Chapter 431: Going to the mountains and going to the countryside

After all, Gu Shinian couldn't hold back Yun Chang, so he had no choice but to get dressed, and took her around the county committee compound.

Paste hundreds of printed photos all over the county party committee compound, and then paste the remaining 70 to 80 photos on the most prosperous cross streets in the county to ensure that the matter between Chen Li and Director Zhu will be done as quickly as possible. The speed spread throughout the county, and the two of them completely forgot about this moment.

They just need to make sure that the affairs of Director Zhu and Chen Li are exposed, and they can't count innocent passers-by. As for how those two people will be punished, it's not something that Yunshang and Gu Shinian worry about.

In the next few days, Zhang Chunni arranged everything at home as quickly as possible, and a group of people rushed to the provincial capital with big bags and small bags.

Zhang Chunni's work has been negotiated a long time ago. After two days of recuperation in the provincial capital, she and Gu Pangui started to go to work every day, leaving early and returning late.

When Gu Shinian came back this time, at Gu Zonglin's insistence, he moved into the compound of the military region. Apart from going to the army with Bai Qingzheng to exercise every day, the two of them also went in and out together during the rest of the time, and their relationship became increasingly close.

Only Yunshang, as always, loves to be lazy. Except for Bai Qingming's extra energy when making up lessons, the rest of the time is either staying at home with a ball and sleeping, or following behind a few brothers and sisters, wandering around the courtyard play.

Once during the period, Yunshang wandered to the No. 2 compound with a group of leather children, and heard the news that Erya moved out of Chen Cuiqiao's house, but no one knew where Erya moved, and no one knew that Erya had moved out. The reason for leaving Chen Cuiqiao's house.

Yun Shang did ask Gu Shinian about the news about Erya, but Gu Shinian found a way to divert the topic, and has not heard about Erya since then.

Time flies.

In a blink of an eye, the time has come to six or six years.

In the past few years, under Yunshang's supervision, Lin Dani and Yun Shuilian graduated from university ahead of schedule in 2065.

Lin Dani did not go back to work in the shoe factory, but was assigned to the municipal government secretariat. On weekdays, together with other secretaries, she was responsible for writing manuscripts for the leaders.

The work in the secretariat is easy and decent, and the salary is good. In addition, Lin Dani has a gentle temper and does not have too much ambition in work. She also has a brother-in-law who is the commander of the military region. No one in the secretariat dares to trip Lin Dani. My son, the work is going well.

It's just that if Lin Dani's lifelong affairs are not resolved for a day, the Lin family and Lin Wenlan will not be relieved for a day. The knife is the only dissatisfaction for Lin Dani now.

After Yun Shuilian graduated from university, she still chose to go back to her old unit to work. However, Yun Shuilian is now a serious college student. This time, she returned to the Women's Federation directly as a cadre, which is not the same as working for the Women's Federation for the first time. one level.

What surprised Yunshang the most was that Zhou Minghui's mobility was too poor.

Yun Shuilian went to university for four years, plus a year of work. It took five years before Zhou Minghui got Yun Shuilian's consent and allowed him to take her to and from get off work.

From the point of view of people in this era, the two of them have just confirmed their relationship. They have to be with each other for a period of time before they meet their parents and prepare for the upcoming marriage.

According to Yunshang's visual estimation, Zhou Minghui would have to wait a year or so to be his little uncle.

In the past few years, the closest people around Yunshang have also changed a lot. Bai Qingzheng and Gu Shinian have been admitted to the military academy successively. One is a freshman and the other is a senior. They are considered alumni.

Bai Qingyue was in the second year of high school, and it was time to take the university entrance exam. With Yunshang's uninterrupted tutoring, Bai Qingming was promoted to the second year of junior high school smoothly, and he was no longer a poor student at the end of the crane.

As for Yunshang herself, under the urging of her family, she finally became a primary school student honestly.

Although her grades were top-notch, she never thought of skipping a grade, mainly because she was worried that she would be sent to the countryside to know if she graduated early.

Yunshang tried her best to avoid going to the countryside, and when she knew about it, Bai Qingyue, a passionate female warrior of the Bai family,

Instead, together with my classmates, I actively responded to the party's call, geared up, and prepared to dedicate my youth and blood to the vast countryside with great energy.

As soon as the bell rang for the end of get out of class, Yun Chang immediately carried her small army bag filled with snacks and no books, and rushed out of the classroom before the students could react.

The school outside had been suspending classes early at the beginning of the year. The school for children of the army where Yunshang was located was fairly quiet, but this quietness probably wouldn't last long.

After leaving the school gate, Yun Chang raised her head and watched the west-slanting sun slant down, with the blood red unique to the setting sun, as if it had dyed the earth with blood.

Yun Chang carried the small army bag and walked along the main road to the military area as usual. When passing by an alley, there were roars, cries, and a young man's faintly proud scolding from inside. Yun Shang pretended not to hear it, and passed by without squinting, but her eyes became more and more serious. Dim down.

Pedestrians on the street listened to the farce in the alley. Except for a few curious passers-by who would poke their heads to look over, everyone else was either silent, bowed their heads and left quickly, or slapped each other. Focusing on winking, various pantomime plays are staged.

In fact, such incidents are staged in every corner of the provincial capital almost every day. Yunshang has gradually evolved from anger and fear at the beginning to a numbness that has nothing to do with her.

It's not that she is too indifferent and timid, but that Yunshang clearly knows that in the face of the torrent of history, she can't stop it, and she can't do anything that may bring trouble to Bai Yancheng.

Arriving at the gate of the military area, Yun Chang raised her hand and rubbed her swollen face, squeezed out a shallow smile, greeted the guard with a very cheerful voice, and stepped into the military area with very cheerful steps. Yard.

Just a gate away, compared with the outside, the compound of the military area is quiet and peaceful like a paradise. Walking on the tree-lined road, watching the setting sun shine through the leaves and cast mottled golden spots, one's mood can't help but follow. Get better.

It's just that this good mood disappeared completely when Yunshang heard Bai Qingyue shouting slogans passionately at home.

In the living room of the Bai family, the slim Bai Qingyue stood in the living room, holding his head high, arguing with Lin Wenlan excitedly: "I am responding to the chairman's call to go to the place where the motherland needs me most! Why don't you Agree with me going to the countryside?"

Lin Wenlan raised her eyelids, and said in a calm and calm tone, "What can you do when you go to the countryside? Cook a fire, work in the fields, sew quilts and mend clothes, can you do it? Not to mention anything else, just the summer and autumn harvests can make you feel better. The skin you've raised for sixteen years has peeled off three layers, are you sure you were there to help, not to cause trouble for the common people?"

Chapter 432: Educated Youth

Bai Qingyue: "..."

How can you say that about your daughter?

Yun Shang sat down next to Lin Wenlan, took a sip of honey water from the tea mug, stretched out her white and tender palm, and waved at Bai Qingyue, "Sister, I have stayed in the village for several years, and everyone in the village In the four seasons of the year, you have to go to the fields to work at dawn every day. When the farming season is busy, you sometimes have to go to the fields to catch up with work at night. You don't even bother to go to the army in the morning to run laps. Can you bear to go to work early in the morning every day? "

Bai Qingyue hesitated for a moment, and immediately said firmly, "Others can do it, so can I! If I don't, I can learn, and if I make a mistake, I can correct it. As long as I have the determination, I will definitely be able to take root." Rural areas, contribute your own strength to the construction of the motherland!"

Yun Shang: "... Her sister is a fool, right?

I still look excited when I go to do farm work. Is it possible that I think I am going to experience life in the countryside, and I can come back if I can't stay?

I'm afraid I'm dreaming, right?

Lin Wenlan frowned, stared at Bai Qingyue for a long time, and when she spoke again, there was already a hint of warning in her tone.

"Qingyue, think carefully for yourself. If you leave, you may never come back. I can sit here and persuade you to think carefully, which shows that there is still room for improvement. When your father comes back from the company, you It's too late to regret it."

It was the first time Bai Qingyue heard Lin Wenlan speak to her in this tone, she was stunned for a moment, sat down opposite Lin Wenlan, lowered her voice and said:

"Mom, our school has been closed for more than half a year. When I come to school every day, I either watch the red soldiers criticize the teacher, or follow the red soldiers to learn... thinking. Mom, I really want to go to the countryside, even if I do farm work, at least You don't have to be dragged to make trouble with the little red soldiers every day."

The point is that most of those radical classmates recruited her to be a Red Guard because of her status as the daughter of the commander of the military region.

In addition, in this general environment, she can reject those people once, or twice, but if she rejects more times, she will inevitably be labeled as having a problematic ideological and political stance...

The expression on Lin Wenlan's face softened a lot, and when she was about to speak, Yun Shang frowned and said, "Sister, you don't want to deal with those people at school, you can go to work, there is no need to go to the countryside to stay."

With your delicate skin and tender flesh, a summer harvest can turn you into a little black baby.

Guaranteed that you will regret it in less than a year.

Seeing that Bai Qingyue still had a look of resistance on her face, Yun Chang paused for a moment, and said to Lin Wenlan, "Mom, it seems that my sister is determined to go to the countryside, or I will go to school tomorrow to ask for leave. Take my sister back to the village for a month."

First let her follow the villagers to participate in the autumn harvest every day from early to late, not a month, at most half a month, and she will go back to the city crying and shouting.

If Bai Qingming wanted to go to the countryside to become an educated youth, Yunshang believed that he could bear the hardship, but instead of Bai Qingyue who loved cleanliness since childhood, Yunshang really didn't think she would be able to survive it.

Lin Wenlan's eyes lit up, and she rubbed Yunshang's head with a smile, "Okay, what kind of work can I ask your sister to do in the village, so that she can adapt to life in the countryside in advance..."

Before finishing speaking, Lin Wenlan got up and went upstairs, "I'll pack your things for you two now, you leave early tomorrow morning, and I'll help you ask for leave from the school."

Before Bai Qingyue could react, the mother and daughter directly set Bai Qingyue's itinerary for the next month. Early the next morning, Lin Wenlan packed the two daughters and put them on the train to Qinghe County.

At this time, it was a big wave of educated youths going to the countryside to go to the mountains, and the carriages in front were all educated youths going to the countryside, and the carriages were packed to the brim.

A row of gongs and drums stood on the platform, beating passionate drums to send off the educated youth to the countryside. The banner behind it was written with words about the encouragement and publicity of the educated youth to the countryside, which was very inspiring.

Yun Chang lazily leaned on the sleeper, listening to the drumbeat outside, while holding a little red book,

I watched with gusto.

Bai Qingyue was lying on the window, staring enviously at those excited-looking, carrying big bags, there were at most seventeen or eighteen-year-old passionate intellectual youths on the platform, especially when she saw the big red on the chest of the big guy. Flowers, envious eyeballs can't be pulled out.

Yun Chang looked amused, closed the red book, and teased Bai Qingyue in a serious manner, "Sister, wipe your mouth quickly, the saliva is flowing out!"

Bai Qingyue was taken aback for a moment, then wiped the corner of her mouth subconsciously, and realized that she had been tricked by Yun Chang again, she rushed over, held Yun Chang down and tickled her.

"You little thing! The bigger you get, the naughtier you are, you know how to tease me all day long! I'll make you naughty!"

"Haha..." Yun Shang smiled and avoided Bai Qingyue's claws, grabbed her hand and said, "Sister, if you like big red flowers, I will give you ten or eight of them later, if you like doing farm work, When you go back to the village, you go to harvest with my grandfather every day. Don't be like the second idiot, lying on the window and humiliating me."

Bai Qingyue couldn't help but burst into a "puchi" laugh, grabbed Yun Chang's face and twisted it half a circle, let her go, took a tea mug and filled it with hot water, then leaned on the bunk, took He picked up the little red book and memorized it.

Lin Wenlan was naturally not at ease when the two beautiful girls went out. She not only asked the conductor to take care of them along the way, but also called the county and asked Zhang Haiyang to pick them up at the station.

The train traveled fast all the way and arrived at Qinghe County on time before the sun set.

After the two got out of the car, they found that there were about 30 educated youths getting off the front seat one after another. After a day of driving, everyone looked around and discussed as if they didn't feel tired, and they left the station bustling.

Outside the station, the Qinghe county government also arranged a ceremony to pick up the educated youth. A team of gongs and drums were beating loudly outside. There were also mule carts from various communes lined up, all covered with the freshest and cleanest wheat straw. Waiting for the educated youth from the city to get on the bus.

Bai Qingyue's envy that had been suppressed all the way came out again, she held Yunshang tightly, stood where she was, and looked at the cadres of each commune as if they were treasures, you three, I five, bring these educated youths back In front of my mule cart.

Yun Chang saw a military jeep approaching from a distance, stopped at the exit, saw Zhang Haiyang opened the car door and got off, quickly pulled Bai Qingyue who hadn't recovered, and waved to Zhang Haiyang , "Uncle Zhang! Here!"

"Hello, Uncle Zhang." Bai Qingyue also greeted Zhang Haiyang obediently.

"Xiao Changnan, Qingyue, why are you two back at this time?" Zhang Haiyang smiled and asked politely as he saw the packages in their hands.

"Come back and help my grandfather to work in the field." Yunshang replied solemnly, and then asked, "How are my Aunt Han and Ming Yang?"

Chapter 433 We are on the same road

A few people exchanged a few simple greetings, and were about to get into the car, the handlebar in front turned its head and greeted Yun Shang with a smile.

"Little Yunshang! Did you come back from the provincial capital to visit your grandpa and grandma again? Why are you coming back at this time this year?" Didn't they come back for a few days during the summer and winter vacations in previous years?

Yunshang turned her head and saw that it was the handlebar style in the town. She quickly took out a handful of melon seeds from her small army bag and handed it over, and said with a smile, "Grandpa Li! I'm free these two days, come back and see my grandpa and grandma." Are you picking up the educated youth for the town?"

Ever since Zhang Chunni moved to the provincial capital, every time Yunshang came back, she would take a mule cart directly to the town, and then spend an extra five cents to take her to the village in a cart.

Most of the handlebars who can be used in towns and counties are peasants who are lively and eloquent. In addition, Yunshang is also a sweet-mouthed person. Every time I take a bus, I will take the initiative to hand over a little to the handlebars. Just a little bit, let's talk about the situation in the provincial capital, or ask about the new things in the village and town. After going back and forth, I have become old acquaintances with these handlebars in the town.

Every time I came back in the past two years, without Yunshang's order, the chariots would take the initiative to send Yunshang to the village, and they would not accept the extra five cents Yunshang gave.

Seeing her 'old buddy' now, Yun Chang felt relieved, couldn't help but ran over to hand a handful of melon seeds, and greeted familiarly.

He threw a melon seed into his mouth with the handlebar style, and took out the infusion bottle that he asked someone to find from the hospital to hold cold boiled water, and handed it to Yunshang, "I came here from the provincial capital for a day's journey , Are you thirsty? Come on, drink some water to quench your thirst first."

Yun Chang turned sideways quickly, patted the military water bottle on her waist, and signaled that she had water to drink.

The handlebar type chuckled a few times, raised his head and took a sip of water, wiped his mouth and said, "Today it's my turn to pick up the baby bumps from the city! These dolls come to our country, among other things, teach us Reading the Little Red Book, writing letters, etc., is better than anyone else."

Yun Chang smiled and nodded.

Isn't that right? These educated youths are thin-skinned and tender-skinned. They don't seem to be suitable for farm work, but they can help write letters and teach the villagers how to read a few words. There is still no problem.

When the two were talking, a few educated youths standing by the mule cart looked at the big jeep behind them, and then at Yunshang, who was talking lively with the handlebars, and secretly winked.

"Grandpa Li, it's getting late, my grandpa and grandma are waiting for me at home, so I'll go back first."

Yunshang greeted the handlebars and was about to leave when a female educated youth with a white handkerchief tied on her braids said with a smile:

"Little comrade, are you going to Hongqi Town too? We are also educated youths assigned to Hongqi Town, we should be going the same way."

We are educated youths who responded to the call of the Party Central Committee and went to the countryside to support rural construction. You haven't invited us to go to the town by car, you really plan to let us take this stinky mule cart.

It's too blind to see.

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, then nodded in a daze, not knowing what the female educated youth meant by saying this.

The female educated youth's face froze for a moment, her eyes swept over Yunshang's brand-new military uniform, a smile emerged from the corner of her mouth, and she continued, "Little comrade, we have a lot of people and a lot of things, so we might not be able to fit in the mule cart." There are many people, we big guys have been driving for another day, you see..."

Yunshang laughed at once, took out a red date from the army bag, threw it into his mouth, and chewed it loudly, "Comrade, I'm sorry, you have to go to Fennan, take the road to Liushugou when you go back to town, I'll go back. The family wants to go to Fenbei, and go directly to Xinglingou." We have different paths.

Ah! It's hypocritical.

Obviously they came down to support the rural construction, but before they reached the village, they began to dislike mule carts for not being as comfortable as cars.

Why do you want to go to the countryside comfortably?

Is it not good to live in the city and be a city person?

"you....."

The female educated youth's face turned red.

Next to her was a lesbian with short hair and heroic eyes,

He walked over to touch the female educated youth, and said in a warning voice, "Wang Xiaohong, we are going to the countryside, not for an outing, and all actions are subject to the organization's arrangements, don't specialize!"

The female educated youth was unhappy, she snorted unwillingly, and muttered in her mouth, "I don't think it's getting late, I want to hurry to the town..."

Yun Shang ignored the argument between the two and left it behind, got into the car, chatted with Zhang Haiyang, and introduced the situation in the county to Bai Qingyue who was curious about everything.

The car was speeding on the wide asphalt road, and there were large tracts of farmland on the side of the road, and the fields were full of farmers who were busy harvesting.

At this time, there is a lot of farm work in the field. After the millet is cut, the stalks have to be scraped, the beans and millet have to be harvested, and it's time to pick the cotton. To plan, followed by harvesting sweet potatoes.

After harvesting the crops, they had to hurry up to plow the land, irrigate, harrow, fertilize, and plant wheat. They had to be busy until mid-October before the farm work in the field came to an end.

Every autumn harvest, the intensive farm work makes it difficult for many strong laborers, not to mention Bai Qingyue, who has never suffered or been wronged since she was a child.

Looking at the farmers chasing each other in the field by the roadside, busy working, Bai Qingyue seemed to be a little shaken, with a look of surprise on her brows.

The car drove into the village in less than twenty minutes and stopped at Qiancun.

Back then, the old Wang family really wanted to occupy this big tile-roofed house, but the old man chased him away several times and couldn't get rid of it. In the end, he pretended to go to the town to sue the old Wang's family.

However, Xinglin Village is only two miles away from Xiaowangzhuang. Old man Wang later came to entangle Lao Yun's house when he was free. Later, Yun Erchuan and Yun Shuilian came back and went to warn Old Man Wang. Only then did it completely stop.

Yun Chang glanced at the open black wooden door, invited Zhang Haiyang to come in for a drink, and at the same time called Bai Qingyue to get off the car.

Probably because he heard the sound of the car, Shuanzi, who had grown into a teenager, jumped out of the house, called Yunshang and Zhang Haiyang with sparkling eyes, and hurried over to take the luggage from Yunshang's hand.

"Shuanzi, call me Sister Qingyue." Yunshang first pointed to Bai Qingyue to introduce Shuanzi, and then asked, "Has my master left work? Is grandma at home? Where's Xiao Heiwa?"

"Master and the village chief are going to the town to pick up the educated youth. Our grandma and Heiwa are at home." Shuanzi said, then quickly took the big bag from Bai Qingyue's hand, and shouted shyly, "Hello, Miss Qingyue."

When everyone entered the door, the old lady had already come out of the house to welcome them. Seeing Zhang Haiyang bringing Yunshang and Bai Qingyue into the door, she hurriedly got some delicious food for them.

Chapter 434: Meeting the Educated Youth Again

"Shuanzi, hurry up! The melons in the backyard are ripe, hurry up and pick some for your sister! Cut some leeks, let's make dumplings for your sister!"

Shuanzi responded, carrying the vegetable basket in one hand and the little Heiwa who was rushing towards Yunshang in the other, and hurried to the backyard.

After Zhang Haiyang took a sip of water and left with the tea leaves that Yunshang handed over, the old lady held Yunshang with one hand and Bai Qingyue with the other, so happy that she couldn't close her mouth.

Yun Erchuan hasn't been looking for anyone these years, and there are only two skinny boys in front of him, among them is the ugliest little black baby in ten miles and eight villages, and the old lady wants to be accompanied by her white and tender granddaughter even in her dreams.

Now that Yun Chang came back, she also brought the exquisite and beautiful Bai Qingyue, the old lady was taken aback immediately.

Or granddaughter.

Well-behaved, sensible, and quiet.

Of course, the most important thing is that the granddaughter is prettier than the grandson!

The old lady likes to look at good-looking people, how can she be unhappy.

Knowing that Yunshang and Bai Qingyue were going to stay in the village for a month, and that Bai Qingyue wanted to work in the fields with the villagers to experience what it was like to do farm work, the old lady readily agreed.

Stuffing the washed melons into the hands of the two of them, they scrambled to cook, and went to the side room to make beds for the two of them. They were extremely busy.

"Sister! Are you here to see me!" Xiao Heiwa took a chance and sneaked up to Yun Chang to ask.

Yun Chang lowered her head, looked at Xiao Hei Wa's eyes narrowed into black lines when she smiled, her big square cheeks, and her big white teeth, she couldn't help laughing out loud.

"Yes, I'm here to see you."

Bai Qingyue was shocked the first time she saw Xiao Hei Wa.

Why is this baby so ugly?

She was already dark, and she was wearing an ill-fitting beige short jacket, and the light-colored clothes showed the blackness of Xiao Heiwa in all directions.

And those small eyes and big cheeks look like a joke.

Bai Qingyue looked at the handsome Shuanzi, and then at the ugly, fresh and refined little Heiwa, her eyelids jumped unconsciously.

I'm afraid this child is not his own?

Ouch, I don't dare to look at it, it's too eye-catching, what if I watch it too much and make her ugly.

Seeing Bai Qingyue rubbing her eyelids vigorously, Yun Chang couldn't help laughing, pushed Xiao Heiwa in front of Bai Qingyue, pointed at her and said:

"Little Heiwa, this is your sister Qingyue, called sister."

"sister!"

Xiao Heiwa yelled without hesitation, her voice was so clear and loud that it almost knocked Bai Qingyue's ears down.

Bai Qingyue's body trembled, and she unconsciously moved her feet back, "...Hey, Hei, Hei baby is good, this is for you to eat."

Saying that, he stuffed two toffees into Hei Wa's hands, then quickly moved to Shuan Zi's side, and stuffed two toffees into Shuan Zi's hands as well.

Xiao Heiwa happily stuffed the toffee into her mouth, pulled Yunshang and walked out the door, "Sister! The educated youth is coming to the village again today! Let's go, I'll take you to the educated youth spot to watch the fun!"

Everyone in the village said that the female educated youths who came a few days ago were good-looking and looked like they were from the city, but in his little Heiwa's eyes, none of those educated youths could compare to his sister Yunshang.

Not to mention Sister Yunshang, even Sister Qingyue who just arrived today can't compare to her!

I don't know what those educated youths are doing proudly in the village all day long.

Today, he took Sister Yunshang to the educated youth spot for a tour, to let those educated youths who can do whatever they want all day long and eat whatever they want know, what makes them look good.

Yun Chang didn't know what Xiao Hei Wa was thinking, so she greeted the old lady, dragged Bai Qingyue, called Shuan Zi, and followed Xiao Hei Wa out the door.

A few people walked to the gate, just in time to see the village chief and the old man entering the village along the main road, followed by four educated youths who could barely lift their feet.

Seeing two girls dressed in western style standing at the door of the house, the old man subconsciously rubbed his eyes. After recognizing Yun Chang, he grinned unconsciously and trotted over.

"Shangnan, when did you come back? Why didn't you write in advance, so that I can go to the county to pick you up!"

"Master! I decided to come back temporarily, and my sister, I plan to stay at home for a month when I come back this time."

As Yunshang said, her eyes fell on behind the village chief, two men and two women, four educated youths.

At this moment, the sun was about to set, and the wind was blowing again, and the air was already carrying the coolness of late autumn. Among them was a male educated youth wearing gold-rimmed glasses, who was wearing a single white shirt. He raised his head high and looked around in distaste at the dilapidated village that people in the city saw.

And those two female educated youths were also acquaintances, one was Wang Xiaohong who struck up a conversation with Yunshang at the train station and wanted to take the car to the town, and the other was a female educated youth who later warned Wang Xiaohong not to be special, with rather heroic eyes.

These people are all about seventeen or eighteen years old, with a childishness that has not faded on their faces, as well as curiosity and longing for future life.

Seeing Yun Chang and Bai Qingyue, the four educated youths were obviously stunned for a moment, and Wang Xiaohong's face darkened even more, and his brows instantly stood upright. If the female educated youth next to her hadn't moved quickly and directly covered her mouth, she might have scolded her directly in front of the village chief.

When the educated youth wearing glasses saw Bai Qingyue, his eyes lit up. He pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose, brushed his hair again, walked over, smiled what he thought was gentle and polite, and stretched out his hand to Bai Qingyue. .

"Student, are you also an educated youth who came to Xinglin Village to jump in the queue? My name is Sun Hongbing, and I am also an educated youth who came to the village to jump in the queue. We will be revolutionary comrades fighting side by side in the future. I hope we can get along happily in the future."

The girl in front of me is wearing a brand new military uniform, her face and hands are fair and delicate, she stands there with a straight figure, elegant and elegant, it looks like she was raised by a family in the city, and it is very likely that she came from a cadre family Girl.

Such a girl was exactly the revolutionary partner he was looking for... er, a revolutionary comrade!

Wang Xiaohong's face turned darker, and he looked at Bai Qingyue angrily, as if he had been robbed of a man.

Bai Qingyue looked at the hand stretched out in front of her eyes, and couldn't help but frown. She stepped back and opened the distance between herself and Sun Hongbing, and said in a lukewarm voice:

"Sorry, I came here to visit relatives with my sister, not an educated youth. We should have no chance to become comrades in arms fighting side by side."

Sun Hongbing's face froze for a moment, a little embarrassed, but also a little annoyed, withdrew his hand, and retreated to the educated youth team.

Seeing Sun Hongbing's behavior, the village chief's expression darkened. He turned his head, gave them a hard look, and urged them to hurry to the village.

"Pfft!"

Yun Chang couldn't help laughing, and said to the village chief with a smile, "Village chief, my grandma will make dumplings for me today, remember to come and have a drink with my grandpa when you finish your work later."

Chapter 435 Miss Jiao goes to the ground

The blue sky had just faded, and the sun hadn't come out yet. The old village chief was already holding a broken gong, wandering around the front and back of the village and knocking on it.

Yun Chang rolled over and sat up with a grunt, pushed Bai Qingyue who was sleeping beside her, and urged her to get up and get ready to go to work.

The village head came over for dinner last night, Yun Chang avoided the crowd, quietly mentioned to the village head that Bai Qingyue was going to stay in the village to do farm work, and hinted very unkindly to the village head, you can practice Bai Qingyue, don't. Because of Bai Qingyue's status as the daughter of the commander of the military region, he was merciful.

Because of Yunshang's strange request, the village head dismissed the idea of assigning Bai Qingyue to the educated youth team, and assigned her next to the most efficient women in the village.

Bai Qingyue didn't know that she had been tricked by Yunshang, so she quickly got up from the kang, followed Yunshang's instructions, put on solid coarse cloth clothes, changed into light cloth shoes, and hung them around her neck. A white towel, and a straw hat. Finally, after a hasty breakfast, he followed the old man out of the house in good spirits.

Qinghe Village is close to the river, and it is easy to get foggy in the late autumn morning. Just when a light red line appeared on the horizon, large groups of fog fell out of thin air, and quickly covered the originally clean and bright sky, leaving only white space between the sky and the earth. A vast expanse.

Bai Qingyue followed a few women to the cotton field, saw everyone throwing cotton bags on the cotton branches, turned around and went to the next field to pull soybeans, she couldn't help asking the women around her curiously.

"Aunt Zhang, aren't we picking cotton today? Why are we picking soybeans instead?"

"Hahaha, it seems that my daughter's words were asked by the dolls in the city."

Aunt Zhang joked with Bai Qingyue with a smile, and then explained the reason to her, "It's foggy today, and the dew on the cotton must be heavy. Pick the cotton now. The water vapor is too heavy, and it will easily cover the cotton. Standing does not charge miles."

Finally, the first-class cotton was produced, but because of carelessness in picking the cotton, the quality of the cotton was affected, and the task given by the cotton station could not be completed. Wouldn't the months of hard work of a village be in vain?

Someone nearby heard the two talking and smiled to explain Bai Qingyue's confusion, "Girl, when it comes to picking cotton, it's best to wait until the dew falls and the sun dries up the moisture on the cotton.

But harvesting soybeans is exactly the opposite of picking cotton. Soybeans have to be harvested when the dew is heavy in the early morning. If the sun is high, the soybean clips will easily burst when they are exposed to the sun, and it will be difficult to clean up the soybeans rolling all over the ground. "

The day is just right now, when it is foggy, the soybeans are harvested, and when the sun comes out, the big guys pick cotton again, and there is no delay in any work.

Bai Qingyue nodded half understanding, followed everyone else's example, tied her trouser legs into socks, went down to the ground and started pulling soybeans.

This job looks quite simple. Standing in the field ridge, bending over, grasping the bottom of a soybean stalk with both left and right hands, with a little force, the soybean stalk will be uprooted.

Seeing how easy it was for everyone to do it, Bai Qingyue followed suit. She wanted to pull up the soybean pole with one hand, but she didn't even move the wet ground.

"Girl, you have to pull it obliquely, and you need to be clever. It's too laborious to pull it straight up." Aunt Zhang turned her head and reminded Bai Qingyue with a smile.

Bai Qingyue smiled awkwardly, according to Aunt Zhang's instructions, it took a long time to pull out a soy bean after a long time of effort, even the palms were rubbed red.

A group of women watched secretly dumbfounded.

Look at the delicate skin and tender flesh of this girl, the thin leather in the palm of her hand can't stand it without doing a little work.

Fortunately, this is a baby in the city, and she needs to stay in the village for a few days. If this is a big girl in the village, even her husband's family can't talk about it.

Others started working from left to right, pulling two or three rows of soybeans at a time, but Bai Qingyue only pulled one row, and was left far behind by everyone.

Bai Qingyue also knew that she was making a joke, so she gritted her teeth, endured the tingling pain in her palms, and continued to work without saying a word.

It's hard to wait until the sun comes out,

When the fog dried up, when the women called Bai Qingyue to pick cotton, Bai Qingyue realized that there were a few big blood blisters on the palm of her hand.

"Ah! Your hands are covered with blood blisters?"

Aunt Zhang has sharp eyes, and she saw the blood blisters on Bai Qingyue's hands from a distance. She leaned over to take a look, and couldn't help baring her teeth and said, "Oh, girl, you are helping our team, and you are not Take centimeters, you can't do it so seriously. If Mrs. Yun sees your hand, she will blame Uncle Yun for not greeting you well."

The delicate and delicate city boy came to play in the village, and he had a blood blister in less than two hours of work.

When you go back, your parents must not feel distressed to death.

Aunt Zhang's voice was not low, and several women in the team heard it, and they all urged Bai Qingyue to go home and rest.

I'm not a villager, if I want to come to play in the field, I just need to help everyone. There's really no need to work hard with my head down like the villagers.

Anyway, no matter how much you do, no centimeters will be paid.

Bai Qingyue has a bit of a temper and is unwilling to admit defeat. Thinking of her purpose in coming to the village, and then being provoked by everyone's words, her stubbornness came up.

Tears were rolling in the eye circles, but he still said stubbornly, "I'm fine, this blood is soaked in the palm of my hand, don't delay picking cotton."

As soon as these words came out, the women's feelings towards Bai Qingyue were simply not too good. They felt that Bai Qingyue really deserved to be the son of the commander of the military region. Even though she was a little girl, she had a soldier's vigor in her body. .

Much better than the group of educated youths who came to the village a few days ago!

Not squeamish at least.

Aunt Zhang took out a square cloth burden, pinched two corners and tied it around Bai Qingyue's waist, then pinched the remaining two corners, folded it in half and tied it behind her waist, and the front of her body became a bag filled with cotton. Big burden.

After a few people got off the ground, Aunt Zhang slowed down to demonstrate to Bai Qingyue. She covered the split cotton boll with her five fingers, pinched the cotton, and picked it up gently, and the white and soft cotton was pulled out.

Bai Qingyue followed Aunt Zhang's example and plucked the plants one by one. After a while, her back ached, her neck hurt, and her fingers were so bloody that she couldn't take it anymore.

Picking cotton looks simple, but in practice, it is really not an easy job.

Cotton plants are about one meter high. There are about seven or eight bolls in a cotton plant. Some bolls grow on high places, and some bolls grow on the bottom. When picking cotton, everyone needs to bow their heads and stretch out their arms to pick the bottom ones. cotton.

After the cotton is opened, the cotton bolls will split into five petals and hard barbs. Fingers should go deep into the cotton petals to pick the cotton. If you grasp shallowly, the cotton will easily stay in the cotton tray. If you grasp deeply, Fingers are easily pricked by cotton petals.

Chapter 436 Don't Daydream

It's okay to have thicker calluses on the hands. If they get stuck, just rub them a few times and leave some red marks on them, and it will pass. scary.

Bai Qingyue has never done housework since she was a child in Dalian. Her fingers are as delicate as March's scallions, fresh and tender, and she can't stand the prickly thorns of cotton.

There was only half a pack of cotton in the bag, and the five fingers of his right hand were bleeding, almost dyeing the snow-white cotton red.

This time without the urging of everyone, Bai Qingyue took off the cotton bag automatically, and ran to the field to rest with her bloody fingers.

You can't do without rest. If the blood on your hands stains the white cotton, it might affect the quality of the cotton.

After Bai Qingyue left, the women nearby started discussing:

"This girl is really nice. Just like Changnan, she doesn't smile or talk, and she doesn't put on airs at all."

"Why don't you say they're two sisters? Look, they don't look like the children of a great military officer at all. They are not delicate when they do their jobs, and they may suffer."

"I see that this girl is better than these educated youths in the village! Those educated youths, tsk tsk~! It hurts to break a corn cob. If that work is painful, what is the work of pulling soybeans and picking cotton!?"

"It's not a big deal. The girl's hands are in such a state, and she didn't cry out that she hurts. If she put it on the female educated youths, she would go to the village chief to ask for leave and ask for light work."

"Four more educated youths came here yesterday. You can say that the male educated youths are fine, but they still have the strength. What can the female educated youths do? They want to wear that kind of cloth even when they go to the ground... cloth, yes, Bragi, even when they go to the ground. If you want to wear Bragi, can it be used for work? Don't you want to laugh to death!"

"It's fine if you don't work. She ran to the field wearing that called Han Ji. Those who knew said she was here to go to the field. Those who didn't know thought she was shopping in a department store. The little waist twisted and hooked in the village. The eyeballs of the youngsters can't even move away, isn't this affecting our production!"

Bai Qingyue didn't know that she was being compared to the educated youths in the mouths of those women.

Sitting on the ground, rubbed her sore waist, unscrewed the lid of the kettle, drank half a pot of honey water that Yunshang specially prepared for her in one breath, then lowered her head, looking at herself bloody fingertips.

No wonder when Comrade Lin Wenlan heard that she wanted to go to the countryside to become an educated youth, he said that she had nothing to do, that she couldn't afford to eat, that she couldn't do much work, and that it would delay farmers' production.

She was still very unconvinced at first, but now it seems that she really listened to Comrade Lin Wenlan's words.

Bai Qingyue let out a long sigh, looking at the blue sky and white clouds in the distance, the vast field scenery under the sky, and the snow-white cotton on the ground, fell into a deep confusion.

Going to the countryside to be an educated youth is far less beautiful than she imagined, but if she is not an educated youth, what should she do?

She won't be able to go to college, so she listened to her family's arrangement and joined the military art troupe? Or try to find a way to go to work in the factory?

Or, go all the way to the dark and continue to persuade the family to agree to her going to the countryside to become an educated youth?

As noon approached, Sun Hongbing could no longer care about his image in the land of educated youths. He stopped digging stalks, straightened his waist, lifted the skirt of his white shirt, which was still white in the morning, and had been soaked in sweat by now, and wiped the beads of sweat from his forehead.

Looking around, there are people bending over to work everywhere, and some people stand up to drink water, or fan the wind with straw hats, taking a rest in disguise.

There are people dressed in gray, blue and black everywhere in the field, and it is hard to tell who is who.

Of course, even if it could be seen, Sun Hongbing, who had just arrived, didn't know anyone in the village.

Seeing that Sun Hongbing stopped to rest, Wang Xiaohong came over slowly and asked him, "Sun Hongbing, are you thirsty? I brought water in the morning."

Sun Hongbing was thirsty, and wanted to take the water bottle handed over by Wang Xiaohong, but seeing Wang Xiaohong's burning eyes,

And the brows and eyes with a hint of shyness, he took his hand back again.

"Thank you, I'm not thirsty yet, you can drink by yourself."

He was a serious high school student, not Wang Xiaohong who was mediocre and only a junior high school educated woman could covet.

His future revolutionary partner must at least not look worse than the lesbians he saw yesterday, and must have a good family background, so he must not hold him back.

It is said that Wang Xiaohong's family is in a small county in Anxi Province, so where can they make a living even if their family conditions are good?

Besides, looking at Wang Xiaohong's attire and the calluses on her hands, the situation at home is not much better.

Wang Xiaohong was taken aback for a moment, not expecting Sun Hongbing to refuse her water.

Obviously, Sun Hongbing's mouth is dry enough...

Seeing that Wang Xiaohong was silent and staring at him with straight eyes, Sun Hongbing frowned slightly, a look of disgust flashed in his eyes, turned around, and distanced himself from Wang Xiaohong.

As for lesbians, seeing a man is like a hungry wolf seeing meat, so shameless!

Wang Xiaohong didn't miss Sun Hongbing's disdainful look in her eyes, her face froze for a moment, and she unexpectedly thought of Sun Hongbing's behavior of accosting Bai Qingyue when she was at the entrance of the village yesterday, and her eyes instantly became annoyed.

"Sun Hongbing, do you know the origin of the lesbian we met at the entrance of the village yesterday?" Wang Xiaohong lowered her voice and asked mysteriously.

Sun Hongbing was stunned for a moment, then shook his head and asked, "You know?"

Seeing Wang Xiaohong nodding, Sun Hongbing's eyes lit up immediately.

Last night, he wanted to inquire about Bai Qingyue's situation with the educated youth who came to the same room a few days ago, but thinking that he had just arrived and Bai Qingyue was a lesbian, he couldn't speak rashly.

Unexpectedly, before he had time to inquire, Wang Xiaohong had already asked clearly.

Before Sun Hongbing could open his mouth, Wang Xiaohong told the whole story about what he found out, like pouring beans.

"I asked the educated youth in the same room, the one who went to the town to pick us up yesterday, apart from the village chief, was the uncle surnamed Yun.

Old Yun's family had picked up a granddaughter in the early years, she was the daughter of the commander of the military region in the provincial capital, and she didn't return to the provincial capital until she was six years old. I heard from the villagers that the military commander's family is very grateful to Lao Yun's family. The granddaughter who was picked up will go back to Lao Yun's house for a few days every year during the holidays. Every time she comes back, she will bring a lot of things.

I heard that a few years ago, the son of Lao Yun's family was hired as a worker in the Fenyang Aluminum Factory, and the daughter of Lao Yun's family was also admitted to college. They both graduated from college last year and became cadres in the Women's Federation.

The lesbian we met at the entrance of the village yesterday said that she was sending her sister back to visit relatives. In this way, the lesbian is very likely to be the daughter of the commander of the provincial military region, sending her sister, the granddaughter picked up by Lao Yun's family, back to visit relatives. "

She is the daughter of the commander of the provincial military region, and she will definitely join the army in the future. Can you be a high school student who just graduated?

Chapter 437 Onlookers

She is the daughter of the commander of the provincial military region, and she will definitely join the army in the future. Can you be a high school student who just graduated?

Stop daydreaming!

Bai Qingyue came back from work with the old man, and as soon as she entered the yard, she saw Yunshang leaning against the eaves, her legs crossed, stuffing dried sweet potatoes into her mouth, and instructing Xiao Heiwa to pinch her shoulders.

If it wasn't for the delicate and tender face, Bai Qingyue would almost have thought that what she saw was a landlady in the old society.

Seeing that the two had returned, Yun Chang quickly pushed Xiao Hei Wa away, and asked Bai Qingyue with a smile, "Sister, how are you doing, are you still used to working on the first day?"

She even told the old village chief on purpose that she must not show mercy to Bai Qingyue. The work assigned to her today should not be easy, and Bai Qingyue couldn't make it through.

Bai Qingyue: "... If you don't mention going to work, I will still recognize you as my sister.

Those women in the team can work for seven or eight hours in the morning and afternoon combined without rest.

All day today, she only worked for three or four hours in total, and the work she did was less than two hours for others. The gap was so big that she could hardly hold her head up.

The old man saw that Bai Qingyue's face was a little restless, so he helped her smooth things over with a smile, "Shangnan, your sister is doing a good job today, the women in the team praised you for being able to endure hardship, and your work is better than that of the educated youths in the village. Reality."

Yun Shang: "..."

Lord, stop boasting, haven't you noticed that Bai Qingyue's face has turned into a big red cloth?

After washing her face, the old lady helped Bai Qingyue pick out the blood bubbles with a face full of pain, Yun Shang also carefully helped Bai Qingyue apply good medicine, and finally patted Bai Qingyue's shoulder solemnly, "Sister, it's okay, just take the medicine and rest for one night, it won't delay your going to work in the field tomorrow. When you get calluses on your palms, you won't get blood blisters when you work again."

Bai Qingyue was dumbfounded.

Then how many blood bubbles did she have to get to grow calluses?

Also, her white and tender palms are so ugly with calluses.

Bai Qingyue came back to Lao Yun's house for the first time, and today she went to the fields to do a day's work. The old lady was worried that her health would not be able to bear it, so she stewed half a wild pheasant for Bai Qingyue to eat at night.

Even the chicken legs that were given to Yun Chang in the past were put into Bai Qingyue's bowl by the old lady, and Yun Chang was so angry that she ground her molars.

Bai Qingyue knew that Yunshang was a narrow-minded person. In order to retaliate against Yunshang's successive verbal attacks, she deliberately ate a chicken leg and looked at Yunshang, which was full of provocation.

"Snapped!"

Yunshang put the chopsticks upside down on the table, and said to Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa solemnly, "Shuanzi, Xiaoheiwa, our grandma doesn't like the three of us now, and we don't even have chicken legs, wait for us to eat." After dinner, my sister will take you away from home! Let's go to Fenyang to complain to my aunt!"

Little Heiwa was just being naughty. Hearing this, he hurriedly scooped up a few pieces of chicken and put them in his own bowl. Holding his rice bowl, he dragged Yun Chang to the door, "Sister, I'll listen to you! Let's go now!" Fenyang sue!"

Finally, I can go to Fenyang to play.

How old is Shuanzi? He is much more sensible than before. He raised his hand and pressed the little Heiwa on the stool, and said to Yun Shang like a little adult:

"Sister, don't make trouble, eat quickly."

Yun Shang: "..."

Are you a sister or am I a sister?

No wonder people say that children are not fun when they grow up.

The former Shuanzi was so cute and soft, but now she has learned how to dismantle her.

It's simply too 'unfilial'!

The old couple and Bai Qingyue watched happily. After laughing, the old lady quickly took out the only chicken wing in the crock pot and put it into the Yunshang bowl.

The whole family had a lively dinner, and under the banner of taking Bai Qingyue to the village, Yunshang took her to the Educated Youth Spot.

The educated youths went back to cook after work. At this time, it should be the educated youths' meal time. She had to take Bai Qingyue to see clearly what the educated youths' daily staple food was.

Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan are both high-ranking. Since the year before last, the monthly grain quota has increased again. The Bai family really hasn't eaten any coarse grains in the past two years, which makes Bai Qingyue's temper a little naive.

Originally, I wanted to ask the old lady to make some coarse grains so that Bai Qingyue could taste what real farm food is like, but the old lady refused to listen to the persuasion, and just entertained her and Bai Qingyue with fine grains, for fear of eating. The boss neglected the two of them.

There was really no other way, so Yunshang planned to take Bai Qingyue to understand the life of the educated youth in an all-round way.

You must know that families at this time generally have a characteristic, that is, there are many children. Four or five is very common, and no one thinks seven or eight are too many babies.

Half a child, eat poor old man.

With more children, even many high-income cadre families struggle to support them, let alone ordinary worker families and village households.

Don't talk about fine grains, even coarse grains may not be enough for ordinary people.

When these educated youths come to the village, their superiors will subsidize some grain, but it will only be coarse grain, and the amount cannot be large. The big guys will definitely tighten their belts and live by counting the grains of rice.

She had to let Bai Qingyue see clearly if Bai Qingyue went to the countryside by herself, would she be able to adapt to the life of an educated youth.

Xiao Hei Wa bounced and walked ahead, and when he was about to reach the educated youth point, Xiao Hei Wa turned back and said with a disgusted face:

"Sister, those educated youths are making a joke again. I don't know what kind of food they cooked, and it burned again."

When Xiao Heiwa was talking, Yun Chang also smelled the smell of paste in the air, with a pungent sour smell.

Yun Chang's footsteps stopped the smell in a daze.

Are these educated youths doing poison?

With just this smell, you can lose three years of life if you smell it. How can you eat it?

Bai Qingyue's complexion also changed, her steps slowed down, and she tended to turn elsewhere.

How could Yun Chang let Bai Qingyue leave just like that, covered her nose with one hand, grabbed Bai Qingyue with the other, and turned directly into the educated youth spot.

Several people entered the door, only to see six or seven educated youths standing in the yard coughing dryly. Thick smoke was rising from the kitchen door and windows. of smoke.

This is...the kitchen is on fire?

Little Heiwa had a wild temper, covered her nose on the spot, grinned and laughed a few times, then rushed into the kitchen to take a look, and when she came out, she said with contempt:

"You city people are so stupid! You can even burn a pot of miscellaneous batter and leak the pot, why don't you order the house!?"

A group of young people were stunned to let Xiao Heiwa, a child, say that their faces were red.

What a shame.

After working for a whole day, and cooking for a long time, the pot leaked.

Let's not talk about being hungry, this pot is leaking, how can I eat in the future?

I just want to drink hot water, but there is no place to burn it.

Chapter 438: There Are Snakes

Seeing Yunshang and Bai Qingyue standing at the gate, she was so shocked that she couldn't close her mouth. A female educated youth with short hair came over and asked in surprise, "Comrade, you... are also from the village?"

These two people looked very strange, and they didn't look like villagers from the way they were dressed.

"Cough cough cough..."

Before the two of them could speak, Sun Hongbing ran over coughing repeatedly, smiled at Bai Qingyue, and explained to the female educated youth with a smile, "Comrade Li, these two are relatives of Lao Yun's family. We met at the entrance of the village yesterday. ."

Bai Qingyue ignored Sun Hongbing's words and said to the female educated youth with a smile, "Hi comrades, I'm here to visit relatives in the village. We passed by the gate and saw thick smoke coming from inside. I thought it was on fire. Are you all right? "

Li Zhiqing's face froze for a moment, and he said in embarrassment, "It's nothing, it's just that I put too much firewood in the fire..." The pot was accidentally burned.

The little Heiwa who had already run over was dismantling the table beside him, "It's nothing to worry about! Your big fire burned the small bench you sat on while burning the fire, and the miscellaneous noodles in the pot leaked all over the stove. It's like a war, it's scary!"

Educated youths: "..."

Where did the little bastard come from, why is everything going bald?

Besides, can you blame them for this?

Everyone is an educated youth from the city. Even if life at home is difficult, they all use a briquette stove. Who can use a large earthen stove in the countryside as soon as they get started.

Bai Qingyue's eyelids twitched a few times, covered Xiao Heiwa's restless mouth, and pulled Yunshang outside, "Comrade Li, since you have nothing to do, then we won't delay you packing up."

These educated youths are too unreliable.

After a day's work, the sun has set, and I can't even eat food.

Fortunately, she is not an educated youth!

Seeing a few people leave, Sun Hongbing quickly wiped off the black ash on his face, raised his legs and chased them out, "Comrade Bai, it's getting dark, I'll see you off."

Before Bai Qingyue could open her mouth, Xiao Heiwa opened her mouth wide and snapped back, "You gay man is really interesting. We're from the village. We don't know where we go? You're a stranger who came here yesterday. Don't run out and lose yourself!"

Their Xinglin Village is a big village,

These educated youths from the city can't even start a fire, what if they run out and lose it?

Their village is full of dark peasants, where can they go to compensate someone for a white and tender little white pig?

The expression on Sun Hongbing's face twisted, and he looked at Bai Qingyue with a smile in his eyes.

Obviously, he was waiting for Bai Qingyue's answer.

Bai Qingyue naturally understood Sun Hongbing's meaning at this moment, pulled Yunshang behind her, and said coldly, "No need, it's almost dark today, if you send us back, it's easy to invite people to gossip."

On the way back, Yunshang secretly stabbed Bai Qingyue in the heart, "Sister, do you know how to use the big earthen stove in the village? The educated youth live with each other and they have to take turns to cook. Can you cook? "Don't be like these educated youths, cook a meal and even leak the pot.

Bai Qingyue: "..."

Yun Chang continued, "The village has built two rooms for the educated youth, one for the male educated youth and one for the female educated youth. If you go to the countryside to be an educated youth, you are likely to be the same as our village. You have to sleep with other female educated youth kang.

Your own personal belongings, changing clothes, and eating have to be under the noses of others, tsk tsk..." I haven't found a partner yet, so I have to show the educated youth in the same room first!

Bai Qingyue: "..."

Seeing Bai Qingyue's footsteps getting slower and heavier, the corners of Yun Chang's mouth slowly curled up.

Well, today's effect is good, and tomorrow's will continue to attack the stupid big sister of her family.

The next day, when the broken gong for going to work rang, Yun Chang followed Bai Qingyue and stood up, put on the coarse clothes specially prepared for her by the old lady, put on a small straw hat, and was about to go down to the ground to hit Bai Qingyue next to her.

Today's job was breaking corn, so the old village head assigned Bai Qingyue to Aunt Zhang's side.

The dew was heavy in the morning, and when everyone entered the cornfield, their trouser legs and shoes were soon wet with dew.

Yun Chang watched Bai Qingyue roll up her trousers, exposing a section of Bai Shengsheng's ankle, the corners of her mouth twitched a few times, and she looked away as if she didn't see it.

What a silly lady.

These corn leaves can scratch people, and Bai Qingyue dared to show her legs, so she would suffer a lot soon.

Being scratched by a leaf, and then covered with ice-cold dew on the scratched area, it was itchy and painful. The feeling was so sour and refreshing.

Yunshang stood on the ridge of the field, helping to break the corn while listening to the gossip of the people next to her.

Not long after, Bai Qingyue jumped out of the ground out of the corner of her eye, tore off the towel around her neck, and carefully wrapped her ankles covered with red marks.

Yun Chang walked over and took a look, and saw that Bai Qingyue's body was not only scratched on her ankles, the back of her hands were also covered with red marks, and even her fair and delicate face had two red marks.

Bai Qingyue's face turned pale, and she bared her teeth to remind Yun Shang, "Xiao Qi, the corn leaves will cut people, you go to the field to play, don't put it in it to drill around."

I thought that breaking corn was an easy job, but I didn't know that looking at the simplest job would also suffer.

Seeing the aunts in the field snapping the corn cobs without stopping, the expression on Bai Qingyue's face became depressed again.

Yun Shang didn't hide her gloating at all, and asked, "Sister, can you do it? Breaking corn is the easiest job on the team."

"Snapped!"

Bai Qingyue raised her hand and slapped Yun Chang, and said with a stern face, "You are so courageous, you dare to beat around the bush and make fun of me?"

Yun Chang laughed, shut up and stopped talking.

After Bai Qingyue entered the cornfield again, Yun Chang's mental strength reached out, and she suddenly exclaimed, "There are snakes! Sis, there are snakes!"

Bai Qingyue jumped out of the ground in a hurry, her face turned pale with shock, "Where? Where? Where are the snakes?"

"Where!"

Yun Shang pointed to the top of the corn stalk not far ahead, on which a green grass snake lay.

After she went to the field in the morning, she spent a lot of effort to find it. Of course, she had to have a cool appearance.

And the location must be conspicuous!

After seeing clearly that there was a real snake, Bai Qingyue was so frightened that her legs went limp, and she quickly pulled Yun Chang to go to the ground.

Woohoo, it's really scary!

There were snakes in the field.

If it weren't for Xiaoqi's sharp eyes, she would have broken the corn stalk with the snake just now.

It turns out that doing farm work is so dangerous, she no longer wants to go to the countryside to be an educated youth!

The two of them didn't lower their voices. When the women in front heard that there were snakes, they jumped out of the ground one by one and ran towards this side.

Aunt Zhang's eyes were even brighter, and she broke a stick and ran over, shouting, "Where's the snake? Where is the snake? It's all meat!"

Chapter 439 I will not go to the countryside!

Seeing the green grass snake on the top of the corn stalk, which was a meter long, Aunt Zhang's eyes glowed green, and she took the wooden stick and whipped it up.

"Slap!"

The big grass snake was directly pulled to the ground, Aunt Zhang pounced again, grabbed the snake by the tail, swung her arms round and swung it a few times, knocking the big grass snake unconscious.

When Aunt Zhang threw the immobile snake on the ground, the woman next to her picked up her hoe, sharp-eyed and precise, and hoed off the snake's head.

Aunt Zhang was carrying the big grass snake that had lost its head, and she was excitedly muttering meat, meat, with the sound of swallowing saliva in her throat.

Seeing this scene, Yunshang and Bai Qingyue changed their faces, and the hairs all over Yunshang's body stood on end, and goosebumps all over her body.

After getting out of the ground, Yun Chang still didn't forget her purpose, rubbed her face vigorously, and put on an expression of extreme surprise and admiration:

"Sister! I support your decision. The vast countryside can do a lot! Don't worry, I will tell my mother when I go back and let her agree to go to the countryside to be an educated youth!"

Yun Chang looked at Bai Qingyue with burning eyes, her eyes were astonishingly bright, "Sister, the snake meat is great, and Mom is not in good health. After you go to the countryside, remember to catch the snake and send it back to Mom!"

Bai Qingyue was struck by lightning immediately, staring at Yun Shang with horror: No! I don't go to the countryside! Don't even think about it!

From yesterday to today, a series of practical problems that exceeded Bai Qingyue's expectations, such as a pot of ice water poured down from her pocket, completely woke Bai Qingyue up.

So much so that when she looked at the grass on the side of the road, she was still frightened, fearing that a snake would jump out of it.

Yun Shang exaggeratedly swallowed her saliva, and said enviously, "Sister, it's a pity that it's autumn harvest now, the weather is cold, and there are not many snakes in the field. If it is summer harvest, the villagers will often make snake nests when harvesting wheat. I heard people say that snake meat is delicious!"

Bai Qingyue: "..."

enough! I want to go home!

Bai Qingyue rubbed her small arms, and said with an ugly face, "Xiaoqi, school has just started not long ago, it's not good for you to take a long vacation, when are you going to go back?"

"Don't be afraid. I have good grades. It doesn't matter whether I go to school or not. Besides, my mother asked me for a month's leave, and I will go back next month."

Lin Wenlan said it all, you want me to do farm work for a month, and you want to be a deserter the next day?

no way!

Besides, she finally managed to play in a fair manner for a month. If she went back early, would she be escorted back to school by Lin Wenlan?

How much she can't bear to think about it, she wants to go back and throw herself into the trap!

Bai Qingyue was about to cry.

Why is her girl so sincere! If she asks for a month's leave and plans to stay in the village for a month, then she must stay in the village for a month?

It's fine to stay in the village, but if she told Xiao Qi that she was afraid of snakes and didn't dare to follow her to work in the fields, would Xiao Qi laugh at her?

Also, she is an older sister, if she admits to being cowardly in front of her sister, how can she hold her head up at home in the future?

In case Xiaoqi told her family about her embarrassing things, Xiaoliuzi, that bad bastard, appointed her to laugh at her for many years.

Seeing that Bai Qingyue's face turned green and pale for a while, and her expression changed back and forth, Yun Shang kindly reminded her, "Sister, if you are afraid of snakes, I will ask my grandfather to tell the village chief to take your Arranged in the drying field, responsible for drying the grain, so that there is no need to go to the field.

Bai Qingyue has done the work of harvesting soybeans, picking cotton, and breaking corn cobs. Next, it's time for her to change jobs.

Facing Yun Shang's kindness of being 'understanding', Bai Qingyue felt overwhelmed.

Let's agree to change jobs. She feels shameless, and if she doesn't agree to change jobs, she really dare not go to the ground again.

Bai Qingyue was bullied by Yun Shang, and she had long forgotten that her real identity was a guest who came to visit relatives in the village.

As long as she wants, she can be like Yunshang, gnawing snacks at home every day, gossip about the village with the old lady, or take the little black baby around the village to play.

Walking beside Yunshang, Bai Qingyue felt aggrieved for a long time, and finally nodded with a blushing face, "That's all right, I know how to harvest crops now, and it's time to learn how to dry crops."

Yun Chang choked, and the corners of her mouth couldn't help twitching a few times.

sister! Where is the face?

He was obviously scared out of his wits by the snake and didn't dare to work in the fields, and he said it so nicely, as if you could become a teacher because you are so good at harvesting crops.

The two returned home shortly after they went to the ground. The old lady looked up in surprise, seeing that the sun had indeed just risen not long ago, she couldn't help asking curiously, "Why did you two come back so early? Changnan, are you being naughty with your sister again?" ?"

Bai Qingyue: "..."

It's so embarrassing, she herself was afraid of snakes and dared not go down to the ground, and Xiao Qi was accused of it.

Does Xiao Qi think that she is not a good sister?

Yun Shang: "... " Grandma, you are really good, you hit the point right away.

I was really naughty, and my sister was too scared to walk by the side of the road.

"Grandma Yun, Xiao Qi isn't being naughty...it's because the morning dew is heavy, I'm afraid Xiao Qi will catch a cold."

right! That's it!

She was worried that Xiaoqi would catch a cold, so she came back early.

It's not that she is timid and dare not work in the fields.

Yun Chang was speechless, rolled her eyes secretly, washed her face with the hot water brought by the old lady, and jumped onto the kang, unable to get off.

Woke up so early in the morning and walked so much, it's a pity that her long legs are sore.

Yun Chang thumped her calf and asked the old lady, "Grandma, where's the little black baby?"

I still want Xiao Hei Wa to beat her legs, but why is there no one there.

The old lady put down her face, stuffed the firewood into the stove, and said unhappily, "Together with Shuanzi, let Li Hongmei shout out."

Yun Chang was stunned, "Didn't Li Hongmei ask the old Li's family to get her back and get married? It's the autumn harvest, why does Li Hongmei have time to come out to see Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa?"

Li Hongmei gave birth to two grandchildren for Lao Yun's family by herself two years ago, and she made a lot of fuss about remarrying Yun Erchuan. Later, it was seen that Lao Yun's family and Yun Erchuan were determined not to want her, so she was persuaded by her natal family. , Married to another commune.

It is said that the person Li Hongmei married this time was still the first marriage, but the man was a little ugly and his family was poor, so it was delayed.

And the reason why the family wanted Li Hongmei was because Li Hongmei had given birth to two sons for Yun Erchuan, and they thought she could have sons, and the bride price was cheap, so they didn't think she was married.

Mrs. Li received thirty yuan as a gift from the man, and fifty catties of food, but when Li Hongmei went out, the old Li's family only gave Li Hongmei a pair of new cloth shoes, and sent Li Hongmei away naked.

The man's old lady was much more powerful than Mrs. Yun. Seeing that Li Hongmei didn't bring a single dowry with her, and she didn't even let Li Hongmei in, she dragged her back to Lao Li's house on the spot, and fought with Mrs. Li.

Chapter 440 Uncle 2 has a situation

She also pointed at Mrs. Li's nose and cursed that their family was willing to give Li Hongmei a gift money for second-hand goods. It was to make face for her own son, not because their family liked Li Hongmei. If the old Li's family didn't give the dowry money as a dowry, Li Hongmei wouldn't even think about entering their family.

On the day of the wedding, the woman went to the door of the man's house, but the man refused to let in and was sent back to her mother's house, which was extremely embarrassing.

If this marriage is to be left alone, the old Li's family will be lost, and the gift money will have to be returned, and Li Hongmei will be completely ruined by her natal family and will not be able to marry.

Mrs. Li has been powerful all her life, but she never expected that her new in-laws are not only better at fighting and swearing than her, but they are even worse at doing things than her.

There was really no other way, the old Li's family could only give Li Hongmei a little bit of the dowry gift from the man's family as a dowry, and Li Hongmei was considered married again.

Li Hongmei's new mother-in-law is not a fuel-efficient lamp, and she also takes Li Hongmei very closely on weekdays, because she is afraid that she will miss the two sons who stayed at Lao Yun's house and have no intention of living with her son.

In addition, it is the busy season of farming, Li Hongmei should not have time to come here, why did she come here suddenly?

The old lady sighed, and continued, "Then Li Hongmei was really harmed by her natal mother, and the new family she found is not a good one. Li Hongmei just came here, and I saw a bruise on her face. She was appointed to be at her husband's house Beaten."

Yun Shang: "..."

Back then, when Li Hongmei dominated Lao Yun's family, she almost sold the entire Lao Yun family to subsidize her natal family, and Yun Erchuan never touched Li Hongmei.

If Li Hongmei hadn't gone too far, the honest and cowardly Yun Erchuan would not have thought of divorcing Li Hongmei.

It's good now, Li Hongmei succeeded in getting herself out of Lao Yun's family, and in a blink of an eye, her natal family sent her to the wolf's den and married a domestic violence man.

This is just the beginning, and Li Hongmei's hard days are still to come.

Thinking that Li Hongmei was married and Yun Erchuan hadn't moved for so many years, Yun Chang couldn't help gossiping again.

"Grandma, what's the situation with my second uncle now? There are tens of thousands of workers in the aluminum factory, but none of them are suitable? What kind of job is he looking for?"

"Your second uncle has let go this year. He didn't look for anyone before because he felt that Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa were too young, and worried that Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa would be bad for his stepmother. Now that Shuanzi is big, Xiaoheiwa is also He is six years old, and he has a temperament that does not suffer, and with me and your grandfather watching, he is not afraid of Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa's disadvantage."

Yunshang regained her spirits immediately, got up from the kang, and asked excitedly, "Grandma, so my second uncle is in trouble?"

Damn, the honest man is finally willing to find a wife!

After so many years of being a vegetarian, if I don't look for him again, I'm really worried that Yun Erchuan's body will be suffocated.

When it came to business, the old lady stopped lighting the fire, looked around, walked to the edge of the kang and sat down, and whispered in the same excited voice, "Your aunt told me that she went to the aluminum factory with Xiao Zhou last time. Sending clothes to your second uncle, and seeing your second uncle sitting at a table with a woman for dinner, I guess your second uncle is thinking about it."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, "Grandma, then did my aunt ask what's going on with that girl, is it suitable for my second uncle?"

Yun Erchuan is just an ordinary worker, with no money, no house, and two sons who are struggling. How can a woman with good conditions generally like Yun Erchuan?

But if the woman's conditions are too poor, won't Yun Erchuan's burden be heavier in the future?

After listening to Yun Shang's question,

The old lady couldn't hide the smile on her face, and said with a smile, "I have inquired! Your aunt asked Xiao Zhou to inquire as soon as she came out of the aluminum factory! The woman was also married, and she said that her husband's family thought she couldn't have children. The couple divorced.

Your second uncle already has Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa in front of him, and he doesn't care if he wants a baby in the future. The grandma doesn't want anything, as long as the woman is good and can live with your second uncle in a down-to-earth manner, we don't despise her. "

Seeing that Yunshang's eyeballs were rounded, the old lady sighed again, and touched Yunshang's face, "It's your second uncle, who always talked about wanting a girl a few years ago. I guess I won't have a daughter in this life."

Yun Chang nodded, and comforted the old lady solemnly, "Grandma, our Shuanzi is white and good-looking. You let my second uncle raise Shuanzi as a daughter. It is enough for a son to have a little black baby." gone."

The old lady was amused by Yun Shang's words, she stretched out her hand and slapped Yun Shang lightly, and said with a smile, "Nonsense! A kid is just a kid, why should he be raised as a girl? Shuanzi is half a kid, if you listen to me In that case, I will be in a hurry with you."

When Shuanzi was a child, he was slow-tempered and had a good temper. He really looked like a little girl, but now he is nine years old and often hangs out with a bunch of brats.

Besides, a boy has to look like a boy. If it really looks like a girl, then it's over.

Yunshang laughed twice, and then asked the old lady, "Grandma, didn't you say that Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa's household registration is about to be settled last time, is it done now?"

If the household registration is not transferred to the city, the villagers should have opinions.

Yun Erchuan worked as a worker in the city and earned a lot of money every month. As a result, his father, mother, and two children stayed in the village as fourth householders. After a long time, the villagers must have opinions.

Thinking about it, Yun Erchuan is now a strong laborer, and he can earn a full centimeter by working in the fields. However, he did not contribute to the village. Throwing it in the village to eat the village's grain, isn't it that the villagers use the grain to support Yun Erchuan's family!

Although the old man is still working in the field to earn work points, but after all, he is old, how much work can he do?

Besides, Yun Erchuan won't distribute the money he earns to the villagers, who would be willing to give him food to support his family?

When it came to the household registration, the old lady was in a good mood immediately, with a smile on her face:

"It's done, it's done! That year, when Nianwazi sold the house in Xiaoyanglou to your second uncle, your second uncle went to register. Put the house in Xiaoyanglou under Shuanzi's name, and put it in his own name." The palm-sized foundation was laid down in Xiao Heiwa's name, and his own account was transferred to the aluminum factory.

Last month, Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa were able to meet their targets!

It was better when you bought a house one year earlier, and you could get a registered permanent residence. Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa were one year later, and the registered permanent residence had to wait for the quota. Fortunately, it was finally done, and the two of them will be able to eat food supplies in the future. "

While the two were talking, Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa walked in. Xiao Hei Wa's face drooped, his mouth was so pouted that it could hold an oil pot. Shuanzi also had a stern face, with anger in the corners of his eyes, and he couldn't even squeeze a smile out after he entered the door.
