Chapter 421: Means

"Second Brother Gu, it's snowing so hard, and the designated road is closed outside. I can't go back to the village tomorrow, what should I do?" After taking back the recorder, Yun Shang shook her wet down jacket as she watched the snowflakes falling bigger and bigger. , said with a worried face. In this kind of weather, the mule cart can't run very far, and the wheels will be filled with snow, making it impossible to go on the road at all. Counting on her short legs, starting in the morning, it is estimated that she will not be home until noon, and it is too much to suffer outside in the cold all morning. "A-Shang, we can't delay the food relief. Second brother will accompany you back after two days of work." Gu Shinian said, putting his coat against the wall, and took out dozens of recordings from his bag. The pens were spread out on the kang table one by one. Yunshang responded, and climbed onto the kang. Before Gu Shinian could react, he brought the kang table into the space, turned on a recording pen, and said excitedly, "Second brother, let's listen to the leaders today. What did you say?" Look at how many scoundrels there are among these leaders, and they will all be dealt with this time. Seeing that it was getting late, Gu Shinian worried that Yunshang would not be able to rest well, so he threatened her solemnly, "A-Shang, don't you want to have long legs? You won't grow up if you stay up late..." Before he finished speaking, Yunshang's face His expression froze there, he lowered his head and turned off the recorder, and pulled Gu Shinian out of the space without saying a word. Seeing that Gu Shinian was holding back his smile so much that the corners of his mouth twitched, Yun Chang gave him a hard look, pulled the curtain behind him, turned and got into bed. sleep! She will have long legs in the future, so she can't stay up late. The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth could not help but curl up. He leaned against the quilt, put on the earphones, and listened to the contents of the recorder one by one. When Yun Chang woke up, it was already bright outside. When she turned her head, she found that Gu Shinian was lying on the edge of the kang table, stuffing the letter paper in her hand and the pictures that had been printed out into the envelope together. "Second Brother Gu, is this letter for the person surnamed Zhu?" "Yes," Gu Shinian replied, rubbing his sore eyelids from staying up late and saying, "I'll find someone to deliver the letter to the person surnamed Zhu later." In the past, whether this matter can be accomplished this time will have the answer at night." Yun Shang didn't expect Gu Shinian to be so efficient, so she rolled over from the bed and sat up, and asked in surprise, "Second brother, you you you ...Have you stayed up late to listen to the recording?" Didn't you scare me by saying that you won't grow up if you stay up late? Why did you stay up all night secretly? Could it be that you want to be a little dwarf? Gu Shinian didn't know that Yun Shang's focus was wrong, and while pasting the envelope, he talked about the content in his voice recorder. "Our previous analysis was correct. The reason why the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du did not apply for food relief from above was to reduce the burden on the province and to impress the leaders. The chief is in charge. Even if something happens, it is the responsibility of the county magistrate. The secretary will be reprimanded at most, and it will not have much impact..." "What about the county magistrate? Even if the county magistrate is sick, he can Send someone to apply for relief food from above?" Yun Shang interrupted Gu Shinian and asked. Gu Shinian was silent for a while, and then said, "The county magistrate sent someone to write an application report to the higher authorities. He applied twice. He just listened to the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du. Neither of these two application reports was sent to the district. The government." Yun Chang's eyes widened,

"Did they move their hands and feet?" "Well," Gu Shinian responded, and continued, "I listened to the recording of Deputy County Magistrate Du's office, and I also heard a situation. Spring sowing, the emergence rate in the field is not high, the county magistrate applied for a batch of replanted seeds from the district, but as soon as the batch of seeds arrived in the county, the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du sold them to other counties first. Selling seeds With the money, let those two decide to buy the steel." Yun Shang didn't know what to say. These two are just messing around! It has been 1961, and the country has not engaged in large-scale steelmaking for a long time. As a result, these two people are still tossing about steel, and they even exchanged the grain allocated to the common people for money. They also don't think about it. If there are no grain seeds, the common people will have no food to eat, and people will starve to death. How can they carry out construction? Yunshang asked angrily, "Then the county magistrate didn't sue the district?"

However, the tasks of the steel mills in various places are still heavy. All the steel purchased in the county has supported the construction of the inter-provincial bridge this year, which is contributing to the construction of the country. The road built in the first half of the year, including the bridge and the newly built aluminum factory, are the only two key projects in the province this year. Anything that encounters these two projects must give way. In this case, even if the county magistrate appeals, at most the secretary will be reprimanded, and nothing serious will happen. But if he met a leader who was as radical as the secretary, the county magistrate's appeal might be reprimanded by the leader in turn. Without complete assurance, the county magistrate could only accept this dumb loss. "Yun Shang was so angry that her eyes were about to sparkle, and her small chest was wheezing, "These two people are really damned!" First, they took out the grain seeds sown by the common people in spring and gave themselves credit for it. Then they tried to block the county's report on the application for relief grain and prevent the above from distributing relief grain. They are going to starve to death the people of the county! Second brother, this kind of secretary who doesn't care about the lives of ordinary people, we must pull him down! Don't let him off so easily! " Gu Shinian brought over Yunshang's cotton-padded jacket that had been baked by the stove, and while helping her dress, he said, "These two things alone may not necessarily bring down the secretary. "Yun Shang frowned, and said dissatisfiedly, "He is going to starve to death of the common people, how can the higher up protect him?" "A Chang, as I said just now, building roads and building bridges are key projects in the province. The secretary donated steel in the name of the county to share the country's worries and contribute to key projects in the province. At the top, it is at most a demerit, not an unforgivable mistake. Besides, the county magistrate has always been in charge of agricultural matters. If the secretary made a big mistake on the issue of grain seeds, then the county magistrate who did not keep the grain seeds would also be considered a minor mistake and should be punished as well. Also, the application report for the relief food has not been sent to the district, and it will only be the responsibility of the county magistrate to investigate, and the secretary will criticize one by one at most, and it is not even a bone injury... A Chang, what we found too late. "Yunshang was dumbfounded. Is this the method of people who play politics? It's like killing people without blood, and killing people doesn't pay for their lives. The county magistrate has been in politics for many years, why is it forced to this point? Yunshang bowed her head and passed It took a while before he opened his mouth and said, "Second brother, since it's not enough to play shady schemes, then we'll play shady ones. This kind of person who takes the lives of ordinary people in the county as a trifling matter for his own future is not worthy of being an official. "

Chapter 422 Transmission

Gu Shinian: "Don't worry, I have a plan here."

Seeing Yun Chang's eyes brighten up, Gu Shinian rubbed her head amusedly, "I'll go out later, have someone deliver the letter to Zhu, and try to take a picture of the secretary."

Knowing that Gu Shinian had business to do, Yun Shang stopped procrastinating and refusing to get up, pushed Qiu Qiu out of the bed, and quickly folded the quilt.

After breakfast, he hugged Qiuqiu again, laying his two round heads on the window together, watching Gu Shinian leave the house obediently.

"Dingling...jingling..."

In the county government building, a loud phone rang in the office of the head of the secretarial group.

The middle-aged man dressed simply and with a serious face put down the newspaper, picked up the phone, and after hearing clearly what the other person said, he quickly put down the phone, walked outside the office, and knocked on the desk near the door.

"Chen Li, are you feeling unwell today? Your younger brother is here to deliver sick meals to you, so he's waiting at the guard. Go down and have a look."

Chen Li raised her head in confusion. When did she get sick?

There is only one extremely lazy father in the family, and four younger brothers who are invisible all day long. Today is not the weekend, and the younger brothers have to go to school. Her lazy father doesn't even bother to get off the bed in this weather. Who will give her a gift? meal?

And it's sick food.

Chen Li was full of doubts, grabbed the scarf on the back of the chair, and quickly went downstairs to the guard.

"You, are you Chen Li?"

As soon as he approached the gate of the county government, he saw a six or seven-year-old boy running over from the gatehouse, holding a large oiled paper bag in his hand, and holding a big snow-white meat bun, gnawing hungrily.

Seeing the little boy's dark fingers and the black finger prints on the bun, Chen Li frowned unconsciously, and a look of disgust flashed in her eyes, "Yes, I am Chen Li, baby, you know me younger brother?"

"I don't know." The boy shook his head, tried his best to swallow the bun in his mouth, and stuffed the tightly wrapped oil paper bag into Chen Li's arms, "Your brother gave me a bun and asked me to send the patient's meal to Chen Li. In your hands..."

Chen Li held the oil-paper bag with a dark skin in both hands, and looked at the figure of the boy running away, feeling even more puzzled.

Why is this so weird?

The younger brothers in her family, seeing the delicious food, wanted to stuff it all in their mouths, so they were not willing to give her a bite.

Why are you suddenly sensible today?

Who on earth sent this oiled paper bag to her?

Chen Li opened the oiled paper bag as she walked back. The first time she saw what was inside, she froze there.

Didn't you mean the sick meal?

Why are these two buns?

If I'm not mistaken, there seems to be tooth marks on the Wowotou?

That shiny thing is snot? Or drool?

Chen Li almost vomited out in disgust.

Thinking of the white bread in the boy's hand, he wondered whether the contents of the oiled paper bag had been dropped by the boy.

Otherwise, who's patient's meal is the steamed bread that the two have eaten, and the reward for running errands is really white flour meat buns?

This is not a bag drop, what is it?

Thinking of this, Chen Li's face turned dark immediately, and she subconsciously wanted to chase the boy back, but just as she turned her head, she saw an envelope of the same color lying under the oiled paper bag out of the corner of her eye.

Chen Li wrapped the two buns in oiled paper with a look of disgust, stuffed them into her pocket, and then opened the envelope.

The first thing that catches the eye is an enlarged photo, a man and a woman, hugging each other naked, even the man's hand is still pressing on the woman's chest, and his body is pressing the woman tightly against the table.

Although it was a black and white photo, because of the pixels, the faces on the photo were very clear, and even the subtle expressions on the woman's face were vividly captured.

Seeing the photo of her having an affair, Chen Li turned pale, staggered, and almost fell to the ground.

Where did this photo come from! ?

Who took the sneak shot?

It's over! The matter between her and Director Zhu was discovered!

Will she be paraded through the streets with broken shoes,

Will he be criticized, will he be sent to a labor camp...

Chen Li was so frightened that her hands and feet became weak, and she rubbed it several times before crumpling the photo into a ball and stuffing it into the pocket of the cotton coat inside.

Finding that there was still a piece of paper in the envelope, Chen Li shook her hand and pulled out the letter piece by piece.

Seeing that the other party asked her to tell Director Zhu about the photos, and asked Director Zhu to go to the place designated by the other party to get the letter, Chen Li didn't dare to waste any more time, so she hurried upstairs, picked up the half-written manuscript on the table, and went to Director Zhu office gone...

At the same time, the boy who delivered the letter to Chen Li also found Gu Shinian, looked at the meat bun in his hand without blinking, swallowed and said:

"I gave it to your sister, and you agreed to give me another meat bun..."

"Have you asked clearly, is your name Chen Li? Wearing a red scarf?" Gu Shinian asked.

The boy nodded affirmatively again, "I asked, his name is Chen Li, and he has a red scarf around his neck."

This elder brother is really interesting. He delivered the sick meal to his sister, but replaced the meat buns in the oil paper bag with the rough flour steamed bread that he had eaten half in his hand. He also wrapped the steamed bread and asked him to send it to the patient.

I'm afraid this sister is not dear, is she?

Hearing this, Gu Shinian happily gave the bun to the boy, and in order to praise him for doing a good job, he even gave him two extra fruit candies.

Probably because he was worried that Gu Shinian would repent, the boy took the bun, stuffed it into his mouth, and then ran home without even daring to turn his head.

Gu Shinian found a shelter from the wind, wrapped his clothes tightly around his body, and stared at the gate of the county government without blinking.

It wasn't until Director Zhu came out with his leather bag between his pockets and walked towards the place where the letter was stored, that Gu Shinian fastened his hat and followed him leisurely.

Director Zhu's face was so ugly right now, even though it was windy and snowy outside, the cold sweat on his head kept breaking out.

If Chen Li hadn't taken out the crumpled photo, he would almost have thought she was talking nonsense.

The two of them have never been alone in front of people on weekdays, and even if they meet secretly occasionally, they will do it very covertly, so that they will not arouse suspicion at all.

How did this thing get out?

What surprised him even more was that the photo was taken too clearly, and the location where the photo was taken was too weird.

Looking at the location where the photo was taken, the person was standing in the office of the Secretariat, but there were only three desks and three chairs in that office. They will close the doors and windows tightly. How did that person take this photo?

Who is this person?

He threatened him with a photo, what exactly was he trying to do?

Chapter 423 Threat

Looking at the contents of the letter and the photos clearly, Director Zhu's complexion was pale, as if someone had poured a basin of ice water over his head, and even the slightest chill oozes from the crevices of his bones. Before opening the envelope, he thought that the other party was just trying to extort some money to spend, but he never expected that the other party would ask him to report and expose the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du to stop the county to apply for a food relief report when the investigation team came down. ! And you have to make a real-name report! This is to ask him to openly betray the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du. So, it is very likely that the person who caught him had a grudge against the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du? In Manqinghe County, who doesn't know that the county magistrate and the secretary are at odds. The county magistrate is most likely responsible for what happened this time! Yunshang and Gu Shinian didn't know that Director Zhu had targeted the county magistrate with suspicion. Of course, even if they knew, the two of them wouldn't care. Seeing that the county magistrate is about to be splashed with dirty water by the secretary, once director Zhu comes forward to report the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du, the pot of dirty water will immediately be poured back on the secretary's head, and the county magistrate will become the direct beneficiary. If he doesn't do anything, he can lie on the hospital bed and win, so what's wrong with being a scapegoat? Besides, even if there is no such scapegoat, the secretary's faction will not let him go. Director Zhu was sweating even more on his forehead at the moment, standing in the wind, soon even his calves started to spin. The county magistrate is trying to kill him! Over the years, he has helped the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du a lot. If he really dared to stab the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du face to face, the two of them would be able to deal with him backhanded. What career will there be in the future? But the letter clearly stated that if he didn't do this, the photos of him having an affair with Chen Li would be posted all over the streets and alleys of Qinghe County. Chen Li's partner is the People's Liberation Army. If this matter really gets serious, it won't end so easily. At that time, let alone his official career, whether he can save his life is still a matter of two. Almost in the blink of an eye, Director Zhu made a decision in his heart. No matter how important an official career is, it is not as important as one's own life. What's the use of career if you lose your life? Director Zhu wiped the cold sweat off his brow, looked around, made a mark according to the instructions on the letter, and quickly turned and left. Gu Shinian's eyes fell behind Director Zhu, and he saw him go a while, turn into the small alley in front of him, and soon turn around another alley, hide at the entrance of the alley, and look at the place he just made a mark from afar. Gu Shinian twitched one corner of his mouth, a sarcasm flashed in his eyes, he turned and left, leaving Director Zhu blowing the cold wind at the entrance of the alley. Yun Shang had already thought about it, she wanted to stay at home quietly and wait for Gu Shinian to come back, but after eating lunch alone, she still couldn't sit still, and she especially wanted Gu Shinian... No, yes I especially wanted to know if Director Zhu had taken the bait, and also wanted to know what method Gu Shinian had thought up to bring down the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du. After igniting the soul of gossip, Yun Chang was so impatient that she could hardly sit still, wandering around the room, touching here and there, without stopping. Qiuqiu followed Yunshang, wandered around the room for a long time, and finally couldn't help but straightened up, hugged Yunshang's calf, and kept screaming "meow meow". "You miss Brother Gu too, don't you?" Yunshang picked up Qiuqiu, rubbed its furry head, and sat by the stove, talking to Qiuqiu while warming up. Qiuqiu also cooperated, squatting on Yunshang's lap, tilting his head, staring at his round eyes, talking to Yunshang very lively. After Gu Shinian entered the door, he saw a lively and serious scene of one person and one cat talking, and a smile appeared in his eyes unconsciously. The moment she saw Gu Shinian, Yun Chang subconsciously dropped the ball in her hand, jumped over and hugged Gu Shinian and didn't let go. "Second brother! Why did you come back! Is it cold outside? Are you hungry? Have you eaten yet..." "I ate two buns, have you eaten yet?" Gu Shinian caught Yun Shang and took her with him. Sitting down by the stove, Qiuqiu yelled "Aww" to Yunshang dissatisfied, then leaned over again and lay down on her lap. Yun Chang nodded, unconsciously scratching Qiuqiu's head with his hand, staring at Gu Shinian with shining eyes, "Really not, did the surname Zhu take the bait?" Gu Shinian couldn't help pinching Squeeze Yun Chang's round face,

He smiled and said, "Don't worry, there are photos, the surname Zhu dare not be disobedient." Director Zhu is not a fool. If you are obedient, you can continue to be an official in the future. If you are not obedient, you may even lose your life. How to choose is an obvious thing. Gu Shinian talked about the letter he sent to Director Zhu, then took out the camera from his pocket, and showed Yun Shang two photos, "This is a photo of the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du. I will use the computer at night. Fix the picture, it will be useful in the future." Yun Shang leaned over to take a look, then quickly retracted her eyes with disinterest, and continued to stare at her round eyes and asked Gu Shinian: "Second Brother Gu, what should we do next? What plan do you have?" Zhu's side is settled, but he has to have a chance to talk to the right people above, so that he can expose the good deeds done by the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du, right? Even if Director Zhu can wait slowly, those people who have stopped cooking can't wait, and besides, Chen Li's partner will come back soon, so they have to get rid of the matter between Chen Li and Director Zhu before they get married. "It's almost the end of the year, and it's time for the provinces and regions to arrange people to come down to investigate and visit. An aluminum factory was built in Fenyang this year, and the inter-provincial bridge is in Qinghe County. The above should arrange people to come down. The first stop should be Fenyang and Hebei. County. I listened to the recording yesterday, and the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du got together to discuss and plan to borrow a chef from the state-owned restaurant. When the inspection team comes down the day after tomorrow, let the chef come to the county party committee cafeteria to help cook." "So, Director Zhu will be able to report the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du the day after tomorrow?" Yunshang's eyes lit up, and then she couldn't help laughing when she thought that the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du were going to borrow the chef to flatter the inspection team. . "These two people are really... so good at making money." Gu Shinian also laughed, pinched Yun Shang's round face, glanced at the gloomy sky outside, and said: "The inspection team will come here the day after tomorrow. , How about I accompany you back to the village tomorrow? Take the asphalt road, and you should be there in three hours." It's been two days since I've been back in Qinghe County, and it's really time to go back to Lao Yun's house. Besides, we sent so much food to the village the day before yesterday, so we should go back and see what the old village chief arranged and whether that batch of food was distributed to the villagers. Hearing what Gu Shinian said, Yunshang immediately checked the time and found that it was not yet three o'clock in the afternoon, so she ran to the window to look out, turned her head, and said excitedly, "Second Brother Gu, the snow has stopped , shall we go back to the village now?"

Chapter 424: Back to the Village

After all, Gu Shinian still couldn't hold back Yunshang, so he had to pack up his things, left a note for Zhang Chunni, and took Yunshang to Xinglin Village. It snowed almost non-stop for two days, and the snow on the road was nearly a foot thick. Yun Chang stepped on it, and it was difficult for her to pull her legs. Before she left the county town, she hung on Gu Shinian like a sloth and did not move. . Gu Shinian was helpless and amused, put the military bag on his chest, squatted down, and signaled Yunshang to climb up. Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she put the ball on her shoulder, jumped up, hugged Gu Shinian's neck tightly and didn't let go. "Second Brother Gu, I have short legs and I can't walk fast. If you drive alone, you can reach the village in at most two hours." Yun Shang shamelessly made an excuse for her lazy behavior, as if she was cheap and paid for it. Acting like a good boy. The two were rushing against the wind at this time, worried that Yunshang's stomach would hurt from the cool wind, Gu Shinian slapped Yunshang's butt hard, and after scolding her not to speak, lowered his head, and walked forward at a faster pace . Since the two of them came to this world, while paying attention to strengthening nutrition, Gu Shinian has also been insisting on exercising his body. Now he is much taller than many of his peers, and his physical fitness is also stronger than his peers. At this time, walking on the thick snow and carrying the light cloud clothes on your back is no different from walking on the flat bottom. Yun Chang was slapped, shut her mouth obediently, wrapped her head and face tightly with a scarf, leaned against Gu Shinian's back and did not move. Probably because of the bad weather, the two of them didn't see a single person along the way. Even in the villages beside the road, there were no children coming out to play snowball fights. Gu Shinian's speed was much faster than Yunshang expected, and he brought Yunshang into the village before the sky darkened. The old lady was about to come out to catch firewood, and as soon as she walked out of the courtyard, she heard Yunshang's cheerful and clear voice: "Grandma! Grandma! I'm back! Grandma, I'm coming back to see you!" The old lady rubbed her hands in disbelief. After rubbing her eyes and confirming that she saw the right person, she hurriedly greeted Yun Shang, "Ouch! My sweet girl! I want to die! Slow down, run slowly, don't fall." Hugging the old lady in his arms, he twisted his whole body and rubbed against the old lady's arms, "Grandma, I miss you, do you miss me?" "I want! I want to!" Chang's little head greeted Gu Shinian who was following him, stopped grabbing firewood, and pulled Yun Shang into the courtyard gate. "Old man! Old man! Come out and see who's back!" As soon as the words fell, the old man and Shuan Zi also appeared at the door of the main room one after the other. Seeing Yun Shang, both faces showed pleasant smiles at the same time. "Shangnan is back! Shi Nian's son is here too, hurry up, come in..." "Sister, sister, sister..." The old man and Shuanzi spoke at the same time, and Shuanzi even jumped off the threshold, hugging excitedly. Live in Yunshang. Yun Chang squeezed Shuanzi's face, and called out to the old man loudly, "Master! I'm back to see you and my grandma!" "It's good to be back, good to be back," the old man repeated subconsciously Two sentences, and then continued, "It just so happens that the family just distributed a sack of fine grains, and asked your grandma to bake white flour pancakes for you and Shinianwazi." The old lady also smiled and said, "My Changnan has a lot of food, grandma I just ground white flour yesterday, and I happened to make something delicious for Changnan.".....

..... Gu Shinian still couldn't hold back Yun Shang, so he had to pack up his things , left a note for Zhang Chunni, and took Yunshang to Xinglin Village. Chapter 425 Warm

These are extremely rare things!

Besides fabrics, which one is not a treasure that even the people in the city are rare?

Leather shoes with fur inside, I have never even heard of them before, let alone worn them. There is also wild boar and bear meat. In their territory, there are no such big guys, and they can't eat this kind of game.

As for milk powder, it is even rarer, even the hospitals in the city are extremely out of stock, and Changnan actually bought so much for Xiao Heiwa.

It's a pity that no matter how much milk powder you eat, you can't raise the black skin of Bai Xiaohai.

Yunshang also got into the bag and took out things. There were high-end pastries specially provided by the army, white rice with white flowers, various grains and beans packed tightly, and a jar full of rapeseed oil. .

In the end, he took out a brand new small military uniform from inside and showed it to the old lady, "Grandma, this is the small military uniform I prepared for Shuanzi. Look, are you in good spirits!?"

The old lady stared straight at her, held her sleeves, touched them lovingly, and kept muttering, "Spiritual, really energetic, the fabric is so tight, the color is also good-looking, and the clothes are designed to look good."

Shuanzi also came over, looking at the small military uniform with shining eyes, and stretched out his hand, touched it carefully, and then looked at Yunshang with surprise, "Sister, it looks good!"

"Can't it look good? It's such a good fabric, it's still a military uniform, so many children in the city can't wear it..."

The old lady didn't finish muttering a word, and immediately drooped the corners of her mouth, and said with a worried face, "Oh, you silly girl, why are you so honest? You can just come back, what are you doing with all these old things? Talk about you. Tell me, how can we use such good things in this village to make a mess of them."

The point is, Changnan is a little doll, and every time she comes back with so many good things, how can the Baishou and his wife feel at ease?

It's been a long time, what can Bao Dai Changnan do?

The old man also answered from the side, "Yes, these are all precious things, and they are hard to find in the city. Our family can't accept so many things from Mr. Bai's house. Changnan is obedient, and your grandma and I can't return them." Take the things, and the other things will be taken back to Chief Bai's house when we go back."

Originally Chief Bai didn't like to see Lao Yun's family very much. Once Chang Nan came back, it was like a bandit going down the mountain. Once he scraped the land of Chief Bai's house, wouldn't Chief Bai look down on Lao Yun's family even more?

If he really annoyed Chief Bai's family and refused to let Chang Nan come back, wouldn't he and the old woman lose sight of their granddaughter?

Yun Chang didn't know what the old couple was worrying about, so he put the small military uniform on Shuan Zi's forehead, leaned in front of the old lady, and said with a smile:

"Grandma, grandma, my mother won't say anything about me! These beans and oil, as well as milk powder, leather shoes, and fabrics, were all prepared by me and Brother Gu early in the morning, and brought back to honor you. My mother doesn't know..."

"What?" The old lady became anxious, looking at the things on the kang, she unconsciously leaned forward, "Shangnan! You child, tell grandma, are you going to the black market with Shi Nianwazi again? Ouch! Why are these two kids so bold? What if something goes wrong?"

Yun Chang didn't expect the old lady to be so anxious, she was stunned for a long time, then turned her head and looked at Gu Shinian pitifully.

Gu Shinian coughed dryly, covered the smile on his lips, and said, "Grandma Yun, A-Shang and I found someone to exchange for these things, and they didn't buy them on the black market. Don't worry, I won't buy them now that the inspections are strict outside. Take A-Shang out to mess around."

"That's good, that's good..." The old lady stroked her chest, and let out a long sigh of relief, "Shangnan, in the future, you have to listen to the words of the child of the year, so you can't go to the black market, do you understand?"

"Grandma, I understand." Yun Chang nodded obediently.

It was getting late now, the old lady took a look at the blue sky outside, sent the old man out to grab firewood for the fire, scooped up white flour, and prepared to bake white flour cakes for the two of them to eat.

Yunshang circled around the old lady's legs, talking non-stop, the stickiness was exactly the same as when Qiuqiu was sticking to people.

Seeing that Yunshang was so clingy to her, the old lady was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth, and the movements of kneading noodles became more and more neat, for fear that the cooking time would be too long, and the little granddaughter who hadn't come home for a long time would be so hungry.

"Grandma, my grandfather said that there was a sack of fine grain distributed to the family. Is it the grain distributed by our village?"

The old lady: "Yes! The village chief called your father to go to the brigade headquarters in the middle of the night, and when he came back, he carried a sack of grain, saying that the grain was borrowed from outside the village, and he would have to pay it back..."

"Borrow food?"

Yun Chang was stunned, looked back at Gu Shinian, and ran over to ask the old man who was burning the fire, "Master, didn't the village chief say where to borrow the food?"

The note left by her and Gu Shinian clearly stated that this batch of food was given to the villagers. If the village head said so, would it be possible that the villagers really want the food back in the future?

But who is the village chief planning to return this batch of grain to?

The old man slowed down the speed of pulling the bellows, and said, "I also asked, the village chief didn't say where to borrow the grain, but said that the grain is not in a hurry to pay back, and when the future is better, the wages will be directly deducted from the wages. "

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief.

So, does the village chief regard this batch of grain as the collective property of the village?

That's good too, buying grain last year basically cleared up the bottom of the village stalls, and this batch of grain was used as collective property, which just happened to enrich the small coffers of the village.

After inquiring about the food, Yun Chang stopped pestering the old couple and climbed onto the kang, playing with Gu Shinian to play with Xiao Hei Wa.

The old lady quickly baked a few thin scallion pancakes, and as soon as they came out of the pan, the smell of scallions and noodles filled the room.

Shuanzi wrinkled his nose and sniffed vigorously. Seeing the old lady put the cake on the kang table, he hurriedly offered a treasure, and pulled Yunshang and Gu Shinian to the kang table and sat down.

Yunshang took the pancakes handed over by the old lady, took a big bite, her eyes lit up in surprise, and she gave the old lady a thumbs up, "Grandma! The pancakes you baked are so delicious! They are better than those made by Aunt Wu. The pancakes are delicious!"

She is not just coaxing the old lady to play.

The skill of the old lady's pancakes is really amazing. The pancakes are crispy on the outside and tender on the inside, with a slight burnt aroma. When you bite into it, it is so delicious that you can't wait to swallow your tongue.

The craftsmanship was recognized by her granddaughter, and the old lady frowned with joy, and put the newly baked pancakes in front of Yunshang again, urging her to eat more.

Shuanzi was also very sensible, tore off more than half of the pancake in his hand, and put it in front of Yunshang...

When the dinner was about to end, Gu Shinian lightly touched Yun Shang who was devouring her food, and gave her a wink.

After receiving Gu Shinian's signal, Yunshang quickly sat up straight and asked the old lady, "Grandma, has my mother in Qiancun still not heard from her? Is the house in Qiancun still vacant?"

Chapter 426

Probably because they were worried about her meddling in Widow Wang's case, the old couple actually called Gu Shinian to tell Gu Shinian about Widow Wang's matter after Widow Wang was taken away by the police for more than a month, and asked Gu Shinian to hand over the matter to Wang Widow in Lin County. Dispose of the small yard prepared by the widow.

Worried that she would annoy Bai Yancheng, he also urged Gu Shinian to stop her and not let her entrust Bai Yancheng to intervene in the case of Widow Wang.

How did the old couple know that she and Gu Shinian had single-handedly facilitated the case of Widow Wang, even if the old couple didn't talk about it, she would never ask about Widow Wang's affairs again.

It's just that she came back with great difficulty. If she didn't even mention Widow Wang, the old couple would have to think about it again while lying in bed at night.

The most important thing is that after Widow Wang's accident, the blue brick and large tiled house in the family was vacant. Logically speaking, that house should belong to Lao Yun's family, but it has been several months, why hasn't it moved to the front? live in the village?

You know, the walls of the main room of Lao Yun's old house were cracked, and when the wind blew outside, there was a draft in the main room, and all kinds of whistles were kept playing, which sounded intrusive, and it was time to move.

Could it be that Lao Wang's family came out to make trouble again and robbed Lao Yun's house of Qiancun?

The old lady and the old man glanced at each other and sighed together.

Seeing Yun Chang staring at her with a stern face, the old lady put down the cake in her hand and sighed, "Your grandfather went to the county last month, and your Uncle Haiyang said that Wang Osmanthus and The Enemy is a gang, and they have done more bad things than Shen Yuegui, so don't inquire about it in the future, just pretend that there is no such person as Wang Guihua."

Damn Wang Osmanthus! It's fine to recruit men to the house every day, why is she so bold that she dares to recruit even enemy agents?

If she dares to hang out with enemy agents and help enemy agents, even if she has ten heads, she won't be able to save her life.

Besides, although there is probably not enough to eat these days, at least there is no war, and the peasants are still in charge of their own affairs.

It's such a good day, but if you hang out with enemy agents and help enemy agents wreak havoc, what is it if you're not courting death?

Fortunately, Lao Yun's family had separated from Wang Guihua's family early on, so no matter how good she was, Lao Yun's family would not be involved.

The old man picked up the empty cigarette bag, lowered his head, took two puffs, and said with a sad face, "Shangnan, something happened to the old Wang's house. The house in our former village can't be used for the time being."

Yun Chang frowned,

With a small face, he asked the old man, "Master, what happened to the old Wang's house? Something happened to his house, why can't we live in our house?"

"Hmph!" The old lady turned cold, rolled the old man's eyes hard, and said angrily, "The old lady Wang is gone, she was killed by Xu Dalan. Old man Wang suspected that old lady Wang was a murderer, so he took old lady Wang with her. Er and He Meiju moved into Qiancun without shame and refused to leave! What a bunch of bad cowards, there is no good thing."

Yun Chang was dumbfounded.

What did the old lady say?

Mrs. Wang is dead!

Xu Dalan is the murderer! ! !

Old man Wang was afraid of being implicated by Mr. Wang's family, so he took Mr. Wang and Mr. Wang away from home, and stayed at Wang Guihua's house.

This is also... so explosive!

Yun Chang immediately sat up straight, leaned in front of the old couple, and asked gossip, "Master, grandma, what's going on? Tell me quickly!"

The old man doesn't like to gossip, he paused for a while, and said, "I can't say it well, let your grandma tell you."

With his stupid mouth, he has never said that he has won against the old woman in his life, so let the old woman tell stories to Changnan.

Yun Chang turned around very obediently, and looked at the old lady eagerly, "Grandma, my grandfather can't tell, tell me quickly, what's going on with the old Wang's family."

The old lady glanced at the old man proudly, cleared her throat, and said:

"The old Wang's family had a bunch of heartless things. Wang Guihua let the police take them away, and then made a fuss in the town. In front of the town leaders, the family severed ties with Wang Guihua.

Mrs. Wang's hip was broken, and she could not move while lying on the kang. When Xu Dalan came back from the town, she told Mrs. Wang about Wang Guihua in a more eloquent way.

It is said that Wang Guihua has committed a serious crime and stole many people. She was sued, wore a high hat in the county and paraded through the streets, and was sentenced by the police to be shot. He also said that old man Wang took his family to the town, severed ties with Wang Guihua in front of the leader, and exposed many things about Wang Guihua.

How could Mrs. Wang bear this? She tore and bitten on the kang and scolded old man Wang for being inhumane. She said that when she recovered, she would go to the town to sue old man Wang, and wanted old man Wang to taste what it was like to go to jail.

He scolded the two sons for being inhuman, and his sister was in trouble, so he shrank his head and didn't say anything, and followed old man Wang to break the relationship with his sister.

They also scolded Xu Dalan as the reincarnation of the mourning star, and the four sons he gave birth to are also little broom stars. They wanted the boss to divorce Xu Dalan, saying that they wanted to marry the boss of the Wang family to an obedient wife.

Hey... Mrs. Wang was making a lot of noise, Xu Dalan guessed that she was frightened, and while the family was at work, she sneaked back and wanted to cover Mrs. Wang to death with a pillow, but unfortunately, the villagers saw it and caught her..."

"Ah!?" Yun Chang's eyes widened in surprise, "Grandma, did Xu Dalan do it alone?"

"The people in the village saw that Xu Dalan came back alone to do the work, but behind the scenes, everyone was talking about it, saying that Old Man Wang pushed Xu Dalan to do it, otherwise how could he think of it with Xu Dalan's brain? To suffocate Mrs. Wang to death."

Isn't Xu Dalan doing this because she is worried that Boss Wang will divorce her? But no matter how bad the reputation of divorce is, it will die, at most it will be judged by others, and it will not be a good life.

But she was confused and wanted to smother Mrs. Wang to death, but she didn't even think about it. With her little ability, how could the police fail to catch her?

At that time, not only will Boss Wang be able to unilaterally divorce her, but she will also have to pay for Mrs. Wang's life.

Yun Shang covered her thumping little heart, and continued to ask the old lady, "Grandma, then, did Mrs. Wang really hurt Xu Dalan at that time?"

"That's not true." The old lady's tone softened, "It didn't take long for Xu Dalan to cover it, and someone from the village came to the door. But Mrs. Wang's body is weak, and Xu Dalan's face was covered with bruises in just that moment. There is not much air coming in yet."

"Then what happened next?" Yun Shang continued to ask.

"Xu Dalan was sent to the town at that time, and Mrs. Wang was also frightened into a fool. She wasn't dead, but she couldn't breathe. It's no different from being dead.

The old Wang's family is another bunch of heartless things, saying that the family has no money, so they don't send Mrs. Wang to the hospital. Mrs. Wang endured it for a few days, but she still didn't make it through. "Rebirth Sixty Good Times

Chapter 427 Borrowing

Seeing that Yunshang and Gu Shinian were frowning tightly, the old lady turned her body slightly, and said mysteriously, "I heard the people in Xiaowangzhuang secretly muttering, Mrs. Wang might have been killed by old man Wang in the end. On Xu Dalan's head, it is said that Xu Dalan scared Mrs. Wang to death."

Yun Shang felt that her brain was not enough, and she couldn't figure out why the people in Xiaowangzhuang thought so.

The last time I saw everyone in the old Wang family, I felt that old man Wang was very kind to Mrs. Wang, so why did he push Xu Dalan to attack Mrs. Wang?

The little Heiwa snorted a few times, the old lady sent the old man to make milk powder for the little Heiwa, moved away from the side by herself, and continued, "I heard from the people in Xiaowangzhuang that the old man Wang planed before liberation. There should be something hidden in the graveyard, probably because she was worried that Mrs. Wang would be talking nonsense at home and expose this matter, so Xu Dalan was urged to do it."

Yun Chang's eyes widened immediately.

Old man Wang?

Isn't that a tomb robbery!

Old man Wang actually did this?

Thinking of what Widow Wang said, when the original owner passed the full moon, Mrs. Wang took a look at the jade plaque on the original owner's neck, and she could remember it for a year and never let it go.

How many women in ordinary village households can think about a jade brand that they can't eat or drink for a whole year and don't give up?

In this way, it is really possible that old man Wang has dug through the grave and still has something good in his hand.

Yun Chang's eyes flickered for a moment, she randomly retracted her thoughts, and continued to ask the old lady, "Grandma, something happened to the old Wang's house, why don't you leave our house? Didn't the old man sever ties with my mother? He lived here. Are you not afraid of others gossip?"

"It's not a good thing your grandfather did!"

The old lady gave the old man an angry look, rubbed her back molars and said, "That old man Wang is so treacherous! As soon as Mrs. Wang smoked, she sat at the gate and burst into tears. She insisted that Mrs. Wang was killed by Xu Dalan. The old man just argued with him for a few words, then the old man Wang packed up his bags and refused to leave our house.

Your father is so honest, the old man Wang said that we don't want our house, and only use it for one winter. After the Chinese New Year, the second child of the Wang family will move out after building the house, and your father agreed. "

The old man scratched his head embarrassingly, "Well, the old man in his seventies and eighties cried his nose and tears, saying that the old woman was harmed by an unfilial daughter-in-law, and the eldest child thought he had brought her into the town. I watched a few grandsons quarrel with him and even beat him, saying that if we didn't borrow the house, he would have to live on the stage.

I don't like to look at his wrinkled old face, and I really can't wear him, so I have no choice but to agree. "

Thinking of old man Wang with a wrinkled face, crying so hard in front of him, the old man's throat itched in nausea.

He had lived most of his life, and it was the first time he saw an old man crying so disgustingly in front of him.

If he hadn't been frightened by old man Wang's ugliness, and was entangled with him, how could he have agreed to lend a house to Old Wang's family?

The old man felt that he was intimidated by the ugly face of old man Wang, and felt wronged in his heart, and the old lady was also uncomfortable in her heart, so she snorted angrily and turned back:

"Just you are a kind person! The man surnamed Wang drips a few drops of cat urine in front of you and praises you a few words, and you will be so swollen that you don't know your own surname. Let us lend out the workers in Erchuan!"

Being reprimanded by the old lady in front of the juniors, the old man couldn't hold back. He glanced at Yun Shang who was watching the show, and replied in embarrassment, "Look at what you said, how can I do such a stupid thing? Then Isn't it worse than embolism?"

In front of the juniors, please save some face for me.

The old lady choked, her mouth moved, then she lowered her voice and muttered angrily, "But isn't the useless thing you did worse than Shuanzi? How do you know that old man Wang is willing to move out after the Chinese New Year?" Woolen cloth?"

"If he dares to move, I will go to the town and sue him! He has severed ties with Wang Guihua, and even came to borrow a house with our family. Isn't this fooling the leader.

"The old man replied angrily.

Seeing the old couple arguing with each other, Yun Chang was dumbfounded.

She just wanted to hear gossip, but she didn't mean to make the old couple quarrel.

Why is this getting more and more angry?

"Grandma, my grandfather is right. The old Wang family dares to say nothing, so let's go to the town to sue them. The old Wang family dare not play tricks."

Seeing that the old lady's face looked better, Yunshang breathed a sigh of relief, and immediately changed the subject and asked, "Grandma, are you taking care of our little Heiwa? Second aunt... Is Li Hongmei still here to take care of the little Heiwa?"

As soon as the voice fell, the face of the old lady who had just improved a little turned dark again, "I haven't brought it for a long time. It's a crime, the little black baby is only three months old, and Li Hongmei was weaned with arguing. You say, it's hers anyway." Baby, she doesn't feel bad at all."

Yun Chang was stunned, and subconsciously asked, "...What does the little black baby eat?"

"It's a good thing you took the polished white rice last time, so I'll make some rice soup for Xiao Heiwa, he eats it deliciously."

After the old lady finished speaking, she patted Xiao Hei Wa's bald head with a smile, "Don't look at Xiao Hei Wa's appearance, but she is easy to support, and she is also a blessed child. If she is put in someone else's house, how can Xiao Hei Wa I have eaten such a good rice soup. In the future, we must let Xiao Heiwa treat our Changnan well."

Yunshang also leaned over, touched Xiao Heiwa's big cheek lightly, and echoed, "Did you hear that, my grandma said to let you treat me better when you grow up, and if you dare to be disobedient in the future, you will be hit three times at one o'clock. pause!"

Xiao Heiwa was sleeping soundly after eating the milk powder, not knowing that she was being missed by Yun Shang, and even threatened her.

On the other hand, Shuanzi opened his sleepy eyelids, leaned over to be good-looking, "Sister, I will listen to you from now on, and I won't be beaten."

The old man glanced at the lively four grandparents and grandchildren on the kang, couldn't help grinning, put down the dry tobacco bag, leaned over to the old lady and said, "Shuying, San Zhuzi told me something today. Let Li Xiangqian help Li Hongmei with work, he has seen him twice."

The old lady paused, then turned around and asked, "What are you talking about? Li Xiangqian is helping Li Hongmei with work? When did it happen?"

Then didn't Li Xiangqian hook up with Widow Wang before, why did he hook up with Li Hongmei again?

Could it be that Li Hongmei is also like Widow Wang, unable to carry her belt?

Then Li Xiangqian has a wife, and Li Hongmei really dared to provoke Li Xiangqian, it was like committing suicide.

The old man scratched his head, with a hesitant expression on his face, "It is said that we met twice after winter. San Zhuzi said that Li Hongmei still has a crush on Erchuan in her heart, and she probably has no idea about Li Xiangqian..."

Chapter 428 Awakening

"What about Li Xiangqian?" the old lady asked again.

"Sanzhuzi said that Li Xiangqian was dishonest, so let us take care of Li Hongmei on weekdays. If something really happened, we Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa would have no face."

The old lady nodded, and replied, "That's the reason. He, Li Hongmei, should either find someone to marry honestly, or stay in the village peacefully and don't make trouble. If he really dares to go out like Wang Guihua Come on, I appointed a big stick to beat her from the beginning of the village to the end of the village."

The two grandsons of Lao Yun's family are still registered in the village. If Li Hongmei really messes around in the village, what will Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa do in the future? How do you marry a wife when you grow up?

Yun Chang's expression froze for a moment, she glanced at the old lady, then lowered her head, hiding the complicated look in her eyes.

When Gu Shinian came in from the outside, he saw Yun Chang staring blankly at Xiao Hei Wa, with an expression of unconcealable disappointment on his face, and a look of surprise flashed in his eyes.

"Grandpa Yun, Grandma Yun, the heat in the side house is ready, I'll take A-shang to sleep first, and we'll talk tomorrow."

The old lady responded, turned around and carried Yunshang to the edge of the kang, telling her to go to bed with Gu Shinian quickly.

Yun Chang got off the kang quietly, and followed Gu Shinian out obediently.

As soon as he entered the side room, Gu Shinian asked, "A Chang, what happened?"

He was fine before he came out to burn the kang, but after only a while, this little fleshy face was pulled down, did he get angry with the old couple?

Yun Chang shook her head, got on the kang without saying a word, got into bed and closed her eyes, pretending that she was tired and didn't want to talk.

Ever since hearing what the old lady said, Yun Shang felt that she was a joke. ,

She thought that the old lady loved her enough and treated her better than the embolus, but the reality gave her a slap in the face, making her understand how ridiculous her self-righteousness was.

Both Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan secretly mentioned to her not to be too close to Lao Yun's family, and even Second Brother Gu once reminded her not to trust Lao Yun's family wholeheartedly.

It's ridiculous that she didn't take everyone's words to heart.

She felt that the old couple's kindness to her went beyond the blood relationship and came from the heart. But the old lady said, "Take a big stick and beat Li Hongmei from the head of the village to the end of the village", and let Yunshang know the difference between her own and her non-hero.

When Widow Wang was messing around in the village back then, no one from Lao Yun's family came forward to discipline Widow Wang.

Even if they knew that Widow Wang's disorderly behavior in the village would damage the original owner's reputation.

But if it was Li Hongmei, no matter if it was an old lady or an old man, they would be worried that Li Hongmei's reputation would be bad, which would affect Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa, so they would put her under their noses and take care of her.

Even the old lady would say that she would beat Li Hongmei from the village to the village.

It can be seen that the old lady was not really soft at the beginning and did not dare to confront Widow Wang, but that Widow Wang's behavior did not touch the bottom line of the old lady.

In the final analysis, it was the blood of a foreigner flowing in her body, she was not a child of Lao Yun's family, so the love the old couple had for her was not that pure.

Gu Shinian got on the kang, rubbed Yun Shang's head with his hands, and was about to continue asking her what happened, but saw her turn around, staring at her misty eyes, and said with an aggrieved expression:

"Second brother Gu, I feel ashamed."

The movements of Gu Shinian's hands paused, his eyes flashed sharply, but his voice became more gentle and deep, "My A-Shang is the smartest, why do you feel ashamed?"

When Yun Shang heard this, the corners of her mouth drooped unconsciously, and her throat became tighter, "You have all reminded me, asking me not to treat Lao Yun's family as my own, asking me...to ask me not to rely too much on my grandpa and grandma, I didn't hear..."

She told Gu Shinian and Bai Yancheng that the old couple really loved her, but she didn't expect to be slapped in the face by the old lady not long after she said this.

Gu Shinian frowned,

He asked dissatisfiedly, "A Chang, did Grandma Yun say something that made you unhappy?"

Yunshang nodded, then shook her head again, "My grandma said that if Li Hongmei dared to mess around in the village, she would take a big stick and beat Li Hongmei from the beginning of the village to the end of the village. Back then, when Widow Wang was messing around outside, Lao Yun's family No one came forward to control her alone..."

After all, it wasn't her own, the original owner was about to be treated harshly to death, but Lao Yun's family did not make any effort to change the original owner's situation except secretly helping her.

Now that it was Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa, Lao Yun's family couldn't stand it anymore, and the attitude of the old couple became uncharacteristically tough.

Seeing that Yun Chang's face was full of loneliness, she was so wronged and embarrassed that she didn't even want to lift her head, Gu Shinian's heart also tugged.

He was the only relative in Yunshang's previous life, and he couldn't give her any affection other than siblings. The intergenerational love given to her by the old couple of the Yun family, as well as the normal fatherly love and motherly love given to her by Bai Yancheng and his wife, were all things Yunshang could only hope for in her previous life.

In this life, she is fortunate to have so many family ties, which can make up for the regrets of her previous life, and she instinctively wants to hold on to them. Even though she knows that these ties may be mixed with water, she is too self-deceiving and unwilling to believe it.

Gu Shinian originally thought that as long as the old couple of the Yun family could make Yun Shang happy, he would be willing to spend more time with the old Yun's family, as long as the old couple could maintain their superficial love for Yun Shang.

But he never expected that the old lady's unintentional words at night could touch the most sensitive point in Yunshang's heart, making her clearly aware of the difference between herself and Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa.

Seeing Yun Chang's extremely lost look, Gu Shinian was so distressed that he couldn't get any more distressed, he sighed a long time, and coaxed her:

"A-Shang, Li Hongmei is different from Widow Wang. Li Hongmei and Yun Erchuan divorced purely by herself. Lao Yun's family did not owe Li Hongmei, so when the old lady faced Li Hongmei, she could straighten her back and speak.

Between Widow Wang and Lao Yun's family, Yun Dachuan's life was spared. To some extent, the old couple of the Yun family felt ashamed of Widow Wang, so when they faced Widow Wang, they did not have the confidence to face Li Hongmei. "

Another point is that even if Li Hongmei and Yun Erchuan divorced, they still have two children. In addition, Li Hongmei has not given up on Yun Erchuan until now. As the daughter-in-law of Lao Yun's family, how could she bear Li Hongmei messing around in the village?

But Widow Wang is different. After Yun Dachuan disappeared, Widow Wang turned Lao Yun's house upside down, and even took away a big tile house from Lao Yun's house, and finally moved out the household registration, and the two families broke up. come and go.

After Widow Wang left Lao Yun's house, the old lady could only breathe a sigh of relief.

Lao Yun's family finally got rid of the brown sugar, how could the old lady dare to treat Widow Wang as a family?

Naturally, she will not, and dare not care about whether Widow Wang will steal people.

Chapter 429 The inspection team is here

Yun Shang knew that what Gu Shinian said made sense, but knowing that Gui knew it, she still felt uncomfortable.

Regardless of the reason why Lao Yun's family did not restrain Widow Wang, it is a fact that the original owner suffered five years and suffered five years of harsh treatment.

After tossing and turning in bed for a long time, he finally let out a long sigh, "Second Brother, let's stay for another day tomorrow and go back to the county the morning after tomorrow."

"Okay," Gu Shinian sighed secretly, stretched out his hand, and patted Yunshang's head, "Go to sleep, we should go back to the provincial capital after the county affairs are over."

In the county, a few middle-aged men in cadre uniforms came out of the train station, passed the people sent by the county to pick them up, and exited the train station.

Walking around the various streets in the county, the faces of the group were a little dignified.

There are many famines in this year, and Qinghe County is one of them, but the degree of famine reported by the county is not as shocking as seeing it with one's own eyes.

Many low adobe houses on the side of the road were crushed by the thick snow, but there was no one to arrange rescue. Most of the passers-by on the street looked skinny and numb, and even saw a pedestrian who was swollen all over his body and fell headfirst on the road. With brown juice spitting out of his mouth.

Many counters in the department store in the county seat were empty, and the salespersons sat behind the counters, scolding the people who came forward to inquire impatiently. Even the state-run restaurants only provide the simplest meals, all kinds of fine grains, which can only be supplied to specific crowd.

The investigation team took a quick sip of the bar in the restaurant, held back their anger, and returned to the street again.

"Group Leader Gao, where should we go now, to the county government or directly to the countryside?"

Team leader Gao pushed his glasses that were about to fall to the bridge of his nose, and said with a serious face, "What are you doing at the county government? You used to sit in the conference room, look at the data they whitewashed, and listen to their work reports that avoided the important things?"

Along the way, I found that many old comrades were dishonest, and what they said and what they did were completely inconsistent. The policy instructions from above are completely distorted at the bottom. It was originally a good policy for the common people, but as a result, these people messed around, and the sufferers became the common people. It made the masses of the people have a lot of opinions. This time, we will go directly to the countryside, go deep into the people, and listen to the opinions of the people directly. "

The leader of the investigation team spoke, and the people below naturally had no objections.

A group of people walked around the commune on the edge of the county seat against the northwest wind and stepping on the thick snow for a day. It was not until night fell that they all returned to the county seat with ashen faces.

Yunshang and Gu Shinian have also been paying attention to what the inspection team came down to, but when they arrived at the county to receive the notice, they stayed at the state-run hotel opposite the county government for most of the day, and they didn't even see the shadow of the inspection team.

It was getting dark outside, and there were many commuters on the street. Gu Shinian touched Yun Chang's cold face, talked to the waiter at the counter, and pulled Yun Chang out of the hotel gate. .

Yun Chang's face was very ugly, and she asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, did the county remember the wrong date? Or was it because of the snow that the inspection team was delayed on the way?"

Gu Shinian's complexion was much better than Yunshang's. He glanced at the gate of the county government and said with a smile, "Ah Chang, there is another possibility. Maybe the inspection team has already come to the county, but they didn't go to the county government, but went directly to the county government. out of the country."

If this is the case, all the preparations the county has made for the inspection team are tantamount to flattery.

That would be great fun.

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she couldn't help laughing, "Bring a chef from a state-run restaurant? Ha! If the inspection team really went to the countryside today, the better the food in the canteen of the county government tomorrow, the angrier the inspection team will be..."

"There is a recording pen, what is going on with the inspection team, we will know tomorrow night."

Early the next morning, members of the inspection team went straight to the county government, sat in the county committee meeting room and listened to the morning work report.

At noon, the inspection team came to the canteen of the county party committee under the arrangement of the county staff.

Looking at the various meat dishes and fine grains carefully prepared by the chef, Team Leader Gao endured the anger that erupted all morning. In front of the canteen people, he patted the table to lose his temper, turned around and walked to the county party committee office.

Several leaders in the county didn't bother to swallow the food anymore, they all shrank their necks like quails, and followed the inspection team into the office.

At noon that day, the entire county party committee was unable to eat.

Many cadres knew that the people from the inspection team had come, so they deliberately kept the breakfast they brought in the morning and waited for it to be eaten in the cafeteria at noon.

Not only was there no good food that could not be eaten during the Chinese New Year, but because the inspection team got angry, the big guys didn't even have time to eat lunch, and many people didn't eat breakfast, so their stomachs suffered a lot.

The inspection team first checked the account and found that the county had sold the spring seeds that had been replenished above and bought steel to support the construction of the inter-provincial bridge. They were so angry that they slapped the table again.

These bastards! Sell the common people's grain, just for the good reputation of the county?

There is no replanted grain, and the common people have no food to eat. At this time, they have not applied for relief grain, just to praise them with a good word about the general situation?

Isn't this not taking the life and death of the common people at heart?

Team leader Gao almost smashed the table, and said angrily, "What are you leaders doing? Not to mention selling the people's grain, the commune down there has been out of cooking for a long time, why don't you apply for relief grain from above!? I See, you are not reducing the burden for the country, you are for the chairs under your own buttocks!"

Deputy county magistrate Du Maliu explained, "Group leader Gao, county magistrate Qi has always been in charge of agriculture, so it's not easy for us to intervene. Besides, magistrate Qi did this to implement the spirit of the central government and fully support the provincial government. The self-rescue instructions issued. The two rivers in our county are rich in water resources, which are much better than other places with no harvest. The people in our county can completely save themselves without causing trouble to the province or the central government..."

"Fart!" Team Leader Gao was so angry that he swears, spit on Deputy County Mayor Du's face, "What spirit are you carrying out? Did the higher authorities make you starve the common people? County Chief Qi focuses on agriculture, the county The lives of the common people in the county are none of your business!? If someone in the county dies of starvation this year, you leaders will be the murderers!

And your behavior of selling grain seeds, and this account! Chaos! I will truthfully report this situation to the higher authorities, County Magistrate Qi, and all of you in charge, one by one, wait for the punishment from the organization! "

Chapter 430: Report

The faces of the secretary and deputy magistrate Du were all black. The rest of the people in the office couldn't lift their heads up after being trained, and they kept wiping the cold sweat off their heads.

Director Zhu behind the crowd was even more pale, his hands and feet trembling constantly.

How to do?

The other party asked him to report with his real name, obviously wanting him to reveal what these people in the county did in private in front of everyone in the county and the inspection team.

It's just that when the critical moment came, Director Zhu found that he didn't have the courage to take this step either psychologically or physically.

Chen Li stood restlessly at the door of the office, looking at the sky outside, then turned her head to look at the crowds of people in the office.

Seeing someone from the secretariat coming with a hot water bottle, Chen Li hurried over, took the hot water bottle from the other party's hand, opened the door first and walked in.

Facing the stagnant and almost breathless heavy atmosphere in the office, Chen Li refilled everyone's teacups, coughed lightly, winked at the tranced Director Zhu, and quietly exited the office.

Chen Li's appearance made Director Zhu sober up a little bit, thinking of the consequences of his not cooperating with the other party, he couldn't sit still anymore.

Seeing the people in the inspection team seal up the accounts and prepare to leave with a cold face, Director Zhu subconsciously stepped forward, opened his slightly trembling lips, and finally made a sound when the people in the inspection team left the office.

"Gao, Team Leader Gao, I, I, I have something to report to the organization."

Director Zhu stammered with his voice trembling, and the inspection team, including all the leaders in the office, were stunned.

Team Leader Gao's face was still so ugly, he glanced at the other people in the office, hummed, and signaled Director Zhu to follow him to the next office.

No one knows exactly what Director Zhu reported to Director Gao, but everyone in the corridor heard Team Leader Gao slapping the table loudly...

When Team Leader Gao came out of the office again, he snorted coldly at the several leaders who greeted him, and secretly ordered someone to go to the county magistrate Qi to ask for a relief food application report, and was about to leave directly.

The secretary and deputy magistrate Du were even more frustrated.

What did this old Zhu say to this Gao? Why are you so good at throwing face at the two of you in front of so many people?

It was almost five o'clock now, everyone hadn't had lunch, and everyone was hungry. Although the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du felt overwhelmed, they still had to cheer up and invite everyone to the county party committee cafeteria for dinner.

When it comes to eating, Team Leader Gao thinks of the red and attractive braised pork, the fat carp, and the steamed soft white flour steamed buns that he saw in the cafeteria at noon, and then thinks that the state-run restaurants can only serve the simplest food. The coarse food meal, the complexion is even darker.

His cold eyes cut the faces of everyone present inch by inch like knives, then held back his anger, shook his head and refused, "No, it's getting late, we can still go back to the district if we leave now, and we won't be able to leave any later."

The main reason was that many people in the county had been without cooking for several days, and the situation was very serious. He had to go back as soon as possible, report the situation in the county truthfully, and allocate relief food as soon as possible.

In addition, Director Zhu just reflected that the behavior of individual leaders in the county was very bad. He also had to report carefully to the organization and arrange people to come down to take over the daily work of the county as soon as possible.

All the people in the county watched helplessly as the members of the inspection team left.

Thinking of the ugly faces of the people in the inspection team, the secretary and deputy county magistrate Du were so overwhelmed that they didn't even think about eating. They glanced at each other and entered the office one after the other, discussing how to get rid of the blame.

Director Zhu had already slipped home early with his purse in his pocket, taking advantage of no one's attention.

That night, Yunshang and Gu Shinian took back the recording pens from each office and nestled in the space. After listening to the whole process of the inspection team coming down to inspect the work, they immediately relaxed their hearts.

As long as the people in the inspection team disagree with the way the county leaders work, the situation in the county will be reflected in it, and the people in the county will have relief food.

And on Director Zhu's side, he really reported his immediate superior to Team Leader Gao honestly, without adulteration at all, and even told a lot of things that Yun Shang and Gu Shinian didn't know about.

As long as the organization intervenes in the investigation without Yun Shang and Gu Shinian's additional actions, the secretary and his group will not be able to keep their positions under their buttocks.

Thinking about it, since Director Zhu stopped Team Leader Gao in front of all the county leaders, his behavior of reporting his boss would not be able to hide from the eyes of the county party committee.

If Director Zhu can't beat the two bosses to the bottom of the valley with one stick, and they can't turn over completely, then he himself will suffer the most severe blow and retaliation from the other party.

In this kind of situation where either you die or I die, Director Zhu will naturally take the initiative to attack and report all the bad things the other party has done to the organization in detail, so as to protect himself.

After listening to the recording of the conversation between Director Zhu and Team Leader Gao, the corners of Yunshang's mouth couldn't help but curl up, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, the food relief issue has been settled, why should we clean up Director Zhu and Chen Li? Don't do anything else." , Chen Li's partner from the People's Liberation Army is coming back."

There is hope for the relief food in the county, and Director Zhu has also played his due role. Yunshang can finally let go of his mind and prepare to do the thing of "killing the donkey".

Gu Shinian's expression was also very relaxed, with a smile on the corner of his mouth, he pinched Yunshang's round face, "Don't worry, I have prepared a lot of photos of Director Zhu and Chen Li, and I will try to spread them to the county committee compound tomorrow." Just here."

With the photos, Director Zhu and Chen Li couldn't hide the matter of their broken shoes, so they couldn't be more honest.

Yun Shang looked at the time and realized that it was only two o'clock in the morning. She turned her head and stared at Gu Shinian with shining eyes. Although she didn't speak, the meaning in her eyes was already obvious.

"No." Gu Shinian shook his head resolutely, "It's too late today, it's not good to stay up late, and the president is not tall."

"You're lying!" Yun Chang smirked, and almost poked Gu Shinian's face with her fingers, "You always stay up late, and you always say that staying up late doesn't make you grow taller! Don't you just want to leave me and act on your own!"

I have been fooled once, and you still use the same method to fool me, do you really think I am stupid?

Seeing that Gu Shinian didn't speak, Yun Chang said with a straight face, "Gu Shinian! Believe it or not, I'll lock you up in the space and go out to work by yourself!? Let's see who left the other behind!"

Gu Shinian: "... " Have you learned how to threaten people?

The little girl is getting fatter and bolder.

Just looking at Yunshang who was full of anger, with a little bit of aggrieved eyes, Gu Shinian's anger that had not been raised in his heart dissipated in an instant, and he couldn't help but curled the corners of his mouth, and gave her a brainstorm, "A-shang, what's your name? Me what?"
