Chapter 26 The Wang family is here

"Baby, come over here."

Mr. Yun waved to Gu Shinian. After Gu Shinian passed, Mr. Yun pulled him aside and said quietly:

"Wa'er, if someone asks you, you can say that your father and Sangnan's father are old acquaintances. They met in the provincial capital in 51 years. High official, our Lao Yun family can't let you suffer, but you gave my family a head start, our family can protect you, don't be afraid."

Gu Shinian understood what Mr. Yun meant. It turned out that the old man was worried that he was talking nonsense before, and that he would be exposed when he was scared.

"Grandpa Yun, don't worry, I'm not afraid. I can handle it when the old Wang's family comes."

Mr. Yun didn't expect Gu Shinian to say this. He looked at most twelve or thirteen years old, but he didn't act like a child at all. It's just that Xu Dalan was beaten by him in the end. No matter how old the child is, this is not something he can afford as a child today. He should take more care of him later.

Xiaowangzhuang is not far from Xinglin Village. Yun Erchuan, a big boy, can run very fast. He brought the village party secretary of Xiaowangzhuang and the people from Laowang's family in half an hour.

As soon as he entered the village, the eldest of the Wang family ran to Xu Dalan with his four sons, Shazi, and the eldest son also howled as he ran:

"Mom, who did this to you? You have a lot of blood and you have to eat a lot to make up for it! Mom, you can't die, I haven't married a daughter-in-law yet, and you haven't had a grandson yet. You can't die..."

Yun Chang was stunned.

It was the first time she saw a half-year-old boy imitating the women in the village, jumping on his feet, crying and wiping away his tears, just about tossing the small handkerchief and twisting it a few times.

"Dalan, what's the matter, you, don't scare me!"

Boss Wang only knew that Xu Dalan went out early in the morning, and thought that she was going to the roadside to find firewood for her family as usual, but she would come to Xinglin Village to find trouble for her own sister, and was beaten up. This miserable.

Xu Dalan's eyes moved when she saw Boss Wang, and when she opened her mouth, she wanted to cry and complain, but her tongue was stabbed a few times by the pole, and the pain was unbearable when she spoke, and the blood flowed continuously, so she could only close her mouth and wipe it. Tears, whimpering and pointing to the position where Lao Yun's family was standing.

Boss Wang glanced at the people of the Lao Yun family, but he didn't see Widow Wang, so he got angry, stuck his neck, and shouted at the people of the Lao Yun family:

"Where's Wang Guihua? If you beat someone like this, she will run away? Let Wang Guihua come out. Even if you cut off the relationship, there is no reason to take her mother-in-law's sister-in-law as an enemy!"

Mrs. Yun stopped doing it. Sitting on the high platform by the roadside, she pointed at Boss Wang and Xu Dalan and scolded:

"The people of your Lao Wang family are all over! The Dachuan who harmed me, and now I come to Huo Huo, my daughter of Dachuan, what should our Laoyun family do to yours? After killing one after another, you won't explain it today, our Laoyun. Home is not over with you!"

Boss Wang stopped for a while. He was a junior, and when Mrs. Yun pointed her nose at him, it was really hard to retaliate. Besides, what happened to Yun Dachuan back then was really unreasonable for the Wang family.

In front of a human life, let alone Xu Dalan being beaten, even if the old Yun family wanted to chop off the hand of his eldest son, Tuo Yunshang, they could only endure it.

At this moment, the village party secretary of Xiaowangzhuang brought the old couple of the Wang family into the village. Seeing Xu Dalan, who was slumped on the ground with blood all over his face, was also startled.

Before Yun Erchuan went to Xiaowangzhuang to call someone, he only said that Xu Dalan came to bully his little niece early in the morning and let the people from Xinglin Village detain him, but did not say that Xu Dalan was beaten.

The Wang family also talked for a long time at the beginning, and they didn't ask any useful information. Instead, they were scolded by Yun Erchuan for several times. They also learned what Xu Dalan said about Yunshang, and the Wang family didn't speak any more along the way.

"Eldest daughter-in-law, why are you like this? Was it the flowers?"

The old lady Wang was startled,

She hurried over to help Xu Dalan up and checked it out. She was relieved to see that the back of her head had a big bulge, two teeth had been lost, and several holes had been broken on her tongue. The rest of her body was fine.

Fortunately, fortunately, no bones were hurt, and there was no delay in getting down to the ground to earn centimeters.

As for the hole in the tongue, that's even better. If you can't eat rice, you can save food for the family!

"You bastard, okay, who asked you to trouble me Hua'er? Why didn't Hua'er kill you..."

"Woohoo ... I only hit the house, I don't tie the flowers ..."

Xu Dalan whimpered and grunted, and it took a while for the Wang family to understand what she said: the turtle hit me, not the flower.

The old lady Wang was stunned.

What?

Wasn't it by her daughter?

Which little turtle did that?

Mrs. Wang's first reaction was to sit on the ground and scold her, and then she poured out the rotten food and money, and then asked the beating little turtle to put two big gold teeth on the eldest daughter-in-law, and let him give the old man two big golden teeth. The Wang family kowtowed and admitted their mistake!

The old lady Wang thought so, and did the same, pulling Xu Dalan to sit on the ground, patted her thigh and howled.

"Aiya, I just came to visit a relative. Why did I get into a bandit's den, and why did I make people beat up like this? How much refined grain does it take to raise people back! Hand over the brat, and I'll finish with you..."

Madam Yun became anxious when she saw it. She stepped forward with two small feet and stood in front of Madam Wang. She pointed at Madam Wang and started scolding:

"What is in your head? Xu Dalan blocked the door early in the morning, calling your daughter a bitch ruthless, calling your granddaughter greedy for men at a young age, hiding men at home, and ruining the reputation of your daughter and granddaughter. You are not big. She slapped her and still protected her, it's your daughter who deserves to break up with you!"

Mrs. Wang was stunned, turned her head and grabbed Xu Dalan's collar, "Did you scold me Hua'er? Did you really scold me like that?"

Xu Dalan scolded smugly before, but she still remembers it clearly now. She couldn't speak, and kept shaking her head in denial.

Mrs. Wang looked at her with a guilty face, she didn't know anything, she just slapped her and threw it away.

"You're the bitch! You still have the face to scold my daughter! You are a mourning star! If you hadn't been born with an iron broom, my daughter could have been a widow? I'll kill you as a spoiler..."

As soon as Mrs. Wang made her move, Boss Wang brought a few children over to fight, and the scene became a mess for a while.

Only the eldest grandson shrank to one side, hiding far away,

Since the accident in Yun Dachuan, after Widow Wang broke up with her parents' family, the eldest grandson who had been favored by the old couple of the Wang family before became the iron broom in the mouth of the old lady, and from the previous treasure in the palm of her hand, she became a thorn in the flesh.
