Chapter 441: Becoming a Demon

The old lady stood up immediately, and asked with a stern face, "What's the matter? What is your mother doing?"

Shuanzi pursed his lips, shook his head and said, "It's nothing, my mother just came to see me and Heiwa, it's nothing..."

"You're a liar!" Before Shuanzi finished speaking, Xiao Heiwa broke the stage, "Grandma, my brother didn't tell you the truth! My mother came to ask us for money, saying that she had a stomachache, didn't you?" Money to see a doctor, and said that my sister has money, and asked my brother to ask my sister for money."

They are all younger brothers, so why does Li Hongmei want Shuanzi to ask her sister for money instead of letting him ask her sister for money?

Isn't it obvious that she feels that if her sister kisses Shuanzi, if she doesn't kiss him, she looks down on him from the bottom of her heart?

Xiao Hei Wa was so angry that she felt that she had been greatly insulted.

Mingming's elder sister also loves him very much. Every time she comes back, she brings him milk powder and raises him strong. Even the name 'Little Heiwa' was given by her elder sister for him. Why does Li Hongmei feel that her elder sister is more Pain embolus!

Everyone in the room didn't get the point where Xiao Heiwa was angry, but felt that he was too angry.

The old lady touched the little Heiwa's head, and gave Shuanzi a look, "What are you going to do for your mother, if it's okay, she can remember you and Heiwa? It's been a few years, how can I find you two? You came here empty-handed, so why didn't you come here to ask for something? It's fine now, and you still want to beg for money from Changnan, why doesn't she go to heaven!"

Shuanzi couldn't even lift his head up, blushed, and murmured, "I didn't listen to her either, that is, this time she was beaten by that person, I couldn't move my arms, and my hands couldn't move." Old Gao is swollen..."

"Bone hurt?" The old lady was taken aback for a moment, then asked again, "Didn't she say why she was beaten?"

Shuan Zi was silent for a long time, and said in a softer voice, "...For, for an egg, she came home early from work, and the family said she ate the egg secretly."

The old lady was speechless.

After living together for so many years, who is Li Hongmei, the old lady still doesn't know?

If it was said that Li Hongmei was beaten for being lazy at work, the old lady would never believe it, but if it was said that Li Hongmei was beaten for stealing eggs, the old lady felt that it was somewhat believable.

Li Hongmei, besides being diligent in her hands and feet, couldn't pick out any other advantages.

With a broken mouth, greedy for food, smart and thoughtful, with a cold temper, he is really capable of stealing eggs.

However, even if Li Hongmei ate the eggs, the family was too ruthless, how could they beat the mother-in-law just because of an egg.

Yun Chang leaned on the quilt, looked at Shuanzi under the kang without blinking, and wanted to hear what he was going to do.

Li Hongmei is nothing but Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa, no matter how much she cares about these two brothers, she never deliberately treated them harshly. In addition, when Li Hongmei and Yun Erchuan divorced, Shuanzi had already remembered, and he still had feelings for Li Hongmei in his heart.

Now that Li Hongmei encountered such a thing, Shuanzi didn't say anything, how could he not be touched in his heart.

Shuanzi sniffed, and said in a somewhat embarrassed way, "Grandma, I, I want to go to my mother..."

Before she finished speaking, the old lady frowned, "What are you going to do? To disturb other people's lives, your mother will be able to get better in the future? Okay, how many uncles are in charge of your mother's matter, you Just stay at home peacefully!"

The family took Li Hongmei so seriously every day, because they were afraid that she would still miss going back to Lao Yun's house and would not live in peace. Li Hongmei had just been beaten, and Shuan Zi went over to help Li Hongmei, making her feel even more uncomfortable. up?

After Shuanzi left, it was Li Hongmei who suffered.

Besides, Shuanzi himself is still a child, what can he do after he passes by? Do you want to reason with people, or roll up your sleeves and help Li Hongmei fight back?

What's more, the members of the old Li's family have not died yet. With the strength of the old Li's family, Li Hongmei will definitely come to help Li Hongmei to seek justice after suffering such a big loss.

It's really not Shuanzi's turn to be a child in this matter.

The old lady was stunned, Shuanzi stopped talking immediately, scratched his head, turned around and picked up the basket in the corner and went out, "I'll go to the river to cut some grass."

When Shuanzi went out, the old lady sighed and said, "Oh, what a crime, what's all this? Whenever something happens, Shuanzi comes to find Shuanzi, who is still a child. Can you control her? Shuanzi will be very angry when he comes back, and she doesn't feel sorry for Shuanzi."

When someone else marries for the second time, if something happens, they want to hide it and tuck it away, because they are afraid that the children in front will feel unhappy if they find out.

Li Hongmei was fine, she would come to talk to her two sons after being scolded for a few words, she wished that Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa would call her and give her some advice, she didn't even look at how old her two sons were.

With such a disturbing mother, Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa will be troublesome in the future.

Yun Chang glanced at Xiao Hei Wa, and saw that he was chewing sweet potatoes with great mouthfuls, and his little brows were still raised, as if he didn't take the matter of Li Hongmei's beating to heart at all, so the corners of his mouth could not help but curl up.

"Grandma, Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa's household registration has been transferred to Fenyang. After the new year, let Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa go to school in the city. The school in the aluminum factory has not closed yet, and you can still eat in the cafeteria. It was also convenient for Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa to go to school in the past."

When Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa went to Fenyang, no matter how long Li Hongmei's legs were, she would not be able to go to Fenyang without a letter of introduction.

The old lady nodded and echoed, "My son told your father about this before, after the new year, let your second uncle take the two sons away!"

If you stay at home, sooner or later, Li Hongmei will get involved and fight with others.

The old lady was unhappy, and when she was burning the fire, she pulled the bellows loudly, and when the old man came back from work, he was too frightened to stay in the house because he was afraid that if the old lady didn't go well, he would take him again. leak.

"Why don't you have eyesight! It's time to eat, why are you running out again!" the old lady yelled at the old man through the window, then immediately softened her voice, and called Bai Qingyue, who was squatting in the yard washing clothes, to come in for dinner.

"Qingyue baby, wash your hands and eat quickly, put the dirty clothes there, and I will wash them after dinner."

The old man: "..."

Can the differential treatment be any more obvious?

What's more, he is also the head of Lao Yun's family, even if there are a little more creases on his face, which is not as good-looking as when he was young, the old woman wouldn't want to look like this!

Seeing the confusion on the old man's face, Yun Chang suppressed a smile and pushed Xiao Hei Wa, who immediately ran over, wiped his face with both hands, and kept the other hand bent on his chest, vividly interpreting Li Hongmei coming. The whole process of asking for money.

After finishing the work, he did not forget to tell the old man to send him and Shuanzi to Fenyang to study early, otherwise Li Hongmei will come to ask them for money next time.

Chapter 442 The house collapsed

The old couple and Shuanzi were unhappy, and the atmosphere at the dinner table couldn't be lively anymore.

After dinner, the old man took Bai Qingyue to greet the village chief, and arranged for her to go to the village drying ground to help dry the grain in the next few days.

Yun Chang had nothing to do when she was idle, and she took Xiao Hei Wa every day to play in the drying yard behind Bai Qingyue.

The male educated youths in the village were reassigned to the transportation team, responsible for transporting the grain from the field to the drying yard. Following closely behind Bai Qingyue, Sun Hongbing couldn't find a chance to be courteous.

By the time the corn cobs in the field were broken, the weather had completely cooled down, and the northwest wind began to blow at night.

That evening, Lao Yun's family had dinner as usual, and when they were about to boil hot water to wash their hands, the village head beat the village again with broken gongs.

The old lady's complexion changed, she quickly put down the water ladle, and looked at the old man, "Go and have a look. It's getting dark, the village chief is beating the gong at this time, don't worry about anything."

"Well, I'll go to the brigade to have a look."

While the old man was speaking, he put on a thin padded jacket and walked towards the gate with a pipe in his hand.

Seeing that there was something going on in the village, Yunshang's eyes lit up with excitement, and she quickly put on her coat, holding dried sweet potatoes in one hand, and pulling Bai Qingyue in the other, yelling Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa to go to the brigade headquarters to watch the excitement.

Worried that it would be too late when they came back and they could not see the road clearly, the old lady hurriedly found Yun Shuilian's filial old couple's home appliance - a flashlight, and put it in Yunshang's hand, so that the children could see the road at night.

The speed of the group was not too fast. When they arrived at the brigade headquarters, many villagers were already surrounded inside.

After listening to the people around, Yunshang knew that the house of the educated youths had collapsed. Fortunately, the educated youths were eating in the yard, so they didn't overwhelm anyone.

However, the belongings of a few male educated youths were packed in the house, and there was no place to sleep at night.

The village chief wanted everyone to come here, because he wanted to discuss how to let a few male educated youths live in the villagers' homes, bring rations to join them for a few days, and then move back after the house is repaired.

Before Yunshang and Bai Qingyue spoke, Xiao Heiwa squinted her eyes and called out, "Sister! Who do you think these educated youths are? Cooking a meal can leak the pot, sleep on it I think it can collapse the house, who dares to take such prodigal things!"

His grandma said that he slept all over the kang and punched at night, and he didn't collapse the house at home. How can this educated youth be so troublesome?

Besides, when building a house for the educated youth, the villagers built a lot of adobe bricks. The house built was even more beautiful than the houses in the back village. How could it collapse?

It was designated that these educated youths wreaked havoc and deliberately collapsed the house!

Xiao Heiwa's voice was not low, and the people around heard it clearly, and couldn't help laughing out loud. Some villagers who were moved by the fact that the educated youth would bring food to join them also calmed down, and dismissed the idea of letting the educated youth live at home. idea.

Not to mention how much food the educated youth can bring with them, even if the educated youth burn the leaking pot and sleep in a collapsed house, with such destructive power, who dares to recruit people into their own homes?

He is still a male educated youth, he can't eat a meal regardless of the age, and he can't do housework. If he recruits people to his family, isn't he recruiting a living ancestor for his family? What if the house at home collapses again?

Calculated in this way, letting the male educated youth live at home is a loss-making business, and he can't do it even if he is killed!

Those villagers who had spare rooms and smarter minds began to retreat quietly. Only a few villagers, thinking about the food for the educated youths, clamored for the educated youths to live in their homes.

The old man also retreated to the back, lit up the pipe and stayed out of the way.

Lao Yun's house has a place to live, not to mention that there is an empty room in the front village, and there is an entire empty house in the back village.

However, Lao Yun's family has a place, and the old man never thought of letting educated youths live in his house.

These educated youths don't know how to cook, even if they live in Houcun's house, they have to come to Qiancun'er for meals.

It's hard enough for an old woman to serve the family's meals every day, and she also has to feed chickens and pigs. How can she have time to serve these educated youths?

Besides, there is a big girl like Bai Qingyue at home, if he meets a thoughtful male educated youth, and some gossip spreads, how can Lao Yun's family explain to Chief Bai?

Therefore, he is determined not to get close to this matter!

Seeing that the villagers in front were arguing unbearably, the old village chief frowned and reprimanded them a few times, and the big guys finally calmed down.

"Zhang Huamin, there are only four rooms in your house. My father and mother live in one room, you and your wife live in one room with four children, Zhang Limin's family of five lives in one room, and the other room lives in two sister-in-laws. Where did your house come from? Empty room, what are you still arguing about?"

"Li Juxiang, your six-bedroom family lives in a courtyard, and there are only three main rooms and four side rooms. Where do you plan to let the educated youth live in your house? Do you sleep under the building of your house?"

"Also Li Xiangjun, San Zhuzi, Wang Xifeng, what do you all come here to grab? You don't want to see if your family still has a place to live?"

The village chief cursed each of them by name.

The family had no place to live, and the villagers who were still fighting for the educated youths lowered their heads one by one, got into the crowd and stopped talking.

The old village head paused for a moment on the old man, then moved away, looked at the villagers in front of him and said:

"Today I'm going to talk about the ugliness first, no matter where the educated youth comrades live, they are not allowed to deduct the rations of other people's homes.

Also, I will be busy planting wheat these two days, the work in the fields is tight, and the houses of the educated youths will not be repaired until the autumn harvest is over. After all, several male educated youth comrades will live in the houses of the commune members for a month. Agree that the educated youth live at home, but you can't make a month halfway and drive them away.

Well, on this condition, I have a vacant room at home, and members who are willing to let educated youths come to join me at home come to sign up with me..."

"Village head, can we educated youths choose which member's family to join us?"

As soon as the village chief finished speaking, Sun Hongbing asked, and when he spoke, his gaze fell vaguely on the old man. ,

The village chief frowned, and after a moment of silence, he said, "It's fine, as long as the members agree, you can find someone else by yourself."

In case I assign someone to you, in the end there will be a quarrel, and I have to come forward to talk things out.

This is just right, the educated youth and the villagers form a pair, and if something goes wrong in the future, no one can push the responsibility to the village brigade.

As soon as the village chief let go, Sun Hongbing walked towards the old man with a smile, "Uncle Yun, I heard that our house still has vacant rooms, can I go and stay at home for a few days?"

Chapter 443 Smelly Shameless

"Young man, you have a good eye! Uncle Yun's house is the most spacious house in our village. There are vacant rooms, and there is no shortage of your little food. It seems that we have inquired about it in advance."

"Don't tell me, Uncle Yun's house is really suitable! Let alone the vacant houses in the front village, there are three main rooms and two side rooms in the back village. Educated youths can live anywhere!"

"There's nothing in the back village of Lao Yun's house. There's no cooking pot or firewood. How do you eat when you live in the back village? Could it be possible to live in the back and eat in front? That's too troublesome."

"It's not so difficult. It's easy to live in Qiancuner. Anyway, Uncle Yun's house in Qiancuner has land to live in. Why do you have to go back and forth?"

"Hiss~, this Zhiqing Sun is really shrewd. He has only been in our village for a few days, and he has found out the details of the people in the village. Knowing that Lao Yun's life is the best in our village, he chose it with a single mouth. to Lao Yun's house."

"I don't think this kid is necessarily going to the good life of Uncle Yun's house. Don't forget, Uncle Yun's house is considered a charming guest!"

Hearing the discussions of the surrounding villagers, Sun Hongbing's expression twisted for a moment, and the smile on his face also froze.

Lao Yun's family still has a house in Houcun'er! ?

Why didn't he inquire about this?

He put so much effort into bringing down the roof, what if he was sent by Mr. Yun to live alone in Houcuner?

Seeing the old man frowning and not speaking, the village head coughed dryly and said, "Father Erchuan, Sun Zhiqing wants to live with you at your house, what do you mean?"

"My family has land to live in, but it's not convenient for Zhiqing Sun to live there."

Sun Hongbing didn't expect the old man to reject him straight away, his eyes widened in surprise, and just about to speak, he saw the old man put down the pipe in his mouth leisurely, and continued:

"Everyone knows that there are sixteen or seventeen-year-old guests in my house now, and Sun Zhiqing is also a seventeen-year-old young man. If we live here, if any gossip is caused, won't it ruin the reputation of Qingyue's baby? ."

Sun Hongbing couldn't help but glanced at Bai Qingyue in the crowd, and continued, "Uncle Yun, why don't you have a yard in Houcun? I live in Houcun. Qiancun'er eats with a group, and we don't live together, and no one spreads gossip, do you think this will work?"

As soon as these words came out, the old man was stunned, while Yunshang and Bai Qingyue behind the crowd looked ugly.

Has Sun Hongbing made up his mind to stay at Lao Yun's house?

In order to get close to Bai Qingyue, this man agreed to live alone in the dilapidated house in Houcun.

This determination is really big enough.

The little Heiwa was jumping up and down in anger, and the little Heiwa's face became even darker.

This stinky shameless person is really treacherous!

He must know that his family eats fine grains every day, so he wants to live in with a shameless face, and exchange his coarse grains for fine grains!

His family's fine grains are used to entertain sisters Changnan and Qingyue, what the hell is he, Sun Hongbing, who wants to trick his family into eating fine grains?

snort! People don't look good, but they are pretty beautiful!

Seeing that little Heiwa was so angry that her big cheeks swelled into toads, Yun Chang bent down, whispered a few words to Little Heiwa, and then pushed Little Heiwa to the front.

"That won't work!" Xiao Heiwa ran to the front and said angrily, "You are so ignorant! If you want to live in my house, then when we go to Fenyang, my grandma can't stay at home and cook for you. Food? You said that you are a young man of eighteen or nineteen, and you want me to nurse a man in his sixties to serve you. What do you say you want to do? Worse than the landlord Lao Cai!"

Sun Hongbing's face turned pale.

Now that the situation is so tense, if he is really labeled as a landlord and rich man, he will not be dragged to criticize him!

This little bastard, with a poisonous heart and mouth, is simply too bad.

The old man was stunned for a moment, then quickly realized, following Xiao Heiwa's words:

"Sun Zhiqing, you heard what your Heiwa said. It is really inconvenient for you to live in my house. Our autumn harvest will be over soon.

You, Mrs. Yun, and I originally planned to take our two children to Fenyang after the autumn harvest, but there will be no one at home, so you will have to go to someone else's house to join us. "I can't let my old lady stay in the village to cook for you because of you?"

After the old man finished speaking, the village chief also frowned and said, "Sun Zhiqing, your Uncle Yun's house is really inconvenient, you should find someone else to go with you."

These educated youths are troublesome!

Isn't it just to live with a partner for a month? Anyway, you are eating your own rations. Isn't it the same as being with a partner? Why do you have to keep an eye on Lao Yun's house?

Xiao Heiwa even took off his big hat, and the village chief also spoke, no matter how many schemes Sun Hongbing had, he had no choice but to give up.

In the end, together with the educated youths, they chose a family whose clothes looked clean and tidy to form a pair among those who had vacant rooms at home and were willing to join the educated youths.

Seeing that Sun Hongbing had finally settled down, Xiao Heiwa breathed a sigh of relief: Great! The fine grains at home can be regarded as preserved!

The old man withdrew from the crowd and was about to call the children home when his neighbor Li Wenying also followed.

"Uncle Yun, after the autumn harvest, you and my Aunt Yun are really going to Fenyang? Are you taking Changnan to see her aunt and her second uncle? That's right, it's rare for Changnan to come back, so it's time to go to Fenyang. "

Xiao Heiwa squinted her eyes and raised her head proudly, "Aunt Li, my sister said that my brother and I should go to school! This time my grandpa and grandma are going to Fenyang to find a school for me!"

Aunt Li was stunned for a moment, then smiled disapprovingly.

What is the use of going to school? Have you seen all these educated youths who have gone to school come to their villages one by one?

If you don't go to school, you are farming in the village. After you go to school, you have to go back to the village to farm. If you have wasted money, you might as well buy sweets for your children.

Thinking of the fact that Lao Yun's family insisted on sending Yun Shuilian to study in the county in spite of other people's jokes, Aunt Li wisely didn't say these frustrating words, but said to the old man:

"Uncle Yun, you and my aunt said hello to me before going to Fenyang, and I will help feed the chickens and pigs later, but you can't go to Fenyang and starve the chickens and pigs to death at home... ..."

A group of people walked and chatted in the dim light of the flashlight, and soon returned home.

After Bai Qingyue finished washing and went to sleep on the kang, Yun Chang turned over and asked, "Sister, you've been in the village for more than ten days, do you still want to go to the countryside?"

Bai Qingyue was silent for a long time, then sighed, "I haven't thought about it."

These days in the village, she also sees the lives of the educated youths in her eyes. In addition to endless farm work, she also needs to overcome various practical difficulties beyond slogans.

These questions, which she had never thought of before, were presented in such a realistic way, which made her completely awake and calmed down.

Chapter 444: Gu Shinian Is Back

These days in the village, she also sees the lives of the educated youths in her eyes. In addition to endless farm work, she also needs to overcome various practical difficulties beyond slogans.

These questions, which she had never thought of before, were presented in such a realistic way, which made her completely awake and calmed down.

"Xiao Qi, it's time for you to go back to school. After these two days of busy work, we're going to go home."

Yun Chang reluctantly agreed, turned over, and refused to communicate with Bai Qingyue again.

It's too bad, after all, she was able to take a one-month vacation according to the order, but as soon as Bai Qingyue figured out her own problems, she started to pay attention to her going to school.

It is said that there is true love in the world, is there true love in the world? What about sisterhood?

It's all fake!

In mid-October, the autumn harvest and autumn sowing in the village were all over. Yunshang bid farewell to everyone in Lao Yun's family, carrying a small military bag, and brought the old lady to steamed persimmon buns specially for her, as well as freshly harvested tenderloins from the family's private plot. Peanut, as well as the wild game that the old couple was looking for, set foot on the train home contentedly.

Seeing the two of them coming back, Aunt Wu was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth. She went out and bought an old hen, and stewed it when she came back.

Qiuqiu jumped down from upstairs, and climbed up with two front paws holding Yunshang's legs, meowing non-stop.

Bai Qingming also poked his head out from upstairs, beckoning at Yunshang in a ghostly manner, and waited until Yunshang carried her upstairs, Bai Qingming lowered his voice and said, "Xiao Qi, Brother Shi Nian is back."

"Second Brother Gu is back!?" The smile on Yunshang's face hadn't revealed yet, but she immediately realized it, frowning and asked, "What happened to Second Brother Gu? Why did you come out at this time?"

It's not time for vacation, and Bai Qingzheng hasn't come back yet.

Bai Qingming rubbed his nose, and said again, "Not only Brother Shi Nian is back, I heard that Gu Guangzong is also back, and he even went to quarrel with Aunt Zhang yesterday."

Immediately, Yun Chang couldn't sit still anymore, threw Qiuqiu on Bai Qingming's bed, turned around and walked out, "I'll go find Second Brother Gu first."

Gu Shinian and Gu Guangzong, one is in the military academy and the other is serving in the Southwest, and the two came back at the same time, there must be something important that can affect both of them at the same time.

Moreover, Gu Guangzong also quarreled with Zhang Chunni, which is very likely related to Zhang Chunni.

Zhang Chunni has done one thing that can affect Gu Guangzong's future in recent years, that is, using Gu Huaiqing's handle to push Gu Huaiqing's position as political commissar, reducing Gu Guangzong from a political commissar to an ordinary soldier.

If Gu Guangzong quarreled with Zhang Chunni because of this matter, it is very likely that Gu Huaiqing's matter was found out again, and it also affected Gu Guangzong and Gu Shinian.

Thinking of this, Yun Chang walked more anxiously, went out, went to Gu Zonglin's side first, found that Gu Shinian was not at Gu Zonglin's house, left the family courtyard again, and ran directly to the small courtyard.

Gu Shinian was climbing up and down to clean the house. As soon as he came down after cleaning the windows, Yun Shang pushed open the courtyard door and ran into the house.

"Gu Shinian! Why didn't you send me a message when you came back?"

Thinking that it had been three or four days since Gu Shinian came back, she hadn't thought of calling her to come back, Yun Shang was so angry that she didn't even call 'Second Brother'.

Gu Shinian threw the rag into the basin, came over and knocked Yun Shang on the head, "How old are you, why are you still as naughty as a child?"

Yun Shang stared at me. What does it have to do with whether you are naughty or not and you don't call me when you come back?

It's just that Yun Shang was eager to know the reason for Gu Shinian's return at this moment, and didn't care about pursuing the matter of him not looking for her when he came back, so he pulled him to sit on a chair, and asked straight to the point, "Second Brother Gu, are you coming back this time?" , Was it implicated by Gu Huaiqing's affairs?"

"Well, Zhou Mingjuan was dragged out by the Revolutionary Committee to criticize. In order to protect herself, she reported Gu Huaiqing. She said that she was forced by Gu Huaiqing to marry him back then, and she also said that Gu Huaiqing's normal communication with people over the years was Accepting bribes, and talking about Gu Huaiqing's looting.

These things, at this point in time, are all fatal things. With such a bad father, Gu Guangzong and I will be affected.

But don't worry, with the statement of severing the relationship between father and son, as well as the third grandfather and the Gu family in Beijing, there will be no problem on my side. "As for Gu Guangzong, whether he can escape this catastrophe depends on his luck.

When Gu Shinian said these words, his expression remained the same, his voice was as calm and calm as ever, and he didn't take the possibility of Gu Huaiqing's death to heart at all.

Yun Shang could even hear a hint of irony in his calm words.

Gu Huaqing abandoned his wife and son for Zhou Mingjuan back then, and now Zhou Mingjuan also abandoned Gu Huaqing in order to protect herself.

It's ironic when you think about it.

Gu Huaqing's two wives, one of them was forced by him to fight back, and he took Gu Huaqing's position as political commissar in one fell swoop, and took away his savings of more than ten years, and the other directly pushed all the faults on Gu Huaqing's head when the disaster was imminent, wanted his life.

Of the two women in his life, none of them played simple roles. Gu Huaqing finally paid the price for his stupidity.

Yun Shang breathed a sigh of relief, leaned on the sofa, and looked sideways at Gu Shinian, "Since Gu Huaqing can't affect you, why are you coming back? I just heard Bai Qingming say that you are back, I was really scared Jump."

"I haven't been back for a long time, and I want to take the opportunity to come back and see you."

When Gu Shinian spoke, there was a smile on his lips, he stretched his body and leaned on the sofa, his brows were beautiful and handsome, and the fortitude like a knife honed in the army was also relieved, with a gentleness in it, and an unconcealable ecstasy all over his body. Extravagance.

Yun Chang was almost dumbfounded.

How long has she not seen Gu Shinian like this?

Seems like six years? ten years? Or twelve years?

It seems that before Aunt Bai and Brother Gu had an accident in the last life, she could still see such a lively Second Brother Gu, and it was rare for her to see him smiling so comfortably after that.

So, Brother Gu still prefers the army after all?

In the last life, he left the Beijing circle and gave up the idea of joining the army. Brother Gu was actually regretful and reluctant?

However, this second brother Gu is really pretty.

She was so pretty that she wanted to jump over and take a bite.

Seeing Yun Shang staring straight at him without speaking, Gu Shinian stretched out his hand and shook it in front of her eyes, and then said, "A Chang, the school may not be on holiday for Chinese New Year this year, I came back to see you this time, and I have to wait until next year to see you." Time to come back."

"Oh." Yunshang came to her senses, responded casually, and asked again lying on the coffee table, "Second brother Gu, I found that you are getting more and more beautiful. Such a handsome young man, I don't know which grandma will be cheaper in the future." sister."

Gu Shinian "... " What is this girl thinking about all day long?

Chapter 445: Grandpa's Brother-in-law

Gu Shinian looked at Yun Shang without saying a word, the expression on his face was indescribable, when Yun Shang saw this, her small face moved forward a little bit, and she continued to question, "Second brother Gu, tell me quickly , what kind of girl do you like? I will find you outside for you, so that when you come out, you can get married directly!"

Gu Shinian: "... "

What do you mean wait for me to come out?

Why are these words so offensive!

Gu Shinian was angry and funny, lowered his eyes, watched Yun Shang get close to his eyelids, pinched the round and smooth little chin, followed Yun Shang's words and asked:

"A Chang, tell me first, what kind of sister-in-law do you want?"

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and her mouth was like a firecracker, and she answered quickly and loudly, "Be good to Brother Gu, beautiful, gentle, you must be tall, you must have a good figure, and it is best to be protruding and backward. That kind of hand also needs to look good, and most importantly, treat me like Second Brother Gu!"

After a series of words, I didn't even stutter. It seems that I always think about it and practice in advance.

Gu Shinian's eyes fell on Yun Shang's round eyes, and the smile in his eyes gradually disappeared, "A Chang, your future sister-in-law has to be nice to me and you, she will be too busy to have time to be nice to you." She is good herself. At that time, Brother Gu will love your sister-in-law so much, and he may not treat you as well as he does now. "

Yun Chang was dumbfounded.

What does Brother Gu mean by this?

Others have a wife and forget their mother, but second brother Gu has a wife and no sister?

So, after Second Brother Gu gets married, she will fall out of favor?

Absolutely not!

But, then again, shouldn't a man be nice to his daughter-in-law? Why is this man replaced by Brother Gu? Why is she so uncomfortable in her heart?

Seeing that Yunshang's little brows were frowning and her eyes were still, Gu Shinian continued, "And after I get married, your sister-in-law will love my sister-in-law, and it will be Gu Pangui, not you. After all, my surname is Gu, your surname is Bai, and we are completely two families."

Yun Shang: "..."

It turns out that there are so many disadvantages for Second Brother Gu to find a sister-in-law of grandma's generation?

Originally thought that if Second Brother Gu got married, one more person would love her, but now it seems that this is a loss-making business!

Not only will the new sister-in-law not love her, even the second brother Gu will not love her anymore, and even the two families will become more and more unfamiliar...

no! You must not let Second Brother Gu get married!

Second brother Gu is her most trusted and closest family member, no one can destroy her relationship with second brother Gu!

But it would be too selfish to not let Second Brother Gu get married, and it would be too unfair to Second Brother Gu.

Second brother Gu has taken care of her for so many years, how could she not want second brother Gu to marry a wife just because she is greedy for his kindness to her?

What if Second Brother Gu's body is suffocated?

The corners of Yunshang's mouth drooped, she was silent for a long time, and finally came up with a solution that was not a solution.

"Second brother Gu, then, can you get married later, when I find someone who treats me well, you... get married again?"

Knowing that her thoughts were too selfish, Yunshang stuttered a word, very embarrassed.

Gu Shinian's breathing stagnated, and his face turned cold, "A Chang, what do you mean, you want to find me a brother-in-law from grandparents in the future?"

When he thought that Yunshang would get married and have children with other men in the future, Gu Shinian's heart immediately became agitated, like a beast roaring in his blood, causing all the blood in his body to rush to the top of his head go.

This emotion was more violent than when he sent Yunshang back to Bai's house with his own hands, and it was even more unbearable for him.

The little girl who was raised by himself and cared for carefully, is as weak and delicate as a flower bud on a branch in spring. How could she be willing to hand it over to another man to have children and take care of the housework?

Even if that man treats Yun Shang well!

In this world, besides him, who else can give Yun Shang wholeheartedly,

Unrequited love?

Thinking of his juicy cabbage, which will be chased away by wild boars who don't know where in the future, Gu Shinian's irritable eyes turned red, and his fingers unconsciously increased his strength, pinching Yunshang's white and tender chin. red seal,

"It hurts! It hurts... hiss..."

Yun Chang shook her head, shook off Gu Shinian's fingers, rubbed her chin, and gave Gu Shinian a very speechless look.

"I don't want to look for it, but I can't be an old girl, so my parents have to worry about it."

The daughter of the dignified military commander's family can't get married, she is a well-known old girl in the whole military region, if it spreads out, Bai Yancheng will be ashamed.

People who didn't know thought she was ugly.

Obviously she is good-looking and interesting.

Gu Shinian sighed annoyedly, helped Yun Shang rub her chin with his hands, and changed the subject, "Are you happy when you go back to the village?"

Yun Chang nodded.

Every day, she carries a military kettle filled with honey water, and a small military bag full of delicious food, and brings her little follower, Xiao Hei Wa, to follow Bai Qingyue to supervise her work. The whip is broken, how can you not be happy.

Thinking of the reason for Gu Shinian's return, Yun Shang sat up straight again and said, "Second brother, tell me what's going on with Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan now?" Makes me happy.

"Zhou Mingjuan reported Gu Huaqing, but she didn't do well either. Is it true that she and Gu Huaqing had broken shoes, or was she classified as a bad person, and Zhou Mingjuan was also expelled from the hospital.

Gu Mingzhu thought she was ashamed, so she personally led the little red guards, dragged Zhou Mingjuan out of the house, paraded her through the streets several times, and severed ties with her, even refusing to let her in.

Gu Huaqing's situation is even worse. Zhou Mingjuan has accused him of many crimes, and with the throwing of the gun, he is now locked up. When Gu Huaqing's problem is investigated clearly, he must be transferred to the lower levels at the least. "

Yun Chang was satisfied, and smiled until her eyes turned into crescent moons, "Does Aunt Zhang know? She must be happy."

Back then, they were bullied so hard by scumbags and sluts that they were almost forced to death. Now these two people finally got their retribution, and they fought dogs and dogs, tearing each other up. Zhang Chunni saw it, and she should have a feeling of revenge in her heart Bar?

"She knows, but Gu Guangzong is implicated by Gu Huaqing, and it is very likely that he will be sent down as well. Zhang Chunni is... a little tangled in her heart."

When Gu Guangzong signed the statement of severing the relationship between mother and child, it clearly stated that Gu Huaqing had a good character and admired Gu Huaqing's character. It wiped out the stain that Gu Guangzong couldn't wash off, and tied him and Gu Huaqing tightly together.

Now that Gu Huaqing is unlucky, Gu Guangzong can't even think about it.

Chapter 456 New Neighbors

As for Gu Shinian and Gu Pangui, when they severed their ties with Gu Huaqing, they criticized Gu Huaqing's character as worthless. These words that seemed quite rebellious at the beginning have now become amulets for the two of them.

Gu Guangzong severed ties with Zhang Chunni again, and bowed his head in front of Xiaosan again, just wanting to live a life of being a master, but after so long, not only did he not live a good life, but he was implicated by Gu Huaqing and Zhou Mingjuan. Can't wait any longer.

Especially seeing that Gu Shinian and Gu Pangui didn't have to do anything to live a life that he couldn't have imagined before, how could he be reconciled?

It's no wonder that he came to quarrel with Zhang Chunni.

"Gu Guangzong felt that Zhang Chunni was partial to Gu Pangui and me. He felt that Zhang Chunni deliberately pushed him to Gu Huaqing's side at the beginning, and then made a fuss about taking Gu Huaqing's political commissar position because he was not pleasing to the eye. He said that Zhang Chunni had endured it for so many years. Why couldn't Zhang Chunni bear it when he arrived at Gu Huaqing's house?"

After hearing this, Yun Shang was stunned by Gu Guangzong's magical brain circuit, and felt that it was not wrong for this person to be labeled as a bad element.

At the beginning, he was the one who wanted to go to the provincial capital to hug Gu Huaqing's thigh. For this matter, he helped Zhou Mingjuan slap Zhang Chunni in the face. years of life.

Now that Gu Huaqing is down and out, he puts all his faults on others and washes himself into a persecuted little white flower.

This ability to make up nonsense can be used as a screenwriter.

"This Gu Guangzong is simply too bad. If we meet again next time, I will definitely beat him up with a sack!"

He must be beaten into a pig's head!

Yun Shang raised her fist angrily, and then asked, "Second brother, how long will you stay this time? Is there really nothing wrong with the school?"

"It's okay. I had a political review when I first entered school. This time I just went through the procedures when I came back. It's nothing serious."

Gu Shinian glanced at the calendar on the table, and then said, "I can stay at home for about half a month. I promised you before that I would take you out for a big series. This time is just a chance."

If he hadn't kept in mind the matter of taking Yunshang out to connect with each other, he wouldn't have rushed back from school in a hurry by taking advantage of Gu Huaiqing's matter.

Yun Shang didn't expect Gu Shinian to give her such a big surprise, and couldn't help but rushed over to hug Gu Shinian, her eyes were as bright as stars gathered, flickering, and there was an undisguised joy inside.

"Second Brother Gu! Why are you so good! You are the best Second Brother Gu in the world!"

Yun Shang's words successfully pleased Gu Shinian, and the corners of her mouth that were originally smiling became more curved:

The little heartless man finally told the truth.

Yun Shang was so happy that she couldn't close her mouth, she pulled Gu Shinian and discussed with great interest the time and route of their departure.

"Let's go to the south first, take a tour of those famous big cities, and then go to the northeast..."

"A Chang, we only have half a month. If we go to the south, we don't have time to go to the northeast." Gu Shinian reminded.

"That's right, you have to go back to school." Yun Shang slapped her forehead, "Then we have to leave early. Second brother, I'll go back and pack my things right away, we'll leave tomorrow or the day after tomorrow!"

As soon as Yunshang walked to the door of the main room, she heard a noise coming from the next door, and then something was smashed, making a 'cracking' sound.

"Second brother, is there someone living next door?" Yun Shang turned around and asked in surprise.

The family next door has moved away for more than half a year, and the house has been empty there, and they haven't been here for a few days, why did they live in it?

Gu Shinian came over and heard the movement next door, with a strange smile on his face, "A Chang, you know the pain next door...it's old man Qi."

"Qi, old man Qi?" Yun Chang was stunned, and asked subconsciously, "Didn't Qi Zhenshan send old man Qi to Uncle Qi Yu's house? Why did you come back?"

Back then when Qi Zhenshan moved to the family courtyard,

It only took old man Qi a week to quarrel the people in the family courtyard.

Before Qi Zhenshan's work started, old man Qi helped him offend people, so that Qi Zhenshan's work could not be carried out at all.

In desperation, Qi Zhenshan could only send old man Qi back to the second child of the Qi family, and let old man Qi go to the government compound to show off his prestige.

Yunshang was gearing up for a long time, and was preparing to fight the old man Qi head-on, but the enemy moved their positions before going to the battlefield, causing Yunshang to punch the air, and she was aggrieved for a long time.

Hearing that old man Qi had returned and moved to Gu Shinian's next door, Yun Shang immediately felt a sense of fighting spirit, rolled up his sleeves, and ran out in a hurry.

In the yard next door, old man Qi, with red eyes and a hoe in his hand, stood angrily in front of the big urn in the yard:

"Qi Zhenshan, you unfilial bastard! I just came back, and you just stopped letting me drink. Believe it or not, I went to the army to sue you for being unfilial, and took your seat!"

Qi Zhenshan winked at his eldest son Qi Yu, while coaxing the old man with a frowning face, "Father, I didn't let you drink. Didn't you drink on the train just now? You just got home. Let's rest for a while and drink in the evening." ."

"Put your mother's shit on! You fucking son of a soldier is addicted to tubes, and you dare to control me! Give me the wine, or I will beat you to death with a hoe! Damn, I knew this Dogs are not filial, I should have drowned you in a piss!"

In front of the guards and several sons, Qi Zhenshan's face was flushed red with embarrassment when his father pointed at his nose and yelled at him.

What a shame.

If this man hadn't been for his father, he would have slapped him with a big mouth, what a shame!

Yun Chang, who was lying on the crack of the door and looking in, almost burst out laughing.

At the beginning, old man Qi was an invincible presence who quarreled all over the courtyard, even the most naughty kid in the courtyard would take a detour when he saw old man Qi.

After Qi Zhenshan got into trouble all day long, he came to the door with his things to apologize, and this time also let Qi Zhenshan see his father's ability to speak out.

The old man leaned on his head, and cursed relentlessly, "I knew you were unreliable, you bastard! The second child let me live in the family courtyard of the city government. You are an unfilial thing, just leave me here. In the yard, you wait, I will wait for me, I have to go to the military area to sue you! Let the second lead someone to arrest you and shoot you!"

As soon as these words came out, the faces of Qi Zhenshan, father and son turned black, and Qi Yu, who had circled behind Old Man Qi, rushed forward, grabbed the hoe in Old Man Qi's hand, snatched it off, and pressed Old Man Qi On a stool nearby.

Chapter 457: Seeking Death and Living

The weapon in his hand was gone, and old man Qi was stunned.

Look at the empty hands, look at Qi Zhenshan, then look at the grandson who took away his weapon, rubbed his red eyes, grinned, howled and fell into the big urn.

"I'm dead! My son beat me with his grandson! These unfilial bastards, I'll go to the ground to find your mother, I'm going to beat that stinky bitch to death! What kind of filthy bastards were they born to me?" Son....."

Before old man Qi came over, the guards had just filled most of the urn with water, and old man Qi fell headfirst and drowned in it head first.

Qi Zhenshan's face was so frightened that his face changed, he rushed over and grabbed old man Qi's feet, and joined forces with the guards to drag him up, "Father! Father! Father, I'll give you wine, I'll give you wine, Qi Yu! Quick, Quickly bring the wine to your grandfather!"

Qi Yu was also frightened by old man Qi. He didn't react until Qi Zhenshan called him to get the wine. He dropped the hoe in his hand, quickly took out the wine bottle from Qi Zhenshan's bag, and handed it to old man Qi.

Yun Chang was stunned as she watched outside. In the past, people always heard that when Qi Zhenshan refused to let old man Qi drink, old man Qi would hang himself at home by crying, making trouble, and hanging himself. Now it seems that this is not an exaggeration at all.

There is more than half of the urn in the urn, if Qi Zhenshan moves more slowly, even if old man Qi can't drown, he can choke his lungs.

For a sip of wine, this old man Qi is really willing to go.

It was almost November now, and the temperature outside was very low. Once the old man was soaked in water, his face soon turned blue, and his body began to sway unconsciously.

Qi Zhenshan dragged the old man Qi who was pouring wine with his head upside down, back to the house to change clothes, and at the same time ordered Qi Yu to grab firewood and boil hot water, so as not to freeze the old man badly.

Seeing that the farce inside was over, Yun Shang pouted regretfully, and pulled Gu Shinian to lean against the back wall of the front row house, waiting for Qi Yu to come out.

This wretched old man Qi moved to Gu Shinian's next door, she had to make it clear to Qi Yu that she kept an eye on old man Qi on weekdays, and she couldn't let him make trouble next door.

Qi Yu ran out of the yard in a hurry, and when he looked up, he saw Yunshang and Gu Shinian standing in front of him, he was taken aback immediately, subconsciously retreated to the yard, and closed the gate with a bang.

Yun Chang was stunned, but before she could react, the courtyard door opened again, Qi Yu blushed, and squeezed out from the crack of the door.

"Yun, Yunshang, why are you here?"

During the questioning, Qi Yu's calves were turning unconsciously. It wasn't that he was too useless, but that the beating he suffered a few years ago had left a deep shadow on him.

So much so that every time I see Yunshang in the past few years, I always subconsciously feel that my whole body hurts everywhere, and I stutter even when I speak.

Even though he is now a young man of fifteen or sixteen, he is two heads taller than Yun Shang.

Yun Shang: "..."

As for being so scared!

I will not eat you.

"Why does your grandfather live here?"

Qi Yu was silent for a while, and said, "You also know my grandfather's temper. My father was afraid that he would quarrel with the family members in the courtyard again, so he rented a room here and let him live outside the courtyard."

Yun Shang: "Your grandfather lives alone?"

"No, my mother will come over to cook for my grandfather during the day, and my brother and I will sleep here at night."

Qi Yu lives with old man Qi?

Yunshang gave Qi Yu a sympathetic look, and pointed to Gu Shinian's small courtyard, "Second brother Gu lives next door. I will watch your master in the future. If your father dares to go wild at second brother Gu's house, I will I will beat you!"

As he spoke, he raised his white and tender little fist as if threatening.

Qi Yu suddenly felt that the head that had been beaten by Yun Shang started to hurt again.

Glancing at Gu Shinian, he saw him standing beside Yun Shang without saying a word, with a straight figure and a doting expression, as if he was doing what Yun Shang said, and the corners of his mouth twitched a few times.

It's over! One Yunshang is enough to deal with, and now there is one more Gu Shinian who puts Yunshang first in everything, and is more difficult to mess with than Yunshang, who will live here in the future,

I have to live with courage.

Back from the small courtyard, Lin Wenlan and Bai Yancheng also came back from get off work, and before they were happy that their daughter came back from Qinghe County, they heard that Yunshang was going out with Gu Shinian again.

Bai Yancheng couldn't bear to slump with Yun Chang, and vented his anger on Gu Shinian, carrying Yun Chang on his back, his face was so stinky.

Lin Wenlan's face was not good-looking, but Lin Wenlan knew better in her heart that it was Yun Shang's idea to go out with Gu Shinian to join forces. Shi Nian looked at her face, but tidied up Yun Chang.

Yunshang held Qiuqiu and followed Lin Wenlan into the room. Before Lin Wenlan lowered her face, she took out the silk scarf she had prepared a long time ago from her arms, and said with a flattering expression, "Mom, I asked Second Brother Gu to entrust someone to give it to me." The silk scarf you bought looks good, right?"

She bought this silk scarf in Shenshi a few years ago, and the old lady said she would keep it as a dowry for her in the future. After only a few years, she took it out to coax Lin Wenlan into using it.

Alas, being a daughter is really not easy, not only do you have to learn how to dress in colorful clothes to entertain your relatives, but you also have to be rich.

Lin Wenlan is also a beauty lover, her eyes fell on the beige silk scarf, and her eyes couldn't be pulled out.

But thinking that this was something Yunshang took out, Lin Wenlan still cruelly looked away, pretending to be wronged and helpless, and said, "No matter how good-looking this thing is, it's not good to wear out. Besides, my mother is already old. What does this sound like?"

Well, this is a girl's sugar-coated cannonball, you must not be fooled!

Knowing that she likes these things, every time this girl does something bad, she uses this trick to fool her.

It's really bad!

"Why can't I wear it!? My mother is young and beautiful, and she is in her prime. This silk scarf is just right for me. If you don't believe me, go out and show it to my dad! Even if you don't have a chance to wear it on weekdays, you can always wear it when you are on stage, right?"

Yun Shang put the silk scarf on Lin Wenlan's neck and gestured for a long time, with a look of amazement on her face: "Look, how beautiful it is! This is the only one I have asked to snatch!"

Lin Wenlan took the silk scarf and touched it lovingly, "This thing can only be bought in Shenshi now, right? Your grandma used to have good silk and satin in her hands, but it's a pity...it's gone now."

Yun Chang leaned over and shook Lin Wenlan's arm back and forth, "Mom, I asked someone to bring this from Shenshi, the quality is good or bad, the patterns and colors are the same, we don't have to choose.

I just thought, this time, I will take the opportunity of the big series to go shopping in the south by myself, and then I will buy beautiful silk scarves and facial oil for you and my sister, and then go to the Friendship Store to buy chocolates, and go to the south to eat snacks.

I won't go back this time, and I guess I won't have the chance to wander around in the future. "

In order for the three of us to be beautiful, you still agree to let me go out and roam!

Chapter 458 Arriving in Shenshi

Thinking of the current situation, Lin Wenlan sighed, straightened Zheng Yunshang's clothes, and told her, "Don't run around when you go outside, and listen to the words of the year. When the time comes, mom will bring you more money, and when you see something you like Just buy it, don't be reluctant to spend money. It's cold now, wear thicker clothes outside, don't catch a cold, remember to come back early..."

Listening to Lin Wenlan's instructions, Yun Chang nodded again and again, and secretly decided in her heart that she would definitely buy Lin Wenlan a lot of gifts when she came back.

Lin Wenlan let go, even if Bai Yancheng was not happy, he didn't dare to object. After being sulky for a long time, he finally reluctantly ordered the guards to book train tickets for Yun Shang and Gu Shinian .

Although the two of them can take the bus for free as long as they provide a letter of introduction and student ID card, Bai Yancheng still feels distressed when he thinks of his delicate little girl going to squeeze into a hard-seat car, and not only helps them book sleeper tickets, and directly sent a car to send people to the train.

Knowing that Yunshang and Gu Shinian were going to Shenshi, Bai Qingming's eyes turned red with envy, he pretended not to go to school, pestered Lin Wenlan for a long time, and finally was slapped out by Bai Yancheng.

Bai Qingyue also wanted to go to Shenshi, but Lin Wenlan had already arranged for her to join the art troupe, and she was due to report in the next two days, so she could only reluctantly send Yunshang out of the house.

Yun Chang was wearing a small military uniform and carried her bulging small military bag. Escorted by the small soldiers arranged by Gu Shinian and Bai Yancheng, she passed through the noisy crowd and squeezed onto the train.

After finding the berths for the two of them, the little soldier helped put the luggage away, and then turned around and got out of the car.

Yun Shang lay at the window, looked at groups of students on the platform, and asked curiously, "Second brother Gu, do you think these are also students who went out to join forces?"

Gu Shinian glanced sideways, lowered his voice and said, "Not necessarily, I guess there are some educated youths who went to the south to go to the countryside."

"Hey..." Yunshang sighed a long time, leaned on the bunk and sat down, "We can still take the sleeper car when we go to Shenshi, and when we go to other places after visiting Shenshi, we have to squeeze hard-seat cars."

Fortunately, it's winter now. If it were summer and so many people crowded the train, the smell on the train would be so bad.

"It's okay, it will be a short-distance bus at that time, and it will be there in a few hours."

The train left Linyang Station very quickly, Gu Shinian came back with a tea mug to fetch hot water, soaked the boiled eggs that had been thoroughly cooled, and stuffed them into Yunshang's hands.

While eating boiled eggs, Yunshang looked at the scenery outside the car window, but she also spent a little energy in the space, sorting out the game and local products that were going to be sold in Shenshi.

She and Gu Shinian have already discussed that when they go out this time, they will first visit the libraries in various cities, collect as many books as possible, and go to the buying station to pick up the leaks. If there is enough time, the two will also plan to go to the black markets in various places. Take a walk around, look at the fruits and fine grains in the space, and collect as many local specialties and seafood as possible.

The road was safe and sound, but when the train arrived in Shenshi, it was a few hours late.

Gu Shinian carried the luggage in one hand, and led Yunshang out of the train station in the other. Looking at the group of students gathered not far in front of him, he asked Yunshang in a low voice, "Ah Chang, should we live in the hostel by ourselves, or in the hostel that hosts the students in series?" School?"

According to Gu Shinian's thinking, he naturally wanted Yunshang to live in the guest house, but thinking that Yunshang also wanted to see the grand occasion of the big series, he stopped to ask for Yunshang's opinion.

Yun Shang stood there hesitating for a long time, thinking of her own and Gu Shinian's purpose, and thinking that after joining the 'organization', she would not be able to move freely, so she suppressed her curiosity with great difficulty, and said, "Second Brother Gu, let's live in a guest house , and it's convenient to go out at night."

Gu Shinian breathed a sigh of relief, took Yunshang onto the tram, and found a guest house in the city center to stay.

After staying on the train for nearly three days, even if it was a sleeper, Yun Shang felt that all the bones in her body were about to fall apart.

close the door

After entering the space, he took a good wash, drank a bowl of hot soup, and then fell asleep on the soft Simmons.

It wasn't until the two of them had a complete rest in the space that it was only two hours outside.

Shenshi is much warmer than Linyang. After leaving the space, Yunshang changed out of the thick padded jacket, put on thin clothes suitable for this season, and followed Gu Shinian out of the house relaxedly.

Standing on the bustling cross street, Yun Chang rubbed her flat belly and asked, "Second Brother Gu, where shall we go first?"

Gu Shinian did not ignore Yun Shang's suggestive gesture, and was speechless for a long time, dragging her into a nearby restaurant.

The hotel environment is not bad. There are more than a dozen mahogany tables and chairs in the square hall. The material is ordinary, but the workmanship is still fine.

It was meal time right now, and there were already seven or eight tables of guests sitting in the restaurant. Although most of the dishes ordered by each table were different, but after all the calculations, it can be seen that the dishes for the meal are very rich.

I have to admit that when it comes to eating, the people of Shenshi are indeed much more sophisticated than the people of Linyang.

"Steamed fish, braised pork, boiled prawns, stir-fried vegetables, and a tofu soup." Yun Shang's meal tasted light, Gu Shinian looked at the menu on the small blackboard, and ordered four dishes in one go, plus one soup.

The dishes were plentiful, and the prices were quite impressive. These few dishes cost Gu Shinian 18.40 cents in total, almost half a month's wages for an ordinary worker.

After waiting for about 20 minutes, several dishes came with soup and take-away staple food. The portion is not a lot, but it is enough for two people, and the taste of the dishes is also very good.

After dinner, it was about afternoon. The two asked passers-by to find out the location of the library, and walked slowly along the street, strolling and stepping a bit, preparing for the night's action.

Thinking of the current situation, Lin Wenlan sighed, straightened Zheng Yunshang's clothes, and told her, "Don't run around when you go outside, and listen to the words of the year. When the time comes, mom will bring you more money, and when you see something you like Just buy it, don't be reluctant to spend money. It's cold now, wear thicker clothes outside, don't catch a cold, remember to come back early..."

Listening to Lin Wenlan's instructions, Yun Chang nodded again and again, and secretly decided in her heart that she would definitely buy Lin Wenlan a lot of gifts when she came back.

Lin Wenlan let go, even if Bai Yancheng was not happy, he didn't dare to object. After being sulky for a long time, he finally reluctantly ordered the guards to book train tickets for Yun Shang and Gu Shinian .

Although the two of them can take the bus for free as long as they provide a letter of introduction and student ID when they go out, Bai Yancheng can't help but feel distressed when he thinks of his delicate and soft little girl squeezing into a hard-seat car.

Chapter 459 Harvest

The entrance to the attic on the second floor is not hidden, so a square entrance is opened in the corner, and you can go up by stepping on a ladder.

There were no windows and no electric lights in the attic. Yun Chang turned on the flashlight, only to find that the space above was not very big, and the ceiling was not high. It was only about 1.5 meters high. Gu Shinian had to bend over to move freely.

There was a thick layer of dust on the wooden floor, and six wooden boxes were placed in a row against the base of the wall, without locks. The boxes were full of old books in a mess, and the dust on the books would be scattered by the flashlight when touched. It began to dance wildly under the lights.

It can be seen that these books have been piled up here, at least for three or four years.

Yun Shang covered her nose and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother, someone should have stored these books here, should we take them all away?"

"Take it away. The entrance to the attic is not considered hidden. It's not safe to store these books here." Gu Shinian picked up the old books that fell on the floor, smoothed the wrinkled covers, and put them in the box. "The person who stored these books at the beginning , probably not someone who really loves books."

Otherwise, they would not have stuffed the books into the box without even tidying them up, and there was no cover on them to keep out the dust.

Yun Shang prided herself on being an obedient little girl, and as soon as Gu Shinian finished speaking, she swiftly put six large boxes into the space.

Before going out at night, Yunshang cleaned up a warehouse with a size of 300 square meters on the second basement floor of the shopping mall. Inside, there were a circle of shelves for storing old books and ancient books.

At the moment, six large boxes are placed in the warehouse, occupying only a small corner, but it seems that the warehouse is becoming more and more empty.

Yunshang withdrew her mental power, followed Gu Shinian and jumped down to the second floor, searched the entire second floor with the dim light of the flashlight, put the useful old books and newspapers into the space, and then left the library in the dark .

After returning to the room, the two entered the space, spread out six large boxes of old books one by one, and cleaned them up one by one.

The two of them worked hard for four or five hours before placing these books neatly on the bookshelf.

Early the next morning, Yunshang was woken up by the alarm. When she left the space, she found that it was still dark outside. After washing up in a hurry, she followed Gu Shinian out of the guest house again.

The street outside the guest house is very wide, and in the blue sky, the buildings on both sides look extraordinarily quiet and dignified.

Gu Shinian identified the direction, and took Yunshang to the direction of the river. Occasionally, he would meet pedestrians on the street, most of whom were tightly wrapped around their heads and faces, and walked in a hurry.

"A-Shang, where..." Gu Shinian held Yun Shang and motioned her to look at the grandma who came out of the alley ahead, with a scarf on her head and a basket on her arm, walking hurriedly.

Yun Chang froze for a moment, and asked, "Second brother, where..." Is there a black market?

"It should be, let's go and have a look."

Gu Shinian dragged Yunshang over, walked through the long alley, and soon arrived at a small trading place similar to a vegetable market.

There are chickens cooing in cages, fresh river delicacies in large jars, dried tofu, pickles, and fine grains.

Yun Shang lay on the edge of the jar, watching the big yellow croakers swimming around inside, as well as crabs and shrimps, her eyes couldn't be pulled out.

Probably because the clothes on the two of them were considered high-grade, and the person who sold Jiangxian had a very kind attitude. Seeing that Yunshang was squatting in front of the booth and not moving, he took the initiative to say:

"Little comrade, the big yellow croaker is 50 cents a catty, it's so fresh when you buy it back and burn it."

Yun Shang swallowed her saliva, pointed to the big crab beside her, and looked at the stall owner without blinking her round eyes.

"One crab is the fattest one to eat at this time." The stall owner continued with a good temper.

Yunshang nodded, then pointed to Xiazi beside him, and then looked at the stall owner again.

The stall owner was annoyed by the question, and stared at his eyes, "Hey, you little comrade, you ask around, do you want to buy it?"

"I want both." Yun Shang was not annoyed, and pointed to the things in the jar, signaling to the stall owner.

The stall owner was stunned for a moment, his eyes turned around Yun Shang, and fell on Gu Shinian who was behind him,

Seeing that Gu Shinian also nodded, he reacted instantly, quickly counted the goods, and put them into the pocket that Yun Shang took out.

These Jiang Xian added up to about 30 catties. After paying the money, Yunshang threw the big bag to Gu Shinian, and went to buy half a catty of raw fried buns for breakfast for the two of them, and then left the alley satisfied .

When they reached the border of no one, Yunshang quickly caught up with Gu Shinian, and threw the fish and shrimp in his pocket into the aquatic product section of the supermarket to ensure that the river freshness was kept in the freshest state.

These river delicacies are all pure wild, and the quantity is also small, so she has to keep them and eat them later.

"A-Shang, wait for me here, I'll go in again."

Gu Shinian swallowed the fried bun in his mouth, patted Yun Shang on the head, and strode back to the alley before.

Yun Shang was sitting at the entrance of the alley, stuffing fried buns into her mouth while looking in the direction of the alley. After waiting for about ten minutes, I saw Gu Shinian coming out of the alley.

"Second brother, where are we going now?"

"Let's go shopping today, go to the department store, and then go to the Friendship Store. If we have time in the afternoon, let's go to the purchasing station..." Pick up the leak.

"Oh." Yun Chang replied, her eyes still on Gu Shinian, as if waiting for his explanation.

Gu Shinian took the initiative to confess, "I just made an agreement with the fish stall owner, and I will go with him to the small pier below tomorrow morning, where there are people selling fish from the river every morning."

Yun Shang nodded, and then asked, "How much will we pay that person tomorrow?"

This is going to break into the opponent's den of thieves. If there is no benefit, how can people let go so easily.

"Five catties of food stamps."

"It's okay, it's not too dark."

For this toll, Yunshang expressed satisfaction.

At this time, the sky was already bright, and the sun began to emerge, casting a layer of golden light on the earth.

The two continued to walk down the street, and soon saw the No. 1 Department Store standing at the end of the street.

It was working time, the salesmen hadn't finished delivering the goods, and there were not many customers inside.

Yun Shang took Gu Shinian to browse counter by counter, buying the most desirable gifts for the family.

It will be November soon. In Linyang winter, the northwest wind blows all day long. Not only is the weather extremely cold, but the climate is also very dry.

As a filial daughter, Yun Shang decided to buy a few more boxes of skin care products for Lin Wenlan, wanting the best kind.

Bai Qingyue is also a big girl, she is in Aimei's grade, and she also brought a few boxes for Bai Qingyue, so she will definitely paint her stupid big sister's face white and tender.

"How do you sell this cream?" Yunshang asked while lying on the counter, pointing to the small round iron box inside.

Chapter 460 Big Purchase

"How do you sell this cream?" Yunshang asked while lying on the counter, pointing to the small round iron box inside.

"This is Yashuang's, one yuan per box, no industrial coupons."

While answering, the salesperson turned over the facial oil, and Yun Shang saw a sideways cheongsam beauty printed on it, with a bouquet of flowers on her chest, and her appearance was quite charming.

"Then get me ten boxes and wrap it up, and the clam oil on the side, and give me five boxes."

In this day and age, Yashuang facial oil is considered to be a high-end facial oil on the market in Shenshi. Yunshang bought it back and planned to distribute it to the female elders who are close to her family.

For example, Lin Dani, Zhang Chunni, Deputy Commander Liang's lover, and Gu Pangui.

Naturally, Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue also have some, but besides Yashuang, Yunshang also bought a few boxes of Pechoin facial oil for them, and let them choose their favorite ones after returning home.

As for the foreign cosmetics brands that are familiar to future generations in the Friendship Store, Yunshang also decided to buy a box for Lin Wenlan and let her try the effect.

After buying cosmetics, Yun Shang bought a wide scarf for Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue. Lin Wenlan is light gray, and Bai Qingyue is bright red. The color is very bright. It only costs four feet and two cloth tickets, plus eight yuan.

When I turned to the men's clothing section, I saw a cashmere counter in front of me. Yun Shang even bought three cashmere sweaters generously, one for Bai Yancheng, one for Bai Qingzheng, and the last one for Gu Shinian.

As for Bai Qingming, he was too small to wear such a big cashmere sweater, so Yunshang decided to buy him a pen, believing that Bai Qingming would 'like' the gift she gave her.

The salesman fiddled with the abacus a few times with his fingers quickly, and quoted a price to Yunshang, "A cashmere sweater costs 35.8 yuan, and ten industrial tickets are required. Three pieces are 107.4 yuan in total, and thirty industrial tickets are required." .”

After hearing the quotation, Yun Chang not only felt pain in the flesh, but also pain in the liver, and immediately had the urge to leave the old father and Bai Qingzheng at home and just buy a cashmere sweater as a gift to Gu Shinian.

But thinking of Bai Yancheng and Bai Qingzheng's love for her these years, Yunshang still suppressed the pain in her heart, gritted her teeth and bought three pieces.

Seeing white shirts being sold at the front counter again, Yunshang ran over and bought two for Gu Shinian.

Yun Shang looked back at Gu Shinian, imagining in her heart what Gu Shinian would look like in a white shirt and cashmere sweater.

A light gray cashmere sweater paired with a crisp white shirt, Brother Gu must look handsome in it!

Gu Shinian finally found the cashmere sweater and shirt packed by the salesperson. The moment he turned his head and met Yun Shang's gaze, his eyes softened quickly.

"A-Shang, everyone in the family has presents, let's buy a pair of leather shoes for Qingming." Or it's just Bai Qingming who has been appointed to fight with Yunshang for a long time.

Yun Chang nodded, and said in a regretful tone, "Leather shoes are also fine, I was planning to buy him a pen before."

Gu Shinian: "..."

Send Bai Qingming fountain pen?

Are you sure you're giving gifts, not enmity?

The two chose leather shoes for Bai Qingming, bought a few pieces of newly-launched fleece fabric, and finally went to the food counter.

Looking at the dazzling array of pastries at the counter, Yunshang finally confirmed that the famine that swept across the country a few years ago has really passed.

The last time I came to the department store, there were only a few kinds of pastries in the counter, and they were often out of stock. Even if there were pastries in the counter, there would be a sign saying 'exhibit, not for sale' in front of the counter.

But now the transparent glass case is filled with all kinds of pastries row after row, and there is no unsold sign in front of it, even if Yunshang is just standing in front of the counter, looking at the full of food inside, she also gets great satisfaction in her heart sense and happiness.

"Comrade, I want three catties of peach cakes, three catties of square cakes, three catties of plum cakes, two catties of toffee, two catties of Shaqima, and candied fruit..."

Yunshang bought a quarter of the goods on the food display counter in one breath. He collected 15 catties in all, and spent a total of more than 7 catties on national food stamps and more than 20 yuan.

That's more than a month's wages for an apprentice.

Seeing that Gu Shinian was almost out of room to carry his bag,

Yun Shang reluctantly glanced at the counter in front of her, then turned around and dragged Gu Shinian to the outside.

"A-Shang, I won't buy anything for you anymore?" Gu Shinian walked a few steps, then stopped and said, "A-Shang, go upstairs again and buy you two new clothes to wear during the Chinese New Year."

He brought Yunshang out to play this time, but Yunshang bought gifts for everyone in the family, but she was left alone, and Gu Shinian couldn't help but feel distressed for being so sensible.

Yun Shang shook her head, and pulled Gu Shinian to continue walking out, "I'm not in a hurry, let's buy the gifts for my family first, and wait until tomorrow to buy clothes for me."

Shenshi is the most prosperous city in China, and the No. 1 Department Store is also one of the busiest and most complete shopping malls. How can she finish shopping in such a short time?

Of course, I will buy the gifts for my family first, and then set aside a day to buy things for her.

Gu Shinian: "..."

Cooperating with him, my heart aches for a long time!

After leaving the department store, Yunshang pulled Gu Shinian towards the direction of the Friendship Store, and at the same time used the bag in Gu Shinian's hand as a cover to transfer the weight and space inside to the space.

Seeing that there was no one around, Yunshang hesitated for a long time, lowered her voice and asked, "Second brother Gu, don't you want to go to the small western building? The third grandfather gave you the house, and he hasn't come here for so many years. What if there is something wrong with the house? What should I do?" Especially now that the situation is so tense.

"I asked the third grandpa to arrange reliable people to live there last year. The small foreign building has a large area, and the third grandpa arranged two families in it. One is a retired old revolutionary couple with no children, and the other is in their thirties. , the kind that works in Shenshi, and the children can't come here in their hometown. Don't worry, the third grandpa has made arrangements, and there will be no problems with the small foreign building."

Yun Chang immediately heard Gu Shinian's voice-over, and asked with some surprise, "Second brother Gu, you mean you don't know the person arranged by the third grandfather?"

"Well, I now have a small courtyard in Linyang under my name, and the third grandfather also has property in the capital. At least on the surface, this small western-style building in Shenshi cannot have anything to do with me and the third grandfather."

After Gu Huaiqing fell from the horse, I don't know how many people wanted to stretch their hands into the border of Linyang. The Gu family was able to place Gu Zonglin in Linyang with so many people around, and I don't know how many people got in the way.

Back then when Gu Zonglin was transferred to Linyang, all the families were calm on the surface, but in private, those families made things difficult for Gu Zonglin. Fortunately, there was Bai Yancheng in Linyang, who secretly provided Gu Zonglin with a lot of help, allowing him to quickly Get a firm foothold in Linyang.
