Chapter 341: Splashing You A Pot of Urine

Yun Chang didn't know how many people were complaining about her in their hearts, and nodded repeatedly, pulling the old man's skirt like a dog's leg, and pretending to say, "Grandpa, the baby of the Qi family is scary, I'm about to be scared to cry."

All the troubled brothers turned their heads and glared at Yun Shang: Xiao Qi! Where is the face?

The old man was teaching a few children a lesson in the study room. Han Weijun was chatting with Bai Qingze outside about the army. Only Han Chen, as if a needle had been stuck in his buttocks, got up from time to time and looked at the study room, and asked Bai Qingze worriedly. :

"Dad, will Grandpa Bai scold sister Yunshang? Sister Yunshang is timid, what if she is scared and cries?"

Thinking of Gu Shinian's efforts to hold Yunshang in the palm of his hand and ask Xingxing not to pamper the moon, Han Chen was really worried that Yunshang's sweet temper would be wronged in the Bai family.

When Bai Qingze heard the words, he laughed immediately. Just as he was about to comfort Han Chen, Yunshang opened the door of the study and rushed out, greeting Han Chen excitedly:

"Brother Han Chen, did you come to see me? Did Second Brother Gu write to you? We haven't seen each other for half a year, Second Brother Gu must miss you!"

Han Chen looked at Yunshang carefully, and saw that her eyes were black and white, there was no sign of crying on her face, and the clothes on her body were also in order. She didn't look like she had been beaten, so she immediately felt relieved.

"Sister Yunshang, I'm also here to give you a gift." Han Chen took out a palm-sized badge of a great man from his bag and stuffed it into Yunshang's hand, "I asked someone to get two big badges a few days ago, I will give you one, and the other one will be brought back to Shi Nian."

The feeling of receiving a gift is really wonderful, even if the thing is not very valuable, but Yun Shang happily accepted it, and grabbed a lot of toffee as a gift in return.

Seeing the interaction between Yunshang and Han Chen, old man Bai had a smile in his eyes. He was about to turn his head and greet the four embarrassed grandsons to go upstairs to change when there was a commotion outside.

Outside the gate of Bai's house, an old man reeking of alcohol, with his back almost straightened, and wearing an old military uniform that didn't fit him dragged four dirty boys, jumping and cursing:

"...My eldest son is a military officer! The youngest son is the mayor! I am the mayor's father! If you dare to hit the grandson of my old Qi's family, believe it or not, my son shot your house..."

No matter how drunk the old man is, he also knows that the people living in this big courtyard are not simple, and the family was killed by a single shot. It can only be his nonsense, so he turned his head and directed the four miserable grandsons who were beaten:

"Dabao, come on! Take the second treasure, the third treasure and the fourth treasure to move things in, as much as you can move, and the money after selling it later will be ours! One of my two sons is a military officer, and the other is the mayor. Who dares to stop me? Let my son shoot you!"

The face of the old man in the room turned black, Han Weijun didn't wait for the old man's order, picked up the phone and dialed out, asking the other party to call Deputy Teacher Qi to come over immediately, and take back his father and four children who were in a drunken madness.

Everyone in the room looked familiar, Yunshang was both shocked and angry, jumped up from the sofa, and rushed outside without thinking.

What is the origin of this Deputy Teacher Qi?

Is the old man outside really drunk or pretending to be crazy?

But no matter whether the other party is really crazy or pretending to be crazy, Yunshang can't stand someone pointing at the lintel of Bai's house and cursing.

Her grandpa is a general!

Bullet fragments still remain in his body.

The Bai family has three generals and two martyrs who died for the country. They are a real family of heroes.

The glory of the Bai family is the result of the Bai family's bloodshed for the country and the people, in exchange for their illustrious military exploits and lives. No one can pour dirty water on the Bai family, let alone criticize the Bai family.

Even if the old man outside is really drunk, Yunshang will tell him to shut up, so that he will not dare to come to Bai's house to act wild even if he drinks too much in the future!

Yun Chang rushed out, and Bai Qingze, Han Chenye, and Qin Ling also ran out.

Seeing that Yunshang was searching for hand tools all over the yard, Han Chen hurried over and whispered to Yunshang:

"Sister Yunshang, don't be angry. The old man outside is the father of Deputy Teacher Qi. He has just been in the compound for three months, and he is drunk and quarreling with people every day.

My mother also said yesterday that more than half of the people in this compound have higher positions than Deputy Teacher Qi, and Deputy Teacher Qi's father goes to other people's houses every day to get drunk, and sooner or later, Deputy Teacher Qi will be implicated.

My mother also said that Deputy Teacher Qi's father used to live at the younger son's house, but because of his drunkenness, he made a circle of political enemies for the younger son. Later, the younger son couldn't stand it anymore, so he sent him to Deputy Teacher Huo Huoqi in the capital. "

Yunshang paused while holding the basin, and looked at Han Chen, "Is the old man Deputy Master Qi's father?"

"My dear." Han Chen nodded.

Yun Chang was speechless for a while.

This is not a real father, this is clearly an enemy!

Still the kind of enemy who dug up the graves of the ancestors.

This old man is simply a model of not giving up on killing his two sons.

Yun Chang dug out the old man's footbath from the corner, took half of the basin of cold water, took Qin Gang over, pulled down Qin Gang's pants, pointed at the basin and said, "Piss!"

After speaking, he looked at Gao Aiguo and Gao Aimin again. The two brothers shuddered together, and quickly stood beside the basin, carrying Yun Chang on their backs, and began to urinate patteringly.

Qin Ling saw that Yunshang was about to piss on the old man of Qi's family. First, he regretted that he could not 'add bricks and tiles', then rolled his eyes, rushed into the kitchen, picked up the vinegar bottle and chili powder, and poured them all into the basin.

She can't pee outside like a boy, but she can also find ways to add food to the urinal!

Bai Qingze watched his two younger sisters come up with crooked ideas one after another, the corners of his mouth twitched unconsciously.

Seeing Yun Chang's evil eyes aimed at him, Bai Qing's back felt cold, and he rushed back into the room with Qin Gang who had finished urinating.

Yun Shang: "... Where did the big hall brother think?

I just dislike this pot of liquid that is too rich and smelly, and I just want you to bring it to the door for me. Why is it as if I want to watch you pee?

The old man Qi's yelling and cursing continued outside, and Yunshang directed Gao Aiguo and Gao Aimin to bring the basin to the door.

When Qin Ling was about to open the door, Yunshang stopped Qin Ling's movement, consciously went into the supermarket, got a lot of ice from the seafood area and mixed it in the urinal, then directed Qin Ling to open the door, took the basin first, aimed at old man Qi, A pot of liquid full of materials was poured over.

Worried that she didn't have enough strength and wasted a pot of urine, Yunshang also deliberately stretched out her spiritual power to bless the pot of liquid, and used all of the pot of liquid on Old Man Qi.

After the incident, Yun Chang was still not relieved, the piss bowl was slapped on the forehead of Qi Yu, the eldest grandson of the Qi family, pointing at old man Qi and scolding:

"What are you! Shoot this one and that one all day long, knowing how to use a gun! Let me tell you! My grandfather is a general, older than your son! If you dare to curse at my door, I will beat you four times a day every day." A big grandson will not admit his mistakes!"

Chapter 342 right

The old man Qi was on the verge of drinking, and was poured down by Yunshang's bucket of cold and added urine. The whole person became more and more confused. He wiped his face indiscriminately, licked his lips subconsciously, and tasted the hot and sour sewage. the taste of.

Bai Qingze and Han Chen were worried that old man Qi would use Jiu Jiner to fight Yunshang and come out from inside, blocking the Qi family's view.

Unexpectedly, Yun Chang was not relieved, and crawled out from under the arms of the two of them like a loach, wanting to kick old man Qi with his teeth and claws.

Bai Qingze quickly grabbed Yun Chang's collar from behind, but Yun Chang couldn't reach old man Qi, so he could only hop around in place, kicking out of the air from time to time with his restless legs:

"Brother Hall, let me go! I'm going to kick this old thing out!"

Bai Qingze almost laughed out loud.

Yun Chang is only six years old, standing next to old man Qi, at most reaching the waist of the other party, where does she have the confidence to kick old man Qi out?

At this moment, the power of the chili water finally made the old man sober. He rubbed his burning eyes, pointed at Yunshang, and cursed, "You bastard! What do you dare to hit me? Say! Don't you?" You beat my eldest grandson? You wait, I will let my son kill you! Let my son lead soldiers to raid your house..."

"Come on! You old bastard! Don't stop! I'll kick you to death! I'll beat your grandson!? If your grandson dares to steal my brother's things, I'll beat you every time! No, I caught your grandson and beat him eight times a day!"

Qin Ling was watching with enthusiasm, and jumped on his feet to interject, "Yes! After beating up, tell the leader that you brought your grandson to our house to rob, and ask the army to lock you up in a small dark room for reform!"

After being beaten up by Yunshang, the boss of the Qi family has a shadow on Yunshang. At this moment, Yunshang uses a urinal to beat his head, and then sees Yunshang baring his teeth and claws, jumping and cursing, yelling to beat him eight times a day Suddenly, there was Bai Qingze staring at him next to him, so he must have fainted immediately.

He dared to snatch Qin Gang's things because the old man Qi said that Qin Gang's surname was Qin and not Bai. Even if he was the grandson of the Bai family, their family was not qualified to live in this compound. That's why Qi Yu picked Qin Gang, a soft and cute persimmon. pinch.

But how could he have imagined that the two brothers of the Gao family remembered this matter, not only asked him to avenge Qin Gang, but also attracted Yunshang, a fierce and unusual little tigress.

Qi Yu shrank his neck, put the basin on the ground, took his younger brothers to hide behind, and became a crowd of onlookers.

Old man Qi is used to being with his younger son, and when he moved to the capital, the big courtyard is full of high-quality high-ranking families. Even if there are conflicts between them, everyone will only compete secretly in private. Tear up your face on the bright side, playing the trick of a shrew cursing the street.

Probably everyone's high quality gave old man Qi the illusion that the people in the compound were the same as the family members of the city government, and they would not dare to argue with him for the sake of their son, so it was even more useless to initiate a drunken madness. scruples.

Unexpectedly, when he met Yun Shang, who dared to confront him head-on, old man Qi suddenly felt that his face was damaged, his majesty and status were challenged, and he was aggrieved into a powder keg.

The old man Qi was panting heavily, his red and swollen eyes stared at Yun Chang, his eyeballs protruded outwards, and he opened his palm as big as a cattail fan and was about to slap it.

Bai Qingze quickly lifted Yunshang behind him, and was about to stop old man Qi when a figure rushed over from behind and hugged old man Qi back lazily.

"Father! Why are you so drunk?"

Qi Zhenshan looked at the black courtyard gate of Bai's house, and then at the crowd of onlookers not far away, with cold sweat breaking out on his forehead, his face turning green and pale, wishing he could turn around and punch his father awake.

The old man usually only gets drunk in the front area, why did he get drunk in the small western building area in the back today?

Fortunately, he didn't die, and cursed at Commander Bai's door.

"Big boy! Why did you come back? Your father is about to be bullied to death. Hurry! Quickly recruit your soldiers, we raided this bastard's house! Dare to beat my eldest grandson! Dare to beat me Dare to pour dirty water on me! I let my son shoot your family one by one,

The old and the young are not spared..."

Old man Qi's mouth was broken, and he spoke very fast. Even if Qi Zhenshan covered his mouth, everyone could still hear old man Qi's whimpering words clearly.

Qi Zhenshan was about to go crazy, and regardless of the foul smell on Old Man Qi's body, he tightly covered his mouth, turned around and apologized to Bai Qingze:

"Qingze, I'm really sorry, I...you tell the old chief for me, just say that I came to the door late to apologize to the old chief..."

"What crime do you pay for?" Old man Qi opened Qi Zhenshan's hand, and choked, "Aren't you a great military officer? Why are you not as prestigious as Erwa? Everyone in Erwa's house knows that I am the mayor's father, and the yard is full of people. People don't dare to choke with me, why are you so useless..."

Qi Zhenshan was angry, anxious and ashamed, he didn't answer old man Qi's words, and took advantage of his height to drag old man Qi to the house.

The children of the Qi family also lined up in a dejected row and slipped out along the base of the wall.

Seeing this, Qin Ling rolled his eyes and shouted at the top of his voice, "Qi Yu! Listen carefully, if you dare to lead someone to snatch my brother's toffee from now on, we will beat you!"

Qi Zhenshan paused at the foot, his face blackened into a pan, and he yelled angrily at the brothers who were about to get into the flower bed, "Qi Yu! You little bastard, get out of here!"

With his waist in his hands, Qin Ling looked at the four children of the Qi family jumping out of the flower bed in disgrace, and laughed triumphantly.

The corners of Yunshang's mouth twitched a few times, and Gao Aiguo sent Gao Aiguo to bring back the old man's footbath, and went in to show his merits to the old man.

Encountering such a bad thing, no one in the Bai family can come forward to confront old man Qi head-on. After all, old man Qi is a drunk, and if he cares about a drunk, it is the Bai family who loses their identity.

But if old man Qi is allowed to point at the lintel of the Bai family and yell at him like this, no matter how generous he is, he will not feel at ease.

Yun Chang guessed that the reason why the old man didn't stop her action was also to use her hand to clean up old man Qi.

In this way, outsiders can talk about it, and the Bai family can also use the child's ignorance to fool them.

One is a drunkard who has drunk too much and has become confused and drunk, and the other is a child who is young and ignorant.

Besides, the cause of the incident was that the children of the Qi family robbed Qin Gang of toffee. This matter was at the expense of the Qi family. Why did the Bai family endure the bullies of the Qi family who would knock on their door?

In the past two years, supplies have been particularly scarce. There are many children in the compound who cannot eat toffee, not to mention that in the eyes of many doctors, toffee has become a nutritional supplement for patients.

Chapter 343 big thick legs

To make this matter more serious, what the children of Qi's family grabbed was not toffee, but nutrition in the eyes of doctors.

The old man is a soldier, and he can't rub the sand in his eyes. Naturally, he doesn't like the behavior of the children of the Qi family who robbed things, let alone the children who robbed the grandson of the Bai family.

If Yunshang made such a fuss, it could be a wake-up call to Qi Zhenshan, letting him know that his sons were misled by old man Qi.

You can also use Qi Zhenshan's hand to clean up the little brats of the Qi family and vent your anger on Qin Gang.

Yun Chang entered the main entrance, poked her head out to observe the face of the old man in the living room, saw the old man looking over, quickly bent her eyes, and showed the sweetest smiling face to the old man.

She has such a cute smile, the old man should like it, right?

Once the old man likes her, he will definitely not call her fierce.

Thinking about it this way, Yun Chang smiled harder.

When the old man turned his head, he was almost dazzled by Yun Shang's bright smile, his eyelids jumped, and he waved to Yun Shang, "Xiaoqi, come here."

"Grandpa, my name is Yunshang. You call me Changnan, don't call me Xiaoqi." Yunshang ran over and corrected the old man solemnly.

The old man responded with a smile, picked up a biscuit and stuffed it into Yun Chang's mouth, "Are you afraid just now?"

"Don't be afraid!"

Yun Chang straightened out her small chest, raised her chin, and said begging for praise, "Grandpa, I pissed on old man Qi!" Isn't this a beautiful job?

Sure enough, the old man praised Yunshang very well, "Shangnan is really amazing! If someone dares to bully you in the future, you will fight back fiercely like today! Don't be afraid, grandpa will take care of you if you have anything to do!"

Why did his granddaughter piss on Old Man Qi?

Old man Qi's two sons are the mayor and the deputy teacher, so what can they do?

As long as he is there, his granddaughter can beat anyone who needs to be beaten! Even if he pokes a hole out of the sky, he can still help his granddaughter.

Xiao Qi used to live outside, suffered so much, suffered so much grievance, when something happened, she had no one to support Xiao Qi, a child who was just able to toddle did not dare to resist, so she could only endure it forcefully and bear it. tortured by others.

There's no reason to go back to your own home,

Now that she has a backer, Xiao Qi still has to behave with her tail between her legs. Even when someone bullies her, she has to restrain Xiao Qi's temper and let her continue to endure.

If this is the case, what is the difference between this family, their relatives and elders, and the Yun family who have no responsibility for Xiaoqi?

He has carried guns for half his life for the country and the people, and sacrificed two brothers. After bleeding and sweating for no reason, his grandchildren will still be useless.

He is not afraid of people saying that he dotes on his granddaughter, he is willing to dote on such a cute and protective granddaughter!

Yun Shang has never known what politeness is. Hearing what the old man said, his eyes lit up immediately, and he readily agreed.

Worried about the old man's uneasiness, Yun Shang also solemnly promised the old man, "I know! Grandpa, if I can't beat others, I will come back and move your big thick leg!"

The old man nodded subconsciously, but he couldn't nod his head halfway.

Today he figured it out, the little granddaughter has a bad temper, she dared to piss all over the old man without his permission, if she had such a thick leg like him, how could the little granddaughter cause troubles in the future?

But the words have been released, if they take it back now, will it dampen Xiaoqi's enthusiasm? Would Xiaoqi feel that his grandfather is useless and that his words are not worth talking about?

The most important thing is that Xiao Qi is fierce and good-looking, and has a lot of thoughts. If he slaps Xiao Qi, will this brat try to torment him?

Yun Shang looked at the old man's bewildered face, blinked her eyes, and gave the old man a reassurance, "Grandpa, don't worry, I definitely don't deliberately cause trouble and bully others." I only beat the villains who provoke me!

When the old man heard this, he immediately felt relieved, the agreement between the two of you was finally reached.

Han Weijun watched the excitement for a long time. Seeing that the old man was free, he put down his teacup and sighed, "Chief, recently many people have had opinions on Qi Zhenshan. If this continues, I guess Qi Zhenshan's work will not be easy to carry out."

"Oh?" The old man rubbed Yunshang's little head, then put the little milk cat in Yunshang's hand, and asked Han Weijun, "Because of old man Qi?"

Han Weijun nodded, "This old man's temperament... I can't say anything. Qi Zhenshan won't let him drink, so the old man dared to hang a rope on the beam and tie it around his neck to let him drink, but he just poured a glass. There is also a stink of drunkenness.

After drinking a cup, he either rushes out to find someone to fight, or wanders around to pick a family, sits at the door of someone, and points at the door to curse the street.

For this matter, Qi Zhenshan came to people with gifts every day to apologize.

Everyone has a temper, once or twice is fine, but Qi Zhenshan's father is like this every day, who can stand it?

Besides, Qi Zhenshanguang apologized and never tried to solve the problem. After a long time, everyone will have pimples in their hearts. "

The old man frowned tightly, "Qi Zhenshan never thought about letting his father move out?"

"I think about it," Han Weijun's face froze, as if trying to suppress a smile, "A while ago, Qi Zhenshan looked for a house outside, and even found someone to cook for his father, but within a few days, his father was drinking. There was a lot of swearing, and he was beaten up. Later, his father was forced to live in Qi Zhenshan's house..."

Yun Shang laughed with a "puchi".

Seeing the old man looking over, Yun Chang leaned in front of the old man, and said with a smile:

"Grandpa, I think old man Qi is very smart. He lives outside and brags to others that his son is the mayor and the deputy teacher. No one will believe him. Maybe they will laugh at him saying that the mayor's son and the deputy teacher's son are not him.

And he doesn't have big thick legs, old man Qi will be beaten if he gets drunk and crazy outside.

When they moved back to the compound, everyone believed that one of their two sons was the mayor and the other was the deputy division commander. Even if he was drunk, no one would beat him up.

Old man Qi is not a fool, he will definitely stay in the courtyard. "

The old man and Han Weijun were both stunned, and it took a long time before the old man came back to his senses, "Shangnan, this...you thought of these words yourself?" The twists and turns?

Yun Chang blinked her eyes and asked the old man curiously, "Master, am I right? There are people like old man Qi in our village, and my second aunt and her mother are just as bad as old man Qi. I see There are many such people."

The expression on the old man's face was very complicated, he raised his hand and rubbed Yun Shang's head, and said to Han Weijun:

"Qi Zhenshan should be here soon. You and Qi Zhenshan are familiar with each other. Hit and beat Qi Zhenshan later, let him handle the family affairs well, and don't let the family affairs affect the work of the army."

Chapter 344

Qi Zhenshan quickly came to the door to apologize, and when he came, he was carrying a bag of pastries and a bag of toffee, but the old man didn't take it away, and asked Qi Zhenshan to take it back later to give the children of the Qi family a toothbrush.

Yunshang understood what the old man meant. The old man just thought that Qi Zhenshan's monthly salary would be used to buy gifts and apologize to other people's families except for the family's meals. Life would not be easy.

The Bai family does not lack such food, so there is no need to compete with the children of the Qi family for food.

Although Qi Zhenshan's rank is not low, and his monthly salary plus benefits is less than two hundred yuan, but no matter how much money he has every month, he can't bear the abuse of old man Qi.

Especially now that there is a shortage of supplies, fine food is especially expensive, Qi Zhenshan can ruin the situation of the Qi family just by buying pastries, and where does he get spare money to buy snacks for the children, it is no wonder that several children of the Qi family will snatch Qin Gang ate the toffee.

The old man took Qi Zhenshan's Han Weijun into the study, and Yunshang also carried the little milk cat back to the upstairs room, and consciously entered the supermarket to choose a suitable gift for the old man.

Thinking of the fact that the old man snatched half a bottle of wine from the old man of the Gu family, Yunshang felt that the old man should like to drink. Fortunately, there is a lot of liquor in the supermarket, and he will get some ginseng later to make wine for the old man.

By the way, there are still a lot of nutritional products in the supermarket, so I have to find an excuse to get some old-age milk powder to supplement the old man's body, so that the old man will not be in a bad mood all day long.

The old man also likes to play chess, and there are chess pieces for sale in the supermarket. Later, he will give the old man two sets of chess pieces, a pair of chess and a pair of go.

There is also a large area of flowers and plants planted in the yard outside. According to the aunt, those flowers and plants were planted by the old man himself. It seems that the old man also likes to grow flowers.

The green radishes that were planted in the space before, and the orchids that were stolen from Linyang Park are all very vigorous. I have to take time to go out for a stroll and find an excuse to get these flowers and plants back to the old man.

The four aunts and sisters-in-law of the Bai family got out of the car with big bags and small bags. As soon as they entered the compound, they heard about the glorious deeds of Yunshang fighting old man Qi.

If it weren't for carrying things with both hands, Lin Wenlan would almost walk with her face covered.

Her Xiao Qi... is at war with someone again!

Last time, I just got home and beat up the little six. This time it was good. I just followed the old man to pretend to be cute and begged for a circle of red envelopes. The crooked idea splashed old man Qi all over.

In just a few hours, the news spread throughout the compound, Xiaoqi became famous in the first battle.

The expression on Lin Wenlan's face changed back and forth, and her steps became more and more urgent. She wanted to go back and ask Yun Shang what happened.

Different from Lin Wenlan's complicated mood, Cheng Guo, Bai Yanchun and Bai Yanqiu's eyes widened and they could hardly believe their ears.

Did their white and tender little bun fight with someone?

Could it be that these people had hysteria and started talking nonsense!

If Qin Ling got into a fight with someone, they would still believe it a little bit, but Xiao Qi...a little bun who was as big as a bean and spoke softly, it would be nice not to be bullied. fight?

A few people entered the door, and at a glance, they saw Yunshang pouted and stroking the little milk cat. One person and one cat were lying on the sofa, and I was scratching vigorously with one punch and one paw.

Seeing Lin Wenlan's return, Yunshang's eyes lit up, and she ran over a few steps, her head was about to get stuck in her bag, "Mom, why did you come back? What delicious food did you buy?"

"Hey, Mom bought you chocolate."

Facing Yun Shang's smiling face, Lin Wenlan immediately put aside the doubts in his stomach, bent down very spinelessly, and took out the chocolate specially bought for Yun Shang.

Yun Shang peeled off a piece of chocolate and stuffed it into her mouth, boasting that it was delicious. Before Lin Wenlan could ask questions, she first confessed that she had fought against old man Qi, and then without giving Lin Wenlan a chance to ask questions, she slapped the little milk cat. Changed the subject:

"Mom, I named the kitten Qiuqiu. Does it sound good?"

Qiuqiu raised his head very cooperatively, and gave Lin Wenlan a childish 'ow', as if echoing Yunshang's question.

Lin Wenlan couldn't see that Yunshang was changing the subject, raised his hand and scratched Qiuqiu's furry chin, knocked on Yunshang's forehead again, and said in a low voice, "Shangnan, if you have something to do next time, let your big brother Come forward, you are still young, don't rush forward in everything."

Yun Chang nodded her head and kept responding, but she didn't take these words to heart.

It's really hard for Bai Qingze to come forward in this matter today, otherwise she wouldn't rush to the front and be the main force.

It's just that Lin Wenlan said this because she was worried about her, and she was afraid that she would suffer when she fought with others. She just needs to obediently agree to let Lin Wenlan feel at ease.

When Cheng Guo and the two aunts also gathered around and inquired about the inside information about Yunshang's battle with old man Qi, it was getting late.

The whole family gathered around the dining table and had a lively dinner. After seeing off Bai Yanchun and Bai Yanqiu, the old man called Lin Wenlan and Yunshang who were about to go back to the room, and motioned for them to sit down on the sofa. .

"You haven't been back for more than half a year. Are you ready for the gift for going back to Lin's house tomorrow? There are still a lot of mountain goods in the small warehouse. Go back tomorrow and bring some back to your parents." The old man said first.

Lin Wenlan nodded, waiting for the old man's next words.

"Have you called Wenshan to ask how your mother is doing? Today is the first day your sister comes home, did your mother recognize anyone?"

"I called home in the afternoon, and Wen Shan said that my mother doesn't quite recognize Wen Jin."

Lin Wenlan paused for a while, then continued, "Dad, I want to take Xiaoqi back tomorrow morning. When Wenjin was lost, he was only three years younger than Xiaoqi, and they looked similar. I want my mother to see Xiao Qi, try to see if you can recognize someone."

The old man was stunned for a moment, the words that he wanted to say to let Yunshang go to Lin's house later were stuck in his throat and he couldn't say anything.

After being silent for a long time, the old man reluctantly said, "That's fine, you will follow Xiao Qi tomorrow, don't let your mother scare Xiao Qi..."

Lin Wenlan nodded in response.

Even if the old man didn't say anything, she would still wear Yunshang close to her body. The old lady has been foolishly ignoring people for so many years, and sometimes when stimulated, she would grab people and recognize her daughter and granddaughter randomly. If you meet a timid person, you will be frightened by the old lady.

After finishing the business, the old man watched Yun Shang reluctantly holding Qiuqiu, and followed Lin Wenlan upstairs.

I don't feel much today, why is it getting dark so soon?

Xiaoqi also said in the morning that he was the most energetic old man in the whole compound, and now he doesn't even bother to look at him, he is really a little heartless.

Thinking that he won't see his little granddaughter all day tomorrow, and his grandsons won't come over, the old man suddenly feels that his family is not popular and his life is boring.

Chapter 345 Misidentification

Yun Chang changed herself into a new dress early in the morning, and even stuffed the little milk cat into the old man's hands, and asked the old man to take good care of her balls.

When the time was almost up, Yun Shang went out under the old man's resentful eyes, and followed Lin Wenlan to visit relatives at Lin's house.

The car drove through most of the city, and finally stopped at the entrance of a long and narrow alley. The gate of the courtyard house at the end of the alley was open, and Dacheng was playing with several children of the Lin family in the alley.

Seeing Yunshang entering the alley, Dacheng dropped the toy in his hand and ran over in a few steps, "Sister Yunshang, why did you come here? I have been waiting for you all morning!"

Yun Chang raised her eyelids and looked Dacheng up and down. Seeing that he was in good spirits, she nodded secretly.

It seems that Lin Dani and Dacheng had a good time at Lin's house yesterday, otherwise, with Dacheng's sensitive and suspicious temperament, they wouldn't be so careless and crazy playing outside.

"Brother Dacheng, where's Aunt Lin?"

"At home!" Dacheng approached Yunshang and whispered, "My aunt is making new clothes for Grandma Lin."

Yun Chang nodded, and the last worry in her heart disappeared.

Judging from the current situation, Lin Dani's return to the capital to recognize relatives should be smooth, and Lin Dani also accepted the old couple from the bottom of her heart, otherwise she would not have stayed at home early in the morning to make clothes for the old lady.

For the two elders of the Lin family, the gift made by Lin Dani has a completely different meaning from the gift bought outside. The former is the heart of the children, while the latter is the etiquette of visiting the house.

Lin Wenlan put the things in his hands on the table, greeted the sisters-in-law who rushed over, and then dragged Yunshang into the north room.

When Lin Wenlan opened the door curtain, Yun Chang clearly saw an old man with pale complexion and almost gray hair sitting on the rocking chair beside the bed, drinking tea, and talking to the old lady on the bed Gossip.

The hair of the old lady on the bed was almost completely white, and she was half leaning on the quilt, with a towel quilt on her body, looking at the old man with blank eyes.

Seeing Lin Wenlan bring Yunshang in, the old man stopped drinking tea, stood up tremblingly, looked at Yunshang without blinking, his eyes were shining brightly.

"Wen Lan, this is, this is our little seven?" Elder Lin asked with trembling lips.

Lin Wenlan nodded,

With red eyes, he said, "Dad, this is Xiao Qi, I found Xiao Qi back."

"Like, it's so similar! The eyebrows and eyes are exactly the same as your mother! It's like Wen Jin when he was a child..." Mr. Lin murmured.

Upon hearing this, Yun Shang looked curiously at Mrs. Lin who was on the bed.

Everyone says she looks like grandma, she has to take a good look at what she will look like when she gets older

Although Mrs. Lin was unconscious, she kept her body clean and tidy. With short haircut and natural curls, coupled with Mrs. Lin's almost white hair, she has a strange sense of fashion.

Even though the old lady has slack cheek muscles, obvious wrinkles around her eyes, and her heart-shaped face is no longer standard, it is undeniable that this is indeed a beautiful and elegant old lady.

Moreover, from the eyebrows and eyes of old lady Lin, she could faintly see the elegance of her youth.

Thinking that she will be as beautiful and elegant as Mrs. Lin when she gets older, Yun Chang is immediately very satisfied, and at the same time she is a little proud:

Even if she is old, she will be the most beautiful old lady!

It's so easy to see the old since childhood!

Lin Wenlan didn't know where Yun Shang's little mind was going, so she went to help Mr. Lin sit down on the chair, and asked about the situation of the old lady.

"Sigh." Mr. Lin stroked Yun Shang's little head, and sighed, "Your mother can't recognize Wen Jin..."

Before she finished speaking, Mrs. Lin sat up from the bed, staring at Yunshang with her eyes shining little by little.

"Wen Jin...?"

Mrs. Lin tentatively called out to Yun Chang, and before she could answer, she grabbed Yun Chang's arm and touched Yun Chang's head and face with both hands.

"Wenjin! Wenjin? You're back? Mom finally wants you back! It's all Mom's fault, she shouldn't lose you...Wenjin, wait, Mom will bake buns for you right now... .."

Before finishing a sentence, Yunshang's identity in the eyes of the old lady changed again, from Lin Wenjin to Xiao Qi, "Xiao Qi, my Xiao Qi is back too? Why are you so naughty, you sneaked away I went out to play, but it scared your mother..."

Yunshang was stunned by this turn of events, and noticed that old lady Lin's cold hands were moving across her face, and then listening to the old lady's incoherent words, Yunshang endured the discomfort in her heart, stood still, and took on the responsibility of the old lady. There are two characters in the mouth, Lin Wenjin and Xiaoqi.

Mr. Lin and Lin Wenlan were worried that Yunshang would be frightened, and were about to rescue Yunshang from the old lady's hands, but they were stopped by Yunshang's eyes.

At this time, Yun Shang finally knew why old master Bai told Lin Wenlan to take her close to him.

Mrs. Lin is clearly mentally deranged, not occasionally confused or not knowing people as everyone said.

Just listening to the old lady's words that kept admitting her mistakes and coaxing her, Yun Chang's eyes couldn't help being sore and hot, and her heart felt aching.

How did the old lady survive all these years?

What kind of torment did she suffer in her heart to drive herself crazy?

Yun Chang turned her head to the side, put her cheek in the old lady's hand actively, rubbed it attached, and echoed the old lady's words, "Grandma, Xiao Qi is back, Xiao Qi will listen to grandma's words from now on, and don't sneak out to play La."

Old lady Lin paused with her fingers, then smiled happily, relaxed her movements, pinned the broken hair on Yunshang's head, and said Yunshang's words in her mouth:

"Xiao Qi is really good. I have to tell my grandma where Xiao Qi is going. Grandma takes Xiao Qi out. She can't be like your aunt. She won't come back when she slips out."

"Auntie is back." Yun Shang followed Mrs. Lin's words and talked about Dani Lin, "Grandma, Auntie is so pretty now, and she even made new clothes for grandma."

The old lady Lin followed Yunshang's words and immersed herself in her own thoughts, "It's good to make new clothes. My Wenjin is good-looking and I like to be beautiful. From now on, mom will make more new clothes for Wenjin!"

Lin Wenlan's eyes were red, she stepped forward and grabbed the old lady Lin's hand, and rescued Yun Chang from her hand, coaxing the old lady:

"Mom, your eyesight is bad, you need to rest more, I'll make new clothes for Wenjin later."

"There's Xiaoqi." The old lady pointed to Yunshang and added.

"Well, I also make new clothes for Xiaoqi."

While Lin Wenlan was talking, he helped Mrs. Lin to lie down on the bed, then pulled Yunshang, and looked at Lin Dani who was standing at the door at some point, her eyes were red and she didn't speak.

Chapter 346 complete routine

Mrs. Lin also turned her head to look at Lin Dani, with a gentle expression, calm eyes, and a little curiosity.

"Wen Lan, whose daughter is this? She's so pretty, she really looks like when I was young."

Yun Chang's sour stomach was washed away by the old lady's words.

The old lady is really cute.

Complimenting that Lin Dani is good-looking, and saying that Lin Dani looks like her, isn't it a corner to praise her for being good-looking!

Unexpectedly, the old lady is also a narcissistic temperament. Even if she is so confused that she doesn't know anyone, she still doesn't forget that she is a great beauty.

Mr. Lin on the side seemed to be used to the old lady boasting himself like this. He held the old lady's hand and followed her words:

"That's not someone else's daughter, that's our Wenjin, she looks like you when you were young, pretty!"

The old lady smiled happily, and when she turned her head to look at Yunshang, her eyes became confused again, "Father, why do you have two Wenjins? By the way, the candy I left for Wenjin, did you let Shanzi eat it again?" La....."

As the old lady said, she took out a few fruit candies from under the pillow and stuffed them all into Yunshang's hands. She also gave a soft 'shush' and whispered to Yunshang:

"Wenjin, this is the candy my mother hid for you. You can eat it secretly, but don't let your older brothers see it."

As he spoke, he glared threateningly at the three brothers of the Lin family who had just entered the door.

Seeing the Lin family gathered together, Yun Shang knew that the siblings and the old couple had something to say, so she tactfully went out with the candy stuffed by the old lady, giving room for everyone in the Lin family to talk.

Seeing Yunshang coming out, Dacheng, who was sitting in the yard, hurried over to greet him, and asked in a low voice, "Sister Yunshang, when will you and your mother return to Linyang?"

"Phuket Island, what are you giving here?"

With candy stuffed in Yunshang's mouth, her speech was a little vague. Dacheng pondered for a while before realizing what she meant.

"It's not me who is in a hurry, it's my aunt who is in a hurry. The shoe factory has a lot of work recently, so my aunt asked for three days off."

Seeing that Yunshang gave a slight 'uh' and stopped talking, Dacheng immediately brainwashed Yunshang, "Sister Yunshang, why don't we go back to Linyang together tomorrow, it's already June, Brother Shi Nian should be on vacation Alright, let's go back and play with Brother Shi Nian."

Yun Chang was about to nod,

Unexpectedly, I thought of the resentful gaze of old man Bai when he went out in the morning, and then thought of the entire three-story western-style building in Bai's house. Only the old man and the nanny were at home during the day, and his little chin couldn't stop.

In Dacheng's expectant eyes, Yun Chang shook his head, "Brother Dacheng, you go back first, I will stay at home for a few more days." Going back to play with the old man for a few more days, and going out with the old man to see if he can I can't get any more red envelopes.

It was still early, and Yunshang avoided the Lin family's children, and dragged the disappointed Dacheng out of the house. Under the guise of comforting Dacheng, he invited Dacheng to eat popsicles.

The two of them squatted at the entrance of the alley, eating the popsicles sucking. Yunshang sucked on the sweet popsicle stick, and squinted at Dacheng with big eyes, "Brother Dacheng, you ate one of my popsicles, how can you thank me?"

Dacheng looked confused: Didn't you insist on letting me eat just to comfort me?

Yun Chang raised her eyelids and stared at Da Cheng for a moment.

Want to eat free food?

What beautiful things are you thinking about!

I really think I have too much money and no place to spend it, so I treat you to delicious food if I have nothing to do?

Dacheng looked at the bare popsicle sticks on the ground, with an aggrieved expression on his face, "Tell me, what do you want me to do?"

Having dealt with each other for so long and suffered so many losses at the hands of Yunshang, how could Dacheng not know what kind of temperament Yunshang is.

I thought that Yunshang saw the little sadness in his heart, and her conscience found out, so she asked a popsicle to comfort him, but she thought she was setting him up again!

Sister Yunshang is really too much!

I must report to Brother Shi Nian later.

"I want to make beautiful flowers and plants for my grandfather and grandfather, you go and help me carry the flower pots."

Dacheng scratched his head, and asked with a puzzled expression, "That's all?"

Yun Shang cast a disgusted look at Da Cheng, "What else?" Really thought I wanted you to do something sneaky?

Even if I want to do sneaky things, I will only take Gu Erge to do it together, so I won't take you, a timid and reckless guy.

Dacheng has a soft mouth and can only accept his fate as a coolie for Yunshang.

Yunshang first pulled Dacheng to buy a big basket, and then bought a few basketball-sized earthen pots as flower pots. He told Dacheng to squat down, put the earthen pots in the basket, and hung the basket on Dacheng's back.

When Dacheng got up together, the half-person-high basket almost reached the bend of Dacheng's legs, causing his legs to be unable to straighten when he walked, and he could only walk half-bent.

On the way back, Dacheng asked Yunshang with a sad face, "Sister Yunshang, where are you going to get flowers?"

This capital city is good and big, but there is no place that sells flowers.

Thinking that only Linyang Park had flowers in Linyang, Dacheng couldn't help giving Yunshang a bad idea:

"Sister Yunshang, why don't you go to the park to have a look, if there are flowers in the park, I'll secretly dig a few back..."

"Snapped!"

Before Dacheng finished speaking, he was slapped back by Yunshang.

"What bad idea did you come up with?" Yunshang glared at Dacheng, "My grandfather is a soldier, and he can't take needles from the masses. Now you ask me to steal public property and give it to my grandfather. Do you want my grandfather to beat me up?" Are you sure? Are you messing with me?

Da Cheng was dumbfounded, covered his head, and asked in a daze, "Then where shall we get flowers for your grandfather and Grandpa Lin?"

"It's okay, I've already found a place to exchange flowers. Wait for me at the entrance of the alley later, and when I return the flowers, you can help me move the flowers back with the flower pots."

When the university was established, I was speechless. Didn't you say earlier that there is land for flowers? It made me worry for nothing for a long time.

The two passed by a long and narrow alleyway with seven turns and eight turns. Yunshang stopped and asked Dacheng to wait at the entrance of the alley, and walked into the alley by herself.

I found a place where no one was around, and entered the space consciously, and took out two pots of green radishes with soil, and dug two pots of gladiolus, dendrobium orchid and Chinese rose, and put them together in a dirty place. Drag it out of the sack.

Seeing Yunshang's small body dragging a big sack towards the entrance of the alley, Dacheng quickly greeted him with the basket on his back, moved the sack and flowers into the basket, and then dragged Yunshang to hurry home.

Lin Wenlan was looking for Yunshang all over the yard at the moment, when she looked up, she saw Yunshang and Dacheng coming in from outside, Dacheng was carrying a big bamboo basket on his back.

"Mom!" Yunshang rushed over to hug Lin Wenlan's leg first, expressing her success excitedly, "Look quickly, brother Dacheng and I made a lot of flowers for grandpa and grandpa!"

Although Dacheng was just a cover for her to use as an excuse, but anyway, she also worked hard, and the credit should be shared.

In case Da Cheng felt uncomfortable and sold her out with just one mouthful.

Chapter 347 small money fan

Lin Wenlan hurriedly took the bamboo basket from Dacheng's body, looked at the clusters of delicate flowers and green radishes inside, and widened her eyes in surprise:

"Shangnan, where did you get these flowers?"

These flowers and plants are not things in department stores, you can buy them if you have money and tickets.

Besides, the flower market has been closed, and there is no place in Beijing that specializes in selling flowers.

These flowers and plants are raised so well, it can be seen that the original owner's family put a lot of effort into serving them, and the two children only came to the capital for a day, where did they know the family who took care of the flowers and plants?

Don't be someone with a heart who deliberately gets close to Xiaoqi, right?

Lin Wenlan thought of the reason why Yunshang disappeared that year, and a layer of cold sweat oozed from his back in an instant, and his face turned pale with shock.

Yun Shang didn't notice Lin Wenlan's ugly face, pointing to the blooming rose flowers, proudly said:

"Mom, I traded three toffees for such a big rose tree! And this orchid, and green radishes, I traded them with biscuits and toffees. By the way, brother Dacheng bought these crocks Chinese roses are planted in the yard, pothos and orchids are planted in earthen pots, and they will be placed in the house later."

Dacheng listened to what Yunshang said, his small chest stood out, and his face was full of pride.

Sister Yunshang is actually not that bad.

Sister Yunshang obviously bought these earthen jars, but Sister Yunshang put the credit on him. I am so embarrassed.

But since Sister Yunshang sincerely wants to share his credit, then he will accept it. If it is not too good, Sister Yunshang will punish him again later.

The corners of Dacheng's mouth twitched again and again, shamelessly acquiescing to Yunshang's words.

Lin Wenlan was still not at ease, and after questioning for a long time, she found out that the two children had gone out to buy popsicles. Seeing that there were flowers planted in the yard of someone on the side of the road, she exchanged the food with someone for these flowers and returned.

"You child, you can't do this in the future. If you want something, come back and tell mom, and mom will get it back for you, understand?"

After fooling Lin Wenlan, Yunshang nodded happily, and told Lin Wenlan to plant roses in the yard, and moved a cluster of green radish, gladiolus, and dendrobium into earthen jars, and moved them to the house of the old couple of the Lin family. inside.

Lin Wenlan also helped Yunshang pack the remaining flowers and plants, and planned to take them back to Mr. Bai later.

Yun Shang originally thought that the dark earthen pots were not suitable for the quiet and elegant orchids, but she didn't expect that after planting, the pots of orchids unexpectedly became more wild.

Old man Bai didn't know that his little granddaughter had prepared a big gift for him, had dinner alone, and was about to go for a walk with the ball in his arms.

Before reaching the door, I heard the sound of a car parked outside the courtyard door, followed by Yunshang's childish cry into my ears:

"Grandpa! Grandpa! Come out and see what present I got for you!"

As soon as the old man heard that there was a gift, he immediately threw the ball away and ran out in three steps at a time.

He has raised a total of five grandchildren, big and small, and has never received a gift yet.

Unexpectedly, the little granddaughter who only ate rice from the Bai family for half a month prepared a gift for him first.

No wonder everyone wants a petite and soft little granddaughter, who is more caring than a grandson!

Seeing the orchid that the second child of the Lin family brought down from the car, the old man's face was wrinkled with laughter, "Is this a gift prepared by Chang Nan for the Lord? He is so filial, much better than your elder brothers!"

Yun Chang rushed out of the yard with her arms in her arms, surrounded her screaming Qiuqiu, and asked the old man begging for praise, "Master, I exchanged these flowers for you with toffee, don't they look good?"

"It's beautiful!" The old man nodded repeatedly, "This orchid grows well, and it looks good when paired with this earthen pot!"

As soon as Second Uncle Lin left, the old man held the two pots of orchids and did not let go. He directed Lin Wenlan and the nanny to plant roses in the yard and put green radishes in the living room, and then went back to the room with the orchids in his arms.

Yun Chang followed behind the old man, watching the old man put two pots of orchids on the window sill, and wiped the dust off the leaves of the orchids with a towel, he was speechless for a long time.

When the old man finished rare orchids, Yun Shang hurried over and put on the airs of a little parent, "Master, what did you have for dinner?"

"I ate a steamed bun and drank a bowl of rice soup."

After the old man finished speaking, he glanced at Qiuqiu lying on Yunshang's arm with a bulging belly, and added with a worried face, "This little thing even robbed me of half a bowl of rice soup at night." Soup bowls can make this stinky cat go up to the ground.

I made a lot of trouble, so I didn't have a good dinner!

Yun Shang slapped the old man's ass in a playful way, "Master, you are so kind! You are the best grandpa in the world, and you are willing to use rice soup to raise balls for me!"

These days, many people are willing to fish for their grandsons, but they are reluctant to use rice soup to raise their granddaughters. How rare it is for the old man to be willing to use rice soup to feed a kitten.

Of course it's an exaggeration.

The old man was speechless for a long time, and finally raised his hand and tapped Yun Shang's forehead lightly.

He didn't want to feed the cat with rice soup, but Qiuqiu was still a kitten, and he would stumble when he walked too fast, and he couldn't eat anything other than rice soup.

Yun Chang covered her forehead and asked eagerly, "Master, will you take me to visit tomorrow?" Can we still receive a wave of red envelopes?

"Shangnan wants to go out to play..." The old man realized that he was halfway through speaking.

It's not that Xiao Qi wants to go out to play, she is addicted to receiving red envelopes.

Ouch, my brain hurts!

The ancestors of the Bai family never had a money fan. Why is his granddaughter such a small money fan?

Seeing that the old man was frowning, Yun Chang hurried out, took out two chess pieces from the military bag, and carried them in for the old man.

"Master, look, I'm looking for chess pieces for you today. Master, it cost money!" Therefore, I have to receive red envelopes to top up my small private treasury.

The old man is not only suffering from a headache right now, but even his back molars are starting to feel sore. Looking at the lonely chess pieces on the table, he rubbed his teeth and asked, "Shangnan, why are there only chess pieces here, but no chessboard?"

There is no chessboard, you let me play with chess pieces?

Xiao Qi must be confusing people.

Just about to ask about the origin of the chess pieces, Yun Shang stretched out her little hand and took out two paper chessboards from her bag.

The old man: "... " So, with just these two worthless chess pieces, you have to collect another round of red envelopes to fill your private treasury?

This is too rich.

"Master, we have a winery in Qinghe County..."

The old man's eyes lit up.

Yun Shang continued, "Master, Second Brother Gu and I took two ginsengs before, and it will definitely be good for our health..."

The old man swallowed his saliva, and said with a smile, "Shangnan, get up early tomorrow, and I will take you to some old guys' houses to visit. By the way, I will wear what you wore yesterday, like a little PLA, Look at the spirit!" When the time comes, make those old men's eyes hot.

Chapter 348 father rivalry

The old man did what he said, and took Yunshang out for a walk the next morning. When the two of them came out of a courtyard with two entrances in the afternoon, Yunshang's small satchel was stuffed with five big red envelopes.

Yun Shangle couldn't close her mouth anymore, she hugged the ball, followed the old man with her legs upside down, flattering continuously:

"Master, you have so many old buddies, and you are generous!" Everyone gave me such a thick red envelope!

The corners of the old man's mouth twitched, and he really wanted to say to Xiao Douding behind him: You are famous now, his old buddies, relatives and friends, everyone knows that the little granddaughter newly brought back by the Bai family is a little housekeeper, Still a little money fanatic.

Thinking of Yun Shang's shining eyes when she received the red envelope, the old man really wanted to remind Yun Shang to keep it a little more, and not to be so obvious.

But before the old man could speak, Yun Chang said with a wrinkled face, "Grandpa, when are we going home? I miss my mother."

"You haven't finished the transfer yet, you won't accept the red envelope?" the old man asked in surprise.

receive!

Of course you have to pay.

It's just that I've been out for too long today, and the old man is not in good health. If he wanders around, Yun Chang is worried that the old man's health will not be able to bear it.

"Grandpa, I'm tired, and Qiuqiu is tired too, let's go home and rest first, and then go out for a walk tomorrow."

Yun Chang rubbed her eyes, and beat her thigh with her small fist, looking very tired.

The old man was so distressed that he immediately pulled Yunshang into the car and asked the guards to drive home quickly.

Yunshang leaned on the back of the seat, scratching Qiuqiu's furry chin with her small hands, and kept chatting with the old man, "Master, my aunt brought Brother Dacheng back to Linyang today."

"Why don't you stay for a few more days? Your grandparents have been looking for your aunt for twenty years, why are you leaving after only two days?"

The old man frowned as he said, and then asked, "Is it because your aunts are not happy about your aunt's return?"

"No," Yunshang shook her head like a rattle, "It's because my aunt is about to take the college entrance examination in a few days, and the factory has been working a lot lately, so she can't take a vacation."

The three aunts may not be very enthusiastic about Lin Dani, but after Lin Dani refused to return to the capital to settle down, they would not make the family unhappy by throwing face at unnecessary actions.

Besides, there are uncles standing in front,

Even if the three aunts were worried that Lin Dani would divide the Lin family's property in the future, they didn't dare to embarrass Lin Dani in the open, at most they whispered a few words to the uncles after going to bed at night.

The old man responded, but his brows were still furrowed, "Shangnan, are your aunts treating you well?"

Yun Chang was stunned.

How many aunts treat her well?

Yunshang thought about it carefully, and found that the three aunts really didn't have much enthusiasm for her, but as relatives, the aunts had done enough to save face, even Lin Wenlan couldn't find reason for it.

But thinking about it carefully, Yunshang was sensitive to realize that the three aunts were far less close to her than the eldest aunt and two aunts were to her.

It's just that it's not easy to say these words to the old man. After all, the Lin family is Lin Wenlan's family, and the three aunts are not warm enough to her, so it's not wrong. Yunshang can't speak ill of the aunts in front of the old man.

"Master, the three aunts are doing well. Last time I went back to Linyang, they made me a big red envelope and brought me a lot of delicious food."

The old man: "..."

Why did he forget?

With Yunshang's money-greedy nature, as long as you give her a red envelope, you are a good person, so how can you say bad things about others.

The old man was speechless for a long time, and finally rubbed Yunshang's head and said, "That's good, your mother had a disagreement with her natal family a few years ago, and something happened later... I'm afraid that your aunts still hate your mother."

Yun Shang hugged Qiuqiu and stopped talking.

In the previous generation, Yun Chang was not good at judging who was right and who was wrong, but people were close and distant, and in Yun Chang's heart, she naturally turned to Lin Wenlan.

The old man sighed, and then told Yunshang, "Shangnan, when you go to the Lin family in the future, remember to spend more time with your grandpa and grandma, and don't go to your aunts if you have nothing to do, especially the little aunts, do you understand?"

Yun Shang nodded solemnly, then changed the subject and said, "Master, come back to Linyang with me in two days. I am alone at home every day, and no one will play with me." Sitting with your big thick leg After a while, Bai Yancheng didn't dare to train my mind anymore.

The old man's eyes lit up, "Your mother didn't let you go to school?"

"I'm better than my little brother now. I can go to the third grade, so I don't want to go to kindergarten. Master, you go to Linyang too, and you can play with me at home from now on." It is to play with me when I am free.

"No!" The old man was arrogant, "Your master, I am a general, you want me to go to Linyang as a general to bring up a child for the second child?" Don't even think about it!

Yun Chang stared, puffed her cheeks and retorted, "I'm not a hairy kid!"

Also, don't you know which of us will play with whom?

You have to force me to say ugly things, don't you?

Obviously, I was afraid that you would not enjoy eating alone, so I tried to accompany you, why did you have the nerve to say the words 'hair-bearing child'?

What a rascal!

Yun Chang was so angry that he stopped talking, and the old man fell to the side and couldn't sit still. From time to time, he secretly glanced at Yun Chang's face, and coughed a few times to raise his sense of existence.

The little security guard in front had sore cheeks from holding back his laughter, he parked the car firmly in front of the small western-style building of Bai's house, ran to the back and opened the door.

Without waiting for the old man to help, Yun Shang jumped out of the car with the ball in her arms, without even looking at the old man, she went into the house by herself.

The old man was stunned for a moment, and hurriedly raised his legs to follow in. Before entering the house, he heard Yunshang talking to Lin Wenlan, "Mom, the capital city is boring. Let's go home tomorrow. I miss my brothers and sisters."

Ouch, why is Mao so childish?

The old man wiped the cold sweat that didn't exist on his head, entered the room with a grimace, and said to Lin Wenlan, "I haven't been back for more than half a year. This time, stay a few more days. If you have time, go back to spend more time with your parents. Next time I don't know when I'll be back."

Lin Wenlan didn't know that the two of them were competing, so she immediately agreed after hearing what the old man said.

It's really not easy for her to come back. Every festival, she has to lead the company to perform, and she has to be busy with the daily affairs of the group on weekdays. She really doesn't have many holidays.

Yun Chang didn't expect that the old man would draw his salary from the bottom of the pot, and directly asked Lin Wenlan to stay for a few more days. He was immediately dumbfounded, and stared at the old man angrily. After a long while, he silently went upstairs with the ball in his arms.

The old man just smiled proudly, Yun Chang ran downstairs again, and put the ball in the old man's hand very seriously, "Master, if you don't want to go to Linyang to take care of the fur kids, then you can take the little milk cat at home Go ahead. Qiuqiu is smart and obedient, let Qiuqiu accompany you from now on."

snort! I don't want to play with you, a big general, like a hairy boy!

Chapter 349 Divide private money

The old man pondered for most of the night, but in the end he did not agree to Yun Shang's request to go to Linyang.

In the next few days, the old man took Yunshang around the capital, all kinds of delicious and fun things, Yunshang saw them one by one, and the mother and daughter bid farewell to the reluctant old man, and set foot on the return trip Yang's train.

Before getting on the train, Yun Chang was still tearfully hanging on the old man's neck, with a look of reluctance, and kept telling the old man to call her and miss her every day.

But after the train started, Yun Shang performed a face-changing act in front of Lin Wenlan, jumped onto the bed, pouted her little butt, and started to fight with the same restless Qiuqiu. One person and one cat had a great time playing. From time to time, Yun Shang's crisp laughter sounded.

After entering the house, Yunshang held the phone again, coaxing the old man in a childish voice, thinking about grandpa as soon as the train starts, and not in the mood to play with Qiuqiu when the train starts, and saying that he misses the old man at noon I didn't even eat, but it made the old man feel bad.

Lin Wenlan, who watched the whole process, was so dumbfounded that he could hardly hear.

Why is her Xiaoqi so small?

He obviously missed the meal time because he was playing around with Qiuqiu, but when it came into her mouth, it turned out that he couldn't eat because he wanted the old man to think about it.

This is too deceptive!

It was only now that Lin Wenlan really realized that her little girl's EQ was not so high, and she couldn't treat her like an ordinary child in the future.

After hanging up the phone, Yunshang finished dinner quickly under the watchful eyes of her brothers and sisters, and then took Qiuqiu from Bai Qingyue's hand, and told a few people about her affairs in the capital.

From fighting with the children of the Qi family with her cousin, to she pouring urine on the old man, to visiting with the old man to receive gifts, and of course, in the end, she did not forget to share the benefits with the brothers and sisters.

Yun Shang only received three hundred yuan for the red envelopes. Lin Wenlan didn't ask for the money, and Yun Shang didn't mean to hand it over to Lin Wenlan, but Yun Shang would definitely not be stingy with her brothers and sisters.

She has eaten meat in big bowls, so she must give her brothers and sisters some broth.

Living in a big family, you can't eat alone, which is not conducive to family unity.

Yun Shang found out her small army bag, took out a big bulging envelope, and gave each of the brothers and sisters of the Bai family 20 yuan of private money in front of Bai Yancheng and his wife.

Finally, seeing Bai Yancheng looking at her with resentful eyes, Yun Chang endured the pain in her heart, took out ten yuan from the envelope, and handed it to Bai Yancheng tremblingly.

What is this all about!

A dignified commander of the military region, with a salary of three hundred yuan a month, is actually greedy for his daughter's private money, can he still have something to do?

Could it be that Bai Yancheng handed in his salary every month and never kept any pocket money with him?

Thinking about it this way, Yun Shang unconsciously looked at Bai Yancheng with sympathy, and even the hand that handed over the money did not shake.

Bai Yancheng stared at the ten yuan stretched out in front of his face, and was stunned, "Shangnan, you...why do you give me ten yuan?"

Here's your pocket money!

Of course, these four words cannot be said clearly, and Bai Yancheng's self-esteem must be taken care of, so he said them in a roundabout way.

"Dad, I didn't see anyone selling tea. This is my tea money from my filial piety..."

Bai Yancheng: "... Am I that obvious?

This is the tea money from my daughter's filial piety, probably, maybe, I should be able to accept it, right?

Bai Yancheng was still hesitating, but Yun Shang saw Lin Wenlan's face turned cold, and quickly threw the money into Bai Yancheng's arms, took out another 20 yuan from the envelope, and stuffed it into Lin Wenlan's hand, "Mom, You help me collect this money, and save it to buy popsicles for me in the future."

Ninety yuan was spent in a few minutes, and Yun Chang's distressed liver was bleeding.

Tightly put away the big envelope, lowered his head, and refused to look at the big bills in everyone's hands.

Bai Yancheng put ten yuan into his pocket, and coughed uncomfortably, "Shangnan, Dad bought the small courtyard yesterday, and I will take you there to take a look at it tomorrow."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she didn't feel sorry for her loss immediately. She praised Bai Yancheng very kindly, and then kept asking about the specific situation of the small courtyard.

The brothers and sisters of the Bai family also knew that Gu Shinian bought a house for Yun Shang in Fenyang, and no one objected to the family buying a house for Gu Shinian. They also gathered around Bai Yancheng, and kept giving Yun Shang advice. Help to supplement the things that should be added in the small yard.

Bai Qingyue came up with ideas purely to join in the fun, while Bai Qingzheng and Bai Qingming actively came up with ideas, with the idea of using the small courtyard as a base.

Bai Qingming, in particular, regarded Gu Shinian's small courtyard as his destination for running away from home in the future.

The whole family chatted lively and lively for a long time, until Yun Shang was too sleepy to keep her eyes open, and was sent back to the room by Lin Wenlan in a daze.

Early the next morning, Yun Shang was woken up by the sound of snoring next to the pillow.

Looking sideways, Qiuqiu took up half of the big pillow. At this moment, it was rolling into a ball of meat, nestling beside her head, her belly was bulging, and she was sleeping soundly.

Yun Chang stretched out her hand, pushed Qiuqiu off the pillow, turned over, and prepared to sleep for a while.

Qiuqiu jumped up like a furry, and found that it was Yunshang who was sneaking up on it. He groaned twice in aggrieved way, then leaned over again, buried his head on Yunshang's neck, and rubbed back and forth vigorously.

Yun Shang was rubbed by Qiuqiu so much that she almost laughed out loud, and the remaining drowsiness was wiped away by Qiuqiu. Resigned to her fate, she turned over and sat up, changed her clothes, and went downstairs to have breakfast with Qiuqiu in her arms.

It's getting late now, and there are only Yunshang and Aunt Wu left in the house, plus a Qiuqiu who looks like a master and only knows how to eat and sleep.

During the meal, Yun Chang was still thinking about when Bai Yancheng would take her to see the house, but Bai Yancheng called back before the meal was finished.

Yun Chang finished her breakfast in a few bites, went upstairs to change her clothes, said hello to Aunt Wu, picked up the ball, and rushed out like a gust of wind.

When they reached the gate of the courtyard, Bai Yancheng was already waiting outside.

Yunshang glanced behind Bai Yancheng, but didn't see the familiar big jeep. She felt a little regretful, so she could only run over with short legs, and was going to take the No. 11 bus to see the house.

Fortunately, the small courtyard that Bai Yancheng was looking for was not far from the large courtyard of the military area, and the father and daughter arrived there after only seven or eight minutes of walking.

Pushing open the black wooden door, there is a small yard of sixty to seventy square meters inside, and beyond that are three green brick and tile houses facing south, and two east wing rooms. A vegetable field was opened near the south wall, but it has not been taken care of for a long time. It is full of weeds and piled up a lot of firewood.

Yun Chang's eyes turned around in the yard, and she walked to the east wing to take a look, and found that this was the kitchen, with a big stove built inside, and a broken earthen jar sitting on it.

Chapter 350 Don't want a house

Yun Chang wandered around the yard, feeling very satisfied.

Although the house is not big, the three rooms are enough for Gu Shinian to live alone, and the brick and tile house is easy to tidy up. With a little tidying up, he can live comfortably.

Yun Shang was very generous and gave Bai Yancheng a smiling face, feeling that although Bai Yancheng's work efficiency was a bit low, I'm sorry for his reputation as the commander of the military region, but in general, the work was done beautifully.

At least he didn't find a mud house to fool Gu Shinian.

When she got home, the first thing Yunshang did was to call Yun Shuilian. First she told about her trip to the capital, and then asked everyone in Lao Yun's family how they were doing recently. Most importantly, she asked about Yun Shuilian's study situation, and finally hung up the phone. Only then did Yun Shuilian notify Gu Shinian to call her in the afternoon.

During the week in the capital, Yunshang hadn't contacted Gu Shinian, and finally returned to the provincial capital, so naturally she had to contact Gu Shinian as soon as possible.

In order not to be burdened by her when he was young, he would have fun alone and forget about her sister.

Hearing that Yunshang had returned to the provincial capital, Gu Shinian didn't even have time to eat lunch, so he told Yun Shuilian, grabbed a bun from the table and ran to the post office.

As soon as the phone was connected, before Gu Shinian could speak, Yunshang's crisp voice came over first, "Second Brother Gu! I'm back!"

Immediately afterwards, he said excitedly, "Second Brother Gu, I bought you a suite in the provincial capital! It's right next to the compound of the military area, so it's very close if I walk there..."

"A Chang? You went out to buy a house?" Gu Shinian interrupted Yun Shang's words, his voice became cold.

The little girl is doing big things quietly again?

Did she go out to buy the house by herself, or did she let the Bai family come forward to buy it?

Yun Chang scratched her head in embarrassment, glanced quietly at Bai Yancheng who had her ears up, and raised her voice deliberately, "Second brother Gu, I didn't buy the house, but my father Bai bought it for you. Brick and tile house with a small courtyard, it's very comfortable."

Bai Yancheng turned his head in satisfaction, the corners of his mouth curled up.

It's just that Gu Shinian on the other end of the phone turned dark, clenched his fingers tightly, and said, suppressing the uneasiness in his heart, "A Chang, ask Uncle Bai how much the courtyard cost, and I will pay it back when I get to the provincial capital." Give it to Uncle Bai."

"Ah?" Yun Shang was stunned, and subconsciously asked, "Second Brother Gu, are you unhappy? Why?"

From Yun Shang's point of view, Gu Shinian has done so many things for her, raising her from a skinny monkey-like little Dou ding to a fat, clever and cute girl. In the end, the Bai family didn't do anything, just picked a cute one for nothing. My big baby, what's wrong with wanting a small courtyard in the Bai family?

Could it be that such a big living person is not worth a small courtyard?

She also felt that the yard that the Bai family bought for Gu Shinian was too small!

Besides, this small courtyard is the house returned to Gu Shinian by the Bai family to replace her beautiful single room in Fenyang, so why can't it be accepted?

Gu Shinian took a deep breath, suppressed the churning emotions in his heart, and forced himself to calm down.

He really wanted to tell Yun Shang that this was not about a small courtyard, but that the Bai family was repaying his debt of favor.

The twists and turns, the human relationship behind it, and the game of people's hearts, Yun Chang couldn't think of it, it doesn't mean Gu Shinian couldn't think of it.

No matter what reason or purpose the Bai family bought him a small courtyard, in Gu Shinian's view, there must be an element of returning favors.

In the eyes of outsiders who don't know the truth, when he accepted the small courtyard, his kindness to Yunshang and everything he had done for Yunshang were cancelled.

The Bai family and Yunshang never owed him any favors again.

Yun Shang will only be Xiaoqi of the Bai family in the future, and has nothing to do with him.

Even if he went to the provincial capital and wanted to protect Yunshang nearby, the Bai family could cut off the connection between him and Yunshang at any time, and he still couldn't say no.

After all, the Bai family didn't owe him anything, emotionally or morally. Even the favor he helped Yunshang through the crisis, the Bai family repaid him with a small courtyard in the provincial capital.

Gu Shinian didn't know what other people would choose from his standpoint, but to Gu Shinian, he never thought of throwing Yunshang to the Bai family like throwing a burden, and never intervening in her life ever since.

Yun Shang is his younger sister, the only relative in his two lifetimes.

If it wasn't for helplessness, it would be impossible for him to entrust his only relative to others.

Letting Yunshang return to the Bai family was already the biggest concession Gu Shinian made. How could he comply with the wishes of the Bai family and use material conditions to cut off the relationship between him and Yunshang?

Even if the Bai family doesn't have the idea of returning favors.

It doesn't matter if he is despicable or gloomy, for Yunshang, he wished that the Bai family owed others more debts, the more the better, so that the Bai family could not stop him from approaching Yunshang.

Gu Shinian took a deep breath, and said in a low voice, "A-Shang, I'll accept this small courtyard, and I won't be able to stand upright in front of the Bai family in the future." Apart from you, there is nothing worth living in this world. I bend my spine.

On the phone, it was inconvenient for Gu Shinian to analyze the twists and turns behind this with Yun Shang, so he could only express his feelings in the most straightforward way.

Fortunately, Yunshang was considerate enough, held the phone and thought about it carefully, and soon realized that Gu Shinian was unwilling to accept the gift from the Bai family.

Turning his head to take a peek at Bai Yancheng, seeing that he didn't pay attention, he lowered his voice and whispered, "Second brother Gu, I was wrong this time, when you come to the provincial capital, we will refund the money for buying the house Give it to Lao Bai."

Gu Shinian was stunned for a moment, and quickly realized that the 'Lao Bai' that Yun Shang said was Bai Yancheng. He was speechless for a while, then changed the subject:

"A Chang, I contacted the third grandfather a few days ago... He gave me a few phone numbers, and after a while, the second brother will take you to the northeast."

"I didn't see the third grandpa when I went to the capital," Yunshang wrinkled her little nose in dissatisfaction, "Grandpa Gu's house and my grandpa Bai's house live in a big courtyard, I went to grandpa Gu's house, but I didn't see the third grandpa."

Thinking that she missed a red envelope, Yun Shang still feels distressed.

The third grandpa is really stingy!

When I was in Shenshi, I only gave Gu Erge a big red envelope, without her share, so when I went back to the capital, I simply used the excuse of a business trip and avoided seeing her.

It was too much.

How can there be elders who hide from others in order not to give red envelopes?

The next time I catch Third Grandpa, I will push him to the ground and grab the red envelope!

Yun Shang was full of resentment, and Gu Shinian could feel it through the phone line, and reminded Yun Shang with a restrained smile, "A Chang, the third grandpa really hasn't been in the capital recently, and he didn't hide from you on purpose."

When Yun Shang heard this, her stomach full of resentment deflated like a punctured balloon.
