Chapter 251 A woman's heart, a seabed needle.

Entering the inpatient department, the little nurse at the nurse's desk saw Yunshang and immediately laughed and joked:

"Ah! The filial baby from Ward 213 is here? What delicious food will you give your mother this time?"

Yun Shang immediately squinted and replied, "Nurse sister, there is nothing delicious, just the leftover soup from the morning, and a steamed bun."

"Well, let's go, I've watched the comrades who take care of your mother come out several times, and they should be looking for you."

Yun Shang knew that the little nurse was referring to Shen Yuegui, thanked her, and pulled Yun Shuilian towards the ward.

"Shang girl, you are here, your mother is hungry!" The most important thing is that I am hungry too!

Seeing Yunshang entering the door, Shen Yuegui got up immediately and said, when she saw Yunshuilian behind Yunshang also coming in, Shen Yuegui immediately took a step back and stammered, "Shui, Sister Shuilian, you are coming too? "

Facing the rest of Lao Yun's family, Shen Yuegui was brave enough to say a few gossips, but facing Yun Shuilian, Shen Yuegui felt inferior and afraid from the bottom of her heart.

Yun Shuilian was born fair, with good-looking facial features, and she was the first cultural person in eight villages. Girls in the surrounding villages talked about Yun Shuilian, and they all envied and envied her.

Later, when I heard that Yun Shuilian was going to marry into a worker's family in the county, those greedy people even poked bitter words behind their backs.

After finally waiting for the workers in the county to repent of their marriage and give up Yun Shuilian, before the people around her laughed at Yun Shuilian and gossiped about her, she suddenly became a member of Fenyang City again.

Moreover, he also found a good job, managing the wives of high-ranking officials and ordinary people, but he didn't know how many gossips in the village were slapped in the face.

In Shen Yuegui's heart, Yun Shuilian is a person with great ability, even more powerful than the village party secretary.

In addition, Yun Shuilian is now an upright Fenyang native, has a house and a job, and has followed the director of the Women's Federation for several days to see her. Standing in front of Shen Yuegui, she is full of confidence, and her shy and cowardly temperament has long since disappeared. Instead, there is self-confidence and brightness exuding from the bones.

Faced with such a Yunshuilian, Shen Yuegui was instinctively apprehensive, but yearning involuntarily.

She wanted to get close to Yun Shuilian, but like a blind mouse, she instinctively avoided Yun Shuilian.

She was afraid that Yun Shuilian would see through her little thoughts, that Yun Shuilian would find someone to drive her back to the village, and that Yun Shuilian would not allow her to enter Lao Yun's house.

Yun Shuilian didn't expect that Shen Yuegui would be so frightened when she saw her, rubbing the corners of her clothes with her hands uncomfortably, sweating on her forehead, and even speaking, her voice trembled unconsciously.

"Comrade Shen Yuegui, thank you for coming all the way to help take care of my sister-in-law. Don't worry, I will find a nurse to take over your shift as soon as possible, so that you can return to the village as soon as possible to busy with spring plowing and production. You can't delay your efforts to build a new village because of our family's affairs. Contribute to China!"

She couldn't understand a single word of those words, but she understood the meaning of 'find a nurse to take over'.

Shen Yuegui became anxious all of a sudden, with a pale face, she repeatedly waved her hands and said, "Shui, Sister Shuilian, we are fellow villagers from the neighboring village, we are all acquaintances... I volunteered to help take care of Sister-in-law Osmanthus, I, if you don't like I eat a lot, I can eat one steamed bun a day...don't drive me back."

As soon as these words came out, everyone in the ward was stunned.

What do you mean, she seems to have a fellowship with the patient?

What a joke.

Shen Yuegui is not a family member, so what is she trying to do by taking care of patients in the hospital?

It seems that this is another villager who has a thick skin, insists on going to other people's houses, and wants to go to the city.

It's just that Shen Yuegui is too thick-skinned, even if others want to be a city dweller, they are still relatives of her own family, but fortunately, she will not let go of the villagers from neighboring villages.

The atmosphere in the ward became weird for a while, and a few women with upright tempers spoke sour words in front of Shen Yuegui.

Inside and outside the words, they are all accusing Shen Yuegui of being shameless, and that he is not worthy of Lao Yun's family even if he pays money.

Neither Yunshang nor Yun Shuilian expected that Shen Yuegui would take off the fig leaf on her body with just one sentence, making her situation in the hospital even more embarrassing.

Yun Shuilian originally wanted to hit Shen Yuegui with a few words, but seeing Shen Yuegui's face flushed and looking like she was about to cry because of grievance, she couldn't say any more.

Turning around and saying hello to the others in the ward, she took Yunshang to sit in front of the hospital bed, took out the spare rib soup prepared by the old lady, fried cabbage, and half a three-in-one steamed bun to feed Widow Wang to dinner.

Shen Yuegui originally planned to coax Yunshang to get her something to eat, but when she met Yunshuilian, she was so scared that she didn't dare to stay in the ward, how could she remember being hungry.

It wasn't until Yun Shuilian left with Yun Chang that Shen Yuegui went back to the ward feeling her flat stomach, watching Widow Wang's greasy mouth dryly swallowing.

On the way to the Women's Federation, with a puffy face, Yun Chang told Zhang Shouyi and Gu Shinian to settle accounts with Zhang Shouyi, and told about returning the five hundred yuan in the name of Yun Shuilian.

Then she pouted again, stretched her hand in front of Yun Shuilian and said, "Gun, if you're angry, hit me on the palm of your hand to vent your anger. I promise not to cry, and I won't complain to my grandma." At most, tell Second Brother Gu Complain about grievances.

However, Aunt Shuilian hurts her so much, shouldn't she beat her?

In the midst of apprehension, the palm of my hand was hit firmly.

Yun Chang's eyes widened immediately, and she looked at Yun Shuilian in disbelief.

After a long time, a faint sentence came, "Oh, what a woman's heart, a sea needle."

Yun Shuilian burst out laughing, took Yun Chang's little hand to her mouth and blew a few times, then said again:

"You say you're a kid, why are you so worried? You shouldn't ask Comrade Gu for a loan for this matter, you should tell your aunt to return the five hundred yuan to Zhang Shouyi."

Telling you to return the money to Zhang Shouyi, how can I fool you into buying a house in Fenyang?

Yun Chang slandered, and then said, "Gu, Zhang Shouyi went to the village to look for you a few days ago."

Seeing Yun Shuilian looked down, Yun Chang held her little hands and refused to leave, "Guy, my hands are so sore that I can't walk, you hug me!" If you don't hug me and walk, I won't tell you that Zhang Shouyi has come to the village to do nothing. What happened!

Facing Shang Yunshang's threatening eyes, Yun Shuilian hugged Yunshang resignedly, and asked as she walked, "Tell me, what did Comrade Zhang Shouyi say when he came to our house?"

"Zhang Shouyi went to our house alone, and told my grandma that he was here to propose marriage, and my grandma almost pulled him out with the sole of his shoe."

The smile on Yun Shuilian's face slowly disappeared, and she asked, "And then?"

"My grandma said that since ancient times, there has been no reason for young men to come to propose marriage by themselves! Others have to bring a matchmaker and elders to meet their relatives. Comrade Zhang Shouyi is not proposing marriage, but is embarrassing our old Yun's family."

Chapter 252 Mindset Change

"Then Comrade Zhang Shouyi knelt down to my grandma. It seemed that his father had a problem with our family and didn't want to marry our family. Comrade Zhang Shouyi had no choice but to propose marriage by himself. Later I heard from my grandma that you found a job in Fenyang. Comrade Zhang Shouyi just went back."

Yun Shuilian lowered her eyes, covering the thoughts in her eyes.

When she heard the news of Zhang Shouyi's failed marriage proposal from Yunshang, she felt that she should be sad, but the strange thing was that at this moment, her heart was peaceful, without any sadness.

Yun Shuilian didn't know what was wrong with her. She was obviously not a fickle person, but in just a few days, why did she lose her previous vision and expectation for marrying Zhang Shouyi?

Even recalling the scene where she felt sad because of Zhang Shouyi's remorse, she felt that it was too far away and strange.

Yun Chang lay on Yun Shuilian's shoulder, seeing her silent and her eyes full of bewilderment, she couldn't help but secretly sighed:

"Auntie, Comrade Zhang Shouyi asked me a question before going back. He said, if he finds a way to transfer to Fenyang, can you still date him?"

Seeing Yun Shuilian's dazed expression, Yun Shang continued to ask, "Gu, what are you thinking? If Comrade Zhang Shouyi really came to Fenyang, would you still want to have sex with him?"

Yun Shuilian was stupefied again, and after a long time, she slowly shook her head and said, "I don't know..." It seems...it's okay to continue dating, and she doesn't feel so sad anymore.

Yun Chang nodded, not surprised that Yun Shuilian would say that.

From Yunshang's point of view, Yun Shuilian had never loved Zhang Shouyi at all, and even if she had a crush on Zhang Shouyi during the blind date, it was because Yun Shuilian judged Zhang Shouyi by the conditions of her future husband.

Zhang Shouyi looks handsome, has an urban hukou, and is an official employee of the Water Conservancy Bureau. For Yun Shuilian, who was a rural hukou and had no job at the time, it was a good marriage that could not be faulted in every way. For the marriage, Yun Shuilian has no reason not to agree.

With this foundation, Yun Shuilian will follow the wishes of the two elders and Zhang Shouyi, step by step to get engaged, buy furniture, and perform the normal procedures that should be followed before marriage.

However, bad things happened on the day of engagement and the day of buying furniture.

Li Hongmei made a big fuss about the two's engagement banquet, which made Yun Shuilian inevitably feel inferior when facing Zhang Shouyi, and worried that the old Zhang's family would look down on her because of this matter.

And when she went to the county to buy furniture, Yang Jiao's appearance made Yun Shuilian realize that her status as a village girl could not bring Zhang Shouyi any help, and would even hinder Zhang Shouyi's progress after marriage.

Zhang Shouyi liked her now because she rejected Yang Jiao, but ten or twenty years later, would Zhang Shouyi regret not choosing Yang Jiao and turning from a worker to a cadre earlier?

Yun Shuilian is kind and honest, but it doesn't mean she is stupid. She must have secretly thought about these practical issues many times in her heart.

When Zhang Shouyi regretted her marriage, Yun Shuilian was sad, not only because she lost Zhang Shouyi, but more because of her unwillingness, anger, guilt, and confusion and fear of the future after being regretted her marriage.

Yun Shuilian knew in her heart that if she hadn't expected to marry someone from the city, Lao Yun's family wouldn't have become a joke in villages and villages because of her, and she wouldn't have been burdened by Kefu and wanted to gain a high reputation.

What made her even more desperate was that she couldn't escape from Xinglin Village, so she could only be passively trapped in that small world, letting the people around her point and watch the jokes between her and Lao Yun's family.

Yun Shuilian went to high school and is recognized as a cultural person in ten miles and eight villages. Once she fell to the bottom of the valley, she went from an existence that everyone envied to a broom star that everyone avoided. This kind of gap is far from Yun Shuilian who just left school. affordable.

After Zhang Shouyi repented of his marriage, the reason why Yun Shuilian still had expectations for him was because she knew in her heart that only by Zhang Shouyi proposing marriage again would she be able to wash away the stigma brought about by the remorse, and the entire Old Yun family would no longer be gossiped about. .

It can be said that in the relationship between Zhang Shouyi and Yun Shuilian, Yun Shuilian has always been on the weak side. She is attached to Zhang Shouyi, both psychologically and externally.

After Yunshuilian jumped out of the barren Xinglin Village and took root in Fenyang, the circle she came into contact with was also different from before.

She no longer spends her days idling in a small village listening to gossip. She has a job and a new goal. Her life is more exciting than before, and her mind has become more and more open-minded.

Of course, she herself has undergone earth-shaking changes from the inside out.

She is no longer a submissive village girl, but an independent and confident new-age woman.

When Zhang Shouyi was mentioned again, Yun Shuilian would treat him with an equal attitude, and at the same time, she would also find that her affection for Zhang Shouyi was as fragile as a piece of paper, which could be torn if poked, and could never be recovered.

She would regret and feel relieved that Zhang Shouyi brought her not that good memory, but she would never miss it.

And now that she is accompanied by her family, and no one around her is gossiping about her, and her work is going well, she will naturally not be so enthusiastic about finding a partner.

The most important thing is that Yun Shuilian's mentality has matured day by day. She will feel that relying on her own efforts to wash away the stigma on her body, work hard, and make Lao Yun's family proud of her by working hard, is far better than marrying Zhang Shouyi. Attaching to Zhang Shouyi is more meaningful and reliable.

It can be said that the relationship between the two officially ended after Yunshuilian took root in Fenyang and completely changed her mentality.

Of course, if Zhang Shouyi could really be transferred to Fenyang and pursue Yunshuilian again, there might be a glimmer of hope for the two of them.

As soon as the two entered the gate of the Women's Federation, a young woman with a child rushed in from outside. As soon as she entered the door, she knelt in front of Yun Shuilian and shouted for the sky, asking Yun Shuilian to make decisions for her:

"I know you are a comrade of the Women's Federation! You have to make the decision for me. If you don't care about me anymore, I won't be able to survive. I can only jump into the river with my two children in my arms!"

Yun Shuilian seemed to be used to it, stepped back a few steps and put Yun Chang aside, and then went to pull the woman up.

"Comrade, what are you talking about? Let's get up and talk slowly. Don't worry, no matter what difficult things you encounter, our Women's Federation will definitely not stand idly by..."

"Puchi!"

Before Yun Shuilian finished speaking, there was a sneer from upstairs, and then a square-faced girl with braids and a cadre outfit came down from the second floor.

"Comrade, you come to the Women's Federation to solve the problem, read the words on the door, find the right person and then file a complaint, don't just cry when you pull someone, if you pull the wrong person, isn't your head in vain?"

Chapter 253 Work Site

Yun Shuilian ignored the girl who just came downstairs, and continued to pull the woman, persuading her to sit down on the bench, before turning around and saying:

"Xiao Gao, I disagree with what you said just now! We all work in the Women's Federation. Whether we are regular workers or temporary workers, we are all public servants of the people, and we are all serving the people. We cannot deny and discriminate against others just because of the different division of labor. Comrades work hard.

Moreover, as a staff member of the Women's Federation, how can you say something like 'knocked your head' to the common people! "

As soon as Yun Shuilian's voice fell, Yun Shang answered from the side, "Gu, this sister said that Auntie kowtowed for nothing just now, so who does Auntie kowtow to for nothing?"

The little girl surnamed Gao turned pale immediately.

If the leaders of the Women's Federation find out about this, they shouldn't label her a bureaucrat!

When ordinary people come in to do business, they can't pull the wrong person, and they can't kowtow to the wrong head. With this sentence alone, she can't even think about keeping her job.

The corners of Yun Shuilian's mouth curled up, and she gave Yun Chang a sneaky look. Yun Chang quickly covered her mouth, took a step back, and wisely stopped talking.

"Xiao Gao, pour this eldest sister a glass of water, and then go upstairs and ask the officer to come down."

Comrade Xiao Gao was probably really frightened. As soon as Yun Shuilian ordered, he hurried to the nearest office and poured a cup of hot water, and put it next to the sobbing woman with a blushing face, then turned around and ran upstairs.

Yun Shang almost showed her aunt's smile at the side, listening to what Yun Shuilian said just now, Comrade Xiao Gao should be an official employee of the Women's Federation, otherwise she wouldn't be mocking Yun Shuilian with a proud face.

But Yunshang didn't expect that Yunshuilian dared to confront Comrade Xiao Gao as a temporary worker just a few days after joining the Women's Federation, and her words were not at all inferior, which made Yunshang admire her.

She felt that she underestimated Yun Shuilian's ability, no, it should be said that she underestimated Yun Shuilian's growth rate.

If Yun Shuilian was allowed to work in the Women's Federation for a few more months, she would no longer have to worry that Yun Shuilian would suffer at work in the future.

Comrade Xiao Gao quickly came down with Director Ren. The woman holding the child saw the person who could call the shots, and while wiping her tears, she sobbed and talked about her grievances.

Yun Shuilian took out a notebook and a pen from the bag she carried with her, and quickly took notes beside her. The appearance of serious work is so beautiful that people can't take their eyes off it.

And Comrade Xiao Gao, who had just been bullied, moved behind Yun Shuilian little by little while listening to the woman's cries, and looked at the beautiful and neat handwriting on the notebook, showing a look of envy.

This comrade Xiao Gao is so cute and cute, he really has a bit of Erha's traits.

It is estimated that Yun Shuilian has also figured out her temperament, which is why she unceremoniously ordered her to work after she was finished.

Wanting to understand this, Yunshang quickly retracted her gaze and focused on the woman who was crying and complaining.

"Officer Ren, I should be filial to my mother-in-law, but no matter how filial I am, I can't raise my uncle's family after raising the elderly.

My husband works as a worker in the factory, and all kinds of benefits are distributed every month. Our two daughters can't eat a bite, so they send them all to my uncle's house.

Early this morning, my mother-in-law brought my brother-in-law's family over again, and forced me to go out and borrow meat tickets to make up for the health of my brother-in-law and his two sons. Hei Wowotou was beaten, look..."

As the woman said, she pushed the head of the little girl in her arms and showed Director Ren the scars on the child's head.

According to the woman, the injury to the child in her arms was relatively minor, and the mother-in-law just hit it a few times with a fire stick.

The older girl in the family was more seriously injured. The mother-in-law directly grabbed the child's head and slammed it against the wall. There was a big cut on the head, and she had already been sent to the hospital.

When the mother-in-law was beating the two children, she was the only one standing in the way, the man didn't dare to resist, the brother-in-law stood by and watched, the sister-in-law kept making sarcastic remarks, and the two grandchildren of the mother-in-law clapped their hands and cheered. ,

Shout out to play well.

What made the woman even more unbearable was that the mother-in-law refused to send the child to the hospital after beating the child. If her man dared to send the child to the hospital, the mother-in-law would take her brother-in-law's two sons to jump into the river.

In the end, after all, the mother-in-law made a concession, asking her husband to give up his job to his uncle, and the family went to live in the countryside. The woman is also required to collect all the rations at home and subsidize her uncle's family, otherwise her eldest daughter will be left to die at home.

"Wuuuuuu... No matter how worthless the girl is, she is also her own granddaughter. How could she be so cruel and kill the child... There is not enough food in the family. I can bear it for a few days, but my man has to go to work. , how can I not eat...

They are all her own sons, how could she be eccentric and let my man give up his job... In the city, there is still food to eat, but when we go back to the countryside, we don't have any surplus food, and it's not time to distribute the food. There is no centimeter, and the whole family must wait to die? "

The woman was sobbing that she was almost convulsed, and everyone in the room was furious.

"Officer Ren, you Women's Federation has to make the decision for me. If you don't control me, I'll jump into the river with my two children in my arms... Huh... Anyway, no one can control me, I can't live this day."

Director Ren stared, "Why can't I take care of it? You wait, the Women's Federation can take care of your matter! I can take care of it for you! Xiao Gao..."

"Hey, Director Ren?"

Xiao Gao quickly came out from behind Yun Shuilian.

Director Ren glanced at the tears and snot on the woman's face, then pointed to the wrinkled clothes on the woman's body and said, "Take Comrade Li to the next door to tidy up and put some medicine on the child's head."

After sending Xiao Gao and the women away, Director Ren let out a long breath, turned to Yun Shuilian and asked, "Xiao Yun, tell me how to solve Comrade Li's matter."

Yun Chang raised her head in surprise, but saw Yun Shuilian put down her pen, frowned and thought for a while, and said in a crisp voice:

"Officer Ren, let's go to Comrade Li's home to understand the situation first, and then mediate. If the mediation fails, we can go to Comrade Li's husband's unit and cooperate with the comrades in the factory association, so that Comrade Li's husband can take on the responsibility of husband and father. ."

Director Ren nodded, and then asked, "According to Comrade Li, Comrade Li's husband is very filial and dare not easily resist his fucking decision. What if comrades from the guild can't solve the problem?"

Yun Shuilian thought for a while, "We can ask the comrades in the factory association to issue a certificate saying that Comrade Li's husband's work needs technical content or cultural requirements, so as to dispel the idea of Comrade Li's mother-in-law asking the eldest son to give up his job."

Chapter 254 Training

Director Ren continued to ask, "This can only solve Comrade Li's husband's unreasonable request to give up his job. How should Comrade Li's mother-in-law treat sons over daughters?"

This time, Yun Shuilian took longer to think about it, and it took a long time before she tentatively said, "Officer Ren, if Comrade Li's mother-in-law continues to abuse her granddaughter, we can report to the police..."

Seeing a smile on Director Ren's face, Yun Shuilian's heart relaxed, and her tone of voice was clearer than before:

"...Just like this time, Comrade Li's daughter was beaten by her mother-in-law until she was seriously injured and hospitalized, and she was determined not to send the child to the hospital at the beginning. She was suspected of intentionally killing someone. We can sue Comrade Li's mother-in-law for intentionally injuring crime.

Moreover, the chairman has said that women hold up half the sky. Comrade Li's mother-in-law is patriarchal, abuses her granddaughter, and oppresses Comrade Li, which is a bad habit of the old society...and is suspected of being against the chairman.

We can take a two-pronged approach. On the one hand, let Comrade Public Security teach Comrade Li's mother-in-law a lesson for the crime of intentional injury; Report her face to face and send her to a labor camp. "

After listening to Director Ren, the smile on his mouth could not be concealed, and he pointed to the notebook, "Okay, just follow what you said, and record all the steps to solve the problem. By the way, remember to sign."

After watching the whole process of the exchange between the two, Yun Chang had an idea in his heart, but he was a little unsure.

Walking up to Yun Shuilian lightly, she saw that she had neatly memorized Comrade Li's predicament in her notebook, as well as the solutions and steps to solve the problem, and in the bottom corner, Yun Shuilian clearly wrote a few words: Character:

Planner - Yun Shuilian.

Seeing these words, Yun Shang finally became convinced that Director Ren was really cultivating Yun Shui Lian!

This is definitely not the treatment that a temporary worker should have.

Could it be... Yun Shuilian hoped to wait until the official establishment of the Women's Federation?

If this is the case, staying in the Women's Federation is also a good choice, at least it belongs to the government department. If there is a good opportunity in the future, it can go further, which is much better than going to the aluminum factory.

However, if Yun Shuilian wants to go further in the future and become a part-time official, her high school education will not be enough.

It seems that they still have to rush Yun Shuilian to go to college.

In this case, Yun Shuilian will have to obtain the official establishment of the Women's Federation this year, and then go to university on a temporary basis, compressing the five-year course into three years, or finish it in four years, and return to work at the Women's Federation before classes are suspended.

Just thinking that Yun Shuilian is not a very smart mind, Yun Shang felt that this matter was a bit mysterious.

Yun Shuilian didn't pass the university entrance exam last year, and she might not be able to pass the exam this year, and even if she did, she might not be able to graduate early with her not very bright mind.

If she goes to college, and catches up with the suspension of classes before graduation and goes to the countryside on a large scale, then her college will be for nothing, and maybe there will be twists and turns in her return to work at the Women's Federation...

Yun Shuilian handed the notebook to Director Ren, and when she turned around, she saw Yun Chang standing beside her in a daze, with the changing expressions on her little face, which was very funny.

"Shangnan, what are you thinking?"

"I miss my aunt..."

As soon as the words came out, Yunshang reacted, raised her hand to cover her mouth, and looked at Yunshuilian with her big eyes without blinking, "I wonder what delicious food my grandma will cook at night!"

Yun Shuilian smiled and pinched Yun Shang's small face, "Little greedy cat. Let's go, I will take you upstairs to play."

Talking to Officer Ren, Yun Shuilian pulled Yun Shang out of the office, and as soon as she went out, Yun Shang asked curiously, "Gu, don't you follow Officer Ren to Comrade Li's house to solve the problem?"

Yun Shuilian glanced at Comrade Xiao Gao who was helping Comrade Li's child with medicine through the window, and said in a low voice, "Officer Ren is going to take Comrade Xiao Gao out today."

Yun Shang let out an "oh", and finally understood why Comrade Xiao Gao didn't like Yun Shuilian.

This is to see the secretary Ren carefully cultivate Yunshuilian, and I feel like it.

In the small mansion,

The old Zhou's family is busy moving, from Room 3 to Room 7, which happens to be the one at the stairs, next door to Dr. Huang's.

Yunshang and Yunshuilian came back from the hospital to deliver meals, only to find out that the unit in Room 7 was divided into welfare housing. The single room here was eager to sell, and they found the old Zhou's house in the afternoon. The two families hit it off and went to the housing management office immediately. Closing procedure.

Knowing that the old Zhou's family was in a hurry to move, it turned out that the people in Room 7 vacated the house in the afternoon.

Seeing the location of Room No. 7 clearly, Yunshang finally understood why Erya wanted her to sell the house on the third floor to Lao Zhou's family.

Sending the old Zhou's family to the third floor is better than staying on the second floor where everyone meets from time to time.

At least she won't pass the door of Lao Zhou's house when she goes in and out.

Now Lao Zhou's family lives in Room 7 on the second floor, just three families away from Erya's house. Everyone cooks at the door, and you can see what's in each other's pot by stretching your neck.

In addition, Erya had to go through the door of the old Zhou's house when going up and down the stairs. With the temperament of Sister He and Mrs. Zhou, Erya would have to trip Erya in the future.

After thinking about this, the shredded potatoes in Yunshang's mouth tasted like meat, and she was in a great mood.

Erya on the other side was not in such a good mood.

At this time, she was darkening her face, and watched the old Zhou family move the furniture that had been in the house for many years to Room No. up to the light bulb.

Looking at the empty room, Er Ya was so angry that her hands were shaking.

Too much deception!

What a deception!

There are still 20 days before the distribution of food at the grain station, and the old Zhou's family doesn't even leave her a grain of food or a piece of clothing. This is to starve her to death!

He raised his foot and kicked the wall hard, and rubbed his eyes vigorously until his eyes were red and filled with tears, then he turned around and went out, ran to the door of Lao Zhou's house and began to cry.

It was dinner time right now, every household was busy eating dinner, and when they heard Erya's crying in the corridor, they all came out with their bowls to watch the excitement.

Sister He had just put the things in the house back, and before she had time to pat the dust off her body, she heard whimpering from the door.

The old lady Zhou was so angry that she fell on her back, stretched her old waist, and jumped up from the stool to beat her:

"Don't stop me! I'm going to kill this bastard today! She sat in front of my house and cried on the first day of moving. She is sincerely trying to bring bad luck to our family!"

Elder Sister He also had a dark face, pushing Erya away, "Let's go! If you need anything, go to your rich and powerful aunt in the provincial capital! Don't ask us bad guys who are greedy for your property! Our two families have nothing to do with each other, and our family doesn't owe you anything, if you try to bring bad luck to our family by crying and howling, I'll have to find a secretary to talk about it!"

Chapter 255 Wanting Food

As soon as Sister He pushed Erya away, Mrs. Zhou jumped out of the house with a rolling pin, "What are you looking for as an officer? Get out of the way, I'll kill this unlucky thing!"

Sister He had a gloomy face, and stopped the old lady Zhou, "Mom, Erya is not our child now, if there is anything wrong, let's ask the building manager to solve it..."

"Fuck it!" Mrs. Zhou jumped up and spat at Sister He's face, pointing to the location of Room 4, "That person surnamed Ren was facing this bastard yesterday, if she has such a good heart, she can help us speak?"

Director Ren's face darkened when he just walked out of the room. Collection Ben stood still and took two deep breaths, suppressed the unhappiness in his heart, and walked over.

The scene where Yunshang was praising Yun Shuilian's great work with the old lady in the house was suddenly interrupted by the noise outside.

Open the door curtain and go out to see that the door of Room 7 is already in chaos.

With a gloomy face, Sister He stopped the old lady Zhou who kept yelling, and the second girl shrank her neck and hid behind Officer Ren, poking her head out from time to time to say something.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she didn't even have time to put on her coat, so she ran towards the door of room seven.

"Your family took my food supply...this month's ration, and the extra six catties of food every month before..." Erya poked her head out from behind Director Ren, and said timidly.

"Fuck your mother!" Mrs. Zhou was so angry that she threw the rolling pin out of her hand, "You don't need money for clothes all these years? You don't need money for medical treatment and medicine? Your broken house and a lot of money are going back. Why didn't you think of giving us the money our family raised you? Your few catties of broken rations are the foster care fees our family has raised you all these years!"

Er Ya's heart became even more angry.

Immortals can say these words! What was she wearing that Zhou Xiu didn't like?

Even when she picked up Zhou Xiu's old clothes, she could only choose the most ragged and worst ones to wear. Those old clothes that were in good condition were taken to the countryside by Mrs. Zhou and Sister He to exchange food for food.

How about the old Zhou's family being able to live so well these years?

It's a pity that the old Zhou's family only exchanged things, and really didn't use the money to buy food, otherwise she would definitely report it and convict He Aidang and Lao Bushi of speculation!

Erya poked her head out from behind Director Ren again, sobbing and saying:

"I have been ill once since I was a child, and I took two antipyretics. I usually wear the clothes that Zhou Xiu doesn't want. These add up to a maximum of 50 catties of food. Your family deducts 6 catties of food from me every month. , it's seventy-two catties a year... I don't want more, your family will refund my two-year rations."

As soon as these words came out, Mrs. Zhou was so angry that she shook her body, and the blue veins on Sister He's forehead popped out one after another.

This little girl should have strangled her to death in the first place!

He was clearly doing the killing of their family, but he insisted on shrinking his neck, wiping away his tears, and kept pretending to be pitiful and sympathetic in front of others, as if he had been wronged so much.

Why didn't she see that Erya's heart was dark before!

The neighbors are also divided into two factions at the moment, one group thinks that the old Zhou family should return the rations that Erya has deducted, and another group thinks that Erya is too young and unfeeling, and those rations should not be returned.

Old Zhou's family has really treated Erya badly these years, but Lao Zhou and He Aidang have raised Erya anyway and protected her for several years.

Otherwise, how could Erya, who was only two years old, grow up alone?

This means meeting the old Zhou's family. If she meets an unscrupulous family and kills Er Ya without anyone noticing, the house and money under her name will not belong to other people's family.

Even if Erya's life and property were protected against the old Zhou's family, those rations withheld should be given to the old Zhou's family.

Otherwise, why do people do thankless things?

Besides, the current situation is not good, and how many girls can eat enough food every month?

Isn't it all deducted by the family to fill the belly of the boy.

The rations of girls born in other people's families have been deducted. Why does Erya, who is in foster care, only ask for it and not pay?

His brows gradually wrinkled.

From the perspective of a bystander, Director Ren also felt that Er Ya was too unfeeling towards the old Zhou family.

First, he was hostile to the new neighbors, calculated that Zhou Xiu had a quarrel with the neighbors, then framed Zhou Xiu to steal money, forced the old Zhou family to kick her out of the house, and then exposed the scandal of the old Zhou family's embezzlement of her property in front of others... ...

One by one, one by one, even if Erya was so pitifully squeezed by the old Zhou's family that she had to resist, but the way she resisted was not so glorious.

And the inexplicable calculation of Yunshang, this alone makes Director Ren very unhappy.

Now Erya wiped her tears weakly, as if she was forced to die by the old Zhou's family, but the words that came out of her weak mouth were not weak, and even the hidden sharpness in the words almost made old Zhou angry. The wife passed out on the spot.

Director Ren stared at Erya closely, his sharp gaze made Erya's hands and feet stiff, and she couldn't pretend to be a weak little Baihua anymore.

"Ah, do you have no food to eat now?"

Erya nodded with a stiff neck, "There is no grain at home... and no clothes."

Director Ren turned his head and said to Sister He, "Comrade He Aidang, go find two clothes for Erya, and get Erya 30 catties of rations for Erya. No matter what, Erya's rations for this month are still at your house. Woolen cloth."

Sister He nodded with a dark face, gave Erya a cold look, and quickly took out two patched coats from the room, and threw a small bag of grain on the ground.

"Here is thirty catties of grain. You take the grain away now, and our family will settle the matter. Don't let Tian'er play tricks and say that our old Zhou family took advantage of you! Also, if you dare to hustle me, Xiuxiu, I can't spare you!"

Erya gave Sister He a sneering look, then immediately drooped the corners of her mouth, picked up the grain bag on the ground, bowed her head and retreated behind Officer Ren.

The old lady Zhou's mouth twitched in distress, and she sat down on the ground, beating her chest and her thighs again and howling.

"Oh, I'm really blind. After several years of raising such a heartless white-eyed wolf! Why is she so cruel, and she doesn't even think about it? Oil bottle!"

"This white-eyed wolf is too vicious! This is going to force the old woman to die..."

Erya ignored Old Madam Zhou's dry howling, talked to Director Ren, and walked home with a grain bag.

When passing by Yunshang, he pulled the corners of his mouth and showed a big smile, and asked in a low voice, "Sister Yunshang, when will Brother Gu move here? I want to go to the station to pick up Brother Gu!"

Brother Gu! ?

Chapter 256 Shameless

"You girl, why do you inquire about my second brother Gu every day? You want to go to the station to pick up second brother Gu, even though my second brother Gu doesn't even know you!"

Yun Shang's words were crisp and loud, and instantly attracted everyone's attention.

Erya didn't expect Yun Shang to speak so impolitely, and didn't save her any face, she froze there for a moment, her face flushed.

This Yunshang, in her previous life, she looked like a soft bun. She smiled at everyone and spoke softly, and saw her being bullied by the old Zhou family and helped her many times. The whole body is covered with thorns, and it hurts every time you meet?

What went wrong?

Yun Shang didn't care what Erya was thinking, took two steps back, distanced herself from her, and continued with a look of disgust, "Besides, my second brother Gu said that he only has one younger sister, so don't call him Brother Gu, what are you doing?" How forgetful you are, why are you still yelling at Brother Gu one by one?"

Zhou Xiu, who had been eavesdropping in the room, couldn't sit still when she heard what Yun Shang said. She lifted a corner of the door curtain, poked her head out and shouted:

"You're so stupid! How can she be so forgetful? She's so stinky and shameless! She wants to cheat on Brother Gu for money!"

Yun Shang: "... " Why did this mental retardation come out again?

wrong! Why did this mentally handicapped second brother Gu call him 'Brother Gu'?

Yun Shang turned her head angrily, looked at Zhou Xiu's round face, and only had one thought in her mind: I want to scratch it!

When Sister He heard Zhou Xiu's address to Gu Shinian, and looked at the strange eyes of the neighbors around her, her complexion suddenly darkened.

He stretched out his hand to press Zhou Xiu's head back, regardless of the old lady Zhou who was sitting on the ground, turned around and went back to the room, and closed the door smoothly.

Yun Shang curled her lips regretfully, and without giving Er Ya a chance to speak up, she turned around and ran home.

She is no fool.

If Erya was given a chance to defend herself, the other party might beat her up and make her feel dirty.

"Shangnan, have you finished the fun?"

"Yeah." Yun Shang responded, looked at the package in the old lady's hand and asked, "Grandma, what are you doing packing?"

The old lady put the patched coat into the package, and sighed, "Your second uncle will go to work in the aluminum factory early tomorrow morning, and grandma will pack two pieces of clothes for him."

Yun Chang immediately became interested. She stood by and watched for a long time. Seeing that there was only one old towel and two sets of old clothes in the package, she hurried to the side room and took a bag from the space to pack it. Beef cubes, and a package of dry steamed buns, let the old lady put them in the package together.

The emperor was not short of hungry soldiers, Yun Erchuan was going to do hard work, so he couldn't go hungry.

Besides, the food on the construction site is not good, eating a few beef cubes a day can be regarded as a bit of meat, lest Yun Erchuan will be exhausted and the old lady will feel distressed.

However, the old lady's reaction was far from Yun Shang's expectation...

"Oh! Your second uncle is going to work, not to enjoy the blessings. What are you doing with all this food? Besides, your second uncle is going to live in Datongpu. Can he eat this delicious food by himself? Obedient, these Things can't be taken."

While nagging, the old lady took out the beef cubes and dried steamed bun slices with a painful expression on her face, and refused to pack them for Yun Erchuan.

Yun Chang was stunned for a while, and said helplessly, "Grandma, then put some beef cubes in it, and Second Uncle can secretly eat a few when he's hungry."

"What are you pretending? Meat is rich and expensive now, and this is still beef! Your second uncle can't buy two lumps in a day's work. Thanks for letting him eat this meat? It's all starvation, how can you still have the face to eat well?" , dear girl, we don't do business at a loss!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Those who are in debt are not qualified to eat good food, this statement... seems to make sense! ?

Yun Shang felt that she was about to be brainwashed by the old lady, and she actually thought that what the old lady said was right, and she didn't want to speak well of Yun Erchuan at all.

On the contrary, after the old lady packed the package, she thought for a while, found another piece of oil paper, wrapped a dozen or so beef cubes like a charity, and stuffed it into the package for Yun Erchuan.

"Your second uncle comes back once a week, these beef bumps are enough for him to eat for a few days.

When your second uncle comes back next time, let's give him a full meal. "

Yun Shang: "... " It's my own mother, that's right!

Seeing the old lady looking back, Yun Chang quickly nodded her head, "Grandma, you are right! The beef is so rare, you can eat more than a dozen grains for a week, and there is nothing wrong with it!"

Yun Erchuan went to the construction site early the next morning, Yun Shuilian was busy going to work every day, and only the old lady, Yun Shang, and Shuan Zi were left at home.

And Yunshang had to take the old lady and Shuanzi to the hospital to deliver meals to Widow Wang every day, but without noticing, Erya quickly bought her belongings and refilled the empty room.

This day, Yun Shang pulled the plug as usual, followed the old lady upstairs, and as soon as she turned into the corridor, she saw Gu Shinian pushing the door and coming out of the room.

"A Chang." The voice with a smile brought Yun Shang back to his senses, left Shuan Zi behind, and rushed over like a gust of wind.

"Second Brother! Are you here? Why are you here!"

Yun Shang clung to Gu Shinian, the longing she had accumulated for several days and the resentment after arguing with others disappeared, leaving only surprise and a trace of grievance that she didn't realize.

Gu Shinian picked up Yunshang, greeted the old lady first, and after sending the old lady and Shuanzi back to the room, he turned around and took Yunshang back to his room.

"A Chang, Zhang Haiyang has made progress." Gu Shinian said before he could put down Yun Shang.

"Confirm that person is the enemy agent, right?"

"Well, that person's surname is Wu, and he used to wander around the Beishan Coal Mine as a madman. After the coal mine exploded, Madman Wu disappeared. Everyone in the coal mine thought that Madman Wu had gone to the city. No one thought that he would be a bad guy. His identity was transferred to Xinglin Village."

Yun Chang nodded indiscriminately, and hurriedly asked, "Since we know that Crazy Wu is an enemy agent, when are the police going to arrest him?" If I don't arrest him, my life will be in danger at any time.

"A-Shang, the matter of arresting people is not so fast..." Although he knew that there was no one else in the room, Gu Shinian subconsciously lowered his voice, "There is someone behind Crazy Wu. The police need time to find out."

"Second Brother Gu, besides Shen Yuegui who was used, does Fenyang have other accomplices of Crazy Wu? Last time Crazy Wu told Second Uncle that if you encounter difficulties in Fenyang, you can ask his friend for help... this Wu Does the madman's friend have problems too?"

"Whether there are any accomplices of Crazy Wu in Fenyang is temporarily uncertain, but there must be accomplices of Crazy Wu in the provincial capital."

Seeing Yun Chang's eyes rounded in surprise, Gu Shinian pulled down her fists that were clenched because of nervousness, and continued, "After the coal mine explosion, Crazy Wu disappeared under the state of martial law in the whole city. The police are now looking for The accomplice who helped Crazy Wu leave the coal mine, and the accomplice who helped Crazy Wu create a false identity and arrange him in Xinglin Village..."

Chapter 257: Letter

Yun Shang was a little puzzled, "Who arranged for Crazy Wu to go to Xinglin Village, he should be able to find out after a search, right?"

Gu Shinian analyzed to Yun Shang in a low voice, "Enemy agents have been lurking for more than ten years, so they shouldn't be so stupid. People who can see problems at a glance on the bright side are mostly a cover put up by the other party. The real enemy agent will not be so easy exposed.

Moreover, the goal of the enemy agents is to destroy the newly built bridge. Using explosives is the most destructive and the most trouble-free method.

Crazy Wu was trapped in Xinglin Village and couldn't get out. After the bridge was completed, there would definitely be accomplices to help transport explosives and provide cover.

The police can't solve any problems by only arresting Crazy Wu. They need to find out the source and transportation channels of the enemy's explosives... Ah Chang, this matter can't be rushed. "

Yun Shang nodded and muttered, "Uncle Zhang Haiyang is also a big mouther, he dares to tell you about this."

The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth froze slightly, and he paused for a moment, "A Chang, needless to say, you can analyze these things with your brain."

Yun Chang felt that her IQ had been crushed, and she stared at Gu Shinian with an aggrieved face, "Second Brother Gu, are you saying I have no brains?"

Gu Shinian stopped talking immediately. Seeing that Yun Chang's face was getting more and more ugly, he changed the subject with a smile, "I went to Zhang Mingyang's house yesterday, and Uncle Zhang said that in order to avoid alarming others, the police will not investigate your background for the time being, but After Crazy Wu and others are arrested, you will not be able to hide your life experience, so he told you to prepare yourself mentally."

Yunshang knew that Zhang Haiyang's psychological preparation meant that Lao Yun's family knew the real cause of Yun Dachuan's death, so her face drooped immediately, and she nodded lazily.

"A-Shang, look!" Gu Shinian took out the envelope from his pocket and shook it to divert Yun Shang's attention, "Aunt Lin and Han Chen have sent letters."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she stood up, and snatched the envelope from Gu Shinian's hand, "Let me see!"

Open Han Chen's letter first, and know that after Han Chen returned to the capital, except for school, the rest of the time was either being escorted by Han Weijun to train alone, or going out to play wild with the children in the compound.

Playing ice skates, evading fares to watch movies, leading the children in the big courtyard to fight for territory with the gangsters, looking for jokes all over the streets and alleys... life is very exciting.

Yun Shang glanced at it, put it aside, and opened Lin Dani's letter.

This time, Yunshang was much more serious, reading every word.

"Second brother Gu, Aunt Lin has gone to night school. The night school teacher has tested her grades and said that she can take this year's college entrance examination after studying hard for a few months."

"Aunt Lin said that her grades are not a problem in the college entrance examination, but she still needs to work hard if she wants to be admitted to Linyang University."

Seeing the second half, Yunshang slapped the table angrily, and said angrily, "The gossiping women in the shoe factory are gossiping about Aunt Lin again! They say that Aunt Lin is a widow of a villain who is not at all restless and wants to defile her." The land of the university.

Some people joked that Aunt Lin was high-minded, that she didn't like rough men in shoe factories, that she was going to college because she wanted to find a cultural person to remarry..."

As Yunshang was talking, she suddenly pursed her lips and smiled again, "Aunt Lin said that she wants to open up now, the Women's Federation is the director... oh, it's the eldest sister Ren of the Women's Federation in the provincial capital, and now she is the director... Strange, we Fen The Yang Women's Federation also has a director. Both of them have the surname Ren, so they must be relatives, right?"

When Gu Shinian saw that Yun Shang was talking in a crooked manner, he simply grabbed the letter paper and read it by himself.

Yun Chang pouted, and crawled into Gu Shinian's arms like a worm, holding his hand, and continued to look down:

With the help of Director Ren, Lin Dani has opened up her mind a lot. In addition, she is busy reviewing her homework, so even if she hears gossip, she has no time to get angry and sad.

She is going to go to university on a temporary basis. After graduating from university, she will work in the factory committee or the factory union. Then no one will dare to gossip about her, and she will be able to avoid most of the male workers in the factory.

Dacheng has been very sensible recently, helping Lin Dani to cook after school every day, worried that it would be unsafe for her to walk at night, so he had to go to night school to pick her up every night.

It's just that they encountered another trouble recently. Someone from the shoe factory responded to the factory leader.

Many workers in the factory are not able to share a bed when they get married, but Lin Dani and her nephew live in a private room with an 80-square-meter courtyard. It is too selfish and devoid of dedication.

After the news came out, several female workers went to the trade union to make trouble, and asked the comrades of the trade union to help Lin Dani improve, to make her a selfless and good person, and hand over the yard to the factory for redistribution.

Leng Touqing, who had just been transferred to the guild, heard the workers' bewitching, and really came to ask Lin Dani to hand over the house, but Lin Dani was not at home for the night school, so the man asked Dacheng to beat him out with a pole.

Dacheng also said that his name is on the property deed of Dazayuaner. He is not an employee of the shoe factory, and Dazayuaner does not belong to the shoe factory's house. The shoe factory asked him to hand over the house, which is an illegal embezzlement of the property of the people. He will go to the government to sue the shoe factory. leadership.

Leng Touqing from the guild made a fuss, and has been flirting with Lin Dani recently, and those female workers who made trouble are also spreading gossip in the factory.

Later, with the help of the aunt on the street, two reliable tenants were arranged for Lin Dani's house, and the rooms in the courtyard were fully occupied so that no one would gossip.

Lin Dani thinks this is also very good, although the family is a bit mixed, but the extra rent of twelve yuan per month can at least supplement Dacheng's food.

At the end of the letter, Lin Dani explained that the sweater she knitted for Yun Shang had already been knitted, and she sent it to her new home address, so that Yun Shang and Gu Shinian could remember to check it...

After reading the letter, Yunshang felt that it was not enough, and read it again from beginning to end, before letting out a long sigh of relief.

"Second Brother Gu, Dacheng is sensible now. He knows how to protect Aunt Lin and protect his own house. He has become a man!"

Gu Shinian nodded, but his brows were tightly frowned. Seeing this, Yunshang put away the smile on his face, "Second Brother Gu, is there any problem with Aunt Lin?"

"No big problem. But the house is not a good thing. I'm worried that the leaders of the shoe factory and the guild will have opinions on Aunt Lin. If she meets a narrow-minded leader, Aunt Lin's life in the shoe factory will be even more difficult. "

Yun Chang was stunned, "What should I do then? Why are the people in the shoe factory unreasonable? They want to occupy Dacheng's private property! It's so powerful, why don't they go to the provincial party committee compound and ask the provincial leaders to donate the big house Give them a place to live!"

"It's okay, that's what I said." Gu Shinian raised his hand to Yun Shang, "A person who can be a leader should not be confused. Besides, Aunt Lin is going to take the university entrance exam this year. When she graduates from university, she will not be confused." People will remember it."

Seeing Yun Shang nodding, Gu Shinian continued to ask, "A Chang, has the Xiaoyanglou been uneasy in recent days?"

"Yes, there is a show to watch every day!"

Chapter 258: The Vinegar Pot Overturned

After a while, Gu Shinian said in surprise, "...You mean, Erya might be reborn?"

"Well, we have even encountered such a fantasy thing, Erya...it's not surprising to have an adventure."

Gu Shinian's face turned cold in an instant, "If you live again, it's your age, not your IQ. For a person like Er Ya who has a bad mind and childish means, even if he has another adventure, his life may not be easy in the end." If you have an adventure, you will treat others as fools, and you will have to kill yourself sooner or later with all kinds of calculations.

Think about it, too, how can there be so many coincidences in this world, some of them are just calculations of people with a heart.

It was the first time Yunshang saw Gu Shinian clearly expressing her dissatisfaction with someone, and she couldn't help but think of what Erya asked her when Gu Shinian would come to Fenyang.

Looking at Gu Shinian's cold face, Yunshang tentatively asked, "Second brother Gu, Erya asked me when you will come to Fenyang last time, she wanted to pick you up at the station."

"Well, I saw Erya at the station today..."

"What?" Yun Chang almost jumped up, with a dark face, and asked angrily, "Is she really gone?"

Gu Shinian was amused by Yun Shang's furry appearance, his face softened a little, and he pressed Yun Shang on the stool, "Don't worry, I didn't talk to her, and I will stay away from her in the future."

Yun Shang stretched out her chubby fingers to poke Gu Shinian's face, "There is also that Zhou Xiu, who will stay away from Zhou Xiu in the future! I don't want to hear someone call you 'Brother Gu' again!"

When Gu Shinian answered with a smile, Yun Shang then asked about Gu Guangzong:

"He didn't pester you to go back to the provincial capital?"

"Gu Guangzong came here just for show, how dare you let me go back. I just showed the idea of going to the provincial capital, but Gu Guangzong didn't even say hello, and ran away on the train overnight."

"What about Aunt Zhang Chunni? Does she agree with you moving to Fenyang?"

Gu Shinian smiled and took out a brand new household registration from his bag, and handed it to Yunshang, "Comrade Zhang Chunni has always had a free-range policy for children. As long as I don't do anything illegal, Comrade Zhang Chunni will not care about it. By the way, I will ask for it tomorrow. Go to the school to go through the transfer procedures, how about you? Do you want to go to school this year?"

"No!" Yunshang shook her head like a rattle, "I will go to school later, so as not to graduate early, and I will go to the countryside to be an educated youth."

She finally moved her household registration out of the village. If she goes to the countryside to become an educated youth in the future, she might as well not change her household registration.

Going to the countryside to do farm work in other places, how can I stay in Xinglin Village at ease.

At the very least, Xinglin Village is his territory, no matter what happens, just shout out, and the whole village will help.

If she went to the countryside to work as an educated youth in other places, she couldn't be lazy in her work, and she didn't even have anyone who could help when she encountered difficulties, so she wouldn't go to other places to suffer.

After hearing this, Gu Shinian felt that Yunshang was right to be worried. She could go to school later and graduate later, and Yunshang would be able to relax for a few more years.

After graduating from high school, find a way to buy Yunshang a job index, and after three or four years, she can go to university.

When the university comes out, the situation in China is just right. Yun Shang can go to work if she wants to, and if she doesn't want to go to work, he will continue to take care of her.

Gu Shinian raised his hand and brushed the braid on Yunshang's head, "Okay, then you can play at home for another year, and then think about going to school next year."

The two talked for a while, seeing that it was getting late, and were about to go back to the next door, Shuanzi pushed open the door and ran in.

Grinning with the two first, he rushed over and pulled Yunshang and walked outside, "Sister, brother Gu, grandma is eating."

Probably because nutrition has caught up. After the Chinese New Year, Shuanzi has grown in size, his little hands are stronger again, and he can even speak a lot more fluently. Occasionally, he can speak long sentences, instead of jumping out word by word.

Yun Shang couldn't help but reach out to pinch Shuan Zi's face and knead it for a while,

He smiled and asked, "Shuanzi, what delicious milk did you make?"

Shuanzi's small face was squeezed in, and he couldn't close his mouth, so he could only make an indistinct sound, "...again!"

Yun Shang loosened her paws a little, and continued to ask, "Is the milk made into meat?"

Shuanzi's eyes flickered, he turned his head to look at Gu Shinian, and said in a soft and authentic voice, "Make meat for Brother Gu."

Both Yunshang and Gu Shinian understood what Shuanzi meant.

The little jar of vinegar in Yun Shang's heart was overturned again.

She felt she was out of favor.

The old lady didn't make delicious food for her to clean up the dust, but she made delicious food for Gu Shinian.

The old lady liked Gu Shinian more than she.

Yun Chang pouted her mouth and turned her small eyes to Gu Shinian coldly. Even when she was eating, she couldn't help kicking Gu Shinian's feet secretly to vent her anger.

Gu Shinian was hit twice on the leg, and he didn't need to lower his head to know that Yun Shang did it. He glanced at Yun Shang with a half-smile, and raised his hand to pick up a few chopsticks for Yun Shang, before igniting the little flame in her heart. went out.

"Mother, the doctor said that my sister-in-law will be discharged from the hospital in a week. Let's take her home and take care of her slowly. What will Shen Yuegui do then?" Yun Shuilian put down her chopsticks and asked.

The old lady said angrily, "What else can I do? Our family doesn't even have a place for your second brother to live, how can there be a place for Shen Yuegui?"

"Then Shen Yuegui came here to be a city person, and finally entered the city, can she go back obediently then?" After Yun Shuilian finished speaking, she reached out and poked Yun Shang's little head, "Shangnan, next time You can't bring people into the city indiscriminately."

Yun Shang nodded, "Guy, don't worry, when my mother is discharged from the hospital, I will definitely send Shen Yuegui away." Tomorrow, I will go to Shen Yuegui to talk to him and see if the enemy has sent a message.

Seeing that Yun Shuilian was still not at ease, Yun Shang approached with a smile and said, "Gu, don't worry, if Shen Yuegui refuses to go back, I will use your name to frighten her, so that she will not dare to pester our family anymore."

The old lady was also answering from the side, "From tomorrow onwards, let's give Shen Yuegui a steamed bread a day, and say that our family's rations are not enough for the next half month, and we are going to be hungry. Shen Yuegui will go back if she can't bear it. Lah." If it wasn't for Changnan's kind heart, I wouldn't even want to give her a bun!

Yun Shang thinks that the old lady is so interesting, she is so cute even when she is being careful.

"Shen Laohan's family is too poor. Shen Yuegui wants to be a city dweller because she just wants to have a full meal. Our family can't even afford corn bread now, and we have no land to live in. Even Erchuan sleeps on the construction site. Well, Shen Yuegui has been in the hospital for more than ten days, how can she still look at our family now."

Chapter 259 Interrogation

Yun Shang always felt that the old lady had something to say, so she quickly put down her chopsticks and asked eagerly, "Grandma, Shen Yuegui doesn't like our family, so who does she like?"

"Ouch, my daughter-in-law Chang is such a fool!" The old lady patted Yun Shang's head, turned her head and said to Yun Shuilian, "I went to the hospital to deliver meals yesterday, and I saw Shen Yuegui sitting and talking with a man. The two of them are quite close, tell me, did Shen Yuegui have something else to complain about?"

Yun Chang felt a 'thump' in her heart.

Is that man Shen Yuegui's new target, or Crazy Wu's accomplice?

It's fine if it's the person from the city that Shen Yuegui fell in love with, but if that person is also an accomplice of Crazy Wu, did the other party give Shen Yuegui new orders?

Yun Chang raised her head to look at Gu Shinian, seeing Gu Shinian nodded slightly, she let go of her high-pitched heart, turned her head, and continued to listen to the old lady and Yun Shuilian talking.

"Mother, what do you mean, Shen Yuegui met someone in the city by herself? How old is that person?"

"Looks like she's in her thirties, not tall, not well dressed, with a dark face, looks like a coal miner..." At the end, the old lady smacked her lips, "Not as good-looking as your second brother !"

Yun Shuilian couldn't help but curled her lips, "Mother, there are no coal mines in Fenyang area. If you say you look like a coal miner, you probably came from some county or some unit that burns boilers."

Yun Shang heard Yun Shuilian's words, and immediately thought of a question: Don't you need explosives when mining coal in coal mines?

If the enemy agents want to blow up the bridge, they must need a lot of explosives. At present, apart from the army, only major mines can find large doses of explosives.

There are no coal mines in Qinghe County, but there are coal mines in neighboring counties. Maybe Wu's accomplices are hiding in the coal mines in neighboring counties.

In other words, the man who came into contact with Shen Yuegui is very likely to be an enemy agent!

Yun Chang endured the shock in her heart and asked the old lady, "Grandma, what does that man look like? Why didn't I look at him?"

"You're short, you can't see out of the window! I opened the window to look down, that man is ugly, skinny, like a monkey."

There was no news from the old lady, and Yunshang was not disappointed. She planned to tell Gu Shinian tonight and report the situation to Zhang Haiyang tomorrow morning.

For man-marking, it is better to let professionals do it.

Early the next morning, Yunshang and Gu Shinian went to the post office to call Zhang Haiyang, then returned to Xiaoyanglou, and took Widow Wang's lunch to the hospital. ,

Shen Yuegui's eyes popped out when she took the black bun that Yun Shang handed over.

"What are you talking about? You can only eat one bun a day? Where is this enough?"

"Aunt Yuegui, my family has no food rations this month. My grandma and I are eating wild vegetable pancakes now, and we can only mix two taels of food every day, which is not as much food as your Wowotou." Yun Shang bulged her round, white and tender little Face, open eyes and talk nonsense.

Shen Yuegui looked at the bun in her hand, feeling angry and wronged, her eyes turned red, "Don't you have a rich aunt? How come you have no food..."

"Aren't you looking for a good friend in the city? I saw you sitting and kissing with your good friend a while ago!" Yun Shang kept a stern face, and glanced at Shen Yuegui up and down with contemptuous eyes, "Your good friend can watch you suffer hungry?"

"What nonsense are you talking about!" Shen Yuegui was taken aback, and subconsciously looked around, "When will I sit with someone... That's it! You little girl, why do you just open your mouth when you talk nonsense!"

Yun Chang raised her neck, and retorted stiffly, "I'm not talking nonsense! You two are sitting on the edge of the flower bed behind the hospital, and my grandma saw it too!"

Shen Yuegui was so angry that her face swelled into a pig's liver color, she wanted to get angry, but she was afraid that Yunshang would yell loudly, and people would hear her,

Hanging up her broken shoes and parading her through the streets, she doesn't get angry, and she really can't swallow the bad breath.

The little girl's film is really bad!

Not only made her starve in different ways, but also put a shit bowl on her head in a nonsensical manner, which is to tarnish her reputation and prevent her from entering Lao Yun's house!

..... Pseudo update line.....

Yun Shuilian couldn't help but curled her lips, "Mother, there are no coal mines in Fenyang area. If you say you look like a coal miner, you probably came from some county or some unit that burns boilers."

Yun Shang heard Yun Shuilian's words, and immediately thought of a question: Don't you need explosives when mining coal in coal mines?

If the enemy agents want to blow up the bridge, they must need a lot of explosives. At present, apart from the army, only major mines can find large doses of explosives.

There are no coal mines in Qinghe County, but there are coal mines in neighboring counties. Maybe Wu's accomplices are hiding in the coal mines in neighboring counties.

In other words, the man who came into contact with Shen Yuegui is very likely to be an enemy agent!

Yun Chang endured the shock in her heart and asked the old lady, "Grandma, what does that man look like? Why didn't I look at him?"

"You're short, you can't see out of the window! I opened the window to look down, that man is ugly, skinny, like a monkey."

There was no news from the old lady, and Yunshang was not disappointed. She planned to tell Gu Shinian tonight and report the situation to Zhang Haiyang tomorrow morning.

For man-marking, it is better to let professionals do it.

Shen Yuegui's eyes popped out when she took the black bun that Yun Shang handed over.

"What are you talking about? You can only eat one bun a day? Where is this enough?"

"Aunt Yuegui, my family has no food rations this month. My grandma and I are eating wild vegetable pancakes now, and we can only mix two taels of food every day, which is not as much food as your Wowotou." Yun Shang bulged her round, white and tender little Face, open eyes and talk nonsense.

Chapter 260 Fooling

Why did you get back to the kissing thing again! ! !

wrong! Who kissed?

That's the person surnamed Wu who found out about your parents and mother, and sent someone to deliver a letter to me!

Shen Yuegui almost couldn't catch her breath, her hands were shaking with anger. bookmark our website

If it wasn't for the little girl to find her parents, would she sit with a man?

It's good now, she's thinking of the little girl's film wholeheartedly, and the little girl's film is taking advantage of this to give her shit!

It's really maddening!

In order to prevent Shen Yuegui from running away, Yunshang continued to talk nonsense and poured  soup on Shen Yuegui.

"My grandma said that the person sitting next to you is a coal miner at first glance, and he is also a worker who goes down the well with the best benefits. The clothes on his body are torn and no one mends them. There should be no women in the family. Tell me about your eyes this time. Well, you can find a good family at a glance. There is no woman in the family. Once you get married, you can be the master of the house.

My grandma also said that the man looks a bit flat, but he is more promising than my second uncle. My second uncle is just a smug guy. He is almost 30 and still working as a temporary worker on the construction site. He lives in Datongpu six times a day and doesn't come back once a month.

He also said that if my second uncle doesn't save money to buy a house quickly, he will have to live in the bridge hole with his two children when my aunt gets married! People in our village don't have the reason that the uncle next door lives in the widow's wife's house, if it spreads out, people will laugh to death..."

When Yun Shang opened her mouth, Shen Yuegui's eyes changed, from shame and indignation, to contemplation, to excitement, and finally revealed a faint dislike for Yun Erchuan.

The little girl's film is right, Yun Erchuan is just a fancy but not useful, in the future he will bring two oil bottle children, and there are two old ones to be raised, maybe even the crazy Widow Wang.

In addition, her father, Shen Laohan, is greedy and will come to her house from time to time in the future, Yun Erchuan is a temporary worker, how can she support so many people.

What's the use of being good-looking if a man can't support a family?

Just like her father, he has no skills all his life and can't hold his head up anywhere.

The person who sent the letter looked a bit shriveled, probably earning money, and there is no woman in the family. If she can marry, she will be happy in the future...

Seeing that Shen Yuegui's eyes were bright, her face was flushed, and her breathing was a little short, Yun Shang knew that Shen Yuegui had heard her words.

Imagining the stunned look on the enemy agent's face when he found out that Shen Yuegui had given up on Yun Erchuan and turned his head to make up his mind, Yun Shang's mood was as refreshing as if he drank an iced drink in the dog days.

If everyone wants to get together to plot against her, then find a way to get these people together, so that the police will be able to save trouble.

"Aunt Yuegui, you both kissed. When will you get married? My mother will be discharged from the hospital next week. If you don't marry soon, you will have to go back to the countryside."

After Yunshang finished speaking, she sighed, "You're better off with others. You definitely can't marry my second uncle, and you can't take me to find my parents in the future. Aunt Yuegui, why don't you marry my parents and my parents?" Tell me your name, I will find it by myself later when I have time."

Shen Yuegui: "... After all, is it for yourself?

However, what the little girl said in the movie made sense, she had to marry someone from the city before returning to the village, otherwise she would not have time to come to the city after returning.

Anyway, she doesn't like Yun Erchuan anymore, so why not marry that worker!

Shen Yuegui looked and looked at Yunshang's clothes greedily, and finally slapped her mouth, "...I can't remember your father's name, I only know that your home is in the nearest village on the other side of the river."

Yunshang said very kindly, "Aunt Yuegui, you have been taking care of my mother in the hospital for so long, I can't let you work for nothing. Later, I will give you a piece of red fabric, which my aunt Lin bought for my aunt from the provincial capital. It's said to be worn when you get married, it's really pretty."

Shen Yuegui's eyes lit up, "Okay, you give me the fabric tomorrow, maybe I will remember your father's name tomorrow!"

She just learned the news about the little girl's parents and mothers from the messenger the other day, and she just used it for some benefits.

The two reached a preliminary agreement, and Shen Yuegui returned to the ward full of energy.

Yun Shang also pulled Gu Shinian, and left the hospital happily.

First, he went to the school to go through the transfer procedures for Gu Shinian, and then wandered around Fenyang to add belongings to Gu Shinian's room.

Until the sun was about to set, Gu Shinian found an empty corner and asked Yunshang to take out his bicycle, and the two of them dragged their things and rode slowly towards the house.

When I returned to Xiaoyanglou, it happened to be off work time in the evening, and the brand-new and shiny bicycle instantly attracted the attention of many neighbors upstairs and downstairs.

The children downstairs who were playing war games swarmed over, staring at the bicycle with glaring eyes.

"Sister Yunshang, is this your new bicycle? It's really rich!"

"Yes! It's even more luxurious than my dad's bicycle. It's so majestic."

"There are only two bicycles in our small western-style building. Now your family has bought a car. There are three bicycles in our building, which is one more than the small western-style building on Jiefang Road!"

The children asked in a hurry, and a few couldn't help reaching out, touching the bicycle beam and the crested logo.

Yun Shang slid down from the car, pointed at Gu Shinian, and said proudly, "This is my second brother Gu's new bicycle! From tomorrow on, my second brother Gu will be riding to school!"

The neighbors upstairs and downstairs gasped one by one.

What is the origin of this baby named Gu?

I didn't see any adults following me, and a half-grown child moved here by himself.

Not to mention living in one room alone, even going to school requires a bicycle. Isn't that too expensive?

Even Director Lin, who works in the Propaganda Department, doesn't have a bicycle!

A jealous neighbor leaned on the concrete railing and asked, "Gu's baby, where did you buy this car? How much did it cost? I went to the department store yesterday, but I didn't see any bicycles with the Fengtou brand on sale."

Hearing this, Gu Shinian pushed the bike to the entrance of the corridor, "I asked an acquaintance to bring this bike back from the provincial capital, and the price is about the same as our bike in Fenyang Department Store."

The old lady and Yun Shuilian quickly came down from upstairs to help move the things on the bicycle upstairs.

Yun Chang noticed with sharp eyes that a young man ran down from the third floor, wearing overalls, with sparkling eyes, approaching Yun Shuilian.

"Comrade Yun Shuilian, this bag looks heavy, let me carry it for you!"

"No need, it's not heavy, I can move it." Yun Shuilian turned to one side, avoiding the hands of the gay man, and continued to walk upstairs.

The young man acted like he hadn't heard, and chased after him a few steps, snatching the bag from Yun Shuilian, "It's all right, I'm a gay man, how can I watch the lesbians work without helping me."

Yun Shang noticed Yun Shuilian's dislike, and instantly turned cold, and ran over, holding Yun Shuilian's hand and walking home.
