family will sue you for being a hooligan? My Aunt Yun?"

Zhang Shouyi's mouth and eyelids started twitching, he was ashamed and ashamed, and there was a surge of anger that wanted to tear the world apart.

He could never have imagined that what he had tried so hard to hide was actually broken by two children.

It was a humiliating thing for a big man to be forced to sleep by a woman, but now it has been spread out, he has no face to live, just find a piece of tofu and kill him!

Also, where did these two little devils know about this?

Could it be that the Yang family took the initiative to say it?

Really... deceiving too much!

Zhang Shouyi rubbed his back molars, and his eyes were bloodshot with anger.

Gu Shinian touched Yun Chang's head one after another, and continued, "Murder is a life-threatening death. Even if you don't care about your own life, you should think about it for Uncle Zhang. If you become a murderer, what will Uncle Zhang do in the future? "

Moreover, if you become a murderer, Aunt Yun will also carry the reputation of the murderer's ex-fiancee. You have already dragged her down once. If you do it again, how will she live in the future? "

Zhang Shouyi's face turned pale, and his arms began to tremble unconsciously.

Gu Shinian's expression remained the same, and his tone was still flat and indifferent, "Besides, you are not in a desperate situation now. It's really not worth it to go to a dead end because of such a trivial matter."

Isn't it just being played by a woman as a hooligan?

I don't know if I have eaten meat star, but I want to use a knife and desperately, what a reckless man.

If this is a smart person, the designated person will find a way to pull Director Yang off the horse first, and then slowly clean up the family.

Not to mention anything else, just the fact that Director Yang intends to promote Zhang Shouyi to the office can be used to make a big fuss.

To die together is the most stupid way.

Gu Shinian was even more disappointed with Zhang Shouyi in his heart.

Zhang Shouyi's face turned pale for a while, and finally fell down on the stool and muttered, "You are right, I can't kill, at least... I can't kill now... I have to think about my father. , think for Shuilian..."

Yun Chang was both angry and contemptuous in her heart, and at the same time, she was also a little sad. The anger she had held against Zhang Shouyi at first dissipated unknowingly.

However, after this incident, she also saw clearly the flaws in Zhang Shouyi's character.

Therefore, even if Zhang Shouyi can get rid of Director Yang's house in the future, she will not agree with Yun Shuilian to continue to be with Zhang Shouyi.

It was confirmed that Zhang Shouyi's repentance of marriage was the work of Director Yang's family, and Gu Shinian and Yun Chang did not stay in Zhang's family for much longer.

I told Zhang Shouyi,

He got up and walked out the door. When he got to the door, Yun Chang suddenly turned around and put a money ticket on the table:

"Uncle Zhang, my aunt said that since your Zhang family has repented of their marriage, we will have nothing to do with each other in the future, and she will not take your money. Here is 500 yuan and 30 catties of food stamps. It's my aunt. Let me return it to you, click on it."

Zhang Shouyi looked at the money ticket on the table, his face was so white that there was no human color, "Shangnan, me, your aunt... how is she now?"

"My aunt is very good, but she has the reputation of Kefu on her back, and it will be difficult to find her husband's family in the future." Yun Chang thought about it, and then continued, "My aunt said, no matter why you regretted your marriage, your Zhang family will try their best to remedy it. Now, she doesn't blame you. You have to work hard in the future, don't think about compensating her with money tickets, our family does not lack your money. "

Zhang Shouyi closed his mouth, opened and closed, and finally nodded with difficulty, "...Okay, I'll go back to the bureau tomorrow to cancel the leave. Tell your aunt, and let her...be sure to keep her eyes open in the future, and find another one. find a good home..."

At the end of the speech, Zhang Shouyi's voice trembled uncontrollably, and he choked with a hint of choking.

Yun Chang's eyes couldn't help but heat up, and she suddenly felt that she was the vicious mother-in-law who broke up the couple in the novel.

For a moment, Yun Chang even had the urge to put away the money on the table, help Zhang Shouyi deal with Director Yang's family, and then act as a matchmaker for Yun Shuilian and Zhang Shouyi.

It wasn't until Gu Shinian coughed lightly outside that Yun Chang ran out of the door as if running away, pulling Gu Shinian out of Zhang's house.

Walking on the road, Gu Shinian noticed the warmth on his neck, reached out his hand to wipe away the tears on Yun Chang's face, and sighed, "A-shang, if you really feel sorry, we will take action to solve the Yang family as soon as possible, let Yun Chang My aunt is marrying Zhang Shouyi."

Yun Chang shook her head and nodded again, "Second brother Gu, we'll talk about the Yang family when we come back from Fenyang. Let Zhang Shouyi deal with Director Yang by himself... Exercise your brain and increase your IQ." If you don't increase your IQ, She wouldn't agree with Aunt Shuilian marrying a foolish man.

Gu Shinian didn't know what to say, so he turned his head and rubbed Yun Chang's face, changing the subject and said, "A Chang, Aunt Yun is going to buy a house in Fenyang, do you want to keep your household registration in Fenyang, too? In the future, Grandpa Yun and Grandma Yun can also come over to take care of you."

"What about you?" Yun Chang raised her head, "I'm going to Fenyang, so I won't see you every day?"

"I see you once a week, and if you miss me, you can come back and see me."

Yun Chang slumped on Gu Shinian's shoulder again, "Second brother Gu, you should also buy a suite in Fenyang, and then go to school in Fenyang. We can come back once a week."

Gu Shinian didn't care where he went to school. Seeing that Yun Chang didn't want to be separated from him, after thinking about it, he nodded and agreed.

Chapter 212 buy a house

Lying in the warm blanket, Yun Chang tossed and turned and couldn't sleep.

If it wasn't for Zhang Shouyi's thoughts on Yun Shuilian, she wouldn't have given out 500 yuan so generously.

Alas, such a large amount of money, I don't know when I will get it back.

Yun Chang's distressed liver trembled when she thought of the money bag she had finally swelled up and shrunk again.

Gu Shinian thought that Yun Chang was worried about Yun Shuilian, and was going to comfort her a few words, but as soon as she turned around, she heard Yun Chang sigh and mutter:

"Hey... Five hundred yuan is enough for me to finish university."

Gu Shinian: "..."

"A-Shang." Gu Shinian reined in a smile and called Yun Chang, listening to her softly answering, comforting her, "Don't worry, with Aunt Yun's temperament, the five hundred yuan will be returned to you."

If Zhang Shouyi can still be with Yun Shuilian, the five hundred yuan will naturally be returned to Yun Chang. If the two don't have a chance to be together, with Yun Shuilian's kindness, he will definitely find a way to return the five hundred yuan. To Zhang Shouyi.

At that time, the five hundred yuan that Yunshang gave to Zhang Shouyi will naturally be returned.

As soon as Gu Shinian reminded, Yun Chang also thought of this, and suddenly felt comfortable everywhere.

Great, five hundred dollars saved!

Yun Shuilian wrote a letter of introduction in the village early in the morning, and arrived in the county before 9:00 in the morning. The three of them bought the tickets, took the bus for two hours, and finally arrived in the Fenyang area.

After getting out of the car, it was just in time for lunch. A few people found a state-run hotel, hurriedly ate lunch, and then went to the Housing Authority for inquiries all the way.

It was not yet time for work, and there were only two staff members on duty in front of them. When the three of them entered the door, the young female staff put down the aluminum lunch box in her hand, took out a handkerchief and wiped her mouth. She turned her head and asked:

"Comrade, what's the matter with you? It's not yet time for work, so we can't go through the formalities for the time being."

Going out, Yun Shuilian is the only elder, so naturally she has to take the responsibility of inquiring about the news. After listening to the other party's words, she immediately smiled and said:

"Hello comrade, I don't go through the formalities, I just want to ask, has anyone registered to sell their house recently?"

As soon as she finished speaking, the woman eating lunch next to her raised her head and asked, "Do you want to buy a house?"

Yun Shuilian nodded, the woman immediately put down the lunch box, and very enthusiastically brought a few people to the next office.

"Comrade, my surname is Wu, you can just call me Aunt Wu." Before Yun Shuilian could speak, Aunt Wu looked up the registered real estate information and asked, "Which area are you going to buy? Is it a condominium or a single-family house? Son?"

Yun Chang emerged from behind Yun Shuilian, and interjected in a milky voice, "Grandma Wu, my family is going to buy near the aluminum factory, and my aunt will go to work in the aluminum factory in the future!"

Aunt Wu paused and glanced outside the door.

Yunshang understood in seconds, and immediately pushed Gu Shinian out to guard the door, closed the door, and thieflly approached Aunt Wu, took out toffee and stuffed it into her mouth, asking, "Grandma Wu, there is no good house near the aluminum factory. ?"

Aunt Wu took a toffee, looked at Yun Chang, and then looked at Yun Shuilian, and it took a long time to react.

"Little girl is really clever!" Aunt Wu praised Yunshang and closed the thick book in her hand, "The aluminum factory is in the north of the city, and it is almost close to the village! There are farmyards nearby, with a large area and in the suburbs. , generally no one buys there.

Besides, when the aluminum plant is completed, a family courtyard will be built, and a tram to the urban area will be opened. If you buy it in the suburbs, it is better to buy it in the urban area. Lively and convenient to work. "

Yun Chang nodded again and again, pointed to the book in Aunt Wu's hand and said, "Grandma Wu, our family buys three sets. Do you have a house with a thatched cottage for sale here?"

"Shangnan!"

Yun Shuilian was shocked. Five hundred yuan still didn't know if she could buy a house. Yun Chang bought three houses as soon as she opened her mouth.

Even if they smashed the bones of their family and sold it, they couldn't afford it.

Aunt Wu 'puchi' laughed, "Little girl really knows a lot!"

Afterwards, she asked Yun Shuilian, "Comrade, I didn't ask you just now, are you going to be a regular worker in the aluminum plant?"

Yun Shuilian nodded.

Aunt Wu asked again, "Then you have a rural household registration now?"

Yun Shuilian continued to nod.

"In your case, there are two opportunities to become a regular worker. One is to obtain qualifications, first become a temporary worker, and after a few years, you can become a regular worker. The other is to have an urban hukou, you can directly apply to become a regular worker."

"If you want to have an urban hukou, one is to have a formal job, or a school admission certificate, or a certificate that the urban household registration authority allows you to move in. Another way is to have a house in the city under your name."

Yun Chang blinked and asked Aunt Wu, "Grandma Wu, what do you mean, my aunt and I have a house, so we can only be registered in the city, and my mother, my grandfather, and my grandma can't follow suit. Are you from here?"

"Yes, that's what it means." Aunt Wu smiled and nodded, "However, you are still young, if the house is in your mother's name, you can apply for the 'farmer-to-non' indicator, and you should be able to become an urbanite in a few years. people."

Yun Chang secretly rolled his eyes.

She's not a big fool. If Widow Wang's household registration is also released, the old Wang family can't bother her every day?

She's not looking for trouble for herself!

"Gu, it's right that we want three houses. You have one, my Aunt Lin wants to buy one for me, and Aunt Chunni also wants to buy one for Gu Erge. Come out and cook for me."

Yun Shuilian heard Yun Chang's words, her eyes lit up, she nodded quickly, and said to Aunt Wu, "Aunt Wu, just listen to my niece, we will find three smaller and cheaper houses."

Aunt Wu smiled and said to Yun Shuilian, "Comrade, if you want to become a regular employee of an aluminum factory by changing your household registration, you don't have to buy a house. We have a foundation here, about four square meters, and only one hundred For fifty yuan, you can move your hukou to the city.

Now that the times are bad, other houses can't be bought with money, and they have to buy food. This foundation does not need food.

Besides, when you become a regular employee of an aluminum factory, you can live in a dormitory and apply for a family building, so we don't have to spend a lot of money to buy an extra suite. "

When Aunt Wu made her words so clear, Yun Chang immediately reacted.

The big slap foundation should be the foundation of Aunt Wu's own house, or the foundation of her relative's house.

To be so enthusiastic about them is to take advantage of them!

Four square meters, can't even put a bed, there is no building on it, what is it?

To put it bluntly, it is just to sell a city hukou for one hundred and fifty yuan.

There was no house number on the foundation, and there was no way to cover it to live in, so it had to be left there for people to throw debris.

Chapter 213 Yunshang's Counterattack

Although he knew that the foundation was a pit, Yun Chang couldn't help but be moved.

She and Yun Shuilian disliked the broken foundation, but they could buy it for Yun Erchuan.

For the time being, Yun Erchuan will not be relocated, but he will be allowed to work in the village to earn rations. When the aluminum factory officially recruits workers, he will move Yun Erchuan's hukou over and put him in the factory as a worker, and then wait for the factory Room division.

As for the money to buy urban hukou, of course, it was deducted from Yun Erchuan's salary after that.

She doesn't do business at a loss!

Thinking of this, Yun Chang looked at Aunt Wu with more and more enthusiasm.

"Grandma Wu, we want that foundation for our family! We also need three houses, which are in better condition. In the case of a condominium building, each room should be no less than 25 square meters, with a bathroom, preferably a kitchen. If you don't have a building, you can find a single-family courtyard, which should not be large in size, and it is best to have three suites together."

Yun Chang made a series of requests, Yun Shuilian was stunned, and finally responded, "Shang Nan, what did you buy that foundation for? It's a little big, and there's nothing on it..."

"Gu! The foundation is useless, but with that foundation, the second uncle can also move his household registration, and he can also work as a regular worker in the aluminum factory in the future. It means that we spent 150 yuan to buy a regular worker for the second uncle. quota!"

"That's right!" Aunt Wu patted her thigh and her eyes were dry. "Little girl is really good! The value of this foundation is really worth it!"

"Comrade, your niece is right, this is a really good opportunity! Our Fenyang Aluminum Plant is a key plant in the province. After it is built, it will recruit thousands of workers at once. Urban household registration will be given priority. You and your brother are registered in Fenyang, and you will definitely become regular workers. If you do a good job, you will have the opportunity to join the factory leadership team!"

Yun Chang smiled sweetly, and continued, "Grandma Wu, I haven't gone to work yet, let's go to see the foundation first, and then come over to go through the formalities after reading it, we will buy the foundation today, and you will Help us find the three suites, and we'll come back to you in a few days."

"Okay! The house you want is not easy to find for a while. I have to help you find it. Next time you come back, just go to the office next to you and find me."

A few people then went to see the legendary foundation as big as a palm. It was really only the size of two newsstands. After confirming the property rights at the Housing Authority, Yun Shuilian took one hundred and fifty yuan in such a confused way. First, I bought a town hukou for Yun Erchuan.

I stuffed Aunt Wu with a pound of toffee and asked her to find a house, and a few people came out of the housing management bureau.

First, I went to the north of the city to see the aluminum plant that had laid the foundation, and then went back to the city to walk around. I stayed in Fenyang for one night, and returned to Qinghe County early the next day.

Yun Shuilian went directly back to the village, while Yun Chang, like a little tail, stayed at Zhang Chunni's house again.

For the next few days, Yun Chang would be at the gate of the Water Conservancy Bureau every evening, wanting to find Director Yang and follow him to his house.

In the end, I didn't know Director Yang yet, but seeing Director Yang's daughter stalking Zhang Shouyi twice, Yunshang was so angry that he almost couldn't help cleaning up the nymphomaniac.

That evening, Yunshang, as usual, used the excuse of picking up Gu Shinian from school, and walked around at the entrance of the Water Conservancy Bureau.

At this time, it is March, and the whole Qinghe County is awakened by the spring breeze. The willow branches hanging down on both sides of the street emit a little tender buds and leaves. The cloud skirt under the tree provides the most natural barrier.

As dusk fell, all the people from the Water Conservancy Bureau had finished walking. Zhang Shouyi, carrying his work clothes, walked out of the gate as if he was running away, and ran down the road.

Soon, Director Yang's daughter also chased after the door like a gust of wind. Looking at Zhang Shouyi's back running away, she screamed like crazy, and then shouted:

"Zhang Shouyi! How dare you go! I'll find someone to sleep with that village girl now!"

Zhang Shouyi paused at his feet, walked back a few steps, grabbed Director Yang's daughter's neck and pushed hard.

"Yang Jiao! Have you had enough trouble? Let me tell you, if there is something wrong with Shui Lian, I will never forgive you!"

Yun Chang's face darkened when she heard it under the tree.

Zhang Shouyi, this big idiot, who are you from?

Are you sure you're not drawing hatred for Yun Shuilian?

Sure enough, Director Yang's daughter was directly stimulated, and her pointed nails scratched Zhang Shouyi's face fiercely, and then hugged Zhang Shouyi again, biting and gnawing, and sobbing in her mouth:

"Try and see if I dare! I tell you, if I want to sleep with you, you can sleep with you! After you sleep, you can send you to the Public Security Bureau as a hooligan! If you don't know how to lift you up, I will let you die in a well and kill your village. Gu stripped it off and hung it on the statue in the county party committee square..."

Yun Chang's lungs exploded when she heard it, and she was about to go out to give Yang Jiao a blow when another middle-aged man ran out of the water conservancy bureau, helped Zhang Shouyi to pull Yang Jiao away, and pulled the two of them into the water conservancy bureau's gate.

Yun Chang hurriedly changed positions and saw Yang Jiao being stopped behind by the man, jumping on her feet, pointing at Zhang Shouyi's nose and cursing:

"Dad! This bastard won't let me go to his house, he must have hidden the village girl at home!"

Only then did Yun Chang know that the middle-aged man who came out was Director Yang. He carefully hid behind the tree and continued to listen to the conversation of several people.

Zhang Shouyi was so angry that he slapped his neck angrily, "Yang Jiao! Don't talk nonsense! Do you think Shuilian is you, and you can't walk when you see a man?"

"Zhang Shouyi! You dare to scold my daughter..."

Before Director Yang could finish speaking, Yang Jiao broke out, "Dad! You will let him go to the countryside to dig wells now, I want him to die in a black hole! I want to kill that village girl...ah~ah~ah~ "

Yang Jiao was obviously sickened by Zhang Shouyi's stimulation, and screamed sharply one after another.

Director Yang hugged Yang Jiao from behind, and while patiently comforted him, he kicked Zhang Shouyi hard.

"Go away! If Jiaojiao has three strengths and two weaknesses, I can't spare you!"

Zhang Shouyi was obviously a little confused by Yang Jiao's sudden onset. He was kicked by Director Yang and staggered.

As soon as Zhang Shouyi left, Yun Chang found out the marijuana bag that Gu Huaqing had wrapped in the last time, tapped out his mental strength, and directly wrapped the two father and daughter of the Yang family who were hugging each other, and put them in the space.

Afterwards, he caught up with Zhang Shouyi and asked a few questions. Knowing that the old Zhangtou would be on the night shift in the hospital at night, he suggested that Zhang Shouyi find a few more friends to drink at night, and it is best not to go home at night.

Seeing Zhang Shouyi's surprised expression, Yun Chang threatened him, "Comrade Zhang, I heard you and Yang Jiao quarreling just now. You took your clothes and left, and Director Yang coaxed Yang Jiao to tell him that he would bring someone to your house to beat a sap at night. Let Yang Jiao sleep with you again."

The darkness of the night covered Zhang Shouyi's reddened face, knowing that he was going to be 'poisoned' again at night, how could Zhang Shouyi dare to stay at home alone.

First, send Yunshang back to Zhang Chunni's house. He didn't even return to his own home. He took the two bottles of liquor and snacks sponsored by Yunshang, and went to drink with friends.

Yun Chang dragged Gu Shinian into the house, and told what she had heard and the next plan:

"...Second brother, I can't wait. That idiot Zhang Shouyi hates aunt every day, and Yang Jiao will definitely make trouble with aunt! If she can say something like that, she can do that kind of thing. Before she harms aunt, I want her to taste the taste of hanging statues first!"

After Gu Shinian nodded in agreement, Yun Chang consciously entered the space, first covering the eyes of the Yang family's father and daughter, then using scissors to strip off the two of them's clothes, using mental strength to crumple their underwear into a ball, and stuffing each other into each other's mouths inside.

Finally, I found another thick hemp rope and tied the two people together tightly.

In the middle of the night, Yun Chang followed Gu Shinian out quietly, took advantage of the night to touch under the statue in the county party committee square, hugged the father and daughter of the Yang family together, and hung it on the statue like bacon.

Chapter 214 Explosive Scandal

The color of the curtain gradually receded, and a line of white sky appeared in the east, awakening this ancient and vibrant county town from its sleep.

The lights came on one after another, and people in the streets and alleys from time to time came out for activities.

"Ah!!! Come on someone!"

The shrill screams cut through the quiet morning of the county party square.

The old woman who got up early to exercise pointed at the statue on the square and kept shouting:

"Come on, hurry up! Report to the police! There are dead people!"

People followed the old woman's arm and looked above the statue. On the high-raised bluestone statue, there were two white 'corpses' hanging.

At this time, the sky was getting brighter and brighter, and the sun in early spring finally came out. While shining golden morning light on the earth, it also painted a strange color on the men and women on the sculptures.

The police who received the report borrowed a ladder from a nearby location and unraveled the thick hemp rope that was tied into a knot.

A crowd of onlookers who came to hear the news stood under the sculpture. While excitedly guessing the identities of a pair of men and women on the statue, everyone was making plans in their hearts, preparing to go back and discuss with relatives and friends.

In this era when even husbands and wives are to be criticized for holding hands, a naked man and a woman are tied in the most conspicuous place in the entire county, and the bombing effect is no less than that of an atomic bomb.

The women were still dodging and talking quietly behind the crowd, while those men were standing in front, staring at Yang Jiao recklessly, not letting go of the slightest detail.

Even if Yang Jiao has a mole on her butt, these people can study with great interest for a long time.

When the police put the person down and felt angry when they touched the person, the onlookers became even more excited!

This is a broken shoe!

Live broken shoes!

So exciting, so fun!

It was work time at the moment, and the crowd of onlookers gathered more and more. When they saw the two of them being put down, a few grumpy old ladies picked up the lump and slammed it.

There were also several employees of the water conservancy bureau in the crowd, and they recognized Director Yang and Yang Jiao who were tied at a glance, and they did not hide it, and immediately revealed their identities in a loud voice.

In the weather in March, the temperature at night was less than ten degrees. The father and daughter of the Yang family froze outside for most of the night, and fainted long ago.

They didn't know that their identities were upside down, and they didn't know that they were put on their heads. The scandal would spread throughout the county at the speed of light, and it would also spread to several surrounding counties and cities.

Not to mention, after the word of mouth of the people, the matter between the two eventually evolved into several versions and spread widely.

Why did Director Yang mess around outside and was caught by his mother-in-law, and his life was cut off.

What is Director Yang's daughter who is nympho, whoever catches the scourge will end up harming her own family in the end.

Others said that Director Yang did something wrong, and this was revenge...

Since ancient times, peach-colored events can most stimulate people's gossip psychology.

For some peach-colored news that has no evidence and only vague rumors, people can report it with the greatest enthusiasm, speculate, discuss, and even use their imagination to make up a truth that they think is very reliable.

What's more, it is a fact that Director Yang and Yang Jiao are hung on the statue, and they have been seen by many people. People will naturally discuss with greater enthusiasm why the two were hung up, and who did they offend? Not framed?

If someone hadn't framed it, what kind of unsung hero did he do to overturn the Yang family's beast den and entertain everyone?

Until the father and daughter of the Yang family were sent to the hospital, many people watching the excitement were still surrounded by the statue, discussing excitedly with each other, and were reluctant to leave for a long time...

Director Yang's daughter-in-law received a notice from the public security that when she knew that her husband and daughter, who had been missing for the night, were tied to the statue naked, she screamed on the spot and fainted.

When he woke up again, Director Yang's daughter-in-law swore and swore that her man and her daughter were wronged and that they were deliberately retaliated against, and it was Zhang Shouyi, a well-drilling worker from the Water Conservancy Bureau, who took revenge on them.

Early in the morning, the police also felt bad luck when they encountered such a big and bad case of pickling. At this moment, the suspect was asked from the mouth of Director Yang's daughter-in-law, and he immediately asked people to hurry up and interrogate him.

The police went to the Water Conservancy Bureau to ask Zhang Shouyi for questioning, but Zhang Shouyi didn't come to work in the bureau in the morning, and then went to Lao Zhang's house. After finding that there was no one at home, they found the hospital where Lao Zhang was on duty.

Finally, at the suggestion of the old head Zhang, he went to find a few friends' houses, and finally found Zhang Shouyi, who was snoring loudly, in a small house.

Yunshang provided Zhang Shouyi with Gauge Liquor, and the amount was quite large. In addition, Zhang Shouyi had something in his heart, so he drank too much.

When the police comrades found him, Zhang Shouyi was so drunk that he couldn't even lift his eyelids.

There was no other way. The police asked Zhang Shouyi to send a small family first. They knew that Zhang Shouyi came to their house for a drink after work, and he never went out during the period, and he slept in their house until the morning after getting drunk in the middle of the night, so he had no time to commit the crime.

Zhang Shouyi's father was on duty at the hospital again last night, and he also had no time to commit the crime. The Zhang family and his son were ruled out of suspicion.

The Zhang family had nothing to gain, and the police could only count on the Yang family's father and daughter to provide clues.

I just didn't expect Yang Jiao to be very excited when she woke up. As soon as the police questioned her, Yang Jiao shouted that she was going to hell.

He insisted that the matter of hanging the statue was done by ghosts.

And Director Yang was also frightened by the mysterious incident that happened to him. He was worried that if he casually clambered on others, he would provoke more extreme revenge, so he could only acquiesce to Yang Jiao's words without saying a word.

In Qinghe County, there has never been such a shameful incident in decades. The doctors, nurses, and patients of the hospital paid special attention to the gossip about the father and daughter of the Yang family.

When the public security comrades came to ask questions, many people were lying outside the door eavesdropping.

Soon, the latest and most reliable gossip about the Yang family's father and daughter spread in the hospital: Director Yang's mind is too poisonous, and he wants to marry his broken shoe girl to Zhang Shouyi. The true faces of the two were revealed.

That's what the old saying goes to get retribution!

This statement quickly spread throughout the county through the mouths of everyone in the hospital, and then triggered a new round of heated discussions among the people.

After Zhang Shouyi woke up and learned what happened to the Yang family's father and daughter, he was in a mess.

No wonder friends and colleagues looked at him differently. It turned out that not only did Yang Jiao ruin his marriage, but he almost took over a broken shoe!

Thinking of what Yun Chang said that the father and daughter of the Yang family were going to knock a sap to sleep on him again, Zhang Shouyi exploded on the spot.

Deceiving too much!

It's so deceiving!

The Yang family's father and daughter are planning to make him a living king!

Chapter 215 Go to Fenyang again

When such a thing happened, Director Yang was really inexplicable, but he couldn't argue. In addition, when Yang Jiao woke up, he shouted that there was a ghost, and it was from the side that he had made a rumor of his own daughter.

Before he had time to think about what to do next, Zhang Shouyi was like a furious lion, broke into the hospital, ripped him off the bed and beat him.

"You bastard! You made your own daughter, and you want to stuff me with these broken shoes! Do you really think I'm a softie and dare not say anything? I'm not as good as killing you as a beast..."

Director Yang was unconscious in the middle of the night, his body was too soft to lift any strength, and he had no clothes to wear, so he was naked, so he could only hold the quilt tightly to avoid Zhang Shouyi's violent beating.

When the huge fist rained down on his head and face, Director Yang couldn't help thinking of the scene when Zhang Shouyi was 'caught in bed' by him.

At that time, Zhang Shouyi was also naked and had no strength, so he could only passively endure the beatings and scoldings of their family while wrapped in a quilt.

The situation in front of him was exactly the same as when Zhang Shouyi was beaten.

The feng shui turns and the retribution is unhappy, probably that's how it is...

Zhang Shouyi was a person who went down the well. He had strength in his hands, and in addition to the anger he had held for days, he had no scruples when he started.

By the time the doctors and nurses pulled Zhang Shouyi away, Director Yang had already been beaten so much that he had less air.

Zhang Shouyi wiped the corners of his crimson eyes, said "Bah" at Director Yang, turned around and went out again, found Yang Jiao in the ward one by one, and slapped Yang Jiao in the face when he entered.

After Director Yang's wife was stunned, she went crazy and rushed up to scratch Zhang Shouyi, "You bastard dare to come! I tore you up! You killed my daughter and my man, you made your whole family have to die. !"

Zhang Shouyi flung away Director Yang's wife, sneered, pointed at Yang Jiao's nose and said, "Don't you shout every day to strip people naked and hang them on statues? Don't you like sleeping with men? You have tasted it now, right? Sleeping man, does it taste good to hang a statue? And the director's daughter, bah! Crap!"

Yang Jiao covered half of her face, her brain was buzzing, her face was aching hot, and blood was flowing from the corners of her mouth.

She couldn't hear what Zhang Shouyi was scolding, but she could see the expression of disgust and contempt on Zhang Shouyi's face.

The tense strings in Yang Jiao's mind snapped at once. With red eyes, she jumped up from the bed and wanted to beat Zhang Shouyi, but was stopped by the nurse who came to hear the news.

After that, Yang Jiao smashed everything that could be smashed in the ward like crazy, cursing Zhang Shouyi sharply.

Out of the anger in his heart, Zhang Shouyi left the ward in disgust, rubbed his face with both hands, raised his hand to straighten his clothes, and went to the office downstairs to find Han Weihong.

When such a scandal occurs, the best outcome for Director Yang and Yang Jiao is to hold a meeting to criticize them, parade through the streets wearing high hats, and then send them to labor camps.

However, the location of the incident between the two was really sensitive, and being hung naked at the gate of the county government was somewhat provocative.

In addition, the father and daughter of the Yang family couldn't tell how they were hung up, and there was no way to prove their innocence. When they were rescued, it happened to be work time, and there were too many people watching, and the impact was too great. Bad, so the government will definitely punish these two people severely.

It can be said that the father and daughter of the Yang family have no room for turning over again in this life.

And Director Yang was just transferred to Qinghe County, and Director Yang's wife did not have a job. Once the father and daughter of the Yang family were imprisoned, the Water Conservancy Bureau would take back the Yang family's house. The only way to wait for Director Yang's daughter-in-law is to repatriate her hometown.

The family came to take office in a glorious way, but in the end, only Director Yang's wife went back alone, and relatives and friends inevitably asked to inquire.

I also know that Director Yang's daughter-in-law will have to live under the guidance of others for the rest of her life.

It was because he wanted to understand this that Zhang Shouyi rushed in and beat up Director Yang first, and then went to find Han Weihong.

The Yang family is over. Han Weihong was his matchmaker with Yun Shuilian. He had to ask Han Weihong to come forward and discuss his marriage with Yun Shuilian with the old Yun family again.

Yun Chang thought about Zhang Shouyi's reaction before doing this.

Therefore, on the day when the bad deed was done, he took Gu Shinian back to Xinglin Village early in the morning, and asked Yun Shuilian to go to the village chief to open a letter of introduction, and they rushed to Fenyang non-stop.

Worrying that Zhang Shouyi would come over in person, before leaving, Yunshang told the old couple in a thousand words:

"Master, milk, my aunt can buy the house when I go back to Fenyang. Grandma Wu from the housing management bureau said that my aunt is a high school student and a cultural person. Cadres! If you do a good job, you will be able to join the factory leadership team, and maybe join the party. My aunt is going to marry a college student in the future, and she will be a cadre in the city. You must not marry my aunt at home. "

The old couple was almost fascinated by the splendid future of Yunshuilian depicted by Yunshang, and felt that Yunshang was too right.

Yun Shuilian is a literate person, so she should find a literate person, and the couple will be able to talk about it in the future.

If you marry an illiterate, the couple can't talk together, and they can't fight every day?

Besides, a few people went back to Fenyang and obtained a city hukou for Erchuan. When the aluminum factory recruits workers, Erchuan can also enter the aluminum factory as a worker.

At that time, their family can go to Fenyang, and Shuilian will naturally marry in Fenyang.

They didn't want Shuilian to remarry back to Qinghe County, the couple would live in two places, or they would have to take a bus for several hours to go back to their parents' home.

The old couple reassured that Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief and boarded the bus to Fenyang.

After getting off the car, the three went directly to the housing management bureau. Aunt Wu happened to bring someone back to see the house. When she saw a few people entering the door, her face immediately filled with eager smiles, and she got up and greeted her.

"Comrade Yun, you are here! I told people in the morning that you didn't leave an address last time, so you can't deliver your letter!"

When Yun Chang heard it, she immediately realized that Aunt Wu had found a suitable house, so she was in a hurry to send them a letter.

Yun Shuilian also heard what Aunt Wu meant, secretly relieved, thanked Aunt Wu with a smile, and exchanged a few words with the other party before entering the office in the inner room.

Aunt Wu opened the drawer, took out a red leather notebook, turned a few pages, pointed to the address on it and said:

"Comrade Yun, I searched for a few days and went to various streets to ask. There are a few suitable single-family homes, but they are far apart. If you buy them, you have to live separately, and you won't be able to take care of them in the future.

By the way, there is a large courtyard on the other side of Hongqi Street, about 200 square meters, with blue brick and tile houses, three north houses, and east and west wing rooms. Is the area is too large, the asking price is high, ordinary people can't afford it.

You have three families, you can buy this yard together and live in the same yard in the future. If you can do the same with each other, you can live together and kiss each other. "

Chapter 216 Mansion

When the voice fell, seeing the three of them frowning, Aunt Wu immediately realized that the three of them were three families after all. In addition, Yun Shuilian would marry in the future. If the property division is not clear, disputes may arise in the future.

Thinking like this, Aunt Wu turned to the next page again and pointed to the building information registered at the back:

"If you are dissatisfied with the large courtyard, there are a few suitable buildings here. It was the original Jinjia Yangxing, and later it was divided into small rooms of about 20 square meters.

The Xiaoyanglou Building faces south, and the last two rooms on the east side of the second floor are larger. The last one is forty-three square meters. It is a suite. I heard that it is the office of the former manager of the foreign bank with a small meeting room, a thatched cottage, and a balcony. After you buy it, you can separate a kitchen from the balcony.

The house next door is 30 square meters, and there is a thatched hut inside, but there is no kitchen, so you have to cook in the corridor.

The two houses are both the head of the household who has been transferred to another place for work. They need to sell the house in Fenyang and wait for the welfare room of the sub-unit.

In addition, the easternmost room on the third floor of this building is also for sale. It is 25 square meters and also has a thatched hut.

These houses are just right, but the price is a little bit more expensive. "

Yun Chang asked, "Grandma Wu, how do you sell these rooms?"

"A forty-three-square-meter house on the second floor costs 400 yuan and 350 catties of grain. The next room costs 200 yuan and 300 catties of food. The owner of the house on the third floor doesn't sell money, and people want it. Three hundred catties of grain."

Yun Chang and Gu Shinian's eyes became brighter as they listened. As soon as Aunt Wu finished speaking, the two decided to look at the building.

Seeing Yun Shuilian's face turning pale, she didn't even dare to say a word, Yun Chang smiled and said, "Gu, don't worry, Aunt Lin has prepared money for me, second brother Gu also has a way to buy food, let's buy it. Affordable housing. In the future, when you go to work, you can slowly save money and return the housing money to Gu Erge. "

Yun Chang said it was simple, but Yun Shuilian couldn't help but feel worried.

The three suites add up to almost 1,000 catties of grain. If Gu Shinian has a way, where can he get so much grain?

Two days ago, she specifically asked Laiwang from the village chief's house to inquire about it. Now in the county's black market, a four-two-weight wheat flour steamed bun is sold for one dollar.

One thousand catties of coarse grains can be sold for almost one thousand yuan on the black market. Even if Gu Shinian can get so much grain, where can he get the thousand yuan for the grain?

Besides, it costs hundreds of dollars to buy a house.

It's really frustrating.

Looking at Yun Chang's excited appearance, Yun Shuilian sighed, and finally couldn't bear to pour cold water on the two of them.

Anyway, the two children can't listen to what she says now, so she should follow their minds to see the house first. After two days, if she can't get food and enough money to buy a house, the two children don't have to worry about it.

Several people followed Aunt Wu and took the tram to the Jinjia Yangxing that Aunt Wu spoke of.

This is a three-storey blue brick building with a row of cement water pipes on the east side of the building, and five taps are displayed side by side.

The entrance to the stairs is in the middle of the building, and there are six or seven families living on the east and west sides. After all, there are more than 30 families living in the whole building.

In the corridor, all households have coal stoves, briquettes, dry firewood, small square tables with high and low chopping boards, and tableware and cooking utensils against the wall, occupying half of the spacious public corridor.

Originally a spacious and serious foreign business, after dozens of households have been smoldering, it has long been infected with a mixed atmosphere of life.

Yun Chang watched with great interest all the way. From the arrangement of things in each household in the corridor, you can roughly see the living standard of the family and the degree of cleanliness of the hostess.

A few people went up to the second floor, and a few little boys rushed out from the west side, their clothes were dirty, their long noses were hanging, and they held wooden sticks in their hands, and ran down playfully with each other.

Aunt Wu led a few people through the corridor,

Under the curious eyes of the neighbors, he walked to the end of the second floor.

"It's these two rooms. I came to see them yesterday. The two families who moved out before are both cadre families. They are of high quality and have kept the house clean. Come on, let's go to this suite first."

Aunt Wu took out the key, opened the heavy-looking black wooden door, and led a few people into the room, and said in a low voice:

"This building is sturdy, looks stylish, and has spacious corridors. Most of the people who live here are employees from several nearby units, including high school teachers, government workers, and workers' families. The quality of the building varies, but it must be. In terms of neighborhood relations, it is easy to get along, so you can't go wrong buying this place."

Yun Chang nodded and looked inside the room.

As soon as you enter the door, there is a corridor of about two meters. At the end of the corridor is a half-open red wooden door, and outside is a spacious large balcony. There are windows beside the front and rear doors, and there is a 30-centimeter-wide platform below, where flowers, plants, or other sundries can be placed.

After the windows and doors are opened, a front and rear ventilation channel can be formed, the air circulation is very good, and the lighting is also good.

One side of the corridor is divided into two rooms with wooden planks, next to it is a small living room about eight square meters, and opposite is a small bathroom.

Yun Chang glanced at it, and there was actually an old-fashioned flush toilet in the bathroom. Next to it was a sink made of cement, with two faucets installed on it.

The floor of the house was covered with dark marble floor tiles, including the balcony. The small leather shoes on Yunshang's feet stepped on the floor and made a "clicking" sound, which was crisp and pleasant.

After seeing the room, Yun Chang was extremely satisfied.

If this room is cleaned up properly, it can almost be compared with the room in her previous life.

Gu Shinian was also very satisfied. He walked to the room separated by wooden planks, raised his hand and knocked, thinking in his heart how to tidy up and remodel the room for Yun Chang.

Yun Shuilian, who was on the side, was dumbfounded, stepping on the bright marble floor tiles that could reveal people's shadows, and she didn't know where to put her feet.

No wonder this house is the most expensive and worth it! It's so worth it!

"Grandma Wu, you have such a good eye! You can find such a good house, and your connections are so wide!"

Yun Chang slapped Aunt Wu's flattery fiercely, causing the other party to laugh non-stop.

After coming out of the house, several people went to the next door and the third floor to take a look. Compared with the large suite, these two rooms are much more ordinary. The floor is covered with cement. Even the windows are smaller, and the lighting is not as good as the suite.

However, compared with the current environment, a house with a bathroom can already be regarded as a luxury house.

After coming out of the building, Gu Shinian walked beside Aunt Wu, lowered his voice and said, "Grandma Wu, we like these rooms very much, but one kilogram of grain is not a small amount. Our family needs to prepare for two days. I don't know how to go through the formalities for the suite first, and how about the formalities for the remaining two rooms in two days?"

Chapter 217 Small Household

Aunt Wu nodded, "Yes, yes, but if you are really satisfied with these rooms, you'd better go through the formalities as soon as possible. There are not many good houses in Fenyang, and this kind of spacious house with thatched cottage can be sold quickly. After a day or two, someone else bought it, and you won't be able to live together in the future."

Aunt Wu had a lot of things to do, so she left in a hurry after seeing the house.

Gu Shinian asked about the location of the train station, took Yunshang and Yun Shuilian on the tram, and found a hostel near the train station to stay.

After dinner, Gu Shinian pulled Yun Chang to knock on Yun Shuilian's door, and said in the other's doubtful eyes:

"Aunt Yun, in addition to the suite on the second floor, which of the remaining two rooms do you want?"

Yun Shuilian squinted her eyes, "Sh Nian, didn't you fool Aunt Wu just now? Can you really get food?"

"Well, I'll take Ah Chang out later, and let someone help bring some food back." Gu Shinian paused, and then continued, "A Chang likes a big suite, so I'll buy the suite for Ah Chang tomorrow. Now, the remaining two rooms will be traded in two days."

Yun Shuilian looked at Yun Chang, and then at Gu Shinian, the expression on her face was quite wonderful.

"This... This house is too expensive, why not? Comrade Lin is not going to buy a house for Chang Nan, let's buy the house first. I won't buy it. When I enter the aluminum factory, I will apply for it. living in the staff dormitory."

"Gu, you don't have a household registration in the city, even if you enter the aluminum factory, you are a temporary worker, and the temporary worker should not be assigned a dormitory. The small western-style buildings we saw today are very lavish, and the houses are good, and it is rare to encounter a house that can be next to each other. , you can't miss it."

"Aunt Yun, you don't have to worry about the food issue. Choose a room you like. I'll give you the food to buy the house first. When you start working, I will slowly convert the food for the house into money and return it to me."

Yun Chang and Gu Shinian both said so, plus a few rooms are really good, and there are not many chances to meet a good house, Yun Shuilian quickly nodded and agreed.

"I'll choose the one on the third floor. I've taken all of you again this time. Don't worry, I'll return the money for the house as soon as possible."

Gu Shinian nodded, "Then I'll buy the two downstairs rooms with Ah Chang, and Grandpa Yun will come over later, if there's not enough room upstairs, you can also live in my room, and I'll live with Ah Chang. "

Yun Shuilian was a little confused.

Gu Shinian's words are nothing to hear, but when you think about it carefully, why is it so inappropriate?

Yun Chang is the granddaughter of their old Yun family, and should be closer to the old couple, but when it came to Gu Shinian's mouth, it seemed that he and Yun Chang were the closest family, but the old couple became outsiders.

Yun Shuilian didn't know how to respond to Gu Shinian's words for a while.

Yun Chang didn't know what Yun Shuilian was thinking, lying in her arms, her little body almost twisted into a twist, "Gu, my second brother Gu has money, we don't have to rush to pay it back. By the way, aunt, When I want to go out with second brother Gu, you can put it in the room and help me think about it, what should I add to my big room, we will arrange the room for me tomorrow after the formalities."

After receiving the task assigned by Yunshang, Yun Shuilian was no longer bored to stay in the room alone. She spread out the pencil and notebook that Yunshang gave, and remembered the things that needed to be added in the suite.

In the darkness of the night, Gu Shinian was holding Yunshang and slowly wandering around the train station. When he saw someone with a cloth bag in his arms, he turned in along the alley, and he also quickened his pace to follow.

After walking about 700 to 800 meters, there were more shadowy figures in front of him. Gu Shinian knew in his heart that this should be the black market near Fenyang Railway Station.

The two walked around in the past and found that the black market in Fenyang is obviously much more depressed than the provincial capital. Not only are there fewer people, but there are also few materials. On the black market, there is not even a single person selling eggs and meat.

Thinking about it, it's not long after the New Year, and the task pigs in various places have been handed in years ago. Now the village households are all piglets, and there is no pork for sale.

The two walked around the black market, walked out of the alley, took out the flatbed truck from the space, put 50 catties of rice and 50 catties of white flour on the car, and pushed the car back to the black market.

Right now, it's the month of March, and there are still two to three months before the new grains arrive. There is a shortage of grains everywhere, and only coarse grains are distributed in grain stores. Many people have not seen refined grains for several months.

Those coarse grains are terribly rough, and the throat hurts after eating them. The adults can deal with them.

Gu Shinian came over with a cart, and the cart was loaded with fine white rice and noodles. Then I heard that these refined grains were used for coarse grains. The people on the black market almost started fighting, and they all swarmed. rushing to replace.

One hundred catties of fine grains were replaced with three hundred and fifty catties of coarse grains in just twenty minutes. Gu Shinian and Yunshang did not waste time. After changing the grains, they pushed the cart and left.

Aware that there was no one around, Yunshang even took the car and the food in the space, and then went around in a circle and returned to the guest house in the dark.

Entering the room, Yunshang prepared a batch of sweet potatoes in the space, mixed with two bags of corn ballast, and packed the coarse grains that were exchanged for the night separately, ready to be paired with the transaction.

Yun Shuilian was woken up by Yun Chang early in the morning, and when she finished packing and went downstairs, she found that Gu Shinian had been waiting outside.

There was also a flatbed truck beside it, which should be filled with food, and it was bulging, but it was covered with a layer of torn canvas, which did not look so conspicuous.

Yun Shuilian was amazed at the speed at which Gu Shinian was scouring the food, but she was very sensible and did not ask more. She put Yun Chang on the flatbed truck and automatically took on the heavy responsibility of pulling the cart.

Before coming to Fenyang, Yunshang had already prepared the household registration booklet at home, and specially asked the old village chief to issue a letter of introduction and a certificate of moving out of the household registration.

With the help of Aunt Wu, several people completed the transfer procedures with the owner of the house, and with the newly released hot deed, went to the public security next door to go through the household registration procedures.

Several public security officers in the household registration department looked at the six-year-old head of the household, which was flush with the table.

After reading the house deed and looking at the letter of introduction, after reading the letter of introduction and the certificate of moving out of the household registration, it is almost enough to turn over the eighteen generations of Yunshang's ancestors.

Fortunately, Yun Shuilian's nominal aunt was with him, and I heard that the only elder in Yunshang's family was mad, and the household registration procedures were complete. The original owner of this house in Fenyang did not have any problems. The police are strange and strange, and they still go through various formalities with ease.

Yun Chang took over the newly released red book, looked at the owner's name in the column, and then looked at the new address behind, and her heart was so beautiful that it was about to bloom.

Chapter 218 Neighbors

"Little girl, the food relationship has been transferred to the street for you. This month's supply of food has been distributed. From the next month, the street will issue you a food stamp every month."

Yun Chang nodded, the corners of her mouth were raised, she took out a handful of fruit candies from her pocket, asked everyone to eat two housewarming candies, and then pulled Yun Shuilian and Gu Shinian and said:

"Thank you, Comrade Public Security, your work efficiency is really high! My aunt and second brother Gu will go through the household registration procedures in two days, and I will come to see you!"

Several police officers were amused with sugar cubes in their mouths. This little girl really looks like the head of the household, with a small mouth, the little adults are very good.

It was almost noon after leaving the Public Security Bureau. A few people had lunch first, and then went to the supply and marketing cooperative near Xiaoyanglou to buy a new lock, a broom and a dustpan, and a new mop. They were going to clean the room first.

Gu Shinian avoided Yun Shuilian, asked Yun Chang to take a bag of chicken cakes and two handfuls of dried noodles, told Yun Chang to wait for him at home, and quickly went out with the military bag.

Yun Chang watched Gu Shinian go downstairs with an aggrieved look on her face, until she could no longer see the figure, then she pouted, carrying the broom and preparing to clean the room.

It's just that she is too small, she has no strength in her hands, the sweater on her body is the most dirty beige color, and she wears shiny black leather shoes on her feet. At first glance, she is not suitable for work.

Yun Shuilian simply found a small bench with flickering legs from the balcony, wiped it clean in the bathroom, and let Yunshang move to the corridor to bask in the sun, and packed it up by herself in the room.

When the sun went down, the adults and children who went to work and school came back one after another, and the Xiaoyanglou suddenly became lively.

Downstairs, there was a row of women washing vegetables or cooking with water at the tap. Seeing the door of the last room on the second floor was open, and on the concrete railing at the door, there was a little girl with a pale and tender face. She couldn't bear it. Take a few glances.

Yun Chang subconsciously grinned at the people downstairs, and immediately a woman shouted, "Little girl, did your family buy or rent this house?"

"I bought it!" Yun Chang replied very seriously.

"Yeah! Bought it? This house is very expensive! How much did you pay for it?"

Yun Chang smiled and stopped talking.

Do you really think I'm a fool?

Can I tell you how much I paid for the house?

I won't let you spy on my family!

Yun Chang raised her chin and stuffed a toffee into her mouth, as if her mouth was occupied and she couldn't speak.

On the adjacent corridor, people came out to cook one after another, and the women of several nearby households almost straightened their eyes when they saw Yun Chang's clothes.

The little girl dresses more lavishly than the baby in the provincial capital. What is the origin of this family?

The woman who was closest to Yunshang put the iron pot on the stove, put a few nests on the pot, wiped her hands on the apron, and came over with a rag.

Seeing Yun Chang's eyes looking straight at her, the woman's eyes twinkled, and she asked with a smile, "Little girl, where is your lord?"

Yun Chang smiled sweetly and without any sense of government, and pointed to the room, "Auntie, my aunt is mopping the floor in the room."

After speaking, he shouted into the room, "Gu, there are guests at home!"

Yun Shuilian pulled the mop and wiped the beads of sweat from her forehead. Seeing that the person who came was a capable woman of about thirty-five years old, with thick eyebrows and big eyes, and short hair, she immediately greeted her with a smile.

The woman turned her gaze on Yun Shuilian's face and said with a smile, "Comrade, my surname is He, you can just call me Mrs. He. My house is next to Room 3, and we will be neighbors in the future. This door to door, It's also close, you just moved here, if you don't understand anything, just ask me, don't be polite."

Yun Shuilian is introverted and introverted, but she still understands the proper etiquette and rules. At this time, she also had a smile on her face, and said politely to Sister He, "Then I will thank Sister He first! We just moved here, what? I don't understand, you will have to trouble you neighbors in the future! If you have anything in the future, you must be polite to me.

The two families will be neighbors in the future. She has to come over to find out where the family is coming from, and then see if the other party is good at dealing with each other. After all, she will get along for a long time in the future.

Seeing Yun Shuilian with a friendly smile and a gentle attitude at this moment, she seems to be easy to get along with, and when she thinks that this family directly bought the largest suite in Xiaoyanglou, who is also a family member, the smile on her face grew even stronger.

Sister He glanced around the room and asked Yun Shuilian politely, "I see that your house is almost finished, what else is there to do, I'll help you when I'm free now!"

Yun Shuilian's eyes fell on Sister He's apron, and she refused with a smile, "Don't bother Big Sister He, I'm almost finished. You're cooking, so don't touch it!"

Mrs. He didn't insist, she said a few words of courtesy to Yun Shuilian, and went out to touch Yun Chang's head, "How old is the girl? What's your name?"

"My name is Yun Chang, I'm six years old."

"The name is so nice!" Big Sister He boasted with a smile, and then continued, "My Zhou Xiu is three years older than you. You can come and play with my Xiu Xiu if you have nothing to do in the future."

Yun Chang nodded, and before she had time to speak, the curtain of the door next to her was opened, and a black and thin little girl whispered to Sister He, "Mom, my mother asked when to eat."

Sister He frowned, turned her head and said to the little girl, "Er Ya, where's Xiuxiu? Let your sister come out and meet new neighbors."

Yunshang's eyes fell on the little girl, she saw that she was wearing a ragged and small padded jacket, so dirty that she could not see the background color, the pants on her legs were also tight, only above the ankles, and the front of the cloth shoes on the feet were torn. A hole was made, and the thumb of the right foot was stuck out.

The little girl's face was dry without any flesh, with a large piece of blue on the corner of her mouth, and a large swollen lump on her forehead, which looked like a new injury.

It's just strange that Yun Chang sat at the door all afternoon, and she didn't hear any noise from Room 3, nor did she see the little girl going out. Where did she get hurt?

Aware of Yun Chang's gaze, Erya quickly lowered her head, her toes shrank involuntarily into her shoes, and she tried her best to hide her small body from the door frame.

"I, I'll call the eldest sister to come out."

After the little girl finished speaking, she immediately retreated into the door.

Yun Chang turned around and looked at Sister He carefully, and found that Sister He was wearing a capable Lenin suit under her apron, wearing a pair of brand-new cloth shoes on her feet, and a watch on her wrist, looking like an intellectual.

Yun Chang's brows subconsciously wrinkled, looking at Sister He's dress, and the neat cooking utensils and tableware at the door, the home must be clean and comfortable, and there is no shortage of money, why is Erya so sloppy, there is no decent clothes What to wear?

And when Sister He talks about Zhou Xiu, her love is beyond words, why is she so indifferent to Erya?

Even the disgust was superficial.

Chapter 219: Omnipotent, 2 Brothers

Yun Chang has not yet come back to it, the curtain of the door of the next room was raised again, and a little girl with two braids jumped out from it.

Unlike Erya, who has a grumpy face, this little girl has a chubby face, and is wearing a bright red sweater. Under her feet are 70% new black pants and new cloth shoes.

Sister He couldn't help laughing when she saw the little girl, beckoned, and said, "Xiuxiu, come here, this is Sister Yunshang, remember to bring Sister Yunshang when you go out to play in the future, our two will be neighbors from now on."

Zhou Xiu first squinted at Yunshang, and when she noticed the brand new beige sweater on Yunshang, her expression changed immediately, she ran over and grabbed Yunshang's arm, "Sister Yunshang, your house just moved here today. Is it? This sweater on you is so beautiful, did you buy it from our Fenyang Department Store?"

Yun Chang didn't speak, his eyes fell on his arm.

Zhou Xiu is not very old, but she has a lot of heart and eyes. She is very good at looking at people. She realizes Yun Chang's dislike, pursed her lips and smiled, and loosened Yun Chang's sleeves.

Yun Chang glanced at Sister He who had returned to the stove to cut potatoes, then looked back at Zhou Xiu, with a stern face, she said word by word, "My clothes were bought from Shenshi, and if they break, I will lose money. "

The smile on Zhou Xiu's face faded, and she continued to ask, "What about the leather shoes? Where are the small leather shoes on your feet? Did you also buy them from Shenshi?"

Yun Chang nodded.

Zhou Xiu was so disappointed that she couldn't bring up her smile, she pouted and said to the eldest sister, "Mom! Sister Yunshang's sweater and leather shoes are beautiful, and I want to wear them too! When are you going to Shanghai on business? You also bought me such a lavish one. Sweater and shoes!"

"Okay, I'll ask my colleagues in the unit. If someone goes to the Shanghai market on business, I'll have someone bring it to you."

The scene of the mother's kindness and the son's filial piety looked very warm and warm, but Yun Chang thought of the injury on Erya's face and the small padded jacket on her body that could hardly be buckled, but a chill spread in her heart for no reason.

With Big Sister He's verbal promise, Zhou Xiu looked smug, her eyes turned back and forth on Yun Chang's face, and just as she was about to speak, there was a honking sound from downstairs.

Yunshang turned back and found a truck driving downstairs. Gu Shinian leaned out of the passenger seat and looked at Yunshang with a smile.

"Second Brother Gu!"

Yun Chang waved at Gu Shinian with a look of surprise, opened Zhou Xiu, and ran downstairs.

With the spying eyes on the first floor, and Zhou Xiu's amazed and jealous eyes, Er Ya peeked from the door frame to the eyes downstairs, and threw them all behind her.

Gu Shinian jumped out of the car, reached out to catch Yun Chang, motioned her to say hello to the truck driver, "A Chang, this is Brother Xue, go back to the village tonight to help you move."

Yun Chang didn't expect Gu Shinian to go out for a few hours and come back after such a big event. Looking at the slightly childish face of the driver, Yun Chang immediately put on a smile, "Hello brother Xue,"

The driver of Xiao Xue scratched his head naively, feeling that he was a little embarrassed when a 20-year-old boy was called by a little beanie, but seeing Yunshang calling Gu Shinian his brother, he felt that he could not change his generation, so he hesitated and spoke. Said, "Hello, little sister Yunshang."

Yun Chang smiled at the other party, turned around, and asked excitedly, "Second brother Gu, are you going to move me tonight? I haven't packed everything in the house, is it too late?"

"I had time. I went out at noon to call Comrade Zhang's factory. Comrade Zhang sent Gu Pan back to the village to inform Grandpa Yun and Grandma Yun. Now the things in the former village should be almost cleaned up."

Yun Chang was so happy that her brows flew up, and she felt that Second Brother Gu was so thoughtful and agile!

I bought a house in the morning, and arranged to move her in the evening. I even found a big truck for the move. If I moved faster, I would be able to make breakfast at home tomorrow morning!

"Second brother Gu, my aunt has already cleaned up the house. I'll call my aunt. Let's go home now!"

Gu Shinian grabbed Yun Chang and took out a bill from his pocket.

"Aunt Yun can't go back yet. I ordered two canopy beds that are 1.8 meters high. They should be delivered soon. Aunt Yun wants to stay at home and wait for the master who delivers the beds. This is the ticket for the canopy bed."

"..."

Brother Gu, how much did you do in one afternoon?

Notify the family to pack up and prepare to move, find a moving truck, and even book the canopy bed needed in the new house. As long as the bed and quilt are made, you can sleep in the new home at night!

Yun Chang turned around, hugged Gu Shinian hard, took the military bag he handed over, entered the space with consciousness, and put a portion of fried shredded pork with green peppers, a portion of scrambled eggs, and two large steamed buns in the lunch box. , moved the lunch box into the bag, and hurried upstairs.

Not bothering to answer Zhou Xiu's question about Gu Shinian, he went into the house, handed the lunch box and steamed buns to Yun Shuilian, and took out a heat preservation bucket under the cover of the military bag, which contained a small half bucket of steaming steam. millet porridge.

After putting away Yun Shuilian's dinner, Yun Chang first told Yun Shuilian not to have more contact with Sister He next door for the time being, and then she talked about the move and the fact that someone would send the canopy bed soon, and then she gave the canopy bed ticket. Throw it to Yun Shuilian, turn around and run downstairs.

Yun Shuilian also hurriedly followed downstairs, glanced at Master Xue, and carefully looked at the license plate and the other party's work permit, and then relieved Gu Shinian and Yun Chang to get into the car.

Yun Chang thinks Yun Shuilian is really cute, and she is obviously the treasure of the old couple at home. Just take care of yourself every day, and don't have to worry about family affairs. But when she was out, Yun Shuilian was like everyone's parent, taking care of her and Gu Shinian closely.

Fortunately, the trucks at this time did not have a set of cards, and there were few forged work permits, otherwise Yun Shuilian would not have known how worried she and Gu Shinian would have been.

After leaving the city, Yunshang took out the meat buns from the bag and gave them to Gu Shinian and the driver Xiao Xue, and then asked with a smile, "Brother Xue, how did my second brother Gu persuade you to help me move?"

The driver Xiao Xue took a big mouthful of meat buns, puffed out his cheeks, and said vaguely:

"Twenty kilograms of refined white noodles! The little brother said, as long as... just go to Qinghe County, give me twenty kilograms of refined white noodles! Hmm! This bun is delicious, I haven't eaten it in months. The white face!"

Seeing that the driver Xiaoxue had eaten a bun in two mouthfuls, Yunshang quickly handed over the bun in his hand. The driver Xiao Xue took the bun, put it under his nose, smelled it, swallowed, and carefully put it into his pocket.

"It's enough for me to eat one and taste it. Take this back and give it to my mother to taste." Seeing Yunshang staring at him blankly, the driver of Xiaoxue smiled innocently, "Little girl, I can't take your big meat buns for nothing. , I'll help you move things when we arrive at the place!"

Yun Chang nodded and didn't speak, but she secretly decided that when she returned to Fenyang at night, she must get some more meat buns for the driver Xiao Xue!

Chapter 220 carefully arranged

Xiao Xue's big truck drove fast and steady, and returned to town in less than two hours.

Under the light of the truck's headlights, Yunshang saw the old man Yun, Yun Erchuan, and the old village chief, with two young offspring standing at the intersection of the town and returning to the village, and two flatbed trucks parked beside them. An ox cart, full to the brim, full of furniture.

Yunshang looked at it from a distance and saw that most of the things in the car were things she got back from the provincial capital last time, and there was also a carload of briquettes.

The truck stopped slowly, Yun Chang jumped out of the car, and ran to the old man.

He took out the newly issued red book from the bag, and turned it over to the old man with the headlights. "Lord, look, this is my new household registration! I am the head of the household! The new house is great!"

The old man was illiterate, so he carefully took the red book, looked at it front and back for a long time, and then showed it to the village chief with a smile.

"Brother, my family will be a city baby in the future! There is food to eat!"

The old village chief was also happy for Yun Chang, and kept saying yes, took the red book, glanced at the two young students and Yun Erchuan who came around, and hurriedly returned it to Yun Chang, asking her to put it away carefully.

After reading it, Yun Erchuan thought that he would also get a red book in a few months, and that he would have the opportunity to become a worker. He was so happy that he worked harder to carry things.

The driver Xiao Xue is a diligent person. Seeing that Yun Erchuan and the two descendants were starting to work, he quickly put down the truck, ran over to say hello to the old man and the village chief, and threw off his arms to help move things.

Gu Shinian stood aside and talked to the old man and the village chief about the process of buying a house and the situation of the three rooms, while Yunshang surrounded a few scooters and quietly put all kinds of small things in. space.

The four lads worked quickly, loading the car in half an hour.

Yunshang put a few apples, a small bag of rice, and a few bundles of dried noodles into the military bag, and quietly stuffed them into the old man's hands.

After that, he took the cover of Gu Shinian's shoulder bag, took out a large oil paper bag, wrapped more than ten meat buns in it, and gave it to the old man, who asked him to distribute it to the village chief and the young men who had worked for a long time.

The big guy worked hard for her for a long time, she had to let people eat something good, but she couldn't let people sleep on an empty stomach!

On the way back, the old man urged Yun Erchuan to get into the car, and then took out a letter of introduction from his pocket and threw it to him, "I will ask you for leave tomorrow for the work on the road. You can go to Fenyang and put Changnan's house in place and see if there is anything. What hard work, come back when you're done."

Yun Erchuan nodded honestly, "Don't worry, Dad, I'll come back after I've settled down with Chang Nan and Shuilian, and I won't be able to delay the work on the road. I'm not at home for the past two days, so take it easy when you go down."

The old man snorted and looked at Yun Chang again, "Shang Nan, let your second uncle do whatever work you have in Fenyang, don't worry about the family, your mother has me and your milk to take care of it."

Yun Chang also nodded obediently.

After the car started, the old man had red eyes, watching his little granddaughter and a house of belongings disappear into the night...

Back in Fenyang, it was almost twelve o'clock.

In Xiaoyanglou, only Yunshang's room was still lit.

The truck was parked downstairs, Yun Shuilian pushed open the door and walked out, looking at the dim street lights on the side of the road, when she saw Yunshang's belongings pulled over, she immediately went downstairs to help move things.

Two households on the second floor heard the noise, opened the door and took a look. When they saw that the new neighbor was moving, the men from both families came down to help. Five or six people ran up and down several times, and quickly moved the things back. Room is up.

Yun Chang hid in the house, put a full twenty-five catties of fine white noodles in the bag, and packed five meat buns, and asked Gu Shinian to deliver it to the driver of Xiao Xue.

Today's move is so smooth, Xiao Xue's driver has contributed a lot, she can thank others.

Besides, Lao Yun's family has to move again in the future, and he has to make a good relationship with the driver of Xiaoxue. When the next time moves, he will ask the driver of Xiaoxue for help!

Send off the neighbors who helped and the driver Xiao Xue,

It was getting late, Yun Shuilian made the bed neatly, and the few people hurriedly washed and went to bed to rest.

Early the next morning, Yunshang was woken up by the clanging sound of knocking on the balcony. When he came out, he saw that the house outside was almost in place. Yun Erchuan was using wood planks on the balcony to make a 50-centimeter-high, two-meter-high. A long, one-meter-wide large wooden box.

Seeing Yun Chang coming out, Yun Erchuan wiped the sweat from his head and said with a smile, "Shang Nan, I can see that the balcony floor is bright, and the briquettes are placed here in a forbidden place. The second uncle will nail a wooden box for you. , I don't have to worry about soiling the floor when I put the briquettes here in the future."

Yun Chang nodded, thinking that Yun Erchuan's brain was very good, and he could even think of such an idea.

Although the wooden box was nailed a little less than satisfactory, it was not suitable for the tall balcony, but she had too many briquettes, and it was better to put it on the balcony than in the corridor.

Clean and safe.

Even if she often goes back to the village to live in the future, she doesn't have to worry about the briquettes being stolen.

"I saw that there were signs of wooden boards nailed in the corridor. After discussing it with Comrade Gu Xiao, I'll install a wooden door there for you, and put the stove in it. It's also a kitchen. No one will see the delicious food you make in the future."

Yunshang lives in the last house on the second floor, and there is a distance of almost three meters from the door to the end of the corridor. It is the site of the last family.

The entire corridor is about one meter five wide. If a wooden door is installed, it can really separate a small kitchen.

In this era, there is no illegal construction, so no one will care if it is separated.

Although the kitchen is a bit shabby, it can only play the role of blocking the line of sight, but it is still much better than other people's homes that are open in the corridor to cook.

Yun Chang nodded with a smile, pointed upstairs and said, "The house that my aunt is going to buy is upstairs, and it is the last one. I will also get a small kitchen for my aunt tomorrow!"

After speaking, Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, and then asked, "Second uncle, where is my aunt? Where is second brother Gu?"

"I went out early in the morning. They said that I wanted to set up curtains for you, and I needed to make some partitions to separate the small room again. It is estimated that I will be back soon."

Just as they were talking, Gu Shinian and Yun Shuilian entered the door with a few workers carrying a black wooden partition, carrying their burdens.

After a while of knocking, the small room separated by wooden boards from the original owner was dismantled, and a partition similar to the Duobao Pavilion was re-installed, and then white thick gauze curtains were hung up. One room was well-lit and ventilated. The new room with good effect was completed.

Seeing that Yunshang's eyes were shining brightly, and his happy mouth could not be closed, Gu Shinian couldn't help but cocked the corners of his mouth, pointing to the partition and said:

"A-shang, this house used to have no windows, no ventilation, and no sunlight. It's uncomfortable for people to be stuffy inside. Now it is replaced by a partition, and the ventilation effect is good. If a stove is built in the house in winter, the house will be warm and people live in. It's also comfortable to wear." The key is to look good, and the little girl is in a good mood when she sees it!

Yun Chang nodded madly, thinking that Second Brother Gu is too powerful, and he can think of this method.
