Chapter 501 Tracking

At nine o'clock in the morning, it was working time. Knowing that Lin Wenlan was not at home, Yunshang directly called Bai Yancheng's office.

Bai Yancheng just came back from the meeting. Although Yunshang didn't say too much on the phone, he also received the message that Yunshang wanted to send.

Yu Min owns a property under his name, and he hides it from Lin Wenjun!

Bai Yancheng has served as the commander of the military region for many years, and has a keen political tentacles that are difficult for ordinary people. From this sentence mentioned by Yunshang, he instantly thought of many deeper and farther things.

After Yunshang finished talking about the business, she pressed the microphone tightly to her ear, wondering how Bai Yancheng was going to deal with this matter.

Fortunately, Bai Yancheng didn't disappoint Yun Shang, he was only silent for a few seconds, and said that he would find a way to talk to Lin Wenjun as soon as possible, and tell the Lin family about Yu Min.

Yun Chang is satisfied.

By saying this, Bai Yancheng meant that he was aware of the danger of Yu Min, and he was willing to come forward to talk about Yu Min's affairs with Lin Wenjun. Naturally, he wanted to pull Lin Wenjun to prevent him from being betrayed by Yu Min in a daze.

But before Yun Chang's heart fell to the ground, Bai Yancheng asked her about the source of the news. Through the phone line, Yun Chang lied without blushing:

"Qiuqiu ran away last night. I went to look for Qiuqiu in the cypress nest behind the training ground, and I heard the third aunt herself tell someone!"

Bai Yancheng didn't know that Yun Shang was lying secretly, and hearing her say that Yu Min said it himself, the last trace of hesitation in her heart was dispelled.

After hanging up the phone, Yunshang drank the millet porridge in a few sips, went upstairs to change her clothes, said hello to Aunt Jiang who came back from buying candy, and ran to the training ground with the ball in her arms for a walk, observing the Yu family from a distance trend.

Recently, the limelight has been on the rise. Although the Yu family has become more domineering than before because of their relationship with the Revolutionary Committee, they also know that their home is an eyesore. They don't often go to the private house outside, so they are caught. .

Yun Shangyuan didn't think about staring at anything in broad daylight, but felt that she had nothing to do anyway, what if her blind cat ran into a dead mouse?

Wandering outside until noon, Yun Chang rubbed her flat stomach in disappointment, and was about to go home for dinner when, out of the corner of her eye, she caught a glimpse of Yu Min coming out of Yu's house with her purse, and hurried to the gate of the courtyard.

Yun Shang hesitated for a while, choosing the latter between filling her stomach and following Yu Min.

Followed Yu Min all the way out of the compound, took the tram and got off at the nearest department store, and saw her meet a woman in her thirties, the two entered the state-run hotel talking and laughing, and then the two After eating, say goodbye at the entrance of the hotel and join the crowd in two directions.

Even though Yun Shang never thought about finding clues from Yu Min in broad daylight, she still felt disappointed seeing that she really just came out with her friends to meet and have a meal.

What's more, she was still hungry, so she insisted on squatting across the road, watching Yu Min in the restaurant eating and drinking, she was so heartbroken.

Seeing that Yu Min was about to disappear into the crowd, Yun Shang hurriedly bought two big buns, and reluctantly took a look at the steaming food on the tables of the guests in the restaurant, and chased after Yu Min.

I have been following for several hours, I have not seen anything, and I have been hungry for nothing, I always feel that I am not so reconciled.

While biting the bun fiercely, Yun Chang quickened her pace and followed Yu Min.

It's just that Yun Chang noticed something was wrong before he followed him very far.

This is not the way back to the compound!

Moreover, although Yu Min walked fast, she turned her head to look around from time to time, as if she was worried that someone was following her.

Yun Chang lowered her footsteps, and didn't dare to follow her too closely, but fell far behind her, followed her all the way from the bustling street to a remote corner, and then watched her turn into a very ordinary alley from a distance. No one was there.

On the side of the street, there was an old man leaning against the wall while basking in the sun and chatting. Yunshang bit the dried sweet potato in her mouth, moved over slowly, and squatted down at the base of the wall.

Passers-by saw this scene and thought she was just a little girl who came out to play with her grandfather.

Yu Min soon came out of the alley, glanced at the base of the wall, Yun Chang was writing and drawing on the ground with her head down, having a great time, but Yu Min didn't become suspicious.

After Yu Min left, Yun Shang threw away the wooden stick in her hand, and entered the alley cheerfully like a real child.

Starting from the first house at the entrance of the alley, Yunshang stretched out her spiritual power and swept over one by one. When she swept to the last courtyard house in the alley, Yunshang finally made a new discovery.

This is a small courtyard house, with three rooms in the main house, two wing rooms in the east and west, and two smaller rooms in the south room, plus two gates decorated with mottled black paint.

From the outside, this small courtyard is very ordinary, and even because the paint on the gate is badly peeled off, it looks a bit dilapidated.

But Yunshang's mental strength clearly saw that the scene in the yard was much better than the outside. Although the inner yard is not big, it is paved with blue bricks. There is a cement groove beside the faucet in the corner of the yard for the water to go in. It passes under the gate and leads directly to the alley. There is also a small flower bed beside the west wing.

More importantly, there is a basement in this courtyard, and the entrance is right next to the flower bed, covered by green flowers and trees and small stone mills beside the flower bed, most people don't even notice the strangeness of the green bricks under their feet.

Because of the distance, Yunshang couldn't see what was installed in the basement, but she could clearly see that there were only two people living in the courtyard house with so many rooms.

The man was about thirty years old, with a ferocious face and very cold eyes, and the woman was at most in her early twenties, with a very thin body and a sallow complexion, even if a man took a look at it, she would shiver involuntarily.

Yun Shang intuited that Yu Min had come here just now, and also had a premonition that the secret of the Yu family was hidden in the basement in the yard.

But at this moment, the man was sitting in the yard drinking wine, his gloomy and cold eyes looked around the entire small courtyard from time to time, Yunshang originally planned to use the space to go into the basement to have a look, but when he saw the man's appearance, he instantly dismissed the idea.

This man is capable at first glance, and the whole yard is only so big, if she makes a noise carelessly, it will definitely alarm him.

She has space, so she doesn't worry about being caught, but if the other party moves or destroys the things in the basement, won't the clues she finally found be broken again?

It's better to go home and have a good rest, and come to see it in the middle of the night when no one is around.

Yun Shang quietly exited the alley, went to the street to buy a bunch of snacks, pretended to go shopping and returned to the courtyard.

Chapter 502 Research Base

The old man is not at home, Bai Qingming and Aunt Jiang are looking for Yunshang like crazy, seeing that it is almost time to cook dinner, the two are about to call the old man, Yunshang is carrying a net bag of delicious food, leisurely It's time to enter the door.

Bai Qingming almost cried, with red eyes, grabbed the net bag in Yunshang's hand, pointed at Yunshang's nose and scolded her head and face.

Seeing that Yun Chang was scolded with delicious food stuffed in his mouth, with round cheeks puffed out, he looked at him without blinking, looking like you are so naive, Bai Qingming was angry and felt wronged at the same time It's incredible.

"Xiaoqi, did you do it on purpose! You are just angry that I didn't take you out to play in the morning, and ran out on purpose so that grandpa would come back and scold me, right? And let dad have an excuse to beat me up, right? "

Yun Shang: "..."

This brain hole can be a screenwriter.

Seeing that Bai Qingming was really in a hurry, Yunshang stood on tiptoe and patted Bai Qingming's head, "Little six, I'll take you out to play next time."

So you be quiet and don't make a fuss.

After Bai Qingming was stunned for a moment, he became even more furious.

Xiao Qi, what does she mean by this? What does she mean by this! ?

I am brother! What's the matter with her acting like coaxing children!

So bullying!

Bai Qingming grabbed Yun Shang and complained again.

The two brothers and sisters were making noise outside, and Aunt Jiang was busy cooking dinner in the kitchen while turning her head to watch the excitement with a smile. The old man could feel the lively atmosphere in the house before he got out of the car.

That's great, does this feel like a home? When I'm older, I like to see my grandchildren buzzing around me, how festive it is.

Just like before, I stayed at home alone all day, and I could hear the echo when I coughed, and my life was so deserted.

The old man coughed a few times and walked into the room with a splayed figure. Yunshang and Bai Qingming immediately shut up tacitly, and stopped mentioning that she didn't go home for lunch.

Seeing his little granddaughter looking at him with shining eyes, the old man's smile grew wider. He took out a long paper thing from his bag and handed it to Yun Shang.

"My certificate! There are big characters! Lord, is this true!?"

Yun Shang held the certificate of merit and a pair of flamboyant and phoenix dancers, stamped with big characters, and grinned like a fool.

She just said it casually, but she didn't expect the old man to ask the Chief Chief to write a letter for her.

She has to frame it and keep it as a family heirloom in the future!

Bai Qingming was so envious that he was so envious, he leaned closer and kept asking, "Master, what did Xiao Qi do, why did the organization give Xiao Qi a certificate? Why don't you give me one too?"

The old man took a look at Bai Qingming, curled his lips in disgust, "With your grades, you still have the face to ask for a certificate? When will you get the first place in the exam and then tell me about the certificate!"

As soon as the academic performance was mentioned, Bai Qingming immediately shrank into a ball, huddled on the sofa, and did not dare to mention the award certificate.

Yun Chang carefully put away the certificate and the big characters, and quietly asked the old man, "Master, did Grandpa Gu ask for the certificate for Second Brother Gu?"

"Don't worry, old man Gu belongs to the fox family, so you can't let Shi Nian suffer." The old man said with a smile.

It's not time to eat yet,

The old man handed the certificate to Yun Shang, and walked to the study with freshly brewed hot tea. Thinking that the old man was coming home later and later, Yun Chang hurriedly followed and asked in a low voice, "Master, you haven't come back for lunch these days, are you busy with those materials?"

The old man has been in a semi-retired state a few years ago. He spends his days raising flowers at home, playing chess, and going out to brag with his old comrades when he has nothing to do. Apart from being a little lonely, his life is unrestrained.

But since those books were handed in, the old man hasn't had lunch at home for almost ten days in a row, and the time to go home is getting later and later.

After much deliberation, there is only one explanation, that is, the old man has a new task, and this task is related to the batch of materials submitted.

Yun Shang and Gu Shinian were the ones who discovered that batch of information. The old man would also selectively reveal something to Yun Shang if it did not violate the organizational principles.

For example, the organization quickly prepared to establish a secret base, gathered experts and scholars from all over the country, and concentrated on researching and studying this batch of materials in the base.

For another example, this batch of information was discovered and submitted by the Bai family and the Gu family. Many of the materials were listed as top secret information of the military. The security work was handed over to the witnesses and participants of the whole incident—the two semi-retired old men of the Bai family and the Gu family...

Yun Shang opened her mouth, and it took a while to realize, "Master, so you have come out of the mountain again! Master! You are really... a treasured sword!"

The old man: "..."

The granddaughter is obviously praising him, but why doesn't he sound happy at all?

The sword is not old? Didn't he say he was old?

The old man's eyelids twitched a few times, suppressing the strange feeling in his heart, and continued, "Old man Gu and I are only busy for a few days. When things get on track, I plan to transfer your second cousin to the base."

Bai Qingze is older, and has been in the army for many years, and he has almost made a name for himself. As long as he can go on steadily, his achievements in the army will not be small in the future, but there is no need to move.

The third son, Bai Qingjie, has a distempered temper. After graduating from university, he was allowed to join the army because he wanted to sharpen his temperament, and then let him transfer to a unit he likes. There is no need to move places.

Only the second eldest, Bai Qingyuan, seemed calm and undisputed, but he was the most aggressive and ambitious among the three grandsons of Changfang.

If he is lucky and catches up with the good times, his future development may be even better than that of Bai Qingze.

It's a pity that Bai Qingyuan is a few years younger than Bai Qingze, and he is not a graduate of a military school. In addition, the army is not so calm now. The old man has been suppressing Bai Qingyuan and asking him to behave in a low-key manner, which has caused Bai Qingyuan's development to be far behind Bai Qingze.

It's not that the old man is partial, but that Bai Qingyuan is too young. Even though he has enough brains, he can hold his breath, but he has just graduated from school after all, so he is still lacking in experience.

In case someone takes advantage of Bai Qingyuan's ambition to set him up and cause trouble for the Bai family, with Bai Qingyuan's experience, he may not be able to prevent it.

Transferring Bai Qingyuan to the base, first, after the base is completed, it will become another secret unit in the organization, which can give Bai Qingyuan a very high starting point. The second is that the base will be isolated from the outside world, and the Gu family is an ally of the Bai family. Bai Qingyuan is here, so there is no need to worry about being tricked.

Chapter 503 Traitor

Yunshang is not a real child, and Bai Yancheng has never kept secrets from her about major family events in these years, which also makes Yunshang's vision and knowledge far exceed those of her peers.

After the old man said these words, Yun Chang could guess the old man's purpose after thinking about it for a while.

She didn't feel that the old man was partial to the eldest brother, and only thought about the eldest brother when something good happened. After all, her eldest brother is still a student. Even if the old man wanted to make plans for his eldest brother, he had to wait for him to graduate first.

After receiving the certificate and the long-awaited calligraphy, Yunshang was so excited that he couldn't sleep that night, and he was full of energy. He wished he could find out the Yu family immediately and eradicate this nest of cancer for the organization.

After staying up until one o'clock in the middle of the night, Yunshang used the space to quietly move outside the courtyard, moved out of the car in the space, and galloped all the way to the courtyard that he had visited during the day.

The alley at night was quieter than during the day, Yunshang avoided the street lights and got into the alley, stuck to the wall, and soon stopped at the gate of the courtyard.

The people in the room were already asleep. To ensure safety, Yun Shang still took out the ether spray and sprayed it several times on the room.

Ten seconds later, Yunshang tapped on the window lightly, hearing that the room was still quiet, Yunshang immediately took out the flashlight and used the space to enter the basement.

The basement is not big, and the walls are plastered with cement. There are two rows of shelves against the wall in the innermost part. The tops are at different heights. There are several jade statues of Bodhisattvas and several wooden boxes the size of basketballs. On the top few floors, more than a dozen jewelry boxes that look old have been placed side by side.

There were several wooden boxes on the ground in front of the shelf, which were not locked. Yun Chang opened the nearest box and saw that there were bronze wares wrapped in cotton wool and old newspapers. Then I opened the box next to it and saw that there were carefully packed porcelain, calligraphy and paintings inside.

Yunshang doesn't know much about cultural relics, let alone the origin of these things in the box, but seeing these precious cultural relics packed one by one and put them in the box, Yunshang also knows in her heart that these cultural relics are either collected by the Yu family, Either it has been packed and is ready to look for opportunities to sell.

These beasts!

Yun Shang was so angry that her hands were shaking.

In another world, in order to recover the national treasures scattered all over the world, the country has spent a lot of manpower, material resources and money in the past few decades before enduring the humiliation and inviting those treasures back to the country one by one.

During this period, both the state and the patriotic businessmen of the people have been making unremitting efforts for the return of national treasures for a long time.

But even so, there are still many treasures belonging to the country that are left outside and cannot be recovered.

For Chinese people, those lost outside are not only treasures, but also the face and dignity of the country.

But now people from the Yu family dare to sell treasures belonging to the country for profit. How is this behavior different from treason?

Calling a traitor is light, and this kind of behavior cannot be described as a sinner through the ages.

Yun Chang held back her anger, and opened the boxes next to her one by one. Looking at the packed precious cultural relics in several boxes, her heart was numb with anger.

Throwing the flashlight into the space, he took five or six desk lamps from the space in one breath, and placed them in every corner of the basement, illuminating the entire space as bright as day.

Yun Shang took out the camera again, pointed at the box, and took pictures one by one carefully.

After taking pictures of the cultural relics on the ground, Yunshang went to the shelf again, opened the small boxes on the shelf one by one, and the camera went over again to take pictures of them all.

Among the small boxes on the shelf, there are four boxes full of gold. Yunshang estimated the weight. The gold adds up to a hundred catties. In the jewelry boxes above, each box is filled with jewelry and jade. The value is immeasurable.

Yun Shang still found what she was looking for in the bottom box - the ledger!

There are several thick stacks of accounts, including the account books that record the number of times the Yu family sold cultural relics, the stolen money, and the distribution of the stolen goods, and the account books of the Yu family's usury, which clearly recorded the lender's information, the amount of loans, and The information of the borrower, and some IOUs printed when borrowing money.

Yun Chang glanced around, and there were more than 300 people involved through Yu's family, and the scope was centered on the capital city and penetrated into three or four surrounding provinces and cities.

This also means that in several surrounding provinces and cities, people from the Yu family are also engaged in usury and selling cultural relics.

Yunshang took pictures of all the contents on the ledger, put the ledger back, restored the basement to its original state, and finally took out the miniature camera that had been prepared earlier, and hid it in the corner of the shelf.

Even if the basement is as bright as daylight under the illumination of the desk lamp, if you don't pay attention to it, it is difficult to see that there is something extra in the corner of the shelf.

The boxes on the ground are full of packed cultural relics. If there is no accident, the Yu family will definitely transport these things out in the near future. As long as the camera can capture the images of the Yu family entering and leaving the basement, it can prove that the things in the basement are all from the Yu family. It's not that someone is framing the Yu family.

At that time, this gang of traitors will be waiting in line to be shot!

After leaving the basement, Yunshang looked around the dark courtyard, thought for a while, then took out a video camera and secretly placed it under the eaves of the main house, so that no matter who entered or exited the courtyard, the video camera could record it.

Back in the courtyard, Yun Chang didn't care about taking a break, and went into the space to print out the photos overnight.

Worried that people would see his flaws, he also washed all the photos into black and white photos.

.....

For the next few days, Yunshang would sneak to the courtyard to take a look every night, for fear of missing the evidence of Yu's family committing crimes.

It's like a hunter who is dormant secretly, waiting for the prey to take the bait with extreme patience and tolerance.

A week later, when Yun Shang suspected that her guess was wrong, the Yu family finally dispatched.

The camera under the eaves clearly captured Yu Min, the eldest son of the Yu family, the father and son, and the eldest son of the second family entering the courtyard, and these people came here in the name of visiting relatives.

With a gift in his hand, before entering the door, he deliberately chatted with the man who lived in the courtyard for a long time at the door, and came in only after he had done enough of the scene of visiting relatives.

After entering the courtyard, Yu Min and the boss of the Yu family were chatting with the man in the yard. Several grandchildren quickly opened the gift, revealing the tightly wrapped cultural relics inside. Under the cover of the voices of the people in the courtyard, they opened the entrance to the basement. , Hid the cultural relics in it.

During the period, Yu Min and the boss of the Yu family also went into the basement to look around. They also opened the ledger and took away a few IOUs.

Chapter 504 Divorce

The Yu family members went in and out of the courtyard during the day, under the guise of visiting relatives. Who would have thought that while these people were exchanging pleasantries in the courtyard, crimes would unfold under the sun?

Who would have thought that this group of people would be so courageous that they disguised the cultural relics as gifts, and went out with them in their hands in broad daylight.

Yun Shang endured her anger, put a thick stack of photos in an envelope and put them away, and was going to hand them over to the organization anonymously after her third uncle and Yu Min divorced.

After all, the affairs of the Yu family are too involved. There are hundreds of people involved in the usury case alone. If these people know that it was the Bai family who broke through the usury of the Yu family, they will have to give it to the Bai family in the future. Make trouble.

In order to prevent the Bai family from falling into the hands of villains in the future, it is better for the Bai family not to come forward in this matter.

Lin Wenjun received a call from his brother-in-law asking him to go to Linyang as soon as possible. Originally thinking that something happened to Lin Wenlan or Lin Dani, Lin Wenjun turned pale with fright, and no one dared to mention it. He left the children with Mr. Lin and hurried to Linyang.

After arriving in Linyang, Lin Wenjun realized that he had made a false alarm, but before he could breathe a sigh of relief, what Bai Yancheng said almost made him jump off the stool again.

"Sister, brother-in-law, did I hear correctly, you said, let me divorce Yu Min?"

Seeing Bai Yancheng nod his head, Lin Wenjun's expression became even uglier. If Lin Wenjun hadn't remembered that it was his brother-in-law in front of him, Lin Wenjun would have rushed over to give Bai Yancheng a punch.

What a god brother-in-law! You tricked him all the way from the capital just to persuade him to divorce face to face?

Even if he was asked to divorce, it would be more sincere to come to the door to persuade him to divorce, anyway, to put on a show! ?

Facing Lin Wenjun's cannibalistic gaze, Bai Yancheng said again, "Wen Jun, how much do you know about the Yu family?"

Lin Wenjun took a few deep breaths, suppressing the anger in his heart, "I don't know much, all I know is that my brother-in-law wants to move up..." I also know that he wants to move to the seat of the boss of your Bai family.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng frowned and did not speak, Lin Wenjun said in a very bad tone, "Brother-in-law, I also heard Yu Min say that. The Lin family didn't mean to help the Yu family. into her natal family...but she is just a married woman, she can't be the Yu family's family, and she can't be our Lin family's family, besides, there are three children, so she won't really get to the point of divorce..."

"Did Yu Min tell you that she owns a courtyard house under her name?" Bai Yancheng interrupted Lin Wenjun and asked.

Seeing that Lin Wenjun was stunned, Bai Yancheng continued to ask, "Do you know about the Yu family's private arrangement to lend usury? Yu Min himself also had a hand in this business, do you know about this?"

Lin Wenjun was completely stunned, staring blankly at Bai Yancheng, and it took a long time before he recovered his voice, "...Is this true? She is not that bold, she dare not do this ..."

It's just that Lin Wenjun dryly emphasized these words without any convincing force, and he couldn't even deceive himself.

Bai Yancheng lit a cigarette and handed it to Lin Wenjun, "Wenjun, let me tell you, the organization is already secretly investigating the affairs of the Yu family. If you don't hurry up and get a divorce, wait until the Yu family commits a crime. You have to blame Yu Min yourself, not to mention, your Lin family, and your three children will also be implicated."

Lin Wenjun knew that Bai Yancheng would not joke about this matter,

He dared to say such a thing, which proved that Yu Min himself had indeed committed a crime.

He sat on the chair, his mouth was trembling, his hands were trembling, he took a deep puff of the cigarette, and then raised his hand to rub his dry and sore eyes, "Brother-in-law, I am also a party member, so I know the seriousness... If Yu Min really After doing this, you don't need to tell me, I have to leave her, and I have to report to the organization for self-criticism..."

"It's been so many years, why didn't I see that she still has the guts..."

"Brother-in-law, tell me, when Yu Min married me, did he have an impure purpose? Back then, my father was in good health, and he was more important to the organization than Yu Min's father..."

"Now the conditions are so good, there is no shortage of food and clothing, and the Yu family can be regarded as gaining a firm foothold in the army. Why are they still not satisfied? Why do they need so much money..."

Bai Yancheng's eyelids twitched a few times, and he answered secretly in his heart: The Yu family is not only asking for money, in addition to money, the Yu family can also use this matter to win over a large number of contacts, this is the real purpose of the Yu family .

Lin Wenjun sat there, smoking a cigarette, talking to himself for a long time. After he recovered, he rejected Bai Yancheng's proposal to go home with Bai Yancheng, left the military area, and returned to the capital without stopping.

Within a few days after Yun Shang found the evidence, the news that Yu Min was going to divorce Lin Wenjun spread throughout the compound.

When Aunt Jiang talked about this, Bai Qingming was so angry that he almost rushed to Yu's house to settle accounts with Yu Min.

"Why should she divorce third uncle! She stays in the compound all day and doesn't go home, and even divorces third uncle after leaving the three children to third uncle. Why does she look down on third uncle!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Silly boy, it's the third uncle who wants to divorce Yu Min, not Yu Min who wants to divorce the third uncle.

But the Yu family is shameless enough, it was Lin Wenjun who proposed the divorce, but as a result, gossip spread to the courtyard, Yu Min looked down on Lin Wenjun and wanted to divorce Lin Wenjun.

It's as if saying this can show how precious Yu Min is.

The Lin family and the Bai family were related by marriage, so Aunt Jiang was naturally drawn to Lin Wenjun, and she also had an angry face at the moment, and almost tore the leaves of the vegetables she had chosen.

"Then Yu's family is really nothing! It's okay to stay in her mother's house all day and ignore the men and children, and now they are still making a fuss about getting a divorce. I think Yu Min may have someone outside!"

Yun Shang: "..."

Well, Aunt Jiang can have such an idea.

Yun Shang originally wanted to go out and help Lin Wenjun clarify something, but now after hearing Aunt Jiang's words, she completely dismissed this idea.

Even though the family members of high-ranking officials live in the compound, as long as they are women, there is no one who doesn't like gossip.

Since Aunt Jiang was able to open her mind and find a suitable reason for the two to divorce, other family members may not have thought of this.

Yu Min is so concerned about saving face that she can make up nonsense to prove that she didn't like Lin Wenjun, and she dumped Lin Wenjun first, so let her taste the scapegoat.

If you don't want to lose face, then put on the 'broken shoes' hat upright!

It's a pity that the third uncle will have to be sympathized with in the future, and his hat will be green.

Once Lin Wenjun made up his mind, he acted very quickly. Yu Min had just released the news that he was going to divorce in the courtyard. In less than three days, the two reached an agreement and completed the divorce certificate.

Chapter 505: The Yu Family Has Fallen

Yun Chang was messed up in the wind.

I have never seen such a father, the son divorced, and the father actually drank to celebrate! ?

Is this really your son?

However, the old man's attitude can be regarded as completely reassuring the hearts of the juniors.

In the next few days, Yunshang used candy as a reward to go out shopping every day, and sent a kraft envelope containing the criminal evidence of the Yu family through the hands of children from various post offices in the capital.

.....

The Yu family collapsed.

He was taken away from the courtyard quietly and without warning.

At the same time, many people in the capital who could not get together were also taken away at the same time.

Among them are several families in the courtyard.

The small courtyard of the Yu family was searched from the inside to the outside by a team of armed soldiers early in the morning. The things in the basement were carefully carried into the car and rumbled away.

These days, it is not uncommon for someone in the compound to be taken away for investigation. When the Yu family and a few close families collapsed, everyone just sighed a little, and quickly put these things behind them and lived their lives. My little days at home.

Recently, Yunshang went out to wander around the courtyard every day, wandering around with fat cats, eating big melons from Yu's family, living idle like an empty-nester old man.

It was the end of March at this time, and people had already taken off their thick cotton-padded jackets and put on light and thin spring shirts, as if their spirits had returned with the spring, and the whole city exuded a sense of vitality.

After a year, Yunshang's head has grown upwards, and the baby fat on her face has also faded away, and her facial features have become clearer and more delicate, and she has become a slim and beautiful girl.

Every time Bai Qingming went out, he would meet some friends who asked him about Yunshang's whereabouts openly and secretly, and asked him to take Yunshang out to play together. Chang hurried back to Linyang.

He always felt that, with his sister who loves to hang out and is greedy, if he stays in the capital, he might be coaxed away with delicious food one day.

Yunshang didn't know the reason why Bai Qingming was in a hurry to return to Linyang. She was waiting to see what happened to the Yu family and the cultural relics sold by the Yu family. She also wanted to secretly inquire about the organization's plans.

On this day, Bai Qingming started to urge Yunshang to go home again. As soon as he got started, the old man entered the door with a dark face and walked straight to the study.

Uncle Bai Yanming also followed the old man into the door with a serious face, nodded to the two of them, and followed into the study.

Bai Qingming and Yunshang looked at each other, and did not mention the matter of returning to Linyang. They sat quietly in the living room, listening to the movement in the study.

About ten seconds later, there was the sound of the old man slapping the table vigorously in the study room, and he scolded angrily, "Idiot! I don't know why! The scum is sold to foreigners!"

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, and she cheered up immediately.

The old man should be scolding the old man of the Yu family. So, the Yu family is about to rebel?

After being dazed, Bai Qingming lowered his voice and asked Yunshang, "Xiao Qi, are you scolding Old Man Yu?"

Yun Chang nodded,

After signaling Bai Qingming not to disturb her, she shamelessly used her energy to eavesdrop on the conversation between the old man and the uncle.

In the study room, the old man's entire face was dark, panting heavily, and spinning around in the study room.

Obviously, the old man was so angry that he couldn't even sit still.

Bai Yanming's face was also very ugly. He poured a cup of hot water and handed it to the old man, asking him to calm down before speaking.

The old man took the teacup, took a few sips of 'gudong gudong', put the teacup on the table, and asked Bai Yanming, "Have you intervened in the Yu family's affairs?"

Bai Yanming shook his head, nodded again, and said under the old man's angry gaze, "I have also arranged for someone to investigate the Yu family's affairs. I just found out that the Yu family may have put things in a courtyard under Yu Min's name. Son, something happened to Yu's family, and I'm just confused about it."

After spending so much effort, the matter just came to fruition, and he was about to pull down the Yu family and seek justice for himself, but before it was his turn to act, the enemy was surrounded by others.

This gave Bai Yanming the feeling that he had picked up the leak and won by lying down.

The old man snorted angrily, and complained, "I also thought that this matter has nothing to do with you. If you grab the Yu family's handle, you will only roll up your sleeves and fight the Yu family head-on. How could you think of such a smart man?" way."

After finishing speaking, the old man added angrily, "I just don't know who did it! They copied the details of Yu's family secretly, but they didn't even show their face. Now many people outside feel that this is the case. It was you who did it."

Bai Yanming: "..."

After lying down and winning, do you have to take a bite of the flying pot?

"Dad, this is just guessing by people in the compound who don't know. No one in the army would think so."

After all, he is a well-known old-fashioned old man who can only be confrontational with people. He can't do this kind of method of hiding his identity and poking people secretly.

If Yunshang knew what Bai Yanming was thinking, she would definitely jump up and curse at people.

Old fashioned is old fashioned!

Where is she secretly prodding people?

This is roundabout! It's tactics! It's to reduce unnecessary trouble for the Bai family!

It's even more to hide her shocking secret!

To get rid of Yu's family without stealth, is it possible to hand over the evidence in a big way, and then tell others that the evidence was obtained by a little girl alone?

Can her secret be kept? Will you be able to relax in the days to come?

The old man became less angry, pulled out his chair and sat down, and said, "It's fine if you don't intervene in this matter, if you really intervene, the matter of recovering the few things that are missing from the basement of Yu's house will inevitably fall on you gone."

Bai Yanming was stunned, "Father, you mean, there are fewer things in the basement?"

"Four pieces are missing." The old man clenched his fists together, and said with a dark face, "Compared with the photos in the organization, we found that three bronze wares and a scroll of calligraphy and painting were missing. We only knew about these things after interrogating the Yu family. It was sold the day before Yu's family was taken away."

The old man paused and sighed, "I don't know when those photos were taken. The person behind him has been watching the Yu family for so long, why didn't he know to stop those four treasures?"

Yun Chang has a black question mark face.

In just a few days, Yu Min's divorce was so big, the Yu family still wanted to sell cultural relics?

She really underestimated the Yu family's desire for money.

Bai Yanming was also speechless, and it took a long time before he asked, "Father, the organization has arranged for someone to recover the things now?"

"Well, on the day the interrogation came out, I called someone to the south to intercept it, but it was a few days late. If the things were shipped out, it would be difficult to recover them."

When the old man said this, the blue veins on his forehead seemed to be twitching again, grinding his back molars and said:

"That old man Yu is just a reckless man. He didn't know a single word all his life, he could only act recklessly, and he thought he was the true nature of the proletariat... So many treasures, let him sell them to foreigners at the price of cabbage, during the interrogation I still feel wronged, saying that he is destroying the four olds, eliminating the feudal dross, saying that he used the feudal dregs that were about to be smashed to exchange foreign currency for the organization, and he is a hero... The old bastard is really annoying!"

Yun Shang: "..."

This old man is really talented! Even the serious crime of smuggling cultural relics can be said so freshly and refinedly, which gives him the reputation of wholeheartedly following the party and sharing the organization's worries.

But in the final analysis, the Yu family did not hand over the money they got from selling cultural relics to the organization. Where did he have the face to say that the Yu family was creating foreign exchange for the organization?

Besides, what qualifications does the Yu family have to create foreign exchange for the organization? Still think that the Yu family is a private enterprise? I am not afraid of being labeled as a certain capitalist!

It's also due to the fact that Old Man Yu's status is higher, and he pays attention to image issues on weekdays. If Old Man Yu is an old man from an ordinary family, he will appoint another old man Qi.

No one can beat it when you sprinkle it.

In the study room, Bai Yanming was also stunned by what the old man said. It took him a long time to come to his senses, and sighed, "...People should read more books, at least they can understand right and wrong, and have some common sense."

Thinking of the suspension of many schools outside, the old man frowned tightly, sighed a long time, and stopped talking while holding his teacup.

Bai Yanming changed the subject tactfully and asked about the follow-up of the Yu family.

After all, the affairs of the Yu family are too big, and they have already been brought to the big leader. The old man has been busy these days. In addition to keeping an eye on the affairs of the base, he also has to go to the meeting to study and discuss how to give The matter of the Yu family is over.

The result of the Yu family's punishment will come down soon, and the old man did not hide Bai Yanming's opinion, and directly stated the organization's handling opinion: "Capital crime. Anyone who participates in the private sale of cultural relics is a capital crime. Usury is a capital offense for a large amount of money, and the rest are convicted according to the loan amount. The same is true for borrowers, and none of them can escape."

Bai Yanming was startled, and immediately asked, "Then Yu Min...Will Lin Wenjun be affected? Uncle Lin has been in poor health for the past two years..."

"No, on the day Lin Wenjun and Yu Min completed the divorce procedures, they handed in a review report. At that time, the affairs of Yu's family had not been disclosed, and the review report was a letter of accusation to the organization. If the people behind the Yu family hadn't acted too fast, Lin Wenjun might have made a contribution."

Bai Yanming heaved a sigh of relief, and for the first time a smile appeared on his face, "That's fine, as long as the Lin family is not affected, Yan Cheng's side will be fine... It's just a pity that Lin Wenjun's three children will have to suffer in the future." People point and point."

The old man widened his eyes and said in disapproval, "Why are you afraid of being wronged? The three children still have their own father. If Lin Wenjun doesn't divorce Yu Min in advance, if he is implicated by the Yu family, the three children will be in trouble." It's pitiful."

Mrs. Lin's body is about to fail, and old man Lin's spirit is not good. If Lin Wenjun is implicated, how long can old man Lin take care of the three children?

The boss and the second child of the Lin family can take turns to help take care of the three children, but they are big men after all, how can they take care of everything without losing their basic necessities? In the end, the burden of taking care of the three children must not fall on the two of the Lin family On sister-in-law?

Yu Min has done so many things without telling the Lin family, and it has also implicated Lin Wenjun, and even affected the other two brothers of the Lin family. How can the two sisters-in-law not disagree with the three children left by Yu Min. When the time comes, don't talk about taking care of her intimately, I guess I'll be angry just looking at it.

Compared with that situation, isn't the current situation considered good luck?

As long as there is a father by my side, what's wrong with the three children being wronged?

Bai Yanming nodded, and asked the question he wanted to ask the most today, "Father, what is the organization's plan for the things that the Yu family has sold in the past few years? Do you want to take them back?"

"That's why I called you back." The old man sat up straight, his expression suddenly became serious, "The servants also exchanged some old things for foreign exchange at the end of the past two years, but the things they exchanged were not very old and worth a lot. It's not too high, but it's not a pity.

The Yu family's bastards, seeing that the money is coming in so fast, are so bold as to do it on their own. But there was no educated person in another family, they didn't pick anything, they dumped out everything they saw, and gave out many real treasures one by one like cutting leeks, and sold them all at the price of cabbage.

The second child of the Yu family confessed to him, and sold a piece of 'the seal used by the emperor in the past' from him, which is the jade seal, and also sold a copper dog's head..."

Speaking of this, the old man didn't know whether he was angry or distressed, his voice trembled so much that he couldn't continue, his eyes were glistening, he took a few sips of water from the cup, and it took a long time before he recovered.

"According to the account books confiscated from the basement of the Yu family, in the past five or six years alone, the Yu family has sold hundreds of cultural relics. The Yu family does not understand cultural relics, and it is impossible to tell from the account books what they have sold. But judging from the confession given by the Yu family, these bastards really sold many of their treasures as cabbage.

The organization is now asking experts to build files and catalogs through the confessions and account books of the Yu family, and is preparing to let the comrades who stay outside look for the things that have been sold. Once there is news, they will do whatever it takes to bring back the treasures that belong to the country. "

Knowing from the old man's mouth that the Yu family has ruined so many treasures, Bai Yanming's face was livid with anger, the veins popped on his forehead, and asked the old man, "Father, why did you call me back to investigate these cultural relics?"

"The pursuit of cultural relics is something that comrades outside have to worry about. You don't need this. Just wait for the whereabouts of the cultural relics to be traced. We may have to send people to meet them. At that time, we may have to go abroad. What do you think? What did Qing Jie do?"

"Let Qing Jie go?" Bai Yanming was taken aback, with a look of hesitation on his face, "Qing Jie's temper is too reckless, will this work?"

In addition to being strong and able to punch a few times, Bai Qingjie is just a big stick. Why is the old man so big-hearted that he dares to send Bai Qingjie out for such an important matter?

Chapter 506: This Job Is Suitable For Brother Gu

"Let Qing Jie go?" Bai Yanming was taken aback, with a look of hesitation on his face, "Qing Jie's temper is too reckless, will this work?"

In addition to being strong and able to punch a few times, Bai Qingjie is just a big stick. Why is the old man so big-hearted that he dares to send Bai Qingjie out for such an important matter?

The old man could see what Bai Yanming was thinking at a glance, he gave him an angry look, and said, "Don't think about it, let Qingjie go because he looks tender and doesn't look like a soldier on him, go out The young master Huahua who can pretend to be a fool and has a lot of money is a vase, and he was not chosen because he is more prudent and shrewd than others."

Bai Yanming: "... " That's your grandson, dear!

Yun Chang: "... " The master's gaze is stern, the third cousin grinned foolishly all day long, dressed well, and walked out, isn't he the image of a silly son of a landlord's family?

From what the old man said, Yun Chang can almost deduce the intentions of those people above. The reason why he used Young Master Hua Hua as a vase has two purposes. The second is that once the task fails, Bai Qingjie can still negotiate the price with the other party to buy it back with the image of a dandy young man who is happy to see Liexin.

If you can't steal it, you can grab it, and if you can't grab it, you can buy it with money. Anyway, the country's treasures should not be left outside anyway.

However, in the eyes of ordinary people, the image of Third Cousin can be regarded as a child from a wealthy and powerful family, but compared with those sons and brothers who have not experienced wars, were raised in rich clothes and jade food, and have a broad vision, they are less. A bit of arrogance and foolishness to spend a lot of money.

If you really want to pretend to be the young master of a rich family, Gu Shinian is much more suitable than the third cousin. He has grown up in a wealthy family in the capital, and he has worked hard in the mall for many years. His poise and demeanor are not comparable to that of Third Cousin.

Of course, the playful young master who pretends to be a fool and has a lot of money is naturally a little more generous and natural than the third cousin.

The two people in the study didn't know that Yunshang was eavesdropping outside, and compared Bai Qingjie with his carelessness, they hit Bai Qingjie in all directions in their hearts.

...

Seeing that the expression on Bai Yanming's face was hard to describe, the old man realized that he had been talking for a while and told the truth. He coughed uncomfortably and continued, "At that time, the organization will arrange special personnel to take action. Qingjie is It's a cover... If you think this is going to happen, I'll tell the organization to arrange for Qing Jie to go to Hong Kong City to adapt for a few months as soon as possible, and then cooperate with the work of comrades outside."

Huahua is young and old, he has to be good at playing, he has to know a lot, and he has to be able to speak English. When he goes to Hong Kong City, he has to speak Cantonese well. With Bai Qingjie's brain, if he doesn't get used to it in advance, he might be exposed by then. son of a bitch.

Yun Chang couldn't sit still outside, wasn't this job tailor-made for Brother Gu?

I don't look like a soldier, I can speak authentic London accent English, I can speak Cantonese well, I have a lot of knowledge, I can play, and I can afford to play, let alone the capital, just look around in the army, who can find it? Can it compare to Brother Gu?

Those high-level intellectuals who have stayed abroad before can be compared with Brother Gu, but those people are all old, so is it possible that they have to show their old faces and become old dudes?

Besides, recovering cultural relics will definitely be a top-secret task. The few chiefs in the capital who know the plan will naturally choose reliable people to carry out the task.

The old man can get third cousin out,

Obviously, after comprehensive consideration, the capital side chose Bai Qingjie as the one who was taller among the dwarves, but this did not mean that Bai Qingjie was suitable.

The most important thing is that it is easy to find the whereabouts of the cultural relics, but it is not so easy to get the cultural relics out and transport them back to the country.

Whether it is getting the cultural relics in hand or escorting the cultural relics back to the country, any problem in any link will lead to the failure of the mission.

If Second Brother Gu can take over this task, then she will be able to find excuses to force the old man to follow, and there is room for cheating. Isn't it easy to find the cultural relics?

Not to mention retrieving the cultural relics sold by the Yu family, even those cultural relics that were robbed from foreign museums before, she can also get them back!

Thinking about it this way, Yun Chang didn't care about eavesdropping anymore, and ran to the study room, and in the surprised eyes of the old man and Bai Yanming, sold out Gu Shinian.

"Master, Uncle, not only is Second Brother better than Third Cousin, he can speak a little English and Cantonese, even I am better than Third Cousin, and I can speak more English and Cantonese than Third Cousin!"

Both the old man and Bai Yanming were stunned. After coming over for a while, the old man put on a tiger's face and reprimanded Yun Shang: "Nonsense! You're lying outside and eavesdropping again!?"

Yun Chang is not afraid of the old man. Leaning on the table, she stretched out her white and tender palm towards the old man, and began to admit her mistake without sincerity, "Master, I was wrong. Hurry up and hit my hand. After the beating, let's talk to Gu Er quickly." brother's business!"

Bai Yanming: "..."

It's better to be a girl, even if I did something wrong, the old man wouldn't want to get angry, at most he would put on a stern face and scare her.

Didn't you see that the daughters of the second family have figured out the old man's temperament, and they don't have any fear at all.

The old man stared, reached out and patted Yun Shang's hand a few times, and asked coldly, "How much have you overheard?"

"Just a little behind, the ones in front didn't listen." Yun Shang spoke nonsense in a serious manner.

The old man's face brightened, and he asked, "You and Shi Nian grew up in Qinghe County when you were young, and you only started school when you went to the provincial capital. Where did you learn English? How can you speak Cantonese?" ?"

"Second Brother Gu and I are so smart! We both came first in the exam, and our memory is good! That year, foreign experts came to install machines in the aluminum factory. My Second Brother Gu and I went to watch the excitement and learned from those people. A few words of English and a few words of Cantonese."

The two of us are a bit basic, it's better than the third cousin who doesn't even know what the twenty-six letters are?

The old man breathed a sigh of relief, and told Yunshang, "Shangnan, it's fine to tell me this, but you can't mention it to others when you go out, something will happen, you understand?"

The Yu family collapsed, and many people involved felt that it was the Bai family who did it. If people found out that the little granddaughter of the Bai family could speak foreign languages, they didn't know what would happen.

Yun Chang knew what the old man meant, and nodded obediently, staring at the old man with two big eyes without blinking, waiting for him to speak.

"Shangnan, I was still in college, and I will delay my studies after I go out..."

Seeing Yunshang's face drooping, the old man turned his mouth when he hadn't finished speaking, and said, "I'll ask Shi Nian later, if he is willing to go, I will mention it to him."

Chapter 507 Meet

Yun Chang was satisfied, her brows and eyes were bent, she grabbed the old man's arm and said, "Master, when you report to the organization, add my name as well, I'm smart, and I can help second brother Gu cover up then! "

Only then did the old man and Bai Yanming figure out Yun Shang's real purpose, and they were both speechless.

This little girl is so courageous, she is going out to do something serious, so dangerous, she still thinks she should go out to play, and want to go out for a walk?

The goal was achieved, and Yun Chang couldn't stay at home anymore, so she told the old man, and decided to go to the military academy to see Gu Shinian, and then talk to him about it by the way.

He ran upstairs to change his clothes, took the money ticket, took Bai Qingming out of the room, asked him to accompany him to the street to buy meat, and planned to ask Aunt Jiang to make some meat strips for Gu Shinian to take as snacks.

After the two left, Bai Yanming was silent for a long time before asking the old man, "Father, do you really think what Chang Nan said is feasible? I was only a little old at that time, and I was still in school. I have to go out and talk less when I go out." Stay for a year or two, can Uncle Gu agree?"

"Whether it's okay or not, we can't decide. You have to agree with Uncle Gu and Shi Nian, and the superiors also think that he is more suitable than Qingjie... Okay, I'll go and talk to old Gu first, and have a look." What does he mean by that?"

The old man waved his hand, and leisurely went out with the teacup in his hand, and went to the next door to find old man Gu.

It's getting late now, Yunshang went to a few non-staple food stores, and only bought two catties of pork. Taking advantage of Bai Qingming's inattention, she moved two pork out of the space, and asked Aunt Jiang to make them all. Jerky.

About five catties of pork can be made into at most three catties of jerky in the end. Yun Shang was reluctant to even taste a bite, so she wrapped them all in oiled paper and brought them to Gu Shinian and Bai Qingzheng.

Under the shade of a tree by the side of the road, Gu Shinian was holding dried meat and stuffing it into Yunshang's mouth one by one. Yunshang bulged her round cheeks, gnawing on the dried meat while talking to Gu Shinian Do it alone to overturn the experience of the Yu family's faction.

Gu Shinian was startled and proud when he heard it. He was shocked by Yunshang's audacity, and he was proud of how beautifully she did this job, and she eradicated a nest of malignant tumors without a sound.

However, in the end, I still worry more about Yunshang.

This time, she was lucky and accidentally caught up with the Yu family's married woman Yu Min, followed the right key person, and only then did she find the Yu family's criminal evidence.

If she, like others, focused her investigation and follow-up on the men of the Yu family, she might have alerted the Yu family before she caught the handle of the Yu family.

Yun Shang didn't know what Gu Shinian was worried about. After talking about the downfall of the Yu family, he also talked about the secret mission that he overheard.

"Second brother Gu, I think this job is suitable for the two of us, what do you think?" Yun Shang looked at Gu Shinian eagerly, her big eyes full of excitement.

Gu Shinian was speechless again.

Was he sold by the little girl?

It's too courageous to take a big job for him without saying a word!

Gu Shinian pinched Yun Shang's face, and twisted it unceremoniously, "A Chang, you are going to be the second brother's home? Do you still remember that the second brother is still a student?"

Yun Shang stretched out her hand to rub her sore face, and muttered, "I don't know you yet, so I don't believe you don't want to take this task! Besides, you are carrying out the task assigned to you by the organization. You can continue to study when you come back from the task without delaying your work." It also gives you a good starting point.

More importantly, only she and Gu Erge are the most suitable for this job. Even if the cultural relics cannot be retrieved, the two can cooperate with each other to bring back some treasures to the country.

She likes black hands behind the scenes or something.

Gu Shinian smiled, rubbed Yunshang's soft and smooth hair, and said loosely, "Okay, I get it, I'll discuss it with Grandpa later, and try my best to get the task over."

Seeing Yun Chang's face showing joy, Gu Shinian changed his voice, and continued, "However, the second brother will be on a mission and can't take you with him. I guess you won't see the second brother for a year or two."

Yun Chang was dumbfounded, did she cheat herself?

Just about to speak, out of the corner of his eye, he saw Bai Qing hurriedly coming out of the school, and asked with a very ugly expression, "Xiaoqi! Why did you run out alone? Qingming, he didn't come with you?"

"Brother!" Yunshang immediately put on a smiling face and called Bai Qingzheng, took out a bag of dried meat and a bottle of pickles from the satchel, and stuffed them into Bai Qingzheng's hands, "Brother, I asked Aunt Jiang to make this for you The dried meat and pickles are for you to eat as snacks!"

Bai Qing was stuffing things in his pocket casually, looking at Yunshang's twitching figure, his brows frowned, "Xiaoqi, next time I go out and bring your little brother with me, it's very chaotic outside now, don't run around alone, Do you understand?"

It's only been a month since I saw her, and my sister has grown up again. She put on a bright spring shirt, and her little face is even more attractive. Now that the outside is in such a mess, she still dares to run so far alone to see him and Gu Shinian. What if something happens to her?

Yun Chang nodded, and agreed happily.

She is not a person who doesn't know what to do. Although Bai Qingzheng didn't give her a smile, every word he said was concerned and loved for her.

Bai Qingzheng's expression softened a little, and he glanced at the greased paper bag in Gu Shinian's hand, which was full of jerky, more than what was in his pocket, and his heart was filled again immediately.

The co-author of my sister mainly came to see Gu Shinian, so he was the one who happened by?

If it weren't for Gu Shinian, wouldn't he not even be able to eat such a little jerky?

Thinking about it this way, Bai Qingzheng became more and more displeased with Gu Shinian.

She's already an adult, and she still hits her sister's hands to coax delicious food every day, it's really shameless!

Feeling the low air pressure on Bai Qingzheng's body, how could Gu Shinian not know that his heart was sour again, and he raised one corner of his mouth, and while feeding Yun Shang, he said, "A Chang said, the Yu family has collapsed."

"So fast?" Bai Qingzheng was stunned, "Xiao Qi, tell Big Brother what's going on."

Yun Shang puffed her cheeks, and said vaguely, "I don't know, I just know that Yu Min just divorced his third uncle a few days ago, and the Yu family was taken away. It was just spread in the courtyard yesterday that the Yu family committed crimes. If something big happens, you have to be shot one by one."

Bai Qingzheng didn't expect the Yu family to fall so soon, so he asked Yun Shang a few more questions, seeing that what she knew was gossip from the courtyard, so he changed the subject after a few questions.

After returning from school, in order to coax Bai Qingming, who had exploded, Yunshang touched the mage in his heart, and said that next time she went to the military academy to see Bai Qingzheng and Gu Shinian, she must take Bai Qingming with her, and she would never take advantage of him again. I just give up sneaking out when I'm not sleeping.

Chapter 508 Serious illness

It is not so easy to find the cultural relics lost abroad, and the candidates sent out to carry out the tasks have to go through careful examination, and the final candidates are not so quickly determined.

After Yunshang and Bai Qingming had been lazy for more than a month, Lin Wenlan finally gave them an ultimatum, asking them to return to Linyang before the end of March, otherwise they would return to the capital to interrupt Bai Qingming's dog legs.

In order to keep his dog legs, Bai Qingming almost scrambled up the stairs, ready to pack the luggage of the two of them, and then forcibly escorted Yunshang back to Linyang.

And Yunshang is like the second uncle, sitting cross-legged on the sofa, rubbing Qiuqiu's round head with one hand, stuffing delicious food into her mouth with the other, and reminding Bai Qingming upstairs that there is something in her cupboard. Her flowered clothes had to be neatly folded and put into the suitcase, and she had to take all of them back home.

Aunt Jiang was sitting at the door of the kitchen picking vegetables. Seeing Yunshang commanding Bai Qingming to train his younger brother, she couldn't help but be amused by the two of them. She was about to ask Bai Qingming if she wanted to help her, when her eyes glanced at Qiuqiu's belly inadvertently. The smile on his face froze immediately.

"Shangnan! Qiuqiu's belly...is it about to give birth to a kitten?"

Yun Shang was also stunned, raised Qiuqiu's two front legs, looked at its swollen belly, and blinked vigorously, "Qiaoqiu, are you looking for a boyfriend!?"

This old girl, why did she find a 'wild man' without making a sound?

He didn't like the raccoon cat introduced to him by his family, but after arriving in Beijing for more than a month, he suddenly became pregnant!

The point is, Qiuqiu seldom goes out for more than a month, when did she find her boyfriend?

Yunshang and Qiuqiu stared face to face for a long time, and finally, amidst Qiuqiu's cry of "meow meow meow", gently stroked its belly, and looked at Aunt Jiang helplessly.

"It's about to give birth to a kitten." Aunt Jiang also touched Qiuqiu's belly with her hands, and said with certainty.

Yun Shang hurriedly put Qiuqiu on the sofa, moving gently, for fear of accidentally touching Qiuqiu's stomach and hurting the kitten in her stomach.

"Aunt Jiang, when will Qiuqiu's stomach give birth to kittens?"

"Looking at the belly is not small, I guess it will be born in another month." Aunt Jiang added happily, "This time I gave birth to a kitten, and I will keep one for the chief to play with. It can catch mice and To relieve the boredom of the chief."

Yun Shang nodded very happily, her eyes were like looking at a string of money, almost glowing green.

"I'll raise one for my grandfather, one for my grandpa, and one for my grandma's house in Fenyang. Ball, you can be more aggressive. It doesn't matter if the wild boyfriend you find is not good, but It must be good-looking. If the gene is mutated, the kitten born will not look good, but no one is willing to raise a baby for you."

Bai Qingming heard the commotion upstairs, and as soon as he left the room, he heard Yunshang's words, and was immediately stunned by the thunder for a long time.

Even Aunt Jiang was speechless.

The two of them didn't understand what a genetic mutation was, but they also knew what the words "wild boyfriend" meant.

Especially when watching Yunshang seriously discuss with Qiuqiu whether Qiuqiu's wild boyfriend looks good, Qiuqiu buried his head in the sofa and meowed, but refused to lift it up for a long time, and couldn't help laughing .

This one person and one cat is really interesting, you speak to each other, as if you can understand each other's words.

When the old man came back at night, he knew that Qiuqiu was going to have a kitten,

He also squinted his eyes happily, and for the first time asked Aunt Jiang to get a piece of meat for Qiuqiu to eat.

After dinner, Bai Qingming was about to tell the old man that the two of them were going home when the phone rang in the living room, breaking the warm atmosphere in the room.

The old man moved to the side of the coffee table and reached out to grab the microphone. Before he could speak, the other person had already started talking.

"Uncle Bai, I'm Wenshan, my mother is in the general hospital for rescue, have Qingming and Changnan slept yet..."

The slightly choked and hoarse voice of the eldest uncle Lin Wenshan came out of the microphone and spread in the quiet living room, which made Yunshang's head buzz and her heart sank.

Bai Qingming stood up from the sofa with a whoosh, and ran out. After Yun Chang regained her senses, she quickly chased after her.

The old man hurriedly asked the guards to arrange a car, but before he had time to pick up the coat handed over by Aunt Jiang, he also chased the two children out.

The guard hurriedly ran out from the guard room at the back. As soon as he started the car, he saw Bai Qingming and Yunshang running over one after the other, followed by the old man who was a little staggering, and Aunt Jiang who was holding several coats.

The old man pushed the two children into the car first, took the coat from Aunt Jiang, and ordered, "Xiao Jiang, you don't need to go to the hospital. Call Yan Ming when you get home and ask him to pick up Qing Zheng at school. Hurry up." !"

The car was driving fast on the street. The old man was sitting in the back seat with a solemn expression. Bai Qingming was lying on the back of the front seat, his shoulders were shaking violently, and tears were falling down through his arms one by one, making a slight "click, click, click" sound. sound.

Yun Chang turned her head to look at the street lights flashing by outside the car window from time to time, her face was already covered with tears.

Although it was known years ago that the old lady was in poor health and would not last long, no one thought that this day would come so soon.

It was almost too late for the old lady to see her youngest daughter get married.

The car quickly drove into the hospital, and several people hurriedly got out of the car and walked to the emergency room. As soon as they turned into the corridor, they saw the whole family of the Lin family gathered around the door of the emergency room.

"Uncle Bai, please take this trip." Lin Wenlan heard footsteps, hurried over to help the old man, and nodded to Yunshang and Bai Qingming.

"My family, it should be." The old man patted Lin Wenshan's arm reassuringly, "What's the situation now?"

Lin Wenshan's throat twitched, and he turned his head to cover the blood in his eyes, "The child is being rescued, and the doctor said...it's not very good."

The old man sighed and looked at old man Lin who was at the front of the crowd. I saw Mr. Lin sitting on the bench at the door of the emergency room, turned his head, and stared at the door of the emergency room eagerly, as if he was immersed in his own world, and everything around him had nothing to do with him.

Seeing everyone in the Lin family gathered at the door of the emergency room, even the three-year-old son of Lin Wenjun's family was there, his brows frowned, and he whispered to Lin Wenshan, "Wenshan, let someone take the younger ones out first, too. It's not good for the children to stay here."

Mrs. Lin's accident caused the entire Lin family to panic, even forgetting that children are not fit to come to the hospital.

Just as the nanny took the little ones away, the door of the emergency room was pushed open from the inside. Cheng Guo came out in a white coat, took off her mask, and showed a slightly tired face.

Before the Lin family could speak, Cheng Guo said first, "Uncle Lin, Auntie has been rescued temporarily..."

Chapter 509: Returning to the Light

Before the Lin family could speak, Cheng Guo said first, "Uncle Lin, Auntie has been rescued temporarily..."

After Mrs. Lin transferred from the emergency room to the ward and the Lin family members went down, Cheng Guo beat his waist, came over to help Mr. Bai, and walked downstairs slowly.

"Boss, daughter-in-law, can your Aunt Lin last long enough to meet the second child?"

A hint of bitterness appeared in the corner of Cheng Guo's mouth, and he shook his head, "Dad, it's hard to say, it depends on when Wen Lan and the others come back..."

The old man sighed for a long time, and said, "If your Aunt Lin leaves, Lao Lin probably won't be able to hold on anymore. If you try to persuade the second daughter-in-law later, she will be able to tell you. "

Cheng Guo and Lin Wenlan had always gotten along well, and he was also worried about Lin Wenlan. When the old man said this, he immediately agreed.

...

When Bai Yanming and Bai Qing were rushing over, Mr. Lin was sitting on the edge of the hospital bed, holding the old lady's hand tightly, staring at his wife who was weak and breathing on the bed without blinking.

The three brothers of the Lin family and the two daughters-in-law were also waiting nearby with red eyes, anxiously waiting for the old lady to wake up.

And Bai Qingming and Yunshang sat at the door of the ward with Uncle Lin and Uncle Lin's two older children. No one spoke, and they all listened carefully to the movement in the ward.

Bai Qingzheng went over and touched Yunshang's head, stood at the door and looked inside for a while, then turned around and went to the doctor's office, and went to ask Cheng Guo about the situation of old lady Lin.

In the early hours of the morning, the old lady finally woke up, her eyes were no longer cloudy, and when she looked at people, her eyes were bright and clear, and even her normally gray face now had a tinge of blush.

While everyone was suppressing their sadness, the old lady smiled at Mr. Lin, her eyes were gentle, dimples could still be seen on her cheeks, and she even spoke more energetically than usual, "His father, I am Confused for a long time?"

Mr. Lin also had a smile on his face, rubbing the old lady's hand on his face, and said with a smile, "It's not long, just two days. You were still talking to me a while ago, so you can recognize the old three's family. A few kids."

The old lady smiled happily, and her eyes fell on the old man's almost white hair, with a distressed expression on her face, "Father, your hair is all gray, why do you have to stretch it out in the future?" Come on, if there is any work, let the three boys do it."

"Okay." The old man responded with a smile, and joked with the old lady, "The three boys are disobedient, so you can still train them like before, and I will keep the bamboo board for you."

The old lady raised her head with some difficulty, smiled and said to her three sons, "Did you hear that, if you don't show filial piety to your father in the future, I will whip you with a bamboo board!"

Before the three sons could speak, the old lady looked at Mr. Lin again, "Father, I haven't sat down for a long time, help me up and sit for a while."

...

Listening to the movement inside, Yun Chang lowered her head and covered her face, big and big teardrops overflowed from between her fingers.

She knew in her heart that the old lady had come back to life.

In other words, Lin Wenlan and Lin Dani may not see the old lady for the last time.

The voice of the old lady in the ward continued, talking to Mr. Lin about the past, from the time the two met, to getting married, and then talking about the embarrassing things about the children when they were young, and even the fuzzy little things in the corners of everyone's memories. ,

The old lady can also speak clearly.

Mr. Lin also had a smile on his face all the time, talking to the old lady as usual, trying to make the old lady happy.

The relaxed atmosphere in the ward didn't look like a hospital, but rather like the couple had dinner and chatted on the kang before going to bed. They were close and caring, and there was a tender feeling between them.

The old lady talked for a while, probably because she didn't want to chat with the old man anymore, she turned to look at her three sons, and said with a smile

"Wenshan, I haven't seen you for a few days. Why are you so old? You're almost catching up with your father."

Lin Wenshan was feeling very uncomfortable, and he didn't dare to cry in front of the old lady. The corners of his eyes were red from holding back, but when the old lady said a word, he felt a little embarrassed and felt aggrieved.

He is more than 20 years younger than his father, what the hell is this look, saying that he is as old as his father.

The old lady beckoned to her three sons, and the few big men who in the eyes of ordinary people could be regarded as powerful and powerful, immediately squatted beside the bed, looking at the old lady with admiration like children.

The old lady touched the heads of the three sons one by one, and said with a smile, "In a blink of an eye, they have grown so big. Wenshan, you are the eldest brother. From now on, you will help your mother take care of your father. Look at your two younger brothers. Don't let them messed up."

Lin Wenshan lay prone on the side of the bed, with his head hanging on the quilt on the old lady's lap, and nodded while choking on his sobs.

The old lady pushed Lin Wenshan's head and laughed at him, "There are a lot of people in the same grade, why are you still acting like a child who is breastfeeding? Qing is acting like a baby with his mother."

Lin Wenshan's old face blushed unconsciously, he moved his head away, and continued to squat beside the bed, waiting for the old lady's orders.

"Is your elder sister busy with work? She didn't say when she would come back? And Wen Jin, I heard from your father before, did we find Wen Jin? Did Xiao Qi find it? It's been so many years... I still I have never seen what Wenjin and Xiaoqi look like."

When the old lady was talking, she looked at the door of the ward eagerly, as if the two daughters would be able to open the door and enter soon.

The second child Lin Wenfeng ran out quickly, pulled Yunshang closer to the ward, pushed her to the old lady and said, "Mom, this is Xiao Qi! Look! Our Xiao Qi is so pretty! Wen Jin is the same as Xiao Qi. Everyone looks like you, pretty!"

The old lady frowned happily, raised her hand to touch her own face, held Yun Chang to look at her for a long time, and kept nodding.

"Wenfeng is right, Xiao Qi looks good, like me!"

Yun Chang showed the brightest smile unconsciously, and called the old lady, "Grandma."

"Hey!" The old lady responded happily, touched the red mole at the corner of Yunshang's eye, and said, "It's good to be back, it's good to be back. Your mother has missed you all these years..."

The old lady held Yunshang and did not let go. From the appearance of Yunshang when she was born, to when she accidentally lost Yunshang, and when Lin Wenlan found that Yunshang had broken her body, she wiped her tears while talking.

Yun Chang knew these things a long time ago, but now when she heard the old lady talk about it again, she still listened carefully, and couldn't bear to miss every word the old lady said.

"Grandma, my mother and my aunt are about to get off the train. You can see my aunt after dawn. My aunt is also very good-looking. She is a college student and works well. She is in the same unit as my aunt. Grandma, Take care of yourself quickly, so we can send my aunt out in April."

Chapter 510 Mom has no home

"Is Wen Jin talking about him?" The old lady looked at Mr. Lin with a smile, her eyes were full of questions, but also worry and reluctance.

Mr. Lin nodded, and was very happy to talk about He Zhonghua's situation with the old lady. He Zhonghua, who could only score seven points in the first place, was able to score ten points in the mouth of Mr. Lin, and became a peerless good man.

The old lady sat on the head of the bed, smiled and held Mr. Lin's hand, and gently rubbed the back of the old man's hand with her thumbs, with a hint of reluctance, and a bit of peace of mind and a sense of relief.

The faint light outside the window and the soft yellow light from the indoor bulb hit the old lady together, giving her a halo of warmth and distance.

"Wenshan, ask your wife to bring in a few children. Let me see if they have grown up."

The old lady's voice was much lower, with a trace of unconcealable fatigue, and what she said made Yun Chang's heart startled.

There were only two aunts and grandchildren left outside the ward, but the old lady wanted to call the last group of people in at this time, the meaning of which was self-evident.

Yunshang looked at the gradually brightening sky outside the window, grabbed the old lady's hand, her voice trembling slightly, and begged the old lady, "Grandma, look at the dawn. My mother and auntie will get off the train soon, and my auntie will take her. The object is also brought here, you will help my aunt to check later, if her object is not good, we will not let my aunt marry."

The old lady turned her head sideways, her eyes fell on the lush trees outside the window, her eyes were a little loose, her voice became weaker, "Father, it's so nice outside..."

...

As soon as the train stopped, Bai Yancheng helped Lin Wenlan, who was so stiff that she could hardly walk, get out of the car, rubbed her face vigorously with his big hands a few times, so that her face would not look so pale, and pulled her. She hurried out of the station. At the same time, he did not forget to greet Bai Qingyue, and Lin Dani and He Zhonghua quickly followed.

The car sent by Bai Yanming was waiting outside the station. As soon as a few people got into the car, the guard stepped on the gas pedal and drove rumblingly towards the hospital.

There was silence in the car, only Bai Qingyue's low, suppressed choking sound, and Lin Wenlan's teeth colliding together, making a 'cluck-clack' sound.

The corners of Bai Yancheng's lips were tightly pursed, one hand was tightly hugging Lin Wenlan, the other hand kept wiping away the tears that overflowed from her, and occasionally held her tightly clenched into fists, but still couldn't stop. Rub her trembling hands to ease her mood.

Lin Dani on the side was also not very stable. Although she was not as scary as Lin Wenlan, her complexion was also extremely pale. She lay on the back of the front seat in a daze, staring at the person in front main road.

The car drove into the hospital, before the brakes were pressed to the bottom, Lin Wenlan and Lin Dani had already pushed the car door from left to right and jumped out, and hurriedly followed the responders to the ward.

In the ward, the old lady talked for several hours, and her energy was finally stretched to the limit. The brilliance in her eyes faded away bit by bit, her complexion turned gray bit by bit, and her vitality disappeared from her body at a speed visible to the naked eye, and she soon reached the point of death.

It's just that the old lady's eyes are still fixed on the door of the ward, with deep reluctance and regret in her eyes.

"boom!"

The door of the ward was suddenly pushed open, and Lin Wenlan dragged Lin Dani, almost scrambling and kneeling beside the old lady's bed.

"Mom! Look,

I brought Wenjin back to you..."

The old lady's eyes were already blurred and she couldn't see clearly. When she heard Lin Wenlan's voice, her eyes lit up slightly, and she looked straight in Lin Dani's direction, with a smile on her face.

Lin Dani grabbed the old lady's hand and pressed it tightly to her face, tears streaming down her cheeks. For the first time when the old lady was awake, she called out 'Mom'.

The old lady opened her mouth slightly, and a weak voice came out of her throat, "Wen Lan, Wen Jin... Take care, you two are fine..."

Lin Wenlan desperately endured the wetness in her eyes, and nodded repeatedly, "Mom, I will take good care of Wenjin! I will definitely take good care of Wenjin!"

As he spoke, he pulled He Zhonghua, who had just entered the ward, to the old lady, and pushed it to the old lady, "Mom, look, this is Wenjin's partner. Yan Cheng and I must take a good look at Gu Haowenjin! Don't worry!"

"Okay, and... and Xiao Qi... Xiao Qi's things..."

Lin Wenlan nodded again, and said with a trembling voice, "I remember! Mom, I remember everything! I will give it to Xiaoqi! I will give it to Xiaoqi!"

The old lady turned her head slightly to look at the old man, and tried her best to smile, "Father, I want to eat your cooking... Longxu noodles..."

"Okay, I'll go and do it for you." The old man touched the old lady's cheek with reluctance, got up slowly, and staggered out, his wrinkled face was wet a lot when he turned around. .

As soon as the old man went out, the old lady made a gurgling sound in her throat, her eyes slowly closed while watching the door of the ward, and her hand holding Lin Dani suddenly let go, as if she had fallen asleep peacefully.

As soon as there was a cry inside, the old man who was leaning against the wall at the door froze and spewed out a mouthful of donated blood. He slid down limply and collapsed on Bai Yanming and the guards.

The medical staff beside Hou hurriedly gave first aid to the old man. After a while, they slowly shook their heads at the old man Bai who was so startled that his eyeballs were bloodshot, and everyone in the Lin family who heard the sound.

Lin Wenlan was so weak that she couldn't stand up anymore, she sat slumped on the ground, holding Yunshang in one hand, and Bai Qingyue in the other, muttering, "I'm homeless... I'm homeless, little girl Seven, Qingyue, mother has no mother, and mother has no father... After mother, there will be no home..."

Yun Chang hugged Lin Wenlan tightly, tears kept pouring out, her heart seemed to be tightly held by a pair of big hands, the pain was so painful that she could hardly breathe, and her mind was in a daze.

Someone next to him came to help Lin Wenlan, and Yunshang stood up awkwardly, mechanically clutching the corner of Lin Wenlan's clothes, not daring to let go amidst the cries of catharsis...

.....

After the funeral, Lin Wenlan fell seriously ill. It was not until cicadas sang on the trees in the courtyard that her health gradually recovered.

He Zhonghua is a simple and honest person. Seeing Lin Dani holding back her grief, she went to the courtyard to accompany Lin Wenlan all day, and took the initiative to postpone the wedding originally scheduled for April until the end of the year.

It was a good impression of Bo Lin's family.

After this great tragedy, the relationship between the brothers and sisters of the Lin family became closer than before. The uncles sent things to Lin Wenlan and Lin Dani every now and then, and Lin Dani treated Lin Wenlan more casually and caringly. They made summer shirts by themselves.
