Chapter 261 Don't think about reneging on debts

It was time to make dinner, and the housewives who were busy cooking filled the originally spacious corridor.

The young man was holding the bulging cloth bag, and while struggling to clear the way, he turned his head to tell Yunshuilian, who had fallen far away, to walk slowly, so as not to bump into it.

Xiao Yi's attentive appearance, those who didn't know, thought he and Yun Shuilian were a couple.

Facing the sympathetic or sympathetic gazes of her neighbors, Yun Shuilian's face became increasingly ugly.

Yun Chang grabbed Yun Shuilian's hand and asked with a straight face, "Gu, who is this person?"

"My name is Liu Hongqi, and I live in Room 9 on the third floor. It's the one mentioned by Director Ren. There are many younger brothers and sisters in the family, and the old Liu's family is anxious to find someone who has a house to marry."

Yun Chang's eyes became colder.

Looking at Liu Hongqi's earnest appearance all the way, no matter how you look at it, he looks like a rooster with his back exposed, ugly, but he doesn't know it.

Just when he was thinking of teaching Liu Hongqi a lesson so that he would not dare to approach Yun Shuilian again, Liu Hongqi spoke again:

"Shui Lian, do you have bowls and chopsticks in this bag? I dare not walk fast because of the clinking sound."

Yun Shuilian took a deep breath, suppressed the annoyance in her heart, and said, "Comrade Liu Hongqi, just leave the bag at the door of Room No. 2..."

"It's okay, help people to the end, I'll take it home for you!" Liu Hongqi said with a smile on his face as if he couldn't understand the alienation and indifference in Yun Shuilian's words.

The corners of Yun Chang's mouth almost turned to the horizon, seeing that Liu Hongqi had just walked to Erya's door, her mind moved, and she quietly revealed her mental strength.

The neighbors only heard a "clang" sound, and saw the bag in Liu Hongqi's hand smashed out, and he himself fell on the Erya's door, and fell in hard. Immediately afterwards, Erya's pain came from the house again. voice.

Seeing this, Yunshang immediately shouted at the top of her voice, "Comrade Liu Hongqi! You smashed the teacup that my Second Brother Gu bought as a gift! You pay for my Second Brother Gu's teacup!"

After finishing speaking, she let go of Yun Shuilian's hand, and rushed into Erya's room.

"Comrade Liu Hongqi! You are so bad! These are all teacups that my second brother Gu entrusted someone to bring back from Shenshi! My aunt won't let you touch them, and you insist on grabbing them. Are you looking at me? Brother Gu is not pleasing to the eye, he deliberately broke things of Brother Gu!"

Liu Hongqi was stunned by the fall, and before he could react, a series of accusations from Yunshang came over.

While Yunshang was speaking, his eyes swept to Erya who fell on the ground at the same time.

Seeing that she fell on her back to the ground, she realized in an instant that when Liu Hongqi fell, Erya should have been hiding behind the door and peeking, so she was slapped on the ground by the door panel.

Naturally, Yun Shang would not let go of such a good opportunity, she immediately widened her eyes, pointed at Liu Hongqi and said:

"Comrade Liu Hongqi! Didn't you see that sister Erya is still under you? Why don't you get up quickly? If you crush sister Erya, you will pay for it!"

Liu Hongqi: "..."

Erya: "..."

Everyone: "..."

Erya is under Liu Hongqi! ?

Liu Hongqi crushed Erya! ?

This...why is this so awkward?

As soon as Gu Shinian carried his bicycle upstairs, he heard Yun Shang teaching Liu Hongqi a lesson in a small voice, his eyelids twitched a few times, and he quickly pushed his way through the crowd.

Seeing Yun Shuilian squatting down and coaxing Yunshang constantly, and Liu Hongqi getting up from the ground in a hurry, Er Ya also blushed and turned over and sat up from the ground.

This scene is inexplicably a bit like catching rape.

Gu Shinian smiled and went over to comfort Yun Shang, then picked up the cloth bag on the ground, and poured out the broken pieces of the teacup inside.

"Comrade Liu Hongqi, I entrusted someone to bring these two sets of white porcelain teacups back from Shenshi. I bought them as gifts for the elders. Two teapots and twelve teacups cost thirty yuan in total, plus sixteen industrial papers. ticket....."

"How can there be such an expensive teacup! A teacup costs only a few cents at a nearby supply and marketing agency, so don't fool me." Liu Hongqi was stunned when he heard the price of the teacup, and said with a pale face and trembling.

Gu Shinian picked up a fragment of a teacup, walked to Liu Hongqi's side, and held up the fragment in the direction of the light bulb.

Under the light, the white porcelain shards in Gu Shinian's hands were crystal clear, exuding a topaz-like luster, and the white porcelain shards were extremely translucent, and everyone could even see Gu Shinian's face through the shards. finger.

Liu Hongqi's face paled instantly, and just as he was about to speak, Gu Shinian picked up the white porcelain teapot on the ground and tapped it lightly with his fingers, and a clear and pleasant sound suddenly rang out in the room.

"The best white porcelain is crystal clear under the light, the sound is crisp and pleasant, and the handle is smooth and delicate. If you don't believe me, you can touch the feel of my teapot, and then go back and touch your bowl to compare. See if it is what you want. Shameless, I still want to deceive you."

After listening to Gu Shinian's words, several neighbors also squeezed in, picked up fragments of teacups on the ground, shone them on the light, tapped them with their hands, and some compared their own bowls with fragments. Spend.

"Yo, Comrade Gu is right, this teacup is a high-end product, not to mention the teacups sold by the supply and marketing agency, even the teacups sold in department stores are not comparable!"

"I don't think you can buy such a good teacup in the provincial capital!"

"Yes, this Lao Duo teacup is worth a lot of money! Liu Hongqi, I have to be fair, this teacup is really good, and the Gu family is not fooled by you."

The more Liu Hongqi heard it, the more frightened he became, and he couldn't help moving his steps, wanting to sneak out.

Gu Shinian dodged to block the door, raised the teapot in his hand, and said in a voice that everyone could hear:

"Comrade Liu Hongqi, you may not know that the Shenshi Porcelain Factory exchanged a lot of foreign exchange for such teacups last year. You didn't say a word, are you planning to renege on it like this?"

Being blocked at the door by Gu Shinian and many neighbors, Liu Hongqi became even more nervous, beads of sweat kept dripping from his forehead, and he said in a low voice:

"...It's none of my business, I didn't mean it, someone pushed me...no, someone tripped me on purpose..."

After Liu Hongqi finished speaking, he stared at the neighbors present, trying to find out the culprit who caused him to fall.

But he was walking to the door of Room No. 3 at that time. Except for Erya behind the door, the people closest to him were two meters away. Even if Liu Hongqi wanted to blame him, he couldn't find him.

The neighbors lived upstairs and downstairs with the old Liu's family for many years, so they didn't know Liu Hongqi's temperament. When they saw him looking around in the crowd with restless eyes, they immediately knew what he was up to.

The neighbors who were originally watching the fun had nothing to do with them, saw that Liu Hongqi wanted to find a scapegoat among them, and couldn't help it.

"Comrade Liu Hongqi! We all heard the truth. Sister Shuilian won't let you take the bag, saying that the contents inside are very valuable, and you insist on taking it yourself. What's the matter? Now that someone broke it, just Do you want to renege on your debts?"

"There is no shameless family in our small foreign building! If you don't lose money, you are destroying the stability and unity of our small foreign building and deliberately sabotaging it!"

Chapter 262 It was 2 who tripped me up

"It's not a big deal, the Gu family is kind and didn't ask you to pay for the shipping fee, so you should burn incense secretly. Bookmark this site"

When the old lady heard the noise here, she opened the door curtain and came over. When she heard that Liu Hongqi had dropped the teacup brought back from Shenshi by Gu Shinian, she immediately said at the top of her voice:

"I said you are so unkind, you broke my baby's things and still want to pay for it? Let me tell you, if you don't lose money today, I will go to your house to move things!"

The corners of Yunshang's mouth twitched, and she couldn't help but sighed with her forehead: Grandma, there are only two wage earners in the old Liu's family of nine, and they are so poor, what valuable things can you bring out when you go upstairs to move things?

Why not just go to the factory and deduct Liu Hongqi's wages directly!

Seeing this, Yun Shuilian on the side stepped forward to hold the old lady's arm and said, "Comrade Liu Hongqi, Comrade Gu Xiao is not an unreasonable person. If you can't afford so much money at once, you can tell the factory to use Your next month's salary is worth it."

Yun Shuilian is now working with Director Ren at the Women's Federation. Although she is a temporary worker, she goes in and out with Director Ren every day. In the eyes of everyone in Xiaoyanglou, she seems to be the spokesperson of Director Ren.

With a straight face and a flat tone, she asked Liu Hongqi to pay compensation, which more or less put some pressure on Liu Hongqi, so that he would no longer dare to take chances.

It's just that Liu Hongqi's monthly salary is less than 30 yuan. The old Liu family has a large population and high expenses. The monthly salary can't last until the end of the month, so how can he be willing to pay so much money.

I wanted to find a scapegoat for myself, but I was besieged by everyone in the corridor before I opened my mouth.

Even if he is an asshole, he doesn't dare to offend so many people at once.

Liu Hongqi wiped the cold sweat from his head, his lips trembled again and again, but he couldn't say anything about agreeing to the compensation.

While anxious, from the corner of the eye, he glanced into the room and fixedly looked at Gu Shinian's ecstatic Erya, with a flash in his eyes, pointed at Erya and said:

"It's not my fault! It's Erya...it's Erya who tripped me up! If you want to lose money, it's Erya who should lose money!"

As soon as these words came out, not only Erya was stunned, but even the neighbors were stunned.

Liu Hongqi spoke more and more smoothly, stepped forward and grabbed Er Ya's arm, and pushed her towards Gu Shinian, "I just said, why does it feel like someone is tripping me! Little girl, you can play tricks at a young age! Quick, put this The money for the two sets of teacups will be paid to Comrade Gu!"

Erya became angry immediately, broke away from Liu Hongqi's arm, and screamed, "What are you talking about? Who tripped you! I'll stay at home, when will I trip you?"

She hasn't talked to Gu Shinian yet, how can Liu Hongqi blame her and annoy Gu Shinian?

Besides, she was knocked on the back of the head for no reason, and she hasn't settled with Liu Hongqi yet, but Liu Hongqi wants her to be the one to take the blame.

Go dreaming!

Liu Hongqi managed to pull out a scapegoat, and of course he wouldn't let Erya escape, "Erya, you don't want to talk nonsense at such a young age! You were the one who tripped me on purpose. If you stayed away from me, you didn't stretch your feet on purpose." Trip me, can I fall and hit you? You have to pay for this teacup today!"

When Liu Hongqi said this, the neighbors immediately remembered the incident of the two falling together, and a few neighbors really thought about it.

Could it be that Erya really did this?

Otherwise, Liu Hongqi, a young man in his twenties, would not be able to wrestle on the flat concrete floor.

But why did Erya trip Liu Hongqi?

Could it be that Yun Chang is not pleasing to the eye again, and wants to add trouble to Lao Yun's family?

While the neighbors were secretly exchanging glances, Erya also asked, "When you passed by my door, my door was closed, why tripped you? Besides, we have never met before, what am I doing?" I'm going to have trouble with you!"

"Don't talk nonsense, your door is closed and I can fall in?" After Liu Hongqi finished speaking, she smiled flatteringly at Yun Shuilian, and continued, "Which one of our small western buildings doesn't know that you don't like Yunshang. Don't you still push Zhou Xiu to quarrel with Yunshang? I don't think you can't get along with me, but you can't get along with Yunshang. You deliberately broke Comrade Gu's things,

It's adding to Yunshang's blockage. "

"You are talking nonsense! If you dare to touch me again, I will go to the police tomorrow and sue you for extorting money..."

Gu Shinian was too lazy to watch Liu Hongqi and Erya grab each other, picked up the bag on the ground, and said:

"Comrade Liu Hongqi, no matter what reason you fell, my things were broken from your hands. I only ask you to pay compensation. I will give you a week. If you don't lose money, I will go to your unit Talk to the leader about it."

After Gu Shinian finished speaking, without looking at the two of them, he took Yunshang with one hand and the old lady with the other and went home for dinner.

The neighbors didn't like Liu Hongqi, but they didn't feel so good about Erya recently. Seeing that the master had left, they didn't bother to watch them quarrel. They greeted each other and went back to their respective houses, leaving Liu Hongqi and Erya in place...

After eating, Yunshang found a piece of red cotton cloth from the space, and took a box of ice cream bought from Shenshi as a small gift, and planned to give it to Shen Yuegui tomorrow.

She has approved a lot of these things, they are not expensive, but they are from Shenshi, it is enough to fool Shen Yuegui.

Just as Yun Shang thought, after Shen Yuegui got the big red cotton cloth, her eyes stared straight at the cream in Yun Shang's hand again.

"Shang girl, what are you holding in your hand?"

"The cream, my aunt Lin asked someone to bring it back from Shenshi. It's delicious! It's said that the lesbians in Shenshi use this cream. It sells well, but it's always sold out."

After Yun Shang finished speaking, she opened the lid of the cream and let Shen Yuegui smell it, then immediately withdrew her hand, closed the lid and put it in her pocket.

Shen Yuegui was so greedy that her eyeballs almost fell out, she looked at Yunshang's pocket, swallowed, and said, "Shang girl, I remembered, your father's name is Gao Qingshan, your mother's name is Li Zhaodi, there are five in the family. A child, four daughters, and a boy.

If you want to go back, just cross the river from Houtan, enter the first village and ask to find it. "

Yun Shang pouted dissatisfiedly, "You mean, their family left all the other daughters behind, so they threw me into the river?"

Seeing that Shen Yuegui didn't know how to answer for a while, Yunshang continued to ask, "Aunt Yuegui, how do you know that I am not my mother's daughter?"

Shen Yuegui didn't speak, but turned her head away, not daring to look into Yunshang's eyes for a long time.

Seeing Shen Yuegui's guilty look, Yun Shang took out the cream from her pocket again, and tossed it for fun.

Shen Yuegui immediately turned her head, her eyeballs moved up and down with the cream, she couldn't help but said, "Yes, it was Li Hongmei who said it."

"What did she tell you?"

Chen Yuegui was silent for a while, then stammered, "She, she didn't tell me, she was talking to bad guys... I overheard it."

Chapter 263 finished

After asking all the questions that should be asked clearly, Yun Shang was too lazy to talk nonsense with Shen Yuegui, so she stuffed the cream and turned to walk to the ward.

"Hey, girl Chang, when are you going to find your parents?" Shen Yuegui asked urgently.

Yunshang pointed at her short legs and said, "I'm too young to go out alone. When my second brother Gu is on summer vacation, I'll ask second brother Gu to take me to the other side of the river."

According to the speed of the construction team building the road, the construction of the bridge should start around August, which happens to be during the summer vacation, and the enemy agents should also attack her at that time.

If Shen Yuegui passed the news to the enemy agents that she was going to the other side of the river during her summer vacation, would those people wait for her to throw herself into a trap?

Although she thought so, Yun Shang knew how difficult the enemy was, and knew her role in the opponent's plan. She also knew that in such a big matter, the opponent would not passively wait for her to throw herself into the trap. Take the initiative to attack and control her in advance.

Seeing this, Yun Shang rubbed her head anxiously, sighed secretly, turned and entered the ward.

Shen Yuegui stayed in the hospital for more than ten days. She didn't know any doctors or nurses, but she did meet a few nurses.

After Yunshang left, she immediately packed the fabric, borrowed scissors and needlework from a nurse she knew well, and made herself a new dress after staying up for two nights.

After washing her face in the morning, putting on a brand new red coat, and then applying a little cream on her face in front of the mirror, touching the much more delicate skin on her face, Shen Yuegui felt that she had spent the past twenty years in vain.

She never knew that women could still live like this. Wearing new clothes, applying cream, walking on the street with your head held high, and walking with fragrance, this is how a woman should live!

Shen Yuegui sighed in front of the mirror for a long time, then stuffed a disobedient strand of hair behind her ears, stroked her new clothes, turned and walked out.

These days, most of the clothes on the street are gray, black and blue. It is conceivable how eye-catching Shen Yuegui is when she wears a brand new red dress.

From the second floor of the inpatient department to the flower bed behind, Shen Yuegui raised her head and chest all the way, enjoying the 'envious' gazes of everyone, and felt that she was no worse than the female cadres in the city.

Until the messenger came to find her, Shen Yuegui's mood was still floating in the air.

The visitor took a look at Shen Yuegui, and quickly turned his head away, unable to bear to look directly at her, "Comrade Shen, are you... going to marry Yun Erchuan?" Why don't you dress like a bride?

It's just that other people's brides look good in red, why is Shen Yuegui so ugly?

Her skin was dark and yellow, her figure was flat and thin, she didn't look like a woman in her twenties at all.

Shen Yuegui raised her head, imitating the appearance of a little nurse in the hospital, her lips curved slightly, "Comrade Gao Qingmin, you are here. You, please sit down." Shen Yuegui hurriedly stroked the dust on the flower bed.

The corner of the man's mouth twitched a few times, turned sideways, and sat down beside Shen Yuegui.

"Comrade Shen, have you told Gao Qingshan's girl? What did the girl say? Will she recognize our Gao family?"

"I am willing." Shen Yuegui nodded, "Shang girl said that she has a brother who is going to school and has no time to go back. She will not be able to go to the other side of the river to meet relatives until the summer vacation."

Seeing the man's brows tightly frowned, Shen Yuegui said very understandingly, "Qingmin, don't worry, since Chang girl is the daughter of your Gao family, I will definitely help you recognize him back."

Gao Qingmin felt a chill in his heart, and looked at Shen Yuegui full of doubts.

Is this woman sick?

Why do you make him call him so affectionate?

Facing Gao Qingmin's gaze, Shen Yuegui lowered her head shyly, her neck was stained with light pink.

Gao Qingmin: "..."

Damn, my mother!

Is this Shen Yuegui crazy?

With his appearance not much better than that of a monkey, this woman also wants to do it?

..... Pseudo update line.....

In to these,

Yun Shang rubbed her head anxiously, sighed secretly, turned and entered the ward.

Gao Qingmin: "..."

Chapter 264 Turning over to the police

Gao Qingmin wanted to run away, but was dragged by Shen Yuegui and couldn't get away, and he was stunned.

This ramming goods!

He was carrying a knife. If he was sent to the police, his identity would definitely be revealed.

Gao Qingmin was angry and impatient, wishing to kill Shen Yuegui, a woman who failed to accomplish anything but failed.

Seeing that the hooligan man wanted to leave the woman and run away, the onlookers immediately became angry. A group of people gathered around, twisted the two together, and shouted to send them to the police.

At a critical juncture, Gao Qingmin hurriedly shouted that the two were engaged. He came to the hospital today to pick up Shen Yuegui for the wedding.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he finished speaking, someone spit on his face.

"Bah! Don't say that you are not married yet, even if you are a couple, you can't mess with men and women outside!"

"This is a hospital, cuddling in the hospital in broad daylight is just playing hooligans!"

"Let's go! Send them to the police, if you have anything to say to the police!"

...

A group of people pushed and pulled, noisy and twisted the two out.

On the second floor of the inpatient department, Yunshang was half-sitting at the window, watching the 'spectators' push Gao Qingmin and Shen Yuegui out of the hospital, her eyes narrowed with a smile, "Second brother Gu, those enthusiastic people are all from the police, right? ?"

"Well, Uncle Zhang made arrangements in advance. Gao Qingmin and Shen Yuegui were sent to the police just for show, and they will not be searched. After the interrogation, the coal mine leader will be notified to come and pick them up. Under the supervision of the coal mine leader, Gao Qingmin dare not not marry Shen Yuegui ."

Yun Chang turned her head to the side, and continued to ask in a crunchy voice, "What else? Gao Qingmin played hooligans all the way to Fenyang, and was arrested by the Fenyang police. Will the coal mine leaders punish him?"

"It depends on how the police arrange it. Maybe they will take the opportunity to transfer him to a post so that he will not have access to explosives, or continue to fish for big fish with Gao Qingmin and use Gao Qingmin to catch more hidden hidden stakes."

Seeing Yun Shang's small brows tightly frowned, Gu Shinian hugged her from the window and shook her growing upside-down braid, "Okay, the police are worried about these things, you just have to eat every day for fun, Just be happy."

When Gu Shinian said that, Yun Shang immediately became upset, and gave him a hard look, "Second Brother Gu, I can work too!"

She is not a rice bug who only knows how to eat and drink foolishly!

"Yes, my A-shang is the best." Gu Shinian skillfully smoothed Yunshang's hair, dragged her out of the hospital, and walked slowly home.

The old lady sat on the bench, looked at the white gauze behind the partition, and sighed, "Shangnan, why don't you let your aunt move down, and your mother and I live on the third floor, so it will be easier to take care of her in the future. If Let your mother live in this house, how can you take care of her alone?" What a pity to let her live in such a beautiful house.

"Then my second uncle has no place to live when he comes back." Yunshang hugged the old lady's waist and shook it back and forth a few times, "Grandma, Second Brother Gu said to let my mother live with him. If you and Shuanzi want to live in my house, you can live in my house, and if you don't want to live in my house, you can also live with Gu Er Ge."

The old lady's face froze for a moment, and she raised her hand to stroke Yunshang's head, "Silly girl, your mother is a patient, how can there be any reason to let the patient live in another house? Some people will make taboos."

Yun Chang didn't expect the old lady to say that, she was stunned for a moment, and asked, "Grandma, are you meeting with Second Brother Gu? Second Brother Gu knows how sad it is, and he will definitely not come to our house for dinner in the future."

The old lady didn't expect Yunshang to say that, she was stunned for a while, "Shangnan, our family has land to live in..." Why live in someone else's house?

"Grandma, my second brother Gu said, you and my mother live in the past, we can live in a single room, and you don't have to climb up and down on the second and third floors every day to cook for me." More importantly, me and Brother Gu can sneak out at night to do big things!

"Shangnan, can this really work? Did the child really say that?"

Yun Shang nodded again and again, "My room is spacious and comfortable to live in. My second brother Gu likes to live here..."

As he said, he pointed to the living room and said, "Second Brother Gu said that our dining table will be in his room.

From now on, I will only put sofas in my living room, instead of broken wood, it doesn't look good at all! "

Thinking of the big sofa in the space, Yun Shang's aggrieved face drooped.

Others couldn't afford it, or couldn't buy a sofa. She put the sofa in the space, but couldn't find a chance to take it out.

Looking at the tall living room, there was actually a table with eight immortals and four benches with messy colors. She was so ugly that she didn't even notice it.

The old lady looked back at the dining table that didn't match the living room, then looked at Yun Shang's aggrieved face, couldn't help but smiled and hugged Yun Shang into her arms:

"Ouch, my dear girl, how come you know everything! Okay! Grandma and your mother lived in Nianwazi's house, let my dear girl put sand in the room... what kind of sand?"

Yun Shang said crisply and authentically: "Grandma, it's a sofa."

"Yes! Set up a sofa so that my sweet girl can live comfortably!"

As soon as the old lady agreed, Gu Shinian packed up his things and moved here that night. After the Widow Wang was discharged from the hospital the next day, the old lady brought Shuan Zi and Widow Wang to live there.

Gu Shinian and Yun Shuilian also carried the dining table over, and the living room on Yunshang's side suddenly became empty.

Looking at the bright floor in the living room, Yun Chang couldn't help stepping on it and turning it around several times. The small black leather shoes with straps on her feet made a clicking sound when she stepped on the marble tiles.

Seeing Yun Shang's excited appearance, Gu Shinian also had a smile in his eyes, opened the door, and motioned Yun Shang to go out with him.

"Second Brother Gu, where are we going?" Seeing Gu Shinian rolling out the bicycle, Yun Shang asked curiously.

"Go to the transportation company and see if the driver Xue is here, and ask him to move the sofa back through a clear road."

After going downstairs, Gu Shinian carried Yun Chang into the car, kicked his foot, and the car slid out like a fish.

The old lady watched the two leave, and turned her head to ask Yun Shuilian who was busy packing, "Shuilian, did that Liu Hongqi pay for the teacup? You can't let the old Liu family renege."

"Not yet." Yun Shuilian pointed to the next door, "The old Liu's family blamed this matter on Erya next door, but Erya is not a vegetarian, she found Director Ren to file a complaint, and now the two families are still figuring out who should Losing money is making a fuss."

The old lady thought of the noise coming from the next door from time to time, and said unexpectedly:

"I think the two families want to renege on their debts! No..." The old lady stood up abruptly and walked out the door, "I have to go up and urge the old Liu's family, and I can't let them procrastinate any longer."

Yun Shuilian hurriedly put down the broom in her hand and followed, "Mother, I knew this matter well, they can't afford it."

Chapter 265: Objects

"Oh, you silly woman!" The old lady stretched out her hand and nodded Yun Shuilian's head, "She is not bad at paying her bills, but what if she keeps procrastinating and not paying for it? How could a child come to ask for debts by himself?"

Besides, Gu Shinian's one and a half-year-old children came to the door to ask for debts, how could they speak more than the old Liu's nine mouths.

Especially there are two elderly gangsters in the old Liu's family.

Yun Shuilian nodded quickly, "Mother, Director Ren is the building manager, let's ask the previous director to go with us." With the director in charge, the old Liu's family will be more or less scrupulous.

Director Ren is an officer of the Women's Federation, and the man works in the regional propaganda department. Both of them are cadres, and every household in Xiaoyanglou will give them face even if they are targeting their identities.

In addition, Director Ren is still the building manager of Xiaoyanglou, no one would be so stupid as to openly oppose the building manager.

Yun Shuilian went over to talk to Officer Ren, and Officer Ren quickly opened the door and came out. The two supported the old lady and chatted all the way up to the third floor.

The door of Liu Hongqi's house was open, and as soon as several people stood there, two little boys wearing shiny one-piece coats, messy hair, and two tubes of snot hanging out rushed out.

Director Ren and Yun Shuilian subconsciously helped the old lady back a few steps to avoid the little boy's collision.

The next moment, a woman with gray hair and a half-up bun also rushed out of the room, grabbed the old lady's hand and said:

"Dear family! Are you here? Come on! Come on, sit in the room!"

Before the old lady could react, the woman grabbed the two little boys by their collars, wiped the snot from their faces with her sleeves, pushed them into Yun Shuilian's arms, and opened her mouth and said:

"Third son, fourth son, hurry up! This is your sister-in-law! Quickly call sister-in-law!"

The two little boys seemed to have discussed it a long time ago, and each side held Yun Shuilian's leg tightly and did not let go.

"Sister-in-law! Are you here to live with my eldest brother? My mother said that my sister-in-law will give me a gift when she comes home for the first time. How much will you give me?"

As soon as the older boy finished speaking, the younger one continued, "It's a lot of money! My mother said that the money is too small, so I won't let you in..."

"Fourth, don't talk nonsense! My mother didn't say that. What my mother said was that my sister-in-law has a house, and she will not be allowed to enter the house unless she is married. She also said that after the sister-in-law enters the door, the big house will belong to our family. You can marry a wife in there!"

The faces of Yun Shuilian and the old lady turned pale instantly, and even the officer Ren couldn't help turning dark.

The old Liu family's eating habits are really ugly. The cup money owed to Shi Nian has not been repaid, and the whole family has taken Yun Shuilian's idea.

He didn't even look at his family's virtues. They were so poor that they couldn't find a decent face, and they even wanted to find someone for Liu Hongqi, who had only attended literacy classes and worked as a loading and unloading worker in the factory. The culture of the office.

That's fine, but he also blatantly plans to build Yunshuilian's house, and he doesn't think it's too ambitious to support the family to death.

Before Yun Shuilian could speak, the old lady grabbed the arms of the two little boys with her backhand, pulled them away from Yun Shuilian's body, put Yun Shuilian behind her, and said angrily at the woman:

"What are you doing? What are you doing? The whole family wants to play hooligans and bully others in broad daylight? Believe it or not, I'll go to the police and report your family to take over my house!"

The old lady said it fiercely, but the woman didn't take it seriously, and the corner of her mouth curled up, "Oh, you old lady, the two children are going to get married sooner or later, we will be a family sooner or later. ..."

"Xu Erchun!" Director Ren suddenly raged, "If you dare to speak nonsense to tarnish Comrade Xiaoyun's reputation, I will immediately go to the factory to talk to the leader Liu Hongqi!"

Yun Shuilian's face was green and pale with anger, and she also said angrily at Xu Erchun: "Who is dating! Can you tell me who is dating? Why don't I know that I am dating myself? How dare you talk nonsense , I will go to the police to sue you now!"

Xu Erchun was so frightened that he took a step back, and stroked his chest exaggeratedly, "Oh, what do you think you are, a woman with such a violent temper? This is not okay, if you don't change your temper, how can you serve our Hongqi when you enter the door?" ..."

"Snapped!"

Before Xu Erchun finished speaking,

The old lady rushed over and slapped her hard, "Fuck your mother! I don't even look at what kind of child Liu Hongqi is in your family, and you want to have sex with my daughter. What good things are you thinking about!"

Lao Yun's family is worth even a daughter! It hurts enough to hold it in my hand, how can I make outsiders feel anxious?

I also want Shui Lian to serve Liu Hongqi, bah! I don't even want to see if he deserves it!

Xu Erchun was not prepared for the old lady's sudden attack, raised his hand to touch his swollen and numb face, howled, and rushed over to hit the old lady.

Naturally, Yun Shuilian couldn't let the old lady suffer, she stepped forward and grabbed Xu Erchun's arm, and pushed her into the room.

"Xu Erchun! If you dare to talk nonsense and let Liu Hongqi come to me, I will immediately go to the police and sue Liu Hongqi for playing hooligans!"

Yunshui Lian's lungs are about to explode. Although everyone in this era shouts the slogan that women can hold up half the sky, the old society's discrimination against women is still deeply rooted in the hearts of the people. Whether it is in the city or in the countryside, a woman's reputation is damaged. Now, people still have to point fingers and make irresponsible remarks.

Especially unmarried women, once gossiping with a gay man, unless the two get married, they will be branded as indecent.

She had already attracted criticism because of Zhang Shouyi's remorse, and if she spread gossip with Liu Hongqi again, she would really not be able to find a good family in the future.

The director Ren on the side also had a dark face, blocked the door, pointed at Xu Erchun's nose and cursed, "Xu Erchun! You can't understand people's language, right? Shuilian is a clean girl, when will you talk to your Liu Hongqi?" Are you in love? The chairman has said that women hold up half the sky, and you still want to marry a wife to serve Liu Hongqi, why are you going against the chairman!"

Yun Shuilian is the junior she brought into the Women's Federation, and she is very optimistic about it. She plans to vigorously support Yun Shuilian in the future, so that she can grow into a young cadre who is alone in the Women's Federation as soon as possible.

If Yun Shuilian was really entangled by the old Liu's family and entered this wolf den, how could she gain a foothold in the Women's Federation in the future?

Even her own marriage was calculated, and she couldn't even handle the family affairs well after marriage. Where did she come from to liberate the minds of other female comrades? What qualifications do she have to handle other people's family affairs?

The old Liu family is not disgusting Yun Shuilian, this is slapping the Women's Federation in the face, slapping her, the building manager, in the face!

Seeing Yun Shuilian and Officer Ren furious, Xu Erchun was stunned.

We are all neighbors, she just asked Liu Hongqi and Yun Shuilian to have a date, or rushed to get married, why is she playing hooligans?

Besides, aren't women just serving men? If they don't serve men, what's the point of marrying a wife? Why is this against the chairman?

Chapter 266 I have a partner

Xu Erchun sat on the ground, unable to regain his senses for a long time, but Granny Liu in the room heard the movement, and immediately moved out with a wooden stool. Seeing Xu Erchun sitting on the ground unable to get up, she patted her thigh and howled. bookmark our website

"Oh, God, the cadres of the Women's Federation came to bully people, and I can't live with the old woman! If you are good, you won't have sex with our Hongqi. This is not looking down on our working class! Director, You have to be the master of our family, this female hooligan is playing with our family's red flag!"

As soon as Mrs. Liu made a fuss, Xu Erchun immediately had the backbone, and immediately slapped the floor and shouted: "San Er! Xiao Si! You two are dead people? I can't see your mother being beaten!"

The two boys, one six years old and the other four years old, were at the time when they didn't know what was going on. After hearing Xu Erchun's scolding, they immediately realized that they rushed forward and wanted to beat Yun Shuilian. The scene was instantly noisy and chaotic.

There was a commotion in the old Liu's house, and the neighbors on the third floor ran out to watch the excitement, and soon blocked the entrance of the corridor tightly.

The old lady couldn't stand Mrs. Liu pouring dirty water on Yunshuilian's head, and scolded Mrs. Liu outside. When she was emotional, she almost broke through the crowd and rushed in to slap Mrs. Liu a few times.

Yun Shuilian ignored the beatings of the two children, and together with Officer Ren, looked at Xu Erchun and Mrs. Liu with serious eyes, until they were too shivering to scold, before she said:

"Comrade Xu Erchun, I'm warning you for the last time, never let your family Liu Hongqi join me, and don't spread rumors about who I am with Liu Hongqi outside.

I already have a partner, not your Liu Hongqi, if I hear you gossiping about me again, I will negotiate with Liu Hongqi's leadership in the name of the Women's Federation, and then sue the police. "

Both Mrs. Liu and Xu Erchun were stunned, not because they were worried that Yun Shuilian would go to the police to sue Liu Hongqi, but because they were surprised that Yun Shuilian already had a girlfriend.

Officer Ren at the side also looked back at Yun Shuilian in surprise, seeing her serious expression and bright and firm eyes, he couldn't figure out for a while whether she was fooling the old Liu's family or if she really had a date.

However, regardless of whether Yun Shuilian's words were true or not, at this time, the families in Xiaoyanglou who were interested in Yun Shuilian were fooled.

Mrs. Liu shook her face for a long time, then suddenly let out a long howl, leaned against the wall and continued to cry: "You little demon, you have such a bad eye! You have a partner. If you don't tell me earlier, you still make me fall in love with you every day." It's on you! You're eating from the bowl and looking at the pot... I really don't know how to behave!"

After hearing this, the old lady was so angry that her hands shook, she pushed aside the crowd, and rushed up to spit on Mrs. Liu, "You are not a good old woman! You old Liu's family doesn't know how to check it! The big girl is going to your house, and she wants to marry the house! Pooh! I think everyone else is a fool!"

Director Ren also turned cold, looked up at the neighbors around, and said loudly, "Yun Shuilian is an innocent person, behaves well, and is a reserve talent that our Women's Federation is very optimistic about. Where is she not being disciplined?"

If looking for a partner is indiscriminate, then why is Liu Hongqi jumping up and down in such a hurry to find a partner? "

Hearing what the officer said, Mrs. Liu became even more emotional, propped her arms on her thighs, and yelled with a blushing face:

"Can it be the same! Can it be the same! Our family's Hongqi is a boy, the eldest grandson of our old Liu family! He found a partner to carry on the family line, and married him to serve him! What is a girl? That is born Waiting on a man, giving him something to hold his son Sun Gen, can you compare with a man?"

As soon as these words came out, not only the faces of Director Ren and Yun Shuilian turned dark, but also the faces of the neighbors around them also turned dark.

Half of the households in Xiaoyanglou are employees of several nearby units, there are cadres, there are teachers in the school, and their quality is relatively high. Even if everyone still favors boys over girls in their hearts, they don't think women are so inferior.

What's more, the chairman has said that women hold up half the sky. In the past few years, various units have selected female model workers and strong women, which has greatly improved the status of women.

Mrs. Liu's remarks,

It's simply an open confrontation with the GC party, and a challenge to the chairman.

Xu Erchun had just been warned by Director Ren, and his heart suddenly stopped, and he quickly stammered to defend Mrs. Liu:

"My mother... She is confused, she is talking nonsense. We, women can hold up half the sky... My mother, she dare not go against the chairman..."

Before Xu Erchun finished speaking, Old Man Liu came out of the back room with his shoes on, his face dark and sullen, and he looked at Mrs. Liu as a crutch, "Can you still pass?! You will be blind all day long, and nothing you eat can stop your suffocation." hole?"

The eldest head of the old Liu's family got angry. Mrs. Liu, Xu Erchun, and the two younger ones who were jumping up and down outside all stopped, and stood next to the wall without saying a word, as if they were being trained.

The old man Liu cursed a few more times, glared at the crowd outside with his triangular eyes filled with shit, turned around and walked into the house.

The old lady took a deep breath, suppressed the surging anger in her heart, stepped forward and called Old Man Liu, "Your Liu Hongqi broke my baby's two sets of cups, when are you going to pay for it?"

Old man Liu scratched his head irritably, "Oh, I'll scold him when the red flag comes back from get off work." After speaking, he continued to walk into the house.

Seeing old man Liu's attitude, the old lady knew that she was planning to renege on the debt, so she raised her voice and said:

"Whether you scold your grandson or not is a matter for your old Liu family. What I'm asking now is, when will your family pay my baby back?"

The old lady spoke clearly enough, but Old Liu seemed to be deaf, so he ignored the old lady and went straight back to the house.

Seeing that the old lady was panting heavily with anger, Yun Shuilian hurriedly held the old lady's arm, half threatening the old Liu's family, half comforting the old lady:

"Mother, it's okay. The things were broken by Liu Hongqi. He can't afford to pay. Don't worry, I will go to Liu Hongqi's factory right now and deduct Liu Hongqi's wages through the factory leader to pay for it! Don't dare to get angry."

Officer Ren at the side also persuaded, "Old sister, Shui Lian is right, Liu Hongqi will have to pay for breaking something, if not, we can get the money back through the factory, and we can go to the police to sue Liu Hongqi, you Don't dare to get angry because of this."

After the two of them finished talking, they didn't bother with the old Liu's family, and prepared to go downstairs with the old lady by the arm.

Xu Erchun and Mrs. Liu in the room were completely dumbfounded when they heard what they said. They looked at each other and chased out one after the other:

"Wait! In-laws... from Lao Yun's family, this matter is not our family's red flag, it's Erya downstairs who made trouble, you have to go to Erya to pay for it."

"That's right! The money for the cup should be paid by Erya! That little girl has such a bad heart, she broke my red flag, and we have to ask her to pay for it!"

Chapter 267: Burglary

Yun Shuilian almost laughed out of anger, she turned her head and said to Mrs. Liu and Xu Erchun, "I don't care how Liu Hongqi fell, I just know that Liu Hongqi broke the things in my house, and we will ask Liu Hongqi to pay for it." .As for who your family is looking for to lose money, it is your old Liu's business, and our family will not get involved."

After going downstairs, Yun Shuilian arranged for the old lady, and immediately put on her backpack, ready to go to Liu Hongqi's factory to deal with the loss of money.

When passing Room No. 4, Director Ren called Yun Shuilian to stop, and followed her out with a satchel, "Let's go, I'll go with you to the fertilizer factory."

Yun Shuilian was a little flattered, and immediately waved her hands and said, "Director Ren, I can handle this by myself, so I can't trouble you to accompany me to the factory anymore."

Director Ren smiled, and his attitude towards Yunshuilian was very helpful, "I didn't just go to lose money for Liu Hongqi. When I get to the fertilizer factory, I have to talk to the leaders of the factory guild about other things."

The two went straight to the fertilizer factory talking and laughing, but Erya's room on the second floor became a mess.

Xu Erchun and Mrs. Liu couldn't move Yun Shuilian to ask Er Ya for money, and saw her and Director Ren go downstairs talking and laughing, and revealed during the conversation that the two were planning to go to the fertilizer factory.

Now the people in the old Liu family couldn't sit still, Xu Erchun left Mrs. Liu in the corridor on the second floor, went home and shouted at the few children who were nesting in the house, and rushed into the village like devils entering the village. Erya's house.

As soon as they entered the door, Erya was forced to pay money. In addition to the 30 yuan paid to Gu Shinian, Liu Hongqi was also paid 50 yuan, which was used as medical expenses and lost work expenses for Liu Hongqi's fall.

Erya is not a fuel-efficient lamp, not only refused to lose money, but also satirized the old Liu family, scolded the old Liu family for being poor and crazy, and would be poor all his life, and scolded Liu Hongqi for being illiterate and illiterate. Marrying a female cadre is like a toad wanting to eat swan meat...

The old Liu's family dare not go against the old Yun's family, that's because the old Yun's family has a male, and Yun Shuilian works in the Women's Federation, and there are two officers and husband and wife behind him to support her, but Erya is an orphan, and she has been raising her for several years. The old Zhou's family doesn't care about her anymore, so the old Liu's family has nothing to be afraid of.

Seeing that Erya didn't know how to play, and insisted on not losing money, Xu Erchun immediately called the two younger ones to hug Erya tightly and not move, and told the others to move things quickly.

The warm pot Erya bought on the black market, the brand new aluminum lunch box, the leftover 20 catties of rations, and the bedding on the bed were all emptied by the old Liu's family in the blink of an eye.

Xu Erchun came out with a stack of bowls, saw the stove at the door, immediately picked up the aluminum pot on the stove, poured hot water into the stove, and ran upstairs with the aluminum pot, shouting as he ran, " Second child, the stove is off, you and Nier quickly bring the stove up too!"

Erya has lived two lifetimes, and has seen many scenes of shrews torturing her, but she never thought that one day she would be forced to come to her door by live bandits and rob her.

She wanted to chop this group of people out with a kitchen knife, but the two youngest children of the old Liu family clung to her like leeches, making her unable to move. null.

After the old Liu's family left as a victor, Erya wiped her seeping eyes, subconsciously rushed to the door of old Zhou's house, heard the cheerful laughter of Zhou Xiu and Dabao in the room, paused, and straightened up again. He rushed downstairs and went up the street.

The old Liu's family didn't know that Erya had gone to the street to file a complaint. The family sat in the house, looking at the piles of guys on the ground, discussing where to go to the black market to turn these things into cash.

Liu Hongqi and his father are still working in the chemical fertilizer factory at the moment, old man Liu and Mrs. Liu are the only ones at home, and Xu Erchun obeys the orders of the responsible person to carry out the task, but these three people are illiterate, and they don't know that the family's behavior has changed. It constitutes a major crime of burglary.

After Liu Hongqi received the notice from the factory that his wages for the next month would be deducted to compensate Gu Shinian for his cup money, before he could get angry, he heard the rumor that something had happened at home, and Xu Erchun He and Mrs. Liu brought his younger brothers and sisters into the house to rob,

Let him quickly call his father to go home and deal with things.

Liu Hongqi: Σ}

His mother and his grandma brought their younger siblings into the house and robbed them! ?

Has the matter spread to the factory? ? ?

A nest of robbers? ? ?

Liu Hongqi's mind was buzzing for a long time, and when she recovered, she didn't call Mrs. Liu, and just ran home.

When we got back to Xiaoyanglou, the people on the street just came out of the old Liu's house with Erya. Xu Erchun, Mrs. Liu, and a few children in the family were moving things back to Erya's room one by one.

After Liu Hongqi went upstairs, Mrs. Liu and Xu Erchun seemed to have seen the backbone, and they cried and cursed when they went up to hug him.

She scolded Yun Shuilian for being indiscreet, she didn't tell her she had a partner, she deliberately hung Liu Hongqi to work for Lao Yun's family, she scolded Erya for being mean-spirited, tripped Liu Hongqi but refused to admit it, and went to the street to sue them , almost turned the old Liu family into a bad guy...

Erya was so angry that her face turned blue. If she hadn't fought with the old Zhou family and was hostile to Yunshang too quickly, so that everyone in Xiaoyanglou had a bad impression of her, she would definitely sue the police. Send this family's disgusting things to labor reform.

Now that she has filed a complaint with the street, although the matter has been resolved, it has not left the impression of being ruthless, but she and the old Liu's family have settled, and they must be wary of this family in the future.

What's more troublesome is that she is now an orphan, only eight years old, and has no one to protect her. If the old Liu family finds fault again, she will definitely not be able to handle this big family by herself.

Thinking of this, Erya endured the nausea, took out fifteen yuan from her bosom and shook it, "Liu Hongqi, you know in your heart whether I tripped you or not. I won't break up with you anymore, it's ten Five yuan, if you take our family, it will be settled, and if your family troubles me again in the future, I will go to the police and sue your family for burglary!"

Seeing the pile of banknotes in Erya's hand, Xu Erchun and Mrs. Liu's eyes lit up immediately. Before Liu Hongqi could reply, Xu Erchun rushed over and snatched the money.

Granny Liu immediately let go of Liu Hongqi, calling for Xu Erchun to bring the money...

Seeing that the old Liu's family started to quarrel again because of fifteen yuan, Erya curled her lips in disgust, turned around and sent the comrades on the street downstairs.

Today is the weekend, and the children of Xiaoyanglou are gathering in small groups to play wildly downstairs, and some children are covering the faucet with their hands and playing water fights.

The comrades Erya sent off on the street just turned around when Dabao splashed him with water. Just as he was about to get angry, he saw Gu Shinian and Yunshang coming from the end of the street from afar.

The two of them were followed by two row cars, the cars were raised high, and large things were piled on top of them.

Chapter 268: Predecessor

Yun Chang was wearing a beige cardigan sweater, a pair of fine plaid overalls underneath, and a pair of small leather shoes with straps on her feet. When she walked, the braid on her forehead flickered, very pretty.

Gu Shinian on the side was handsome, with a calm demeanor, and his dark green coat made his complexion like jade, with clear and clear eyebrows and eyes.

He was obviously a clear and cold young man, but when he looked at the little girl beside him, the coldness on his face dissipated instantly, and he smiled brightly and warmly.

When two people walk together, they form a world of their own, which makes people yearn for, but they cannot be easily approached. It is as beautiful as a painting.

Erya stood under the small western building, watching the two slowly approaching, her fists were clenched together unconsciously.

In her previous life, she also saw Yun Shang and Gu Shinian on the same day.

At that time, she was wearing clothes that were full of patches and were too small to cover her belly, and cloth shoes with a big hole in the front that couldn't fit into the heel at the back. Ugly rats in the ditch.

Zhou Xiu thought she was dirty and smelly, and felt that if she appeared in front of Yunshang and Gu Shinian dressed like that, He Dang would lose face, so she kicked her in front of Yunshang and drove her downstairs to the faucet take a shower.

In the weather in March, the highest temperature is only ten degrees Celsius. If she really went downstairs to take a shower with cold water, she would definitely have a high fever.

At that time, she was young and ignorant, and she was used to being submissive in Zhou's house, so she followed Zhou Xiu's words and prepared to go downstairs to take a shower so foolishly.

Later, Yun Shang couldn't see it, and pulled her to the back to stop Zhou Xiu from bullying her.

It was on that day that she tasted sugar for the first time, ate soft and sweet chicken cakes for the first time, and it was also the first time that a friend of the same age did not dislike her being dirty and smelly, and was willing to talk to her and treat her Take it personally.

Before Yunshang appeared, she felt that Zhou Xiu was a fairy boy in the mouth of the old people, who ate well, dressed well, had a fair face, and looked very blessed.

But when Yunshang appeared, she felt that Xiantong should look like Yunshang.

The eyebrows are exquisite and beautiful, the eyes are clear and agile, and when you see people, you smile before you say anything, as pretty as a flower bud that has just sprouted from a branch. Even the naughtiest boy in Xiaoyanglou didn't dare to fight loudly in front of Yunshang, for fear of scaring her.

Because of Yunshang's existence, her life in Xiaoyanglou is much easier, at least those naughty boys will stop bullying her for Yunshang's sake.

Later, through Yunshang, she met Gu Shinian, who Zhou Xiu tried her best to get along with, and because of Yunshang, Gu Shinian would occasionally say a few words to her, or ask her how to get along with her. The old Zhou's life is better.

If she was wronged at the Zhou family, or was bullied by other children, she can complain to Yunshang. Although Yunshang won't help her curse in a rough voice, nor will she fight for her, but she will be soft Comfort her and tell her that when she grows up and starts working, no one will be able to bully her.

Occasionally, when she was bullied severely by Zhou Xiu or the old Zhou family, Gu Shinian would find ways to help her get revenge so that Zhou Xiu would never dare to kill her again.

To this day, Erya thinks of that time in her previous life, and still thinks it was the happiest time of her life.

When her life was getting better, Chen Cuiqiao appeared, claiming to be her aunt, and said that Lao Zhou's house was originally her house.

At that time, the He Dang family's attitude towards her was much better. She didn't know whether she should leave Lao Zhou's house and live with Chen Cuiqiao in the provincial capital.

She ran to the next door to ask Yunshang and Gu Shinian for their opinions, but Gu Shinian said it was her own business and let her make up her own mind, while Yunshang was just like Baozi as always, saying that she was young and didn't understand these things. Let her ask someone else.

Later, Chen Cuiqiao quarreled with He Dang. Chen Cuiqiao said that the old Zhou family had abused her, so he asked the old Zhou family to return the house to her and take her to Fenyang.

But He Dang and Mrs. Zhou almost beat Chen Cuiqiao out with a broom, and pulled her outside, pointing at the old clothes that Zhou Xiu gave her that were probably new to please Gu Shinian,

Said that if the old Zhou's family really abused her, they couldn't wear such good clothes for her, and they should wear clothes full of patches.

At that time, she felt that what He Dang said was reasonable, and since Lao Zhou lived in her house, and Gu Shinian was there, she was not worried about her future life, so she refused to go back to the provincial capital with Chen Cuiqiao.

Chen Cuiqiao was very unhappy, but she still cared about the relationship between relatives, and asked the old Zhou family to go through the transfer procedures with her.

After Chen Cuiqiao left, the old Zhou family treated her even better and stopped deducting her food rations, and occasionally gave her a ten or two cent pocket money.

Although her son is not as good as Zhou Xiu, she is much better than girls from other workers' families in Xiaoyanglou.

After winter, Yunshang suddenly went to the provincial capital quietly, and Gu Shinian seldom went back to Xiaoyanglou.

Probably because of a bad heart, he rarely spoke when he saw her, and never took care of her like before.

During that time, because Zhou Xiu couldn't see the reason for Gu Shinian, she often vented her anger on her, and because Lao Zhou lived in her house, she insisted and refused to give in. Gradually, He Dang's attitude towards her became more and more serious. It's getting worse.

It wasn't until Chinese New Year that she quarreled with Zhou Xiu over buying new clothes, got up in the middle of the night to go to the bathroom, and heard He Dang and his wife gossiping in the next room. He also took a thousand dollars from her.

But He Dang wanted to drive her away because she always had conflicts with Zhou Xiu. The couple were discussing how to cheat her house, and also wanted to send her to the countryside and marry her out with a dowry in a few years. .

Erya didn't know how she got back to the top, she only knew that she didn't fall asleep all night, stayed up until dawn, and ran to the next door together to ask Gu Shinian for help.

Gu Shinian helped her open a letter of introduction, bought her a train ticket to the provincial capital, and called Yun Shang, asking Yun Shang to deliver a letter to Chen Cuiqiao and pick her up at the train station.

When she arrived in the provincial capital, she learned from Chen Cuiqiao that Yun Shang was not a child of Lao Yun's family, but the daughter of the commander of the provincial military region. Chen Cuiqiao probably didn't expect that she could know the child of the commander's family, and she treated her very well. Dear.

Not only did she get back a thousand dollars from Lao Zhou's house, but she also sold her small western-style house at a high price, and Chen Cuiqiao saved every penny of the money for her.

At that time, she felt that Chen Cuiqiao was really kind to her. Not only did she not blame her for what happened before, but she also treated her as a relative, bought her beautiful clothes, sent her to school, and always asked her to invite her friends to play at home. .

Chapter 269: The Past

She had just arrived in the provincial capital, and the only friend she knew was Yunshang. Chen Cuiqiao asked her to bring her friend to play at home, so she could only invite Yunshang.

At that time, Yunshang lived in the No. 1 courtyard where the high-level troops lived in a row of small bungalows, while Chen Cuiqiao lived in the No. 2 courtyard, although it was next door, but they lived in small bungalows.

Yun Shang followed her to Chen Cuiqiao's house to play twice, and then excused that the journey was too far away, and never went to Chen Cuiqiao's house again.

At that time, she didn't know that Chen Cuiqiao was trying to curry favor with Bai Siling's family through Yunshang, and she did it too obviously, which made Yunshang disgusted, and she simply thought that Yunshang didn't want to be friends with her, so she ran to question Yunshang.

Unexpectedly, Yunshang, who has always been soft and soft, like a soft bun, faced her questioning, and said in front of many children in the compound, "I have never made friends with you."

This remark made her lose face in the two courtyards, and Chen Cuiqiao's family also lost face.

Before Yunshang broke up with her, Chen Cuiqiao often boasted in the No. 2 compound that Commander Bai's daughter had a good relationship with her niece, and said that Yunshang often went to her house to play, and called her Aunt Chen affectionately.

Compound No. 2 lived in families of ordinary military officers, and many of them came from the countryside. They had a natural sense of awe for the most powerful figures in the military region, so they naturally didn't have the guts to ask whether Chen Cuiqiao was telling the truth.

In addition, Yunshang had indeed been to Chen Cuiqiao's house before, and those family members who did not know the truth believed it, thinking that Chen Cuiqiao was indeed on good terms with Bai Siling's family, and flattered her very much.

Even Chen Cuiqiao's man received a lot of care at work.

But Yunshang suddenly distanced herself from her, and used the most direct way to expose Chen Cuiqiao's lies. This was a blow to the head, which shattered the illusion that Chen Cuiqiao had created for a long time.

After the incident was over, Yun Shang was still the most beloved youngest daughter of the commander's family in the upper military region. Those arrogant children in the No. 1 compound saw that Tian'er tried to make friends with Yun Shang, wanted to curry favor with Yun Shang, and curry favor with Commander Bai .

And after she was humiliated by Yun Shang in public, her life at Chen Cuiqiao's house became difficult.

Every day she has to be busy washing the clothes of Chen Cuiqiao's family and making meals for the whole family, and because she has no house and no food rations, it is even more common for her to go hungry.

Even so, she didn't hate Yunshang too much, after all, she was used to such days at Lao Zhou's house.

A few months later, Gu Shinian also arrived in the provincial capital, and she ran over excitedly to say hello to Gu Shinian, but Gu Shinian didn't even look at her, and pulled Yun Shang straight into the No. 1 courtyard .

Being rejected by Yunshang, she can still comfort herself, saying that Yunshang is a soft bun, and those words are what the Commander asked her to say.

But being ignored by Gu Shinian, she couldn't accept it.

When he was in Fenyang, although Gu Shinian didn't talk to her often, he still took her under his wing and helped her teach Zhou Xiu and He Aidang many times.

He used to be so nice to her, why would he be the same as Yun Shang, ignoring her without any reason.

After thinking about it, she felt that Yun Shang had said bad things about her in front of Gu Shinian, so she chased and blocked Gu Shinian on the road, trying to explain clearly to him.

Unexpectedly, when she said that Yunshang provoked the relationship between her and Gu Shinian, Gu Shinian's whole person changed. For the first time, he looked at her with cold and disgusting eyes, warned her not to mention Yunshang's name, and said that she was not worthy of Yun Shang's kindness to her.

After returning home at night, she thought about it all night, but she never thought about when Yun Shang would be nice to her.

However, she figured out one thing, that is, Gu Shinian really didn't want to talk to her anymore.

After that time, she never looked for Gu Shinian again, and thought that she would soon forget these two childhood playmates.

But she didn't expect that with the passage of time, Gu Shinian's image not only did not become blurred, but also took root in her heart and grew into a towering tree.

She knew that Gu Shinian had a house in the provincial capital, and thinking that Chen Cuiqiao still had her 1,000 yuan and the money to buy the house, she discussed with Chen Cuiqiao that she wanted to buy a house and move out.

Unexpectedly, Chen Cuiqiao resolutely opposed her moving out on the pretext that the family needed money.

Later, Chen Cuiqiao's mouth twisted even more, and she refused to admit that she had taken her money.

She had no choice but to stay at Chen Cuiqiao's house and serve as a cow for that family.

When she finally got to the age of sixteen and graduated from junior high school, she was thinking about finding a job in a factory and leaving Chen Cuiqiao's house completely. The child stayed in the city, so he secretly reported her name and dispatched her to the remotest place.

On the train going to the countryside, she thought about the experiences of these years carefully, and suddenly found that all her misfortunes after arriving in the provincial capital were caused by Yun Shang's sentence "I have never made friends with you" back then. started.

Including that she was completely ignored by Gu Shinian later, it was also because Yun Shang didn't like her...

Thinking of her degrading in the countryside for decades, from a green girl to a thick peasant woman, thinking of Chen Cuiqiao's cousin who was supposed to go to the countryside calling her shameless in a disdainful tone, thinking of the son-in-law of the commander's family, and thinking of her return to the city. , the accident that happened to Gu Shinian, the chill in Erya's eyes became more and more intense...

Yunshang and Gu Shinian walked in front, and the driver Xiao Xue rode a bicycle crookedly behind them, chatting and turning around from time to time to look at the tightly covered sofa on the row car.

When they arrived at Xiaoyanglou, Gu Shinian and driver Xiao Xue pulled the old canvas off the sofa, and the simple and elegant beige sofa instantly attracted everyone's attention.

The children playing downstairs were the same as before, swarming up, watching and admiring, and some people asked Yunshang what kind of furniture was pulled on the car.

A few housewives heard the movement and came out to take a look, and then they ran down and circled the car a few times, or reached out to touch the smooth wooden frame of the sofa, or pressed the sponge cushion of the sofa to try Hardness.

There were also two women who looked like cadres who held Gu Shinian, and kept asking where he bought the sofa and how much it cost. Not only did he sell it, but he also wanted to buy one for his own home.

After dealing with the neighbors, the driver Xiao Xue and two workers pulling the row cart moved the sofa upstairs and placed it in the spacious and bright living room.

And Yunshang took a few palm-sized black clay pots from the car, filled them with water, and placed them on the partition wall with the help of the bottom bracket.

Using the cover of the satchel, I cut a few clusters of green radishes from the space and inserted them into clay pots. The flexible and slender branches of green radishes hang down from the partition to form a green wall, and the whole room is instantly full of vitality. sense.

Chapter 270 do big things

She thought that the sofa that Yunshang was talking about was the kind of grand master's chair that used to be placed in the landlord's house, and she also thought that it was worthless, and she could buy a lot of it for a few cents at the purchasing station.

I never imagined that the sofa that Yunshang mentioned is such a high-end thing. The surface of the coffee table and the handle of the sofa are shiny and shiny, and slippery flies can split their legs. The beige backrest and cushions in the middle are round and full of cotton... No, it's called Na Hai Han Mian, and it looks more comfortable than a bed.

But this thing looks good, but the price is also good, so how long will it take to sit on the sofa to get back the money?

The old lady was so distressed that she didn't dare to touch the sofa, but Shuan Zi couldn't close her mouth with joy, thinking that the family had finally added a big toy for him, waving her little arms, struggling to climb onto the single sofa, but still didn't respond When he came over, his small body fell into a soft package.

The old lady was startled, and hurried over to lift Shuanzi up, then gently pressed the sofa bag back to its original shape, and said with twitching corners of her mouth, "Shuanzi, don't dare to be naughty, what do you do if the sofa makes you sit badly? "

Yun Chang frowned, and pulled the old lady to the sofa to sit down, "Grandma, this sofa is not bad, you can try it."

Under Yun Shang's persuasion, the old lady sat down cautiously, her butt suddenly seemed to be trapped in a large bag of cotton wool, as if her butt could bounce up when she moved, her face turned pale with fright, "Shangnan~, this chair How is it alive! It, how can it move?"

"Grandma, there is a spring under this chair, which can spring up when you press it down." Yun Shang explained to the old lady solemnly.

"Ah, that's really good." The old lady leaned on the sofa stiffly, feeling soft and comfortable on her back, and sighed, "Grandma enjoys the blessing of my baby girl! You can sit in such a comfortable chair."

After finishing speaking, he frowned and added, "It doesn't matter the price, my grandma feels distressed just sitting there."

A sofa is more comfortable than a bed, but isn't it more expensive than a big bed and bedding combined?

The old lady sat on the sofa with all kinds of pains, but Yun Shuilian stood in front of the partition, looking at the green dill branches with envy, "Shangnan, the grass grows so beautifully, where did it come from?"

"Guy, I asked the person who bought the sofa to help bring it here." After Yun Shang finished speaking, she took out the small scissors from under the coffee table, went up and cut a few palm-length green radish branches and handed them to Yunshui Lian, "Guy, this is for you, you take it up and put it in a canning bottle, and then add some water to feed it."

Yun Shuilian suddenly felt that this grass is so amazing that it can be grown without soil, so she quickly took it and prepared to go upstairs to grow it in the room.

After walking a few steps, remembering that he hadn't talked about the business, he turned around and took out 30 yuan and three industrial tickets from his pocket, and stuffed them to Gu Shinian who had just cleaned up the balcony and was about to clean up the living room.

"At that time, this was Liu Hongqi's compensation for the cup money, and the remaining industrial tickets will be paid back slowly in the future."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she asked Yun Shuilian, "Auntie, is the old Liu family willing to give money?"

"This money is Liu Hong's monthly salary. I went to the factory today to ask for an account."

As soon as Yun Shuilian finished speaking, the old lady said bitterly beside her, "The old Liu family is too disrespectful! Seeing your aunt go to the factory to ask for money, the whole family ran down and robbed Er Ya's property. I heard that In the end, Erya gave fifteen yuan to the old Liu family, and the matter was over."

Yun Chang was stunned, staring at her dark eyes, feeling like she had missed the most exciting show.

Thinking of Erya standing downstairs covered in water when she came back from moving the sofa, looking at her with gloomy eyes, Yun Chang felt extremely comfortable.

Erya has made it clear that she doesn't like her, so what's wrong with her embarrassing Erya?

At the beginning, she only wanted to teach Liu Hongqi a lesson and tell him to stay away from Yun Shuilian, but she didn't mean to ask Liu Hongqi to blackmail Erya.

Besides, Erya has come back to life again, how did she know that Erya would be so useless that she could be taken away by the old Liu's family for fifteen yuan.

After talking about the business, Yun Shuilian carried Shuanzi who was dozing off sleepily, and helped the old lady by the arm, ready to send the old and the young to rest next door.

Of course, before going out, I didn't forget to tell Yun Shang to soak her feet quickly and rest early.

After noticing that Liu Hongqi no longer went to Yun Shuilian's side, Yunshang thought about going to the purchasing station to dump things, and going to the black market to sell food.

In the space, wheat, corn, and various vegetables were planted one crop after another, and they were piled up in the warehouse.

The newly transplanted apricot tree has already produced fruit, and when it reaches maturity, the skin has faded from blue and began to turn red in large areas.

A few days ago, Yunshang was greedy. She picked a green apricot to try it out. It was so sour that she almost fell her teeth. Now that the apricot is ripe, she took a bite of the red flesh, and the sweet and sour taste instantly filled her mouth, and the juice flowed continuously. Gushing out, rippling between the lips and teeth.

Yun Chang ate five or six big apricots in one go before stopping, then found a few baskets, picked the ripe apricots one by one, took out a basket to sell on the black market, and left the rest for the family eat slowly.

As the sky was just getting bright, Gu Shinian rolled out his bicycle, hugged Yunshang on the beam and sat down, kicked off, and quickly disappeared into the street.

When they were about to reach the black market, the two found a place where no one was around to put away their bicycles, and put the rice, white flour, eggs, vegetables, and apricots that they had prepared in the morning on the cart, covered them with rags, and pushed them to the cart. to the black market.

Now that the summer grain has not come down yet, after the Chinese New Year, the price of grain on the black market has risen again and again, and a four-two-weight black-faced steamed bun can be sold for about one yuan and two yuan.

Urban residents do have food to eat, but the grain station has a lot of fine grains every month. If you queue up late, you can only get coarse grains, and even coarse grains mixed with food substitutes.

Because of this, as soon as Gu Shinian lifted the rags on the cart to reveal the fine grains inside, the second-rate dealers and ordinary people on the black market all swarmed over.

When Gu Shinian put the eggs and all kinds of fresh vegetables on display, everyone couldn't move their eyes away.

During this season, people in the village can still go to the fields to dig wild vegetables to fill their bellies, or to add vegetables, but people in the city have no place to dig wild vegetables, so they can only eat radishes with hollow cores, cabbages with flowering cores, or sprouts everywhere. The potatoes are not only not fresh, but occasionally eating germinated potatoes will cause vomiting and diarrhea.

Now seeing juicy leeks, coriander, spinach, and early-ripening apricots, how could everyone hold back the faint taste in their mouths.

Especially the housewives, seeing that the vegetables are arranged one by one by a catty, and even the stubble is so tender that it can drip water, can't help picking them first.

"This leek is fresh and tender. Buy a few more eggs and weigh some white noodles. When you go back, you can have a full meal of dumplings for your children to satisfy their cravings!"

"The coriander is also good, and the spinach is also good, but a bundle is too expensive."
