Chapter 41 Fractures

Erwa's daughter-in-law looked at the villagers gathered in twos and threes, and said with a raised voice:

"Your daughter-in-law was mad at your hero's daughter-in-law! She held the chicken trough at home for a long time in the morning, and the people from Lao Yun's family just borrowed an ox cart and sent it to the county hospital."

Old man Wang took his two sons and his second wife Wang Lao to the ground early in the morning to shave cabbage roots to earn centimeters, and a few young ones also went out to play. At this time, only the old lady and the old lady were going to Xinglin Village to give Yun Xu Dalan, who was sent to pay compensation, was at home.

After hearing the words of Erwa's daughter-in-law, the old lady instinctively didn't want to believe it, and wanted to send someone to Xinglin Village to see her little girl, but she opened her mouth, but couldn't make any sound.

Seeing the old lady staring blankly at her, Erwa's daughter-in-law didn't say thank you or poured a bowl of water to moisten her throat. She curled her lips in disgust, scolded "unreasonable" and returned to the crowd.

Xu Dalan's hands and feet were weak, and under the eyes of old lady Wang who turned to eat people, she supported the wall and stepped back little by little.

"...Mother, mother, Erwa's daughter-in-law is talking nonsense, she must be talking nonsense...Hua'er, our family's flowers are so powerful, how can they get mad... It must be Erwa's daughter-in-law who can't see Huaer's goodness..."

"I'll beat you to death, you bastard!"

The old lady was so angry that her eyes bulged, she pulled out the latch on the door, and slapped Xu Dalan in the face.

"You prostitute raised a star! I let you bully my daughter! Why don't you die! How can you still have the face to live, you should die in the bachelor's nest in Houyashan..."

Xu Dalan didn't dare to resist, put her head in her hands, and squatted in the corner to be beaten and scolded by Mrs. Wang, but she hated it very much.

She is the daughter-in-law of the king's family. She gave birth to four grandchildren to the old king's family. She is a great hero of the old king's family, but the old lady tore her face off and stepped on the ground in front of outsiders. This is to prevent her from being in the village. Be a man!

Thinking of this, Xu Dalan stood up abruptly, grabbed the door bolt swung down by the old lady, pointed his finger at his face and said:

"Mother! I am the daughter-in-law of the king's family! I am the face of the old king's family! The four eldest grandchildren of the old king's family are all born to me, and I am a great hero of your old king's family. You make me shameless outside because I miss you. Can't you be a daughter-in-law after a grandson?"

Madam Wang was so angry that her face turned pale, her lips were trembling, and she finally threw away the door latch, grabbed Xu Dalan's collar and scratched it.

"Fuck your mother-in-law's ass! You are a whore raised by a bitch, and you have a big face! You still want to be the face of my old Wang's house! When I look back, I will let the boss leave you, and let you go back to Houyashan and go to the bachelor's den. People are co-wives..."

Although the old lady is old, she is very agile. She grabbed Xu Dalan's hair and pulled her down, raised one arm, and put Xu Dalan's head in the creaking nest, and put the other hand on Xu Dalan's face. scratch.

Xu Dalan's head was caught by the old lady, and she had to bend down to maintain her balance. She couldn't exert any strength with her hands, so she could only swipe left and right to push the old lady.

The old lady stepped on a pair of small feet, which made her stand unsteady. She was pushed by Xu Dalan and sat up straight, and Xu Dalan was also brought to lie on the old lady.

The old lady who was pressed down only felt pain in her lower back, and her lower body was completely numb.

It has just snowed in the past two days, and the ground is freezing hard. In addition, the old lady is old, and her bones are already brittle. When she fell, she was heavily pressed by Xu Dalan, and her hip bone was directly broken.

Xu Dalan struggled to get up, and when she saw the beads of sweat on the old lady's head rolling down like beans, she was shocked.

"Mother, what are you doing?"

Xu Dalan stretched out her hand to help the old lady, but as soon as she put it on the old lady's arm, the old lady screamed out.

The people watching the fun outside saw that the old lady fell badly, and they stopped watching the fun. Some went to inform the village cadres, some went to inform the old man Wang and the two brothers of the Wang family, and some people came in and wanted to help the old lady.

Wait until old man Wang,

The eldest of the Wang family, as well as Wang Lao Er and his wife, hurried back. The old lady had been carried to the door by the neighbors and was about to borrow a car to be taken to the town hospital.

As soon as Old Man Wang saw the old lady's appearance, his eyes were red, and he was lying on the edge of the door, holding Mrs. Wang's hand to comfort her, "Jinzhi, don't be afraid. Let's go to the hospital now, you will be fine."

The old lady's eyes moved, she grabbed Old Man Wang's hand with her backhand, and said weakly but firmly:

"...Go, go to the county, I, the flowers are in the county, the hospital."

"Okay, don't worry, let's go to the county hospital, and I'll take you to the county hospital."

The old man Wang did not care about cleaning up the culprit that caused the old lady to fall, and ran into the house to find out the old Wang's family. tableware, washbasin, etc.

In the end, the two brothers carried the old lady, and the family ran to the brigade. They borrowed an ox cart and opened a letter of introduction. After a lot of noise, they put the old lady on the ox cart and rushed to the county town. .

Xiaowangzhuang is a bit more remote than Xinglin Village. The yellow mud road is not only narrow, but also extremely difficult to walk.

The old lady's hip bone was already broken, and when she was bumped by the ox cart, it was like someone was picking her bones with a knife, and the pain went into the seams of the bones.

Old man Wang saw the old lady's aching face like golden paper, beads of sweat dripping down, and the circles of her distressed eyes turned red. Just stop the ox cart and let the two brothers walk in front with the door panel. He and his two daughters-in-law follow behind with the ox cart, so that the old lady can suffer less.

At noon, the people of the old Yun family advanced to the hospital, Gu Shinian got off the ox cart with Yun Chang in his arms, and Yun Shuilian lay on the side of the car to coax Widow Wang out of the car.

"Sister-in-law, it's time to get off the bus. Sister Han is waiting for you inside."

"...Don't!" Widow Wang turned around and gave Yun Shuilian a back view, "My man took me to the meeting, he said he hasn't arrived yet."

As Widow Wang spoke, she gently patted the chicken trough in her arms, put her face on it, and twisted her body shyly:

"My man didn't let me get out of the car, I listened to my man."

Several people have reacted, Widow Wang is treating the chicken trough as a cloud!

Yun Shuilian was a little at a loss, if that was the case, she couldn't coax Widow Wang, so she turned her eyes to Yun Erchuan for help.

"Second brother, you and eldest brother look alike... Come and try."

With a constipated expression on his face, Yun Erchuan came over reluctantly, holding a washbasin full of small items:

"...Hua'er, here it is, get out of the car."

After struggling for a long time, Yun Erchuan finally squeezed out a few words.

Widow Wang looked up at Yun Erchuan, and then looked down at the chicken trough in her arms. After thinking for a while, she got out of the car hesitantly.

The group had just walked to the outpatient department with the help of Widow Wang, when the old Wang family hurriedly entered the hospital gate.
