Chapter 491 Gossip

Knowing that Bai Yancheng didn't leave the study so soon, Lin Wenlan packed up a few gifts and returned to Lin's house with the three children.

Mrs. Lin is indeed much less energetic than before. Before, she could get out of bed and walk around, secretly hide delicious food under the pillow, and scold her three "unfilial" sons by her neck, but now she lies on the bed all day long. , People also lost a lot of weight, and even their hair was all white.

Mr. Lin seemed to be in good spirits, but his body was thinner than before. When he saw Lin Wenlan bringing his three grandchildren, his face flushed with joy.

He pulled the three grandchildren one by one to look carefully, and stuffed a handful of melon seeds toffee, and then asked about Lin Wenlan's recent situation.

Lin Wenlan lay on the bed and looked at the sleeping Mrs. Lin, then sat next to Mr. Lin, and whispered about the housework with him.

Seeing that there were only the old couple and a few younger ones in the huge courtyard, Lin Wenlan asked, "Father, didn't the boss come back?"

Mr. Lin let out a long voice, "Well", and said, "Aren't you busy at the end of the new year? Wenshan and the others will spend the New Year in the army again this year, and they probably won't be able to come back until the first day of the new year."

Lin Wenlan: "What about the third child? The third child works in the Planning Commission, so he should be at home, right?"

"Wen Jun? Wen Jun has a few days off this year, and he said he couldn't come because he has something to do today." Mr. Lin said in a depressed mood, "I reckon he hasn't reconciled with his wife, and I'm afraid I will worry about it, so I just leave I can't hide."

Everyone thought that he would become an old fool when he was older, and they didn't even think about it. He has been the father of these bastards for decades. Can you hide it from him?

Hmph, not saying anything is saving face for the bastards!

Seeing that Lin Wenlan's face was not very good-looking, Mr. Lin took a sip of tea, and then asked, "Are you worried that the third daughter-in-law will get into trouble with the third child because of the Yu family's affairs?"

"Well," Lin Wenlan responded, pouring water into the old man's teacup, and then said, "The Yu family has been too ostentatious these past few months, it's not a good thing, plus the Yu family wants to take my uncle under the knife, Yu Min has It's from Yu's family's house, and I figured that she was fighting with the third child because she wanted the Lin family to stand by the Yu family."

Mr. Lin snorted coldly, lowered his eyelids, and covered the coldness in his eyes, "Looking at her, who doesn't know what she's thinking. Why did the eldest and the second ignore her when she came back last time? She went back to her mother's house arguing. If you don't go to Yu's house to pick her up, and don't let a few children go to Yu's house, don't you want to get involved in the mess of Yu's house?"

Lin Wenlan was stunned,

"Father, you mean, Yu Min has returned to her mother's house?"

The old man put the teacup in his hand on the table, with a serious expression and an indescribably cold tone, "It's fine if you go back, but at this point, even if she doesn't go back, I won't dare to let her come here. If you hide something dirty at home, all of us will be in bad luck."

Back then, he was not willing to marry the Yu family, if it wasn't for the youngest bastard who wanted to marry him back, he wouldn't have such a headache now.

Look at the eldest daughter-in-law and the second daughter-in-law, one was chosen by him and his wife, and the other was sent by the organization. Although there are some small thoughts, they are generally passable.

Besides, no one is perfect, and it's nothing to be a little careful for your own small family. As long as you can distinguish between the inside and the outside, you can protect the face of the Lin family on the outside, and don't do dirty things behind your back to drag the man down. Must be a qualified daughter-in-law.

From this point of view, the old family and the second family are still qualified.

Seeing that the old man knew it well, he had long been on guard against the Yu family's small tricks to drag the Lin family into the water, so Lin Wenlan stopped wasting words on this matter.

The two talked for a while, and the old man was not in a very high mood. Lin Wenlan changed the topic in due time and talked about Lin Dani's happy event.

"... After graduating from university, Wenjin and Wenjin were assigned to the Linyang Municipal Party Committee. If there are no accidents, they will be settled in Linyang for the rest of their lives.

Last time I brought it to me to take a look, and said that I came to the capital during the Chinese New Year so that my family could meet. The young man looks pretty good, he doesn't have a heart. My hometown is in the mountainous area of northern Jiangsu, and my family is a bit poor, but it is far away from Linyang. Even if there is something wrong at home, Wenjin can't make a fuss.

From now on, the couple will send some money to their hometown every month to settle the parents-in-law well. Our family Wenjin doesn't need to live with her mother-in-law, it's like spending money to buy cleanliness. "

It's not that she doesn't want her sister to be filial to her parents-in-law, but that there are very few mother-in-law and daughter-in-law in this world who can get along well.

He Zhonghua's family is in the mountainous area of northern Jiangsu. Naturally, there are differences in the taste of food and living habits between the south and the north. If she lives with her in-laws, as a junior, Lin Dani is the only one to accommodate her elders. How can a mother-in-law accommodate her daughter-in-law?

In addition, Lin Dani is the second marriage, and He Zhonghua is the first marriage. In this matter, the He family will definitely feel wronged for He Zhonghua. The two live together. After a long time, there will inevitably be a voice in life. It was Lin Dani who was wronged.

Only by being so far away can the two sides avoid conflicts and live in peace and beauty.

When the old man heard the last word, a smile appeared on the corners of his mouth and brows, "That's right. We Wenjin looks at his temperament, but he actually has a plan in his heart. This person is easy to find, and he is very suitable for Wenjin."

As he said that, he glanced at Lin Wenlan approvingly, and continued, "You are doing things well, and you have spent a lot of time on Wenjin in the past few years. When Wenjin gets married, you should take care of yourself and take care of yourself." things at home.

Qingzheng will graduate in a few months, is he planning to stay in the capital or go to the military area below.

Also, after Qingzheng graduates, he will be able to find a partner immediately, you have to be careful, don't be like the third child, and find a wife who is as inconspicuous as Yu Min. Don't be like the three in your eldest house, who are all delayed to become old bachelors..."

Listening to Mr. Lin's advice, Lin Wenlan was in a bad mood.

In the morning, she and Chen Guo got together head-to-head, thinking about finding a partner for the three old bachelors in the big house, but in the afternoon someone persuaded her, don't just think about finding wives for the bachelor in the big house, you You have to be prepared to show your son, or your son will take over the three sons of the big family in the future and become a new generation of old bachelors in the Bai family.

This feeling is really... indescribable.

What's more, if the old man didn't mention this matter, she really couldn't think of it. This made Lin Wenlan feel that she was not a qualified wife, nor a qualified mother.

The expression on Lin Wenlan's face froze, and it took a long time to find her own voice, "Father, I understand, I will mention it to Yan Cheng when I get back, and ask him to talk to Qingzheng to see what Qingzheng himself means. ."

Chapter 492 Gifts

The brothers of the Lin family were not at home. Lin Wenlan took the three children, had dinner with the old couple, held the old lady's hand and coaxed them for a long time, and then took the children back to the compound.

When he got home, Bai Yancheng was sitting with the old man in the living room and reading the newspaper. Seeing his wife and children coming back, he hurriedly took the return gift that Lin Wenlan brought back from the Lin family, and asked about the health of the old couple.

Lin Wenlan said hello to the old man first, put the scarf in his hand on the edge of the sofa, and replied, "My father's appetite is okay, but his spirit is not very good. I'm confused, wait for the spring to warm up and see if it gets better."

Bai Yancheng breathed a sigh of relief, "It's good that you're fine. I don't have time to accompany you back today. I'll go see the old man tomorrow morning."

I haven't been back for a few years, and it's already rude not to accompany Lin Wenlan there today, I have to go there early tomorrow to show my filial piety to my father-in-law, so as not to be humiliated by my wife again.

Hearing what Bai Yancheng said, old man Bai gave him some advice, "Your father-in-law was good at wine when he was young, I still have some tiger bone wine here, and a few bottles of ginseng wine from Changan, you can bring them tomorrow. A bottle passed."

Yun Chang's eyes almost widened when he heard it.

Her father is so stingy, she wished to snatch all other people's wine back and drink it slowly when she went out, how could she ever think of giving her own wine to others?

The sun really came out from the west today. Not only did he take the initiative to reveal that he had good wine in his hand, but he also put all his inventory on the bright side, and let Bai Yancheng take it to his father-in-law.

Why is this so unlike her grandfather's style?

Not only Yun Shang was curious, but even Bai Yancheng and Lin Wenlan were a little surprised.

Who doesn't know that the old man's most precious thing is those bottles of wine in the room?

Why are you so generous today?

But the opportunity is rare, the old man managed to be generous, so of course he couldn't refuse. Bai Yancheng thanked the old man very sincerely, and said that he would bring a bottle of ginseng wine to see his father-in-law tomorrow.

Yun Chang could clearly see that the corners of the old man's mouth were twitching in distress, but he still had to hold it steady, and said very generously, "Okay, tomorrow you can pick a bottle with a high vintage."

Damn, why is this old son so stupid? He just said a few polite words in front of his daughter-in-law, making it appear that he is generous and close to each other, why is this old son just going to steal a bottle of ginseng wine from him?

Those wines were bought by his good granddaughter at the winery for him. The taste is no worse than that of Moutai, and it has been brewed with 100-year-old ginseng. It is a real treasure!

Ouch, I feel so sorry for him.

Seeing the old man's careful thinking, Yunshang secretly laughed for a long time, and said, "Dad, when I made ginseng wine for my grandfather a few years ago, I also made a few bottles for my grandfather. After drinking, you can exchange it for another gift."

If you touch my grandfather's ginseng wine, don't think about it this year, my grandfather will find a way to torment you every day.

As soon as Yunshang opened his mouth, the old man breathed a sigh of relief, quietly let go of his clenched fists, coughed dryly, and pretended to say in his voice, "Since your father-in-law has wine in his hand, you can take something else with you tomorrow. ."

As for what to change, I want to go, anyway, don't worry about my baby!

The old man's ginseng wine was saved, and he was about to get up and go back to his room. When he met Yun Shang's bright but playful eyes, he couldn't help but blushed, and went to grab Yun Shang's hand and walked to the study, "Go, grandpa will test you If you do your homework well, Grandpa will give you a reward!"

The little granddaughter is too smart, so she has to keep her mouth shut with the benefits, or else she has to laugh at him behind his back.

Bai Qingming was so envious, she hurried over and asked kindly, "Master, I have made progress this year.

Do you want to test me too? "

Xiaoqi is rewarded for studying well. I am also a grandson. If I improve in my studies, I can also ask for some rewards, right?

Bai Qingming was waiting for the old man to nod, but he didn't want Bai Qingyue to slap him from behind and poke his forehead a lesson, "Shameless! Is that what you call progress? Yes, you got 20th in the exam last year, and 10th in this year's exam." The ranking has improved, but why don't you say that half of the students in this year's class are missing?"

Bai Qingming: "..."

sister! It's the Chinese New Year, and the family will be reunited, why don't you show your brother some face?

The old man: "..."

brat! I know that these boys are too skinny, and they are not at all as caring and motivated as their granddaughters!

Seeing Bai Qingming looking at Bai Qingming with dissatisfaction on his face, the old man raised his hand and gave a loud brain crash, "What kind of eyes do you have! How dare you attack your sister!"

Bai Qingming was about to cry, clutching his forehead, and lay sleepily on the sofa without moving. The old man was still angry, and pointed to Bai Qingming and told Bai Yancheng, "Go back after the new year and look after the little six, If you fail to improve your grades, I will beat you!"

Yun Shang felt sorry for her father, he was the lowest one in the family, he was not even as good as Qiuqiu, but when he returned to the capital, he was still the lowest one, even Bai Qingming didn't study well, the master would beat him. Just like a punching bag.

Bai Yancheng was speechless for a while, then gave his son a hard look, and nodded obediently to the old man.

There's no way, it's my father who made the speech, and my son is the one who doesn't live up to it. If I can't teach my son well, I should punish him.

As soon as he entered the study, the old man let go of Yunshang's hand, opened the door of the innermost cabinet, and waved to Yunshang, "My dear granddaughter, come quickly, I have saved you a lot of good things! See if you like it! "

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she ran over and squatted next to the old man to take a look, and saw that there were food and play, as well as things that the little girl wore on her head, and most of the cabinets were neatly piled up, and there was nothing missing at a glance Pay attention.

"Grandpa, you are so kind! You are the best grandpa in the world!"

Yun Chang was moved to tears, took out a chocolate ball from the cabinet, took a bite, puffed her cheeks and praised the old man vigorously.

The old man looked at Yun Chang's round cheeks, smiled cheerfully for a long time, and then opened the cabinet next to him to show Yun Chang.

Yun Chang's eyes widened, "Grandpa, why are there so many new clothes?" The colorful eyes are so eye-catching when worn out.

"The clothes in this cabinet are for your sister. Your sister is a big girl, so she should wear more bright clothes to dress up. Your sister is good-looking, and she will wear it during the Chinese New Year. It is the first job in the courtyard to keep it! "

The two ugly and dark daughters of Lao Yu's family in the front, put on bright clothes and showed off in the courtyard every day, as if they were the only ones who could afford flowered clothes.

hum! His two granddaughters are so pretty, they must look better than the Yu family's in these new clothes!

Chapter 493: Gu Shinian Is Back

The old man will never admit that the half cabinet of new clothes was bought by the guards secretly because he saw that the girls of the Yu family could wear them well. The purpose is to make Bai Qingyue wear new clothes and compare with the girls of the Yu family.

Yun Chang looked at most of the snack toys in the cabinet that the old man had prepared for her, and then at the new clothes he bought for Bai Qingyue, and she was instantly unmoved.

The old man is not caring at all!

Obviously she is also a big girl, and she also knows how to love beauty, so why do she only prepare snack toys and hair flowers for her, and when Bai Qingyue comes here, it will become bright and beautiful clothes?

This is simply blatant discrimination!

The old man didn't know that he had 'offended' Yunshang, so he closed the cabinet happily, grabbed a handful of snacks and stuffed them into Yunshang's pocket, and asked her to call Bai Qingming in too.

Yun Shang was already speechless to her old man. Seeing that he still wanted to play with Bai Qingyue in mystery and surprises, when she went out, she carefully pulled Bai Qingyue to shake out the surprise that the old man had prepared for her in advance.

Seeing Bai Qingyue enter the study with a helpless face, Yun Shang whistled in a ruffian manner, picked up the big fat cat that was sleeping on the sofa, and went upstairs to rest in a good mood.

Early the next morning, Yun Shang was shaken awake by Lin Wenlan in a daze. Before she opened her eyes, she heard Lin Wenlan ask, "Shangnan, I want to go to the street with your aunt, do you want to go?"

Yun Chang woke up in an instant, the word 'go' came to her throat, and suddenly thought that she still planned to go to the military academy to take care of Gu Shinian.

What to do? I really want to go shopping, but I also want to see Brother Gu, so I am in a dilemma, which one should I choose?

Yun Chang gnawed at her fingers and made a difficult choice for a while, but still couldn't make a choice. In the end, he held Lin Wenlan's clothes with both hands, humming and chirping, "Mom, I miss my brother, why don't we go to school to see my brother first, and go shopping after we're done."

Today is New Year's Eve, if she goes shopping instead of looking after Second Brother Gu, how sad it will be for Second Brother Gu to know.

Besides, Second Brother Gu is so kind to her, if she puts shopping more important than meeting Second Brother Gu, that would be too heartless.

Therefore, it is best to encourage Lin Wenlan to take her to see Second Brother Gu first, and then go shopping after finishing the work, so as not to delay the best.

How could Lin Wenlan not know what Yunshang was thinking, poked her on the forehead, and asked with a smile, "Shangnan, do you want to see your elder brother, or do you want to see Shi Nian?"

He kept talking about Gu Shinian at home every day, and just arrived in the capital, he put Gu Shinian to the back of his mind, shouted to see Bai Qingzheng, really took her for a fool.

After all, the little girl was too greedy, she wanted to go shopping, but also wanted to visit Gu Shinian, so she was too narrow-minded.

Yun Chang smiled embarrassingly, thought for a while, and shook her head, "Mom, you went shopping, I will let my little brother take me to school to see my eldest brother and second brother Gu."

Although she also likes to go shopping, Second Brother Gu is more important.

After all, it's the Chinese New Year, and she has to send warmth and love to Second Brother Gu.

Lin Wenlan pulled off the sweater on the bedside, put it on Yunshang's head, and said, "Your father asked, your elder brother and the others can come back in the afternoon. Let's go shopping first, and wait for your elder brother and them at home in the afternoon. "

Anyway, my daughter has been close to Gu Shinian since she was a child. After so many years, she has long been used to it, and she doesn't expect her conscience to find out and put her first in her heart.

Yun Chang didn't know that Lin Wenlan was feeling jealous again, she quickly put on her clothes, got out of bed and tidied herself up, bouncingly pulled Bai Qingyue, and followed Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo to go shopping.

The notice that there will be no holiday for the Spring Festival this year has been announced long ago, but the streets and alleys of Huangchenggen are still full of festive atmosphere. The content of the Spring Festival couplets and New Year pictures at the door of each house has taken on a new look, not only shouting slogans to promote production,

It should be in the atmosphere of the Spring Festival again.

There are people coming and going on the street, except for those rushing to work, most of them are housewives and children who come out to buy new year's goods.

Yun Shang and Bai Qingyue followed closely behind Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo, and squeezed into the department store. There are already crowds of people inside, and there is a long line in front of each counter to buy new year's goods. Just as they entered, there were about 20 people lined up behind them, as if all the people in the capital were crowded into this department store building. .

The old man had already bought the new year's goods, including Yunshang and Bai Qingyue's new clothes for the new year. When Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo came out, they just added some trivial things that the old man hadn't thought of, as well as red paper New Year pictures and so on.

The most important thing is to take Yunshang and Bai Qingyue out for a stroll, after all, the mother and daughter have never visited a department store in the capital.

But as soon as he entered, Lin Wenlan regretted it.

There were too many people in the department store. The little girl was caught in the crowd, her feet were off the ground, and she could be led forward by the crowd without walking.

But even so, several people couldn't stop, it was too crowded, even if everyone turned around, it was difficult to get out.

Yun Shang was like this, wandering around the building for several hours surrounded by the crowd. When everyone came out of the department store, Yun Chang felt that all the bones in her body were not her own, and everyone was squeezed thin.

Back home, the old man wrote a few couplets by himself, and asked the eldest cousin to post them on the door of each room. Two brothers, Bai Yancheng and Bai Yanming, were rolling up their sleeves, and each was sweeping the gate with a broom. The sisters-in-law Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo went into the kitchen to help Aunt Jiang prepare the New Year's Eve dinner.

Yunshang and Bai Qingyue wandered around the room, and found that there was no work for them, so they went upstairs to sleep with the fat cat in their arms, to repair their bones that were about to be squeezed, and the other took Bai Qingming's ear into the room. In the study room, read comic books to pass the time.

When Yun Shang was paralyzed on the bed, sleeping in a dark state, Gu Shinian and Bai Qingzheng left the school together, and boarded the tram back to the courtyard.

Knowing that Yunshang had arrived in the capital, Gu Shinian didn't bother to go to the Gu's house next door, and pushed open the door of Bai's house before Bai Qingzheng.

Bai Qingzheng almost couldn't help rolling his eyes at the back.

Is this my house or yours? Why is the gesture of pushing the door open more natural than mine?

During this year, Gu Shinian often went to the Gu family next door, and under the 'recommendation' of Mr. Gu, he became a very promising junior of Mr. Bai.

Seeing Gu Shinian enter the door, the old man immediately brought a smile on his face. He was very satisfied with his behavior of coming to Bai's house first when he returned to the courtyard, and then returning home.

Although he knew that Gu Shinian came here because of Yunshang, the old man still felt extremely comfortable in his heart, feeling that he had won against the old man next door.

Gu Shinian greeted the Bai family one by one, and went over to say hello to Lin Wenlan. Lin Wenlan naturally knew that Gu Shinian was looking for Yunshang, so she didn't make things difficult for him. She pointed to the room upstairs and sent him upstairs.

Chapter 494: Chinese New Year

Gu Shinian pushed open the door, looked at the little ball bulging in the quilt on the bed, his eyes instantly softened, and a smile unconsciously appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Hearing the deep and long breathing under the quilt, Gu Shinian put his hands on his face to warm him up, making sure that his hands would not freeze Yun Chang, and then carefully pulled the quilt away.

Yun Chang slept very comfortably this time, she was huddled with Qiu Qiu head to head, her mouth was slightly open, her face was flushed, and there were a few red marks pressed out by the pillow towel, she was very cute and cute.

Gu Shinian lay on the side of the bed, moved the ball casually, pinched Yun Shang's round face, a smile flashed in his eyes: yes, the hand feel is still as good as before!

Yun Chang turned over in a daze, the familiar breath became clearer, without even opening her eyes, she moved her body automatically, her little head rubbed against Gu Shinian's chest, "Second Brother Gu..."

The voice was slightly hoarse, delicate and soft. Just one address made Gu Shinian's heart so soft that he stretched out his hand to stroke Yun Chang's soft and smooth hair, and wiped the sweat from her forehead, "Well, it's me."

Yunshang walked around the department store for several hours in the morning, and was so crowded that her bones ached all over her body. She hadn't recovered yet, but she just grunted lazily, and continued to rub her head against Gu Shinian's chest, "Second Brother ,I miss you."

These words made Gu Shinian's breathing stagnate for a moment. Seeing that Yunshang still closed her eyes tightly, as if she hadn't woken up, she couldn't help but let out a long breath, and continued to pinch her face to play.

The little girl didn't forget to make up nonsense to coax him in a daze.

He said that he missed him, but he was right in front of him, but he didn't even bother to look at him.

It is obvious that he is not as important as her sleeping.

Yun Shang's nose was pinched, she shook her head in dissatisfaction, and muttered, "Let me sleep for another five minutes."

"Well, then you can sleep for a while, and I will come to see you after the New Year's Eve dinner."

Hearing that Gu Shinian was leaving, Yun Chang's brain was aroused, and she woke up in an instant, opened her sleepy eyes, and grabbed Gu Shinian's clothes tightly.

Gu Shinian turned his head, and saw Yun Chang's small face turned up, because of sleepiness, her half-closed eyes were watery, bright and shining, her small face was cute and cute, very pretty.

"Second brother Gu, I'm up."

Gu Shinian laughed softly, pulled a chair and sat down by the bed, stretched out his hand to straighten her messy sleeping hair, and asked, "Did you sleep well?"

Yun Chang nodded like a pounding garlic, "Well, sleep well."

"Okay, it's almost time for dinner, let's get up and eat first. I haven't seen Grandpa Gu yet, so go over and say hello, and come to see you after dinner."

After hearing this, how could Yun Chang dare to stay with Gu Shinian, she quickly loosened his skirt, and told him that the mouth must be sweet during the Chinese New Year, and talk to Grandpa Gu more, and after the New Year's Eve dinner Call her in the next yard, and she goes out.

Bai Qing was talking to the elders downstairs, and asked about Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming's work and study situation. Seeing that Yun Shang and Gu Shinian hadn't gone downstairs, he couldn't wait to run up.

As soon as he arrived at the door, he saw Yunshang with the messy chicken nest head, dragging Gu Shinian, like an old lady, telling him how to get along with the Gu family next door, almost burst out laughing.

Yun Shang actually had the nerve to teach Gu Shinian how to communicate with people?

She didn't even think about it, could a person who cheated her father so hard that she couldn't even cry when she was only a teenager, could it be a simple character?

In school, as long as Gu Shinian is willing, there is no one he cannot make friends with. Such a powerful role, still need her to teach?

Hearing the laughter, Yun Chang looked at Bai Qingzheng dissatisfiedly, with a straight face, and asked solemnly, "Brother, you look good again, have you found me a sister-in-law?"

Bai Qingzheng: "..."

Gu Shinian smiled and rubbed Yun Shang's head,

She took another playful look at Bai Qingzheng, patted him on the shoulder, turned around and went downstairs.

Seeing that Bai Qingzheng's face was stiff, Yunshang turned around, sat upright on the bed, and persuaded earnestly:

"Hey~, brother, you didn't see how worried my aunt is now. As soon as we came back yesterday, my aunt wiped her tears and told our mother that there were three old bachelors in the family, and she couldn't do anything about it. Go out to meet people. Big brother, you are old too, quickly find me a sister-in-law, don't let our mother be like an aunt in the future, and because there is an old bachelor in the family, I can't go out because of embarrassment."

The expression on Bai Qingzheng's face was distorted, the veins on his forehead popped out, his eyelids and the corners of his mouth began to twitch, he felt that his youngest sister was simply a devil, and her mouth was too bad.

"Xiaoqi, I haven't seen you for a year, your skin is itchy again, isn't it?"

Just as Bai Qing was talking, he picked up Yun Chang from the bed with one hand, then picked up the padded jacket she had put on the bed, put her under his arm, and went downstairs.

Yun Chang knew that Bai Qingzheng would say harsh words at most, and would not fight her. She was not cowardly at all, and was caught under her arm, and her mouth continued to hurt, "Brother, my aunt will give three My cousin is looking for someone, how about I tell Mom and show you one too?"

At this moment, if Bai Qingzheng didn't know that Yun Shang was angry at him and ran upstairs to interrupt her talking with Gu Shinian, deliberately retaliating against him, his life would be in vain.

Yun Shang lost her temper, and finally climbed onto her elder brother's arm awkwardly, and cared for him, "Brother, are you suffering at school?"

Bai Qingzheng put Yunshang on the sofa, sat down next to her, and said, "It's okay, I'm used to it."

Compared with home, it is naturally more comfortable at home, but when he is at home, he often goes to the army for training, and he is still used to school life.

"What about you? Have you been lazy in school this year, or have your grades deteriorated?" Bai Qing asked Yun Shang in reverse.

Yun Chang whispered, "I'm already a big girl, I've stopped being lazy a long time ago." Even if I asked for leave a few times this year, it was still an order, not lazy.

While talking, Dafang's three cousins, as well as Bai Qingming and Bai Qingyue, also came over. The brothers and sisters got together and had a lively conversation, the sky darkened, and the New Year's Eve dinner was served in the restaurant table, Yun Shang finally had a real reunion dinner for the first time after returning to the Bai family for so many years.

The Bai family's family style is good, and the tutoring is also good. On occasions like the New Year's Eve dinner and the reunion dinner, everyone sits around the table, and no one moves their chopsticks first. They all look at Mr. Bai, waiting for him to speak first.

As the Dinghaishenzhen of the Bai family, the old man also put away his usual old and kid side, raised his wine glass, and said some words of encouragement to the juniors with great sincerity, and everyone started the meal lively.

After drinking for three rounds, Yun Chang quietly glanced at the sky outside, secretly worried. The New Year's Eve dinner will be ready soon, has Second Brother Gu finished eating? She was still in a hurry to talk to Brother Gu.

Chapter 495 Adventure Plan

After finally waiting for everyone to put down their jobs and go back to the living room to sit down, Yun Chang hurriedly told Lin Wenlan, grabbed a handful of snacks, put them in his pocket, and ran out to find Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian happened to come out from the next door. Looking at the dim street lights on the side of the road, he saw a small figure protruding from the gate of Bai's house, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth unconsciously.

"Second Brother Gu!" Yun Shang's eyes lit up, and she ran over with a smile. Before she could speak, she smelled the faint smell of alcohol on Gu Shinian's body.

"Second brother, are you drinking with Grandpa Gu?"

"Well, I don't drink much, just one glass."

Gu Shinian squeezed Yunshang's big padded jacket to make sure it was thick enough, and then dragged her slowly towards the training ground in front.

As soon as he turned the corner, Yunshang asked her most concerned question, "Second Brother Gu, how many days can you stay at home?"

"I have to go back tomorrow."

Yunshang replied wearily, feeling extremely reluctance in her heart, even the little stars in her eyes dimmed.

Gu Shinian pulled up the scarf that Yun Shang rubbed off when he turned his head, looked at the empty training ground, and asked with a straight look, "A Chang, have you done what I told you last time?"

When it comes to business, Yunshang immediately cheered up, looked around, and said in a low voice, "It's all packed, there are hundreds of books in total, and there are many types. I think there are many useful books in your office computer." I also sorted out the materials and printed a copy. By the way, I also made a table of contents and registered all the books. "

Gu Shinian didn't expect that Yunshang would do so meticulously, which was much better than he imagined. He touched Yunshang's head to show his praise, and boasted, "Ashang has grown up, and he can do better than the second brother imagined." .”

While Yunshang was delighted, she also had a hint of pride. She was finally able to help Second Brother Gu with work, and she was no longer a pure oil bottle. Raising his head, he asked, "Second Brother Gu, you are going back to school tomorrow, what about the books I packed up?"

In order to sort out these books, she has read one by one for a long time, and she is almost regarded as an all-round talent, so don't waste all her efforts in the end.

"I thought about asking the school for leave before, but fortunately, the school has a day off. I will take you out to play tomorrow morning and try to clear the way for these books."

What Gu Shinian said was simple, but Yun Shang shook her head in disapproval, "Second Brother Gu, do you know the concept of hundreds of books? We made six large wooden boxes that couldn't fit in the attic of the Shenshi Library Pavilion. How do you cross Ming Road?"

Can't two people pull a flatbed cart, swagger and move hundreds of books back to the courtyard, and then fool people with reasons that three-year-olds won't believe?

Besides, it's a trivial matter to fool people. If the secret between her and Gu Shinian is revealed, it's really hard to know how to die.

The two were walking to the end of the training ground at the moment, separated by a wall, the street lights outside could not shine in, and the surroundings were pitch black. Gu Shinian suddenly stopped, took Yun Shang's hand, and motioned for her to take her into the space...

In the space, Gu Shinian found a small wooden box, selected a few books from each category, and packed them all into a small box.

The rest of the books were sorted and put into the big boxes they got in Shenshi before, and they were neatly placed in the open space in front of the building.

Seeing Yun Shang looking at him in puzzlement, Gu Shinian explained, "A Chang, I went out a few days ago to find a safe place, and I will send these six large boxes of books there to put them away tomorrow. Then find a way to hand over the books in the small box and the list of books you made to Grandpa Bai and Grandpa Gu. They know the value of these books, and the organization will be responsible for the next thing, so we don't need to come forward. "

Yun Shang understood what Gu Shinian meant.

This is to throw a bait first, hang the person on it with the bait, and find other books on the catalog according to the address,

In this way, there is no need for two people to work hard to pass other books, let alone pull a small trolley to deliver books with great fanfare.

Seeing that Gu Shinian had made arrangements, Yun Shang stopped asking questions, but just kept her head down and worked, waiting to cooperate with Gu Shinian's actions tomorrow.

Gu Shinian turned on the computer and wrote down the major events that happened at home and abroad from memory, including the earthquake ten years later, the war with neighboring countries more than ten years later, and the ownership of the southern islands. battle etc...

In order to increase credibility, Gu Shinian also found many newspapers and military magazines that reported these deeds from the library on the seventh floor, sorted them out and put them in a small box.

Yun Shang watched Gu Shinian print out these shocking materials, and her fingers trembled in shock, "Gu, second brother Gu, tell me, will the people above believe it?"

"I won't believe it all." Gu Shinian pointed to the publication dates of the newspapers, magazines, and book covers in the small box in his hand, and said, "The contents of these materials are too fantasy. But these are far beyond this era. Even if the people above are skeptical about what is said in the information, they will not completely take it as a joke.”

Many things are not afraid of being suspected, but I am afraid that the other party will not take it seriously at all. It is like a joke, and it is forgotten after laughing.

As long as you have doubts in your heart, you will go to verify. During the process of verifying, the organization will inevitably take some preventive measures. This is Gu Shinian's real purpose.

Gu Shinian said it lightly, but Yunshang's heart was still pounding nervously. These hundreds of precious books, decades ahead of this era, are cultural bombs. Once detonated, they will bring great benefits to the country's development. The triple jump is enough to change the course of history in this world.

Thinking that these little hands of hers would turn into the hands of time and be able to push history forward by leaps and bounds, Yunshang felt her mouth and tongue dry up, and even her breathing became short of breath.

Gu Shinian's heart was also extremely restless, but there was an unprecedented firmness in his eyebrows and eyes compared to Yunshang's. He sealed the small box carefully, and said in a calm and authentic voice:

"Ah Chang, we can't wait any longer. The sooner these books are handed in, the more truly knowledgeable intellectuals can be saved. In the final analysis, only the brains of elite talents are the real treasure of the country... "

Once this batch of precious materials is handed in, the higher-ups will inevitably arrange special personnel to study and study these materials. From this aspect, these books can be regarded as saving the lives of many useful talents.

What's more, with these books and materials that are extremely precious to the country, it is worth the risk for the two of them.

There is only so much they can do for this world. They don't seek fame and wealth, but seek peace of mind.

Yun Shang suddenly understood Gu Shinian's approach. He loves this country more than she imagined, and he cherishes the faith in his heart more than she imagined.

Chapter 496 Action

This is the real Gu Shinian. From the beginning to the end, he has always engraved the teachings of Grandpa Gu in his previous life in his heart, imprinted in his soul, and buried deep in his bones.

Whether it was the identity of the second youngest of the Gu family in the previous life, or the identity of a successful businessman who galloped in the mall, or changed the world and changed his identity, the belief in Gu Shinian's heart has never changed.

Yunshang reached out and grabbed Gu Shinian's neck, holding him tightly. There were many things in her heart that she wanted to say to Gu Shinian, but when they reached her mouth, they all turned into a few simple and heavy words, "Second brother, I will help you."

On the first day of the new year, Yunshang chose the most festive one among several new clothes, and went downstairs to collect a circle of red envelopes before her family went to work.

After breakfast, he cheated another 20 yuan from Bai Qingming, who wanted to cheat her of the new year's money, and went out cheerfully amidst the laughter of the crowd and Bai Qingming's expression as if struck by lightning.

When Gu Shinian came out of Gu's house, Yunshang had been playing outside with Qiuqiu for a long time. Seeing Gu Shinian, she ran over quickly, stretched out her little hand, and asked for a red envelope.

Naturally, Gu Shinian would not forget Yun Shang's lucky money, so he took out the red envelope that he had prepared a long time ago and put it in Yun Shang's hand.

"Second Brother Gu, how much did you pack for me?"

While Yun Chang was asking questions, she opened the red envelope nimbly with her fingers, and looked at the brand new ten yuan inside, her eyes widened in shock.

"Second Brother Gu, where did you get so much money?"

Gu Shinian's private money was all kept in the space, and he kept at most ten yuan for emergencies, and there were at least two hundred yuan in this red envelope. Where did he get it?

Before Gu Shinian could answer, Yun Chang's expression changed suddenly, and he stared at Gu Shinian and asked, "Gu Shinian, tell me the truth, are you secretly hiding your money?"

snort! Big trotters!

He clearly promised to leave all the money on his body to her for safekeeping, but in the end he secretly hid the private money behind her back.

It's two hundred yuan small, with so much money hidden, I appointed to secretly find a small partner outside!

Gu Shinian didn't know where Yun Shang's head had turned, and asked with a smile, "You didn't collect the New Year's money this morning?"

"Take it..." Yun Shang seemed to think of something,

Eyes bent instantly, he asked, "Second brother Gu, is this red envelope the lucky money you received?"

The Gu family is really kind, the second elder brother Gu is an adult, and he will give back the lucky money.

"Well, this red envelope was given by Grandpa Gu. The second brother didn't keep any, so I gave it all to you."

Satisfied, Yun Chang happily put the red envelope into her pocket, gave Gu Shinian a wink, and kept aiming in the direction of the gate of the compound.

Gu Shinian smiled and pinched Yun Shang's cheeks, "Don't worry, I'll go in first to pay New Year's greetings to Grandpa Bai and the others. If I want to take you out to play, I have to say hello to my family."

Old Master Bai was in the study with his two sons and the two eldest sons of the second bedroom of the eldest house. Gu Shinian was very sensible and didn't go in to disturb him. He had a conversation with Lin Wenlan and went out with Yunshang who was waiting impatiently.

On the first day of the new year, the sun also cut through the clouds in due course, and sprinkled golden sunlight all over the city, sending a signal of early spring to this ancient city with great charm.

Yun Chang hopped and followed Gu Shinian into the bookstore, spent a long time choosing in the comics section, then walked quietly into the back of the bookstore, and put the small bookcase containing the "bait" into the cabinet at the bottom with the door ajar. He winked at Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian opened the cabinet door and took a look. After confirming that the bookcase was properly placed and that the handwriting on the A4 paper was conspicuous enough, he closed the cabinet door and said in a low voice, "Ah Chang, there is a basement in the backyard of the bookstore. Call someone, come in from the backyard when you come back, and put the rest of the books in the basement."

Yun Shang could hardly hide her surprise. Brother Gu even knew that there was a secret basement in the backyard of the bookstore. In order to hand in these hundreds of books, how many places did he find and how much did he spend in the past few months? Mind, how many brain cells died?

What's more, the military academy's management is so strict, and vacations are rarely granted on weekdays. How did he do it?

It's just that the occasion is not right at this moment, and Yun Chang doesn't want to ask too much, so she quickly withdraws her attention, turns around and walks outside.

After discussing the affairs of the Yu family with his two sons, Mr. Bai received a call from Yunshang as soon as he left the study room. He heard that the two of them were buying books in the bookstore. After listening to Yunshang's emphatic emphasis, he asked Mr. Gu to come over in person. If you don't want to startle people, you know that the two of them should have discovered something extraordinary.

After hanging up the phone, under the surprised eyes of the family, the old man took off his civilian clothes and changed into his military uniform. While calling the guards to prepare the car, he hurried to Gu's next door.

Ten minutes later, two jeeps drove out of the compound and headed towards the bookstore at high speed.

Yunshang avoided the snow on the ground, and entered the backyard of the bookstore full of sundries without leaving any footprints. Using her mental power, she stuffed several large boxes in the space into the basement, and then smashed the broken bookshelf that was split in half under the eaves. They piled up at the entrance of the basement, and after confirming that no traces would be left, they quickly returned to the bookstore.

The two old men were very fast, Yun Chang hadn't finished selecting the comics, and the two walked in with a few guards.

The people in the bookstore were quickly invited out. Gu Shinian opened the cabinet door, and then opened the sealed small wooden box. The pupils of the two old men suddenly constricted and then widened again.

The covers of these books and magazines are exquisite, the paper is thick, and under the illumination of the light, the covers can even reflect light, which is extraordinary at first glance. If there are conspicuous Chinese characters printed on the bark, the two old men will suspect that these books are new gadgets produced by foreign developed countries.

After all, the domestic technological level has not yet reached such a level.

The two of them took the A4 paper that Gu Shinian handed over, their faces changed instantly, their hands were shaking so much that they could barely hold the thin paper, and the worldview in their hearts was also quietly collapsing.

The above content is really too unbelievable.

The two thought of reasons to say that these materials are all fake, but the A4 paper in their hands is white and thick, which is far from what this generation can have. The date of publication of the newspaper was printed there, and the two of them could not ignore it.

Old Man Bai's face turned green and pale for a while, and he asked with a trembling mouth after a long time, "...that's all about those years... Is there anything else?"

Gu Shinian nodded with a serious expression, "Ah Chang and I have seen everything here, and we haven't left during this period." As for what you haven't seen, you have to find it yourself.

"I brought A-Shang over here to buy villain books. When I came here, A-Shang accidentally bumped into the cabinet door and saw these things..."

Mr. Bai responded, and told the two of them very seriously, "These books are very important to the organization. You must keep them strictly confidential, and you must not reveal a word." Sixty good times)

Chapter 497 Blind date

The two nodded in unison, and Yun Shang put her hand next to her mouth, and made a movement of zipping, indicating that she would not reveal a word.

Just as Mr. Bai was about to send the two of them out, Mr. Gu on the side beat his hand, with an ecstatic expression on his face, handed over the paper in his hand, and said excitedly, "Old Bai, look! There are still things in the backyard of the bookstore! "

This time, the two old men could no longer care about Yun Shang and Gu Shinian, and sent them out, letting the guards carry the small box, and the group hurried to the backyard.

After finally passing the things through the Ming Road, and putting the credit on the two old men, Yun Shang and Gu Shinian were finally able to completely let go and stop asking about this matter.

When the two arrived home, it was just in time for lunch. Gu Shinian and the Bai family have been acquainted for a long time, and they didn't go back to the Gu family next door, so they ate the first dinner of the New Year at the Bai family.

The two brothers Bai Yancheng and Bai Yanming also dragged Yunshang to the study, wanting to find out the whereabouts of the old man.

After all, it was the first time in many years that the two families finally got together for a reunion year. As the god of the family, how could the old man be absent?

And seeing the old man running out in a hurry, it seemed that something serious had happened. As sons, they had to find out in advance and make preparations early, lest something really happen and they would be caught off guard.

However, Yunshang is a member of the river clam, and the two elders were helpless with their tight mouth. In the end, they only knew from Yunshang's mouth that the two leaders of the Bai family and the Gu family were going to do big things, and they still had great credit great thing.

After lunch, as soon as Yunshang went upstairs, she saw Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo who were muttering together head to head, and then went to listen carefully. These two people were worried about the four young men in the family.

The eldest brother Bai Qingze is 27, the second cousin and the third cousin are also 25 and 24, next to the second room is Bai Qingzheng, who is 22 this year, and it is time to find someone. From the looks of it, the whole house of the Bai family is full of bachelors.

It's okay for Bai Qingzheng to graduate from the military academy in a few months, so don't worry too much, but Dafang's three sons sneak into the army all day long, and even a female mosquito is rarely seen. Where can they find a partner?

If you don't hurry up to find someone for a few children in these two days, when you go to the army, it will be another year if you delay.

With a pen in hand, Cheng Guo wrote and drew on the paper for registration, "...the Zhou family and the Gao family both had girls, and the Gu family next door also had two girls of the same age...Wen Lan, wait a minute Let's go to these houses and let the children meet in private."

Lin Wenlan nodded, and continued to count the girls of the right age in the compound, "I remember that the Li family also had one. They used to cut their hair short all day long, and they walked around like a boy. Are you married now? "

"Not yet." Cheng Guo hurriedly wrote down the girl from the Li family on a piece of paper, "That was before, but now that she's grown up, that girl is much more refined, but her temper is still very open-minded. The second child didn't talk much when he was young, so it should be I can get along well with the daughter of the Li family."

"That's good. Qingyuan Qingjie can be settled as long as he is suitable, but Qingze, he is the boss, no matter how anxious you are, you can't just push anyone to Qingze. It can't be casual."

"That's the reason, then let's pick and choose carefully, let's not consider if the family style is not very good..."

...

Yun Chang finally understood that these two people were going to cast a wide net to collect more fish, and then focus on cultivating a daughter-in-law. Thanks to their thinking, it seems that they were really stimulated by the old bachelors in the family.

Thinking that Gu Shinian is also eighteen years old this year, Yun Chang couldn't help becoming anxious.

The three cousins had their aunts following behind to worry about them, and they were all delayed to become old bachelors. Behind the second brother Gu, there was only one Zhang Chunni who carried out the stocking policy to the end. Wouldn't it be delayed to become an old bachelor in the future?

Counting on the third grandpa? He himself is in his thirties and hasn't found a wife yet, so how can he help Second Brother Gu find a wife in the future.

Maybe it would be too burdensome for Second Brother Gu to have a wife, so he would ask Second Brother Gu to find a wife later.

Yun Chang pursed her mouth, looking at Gu Shinian who was playing poker with her brothers downstairs, feeling extremely sad.

Alas, it seems that the matter of finding a wife for second brother Gu will have to fall on her in the future.

In the afternoon, without waiting for Cheng Guo to go out to talk, the Zhou family in front, the Gu family next door, and the Li family came to visit first, and they even brought along the juniors who had no partners at home.

A young man and a big girl came to the Zhou family, two young men from the Li family also came to a big girl, and two big girls came to the Gu family, plus Gu Shinian who was always in the Bai family and had never left.

With so many people gathered together, the house suddenly became lively. After the elders exchanged pleasantries, they tacitly went upstairs to chat and gave up the living room to the younger generation.

Yunshang pulled up a chair and sat on the edge of the living room, her eyes were almost overwhelmed.

Well, the elder sister of the Zhou family is good-looking and gentle, sitting there with a slight smile, she looks like a gentle person, she wants to call her sister-in-law!

The sister of the Li family has a sharp temper, with neat short hair, and a lively heroism in her eyes, she is good-looking and handsome, I want it!

The two elder sisters of the Gu family look alike, they are both bright and generous, tall and in good shape, and their words and deeds reveal good upbringing. The big one is considerate and can take good care of the emotions of everyone present, while the small one can always catch everyone's chatter in a timely manner, enliven the atmosphere, but won't make people feel bored.

Randomly pulling one of these two out is the favorite candidate for the eldest daughter-in-law of the elders.

Damn, I want them all too!

Looking back, the boys from the Zhou family and the Li family were always chatting up their sister quietly, obviously they came with a mission, Yun Chang was immediately upset.

Parents have been raising her for seventeen years, and finally raised a delicate and tender flower bone flower. Before it's time to get married, these people start thinking about it?

Don't even think about it!

Such a good sister, she is reluctant to give it to anyone, she must stay at home for a few more years.

Yun Shang called Bai Qingyue angrily, stuffed Qiuqiu into her hand, and pushed her upstairs to sleep with Qiuqiu.

Bai Qingyue also sensed the intentions of the Zhou family and the Li family, and just didn't want to deal with it, so she pinched Yun Shang's swollen face amusedly, and went upstairs with Qiuqiu in her arms.

Gu Shinian saw Yunshang's little tricks and couldn't stop laughing.

When the little girl saw the big girls from other people's family, she wanted them all, and wanted to marry any of them to her brother. Her big eyes were shining, and her thoughts were clearly written in it.

But when it was Bai Qingyue's turn, the little girl immediately couldn't bear it, like a cat protecting food, she directly pushed Bai Qingyue upstairs to hide, and she was careful not to be too obvious.

Chapter 498 Want a certificate

Gu Shinian put down the poker cards in his hand, and beckoned to Yunshang. When she came over, he stuffed a small bench in front of him, pushed Yunshang on the bench and sat down. The two looked at a deck of cards, and continued to follow Bai Qingzheng and Bai Qingming were playing against the landlord.

As for the blind date meeting behind them, the few people didn't intend to get involved at all.

Yun Shang nestled in Gu Shinian's arms, stretched out four fingers to Bai Qingzheng who was facing him, and whispered a bad idea to him, "Brother, where are the four beautiful sisters! You have to take one home anyway, or we How embarrassing my mother is!"

"Pfft hahaha..." Bai Qingming laughed out loud at being teased by Yun Shang, and stretched out his arm to poke Bai Qingzheng, "Brother, Xiao Qi is right, we can't embarrass our mother, it's up to you!"

The veins on Bai Qingzheng's forehead started to pop up again, kicked Bai Qingming's buttocks and squatted down, then bent his fingers to knock on Yunshang's forehead, Gu Shinian quickly pulled Yunshang into his arms, lifted her. He raised his arm to block Bai Qingzheng's hand.

"Ah Shang has a tender skin, but Uncle Bai wants to settle accounts with you after being popular."

Bai Qing took a fixed look at Gu Shinian, turned his hand, and pinched Yun Shang's cheek, "Next time, if you talk nonsense again, Brother Shi Nian won't be able to protect you."

Yun Shang huddled in Gu Shinian's arms and shivered. The elder brother really didn't know the heart of a good person. He was obviously thinking about him, so it was fine if he didn't appreciate it. How could he beat someone up?

It's better for Second Brother Gu, who knows how to protect her.

"Second brother Gu, don't worry, I will never let you be an old bachelor in the future!"

Gu Shinian: "..."

He suddenly regretted stopping Bai Qingzheng, so he should let the girl suffer a lot, and see if she dares to worry about it!

The corner of Bai Qing's mouth was curled up, his eyes were full of gloating smiles...

The old man came back at 2:30 in the middle of the night. Hearing the movement, Yun Chang got out of bed and went downstairs quietly.

"Master, why did you come back? Are you tired? Would you like something to eat?"

"No need, I had dinner with your Grandpa Gu."

Seeing the old man looking tired, sitting on the sofa and not wanting to move, Yun Chang quickly poured a cup of hot water and handed it over, and said in a low voice, "Master, my father and uncle asked you what you were doing before eating, and I kept my mouth shut." , didn't tell them."

For the sake of my reliable mouth, you have to give me some information about what happened to those books, right?

Otherwise, I'm sorry for worrying about you all afternoon.

How could the old man not know what Yun Shang was planning, he glanced upstairs and asked, "Did you return to school with your elder brother?"

"Well, I'll go back to school after dinner." He also carried a lot of delicious food in large and small bags.

The old man was silent for a moment, got up and walked to the study. Seeing this, Yun Chang quickly followed in, "Master, is everything going well today? Did you and Grandpa Gu make great contributions?"

"Successful." The old man showed a smile on his face, and finally revealed some news to Yun Shang, "The chief arranged several experts and scholars to make evaluations in the afternoon, saying that the books on agriculture and military are very useful, although the books on military industry are somewhat General, can also play a leading role.

But there are a few books in it, what are they... Specialized in the study of special steel materials, there are also a few books that teach people how to make engines, and they say that if we study these books thoroughly, we can make the best weapons and run The fastest car in the world, and can also build airplanes,

I took a look at the shipbuilding, and it was all ghost-like formulas, which had been listed as top-secret information by the military.

Changnan, this time you and Shi Nian have really made great contributions. The chief asked me to ask you, what reward do you want? "

Yun Shang opened her mouth wide and couldn't react for a long time.

When the old man goes out, he is the big chief in the eyes of ordinary people, and there is only one person who can make the old man call the chief.

So, that one also knows her? He also admitted that she and Gu Shinian had made meritorious service, and even personally said that he would reward her and Gu Shinian?

This, this... is simply unbelievable!

Seeing Yun Chang's expression, the old man knew what was going on in her heart. While drinking hot water happily, he looked at his granddaughter's bewildered face with evil intentions.

Yunshang swallowed her saliva "gudong", opened her mouth, and asked the old man, "Master, grandpa, the chief really said that? Then, let the chief send me a certificate and write a letter for me, is it okay?"

When she gets the certificate and ink treasures, she will frame them and hang them on the wall. Every morning and evening, she will burn incense three times. It is not only a talisman, but also a family heirloom!

The old man was not prepared for Yun Shang to make such a request, but after reacting, he had to admit that this reward was the most suitable for Yun Shang.

She is a little girl, there is no shortage of food for her, no shortage of clothes for her, and enough pocket money, she already has everything, and giving material rewards is just icing on the cake.

Asking for a certificate of merit and a calligraphy handwritten by the chief is not only commemorative, but at some point, it can also become a talisman for the granddaughter. There is hardly a more fitting reward for a granddaughter.

Besides, in these years, how many people can get the calligraphy written by the chief executive himself?

This is a real honor.

Yunshang held back for a while, but still couldn't hold back and asked, "Master, are those materials...reliable?"

Those books and materials were published decades later in another world, and the materials compiled by Gu Shinian also recorded major events more than ten years later. Such a fantasy thing, the people above can really accept it well. ?

If it was her, she would probably have to be confused for several days before exploring the authenticity of these materials.

But as soon as the two old men handed in the materials today, the higher-ups organized special personnel to make an assessment, and even listed some of the materials as top-secret. This kind of courage and action is so admirable.

The old man rubbed Yunshang's head, and said with a smile, "It doesn't matter whether you believe it or not, as long as the important books are useful to the country, as for other things, I will have time to verify them slowly in the future."

Yun Chang nodded clearly, seeing that it was getting late, she hurriedly urged the old man to go upstairs to rest.

Bai Yancheng was going back to the Linyang Military Region in his third year of junior high school. The old man called his two sons into the study early in the morning and didn't come out until noon.

Yun Chang knew in her heart that what the three of them could say was nothing more than two things, one was about the batch of precious books yesterday, and the other was about the Yu family.

But yesterday's incident was required to be kept secret by the organization. The old man probably wouldn't disclose it to his two sons. Presumably the three of them were still discussing about the Yu family.

After lunch, Yunshang walked into Bai Yancheng's room, and after persistently asking for a long time, finally learned from Bai Yancheng that on the morning of New Year's Eve, someone sneaked into Bai Yanming's office and secretly hid a letter from overseas , if Bai Yanming hadn't always been cautious, he would almost have capsized in the gutter.

Chapter 499 Lack of evidence

At present, it can be confirmed that the Yu family is the one who did the tricks, but the Yu family also knows that the limelight is tight now, and temporarily suspends their business. It will be difficult to collect evidence of the Yu family's crime for a while.

In other words, the Yu family is not so easy to fall.

If you think about it, lending usury is a brain-dead thing, and the people involved will naturally be cautious and will not leave any clues.

The Yu family didn't admit it, the lender didn't admit it, and the borrower didn't dare to admit it either. In addition, the Yu family had a single-line contact with the upper and lower families, which was safe and guaranteed. It was really hard to find evidence for this matter.

Unless it is to find the ledger of the Yu family's loan.

Yun Shang: "Dad, is uncle very dangerous now?"

The Yu family is staring at the position under Bai Yanming's buttocks. If the first frame fails, there will be a second frame, and a third frame. Even if Bai Yanming has nine heads, he can't prevent others from repeatedly Three calculations.

However, the Bai family only found out that the Yu family was involved in usury and was the most important intermediary guarantor, but there was no evidence to prove the Yu family's crimes.

Qi Zhenshan was arrested, and he also explained some things about the Yu family. Unfortunately, Qi Zhenshan has no evidence of the Yu family's crimes. Even if Qi Zhenshan's confession is handed in, there is no evidence of the Yu family's crimes. The Yu family can bite back at any time , Said that Qi Zhenshan was instigated by someone to frame Yu's family.

Now, everyone knows that the Yu family's loan book is the key to bringing down the Yu family, and they also know that as long as they find the account book, not only the Yu family will fall, but also those who have one-way contact with the Yu family and participate in loan sharks will also follow. downfall.

In this way, those families who were dragged into the pirate ship by the Yu family have to risk their lives to protect the Yu family?

With so many people staring at the Yu family, and so many people helping the Yu family to cover up, one can imagine the pressure the Bai family is facing when fighting against the Yu family under such circumstances.

Back in the room, Yunshang thought for a while, got up and silently closed the door, entered the space, picked up more than a dozen recording pens and charged them, and was going to go out later to find out the address of Yu's family and help the family members collect evidence.

The Yu family attacked the Bai family twice in a row. First, they used her identity as an excuse. After failing, they forged letters to frame the uncle. The next time, we don't know what kind of insidious tricks the Yu family will use.

My dad is better, he is more lively, not the kind of rigid old man who sticks to the rules. When things happen, you can't fight back on the surface, and you will try to get revenge secretly, anyway, you just don't want to suffer.

On the other hand, uncle, that is really the most rigid existence, even the old man is smoother than him, even if he is cheated by the Yu family, he will only find evidence to fight the Yu family to the end, and never retaliate in his own way. Treat the person's body and take revenge back with the same method.

If this continues, Yunshang is worried that before the Yu family falls, the uncle will be overshadowed by the Yu family first.

Although the eldest uncle is old-fashioned and boring, but the eldest uncle also gave her a big red envelope anyway, and he is also the person she is covering, how can he be bullied like this?

Help find the evidence first, if you can't find it, then learn from the Yu family and forge a piece of evidence to take revenge!

There was a burst of crisp laughter from downstairs, Yun Chang went downstairs to look, and there were two women in their forties who came to the house with four older girls, and they were talking to Cheng Guohe with smiles all over their faces. Lin Wenlan exchanged pleasantries, and pushed the four older girls she had brought over to her, asking them to call for help one by one.

Yun Shang originally thought it was Cheng Guo and Lin Wenlan calling for a blind date again,

But after catching a glimpse of the polite and alienated smiles on their faces, Yun Shang realized that Cheng Guo and Lin Wenlan did not welcome these guests who came to the door.

In other words, these people came uninvited.

As for the purpose, just look at the four beautiful girls standing side by side in the water, sneaking glances at the cousins in the living room from time to time.

Yun Shang: "..."

Damn! I was mistaken, I thought it was a few old bachelors who were not wanted by the family, but I didn't expect it to be quite popular.

Didn't you see that among the four big girls, the youngest one is only sixteen or seventeen at most?

She was about the same age as Bai Qingyue, what did the family think, did they really think that the cousins were old bachelors, so they could eat whatever they wanted so that they wouldn't be picky?

Such a young girl, who has the nerve to do it?

Noticing that there were scorching gazes looking over from behind from time to time, the faces of the three brothers turned gloomy.

What kind of people are these people here? Looking at them is like looking at big fat people walking, their eyes are glowing green, and they can't wait to jump over and take a bite. Several lesbians get along comfortably.

Bai Qingze gave his two younger brothers a sideways glance, put down the newspaper in his hand, got up and walked upstairs, Bai Qingyuan and Bai Qingjie also followed behind his elder brother with interest, preparing to go back to the room to hide.

Seeing Yun Chang coming down the stairs, Bai Qingjie's eyes lit up, he grabbed Yun Chang and went downstairs, "Xiao Qi, let's go, brother will take you out to play, brother will buy you whatever you want!"

How hard it is to go upstairs and be bored in the room, why not take Xiaoqi out for a stroll, and come back after the guests at home have left.

Among the three cousins, Yun Shang is the most familiar with the younger cousin Bai Qingjie. After all, they are friends who have visited the Northeast together. Seeing that Bai Qingjie is going to use her as a cover to sneak out, she very cooperatively grabbed Bai Qingjie's shoulders and treated Lin Wenlan Said: "Mom! I'm out shopping, and I'll come back later to buy delicious food for you and my aunt."

Before Lin Wenlan could speak, Bai Qingyuan also came down from the stairs, and smiled at Yunshang, "Xiaoqi is going shopping, brother will carry your bag."

The eyes of these girls were too frightening, so he also went out to avoid the limelight, and came back after the guests left.

Yun Shang almost laughed out loud, these two cousins are really interesting, do you think that you can avoid the blind date?

If she guessed right, it should be that the lesbian blind date at home got out yesterday. Otherwise, there would be no strangers coming to the door today. I guess this is the first wave, and maybe someone will come later. Well, the three cousins have suffered a lot these days.

Cheng Guozheng was not happy to entertain these guests, especially when he saw the eyes of the big girls keeping looking at his son, he was even more unhappy in his heart.

She was in a hurry to find wives for her sons, but it wasn't that she didn't pick anyone, she just pushed her children forward when she saw a girl.

As for the two families who came today, they all chased away the little wives who were originally matched with their superiors, and the girls they brought were also born by the little wives. How many good girls can there be from such a shameless mother? of?

Even if there are really good ones, she is afraid of being mistaken, so she doesn't have the time to choose slowly!

Seeing that the two sons were going to take Yunshang out, Cheng Guo immediately raised his voice and said, "Okay, it's warm outside today, you two take Xiaoqi out for a stroll, remember to come back for dinner."

Chapter 500 Finding Evidence

Yun Chang's premonition was not wrong. For the next two days, all the people walking around the gate of Bai's house were girls in their twenties.

Those who are relatively close to the Bai family can bring their lesbians to the Bai family under the guise of visiting, but those whose status is not as high as the Bai family and want to have a relationship with the Bai family can only let The eldest girl in the family, or the eldest girl in a relative's family, walk around the gate of Bai's house a few more times, what if she is lucky enough to be spotted by any of the three brothers?

The three Bai Qingze brothers were so frightened by these big girls rushing forward one after another, they didn't even dare to go home all day. If it wasn't for Cheng Guo's suppression, they could even give up their vacation and return to the army early.

Even Yunshang and Bai Qingyue were targeted by several crazy lesbians, either enthusiastically stuffing them with delicious food, or to get closer to Duotouhua, hoping that the two sisters can see them. They are kind, and I will help them say a few words in front of the three brothers.

Yun Shang was speechless, but seeing the three brothers squatting outside all day in fright and not daring to go home, she was amused and burst into laughter again.

Don't dare to go home, so someone will take her out to play every day, and if she sees something she likes, she won't need to spend money, and her brothers will pay for it.

The most important thing was that the three brothers couldn't go home, which happened to be convenient for her to inquire about Yu's family.

Bai Qingze is the boss, no matter in terms of IQ or EQ, he is as good as Gu Erge, so he can't ask him.

Bai Qingyuan didn't talk much, and often squinted his fox eyes. He looked like a cunning and cunning person, so he couldn't talk to him.

Only the younger cousin, Bai Qingjie, has the same temperament and temperament as Bai Qingming. If you ignore his good skills, he is simply a fool.

Yun Shang urged Bai Qingjie to get rid of the two elder brothers, and slipped out with her alone, all kinds of nonsense flattery words without money, the foolish Bai Qingjie almost shook off what color underpants he was wearing.

After finding out the address of the Yu family and the location of the office of the boss of the Yu family, Yunshang returned home and locked herself in the space to prepare, gearing up to clean up the Yu family.

...

Bai Yancheng was on the third day of the Lunar New Year. When the two aunts returned to their natal home, they returned to Linyang after the reunion dinner. Lin Wenlan was also on the fourth day of the Lunar New Year. go home.

Only Yunshang, who was not in a hurry to go to school, and Bai Qingming, who refused to go home under the guise of protecting Yunshang, were left in the capital.

Regarding this, the old man was both happy and disgusted. He was happy that his little granddaughter could stay with him in the capital for a longer period of time, but he disliked that bastard Bai Qingming was too obtrusive, so that he couldn't take his granddaughter out to play properly.

Fortunately, old man Bai has also started to be busy recently, and he doesn't come home all day long, so Bai Qingming can avoid being scolded a few times.

The Yu family also lived in the courtyard, not too far from the Bai family. Yun Chang observed secretly for a few days, and when the house was free and only the old man and Bai Qingming were left, she sneaked into Yu's house at night and recorded The pen is secretly hidden.

Two days later, Yunshang took back the recording pen and listened carefully in the space for a long time. She didn't hear any news about the account book, but it was not all fruitless.

I learned from the recording pen in the study room that besides lending usury, the Yu family also seemed to have sold cultural relics in private, but the person who mentioned it only mentioned it in words, and Yunshang couldn't analyze it. more information.

in addition,

Yun Shang also heard that Yu's family has a house outside the military area, and there are more than one real estate. One of the houses is under the name of the third aunt Yu Min, and the third uncle doesn't even know about it.

Hearing this, Yunshang immediately realized that the third aunt was likely to be involved in the internal affairs of the Yu family, otherwise she wouldn't even have to hide the famous and private property from the third uncle.

After all, the two have been married for more than ten years and have three children. It can be said that the two are already the closest people in the world. If the house under the name of the third aunt came from the right way, or if there was no trace of the Yu family committing crimes in that house, there was absolutely no need for her to hide this matter from the third uncle.

Since he chose to hide it, there must be something weird in the house.

Yun Chang's lungs were about to explode.

This Yu Min is really oozing pus from his broken bones.

When she was helping her mother's family to do these bad things, she should know that she is the daughter-in-law of the Lin family, Lin Wenjun's wife, and the mother of three children. She never thought that once the Yu family's affairs were found out, she would Not to mention that I will go to jail, but I will also implicate the Lin family who have been kept in the dark from the beginning to the end.

From the three uncles to the three children, even the not-so-spirited grandfather, plus the other two uncles, all will be reviewed by the organization.

Even if the third uncle is lucky and won't be implicated by Yu Min, his children will become puppies from now on, growing up under the strange eyes and unfair treatment of others.

Has Yu Min never thought about these issues, or has she thought about them all, but she doesn't care, or maybe she just wants to use the three children to contain the third uncle, contain the Lin family, and want to drag the Lin family into trouble and become the Yu family's What about allies?

Yunshang sat in the space and thought for a long time, until it was almost dawn, before she fell back and rested for a few hours.

After waking up from sleep, the old man went out to do business again, and Bai Qingming also went out to hang out with a group of brats in the compound. Only Aunt Jiang, the nanny, was at home.

"Xiao Qi woke up? Come and have breakfast."

Aunt Jiang glanced at the big clock on the cabinet, and brought out a bowl of yellow millet porridge to Yunshang with a smile. The porridge was very thick and boiled for enough time. A layer of oily skin.

Yunshang took the bowl and sipped the porridge, but glanced at the coffee table in the living room, saw that the candy plate was empty, Yunshang put down the bowl, and said to Aunt Jiang with a smile: "Aunt Jiang, there is no one at home. Sugar, when you go to the service station tomorrow, bring back a catty of fruit candy, otherwise you won't be able to entertain guests."

Aunt Jiang came out of the kitchen and saw that the fruit plate was indeed empty, so she quickly wiped her hands and walked out the door, "I really didn't notice that all the sugar at home was eaten. Don't wait for tomorrow, the service station is not far away, I will Now go buy some back."

In case there are guests at home today, and there is no candy to treat them, how rude it is.

Yun Chang watched helplessly as Aunt Jiang put on her coat and went out, quickly put down the bowl in her hand, and ran to dial Linyang's phone number.

Yu Min obviously has a big problem. As a junior, she can't go directly to the third uncle and tell her that your wife is nothing, so hurry up and divorce your wife, or the whole family will be in trouble.

She can't say these things, but she can find someone who is qualified to teach the third uncle, such as Captain Lin, or Commander Bai.
