Chapter 471: The Woman from the Capital

The sound of beating and cursing inside continued, Yun Chang pressed against the base of the wall, and cautiously probed into the small bungalow with mental strength.

Once the people inside dared to use the female teacher's age as an excuse to hit someone, Yun Shang would use her mental power to twist her hands into a slap and slap her directly.

Especially Gu Mingzhu, Yunshang took care of her more, deliberately increased her strength, and directly slapped Gu Mingzhu to the wall.

The people in the room were so frightened by this weird scene that they didn't even dare to move, let alone open their mouths to curse.

After a long time, someone finally reacted, rushed over, opened the door and ran out.

There was no one outside, the lights in the front yard were still on, and the windows of the two offices on the second floor were still full of people, with a fresh atmosphere in the world, and everyone's tense emotions relaxed a little.

The tall young man standing in the front cursed a curse, wiped his cold sweat, turned his head and kicked the person behind him, and cursed and asked who was behind the scenes to scare everyone.

Seeing that no one would admit it, the tall man rushed into the room again out of embarrassment and kicked the female teacher who was paralyzed on the ground.

Yun Chang suppressed the unbearable feeling in her heart, and did not come forward to stop the young man's actions.

Probably the actions of the young man strengthened everyone's courage, plus the door was wide open, and there was a brightly lit yard behind them, and everyone also put aside the weird thing they had just encountered, and squeezed into the room again.

Yun Shang is still the same as before, as soon as someone talks about the woman's non-marriage, they gather together and slap them again, and they are more vigorous than the previous wave.

Having seen ghosts twice in a row, and they were beaten while swearing, no matter how stupid this group is, they will know the reason why everyone was beaten.

A group of people scrambled to run out, fearing that if they ran slower, they would be entangled by an unknown evil spirit in the house.

Gu Mingzhu followed the tall young man with a look of horror, shaking her hands, took the arm of the young man who started the move first, and said, "Zhu, brother Zhu, is Teacher Xia playing tricks on this matter?"

"Yeah, Brother Zhu, this bitch is too evil, do you want to tell Director Zhu?" Someone beside him agreed, and pointed to the lit office on the second floor.

The young man pushed Gu Mingzhu's hand away with a look of irritability, "What are you yelling about! Do you want people to expose your feudal superstition thinking? I've rotted everything in my heart today, and no one is allowed to mention it in the future!"

"Brother Zhu, shall we still interrogate this bitch?"

"Retrial tomorrow! Didn't the students expose her class stance? Take her out tomorrow and let the students expose her." After saying this, the young man turned his head and wandered presumptuously at the female teacher for a long time. Added in a low voice, "Don't ask those irrelevant personal questions." To avoid the scary and strange things again.

When the leader spoke, the others naturally didn't dare to have any objections, they all nodded and bowed, and quickly agreed.

This old man surnamed Zhu is the director of the Revolutionary Committee. He is more terrifying than the evil spirits he meets at night when he starts a ruthless attack. All he needs to do is to flatter him. There is no need to confront this father and son.

After a group of people left in a noisy manner, Yun Shang stood there and hesitated for a while, instead of going in to ask why the female teacher was brought here, she quietly followed Gu Mingzhu under the cover of night.

Gu Mingzhu didn't know that there was a tail behind her, and after separating from the crowd at the intersection, she hurriedly turned into the alley next to her.

Yun Chang also hurriedly followed with her calves, but as soon as she showed her head, she saw two dark figures entangled together, making a suppressed and excited sound.

Listening to the movement, the woman should be Gu Pangu, and the male voice is a bit like the young man who took the lead.

Yun Shang didn't expect that she would run into this when she was following Gu Mingzhu, and felt embarrassed, thinking of her own purpose, she endured the shock and continued to listen to the two of them.

"Brother Zhu, how long will that woman stay with me? This is too inconvenient."

"Hurry up, the capital is about to start, that woman was appointed to go back a year ago."

"Really?" Gu Mingzhu's voice was full of surprise,

With a schadenfreude smile again, "...Brother Zhu, what is this woman's background? I watched her let the bastards of the Gao family trouble the Bai family, but it didn't seem to be of any use."

"You asked me about this?" The young man's voice changed, and he said with a warning in his tone, "Just entertain people in a peaceful manner, and don't ask if you shouldn't ask."

Yun Chang's heart tightened, but she didn't expect to hear something useful when she listened to the corner of the wall. Seeing that the young man threw off Gu Mingzhu and left on his own, Yun Shang stuck to the wall again and slowly followed Gu Mingzhu behind.

According to the young man surnamed Zhu and Gu Mingzhu, there is a woman from the capital hiding in Gu Mingzhu's house, and this woman is the one who persuaded Gao Sihong and Gao Jinbao to trouble the Bai family and provided them with a letter of introduction woman.

In this way, it was indeed people from the capital who wanted to do something against Bai Yancheng, and Director Zhu of the Revolutionary Committee was also involved in this matter.

I just don't know if Qi Zhenshan has anything to do with this matter, if so, did that woman secretly look for Qi Zhenshan? Old man Qi moved back at this juncture, and purposely lived outside the compound. Could it be that old man Qi's yard is their point of contact?

Also, what is the identity of this woman from the capital?

Yun Chang thought as she walked, and soon followed Gu Mingzhu to a narrow tube building. Through the wall, Yun Chang quietly stretched out her mental strength, and stuck two recording pens under the wooden bed and the outside cage respectively.

Gu Mingzhu's home is the other party's temporary foothold. With these two recorders, no matter what the other party says or who they meet, they can clearly record it...

When she got home, Yunshang lay on the bed tossing and turning, unable to sleep, thinking about how to disclose the news she inquired at night to Bai Yancheng.

She couldn't honestly explain that she didn't sleep in the middle of the night, went out over the wall, and went to the Revolutionary Committee half a city away to listen to the corner.

Could it be that she had to find an excuse to have a fight with old man Qi, and then use old man Qi's drunk talk to reveal the news to Bai Yancheng?

But she is already a teenage girl, and if she fights with old man Qi, a bad old man, how much will she lose? How will she get married when the news spreads?

Alas, forget it, cheap father loves her a lot on weekdays, if the time comes and she really can't think of a way out, she will sacrifice her image for it, and fight old man Qi again.

Bai Yancheng didn't know what Yun Shang was worried about. He only knew that his daughter had started to go to school obediently. Just when he was surprised at how her daughter suddenly became obedient and didn't think about being lazy, her daughter actually made a big fuss for him!

Chapter 472 fight

The guard Xiao Liu hurried to the door of Bai Yancheng's office and shouted, "Report!"

"Come in." Bai Yancheng responded, but his subordinates kept writing.

Without waiting for Bai Yancheng to ask, Xiao Liu lowered his voice as soon as he entered the door, "Chief...Yun, Yunshang and Qingming fought with the children of Deputy Commander Qi's family, and Deputy Commander Qi's father went to the military area to make trouble."

Thinking of the old man Qi lying at the gate of the military area with blood all over his face, unable to get up, holding a hemp rope in his hand, yelling to hang himself, the expression on Xiao Liu's face was indescribable.

With a father like that on the stall, Deputy Teacher Qi really suffered eight lifetimes of bad luck.

"What's going on? Why are you fighting? Is Changnan okay?" When he heard that Yunshang had started fighting with Qi's baby, Bai Yancheng was so shocked that he couldn't even hold his pen.

The children of the Qi family, a bunch of boys, the eldest, Qi Yu, is fifteen or sixteen years old, and the youngest is nine years old this year. Yunshang, a girl, won't suffer a lot if she fights with others?

This Bai Qingming, who sees the sky playing prestige outside, is appointed to be the one who got Yunshang into trouble today, and he will definitely peel Bai Qingming's skin when he goes back tonight!

Xiao Liu walked outside with Bai Yancheng, and explained, "Yun Chang is fine, but Qingming's face is painted, and old man Qi's face was scratched by a cat. Now he is making a fuss outside. I Someone has already sent to notify Deputy Teacher Qi."

Knowing that his daughter was not at a disadvantage, Bai Yancheng immediately slowed down, and his mind turned, "Have you notified the comrades in the political engineering department? Tell the comrades in the political engineering department to let Deputy Division Commander Qi do a good job of the military subordinates, and not let the military subordinates do the job." Things that affect the image of the military region."

It was just a few children fighting. As a member of the military, not to mention quickly pulling the children away and stopping the children's fighting, but also participating in the children's fight. What a shame.

As the guard of the commander of the military region, Xiao Liu has enough brains, and he immediately smiled and said, "Chief, before I came here, I asked the comrades in the guard battalion to move Deputy Division Commander Qi and his father to the reception room. Someone notified the comrades in the political engineering department."

Bai Yancheng didn't miss the word "moving" in Xiao Liu's words. The corner of his mouth twitched, and he suppressed his smile and said, "Nonsense! That's a member of the military and an elder, how can you just be rude!"

The troops used some tricks to deal with those who stalked at the gate of the military division. Even if someone just stays at the gate of the military area, or behaves suspiciously, they will be stopped by the guard battalion at the gate for questioning, not to mention deliberately approaching the gate to make trouble and damage the image of the army.

When they meet young and strong people, the guards will take them away directly; when they meet the old, weak, sick and disabled, it is the turn of the elder sisters of the political engineering department to play their role, or they will coax and drag them with nice words, and they will be taken away. Coax into the courtyard, or a group of people go up and drag and move, and directly carry people into the courtyard.

Old man Qi is a member of the military, and his son is a deputy division commander. It stands to reason that his ideological consciousness is much higher than that of ordinary people, but he took the lead in making trouble at the gate of the military area. , directly moved old man Qi into the reception room.

If Qi Zhenshan knew how his father treated him, he would probably die of embarrassment with that old face.

When the two of them arrived at the reception room, the comrades from the political engineering department and Qi Zhenshan were already in the reception room. Old man Qi, with blood marks all over his face, was jumping and calling Qi Zhenshan a waste. I was bullied, but he didn't help me Get ahead.

The cadre of the political and engineering department asked a lot, who bullied him, old man Qi poked his neck, and said very cheekily, "It was the cat raised by that little girl in the Bai family who scratched me! Qi Zhenshan! If you don't treat me today If you catch that cat for me to drink and eat, I will hang myself in the army, believe it or not!"

Everyone: "..."

You cried, made trouble, and hanged yourself for a long time because you were bullied by a cat!

How old are you, how dare you say this?

The old man Qi was cursing inside and no one could coax him well, Bai Yancheng's face turned cold, and he pushed open the door of the reception room,

After staring coldly at old man Qi for a long time, until old man Qi shrunk his neck and lowered his voice, Bai Yancheng turned around and left the military area, and walked towards the family courtyard.

At the moment Yunshang was holding Qiuqiu in one hand, and dragging Bai Qingming, who had one eye blue, to the family courtyard with the other. As soon as he entered the gate, he saw Bai Yancheng in front of him at a glance.

"Dad! Dad! Wait for me, why are you back so early today?"

Yun Chang's voice scared Bai Qingming and ran outside.

Damn! It's not time to get off work, why did his commander Bai come back?

It's over, it's over, he was beaten up like this, Commander Bai must beat him again after seeing him?

Now the trouble is big. Let's not talk about fighting with others, but in the end, he still got a lottery on his body. The most unreasonable thing is that he brought Xiao Qi to fight with others. Today, he will definitely suffer the beating.

Seeing that Bai Qingming was about to slip away, Bai Yancheng was so angry and funny, he turned around and shouted: "Bai Qingming! Stand still! Turn back and run!"

As if someone had stepped on the brakes, Bai Qingming stopped immediately, turned his head, and trotted all the way to stand in front of Bai Yancheng.

Today's battle was carefully planned by Yunshang, how could Bai Qingming really get scolded, so he hurried over and raised the ball to show off to Bai Yancheng:

"Dad, when I came back from school today, old man Qi stopped me in the alley and scolded me. The scolding was terrible, so I let Qiuqiu scratch old man Qi's face! The little brother saw old man Qi bullying me, so I told Qi Yu They did it, my brother was escorting me, you can't scold me."

For the sake of Bai Qingming protecting me, don't beat Bai Qingming, otherwise how can I coax Bai Qingming to help me with work in the future?

Seeing Yun Shang help him speak, Bai Qingming's eyes turned red from being moved.

Xiaoqi is really great! Although he didn't beat the children of Qi's family because of one-on-three today, Xiao Qi didn't think he was useless, didn't think he was ashamed, and even helped him intercede with Commander Bai, which was really considerate.

In the future, he must work hard to practice boxing and kicking well, and never lose a battle again.

The point is, it's too embarrassing to lose a battle in front of your own sister.

Bai Qingming wiped the corners of his eyes, and said with an unconvinced expression, "Dad, I didn't mean to cause trouble. The old man Qi trembled and couldn't stand upright when he drank. I can't beat the old man Qi, anyway, Qi Yu and the others It's old man Qi's grandson, I can't hit the old ones, I can always hit the young ones..."

"Well, then you rushed up over your own strength, and you didn't hit anyone, but you were beaten up instead." Bai Yancheng said very rudely.

unacceptable! Didn't everyone say that if you expose people, you don't expose them and beat people in the face? Why is his Bai Siling so painful and where to beat him?

Chapter 473: Behind the scenes

As soon as Yun Chang entered the door, she shook off Bai Qingming and pulled Bai Yancheng into the study.

She took back the recording pen last night, didn't even sleep, got into the space alone, spent dozens of hours listening to the recording, and really heard a lot of useful news.

Now that he has found an excuse to finish his battle with old man Qi, he can just take this opportunity to reveal the information he knows to Bai Yancheng.

"Dad, I know who made the Gao family trouble our family."

Thinking of what he heard in the recorder, Yun Chang looked serious, and his little face could be as serious as it could be.

Bai Yancheng frowned slightly, and was not in a hurry to know the answer, but slowly sat down on the chair, and it took a long time before he asked, "Shangnan, have you been investigating the affairs of the Gao family in private? Son?"

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, then quickly shook his head to deny, "No, last time you said that you want me to study hard, and I don't have to worry about family affairs, so I didn't think about it. Today, old man Qi is too drunk and talks to me. I just found out."

Her persona is a cute and obedient girl who won't let her parents worry about her. These private actions must not be admitted, otherwise it will destroy the persona.

Besides, the channel through which she got the news was too scary for Bai Yancheng. Of course, she continued to pretend to be a good girl and pushed the matter to old man Qi.

Bai Yancheng didn't doubt that her well-behaved little girl would lie to him, so she breathed a sigh of relief and motioned Yun Shang to sit down and talk.

"You just said that old man Qi slipped his tongue, what did he say?"

Yun Shang puffed her cheeks, and said angrily, "Dad, old man Qi said that there is a family named Yu in the capital who wants to trouble our family! He also said that there is a woman in the Yu family who is coming to Linyang, and she lives at Gu Mingzhu's house. Director Zhu of the Revolutionary Committee knows him, and he went to Old Man Qi's house to meet Qi Zhenshan two days ago!"

Bai Yancheng's brows twitched, she quickly got up and closed the study door, turned her head and told Yunshang with a serious face, "Shangnan, you just need to know about it, don't tell your mother, do you understand?"

I thought that my daughter heard a little bit of drunk talk from old man Qi, but I didn't expect that old man Qi was really a doorman, and he revealed all the bald things that should be bald, which is even more complete than what he investigated.

Seeing his daughter staring at him for a moment, with question marks in her big eyes, Bai Yancheng said again, "Shangnan, I have also found a lot of clues these days, so the Yu family is your third aunt's family. Keep the matter from your mother first, lest she lose her temper when she sees your third aunt and startle the snake."

Yun Shang suddenly widened her eyes, opened her small mouth slightly, and asked in a daze, "Dad, you already knew?"

Bai Yancheng nodded in response.

Yun Chang patted her forehead and continued to ask, "Dad, what's going on? Why? Does the third aunt's house have a festival with ours?"

The Bai family and the Yu family are both in-laws of the Lin family. Strictly speaking, they can be related. Besides, the status of the Bai family in the capital is not low. If there is no festival between the two families, why would the Yu family provoke the Bai family?

Now that the situation is so tense, isn't it better to have one more ally than one more enemy?

Bai Yancheng originally didn't want to tell Yun Shang about these messy things, but when he thought of his daughter's shrewd temperament, he was silent for a while, and then revealed a little, "The Yu family plotted against our family, it's nothing more than your uncle blocking the way now." In the way of the boss of the Yu family, the interests of the two families are in conflict, and there are always conflicts."

However, since the Yu family dared to plot against the Bai family, the two families could be considered to have formed a relationship.

Yun Chang responded dryly, and continued to stare at Bai Yancheng, hoping to get more news from him.

Bai Yancheng took a sip from his teacup, and continued, "The person sent by the Yu family to Linyang is Yu Hong. It's your third aunt's sister. It's been ten days since Linyang. Director Zhu is Yu Hong. We only met after Yang, Qi Zhenshan was on good terms with the boss of the Yu family when he was in the capital before, so it is not surprising that he is helping the Yu family with affairs this time."

Yun Shang didn't expect Bai Yancheng to act so quickly, and found so many things in just a few days.

The whole person lay down on the table, held his chin and continued to ask, "Dad, what are your plans for the future? Do my grandfather and uncle know about the Yu family?"

"Your grandfather and the others knew that the Yu family was behind the tricks. The Yu family sent Yu Hong to Linyang because they had nothing to do with your grandfather and uncle. They wanted to start with our family. But don't worry, with Dad around, no matter it Director Zhu, or Qi Zhenshan, no one can help the Yu family trouble us."

Yun Chang didn't doubt Bai Yancheng's ability at all. According to her understanding of Bai Yancheng, he might have arranged a dark hand at this time. Once the Yu family dared to make another move, Bai Yancheng would definitely chop off the opponent's claws. .

After satisfying her curiosity, Yun Chang rubbed her swollen head, and prepared to go upstairs to lie down for a while, and come down for dinner later.

Just as he opened the study door, Bai Yancheng called out to Yun Shang again, "Shang Nan, do you know someone from Chen Qian?"

Seeing Yunshang's blank face, Bai Yancheng added, "It used to be Erya, and she was your neighbor in Fenyang. Do you remember this person?"

"Erya is called Chen Qian now?" Yunshang was stunned for a moment, and immediately began to complain to her big thick legs, "Dad, this Erya is broken! She has taken a fancy to Gu Erge since she was in Fenyang, and she teases Xiaoyang every day. The kid in the building said bad things about me, and then ran to the provincial capital to join her aunt, and asked Second Brother Gu to take her in..."

Didn't Gu Shinian try to drive Erya away at the beginning, why did he reappear from a corner after disappearing for a few years?

It's just haunting.

Bai Yancheng: "This Erya is not in the right mind. When you see her in the future, remember to stay away from her. Don't suffer."

His niece is so honest and well-behaved, meeting a little girl like Er Ya who has a lot of thoughtfulness and evil thoughts, she will not suffer a big loss.

He has to be careful and not let his daughter deal with this kind of person.

Yun Chang nodded obediently, "Dad, why are you talking about Erya? I haven't seen her for several years. What is she doing?"

"I don't know when that Erya got in touch with Yu's family. It was Erya's idea for Yu Hong to trick Gao's son into trouble with you."

Yun Chang was stunned.

Erya had disappeared for so many years, and she always thought that she would never see Erya again in this life.

But who would have thought that he had been digging holes for her silently in places she couldn't see.

What kind of emotion is this that makes Er Ya so hard to let go of her, and loves and hates her.

If the victim hadn't been herself, Yun Shang would have been moved by Er Ya's patience and perseverance, which is hard for ordinary people to match.

Chapter 474 Letter from the Village

What evil did she do in her previous life to make Erya hate her so much?

Yun Chang hugged Qiuqiu, lying on the bed thinking about Erya secretly poking at herself, and made up her mind that she must find a chance to cheat Erya hard.

It's best to get rid of the poisonous snake Erya once and for all.

Otherwise, I would be sorry for Er Ya's 'deep affection and friendship' for me.

When it was time to get off work, Bai Qingyue wrapped a military coat over a sweater, walked through the long corridor, and knocked on the door of Lin Wenlan's office.

"Mom, I'm off work and I'm going home for dinner."

Lin Wenlan responded, quickly packed the things on the table, picked up the bag hanging at the door, went downstairs with Bai Qingyue, and walked to the family courtyard.

After leaving the gate of the military division, Bai Qingyue turned her head, glanced at the empty reception room, and said with a smile, "Mom, I heard from people in the regiment that old man Qi had a quarrel at the gate of the military division just now. He quarreled, and Qiuqiu scratched old man Qi's face."

"When did it happen? Did Xiaoqi suffer?" Lin Wenlan quickened her pace to go home while asking.

"Little Six is here, and Xiao Qi is not at a disadvantage."

After Bai Qingyue finished speaking, she immediately looked around, lowered her voice and continued, "I heard that my father didn't show up. Chief Ma told Qi Zhenshan a few words, asking him not to focus on work, but also to improve the quality of his family members. Discredit the face of the military region, and there should be no more incidents of military family members affecting the image of the military region."

Lin Wenlan breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that old man Qi had made Qi Zhenshan lose face so much, a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, "It's good that you don't suffer. Then the Qi family is fundamentally wrong, go back and tell Qingming and Changnan, In the future, you will have less dealings with the children of the Qi family."

, "The children of the Qi family used to fight with children from other families because of grabbing things in the courtyard of the capital.

Although it was a child who was ignorant at that time, it is precisely because of his young age that he can better see a person's nature.

The children of the Qi family would fight and grab things all over the yard when they were young, how could their nature be any better?

Coupled with the fact that there is an old man Qi who messes around when he drinks, no matter how good a child is, he can be spoiled.

The mother and daughter walked to the gate of the family courtyard talking and laughing. The guard, Uncle Zhou, called Bai Qingyue to stop and gave her a bulging kraft paper envelope, "Girl Qingyue, can you see if this is your letter? It says your name, but the address is not very clear, it was sent from Qinghe County."

Bai Qingyue took the letter suspiciously, looked it up and down a few times, and saw that the address of the military division's family courtyard was written dryly on the envelope, without even a house number, and she became even more puzzled.

It's just that she is the only one named Bai Qingyue in the entire family courtyard, so she is not worried about taking someone else's letter by mistake.

Lin Wenlan glanced at the letter in Bai Qingyue's hand, and asked casually, "A friend you met in Qinghe County last time?"

Bai Qingyue shook her head hesitantly, then nodded again, "...it should be."

During the half a month she stayed in the village, most of the acquaintances she met were the aunts and sisters-in-law in the team, and she never heard of any sister-in-law who could write well.

Besides, her friendship with the big guys didn't go to the point of communicating with each other.

Back home, Bai Qingyue waved to Yun Shang who was coming down the stairs, and shook the envelope in her hand, "Xiaoqi, it seems that someone from the village has sent a letter, come and read it together."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she ran down and walked to Bai Qingyue's side, "Really? A letter from the village? Let's see if the old village chief has something to do. He asked someone to write us a letter. "

The two sisters nestled on the sofa and opened the letter excitedly. As soon as they took a look, their faces turned dark.

Bai Qingyue was so angry that she wheezed and gasped, and randomly stuffed the unfinished letter back into the envelope without even reading it.

Yun Chang was also speechless for a long time.

She really didn't expect that this letter was actually sent by the male educated youth named Sun Hongbing.

All kinds of gorgeous rhetoric in the letter are piled up together, which not only fully demonstrates Sun Hongbing's literary talents, but also highlights,

Sun Hongbing was determined to learn from Bai Qingyue and make progress together.

Five large sheets of paper were filled, and if it were replaced by future generations, it can be summed up in seven words: I want to have sex with you!

Yun Chang was speechless.

When Bai Qingyue went to the village, it was the autumn harvest. Everyone was busy working in the fields every day, and even the time for eating had to be a bit stuck. Sun Hongbing still needed to go to the field to earn work points, so where did he have time to meet Bai Qingyue?

Knowing that Sun Hongbing was interested in Bai Qingyue, she, Shuanzi, and Xiao Heiwa stayed by Bai Qingyue's side all day long, and never gave Sun Hongbing a chance to get close to Bai

Qingyue. The two of them only met three or five times in half a month. He didn't even speak more than ten sentences, where did Sun Hongbing have the confidence to write to Bai Qingyue?

Besides, one of these two people is an educated youth sent to the countryside who didn't know how many years they had to go back to the city, and the other is the daughter of the commander of the provincial military region, and has a decent job. No matter how you look at it, the conditions of the two are extremely unmatched. Even if Sun Hongbing wants to pursue Bai Qingyue, why doesn't he check his actual situation first?

What's more, in the two times when Bai Qingyue and Sun Hongbing came into contact, his attitude was correct enough. Where did he get the courage to disregard Bai Qingyue's refusal, and desperately wanted to break this high mountain flower that he couldn't reach? ?

Seeing that Bai Qingyue stuffed the thick stack of letter paper back into the envelope without even looking at it, Yun Chang couldn't help but burst out laughing.

"You're still laughing! This letter is for you. Go to the post office tomorrow to buy an envelope and send the letter back to Sun Hongbing."

Yun Chang raised the corner of her mouth, and shook her head in disapproval, "You don't need to return it, and you don't need to reply to the letter, just let him think that the address is wrong, and you don't receive the letter, that's fine."

If he knew the letters Bai Qingyue could receive, Sun Hongbing would tear up his face and send a letter to learn from each other and make progress together, it would not be enough to annoy Bai Qingyue.

"Okay, sister listens to you, I won't reply to the letter." Bai Qingyue rubbed her sister's dog's head hard, picked up the letter and stuffed it into her pocket, "Are you hungry? Go wash your hands and eat."

Seeing Aunt Wu bring the hot food out of the kitchen, Yun Chang immediately jumped up and ran to the bathroom to wash her hands.

While the Bai family was having a lively meal, the atmosphere in the Qi family had dropped to freezing point.

The old man Qi was lying on the kang in a big font, crying and cursing while crying.

Calling Qi Zhenshan a waste, he is a deputy teacher, and let the old man be wronged in front of the comrades of the political engineering department, calling Yunshang young, with a vicious heart, and if he can't be scolded, let the cat scratch him, sooner or later She had to grow into a vicious woman, and she was asked to go back to her mother's house, and she even scolded Qi Yu and his brothers for being a bunch of softies, and left Bai Qingming alone there, unable to help him catch the cat...

Chapter 475: Qi Zhenshan's Careful Thoughts

Scolded Qi Zhenshan as a waste, he is a deputy teacher, and let his father be wronged in front of the comrades of the political engineering department, scolded Yunshang, who is young, has a vicious heart, and if he can't scold him, he will let the cat scratch him. Sooner or later, she will grow into a poisonous woman, and she will be sent back to her mother's house. She also scolded Qi Yu and his brothers for being a bunch of idiots, and left Bai Qingming alone there, failing to help him catch the cat...

Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law took the food out of the pot tremblingly, put the food on the side of the stove for the sullen father and son, took another big bowl, set aside a big bowl of food for old man Qi, and picked up two more Put the cornmeal steamed buns in the pot and save them for old man Qi to eat later.

After the father and son of the Qi family had finished eating, Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law took a black-faced steamed bun from the pot, pulled a green onion from under the chopping board, and squatted in a corner to eat lunch.

Qi Zhenshan glanced at his wife, motioned for Qi Yu to bring the pickle bowl over, and urged the children to finish their meals quickly and get ready for school.

After crying and scolding for a while, old man Qi saw that no one was paying attention to him, so he got up from the top of the kang, swung the small broom bump on the kang, and threw his hand at Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law's head.

"You unfilial thing! Sangmen star! You ate before I ate!? I'll beat you to death!"

While scolding, he slid down the kang with his hands and feet, walked over in a few steps, and kicked Qi Zhenshan's wife with his feet.

It's just that old man Qi is old and drunk, he can't even stand firmly, this kick didn't hit Qi Zhenshan's wife, but he almost fell himself.

"father!"

Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law was taken aback, and subconsciously hugged old man Qi to prevent him from falling to the ground.

The cornmeal steamed bun in Qi Zhenshan's hand almost fell to the ground in fright. Seeing that old man Qi was fine, he put down his chopsticks, walked over and dragged old man Qi on the edge of the kang, and then sat down to continue eating.

"Trash! Boss, you useless son of a bitch! This bitch is not filial, why don't you beat her!? If this is on your mother, I'll beat you up eight times a day! Sooner or later, I'll make her docile!"

Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law lowered her head and wiped the corners of her eyes, then squatted at the base of the wall without saying a word, continuing to gnaw on her black-faced cornbread and green onions.

Qi Zhenshan ignored old man Qi's crazy words, swallowed the steamed buns in his mouth, and signaled Qi Yu to talk to him outside.

"What's going on in the morning? Didn't you tell you to watch your grandfather a little bit and not let him go out? Why did you run out again?"

Qi Yu chewed on the steamed buns, and said impatiently, "My mother left the house to cook, and I just went to the hut, and my grandfather ran out and quarreled with Yun Shang, and I couldn't even pull him back. "

It's a human, not a cat or a dog, so I can tie it up in the house and not let it out.

Besides, don't you know what your own father looks like?

Qi Zhenshan smirked, and slapped Qi Yu on the head, "Who are you trying to embarrass yourself?"

Seeing that Qi Yu stopped talking, Qi Zhenshan slowed down his tone, and then asked, "Did your master not talk nonsense during the quarrel?"

"No." Qi Yu shook his head. "Just as my grandfather scolded a few words, the cat from the Bai family jumped over and scratched my grandfather. Afterwards, my grandfather patronized and complained of pain, and did not curse anyone."

Qi Zhenshan heaved a sigh of relief, looking at the eldest son who grew up to the top of his ears, his eyes flashed, "It's good to just talk about it. What happened to what I told you last time, is there any progress?"

"What progress can be made?" Qi Yu showed an impatient look again, "Then Bai Qingyue is a year older than me. I blocked her twice on the way, but it was useless. Bai Qingyue took As a child, I think it's better to let the second and third children get close to Yun Shang."

Thinking of Qi Zhenshan's request to him, Qi Yu felt that his head started to hurt.

It's thanks to his father's idea to let him, a half-child who is not yet fully developed, to please and pursue Bai Qingyue.

The brothers of the Bai family are better looking than the other, and they are capable. Compared with the Bai family, he is like a scumbag. How can Bai Qingyue like him?

He didn't want to humiliate himself.

Besides, Yun Shang's little fist hurts too much,

If he provokes Bai Qingyue, once the two families are torn apart, Yunshang will order him to be beaten on the ground.

How hard is he to think about it, so he will find a way to beat him up?

Seeing Qi Yu's cowardly appearance, Qi Zhenshan was so angry that his voice became cold, "What are you talking about? I just want you to get close to Bai Qingyue and set a smoke bomb on the Bai family. You can even do such a small thing not good?"

Qi Yu immediately shrank his neck and dared not speak.

He really can't do this well.

It's not that he feels inferior, it's that Bai Qingyue's conditions are really good!

Who is Bai Qingyue? A flower recognized by the courtyard, how blind must one be to see him?

However, facing Qi Zhenshan's cold face, Qi Yu really didn't have the guts to give up. After being silent for a long time, he said timidly, "Well, I'll try again in a few days..."

"Qi Zhenshan! You useless child, where did you die! I almost got arrested when I went to the army today! You are a high-ranking official in the army, bah! Useless thing! It's far from the second child."

Before Qi Yu could finish his sentence, old man Qi cursed at the top of his voice again. Qi Zhenshan patted his forehead helplessly, turned and entered the room.

"Father, what are you doing..."

"What are you talking about!" Old man Qi got up from the top of the kang, his eyes widened, "Go to the Bai family to settle accounts! Otherwise, your father's face will be scratched in vain? Why are you still in the army in the future?"

Qi Zhenshan's head hurt even more, and told his daughter-in-law to hide the wine and not let old man Qi drink in the afternoon, then picked up the leather bag on the table, ignored the old man who was spitting, turned around and walked out.

Qi Yu breathed a sigh of relief, greeted his younger brothers to get ready for school, then turned around and whispered, "Mom, don't listen to my father's nonsense! You can't control my father alone. If he argues for a drink, you give him the drink That's it, lest my grandfather beat you up again."

Yun Shang didn't know about the farce of the Qi family. Seeing that there was no one in the house at the moment, she leaned on the sofa and called Yun Shuilian and Lin Dani to find someone to marry quickly.

Probably because the recent situation in Fenyang is also relatively tense, as soon as Yunshang mentioned the topic of getting them married early, Yun Shuilian readily agreed.

According to Yun Shuilian, it is now November, and she and Zhou Minghui are planning to get married in mid-December. They have planned their plans, and they are only one month away from the wedding.

Yun Shuilian had a marriage plan, Yun Shang was really relieved, and was about to urge Lin Dani to find a partner quickly, but after the call was connected, she also received a surprise.

According to Lin Dani, she just established a relationship with a comrade named He Zhonghua two days ago, and she is planning to come to the house as a guest this weekend, and ask Lin Wenlan to help her check it out.

Chapter 476 come

Knowing that Lin Dani has found a partner, Yun Shang counts the days on her fingers all day long, waiting eagerly for the weekend to check for Lin Dani.

Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming have joked more than once that Yun Shang is a young adult who doesn't even know what the word "object" means, and wants to help Lin Dani check and test the object for her, but when it comes to the weekend, the two are still very active He woke up Yunshang, took her, and waited at the guard of the family courtyard early in the morning.

With Qiuqiu in her arms, Yunshang sat beside the small iron stove in the guard's room. While warming herself by the fire, she stuffed roasted sweet roasted chestnuts into her mouth. .

Bai Qingyue got a headache from the quarrel between the two, so she grabbed a few chestnuts and walked to the window. As soon as she looked up, she saw Lin Dani getting off the bus with a man wearing glasses, walking towards this side.

"Here we come! Xiao Qi, my aunt is here."

Yun Shang quickly threw away the chestnut shell in her hand, leaned on the window and looked out, and saw Lin Dani and He Zhonghua walking over one after the other, carrying a few gifts in their hands, and both of them had a faint smile on their faces. joy.

When he knew that Lin Dani had talked about someone, Bai Yancheng had already investigated He Zhonghua's situation clearly without Lin Wenlan's orders. Including the other party's age, temperament, family situation, family composition and background, the nature of the other party's work in the unit, work performance, and how they get along with colleagues, I checked thoroughly.

Yun Shang suspected that even He Zhonghua himself could not understand him as well as the Bai family.

Fortunately, the results of the investigation are not bad. Although He Zhonghua is not particularly outstanding, even his family conditions are a bit backward, but he is straightforward and kind, and he is not worried that Lin Dani will be bullied after marriage.

Uncle Zhou also stood up and took a look at He Zhonghua, took a sip of tea, and sighed, "Comrade Lin is a man of culture at first glance, he is also handsome, and he is slow and honest. I'm worried that the couple will quarrel."

Bai Qingming is a boy, so it's easier to think about the problem. Hearing what Uncle Zhou said, he also echoed, "My aunt is a good girl! She's a poor peasant...According to my father, his family is extremely poor!"

Uncle Zhou: "..."

This silly boy!

What good is abject poverty? That is to say, the composition is good-sounding, and it can make people look at it, but it is really hard to live, and the poor people don't know how hard it is.

That is to say, Lin Dani's family is strong, and all the sisters are promising. A girl with a strong family dares to marry into such a family. If she is replaced by a girl from an ordinary family, it will be hard to survive the marriage.

The corner of Yun Shang's mouth twitched, and she slapped Bai Qingming's shoulder with her backhand, dragged him out, and greeted Lin Dani.

"Auntie, why did you come here? We have been waiting for you all morning!"

As soon as she went out, Yun Shang ran towards Lin Dani bouncing around, and only noticed when she got close to him that she had seen this He Zhonghua before.

This person is Lin Dani's college classmate, and he is also the man who sat with Lin Dani when Yun Shang and Gu Shinian went to school to find Lin Dani to buy a shoe factory job index.

When I saw He Zhonghua back then, he was wearing a washed and yellowed white shirt, his complexion was yellow, and his figure was thin, but now He Zhonghua was wearing a brand-new cadre uniform, his figure was moderately fat and thin, and even his face became healthy and rosy , Compared with a few years ago, it is almost a different person.

After recognizing He Zhonghua, Yun Shang's heart that had been mentioned for several days relaxed a little.

This He Zhonghua was a straight man who was straighter than steel back then. His EQ was appallingly low. Coupled with the extreme poverty of his family, the poor only had a face and a sweet mouth. Such a person would just throw him away. Even if he went out, the women outside would look down on him.

Even if He Zhonghua is dishonest in the future and dares to be extravagant, with his ridiculously low EQ, he can't beat Lin Dani.

It has to be said that after a failed marriage, Lin Dani's vision of choosing a man is much better than before.

After finishing the registration at the guard, the steel straight man He Zhonghua stared at him all the way,

With his mouth open, he was led into the small bungalow of the Bai family almost with the same hands and feet.

After entering the door, He Zhonghua looked at the spacious and bright living room of the Bai family, as well as the simple furnishings of everyone. He didn't know where to put his cramped hands and feet.

Seeing Aunt Wu coming out of the kitchen to pour tea, she quickly took out a large piece of fat and thin pork belly from the grocery store before dawn, and handed it to Aunt Wu.

"Aunt Wu, I went to the non-staple food store early this morning and bought three catties of meat. You can make some meat for Shang Nan and the others."

Aunt Wu looked at the few gifts that Lin Dani brought over, and then at the big fat in He Zhonghua's hand, she was speechless.

This young man is really interesting, he didn't go to his mother-in-law's house, the first time he gave a gift, it was enough to give him some snacks, but this guy is a big fat meat, so sincere!

Lin Wenlan was also speechless for a long time. Seeing Lin Dani's nonchalant look, she quickly suppressed the amused feeling in her heart and called He Zhonghua to sit down on the sofa.

Although Lin Wenlan knew the specific situation of He Zhonghua long ago, since Lin Dani brought her here, it was considered clear. As Lin Dani's only relative in the provincial capital, Lin Wenlan naturally wanted to ask about He Zhonghua's situation again, and then Ask about their future life plans.

Yun Shang sat next to Lin Dani, listening to Lin Wenlan as if he was checking his household registration, and asked the three generations of He Zhonghua carefully again.

During the conversation, Yunshang also knew that He Zhonghua was from northern Jiangsu, that his grandparents were still there, that the two families of the family had not yet separated, that He Zhonghua was the eldest son and grandson, and that he had two younger brothers and two younger sisters. There are three cousins and two cousins in the next room, so the family is not lively.

He Zhonghua is the only college student in his family, and the only big man in the village who has entered the city as a cadre, and he is very famous in the village.

Fortunately, after graduating from He Zhonghua University, he was assigned to work in the Propaganda Department of Linyang City. If there is no accident, he has taken root in Linyang all his life, and Linyang is nearly a thousand kilometers away from northern Jiangsu. For things, He Zhonghua couldn't ask for it. After all, two or three provinces were crossed in the middle, and no one had the ability to travel so far to ask for help.

He Zhonghua is just an ordinary office worker now, with a monthly salary of 48 yuan, 30 yuan is sent back to his family every month, and the remaining 18 yuan is used for his own living expenses.

In this day and age, it is not easy for the countryside to provide a college student. Basically, every person who comes out of the countryside and takes root in the city has a big family to take care of behind him. This is the characteristic of this era, and no one thinks there is anything wrong with it.

Chapter 477 Beating

Even if you are looking for a wife, the salary of the daughter-in-law has to be used to support the man and his family, otherwise the woman is ignorant and has no dedication.

After all, Lin Wenlan is the head of the art troupe. She manages dozens of people and wears military uniforms. This, coupled with Bai Yancheng's status, gives Lin Wenlan the confidence to make her feel different from most women in this era. open-minded atmosphere.

From the moment He Zhonghua talked about family affairs, Lin Wenlan put on an attitude of listening carefully. It was not until He Zhonghua finished that Lin Wenlan asked him about his plans for married life.

Worried that Lin Dani would lose face, and some things would not be easy to explain clearly, Lin Wenlan said straight to the point, "You are from northern Jiangsu, and you don't have a house in Linyang. Where do you plan to live after marriage? Wen Jin is married, so it's not easy to live in her mother's house again. , otherwise, what's the difference between recruiting and recruiting, what do you think?"

Lin Dani has worked in the Municipal Party Committee Secretariat for more than a year. Her identity as the Lin family in Beijing, her relationship with Dacheng's aunt and nephew, and her relationship with the military commander's family have long been an open secret.

Regardless of whether He Zhonghua fell in love with Lin Dani because of Lin Dani, or because of Lin Dani's identity and background, for Lin Wenlan, she had to make these ugly words clear in advance. It would be bad for the two of them not to live up to He Zhonghua's expectations after marriage, and to have conflicts again.

He Zhonghua sat there with his back straight, his hands pinching his trousers, his expression nervous, "I know, I have discussed it with Comrade Wen Jin, after getting married, I will live in the dormitory first, and then I will wait for the unit to distribute Housing benefits."

Lin Wenlan nodded, "Now you only keep 18 yuan a month as a salary, and you live a tight life. Have you ever thought about how to support your family after marriage? Although you are now emphasizing equality between men and women, as a man, you have not let your wife earn money.

It's the reason to support your family, otherwise, what's the difference from eating soft rice? Do you think it's the reason?"

"You're right." He Zhonghua swallowed nervously, cold sweat dripping from his forehead, "I've discussed it with Comrade Wen Jin. After I get married, I'll send two Ten yuan, when my two younger brothers and two younger sisters have families, I will send ten yuan instead, and I will definitely not let Wenjin pay my salary to help me support my family."

Lin Wenlan responded noncommittally, and then asked, "My Wenjin was married once, and you are one year older than Wenjin, why haven't you married yet?"

Bai Yancheng had investigated He Zhonghua's information a long time ago, but Lin Wenlan was not worried that he was married in his hometown, so asking this question was purely out of personal curiosity.

Yun Shang also looked at He Zhonghua curiously. This man is already thirty and hasn't been married yet?

Damn, my aunt has pinched the tender tip again! ?

He Zhonghua's face turned red all of a sudden, and he murmured for a long time before he said, "...before, my family was poor... I couldn't be called a daughter-in-law."

In the impoverished mountainous areas of northern Jiangsu, there are not too many poor people.

When there was a famine a few years ago, the poor family almost starved to death. Even if there was a big girl who could fall in love with him, the family would not dare to marry him.

For the He family at that time, it was not a daughter-in-law who married in, but a mouth waiting to eat.

Besides, He Zhonghua himself is not a casual person. Even if he is a recognized cultural person in ten miles and eight villages, but he has a dull temperament and can't speak, and his family is poor, how can any big girl want to live with him? Boring, poor days?

After coming and going, the marriage was delayed like this.

Later, when He Zhonghua went to university, he and Lin Dani graduated one year ahead of schedule, and the two were assigned to work in the municipal party committee at the same time. After a long time, they naturally became familiar with each other.

He Zhonghua never knew what love was and what liking was, but he felt that getting along with Lin Dani was very easy and at ease. Thinking of his partner who would spend his whole life together in the future, he would unconsciously assume Lin Dani's image. This made He Zhonghua realize that he had already put Lin Dani in his heart unconsciously.

Even though Lin Dani was married before, even if he can find a younger and more beautiful lesbian now, he still wants to become a revolutionary partner with Lin Dani who supports each other and makes progress together.

When he came to meet Lin Dani's family this time, He Zhonghua made full preparations, but when he entered the heavily fortified military compound, sat in the spacious and bright living room of the Bai family, looked at the imposing Lin Wenlan, with gentle but uncompromising Beating him in an undignified tone, every sentence was planning for Lin Dani's future life, and only then did he really realize how big the gap between himself and Lin Dani was.

Lin Dani's natal family is strong, and her brothers and sisters are promising. If he can't satisfy the Lin family, or if Lin Dani is wronged after marriage, the Lin family will definitely not let him go.

Although He Zhonghua's EQ is low, he still has this wink.

The atmosphere in the living room became quiet in an instant. Fortunately, Bai Yancheng came back from the military area and broke the quiet and weird atmosphere in the living room at the right time.

Lin Dani first introduced He Zhonghua and Bai Yancheng, and then asked eagerly, "Brother-in-law, how is Dacheng doing now, is he still used to being in the army?"

Dacheng High School has not yet graduated, and it happened that the school was closed. Lin Dani was reluctant to let Dacheng go to the countryside as an educated youth, and wanted to find a good future for him, so she sent Dacheng to the army through Bai Yancheng.

Lin Dani hadn't seen Dacheng for more than half a year, now that she saw Bai Yancheng, she naturally wanted to ask.

"It's good. Dacheng has kept up with his nutrition in the past few years. He is tall and has good physical fitness. Soldiers like Dacheng are liked in the army. Don't worry, Dacheng will be promising in the future."

After getting the words, Lin Dani felt relieved, and followed Lin Wenlan to the kitchen to help Aunt Wu cook, and gave room for conversation to her future brother-in-law.

Bai Yancheng and He Zhonghua are not the same people at all, but in Yunshang's eyes, the pair of future brothers-in-law still have a very happy conversation. It can be seen that Bai Yancheng is still very sure of He Zhonghua's character.

This time the 'meeting the parents' went well, and Lin Dani and He Zhonghua also decided to go to the Lin family in the capital to meet the old couple during the Chinese New Year this year, and then discuss the matter of marriage.

The matter of Lin Dani has been settled, and Yun Shang is relieved, but also thinks of the "old girl" at home.

Seeing that Qiuqiu was not downstairs, Yunshang ran upstairs, picked up Qiuqiu who was sleeping late on the bed, and stared at it with a strange expression for a long time.

"Qiaoqiu, my aunt already has a date. Why do you, an old girl, only know how to sleep and not go out to find a date?"

"Meow!" Qiuqiu yelled as if he was too noisy, stretched his waist, buried his head and continued to sleep.

Yun Shang decisively grabbed Qiuqiu's two hind legs, hung it upside down and walked towards the door, "Come on, I'll take you to Pangui's sister's house to see if your 'partner' is here!"

Chapter 478: Letter from the Subject

As soon as Yun Chang turned into the alley, she saw Gu Pangui squatting beside the stone roller at the door, holding an envelope in one hand, and spreading out a few pages of letter paper full of words in the other, her face was flushed, and there was a smile on the corner of her mouth.

"Sister Pangui, your partner has written to you..."

Before Yun Shang finished speaking, Gu Pangui jumped up suddenly as if struck by lightning, stuffed the letter paper in his hand into his pocket, turned his head again, and tried to pretend to be calm.

"Yun, Yunshang, why are you here..."

Seeing Yunshang holding a meatball-like ball in his arms, Gu Pangui reacted, and immediately changed his mind, "Are you here to see the cat? Go in and have a look, it was delivered yesterday."

Yun Chang's eyes fell on Gu Pangui's bulging pocket, and then slid past the gleaming military post logo on the envelope, raised her brows, and deliberately showed a meaningful smile on her face, "Sister Pangui, I have heard what Gu Erge said, you You found a soldier, right?"

This letter is destined to be sent by the target, if it is sent by an ordinary friend, why does Gu Pangui have to look shy and charming?

This is Gu Pangui!

Gu Pangui, who has a fierce and decisive style, and who is also a money fanatic, has the shy side of his youngest daughter, which is simply too surprising.

Gu Pangui didn't know that Yunshang was deceiving her, his face was flushed, and his fingers were tightly pinching the kraft paper envelope, almost unable to lift his head with embarrassment.

"It's not finished yet, how does the third child know?"

Yun Shang: "..."

In other words, Gu Pangui has just been picked up, and hasn't progressed further?

"Sister Pangui, what is the name of your partner? Where are you serving as a soldier?" Yun Shang continued to talk.

"You know me too..." Gu Pangui said a few words with a hint of shame on his face, then stopped, took out the letter paper from his pocket, and stuffed it into Yunshang's hand, "Look for yourself, It's my third acquaintance, I don't know whether I should agree or not."

Yun Shang didn't expect Gu Pangui to be so generous, she was stunned for a moment, then raised the letter paper in her hand, and asked tentatively, "...Sister Pangui, then, did I really read it?"

With your shy look when you read the letter just now, there must be some private whispers in this letter, right?

I am still young, and I am still the flower bone of the motherland, so I can't see things that I shouldn't see.

Gu Pangui blushed and waved his hands, "Look, look, you know me too."

Having got the right words, Yun Shang curiously unfolded the letter paper:

"I am 24 years old this year. My ancestral home is Qinghe County, Linxi Province. My parents are both martyrs. I joined the army in 1960 and now live. I have made third-class meritorious service twice and second-class meritorious service once. My monthly salary and allowance is 65 yuan (There is a subsidy for missions), the current deposit is 2,000 yuan, a flat in Qinghe County, good health, can drink, but a little restraint, no drunk experience, can smoke, two packs of cigarettes a month..."

Is this... a cover letter?

The personal resumes of later generations are not so detailed. Isn't this a cover letter?

What's more, the whole article is full of long-winded introductions about his personal situation, without a single ambiguous word. What is the reason for Gu Pangui's shy and pretty appearance before?

Yun Chang was really confused, and when he looked at the signature again, there were three big characters written: Wei Jianjun.

Wait... Wei Jianjun! ?

Damn, why did these two get together?

Yun Shang suddenly remembered something. When Wei Jianjun joined the army, he entrusted Gu Shinian to take care of his house. Later, when Gu Shinian left Qinghe County, he entrusted Wei Jianjun's house to Gu Pangui to take care of him. It was right for Gu Shinian to ask for a salary, but she didn't even mention the money at that time.

Later, Zhang Chunni thought that Gu Pangui was getting old, and she was afraid that people would gossip, so she was not allowed to help Wei Jianjun clean the house.

Could it be that these two knew each other before Wei Jianjun joined the army?

It's not right, if the two had 'hooked up' a few years ago, Wei Jianjun wouldn't be writing this resume now. Judging from the current situation, the two have just opened the window.

Could it be that Gu Pangui had been interested in Wei Jianjun back then, and Wei Jianjun has only now begun to respond to Gu Pangui's feelings?

If so,

Gu Pangui's overjoyed, shy and pretty look makes sense.

Gu Pangui didn't know that Yunshang had deduced the whole matter in just a few seconds, and was waiting happily for Yunshang to give her opinion, but she heard her teasingly asking:

"Sister Pangui, isn't this Wei Ge's resume! He sent you his resume. Does he want to change jobs and apply for a job in Linyang?"

Gu Pangui was stunned.

This letter of courtship, which seemed clear to her, turned out to be a job application letter in Yunshang's eyes?

Sigh~, after all, you are a child, your mind is still too simple.

The smile on Gu Pangui's face faded, he took the letter paper in Yunshang's hand, and dragged her into the room, "Well, this is Wei Jianjun's resume, when you meet Comrade Zhang Chunni, don't tell her, you know Yet?"

Zhang Chunni was injured by a stinky soldier back then, and it was delayed her whole life, so she objected from the bottom of her heart that Gu Pangui also found a soldier.

As for Gu Shinian's admission to the military academy, Zhang Chunni neither supported nor opposed it. Anyway, Gu Shinian was a boy, so he wouldn't be at a disadvantage no matter what.

Yunshang took a deep look at Gu Pangui, smiled and agreed, "Okay, I won't tell Aunt Zhang."

The two entered the yard. Zhang Chunni was washing dishes in the kitchen. When she saw Yunshang coming over with Qiuqiu in her arms, she was overjoyed. She stuffed an apple into her hand and dragged her into the house, "Yunshang is here? It's cold outside, let's go inside Warm and warm."

The smile on Yunshang's face became stronger, she shook off Gu Pangui's hand, and said crisply, "Aunt Zhang, sister Pangui has already found a partner, when is she going to get married?"

Gu Pangui: "?????"

Yun Shang, you little bastard! ! !

Zhang Chunni was taken aback, Gu Pangui was anxious, angry and frightened, wishing to kick Yunshang out of the yard, after a long while, Zhang Chunni asked Gu Pangui, "When did you find him, and who is he?"

Gu Pangui's face turned pale, and for a long time, he said with a mournful face, "...no one, that's, that's, Wei Jianjun wrote me a letter..."

"No!" Zhang Chunni's face turned cold, "Just find a suitable one in the factory. Why are you looking for a soldier? You are not qualified to join the army if you are not a senior. Do you want to be a widow after marriage?"

Gu Pangui immediately lowered his head and did not speak.

Yunshang looked at the side for a long time, and said, "Aunt Zhang, I heard people say that many unmarried young women outside have been criticized, saying they are capitalist roaders, it's scary! You hurry up and give me hope." Return to my sister to find a husband's house."

Seeing Zhang Chunni and Gu Pangui looking over with horrified faces, Yun Shang nodded seriously, expressing that she was not lying.

Chapter 479: 'Blind Date' Failed

"Aunt Zhang, if we can't find my husband's family in a short time, we can find a partner for Sister Pangui. Brother Wei is in the army, so it's good for him to shield Sister Pangui from the limelight. Anyway, he doesn't know if he's not in Fenyang." In the future, Gu Pangui really found a partner, and he could dump Wei Jianjun, his nominal partner, at any time.

Yun Shang didn't say the last sentence, but Zhang Chunni and Gu Pangui knew what she meant.

The expression on Zhang Chunni's face also became serious, and she said in a slightly hesitant tone, "I've heard about this too, but it's said that the people who are fighting are all twenty-six or seventeen and not married? You hope that my sister is still young, you should It's okay."

Yun Shang continued to scare Zhang Chunni with a straight face, "My aunt and my aunt are getting married! My aunt said that there are many girls in Fenyang who are as old as Sister Pangui, and they are all in a hurry to find a partner!"

Thinking about it carefully, Wei Jianjun and Gu Pangui are actually quite a good match. Taking this opportunity, she can push as much as she can. Whether the two can succeed depends on their luck.

Zhang Chunni took a deep look at Gu Pangui, and changed the topic with a smile, "You came to see the cat, right? I just sent someone to find it, so I'm in the house, go in and have a look."

The husband that Gu Shinian prepared for Qiuqiu was a beautiful raccoon cat, probably due to lack of nutrition, this cat was much thinner than Qiuqiu.

Probably because she is used to Qiuqiu's chubby appearance, Yun Shang couldn't bear to see such a thin cat suddenly, and was about to feed the raccoon cat with Qiuqiu's dried fish, when she saw Qiuqiu let out an "ow" Jump over, hold down the raccoon cat and it will give you a beating.

Yun Shang: "..."

Damn! This old girl beat up her husband as soon as they met, so how can she give birth to kittens in the future?

Seeing that the cihuamao wanted to reach out its paws to reach the dried fish, Qiuqiu bowed up, the cat all over his body exploded, and roared under his throat, scaring the cihuamao so much that it crawled under the bed and did not dare to come out.

Yun Chang was helpless.

Originally, I wanted to find a husband for the old girl at home, so that I could develop a relationship here, but who knew that the two cats got into a ball as soon as they met, how would they get along with each other after that?

After winning the battle, Qiuqiu yelled "Meow" a few times proudly, then turned around and jumped into Yunshang's arms, with his big head stuck in Yunshang's neck, rubbing back and forth, and screaming. Jiao Jiao.

"Qiaoqiu, that's the one Gu Er Ge found for you. We're here for a blind date today. You can't be so fierce..."

"Aw!" Before Yunshang finished her sentence, Qiuqiu raised her head again, and the raccoon cat under the punch roared, with an attitude of having it but not me.

Yun Shang was so worn down by Qiuqiu's domineering temperament that she had no choice but to say hello to Zhang Chunni, and walked home with it in her arms.

On the way, Yunshang did not forget to teach Qiuqiu a lesson:

"Qiaoqiu, you are six years old, and you are an old lady! That raccoon cat is only one year old, and it will be your husband. It will be your old cow eating young grass, and it will take advantage of it! What are you not satisfied with?"

"Besides that raccoon cat, there are no other cats near our house. If you don't like it, what will you do if you can't get married in the future? If you delay it, you will have no fertility..."

...

No matter how Yunshang babbled, Qiuqiu's big head rested on Yunshang's shoulders, her two front paws hugged her neck tightly, and a comfortable grunt came out of her throat, completely refraining from beating up her blind date during the blind date. Taking things to heart, I can't understand Yunshang's urgency to 'marry a girl' at all.

Unlike Yunshang's mentality of rushing to marry her daughter, Mrs. Yun often wipes tears in private because of Yun Shuilian's upcoming marriage.

All her life, she had two sons and one daughter. The eldest son died a few years ago, leaving only the second son and the youngest daughter. Now that the daughter is getting married again, Yun Erchuan will be the only son left in front of her from now on.

Compared with the prosperous family, the descendants of Lao Yun's family are very weak, even after the daughter-in-law's family was bullied, Lao Yun's family didn't even have a supporter.

Yun Erchuan came out of the workshop, first went to the primary school of the aluminum factory to pick up Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa, then went to the bathroom in the factory to take a shower, changed his clothes, and took the two sons back home in the urban area.

As soon as Shuanzi entered the door, he put down his schoolbag and helped the old lady with housework. Yun Erchuan also helped the old man nail up the table for Huyouleg at home, as well as the doors and windows, and then told Xiao Heiwa to wash his hands and eat.

The old lady took a sip of the corn paste, then put down the bowl in a distasteful manner, and frowned and asked Yun Erchuan, "Erchuan, what's going on with you and Comrade Na Luo, can your business work out?"

Yun Erchuan glanced at Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa, lowered his head, and said vaguely, "It should be possible. I have a lot of things recently, and I don't have time to ask her."

Now he has to send his two children to school every morning, and then rush to the cafeteria to have a drink, and then hurried off the workshop. The son was sent from school to the city.

Counting it down, he hadn't talked to Ronaldinho alone for many days, and it was strange.

The old lady frowned when she heard the words, "If you recognize the person, bring Xiao Luo back as soon as possible, and let me palm your father. If it's suitable, quickly settle down, and hurry up in front of Shui Lian. You two have done your business."

The bowl in Yun Erchuan's hand almost fell on the table. Looking at the old lady, he stammered and asked, "Mother, why are you so anxious, is it too fast?"

"Hurry up!?" The old lady raised her voice sharply, "Shui Lian is about to go out, if Zhou's family comes to pick up the bride, Shuilian doesn't even have a sister-in-law to send her out, how will your face be bright then? "

Xiao Heiwa interjected at the right time, "My mother secretly told me last time that if my aunt went out without a sister-in-law to see her off, it would be a joke to her husband's family. She also asked about the date when my aunt left the house and said that she would come to Fenyang when the time came. Give my aunt a kiss."

As soon as these words came out, everyone at the table was shocked, and Yun Erchuan's face was even darker, and he almost broke the chopsticks in his hand:

"Your mother really said that?"

"Ang!" Xiao Hei Wa pointed at Shuan Zi, "If you don't believe me, ask my brother."

Shuanzi lowered his head, snorting and stuffing the cornmeal paste into his mouth, and replied, "She's married, and she came to Fenyang just to sit at the table, so it's useless to find an excuse to eat for nothing."

Yun Erchuan didn't dare to delay any longer, and immediately said to the old lady, "Mother, I will discuss it with Xiao Luo tomorrow, and arrange a meeting between the two families as soon as possible to settle the matter."

This Li Hongmei is really annoying, she is divorced and remarried, and she doesn't know where she got the face, she wants to sit at the ex-in-law's house and send her ex-sister-in-law out.

If this matter gets out, those who know will laugh at him to death, and those who don't know will think that he and Li Hongmei haven't broken off.

Chapter 480: The Qi Family Blackmails People

Once Yun Erchuan made up his mind, he was still very active. The next day, he went to the factory to talk to Comrade Luo Qiulan. The two families formally met with their in-laws on the weekend. After both families were satisfied with each other, the two took time to collect marriage certificate.

From meeting in-laws to getting married, the two of them only spent ten days.

Yun Shang was shocked when she received Shuan Zi's call.

She didn't call Lao Yun's family for more than ten days, and Yun Erchuan quietly found her a new second aunt?

Isn't this efficiency too fast?

Although both of them were married twice, a simple wedding without a ceremony is too rare.

After regaining her senses, Yunshang hurriedly asked Shuanzi on the other end of the phone, "How is Second Aunt Xin, is she treating you and Xiao Heiwa well?"

She remembered that when she was in the village, the old lady seemed to have said that the object of Yun Erchuan's second marriage could not have children. If she was really smart, she would treat Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa kindly.

But there are not many smart people in this world, so she still had to ask clearly, and she couldn't let Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa be wronged at the hands of her stepmother.

Shuanzi was silent for a while, and when he spoke again, his voice was a little vague, "It's okay, just entered the door, with our grandpa and grandma here, she dare not treat me and Xiao Heiwa badly."

Yunshang immediately heard the voice of Shuanzi's words. In front of the old man and the old lady, Luo Qiulan did not dare to treat Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwu badly. I don't care that much anymore.

Shuanzi's voice was heard clearly in Yunshang's ears through the microphone, "Xiaoheiwa and I are both grown up now, so don't ask her to treat us well, as long as you don't be like my mother, looking for trouble all day long and making troubles. As long as Xiao Hei Wa and I are unhappy in our hearts, we are not real mothers, so if we can save face, Xiao Hei Wa and I will be satisfied."

Shuan Zi said these words extremely calmly and clearly, but for some reason, Yun Shang's throat felt a little congested.

She even understood Shuanzi's feelings for a moment, as if Yun Erchuan got married again, and there was an invisible and intangible barrier in that family, which quietly lay in the hearts of Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa, hurting them from time to time heart of.

Yun Shang was also confused for a moment. If she and Gu Shinian hadn't helped Yun Erchuan and Li Hongmei divorce back then, what would Lao Yun's family be like now? Will Shuan Zi and Xiao Hei Wa be happier?

"Sister, my aunt is going out soon, when will you come back?"

Shuanzi's voice came from the other end of the phone again, which disturbed Yunshang's thoughts. After realizing it, she turned over the calendar on the coffee table, counted the time and said, "There are still ten days left, I'm going to do it next Sunday. Go back. If you and Xiao Hei Wa need anything, I'll take it back for you two."

"There is nothing missing at home. You can just come back when the time comes. Don't take anything. It's not safe to take things on the road."

Yun Shang responded, and gave Shuan Zi a few words of advice, before hanging up the phone reluctantly.

Bai Qingming poked his head out from upstairs, and asked curiously, "Xiao Qi, your aunt is getting married? Are you going to have a banquet in Fenyang?"

"Well, go back next week." Yun Shang raised her head as she spoke, and looked suspiciously at Bai Qingming, "Little Six, do you want to go back to Fenyang to play with me?"

"Is it possible?" Bai Qingming's eyes lit up, he ran down the stairs, and sat beside Yunshang with a flattering expression, "Brother Shi Nian was not here, it would not be safe for you to go to Fenyang alone, and then my brother will give you the money." Be a bodyguard!"

"Go and tell Dad, if Dad agrees, I will take you, but Dad doesn't agree..."

Before finishing a sentence, there was a loud noise at the gate, mixed with old man Qi's cursing voice:

"You little girl, you are all from our old Qi's family. If you dare to throw face at me, believe it or not, I will let my grandson kill you!"

Yun Chang's complexion changed, and he and Bai Qingming ran towards the door one after the other. During this time, Bai Qingyue's angry voice was heard, "Who is from your old Qi's family? If you keep talking nonsense, I will report to the army immediately you!"

"Sister! What's the matter?" Yun Chang said, standing next to Bai Qingyue with Bai Qingming on the left and right, looking at old man Qi with a wary expression.

Bai Qingyue turned pale with anger, trembling all over, pointed at old man Qi and said, "This old man is talking nonsense after drinking too much! When he saw me at the gate of the compound, he followed me all the way to the door of the house, and kept saying that I was talking to their family. Qi Yu's partner..."

Yunshang and Bai Qingming's brains exploded at once. Bai Qingming rushed into the yard without saying a word, found a stick and wanted to beat old man Qi, while Yunshang dragged old man Qi by his arm, pulling him to the ground. The Qi family said, there was only one thought in mind, and that was to slap Qi Zhenshan and Qi Yu in the face face to face, to let them know that toads should look for toads, and don't worry about the uneatable swan meat!

Qi Zhenshan came back from the military area, and as soon as he reached the gate of the family's courtyard, he saw Qi Yu running out of it, his face turned pale, and he was sweating profusely.

Seeing Qi Zhenshan, Qi Yu almost cried, and rushed over, his voice trembling, "Dad! Go back and have a look, something happened!"

"What happened?" Qi Zhenshan subconsciously asked, seeing that Qi Yu's eyes were red with anxiety, he hurriedly dragged him inside, "Talk while walking!"

"I just met Bai Qingyue with my grandfather at the gate of the family courtyard. I went over and said a few words to Bai Qingyue, and my grandfather quarreled that Bai Qingyue was dating me, and kept talking to Bai Qing all the way. Yue went to Bai's house and said she wanted to ask for a dowry from Bai's house, but I couldn't pull it back!"

Thinking of Bai Qingyue's red eyes with anger, and thinking of the little evil star of the Bai family, Qi Yu's legs trembled with fright.

If he had known that the old man was so unreliable, he should have pretended to be dumb when he met Bai Qingyue just now. What if Yun Shang came to the door and beat him up later?

Pain is second to none. He is a boy of more than 1.7 meters, and he was beaten up by a little girl of eleven or twelve. How can he go out to meet people in the future?

Contrary to Qi Yu's anxiety and fear, after knowing what happened, Qi Zhenshan was not in a hurry, a smile flashed in his eyes, and his pace unconsciously slowed down.

The old man is noisy, but I have to say that the drunken madness that the old man made today really touched Qi Zhenshan's heart.

The old man quarreled all the way from the gate of the family courtyard to the Bai's house. I don't know how many people heard his drunken words on the way. Although everyone knew that the old man was drunk, but flies didn't bite seamless eggs. The old man was so noisy. No, why do you have to say that Bai Qingyue is dating Qi Yu?

It must be that these two people are getting close in private, or one of them has a little interest.

Once the news spread, even if the Bai family didn't become in-laws with the Qi family, they wouldn't dare to blatantly suppress the Qi family after something happened.

Otherwise, what would people in the military region think of Bai Yancheng?
