Chapter 371: Good Luck

Four deer were killed at once, and two of them were huge stags, mixed with pheasants and hares that were killed on the road. Everyone's trip up the mountain was very rewarding.

It was getting late, and everyone dragged the deer to the river to tidy it up briefly, tied it with hemp rope, and carried it down the mountain with wooden sticks.

The old hunter slowed down and said to Li Zhenglin with a smile, "These two kids are lucky, the village hasn't hunted a wild deer for two years, and they can eat venison as soon as they come, they are all lucky. "

It's not just a blessing, it's a blessing!

He has led the villagers to hunt for so many years, how could he go up the mountain without running around in the forest, looking for wild animals everywhere?

When you are unlucky, you can run on the mountain for two days without seeing a big prey. Even if you encounter a big prey, if you are not careful, someone will get hurt or something.

But this time after going up the mountain, luck is really good.

As soon as he entered the old forest, he saw the footprints of red deer on the ground, and then led his men to surround the red deer to the small river smoothly. The process went incredibly smoothly.

Li Zhenglin heard the subtext of the old hunter, and said with a smile, "Uncle, you have to look at the two kids pleasing to the eye, and then call them when you go up and down the mountain in a few days. The kids from the city come to our place, so I feel It's fun on the mountain."

The old hunter hesitated, "Will that work? What if something happens?"

"Go up and down the mountain, and don't forget to drill in the old forest, what can happen? Then call my fourth brother and fifth brother, and I can help you!"

"Okay, I'll take these two kids to Miaogeda for a walk later, there's no big prey there, so it's safe."

Yunshang hugged Qiuqiu and followed Li Qiaomai to play at the entrance of the village. Seeing that the sun was about to set, she finally saw the crowd of hunting people entering the village.

Seeing that the crowd had hunted a lot, the children became excited one by one, and kept circling around the prey.

Yun Shang also ran over with the children, but her target was not the bloody prey, but Gu Shinian and Bai Qingzheng.

Seeing that the two of them hadn't suffered any external injuries except for their dirty clothes and mental fatigue, Yun Chang was finally relieved after a day of mentioning it.

"Second Brother! Are you back? Are you tired? Is it fun on the mountain?"

As soon as the words fell, Bai Qingjie lowered his face,

Lifting Yunshang by the collar from behind, he threw her up, "Xiao Qi, why are you only thinking about your second brother Gu, and don't ask third cousin if he is tired?"

Yunshang and Qiuqiu hugged Bai Qingjie's neck tightly from left to right to prevent being thrown into the sky by him again, and followed Bai Qingjie's words very obediently:

"Third cousin, are you tired from going up the mountain, are you hungry? You have been working hard on the mountain for a day!"

Li Zhenglin walked over from the side, and when he heard Yunshang caring about Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie like a little adult, he couldn't help but rubbed Yunshang's head with a smile, "Little girl really knows a lot, and she also knows what hard work is."

Yun Chang stared at her round eyes, and flattered her in a very good way, "Second Brother Gu said that Uncle Li beat two deer by himself, it's really amazing!"

He said and gave a thumbs up.

Li Zhenglin had never heard such a straightforward and enthusiastic compliment, coughed a little uncomfortably, "Didn't the girl say that she wanted to try venison, I met you today, and I will take you to the drying yard to eat venison later."

"Is there a big pot of rice in the village?" Yun Shang asked curiously.

"The prey on the mountain belong to the public, so you can't divide it privately. But everyone who goes up the mountain today can share an extra piece of meat, and I will leave Uncle Li's venison for you to eat later."

Yun Shang also didn't ask the village if they would share the meat between Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie. Neither of them was from the village.

While the villagers were cleaning up the pots and stoves on the drying ground and preparing to eat the venison, several of them went home to take a shower and change their clothes. It was not until the smell of stewed meat wafted in the air that Li Zhenglin took the bowls and chopsticks and took the three of them to the drying ground to eat. Big pot of rice.

"Zhenglin is back? How long can you stay in the village this time?"

"Zhenglin, come here quickly! I'll be waiting for you."

"Zheng Lin, the captain asked about you just now, hurry up and take the guests to sit in front."

As soon as they entered the drying yard, people kept saying hello to Li Zhenglin, and some people pulled Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie to sit on the table in front.

Yun Shang was not happy to sit with a bunch of bad old men, so she ran to sit next to the old lady of the Li family with a bowl full of stewed meat.

"Second Aunt, is this your little visitor from the capital? He looks so handsome."

Yun Chang was chewing venison in her mouth, her cheeks were bulging, and she couldn't tell who was asking, but she subconsciously squeezed out a smiling face to show politeness.

The old lady of the Li family was also enthusiastic. She gave the venison in her bowl to Yunshang, and smiled and scolded the women around:

"Go, go! Take back all the eyeballs! Every eyeball can glow green, so what if you scare my little guest!"

"Oh, Second Aunt, I have never seen such a handsome doll when I grow up, why don't you take a good look at it, when the little guest is gone, where can we see such a beautiful doll?"

"That's right, Second Aunt, you can't leave your handsome daughter alone at home, and bring her out to visit my house tomorrow."

...

Seeing a group of people talking more and more vigorously, the old lady of the Li family simply put down her chopsticks, raised her hand and patted the table, signaling everyone to listen to her:

"If you want to say that, then I will not be polite. My daughter is a distinguished guest from the capital. She has come to our place for a few days and wants to exchange for some things from our mountain. If you have something that can be exchanged, Tomorrow, I will take the little distinguished guest up for a visit."

As soon as these words came out, the atmosphere on the table was quiet for a moment, and soon someone asked in a low voice, "Second Aunt, what do children in the city want? We don't have anything on the mountain."

Do you want anything in town?

Why do you still care about things on the mountain in the village?

Besides, there is nothing on the mountain, except for wild animals, mushrooms, wild vegetables, hazelnuts, that is, ginseng and ganoderma.

But ginseng and ganoderma are so rare, and only a few hunters in the village have them in stock. Who would dare to go into the old forest to find them?

Is it possible that the children in this city are still rare on the dried mushrooms and hazelnuts on the mountain?

The old lady of the Li family spoke again, "We rely on the mountains to eat the mountains. People in our village have lived in the mountains behind us for the past two years. How can we have nothing? The dried mushrooms that are dried in every household, and the pine nuts fried during the Chinese New Year are not all from the mountains. thing?"

Yun Chang nodded secretly.

That's right, these are treasures sold at sky-high prices in later generations, and it's really a blessing to still despise them as bad things.

Now she has to find a way to exchange some more mountain treasures to keep, and to give gifts in the future, or to make up for the family, these are very good things that can be sold.

Chapter 372 Do great things

Li Zhenglin was going back to the army the next day. Taking advantage of the evening, he took Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie to a few hunters' homes in the village.

Waking up in the morning, Yun Chang looked at the big bundle next to the pillow, and was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth from ear to ear.

There are thirteen roots of wild ginseng in it, as well as deer tendon and deer penis, bear bile, toad oil, Heridium erinaceus... There are so many things, it's a full bag.

Seeing Gu Shinian coming in, Yunshang quickly waved and asked in a low voice, "Second brother Gu, how much did you spend for so many things? Is the money I gave you enough yesterday?"

The two have sold thousands of catties of fine grain in recent months, and the money in their hands has piled up to about thirteen thousand.

When Gu Shinian went out last night, Yun Shang stuffed a total of 2,000 yuan, and Gu Shinian never imagined that Gu Shinian could get back so many things.

"The money is enough. These ginsengs are young, and the total cost is not much."

Gu Shinian asked Yun Shang to put the ginseng into the space, and put the rest into the suitcase, before discussing the next plan with her.

"Ah Chang, the old hunter who brought us up the mountain yesterday has a very old ginseng. According to him, it should be two hundred years old. Tonight, you try to entangle Bai Qingjie, and I will buy that ginseng."

If he could not explain the source of the large sum of money in the hands of the two of them, he would have taken that ginseng last night.

"Two hundred years old?" Yun Chang's eyes lit up, "Second brother, did he say how much he wants to sell it for?"

"It's probably not cheap. Last time we bought 100-year-old ginseng in the provincial capital cost several hundred yuan. It is possible to double the 200-year-old ginseng."

However, 200-year-old ginseng is rare, even if the price is ten times higher, it will not suffer a loss.

Yun Shang nodded and agreed, "It's not expensive, and ginseng will only become more and more difficult to find in the future. In a few decades, even 100-year-old ginseng will be rare, let alone 200-year-old ginseng. "

Many local tyrants in later generations hold things that money can't buy. Now that they come across it, they naturally want to find a way to get it.

"By the way, Second Brother, Grandma Li is going to take me to visit, and she says she is helping us to exchange mountain treasures. What can I exchange for it?"

Now they are not allowed to trade in private, they can only barter, but apart from a change of clothes, the two of them only have money, and a ball that is simple to eat and sleep, what can they trade with others?

"fine,

After dinner, we will go to the county with Uncle Li to 'send' these things back, and then go to the supply and marketing agency to buy some towels, soap and other things. People in the village are short of industrial tickets. These are in short supply and should be easy to exchange. "

Yun Chang knew it well, and quickly prepared white towels and soap in the supermarket, removed the trademark, and planned to exchange it for Shanzhen.

After dinner, Li Zhenglin took several people to the county, and told Li Hongjun, the eldest grandson of the Li family who came with him, to bring them back safely. Then he drove back to the army in a hurry.

Standing on the street of an unfamiliar small town, Bai Qingjie asked Yun Shang with a blank expression on his face, "Xiaoqi, it's just such a small thing. When we go home, we just throw it in the car and take it back. Why spend so much money?" ?"

The key is that these things are old and valuable, what if the mail package is lost?

Well, even if it is military mail, it can't be lost, but ginseng is so delicate, what if things get knocked and damaged on the road?

Children are children, and things are not reliable.

He is still smart, he must take the valuables back with him, and he is determined not to mail them.

Yun Chang didn't know that she and Gu Shinian had become fools in Bai Qingjie's eyes. Standing beside Gu Shinian, she waved her small hand and sent Bai Qingjie to buy popsicles, "Third cousin, it's too hot today, you and the Li family My brother is going to buy popsicles for me, and my second brother Gu and I are going to send the package, and we will meet at the gate of the post office later."

Bai Qingjie looked around Yunshang and Gu Shinian for a while, then suddenly grinned, "Okay, Red Army and I will buy you popsicles, you can't run around as you follow Shi Nian." The little girl wanted to dismiss me again What are you doing?

Knowing that Bai Qingjie had seen through her purpose, Yun Chang couldn't help but twitch her mouth.

This is the disadvantage of bringing an extra oil bottle!

Those who can't let go of their arms make a fortune, and even smuggle things into space, they have to find ways to distract people.

It's too unfree.

After Bai Qingjie and Li Hongjun left, Yunshang found a secluded place, smuggled the things in the baggage into the space, and dragged Gu Shinian to the supply and marketing cooperative.

When Bai Qingjie came back after buying the popsicles, he saw that the military bags on both of them were full of towels and soap, and they looked like second-rate dealers.

Bai Qingjie was speechless for a long time, and couldn't help asking, "Xiaoqi, what are you doing buying so many towels?"

Yunshang sucked on the sweet popsicle, and answered vaguely, "I have agreed with Grandma Li, we want to exchange delicious food with the villagers. These are not towels, these are delicious." It's a mountain delicacy worth an old nose's money, you old hat!

Bai Qingjie looked at Yunshang with the eyes of a fool for a long time, and finally shook his head helplessly, "Okay, you can do whatever you say. Let's go, let your brother Hongjun take us around the county."

"What's the matter, I made an agreement with Grandma Li, I have to go back quickly and exchange for delicious food, don't delay my work!" Yun Shang said again.

Bai Qingjie: "... " What's the business in exchange for something delicious?

Seeing that Yun Shang really didn't want to stay in the county, Bai Qingjie almost collapsed.

Cooperating with him, he drove up the mountain road for 40 minutes, just to come to the county to buy a popsicle?

Why is he so hungry!

Regardless of whether Bai Qingjie liked it or not, under Yunshang's insistence, the group got on the carriage back to the village.

Yun Shang nestled in Gu Shinian's arms all the way, and the two met each other, muttering to each other, and finally set a price for exchanging various mountain treasures.

In addition to towel soap, Yunshang also planned to exchange some white sugar and toffee.

After getting off the car at the gate of the village, Yunshang sprinted among the children playing around, scattered a few fruit candies, and spread the news that she exchanged towels and other things for mountain treasures.

Anyway, it's all about exchanging things. Instead of letting the Li family take her door-to-door to exchange things, it's better to let the news out and sit at the Li family and wait for someone who is willing to exchange things to come to the door.

So as not to break her short legs.

After dinner, before Mrs. Li took Yunshang out to visit, people from the village came to visit one after another.

"Second aunt, have you eaten yet?" Two young daughters-in-law came in together, carrying baskets and big cloth bags in their hands.

"Just finished eating, why did you two come together?" Mrs. Li hurriedly put down the rag in her hand, and beckoned them to sit on the kang.

"Second aunt, my dog met your little distinguished guest at the entrance of the village. He said that he could exchange towels for things. Is it true?"

Chapter 373 Sent

"It's true!" Yunshang quickly poured out the bags full of the two armies, pawning half of the kang head, "There are towels, soap, sugar, and toffee I brought from the capital, all of which can be exchanged." thing."

"Ah! There's white sugar!" The eyes of the woman carrying the cloth bag lit up immediately, and she looked at Yun Shang eagerly, "Little girl, do you have brown sugar? I want some brown sugar."

Yun Shang thought for a moment, then nodded, "Yes, there is only half a bag of brown sugar, which my milk gave me to drink on the way. There are also three lunch boxes, all of which can be returned to you."

"puff!"

As soon as Yun Shang finished speaking, Bai Qingjie sprayed water from his mouth, staring at Yun Shang with wide eyes, as if saying:

Are you crazy?

Change out the lunch box, what will we have for dinner on the train back?

Even if you want to change it, you can just change out your lunch box, so why change out my lunch box?

Yun Shang didn't care what Bai Qingjie was thinking, and sent Bai Qingjie another task, "Brother Third, come and change things for this aunt, and I'll get brown sugar for the pretty aunt behind."

Bai Qingjie waved his hand helplessly, as a response to Yun Shang's words.

When Yunshang ran over from Li Zhenglin's house, there were a few more women in the room. Seeing Yunshang coming in, someone immediately said:

"There is a lunch box! I'll change the lunch box. My family, Sanmao, is studying in the city. Without a lunch box, I can't even eat a warm meal."

"I want a lunch box too! The eldest of my family is too. He has been talking about asking for a lunch box for a long time, but my family just can't get an industrial ticket..."

Yunshang handed the lunch box to Bai Qingjie, and she handed half a catty of brown sugar to the woman who came to change things first, "Auntie beautiful, here is the brown sugar you asked for. It's half a catty, enough to last for several days."

"Hey, this girl's mouth is really sweet." The woman happily accepted the brown sugar, turned the cloth bag full of dried mushrooms upside down, and poured all her brains into the hemp bag that Li's family prepared for Yunshang.

Seeing that the dried mushrooms that the woman poured in weighed more than ten catties, Yunshang hurried over to stop the woman's movement, "Auntie, there are too many!"

"Not much. The most indispensable thing here is this thing. It's everywhere on the mountain, but it's not as valuable as your brown sugar." The woman said with a smile.

These days, brown sugar is harder to buy than white sugar,

Only mothers who are in confinement in the hospital can be approved to buy two taels. For this, the supply and marketing cooperatives are often out of stock.

Dried mushrooms are different.

As long as you work hard and run up the mountain a few more times, you will be able to produce mushrooms, but can farmers run to the supply and marketing cooperatives to produce brown sugar?

In the eyes of the villagers, the things picked up on the mountain are worthless, but the real money outside, and the things bought with great effort are valuable!

From the corner of Yunshang's eyes, she saw Grandma Li winking at her, and immediately stepped aside and stopped talking.

Everyone in the village has their own small account and their own price list, so it's better for her not to disturb the market.

Seeing Bai Qingjie squatting on the top of the kang and becoming a small peddler, Yunshang quietly took Gu Shinian out, stuffed the money he had prepared long ago, and let Gu Shinian take the opportunity to buy ginseng at the old Orion's house.

.....

"Grandma Li, you are so amazing, you can exchange so many delicious food for me!" Yun Shang looked at the four bulging bags on the ground, and couldn't close her mouth with joy.

There are two big bags filled with dried shiitake mushrooms alone, one of the other two bags is filled with various dried fruits, and the other is filled with various dried game.

And so many things, she exchanged twenty-five pieces of soap, twenty towels, a catty of white sugar, two catties of toffee, half a catty of brown sugar, and three probably new aluminum lunch boxes.

The cost-effective Yunshang doubted life.

Seeing that Yunshang was very satisfied with her harvest, Grandma Li was full of sense of accomplishment, and said proudly, "That is, with me in charge, no one in the village would dare to lose you!"

"Grandma Li, this is you..." Yun Shang gave her thumbs up to Grandma Li, and said with a small mouth, "It's simply too good! No wonder my Uncle Li is so good, I learned from you!"

This flattery hit Grandma Li's heart, and the old lady couldn't close her mouth with joy.

Holding Yunshang's little hand, he talked about his prestige when he was young with great interest.

That heartfelt intimacy has caught up with the treatment of the grandson of the Li family at home.

Bai Qingjie was completely speechless.

As far as Xiao Qi's flattering skills are concerned, he will not be able to catch up in his next life.

In a word, it not only praised Mrs. Li, but also praised the most promising Li family, Mrs. Li's most beloved youngest son, Li Zhenglin, no wonder Mrs. Li was so happy.

"Girl, so many things are enough for your whole family to eat for a long time, I will call you Uncle Zheng Lin when I finish eating, and I will send it to you."

Yun Shang nodded again and again, and said sweetly with her small mouth, "Grandma Li, call me if you need anything, and my second brother and I will send it back to you!"

Old Li and his wife have Li Zhenglin, a young son with a bright future in the army, so they naturally have no shortage of things, but no matter whether Lao Li's family is short or not, and whether she will call to ask for things in the future, she can't do it right now. Disappointedly rejected Grandma Li.

Grandma Li is already old, and she sits at home, worrying about being tired, trying to help her change things. If she refuses Grandma Li's kindness, wouldn't she pour cold water on her warm heart?

Yun Shang would not do this kind of unpleasant behavior.

Bai Qingjie and Li Hongjun carried the four sacks to Li Zhenglin's room, and came over to greet Yunshang, "Xiaoqi, it's getting late. Grandma Li has been tired all day, so she has to rest early, and come back tomorrow to talk to Grandma Li."

Yun Chang responded, greeted Grandma Li, took Bai Qingjie's hand, and walked out of the gate of Li's house.

"Third cousin, where's second brother Gu?" Yun Shang asked knowingly.

Hearing this, Bai Qingjie felt that his back molars were sore.

Thinking of what Gu Shinian had just asked him when Yun Shang would come back, his heart started to panic again.

They came out as three of them!

three people!

Why can't these two people always see him?

It's okay to always distract him from making small moves, but now we haven't seen each other for a while, and we are thinking about each other non-stop.

Is it true that he, the elder brother, is dead?

Seeing Yun Chang looking over eagerly, Bai Qingjie suppressed the gloom in his heart, and said in a sour tone, "Gu Shinian boiled bath water for you at home!"

Brother Gu is back!

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she let go of Bai Qingjie's hand, and ran home.

Her 200-year-old ginseng! ! !

Bought back!

"Second Brother Gu, how are you doing?" Yunshang ran into the kitchen in a hurry and asked excitedly.

"Take it." Gu Shinian handed the ball that was on his lap to Yun Shang, and said in a low voice, "Except for one 200-year-old one, there are three more 100-year-old ones, I'll give you all of them." Bought it."

Chapter 374 Into the mountains again

Why can't these two people always see him?

It's okay to always distract him from making small moves, but now we haven't seen each other for a while, and we are thinking about each other non-stop.

Is it true that he, the elder brother, is dead?

Seeing Yun Chang looking over eagerly, Bai Qingjie suppressed the gloom in his heart, and said in a sour tone, "Gu Shinian boiled bath water for you at home!"

Brother Gu is back!

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she let go of Bai Qingjie's hand, and ran home.

Her 200-year-old ginseng! ! !

Bought back!

I, I, "I took it." Gu Shinian handed the ball that was on his lap to Yun Shang, and said in a low voice, "Except for one 200-year-old one, there are three more 100-year-old ones. I bought it for you."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she glanced outside the kitchen, and made a counting gesture, "Second Brother Gu, how much did you spend?"

"It's not expensive. Four people join in for one thousand and sixteen. It's a good price."

Yun Chang is satisfied, the price is indeed not expensive.

Hearing the sound of Bai Qingjie closing the door, Gu Shinian lowered his voice and said, "A-Shang, put the things under your blanket, you go and put them away first."

Yun Chang nodded, and sprinted into the room, taking the treasures that Gu Shinian bought into the space.

Well, the most important thing in coming to the Northeast has been resolved.

After a few days, I will find an opportunity to go up the mountain, move a few ginseng plants into the space, and then I can go home with Gu Erge.

Yun Shang originally thought that it would take some time for the villagers to go up the mountain to hunt, but after only two days, the old hunter ran over and asked Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie if they would go up the mountain with him to catch hares.

After Bai Qingjie readily agreed, Gu Shinian said slowly, "Uncle Li, I won't go with Brother Qingjie here. I'll take my sister to the town later."

"Aren't you going?"

Bai Qingjie was stunned, looked at Gu Shinian, then at Yunshang, and then asked with a dark face, "You two are going to act alone again? What are you going to do?"

Yun Shang puffed her cheeks, and answered solemnly, "Go to the town to eat popsicles, the popsicles in the county are not good."

Bai Qingjie: "... Can we not mention eating popsicles!

Seeing that Bai Qingjie's face became even more ugly, Yun Chang hurriedly said, "Brother Third, I want to eat rabbit meat. You can learn the tricks from Grandpa Li and catch some big rabbits for me."

"Okay, you and Shi Nian go to the town to play, and the third brother goes up the mountain to catch rabbits for you."

When Bai Qingjie left with the old Orion, Gu Shinian also took Yunshang out of the village, walked for a while, ran into the woods by the side of the road, turned around and walked towards the back mountain.

Yun Shang put the ball into the space, and her two short legs walked happily in the mountains and forests, closely following Gu Shinian all the way.

Knowing that Yunshang has the spiritual power to keep him from getting tired, Gu Shinian couldn't help but say, "Ah Chang, when you're tired, tell me that the second brother will carry you up the mountain, do you understand?"

"I know." Yun Chang responded obediently, but secretly made up her mind that she must follow closely, not to hold back Second Brother Gu, nor to tire Second Brother Gu.

The further you went in, the denser the forest became. Yun Shang found a machete from the space and asked Gu Shinian to hold it to open the way ahead. The two walked around the thorny forest for nearly an hour, and finally entered the deep mountain behind. .

"A Chang, last time I hunted a deer by the small river ahead," Gu Shinian said while holding Yun Shang's arm and pointing to the trail ahead.

"Then let's go over and have a look. If we can see other prey, then we will have game to eat in the future."

With a cheating weapon on her body, she is not afraid no matter how fierce the prey is.

Gu Shinian responded, and pointed to the medicinal materials on the ground, asking Yunshang to put it into the space.

"It takes about two hours to walk from here to the river. There are a lot of medicinal materials and several mushroom bushes on the way. You will put them away later."

Hearing what Gu Shinian said, Yun Chang immediately stretched out her spiritual power to collect medicinal materials along the way.

The two of them made very little noise as they walked along the way. Wherever Yunshang's mental power passed, the pheasants, hares, and wild eggs were all taken into the space by her unceremoniously.

In the distance, the sharp howls of animals came from the jungle, Gu Shinian immediately pulled himself together and ran forward quickly, pulling Yun Shang.

Listening to the sound, it should be the sound of a large animal, maybe it is a large animal in a fighting state.

After running for more than ten minutes, the two came out of the forest and turned to a large grassland with a stream flowing.

By the side of a thin stream, a big wild boar weighing four to five hundred catties was fighting with a bear. A large thin tree fell down by the stream, which was overwhelmed by the two animals fighting.

Gu Shinian pulled Yunshang to hide behind a big rock, held his breath, and carefully observed the situation of the battle.

Yun Shang didn't poke her head out to peek, but through the howling of wild boars from time to time, one could imagine the intensity of the battle at this time.

I don't know how long it took before the creek finally quieted down. Yun Chang poked her head out and looked over, and saw the wild boar lying motionless on the ground, and the bear was moving its limping hind legs towards the creek.

"A Chang, enter the space and put away the wild boar."

Yun Shang shook her head, not listening to Gu Shinian's words for the first time, "Second brother, wild boars are like that, I don't want to eat them."

It was so big and bloody, she didn't even want to look at it, how to clean it up?

Even if Gu Shinian cleaned it up by hand, she would not bear it.

Gu Shinian was almost amused by Yun Shang, so he lowered his voice and said, "A Chang, if you don't eat it, you can take it out and sell it for money. This wild boar should weigh four hundred catties, and it can sell for a lot of money. If you stay here, you will become a boar." It's the bear's ration."

When Yun Shang heard this, she immediately pulled Gu Shinian into the space, stretched out her mental strength, and brought in the dead boar on the ground.

"Second brother, do you want to take the bear in too? Try to kill him, and let's sell it together!" Yun Chang asked with sparkling eyes.

Gu Shinian froze for a moment, then nodded dumbfoundingly, "All right, you can take it in if you want."

The bear outside was rambunctiously wandering around, looking for its prey, dazed, and was taken in by Yun Shang.

Glancing at the two mutilated behemoths in the space, Yun Chang quickly turned her head, holding Gu Sinian with one hand, and Qiu Qiu, who was frightened by wild boars and bears, but couldn't move, and left the space with the other.

Not long after the two returned to the forest, Gu Shinian grabbed Yun Shang and looked at the roots of the big tree beside him, "A Chang! It's ginseng!"

Yun Shang also looked at the few tender leaves under the shimmering light of the jungle with a look of surprise.

"Second brother, yes, ginseng." Yun Shang stuttered with excitement, swallowed unconsciously, and continued, "Second brother, we found ginseng!"

"Yeah." Gu Shinian was much calmer than Yunshang, he responded, and unconsciously lowered his voice and asked, "Ash, can you just move into the space?"

Chapter 375 The key is to look at the face

Lying on the kang at night, Yunshang consciously entered the space and counted her gains.

Various herbs and mountain treasures were planted in the space, and dozens of fat and tender hares and pheasants were harvested, plus dozens of nests of wild eggs. There were wild boar and bear corpses lying on the field, under the largest fruit tree. There is also a wild ginseng with red ginseng fruit.

What made Yunshang most happy was that there were 19 processed ginseng plants, large and small, in the lockers on the eighth floor, including one 200-year-old ginseng and four 100-year-old ginseng.

Although one of the 100-year-old ginseng was bought in the provincial capital, its quality and form are not inferior to the few ginsengs that Gu Shinian bought newly.

Coupled with the fact that there are four sacks full of mountain treasures outside, the harvest in the Northeast this time exceeded Yunshang's expectations.

Yun Chang turned over, pushed the ball that was frightened and refused to leave her body out of the bed, and fell into a deep sleep.

Before Bai Qingjie got up, he was still talking about the trap he went up and down the mountain yesterday, and was thinking about going up the mountain at noon to see if there was any prey in the trap.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he walked out of the room, Yunshang called to stop him, "Brother Third, I want to go home, let's go to the county after dinner and call Uncle Li."

Bai Qingjie turned his head, looked at Yunshang who was eating tomatoes, rubbed his ears, and asked uncertainly, "Xiao Qi, you just said you wanted to go home?"

"Well, I want to go home."

Yun Shang nodded affirmatively again, her gaze paused on Bai Qingjie's ear, and she secretly slandered:

The third cousin is only nineteen, life has just begun, and he hasn't tasted the taste of a daughter-in-law yet, why is his ear so bad?

I have to talk to my grandpa later, share the soaked ginseng wine with my third cousin, so that he can nourish his body.

Bai Qingjie didn't know that Yunshang's little head was thinking about it again. He rubbed his head with a headache, and tentatively discussed with Yunshang, "Xiaoqi, the third brother put a trap on the mountain yesterday, wait for the third brother to catch the hare for you Okay, let's go back, shall we?"

Seeing Yun Shang's small brows frowning, Bai Qingjie immediately raised two fingers, "Two days, just two days! Can we go back the day after tomorrow?"

It's not easy to come to the Northeast once, and he hasn't learned how to hunt yet, so how can he just go back like this?

There are no such deep mountains and old forests in the capital, even if there were, the old man would not let him go to the mountains to have fun.

Yun Shang is a soft-hearted little girl who is especially sympathetic to the weak. Seeing her third cousin pleading with her pitifully, she generously promised him to stay for two more days.

However, Bai Qingjie's luck was really not that good. Even if he stayed in the village for two more days, the trap he made himself still didn't catch any prey.

When Li Zhenglin came back, a few people bid farewell to everyone in the old Li family, and left the village in a car, Bai Qingjie was still chattering, "What's the problem? Why is Uncle Li able to catch prey? does not work....."

Yun Chang was really tired of hearing it, turned her head, and teased Bai Qingjie very maliciously, "Third cousin, I know why."

Bai Qingjie really became interested, and asked with a look of begging for explanation, "Why?"

"The key is to look at the face!" Yun Shang pointed to Bai Qingjie's fair and clean face, and fooled him solemnly, "Don't look at Uncle Li now that he is old, he doesn't look very good-looking. But everyone in the village has said that when Uncle Li was young He is a well-known handsome guy from ten miles and eight villages, with a good-looking face, so he can catch rabbits under cover."

As soon as these words came out, apart from Gu Shinian, Bai Qingjie and Li Zhenglin were all stunned.

How can it be explained that it can't catch the prey under the cover?

A good face can catch prey, but a bad face can't catch prey?

This is the reason for what the hell.

Li Zhenglin trembled even more, and the car almost rode on a tree by the side of the road.

The old Orion looked like a ghost when he was young!

The pimples all over his face, how can it compare to Bai Qingjie who is white and clean, with good features and handsome features?

The little girl's mouth is really poisonous, and she is not soft-hearted at all when dealing with her cousin.

After Bai Qingjie realized it, he almost exploded with anger.

Where is he not good-looking?

With his appearance,

He can be ranked among the top three in school. On weekdays, I don't know how many female comrades want to study with him, make progress together, and contribute to the construction of a new China.

Why did he get into the mouth of the little cousin, he was so ugly that he even had to take a detour when he saw his prey?

Bai Qingjie gritted his back molars, picked up Yunshang, and held her down to tickle her.

Yun Shang rolled over and over with laughter on Bai Qingjie's lap, Qiuqiu tilted his head and looked at it for a long time, and finally decided that his little master had suffered a big loss. He stood on the back seat, his hair all over his body exploded, and yelled at Bai Qingjie Called a few times.

Seeing that Gu Shinian took Yun Shang away from Bai Qingjie's arms, Qiuqiu rushed over and scratched Bai Qingjie's face.

"Aw! Xiaoqi! Take care of your cat!" Bai Qingjie howled, and hurriedly protected his face, for fear that he would be disfigured by being scratched by Qiuqiu.

Yun Shang had already jumped into Gu Shinian's arms at this moment, confirming that she was very safe and would not be pulled over by Bai Qingjie to clean up, and quickly called Qiuqiu back.

The third cousin was not as good-looking as the second brother Gu, if Qiuqiu was disfigured again, what would happen if he couldn't find a wife in the future?

After such a fight, Bai Qingjie finally calmed down, no longer worrying about why the trap he set couldn't catch the prey.

They were on the night train. After arriving at the place, Li Zhenglin first went to help them get their tickets, and then with the help of the train station staff, he carried four bags of marijuana to the platform.

After the staff left, Li Zhenglin said, "Have you brought everything? You will have to stay in the car for a few days when you go back, and you must bring enough food. Check your luggage again to see if there is anything missing." , it's too late for us to buy now."

Gu Shinian looked at his and Yunshang's things, and thanked Li Zhenglin with a smile, "Thank you, Uncle Li, I have brought everything."

Yun Shang also nodded, pointing to the bulging bag at her feet and said, "Uncle Li, Grandma Li brought me a lot of delicious food, including pancakes, pickles, cucumbers, melons, and persimmons. Let's eat on the way."

Thinking of the soft and sweet pancake baked by Grandma Li, and the freshly picked fruits and vegetables from the private plot, Yun Chang's saliva began to drip unconsciously again.

I have to admit that the melon at this time is delicious. One bite, it is sweet and crispy. Even after eating it, the sweetness of the melon in my hand can last for a long time.

It's a pity that Gu Shinian was worried that she would spoil her stomach, so he only let her eat half of it each time.

Li Zhenglin also heard about the fact that his old mother and the little girl had a special hit-time relationship. When Yun Shang was talking, his eyes were fixed on the melon that his old mother specially prepared for the little girl in the bag, and he swallowed greedily. I couldn't help laughing out.

Chapter 376 Uneven distribution of spoils

Gu Shinian was so helpless, he knelt down, picked a small melon from the bag, and stuffed it into Yunshang's hand.

After the train arrived, Gu Shinian took Yunshang on the train to find a seat, told Yunshang not to move around in the seat, and then got out of the car to help Li Zhenglin and Bai Qingjie move things.

The three went up and down twice before stuffing the four marijuana bags under the bed.

Hearing the sound of the train whistle, Li Zhenglin wiped the sweat from his forehead, gave some instructions to the others, rubbed Yun Shang's head, turned around and got off the train.

This time, the three of them still had two lower berths and one upper berth. Fortunately, a middle-aged man in his thirties and the appearance of a cadre lived in the other berth. He was of relatively high quality and everyone got along fairly well. .

.....

Following the prompts all the way through the broadcast, the train slowly drove into Linyang and stopped by the platform.

Different from the feeling of getting off the train at Linyang Station in the past, Yunshang felt like coming home for the first time.

Instead of feeling that I am just a passer-by in Linyang, without any sense of belonging, as before.

Especially seeing the two straight figures standing in front of the platform surrounded by guards, Yun Shang felt a complex and strange emotion in her heart, happy, excited, and even a little late miss.

Before the train stopped, Yun Chang couldn't help but leaned out of the window and waved to Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng:

"Dad! Mom! I'm back, here I am!"

Bai Yancheng has always been a majestic and dignified image in front of people, especially when surrounded by guards, his aura is even more compelling.

Except for Lin Wenlan, the other passengers on the platform would unconsciously walk around Bai Yancheng.

Unexpectedly, Yunshang's voice went down. Bai Yancheng, who had a tiger face and awe-inspiring manner, performed a face-changing drama perfectly in front of the guards and passengers picking up the station. He instantly transformed from a high-cold commander to a daughter slave. The corners of the eyes are squeezed out of the smile.

Seeing the train stop, Bai Yancheng couldn't wait for Yunshang to get off the car door, stepped over a few steps, and hugged Yunshang from the window.

"Dad, I miss you, do you miss me?"

Although it was to coax Bai Yancheng, what Yun Shang said was extremely sincere, and Bai Yancheng was immediately moved, and even felt that the corners of his eyes began to heat up.

It was not in vain that he had been courting his daughter for so long, and it finally paid off!

It's just that Bai SiLing cares about face, and won't express his feelings as straightforwardly as Yun Shang. Although he really misses his daughter, he is too embarrassed to say it in front of others.

Seeing Yun Shang looking at him eagerly, Bai Yancheng coughed uncomfortably, and gave a soft "hmm", answering Yun Shang's question.

Hearing the answer she wanted, Yun Chang instantly abandoned Bai Yancheng and threw herself into the arms of Lin Wenlan who had just squeezed over.

"Mom, I miss you too, more than my dad." This time I really miss you! No fooling around.

Bai Yancheng: "... Just think about it, why step on me?

This little heartless person was moved for a long time in vain.

Lin Wenlan's emotions were more unrestrained and vented, and she didn't think Yunshang smelled bad, so she kissed her on the forehead, "Mom misses Changnan too! Did you listen to the two brothers outside?"

Yun Chang nodded obediently, "I listened." That's right, but you are obedient, listen to Gu Er Ge's words.

Nonsense, you are listening to ghosts!

Just after getting out of the car, Bai Qingjie who met Bai Yancheng secretly answered.

The little girl knows how to fool people in movies, and plays him around outside, how can she be obedient?

He was the one who listened to the little girl's film!

It wasn't until Gu Shinian and Bai Qingjie helped several guards carry things into the car that Bai Yancheng took Yun Shang from Lin Wenlan's arms and sat in the passenger seat with her in his arms.

"Dad, I'll go to Second Brother Gu's house later. There are half of the contents of Second Brother Gu in the sack. Let's put it back for Second Brother Gu first."

Two big bags of mountain delicacies, and a bag of dried wild game, all got half of Gu's second brother's share. She and Gu's second brother would eat them slowly in the future, and they could also take them out as gifts, which was both face-saving and practical.

And that bag of dried fruit, I have to keep half of it with Brother Gu.

Save it for Second Brother Gu as a snack.

For the remaining half of the food, take some back to the grandfather in the capital, and then give some back to the old couple of the Yun family. The rest can be eaten at home or given as a gift, she just doesn't ask.

The things were brought back by Yunshang. Naturally, Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan would not interfere with Yunshang's distribution, and told the driver Xiao Liu, "Go to Shinian first."

When Bai Qingjie saw that Yun Shang was about to give Gu Shinian half of the things, but didn't mention him, he panicked even more.

He was like a small shopkeeper that day, squatting on the top of the kang, helping Xiaoqi change things all night, his voice almost became hoarse.

In the end, the little heartless boy turned around and forgot about him, and gave the things to Gu Shinian who didn't do any work.

Can you be more eccentric?

Gu Shinian saw that Bai Qingjie was in a mood, he coughed dryly with a smile, and reminded Yunshang, "Ah Chang, brother Qingjie also helped change things, so I have to save brother Qingjie's share."

Anyway, a lot of mushrooms are planted in Yunshang's space, and there will be no shortage of fresh mountain delicacies in the future, so there is no need to keep too many dry goods.

Yun Chang looked at Bai Qingjie's black face, and said tactfully, "I have prepared something for Third Cousin, half of my share should be given to Third Cousin, and let him take it home for Grandpa to eat."

Bai Qingjie looked better, but he continued to tease Yunshang, "Xiao Qi, I'll help you..."

"But those towels and soap are paid by Brother Gu."

Bai Qingjie: "... " So, am I helping you two with work?

The three of you are talking to each other here, muttering about how to divide the spoils, while Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan listened with gusto, and soon figured out that it was their little girl's evil idea, using cheap towels and soap , and returned with four big Bao Shanzhen.

Bai Yancheng felt even more regretful in his heart, regretting that Yunshang was not a boy, regretting that Yunshang had a lazy bone, and had no interest in entering the army to fumble around.

Otherwise, as long as Yun Shang does not lose Bai Qingzheng's mind, her future achievements will not be low.

The car quickly stopped at the entrance of the small courtyard, and after leaving half of the things for Gu Shinian, the group got on the car and returned to the family courtyard.

Aunt Wu had already prepared the meals and was waiting at home. When she saw a few people coming in, she rushed to wash everyone up, and then asked Lin Wenlan, "Captain Lin, should we prepare the meals now, or wait until Qingzheng and the others come back to prepare the meals. "

"Now, it will take half an hour for Qingzheng and the others to come back, just leave them alone." Lin Wenlan said without thinking, "It's too much for an adult to take the bus for three days in a row, let alone a few children, eat it quickly Let them rest for dinner."

Aunt Wu responded briskly, brought out the chicken soup that had been stewed for a day, and first scooped a big bowl for Yunshang.

Chapter 377 She Wants to Kill Me

After eating dinner comfortably, Yunshang finally thought it was time to talk to Bai Yancheng about something serious.

Holding her tightly with one hand and rubbing her swollen belly with the other, he followed Bai Yancheng and Gu Shinian into the study.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng added tea to the teacup, Gu Shinian took the initiative to pick up the thermos pot to make tea for Bai Yancheng, and pulled Yunshang to sit down behind the desk.

Bai Yancheng was very satisfied with Gu Shinian's sense of proportion, nodded secretly, and looked at Yun Shang again.

Seeing her plump face tend to sag, I felt even more satisfied.

After going out to play for a while, she didn't lose weight, but flesh grew on her face, which shows that Shi Nian and Qing Jie took good care of Yun Shang.

"Shi Nian, when you called last time, did it mean you, or Chang Nan?" Bai Yancheng asked first while drinking tea.

Although cases of suspected enemy agents are generally dealt with severely, there are exceptions to everything.

Just like Widow Wang, although she colluded with the enemy, her behavior did not provide much help to the enemy's sabotage.

She didn't help the enemy agents make explosives, she didn't help the enemy agents contact and send information, she just didn't report the knowledge, she just adopted a child, and unfortunately, this child was a hostage arranged by the enemy agents in advance.

If Widow Wang hadn't received the five hundred yuan from the enemy, she wouldn't even be involved in the enemy's case.

To be precise, as long as the Bai family does not hold Widow Wang accountable, her crimes will be punished lightly. Even because of her insanity, the Qinghe County Public Security Bureau did not hold her criminally responsible. They just asked the village to control her. Get her out of the village.

But if the Bai family really wants to hold Widow Wang accountable, and sue her on the grounds that she received five hundred yuan from the enemy agent, intending to hand over Yunshang to the enemy agent, and assist the enemy agent to escape, then the Widow Wang will have to be detained for at least one year. Hats off to enemy agents.

Therefore, whether the crime committed by Widow Wang is serious or not depends entirely on the wishes of the Bai family.

After Yunshang returned to Bai's house, Bai Yancheng never talked to Yunshang about Lao Yun's family.

One is that Yunshang is too young and not mature enough to think about things. Yunshang may not be able to understand some of his ideas, and even if she understands them, she may not agree with his ideas because of emotional factors.

The second is that Yunshang had just returned to the Bai family, and was too close to everyone in Lao Yun's family. He took the initiative to mention Lao Yun's family, which might cause Yun Chang to misunderstand and make her alienate the Bai family even more.

It was precisely because Yun Shang was too close to everyone in Lao Yun's family that Bai Yancheng was not sure what Yun Shang's attitude towards Widow Wang was.

He took the initiative to bring Widow Wang to the provincial capital to see a doctor and settle down in Fenyang. supply food...

All kinds of signs show that Yunshang's attitude towards Widow Wang is very contradictory and tangled, and she is very concerned about Widow Wang on the surface, but she does not take the initiative to approach Widow Wang on weekdays, and even rarely goes to the next room to take a look at her.

Bai Yancheng actually wanted to hold Widow Wang accountable in his heart, but it was precisely because Yun Shang had made so many plans for Widow Wang that he was not sure what attitude Yun Shang had towards Widow Wang.

Worried that if he held Widow Wang accountable, he would annoy Yunshang and make her feel suspicious of him, so Bai Yancheng turned a blind eye to what Widow Wang committed, and let the police of Qinghe County deal with Widow Wang on their own.

Originally thinking that this matter would be over like this, who would have imagined that the day after Yunshang and Gu Shinian returned to Qinghe County, they would find a way to call back, implying that he should hold Widow Wang accountable.

Bai Yancheng didn't know what happened, and he didn't know whether it was Yun Shang's intention or Gu Shinian's false news to Yun Shang behind his back.

Gu Shinian understood what Bai Yancheng meant, and replied in a calm voice, "Uncle Bai, this is what Yun Shang and I mean."

Bai Yancheng looked at Yun Chang, seeing her nodding along with her, she was even more surprised, "Shang Nan, did something happen to you when you went to Lao Yun's house this time?" Why don't you go back on your word?

"Um,

"Yun Shang nodded again, "Dad, Widow Wang is about to recover from her madness, and she wants to kill me." "

"What did you say?"

Bai Yancheng stood up suddenly, and the teacup in his hand fell to the ground in shock, "Who are you talking about? Who is going to kill you?"

"Widow Wang." Yun Shang spoke again.

"Uncle Bai, before Widow Wang went crazy, she had the idea of killing A-Shang to avenge Yun Dachuan. Later, Widow Wang got mad, and A-Shang's life became easier. If Widow Wang keeps going crazy, then A-Shang won't. There is no danger, but once Widow Wang's madness improves, A Chang will go to Xinglin Village in the future..."

Gu Shinian's voice fell, and Bai Yancheng understood what he meant.

In Widow Wang's heart, Yun Shang is the murderer who killed Yun Dachuan. Once Widow Wang returns to normal, with her feelings for Yun Dachuan, she will definitely do everything possible to avenge Yun Dachuan.

And Yunshang has such a good relationship with the rest of the Yun family, in the future, he will have to go back to Xinglin Village to see the old couple of Yun's family. If he meets Widow Wang, won't Yunshang be in danger?

Bai Yancheng's hands trembled unconsciously.

He originally thought that before the widow Wang went crazy, at most she would torture Yun Shang harshly, but he never expected that the widow Wang actually regarded Yun Shang as an enemy, and even wanted to kill Yun Shang for revenge.

How can he bear this?

Bai Yancheng already had a problem with the Yun family in his heart.

Even if Lao Yun's family saved Yun Shang's life, he couldn't thank Lao Yun's family from the bottom of his heart.

At the beginning, Widow Wang didn't like Yunshang, so Yun's family could send Yunshang to the orphanage, or give it to other people for adoption, instead of using Yunshang as Yun Dachuan's most beloved daughter as an excuse to force the two people who hate each other Tied together, and then pretended to be blind with their eyes open, watching the widow Wang grind the cloud clothes.

The members of Lao Yun's family never thought that Yun Dachuan loves Yun Shang so much, why would he be willing to stay in Lao Yun's house to suffer, why would he be willing to hand Yun Shang over to Widow Wang, and let Yun Shang suffer all the torture?

What Lao Yun's family did was not to save Yun Dachuan's only seedling, but to be an accomplice of Widow Wang and help Widow Wang kill Yun Dachuan's only seedling.

These words have been hovering in Bai Yan's heart for several months, but he has never mentioned it to Yun Shang. He doesn't want his daughter to think that he is sowing discord, and he doesn't want the woman to think that he is a person who talks about people behind their backs.

Bai Yancheng originally thought that everything was over, the old couple of the Yun family were a little confused, but their love for Yunshang was true, as long as Yunshang was happy, he was willing to put up with it and let his daughter continue to be with the old man. The Yun family is close.

But the current situation turned out to be that the widow Wang once wanted to kill Yun Shang!

If the Widow Wang hadn't gone crazy, wouldn't her daughter be gone?

Chapter 378 Heartache

Bai Yancheng's face was gloomy and frightening. For the first time, with a straight face, he said to Yun Shang in a commanding tone, "Xiao Qi, don't go to Lao Yun's house in the future."

Knowing that Bai Yancheng was angry, Yunshang didn't agree or refuse, but changed the subject and said, "Dad, Widow Wang's madness is about to recover, even if I don't go to Lao Yun's house, she will find ways to trouble me... "

"Widow Wang is too busy to take care of herself, so she can't trouble you." Bai Yancheng's voice was so cold that ice could drip out.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up slightly, she lay on the table, and asked mysteriously, "Dad, has Widow Wang been arrested?"

"Not yet." Bai Yancheng's face was dark, a little annoyed that he had doubts about Gu Shinian, and he didn't hold Widow Wang accountable immediately after receiving the call.

"Shangnan, I'll make a call later. It is a fact that Widow Wang colluded with the enemy agents. Just because she once saved the life of the military commander's child, her crime cannot be offset."

Yun Chang nodded in satisfaction, and just about to sit down, Bai Yancheng opened his mouth again, and asked in a low voice, "Shangnan, tell Dad, what did Widow Wang treat you back then?"

He has heard from many people that Yunshang was tortured by the widow Wang, but those people are not Yunshang, and they know far less clearly than Yunshang.

He should have a good talk with Yunshang on the first day Yunshang returned to Bai's house, hear how his daughter came here these years, and then ask her what she thinks of everyone in Lao Yun's family.

Instead of letting the words of outsiders penetrate his ears, affecting his judgment, and making him lose the courage to listen to his daughter's story of her torture over the years.

He is not a qualified father.

Yun Chang didn't know that Bai Yancheng fell into deep self-blame and torment, and thought that Bai Yancheng wanted to hear about Widow Wang's crime history, so as to judge how many years Widow Wang should be sentenced to.

Thinking about it this way, Yun Chang immediately regained his energy, snapped his fingers, and told the past events of the original owner's suffering in the depths of his memory:

"I didn't give me food, and beat me every day. A few times I secretly ate the bran that was fed to the chickens, and she tied me to the threshold with a rope and beat me with a stick. Later, I didn't dare to compete with the chickens for food, so I went out Find fine soil to eat.

My grandma knew that she wouldn't give me food, so she came to the entrance of the village to secretly deliver food to me. Later, when Widow Wang found out, she wouldn't let me go out. If she dared to sneak out, she would close the door, not let me in, and make me kneel Outside the courtyard gate, beat me with a stick so that my grandma would never dare to bring me food..."

"Crack!"

Bai Yancheng's face was ashen, and the bones of his fingers were clasped together.

Seeing Yunshang stop and staring at him with wet eyes, Bai Yancheng forced himself to calm down, took a deep breath, forced an ugly smile on Yunshang, and said dryly, "...Shangnan, it's okay Son, you go on."

After receiving the order, Yun Shang broke her fingers again and began to complain, "If my grandma sees the opportunity to stutter in my mouth, Widow Wang will brush my mouth if she finds out.

Widow Wang also recruited men to her house, and drove me to the gate of the courtyard in the middle of the night in winter to guard the gate. She didn't give me a cotton-padded jacket, and let me freeze.

Also, every time Director Sun of the Supply and Marketing Cooperative came home, they let me into the kang cabinet, and then opened the cabinet, and let me watch Director Sun 'beat' her naked..."

When Bai Yancheng heard this, his brain buzzed and he completely exploded.

Standing up suddenly from the chair, he punched the desk, "Bastard! Damn it!"

He originally thought that he knew everything about his daughter's experiences over the years, but he also knew a lot, but he never thought that the things he heard from others were far less than one-tenth of what his daughter had suffered.

His father is really a failure!

He actually listened and believed, and almost let off the widow Wang who deserved to die.

In the middle of Yunshang's speech, she heard a "bang!", and then found that the thick desk in front of her was split from the middle.

She shivered subconsciously, but before she could react, Gu Shinian had stretched out her arms to protect her and the furry Qiuqiu in his arms.

"Uncle Bai, A-Shang never spoke before last winter, everyone in the village knows that A-Shang is dumb..."

As soon as Gu Shinian opened his mouth, Yun Shang quickly nodded his head to answer, "I can't talk outside, if I dare to speak, or dare to cry when I am beaten, Widow Wang will hold my tongue with her hands. The awl on the sole of the shoe poked me.

She told Li Qianqian in the village, who was her first man's uncle, and she said, I have to be dumb so that I won't tell the story of her recruiting a man into the family.

When my second brother came to the village to look for me, Widow Wang wanted to kill me. She lifted me up, threw me on the ground, closed the door of the house, and hit me on the head with a rolling pin..."

Yun Chang talked about the encounter between herself and the original owner in an unhurried manner, but in Bai Yancheng's ears, this delicate and soft voice was like sharp and cold knives, piercing his heart one by one. superior.

The 1.8-meter-long man sat there, his body shaking uncontrollably, panting heavily, tears overflowing from his red eyes from time to time.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng was almost out of breath, Yun Chang couldn't bear to continue talking, worried that if he continued, Bai Yancheng's heart would not be able to bear it, and he would explode on the spot.

Seeing Yun Shang and Gu Shinian looking at him with concern, Bai Yancheng wanted to take a sip of tea to force himself to calm down, but when he stretched out his hand, he found that his hand was so trembling that he couldn't even lift the teacup.

Gu Shinian gently pushed Yun Shang, and Yun Shang quickly got up, holding the teacup, and eagerly handed it to Bai Yancheng's mouth:

"Dad, I'm fine. I don't feel any pain at all. Besides, when I had Second Brother Gu, Widow Wang didn't dare to do anything to me. Later, she got mad again, so no one bullied me anymore."

Where can it be without pain?

Widow Wang's injury to the original owner has been deeply imprinted in this body, almost forming a physical memory.

Even now that Yun Shang thinks of those pictures in her mind, her body still wants to shiver uncontrollably.

How could Bai Yancheng not know that Yunshang was comforting him, so he took a sip of tea from Yunshang's hand, trying to show Yunshang a smile, but failed to pull the corners of his mouth twice, so he could only tremble. Raising his hand, he rubbed his face to relax the stiff skin.

"Shangnan, what else is there?" Bai Yancheng continued to ask with a hoarse voice.

"No more." Yun Chang shook her head firmly, "It was the time when she killed me with a rolling pin, she kept yelling that I killed Yun Dachuan's father, that she survived, and finally she could kill me for revenge."

Bai Yancheng nodded with difficulty, "Shangnan, Dad knows, don't let your mother know about the things you told me at night."

Chapter 379 Three hundred and seventieth IX counterattack

The light in the study room was on all night, until it was slightly bright, Bai Yancheng came out of the study room, rubbed his bloodshot eyes, sat on the sofa, and made a phone call.

Yunshang didn't know that Bai Yancheng had been tormenting alone all night without sleep, nor did she know that the Qinghe County police rushed to Xinglin Village early in the morning and took away Widow Wang who was still a little confused.

Until Zhang Haiyang suggested that the old couple knew that the Bai family was holding Widow Wang accountable, and that Widow Wang was also involved in the case of enemy agents, so they immediately lost the intention to inquire about the news.

Strictly speaking, Widow Wang had separated from Lao Yun's family a long time ago. Yun Shang was there before, and Lao Yun's family had to continue to be involved with Widow Wang because of Yun Shang's sake.

But now Yunshang has become the child of the commander of the military region, and has nothing to do with Lao Yun's family and Widow Wang. Why do they have to be involved with Widow Wang who is unruly and has been separated for a long time? , risking the whole family for such a thing?

Besides, Widow Wang is involved in the case of enemy agents, and Lao Yun's family has no way to pull Widow Wang out.

The old man came back from the county, took a deep puff of dry cigarettes, dragged the old lady back into the house, and sighed, "Shuying, the chief of the people is still making fun of us..."

Otherwise, how could you have taken Widow Wang away without even saying hello?

The old lady's face was also a little pale, and she forced herself to get on the kang, and asked in a slightly trembling voice, "Father, tell me, does Changnan know that Wang Guihua was taken away by the police? Didn't you tell me a few days ago?" Bought a house for Wang Osmanthus, in a blink of an eye..." Has everything changed?

"I guess I don't know," the old man frowned, his face was very ugly, "Shangnan only stayed for a day when she came back, and the next day she said she was in the Northeast. Why do I think it's Chief Bai who wants to move Wang Guihua, afraid of Chang Nan disagreed, so she tried to get Chang Nan away?"

Otherwise, how to explain that Yunshang returned to Lao Yun's house for the first time after a few months, but only stayed for one day?

The old lady also felt that what the old man said was reasonable, she nodded, her face looked much better, "So, our Changnan is still in the Northeast right now?"

Before the old man could speak, the old lady's face changed, "Father, it's over! If Chang Nan comes back, what can he do if he knows about this? Chang Nan has a stubborn temper, and when the time comes, he will get angry with Chief Bai and make Chief Bai angry. ? Chief Bai's family still has three children, if Chief Bai doesn't love Changnan in the future, then Changnan won't be wronged in Bai's house?"

"No, our Changnan is such a smart child, Chief Bai has appointed him to be reluctant to get angry with her. Besides, Chief Bai has dismissed her, and Wang Guihua really committed a crime. Our Changnan... is not unreasonable." My son, you can't quarrel with Chief Bai."

The old couple pondered at home for a long time, and they all believed that Yunshang was deliberately sent to the northeast by Bai Yancheng, and they also believed that Yunshang was still in the northeast and had not returned.

After thinking about it like this, the old couple stopped thinking about calling Yun Shang.

Lao Yun's family let go of Widow Wang's matter, and Lao Wang's family didn't have the guts to ask about Widow Wang's being taken away by the police.

Even before the public security verdict came out, Mr. Wang took his two sons to the town to sue Widow Wang firmly, accusing Widow Wang of pretending to be crazy, blackmailing old Wang's family of money and grain, and following the old Wang's family in front of the town leaders. The bad guy Widow Wang has drawn a clear relationship.

After Yunshang confirmed that Widow Wang was taken away by the police and would be severely punished, she didn't pay attention to the matter of Widow Wang.

Recently, all her thoughts have been put on the fight between Zhang Chunni and Gu Huaqing.

That's right, it is indeed Zhang Chunni and Gu Huaqing who are fighting each other.

According to Gu Shinian, Gu Guangzong called Zhang Chunni four or five times before and after, with only one purpose, which was to try to force Zhang Chunni to take Gu Shinian back.

Zhang Chunni was not a fool either, and quickly deduced from Gu Guangzong's words that Zhou Mingjuan was behind all this.

Zhou Mingjuan deliberately disclosed the news of Gu Shinian's stay in the provincial capital to Gu Guangzong, the purpose was to use Gu Guangzong and her to get Gu Shinian back to Qinghe County, so that Gu Shinian would not be in the military compound every day, which would get in the way. The eyes of Zhou Mingjuan and Gu Huaqing.

Although Zhang Chunni has stayed in Qinghe County all these years, and has never shown that she still has old feelings for Gu Huaqing, and has never even spoken ill of Zhou Mingjuan in front of a few children, but she may not have no resentment in her heart.

If there is no Zhou Mingjuan, she will be the wife of the political commissar of the military region. Her two sons and one daughter will be like those children in the military region. Just because no one taught him, he became a blind wanderer.

And Gu Huaqing, if he still had a trace of humanity, he wouldn't drive his own child out of the house because of a woman, and make her, who is pregnant with Liujia, the object of sympathetic jokes by the entire military region.

Not to mention that after decades of ignoring her, she suddenly appeared and snatched away the child she raised with one hand.

And what Zhang Chunni couldn't bear the most was that after Gu Huaqing snatched Gu Guangzong away, he disliked Gu Guangzong's bad reputation. He was not his successor, so she watched Zhou Mingjuan plot against Gu Guangzong, and even punished Gu Guangzong. Throw it to the Southwest Military Region and let him fend for himself.

Even if Gu Guangzong severed the mother-child relationship with Zhang Chunni, how can the relationship between mother and child be broken for so many years, even if he doesn't say it, he still can't help but care in his heart.

No matter how bad Gu Guangzong was, no matter how heartless he was, he was also Zhang Chunni's son, whom he had raised with his own hands for seventeen years. Seeing him being plotted against by Gu Huaizhi and Zhou Mingjuan, how could he not feel angry?

If it is said that Gu Huaiqing connived at Zhou Mingjuan's snatching of Gu Guangzong, Zhang Chunni's heart was completely chilled.

Then he and Zhou Mingjuan didn't treat Gu Guangzong as a human being, and planned to ruin Gu Guangzong's behavior, which completely angered Zhang Chunni.

Back when Gu Huaiqing came to Qinghe County to fight against Gu Shinian, Zhang Chunni had thought of killing Gu Huaiqing.

This time, Zhou Mingjuan recklessly used Gu Guangzong to plot and suppress Gu Shinian, which instantly ignited Zhang Chunni's anger, giving her the first time the idea of staying with Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan forever.

According to Gu Shinian, the first wave of Zhang Chunni's counterattack has already begun. First, she wrote a report letter, reporting that Gu Huaiqing had a problem with her life style, and she got involved with Zhou Mingjuan before she divorced her.

The existence of Gu Mingzhu, an adulterous daughter, is the evidence.

Next, Zhang Chunni plans to file a complaint with the Provincial Women's Federation, asking the comrades of the Women's Federation to help her contact the leaders of the military region, and ask other leaders of the military region to come forward and help her negotiate with Gu Huaiqing for the support of her three children for so many years.

Chapter 380 The visitor is not kind

In the midsummer afternoon, the sun scorched the earth, and there were sparks in the air. The leaves of the tung tree at the gate of the family courtyard of the military region are curled up and drooping, without a trace of energy.

Yun Chang wore a small straw hat with flowers on her forehead, carried a ponytail, held a tea mug, and sat under a tree sucking popsicles one at a time, preparing to watch the upcoming excitement nearby.

The uncle at the gate was happy to see Yunshang eating popsicles outside, and moved the deck chair from the shade of the door to the tree, and asked with a smile:

"Xiao Qi, why are you running to the gate to rest in the cold today? Did you come out to steal popsicles again?" As he spoke, the hand holding the fan touched the two popsicles in Yunshang's tea mug.

Everyone in the whole family knew that the little daughter of Bai Ling's family liked to eat popsicles, but Captain Lin was worried that she would eat popsicles, so he only let her eat one every day.

But the little girl is greedy and worried about being scolded, so she buys popsicles outside every time, and the whole family hides and eats before daring to go home.

After a period of time, the incident of the little girl hiding and stealing popsicles has become a scene in the family courtyard.

Anyone who sees it can't help but laugh a few times.

After being teased by others, Yun Chang was not angry, she raised her red face, and softly retorted, "That's not it, I just came out to cool off!" By the way, let's watch the excitement!

In order to show that what she said was the truth, Yun Chang made up her mind, took a popsicle from the tea mug and stuffed it into the uncle's hand, "Grandpa Zhou, it's too hot, I'll give you this popsicle, if you don't eat it again, you will eat it." It's going to melt..."

Cannibals are soft-mouthed and eat my popsicles. Don't complain to my mother.

The uncle waved his hands again and again, "Oh, this is food for the little doll, the uncle doesn't eat it, you keep it for yourself."

He's already in his teens, so what if he really ate the popsicles from the little doll?

"Grandpa Zhou, eat it. My mother only let me eat one popsicle. If I eat too much, I will be scolded." Yun Shang pulled out the eyeballs from the uncle's hand with great difficulty, and turned her head away cruelly.

The uncle smiled and put the popsicle back into the Yunshang tea mug, and fanned her with a cattail fan, "It's okay, when the popsicle melts later, you can drink it like soda, your mother can't scold you..."

Before the words were finished, there was a commotion in the distance, and then, five women walked quickly from a distance, and soon stopped at the gate of the family courtyard.

Looking at Zhang Chunni in the middle of the crowd, Yunshang's big black eyes were surprisingly bright, and she quickly sat up straight, ready to see how Zhang Chunni would tear up the scumbag.

When visitors came to the gate of the family courtyard, the uncle guarding the gate naturally had to go over and ask questions, and then asked the people from the guard camp to register and confirm that there was no problem before letting them in.

But at this moment, Yunshang was sitting next to the uncle, and before the uncle asked a question, he said first, "Aunt Zhang, are you here to see me? Ah! Director Ren? Why are you here too? My aunt came yesterday Look at me, and I told you about you."

Seeing Yunshang yelling out the identity of the person who came here, and listening to the voice, there seemed to be some cadres among these people, the uncle's movement of shaking the cattail fan slowed down, and he turned around and asked, "Xiaoqi, do you know these comrades?"

"I know!" Yunshang nodded, "This is my aunt Zhang, the mother of the second brother Gu, this is the director of the Women's Federation, and my aunt is on good terms, they should come to talk to my mother !"

Of course Yunshang couldn't say clearly that these people came to trouble Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan.

If they said that, it is estimated that several people could not even enter the door of the family courtyard, so they were taken directly to the military area office.

In that way, Zhang Chunni would not be able to achieve her goal of causing trouble and embarrassing Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan.

Only a few people entered the family courtyard first, and went to Bai's house in the name of looking for the leaders of the military region. After the Bai's house was empty, people from the Women's Federation went to Gu's house to ask Zhou Mingjuan for child support. When things got serious and alarmed the leaders of the military region, the group went to the military region office to sit down and explain the matter clearly.

Director Ren cooperated with Zhang Chunni,

Zhou Mingjuan lost face today.

The gatekeeper has guarded the gate for several years, so he has naturally heard about the past between Gu Huaiqing and Zhang Chunni, and also witnessed Gu Huaiqing and his wife taking Gu Guangzong back to the courtyard.

Seeing Zhang Chunni suddenly appearing at the door of the family courtyard, and thinking of Gu Huaiqing being reported for having a problem with his life style some time ago, he suddenly realized:

Where did Zhang Chunni come to find Lin Wenlan, she came here to trouble Gu Huaiqing!

But the uncle is also a second person, and he despises Gu Huaiqing's behavior of abandoning his wife and son. He knew that Zhang Chunni was here to make trouble, but he didn't expose her. Following Yunshang's intention, he registered the group as visitors to the Bai family.

With Yunshang here, and with the title of director of the Provincial Women's Federation, the guard battalion quickly let the group go.

Yun Shang stuffed the little pony into Zhang Chunni's hands familiarly, and gave Zhang Chunni and Director Ren one of the only two popsicles left in the tea mug.

"Aunt Zhang, Director Ren, it's hot, eat a popsicle to moisten your throat." The voice will only be loud and sharp when there is a quarrel.

A group of people sat on the tram for half a day, and then basked in the sun for more than ten minutes. Their throats were already so hot that their throats were smoking.

Zhang Chunni had lived in the compound of the military region for more than half a year, and was very familiar with the layout of the entire compound. She didn't need Yunshang to lead the way, so she led a few people to the small western building area at the back.

On the way, when she met a military wife she had met in the compound of the military region, Zhang Chunni would also take the initiative to stop and say hello.

More than ten years have passed, and Zhang Chunni's appearance has already changed. Many military wives who are familiar with Zhang Chunni can no longer recognize the old and thin woman in front of her, who used to be quite upright.

Facing everyone's surprised gazes, Zhang Chunni didn't feel embarrassed. She even deliberately put her hands with thick knuckles and rough skin in front of her, silently telling her experiences over the years.

Being able to hang out in the family courtyard for decades, no matter how stupid a person is, he can develop keen political tentacles.

The first time they recognized Zhang Chunni, everyone immediately thought of Gu Huaiqing being reported, and then realized: Zhang Chunni is a bad person!

Back then, Zhang Chunni left the family courtyard quietly and quietly. Many military wives hated her for not fighting, thinking that she was too cowardly, so she let Zhou Mingjuan go so lightly, and let her marry into the military region without any effort. The political commissar became the first lady of the military region.

Especially for those original partners who are no longer young, seeing what happened to Zhang Chunni, they will inevitably feel sad. Therefore, they feel more sympathetic to Zhang Chunni in their hearts, and will feel wronged and defend her.

This was also the main reason why it was difficult for Zhou Mingjuan to integrate into the circle of older military wives for so many years.
