Chapter 481 Violent beating

Of course, if the Yu family can take down the Bai family, the Qi family will not be in-laws with the Bai family. The Qi family is a red and professional red family, so of course they can't get involved with bad elements.

The old man Qi was dragged away by Yunshang and Bai Qingming, and Bai Qingyue also reacted, knowing that if this matter is not handled well today, her reputation will be ruined, so she didn't care about chasing Yunshang, but ran home, dialed Bai Yancheng's phone number.

Yun Chang walked all the way, covering Old Man Qi's mouth with mental strength, until he was so choked up that he couldn't speak, so he felt a little more comfortable.

"Brother, when we meet with Qi Yu, don't say anything and just do it! Hit the face! Don't be polite!"

The Qi family's trick is really disgusting. They want to use public opinion to let Qi Yu, that toad, climb up to Bai Qingyue, without seeing whether he is worthy or not!

Besides, why should the Bai family fight with the Qi family in a war of words and reason?

When encountering this kind of thing, the more verbally entangled with the other party, the more bad the woman's reputation will be. The only way is to beat him up regardless of the randomness, directly until Qi Yu heard 'Bai Qingyue' Three words just want to kneel down and call daddy.

If you want to date Bai Qingyue, you should first weigh whether you can resist the beating or not.

Bai Qingming also has a simple and rude temperament, needless to say, Yun Shang is already thinking about what to do when he meets Qi Yu.

Now, after listening to Yun Shang's order, he clenched the stick tightly in his hand, and said, "I'm using the stick to beat that bastard Qi Yu, and you can stand aside later." Let's see how my little brother is beating up that turtle grandson!"

The two brothers and sisters dragged old man Qi from left to right, and as soon as they turned the corner, they saw Qi Yu and Qi Zhenshan coming from a distance. Looking at Qi Zhenshan's face, he grabbed Qi Yu and beat him.

His 1.7-meter-old son was knocked to the ground by two half-grown children as soon as he met him. Qi Zhenshan was stunned.

Yunshang held Qi Yu's shoulders tightly with both hands, not letting him move, while Bai Qingming stood beside him, whipping the stick in his hand at Qi Yu's body recklessly, and slamming his feet towards Qi Yu shamelessly. The next three ways to entertain, the two brothers and sisters did not cooperate too tacitly.

Qi Zhenshan really wanted to help Qi Yu, but there were crowds of onlookers who came to watch after hearing the news. As an elder, if he dared to intervene in the fight among younger generations, he would lose his old face.

"Qingming, Yunshang, what are you doing, talk slowly if you have something to say, how can you hit someone as soon as you come here..."

Before Qi Zhenshan could finish his sentence, Bai Qingming scolded, "Pooh! You are the one who hit you! You are still flirting with a big girl like a blind girl before your hair grows! How dare you stop my sister at the gate of the courtyard, believe it or not, I will discount your dog legs!"

As soon as Bai Qingming finished speaking, Yun Chang immediately went on to say: "The little one is shameless! The old one doesn't cultivate! If my grandson stops someone else's little girl from saying a word, that little girl will become his granddaughter-in-law, and he is still shameless. This is a new society, and the family members of the officials are bullying others and robbing the daughters of the people!"

What's more, what you robbed was not a civilian girl, but the daughter of your immediate boss!

What a shame.

However, this matter can also be reflected from the side, how arrogant the Yu family is now, so much so that Qi Zhenshan, who is attached to the Yu family, dares to fight against the commander as the deputy division commander.

In front of the crowd of onlookers, Yunshang and Bai Qingming sang together and stripped off the faces of the three generations of the Qi family's grandparents, stepped on them, and even branded the Qi family as a robbery of women in words.

Hearing these words, Qi Zhenshan's face changed. The two bastards of the Bai family were really sharp-tongued. With a few understatement, they gave the Qi family a shit bowl. They wanted to take the opportunity to kill the Qi family!

Thinking about this clearly, Qi Zhenshan's heart shuddered, and he hurriedly stepped forward to pull Bai Qingming away, mentioned Qi Yu, and raised his hand to slap him.

"You bastard! Your grandfather drank too much, got drunk and talked nonsense, so you don't know how to get your grandfather back? How could you let your grandfather go to Bai Ling's house to make trouble?"

Qi Yu couldn't cry anymore.

First, Yunshang and Bai Qingming beat him up, and the father didn't help him beat him back, but now he played a cruel trick with him. In just such a short time of co-authoring, he was beaten by three people, and he still couldn't resist, and he couldn't cry out for injustice.

Old man Qi fell on the snowdrift, struggled for a long time, and finally got up with the help of passers-by. Seeing the commotion here, he staggered over again, still shouting:

"Little girl, you dare to touch me and ask your commander father to marry you five hundred yuan more! If you want to enter the door of my Qi family and be the daughter-in-law of my old Qi's eldest son and grandson, the dowry will not work! Disobedient and filial Even if she is the commander's daughter, she has to kneel at the ancestral hall!"

Qi Zhenshan was about to go crazy, just as he and Qi Yu pushed the matter to old man Qi, old man Qi started talking nonsense again.

The eldest son and grandson's daughter-in-law, and kneeling in the ancestral hall, have been broken for so many years, and the old man dares to say the words of kneeling in the ancestral hall. Does this mean that the seats under his and the second's buttocks are too stable! ?

Qi Zhenshan let go of Qi Yu, hurried over to support old man Qi with one hand, covered old man Qi's mouth with the other, and scolded Qi Yu, "What are you doing in a daze! Why don't you send your master back, and follow me to Bai Siling's house Apologize!"

After finishing speaking, he did not forget to explain to the onlookers that old man Qi would talk nonsense when he drank too much, and asked everyone not to listen to old man Qi's nonsense, which would damage Bai Qingyue's reputation.

Of course, more importantly, the words "kneeling in the ancestral hall" that old man Qi said was completely drunk and nonsense.

Before Bai Qingming could vent his anger enough, he swung his stick, trying to chase after him and beat Qi Yu a few more times, but Yunshang had quick eyesight and quick hands, and pulled Bai Qingming back by the back.

"Brother, stop chasing him. Didn't you listen to Deputy Master Qi? You will bring Qi Yu to our house to apologize later."

Yun Chang's voice was crisp and loud, and it was heard far away at the entrance of the alley. Not only the passers-by around could hear it clearly, but even Bai Qingyue, who chased him out of the house after making a phone call, could hear it clearly.

Seeing that the clothes on the two of them were clean and tidy, and they didn't seem to be at a disadvantage, Bai Qingyue breathed a sigh of relief, and stepped forward, holding Yun Chang with one hand, and Bai Qingming with the other, and dragged the two of them towards the house.

"Meet Qi Zhenshan? You two didn't suffer, did you?"

The two shook their heads at the same time, and Bai Qingming even showed embarrassment, "I don't even look at who we are! Xiaoqi and I beat up Qi Yu, forcing Qi Zhenshan to be helpless, and gave Qi Yu a beating." Slap in the face, it's a pity you didn't see it, but it's relieved!"

Bai Qingyue's brows and eyes curved into a beautiful arc, she looked around, and said in a low voice, "I just called Dad, and Dad told us to ignore Qi's family, Qi Zhenshan is going to have an accident these two days."

Chapter 482 Answer the phone

As soon as they entered the living room, the phone rang. Bai Qingming was so happy that he turned over on the sofa and answered the phone.

Seeing Bai Qingming sitting up straight subconsciously, Yun Chang answered honestly a few times, and was about to go over, but saw Bai Qingming covering the microphone and winking at her:

"Xiao Qi, hurry up, Brother Shi Nian's call!"

"Second brother Gu is calling!?" Yunshang screamed, pulled Bai Qingming away, grabbed the receiver and shouted, "Second brother Gu! Why did you call me, I miss you!"

"A Chang, are you fighting with someone again?"

Gu Shinian's voice came through the phone line, with a rising end, a little distorted, but it was a little more magnetic in the clearness, and it directly scratched Yun Shang's heart, making her ears itchy.

Yun Shang never knew that Gu Shinian's voice would be so nice, so she couldn't help turning her head slightly, rubbing her ears, and leaning against the microphone again, said unhappily, "Second brother Gu, have you been watched by someone?"

If you hadn't watched me, how could you have received the news and called me to teach me a lesson in less than ten minutes after I finished the battle?

It's too much!

"The third grandpa is with Uncle Bai now. I just called the third grandpa." Gu Shinian laughed, and then asked, "You didn't suffer, did you?"

"No." Yun Chang paused for a moment, then whispered again, "I didn't hit anyone, I just held down Qi Yu, and I beat him with a stick." I'm a well-behaved and quiet little lady, how can I fight thing!

Gu Shinian knew that Yunshang had a good face, and seeing that she refused to admit to the fight, he immediately changed the subject in a polite manner, and talked about business, "A Chang, do you want to go back to the capital to visit relatives in the Bai family during the Chinese New Year?"

"Yes, my aunt has a crush, and she will take her to the capital to meet relatives during the Chinese New Year. My mother said that she will also take us back to visit relatives during the Chinese New Year."

In addition, when the battle between the Yu family and the Bai family reached a fever pitch, the third aunt, as the married daughter of the Yu family, had to show an attitude in matters, or cut ties with her natal family, and became the daughter-in-law of the Lin family with peace of mind. Or to help her natal family, deal with the eldest sister-in-law's family, Lin Wenlan has to go back and explain these bad things to Uncle Lin in person.

"Second Brother Gu, just wait for me in the capital. I will visit you at school during the Chinese New Year." After thinking about it, he added, "Bring you delicious food!"

"Okay." Gu Shinian replied with a smile, his voice obviously relaxed, "If you come to the capital, I won't ask for leave to go back. When you get to the capital, remember to come to the school to find your second brother."

Thinking of what he had planned, Gu Shinian lowered his voice again, and mentioned Yun Shang in a somewhat vague manner, "A Chang, you have recently been free to sort out the books in the library on the seventh floor, agriculture, industry, and The military books are organized and packed, and they will be useful for the second brother during the Chinese New Year."

Yun Shang came to her senses all of a sudden, realizing that Gu Shinian wanted to hand over these books, her fingers were tightly clenched together, and her fingertips turned white from the force.

"Second, second brother, think it over, what if..." What if something goes wrong?

If any one of the books in the library on the seventh floor is taken out, it will cause a sensation in the outside world. If so many books are taken out, it will be no less than an atomic bomb explosion.

More importantly, it is only six or six years now, but any book in the space is published after two thousand years.

Seeing Tian'er shouting not to spread feudal superstition ideas outside, but the appearance of these books is not the biggest fantasy event?

In case Second Brother Gu is accidentally exposed, wait for his fate...

Yun Chang trembled instantly, not daring to think about it anymore.

Gu Shinian knew that Yunshang was a little scared, but it was hard to talk too carefully through the phone, so he had to comfort her patiently, "A-shang, I know it well, and I have made arrangements. Don't worry, the second brother will be fine. Yes." If something happens to the second brother, who will protect you in the future?

After hanging up the phone,

Yun Chang went upstairs with a serious face, not even listening to Bai Qingming's question.

"Sister, what's wrong with Xiaoqi?" Bai Qingming looked at Bai Qingyue in confusion.

"It should be that Gu Shinian is looking for her on business." Bai Qingyue responded, and said while clearing the coffee table, "Dad has a mission and won't come back today, and Mom took the team down to the company again in the morning, and the whole family will be together later. Come, you say I went to the regiment."

Bai Qingming was dumbfounded, grabbed Bai Qingyue's skirt, and said anxiously, "Then I'm the only one left? Dad really won't come back? He can rest assured that such a big thing happened today, Won't you come back and ask for justice?"

"What's the big deal?" Bai Qingyue shook off Bai Qingming's hand in disgust, "Why are you so stupid? If Dad was at home, he wouldn't accept their apology, so why not Not coming back. Besides, the Qi family is going to be in trouble, at this juncture, it's better to have less contact with their family. "

Bai Qingming responded wearily, and collapsed on the sofa in a large font, not forgetting to complain about Bai Yancheng, "Siling Bai is really big-hearted, the Qi family has bullied our family, and he also If you don't come back and take a look, what if Xiaoqi and I are bullied by the Qi family?"

"Dad said, with Xiaoqi here, you can't suffer." Bai Qingyue threw the rag that wiped the tea table on Bai Qingming's face, turned around and walked upstairs, telling him, "Aunt Wu, buy it quickly." The food is back, remember to tell Aunt Wu that Mom and Dad won't come back for dinner."

Qi Zhenshan was carrying four gifts, and Qi Yu knocked on the door of Bai's house with a disheveled face. After entering the house, he found only two half-old children sitting in Nuo Da's living room - Bai Qingming and Yunshang.

When Aunt Wu came back from buying vegetables, she also heard about the old man Qi blocking the door to ruin Bai Qingyue's reputation. Seeing the Qi family's father and son coming to the door, she didn't even have a good face, not to mention pouring hot tea, even hot water He poured it, and directly took two glasses of tap water and took it out.

Qi Zhenshan couldn't hold back, he dragged Qi Yu to sit down on the sofa by himself, and asked in a deep voice, "Qingming, it's still early before work time, has Commander Bai gone to the office yet?"

It's almost too obvious to say this, did Bai Yancheng deliberately avoid seeing him?

Bai Qingming's mind was straight and he couldn't turn the corner for a while. Yun Shang smiled first, "Deputy Commander Qi, my dad is busy with a meeting today and has no time to come back. I heard that the leadership team of the military region has gone to a meeting today. What are you doing?" Are you still in the family courtyard?"

It's not that my dad is hiding and afraid to see you, it's because he's busy with the revolution and doesn't have time to see you! You are a little deputy teacher, and you don't even have something to attend the leadership meeting by yourself, so who takes you seriously?

It's ridiculously self-indulgent.

Chapter 483 Qi Yu Scandal

Qi Zhenshan was so stunned by Yunshang that he couldn't speak, his face was blackened into the bottom of a pot, and he looked at the cold tap water in the glass, couldn't sit still anymore, didn't even say a polite word, and just picked up Qi Zhenshan's hand. Yu left.

And before leaving, he didn't forget to take away the four gifts he just mentioned.

Such a move is obviously to officially tear the face off with the Bai family.

After Qi's father and son left, Aunt Wu was so angry that she chased to the gate, spat at the backs of the two father and son, and then angrily closed the gate.

Qi Zhenshan came to Bai's house to make an apology, but he didn't avoid the people in the compound. The two father and son came out of Bai's house with gifts, and they didn't avoid people either.

The Qi family father and son came to apologize, but they were kicked out by the Bai family, and the news spread throughout the compound that day.

Although many family members of the leaders knew that Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan were working overtime for a meeting and the other was not at home, but from Qi Zhenshan's behavior of bringing back gifts as they were, it can be deduced that the Qi family and the Bai family have officially broken faces.

The military wives got together and discussed a lot, saying that Qi Zhenshan was out of his mind and dared to provoke Bai Yancheng, and he was still the one who didn't take reason.

There were also some quick-witted people who saw some clues from Qi Zhenshan's actions, and secretly guessed in their hearts whether Qi Zhenshan had gained some new backing, or maybe the Bai family was about to collapse?

Of course, there are also many military wives who think that Qi Zhenshan has been tricked by old man Qi, and if he dares to tarnish Bai Qingyue's reputation like this, Qi Zhenshan's good days are coming to an end.

I didn't see the leaders of the military region hold a meeting, and no one notified Qi Zhenshan?

Early the next morning, the sun rose again in the mist of a winter morning, bright red, like a balloon hanging in the sky, unable to emit a trace of heat.

Standing at the gate of the family courtyard of the military division was a little girl of sixteen or seventeen, wearing a red plaid padded jacket, with big watery eyes, an oval face, and two braids of twisted braids. The tender flowers in it are very pity.

Seeing the little girl standing obliquely near the gate, not approaching, she just stared eagerly at the wide road in the family courtyard, wiping away tears from time to time. , I want to go over and see what's going on.

Unexpectedly, before Uncle Zhou could speak, the little girl burst into tears with a "wow", and she couldn't let go of his sleeve:

"Master... don't drive me away, woohoo,

I, I came to find my partner, my partner, my partner, he lied to me, woohoo, I gave him everything, and he lied to me...I, I can't live..."

Uncle Zhou has lived for decades, and he has already matured into a mature person, so he can tell right away that what's going on here is not easy.

The sentence 'I gave him everything, and he lied to me, I can't live' has exposed too much information.

In addition, this girl is small in stature and her voice is not low. She squatted at the gate of the courtyard and cried while talking.

"Girl, don't cry now. If you cry at the gate of the compound, it won't affect you well. If you offend the leader, won't there be no one to make decisions for you?"

The girl paused, lowered her voice, and continued to wipe away her tears, "...If you don't make the decision, I will, I will woo woo woo, I will sue the police, saying that the surname Qi is playing a hooligan, let me Comrades from the police come to arrest him."

Surnamed Qi?

Thinking that there was indeed a person surnamed Qi in the compound, Uncle Zhou was shocked, and he didn't dare to neglect this girl. He persuaded her to enter the reception room with nice words, and sent people from the security camp to find comrades from the political engineering department. deal with it.

The comrades from the political engineering department came very quickly, and the two elder sisters from the political engineering department took the little girl into the room to inquire about it, and the matter became clear very quickly.

The object of the little girl's mouth was Qi Yu who wanted to climb up to Bai Qingyue yesterday and become the son-in-law of Commander Bai.

The two used to be classmates in the same class, and after being together for a year, they were coaxed by Qi Yu to do everything they should do, and Qi Yu ended up breaking up with the little girl.

Of course, Qi Yu had good reasons for breaking up, because the little girl's family background is not good, and Qi Zhenshan is an officer in the army anyway, so how could he let Qi Yu marry a girl with bad background as his daughter-in-law.

Hearing the little girl say that her family's status is not good, the faces of the two elder sisters from the political engineering department changed, and their eyes were full of scrutiny when they looked at the little girl.

And the little girl didn't seem to see the two people's examining and guarding eyes, and she cried to herself, "When he wants to get along with me, he knows that my family is not good. He said he didn't care, and that his father was Deputy teacher, he can help my family change the status, but he lied to me..."

"He came to me last month and asked me to sleep with him, to sleep with him. He also said that he would marry me sooner or later. I disagreed, so he frightened me, saying that Director Zhu of the Revolutionary Committee would take my parents with me. Let's go and send him to the hardest place for labor reform..."

"I didn't dare not to listen to him... As a result, he turned his face and refused to recognize anyone. My parents were taken away, and he said that if I dared to speak out, he would shoot me dead."

The faces of the people in the political engineering department turned blue when they heard this.

If what the little girl said is true, then Qi Yu should really be sent to the police to be shot!

However, the comrades in the political and engineering department couldn't listen to the little girl's one-sided words. A kind-hearted elder sister slowed down and asked, "Little comrade, how old are you this year?"

"I, I, fifteen..."

Everyone: "..."

This is still a child!

The big guy wanted to slap Qi Yu to death at first, but when he turned his head and thought, Qi Yu was only sixteen this year.

But it's just a half-grown child who did such a beastly thing.

It's just too bad, sores on the soles of the feet, the kind of bad that oozes pus in the bones!

The little girl groaned twice again, took out two letters from the pocket of the cotton-padded jacket, and spread them out to the comrades in the political engineering department:

"I didn't lie, I, I have evidence, this is the letter Qi Yu wrote to me. He also hid my... underwear, saying that if I come to the army to make trouble, let the members of the Revolutionary Committee arrest me. Take it away, wear broken shoes and parade through the streets..."

The elder sisters of the political engineering department became even more angry. Some of them had a bad temper and slapped the table on the spot, scaring the little girl into a ball, not even daring to lift her head.

When the little girl came over, it was time for work in the morning, and she was about to go to work. The military wives and officers saw this scene, so they naturally paid attention to it. In addition, the nature of this matter was really bad, and the elder sisters of the political engineering department did not help Qi Yu hide it. Meaning, before noon, Qi Yu's good deeds spread throughout the compound.

When Yun Shang heard about this, her first reaction was that this was written by Bai Yancheng!

After finally waiting for Bai Yancheng to come back for dinner, Yunshang went over to ask and found out that Bai Yancheng had indeed intervened in this matter, but the little girl and Qi Yu did have a festival.

Chapter 484 Human Blood Steamed Bun

"The lesbian stayed in the same class as Qi Yu, and they dated for a period of time. Later, after Qi's family got in touch with Director Zhu, Qi Yu led someone to raid the lesbian's house, and it seemed that they had copied it. Her parents He was taken away by the Revolutionary Committee a few days ago and will be released soon."

Yunshang frowned, staring at Bai Yancheng and asked, "Her family copied bad books, and the composition is not good. At this juncture, shouldn't she be sent down?"

"This is the crux of the problem. It is right to be sent down, but where you go, you will learn a lot."

Bai Yancheng pulled the corners of his lips and pointed to the map on the wall, "Decentralization to the northeast border is different from delegating to the south. Furthermore, delegating to the corners of the mountains is much worse than delegating to the villages near the provincial capital. ."

"Dad, what do you mean, that lesbian wants to give her parents a better place?"

"Yes." Bai Yancheng responded, fell silent for a while, and continued, "Besides this matter, the lesbian also wants to seek justice for herself. Most of the things she told the political and engineering comrades are It's true, Qi Yu himself can't feel sorry for her, and it's not wrong to let someone bite back."

To sue in the army, if there is no conclusive evidence, and you can't overthrow the opponent at once, then you will be charged with slander.

Especially Qi Yu, who is the son of the deputy division commander, and is also a family member of a military officer. The lesbian has a bad birth, and if she is charged with slander, the consequences are not something she can afford as a little girl.

Yunshang breathed a sigh of relief, thought for a while, and then told Bai Yancheng, "Dad, next time this happens, try not to find someone with a bad background. If that lesbian is unreliable, you can get involved with our family again." It's troublesome."

The dignified commander of the military region interacts with bad elements, and secretly helps the bad elements change their transfer locations. What does he want to do?

At that time, if a basin of dirty water is poured down, Bai Yancheng will not be able to please.

Bai Yancheng was amused by Yun Shang's appearance as a little adult, reached out and rubbed her head, and said with a smile, "Don't worry, Dad knows it well. I didn't come forward about this matter, even if the lesbian is unreliable, I can't find out onto me."

Yun Chang nodded, and leaned towards Bai Yancheng with a ghostly expression, "Dad, something happened to Qi Yu, what about Qi Zhenshan? What did Qi Zhenshan commit?"

The son was arrested, and it was Lao Tzu's turn next. Yun Shang was very curious about Qi Zhenshan's downfall.

Bai Yancheng knew that Yunshang had a lot of ideas since she was a child, and she had also cultivated her thoughts. Except for the things that needed to be kept secret in the army, she really didn't hide anything from Yunshang.

At this moment, I heard Yun Shang ask Qi Zhenshan a question,

Bai Yancheng frowned, his tone became cold, "Do you know usury?"

Yun Chang nodded, feeling very strange. Could it be that there are people lending usury in this era?

Now it's the 1960s, how is this usury done?

"Qi Zhenshan colluded with the people in the logistics department, reselling military supplies, and using the embezzled money to lend usury to the Yu family."

Seeing Yun Shang's puzzled face, Bai Yancheng continued, "The Yu family has a usury line in the capital, usually for a period of one month, nine in and thirteen out, anyone who lends us a loan through the Yu family, the Yu family must 10% off."

For example, the borrower wanted to borrow ten yuan, and the Yu family had to draw one yuan. The borrower actually only got nine yuan, but when he paid it back, he had to pay back thirteen yuan, with high interest.

When the Yu family borrowed money, they would choose reliable ones. If they couldn't pay back the bills, they had something at home that could be mortgaged, so they were not afraid of losing money. Qi Zhenshan's family was not well-off, and it was only after getting married with the boss of the Yu family that life gradually improved. "

Yun Chang gasped, her eyes widened in shock, and she couldn't say a word for a long time.

The Qi family was so poor back then, the children often wore patched clothes, they couldn't even eat enough to eat, and they couldn't even buy gifts to apologize to others, but after Qi Zhenshan arrived in Linyang, the life of the Qi family became better day by day .

She used to think that it was because old man Qi was not at Qi Zhenshan's house, but now it seems that it was because Qi Zhenshan was greedy for the army's money.

There is also the Yu family, who is simply insane!

What is the difference between such a high interest rate and eating human blood buns?

Yun Shang even suspected that it was fake for the Yu family to lend usury, and it was true to find allies for her family in the name of lending usury.

After all, the Yu family was looking for people who had enough money to lend money. Such people were at least cadre families. Once these people have a deal with the Yu family, it means that they have a handle in the hands of the Yu family. They hope that the Yu family can live in peace for a long time more than anyone else.

If the Yu family collapsed, the handles in their hands would definitely be thrown out, and by then the capital would inevitably have to fall a group of people.

With so many people protecting the Yu family, it's no wonder that the Yu family is now so arrogant and domineering.

After thinking about it like this, Yun Shang was so worried that her intestines were knotted, her little brows were knit together, and she asked Bai Yancheng, "Dad, is it possible that our family will not be able to bring down Yu's family for the time being?"

The Yu family has so many "allies", no matter how capable the Bai family is, they are no match for four.

"Don't worry, your master has made arrangements. The matter of the Yu family will definitely be brought out, and the capital will be in chaos in the next year."

Bai Yancheng's tone of voice was very calm, which made people want to be convinced. Yunshang also knew what kind of temper her father had. Now that he had spoken out, it proved that evidence had been found for this matter, and he would wait until the next year to do it.

It's getting late now, Qi Zhenshan stood up, held his hat in one hand, and rubbed Yunshang's head with the other, "The weather is bad today, I'm afraid it's going to snow, you should stay at home this afternoon, don't go to school gone."

Anyway, I can't learn anything when I go to school now, so I might as well sleep at home.

Yun Chang didn't expect Bai Yancheng to be so upbeat, his eyes lit up, and he nodded vigorously, "Dad, then I'll stay home and wait for the news of the Qi family's father and son committing crimes."

"Qi Zhenshan is busy with Qi Yu's affairs now, so he shouldn't notice that the organization is investigating him. After the organization finishes the trial of the two people who committed the logistics crime, they can directly arrest Qi Zhenshan."

After Bai Yancheng finished speaking, he hurried out, Yun Shang came out of the study, and went upstairs to sleep.

The organization acted very quickly. After interrogating the logistics criminals at a stunned speed, Qi Zhenshan was taken away.

At that time, Qi Zhenshan was still at the entrance of the big courtyard in the political and engineering department, accusing the little girl Qi Yu of being a hooligan, using the help of the little girl's parents as a bait, trying to make her admit that she was falsely accusing Qi Yu.

It's just that before he finished persuading the little girl, he was taken away by the organization for corruption.

In this era, embezzling a few hundred yuan can be regarded as a typical sentence, not to mention that Qi Zhenshan resold military supplies, embezzled nearly two thousand yuan, and even used it to lend usury.

Chapter 485 Marriage

The father and son of the Qi family were both taken away in one day, leaving behind the old man Qi who only knows how to drink and go crazy, Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law who has been oppressed for many years as a free nanny but has no right to speak, and the remaining three children.

The house in the big courtyard could not be lived in. After the Qi family moved to the small courtyard rented by the old man Qi, the old man pushed everything on Qi Zhenshan's wife, thinking that she was a loser and harmed Qi Zhenshan and the Qi family. The eldest grandson was arrested.

Later, he simply forced Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law to take a few children to beg Bai Yancheng, and asked the Bai family to let Qi Zhenshan go and resume his post as deputy teacher.

Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law has been married into the Qi family for so many years. Apart from doing housework, she has no right to speak. In addition, she is also an extremely traditional woman in her bones. Qi old man.

As a filial daughter-in-law, as soon as old man Qi spoke, Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law brought her three sons and knelt at the gate of the military area, wanting to intercede with Qi Zhenshan.

But the old man Qi ran out to call the second child of the Qi family, asking the second child of the Qi family to find a way to get Qi Zhenshan out.

In their old Qi family, there have been no descendants who have been involved in the situation for several generations, and Qi Zhenshan and the second child of the Qi family are the most promising descendants for several generations. They are his face and glory, which must be preserved!

If something happens to Qi Zhenshan and Qi Yu, how can he show others that he can walk sideways in the army? There is a villain son and grandson, where is his old face? How dare you go out and brag with people in the future?

The most important thing is that because of these two sons, he is a well-deserved old man in his hometown. If something happens to Qi Zhenshan, what prestige does he have in his hometown? How many other people in the room laughed at him? Even if he died, he would have no face to meet his ancestors.

Old man Qi thought well, but when the second son of the Qi family heard that his eldest brother was arrested for corruption, old man Qi wanted him to go through the back door to fish for Qi Zhenshan, so old man Qi immediately became angry, and criticized old man Qi's ideas on the phone as useless. He is not allowed to do anything, he has to accept the trial of the organization Qi Zhenshan, and he is not allowed to help Qi Zhenshan get rid of the crime, otherwise he is against the party and the people, the government, and the organization.

After the big hat was buttoned up, the old man Qi became honest and went back to the small courtyard lazily, waiting for the second son of the Qi family to pick him up and go to the second son's house to take care of him.

Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law just knelt down at the gate of the compound with a few children. Before she could speak out, she was led into the compound by the soldiers of the guards.

As soon as the comrades from the political and engineering department came over, Qi Zhenshan's wife stood up tremblingly, begged for mercy first as taught by the old man, and when she saw that the pleading was hopeless, she shook her voice, stopped Qi Zhenshan's dirty work on herself, and strongly demanded to replace her. Qi Zhenshan came to his death,

A look of deep affection and righteousness, disregarding life and death.

The people in the political engineering department were stunned by Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law's strange brain circuit, how stupid she must be to say such ridiculous things.

In the end, it was Chief Ma who slapped the table and made a big fuss, and Qi Zhenshan's daughter-in-law took a few out crying.

There was an uproar in the army because of Qi Zhenshan's incident, but Yunshang didn't have time to watch the excitement. She was leading Bai Qingming to mix with the crowd and sent Yun Shuilian out of the house.

Zhou Minghui wore a brand-new military uniform with a big red flower on his chest, and went upstairs surrounded by everyone.

After a lot of excitement, Yunshuilian, who was wearing a maroon cadre outfit and a big red flower on her chest, and whose face was as red as a big red cloth, was finally taken out of the door.

For this wedding, the Armed Forces sent out the only jeep and a dozen or so bicycles to help Zhou Minghui pick up the bride. Such a big deal made the unmarried young women in the small mansion and the lesbians with girls at home envious. .

When everyone brought the betrothal gift from the Zhou family, which was Yun Shuilian's dowry, downstairs and tied it behind the bicycle, everyone's eyes widened again.

Not to mention the two brand-new large quilts, nor small items such as washbasins and thermos pots, just the radio in the open wedding box, the flashlight, and the delicate and small lady's watch on Yun Shuilian's wrist, all can It made the eyes of the girls in the building bloodshot with jealousy.

What is this mother-in-law doing?

This is too much emphasis on Yunshuilian!

When someone else's family gets married, the husband's family will provide two bicycles and buy a flashlight. The bride can proudly raise her head and show off for half a year. Yun Shuilian can't show off her chin for a lifetime!

Yun Shang was not touched by these, and even felt that this was too shabby. Compared with the scenes of marriages in later generations with hundreds of tables frozen and millions of dollars spent, isn't it too shabby?

But Yunshang also knew that the scene of Yun Shuilian's marriage was already very good, and it was the best that Zhou Minghui could give Yun Shuilian.

Seeing Zhou Minghui's flushed face, walking lightly and heavily, and only seeing Yun Shuilian's appearance, Yun Chang knew that Yun Shuilian had never married the wrong person in her life.

The Zhou family is also very lively. The couple's wedding room has been repainted. The white walls are pasted with red happy characters. There are also two wedding photos hanging on the wall.

Yun Shuilian smiles brightly. Although Zhou Minghui is serious The face, but the joy in the eyes can overflow through the photos.

The wedding ceremony at this time has strong characteristics of the times. The two newlyweds stand under the chairman's portrait and swear an oath. The leaders of the two units act as witnesses and say a few words of encouragement.

Simple, but also very solemn.

After the wedding, Yun Erchuan and his two sons came out of the old Zhou's house wiping away tears.

Yun Erchuan choked up and wiped the corners of his eyes, and walked home with his head down: I can't bear it! The girl who has been raising him for more than 20 years and has always been behind his back has married, and will be someone else's family from now on.

Shuan Zi was a little more restrained. Although his eyes were red, he knew that this was Yun Shuilian's happy day, so he didn't shed tears.

But Xiao Heiwa couldn't do it anymore, and opened his mouth and howled as soon as he went out: Zhou Minghui, a bastard, just abducted his aunt, and he won't see his aunt when he comes home from school. No need for my aunt to hide delicious food for him.

Luo Qiulan frantically coaxed several people, and finished coaxing the old man and the young one.

The corner of Yunshang's mouth twitched as she looked at the father and son, dragging Bai Qingming to the front without a word, feeling disgusted in her heart.

These three guys who didn't make up their minds, didn't even look at how old Yun Shuilian was, no matter how reluctant they were, could they really keep Yun Shuilian until she was thirty?

Besides, Zhou Minghui waited for Yun Shuilian for five years, and he is also thirty years old. If the two are not allowed to get married, when will Zhou Minghui be asked to wait?

With such a good partner, aren't you afraid of waiting and waiting?

Chapter 486: Instigation

The old lady's most distressed old daughter went out, and she was upset at first, and when she saw Yun Erchuan and his son enter the door like three red-eyed rabbits, she was furious and gave Yun Erchuan a hug without thinking about it. fist:

"Fuck off! Why are you crying? What do you mean by crying on my daughter's day!"

Finish the calf stuff! Such a good marriage, what else is there to be dissatisfied with? What if the blessing of the water lotus is lost by crying?

Yun Erchuan was so scolded that he didn't dare to droop his face, so he forced a smile and hurried to return the neighbors' tables, chairs and benches.

Not long after Luo Qiulan entered Lao Yun's house, no matter whether she was doing superficial work or she was a person with a lot of work in her eyes, she was also busy cleaning up the house at the moment, without a moment's rest.

Seeing that the house was still in a mess, Yunshang greeted the old lady, and took Bai Qingming, who came to Fenyang for the first time, out for a walk, and bought a lot of delicious food for Bai Qingming out of her own pocket. Qingming couldn't close his mouth.

After shopping, when returning to Xiaoyanglou, Bai Qingming walked ahead quickly with long legs and was about to enter the stairs, when he suddenly turned around and made a quiet gesture to Yunshang, then hid under the stairs without saying a word. up.

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, and subconsciously stepped lightly. Just as she stepped up the steps, she heard Luo Qiulan's voice from the corridor:

"...Why do I stop people from getting married? If it weren't for the old Yun's family who worried that Shuilian would not look good without her natal sister-in-law, do you think Erchuan would be in a hurry to marry me? To put it bluntly, if Yun Shuilian didn't get married, Lao Yun's family doesn't necessarily want me!"

"Qiulan, how can you think like this? You have a good appearance, a good character, and a good job. He Yun Erchuan just doesn't like you!"

Luo Qiulan snapped back coldly, "It's because I can't have a baby!"

Yun Shang was a little puzzled. Hearing this voice, it should be Luo Qiulan's natal mother, but I don't know why this old lady Luo wants Luo Qiulan to stop Yun Shuilian from going out.

The two people in the stairwell didn't know that there was someone eavesdropping on the bottom. The old lady Luo was choked by Luo Qiulan, and a trace of anger rose in her heart, and she punched Luo Qiulan's head without thinking:

"What's wrong with not being able to have children? Yun Erchuan just likes you not being able to have children! What kind of family is old Yun's family? This is an ordinary village family! Yun Erchuan is just an ordinary worker, and there are two oil bottles under him. He married you It is to let you serve his parents and those two oil bottles! If you can give birth, he, Yun Erchuan, would not dare to marry you."

I just came into the city from the countryside, and the mud spots on my trouser legs haven't been cleaned, so why do I pretend to be someone from the city?

If you marry someone who can give birth,

With Yun Erchuan's salary, can he afford ten or eight more children?

Luo Qiulan's face was pale, she pursed her lips tightly, she lowered her head and said nothing.

Seeing Luo Qiulan like this, the old lady Luo opened her mouth, and instead of continuing to curse, she changed her face and persuaded with earnestness:

"That's what I said before. Your sister-in-law has gone out, and it's too late to say anything now. Besides, your sister-in-law is also a shrewd person. Even if she didn't go out, she would probably hold the job in her own hands. You can't Bring it home."

"Oh," Mrs. Luo sighed, and continued, "But the man she married is not bad. From now on, you and your sister-in-law will walk around frequently, and don't be polite to her when you encounter anything. Just Yun Erchuan, a brother from her natal family, she Don't help anyone."

Luo Qiulan nodded vaguely, her eyes were a little fuzzy, the corners of her mouth drooped, obviously in a bad mood, and her mind was wandering.

Mrs. Luo didn't seem to notice that Luo Qiulan was distracted, and continued to persuade her earnestly, "Don't think my words are harsh. Three fathers and sons are a family. You are a stepmother and an outsider. If you don't think about it Get some money, don't try to manage the family, and you will be the one who suffers in the future!"

"Mom, I have a job and a salary. Even if Erchuan doesn't support me, I won't be able to starve myself. Besides, I may not be able to get along with those two children. Why do you have to pick each other up? This thankless job..."

The old lady Luo stared, and interrupted Luo Qiulan, "What do you mean you are thankless? You are a stepmother, if you don't show some wrists, who will take you seriously in the future?"

"You also know that I'm a stepmother. I'm a stepmother. If I don't do anything, others are on guard against me. If I do something, do you think Erchuan, Shuilian, and the daughter of Bailing's family in the provincial capital can let go?" over me?

Besides, what is the use of me holding so much money? I can't have a baby, so I saved so much money, but in the end I still have to leave it to Shuan Zi and Hei Wa? Anyway, the things are reserved for the two children. What else can I gain from getting this trick besides a bad reputation? Even hugging the warm quilt in my arms, I still feel panicked. "

"What are you talking about, kid!"

Mrs. Luo got anxious, twisted Luo Qiulan's arm, and continued, "You are married and don't plan to take care of the house? How old are those two oil bottles? Do you think that if you are well-raised, you will be able to take care of you in the future?" To the end!? Why don't you put more money in your hands and help your brothers and nephews, and when you grow up in grades, you can rely on your nephews to support you in the old age!"

Yun Chang's lungs exploded when he heard it, and the old lady Luo took Lao Yun's family for a fool! The purpose of marrying the infertile daughter is to earn money from Lao Yun's family and support the grandson of Lao Luo's family.

This calculation is too shrewd.

Fortunately, Luo Qiulan wasn't so confused, otherwise this would be another 'Li Hongmei' type of character.

Hearing that the two mother and daughter were arguing non-stop on the top, Yun Chang's face darkened, and he deliberately stepped up, pulling Bai Qingming up the steps.

The old lady Luo looked at Yun Shang who suddenly appeared in a daze, her face twisted for a moment, she put down the hand that was about to hit Luo Qiulan in embarrassment, and smiled at Yun Shang with the corner of her mouth pulled.

Luo Qiu nodded uncomfortably at Yunshang, then turned his head away to cover his red eye circles.

Yun Chang's gaze swept across Luo Qiulan lightly, and landed directly on the old lady Luo, with a serious expression and sharp eyes. After a while, cold sweat broke out on the old lady Luo's forehead, and she didn't know where to put her hands and feet.

"Tch~!" Bai Qingming sneered, leaning on the stairs in a dawdly manner, with a mocking smile on his lips, "Xiaoqi, this time, go back and bring Grandpa Yun, Grandma Yun, and Shuanzi Heiwa to the provincial capital together. Well, anyway, the small courtyard back then was vacant and there was land to live in. In case everyone wants to take advantage of Lao Yun's family!"

Mrs. Luo was dumbfounded.

Luo Qiulan's face turned red, and she lowered her head in embarrassment.

Yun Shang still stared at old lady Luo, stuffed the candied dates in her hand into her mouth, bumped into old lady Luo, and walked straight upstairs. He still didn't forget to answer Bai Qingming's words, "Okay, it's useless to keep the house here, anyway, these two houses are under the name of me and Shuanzi, and I sold the house later, and let the second uncle live in the dormitory of the factory. ."

Chapter 487 Match

It wasn't until the two of them turned into the corridor on the second floor that no one could be seen, did Mrs. Luo react. Looking at Luo Qiulan in a daze, she asked, "Qiulan, she, what did she mean?"

Yun Erchuan has no room?" Before Luo Qiulan could answer, Mrs. Luo suddenly raised her voice again, "His old Yun's family cheated on marriage !?"

There are three rooms in this old Yun's house on the surface, one is richer than the other, and the other is brighter than the other, why is there no room for Yun Erchuan in this room?

Then why did her daughter marry her here?

Old Yun's family didn't say that Yun Erchuan's second marriage stole and left him without a house, it was not a fraudulent marriage or something! ?

Originally thought that the mud legs of Lao Yun's family would belong to the mud legs, but there is a good family, and the daughter has also gone to college, so she is capable. After Luo Qiulan gets married, she should be able to pull her natal family back.

But that little girl actually said that Yun Erchuan had no room! ! !

Isn't this the surface of donkey dung eggs! ?

Second marriage with two muddy legs, what kind of wife would you marry if you don't have a house?

With a dark face, the old lady Luo grabbed Luo Qiulan, ready to settle accounts with Yun Erchuan and the old couple.

This tone can't be tolerated, and Lao Yun's family must give an explanation!

Yun Shang walked in front, not forgetting the assets under the name of Bai Qingming and the old Yun family.

The three rooms in Xiaoyang Building, the upper floor was bought by Yun Shuilian when Zhang Shouyi regretted her marriage, and the house was under Yun Shuilian's name.

The two downstairs rooms were originally the houses of Yunshang and Gu Shinian, and had nothing to do with Lao Yun's house. After the two moved to the provincial capital, Yun Erchuan bought Gu

Shinian's house for Shuanzi in order to get Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa's registered permanent residence in the city, and then gave the palm-sized foundation under his name to the city. Transferred to the name of Xiaoheiwa.

It can be said that besides the collective account of the aluminum factory, Yun Erchuan doesn't even have a tile under his name... No, that's not right, Yun Erchuan actually has a house under his name, and his house is in Xinglin Village, the few rooms in Houcun Broken mud room!

Even the blue brick and large tile houses in Qiancun'er belonged to the big houses. Strictly speaking, the house in Qiancun'er was suitable for the old couple, but he, Yun Erchuan, could not live in it!

Mrs. Luo was counting on Luo Qiulan to take care of Yun Erchuan and help the old Luo's family, but she really made a mistake.

Yun Erchuan is the poorest and most pitiful member of the entire old Yun family, even worse than his two sons!

At least one of the two sons has a house under his name, and the other has a palm-sized foundation facing the street.

He, Yun Erchuan, besides the quota of regular workers in the aluminum factory, what else does he have? Even two-thirds of his monthly salary should be set aside to support the old couple and the two children. If Luo Qiulan is not afraid of being poked in the back, she can try using Yun Erchuan's salary!

Back then, Li Hongmei was kicked out by Lao Yun's family because of her food. Even Shuanzi and Xiao Heiwa's mother, Lao Yun's family, were able to drive them away ruthlessly. What kind of thing is Luo Qiulan's stepmother who can't have children?

If you dare to be dishonest, you can either go to the aluminum factory and live in a dormitory with Yun Erchuan, or divorce Yun Erchuan and get out of Lao Yun's house!

Yun Chang endured his anger and entered the room. The old couple, Yun Erchuan and his son were sitting and talking together. Seeing that Yun Chang looked unsightly, the old lady just wanted to ask questions, and the old lady rushed in with Luo Qiulan.

Facing the old lady Luo's accusations of 'fraudulent marriage' one by one, the old couple gasped with anger, Yun Erchuan's face turned black, and the veins on his forehead popped out.

Luo Qiuyue was so anxious that tears were about to fall, but no matter how much she tried to persuade Mrs. Luo, she couldn't persuade Mrs. Luo. The old man came back to his senses, and slammed the table: "Today is a good day for my daughter, so please stop my house from arguing." try!"

The old lady also said with a cold face, "Did our old Yun family short your daughter, or let your daughter sleep on the street? Why didn't you say you couldn't get married if you didn't have a house when you got married? If you really think that our old Yun family cheated on the marriage, you take your daughter back, and my family Erchuan promises not to pick up your daughter!"

The two heads of Lao Yun's family have spoken,

Except for Yun Erchuan's still looking ugly, everyone else immediately relaxed, and even Xiao Heiwa yelled twice, calling for Yun Erchuan to go into the house to clean up Luo Qiulan's things, and to go back to Lao Luo's house today.

Yun Chang nodded in satisfaction. This makes sense, Mrs. Luo is not satisfied, then divorce! Anyway, Yun Shuilian has already left the house, and she doesn't need her natal sister-in-law to support her appearance. After leaving Luo Qiulan, Yun Erchuan can still find Li Qiulan and Wang Qiulan in the future, and continue to give birth to grandchildren for the old Yun family. Who is better than you, Luo Qiulan?

Only Mrs. Luo couldn't figure it out by herself, and she regarded Luo Qiulan as a gold-encrusted treasure.

To put it bluntly, in this day and age, for a woman like Luo Qiulan who can't give birth and is not the most beautiful, marrying into a family like Lao Yun's is already a high-spirited, and she really thinks she is Mary Su, Can she be so lovable that one can ignore her fatal flaws?

Bai Qingming also laughed at the side, stuffed a petal of orange into Yunshang's mouth, and congratulated Yun Erchuan sincerely: "Congratulations to Uncle Yun. I heard from Xiao Qi that Uncle Yun is very supportive in the factory." You are welcome, get married early next time, and give grandpa and grandma Yun a few grandchildren."

Mrs. Luo: "..."

Her daughter hasn't divorced Yun Erchuan yet, so why does this bastard push Yun Erchuan to find her next family?

Knowing that her daughter can't have a baby, she still said that the next family would add a fat grandson to Lao Yun's family. This kid's mouth is too bad!

Yun Chang almost laughed out loud, swallowed the orange in her mouth, and said to Mrs. Luo, "My grandpa and grandma said, if you think my second uncle cheated on the marriage, take your daughter back. If you don't take it away, let the new second aunt live an honest life, and don't even think about asking my second uncle to help your family in the future.

Let me make it clear, my second aunt in front of me always used things from the family to supplement her natal family, so my second uncle divorced her. If the new second aunt does the same thing, don't blame my second uncle for being ruthless in the future. "

"That's right!" Xiao Heiwa grinned, and interjected next to him, "Anyway, it's all elbows out, what kind of stepmother will my father marry me? Wouldn't it be good to bring my own mother back? It just happens to be okay. Give me brothers and sisters."

Mrs. Luo was furious and went to Lao Yun's family to explain, but before she could say a few words, Lao Yun's family beat them up and down, half ironic and half threatening, and sent them back.

In particular, Lao Yun's family put on an attitude of whether to stay or not, and if you don't stay or leave, Granny Luo suddenly realized that Lao Yun's family was not easy to handle, and Yun Erchuan didn't like her daughter that much.

Then I heard that the mothers of the two oil bottles made Lao Yun's family rest because of eating inside and outside, and Mrs. Luo didn't have the guts to take advantage of Lao Yun's family.

Didn't you hear? The daughter-in-law in front had two sons, and just because she helped her mother's family, the family said no, so they didn't want it.

After all, she gave birth to two fat grandsons to Lao Yun's family. What contribution did her daughter make? A woman who can't give birth, how can the old Yun's family care about it?

Besides, her daughter is married for the second time. If she divorces Yun Erchuan again, it will be a mess. Who will dare to marry in the future?

The place where the family lives is tight, and it's okay for the daughter to go back to live for three or two days. After a long time, not to mention the daughters-in-law, even the grandchildren have to yell at her, blaming her for taking the daughter back to occupy the space.

Thinking of this, Mrs. Luo felt guilty for a moment, and looked at Luo Qiulan who couldn't lift her head in embarrassment, and she felt a little soft-hearted.

After all, she was her own daughter, because she couldn't give birth to a divorce once, and if she divorced again this time, what if she couldn't think about it and couldn't survive?

Forget it, if you don't have a house, you don't have a house. There are many first-timers who don't have a house. It's good for Lao Yun's family to have land to live in.

Alas, it just hurts to think about not being able to benefit from Lao Yun's family in the future!

The old lady has been in the village for decades, and she has seen no less scenes of shrews swearing at the street than old lady Luo.

Seeing that the old lady Luo's attitude showed signs of softening, she immediately gave Yun Erchuan a wink, and said impatiently: "Erchuan, go into the room and take out Luo Qiulan's things and let her take them away. You will go there tomorrow morning." Divorce the marriage."

Just a few days after entering the door, she was urging to ask for a house for Luo Qiulan, and it's not that she has no place to live. What is Mrs. Luo trying to do?

Wanting to take advantage of Lao Yun's family is not a fig leaf.

This time, I have to teach the Luo family a lesson so that they won't come out and jump around with disgusting people again after a long time.

After receiving the old lady's signal, Yun Erchuan immediately responded and went to pack up the things in the house. Luo Qiulan's face turned pale, and she couldn't help but push the old lady Luo, crying and asking, "Are you satisfied?" Are you satisfied! You have caused me to get divorced again and again, are you satisfied now!"

After finishing speaking, he didn't look at Mrs. Luo, and ran into the house to tangle with Yun Erchuan.

The old lady Luo originally wanted to get a room under the names of Yun Erchuan and Luo Qiulan, but the reason why she got angry as soon as she came here was because she wanted to overwhelm Lao Yun's family in terms of momentum at first, and then made her own request.

But it never occurred to her that she had just made a start, and the old Yun's family wanted her to take their daughter back, but Yun Erchuan, who killed a thousand swords, didn't even stay with Luo Qiulan.

This is too cold, too chilling.

Things have come to this point,

Mrs. Luo didn't dare to take Joe anymore, she pulled the corners of her mouth hard, squeezed out a smile that was uglier than crying, and began to talk softly to the old couple.

It's just that Mrs. Luo was smiling, but her heart was bleeding. She wanted to find someone honest and easy to deal with, but she didn't expect this family to be stones in the latrine, smelly and hard. She won't be able to get a big house for her daughter, and she won't dare to take advantage of Lao Yun's family in the future. This daughter is really at a loss in marriage.

Seeing that the matter had basically come to an end, Yun Chang curled her lips boredly, turned around and went to her own room next door.

Bai Qingming was quite careless, and the cheerful little Heiwa waved at him, then dragged the restless Shuan Zi out, and also went to the next room.

"Sister! You went out, I don't know that my mother really asked someone to deliver the message." Xiao Heiwa ran over and said to Yun Shang as soon as she entered the room.

"Trust me?" Yun Shang was stunned for a moment, then asked, "What did she say?"

"My mother asked the villager who was sitting at the table to bring a message, asking my brother to get her some milk powder, saying that she is going to give birth to a younger brother for us!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Li Hongmei is pregnant?

Shuanzi's face, which had been dark for several hours, finally showed expression. He dragged a bench and sat beside Yunshang, and said with a cold face, "I heard that I don't know if I have a baby. I fell down last week and almost gave the baby away." It's gone. Let me get her milk powder because I want to talk to you. "

Xiao Heiwa nodded, and added angrily, "My mother also specifically explained that I want the milk powder you got me before, saying that only the chief can get it, and it is nutritious!"

Yun Chang couldn't believe her ears, and was dumbfounded again.

Li Hongmei has married into someone else's family, and she is pregnant with someone else's baby, but she has to beg for milk powder from her ex-husband's family, and she still makes the two children look down and ask for something. Are you sure you are not out of your mind?

This is too weird.

Yun Chang was speechless for a long time, and finally said, "No wonder she didn't come to Fenyang to have a seat today, I just said, last time she called to come to see my aunt out of the house, why didn't I see anyone today." It turned out to be Pregnant with a baby and almost gone again.

Xiao Heiwa curled her lips, with a look of disgust, "If she dares to come, that man will not beat her!"

Compared with the heartless little Heiwa, Shuanzi's thoughts are obviously much more delicate, and his temperament has become more and more quiet these years. When he told Yun Shang that Li Hongmei broke through the offline Xiu IQ again and again, he was embarrassed and ashamed. I can't hold my head up.

"Sister, why do you think my mother has become like this?" Shuanzi wiped the corners of her eyes, and continued, "It wasn't like this before..." She has no skin and no face.

Yun Shang patted Shuanzi's head, and said very speechlessly, "Your mother has never changed. In the past, our grandpa, our grandma, and your father could suppress her a little bit. Now that they have changed, who can be like us?" Like the family, teach her how to be a person by hand?"

Yun Erchuan is so honest, when Li Hongmei was pregnant with Xiao Heiwa, didn't Yun Erchuan want to beat her several times? It's also thanks to Yun Erchuan, if it was another man with a bad temper, maybe Xiao Heiwa would have been beaten to death long ago.

Shuanzi was stunned, silent for a long time, then nodded slowly, "Sister, I told the villagers to go back and ask her to buy milk powder from that family, and said that Xiao Heiwa and I would not help her raise the baby."

"That's right." Yunshang affirmed Shuanzi verbally, and then continued, "I look at the new second aunt, she's okay, except for her natal mother's incomprehension, she's reasonable. From now on, you and Xiao Hei Don't feel awkward, baby, as a family, you can get along after getting along."

Shuanzi and Xiaoheiwa nodded in unison, listening to Yunshang's words in their hearts.

Facing the mirror, Bai Qingming fiddled with his still-spirited hair. When he saw a layer of dust on his hair, he asked, "Shuanzi, is there a bathroom nearby? Take me to take a bath later."

"Have....."

As soon as Shuanzi opened his mouth, Xiao Heiwa seemed to be thinking of something, and said in horror, "Brother Qingming, last time I went to the bathhouse with my brother to take a bath, those adults are so dirty! Let's wash it at home." It can be washed."

Bai Qingming was stunned for a moment, "Why is it dirty?" Isn't the water in the bathroom changed frequently?

"Hey~!" Xiao Heiwa pointed at the place where she grew a small bird, and made a disgusted expression, "It's just that the grown-ups grow fur here, but it's so dirty! I don't know why the grown-ups are so dirty!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Bai Qingming: "..."

Chapter 489 Roasted Little Sparrow

Shuanzi is a few years older, and already has the concept that men and women are different, seeing Xiao Heiwa talking nonsense in front of Yun Shang, almost looking for a needle to sew his mouth shut.

Bai Qingming is well-known in the courtyard. After being speechless, Pi Jin came up again. He walked over, covered Yunshang's ears with his hands, and teased Xiao Heiwa, "Those adults are not dirty, they are lazy! They After taking a bath, if you don't bother to dry it in the sun, the little sparrow will get moldy, you can't be lazy after taking a bath in the future, or it will get moldy too."

Xiao Heiwa felt that Bai Qingming's words were too reasonable, didn't they see that the wet clothes after washing had to be dried in the sun?

Even if it is rainy and there is no sun, the big guys will hang their wet clothes by the stove to dry.

Xiao Heiwa is such a clever child, he learned the correct answer in his heart instantly.

Thinking that after taking a bath the day before yesterday, I put on my clothes when I was all wet, and my whole body was not well.

It's over, not only did he not dry the little birds, he didn't even wipe the water clean, so it won't be moldy! ?

Little Heiwa's dull eyes moved to the red stove in front of her, thinking in her heart that her little sparrow hadn't started to get moldy yet, maybe she could save it... right?

Under Bai Qingming's and Shuanzi's playful eyes, Xiao Heiwa stood up from the stool in a panic, ran to the stove, pulled off his pants, and roasted the little sparrow in front of the red-hot fire.

Yun Chang's ears were covered all the time, and she didn't hear what Bai Qingming said. She didn't know what kind of divine development this was, so she was directly confused.

Bai Qingming and Shuanzi were even more confused, their faces looked as if they had been struck by lightning. After realizing it, they both went to cover Yunshang's eyes.

Especially Bai Qingming, who originally wanted to tease Xiao Hei Wa, a child who knows how to be funny, but he didn't realize it. Sparrow's coquettish operation.

The fierce and cute girl in his family is a girl! If this matter got to the ears of Commander Bai and Commander Lin, or Gu Shinian, he would definitely not be able to keep his skin.

Seeing that little Heiwa was so close to the fire, Bai Qingming wanted to cry even more.

This honest boy, just warm up by the fire, why is he so close? What if there is a problem with the little sparrow roast?

Bai Qingming tightly covered Yunshang's eyes, and signaled Shuanzi to quickly put on the little Heiwa's pants, those two black butts were really eye-catching.

Yun Chang's eyes were covered,

His mouth was not idle, after being forced, he couldn't help but burst out laughing, and he didn't forget to ask Xiao Hei Wa, "Xiao Hei Wa, what are you doing?"

Although Xiao Heiwa was already warming up, she wasn't sure if she could save her little Queque. She looked terrified, but answered very seriously:

"Brother Qingming said that the little sparrows should be dried in the sun after taking a bath, otherwise they will get moldy and be as dirty as adults. I didn't wipe the water after taking a bath, so I had to roast the little sparrows."

Yun Shang: "..."

Bai Qingming, you're a complete bastard!

It's really wicked.

After Little Heiwa's trousers were pulled up, Yun Chang gave Bai Qingming a hard look, and before she could wink, Bai Qingming smiled at her flatteringly, and carried Little Heiwa into the room for private education.

Yun Shang sat on the stool, thinking of Xiao Hei Wa's actions just now, and regretting that she didn't use a camera to take pictures, and at the same time threatening Xiao Hei Wa in the future, she couldn't help laughing for a long time.

I have to say that when going out with my stupid and cute little brother, although he is not as warm and caring as when he was with Gu Shinian, he will never be short of jokes.

When Yun Shuilian returned to the door and confirmed that she was doing well at Zhou's house, the two of them started shopping for a ticket to go back to the provincial capital.

I heard from Yunshang that the whole family loved the persimmon buns I brought back last time. The old lady got up before dawn, took out the persimmons she brought from the village, peeled them, and mixed them with white sugar bought at home for guests. , steamed a large pot of sweet persimmon buns for Yunshang, and was going to let her take them home for the Bai family to taste fresh.

He also told the old man to pack the pickled pheasant and hare that he had prepared early in the morning, as well as the dried vegetables that were dried in the summer, and let Yunshang take them back as an addition.

Seeing that the time was almost up, Zhou Minghui took the luggage of the two of them down first. While Yunshang was wearing a hat and wrapped in a scarf, Bai Qingming was very worried and brought Xiao Hei Wa over and explained: "Little Hei Wa, after taking a bath in the bathhouse My son, if you wipe it clean, it won't get moldy, but don't dare to bake it with fire, it will be burnt! At that time, you can't pee, and your stomach will explode."

Xiao Heiwa covered the little bird with a terrified expression, and nodded repeatedly, "Brother Qingming, I know, after I finish the bath, I will wipe it with a towel first, and then go out to bask in the sun when the sun is good. ."

Yun Chang was speechless again, and patted Xiao Hei Wa's head funnyly, turned her head, twisted Bai Qingming's ears, and dragged her downstairs.

"Little six! You dare to talk nonsense to tease little Heiwa, believe it or not, I will tell my parents what you did!"

Bai Qingming exaggeratedly yelled a few times in pain, and ran downstairs begging for mercy. When the neighbors saw that Lao Yun's family came out to send the two of them downstairs, they knew that Yunshang was going back to the provincial capital, and they also all kindly told Yunshang to be careful on the road, and to go back to the small western building when she had time, the atmosphere in the corridor was very lively and harmonious for a while.

The sun is not very good today, and the northwest wind is also strong. I am worried that Yunshang will catch the wind outside, and the old lady will not let her stay in the wind. When she went downstairs, she quickly pushed Yunshang onto the bicycle and sent Yun Erchuan and Zhou Ming away. Hui sent people away.

Everything went smoothly on the way back. The two got on the car at night and returned to the provincial capital when the sun first rose in the morning.

Recently, Bai Yancheng was busy dealing with the affairs left behind by Qi Zhenshan and the others. He went to the army early in the morning. Fortunately, Lin Wenlan's company came back, so he went to the train station to pick up the two of them and moved Bai Qingming. Don't want it.

It was so rare. He had traveled far before, and his family had never picked him up at the train station. This time his mother finally found out and treated him like a baby.

Lin Wenlan didn't know that her little six sons fell into self-impression, and as soon as they met, they hurriedly hugged Yunshang into the car, asked about Yun Shuilian's marriage, and picked some new things in the courtyard to tell Yunshang at the right time listen.

There is no way, who makes my little girl like to listen to gossip the most.

After arriving home, Yun Chang first picked up the ball that was thrown at him and ravaged it for a long time, then leaned up to Lin Wenlan and asked, "By the way, Mom, something happened to Qi Zhenshan and Qi Yu, where is old man Qi and Qi Zhenshan's wife? Are they still living outside? Small courtyard?"

"Old man Qi asked the second son of the Qi family to pick him up. He originally said that he would help Qi Zhenshan send his wife and children back to his hometown, but Qi Zhenshan's wife was not happy and insisted on staying in the provincial capital to avenge Qi Zhenshan. Qi's second son couldn't persuade him, so he let go gone."

Chapter 490 Returning to Beijing for the New Year

"What about Qi Zhenshan? What's the situation now?"

"I heard from your father that the organization is still investigating, and there should be results a year ago."

While the mother and daughter were talking, Aunt Wu took out freshly rolled noodles from the kitchen and placed them in front of Yunshang and Bai Qingming, telling them to quickly eat their warm stomachs.

Lin Wenlan had to go to the regiment in the morning, rubbed Yunshang's head, and told the two of them to go upstairs to sleep after eating the noodles, then hurried out with the purse and left.

After returning from Fenyang, Yunshang had a major concern in her heart, and after that, she counted the days with her fingers every day, hoping to celebrate the new year early so that she could go to the capital to take care of the new year.

Once there is hope in people's hearts, time becomes the most difficult thing, but also the most unspoken thing. Just when Yunshang tore the desk calendar to the place where she marked it, the new year came.

Because of their careers, Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan are the busiest time for them at the end of the year, but this year is a special situation, the Bai family is not stable, and the Lin family also wants to see Lin Dani's partner, and the old lady Lin is strong. After so many years, the body has reached the point where it is exhausted, and it is very likely that it will not be able to survive this year. Therefore, Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan both made arrangements this year, preparing the family to return to the capital for a reunion year.

On the twenty-eighth day of the twelfth lunar month, Mr. Bai walked around the living room and kitchen early in the morning. After instructing the nanny to cook more delicious dishes, he took out the snacks for Chinese New Year hospitality and placed them on the coffee table in the living room.

Waiting impatiently, I could occasionally hallucinate the sound of a car stopping in my ears, so I hurried to the gate and wandered around to see if Bai Yancheng's family had come back.

Near noon, the familiar sound of brakes finally sounded at the gate. Old man Bai dropped the newspaper in his hand, didn't even bother to put on his coat, and strode out.

Before he could reach the gate, Pi Xiaozi Bai Qingming had already pushed open the courtyard gate, and rushed in with Yun Chang on his face excitedly: "Master! We are back! Xiaoqi brought you something good!"

Old Master Bai walked straight past Bai Qingming, held Yun Shang, looked at Ji Yan carefully, and smiled until the folds on his face piled up into a flower, "That's right! Our Chang'an has grown taller, and she's become a big girl!"

Yun Chang's eyes lit up instantly, and she felt that the old man was getting better and better at talking.

There are dozens of people in the entire Bai family, and only the old man thinks she is a big girl.

When she was in a good mood, Yun Chang's small mouth was naturally sweet, and she pushed Bai Qingming away with her buttocks. She hugged the old man's arm and didn't let go. day,

Do you miss me? "

The old man grinned so much that his mouth reached his ears, and he nodded pretending to be reserved, and said "um" in a prolonged voice, "it's okay, my father is busy playing chess, raising flowers and reading newspapers every day, so I don't have much time Miss you."

The granddaughter is the granddaughter, she is really soft, cute, good-looking, and caring, not like those brats who know how to piss him off.

Yun Chang has long seen through the tricks of the old man's duplicity, deliberately lowered his face, and settled the score with the old man, "Master, how can you do this! I miss you every day at home, and I am always worried that you will not be able to eat or sleep well, and I am worried that no one will play with you. In the end, you had so much fun playing alone, you didn't even know you missed me!"

How could the old man resist his granddaughter's coquettish accusation, he immediately bent down and surrendered, dragging Yun Chang to walk into the house, coaxing, "I'm coaxing you. They cooked delicious food for you, and bought a lot of snacks for you and Qingyue, enough for you to eat for several months."

Seeing the grandpa and grandson entering the door affectionately, no one paid any attention to him, Bai Qingming's eyes turned red with jealousy.

eccentric!

It's too biased!

Obviously he was the first to enter the door, and he was also the first to say hello to the old man, but the old man didn't even look at him, he just knew how to coax his granddaughter to play.

It's as if his grandson was picked up for nothing.

At this time, Bai Qingyue also entered the door, with her bag in her hand, she bumped into Bai Qingming, and trotted all the way home, "Master! I'm back to see you, are you at home?"

Bai Qingming: "..."

It's over, it's not enough for one granddaughter to compete for favor, here comes another granddaughter, don't expect the old man to see him in these two days.

The whole family had just sat down and had a sip of hot tea when the boss, Bai Yanming, and his family came back one after another.

Cheng Guo hadn't seen anyone from the second room for two years. Seeing that both Yunshang and Bai Qingyue had grown up to be big girls, and one was prettier than the other, she dragged the two enviously, reluctant to let go for a long time.

After distributing gifts to everyone, Lin Wenlan sat down opposite Cheng Guo, looked at the three old bachelors in the big house, and asked in a low voice, "Sister-in-law, our family is one year older after the Chinese New Year. Happening?"

"Don't mention it." Cheng Guo's face collapsed in an instant, and he complained angrily to his sister-in-law, "Tell me, Qingze will be twenty-seven after the new year, and Qingyuan Qingjie will be twenty-four or five, but I'm almost dying of worry if I don't find a partner for life and death."

Thinking of the people from the big house going out, together with the three old bachelors, Lin Wenlan also started to feel a headache for Cheng Guo, "How about we secretly make arrangements during the Chinese New Year? Check a few more, in case you see the right way of it."

"I've been thinking about this recently, and I said I'll give you an idea when you come back..."

Here the two sisters-in-law met to discuss the matter of finding a partner for the three bachelors in Dafang. Over there, the old man sat on the sofa and chatted with the two sons about the army. The three cousins got together and talked affectionately, and the whole living room was very lively for a while.

After the nanny Aunt Jiang finished cooking the last dish, she came out and asked the old man cheerfully, "Chief, it's almost time for dinner. Shall I make dinner?"

The old man nodded, stood up with Bai Yancheng's support, and did not forget to tell Lin Wenlan, "I will give Shangnan and Qingyue Sheng some chicken soup later, after a few hours on the road, drink some soup to rest my stomach before eating."

Lin Wenlan smiled and agreed, and Cheng Guo helped Aunt Jiang bring out the food. The whole family was lively and lively, eating the first reunion dinner in five years that was considered reunion.

Yun Chang drank the delicious chicken soup, ate the big chicken legs that her aunt gave her, and looked at the smiling faces all over the table, with a smile on her face unconsciously.

This kind of life is really good. The whole family gathers together and eats the reunion dinner lively. There is no calculation or barrier between each other, only the joy and kindness after reunion after a long absence.

It's a pity that Bai Qing, who was imprisoned in the military academy, couldn't enjoy such a lively atmosphere.

After dinner, the old man was finally able to talk about family affairs with peace of mind, asked Aunt Jiang to serve tea, and brought Bai Yanming and Bai Yancheng into the study.
