Chapter 411 Crying in the Pit

Gu Zonglin moved very quickly, and moved into a small western-style building in front of Bai's house that afternoon.

And Qi Zhenshan moved into the family courtyard half a month later, dragging his son and daughter along with an old man who only drank and made trouble, and lived next door to Gu Zonglin.

Yun Shang still moved here with Qi Zhenshan's family, and only learned the reason for Qi Zhenshan's transfer from Bai Yancheng's mouth, and she was really honest for several days.

Apart from helping Bai Qingming make up lessons every day, and taking advantage of Gu Shinian's cover to bring some fruit and fine grains to the house from time to time, he no longer has the idea of making money by jumping up and down, nor is he like before, thinking about getting acquaintances and receiving gifts all day long.

For the first time ever, he even took 50 yuan from his own small private treasury, secretly stuffed it into Bai Yancheng's hands, and used it as pocket money for Bai Yancheng.

Originally, he thought that Bai Yancheng would be in a better mood when he had money from his own house, and he would stop worrying about her behavior of luring such a strange old man Qi to Linyang because of her greed for money. How could Bai Yancheng accept her money with a serious face, turned around and ran back to the room, and handed fifty yuan to Lin Wenlan with a fawning face, which made Lin Wenlan jealous, and pulled Yun Shang, I talked to her for two hours about the deep love between mother and daughter.

Yun Shang was so excited by Lin Wenlan's loving voice and eyes that she got goosebumps all over the floor, and finally couldn't take it anymore, she took out a hundred yuan from under the pillow, and stuffed it into Lin Wenlan's hand with great distress.

"Mom, this is my filial pocket money for you. It's fifty yuan more than what I gave to my dad. You can use it to buy new clothes."

Isn't it just one hundred yuan, and it's not for outsiders.

There are still 18,000 yuan in the space, so she doesn't feel bad for the 100 yuan...

Lin Wenlan took the stack of ten yuan bills that Yun Shang handed over with a loving face, stuffed them into his pocket without counting, and kissed Yun Shang on the forehead with a smile, "Mom, this is my girl's gift in advance." Blessed! That's great, you are more filial than your brothers and sisters!"

The little girl still has at least four or five hundred yuan in her hands. With so much money, she will find a way to come here slowly, lest she hide outside all day and eat snacks, and even the food is not good.

Yun Chang was about to be made to cry by the two couples. Seeing Lin Wenlan's gaze fell under her pillow again, her face changed, she climbed to the head of the bed a few times, and sat down on the pillow, unable to get up.

Filial piety is already digging out her liver for a hundred dollars, but he is still not satisfied, and wants to peek at her small private bank, it's just a dream!

Yun Shang put on a posture of defending her small private treasury to the death. Lin Wenlan looked away regretfully, raised her hand and rubbed Yun Shang's forehead, and was about to go back to her room to show her daughter's "filial piety" to Bai Yancheng .

Seeing that Lin Wenlan was about to go out, Yun Chang hurriedly said, "Mom, I have agreed with Second Brother Gu to go back to the village in two days to see my grandpa and grandma, as well as Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa."

The smile on Lin Wenlan's face disappeared at a speed visible to the naked eye. After thinking for a while, she softened her voice and asked, "Shangnan, it's cold now, and I have to wear a big padded jacket when I go out. Why don't I wait until March next year?" , the weather is getting warmer, how about I accompany you to the village again?"

She is not a fool, last time Bai Yancheng locked herself in the study for a whole night without sleep, and looked at Yun Chang with guilty eyes from time to time in the next few days, then she became suspicious.

Later, when I heard Bai Yancheng answering the phone occasionally, and listening to him ordering the other party not to hold back Widow Wang, I knew in my heart that Widow Wang must have done something unforgivable to Yun Shang, which completely angered Bai Yancheng, otherwise He would not kill the Widow Wang who brought Yunshang home from the river.

After many years of husband and wife, Lin Wenlan knew Bai Yancheng too well, and she could figure out the reason for Bai Yancheng's anger without further questioning.

Because of this, Lin Wenlan once again tacitly understood Bai Yancheng's thoughts, hoping that Yunshang could keep a distance from Lao Yun's family.

Yun Chang didn't know what she and Bai Yancheng had taken great pains to hide, and Lin Wenlan had already found out about it. Seeing that Lin Wenlan disapproved of her going to Lao Yun's house now, her little face immediately collapsed.

"Mom, I miss my baby, Shuanzi, and Aunt Yun. It's only November, and I can't wait until March next year."

The grain harvest in the village is in short supply this year, and the rations of every household can last until winter at most. If she doesn't go back to deliver food, everyone in the village will probably have to eat wooden stakes for the winter.

Seeing the hesitant look on Lin Wenlan's face, Yun Shang continued, "Mom, Aunt Zhang Chunni is busy with work transfers recently. I'll go to the village first, and I can help Aunt Zhang Chunni move her belongings to the provincial capital in a few days."

Lin Wenlan became interested, and immediately asked, "When the fuck is going to be transferred to work in the provincial capital? Which unit?"

"It's a textile factory. Brother Shi Nian paid him two hundred yuan to change this job for Aunt Zhang..." Yun Shang paused for a moment, and immediately looked at Lin Wenlan dissatisfied, "Mom, don't interrupt me." , let's talk about going back to the village!"

I'm not a real kid, so don't change the subject casually.

Seeing that Yun Chang had made up her mind, Lin Wenlan sighed helplessly, "Okay, I'll discuss it with your father and see when we can send you to the village."

As soon as Lin Wenlan left, Yunshang climbed up and down and began to pack her things.

Xinglin Village is close to the river, and there is a strong northwest wind, high humidity, and low temperature. Before going back, I have to change into a newly made thick cotton jacket and thick cotton trousers.

The woolen overcoat I bought in Shenshi last year is perfect for me now, so I have to bring two of them, and I have to bring a small military uniform, which is very spirited, so I also have to bring one set.

By the way, Shuanzi probably grew up too, so Shuanzi brought a set of newly made military uniforms, and asked the old lady to sew the skirt and trousers inside, so that Shuanzi could wear them during the Chinese New Year.

There are still dozens of catties of wild boar and bear meat in the space, and they will cut ten catties each later, and then prepare some dried game and mountain delicacies for the old couple to try.

There is also Xiao Hei Wa's milk powder, which must be wrapped in oiled paper in advance, and then handed over to the old lady to feed it to Xiao Hei Wa.

There are cotton leather shoes worn by the elderly in the supermarket. Prepare a pair for the old couple. By the way, you have to prepare a pair of leather shoes for Aunt Yun, and prepare a piece of fabric for her and Yun Erchuan to make new clothes for the New Year...

Yunshang packed her things, and it was almost time for school to leave. Yunshang went downstairs with the ball in her arms, said hello to Aunt Wu, and ran to the gate of the family courtyard.

Bai Qingming and a group of Pi Xiaozi arrived at the gate of the family courtyard. Before entering, he saw Yun Chang running towards the gate quickly.

Thinking that Yunshang was here to pick him up, Bai Qingming left the schoolbag behind him, ignored the fights of his friends, and hurriedly greeted Yunshang.

"Xiaoqi! Are you here to pick me up? Haha, let's go! Brother will take you..."

"I'm here to pick up Second Brother Gu!" Yunshang interrupted Bai Qingming, flashed past him, and ran out of the family courtyard.

Chapter 412 There is a problem with your life experience

Bai Qingming's enthusiasm was drowned out by Yunshang's basin of ice water. He was stunned for a moment, and immediately sank his face, and shouted at Yunshang's back, "Xiaoqi! You little villain, give me Wait!"

Yun Shang didn't care about Bai Qingming's harmless words, seeing Gu Shinian stop at the entrance of the alley to wait for her, the corners of her mouth raised unconsciously.

"Second brother Gu, I told my family, you pack up your things quickly, we will go back to the village to do business in these two days."

Gu Shinian stretched out his hand, caught Yun Shang's small body rushing towards her, and while walking home, he covered her face that was icy from the wind with his warm palm, "Can Uncle Bai agree with you to go back to the village?"

Yun Shang raised her eyebrows proudly, "My mother agreed."

As long as Lin Wenlan agrees, Bai Yancheng dare not disagree.

Besides, if Bai Yancheng really dared to disagree, she would learn from old man Qi, she would cry, make trouble and hang herself, and even run away from home at worst, not afraid of his disapproval.

After entering the house, Gu Shinian first opened the stove, pulled Yunshang to warm up by the stove, and followed Yunshang's instructions, and began to pack the clothes he was going to wear when he went back.

"Second Brother Gu, where's Gu Pangui? Isn't she here today?"

The shoe factory is not far from the military area, and it takes only 20 minutes to ride a bicycle.

Gu Pangui had just started working, and in the name of taking care of Gu Shinian, he rushed back every day after work to help Gu Shinian cook, do housework and so on.

Gu Shinian didn't refuse Gu Pangui either, but just ordered Yunshang to put away the fine grains at home, and only put the relief food brought back from the food station in the small urn, and after Gu Pangui finished the housework, Gu Shinian never gave her any hard work fee.

In less than half a month, Gu Pangui didn't come back much, and transferred the food relationship to the factory, eating canteen in the shoe factory.

Fortunately, Gu Pangui is not the kind of person who loses his conscience. He knows that Gu Shinian helped her find her job and house. Gu Shinian tidied up the house.

Gu Shinian stuffed the clothes neatly into the baggage and let Yunshang put it into the space, then he pulled Yunshang out the door and walked to the family courtyard.

"Gu Pangui has to work overtime today, so he probably won't be here until tomorrow."

Yun Chang nodded, and was about to speak, but out of the corner of her eye, she saw Erya standing at the entrance of the alley, looking straight at her and Gu Shinian.

"Brother Gu,

Does she still live in Chen Cuiqiao? Haven't moved yet?" Yun Shang frowned and asked very strangely.

Is this Erya's mind muddled?

Chen Cuiqiao obviously failed her in her previous life, so why did she stay at Chen Cuiqiao's house and never leave? Isn't this treating herself like a piece of fat again and throwing her into the wolf's den?

The warm and warm smile on Gu Shinian's face immediately disappeared, he glanced at Erya sharply, pulled Yun Chang, and quickly walked past Erya.

Erya turned around, and called out to the two of them timidly, "Gu... Comrade Gu, Sister Yunshang."

Yun Shang curled her lips, without even looking back, she pulled Gu Shinian forward.

Some time ago, she was busy watching Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan's excitement, and recently she stayed at home pretending to be a honest child, and forgot to drive Erya out of this area.

very good! Originally, she didn't remember anything about Er Ya, but she jumped out again and started yelling at disgusting people.

When she came back from the village, she would have other things to do.

Seeing that neither Gu Shinian nor Yunshang stopped to talk to her, Erya's eyes flashed with anger, and then quickly calmed down, trotting after her, "Sister Yunshang, wait a minute, I have something to say to you." you say."

Seeing that Yunshang still ignored her, Erya continued, "Sister Yunshang, it's about you and Commander Bai!"

Yun Chang paused, turned her head, and looked at Erya expressionlessly, "What do you want to tell me?"

Erya looked around, with a strange smile on her face, and said in a low voice, "Sister Yunshang, what I want to talk about is about your life experience."

"What's wrong with my life experience?" Yunshang raised her brows and asked amusedly, "You don't want to say that I'm not a child of the Bai family, do you?"

Erya shook her head, "It's not about this, it's about you and the Gao family."

"Gao family?" Yun Shang pretended not to have heard of the Gao family, and asked, "Which Gao family? I don't know anyone with the surname Gao, so how could it be possible to have something to do with the Gao family?"

Erya stared at Yunshang closely, and said very seriously, "Sister Yunshang, I didn't lie to you. Commander Bai should know the Gao family. What I want to tell you is very important. If you don't listen, you must Will regret it."

The corner of Yunshang's mouth twitched slightly, and she looked straight at Er Ya, waiting for her next words.

This Erya was really sick, she chased after her and stopped her, saying that she had something to say to her, but every sentence was a sham, and none of the words hit the point.

"Sister Yunshang, what I have to say is too long, and it involves... the issue of enemy agents. It's not good to talk about it outside. Why don't you come to the No. 2 courtyard tomorrow to find me, and I will explain it to you carefully?"

Yun Chang frowned, and asked, "No. 2 courtyard?"

"Well, I live in the No. 2 courtyard now, at my aunt's house." Erya said, lowered her voice, and added, "Sister Yunshang, the Gao family is an enemy agent. I heard that the Gao family has You are the evidence of their daughter."

Yun Shang was taken aback when she heard the words, stared at Erya for a while, then turned around and pulled Gu Shinian away.

She is such a fool, why do she really believe that Er Ya really has something to tell her?

The Gao family was taken over by the police in one go. Those who were shot, those who were shot, and those who were reformed through labor. Even if there were forged evidence, it would have been destroyed by Bai Yancheng. Is this to fool her for a fool?

It's also possible that Erya wasn't fooling her, but she was...she wanted to cheat Chen Cuiqiao's family!

She said this in order to coax her into Chen Cuiqiao's house, to use her identity to show face to Chen Cuiqiao's family, and to give outsiders the illusion that someone in Chen Cuiqiao's family had a relationship with Bai Lingling's family.

If Chen Cuiqiao brags a few more words outside to fool those military wives who don't know the truth, and spread it to the military region, maybe she can get some benefits for her man.

Once this matter got to Bai Yancheng's ears, knowing that Chen Cuiqiao dared to use his daughter to establish a relationship with the Bai family for gain, he would definitely deal with that family ruthlessly.

At that time, Erya will be able to move the small bench and sit by the side to watch the unlucky drama of Chen Cuiqiao's family.

This is Erya's purpose!

By using your lips, you can use Bai Yancheng's hand to give her a bad breath without any effort.

A layer of cold sweat oozes from Yun Chang's back instantly.

What kind of mindless fool is this Erya, she is clearly a cunning fox!

Chapter 413: Change

Erya stood by the side of the road, watching Yunshang and Gu Shinian's receding figures, her brows furrowed little by little.

What exactly is going on?

She has made her words so clear, why is Yun Chang not in a hurry? Or did Yun Shang see through her purpose?

But Yun Shang was obviously not so smart in her previous life.

What Erya couldn't understand the most was that many things in this life were different from the previous life.

In the last life, Yunshang did not come back to the Bai family so soon. Even after Gao's family was arrested by the police, she even produced so-called evidence to prove that Yunshang was from the Gao family and a small enemy agent.

Although in the end Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan recognized Yunshang, but because the Gao family insisted that Yunshang was a child of the Gao family and provided evidence, Yunshang's identity aroused suspicion from outsiders.

Even a few years later, when the movement came, Yun Shang's identity once became the target of political opponents attacking Bai Yancheng, which caused Bai Yancheng to almost lose the position of commander.

Moreover, in the previous life, Gu Huaiqing did not fall so quickly. He would firmly occupy the position of political commissar and fight with Bai Yancheng until the winter of 1967. Then he was reported and sent to the Northwest together with Zhou Mingjuan.

Why are these things different from the previous life?

When she came back from rebirth, she just left the Zhou family early and reported to the police that the Gao family was an enemy agent in advance. How could such a big change be caused?

Er Ya thought about it, but couldn't figure out what was going on. He watched Yun Shang and Gu Shinian turn into the family courtyard without looking back, and when they could no longer see anyone, they turned around and walked in the opposite direction.

At this time, Yun Shang was also thinking about what Erya said, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, do you think Erya's words are credible?"

"Ah Chang, it doesn't matter whether Erya's words are credible or not, the important thing is that the Bai family can confirm that you are Xiaoqi, even if the Gao family has forged evidence, they can't get involved with you.

Besides, Zhang Haiyang targeted the Gao family from the line of Madman Wu and Shen Yuegui. The Gao family could not hide anything from the police, including forging evidence. With Zhang Haiyang here, those evidences will definitely be destroyed. "

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, and said indignantly, "This Erya is so annoying! When I come back from the village, I have to find a way to drive her away."

Just as Gu Shinian was about to nod,

Thinking of Erya being frightened by Yunshang and running to the house early in the morning to beg him to take him in, she quickly told Yunshang, "Ah Chang, leave Erya to me, don't interfere."

If you continue to intervene, what if you drive Erya to the small courtyard again to beg for shelter?

Yun Shang also thought of the stupid thing she had done, and immediately froze, nodding uncomfortably in agreement.

Thinking of Yun Shang's whole body and mind being on guard when facing Er Ya, she sighed secretly.

He felt that Yunshang took Erya too seriously, and even because of Erya's existence, she would unconsciously feel a sense of anxiety, which affected her mentality.

Gu Shinian held Yun Shang's hand tightly, slowed down, and spoke in a calm and slow tone, word by word:

"A-Shang, in the final analysis, life is made by people, so don't take what she said to heart just because Er Ya lives again and know what will happen in the future, and worry about things that may not necessarily happen in the future all day long.

Once Erya is reborn, she will more or less make up for the regrets of her previous life. As long as she makes a small change, many things may change accordingly. Don't trust her golden finger of "prophet".

Besides, Er Ya has a bad mind and is hostile to you, so what she says may not be credible. Don't believe anything she says to you in the future, as long as you know that she has no good intentions for you. "

Yun Chang was stunned, and after careful consideration of Gu Shinian's words, she had to admit that she really took Erya too seriously.

As a result, every word Erya said and everything she did, she would think about it in private, trying to understand whether Erya had other purposes, and whether she wanted to do it again would be detrimental to her and Gu Shinian. things.

In Erya's body, she actually died a lot of brain cells.

Yun Chang's small face slowly sank, and she assured Gu Shinian very seriously, "Second brother Gu, I understand, I will definitely not listen to Er Ya's nonsense in the future."

At this time, the sun was halfway down, and the golden sunlight pulled the figures of the two people on the road for a long time. The scarf around Yunshang's neck also rolled up and down in the wind, turning into strange patterns one after another on the ground.

At this time, Bai Yancheng already knew from Lin Wenlan that Yunshang was going back to the village to watch the affairs of the old couple of the Yun family. Although he was unwilling in his heart, he also knew the truth that everything should not be rushed.

Yunshang stayed at Lao Yun's house for four or five years, and only returned to Bai's house for less than a year. It is normal to get closer to Lao Yun's house.

As he grows older, and with the Bai family accompanying Yun Shang year after year, without him and Lin Wenlan interfering, Yun Shang will naturally alienate the old Yun family and truly integrate into the big family of the Bai family.

Bai Yancheng understands these truths better than anyone else, but when Yun Shang dragged her small suitcase, happily stepped on the train without looking back, Bai Yancheng couldn't help feeling sour.

His daughter is really worthless.

Treating her so well, wanting the stars and not the moon all day long, why don't you feel reluctant to part with him at all?

It's not as good as Gu Shinian, anyway, Gu Shinian knows to tell the guards to drive slowly when they go back, and pay more attention to the chief's body at ordinary times.

Hearing the long sound of the train whistle, Bai Yancheng gritted his teeth, stretched out his hand and rubbed Yun Shang's head fiercely, until he rubbed Yun Shang's smooth hair into a chicken coop, and then got out of the car step by step .

Yun Chang tidied up Bai Yancheng's messy hair, and finally realized her conscience. She leaned out of the window and waved to Bai Yancheng:

"Dad, I'll be back to accompany you in a few days. Remember to miss me when you leave home! Remember to eat and sleep on time!"

Bai Yancheng's brows twitched a few times, the corners of his mouth could not help but curl up a little, he waved at Yunshang, humming a little tune in his heart, and exited the train station happily.

Yun Chang rolled on the bed with the ball in her arms, and let out a long breath.

These grown-ups are really "hypocrisy". They obviously hate her, and they obviously want her to say good things to coax people, but they don't say anything, they keep it in their hearts, and secretly revenge her (rubbing the dog's head angrily).

This means that she is considerate and knows what Bai Yancheng is thinking in his heart. If it were Bai Qingming, he guessed that Bai Yancheng kicked him twice, and he didn't know why he was beaten.

Chapter 414: Food delivery in the middle of the night

The train from the provincial capital to Qinghe County was delayed, and when the two of them got off the train, it was already ten o'clock in the evening.

Coming out of the train station, Zhang Chunni was already waiting outside, took the luggage from the two of them, and asked Gu Shinian to wrap Yunshang tightly with a scarf, and the group returned home against the howling northwest wind.

"Aunt Zhang, the weather is not good today, you can just stay home and wait for me and Brother Gu, why do you have to go out to have a hair dryer? What should I do if it's too cold?"

After Yun Shang washed her face, she raised her chin, and while letting Zhang Chunni apply fragrant creams on her, she took Zhang Chunni's hand and chatted with her.

Zhang Chunni was amused by Yun Shang's words, her eyebrows and eyes were slightly curved, and the corners of her mouth were raised stiffly.

"It's okay, I can't sit still at home alone, so I might as well wait for you at the train station."

Seeing Gu Shinian entered the kitchen, Zhang Chunni raised her voice again, "Third brother, there is millet porridge in the pot, and a pot of stewed vegetables, you bring them all in, and let Chang Nan and I eat by the stove."

After staying on the train for more than ten hours, Yunshang was really hungry, and even the cabbage, which she always hated the most, was extremely sweet.

Zhang Chunni had to go to work early in the morning, so she heated the kang for the two of them, gave Gu Shinian a few more instructions, and then went back to bed with a yawn.

Yunshang sipped millet porridge, looked at the dark sky outside, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, when are we going back to the village?"

"Stay in the county for two days first, then go to Lao Han's house tomorrow to see grandpa Han and grandma Han, then go to Zhang Haiyang's house for a walk, go to Wei Jianjun's house the day after tomorrow, help him clean the house, and go back to the village the day after tomorrow ."

Yun Chang nodded, and her little brows were knit together again, "Second brother, the food in the space...why give it to the villagers?"

There is no one in this world who is more miserable than her.

The food that saves people's lives must be obtained secretly, and they must not expose themselves.

If those stars in future generations are left behind and do some charity, they can't wait for the media to tout their selfless devotion and love as holy fathers and mothers, how can they secretly do good deeds without leaving their names.

Alas, this fucked up era.

She was forced to become a virgin.

Gu Shinian didn't know that Yun Shang had put on the hat of "Holy Mother" for her. He checked the time and found that it was almost twelve o'clock, and he didn't answer Yun Shang's question. He got up and closed the door, urging her to hurry into the space rest.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up when he heard the words, and he knew it immediately.

Second brother Gu is going to take her to do big things again at night, otherwise he wouldn't let her into the space to rest.

Thinking of this, Yun Shang rolled and rolled into bed, pulled Gu Shinian, and walked into the space.

In the middle of the night, the northwest wind was blowing stronger and stronger, and the dry branches of the tung tree were blown by the wind, making a crackling sound.

Yun Chang was wearing a thick down jacket, a cotton hat on her head, and a thick scarf around her neck. She followed Gu Shinian and tiptoed out from the gate.

The night was so dense that it seemed that a layer of ink had been splashed on it, and they could not see their fingers. The two walked out of the dark alley, avoiding the few street lights on the street, and soon left the county town, set foot on the newly built road, and returned to Xinglin. Asphalt road in the village.

"A-Shang, let the car out." Gu Shinian said in a low voice.

Yunshang quickly released the off-road vehicle, and without waiting for Gu Shinian to speak, she automatically ran over to open the door of the passenger seat, and climbed up with her calves.

..... Shameless fake update line.....

The train from the provincial capital to Qinghe County was delayed, and when the two of them got off the train, it was already nine o'clock in the evening.

Chapter 415 Ancestor Apparition

As soon as the sun was shining, the old village head opened his eyes right on time. Hearing the howling wind outside the window and the crackling of the window paper on the edge of the window, his brows were tightly knit together before he could relax. Right now, it is getting colder and colder every day, and many families in the village are about to run out of food. If the relief food is not allocated, it is estimated that many people will not be able to survive this winter. "Alas..." The old village chief put on his old padded jacket, sighed, moved to the edge of the kang, and lit a pipe. The village head's wife was making the quilt, smelling the choking smell of smoke, and muttered unhappily, "Why did you smoke again in the morning? I don't even know what happened to your throat, you can cough Splitting the fork, why don't you know how to stretch it a little? By the way, when you went to the town yesterday, what did the leader say, when will the relief food be given?" The village chief paused holding the dry tobacco bag, and turned his head Glancing at his wife, he got off the kang and put on his shoes, and walked outside with his back bent. "This tobacco leaf smells strong, I'll go out and smoke it." "You old man! Why don't you give me food or not? Many people came to ask me yesterday. Hey~! Early in the morning, the outside Isn't it cold..." Hearing his wife's questioning, the village chief walked more hastily, but as soon as he entered the main room, the village chief's eyes were attracted by the white paper at the main entrance. "As entrusted by someone, give the villagers 50,000 catties of corn cobs, 10,000 catties of wheat ears, and 70,000 catties of cabbage for free. The things are placed behind the stage and distributed to the villagers as soon as possible. Don't let the news out." Look clearly on the paper. After the content, the tobacco bag in the village head's hand fell to the ground with a "bang", the hand holding the paper began to tremble, and the corners of his eyes gradually became wet. Worried that he had read it wrong, the old village head rubbed the corners of his eyes again, carefully read the content on the paper, looked up and looked around, carefully folded the paper, stuffed it into the pocket of his clothes, and ran to the brigade headquarters with his legs lifted. Fifty thousand catties of corn! Ten thousand catties of wheat ears! Could it be that someone coaxed him to play? There is so much grain, but the harvest of 60 to 70 mu of land in a good year, how can anyone give away the harvest of 60 to 70 mu of land as soon as they make a move? It's all fine grains. Even if you really want to give it away, who can have such a great ability to get so much food to give away? How much does it cost! Could it be that someone coaxed him to play with that letter... The village chief thought wildly all the way, and quickly ran into the brigade headquarters, and ran in directly through the small door next to the stage. The village chief was almost dumbfounded at the first glance when he turned into the backstage! On the wide and flat bluestone floor, what catches the eye is grain and cabbage piled up like hills, yellow ears of wheat, golden corn cobs, and green, tender and juicy Chinese cabbage. The village chief rubbed his eyes vigorously, then stretched out his hand and gave himself a mouthful, only then did he confirm that he had read correctly. It's really food! Someone really sent food to the village! The people in the village can finally survive! Even if he closes his eyes now, he is not afraid of losing face to his ancestors. The village chief's lips trembled uncontrollably, he kept wiping the wet corners of his eyes, grabbed a handful of ears of wheat, rubbed them in the palm of his hand, blew off the empty shells, picked up two dry and full grains, and put them in his mouth. Chewed carefully. This wheat is grown really well, and the smell of wheat is really strong. But which kind-hearted person gave this old food? Who has such a great ability to transport tens of thousands of catties of grain to the village without disturbing the 2,000 people in the village? This old man has a lot of food, and there is no sack bag, how did he move it to the back of the stage? oops! Could it be... the ancestors appeared! Wiping the corners of his eyes, the village head took a few steps around to the middle of the stage, knelt down in the direction of the damaged Earth Temple in the back village, and kowtowed five times. This must be a sign of the ancestors! Otherwise, how to explain the food thing? It was almost time to go to work. Instead of lighting up, the sky became darker and darker. Sporadic snow fell from the sky from time to time, mixed with the wanton roaring wind, and it hurt people's faces. Blown by the bitter cold wind, the village head quickly calmed down. Seeing that it was almost time to go to work, he quickly found a hemp rope to tie up the wooden door entering the stage, and went out through the small door on the side to the old accountant. go. The person who left the letter said,

If he wanted to distribute the food to the villagers as soon as possible, without letting him leak the news, he had to find the old accountant to do the total, and see what to do about it. When passing by Lao Yun's house, the village chief paused, and a thought flashed through his mind: Did Chief Bai send those grains for Chang Nan's sake? In recent years, there have been only three workers in their village, and a college student Yun Shuilian. No matter how powerful and capable these people are, they can't get tens of thousands of catties of fine grain. After all the calculations, Chief Bai is the most likely to give food. He is the commander of the military region, and he is in charge of so many soldiers. With one order, the People's Liberation Army can send food in without anyone noticing. It's just that this matter is also mysterious. No matter how commander Bai is, he probably won't be able to get so much food and give it to the villagers for nothing. Besides, why did Chief Renbai give their village so much food? Even for Xiao Changnan's sake, it's fine to take care of Lao Yun's family in private, but what's the point of taking care of the whole village together... Yun Shang didn't know that the village head almost suspected Bai Yancheng, so what would happen? Carrying a present, Er'er followed Gu Shinian into Lao Han's house. In the yard, Zhang Mingyang was raising his head and opening his mouth to catch the snowflakes falling from the air. When he saw the two of them entering the door, he let out a strange cry and rushed towards Gu Shinian with a smile. "Brother Shi Nian, didn't you go to the provincial capital? When did you come back? Sister Yunshang also came back together? I, Brother Han Yang, wrote back and said that I played with you in the provincial capital!" "Gu Shinian patted Zhang Mingyang's head with a smile, and continued, "I came back after ten o'clock last night, is Grandpa Han and Grandma Han at home?" "My grandpa went out for a walk, and my grandma is at home." Zhang Mingyang surrounded Watching Gu Shinian circle around, he yelled into the room again, "Grandma! Brother Shi Nian and Sister Yunshang are here!" Before he finished speaking, Mrs. Han came out of the room wiping the water beads off her hands. Seeing Gu Shinian and Yun Shang, he was so happy that he couldn't close his mouth together, he quickly pulled the two closer to the room, and searched for delicious treats. Yun Shang took a sip of the sweet and warm syrup, took out the trough cake in the bag, and handed the soft fire to Zhang Mingyang, and asked Mrs. Han, "Grandma Han, can you and my Grandpa Han stay home?" The old lady Han put the persimmon cakes and red dates she found in Yunshang's hand, and said with a smile, "Okay! I'm going to help you on the street with your grandpa Han recently. I'm busy every day!"

Chapter 416 Severe

The old lady stuffed a persimmon cake into Yunshang's mouth, and turned around to ask Gu Shinian, "Shinian, how did I hear that your family is moving to the provincial capital? Your mother doesn't want to work anymore?" Zhang Chunni is a county The well-known Iron Lady in the county was once a model worker, which is a real honor. The workers and women in various factories in the county did not know Zhang Chunni. Zhang Chunni had just revealed that she was going to move, and in just a few days, everyone in half the county knew about it. Everyone knew that Zhang Chunni's non-human ex-husband was in the provincial capital and was a high-ranking officer in the army. They also knew that Zhang Chunni was going to move to the provincial capital, so they inevitably muttered a few words in private. Some people thought that Gu Huaiqing had robbed Gu Guangzong, but Zhang Chunni was outraged and worried that Gu Guangzong would be treated harshly by his stepmother, so she planned to move to the provincial capital to protect Gu Guangzong nearby. Some people think that Zhang Chunni's eldest son was taken back by Gu Huaiqing, and the younger son went to the provincial capital to study again. Worried that the younger one would be snatched away by Gu Huaiqing, she planned to go to the provincial capital to look after her younger son. But more people think that Zhang Chunni was kicked out of the house by Gu Huaiqing because of her big belly, and her son was snatched away by Gu Huaiqing more than ten years later. The old lady Han didn't know about Gu Huaiqing's dismissal from the military, but when she heard about Zhang Chunni's move from the street, she couldn't help worrying about her. Gu Shinian did not expect that even Mrs. Han would know that the family was moving to the provincial capital. She put down the tea mug in her hand and replied, "My mother has been in poor health for the past two years. She worked hard, and she The back hurts so much that I can't straighten up. It happened that there was a good quarrel in the provincial capital, and the work was easier than it is now. In addition, Pangui was working in the shoe factory in the provincial capital, so my mother thought about transferring the job there. Settle down in the provincial capital." The most important thing is that Zhang Chunni wants to watch the miserable lives of Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan up close! After hearing this, the old lady Han sighed, "That's good. Your mother is too strong, and she can work faster than a strong young man. Her body is exhausted by herself. Change her body." A light job is also good." At least a few more years of life can be lived. Yun Shang took a sip of sugar water, and answered inwardly: Zhang Chunni doesn't want to force herself, but if she doesn't treat herself as a strong young man, how can she support her three children? Zhang Mingyang leaned over curiously, "Brother Shi Nian, then you will be from the provincial capital in the future, so you won't go back to Qinghe County?" , I have to come back with A Chang to have a look at the New Year in the future." Yun Shang also nodded beside him, "That's right, Second Brother Gu will come back with me to see my grandpa and grandma, as well as grandpa and grandma Han ..." "And me!" Zhang Mingyang quickly raised his hand, "You and Brother Shi Nian have to come back to see me too." "Okay, when I come back to see you, I also need to see Aunt Han and Uncle Zhang." Yun Shang tilted Zhang Mingyang. With a glance, he echoed his words. Seeing the two little ones getting together and muttering and playing, the old lady Han got off the kang with a smile, ready to cook some delicious treats. Gu Shinian hurriedly handed the cloth bag at hand to the old lady Han, "Grandma Han, these are some delicacies and air-dried game. I brought them back from the Northeast with A Chang. You and Grandpa Han have a taste." There are only two cabbages of dried shiitake mushrooms and a piece of dried wild boar in the cloth bag, but the bag is so bulging that Mrs. Han can't help but look straight at it. The Han family is considered a big family in the county, with two sons, one works in the military region of the capital, and the other sits in an office in the provincial capital. Even the daughter and son-in-law are well-known figures in the county. Ordinarily, the conditions of the Han family are so good, there should be no shortage of food, but the county is really struggling this year, not to mention fine grains, even coarse grains are in short supply, and the farmers can't even fill their stomachs, and they can't afford to feed pigs. Can't afford chicken. Even if the old couple of the Han family had no shortage of money tickets, they still couldn't buy meaty food that could replenish oil and water. The piece of pork that Gu Shinian and Yunshang gave could be said to have been sent to the heart of Old Madam Han. It's just that food is so expensive now, and meat is even more rare. She accepted two children who are so old and meaty,

Does it fit? Seeing Mrs. Han carrying the cloth bag with a troubled expression on her face, Yunshang hurriedly said, "Grandma Han, this is wild pork. I and Brother Gu brought it back specially for everyone to try. Every family has it. You just accept it, and get me some food and wine for Grandpa Han." The old lady Han is also a cool person, and the expression on her face immediately loosened when she heard Yun Shang say this, "Okay, then I will enjoy Chang Nan's blessing once, and taste it." Taste the wild boar meat. Ouch, your Grandpa Han has something to eat today." Taking advantage of Mrs. Han's cooking time, Gu Shinian asked Zhang Mingyang about the situation in the county, knowing that the county was short of food. Food, the situation is not very good recently. Because of the lack of food, the winery in the county has been closed for a long time, and many people who went to the food station late could not receive the food supply. A person who collapses on the side of the street and cannot get up while walking. When Yunshang thought of coming to Han's house, most of the people she saw on the road had skinny faces and sallowness, and even met a worker who had to sit on the side of the road to rest for half a day after walking a short distance, her heart slowly sank. The situation in the county is more severe and difficult than she imagined. I don't know whether the higher authorities will allocate relief food to the county. When it was near noon, Han Shan and Zhang Haiyang entered the door one after the other. Seeing Yun Shang and Gu Shinian coming over, they also brought a piece of wild pork to the house. His eyes lit up with joy, and he kept talking Swallow. Zhang Haiyang was also very happy to see the two of them, he teased Yun Shang a few words, and then took Gu Shinian to the side room to talk for a long time, and when it was time to eat, he even drank a couple of small wines with Han Shan. The north wind that had been roaring all morning finally stopped, and after dinner, a thick layer of snow had accumulated in the yard. Yun Shang put on the army bag containing persimmon cakes and red dates, grabbed Gu Shinian's hand, bid farewell to the Han family and the reluctant Zhang Mingyang, and walked out of the yard with a heavy foot and a shallow foot. "Second Brother Gu, the sky is so cloudy, it doesn't look like this snow will be small." Gu Shinian looked up at the sky, and then at the snow that was falling like goose feathers, he sighed secretly, feeling a faint feeling in his heart. guess. Warm grasped Yun Chang's hand tightly, and asked in a very calm voice, "A Chang, what do you think?" Yun Chang could hardly smile anymore. It's almost the twelfth lunar month now, and there will be another heavy snowfall, and the temperature will drop suddenly. Coupled with hunger, how should everyone's life go on?

Chapter 417: Eavesdropping

It is almost the twelfth lunar month now, and there will be another heavy snowfall, and the temperature will drop suddenly. Coupled with hunger, how will the food-deficient people in the county live?

"Second brother, it's only the middle of the month, and those who haven't received the food will definitely not last until the end of the month..."

Gu Shinian pulled up the scarf that Yunshang had dropped on his shoulders to cover the falling snowflakes, and asked, "A Chang, this is the county town, not Xinglin Village. In the village, we can put the food behind the stage, in the county, where are you going to put the grain?"

Another point is that the situation in the county is so serious, if the higher-ups know about it, it is impossible not to distribute relief food. But the current situation in the county... I'm worried that some leaders are slapping their faces to pretend to be fat, and they didn't report the situation to the people below. "

In the past two years, "satellites" have been released everywhere in the country. For the sake of their so-called face, some leaders even boasted that a mu of cattle with a yield of 100,000 catties was blown out. What's the point of concealing the disaster?

Besides, Qinghe County is located at the junction of three provinces. Two rivers run through the entire county, one on the left and one on the right. The water resources are much richer than other counties and cities. The villages and towns near the two rivers also kept a lot of crops by carrying water manually.

Compared with the places where the grain crops are completely exhausted, the situation of these villages and towns is much better.

In the eyes of some leaders who are only thinking about political achievements, since the grain harvest is not dead, how can they still have the face to ask the country for food and grab food from brothers and counties?

Seeing Yun Shang's small face sinking, Gu Shinian sighed, and continued, "A Chang, it's fine if the county leaders just hide the situation in the county. If you go out, you will not reach the hands of the common people."

"Second brother, are you saying that there are likely to be leaders who will hand over the food we took out to benefit themselves for the sake of political achievements?" If this is the case, she must beat the heads of these bullshit leaders!

Gu Shinian's face was not very good-looking, and he nodded, "It's possible. The situation in the provincial capital is not good, but it is far from the situation in Qinghe County. Even the grain station can't send out food supplies. It's conceivable. You know, it is even more impossible for the villages and towns below to have relief food.

With such a serious disaster this year, the province will definitely distribute relief food, and it is impossible to miss Qinghe County alone.

With the current situation in the county, there is only one possibility, and that is that the county leaders did not apply for relief food from above. "

Yun Chang's face was so dark that it was the bottom of the pot. Looking at the thin and numb passers-by by the side of the road, she couldn't say a word for a long time.

If it's true that the higher ups don't provide relief food, that's fine. If things are really like what Gu Erge said, all the leaders of Qinghe County will be damned!

This is naked murder!

Use the lives of the people of the county to win a brighter future for the leaders!

Yunshang's eyes almost burst into flames, grinding her back molars, and said bitterly, "Second brother! I want to call the provincial government! Call now!"

She wanted to tell Bai Yancheng about the situation in the county, and ask Bai Yancheng to go to the provincial government to ask if the provincial leaders really planned to starve to death a whole county?

Then ask the provincial leaders, do they really believe the lies that the leaders of Qinghe County made up for their political achievements?

After Yun Shang finished speaking, she pulled Gu Shinian to the direction of the post office. Gu Shinian quickly bent down and picked Yun Shang up, "A Chang, this is just our own guess, we can't be sure, we will find a chance later to see the situation Besides, what if the county leaders have already applied for food relief? Besides, this matter does not necessarily have to be resolved through Commander Bai."

ancestors! Bai Yancheng is the commander of the military region, how can you rashly rush over to meddle in the work of the provincial government based on your unsubstantiated phone call?

Isn't this making enemies everywhere for your cheap dad?

Yun Shang was blocked by Gu Shinian, and realized that she was impulsive, so she patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder and motioned him to put herself down.

"Second brother, I will listen to you. I will do whatever you say."

Yun Chang's eyes were wide open, her face was stern, and she looked like she was about to do a big fight.

Gu Shinian's eyelids twitched a few times, and he dragged Yunshang to go home first, "Go home first, and go to the county government to play the recorder at night. The county is so short of food and it's snowing again today. There will definitely be a meeting tomorrow to discuss these matters, so let's listen to what the leaders of the county have to say."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she gave Gu Shinian a thumbs up.

It's still the second brother Gu who is thoughtful. Tomorrow, let's see what these people in the county are doing.

If she has already applied for relief food from above, then she will find a way to get the food out of the warehouse and help the people in the county for a while.

If there are really people who don't care about the life and death of ordinary people for the sake of political achievements, then don't blame her for making troubles and trying to get these people's seats.

After entering the door, Yunshang picked up the ball that ran out to meet her first, kissed its round forehead, and then told Gu Shinian, lying on the kang, consciousness entered the space, and recorded more than ten records one by one The pen is fully charged.

Since we want to engage in "eavesdropping", we should put a recording pen in each office, and put a few in the conference room. It is necessary to monitor these leaders in the county from all angles and without any dead ends. Not a single fish slips through the net.

She has to listen carefully to whether these leaders have disregarded the life and death of the people in the county for their own political achievements.

The snow outside was getting heavier, and in the middle of the night, when I stepped on it, it didn't even reach the calf.

Worried that their footprints would reveal the whereabouts of the two of them, Yunshang dragged Gu Shinian into the space, and dodged directly from the house into the alley. Walking in the direction of the county government with one foot and one foot.

When she arrived at the county party committee square, Yunshang used the same method again, using the space and the place where there was no snow at the bottom of the outer wall, and jumped into the county government office building a few times.

The leading team of the county party committee works in a small two-story western-style building at the front, and the rows of bungalows behind the small western-style building are the family courtyard of the county party committee in Qinghe.

Taking advantage of the twilight of the white snow outside, Yunshang and Gu Shinian found it from the second floor, and prepared to place the recording pens one by one in the secretary, county magistrate, deputy county magistrate, and several conference rooms.

It's just that the two of them had just entered the second floor when they heard a sound coming from the secretariat room in front, as well as painful and depressed gasps.

Yun Chang's ears moved, and she leaned forward unconsciously, trying to hear what was going on inside, but before she could get close, Gu Shinian covered her ears from behind.

Seeing Yun Shang looking back in dissatisfaction, Gu Shinian twitched the corners of his mouth, dragging and dragging Yun Shang from the corridor to the stairs, instructing Yun Shang to stay in the space, while he tiptoed to the front.

Chapter 418: Broken Shoes

Yun Shang also reacted now, and pouted dissatisfiedly. Isn't it just a man and a woman working on errands? What's so taboo, she's been afraid of this after watching too many TV and movies? Seeing Gu Shinian leaning sideways, sticking tightly to the window, listening to the movement inside, Yun Shang rolled her eyes, used the space as a cover, jumped directly behind Gu Shinian, brought him into the space, and dodged into it again. I went to the office of the deputy county magistrate next door. Seeing that Gu Shinian frowned, Yun Shang put one hand on his hips, pointed at Gu Shinian's nose with the other, and said fiercely first: "I never thought that you are such Gu Er Ge! Why do you listen to people cheating on you? You don't even know about business?" Quit it! Tell me! Do you want to find a wife too?" Gu Shinian: "...". He just wanted to know the identities of those two people, and also wanted to hear if they could say something about relief. Regarding food, when did you want to find a wife? This is how he looks in the eyes of the little girl? Gu Shinian's face turned dark, he pinched Yun Chang's face and twisted it half a circle, grinding his back molars, and said in a low voice, "Don't mess around!" Qing retorted, "What's wrong with that!" What am I messing around with? Isn't it just not letting you listen to the corner, and asking you to come back to work first, why is it called nonsense! Seeing Yun Shang rolling her eyes angrily, Gu Shinian couldn't help laughing, let go of Yun Shang's face, rubbed it lightly, then took out the recording pen that had been glued with double-sided tape earlier in the morning, and stuck it on the wooden wall next to the wall. Under the cabinet. While Gu Shinian was busy working, Yun Shang put the desk back into the space, opened the drawer, and rummaged through it to find the information she wanted. After searching through the three drawers, Yun Shang was at the bottom of the left drawer, and found a few reports on the commune's application for food relief in October. Among them was Hongqi Town, where Xinglin Village was located, but there was no written instruction from a leader above. Thinking that these reports were buried in a pile of expired and useless old documents, Yun Shang's anger kept rising. The following commune started to provide food relief in October, and it is almost the twelfth lunar month, and these leaders have not yet resolved the food relief issue. With a dark face, Yun Shang put the documents back in the drawer as they were, and put the desk back in the office, and told Gu Shinian what she saw. "Second brother Gu, this deputy county magistrate Du is not a good person! Those application reports were delivered in October, but he has been pressed at the bottom of the drawer, together with some useless old documents and old newspapers. It's because they didn't take the food relief issue to heart at all!" If they really took the people's application for food relief to heart, how could they let the documents pile up at the bottom of the abandoned documents to breed insects? Not to mention studying every day, the application report must at least be placed in the file of pending matters. Gu Shinian's complexion was not good, he sighed secretly, and pointed to the secretariat next door, "The people inside... are not a couple, the woman belongs to the secretariat, she has a date, and is not married yet. The man, seems to be a Director, you have a wife and a child." After finishing speaking, Gu Shinian felt that the two of them were fighting too hard. With such heavy snowfall, both he and Yunshang felt cold in their thick down jackets. These two were able to endure the cold and fight hand-to-hand in an office without bedding. They were truly warriors. When Yun Shang heard such a gossip, she immediately shifted her attention, her big eyes were surprisingly bright, and they were full of smirks. "Second brother Gu, this is the office building of the county government. It is a place to serve the party and the people. These two people dare to do bad things in such a sacred place. They must be taught a lesson!" Gu Shinian: "... He Why is the little girl so wicked? It's obviously because she herself can't understand the mess with broken shoes, but she still talks about it in the name of the party and the people, which is too good at nonsense. Seeing that Gu Shinian didn't speak, Yun Chang became anxious, hugged Gu Shinian's arm, and shook it like a bug, "How about it, Brother Gu? Think about Aunt Zhang, and then think about the relationship between these two people. Behavior, how is it different from when Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan broke shoes?" How shameless! All the men have wives and children, and the women are not yet married. And the woman next door is even more extreme, she has a partner, and she even cheats on her partner with other men. If you don't teach me a lesson,

Isn't this about giving her a cuckold? What if, like Zhou Mingjuan, she has evil seeds in her belly and makes her lover Xi become a father? Besides, as long as he is a man, he can't bear such humiliation. If he finds out that he has been cuckolded after getting married, that man will have to kill the adulterers with a knife. It's time for another family tragedy. Now she is teaching these two people a lesson, she is saving a family tragedy, preventing a progressive young man from stepping into a marriage full of green grasslands, she is doing a good deed every day! Yun Shang thought of herself as great, and her hands holding Gu Shinian became more and more forceful, and her big eyes became more moist. How could Gu Shinian stand up to Yun Shang pestering him so much? He surrendered within three seconds, coaxing her repeatedly, "OK, OK, what lesson do you want to teach these two people?" "There is ether in the space." Spray!" Yun Shang's eyes lit up, and she took out a bottle of spray to show Gu Shinian. You don't need to do anything else, just spray it lightly, and keep the two of them in their current posture until dawn, and wait for the entire county party committee compound to catch the rape tomorrow. This time, Gu Shinian couldn't help but jump up his eyelids. His little sister is too good at teasing people. If the two of them were really naked and stuck in the office, they would both have to go to reform through labor, especially if they were arrested and active, it would be hard to say whether they would be able to survive those ten years in the future. However, doing so would not do him and Yunshang any good. Gu Shinian was silent for a moment, and whispered to Yunshang, "Ah Chang, there is another way. I'll take a picture of these two people first. After listening to the recording, we can confirm what unreliable leaders in the county are unreliable. You can threaten that man with a photo and ask him to reveal the situation in the county." Yun Shang blinked, then blinked again, and finally couldn't help but hugged Gu Shinian fiercely, "Second brother Gu, you are too Awesome! I listen to you!" After finishing speaking, he took out a few small and exquisite cameras with video recording function from the space, and shyly said to Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, I can use the space to smuggle the cameras into Next door. We don't need to take pictures, we will record the video directly, and we will print out any picture we want at that time with the computer." Gu Shinian's face darkened. My little sister is going to get rid of him and go it alone! ? Isn't she afraid of seeing things she shouldn't see, with a needle's eye? "A-Shang, give me the camera, I'll go to the window to take pictures..."

"Then how can I see clearly? Look at me!" Yun Shang interrupted Gu Shinian without raising her head, left him, and walked in Space, sneak the camera to the next door, place it in every dark corner, and record it in all directions.

Chapter 419 Secret Words

Gu Shinian was caught off guard by Yun Shang again, thinking that the pair of dogs and men next door were doing animal things, and Yun Shang ran to the next door to videotape so aggressively, and suddenly his whole body was in a bad mood. When did his little sister become so unrestrained? It's getting bolder and bolder! How dare she run to see such a thing, isn't she afraid of dirtying her eyes? Gu Shinian gritted his back molars, subconsciously ran over and pulled the door, but didn't open it, and opened the window near the corridor, ready to go out and scare the couple from the outside. In case the two of them were shameless, it really made Yun Shang see it straight. Yun Shang's attention was always on Gu Shinian's side, and when he sensed his intentions, he hurried over and grabbed Gu Shinian. "Second brother Gu, I didn't peek, I just put the camera away and came here!" Before Gu Shinian got angry, Yun Shang spoke first. Even if the light in the room is too dark to see Gu Shinian's facial features clearly, Yun Shang can still know that Gu Shinian's face is dark at this moment. Gu Shinian stretched out his hand to rub the top of Yunshang's head, just as Yunshang's mind was slowly relaxing, he bent his fingers and gave her a hard head. Yun Shang burst into tears, and almost screamed out. It hurts so much! Second Brother Gu is willing to do such a cruel thing to her! ? Yun Chang was very wronged, seeing that Gu Shinian didn't speak or comfort her, she couldn't help feeling timid again. Covering his forehead with both hands, lowering his head, he bumped against Gu Shinian's stomach flatteringly, and said aggrievedly, "Second brother, it hurts." Gu Shinian said with a stern face, suppressing his anger, "If it hurts, By the way, if you dare to be disobedient next time, the punishment will be doubled!" Yun Shang was dumbfounded, and was thinking of continuing to coax Gu Shinian, but stopped when she heard the noise next door, quickly took back the camera, and handed it to Gu Shinian with a flattering expression. inside. "Second brother Gu, here! The next door is done. I used three cameras and recorded it all." Look! I'm doing this beautifully, why do you have the nerve to be angry with me? It's too cold for the hero. Gu Shinian was helpless, and signaled Yunshang not to speak, leaned against the wall, and listened carefully to the movement next door. In the next room, the chubby man lit a cigarette, took a deep puff, leaned back on the chair, and looked at the woman's half-opened skirt. Sensing the man's gaze, the woman pursed her lips, gave him an angry look, and buttoned up her chest to cover the bulging whiteness of the skirt. "When will your partner come back?" the man asked. The woman pursed her lips, and her eyes showed disgust, "Ghost knows! I called a while ago and said that the situation in the Southwest is tense, and I will probably go to the front line after the next year. I want to come back to visit relatives a year ago, and get married by the way." The man His brows were wrinkled, and his fingertips were filled with smoke, rising in the air, making his facial features blurred. The woman tidied herself up, walked over, and pushed the man dissatisfied, "Did you hear what I said? He will be back in a month or so. You don't really want me to marry that cripple, do you?" Then who do you want to marry?" The man's voice immediately turned cold, "Count up in Manqinghe County, who do you marry can be as comfortable as marrying a soldier? No in-laws, and no need to serve in the army. What happened in the past, how will you live in the future? In addition to your salary, you can also get the allowance of your partner every month. You don't like this kind of life, what else do you want to live?" The most important thing is that after marrying such a person, he can meet her anytime and anywhere in the future. Worried about her man finding out. If you marry someone else in the county, with your parents-in-law and a man watching over you, how can they meet casually like now? "But he's a cripple!" The woman widened her eyes angrily. "Isn't it just that there is a scar on the face, half of the finger is missing, and all other parts of the body are missing, so why are you disabled?" The man picked up the tea mug and took a sip of water, "Besides, your partner is the People's Liberation Army. How dare you If you despise him for having scars on his face, aren't you afraid that other people will drown you with spit?" The woman's face immediately turned ugly, "After all, you just don't want to part with your yellow-faced woman, and you never thought of marrying me." "What nonsense are you talking about!" The man's voice became more and more vicious, "You are from the secretarial team, so you should know what's going on now! Then, because of the food relief, the Standing Committee Member Wang annoyed Secretary Wu and Deputy County Chief Du.

Seeing that his power will be taken away by others, he will no longer be able to keep his seat on the Standing Committee. I am the director of the office, and I am the most promising to be promoted to the Standing Committee. Are you going to make trouble with me at this juncture? "Get rid of the yellow-faced woman at home, and marry the little girl in the secret place under my own hands? Are you kidding me!? No one is a fool. If he really did this, those people in the county party committee's family courtyard don't know what's going on behind the scenes As for him, his future career appointments will be affected. He has a wife and children, not those dizzy young people who ruined their future for a woman who is not a good thing in itself. It is extremely stupid. Besides, this woman It's not a beautiful woman who is overwhelmed by the country, at most she is a little fresher than the mother-in-law at home. It's enough for him to taste the taste outside. It's really unnecessary to get it back like this. Women don't know what a man thinks. Possibly Gao Sheng's eyes lit up, "Brother Zhu, is what you said true? Standing Committee Wang...you can really get promoted? ""Deputy County Magistrate Du just revealed to me yesterday that the county magistrate has been ill for more than a month, and he can't even get out of bed. Just Wang Standing Committee and a few people who can't get on the stage, why talk to the secretary and Deputy County Du? Long face to face? Let's see, whoever is responsible for the food relief may not be sure. "Thinking that he will soon be promoted to the deputy county level, the man can't help but feel good, and he is also willing to talk to women about the struggle between the upper-level leaders. Women don't understand the twists and turns of the upper-level leaders. She only cares about men. position, as well as the news of relief food, I was silent for a while, and asked: "So, the county still refuses to apply for relief food from above? But I heard that many communes down below have run out of food, and if there is no more relief food, they will be designated to die years ago, in case the higher-ups find out..." "Oh, what do you know? "The man sneered, "Do you really think the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du don't know about this?" Those two people pointed at this incident to suppress the other faction. If something really happened, it is impossible for them to be responsible. Seeing that the woman wanted to ask again, the man got up impatiently, picked up his military coat and walked to the door, "It's getting late, I'll go back first, you clean up here so that no one will see it." "It wasn't until the man went downstairs that he couldn't hear the footsteps anymore, Yun Chang turned dark and withdrew his mental strength. "Second brother, it's so annoying! At least half of the people in the county are worthless! . "

From the mouth of the director surnamed Zhu, we can know that the high-level county officials and the county magistrate are at odds, and the people below are also divided into two factions. The county magistrate has been ill for more than a month, and the people under him have been suppressed in pieces. I can't keep the position under the buttocks. Even the black pot of "not applying for relief food" is about to fall from the sky. Also, this surname Zhu is also weak, he just wants to play for nothing, he doesn't want to be responsible, he persuades the girl to marry a PLA who is not qualified to serve in the army, and makes the couple live in two places for a long time, so that he can have an affair with the girl at any time. When the woman is ready to join the army, he will get tired of playing, and if she doesn't need to be dumped, the woman will leave automatically, which will not affect his career reputation. As expected of sitting in an office, the abacus is really shrewd. However, for the subject with the green grassland on his head, these two people are too deceiving! Risking his life in the hail of bullets, defending the safety of the country and the lives and property of the people, only to end up with a fire in his backyard. The newly-married Jiao Didi's little daughter-in-law is a broken shoe, and there are shameless beasts who want to continue to deal with this broken shoe... Gu Shinian was also a little confused. He didn't expect the two of them to hear such secrets just by listening to a corner. Hearing that the surname Zhu had left, the woman was busy cleaning up the mess in the house, took Yunshang's arm, and motioned her to go to the secretary's office next door to put the recorder. Yun Shang came back to her senses, with a sullen face, and pulled Gu Shinian, one office after another to continue the work that had not been completed before, including the conference room. Until returning home, Yun Shang's face was still ugly. "Second brother Gu, you can't let these two people go! Especially that woman, don't let her harm the People's Liberation Army." It's so shameless! You are a broken shoe yourself, and you still have the face to despise the hero as a 'disabled'? The scars on her partner's face, as well as the broken finger, are medals, honors, and proofs of his blood and sweat on the battlefield for soldiers. It's not a scar, let alone a disability! Gu Shinian knew what Yun Shang was thinking, so he reached out his hand in the dark, rubbed her head accurately, and said in a low and gentle voice, "Okay, let's deal with the relief food first, and then we'll deal with the matter of these two people after we're done." I will definitely not let her harm the good people." Satisfied, Yun Chang turned over and soon fell into a deep sleep. Probably due to the use of mental strength at night, Yunshang slept very deeply this time, and when she woke up again, it was already noon the next day. After lunch, the two walked to Wei Jianjun's house stepping on the thick snow. First open the window to ventilate the house, find a wooden shovel, and shovel out the snow in the yard. It was not until it was getting dark that Yunshang rubbed her face flushed from the cold, and followed Gu Shinian back home. Zhang Chunni had already prepared dinner and was waiting at home. When she saw the two people coming in, she brought the hot food back to the house, and then urged them to wash up and eat. When Gu Shinian finished washing his face and entered the door, Yunshang was already sitting at the kang table, gorging on the eggs that Zhang Chunni specially cooked for her. Zhang Chunni swallowed the steamed buns and cabbage in her mouth, and said with an ugly face, "Gu Guangzong called me today." "Well," Gu Shinian put half of the steamed buns next to Zhang Chunni's bowl back on the grate, broke off half of the cornmeal steamed bun in his hand, and handed it to Zhang Chunni, "He called, did he blame you for pulling Gu Huaqing down from the political commissar's position, so that he can't be the political commissar's son?" Even if you don't ask, Gu Shinian It is also conceivable that Gu Guangzong was on the other end of the phone, furious, but he didn't dare to yell loudly, so he could only lower his voice and get angry quietly. When Gu Huaqing fell from the horse, the most angry and uncomfortable were Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan, followed by Gu Guangzong's turn. After wasting so much thought, flattering Gu Huaqing's broken shoes, cutting off ties with his own mother, and ruining his reputation, he managed to get into the compound of the military region and became the son of a political commissar. But before he could enjoy everything that a 'political commissar' should enjoy, his own mother, who had been severed by him, unexpectedly pulled Gu Huaqing down from her horse. Everything that Gu Guangzong paid was in vain, and his reputation was ruined. How could he not be angry? If Zhang Chunni was in front of Gu Guangzong, Gu Guangzong would be able to reach out and draw a gun.

Zhang Chunni's face became even uglier, she nodded, and said, "Tell me, why did the boss become like that? If he can be upright and scold me on the phone in front of outsiders, I'll feel better, but he scolded me repeatedly. I was afraid that people would hear me, so I didn't dare to speak out..." Thinking of Gu Guangzong scolding her on the phone for not being able to see him well, and for pulling Gu Huaqing off his horse to harm him, Zhang Chunni only felt a sense of sadness in her heart. Among the three children, she devoted the most to Gu Guangzong, but in the end, it was Gu Guangzong who was the least responsible, the most bottomless, the most selfish, the coldest, and the most inhumane. Zhang Chunni was in a bad mood, and the atmosphere at the dinner table was very stagnant, but Yunshang was inexplicably wanting to laugh. She thought Gu Guangzong was ridiculously hypocritical. People all over the world know what kind of guy Gu Guangzong is, but Gu Guangzong feels good about himself. He feels that he is the son of a political commissar and should be superior to others. He also thinks that others will look at him with envy. But he didn't know that others were taking him as a joke. Gu Huaqing was expelled from the party and the army, and Gu Guangzong was paralyzed. Without his political commissar father, he also lost the capital of pride, and even panicked, not daring to let his comrades know the news of Gu Huaqing's accident. Otherwise, he wouldn't deliberately lower his voice to scold Zhang Chunni. Zhang Chunni sighed, as if reporting work to Gu Shinian, and said in a very calm and flat tone: "I didn't quarrel with the boss, nor did I mention the reason for Gu Huaqing's downfall. His child support. I will remit that money to him tomorrow. I reminded him today that Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan are now renting a small house near the hospital. Gu Huaqing has no job, and Zhou Mingjuan has become a nurse. I have no money left, so I want him to guard the money, and don't let those two people get cheated. In the future, Gu Guangzong's life is good or bad, and it has nothing to do with me." Yun Shang raised her head in a timely manner, and said sweetly, "Aunt Zhang, you still have Second Brother Gu, Elder Sister You Pangu, and me, we will all be filial to you in the future, so don't worry about other people's children." No matter how good other people's children are, they can't be filial to you! Besides, just like Gu Guangzong, it's better to break off the relationship completely, so as not to smell the smell and stick to it in the future, and you can't even shake it off. The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth couldn't help but curl up, echoing Yun Shang's words, "A Chang is right, Gu Guangzong is now the son of Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan, and has nothing to do with you. He will call later, you Don't pick it up, lest you get angry."
