Chapter 42 Eavesdropping

Two hundred meters from the entrance of the hospital is the outpatient department. Mrs. Wang was lying on the door panel and saw Wang Guihua, who was being held by Yun Shuilian and holding a chicken trough in her arms.

The old lady's tears came out at once. The last chance in her heart was gone, her heart was sharp, she was really mad.

Seeing the old lady shed tears again, Old Man Wang thought she was worried that her injury would not heal, so he hurriedly bent down to comfort her:

"Jinzhi, don't cry, we're going to the hospital. I'll show you a doctor. It'll be fine, you'll be fine, don't worry."

"Old man, Hua'er..." The old lady pointed in the direction where Widow Wang disappeared, with tears streaming down her lips and trembling lips, "My flower, Hua'er..."

The old man Wang also quickly looked up, but Yun Chang and his party had long since disappeared. Seeing that the old lady was agitated, he urged his two sons to quickly carry the old lady inside, while patiently calming the old lady's emotions.

"Okay, okay, it's our flower, don't worry, I'll let the second wife go in and find out what's going on with the flower."

Hearing this, the old lady hurriedly cast her gaze on Anna Maeju, "...Second daughter-in-law, you, go to Hua'er and see what the doctor said."

Anna Mae nodded meekly, turned and piled the bedding roll on Xu Dalan's hand. From an angle that no one in the Wang family could see, she gave Xu Dalan a malicious smile, turned and trotted all the way into the outpatient department.

Xu Dalan suppressed the scolding that was about to blurt out, looking at Anna Mae Ju's back, a bad premonition suddenly appeared in her heart.

Others don't know, she is very clear.

Her sister-in-law has never been a fuel-efficient lamp.

Just seeing Anna Maeju married into the old Wang's family for 11 years, not even giving birth to half an egg, but still being able to let Wang Lao Er keep guarding her, allowing the old man and the old lady to tolerate her, you know that Anna Maeju is a skillful person.

A few years ago, Xu Dalan stimulated Anna May when she gave birth to a child, and also bullied Anna May on the grounds that she was a great hero of the old Wang family, but it was strange that Anna May seemed to be weak and easy to bully, but she always followed suit. The three sticks who look like people can't beat a fart, but Xu Dalan has never taken advantage of the two sisters.

It was even countered by Anna Mayju many times, so that Mrs. Wang happened to encounter the scene where she bullied Anna May.

Although Xu Dalan gave birth to four grandchildren to the old Wang family, and is a hero of the old Wang family, but the old lady Wang, who is used to controlling everything, really can't see Xu Dalan's arrogance in front of Anna May.

The hero of the old Wang family is amazing, isn't it? Is it possible to have four sons? She even gave birth to five sons and daughters!

Even though Xu Dalan gave birth to four grandchildren, she couldn't be mad in front of her, and she couldn't bully her second daughter-in-law in front of her.

Because of this, every time the old lady saw Xu Dalan bullying Anna Maeju, she would stand by Anna Maeju's side and suppress Xu Dalan with harsh means.

In Mrs. Wang's heart, Xu Dalan and Anna Maeju are the gnocchi in her hands. She can squeeze them as she wants, and she will never allow them to jump around in private, let alone imitate her to clean up.

Since the widow Wang smashed the Wang family and cut off the relationship with her mother's family, Xu Dalan's status in the Wang family plummeted, becoming the lowest existence. Anna Maeju even seized the opportunity to give Xu Dalan eye medicine at the old lady's place.

Looking at Anna Mae Ju's back hurriedly running into the outpatient department at this moment, and thinking of the malicious smile on Anna Mae Ju's face, the chills on Xu Dalan's body stood up.

Anna May, who killed a thousand knives, must want to take the opportunity to plot against her again!

At this time, Anna Mae, who was being cursed by Xu Dalan, searched for the figure of Widow Wang from ward to ward in the corridor. It was not until she reached the small ward at the end of the corridor that she saw the people from Lao Yun's family and a woman in a white coat. Doctors stand together.

The door to the ward is open,

Anna Mae didn't dare to show her head, so she had to stand tightly against the wall and listen to the movement inside with her ears up.

In the ward, Han Weihong asked Yun Shuilian to hold Widow Wang's arms tightly, stepped forward to take a closer look at Widow Wang's eyelids, and tried to ask Widow Wang a few questions, but after getting no response, Han Weihong sighed and shook his head.

Seeing that Han Weihong's face was not good-looking, Yun Shuilian's heart also raised, "Sister Weihong, can my sister-in-law be cured?"

"It's hard to say, there is no medicine for madness right now, and there is little hope of recovery."

Yun Shuilian's face suddenly collapsed. If this disease can be cured, Widow Wang will be able to marry and live, but if it can't be cured, Widow Wang will be very pitiful for the rest of her life.

Even if she goes back to her parents' home, life will not be easy in the future.

The old couple of the Wang family love their little girl, but they can take good care of her when they are alive, but after all, the two of them are too old. If one day they let go, and the two brothers of the Wang family are separated, only Xu Dalan and Anna Mae are virtuous, why? It may raise a little sister-in-law who has been married twice, has a bad reputation, is mad, and does not work or eat.

At that time, the question of whether the widow Wang will stay or not will be the big trouble.

If the two brothers of the Wang family were careful, they might reserve a room for her at the old Wang's house, and then take turns to feed her.

If she loses her conscience a little bit, she might even let Xu Dalan pull the strings and sell Widow Wang to the bachelor's nest in Houyashan.

Thinking of this, Yun Shuilian felt even more uncomfortable.

She hated Widow Wang, and was angry that she deliberately treated Sangnan harshly, but no matter how angry she was, she didn't want to see her end up like this in the rest of her life.

When the eldest brother was still there, Widow Wang was very kind to the family, and even treated her as a sister. When she went to school in the town, Widow Wang always secretly opened a small stove for her, and would buy her a head rope, clam oil, embroidered insoles for her, and used her private money to pull a cotton-padded jacket for her.

She's not a bastard who can't tell the difference, she keeps all these things in mind.

I thought that Uncle Han could find a home for Widow Wang, and he sent it away from afar. I won't see it again in the future, and I don't have to worry about it and resent it at the same time, but who would have thought that she would go crazy at this juncture.

Yun Shuilian felt uncomfortable in her heart, and her eyes quickly turned red, "My sister-in-law's illness was caused by her mother's family. If she relieved her anger, would it be better?"

"It's not good to say, otherwise you go back and try, just don't have any hope."

Yun Shuilian stopped talking, and Yun Erchuan was even more silent. Anna Mae Ju outside the house heard the question that the old lady was most concerned about, covered her pounding heart, and slipped away lightly.

Unexpectedly, the apex of the old lady's heart is really crazy, and Xu Dalan is still mad. If the old lady hears it, she will not be able to tear Xu Dalan alive.
