Chapter 401: All Out

Zhang Chunni made up her mind to pull Gu Huaiqing down from the position of political commissar, and there was Deputy Commander Liang who watched the excitement and didn't think it was a big deal. Section Chief Yu could only sigh secretly, opened the notebook, and officially started the procedure.

The evidence of Gu Huaiqing's broken shoes is conclusive, and the process is clear and clear. There are not many doubts that can be asked. Section Chief Yu quickly finished the record.

Seeing that Section Chief Yu closed the notebook, Zhang Chunni got up and refilled the two of them, chatting like:

"It's not that I hate what happened back then. I insisted on making things difficult for Gu Huaiqing and his wife. It's because Zhou Mingjuan did too much. After all these years, she still refuses to let my children go.

The last time Zhou Mingjuan came to the county, she first coaxed Guangzong to sever the mother-child relationship with me, and then coaxed Shi Nian and Pangui to sever the father-son relationship with Gu Huaiqing.

Worried that she would repent, Zhou Mingjuan stamped Gu Huaiqing's personal seal on the statement of severing the relationship between father and son, and then returned to the provincial capital with Guangzong and the statement the next day..."

"Wait!" Deputy Commander Liang interrupted Zhang Chunni, and asked in surprise, "Comrade Zhang, you just said that Zhou Mingjuan brought Gu Huaiqing's private seal when she came to Qinghe County? Are you sure you read it correctly?"

Zhang Chunni thought for a while, then nodded with certainty, "That's right, it is indeed Gu Huaiqing's private seal, I recognize it."

As it was about Gu Huaiqing's braids, Zhang Chunni naturally did not dare to be sloppy, nor would she admit her mistake.

Deputy Commander Liang raised his brows high, his eyes glistened, he grinned, tutted twice and fell silent.

On the side, Section Chief Yu frowned, opened his notebook again, and wrote a few notes on it.

No wonder people say that marrying a wife and marrying a virtuous man, with a daughter-in-law like Zhou Mingjuan, Gu Huaiqing is really unlucky for eight lifetimes.

Fortunately, Zhang Chunni didn't know what Section Chief Yu was thinking, otherwise she would have said something: what kind of pot goes with what kind of lid, Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan are a perfect match, and they should get together and fight each other, and no one thinks the other is unlucky.

Deputy Commander Liang took a sip of cold boiled water loudly, smashed his mouth, and asked gossip, "Comrade Zhang, I heard that Comrade Gu Huaiqing was beaten up in Qinghe County last time, do you know about it?"

Thinking of Gu Huaiqing appearing in the conference room with a bruised and swollen face like a pig's head during the last meeting in the military region, Deputy Commander Liang couldn't help grinning again.

The political commissar of the Tangtang military region was beaten into a pig's head, and I don't know who did it, it's really embarrassing.

If it was him, Old Liang, he would be able to beat the opponent into a pig's head in turn!

"I've heard about it." Zhang Chunni also smiled, glanced at Section Chief Yu, and continued to apply eye drops to Gu Huaiqing, "Many people in Qinghe County know about this, and I have heard of some unscrupulous people. Reliable gossip."

Deputy Commander Liang was really interested, and hurriedly asked, "What gossip? What are you talking about Gu Huaiqing?"

"I also forgot where I heard the gossip. It seems to say that not only was Gu Huaiqing beaten, but his belongings were also robbed. Money, food stamps, and guns were all robbed. Other documents and empty purses were left, and even the train tickets back to the provincial capital were bought by others."

If Shi Nian hadn't inquired about it from Zhang Haiyang, she really didn't know about Gu Huaiqing being beaten up.

It's a pity that the person who made the move was still too light-handed. If she were to replace her, she would designate an item on Gu Huaiqing's body to be crippled!

Deputy Commander Liang and Section Chief Yu glanced at each other, and they all looked down.

Losing a gun is no small thing.

The government began to take back guns a few years ago. Except for soldiers and public security personnel who can be equipped with guns, no one else is allowed to hide guns.

If Gu Huaiqing really lost his gun, it would be fine if it fell into the hands of ordinary people, but if it fell into the hands of enemy agents, we don't know how much trouble would happen.

Section Chief Yu didn't feel that Zhang Chunni should report Gu Huaiqing at the moment, so he lowered his voice and asked in a very serious tone, "Comrade Zhang, where did you hear this? When did you hear it? Is the news reliable?"

"I've heard it for several months." Zhang Chunni didn't seem to realize the seriousness of the matter,

He said in a very relaxed tone, "It's been so many days, I've long forgotten where I heard it.

Besides, I can't say whether the news is reliable or not. Gu Huaiqing is the political commissar of the military region. When he came to the county, he brought guards with him. How could he be robbed? Well, it's hard to say. "

Seeing that the Section Chief still wanted to question Zhang Chunni, Deputy Commander Liang scratched his head irritably, walked around the room twice, and said angrily, "Why do you ask! Is it important to lose the gun? Let's go." Go back and check Gu Huaiqing's gun and you will know if this is true or not."

What a ghost!

Originally, he wanted to cause some trouble for Gu Huaiqing, so that he would be more honest in the future, and stop making troubles for Bai Yancheng all day long.

Unexpectedly, she knew such news from Zhang Chunni.

If Gu Huaiqing really lost his gun, then he will be charged with serious crimes. Not to mention whether he can stay in the army in the future, whether he can change jobs smoothly is a problem.

What would Bai Yancheng do if Gu Huaiqing's political commissar position was really taken away from the organization?

Don't look at Bai Yancheng shouting all day to kick Gu Huaiqing away, but if Gu Huaiqing is really taken away, Bai Yancheng will definitely be the first to object.

In the past two years, the situation has become more and more tense, the water is not calm, and the bottom is also churning fiercely. I don't know how many pairs of eyes are watching the leaders of the military region secretly, waiting to catch everyone's attention and make room for their own people.

The reason why Bai Yancheng has been keeping Gu Huaiqing is also to use Gu Huaiqing as a shield.

Now is not a time of war. According to common sense, the political commissar of the military region has more say than the commander of the military region.

But in the Linyang Military Region, Gu Huaiqing happened to meet Bai Yancheng, an old fox, and in just a few years, Bai Yancheng took away the right to speak bit by bit.

This is the result of Bai Yancheng's deliberate release of water. If the war is postponed, it will take three months at most, and Gu Huaiqing will have to pack up his bedroll and leave.

These years, with Gu Huaiqing, a puppet political commissar who can't make waves, Bai Yancheng has the final say on all important matters in the military region.

Occasionally, when Gu Huaiqing jumped up and down a lot, Bai Yancheng would throw two bones without meat to appease Gu Huaiqing's emotions, just like feeding a dog.

Gu Huaiqing also has a temperament that doesn't let go as soon as he sees the benefits. When he picks up the sesame seeds on the ground, he feels that he has made a profit, and he can't even see the watermelon that Bai Yancheng is holding in his arms.

Bai Yancheng just gave a handful of sweet dates with a stick in this way, he just controlled Gu Huaiqing in the palm of his hand and rubbed them into circles and flattened them.

In these years, Bai Yancheng has the final say on all major and important matters in the military region, while some unimportant matters are handed over to Gu Huaiqing, the two of them 'cooperated' very tacitly.

Chapter 402 Reporting to the organization

In these years, Bai Yancheng has the final say on all major and important matters in the military region, while some unimportant matters are handed over to Gu Huaiqing, the two of them 'cooperated' very tacitly.

This is also the main reason why Bai Yancheng kept Gu Huaiqing despite his disdain.

After all, there are not many stupid and obedient people like Gu Huaiqing in the organization. What if Gu Huaiqing is kicked out and another political commissar who doesn't know the details and is shrewd like a fox is transferred?

In case the new political commissar and Bai Yancheng can't urinate in the same pot, the two of them will have to be busy fighting every day in the future.

Seeing that the Section Chief and Deputy Commander Liang were in a hurry to leave, Zhang Chunni quickly got up and sent them to the door. Seeing that the two were about to leave the alley, Zhang Chunni thought for a while, then chased after and stopped Deputy Commander Liang:

"Gu Huaiqing has a pistol in his hand, which is a trophy handed over from a small devil and a large officer..."

"I see." Deputy Commander Liang interrupted Zhang Chunni, and told her with a very serious expression, "Throwing a gun is a big deal, and if you haven't investigated it clearly, don't spread gossip."

Before coming to Qinghe County, Deputy Commander Liang really didn't think about taking Gu Huaqing away, he just wanted to hear about Gu Huaqing's messes, catch his little tricks, let him be more honest in the future, and stop jumping up and down all day to cause trouble.

Even if Zhang Chunni reported Gu Huaqing and made him notorious in the military region, Bai Yancheng was still sure to keep his position as political commissar.

After all, no matter how ugly the quarrel between Gu Huaqing and Zhang Chunni was, it was a private matter, which only proved that he lacked in personal morality, and it did not mean that he was unqualified as a political commissar of the military region.

But now there is a suspected incident of throwing away a gun, no matter whether it is a uniformly issued gun in the army or a gun in his collection, it can't be dismissed as a 'private matter'.

In addition, after Gu Huaqing lost his gun, he did not choose to report to the organization and actively cooperate with the organization to retrieve the lost gun. Instead, he chose not to report it and missed the best time to retrieve the gun.

With such a bad behavior, even if Bai Yancheng had the heart, he couldn't keep Gu Huaqing.

Of course, it would be impossible for Bai Yancheng to protect him after doing such a thing.

Deputy Commander Liang thumped his forehead irritably, sighed heavily, lowered his head, and strode out of the alley.

Zhang Chunni stood at the entrance of the alley until she could no longer see the two of them, then turned back and slowly put away the belongings in the yard.

.....

As soon as Section Chief Yu and Deputy Commander Liang returned to the military region, they went straight to Bai Yancheng's office and roughly reported Zhang Chunni's report on Gu Huaqing. They both kept their faces cold and said that Gu Huaqing seemed to have lost his gun.

The teacup in Bai Yancheng's hand almost fell to the ground, he raised his head, and checked with the two of them before confirming that he had heard correctly.

Deputy Commander Liang was on fire, and his chest heaved violently a few times. Even the tea that Bai Yancheng specially brewed for him, which he was reluctant to drink on weekdays, was no longer attractive.

"Old Bai, what should we do about this matter? Should we investigate it ourselves, or report it to the organization and let the organization send someone to investigate?"

Check it yourself, but you can do some tricks, try to hide this matter as much as possible, and ask the Bai family to move ahead and arrange a reliable person to take over the position of political commissar before other people react.

But in this way, Bai Yancheng will inevitably be criticized.

Everyone in the military region knows that Bai Yancheng and Gu Huaiqing are at odds. If Bai Yancheng arranges someone to investigate this matter, and then directly reports the results to the organization, and removes Gu Huaiqing's position as political commissar, and puts it in the eyes of people who don't know the truth, it will be Bai Yancheng Taking the opportunity to eliminate dissidents and suppress Gu Huaiqing.

After all, Gu Huaiqing was only doing selfish virtue, at most he was transferred from the Linyang Military Region, why couldn't he even keep his military uniform?

If Gu Huaiqing's throwing of the gun was reported to the organization, Bai Yancheng would not have to intervene in the matter, but in this way, the Bai family would not be able to operate secretly and arrange for one of their own people to replace Gu Huaiqing's political commissar.

"Chief Yu, take someone to Gu's house and ask Zhou Mingjuan first to see if she knows about Gu Huaiqing's missing gun. Report to me as soon as you have news.

After the section chief left, Bai Yancheng frowned unabashedly, fisted his hand on the table, and slammed down on the table.

"Old Liang, I'm afraid we won't have a happy life in the future."

Deputy Commander Liang took a sip of tea in a very rude manner, spit out the tea leaves sticking to his lips, and asked Bai Yancheng, "Have you figured it out? Really decided to send someone from the organization to investigate?"

"The situation is getting more and more tense now. There are too many people secretly staring at us. Regarding Gu Huaiqing's matter...we should not intervene, lest people get caught."

"Okay, you can figure it out for yourself. If the new political commissar can't pee in the same pot as us, at most he will be dragged out to fight a few more battles."

After Deputy Commander Liang finished speaking, he drank the tea in the cup in one gulp, got up and strode out the door, "I stayed up all night on the train yesterday, so I'll go back and take a nap first."

Before leaving get off work in the evening, Section Chief Yu entered Bai Yancheng's office with a sullen face, holding his notebook between his hands.

From Zhou Mingjuan's mouth confirming that Gu Huaiqing lost his gun as early as the Chinese New Year, Section Chief Yu's face was almost blackened.

If Gu Huaiqing had reported to the organization as soon as he lost his gun, with the cooperation of the Qinghe County Armed Forces Department and the police, the lost gun would most likely be found.

It has been more than half a year now, people's memory will be biased, and the process and details of Gu Huaiqing's gun throwing are likely to be blurred. Where can the organization find the lost gun?

As the political commissar of the military region, Gu Huaiqing chose not to report the loss of his gun, and used his privately hidden gun as a gun. This kind of behavior of knowing the law and breaking the law, adding more mistakes, is simply too bad.

"Have you confirmed it? What did Comrade Zhou Mingjuan say?" Bai Yancheng signaled Section Chief Yu to sit down and talk.

"Zhou Mingjuan admitted that Commissar Gu's gun was lost. It was the gun issued by the organization. Commissar Gu used a gun in his own possession in the past few months. It is said that it was given by a friend. It was when he was beating devils. A gun seized from a small devil officer."

After the news was confirmed, Bai Yancheng frowned indiscernibly, slightly bent his fingers on the table, and tapped the desk surface one after another.

Section Chief Yu straightened his back, with obvious anger on his face, "I was worried that Zhou Mingjuan's words were unreliable, so I went to meet Political Commissar Gu in person, and after careful observation, I found that the guns he was equipped with were indeed not uniformly issued by the army. ."

Bai Yancheng was silent for a while, and under the angry eyes of the section chief, he made a call.

After hanging up the phone, Baiyancheng asked Section Chief Yu to interrogate Gu Huaiqing overnight, investigate the detailed process of Gu Huaiqing's loss of the gun, and report the results of the investigation truthfully when the people from the organization came over.

Chapter 403 New hairstyle

In autumn, the weather is getting colder and cooler day by day, and there are a few more autumn winds, and the leaves on the trees start to turn yellow and fall one by one.

In the small courtyard of Bai's house, Yun Chang sat on a stool, holding a mirror in her hand, watching Gu Shinian cut her hair without blinking.

Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming huddled next to each other, you gave Gu Shinian one sentence at a time, and taught him how to cut it so that Yunshang could look better.

Gu Shinian ignored the two of them, put down the braid on Yunshang's forehead, put it close to her eyebrows, cut her bangs into thick and moderate bangs, combed the rest of her hair behind her head, stuck her shoulders, and cut off her bangs. The yellow and dry part underneath.

This body was lacking too much before. When Yun Chang first came here, the hair on her head was sparse and yellow, and the hair was so dry that it would break when she pulled it. A five-year-old girl with all her hair tied up was not as thick as an adult's little finger. .

After Yunshang took over this body, under Gu Shinian's supervision, all kinds of tonics in the space were poured into her stomach like running water. It took more than a year to finally nourish this body.

The most obvious changes are Yun Shang's face and hair.

Today's Yunshang has a pair of small faces that are plump and tender, and her skin is even more tender than a peeled egg. The newly grown hair was black and thick, soft and smooth. Under the sunlight, it exuded a dark blue light, and it was like a fine gauze, hanging down on her shoulders docilely.

Gu Shinian passed his fingers through Yun Chang's soft hair, feeling the delicate and soft touch of his fingertips, his eyes unconsciously brought out a hint of comfort like an old father.

After raising it for so long, I finally gave the little girl a head of good hair.

Yun Shang just looked in the mirror for a long time, nodded in satisfaction, jumped off the stool again, raised her small chin to show everyone her new hairstyle, as if I look good, come and praise me.

Gu Shinian squatted down very well, looked left and right for a long time, and praised her seriously, "A Chang, you look good with your bangs trimmed, your eyes are big, and your face..."

Under Yun Shang's half-anticipating and half-threatening eyes, Gu Shinian swallowed the word "Yuan" on his lips, and changed his words, "The face is white, and the mouth is red and pouty. Cut this hair, just like a New Year's picture doll." Just as nice."

Yun Chang was satisfied, and was about to enter the room to show Bai Yancheng, when Bai Qingming hurried over to be a good boy, "Xiao Qi, brother Si Nian is right, your eyes are round, and your face is also round, cutting this hair is just The cutest little girl in the courtyard."

Xiao Qi should be happy to praise Xiao Qi so much, right?

If Xiaoqi is happy, will he stop chasing him every day to ask him to make up lessons?

Bai Qingming followed Yun Shang closely like a erhat, waiting stupidly for Yun Shang's response.

Unexpectedly, Yun Chang's face collapsed, she turned her head, and slapped Bai Qingming on the head, then raised her chin, snorted, and pulled Gu Shinian and Bai Qingyue into the door.

Didn't Xiaoqi want everyone to praise her?

Why did Brother Nian praise Xiao Qi, and Xiao Qi was happy, but when I praised Xiao Qi, why did he get beaten?

The same is to praise her, why is the treatment so bad?

Yun Chang entered the door, and walked around in front of Bai Yancheng happily, and after hearing a wave of praise, she stuck to Bai Yancheng's feet, whispered, and praised back.

The father and daughter had a wave of business bragging. Taking advantage of Bai Yancheng's good mood, Yun Shang dragged him into the study and began to inquire about Gu Huaiqing's news.

Bai Yancheng took a sip of tea, and asked Yun Shang with a smile, "Did you ask me to inquire about it?"

"No." Yun Shang quickly shook her head, "My second brother Gu doesn't care about Gu Huaiqing! I want to know."

The biggest mistake Gu Huaiqing made was losing his gun and not reporting it.

Now that gun is in her space, she has to ask clearly, if Gu Huaiqing lost the gun, will Bai Yancheng be implicated, so she can decide whether to hand over the gun.

"Gu Huaiqing was expelled from the party but not from the military. It is certain that he will be dismissed from all positions. As for whether he will be punished,

Or be sentenced, it depends on whether the gun can be recovered in the end. "

Yunshang blinked, and continued to ask, "Dad, who is arranged by the organization to be responsible for recovering the guns? The police in Qinghe County, or people from our military region?"

The point is, if these people can't find a gun, will they look suspiciously at Zhang Chunni and Gu Shinian?

After all, Zhang Chunni and Gu Shinian were the last to contact Gu Huaiqing.

"This is not a matter of one unit. Your Uncle Liang took people to Qinghe County a few days ago, and now the Qinghe County Public Security Bureau and comrades from the Armed Forces Department have all mobilized. The county is full of people looking for that gun..."

"If I can't find it, will the organization criticize me, Uncle Liang?" The key is whether they will criticize you?

"No." Bai Yancheng rubbed Yun Chang's round head, "It was Gu Huaiqing who lost the gun, and it has nothing to do with your Uncle Liang. Besides, the gun has been lost for more than half a year, and there is little hope of finding it. , you, Uncle Liang, will not be criticized."

"What if I found it? Did I, Uncle Liang, make meritorious service?" Yun Chang asked further.

Bai Yancheng was amused by Yunshang's words, "How can it be so easy to do meritorious service? This task is not too heavy or light. If you can't find it, your Uncle Liang will not make a mistake, but if you find it, your Uncle Liang will be responsible." It will be recorded in the file, which will be a favorable condition for future evaluation and evaluation."

As soon as she heard that it could be recorded in the file, Yun Chang immediately had a toothache.

Uncle Liang wears a pair of trousers with her cheap father, what exactly is she going to do to throw the gun in front of Uncle Liang calmly?

Do you want to go to Qinghe County again and throw the guns into the Public Security Bureau in the middle of the night?

But those who did meritorious deeds like that were the people from the Public Security Bureau.

Besides, when she stayed peacefully in the provincial capital, she couldn't find a gun. As soon as she went to Qinghe County, the gun would come out automatically.

Reminiscent of when Gu Huaiqing threw the gun, she also appeared in Qinghe County, standing under Gu Huaiqing's room, what if this aroused others' suspicion?

Yun Shang was so worried that her little brows were knitted together, she frowned, and asked Bai Yancheng, "Dad, if you get the gun back, will the organization make a note of it in your file? "

"What are you thinking about?" Bai Yancheng thought for a moment, put down the teacup in his hand, and carefully analyzed the current situation with Yun Shang: "...Shangnan, Dad and Gu Huaiqing are at odds, whether it is to investigate Gu Huaiqing this time, or Looking back on Huaiqing's lost gun, there is a special person in the organization to take care of it, Dad has to avoid suspicion, got it?"

Gu Huaiqing is about to be labeled as a bad guy because of the gun loss. If he finds the gun that Gu Huaiqing lost by bypassing the gun hunters arranged by the organization, the people below don't know what they will think. .

Chapter 404 Is it a human thing!

Maybe some idiots think that he arranged for someone to steal Gu Huaiqing's gun and take the opportunity to get Gu Huaiqing out of office.

There was another strong wind outside the house, whistling, and the leaves on the tree were taken away from the branches and fell to the ground, making a crackling sound.

Bai Yancheng moved the half-empty tea pot to the middle of the desk bit by bit, coughed dryly, looked at Yunshang, then looked at the tea pot, did not speak, but the meaning was already obvious.

Yun Shang was speechless for a long time, and finally gave Bai Yancheng a small look of contempt, and said, "Dad, I saw that there is still a large pot of tea at Brother Gu's house, I will steal some for you later."

Still be a father! Chasing after a six-year-old girl's ass for tea all day long is not a shame!

Bai Yancheng didn't think there was anything wrong with his daughter despising him, so he reached into his pocket and fumbled for a long time, finally took out a few crumpled change, picked and picked from it, took out the one with the largest face value, and stuffed it To Yunshang's hands.

"Here, I'll go buy a comic book and read it by myself."

Yun Shang looked at the wrinkled one dollar bill in his hand, and then at the pile of ten-cent bills in Bai Yancheng's hand, which added up to less than three yuan, and the corners of his mouth couldn't help twitching a few times.

She's such a cheap father, she's living a miserable life.

Commander of the dignified military region, he can't find five yuan all the year round, and his life is not as good as those kids from good families in the compound.

Those little kids still have pocket money every month, but Bai Yancheng really doesn't have a single extra money on him every month except cigarette money and food money.

But even so, Bai Yancheng always cheerfully and actively handed in his salary every time it came time to pay his salary. The dog-legged look that he didn't know how to resist and was enjoying it was simply unbearable.

Yun Shang threw back the one dollar in his hand, and said with disgust, "Dad, I have money, so you can keep this money and spend it yourself."

Anyway, he is also the commander of the military region. It is really embarrassing to count the pocket money and struggle to get by every month.

Bai Yancheng didn't feel blushing either. Seeing that Yunshang didn't want pocket money, he naturally put the money away and stuffed it into his pocket.

Yun Shang was thinking about whether to give Bai Yancheng a few pocket money instead, when she heard a noise from outside, followed by a prolonged cry.

Bai Yancheng's face turned cold, and he got up and walked out the door. Yun Chang also hurriedly followed behind, wanting to see who had the guts to go to the commander's house to make trouble.

Outside the yard, Zhou Mingjuan was holding the gate of Bai's house with one hand, wiping tears with the other, sobbing.

Aunt Wu tightly held the door from the inside, preventing Zhou Mingjuan from rushing in.

Gu Mingzhu on the side kicked the gate of Bai's house, pointed at Aunt Wu's nose and cursed: "Go away! What are you! A servant who waits on others, dare to stop my mother from entering..."

Aunt Wu was so angry that her lips trembled, but she didn't know as well as a child like Gu Mingzhu, so she could only scold Zhou Mingjuan loudly.

"Comrade Zhou, what are you doing? I've said it all. Commander Lin is not at home. You can come over when Commander Lin comes back. Why do you want to stop crying at the door of the commander's house without saying a word?" Unlucky!

If it weren't for the fact that this was a military compound, she would have pulled Zhou Mingjuan's ears and whipped her up.

In the countryside, blocking the door of other people's house and crying, that is mourning!

What Zhou Mingjuan did was simply disgusting on purpose.

Zhou Mingjuan's crying paused, and then she raised her voice again, and her voice became louder, "Lin Wenlan is not here, then let Bai Yancheng come out, I, I want to ask Bai Yancheng, how did my family Gu Huaiqing offend Bai Yancheng?" , he insisted on targeting Gu Huaiqing relentlessly..."

Seeing that Zhou Mingjuan started flirting with Bai Yancheng again, Aunt Wu became even more anxious, and immediately said, "Don't talk nonsense! Commander Bai is not that kind of person!"

The year Bai Yancheng was transferred to Linyang, under the arrangement of the organization, she came to the Bai family to work as a helper.

For so many years, Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan have never talked to her loudly, and the couple will find time to wash the clothes they changed on weekdays by themselves.

Never added to her workload.

Even the few children in the family didn't see her in person, and respected her very much.

In the past few years in the Bai family, she has never been angry, nor has she eaten different meals. She eats whatever the Bai family eats.

During the holidays, Lin Wenlan would give her an extra red envelope, and prepare an annual gift for her to take home, treating her like a relative.

Who doesn't envy the servants of other leading families in the compound that she is lucky enough to be assigned to the Bai family?

Bai Yancheng and his wife are such good people, how could they deliberately target Gu Huaqing?

If such a thing is really done, Gu Huaqing must have made a mistake. Commander Bai is educating Gu Huaqing on behalf of the organization!

Thinking of this, Aunt Wu took another step forward with her generous body, sealed the door tightly, and continued:

"It's spread all over the compound. You and Political Commissar Gu made broken shoes back then, and people reported it. Political Commissar Gu made a mistake. Isn't it right for the organization to criticize and educate him? How can you talk about it without talking about yourself? You're so tall and full of shit, but you want to talk about Commander Bai, so you mean Commander Bai is targeting your family's political commissar?"

Zhou Mingjuan's face was flushed with embarrassment, she covered her face with her hands, and burst into tears again, and squeezed hard into the door while crying.

"What do you know!? What do you know? It's Bai Yancheng who is targeting my family, Huaiqing! There were so many divorced people back then, isn't it all right? Why can't Huaiqing and I do it? Didn't our compound also have divorced people back then? Married, why are you staring at my Huaiqing alone!?"

Back then, several officers in the military region were divorced and remarried. Why wasn't Bai Yancheng suspended?

After all, it wasn't that Bai Yancheng didn't like Gu Huaiqing, wanted to trip Gu Huaiqing, and covered the sky with one hand in the military area!

She is not as good as Bai Yancheng wants!

It seems that Gu Huaiqing's position as political commissar is going to be lost, and she might be sentenced to prison. The savings she has accumulated for many years have also been cheated by Zhang Chunni. Now there is nothing she wants, so why should she be kicked out of the military compound in such a disgraceful manner? Son?

Even if she had to leave, she would still have to make Bai Yancheng sick.

Zhou Mingjuan had a good idea, but she didn't expect Aunt Wu to take such a close look at the Bai family's family, and she was so quick-spoken, and it took her quite a while to catch her.

Zhou Mingjuan felt wronged, and Aunt Wu also felt wronged for Bai Yancheng in her heart. Panting heavily, she pointed at Zhou Mingjuan's nose and scolded:

"You still have the guts to say it! Damn! Can you be like other people's family!? Don't get divorced again, it's just a matter of talking, you spend money and effort to settle the ex-wife before you marry a new man.

Who can drive pregnant women out of the house before dawn like your family. When he was still driving away his ex-wife, he also drove away his own flesh and blood in winter! Is what you are doing human affairs! ah~? Is that something that humans can do? "

Chapter 405 Your whole family is shameless

Aunt Wu's voice was not low, she could hear the noise around, and the people who ran out to watch the fun could hear it clearly, and some people laughed out of embarrassment.

Aunt Wu mercilessly tore off the fig leaf of Zhou Mingjuan's self-deception. She was so ashamed and angry that she couldn't speak, she could only cover her face, sobbing and crying non-stop.

She met Gu Huaiqing just a year after she started working, and then, with her young white flower skills, she firmly grasped Gu Huaiqing's heart, and she jumped from the bottom nurse in the hospital to the wife of the top leader in the military region.

In the following ten years, a man with a high position and authority took good care of her, and even used his relationship to make her step by step from a nurse in the hospital to the director of the hospital, making her the object of everyone's fawning and envy. .

It can be said that Zhou Mingjuan has been well protected by Gu Huaiqing these years.

So much so that she didn't learn any other skills besides lighting up the white lotus skill all over her body.

When Gu Huaiqing was still a political commissar, she could take her vicious little thoughts as fun, coax her and pamper her without a bottom line, but when something happened to Gu Huaiqing, Zhou Mingjuan lost her protective umbrella and lost her time to face difficulties. Due sense and sense of proportion.

Facing Aunt Wu's merciless scolding, she couldn't think of any other way to fight back except subconsciously crying pitifully and trying to deal with Aunt Wu by the way she used to deal with Gu Huaiqing.

Because Gu Huaiqing likes the gentle, virtuous, and understanding little white flowers, Zhou Mingjuan doesn't know the skillful cursing skills that most women must have nowadays.

Of course, she also felt that the shrew's way of swearing was very uncultivated, and she looked down on those people from the bottom of her heart.

She thought about rushing up and grabbing Aunt Wu by the collar, and giving her two slaps to vent her anger, but facing Aunt Wu's fierce eyes and a strong body capable of supporting her twice, Zhou Mingjuan was very disappointed. flinched.

There was a wind blowing, blowing up Zhou Mingjuan's neat hair, the hair flying in the air was actually mixed with silver hair, coupled with her shrunken shoulders, slightly bent and trembling back, this picture is very pitiful. Where is the demeanor of the "First Lady" who used to be high in the courtyard?

Yunshang followed and ran out of the yard, and heard Aunt Wu's angry words against Zhou Mingjuan clearly, and hearing Zhou Mingjuan's whimpering sobbing, she almost laughed out loud.

To deal with Zhou Mingjuan, he had to follow Aunt Wu's method, stepping on wherever it hurts.

Anyway, Zhou Mingjuan claimed to be a cultured person, and she couldn't do things like a shrew, and Aunt Wu scolded her for nothing.

A smile flashed across Bai Yancheng's eyes, he listened under the eaves for a long time, then turned and went back to the house.

He is the commander of the military region. No matter what purpose Zhou Mingjuan has in coming to the Bai family to make trouble today, he can't come forward to argue with Zhou Mingjuan.

Disdain, there is no need.

It's no secret that the organization sent people down to investigate Gu Huaiqing's matter. Everyone in the compound knew that Gu Huaiqing had been suspended for some reason, and Zhou Mingjuan knew better than anyone else.

The reason why he brought Gu Mingzhu to Bai's house to make troubles was naturally for the purpose of disgusting him. If he stood up and confronted Zhou Mingjuan, that would truly achieve Zhou Mingjuan's goal.

No matter what the final result of the quarrel is, whether he is fighting with a woman for superiority or inferiority with a woman, or with the daughter-in-law of a rival who is about to fall, he will lose.

When entering the door, Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming came out of the room with a basin of water, Bai Yancheng hurriedly carried them back one by one, and scolded them a few times.

Bai Qingming lowered his face in displeasure, and muttered a few words to himself: Xiaoqi can pour urine all over his grandfather's house, why can't I pour a basin of water? I'm escorting you, can you stop treating me so differently!

Yun Chang didn't know that her elder brother and sister who were about to fight back were brought back by Bai Yancheng, and rushed to the gate in a hurry, sticking out her round head, and said in a clear and loud voice:

"Aunt Wu, come on!" Fuck Zhou Mingjuan!

I don't know when Qiuqiu who ran out with Yunshang also stood at the gate,

The hair all over his body exploded, and he grinned at Zhou Mingjuan several times, "Aww".

Aunt Wu laughed twice, stuffed Yunshang's little head into the door, and stood at the gate, staring at Zhou Mingjuan with her eyes, as if she was in charge of one husband and one man should not be opened.

Gu Mingzhu was bouncing around to help Zhou Mingjuan scold Aunt Wu, when she saw Yunshang coming out, her jealous eyes turned red.

Before Yunshang returned to the compound, she and Bai Qingyue were the best-dressed and the best-looking girls in the family's compound, who wouldn't hang around her among all the boys in the compound?

But since Yunshang, the annoying ghost, came back, she dressed better than her, ate better than her, and looked better than her, so she was compared to her in one fell swoop.

Those skinny boys in the compound who used to hang around her now hang out with the children of the Bai family and that bastard Gu Shinian all day long, how could she not be angry.

Gu Mingzhu stopped scolding Aunt Wu, and stared at the gate of Bai's house angrily, "Yunshang, you are shameless! Come out if you have the ability..."

Before the words finished, Yunshang scolded back in the yard, "You are shameless! Your whole family is shameless! Come in if you have the ability!"

Zhou Mingjuan's crying paused, and she immediately increased her voice, "Woo...I'm dead! Bai Yancheng! Can you bully people like this if you are the commander? It's okay to target my family Huaiqing, but now even your son They can point at me and scold..."

Yun Shang: "..."

This is so embarrassing.

Those words really didn't mean to scold you, but they were just casually said.

Seeing that Zhou Mingjuan actually brought Yunshang in her words, Aunt Wu naturally quit, with one hand on her hips, and the other pointing at Zhou Mingjuan, she said:

"What are you doing blindly? When did my Xiao Qi scold you!? Even if you scolded, it's because you have nothing to do, and you can't even look down on a kid!

Ten years! The two sons of Political Commissar Gu, you urged Political Commissar Gu not to eat or wear them, the older one kicked you to the southwest, and the younger one made you break ties with your own father. Keep it smooth and smooth! Can you live with your conscience? "I'm not afraid of retribution!

Zhou Mingjuan suddenly became angry.

Gu Guangzong's going to the Southwest Military Region was obviously Gu Huaiqing's own decision, and the matter of severing the relationship between father and son was also Gu Shinian's own decision. How did it spread to the outside world? It was all her fault?

What's even more exasperating is that even if she was telling the truth, no one would believe her explanation.

From a distance, soldiers from the guard battalion ran over at a uniform pace, along with section chief Yu from the political engineering department, and two female cadres from the political engineering department.

Zhou Mingjuan had been in the army for more than ten years, so she naturally knew what it meant to have people from the guard battalion and political engineering department. She was about to drag Gu Mingzhu away, but was stopped by two female cadres, one on the left and one on the right.

Chapter 406 Am I stupid?

"Comrade Zhou Mingjuan, someone reported to the organization that you slandered and slandered Commander Bai, smeared the reputation of army officers, and caused a bad impact on the image of the army and soldiers. Please follow us to the political engineering department to assist in the investigation."

Zhou Mingjuan's face turned pale, and she subconsciously hugged Gu Mingzhu tightly, with a layer of cold sweat oozing from her forehead.

"I won't go! My man is the political commissar, you...you can't take me away!"

Section Chief Yu's face darkened in an instant, looked at Zhou Mingjuan, and said half-threateningly, "Comrade Zhou Mingjuan! Please cooperate with the work of our political and engineering department, and don't try to fight against the organization." This will not do you any good.

Hearing that the outside became quiet, Bai Yancheng walked out of the yard, cast his cold eyes on Gu Mingzhu who was held in Zhou Mingjuan's arms, and said, "Section Chief Yu, arrange for someone to take Gu Mingzhu home first, take care of her." Son, don't scare the child."

Yun Shang quietly gave Bai Yancheng a thumbs up in the door.

This move was repeated, seemingly caring about Gu Mingzhu, but in fact it was a subtle expression of his attitude.

Gu Huaqing is currently being isolated and investigated by the organization. Only Zhou Mingjuan and Gu Mingzhu are at home. If it were replaced by other people, maybe in order to show generosity, they would say that they don't care about Zhou Mingjuan's offensive behavior today in front of everyone.

But Bai Yancheng only said that the comrades from the political engineering department should send Gu Mingzhu home, implying that the matter should be dealt with impartially, and Zhou Mingjuan must be held accountable.

However, while pursuing Zhou Mingjuan's responsibility, he also ordered the comrades in the political engineering department to take care of Gu Mingzhu, so as not to frighten Gu Mingzhu. Fierce.

The two female cadres of the political engineering department 'supported' Zhou Mingjuan, one on the left and one on the right. Section Chief Yu persuaded Gu Mingzhu with good words, and quickly pulled her out of Zhou Mingjuan's arms, and told the little soldier behind him to take care of her. He was sent back home and handed over to the Gu family's helper.

And Zhou Mingjuan was quickly taken away from the gate of Bai's house by comrades from the security battalion and political engineering department.

Bai Yancheng glanced at the military wives who were watching the excitement at the door, and the buzzing of discussions stopped immediately. Deputy Commander Liang's lover dispersed the crowd and left without forgetting to tell them:

"The organization of the political commissar Gu's matter will soon come to a conclusion, and the investigation results will be announced to everyone soon. This time, Commander Bai did not intervene in organizing the investigation of the political commissar Gu's matter in order to avoid suspicion. Don't listen to what Zhou Mingjuan said just now. If there are any rumors that damage the image of the soldiers and affect the unity of the troops, the comrades in the political and engineering department will ask you to drink tea."

The crowd dispersed quickly.

Bai Yancheng went home and changed into his military uniform, explained a few words to the children, held a teacup, and headed towards the office.

Yunshang hugged Qiuqiu and asked Gu Shinian, who hadn't gone out to watch the excitement from the beginning, "Second Brother Gu, you have prepared the house for Sister Pangui, when will Aunt Zhang come over?"

Hurry over here, report Zhou Mingjuan to the hospital, and make her lose face in the hospital!

Without taking his eyes off the newspaper, Gu Shinian replied, "The things at home are packed, so I should be able to come over in a few days."

"Second Brother Gu," Yunshang suddenly lowered her voice, and after Gu Sinian looked over, she continued, "Uncle Liang took people to the county two days ago, and said that the organization arranged for the military area, and Qinghe County Public Security and People from the Armed Forces went to look for the gun that Gu Huaiqing lost. If they ask Aunt Zhang for questioning, won't Aunt Zhang be unable to come here for a while?"

"Won't....."

Before Gu Shinian finished speaking, the phone on the table rang, and Bai Qingming, who was still looking unhappy before, jumped up and answered the phone.

"Brother Shi Nian, I'm looking for you."

Gu Shinian froze for a moment, then took the phone from Bai Qingming, and Bai Qingming also took the opportunity to rush to Yun Shang's side, complaining about his troubles.

"Xiao Qi, why do you think Dad is like that? My sister and I are escorting him. It's fine if he disagrees. Can we scold people?" The point is, how can you just scold me and not Bai Qingyue?

Yunshang's palms were itchy again, she scratched Qiuqiu's fat head, and asked Bai Qingming, "Then why are you dragging our sister to pour Zhou Mingjuan's cold water? water."

"Isn't Zhou Mingjuan coming to your door to get splashed? You threw urine at your grandfather's house last time. Why did my sister and I splash Zhou Mingjuan with cold water? Our father is not as good as our father! Our father doesn't scold you." , our dad knows how to scold me."

Bai Qingming stiffened his neck, with an expression of disbelief.

Yun Chang endured and endured, and finally couldn't help but slapped Bai Qingming on the forehead. Bai Qingyue just came down from the stairs. Seeing this, she also ran over, and slapped Bai Qingming again unceremoniously.

"Brother, if you pour cold water on Zhou Mingjuan today, people in the courtyard will gossip about our family! You are causing trouble for our father!"

Bai Qingming pouring a basin of water on Zhou Mingjuan has the same meaning as she pouring a basin of urine on the old man?

Old man Bai is now in a semi-retired state, and old man Qi is also a family member of a military officer. When the two old men quarreled, it was evenly matched, and no one could say who was bullying the other.

But can the situation of Bai Yancheng and Gu Huaiqing be compared with the situation of the two old men?

Then Gu Huaiqing was about to be labeled as a bad guy, and Zhou Mingjuan went to his rival's house to make trouble, which was the last struggle of desperation.

The Bai family can argue with Zhou Mingjuan, or let the organization take Zhou Mingjuan away and deal with it impartially, but they can't fight with orphans and widows.

If Zhou Mingjuan was hit hard, the Bai family would inevitably leave people with the image of being unreasonable and bullying the poor orphans and widows.

Coupled with the downfall of Gu Huaiqing, the affairs of the military region are now decided by Bai Yancheng alone. As the top leader, Bai Yancheng can be kind and powerful, and can be impartial and selfless, but he can't leave people with the impression that he will be revenged and his heart is not broad enough.

Bai Qingming is not splashing Zhou Mingjuan with a basin of water, it is splashing Bai Yancheng's prestige.

After Yun Chang finished speaking, Bai Qingyue also nodded in agreement, "That's right! You are a guy who has more success than failure, I say just watch the fun, you have to learn from Xiao Qi, look! Make me follow You are scolded!"

Bai Qingming's ears drooped, and he asked with an aggrieved expression, "Xiaoqi, am I really stupid?"

Always doing bad things with good intentions.

Many times, among the four brothers and sisters, he is obviously the one who suffers, but he always falls behind. On the contrary, Xiao Qi, who is the most lazy, is the most likable.

Thinking about it makes my heart suffocate.

"Not stupid." Yun Chang touched Bai Qingming's dog's head and comforted him, "My little brother is very smart. There are so many people in the courtyard, but my little brother is the best at playing the game of catching devils."

The brain is enough, but the emotional intelligence is not high enough.

In short, it is too much to beat when talking and doing things.

"A Chang," Gu Shinian put down the phone and came over to interrupt the conversation of several people, "Gu Pangu and the others will come over tomorrow."

Chapter 407: Report

As soon as the sun was shining, Zhou Mingjuan got up and washed up. Without disturbing the helper and Gu Mingzhu, she went to the kitchen to get a hard steamed bun with three-in-one noodles, quietly opened the door and went out.

The wind blew up in the middle of the night last night, and the leaves on the trees swirled and fell, laying a thick layer on the ground.

It seems that in just a few days, the trees in the family courtyard have taken on the bleakness of autumn, as if even the air has been tinged with coolness.

Zhou Mingjuan wrapped her head and face tightly with a scarf, walked out of the family courtyard evasively all the way, jumped on the tram bound for the hospital, took off the scarf, and let out a long sigh of relief.

But before Zhou Mingjuan could sit still, a playful voice came from the back of the carriage, "Hey, Director Zhou is going to work?"

Zhou Mingjuan immediately froze there, turned her head slowly, and found that the person who was interrogating was a familiar military wife, she struggled to smile, and nodded at the other party.

The woman smiled even wider, picked up the patched cloth bag from the seat next to her, ran to Zhou Mingjuan and sat down.

"Director Zhou, I am the lover of Deputy Battalion Commander Ma of No. 2 Hospital. My name is Chen Cuiqiao. Director Zhou, don't you usually go to work after eight o'clock? Why do you go to work so early today?"

Zhou Mingjuan's brows were successfully frowned by these knowingly asked questions, and Chen Cuiqiao seemed to be unable to see Zhou Mingjuan's embarrassment, and continued as if sighing:

"Hey, tell me, this person didn't come to the end smoothly. In the past, which of our two family members' wives didn't envy you, but now... tsk tsk!" Which one is not laughing at you behind your back?

In the past, Zhou Mingjuan's life was really comfortable. The man had a high status, and he didn't dislike her for not having a son. The family was not short of food and clothing.

Although the military wives of the two families looked down on Zhou Mingjuan, everyone was envious of her comfortable life from the bottom of their hearts.

Well now, Gu Huaiqing has fallen, and Zhou Mingjuan, who always looked at people with her chin up, can no longer be embarrassed. She was even taken to educate her by the comrades of the political engineering department because she made a fuss at the Bai Siling's house two days ago.

The military wives got together these two days, and they often made fun of Zhou Mingjuan about this.

Hearing Chen Cuiqiao's malicious exclamation, Zhou Mingjuan immediately turned black, turned her head, and looked at her coldly, "Comrade Chen Cuiqiao, what else do you want?"

Get out of here!

Even if Gu Huaqing fell,

She is also the director of the hospital, and these gossips who don't know a single word are also worthy of sympathizing with her?

Chen Cuiqiao was stunned for a moment, and the smile on his face cooled down. He raised his eyebrows slightly, and asked in a low voice, "Director Zhou, how long has it been since Political Commissar Gu was taken to quarantine for investigation? You have no idea." Go see Political Commissar Gu? Or, you've tried everything, but the organization just doesn't let you see Political Commissar Gu?"

Who in the military region doesn't know that political commissar Gu has lost his gun, and that his position as political commissar is a certainty?

You still pretended to be confused and ran to Bai Siling's house to make trouble, saying that Bai Siling was holding on to your broken shoes and deliberately targeted Commissar Gu.

Pooh! Really when everyone else is a fool! ?

"Chen Cuiqiao, the military region has issued an order that everyone is not allowed to talk about our family's Huaqing. Are you asking me about the secrets of the army?"

Chen Cuiqiao didn't expect Zhou Mingjuan to say that, her face stiffened for a moment, and she said with a sneer, "Look at what Director Zhou said, I'm also a military wife, how can I not know what to say and what not to say. I am I was afraid that you would think too much, and wanted to care about you, but I didn't inquire about the confidential issues of Gu... the army."

Zhou Mingjuan didn't say a word, turned her head to look at the street view outside the car, and gave Chen Cuiqiao the back of her head, but she was hanging by her side, tightly clenched fists, which exposed Zhou Mingjuan's extremely restless heart.

In front of a carload of people, Chen Cuiqiao was nakedly ignored by Zhou Mingjuan, she looked embarrassed for a moment, and annoyance flashed in her eyes.

"Director Zhou, you went to Commander Bai's house to make trouble two days ago. Why didn't the comrades in the political engineering department ask you to apologize to Commander Bai? I heard that you went home that night, and the comrades in the political engineering department didn't criticize and educate you..."

"I have to get out of the car again!"

Before Chen Cuiqiao could finish speaking, Zhou Mingjuan got up and squeezed out of the car with a blushing face.

Chen Cuiqiao was stunned for a moment, looked at the stop outside the car, and found that it was three stops away from the hospital. She couldn't help laughing softly, and the depression that had suffocated Zhou Mingjuan before dissipated in an instant.

This Zhou Mingjuan couldn't even bear such a little gossip, how could he have the face to do so many shameless things?

She was robbing other people's men with broken shoes, and went to Bai Siling's house to make trouble with her understanding and pretending to be confused. Why didn't she feel uncomfortable being gossiped at that time?

Pooh! Lost all face and face, why are you putting yourself in front of others!

As if no one knew what she was.

Zhou Mingjuan arrived at the hospital after walking for nearly twenty minutes. She cast a glance at the doorman who greeted her, and hurriedly walked into the hospital while taking off her scarf.

Along the way, the doctors and nurses I met didn't greet her enthusiastically as usual, but they got together and muttered something in a low voice, and even peeked at her with strange eyes.

Zhou Mingjuan immediately realized that something was wrong, and was about to go to the nurse's desk next to her to ask for clarification, when a nurse came downstairs and shouted in a clear and loud voice, "Director Zhou! Hurry to the conference room, the dean is looking for you!"

Seeing Zhou Mingjuan rushing upstairs, several nurses around the nurse's desk suddenly started talking.

"Director Zhou is going to work so early for the first time today, it seems that it is true!"

"What do you think her man is doing? The political commissar is the top leader of the military region, so if he said he would fuck him off, he must have made a big mistake."

"Isn't this obvious? Why did the dean find Director Zhou? Wasn't it because someone reported Director Zhou's broken shoes? Director Zhou's man was the one she used to get broken shoes back then. It's impossible for the army not to investigate him!"

"It's true. That woman is only a few years older than Director Zhou, but she looks like two generations. I heard that when she got divorced, she still had a baby in her stomach. It's too miserable."

"More than that, I heard at the door of the meeting room yesterday that Director Zhou pushed her man and kicked out the two children born to his ex-wife. It was winter at that time, and the two children were hospitalized because of the cold. Said that the little one almost didn't come back."

"Director Zhou's heart is too poisonous! Such a person is not worthy of being a doctor!"

"Do you think Director Zhou will be beaten as a bad person? I remember that she used to be an ordinary nurse. If it weren't for her man, she wouldn't even be qualified to be an ordinary doctor. How could she be a director?"

"It's not a big deal! It's good this time, her husband has fallen, and she herself has been reported, and the hospital has appointed her to be abandoned."

Chapter 408 Parade

Zhou Mingjuan's mind was buzzing, and she couldn't believe what she heard.

Zhang Chunni even reported her!

She lied to her so much money, didn't abide by the agreement, exposed Gu Huaqing's throwing of the gun, and caused Gu Huaqing to be isolated and investigated by the organization, she was not satisfied! He went to the hospital to report her again!

What does Zhang Chunni want to do?

Do you have to make her family ruined before you give up?

Zhou Mingjuan's face was ashen, her teeth "clacking" non-stop, scolding Zhang Chunni bloody in her heart, wishing to tear her alive.

destroyed.

All ruined.

Gu Huaqing's job, her job, their reputation, their savings over the years, and their once happy family were all destroyed by Zhang Chunni.

If she had known this, she shouldn't have urged Gu Huaqing to drive Zhang Chunni out back then. She should have kept Zhang Chunni under her nose, and when she gave birth, she would have tampered with Zhang Chunni's life!

As for the remaining two cubs, she also has plenty of ways to torment them.

She should have done this a long time ago, otherwise she wouldn't have come to this point...

Zhou Mingjuan didn't know how she got out of the conference room. When she came down from the upstairs, facing the pointing fingers of everyone in the hospital, she felt that her skin was not in control, her bones were stiff, and even when she was walking, she could still hear There was a clicking sound to my own joints.

"It's her! She is Zhou Mingjuan, that broken shoe!"

Suddenly, a family member of the patient pointed at Zhou Mingjuan and yelled. Immediately afterwards, a basin of sewage that had just scrubbed the patient's body fell from the sky and poured over Zhou Mingjuan's head and face.

Zhou Mingjuan subconsciously wiped her face. Before she could react, another energetic old lady rushed over and spit thick phlegm into Zhou Mingjuan's face.

"Bah! You shameless bitch! So short of men, why don't you go out and sell them? Why do you want to steal other people's men!?"

The old lady opened her mouth, and someone next to her grabbed Zhou Mingjuan and shouted, "Everyone, come and see! This is the poisonous woman! It doesn't count if you rob someone else's man, and she also took the other's pregnant wife and the two babies born by the original wife." A child is kicked out of the house in the morning in winter.

Talk to people about broken shoes,

Unable to give birth to a son, she turned around and snatched the son who had been raised by her ex-wife for seventeen years! Snatch it back and don't give it to the child to eat or wear it. Let's talk about it, should such a vicious woman with broken shoes be beaten? "

"It's time to hit! Don't let her go!"

"Fight! Let her wear a tall hat and parade through the streets after the fight!"

"Yes, shave the yin and yang head again! Let's see if she dares to mess with her shoes."

Almost in the blink of an eye, a few strong young men wearing red sleeves sprang out from the crowd, hung the broken shoes that had been prepared a long time around Zhou Mingjuan's neck, and were sandwiched between a group of old ladies, rushing Zhou Mingjuan Juan pushed out the gate of the hospital.

As soon as they left the hospital gate, someone ran to the street, borrowed a wooden stick and a washbasin, knocked on it, and told the onlookers on the street that Zhou Mingjuan had broken shoes and kicked her pregnant wife and children out of the house in winter.

The doctors and nurses in the hospital were all frightened by this incident. Several doctors who had just started work and didn't know what happened wanted to help pull Zhou Mingjuan out of the crowd, but they saw the broken shoes on Zhou Mingjuan's neck, and The furious onlookers around suddenly stopped thinking about helping Zhou Mingjuan.

It's not that they are dishonest, but that according to everyone's narration, Zhou Mingjuan... is really a mess.

Now that you have broken shoes, wearing a high hat and parading through the streets is the consequence you should bear for breaking shoes.

Thinking about what Zhou Mingjuan did to her ex-wife, even they thought Zhou Mingjuan was hateful after hearing it, so how could they help Zhou Mingjuan without conscience?

Moreover, the hospital has now spread the word that the original partner was bullied by Zhou Mingjuan and couldn't survive, so she reported Zhou Mingjuan and her political commissar man with their real names. Now Zhou Mingjuan has been relieved of the position of director by the hospital and has returned to work as a nurse .

If this news is true, it means that Zhou Mingjuan has really done those immoral things. Such a person cannot be helped.

Yunshang sat on the beam of the bicycle, watching Zhou Mingjuan being pushed and shoved forward, her face was full of horror, and she just felt relieved.

Don't look at Zhou Mingjuan's current experience that arouses sympathy, but the humiliation Zhang Chunni has suffered over the years and the torment in her heart during difficult times are far more serious than Zhou Mingjuan's street tour once. Zhang Chunni survived alone, and Zhou Mingjuan Why can't you survive?

We are all women, and the so-called strength is forced out by reality. Zhang Chunni has been strong for more than ten years, and now it is Zhou Mingjuan's turn to be strong.

Yun Chang leaned back slightly, nestling in Gu Shinian's arms, "Second Brother Gu, does Aunt Zhang know that you arranged for someone to parade Zhou Mingjuan through the streets?"

"I know. Zhang Chunni felt very relieved, but she couldn't come to watch the excitement, so she sent Gu Pan back to watch for her."

Gu Shinian's heart felt a little sour when he thought of Zhang Chunni's eye sockets that instantly turned red after she knew he had arranged someone and was about to forcibly drag Zhou Mingjuan around the street.

Although Zhang Chunni is not close to the children and is busy with work all day long, she has no time to teach the children, but compared to Gu Huaiqing, she is undoubtedly a responsible mother.

Especially in this era, the death rate of children is much higher than that of later generations. Zhang Chunni was able to grit her teeth and pull the eldest three children by herself, almost exhausting all her mental strength.

And it's not that Zhang Chunni doesn't want to accompany and teach her three children, but the heavy work that can support her three children takes up almost all of her time outside of sleeping. She has the heart, but is unable to accompany her children.

Based on this, Gu Shinian is also willing to help Zhang Chunni out of his responsibilities.

For example, help her to teach Zhou Mingjuan a lesson, and let Zhang Chunni express the anger that has been pent up in her heart for decades.

The parade team reached the intersection, and quickly turned around the corner and disappeared. Gu Shinian stepped hard, and the bicycle quickly slid ahead and merged into the street with people coming and going...

.....

Zhou Mingjuan didn't know how long she had been dragged away, nor how many people had thrown stones at her and cursed at her spitting.

All she knew was that when she was dragged back to the hospital, her legs were hardly her own.

Zhou Mingjuan sat on the edge of the hospital flower bed with blank eyes, her body swaying constantly, and even the slightest noise from someone passing by nearby would cause her pupils to dilate in shock, and she would tremble subconsciously.

I don't know how long it took before Zhou Mingjuan unbuttoned her coat tremblingly, wiped off the filth on her head and face with her clothes, and didn't go back to the office to get her own things, so she wrapped her head and face in a dirty coat and left the hospital gate, and slowly walked towards the direction of the military area.

Chapter 409 Transfer

A few northwest winds blew, and all the leaves on the trees fell, and the air that got up early also brought the chill of winter.

Yun Chang was wearing a brand new military uniform and a small military cap on her head. She was holding a ball in one hand and half a basket of grapes and red dates in the other. come running.

When the doorman saw her running from a distance alive and kicking, his eyes rolled into a smile, and he called out from a long distance, "Xiao Qi, are you going to Nian Wazi's house again to get some good food?"

"Hey~!" Yun Shang responded energetically, put down the basket, took out a bunch of purple and blackened grapes and stuffed them into the hands of the guard. "Grandpa Zhou, these are the grapes that Second Brother Gu entrusted someone to find, try them out!"

The doorman quickly waved his hand, "Grandpa Zhou can't take it, this is what Nianwazi found for you, you take it back and eat it yourself..."

It's just that before he finished speaking, Yun Chang had already run away with the basket in hand, and the bright red scarf around his neck was tossing up and down in the wind, which was so vivid that it made people feel better.

"Xiaoqi! Hey~, come back quickly..." Seeing Yunshang's small body running farther and farther, the doorman could only shout helplessly, "Xiaoqi, don't run away, this is against the wind! You This child, put a small scarf around your mouth, don't get a stomachache from the cold wind!"

Yun Chang answered from a distance, slowed down, and pushed the scarf up with her small chin to cover her mouth.

"Mom! Come and see, I'll bring you delicious food!"

Lin Wenlan had just poured a cup of tea for the guests, when she heard the lively voice of her little girl at the gate, and was about to get up to go out to have a look, when Yunshang had already run in with a basket.

"Mom, I brought you ordinary, and jujube... Huh? Grandpa Gu San! When did you come to Fenyang? Why didn't you say hello to Second Brother Gu in advance, so that Second Brother Gu and I can pick you up?" !"

Seeing the exaggerated expression on Yun Chang's face, Gu Zonglin's eyelids twitched, and he couldn't bear to look directly at him and turned his head away.

What to wear! ?

Didn't you just meet at Gu Shinian's place last night? Why are you pretending to be meeting for the first time? The little girl is such a thug.

Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng were taken aback by Yun Shang's words, "Grandpa Gu", and were about to ask, but Yun Shang had already put down the basket and confessed, "Dad, Mom, I told you, I told you last time Second brother Gu went to Shenshi and met the third grandpa, and the third grandpa gave Gu second brother a lot of tickets!"

Bai Yancheng just nodded his head,

Immediately froze there again.

This Gu Zonglin is only twenty-eight this year, ten years younger than him. Now that Yunshang yells like this, doesn't he forcefully recognize him as an uncle?

Is there anything more painful than this!

Although Mr. Gu and Gu Zonglin were of the same generation, the Bai family and the Gu family dealt with each other in their own way, and no jokes were made because of their seniority.

But now that Gu Zonglin has been transferred here, and with the relationship between Gu Shinian and Yun Shang, won't he be just a generation younger than Gu Zonglin in the future?

Yun Chang didn't know that her father was depressed, so she took out a few red dates from the basket and stuffed them into Gu Zonglin's hands, and said with a smile, "Third Grandpa, this is what my second brother Gu and I just found out, try it Do you think it tastes good?"

Hurry up and eat, I will ask you for a meeting gift after I finish eating!

I owed me a meeting gift for almost a year, if I don't give it this time, close the door and let the ball go!

Gu Zonglin stuffed the crispy jujube into his mouth, and just after chewing a mouthful, Yunshang came over and asked, "Grandpa Gu, do you want to eat?"

"It's okay, it's a little sweeter."

When Yun Shang heard this, her small face immediately collapsed, snatched the remaining few dates from Gu Zonglin's hands, and turned her head and stuffed them to Bai Yancheng.

"Dad, guests don't like jujubes, you eat them!"

These jujube grapes are produced in the space, so the taste is not good! ?

hum! Do you really think I don't know what you're up to?

Isn't it just stingy, don't you want to give me a meeting gift? As for saying that my dates are not delicious?

It's so irritating!

Don't want to eat my delicious food again!

Gu Zonglin couldn't help laughing, turned his big hand, grabbed a few more grapes from the basket, and stuffed them into his mouth before Yun Shang could react.

Seeing Yunshang rolling his eyes in anger, Gu Zonglin smiled even more happily, and he didn't forget to taste the taste of the grapes, "These grapes are good, better than dates!"

Yun Chang's face darkened even more, and she was about to secretly poke the ball to scratch Gu Zonglin, but saw him take out a bulging envelope from his pocket, and waved it in front of her eyes.

"Shangnan, I heard that you robbed all the people in the compound of the Beijing Military Region and earned a lot of red envelopes."

Yun Shang's eyes fell on the big envelope, she swallowed, shook her head and denied, "It's nothing, it's my grandpa who brought me to visit, and someone else gave me a meeting gift."

Do you know what a meeting ceremony is?

It is the gift that should be given to me as soon as we meet!

You have seen me two or three times, are you still planning to give it to me?

Gu Zonglin heard Yun Shang's implication, and the smile on his face became stronger. Seeing her staring at the envelope in his hand, he stopped teasing her, and handed over the meeting gift that should have been given long ago.

"Take it, this is the meeting gift from the third grandpa."

Yun Shang was so happy that her eyes narrowed, she thanked Gu Zonglin, took the big bulging envelope, and went upstairs to count her harvest.

The corner of Bai Yancheng's mouth twitched a few times, and he sighed helplessly, "What happened to Gu Huaiqing, what are your family's plans?"

"Everything follows the organization's arrangement." Gu Zonglin took a sip of tea, his eyes flashed with sarcasm, "For such a serious crime, the organization only expels him from the party and the military. What is he dissatisfied with?"

If the Gu family dared to pull Gu Huaiqing out, some people would be waiting to catch him.

Bai Yancheng nodded, and said again, "Gu Huaqing is having a hard time now. Without a job, all the savings in her hand were given to Zhang Chunni, and the position of director Zhou Mingjuan was also offered by the hospital. Young swam down the street for a while, and when he came back, he closed the door and dared not go to the hospital again.

Probably out of fear of embarrassment, I chose to move at night two days ago, and the family left without disturbing the people in the compound. "

When Bai Yancheng was talking, he kept paying attention to Gu Zonglin's face. Seeing his calm face and distant eyes, as if he didn't care about Gu Huaqing's current situation at all, he relaxed a little, put down the teacup in his hand, and changed the topic road:

"The organization has arranged a house for you. It's just two rows in front. It's also a small bungalow. It doesn't have as many rooms as the bungalow at the back, but it's enough for you and Shi Nian. I'll ask someone from the logistics department to clean it up for you later. You can move in."

Chapter 410 Absurd

Gu Zonglin thought for a while, but still rejected Bai Yancheng's kindness, "I just transferred here, and I don't have a family yet, so let me arrange a bungalow in the front. Three bungalows are enough for me and Shi Nian to live in. Give it to comrades with a large population."

In case he monopolizes a small western-style building by himself, the influence will be bad.

Bai Yancheng smiled, and said in a teasing tone, "You are now the deputy political commissar of the military region, and you can't live in a bungalow in a small bungalow. What do you think other comrades who are not as high as you but live in a small bungalow? It's time to start a family, you can't wait for the whole family to live in a small bungalow after you get married and have a baby?"

If there is no accident, Gu Zonglin should stay in Linyang for ten or eight years this time. He can't not marry a wife for ten or eight years, right?

There are three small bungalows, one is used as a living room, and there are only two bedrooms. When there are more children, if you want to hug your daughter-in-law and make out at night, you will have to be like a thief.

Why do you make yourself suffer that foreign crime?

Gu Zonglin didn't expect that he would be urged to get married after running to Linyang. He froze there, not knowing what to say for a long time.

"Why do you look like my bad old man lobby brother, urging me to get married all day long, so frustrated." Gu Zonglin shook his head and complained.

"If you don't get married again, you'll be an old bachelor!" Bai Yancheng paused, and then continued, "You are now the deputy political commissar, one of the top figures in the military region, so don't hurry up, those little girls from the art troupe are appointed to come to you every day. Come on, now that the limelight is tight, it would be bad if any gossip spreads."

Haven't you seen the bloody corpse of your nephew Gu Huaiqing still warm?

"According to what you said, why do I feel like I'm as fleshy as that Tang monk, how eye-catching?" Gu Zonglin rubbed his temples with a headache, "Oh~, the old job is better, hidden, and no one is around. Can look up to me."

Bai Yancheng coughed dryly, with a gloating smile on his face.

The corner of Gu Zonglin's mouth twitched slightly, he sat up straight, and talked to Bai Yancheng about the business, "You have worked with Sun Yanliang for many years, how is this person? Is there any problem?"

Bai Yancheng: "It's okay, he's a straight-hearted person. Back then, he was transferred to the Linyang Military Region at the same time as Gu Huaiqing. Both of them had similar qualifications and hoped to become political commissars. However, Gu Huaiqing lived a better life and had a higher level of education than Sun Yanliang. In terms of organization, Finally, it was decided to let Gu Huaiqing serve as the political commissar and Sun Yanliang as the deputy political commissar.

This time when Gu Huaiqing had an accident, Lao Liang and I thought that the organization would transfer people from other places to take up the post of political commissar, but we didn't expect Sun Yanliang to be the political commissar in the end, and you were transferred from other places.

He took over Sun Yanliang's original position. "

"It's just that there are too many people aiming at the position of the political commissar. They fight back and forth, and no one is convinced. I heard that everyone knows where the quarrel is..." Gu Zonglin pointed his finger upwards, gloating, "I heard that the superiors People got angry, and anyone who aimed at Gu Huaiqing's position didn't think about it, and directly promoted Sun Yanliang."

"What about you?" Bai Yancheng asked curiously.

Gu Huaiqing has no relationship with the family anymore, but his surname is Gu after all. Looking back on Huaiqing's big stumble, it must be a pity for the Gu family not to say anything about it.

Under the operation of unknown forces, the Gu family will definitely make some moves. They want to deploy people to the Linyang Military Region, but in the end, Sun Yanliang was promoted in the organization. of?

Gu Zonglin's face darkened a bit, and after a long while, he said with a depressed face, "My bad old man, the hall brother, went to cry with the big leader, saying that I have become a well-known old man in the capital circle without getting married at my age. I'm a bachelor now, and if I don't settle down and start a family, I won't even be able to have a son when I get older..."

"puff!"

Bai Yancheng squirted out the tea directly from his mouth. Looking at Gu Zonglin's black face, he endured and endured until the corners of his mouth cramped, but he still couldn't help laughing.

Gu Zonglin gave Bai Yancheng a disgusted look, and continued, "But this time I'm not here alone. The organization deliberately asked Qi Zhenshan to come over to 'exercise'."

"Qi Zhenshan?"

Bai Yancheng frowned slightly, and couldn't remember who this person was for a while.

The corners of Gu Zonglin's mouth twitched, and he said with a strange face, "Qi Zhenshan also lives in the compound of the Beijing Military Region. Last time Changnan went to the capital, he even spilled Qi Zhenshan's father's urine."

You have to thank your daughter, Qi Zhenshan probably wouldn't be transferred to the Linyang Military Region if he didn't piss all over his body.

Your daughter has poured a 'helper' over here for you!

Bai Yancheng's brain is not slow, and he quickly realized that there was something wrong with Qi Zhenshan's transfer, "I remember Qi Zhenshan is the deputy division commander, right? His position has only been promoted for a few years, why is he going to be transferred?"

"Qi Zhenshan was able to be transferred this time. In fact, everyone in the compound 'drives him away' together, not the organization's initiative to transfer Qi Zhenshan."

Bai Yancheng was stunned for a moment, "Is it...Qi Zhenshan's father messed with it?"

When the old man is sober, he likes to play the game of crying, making trouble, and hanging himself. When he drinks too much, he likes to play shrews and swear at the street. There are so many old revolutionaries living in the compound of the Beijing Military Region, who can stand the old man Qi when he is drunk? Just arrest whoever scolds whom?

To endure for a year or two is really the limit.

Qi Zhenshan was implicated by his father, but he was only transferred to the military region, and he was not suppressed and demoted by narrow-minded people, which is already considered very lucky.

Gu Zonglin said with a smile on his face, "Qi Zhenshan's father got into trouble some time ago and drank too much. He met the old lady of the Li family on the road and wanted to take advantage of his height to fight with the old lady Li, but in the end the old lady Li Kicked over.

For this matter, Mr. Li united all the old revolutionaries except your old man, and gave advice to the organization, saying that your Changnan showed great power last time and could restrain old man Qi, and the organization should transfer Qi Zhenshan to Linyang..."

"Ridiculous!" Bai Yancheng slammed the table with a dark face, "How old is Changnan! These old men are deliberately cheating on Shangnan!"

The purpose of sending Qi Zhenshan here is to let Yunshang forcefully suppress Qi Zhenshan's father. Isn't this creating hatred for him, for Changnan, and for the Bai family?

No wonder those old men wanted to avoid the old man at home. They were worried that if the old man knew about it, he would come to the door one by one to challenge them one by one.

Bai Yancheng even suspected that the reason why those people ganged up to cheat him was to secretly take revenge on his old man and Yunshang.

Who told Yun Chang to hold hands with the old man when he returned to the capital to recognize his relatives, wandering around the courtyard to collect gifts, and even scratched the ground three floors.

This provoked public outrage.

Lao Tzu and his daughter teamed up to do bad things, but he was the one who got tricked, what is this all about!
