Chapter 221 look away

When the dark green curtains were hung on the bedroom and the front and rear windows, Yun Chang couldn't help turning back and hugged Gu Shinian.

How could her second brother Gu have such a good eye!

The new house is so beautifully decorated!

Hanging to the ground, the large dark green curtains swaying gently in the wind echoes the dark marble bricks and white gauze curtains in the house. The whole tone is refreshing and heavy.

Obviously there is nothing too outrageous, but the whole room looks different.

Yun Shuilian and Yun Erchuan next to them both looked straight, glanced at the square table and wooden stools piled up in the living room, and suddenly felt that these things are not suitable for such a beautiful room.

Gu Shinian also felt that these old things were too annoying.

Since it is the living room, there should be a sofa and two old tables and broken stools, which will lower Ah Chang's taste and grade.

At the moment, I secretly decided to buy a house for Yun Shuilian tomorrow, and immediately move these unnecessary old furniture upstairs...

The next morning, Gu Shinian took Yunshang out for a walk early, and when he came back, there was a flatbed truck with six sacks on it.

Yun Shuilian was no longer surprised, and sent the confused Yun Erchuan to be the driver, and the group pulled a cart of grain to go through the transfer procedures for the other two rooms.

After the transaction was completed, Yun Chang felt that she had to thank Aunt Wu well.

Without Aunt Wu, they wouldn't be able to buy three houses that are next to each other and agree with each other.

He stuffed Aunt Wu with five kilograms of refined white noodles and twenty eggs prepared in advance, and told her to go to Xiaoyanglou to notify Lao Yun's house when she came across a cheap and good house.

There are still two children under Yun Erchuan. Taking advantage of a cheap opportunity, they have to get the children's household registration.

After leaving the housing management bureau, it was still the old way of going to the public security bureau next door to go through the household registration procedures.

This time, only Yun Shuilian's hukou was moved. Gu Shinian just went to school in the county and plans to move the hukou again next semester.

Back at Xiaoyanglou, a few people first cleaned up Yun Shuilian's room, then moved up the furniture that Yun Chang didn't need, and then went outside to buy two single beds. Yun Chang sponsored two sets of bedding, and the house was almost done. Can live.

After Yun Shuilian and Yun Erchuan moved up, Yunshang spent a long time shopping in the mall, pulled out two thin Simmons beds, and put them on the bed, neither too crowded nor too soft. Can't see any difference.

After setting up the house, Yunshang dragged Gu Shinian straight to the Fenyang Department Store and turned around, only to see a set of red-painted wooden sofa chairs, not even a soft buttocks sponge cushion.

Yun Chang went upstairs excitedly, and went downstairs dejectedly.

Gu Shinian couldn't see Yun Chang's appearance, so he lowered his head to coax her, "A Chang, go back and take you to the provincial capital, we will go to the provincial capital to buy you a sofa."

Yunshang consciously turned around in the space, shook his head, and whispered in Gu Shinian's ear, "Second brother Gu, there is a set of Chinese-style sofas in the library area on the seventh floor of the shopping mall, 90% new, with a wooden frame and beige cushions. Linen, I think it looks good in the living room!"

Gu Shinian thought about it for a while, then nodded, "Don't take it out for now, and look for a chance to pass the sofa for a while."

Yun Chang nodded, and immediately snapped her fingers again and said, "Second brother Gu, there is still a bathroom, the bathroom needs to be cleaned up, the toilet needs to be replaced, the cement table has to be smashed, and it is replaced with a ceramic one. By the way, there is one more piece to install. Mirror! There is also Aunt Yun, who also wants to get a mirror..."

"Ah Chang, the toilet can't be replaced for the time being, and Fenyang is out of stock." Seeing Yun Chang's small face drooping down again, Gu Shinian said with a smile, "But it's okay to put a mirror."

The two walked around outside, but they didn't buy anything. When they were about to get home, they found a place where no one was there, took out a bamboo basket from the space, and put a cabbage, a few potatoes, a pork belly, and a took more than ten eggs,

He carried it upstairs generously.

In the past few days, they have been busy with the transfer, moving, and tidying up the house, and none of them have made a good meal.

Today, Aunt Shuilian and Second Brother Gu's house have also been completed. Taking advantage of Yun Erchuan's presence, everyone has a lively meal in the evening, and it is considered a warm residence.

After entering the door, Yun Shuilian took the vegetable basket, grabbed a handful of dried vegetables and soaked them in the kitchen. After that, she got busy by herself.

Gu Shinian took Yun Chang and knocked on the door of the two families who helped Yun Chang move in the middle of the night last night, and invited them to come to the house for dinner later.

One is to thank them for helping them move, and the other is to inquire about the situation of each household in Xiaoyanglou, so that Yun Shuilian does not know the situation and is tricked by others.

The sky gradually darkened, and bowls of fragrant meals were brought out from the kitchen, and the fragrance spread far and wide along the corridor, attracting people from the first corridor to look sideways from time to time.

Seeing that Gu Shinian and Yun Chang invited others to eat at home, but did not invite her neighbor, the smile on Sister He's face who was cooking outside couldn't hold back.

Especially when Zhou Xiu followed the smell of the food and looked straight at the braised pork that Yun Chang had just stuffed into her mouth, as well as Gu Shinian who was standing at the door, Big Sister He turned cold.

Beating and beating, he covered the pot, took off his apron, went into the house and took the leather bag, grabbed Zhou Xiu and walked downstairs, "Go! Mom will take you to the restaurant to eat braised pork! What's the smell? Who can't seem to afford it? It's like braised pork!"

The voice was not loud, but it was enough for Yun Chang and Gu Shinian to hear clearly.

Yun Chang pouted, really wanted to reply: You can afford it! The whole small building is the only place where your family can afford braised pork! If you have the ability, you can eat three meals a day and eat braised pork in a restaurant thirty days a month!

Gu Shinian rubbed Yunshang's bulging cheeks in a funny way, and before she could speak, Sister He opened the door again, and a thin voice with a little choking said:

"Gu, Brother Gu, my mother has a bad temper. I apologize to you on her behalf."

Yun Chang's brows immediately wrinkled, she stuck her head out from behind Gu Shinian, and looked at Gu Shinian's second girl, who flinched but bravely raised her head.

It could be seen that she was indeed very nervous and excited, and her body trembled unknowingly, and those eyes that were originally godless and cowardly became bright and firm at this time.

If you look closely, there is still a touch of complicated emotions that are difficult to decipher.

If you ignore the blue and purple scars on her face, there is quite the smell of a weak and tough little Hundred Flowers.

Yun Chang could see at a glance what Erya was playing, she bit her cheeks and gritted her teeth in the back.

Made!

Look away!

Dramatic! Proper drama!

I'm only eight years old, so I know how to play tricks and seduce people, and I don't even look at your Dalmatian face, my second brother Gu doesn't look down on you!

Gu Shinian also frowned, his eyes swept across Er Ya, as if he swept over a lifeless stone, his eyes were calm and unwavering.

Chapter 222: Building Chief's Points

"I only have one sister, Ah Chang."

Yun Chang almost burst out laughing, and remembered the various women who rushed to Gu Erge in the last life.

There are all kinds of women who need appearance, temperament, body, and means, sexy, weak, pure, heroic, and all kinds of women, none of them can approach Gu Erge.

As far as Erya's stunted and nondescript little white flower looks like, how can Gu Erge see it.

Yunshang noticed that Erya's eyes suddenly darkened, and there were faint tears in her eyes. She looked at Shang Yunshang with a playful look, lowered her head uncomfortably, and said in a low voice, "Comrade Gu. I'm sorry", and then retreated into the room like a gray mouse.

Seeing Yun Chang enduring a smile, the corners of his mouth twitched, Gu Shinian was speechless for a while, grabbed her braid and asked, "So funny?"

Yun Chang raised her hand to protect Chaotian Braid, and quickly shook her head in denial, "It's not funny! I just think Erya is quite familiar."

What a joke!

If Gu Erge knew that he was laughing at him, he would have to be beaten again.

He didn't do that much in the last life.

"Stay away from these two girls in the future. The older ones have no brains and will only play tricks. The younger ones look pitiful, but have a lot of hearts. I moved you last night, and the younger ones should be lying on the window and peeking at them. Most of the day."

Yun Chang: "... " Why doesn't she know about this?

This dude is really a bit...indescribable.

Yun Shuilian brought out the cooked food and filled a table in the living room. The two invited families also came, and they were all very knowledgeable. Only the hostess and the hostess came with gifts, but not children. child.

Everyone sat around the table in a lively circle, eating and chatting while eating, which meant that the guests and the host were enjoying themselves.

Through the conversation, Yunshang knew that the couple, who were in their forties, were both cadres. The man's surname was Lin and he worked in the city's propaganda department, while the woman's surname was Ren and he worked in the Women's Federation.

This family lives in Room 4 on the second floor, and acts as the head of the building in the Xiaoyang Building. If there is anything on the street, the clerk will usually notify everyone, and the food stamps issued every month will be given by the clerk Ren. Bring it back to distribute.

It can be said that the couple's status in Xiaoyanglou is very important.

Another couple, about thirty-five or sixteen years old, the man surnamed Huang, is a doctor in the hospital, and the woman, surnamed Li, is a nurse. The family lives in room six.

These four people have very straight eyes and are very enthusiastic, especially Ren Shuilian, who knows that Yun Shuilian is a high school student and is not married yet, so they don't even care about eating, they hold Yun Shuilian's hand and talk a lot about Xiaoyang. The situation of the families in the building, especially those with young men who are ready for marriage, is even more important to mention.

For example, some boy is not too young, it is time to find a partner, but because the family has too many people, there are a series of younger siblings, the family has a heavy burden, and there is no place to live, so they want to find a partner who has a house to marry...

For example, which boy has a good face and a sweet mouth, but has never gone to school, is in his twenties, and has never had a formal job...

Another example, which boy just went to work in the government this year, the job is good, the growth is good, that is, there are many elders in the family, and they are a little spoiled...

Through these tips, Yun Chang marked the people who could not be dealt with in the small building one by one, prepared to guard against it, and told Yun Shuilian to stay away from these fire pits, but not to give these people a chance to come over.

After finally waiting for Sister Ren to stop talking, Yun Chang blinked her big eyes again and asked innocently:

"Officer Ren, today Auntie He next door asked me to play with her Zhou Xiu, but she ignored me at night, and said that my house stinks and shows off, can I play with Sister Zhou Xiu and Sister Erya in the future? ?"

Yun Shuilian looked embarrassed and said with a dry smile, "Officer Ren, Big Sister He should see that we didn't invite her over for dinner,

I'm not happy... Ke Lin and Dr. Huang helped us move last night, it's different..."

"I know." Officer Ren patted Yun Shuilian's hand, "it's right if you don't invite her, now the food is in short supply, and everyone lacks a bite to eat. If Xiao Li Jiner and I hadn't come to recognize the door, we couldn't be cheeky. Come and eat your meal for nothing."

Yun Chang interjected in a timely manner, "But Director Ren and Aunt Li Nurse have brought me delicious food. Aunt He seems to be unhappy because I didn't give Sister Zhou Xiu something delicious."

Sister Ren couldn't help laughing out loud, "Little girl is a ghost, she knows everything in her heart!"

Seeing that everyone stopped talking, Sister Ren continued, "Comrade He Aidang works in the printing factory and is a worker. Her family, Lao Zhou, works at the grain station. He is honest and respects Comrade He Aidang. The relationship between the mother-in-law is not good, and Lao Zhou is often caught in the middle.

There are two daughters and a boy in front of the couple. The second daughter... is Er Ya, not the child of the Zhou family, but was brought back for adoption by Comrade He Aidang.

In a word, the affairs of the old Zhou family are quite complicated... Everyone will live in the same building in the future. If you really don't meet the eye, you can just get along with ordinary neighbors. This is what the original family of this room did before they moved out. . "

Yun Chang listened, and gave Sister Ren a thumbs up in her heart.

As expected of a member of the Women's Federation, he speaks beautifully and succinctly. He doesn't speak ill of people, but he can briefly point out which family members have advantages and which family members are not worthy of friendship.

For example, the person who wants to find someone who has a house is a fire pit. If he really wants to enter that house, he will earn wages and support the man's family in the future.

For example, the person who has never been to school and has not yet worked in his twenties, although the director did not say it clearly, he also led everyone's thinking to the word "blind liuzi".

There is also a person who has a good job, many elders, and is spoiled. Such a person is not a mother and a boy, or a bad temper, and cannot be married.

Then there is the matter of Sister He's family. In just a few words, the family status of Sister He is pointed out. It is the master who works against her mother-in-law at home. Her man is afraid of his wife and dare not care!

Erya was adopted. She wore a little shabby clothes, ate less, and no one said anything. Life was hard these days, and Erya didn't starve to death, which was considered good.

This reminder from Director Ren is really concise and to the point, but it is very accurate!

And it can be said that there is nothing to say, nothing to say.

There is also Nurse Li, Director Ren talked about the things in the building, and Nurse Li was also beside him to help add some short things about the parents. Although there were not many words, the meaning of the points was obvious.

Yun Chang felt that these two couples were really good people.

It wasn't just the two people who were woken up by the sound of moving last night, but they were the only ones who could get up from the bed in the middle of the night and come out to help.

Chapter 223: Go to work at the Women's Federation

Officer Ren and Nurse Li are obviously very enthusiastic people. Not only did they not stop her husband from helping out in the middle of the night, but they also took the initiative to come over to mention new neighbors today.

Thinking that the two couples came here without children and brought her gifts, Yunshang suddenly felt that the return of gifts was so small that I was sorry for the integrity and enthusiasm of the two families.

Therefore, as soon as the meal was over, Yun Chang hid in the room and wrapped two packets of toffee in oil paper, and sent Yun Shuilian to stuff it to Director Ren and Nurse Li, to be sweet to the children of the two families.

This made the smiles on the faces of Officer Ren and Nurse Li thicker.

It's not that they are greedy for gifts, but that they feel that the new neighbor is a caring person, and their kindness is appreciated by each other.

Seeing that they were about to go out, Director Ren turned around again and asked Yun Shuilian, "Comrade Xiaoyun, there are still several months before the aluminum plant is recruited. You are a high school student and you are educated. It's a pity to be idle at home. Don't you go to the Women's Federation to exercise for a few months?"

Yun Shuilian was stunned for a moment, then her eyes lit up, and she nodded her head in agreement, "Secretary Ren, thank you, I will work hard when I arrive at the Women's Federation, and I will definitely not embarrass you!"

Officer Ren waved his hand, "We all serve the people. As long as we are worthy of the people, there is nothing to be ashamed of. But you have passed, you must have no staff, only wages, no benefits..."

"As an officer, I don't want to make a staff, as long as I can participate in the work and urge me to make progress."

Yun Shuilian's excited eyes turned red.

Temporary workers are temporary workers. The earlier you earn money, the earlier you can return the money for buying a house to Comrade Gu Xiao.

Besides, how hard is the establishment of the Women's Federation? She doesn't have much to ask for, so how can she expect to become an official staff member of the Women's Federation.

Moreover, the aluminum factory will be recruiting workers in a few months. At that time, she can also enter the aluminum factory as a regular worker.

Seeing that Yun Shuilian was so excited, Sister Ren immediately felt that this little comrade was really good, she was motivated, and she was quiet, and she looked like a good and down-to-earth girl.

She is willing to draw such a good girl with culture, high quality and gratitude.

"Okay, since you're willing to work in the Women's Federation, I'll call you before going to work tomorrow."

Yun Shuilian nodded again and again, then pointed upstairs and said, "Officer Ren, my own house is in Room No. 1 on the third floor. What time will I go to work tomorrow, I'll just wait for you downstairs in advance."

Manager Ren was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "Okay, then I won't go up and call you tomorrow, we will meet downstairs at 7:20."

Yun Chang didn't expect that she just invited the neighbor who helped move the house to have a meal, and even gave Yun Shuilian a chance to work as a temporary worker in the Women's Federation.

This is the Women's Federation!

The most authoritative unit of this era!

Omg!

The pie is really falling from the sky, fragrant and sweet pie!

Seeing that Yun Shuilian was so excited that she wiped away her tears, Yun Chang hurried back to her room, consciously entering the shopping mall and tumbling for a long time, she found a nostalgic alarm clock, ready to give Yun Shuilian as an entry gift.

After the two families left, Yun Shuilian neatly tidy up the kitchen, boiled hot water, urged Yun Chang to soak her feet, and then held the new alarm clock and went back upstairs with Yun Erchuan.

The sun rose from the sky, and the golden light shone on the bed, as if it had plated a layer of golden light on the sleeping clouds.

With the crisp knock on the door, Yun Chang raised his hand to block the dazzling light, turned over, and opened his eyes lazily.

Someone was cooking breakfast in the corridor, and the pots and pans collided, making a jingling sound. I don't know which one is eating small wontons. of gluttons.

Glancing at the watch on the bedside, it was already eight o'clock. Too lazy to go to the cold and dark bathroom to wash up, Yun Chang simply went into the space to brush her teeth and wash her face, changed her clothes, and went straight out to find something for Gu Shinian to eat.

in the living room,

On the table were a few deep-fried fried dough sticks, two bowls of steaming white porridge, and a small plate of pickles beside it.

Gu Shinian was drinking porridge when he saw Yun Chang had done it, and pushed the fried dough sticks over, "The fried dough sticks taste good. Second Uncle Yun bought Aunt Yun when he returned from work. It is still hot."

"Didn't Auntie go with Director Ren?"

"Well, Uncle Yun was worried. He went to the Women's Federation to take a look. Just now, he came to deliver fried dough sticks. He said that the Women's Federation was very lively. Three women were sitting at the door crying early in the morning."

"..."

Thinking of the working environment and work nature of the Women's Federation, Yun Chang suddenly felt that Yun Shuilian was a good temporary job, and it was the right way.

I have been exercising in the Women's Federation for a few months, I have seen and experienced wonderful people and things, and I have learned more about being an officer. Even a little white rabbit's temperament can be sharpened.

"Second brother Gu, let's go out and buy a stove for aunt today! Let's buy another small pot. If I go back to the village to live in the future, aunt Yun won't have to sleep on it, but will eat below."

"Okay, I've added the things that should be added in Aunt Yun's house today, and we'll go back tomorrow."

Gu Shinian swallowed the fried dough sticks in his mouth, and continued, "I called the capital a few days ago and told the third grandpa that I will not go to the capital for the time being, and I will wait until the summer vacation."

Yun Chang immediately raised her head and looked at Gu Shinian with shining eyes.

"Don't worry, I will take you with me." Gu Shinian smiled.

After breakfast, the two went upstairs for a circle, Yun Erchuan was installing a kitchen for Yun Shuilian and tidying up the house.

Gu Shinian took a closer look in Yun Shuilian's room, wrote down the missing items on a piece of paper, and took Yun Chang around the city again to make a big purchase.

When Yun Shuilian came back from work on the first day, the room had changed a lot.

A kitchen with a door was installed in the corridor, with a brand-new iron stove and a brand-new iron pot on it.

A square table was placed beside the stove with a chopping board and oil, salt, sauce and vinegar. Under the square table were neatly placed briquettes, totaling two hundred pieces.

Curtains were also hung in the house. The original owner used wooden boards to separate the four rooms into three. He also pulled out a window on the wall for light and ventilation.

On the table in the living room are a new thermos, a new tea jar, and a stack of delicate and white dishes.

In the master bedroom, there is a large cabinet with a bright mirror inlaid on it. There is a desk and a chair by the window. There are face creams that have not been opened on the table, and two new fabrics and a pair of new leather shoes are placed on the bed.

The smallest side house was temporarily used as a warehouse, and there were a bag of cornmeal, a small bag of corn ballast, ten kilograms of refined white noodles, and several bundles of dried noodles on the table. There were all kinds of dried vegetables in the basket next to it, and two pieces of bacon were hung. Under the table were more than a dozen tender and raw Chinese cabbage, and half a bag of white radishes.

Yun Shuilian was stunned, and after asking Yun Erchuan, she realized that these things were the work of Gu Shinian and Yun Chang.

Chapter 224 I don't want grandma's sister-in-law

Yun Shuilian was about to go downstairs to ask how much the two of them spent, when Yun Erchuan frowned and said, "Shuilian, we owe Shang Nan and Comrade Gu Xiao a lot of love, how can we pay it back in the future? I can't enter the aluminum factory, and I can't be a worker, isn't this kind of favor not worth it?"

Yun Shuilian: "... " I was so moved that I lost my anger, what should I do now that I just want to hate my second brother?

"Why can't you pay it back? If you take good care of Sang Nan in the future, you will pay back the favor!"

Yun Erchuan had a bitter face again.

He wanted to take care of Yunshang, but Gu Shinian arranged Yunshang's affairs properly, he just wanted to take care of it, but he couldn't get involved.

Rubbing his face, he sighed and said, "Shuilian, I have finished tidying up Comrade Gu Xiao's house today. You have settled down here and have a job. I will go back with Changnan and the others tomorrow... ..."

"Shangnan is going back too?"

"Well, Chang Nan said that this time I came here mainly to settle you. Once you settle down, she can go back to accompany our father and our mother, Wang Guihua, and Comrade Gu Xiao."

Seeing Yun Shuilian's reluctance, Yun Erchuan continued, "This time, Chang Nan moved, and what she moved was what she brought back from the provincial capital. Wang Guihua's dowry box and cage did not move at all."

Yun Shuilian nodded, "Shangnan is fine, Comrade Gu Xiao has to go back to school in the county, I have to go to work during the day, and there is only one at home, so eating is a problem.

When I went back, I had the pretense of supplying food in the city, and my mother and father took care of her, even if she ate meat every day, she didn't give a shit. It's not like in the city, there are people who gossip in a sour way after a warm meal. "

Yun Erchuan glanced outside the door, lowered his voice and asked, "You can see that too?"

Yun Shuilian was confused when asked, "What do you see?"

"Don't you see that Comrade Gu Xiao has an extraordinary origin?" Yun Erchuan winked awkwardly, "With so many good things, Comrade Gu Xiao said that he would buy them. How about industrial tickets for young and old! Besides, this is in Fenyang, people who are not familiar with the place of life, Comrade Gu Xiao can get a thousand catties of grain in two days, this is not an ordinary skill!"

Yun Shuilian was silent for a while, her mouth moved, and finally she lowered her voice and said, "I'll tell you something, you can know what you have in mind, but don't be fooled around."

When Yun Erchuan heard the words, he immediately sat up straight and put on a posture of listening intently.

"On the day we went to Uncle Han's house during the Chinese New Year, I went to comrade Gu Xiao's house to pick up Sang Nan, as if I heard Comrade Gu Xiao's sister say that the Gu family's family is in the capital, and it seems that several members of the family are high-ranking officials. Comrade Gu Xiao planned to visit relatives in the capital this year. Yes, something happened later.

Second brother, high officials in the capital, even high-ranking officials in the province can't flatter... As long as the family cares about Comrade Gu Xiao, Comrade Gu Xiao will not lack these rare things. "

Yun Erchuan opened his mouth wide and nodded, "It turns out that Comrade Gu Xiao has such a thick leg behind him, no wonder... Shui Lian, don't tell anyone about this, Comrade Gu Xiao spends too much money, if it spreads out, maybe someone will gossip."

Comrade Gu Xiao, who has no reason to carry a big hand, is looking at Yun Chang with a smile, "Ah Chang, make it clear, what is Erya can be my grandmother?"

With a small face, Yunshang said solemnly, "I'm not wrong, you calculate your original birth date, and then calculate Erya's birth date, can she be your grandmother?"

Gu Shinian: "... " Suddenly I can't look directly at my peers in this world.

Yunshang was surprised again, "Second brother, if Erya tries to get close to you in the future, you should hide away and ignore her. I don't want to find a grandma's sister-in-law!" Find someone who is like-minded, has a son and a son, has good talent, good temperament, and most importantly, a sister-in-law who is also kind to her!

Hearing this fallacy, Gu Shinian almost couldn't help laughing out loud.

But after laughing,

He actually felt that this crooked theory was very reasonable.

Gu Shinian suddenly had a bad premonition in his heart. If he can't forget Yun Chang's fallacious words in the future, isn't there a danger of being a bachelor in this life?

When I meet a girl of the same age, I want to call my grandma, how can I find a daughter-in-law?

Seeing that Gu Shinian's expression turned petrified, Yun Chang patted his arm sympathetically, let out a long sigh, and shook his head back to the room to sleep.

While lying on the bed, he secretly made up his mind that he must be on guard, dig holes every day, and not give a chance to a woman with bad intentions to get close to second brother Gu.

If anyone dares to attack the second brother Gu, she will chop whoever's hand with a knife!

Gu Shinian was about to go upstairs to call Yun Erchuan to the bus station, but before he went out, he heard a loud noise from outside.

Looking sideways, Yun Chang was like an old hen protecting her cubs, blocking the door with her arms outstretched, looking at Zhou Xiu fiercely.

"Second brother Gu is a boy, you girls don't want to play with girls, why do you want to play with my second brother Gu?"

Taking advantage of her height, Zhou Xiu tilted Yunshang from top to bottom, "Humph! Don't think I don't know, Brother Gu bought a lot of things for your house yesterday, delicious food, curtains, stoves, all of which are made by Brother Gu. I bought it with money! You are coaxing Brother Gu with his money, I have to tell Brother Gu not to let him be deceived!"

She was originally a poor and sour girl from the countryside, wearing sweaters bought in Shenshi, leather shoes bought in Shenshi, and pretending to be like a baby in a big cadre family, why can't she kill her?

Didn't they all buy it from Gu Shinian?

Hmph, the wild girl in the country can coax Gu Shinian to buy so many good things, she is a city girl, she can definitely coax Gu Shinian to buy her beautiful clothes!

Yun Chang rolled her eyes and deliberately poked Zhou Xiu's lung tube, "I'm so smart and cute, so well-behaved and beautiful, my second brother Gu said, he is willing to spend money for me, he is willing to buy me delicious food, give it to me Buy new clothes, buy me fun! What are you going to do?"

Zhou Xiu was stunned by Yun Chang's thick skin, pointed at Yun Chang's nose, and finally made a "wow" and ran home crying.

Yunshang is stunned, just this little fighting power?

This is also not a sense of achievement.

He pouted his lips boringly, like a little rooster who had won a fight, raised his head, and clicked into the house.

Gu Shinian tried his best to suppress the corners of his upturned mouth and waved to Yun Chang.

Yun Chang ran over quickly, "Second brother Gu, today another grandma's sister is coming to play with you." No, it's the grandma's sister who wants to hook up with you!

"Well, wasn't it driven away by you?"

Yunshang said with a serious face, "Second brother Gu, I think this matter is serious, Zhou Xiu is still young, no one will say anything, but in two years, Zhou Xiu will be punished by others. Pull the one who wears a tall hat, and you will be implicated then! And I think that Erya provoked Zhou Xiu about this matter today."

Chapter 225 Im going to be kissed bald!

Gu Shinian held back a smile and continued to ask, "Why do you say that?"

"Yesterday was not the weekend, Zhou Xiu is going to school! When we were moving things yesterday, Erya was sweeping the corridor. If it wasn't for what Erya said, how could Zhou Xiu know what our family bought, and still insist that I was there. Spend your money? Which adult can make up such nonsense?"

Gu Shinian touched Yunshang's head, "Since you know that sister is not a good person, stay away from them in the future."

Seeing Yunshang still staring at her eyes angrily, Gu Shinian's heart was blessed, and she immediately continued, "I will also stay far away from them."

Yun Chang smiled with satisfaction.

But when she thought of being a neighbor with such a family in the future, the corners of Yun Chang's lips drooped down again.

Just like Sister He, she also describes herself as a cultural person in the city. The quality is far worse than that of Aunt Li next door to Widow Wang's house.

Although Aunt Li is illiterate and gossips a bit, she is not bad-hearted, she doesn't speak bitter words in front of her face, and she doesn't slap a child's face, she is much stronger than Sister He.

It's no wonder that Director Ren will directly say that it's fine to treat Sister He's family as ordinary neighbors. This is because he already knew the temperament of Sister He's family.

"A-shang, it's getting late, hurry up and pack up, and I'll have to drive back later."

Yun Chang responded and watched her small package neatly.

The car swayed and parked in Qinghe County. After a few people got off the car, Gu Shinian went home directly, while Yun Chang followed Yun Erchuan to the mule cart back to town.

The sun slanted west, and it was time for work, and the villagers came back from the fields carrying agricultural tools in twos and threes.

Seeing Yun Erchuan holding Yunshang on his shoulders and striding towards the village, the old and young people on the road crowded around them and asked in vain:

"Er Chuan, why did I hear that Shuilian has become a native of Fenyang City?"

"Yes, I heard the three boys and Gouwa say that Chang girl is also from the city, so she has taken the red book! You said that you can eat the food supplied by the city in the future?"

"Er Chuan, your father said that Girl Chang's house was bought by a comrade who came to the provincial capital last time. She said that Girl Chang recognized her aunt. It's good that this relative recognizes her!"

"Oh, that's amazing, Lao Yun's family has two people from the city all at once, and they can't all come to the city to become workers in the future?"

"If you want me to say, it's because Shuilian didn't get married last time. If she was married to the county as a worker, how could she catch up with this good thing!"

"No, Erchuan, tell us quickly, what is Fenyang City like?"

Everyone, you said every word, and asked lively.

Yun Erchuan smiled and did not speak, secretly proud in his heart: where is this, if I let you guys know, I can also become a city person, and your eyes will not fall off!

Yun Chang raised her hand and brushed Yun Erchuan's hair, "Second uncle, stop and talk to the big guy."

"That's right! It's all at the gate of the village. Don't be in a hurry to go home. Let's talk about Fenyang City first, so that everyone can open their eyes!"

Yun Erchuan stopped, no longer pretending to be calm, grinning, and saying something back to everyone.

"Yes, my family's Shuilian household registration has been moved to Fenyang City, and I will be Fenyang people from now on."

"No, no matter how young my family is, I can receive two catties of fine grains every month! I can also receive more than ten catties of coarse grains! There are also oil, briquettes, various bills, and more than a dozen kinds of bills!"

Someone interjected, "Er Chuan, I can't see it, your family still has a little background. If you say that you enter the city, you will enter the city, and there is no news about it before."

Yun Erchuan shook his head, "Hey, what can I have in my family? It was the aunt from the provincial capital of Changnan who loved Changnan. She was afraid that she would be hungry, so she bought a house in the city. She was worried that no one would take care of her, so she took the care of Changnan. My family's Shuilian's household registration has also been released, after this, Shuilian will still have to earn wages to cover her aunt's famine!"

Yun Chang immediately nodded and interjected, "That's right,

My aunt now owes Aunt Lin several hundred yuan, and I also owe my old man more rations. But my aunt has gone to work in the Fenyang Women's Federation, and I can earn wages, and there will definitely be a famine in the future! "

What? Yun Shuilian has a job as soon as she entered the city?

My god, this speed is faster than a car!

For a moment, everyone on the scene looked at Yun Chang with fiery eyes.

This is a real money string!

It's really good to pull benefits at home!

When I went out to recognize my godfather, I coaxed my godfather to buy a house, and also got Yun Shuilian's household registration out, and helped me find a good job!

Really... Raising such a girl is more effective than raising ten sons!

Why can't their family raise such a mature girl?

Is it possible to learn from the widow Wang, first to spar with the child for a few years, and then let the child's grandparents hold the child's grandparents in the palm of their hands as eyeballs and kiss?

But no matter how close they are, where do they go to meet the nobles in the provincial capital?

Aunt Li was the first to react, stepped forward and grabbed Yun Chang from Yun Erchuan's shoulder, hugged her in her arms and kissed:

"Quick! Girl Chang, let my aunt kiss me and feel happy!"

"Come on, let me hug the girl too! Kiss and kiss, maybe tomorrow you'll be able to recognize the sect and be good at kissing!"

"Don't squeeze, let me hug first!"

"Slow down, don't squeeze the girl!"

Yun Chang was about to cry.

I only felt that my small body was taken over in the air and handed out, and I didn't know how many hands I had to turn before finally returning to Yun Erchuan's arms.

Raising his hand to wipe the saliva from his face, he was afraid for a while.

Oh my god, these women are so fierce!

When she came up to kiss, her little tender face was about to be kissed bald.

If I knew earlier, I wouldn't let Yun Erchuan stop to answer the question.

Seeing that the corners of Yunshang's mouth were drooping under her chin, Aunt Li laughed happily and asked Yunshang:

"Girl Chang, what does the Women's Federation do? What can your aunt manage in the future?"

"You can manage anything!" Yun Chang proudly raised her head, "It's so small that she quarrels with her family, fights, or is bullied at work. As long as it's about women and comrades, no matter what your status, the Women's Federation can handle it!"

"Yeah! So, if we have anything in the future, it will work if we ask Shuilian?"

When Yun Chang heard this, he secretly thought of something bad.

If these women went to Yun Shuilian whenever they had an issue, her Aunt Shuilian would not have a happy birthday when she returned to the village.

Thinking of this, Yunshang immediately said loudly, "No, my aunt works in the Fenyang Women's Federation, and I care about the women comrades in Fenyang. The women comrades in our village belong to the women's federation in the town. What happens in the future, Let's find the women's federation in town to call the shots."

After saying this, Yun Chang didn't dare to stay any longer, and pulled Yun Erchuan's arm, motioning him to take him home quickly.

When the two finally squeezed out of the crowd, they could still hear the voice of the woman behind:

"Girl Chang, I'll be waiting at home tomorrow, and let my Chunya take you to the river to dig for shepherd's purse!"

"Yes, and my family Cao'er, let Cao'er take you to the foot of the mountain to see the apricot blossoms."

"And my two daughters, let's go too!"

"..."

Chapter 226

Yunshang reacted with hindsight, these women are willing to let their children play with her?

Over the years, the original owner was forced to be mute by Widow Wang, and she also carried the reputation of being bad for her father's life. In addition, Widow Wang's own reputation was not good. As a result, the villagers did not allow children to play with the original owner.

Even if there are children close to the original owner on weekdays, it is mostly fun to make fun of the original owner.

I didn't expect to buy a house in the city, these people didn't think she was bad, and they rushed to push their children to her side.

snort! Is she such a casual person to play with?

She is a big kid and a person who does big things!

Can you be like those little brats, wiping your nose all day long and running around in the village?

However, going to the river to dig for wild vegetables, and going to the foot of the mountain to see the apricot blossoms should be... quite interesting, right?

Yun Erchuan didn't know what Yun Chang was tangled up in, resisting Yun Chang, rushing home all the way, and as soon as he entered the door, he shouted at the old couple and Shuanzi, and ran straight into the house.

The old lady caught a glimpse of Yun Erchuan's excited red face in the room, and smashed the broom in her hand, "What are you doing in such a hurry? Don't drop my dress!"

Yun Erchuan hurriedly stopped, smiled ingratiatingly, put down Yunshang, and walked towards the house at a slower pace.

The old lady came out with her little feet up and hugged Yunshang, "Ouch, my baby girl, I haven't seen you for a few days, but I want to die!"

"Honey, I miss you too! I miss my grandfather and Shuanzi! I'll bring you some delicious food!"

As soon as Yunshang pulled the old lady into the room, the bolt slid down from the kang, pulled Yunshang's skirt, and stuffed a small portion of the apple in her mouth into her mouth.

The old lady was amused, and said to Yun Erchuan, who was following the door, "Shuanzi has been thinking about her clothes these days, and yesterday she took me to the Qiancun. She didn't look at her, and her mouth was drooping for a long time. ."

Yun Erchuan nodded indiscriminately, pressed the corners of his mouth that were constantly upturned, pulled the old lady to sit down on the head of the kang, and said hurriedly:

"Mother! Fenyang is all set up! The Yunshang House is so beautiful, and the Shuilian House is also finished. We Shuilian also go to work at the Women's Federation!"

"What?" The old lady was startled, "Where did you say Shuilian went to work?"

"Women's Federation! Fenyang Women's Federation, I sent Shuilian to work yesterday to take a look. The unit of the Women's Federation is very good. It works in Xiaoyang Building on the second floor. We Shuilian are high school students. "

"Second uncle, my aunt is for registration and records. Whoever came to complain, how to solve it, my aunt has to do registration."

"That's right, that's it for registration! That job can be easy, just sit there and move the pen. Mother, you haven't seen it, the women's federation is so powerful, they can manage everything, let's take care of our little people, come on The daughter-in-law of the leader, as long as she is a lesbian, will be managed by the Women's Federation."

The old lady was more and more surprised, "Is it so powerful?"

Yun Erchuan nodded excitedly, "That's still fake? What Chang Nan said!"

Yun Chang: "... " Why didn't I know I said this?

So, second uncle, how did you think of it?

You still want my aunt to manage the daughter-in-law of the great leader, can my aunt manage it?

Why didn't I find out that Yun Erchuan still has the problem of talking big?

Oh my god, brain supplementation is a disease that needs to be cured!

Yun Chang took a deep breath, "Honey, the Women's Federation is not easy to enter, and there is no establishment. My aunt is now a temporary worker. After a few months, I will still be recruiting for the aluminum factory."

"Temporary workers are temporary workers, and it's better to have a job than to be idle at home." The old lady's eyes filled with tears of joy, she stabbed Yun Erchuan, and then asked, "Er Chuan, tell your mother what the house is. Like, have you cleaned it up?"

"It's done. I didn't do anything, just nailed a big wooden box for briquettes, nailed the kitchen door, and the rest were taken care of by Comrade Gu Xiao, and it looked beautiful."

Yun Chang nodded on the side, "Nurse, I live in a building,

The house is fine, we will go to Fenyang in a few days, you live in my house! "

"Okay, milk is also in the light of my clothes, go to live in a building! Ouch, milk has not lived in vain in this life!"

The old lady hugged Yun Chang and had a good kiss.

Seeing that the time was almost up, he sent Yun Erchuan to grab firewood and set it on fire, and went out to scoop up the white noodles, ready to make hand-rolled noodles for Yun Chang to eat.

Yun Chang sat on the head of the kang, glanced at the dark blue sky, and asked the old lady, "Mother, where is my grandfather?"

The old lady sighed, "Take your mother to Xiaowangzhuang with the village chief. The old Wang's family promised to give food after the new year, but they have never given it. No, it's time to collect debts."

When Yun Chang heard this, her brows also wrinkled, "Milk, now every household in the village is short of food, can Lao Wang's family provide food?"

"The old Wang family is strong and hard-working. Last year, they earned a lot of centimeters. They have no food and can still give money, but they can't let them default on their debts."

Yun Chang nodded, and continued to ask, "Mother, has anyone kissed my aunt in the past two days?"

The old lady's face turned dark, and she said angrily: "Your aunt didn't get married last time, the old ladies in the village saw Tian'er gossiping about your aunt, saying that your aunt and your mother died... It's good that no one proposes marriage, you Gu is now from the city and works in the Women's Federation, so we don't think it's uncommon for them to propose marriage!"

Yun Chang originally wanted to find out what the old lady said, to see if Comrade Zhang Shouyi came to look for Yun Shuilian, but now it seems that Zhang Shouyi hasn't come yet.

However, maybe Zhang Shouyi gave up Yun Shuilian completely.

Gee! man!

When the old man brought Widow Wang back from Xiaowangzhuang, the sky was completely dark.

Entering the main room, seeing Yunshang sitting on the head of the kang and playing with Shuanzi, the old man was pleasantly surprised, and quickly took out the fifty dollars that was still not warm in his pocket and stuffed it into Yunshang's hands.

"Shangnan, this is what Lao Wang's family gave your mother for half a year. Twenty yuan is the agreed annual cost, and thirty yuan is worth fifty catties of ration."

"Hey, the village chief said that now the black market grain has risen again, and coarse grains are sold for one piece... It's useless."

The old man said, with a bit of bitterness on his face, and an unbearable look flashed in his eyes.

Yun Chang knew it in his heart.

Xinglin Village bought 10,000 catties of grain a year ago, which allowed the villagers to make do with it for two months, until March, but there was no way to get grain in the surrounding villages, and many people suffered from edema.

The old Wang family has ten mouths, big and small. There are strong men and half-sized boys. Where is the food in the family enough to eat?

In addition, Wang Lao Er and Anna Mae Ju are going to split up, so it's not the time for chaos.

To get the money, the old man and the village chief probably spent a lot of time talking.

Yun Chang put fifty dollars in her pocket and looked at Widow Wang again, and saw that she was holding the chicken trough, sitting quietly on the bench, staring straight at the tableware and chopsticks on the chopping board, swallowing from time to time.

"Master, the old Wang family didn't feed my mother?"

Mrs. Wang loves Widow Wang too much. This time, when the girl returns to her parents' home, shouldn't she not even take care of the meal?

Chapter 227

The old man sighed and shook his head, "Old Wang's family is in a mess. Who cares about your mother? It was right that we didn't let your mother go back. At least there is food to eat, and we don't look at people's faces to live."

As soon as the old lady heard that the two were still hungry, she quickly moved out of the kang table, brought the warm noodles, and let the two eat first.

Widow Wang ate a bowl of noodles, and after a few mouthfuls, she went down to her stomach, and then stared straight at the old man's rice bowl. Seeing this, Yun Chang quickly asked the old lady to take two more nests, lest Widow Wang directly grab the old man's dinner. .

"Oh, what a sin."

The old lady sighed, took two wowotou, and stuffed them into Widow Wang's hands.

"Tell me about you, I saw Tian'er's sparring with Changnan before, but this time it's good, I just got a madness and dragged me down. How much ration I have in a month, I still have to support you... oh, you said Why were you so cruel in the first place, tossing my granddaughter in a different way?"

Yun Chang also looked at Widow Wang with a headache. How long will she have to raise such a big Buddha?

If the medicine is stopped, can Widow Wang live her life honestly and stop tossing after her consciousness is sober?

Seeing that Widow Wang finished eating the wowtou, she was sitting on the side with the chicken trough again, and Yun Chang was also carrying her coat to get off the kang, saying goodbye to the old couple:

"Master, milk, it's getting late. I'll take my mother back to the former village to sleep."

"Okay, Daijin'er also goes to bed in the village!" The old lady immediately slipped off the kang and dragged Widow Wang out, "Your grandfather and your second uncle will sleep in the village in the back. By the way, Erchuan, remember to bring it to Li Hongmei in the morning. Two sweet potatoes, I didn't bring her food today."

"Okay, I see." Yun Erchuan replied in a dull voice.

Early the next morning, Yun Chang stayed in bed again.

When I opened my eyes, I found that there were six or seven furry children sitting on the small bench in the room, all silent, staring at her to sleep in.

Yun Chang jumped, turned over and sat up, holding the quilt tightly with both hands, wearing a messy little soft hair, looking at these eager-eyed little girls in horror!

Brother Gu! Come to the rescue!

I was surrounded by old people and fell asleep!

Omg, it's so scary! ! !

Seeing Yunshang getting up, the group of little girls swarmed down to the edge of the kang and said in a loud voice:

"Yunshang, are you awake? We didn't disturb you! My mother said, let me take you to dig wild vegetables by the river today..."

"Sister Yunshang, my mother told you yesterday that I will take you to play in the apricot forest at the foot of the mountain today!"

"Yes, now the apricot blossoms are blooming, and the pink ones are so pretty!"

"The river is fun, there are wild vegetables, and there are small fish in the river!"

"Xinglinzi is fun! Xinglinzi also has wild vegetables, and you can hide and hide!"

...

Yun Chang just remembered that when she came back yesterday, the group of women unilaterally decided to let their baby be friends with her.

This feels a little sour.

Hearing the noise in the room, the old lady came in from outside, stroking Yun Chang's hair with a smile, and took out a clean, starched blouse for Yun Chang to put on.

"Oh, I also have a little guy coming to my house today, get up, drink a bowl of rice soup and go out to play."

Yun Chang nodded, put on a blouse and put on cloth shoes obediently.

When you go out to play, especially in Xinglinzi, you can't wear sweaters and leather shoes. If they get scratched, the old lady will feel distressed again.

A group of little girls watched the old lady put away Yunshang's shiny little leather shoes, and then looked at the new cloth shoes on Yunshang's feet, all of them envied.

There were also two older girls who couldn't help but touched a pair of leather shoes, making Yun Chang funny and sad.

First wash your face and brush your teeth, then finish the millet porridge brought by the old lady in a few mouthfuls, carry the small basket and shovel prepared by the old lady early in the morning, and follow these little girls to run to the door.

"Shangnan, let's go to Xinglinzi to play, but you can't go to the river, do you hear?"

Yun Chang responded from a distance, waved to the old lady, and followed the large army.

It was the first time in my life to dig wild vegetables, and I was a little excited.

Should be fun, right?

After she called Xinglin Village, she never turned around the village.

In particular, Widow Wang picked up her small river, and the stone mountain where Yun Dachuan fell. She had never been to it, so when she went out this time, she had to take a good walk.

By the way, when I get to the apricot forest, I will find an opportunity to move two apricot trees into the space.

The fruit cores planted at the edge of the space have just grown into small saplings the size of a ping-pong ball, and it is still a while before they bear fruit. Now that the apricot trees that can bloom and bear fruit have been moved, she doesn't have to wait until May to eat sweet and sour apricots.

Just thinking about it makes my mouth water.

"Sister Yunshang, you haven't come out to play before, do you know wild vegetables?" the eldest Chunya asked.

Yun Chang honestly shook her head, "I don't know. Sister Chunya will teach me to recognize wild vegetables later."

"Okay! We're all used to digging wild vegetables. We dig fast. One of them will be enough for your family to eat later."

Yun Chang is happy, the little girl is really good.

After thinking about it, I took a handful of toffee from my pocket and distributed two to everyone.

The right is to buy wild vegetables.

Few of the village households buy candy for their children. Even if there is candy at home, they will only give it to boys. Girls can hardly see a single piece of candy all year round.

At this moment, I received two fragrant and sweet toffee, and everyone was pleasantly surprised. They almost subconsciously peeled off the candy wrapper and stuffed it into their mouths.

Yun Chang noticed that two girls only bit half of the toffee, and carefully put the rest of the candy in their pockets.

Secretly guessing, the two girls should be trying to leave the candy to their younger siblings, or the boys in the family.

Yun Chang suddenly thought that it seems like Gu Er Ge always thinks of her first when he has good things, but she has never loved Gu Er Ge like this. She is really ignorant.

In the future, I must learn from these two girls and be more sensible.

Chunya had half a piece of toffee in her mouth, and vaguely told everyone, "This is a toffee, but it's very expensive! You can't eat Yunshang's toffee for nothing, and you must give it to Yunshang first when you get to the Xinglinzi. My sister is digging wild vegetables."

"Okay, this toffee is delicious!"

"Yunshang, I still ate a fruit candy during the Chinese New Year last year. There is no toffee fragrance, nor toffee sweetness, but toffee is delicious."

...

Yun Chang, with toffee in her mouth, did not speak, but listened with a smile.

At the entrance of the village, Yun Chang saw a man walking on the muddy road from a distance. He was wearing a blue overalls. He couldn't see the face, but he looked a bit like Zhang Shouyi.

When he was hesitating whether to wait at the entrance of the village to see if Zhang Shouyi was coming, Chunya and a few little girls directly dragged her away by pushing and pulling.

After walking west of the village for about 20 minutes, we arrived at Stone Mountain, a large area of dense apricot forests scattered at the foot of the mountain.

Chapter 228 Zhang Shouyi is Coming

It's the season of blooming, and pink, tender, delicate and beautiful flower buds pop out, like embellishments, crowded with strong apricot tree branches, at a glance, there are thousands of rouge, delicate flowers, occupying the spring breeze very beautiful

Yunshang has always thought that the name of Xinglin Village is very beautiful, but now standing in Xinglin, she feels that the name of Xinglin Village is far less than one-tenth of the beautiful scenery in front of her.

The children dispersed as soon as they entered the apricot grove, looking down for the wild vegetables that had just sprouted.

Yunshang was thinking about moving the apricot tree, but also thinking about the figure she met at the entrance of the village. She glanced at the furry children around her, said something to Chunya, hung the small basket on the branch of the apricot tree, and burrowed into the depths of the apricot forest alone. .

Avoiding the crowd, I found two apricot trees with luxuriant flower buds, stretched out my spiritual power, pried open the soil around the rhizomes, and moved them into the space.

After finishing the work, looking at the lush flower buds, Yunshang resisted the urge to break a bunch of flower branches and go home to arrange flowers, and followed the voice of her little friend out of the forest.

As soon as Zhang Shouyi entered the village, he saw the old lady sitting at the gate of Widow Wang's house holding shoe soles, and looking up at the entrance of the village from time to time.

Wiping off the beads of sweat from the rush, straightened his clothes, picked up the gift in his hand, walked over, and greeted the old lady respectfully.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he made a sound, the old lady snorted coldly, without even looking at him, she carried a small bench and entered the door.

Zhang Shouyi was stunned for a moment, then hurriedly chased after him, "Aunt Yun, what happened last time was our family's dishonesty, I always wanted to come to you and my uncle to make amends, but recently there is a lot of work in the bureau, I have been Drilling a well outside... No, I just came back from the countryside yesterday, and I came here early this morning."

The old lady put the small bench in the yard directly, and refused to accept the gift Zhang Shouyi handed over. With a dark face, she pushed and shoved him out of the door.

"Go out, our village families can't climb up to your urban worker's families, don't put your feet in low places, your feet will be dirty!"

"Auntie, listen to me..."

"Who are you calling auntie? Let's go! Let my daughter invite people to gossip every day, why do you have the face to come to the door! I shouldn't have let my daughter see you..."

The old lady didn't listen to the explanation, and Zhang Shouyi's anxious beads of sweat kept coming out, and he was about to be pushed out of the door, so Zhang Shouyi hurriedly said, "Auntie, I'm here to propose marriage to Comrade Shuilian!"

"What?" The old lady was stunned, "What did you say?"

Could it be that this Shouyi is a demonic obstacle?

She was about to get married last time, but in the end, this guy temporarily shrank, making Shui Lian a joke in the whole town. It's only been a few days, why did he change his mind again?

Could it be that he heard that Shuilian became a native of Fenyang, and felt that Shuilian was worthy of him, so he came to propose marriage again?

Thinking of this, the old lady became even angrier, and swiped the sole of her shoe on Zhang Shouyi's head.

The old lady has been meek all her life, and she can't swear any harsh words, just a few chaotic words tossing back and forth:

"I'll kill you shameless!"

"Why do you have such a big face, what do you think of my daughter, marry if you want to marry, and regret marriage if you don't want to marry?"

"Your family, my daughter doesn't like it now! Get out!"

"Don't send a matchmaker to ask for marriage. What are you doing? Look down on our old Yun's family? Look down on my Shuilian family?"

Zhang Shouyi was almost overwhelmed. Seeing that the old lady did not let go, and was so angry that his face turned pale, he knelt down in a heart attack.

"Aunt..."

The tall and strong young man kicked his feet, which made the old lady back up again and again, leaning straight against the wall.

Zhang Shouyi lowered his head, tears almost fell down.

He also wanted to send a matchmaker to propose a marriage, but Han Weihong didn't pay attention to him at all. In addition, his father felt ashamed to apologize to Lao Yun's relatives at the table last time, and now he still disagrees with him and Shuilian. marriage.

If it weren't for the fact that the matchmaker and his father had no hope, he couldn't lose his manners and come here alone to ask for a marriage.

When Han Weihong heard that he wanted to discuss marriage with Lao Yun's family again, she rejected him without even thinking about it, and said that the two families had a falling out, and that life after Yun Shuilian came in was not happy, Zhang Shouyi felt a burst of pain in his heart. pain.

If he can't marry Shuilian, he will not only be unhappy, but he will never be happy in his life.

But right now his father has already objected to him being with Shui Lian, if the members of Lao Yun's family don't agree, then he will have no hope for the rest of his life?

"Auntie, when I got married, I fell in love with Director Yang's family. I had no choice but to regret the marriage. I didn't look down on Shuilian...Auntie, if you agree with me this time, I will definitely treat Shuilian in the future." Good. I will let her eat well, dress well, and I will be filial to you and my uncle together with Shui Lian..."

A young man was kneeling straight in front of him, which had a great impact on the old lady. In addition, Zhang Shouyi was agitated, so his voice was a little anxious when he spoke, which made the old lady turn pale, and couldn't hear what he said clearly. .

Yun Chang entered the door with a basket full of wild vegetables, and at a glance, she saw the old lady was kneeling and blocked in the gate by Zhang Shouyi, propping up the wall with one hand and holding the sole of her shoe with the other, panting heavily.

Seeing that the old lady was about to lose her temper, Yunshang quickly dropped the small basket in her hand, and ran to protect the old lady, "Comrade Zhang, don't kneel down to my grandma, you will scare me even if you don't see my grandma." Reached?"

It was only then that Zhang Shouyi noticed that the old lady's complexion was not good-looking, and in a daze, he quickly got up and moved back, and carefully looked at the old lady's face, not knowing whether to continue kneeling or stand up and continue to beg the old lady.

The old lady came back to her senses, looked at Zhang Shouyi and sighed, patted Yunshang's head and said, "Shangnan, go, go out of the village and go east, call your master back in the field, and say there are guests at home. "

"Oh," Yunshang responded, walked two steps and then turned around and asked, "Grandma, do you want to call my second uncle back?" Let my second uncle describe to Zhang Shouyi the current prestige of Aunt Shuilian!

The old lady didn't know the little Jiujiu in Yunshang's heart, so she waved her hands and said, "Your second uncle is following the road construction team to build the road in Houtan. It's too far away. You won't be able to come back until night, just go and call your grandfather."

Yun Chang nodded, took another look at Zhang Shouyi's glowing red eyes, turned around and ran out.

In the gate building, the old lady didn't let Zhang Shouyi enter the house, so she moved two benches from the yard, gave Zhang Shouyi one, sat down and asked:

"Comrade Zhang, you said just now that you got married under the influence of Director Yang's family, so what are you doing here today? If Director Yang's family can harm you once, they can harm you twice. Are you harming our family?" Water lotus?"

"Auntie, the police found Director Yang committed a lot of crimes, and now he is sentenced to labor reform."

Chapter 229 Can your aunt still date me?

The old lady understood what Zhang Shouyi meant. He meant that Director Yang had fallen from power, and he would not be able to harm him in the future, and he would not be able to regret the marriage next time.

After thinking about it, the old lady continued to ask, "Why are you here alone today? You still want to marry my family, can your father agree?"

Zhang Shouyi stopped talking.

The old lady also sighed, and fell silent.

The old lady was quite satisfied with Zhang Shouyi, a junior. If there hadn't been a matter of regretting the marriage last time, Zhang Shouyi would have become her son-in-law.

It's just that Director Yang's family got in the way later, and the two families who were originally happy were completely torn apart.

Zhang Shouyi didn't say it clearly, but the old lady knew in her heart that Zhang Shouyi's father still hated the thing that Lao Yun's family forced him to apologize to his relatives last time. Today, Zhang Shouyi came to ask for a marriage, but the old Zhangtou probably didn't know about it, and he didn't agree to the marriage.

The marriage of the two families was originally a happy thing, but since Lao Zhang felt unhappy in his heart and hated Lao Yun's family for not saving him face, there was no need for Shuilian to go into Zhang's house to feel uncomfortable.

Not to mention that Shuilian is now registered in Fenyang and has a job in the Women's Federation. Even if Shuilian still has a rural household registration and is gossiped by people in the village every day, their old Yun's family is reluctant to marry Shuilian to someone in the city to be angry.

That's not for Shuilian's good, it's to make Shuilian wronged, and I won't extend it in my heart for the rest of my life.

There were only three people in the family, and Shui Lian came in with gossip all over her back, and she was unhappy in her heart. Old Zhangtou lost face at Lao Yun's house, and he was unhappy in his heart. How long can Zhang Shouyi be happy alone?

Everyone is unhappy, how will they live in the future?

And after this incident, the old lady felt that Zhang Shouyi seemed to be similar to her family, Er Chuan. He looked tough, but when something happened, his brain was not clear, and he was a little bit rational, which made the old lady dissatisfied.

Besides, Shuilian's household registration and job are now in Fenyang, and Zhang Shouyi is working in the county again. Even if the marriage is completed, the couple will have to live separately in the future.

It's fine now, Shui Lian and Zhang Shouyi have only met three times, even if the marriage fails, the two of them won't be able to bear it for long. After a while, the two children will think about it, so they won't remember it on my mind...

Yunshang ran to the field along the dirt path, and saw the flat field stretching out along the path, ridge by ridge, row by row, and the fields were all the same length and very neat.

In the middle of the field, the villagers wore towels on their foreheads and were digging the ground with various tools.

It was too far away, and Yun Chang couldn't see people clearly, so she ran over to ask the scorekeeper, and finally found the old man at the other end of the field.

"Master! There are guests at home, grandma wants you to go home!"

The old man hurried up to the ridge with the hoe on his shoulder, told the scorekeeper, and took Yunshang to the house.

"Master, it's Comrade Zhang Shouyi who is here." Before the old man could ask, Yun Chang made a small report.

The old man became anxious as soon as he heard it, and his steps became even bigger. When he was approaching the entrance of the village, the old man said, "Go back first, and you follow slowly", and ran into the village.

With that angry posture, Yun Chang would suspect that the old man would give Zhang Shouyi a hoe as soon as he met him.

Sighing secretly, he found a stone at the entrance of the village and sat down, giving room for the old couple and Zhang Shouyi to talk.

After waiting at the entrance of the village for more than half an hour, he finally saw Zhang Shouyi coming out of the house with a pale face and a broken heart.

Seeing Yunshang, Zhang Shouyi stopped, "Shangnan, your aunt... have you bought a house for your aunt in Fenyang?"

Yun Chang nodded.

"Your aunt works at the Fenyang Women's Federation?"

Yun Shang continued to nod.

Zhang Shouyi's face turned paler.

"Shangnan, your aunt... How are you in Fenyang?"

"Well, I live in a building, and the place where I work is also a building. My aunt only needs to write a pen every day, and the work is easy.

Zhang Shouyi fell silent again. After a long while, he seemed to be talking to himself, but also seemed to be asking Yunshang, "Tell me, if I find a way to transfer to Fenyang, will your aunt agree to date me?"

Yun Shang: "... How do I know this? You have to ask my aunt!

Zhang Shouyi stood at the entrance of the village for a while, then quickly bowed his head and left.

Yun Chang watched Zhang Shouyi walk away, patted the dust off his buttocks, tried to lift the corners of his mouth, turned around and went home.

The old lady came back now, she was sitting under the gate picking wild vegetables, when she saw Yunshang coming in, she smiled and said, "Today, I, Changnan, is a great hero, picking a lot of wild vegetables, and my grandma will steam them for you at night ."

Yun Shang was a little guilty, and didn't dare to say that she was busy smuggling wild vegetables with roots into the space, and the baskets were all dug up by others to give her.

"Grandma, where is my grandfather?"

The old lady packed the picked white wormwood and shepherd's purse separately, moved them to the yard, scooped water from the Weng to wash the vegetables, and babbled:

"Your grandfather felt uncomfortable, and went to work in the backyard... Well, Comrade Zhang Shouyi is a sincere person, but he and your aunt didn't have a relationship. They had a good marriage..."

"Grandma," Yunshang glanced at the wall not far away, lowered her voice, "Comrade Zhang asked me, he said that if he finds a way to transfer to Fenyang, would my aunt still want to date him?"

"What? Did he really say that?"

Yun Chang nodded, and the old lady's face became ugly all of a sudden.

"It's really a crime. If you really get transferred, what will you do if your aunt goes away again? That old man really hates our family! No..."

The old lady dropped the water ladle, turned around and walked to the backyard, "I have to tell your master, go to Fenyang tomorrow, and ask your aunt to pay back Zhang Shouyi's five hundred yuan. Theirs!"

Yun Chang was dumbfounded, so she quickly jumped over and hugged the old lady's waist, "Grandma, grandma! I'll pay it back. I gave back the five hundred yuan to Comrade Zhang last time!"

The old lady stared blankly at Yunshang, and it took her a long time to realize, "Where did you get the money? This matter... does your aunt know?"

Yun Shang honestly shook her head, "I don't know. When Comrade Zhang repented of his marriage, I was so angry that I asked Second Brother Gu to take me to Comrade Zhang to settle the accounts. That's when I paid back the five hundred yuan. The money was paid by Second Brother Gu on behalf of him." I took it, grandma, our family does not owe Comrade Zhang, not a penny!"

The old lady blinked, and tears fell down, "Oh, you silly girl, why are you so honest! Why didn't you tell me and your grandfather about this? How could you let me go to bed because of your aunt? Bow back to Comrade Gu Xiao?

Ouch, it hurts me so much. Our big family is all your burden! If Comrade Gu Xiao is eaten away, who will pull me to be a good girl in the future? "

Yun Shang blinked: The whole family ate and ran away the second brother Gu?

Damn, how edible is Lao Yun's house!

Chapter 230 I'm going to find a job

The old lady beat her chest and continued to walk towards the backyard, "I still have to let your father go to Fenyang, and ask your aunt to return the five hundred yuan to Comrade Gu immediately. The money for buying a house can be paid back slowly. The five hundred yuan It can't be delayed."

Yun Chang looked at the back of the old lady, and belatedly thought, it seemed that Yun Shuilian's five hundred yuan had already cost one hundred and fifty yuan.

It was for Yun Erchuan to buy the household registration certificate.

Ouch, it's such a headache!

Forget it, don't think about it, anyway, the old lady and the old man will be able to react sooner or later. At worst, the two of them will play doubles and beat Yun Erchuan so that he can quickly earn money and return it to Second Brother Gu.

The old couple were talking in the backyard, and Yun Chang strolled into the house, glanced at Shuan Zi who was asleep, and was also lying on the big kang, ready to tidy up the space that hadn't been tidied up for a long time.

Start by looking at the row of fruit trees at the edge, water them, then prune the branches according to the instructions in the book, and finally spread the wild vegetables that have been moved into the space under the fruit trees.

After watering, the third crop of wheat planted in the field was harvested, and the corn stalks were pulled up and set aside to dry slowly in the shade.

In the vegetable field, the few cabbages and white radishes left over from last time have already produced seeds, so they can be collected and planted again.

The new batch of leeks can also be harvested. Eggplants, peppers, tomatoes, and cucumbers are all harvested. When it is time to harvest the last crop, a few can be left to form seeds on the stalks, and the rest can be put into the warehouse.

After the crops in the field are harvested, the land should be raised first, and then planted after a period of time.

All kinds of fresh vegetables in the warehouse can be sold on the black market one after another in May and June.

At this time of year, she is still honestly dumping food. These out-of-season fruits and vegetables cannot be taken out casually.

Yunshang was taking stock of her crops in the house, and the old couple also discussed in the backyard. First, they scraped the bottom stalls at home, and they could make up about 80 yuan. They will go to Fenyang again in these two days to let Yun Shui Lian took three hundred and twenty yuan, and first paid back Gu Shinian's four hundred yuan.

The remaining 100 Yuan Famine will be carried by Yun Erchuan.

Thirty catties of food stamps, even if it is included in Yun Shuilian's money to buy a house, in the future Yun Shuilian earns her own wages to pay off the famine.

After discussing the important matter of resolving the famine, the old lady washed the Artemisia annua neatly, put it on the chopping board to dry in the shade, chopped it with a knife, grabbed a handful of white noodles, a handful of cornmeal, sprinkled salt on it, and mixed them in the Artemisia basil. , and then steamed in a pot.

Yunshang and Shuanzi lay side by side on the edge of the kang, smelling the aroma of garlic paste poured by the old lady with hot oil, and smelling the faint scent of white wormwood in the room, their saliva kept coming out.

Seeing that the two were very hungry, the old lady sent the old man to move the kang table without waiting for Yun Erchuan to come back, and first filled them with a bowl of steamed white wormwood.

It is the first time for Yunshang to eat wild vegetables, and they are still steamed wild vegetables, mixed with mashed garlic, and I can't wait to take a bite. Far better than expected.

Shuan Zi also lowered his head, eating hard.

"Is it delicious?" the old lady asked with a smile.

The two little brains nodded side by side.

"Eat more, Nai Ming'er will make shepherd's purse dumplings for our two good grandsons, it's delicious too!"

After coaxing the two little ones, the old lady glanced at the old man, sighed, and turned around to feed Widow Wang in the side room.

Yun Erchuan came back from repairing the road. As soon as he entered the door, he saw such a scene. The old man sat on the edge of the kang with a sad face and sighed.

After being surprised, Yun Erchuan fetched water to wash his face, and asked, "Father, what are you worried about? Where is my mother?"

"Go to the side house to feed." The old man sighed again after finishing speaking, "Erchuan, Shuilian will give you the money to buy a household registration, and the family will pay fifty, and you will carry one hundred yuan yourself. After earning money, hurry up and take this money away." A hundred dollars of famine will be returned to the child of the year."

Yun Erchuan was stunned,

Why did his creditor change again?

After being dazed, Yun Erchuan was so worried that he didn't even know he was hungry.

He is now building roads, and he only earns 30 cents a day, or 9 yuan a month. If he continues to work like this, it will take a year to pay off the famine?

This can only be paid off if he does not spend money on weekdays.

In case the old couple or Shuanzi have a headache, his little money can't be kept, so what can he do with the famine?

Besides, it won't take long for this road to be repaired.

Thinking of this, Yun Erchuan couldn't sit still, and said to the old man as if discussing, "Father, I want to go to Fenyang these two days."

"What are you going to do? Don't you have any work on the road?"

"Father, we also work on the road. People in our village work hard for a day, and they only manage two meals, and they pay 30 cents. Those who have registered permanent residence in the city manage three meals a day, and pay 55 cents. more of..."

"How many days do you have to work on the road?" The old man put down the pipe and shouted loudly, "You change your account now, so you don't want this year's centimeters?"

Yun Erchuan shrunk his neck, "Father, I want to go to Fenyang to see if there are any temporary workers. If there are, I will transfer the household registration there, so that I can have rations every month and earn more money. If not, I will come back to work honestly and wait for the aluminum factory to recruit workers in a few months."

In the past, I couldn't do anything without urban hukou, but now that I can go out with hukou, I don't want to find a way to make money. What can I do to pay off the famine, and what can I do to support my two sons in the future?

The old man was silent for a long while before he opened his mouth and said, "Who did you talk to when you arrived in Fenyang? Shuilian has only been in Fenyang for a few days, and I don't know anyone. Our eyes are so dark that we can't find the temple gate even if we put a pig's head on it." , how do you know which unit is recruiting?"

"Father, the aluminum factory must be recruiting workers."

Yun Erchuan blurted out, obviously thinking about it a long time ago.

"I heard from Shui Lian that the foundation of the aluminum factory has just been laid, and it will definitely take a while to build. I will go there and ask if I need people to build the aluminum factory. If I need people, I will transfer my account to Fenyang , go to build an aluminum factory first, and then find a way to enter the factory as a worker after the factory is built."

The old man was surprised, turned his head to look at Yun Erchuan, and said, "...This is a way, you can go there to find out."

The idea was approved, and Yun Erchuan's excited eyes lit up.

"Father, I've been thinking about it for two days. You see, Shui Lian is working at the Women's Federation. She's so busy with work that she might not be able to pay attention to the recruitment of workers in the aluminum factory. I'm in the village, and I don't know about the recruitment of workers in the aluminum factory.

If I can build an aluminum factory and work as a temporary worker, let's not talk about the salary, at least the news about the recruitment will not be wrong..."

Yun Chang stared blankly at Yun Erchuan, if it wasn't for that identical face, she would have thought that Yun Erchuan had changed.

Is this still the usual Yun Erchuan who is more than simple and honest but not witty?

Why did that wooden brain suddenly have an inspiration?

Listen, this little abacus is played, what a chicken thief!
