Chapter 22 Looking for trouble

"You can't go in!" Yun Chang turned around to block Xu Dalan's way, and pushed her out the door, "I don't know you, my mother said she didn't have a family, and she also said that I didn't have a grandma or uncle. What kind of relative is your aunt?"

Xu Dalan was blocked, and she was not angry. Instead, she retreated to the gate with a smile and said in a loud voice:

"Yo! What do you know about this little girl? Wang Guihua didn't have her mother's family, and she popped out of a crack in the rocks? She ate the Wang's family's food for seventeen years, and now she is prosperous. How can there be such a beautiful thing in this world! You let her Wang Guihua come out and talk about it, she doesn't even go back to see the old lady during the festivals, isn't it unfilial?"

Xu Dalan spoke fast and hastily, his voice was loud and clear, and a few words were spread far and wide along the wind.

Yun Chang wanted to open her mouth to refute, but she felt that something was wrong in her heart, so she quickly closed her mouth, but fortunately Gu Shinian reminded her in time:

"A-shang, invite the guests in for a drink of hot water first."

Xu Dalan came to block the door early in the morning, and when she spoke, she deliberately raised her voice. It was obvious that she was here to cause trouble on purpose. This kind of person is not something that Yun Chang can handle. It is better to get in the door first and let the old Yun family have a headache. .

After all, no matter what purpose Xu Dalan had, or whether Widow Wang broke up with her family, Yunshang, as the daughter of Widow Wang, had a fight with Xu Dalan at the gate, and only Yunshang would suffer, and only the surrounding neighbors would suffer. see jokes.

Even if the two families have not been in contact for four or five years, as a junior, it is always a bad behavior to block the door and quarrel with the elders.

Besides, this is a matter of Widow Wang and the old Wang family. Yun Chang can't commit to being the wife of Wang Widow.

Yun Chang almost blindly trusted Gu Shinian. After listening to his words, she immediately stepped aside from the door and said with a smile:

"Auntie come in quickly. My mother is sick. She is very sick. Are you here to see my mother?"

Xu Dalan didn't expect that there were outsiders at home. She was still a half-sized boy. The smile on her face froze. She took two steps back and said with a smile:

"Oh, I don't dare to go in. Wang Guihua is so sick that she can't go out. I'm afraid I will get bad luck! Besides, Wang Guihua doesn't even recognize her mother, who knows who I am? If I enter the door, Wang Guihua will get angry. What if you give me another punch? I'd better be at the door."

Xu Dalan coughed again, and continued to shout in a loud voice:

"Wang Osmanthus! Hua'er! Come out and make it clear, do you recognize your mother? Your mother is starving to death, do you care or not? They all say that the bitch is ruthless, you Wang Guihua are more ruthless than the bitch..."

It's almost time to go to work. Every family is busy eating breakfast. A few neighbors next door heard Xu Dalan's noisy voice. .

Yun Chang also saw that Xu Dalan was deliberately looking for trouble at this time. If it was normal, she would not care who Widow Wang was arguing with.

Only today, it didn't work. At this moment, the widow Wang was lying on the kang and sleeping soundly, wearing a patient makeup on her face. If Xu Dalan entered the door, it would be good to say, but she didn't enter the door, she just scolded outside. If she scolded for a long time and Widow Wang kept her face, wouldn't she be exposed?

Moreover, what Xu Dalan scolded Widow Wang was too ugly. Although Widow Wang had a bad reputation, she didn't make it clear. If Xu Dalan made these words clear, it would be a hidden danger to Widow Wang.

"Auntie, my mother is really sick, she's confused, she can't hear you talking at the door, why don't you go back first and come back when my mother is sick? Or should I ask my grandfather and my milk to entertain you? "

Yun Chang said, and went out of the courtyard and walked directly to the direction of Lao Yun's house. Seeing this, Gu Shinian also turned around and walked into the house.

Where did Xu Dalan dare to see the people of the old Yun family, she quickly stopped Yun Chang, and sneered condescendingly:

"What? Want to move backers? Come and see my nephew daughter, everyone, Small mouth, can really say! It is said that the dragon gives birth to the dragon and the phoenix gives birth to the phoenix, and the son of the mouse can make a hole. What kind of person Wang Guihua is, we all know what kind of person this is Eight! Also, hiding in the closet every day and listening to the corner, can you learn it? Gee! At a young age, I knew that I was greedy for men, and I also learned from your mother to hide men at home. Girl Chang, come and tell my aunt, how does this man taste? "

When Xu Dalan said these words, she turned half her head to look at Gu Shinian, who walked into the main room, with a wretched smile on her malicious face, how ugly she looked.

When did Yun Chang hear such mean and explicit words, and his mind was stunned for a while, and he stood there, unable to recover for a long time.

She stood blankly on the only dirt road in the village leading to the outside of the village. The gates of several neighbors around her were full of people watching the excitement. On the road, there were also villagers who came to work one after another. Xu Dalan said it again and again. It was fast and loud, and the villagers could hear it clearly.

Some of the onlookers were older and could not be called daughters-in-law. They were like second-rate boys. After hearing Xu Dalan's words, they burst into laughter.

Yun Chang's face was pale with shame and anger, and his body was shaking for a while, and he could not wait to get into the crack of the ground.

In the confusion, as if a neighbor could not see, he stepped forward to speak for her:

"Xu Dalan, you are so angry that Wang Guihua smashed your house, go find her and smash it back! Bullying a 5-year-old child, do you feel guilty?"

"Girl Chang is your niece anyway. She just called you into the house to drink hot water. When the child calls your aunt, your face is not ashamed?"

"Then how the widow Wang usually treats children, who doesn't know about our neighboring villages? Your old Wang family's hearts are completely black, and they have harmed Dachuan, and they have changed the way to harm Dachuan's daughter, you really don't think the old Yun family people?"

"Xu Dalan, are you still shameless? If you find trouble with Widow Wang, then you will trouble Widow Wang. What are you doing, your Huo Huo Dachuan girl? Can you say that to a child?"

"This old Wang family's people are really black-hearted, and a whole house of bad embryos! Your niece is 10 years old. If girl Chang wants a man, has your niece been thinking about a man for 5 years?"

Gu Shinian also heard what Xu Dalan said, rushed into the room with a livid face, picked up the kitchen knife on the chopping board, took two steps, turned around and put it down again, rushed to the backyard and picked up the pole, with a gloomy face. out the door.

I first looked at Yun Chang who was standing on the side of the road and saw two women, one squatting and the other bending over to comfort her in a low voice, slightly relieved.

Looking at Xu Dalan again, I saw that she was being denounced by several women. She walked over to the crowd without saying a word, picked up the pole and hit Xu Dalan.
