Chapter 511 Private House

Yun Chang was wearing a blue and white sea soul shirt, a white cotton skirt underneath, and white sneakers on her feet. Under the sun, she ran home along the shade of the trees.

Lin Wenlan was sitting on the sofa, listening to the radio, knitting a sweater for Yunshang, a big fat cat was lying on her lap, and there was a fluffy little meatball next to it, and she was rolling on the sofa and fluttering the wool group play.

"Mom!" Yunshang ran into the door, turned around in front of Lin Wenlan, and asked with a smile, "Is it good? The sea soul shirt my sister bought for me, and the skirt my aunt made for me!"

Lin Wenlan put down the sweater needle, looked him up and down, and nodded with a smile, "It's beautiful. This sea soul shirt is well-dressed."

Yun Shang sat beside Lin Wenlan, took advantage of the opportunity to pick up the two cats, one big and one small, which were pounced on her, and said with a bitter face, "Mom, the school will have a farmer activity next week, and I want to stay in the village for three days, help collect them." wheat."

Looking at her well-maintained white and tender skin, and looking at the sun-melting sky outside, Yun Chang's voice must have faded.

In this kind of weather, it doesn't take three days to harvest wheat in the field, but only one day can change her skin color. If she is outside in the sun for three days, she will not be burned into charcoal.

Thinking of the classmates in the class who were so emotional and wished to stay in the countryside for a long time to help with farm work, Yunshang felt a little ashamed, and she didn't even dare to pretend to be sick.

Lin Wenlan looked at Yunshang's thin arms and legs worriedly, and frowned tightly, "You haven't done farm work before, how can you support your small body? Let your little brother go to the countryside to work for you later. "

Just came back from the countryside as a farmer, Bai Qingming, who was tanned a little, was taken aback for a moment, went in to look at Yunshang's baishengsheng's face, then looked at his tanned arms, scratched his head and said, "Okay , It's only three days, and my little brother will help you with the work. It will save you from smearing mud on your face every day when you get tanned."

Yun Chang rolled her eyes angrily, and complained to Lin Wenlan, "Mom, look at me, brother is mad at me again!"

A person who can describe the cucumber mask as mud must be so blind.

Talking nonsense with eyes open, thanks to Bai Qingming being able to speak out!

"Don't bully Xiaoqi." Lin Wenlan glared at Bai Qingming, then patted Yunshang's head reassuringly.

Ever since the funeral of Mrs. Lin and Mrs. Lin, Lin Wenlan never called her the nickname 'Shangnan', but called her Xiaoqi instead.

Yun Shang noticed it, and not only did not correct her, but she also told Bai Yancheng very caringly, asking him to call herself "Xiao Qi" at home in the future, because in the eyes of the Bai family and the Lin family, she will always be Bai Yancheng. Xiaoqi from the family, not Changnan from the Yun family.

The past few years in the Bai family have been the happiest and happiest days Yunshang has lived in her two lifetimes. She has second brother Gu to accompany her, parents who love her by her side, and even her brothers and sisters love her very much. The relationship with Lao Yun's family gradually faded over time.

In the past two years, she and the old couple of the Yun family are still close, but that family is already unfamiliar to her, and she no longer feels like going home...

Bai Qingming was stared at, immediately shrunk his neck, and said to Yunshang flatteringly, "Xiao Qi, tell the teacher tomorrow, and I will do the work for you."

"Forget it, others wish they could stay in the country for a few more days and do more work. If I ask you to work for me, people in the class might say nothing about me."

In case she is given the title of Miss Capitalist,

It is inevitable to cause a little trouble for Bai Yancheng.

Besides, Bai Qingming is now 1.7 meters tall, what does it look like to work among a bunch of 12-3 and half-aged children.

Not shameful enough.

Bai Qingming raised his eyebrows, snatched the little fur ball from Yunshang's hand, and rubbed it a few times, "Then I'll accompany you there, so it won't be a problem to give you a helping hand."

Yun Chang nodded, looked at the little furball who was ravaged by Bai Qingming with unbearable expression, and said, "little six, if you bully furball again, the ball will scratch you again!"

"If it dares to scratch me, I'll bully its son!" Bai Qingming bared his teeth at the sleeping Qiuqiu, and continued with a look of disgust, "I've never seen a cat as stupid as Qiuqiu. Others A cat can give birth to five or six kittens in a litter, and it only gives birth to two at a time, so I can't stand the meat our grandfather feeds it."

Fortunately, the two kittens in this litter are pretty good-looking, one with the same coat color as Qiuqiu was brought back, and the other is a small tabby cat, which was kept for the old man to keep and play.

Bai Qingming despises Qiuqiu's face is very ugly, the ugly Qiuqiu wakes up from sleep, bows his body, the hair all over his body explodes, and roars at Bai Qingming.

Yun Shang translated for Bai Qingming with a serious face, "Qiuqiu said: Bai Qingming, dare to laugh at me, roll over and get beaten!"

Lin Wenlan: "..."

Bai Qingming: "..."

The fur ball jumped out of Bai Qingming's hand and crawled to Yunshang's side. Its immature claws hugged Yunshang's arm and climbed up bit by bit until it reached Yunshang's shoulder. Like Qiuqiu, it exploded all over. The little tender hair roared at Bai Qingming.

Bai Qingming's face was distorted with anger, but he didn't dare to provoke Qiuqiu, so he put his military bag against his face and ran upstairs close to the edge of the sofa.

Lin Wenlan smiled for a long time, touched Qiuqiu's head, and got up to go back to the room to rest.

As soon as she reached the stairs, Lin Wenlan paused, turned around, and beckoned Yun Shang to go upstairs with her.

Back in the room, Lin Wenlan took out a small black jewelry box from the bottom of the cabinet, stroked the lid for a long time, then turned around and handed it to Yun Shang.

Yun Shang took the box in a daze, and asked in surprise, "Mom, what is this?" Why does it look so old like an old thing left by a rich family in the past?

"The things your grandmother prepared for you in the early years. You are sensible now. Mom will give the things to you. You can hide them yourself and don't lose them." Lin Wenlan paused, her eyes fell on the jewelry box, and her eyes Full of nostalgia, "Xiaoqi, this jewelry box is your grandmother's dowry."

Yun Shang tightened her hands holding the jewelry box, resisting the sourness in the corners of her eyes, and asked, "Mom, does my sister have any?"

"Yes. Your grandmother shared the things in her hands with our brothers and sisters a few years ago. I will give her your sister's share in the future. Your grandmother's share is specially reserved for you."

Yun Chang immediately understood that the things in the jewelry box were her compensation from grandma, and it was grandma's apology for losing her back then.

In the hands of Lin Wenlan's sisters and brothers, the family property that the old couple had saved for the children, and her share was the private house that the old lady Lin gave to her alone.

Yunshang held the box in her arms, and continued to ask Lin Wenlan, "...Mom, does my aunt have it too?"

Chapter 512: Going to the Countryside to Study Farming

"Yes." Lin Wenlan smiled, "I, your uncles, and your aunt each have three big boxes." In addition to jewelry, there are also many antique calligraphy and paintings, which are no less valuable than the things in your jewelry box .

Yun Chang hadn't opened the jewelry box yet, so she didn't know what was inside. Hearing Lin Wenlan said that there were three big boxes, she didn't feel much touched.

But when she returned to the room, followed the secret button to open the jewelry box, and saw a box full of jewelry, she was so shocked that her eyes almost popped out.

The upper layer is pearl jewelry, the middle layer is gold and gemstone jewelry, and the bottom layer, in addition to two pairs of jade bracelets full of water and emerald green eyes, there are also some jade pendants and jade buckles, and a few bright and dazzling jewellery. large loose diamonds.

Yun Shang was so startled that she almost knocked over the jewelry box, her heart was pounding.

What on earth did grandma do? Those two pairs of jade bracelets alone are worth at least a hundred million in future generations. Not to mention adding the value of other jewelry in the jewelry box.

And this is just the private house that grandma gave her in private. According to Lin Wenlan, the things that grandpa and grandma gave to their siblings are all packed in big boxes. In addition to jewelry and gold, there are also antique calligraphy and paintings.

It's hard to imagine how much money my grandparents have.

A child is divided into three big boxes of treasures, and Lin Wenlan's sister and brother have five, so there are fifteen big boxes of treasures in total. It is not a wealthy family in the past, and it is impossible to produce so many things anyway.

Yun Chang clutched her little heart, entered the space, and put the jewelry box in the collection that she had searched for over the years. Later, she felt dissatisfied, so she took it out alone and put it in her lounge.

This is a private house given by grandma, she has to keep it alone, and keep it as a family heirloom in the future!

Coming out of the lounge, Yunshang was about to take stock of her collection when she heard the door being slapped and Bai Qingming's loud voice: "Xiao Qi! Xiao Qi! Come out, there is big news La!"

Yun Shang slammed the door open, and Bai Qingming fell straight in, almost eating shit.

"Brother, what's the big news?"

When Yun Chang interrupted, Bai Qingming didn't care about the fact that he almost fell, with a look of gloating on his face, he lowered his voice and said, "Xiaoqi, do you know that Gu Mingzhu was arrested by the Revolutionary Committee! "

Seeing that Yun Chang's eyes widened, Bai Qingming continued, "I heard that he got a pair of broken shoes with someone and was stuck on the bed."

Oh my god, Zhou Mingjuan and Gu Mingzhu really deserve to be a mother and daughter this week.

Zhou Mingjuan was beaten into a bad person because of his broken shoes. Gu Mingzhu severed ties with Zhou Mingjuan and reported Zhou Mingjuan for killing her relatives. She finally pulled herself out of that mess, but turned around and jumped into another mud puddle. It was also caught because of broken shoes.

That being the case, it is better not to do those redundant things in the first place. If she honestly did nothing, at most she was implicated badly, received a few gossips, or wanted to conform to the policy and go to the countryside to become an educated youth, hiding far away in the countryside, and no one knew her details .

But Gu Mingzhu was able to ruthlessly stab Zhou Mingjuan back, earning her a reputation as a ruthless and white-eyed wolf. In the end, she herself followed Zhou Mingjuan's old path and was also beaten as a bad person.

Thinking of the man she saw when she followed Gu Mingzhu last winter, Yun Shang's heart moved, and she asked Bai Qingming, "Brother, do you know who that man is?"

"I heard that the surname is Zhu,

His father seemed to have worked in the Revolutionary Committee before. Xiao Qi, do you want to tell brother Si Nian about this to make him happy? "

Yun Shang looked at Bai Qingming almost like a fool, "Second Brother Gu has nothing to do with that family. He is too busy studying every day, so how could he have the time to listen to these gossips?"

Such a big gossip couldn't be shared with a 'good friend', Bai Qingming pursed his lips regretfully, and went back to his room.

Yun Shang sat on the bed and pondered for a long time, but still couldn't figure out how Gu Mingzhu and the young man surnamed Zhu were stuck on the bed.

Gu Mingzhu lives in two rooms alone, so the two of them won't go out to fool around, and stay in their own home. Who is full and has nothing to do, and goes to the host's bedside to block people?

This is clearly calculated.

And Yunshang had a premonition that Er Ya's work was likely responsible for Gu Mingzhu's accident this time.

...

Yunshang said that she would not let Bai Qingming disturb Gu Shinian with this matter, but a few days later, when she called Gu Shinian, she couldn't help but mention Gu Mingzhu's matter.

Gu Shinian really didn't take Gu Mingzhu to heart. Hearing Yun Shang talk about her was like hearing about an accident with a stranger he knew.

"Second brother Gu, I always feel that the matter of Gu Mingzhu has nothing to do with Erya. Last time, Erya advised Yu Ying to arrange for the Gao family to come out to recognize their relatives. Later, something happened to the Yu family, and Zhu The director is also down, but Erya is innocent, and if I were Director Zhu's son, I would definitely not let Erya go."

We are all on the same boat, and now the boat is about to sink, and the people on the boat will die or be injured, but Er Ya jumps off the boat ahead of time and wants to swim ashore, what good thing do you want?

Director Zhu fell down, but Director Zhu's son is still there, and the person who saw Erya leaving the boat wanted to escape alone, so he had to find a way to kick her back into the water?

And Er Ya is a person who has come back to life again, with a vicious and vicious temper, knowing that someone is going to trouble her, she will definitely not sit still.

In this way, Erya has a reason to plot against Gu Mingzhu and the young man surnamed Zhu. .

After listening to Yun Shang's words, Gu Shinian had to admit that this analysis is still very reliable.

Gu Shinian frowned unconsciously when he thought that Erya had been jumping around in the provincial capital for so many years, and would come out of the gutter from time to time and bite Yun Chang.

"A-Shang, I'll ask someone to inquire about Er Ya's whereabouts later, to see if she has intervened in Gu Mingzhu's affairs."

If what happened to Gu Mingzhu is really Erya's work, he only needs to disclose the news to the Zhu family, and there is no need to do anything else.

If Gu Mingzhu's matter has nothing to do with Erya, then he and Erya will settle the account of the Gao family's confession and seek justice for Yun Shang.

Before hanging up the phone, Yunshang couldn't help asking, "Second brother Gu, is there no news about that?"

A few months ago, she was looking for someone to carry out the mission in Hong Kong City. She took off her padded jacket and put on a small skirt. Why hasn't the person to carry out the mission been decided yet?

Could it be that Bai Qingjie and Gu Shinian were bypassed in the organization and another person was chosen to carry out the task?

"A-Shang, there is no rush for that matter, there will be news when the time comes."

.....

Time passed quickly, and it was time for Yunshang to go to the countryside to learn farming in the blink of an eye.

When going to the countryside to study farming, in addition to helping the production team to work in the fields, you also have to eat and live with fellow farmers. The conditions are very difficult.

Yunshang also participated in the agricultural learning activities last year. Of course, she knows that it is not easy to go to the field to harvest wheat. In addition to sun protection, she also needs to wear long shirts and trousers to avoid being pricked by wheat ears, which makes her skin itchy and painful. If you sweat a little more, the taste will be extremely sour.

Yunshang is blessed with mental strength, these jobs are not too hard for her, what Yunshang can't accept the most is that the house she lived in last year was too dirty.

Several children in the family had fleas running around on their heads, and there were horizontal black sweat stains on their necks, and the hostess did not say to wash the children. Not to mention eating, the kitchen was so dirty that you couldn't see it, and the newly boiled water in the pot could also smell of swill, so scared that Yun Chang didn't eat a mouthful of food or drink a mouthful of water from the family for three days.

This year when she went to the countryside to study agriculture, Yunshang didn't ask for anything else, she just wanted to be assigned to live in a cleaner house, at least it would allow her to sleep peacefully without worrying about being infected with fleas.

Before departure, Lin Wenlan prepared for Yunshang and Bai Qingming what they would bring as a farmer, washed sheets and quilts, a set of half-new military uniforms (this one is more wear-resistant, and it is long-sleeved trousers), liberation shoes (more Sneakers must be resistant to dirt, and you can make them hard without feeling distressed), as well as toiletries, food stamps and stamps for eating with friends, these are the most basic configurations.

Yun Shang didn't look at the face value of the food stamps, grabbed them and stuffed them into Xiaojun's bag, and quietly turned to the space.

Anyway, she had been prepared for a long time, and she only planned to borrow, not to go out for dinner, and she didn't need these things, so it was saved.

Bai Qingming went downstairs with Yunshang's luggage, took the dry food that Aunt Wu had prepared for the two of them, urged Yunshang, and walked out the door.

"...You are still students, harvesting wheat is the hardest job on the farm, and the village probably doesn't expect you to do that kind of work. When you get to the field, if you are really asked to work in the field, let your little brother help you, If you ask you to help deliver water, go to the drying yard to turn over wheat, you can do it yourself. Don't let the students talk about it."

"I asked Aunt Wu to prepare big cakes for you, as well as biscuits and candy. You have to wait until the time comes, and if you think the food is okay, you will be given money and tickets according to the rules, and don't give too much.

If you feel that you can't eat the food in the country, you can eat pancakes, ask someone for some boiled water, and drink sugar water from a kettle. There is no need to give those food stamps and oil stamps. Anyway, it's only a few days, so it's easy to endure. "

Lin Wenlan held Yunshang and told her for a long time, and after seeing that Yunshang had memorized it, she straightened her skirt again, and then sent her out the door.

As soon as she left the house, Yun Chang quickly changed her face, put away the expression of reluctance that she could no longer fake in front of Lin Wenlan, and excitedly dragged Bai Qingming to run outside the courtyard, with the corners of her skirt fluttering and flicking around her legs Ah, cheerful as a fawn.

"Brother! Hurry up! Let's go buy popsicles first, and we won't be able to buy popsicles if we want to eat them in the countryside!"

Bai Qingming is also greedy, he doesn't think there is anything wrong with Yunshang's idea at all, he runs out faster than Yunshang, and comes up with bad ideas while running, "Xiao Qi, it's not just popsicles, let's talk to the service Discuss with the station, buy a few more bottles of soda and take them to the countryside to drink, and return the bottles when Xuenong comes back."

Yun Chang's eyes were bright, and she threw a rainbow fart over immediately, "Little six! You are so smart! Okay, let's bring a few more bottles and freeze them with well water later, which is cheaper than the ones just taken out of the cold storage Not bad."

In the end, the brothers and sisters held two popsicles each, and the other carried five bottles of soda, and went to school to meet their classmates.

The teachers in the school basically know the brothers and sisters of the Bai family, and they also know the older ones of the Bai family. The work, knowing that he followed Yunshang to take care of Yunshang, did not expose it.

Besides, everyone made it clear that they wanted to go to the countryside to help farmer comrades. This was a positive response to the school's call and they were doing good deeds. Whoever stopped people from doing good deeds would prevent them from being positive. No one dares to carry this big hat.

Just like that, Bai Qingming, tall and tall, cheerfully climbed into the truck of the Great Liberation, and set off with a group of children who were a head shorter than him, happily singing revolutionary songs, and set off with high morale.

The location of the school of agriculture is in a county below the provincial capital. Originally, when they arrived in the county, the children had to go to the commune in a horse-drawn carriage. The clever man simply kicked the accelerator and sent the twenty or so children to the commune.

Yunshang was lucky, and a few classmates were assigned to the nearest village to the commune, only two miles away, and it took ten minutes to walk there.

A group of people followed the production team leader to the entrance of the village, and a group of children who were similar to Xiao Heiwa came out from the village to greet them. They looked curiously at these coquettish children who came from the city, and some mischievous ones squeezed each other and winked, pointing in this direction.

With the help of the teacher leading the team, the production team leader assigned Yunshang and Bai Qingming to the same lodging place, so the brothers and sisters didn't have to live separately.

Compared with last year when she was studying agriculture, Yunshang felt that the family she was staying with this year was really clean. There is no chicken feces in the yard, and there is no smell of pigsty in the backyard. Although it is a mud house, it is neatly tidied up inside. , Yun Shang expressed satisfaction.

Bai Qingming has a lively personality, and after only a short while, he established a relationship with a few children of the landlord's family. After finding out what the family eats on weekdays, he ran back to the room, pulled Yun Shang and whispered:

"Xiao Qi, I just asked. This family eats mixed noodles and steamed buns on weekdays. They can eat fine grains once a week, and the younger ones can eat scrambled eggs every other day. They are considered wealthy in the village. The two of us Do you want to have a partner here?" At the very least, you can drink some soup and eat some vegetables in the summer, so you won't have to eat dry biscuits with pickles every day

Yun Shang was arranging her own bedding, thinking of the honest and gentle face of the landlady who brought her back, thought for a while, and said, "Eat dry food today, and we will talk about it tomorrow."

When you come back from work in the evening, get to know the other people in this family. If you feel good, you can spend money to have a meal with your partner. If she felt bad, she would take Bai Qingming to eat dry pancakes and drink cold water for a few days.

Chapter 513 This is not called stealing

Fortunately, there is no shortage of food in her space. Even if she gnaws dry pancakes, she can find ways to supplement Bai Qingming's food, so that he won't be wronged.

It's the busy season of farming, and the whole production team is racing against time to harvest the wheat. A group of young "little white pigs" from the city have a rest before letting the teacher lead the team to work in the fields. .

At the end of the field, Yunshang discovered that the production team leader had divided a wheat field for everyone, with a maximum of two acres. He only asked the students to cut the two acres of wheat before dark, and there was no other requirement. .

Looking at the members working in full swing in the distance, the corners of Yunshang's mouth couldn't help twitching.

This production captain is really a wonderful person.

The most skilled wheat harvesters in the village can harvest one and a half to two acres of wheat per day.

There were almost ten of them students, plus the teacher leading the team. The production team leader only allocated two acres of wheat land to them.

But think about it, Yun Chang also understands what the production captain does.

These are all half-grown children from the city. They say they are going to the countryside to study farming, but when they really go to the fields, what can they do?

I can't even use a sickle to cut wheat, and even the posture of cutting wheat has to be taught for a long time by the members of the commune. After I get used to it, either my feet can't move, or my hands are too weak to cut the wheat, or the strength is too strong, and the knife cuts my legs superior.....

If he was like a big kid in the village, he would be placed among the commune members and work in the field, and the little work he did would not be enough to waste the commune members' time and money.

Rather than saying it is work, it is better to say it is to cause trouble. How can the villagers really welcome them to come to learn farming?

If it was possible, the production team leader would wish to confess these children as their ancestors, and let the village children take these little white pigs to play around the village for a few days, and then send them away with all their hands and feet.

It's a pity that the village really can't do this.

The production team leader guessed that there was nothing he could do, so he divided up a piece of land as if for fun, and let the children pretend to be fools.

The teacher who led the team also knew what the village meant, but he didn't show any abnormality on his face. He cleverly copied the method of the production team leader and divided the one mu of land into ten parts, which were distributed among the students.

"Xiaoqi, it's too hot right now, just sit under the shade of a tree to cool off, and I'll help you first."

As soon as the teacher assigned the task, Bai Qingming pushed Yunshang to the ground and sat down, stuffed the water bottle filled with soda into her hand, and went into the ground with the sickle in hand.

classmate:"....."

Didn't you agree to help peasant comrades with farm work? When did your sister become a farmer comrade?

Yun Chang didn't expect that Bai Qingming would let her be lazy so openly. Looking at the confused teachers and classmates around her, they were still blushing and went to work in the field like a little quail.

She was planning to be lazy, but the prerequisite for being lazy was to have a correct attitude.

After Bai Qingming made such a move, she became the focus, so how could she be lazy?

Wuwu, the little six are just unreliable!

Isn't it arousing people to gossip by making her lazy so blatantly? He is not as clever as Second Brother Gu at all. If it were Second Brother Gu, he would have dragged her into a wheat field to cover her and help her to be lazy.

Yunshang held the sickle,

While harvesting the wheat bitterly, he babbled and taught Bai Qingming to be smart and lazy, torturing Bai Qingming's ears like a magic voice filling his ears.

Bai Qingming was almost collapsed by Yun Shang's nagging. He looked up and looked around, and saw that everyone was not as excited as when they first went to the ground. They all had bitter faces, squatting in the wheat field to do foreign work, and turned their heads directly to Yun Shang. Sit down on the straw.

"Okay, you just sit there, I see that your classmates are also lazy."

Yun Chang wiped her hot and red face, poured half a pot of cool soda in one breath, let out a long and comfortable breath, and then gave Bai Qingming the rest of the soda.

"Yunshang, Yunshang!"

Yun Chang turned her head and saw two female students in the class squatting head to head on the field ridge, waving at her, said something to Bai Qingming, and walked over and squatted down beside them.

"Eat jerky." Yun Shang slowly took out two pieces of jerky from his pocket and stuffed them into the mouths of the two of them. Then he asked softly, "Tian Li~, Katsunan~, you two What's wrong with calling me?"

Don't look at Yunshang who has been studying in school for several years, but she is not a real child after all, and she always asks for leave from school on weekdays, but every time her test scores can still overwhelm the whole class. After several years of collective friction on the ground, I really haven't made a few close friends.

Children also don't want to play with Yunshang, after all, Yunshang is good-looking, generous, and has a commander father, even if it is for Bai Yancheng's name, there are many children and Yunshang in the school. Play.

In the final analysis, it is Yunshang who can't play with her peers by herself. When facing outsiders, she has a cold temper. Her academic performance is still "other people's children" in the parents' mouth. Children also have self-esteem, and no one comes to Yunshang. I feel uncomfortable in front of me.

At this moment, seeing that these two girls are still close to her on weekdays, Yun Shang slowly moved over like a little snail.

Jiang Shengnan is a quick-tempered person. Seeing that Yunshang said everything lazily and slowly, and her shocking name made her shout sweetly, she wished to pull her mouth manually to make her speak more quickly.

Realizing that Bai Qingming was staring at this side, Jiang Shengnan didn't dare to do anything after all, he just gritted his teeth and chewed the jerky in his mouth, as if he was chewing Yunshang's meat, "Bai Yunshang! Speak well, don't talk to Tian Li Same, coquettish!"

"Oh." Yun Shang responded, speaking a little faster this time, "Say it, what's the matter?"

Tian Li glanced left and right, lowered her voice and asked, "How is the house where you and your little brother live? Is it clean?"

Yun Chang nodded, "It's okay, there is no chicken droppings in the yard."

The two of them were speechless, and after a while, Jiang Shengnan asked, "Then, are you two going to have dinner at that house?"

Yun Chang thought for a while, then shook her head, "I don't know, I'll look at it when I go back tonight."

"You're so lucky!" Tian Li grabbed Yun Shang's hand, her round face wrinkled into embarrassment, "You don't know, I live with Jiang Shengnan at Aunt Wang's house, and the kang... is dirty You can see rat feces! There is chicken feces in the kitchen! As soon as we walked in, Aunt Wang asked us if we would like to share food stamps with my partner, which is very annoying."

Yun Shang looked at the two of them sympathetically, and asked, "We're going to stay here for a few days, do you have enough dry food?"

Tian Li calculated with her fingers for a long time, and said, "Enough, my mother brought me ten big steamed buns! I should be able to eat two steamed buns a day."

"It's enough for me." Jiang Shengnan answered from the side, "It's just that we have to go to work every day, and the dry food is kept at home... We are worried, and just want to ask how the house you live in is okay. If you don't, we'll put our dry food with you, and you'll just bring it to us when you go to work."

"That's right." Tian Li nodded repeatedly at the side, crying like a fool, "there are mouse feces on the kang, if the dry food is eaten by mice, you can't eat it."

Yun Shang: "..."

Jiang Shengnan: "..."

Yunshang was speechless for a long time, and couldn't help teasing Tian Li, "Liwa, it's your fault. How many people are still drinking gruel now, and can't even eat fine grains, let alone steamed buns eaten by mice, it's Rats, many people caught them and ate them. How can you dislike dirty steamed buns just because the rats gnawed them? You're too squeamish!"

Jiang Shengnan curled his lips in disgust, "You're so stupid! I said it's not safe, I'm afraid that the dry food will be stolen and eaten, not that the dry food will be bitten by rats!"

Tian Li is a good-natured person, and she didn't get angry when she was bullied by the two of them. She laughed a few times, and looked at Yunshang eagerly, "Yunshang, can this work? We'll put our dry food with you, and you're going to work." Time to bring us here."

The relationship between these two people and Yunshang is not bad, and there is no particularly embarrassing request, Yunshang readily agreed.

Anyway, she has space, so it doesn't take much to help these two people keep dry food.

In summer, the days are long, and even if the students are not used to working at the beginning, when the sun sets, they still finish all the work in hand.

With Bai Qingming's help, Yun Chang really didn't do much work. Compared with those classmates who seemed to be dripping out of the water, her clothes were clean and tidy.

Back home, the landlord and his family also came back from work, Yunshang and Bai Qingming officially met with the host.

After being introduced, Yunshang knew that the family's surname was Wang, and they belonged to the military. Aunt Wang's man was a martyr. Before liberation, she left her mother-in-law and her two sons to sacrifice. He was sent to the army and currently lives with his eldest son's family.

At this moment, the sky was getting dark, and there was a faint smell of food in the yard. Aunt Wang sent her daughter-in-law to the kitchen to serve food, and urged Yunshang and Bai Qingming to wash their hands and eat quickly.

Bai Qingming looked at the refreshing side dishes brought out from the kitchen, as well as the fragrant millet porridge. He couldn't eat the dry biscuits he just got in his hand.

Turning around, looking at Yunshang pitifully, there are only two words in his eyes: I want to eat!

Yun Chang couldn't see it, and nodded slightly, agreeing to Bai Qingming's dinner.

Aunt Wang's handicrafts are good, and the two of them have worked for a long time, and they feel that this table of refreshing farm meals is very palatable. Not only did Bai Qingming eat so much that she couldn't lift her head, even Yunshang drank a bowl full of millet porridge for the first time.

Before the meal was finished, there was a burst of sharp shouting and cursing outside, and Aunt Wang's face darkened instantly, she put down her rice bowl and went outside.

Seeing this, the little grandson of the Wang family also grabbed a steamed bun, stuffed it into his mouth and ran out, and at the same time he shouted vaguely, "Dad, Mom, my third grandma is fighting with someone again, I'll go and see! "

There was a lot of fun to watch, Yun Chang couldn't sit still, put down the bowl, pulled Bai Qingming and ran out.

"...The people in the city are amazing! People in the city can bully people with nonsense? Don't say that I took things from my house, even if I went out to pull a green onion from someone's house, dig a garlic from someone's house, we were full No one in the village said I was stealing! Why did you city people call me stealing!"

"It's not stealing! I put egg buns in the bag, and let your grandson dig them out to eat! If you don't tell me, it's stealing!"

Yun Chang staggered and almost fell to the ground, "Brother, it's Tian Li! It's over, it's over, Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan's dry food was stolen by that family!"

Bai Qingming picked up Yunshang, pushed through the crowd and squeezed in. He saw the team leader guarding Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan with a livid face, preventing Aunt Wang, who was jumping and scolding, from rushing to the two children.

"Fuck! Don't you city people brag about your wealth every day? My Erliang eats your eggs and eats your steamed buns, so what? Why are you city people so stingy!"

Jiang Shengnan was so angry that he jumped up in the back, pointed at the woman who was cursing, and threatened, "You are justified in stealing! Let me tell you, if you don't pay us the egg buns today, I will go to the police and sue you!"

The teacher who led the team was a girl in her twenties, and she had never confronted others like a shrew. After hearing Jiang Shengnan's words, she immediately echoed:

"I asked someone to call the captain to come over, you take out the stolen things, we don't care about this with you, otherwise I will take the students to the commune tomorrow to ask for an explanation!"

"Oh, you're the only one who is still a cultured person? Pooh! Go around the village and ask, is that what I call stealing?"

Aunt Wang glanced triumphantly at the team leader, took a sip of water from the bowl in her grandson's hand, wiped the corners of her mouth, raised her neck and said:

"You city people are really uneducated! Let me tell you, your things are stored in your own house, the door is locked, I went in, I gave it to you, that's called stealing! I beat my own house to get things Eating, can that be called stealing? I was eating my own food, you urbanites are uneducated, and you still want to fool me!"

As soon as this nonsense came out, not to mention the teacher leading the team, even the people in the village who gathered around to watch the fun were stunned by Aunt Wang's thick skin.

Tian Li has a delicate temper, blinked her eyes, and finally couldn't help crying, pointing at Aunt Wang and only repeating the words 'you bully'.

Jiang Shengnan was so angry that his face was livid. If the teacher who led the team hadn't stopped him, he would have jumped up and tore Aunt Wang's mouth.

It's really irritating, she has grown up so big, she has never seen such a shameless person!

Aunt Wang and Aunt Wang are sisters-in-law. When she saw her doing something embarrassing again, her face immediately darkened. She stepped over, pointed at Aunt Wang's nose and scolded: "You are from the third family! You have made another mistake." Don't you! Hurry up and take out the baby's rations! Otherwise, if you really sue the commune, you'll have to wear a high hat and parade through the streets!"

"Yeah, Aunt Wang, aren't you bullying people? The green onions and garlic in our village's private land are worthless, so you can take advantage of it, but if you put it in the village, can you eat an egg from the east and a steamed bun from the west?" ? Isn't this called stealing? What is stealing?"

Chapter 514 Who is the chicken thief

"That's right. People in the city have to spend money to buy onions and garlic, let alone such expensive things as eggs. Hurry up and give them to the baby, and don't let them report to the commune. Throw them away." The face of our village."

"Aunt Wang, why are you so shameless! Tumbler asked the captain to divide up two student dolls for your family in order to steal other children's egg buns?"

"Where is she doing it for the steamed buns? Apart from this little food, I guess she is also aiming at the baby's food stamps and oil stamps!"

In the midst of accusations by everyone, Aunt Wang became more and more arrogant, she stood with her hands on her hips and yelled at her gate for a while, even Aunt Wang was scolded by her.

When the production team leader was called over and knew what had happened, his nose was almost crooked, and he went up and pointed at Aunt Wang and scolded Aunt Wang.

There are so many communes in the county, and there are so many villages in each commune. This is the first time that such a bold and stupid person has stolen the dry food of the children who are learning farmers in the city.

If this story got out, he, the production captain, would probably become famous throughout the county, and if he didn't criticize him, the point would be embarrassing.

In the future, I will go to the commune for a meeting, and when I quarrel with the production captains of several other villages, others will point to his nose and call him blind, unable to recognize people, and send a well-behaved city boy to Sanwang's house. Push in the den of thieves. If he can't win against those captains, he won't be ashamed of himself in the future?

The captain got angry a lot, and then made a gesture to escort Aunt Wang to the commune, which immediately frightened everyone, and he didn't dare to jump around and swear at others.

When things stopped there, the team leader hurried over to speak nicely to the team leader teacher, promising to find another family for Wang Li and Jiang Shengnan, and to compensate them for their losses. That's how they gave up their idea of going to the commune to file a complaint.

Yun Shang was an eye-opener. It was the first time I saw a person who stole things with confidence, and beat up all kinds of fallacies and heresies.

This means that in the village, as long as no one is killed, at most the education of the village cadres is over.

The team leader teacher was aware of this, so he persuaded Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan to temporarily expose the matter.

After all, everyone still has to stay in the village for a few days. If Aunt Wang was sent to the commune and labeled as a bad element because of a little food, the villagers would definitely have opinions on them.

The group of people are all half-grown children, if there is a conflict with the villagers because of such a trivial matter, outsiders like them will suffer...

Aunt Wang just wanted to take advantage of it, but now that things are getting bigger and bigger, she didn't take advantage of it, but did she cause a lot of trouble?

Jiang Shengnan and Tian Li packed up their things, came out with the eggs they had lost, and were arranged by the production team leader for a new place to stay, and the crowd watching the excitement slowly dispersed.

Aunt Wang's face was gloomy, as if dripping water, she beckoned to Yunshang and Bai Qingming, and led them home.

Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan changed their new residence, but they didn't mention Yunshang to help them keep food. It's just that they were worried about the fact that they suffered a big loss on the first day they came to the village. After two days, they lost their temper. Jiang Shengnan often speaks ill of Sanwang's family around Yunshang.

Yun Chang always felt that with Jiang Shengnan's violent temper, this matter would not be so easy to pass.

Sure enough, on the day of the end of the farm study, Aunt Wang chased after the village entrance with howls and curses, stopped the crowd who were going back to school,

Hold on to Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan, and ask them to pay for her chicken.

The teacher leading the team was so angry that his eyes were red. While preventing Aunt Wang from touching the two of them, he urged the students to go to the village and call the production team leader over.

Aunt Wang was stopped by the teacher who led the team, and couldn't beat Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan. In a fit of anger, she grabbed the teacher's face with both hands:

"You people in the city are rotten! Not to mention stealing my eggs, but also stealing my chickens like thieves! Let me tell you, if you don't pay me for the chicken today, I will sue you in the city Go! Sue you stinky bastard! Smelly old nine! You don't teach well at school, you teach people to be thieves! Sue these small capitalists, come to the countryside to destroy construction! Poach the corners of socialism and oppress us poor peasants... "

Bai Qingming was happy to be able to go home today, but before he left the village, he was stopped by Aunt Wang, who fired a map gun and put a big hat on him and Yunshang. can bear.

Throwing the luggage on the ground, told Yunshang to stand back, walked over and moved a few times with his hands, then pushed Aunt Wang away from scratching the hand of the teacher leading the team, and protected everyone behind him.

Aunt Wang's family lost a chicken, as if they had lost half their life, with disheveled hair, a fierce expression, and an astonishingly crazy look in their eyes. A piece of meat from the next few people was buried with the chickens at home.

Bai Qingming's act of protecting a few people was like pouring a ladle of hot oil into cold water, which completely exploded Aunt Wang.

She looked like she was going crazy, her face was red, she bowed her body, and ran headlong towards Bai Qingming, "I'll kill you bastard! The capitalists from the city bully the poor peasants, there is no reason for them... "

Seeing Aunt Wang's actions, Yun Shang was taken aback, and quickly used her mental strength to trip over Aunt Wang's feet, making Bai Qingming avoid the collision.

The teacher who led the team was also shocked by Aunt Wang's madness, and quickly pulled Bai Qingming away, lest Aunt Wang go crazy and really hurt him.

Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan were the ones who rushed to this matter today. Her team leader, Aunt Wang, could tell her the past, but this matter has nothing to do with Bai Qingming. If Aunt Wang really hurt Bai Qingming How can she explain to Commander Bai when she goes back?

The teacher leading the team pulled Bai Qingming away with a terrified expression, and stood in the front, "Student Bai, come to the side, I'll tell her."

Aunt Wang fell so badly that she simply sat on the ground and couldn't get up. She patted her thigh with one hand and the ground with the other, spitting all over her mouth. Outsiders, those two little female cousins even stole five eggs from me, who stole my chicken? Let me tell you, if you don't hand over the chicken today, none of you will leave!"

Tian Li was trembling with anger at Aunt Wang's words, she puffed her cheeks, wiped her tears and said angrily, "Don't spout blood! Who stole your chicken? You are so fierce, so bad, maybe someone doesn't like you The people in the village did it, don't even think about pouring dirty water on us!"

The teacher who led the team nodded and said angrily, "The captain asked you to pay Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan those eggs. When did we blackmail you? If you really lost the chicken, then go to the police and let the police comrades judge Let's see if you are reluctant to blackmail people with eggs, or we really stole your chickens!"

When the team leader and Tian Li spoke, a few brave classmates also helped to accuse Aunt Wang. The meaning behind the words was nothing more than that Aunt Wang's house didn't lose any chickens, and she was here to blackmail people on purpose. Yes, or, Aunt Wang's chickens were stolen by others, because they saw that the students were easy to bully, so they gave them a reputation as chicken thieves, and asked them, outsiders, to compensate her chickens.

Aunt Wang only had one mouth. She never said such a person, and Bai Qingming was there to protect her when she wanted to hit someone. In the end, she had no other choice, so she just rolled on the ground and howled:

"Ouch~, I'm dead! The stinky old nine in the city brought people to the village to bully people! This is to kill us poor peasants! My eldest grandson left the house to eat an egg, and the two young cousins would say I'm a thief, so I stole an egg from me! You stole my chicken, how can you not admit it..."

"Everyone, come and see! These city people are all rotten and filthy. They all have sores on their heads and pus on their feet. They stole two chickens from me. They are going to force our family to go..."

Where have you ever seen shrews rolling all over the floor, howling with tears and snot flying, and still not forgetting to curse, all of them are gnashing their teeth, wishing to go up and tear Aunt Wang's mouth.

Only Yunshang noticed that Jiang Shengnan, who had the hottest temper and the most upright temper in the crowd, was so silent today that she didn't even dare to look up at Aunt Wang from the beginning to the end.

Yun Chang's heart sank, and she realized that what Aunt Wang said might be true. Her family had indeed lost two chickens, and the person who did it was probably Jiang Shengnan.

At this time, a chicken is the guarantee of farmers' daily expenses. Farmers have no cash in their hands, so they rely on the eggs in their hands to exchange oil, salt, sauce and vinegar, needles and threads, oil for lighting, and school fees for their children. A hen that lays eggs has an economic status in the family that is no less than that of a male labor force, and "chicken butt bank" is by no means a simple joke.

If Jiang Shengnan really touched Aunt Wang's chicken, it would really break the heart of that family and cut off the family's livelihood for several months. No wonder Aunt Wang would be so angry.

It's just that this matter can't be entirely due to Jiang Shengnan. She is also a child in the big courtyard. She has a good family background and is the youngest in the family. She is usually doted on by her family members.

Originally excited and ready to go to the countryside to help the villagers harvest wheat, unexpectedly, they stumbled at Aunt Wang's house on the first day of their arrival. Aunt Wang's house stole the egg buns prepared at home, and she beat them up, saying that she was taking things from her own house. What a mean hat.

The hot-tempered Jiang Shengnan couldn't bear this kind of uselessness. Even if the production team leader made Aunt Wang pay the two of them five eggs, it was the first time she was bullied so uselessly.

Children are immature in thinking about things, and they are also children in the city. They don't know what a chicken means to a villager. In Jiang Shengnan's cognition, she was doing an eye for an eye with an eye for an eye, making Aunt Wang feel aggrieved by being stolen, and she had no reason to feel aggrieved.

For such a thing to happen, it can only be said that there is a cause and an effect, and the source has to fall on Aunt Wang herself.

Based on Yun Shang's understanding of Jiang Shengnan, it was impossible for her to steal the two chickens. At most, she tried to kill them and throw them to other people in the village, or to a corner. Even if the chicken died, she would not let Aunt Wang's family eat a bite of the chicken.

Aware of Yun Shang's gaze, Jiang Shengnan suddenly turned his head and looked at Yun Shang's plain and clear gaze, Jiang Shengnan's complexion changed, and he lowered his head in panic.

Yun Chang sighed secretly, Jiang Shengnan was undoubtedly responsible for the matter!

Upon receiving the news that Aunt Wang was blackmailing her again, the production team leader was so angry that he almost dropped the tea mug in his hand. Before he could put on his shoes, he ran towards the entrance of the village.

"It's from Wang Laosan's family! You dare to talk nonsense, a troublesome student doll, and see if I dare to send you to the commune today!"

As soon as the production team leader finished speaking, Aunt Wang spat out a mouthful of thick phlegm, "Damn! You give it away, you give it away! You are the production team leader, and instead of helping the villagers, you turn your elbows out to protect these children. Capitalist! I let my family eat an egg, and you want me to pay those two young ladies five eggs. My family lost two hens that were laying eggs. Why don't you ask these city people to pay me chickens! "

"Shrex! You are a naughty shrew! You say someone stole your chicken, do you have evidence? Where did the stolen chicken go? Who saw it? Find it and confront him!"

"If you talk nonsense without evidence, people can go to the commune and sue you for false accusations! At that time, wait for the sign to be paraded through the streets!"

Aunt Wang sprayed blood on the head after a face-to-face meeting. The production team leader's face was blackened, and he pointed at Aunt Wang and reprimanded him for a long time.

Aunt Wang thought she was from the village, and when the production team leader came, she should have turned to her, but unexpectedly, the team leader said that she was making false accusations and turned to these outsiders without even asking.

Aunt Wang was furious, pointing at the captain's nose and scolding, "You are so talented! You are going to protect these city people today, right? They just quarreled with me a few days ago, and they didn't steal my chicken. Who stole it? You have to protect these people and say that they didn't steal the chicken. What evidence do you have! Who can prove it! Pooh! I think it was your partner who stole it!"

After finishing speaking, without giving the production team leader any time to react, he slapped the ground and howled, "Come on! Why can't we survive with such a thief captain at the stall! Wang Youcai! You eat everything from inside to outside, with this group of guys! People in the city team up to steal chickens, and I will go to the commune to expose you!"

Yun Shang: "..."

A group of city people: "..."

Hearing the sound, the villagers gathered around to watch the excitement: "..."

The most wronged production team leader was so angry that Aunt Wang was so angry that he couldn't even speak.

Just when Aunt Wang was howling the most, Mrs. Wang dragged Aunt Wang's two grandchildren over. The shorter child held a handful of chicken feathers in his hand, and shouted loudly with his mouth open:

"The milk is not good! Our chickens were thrown by the pond! Lai Batou was picked up, and he said that he picked it up and it was his, and he wanted to smoke firewood and roast it!"

"What? What are you talking about?" Aunt Wang got up from the ground with a grunt, grabbed her two grandsons and asked, "Who took our chicken away?"

Chapter 515

"Lai Batou! It's Lai Batou! Our chicken's neck was twisted and thrown into the pond, and Lai Batou was picked up!"

"Then what are you two doing here! Tell your father to ask Lai Batou to get the chicken back!"

Aunt Wang's eyes were red with anxiety.

Nai Batou is a well-known blind man in the commune, he is not clean when he beats a child, and he is very narrow-minded, if anyone offends him, when those expensive men in the family go out, they will be beaten up only to come back.

After coming and going again and again, no one in the surrounding villages dared to provoke Lai Batou anymore.

Now when I heard that my chicken was picked up by Lai Batou, Aunt Wang was so angry and afraid that she even lowered her voice of cursing for a while, fearing that Lai Batou would find out and take revenge on the two of her family. On Jin Sunsun.

But Aunt Wang didn't miss the words from her grandson's mouth, "I don't know who broke the neck of our chicken", she turned her head, stared at Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan with red eyes, and wanted to beat them both.

"These two little cousins! What a vicious heart at such a young age! If you really feel that paying five eggs is not enough, you come to ask me for it so generously, why do you want to play tricks behind your back and kill my chicken! Didn't you just eat some of your steamed buns, and you are going to cut off our family's livelihood!"

"Which family can only raise two chickens now! Damn it! You killed my two chickens as soon as you made a move. You are trying to force our family to death!"

Aunt Wang cursed one sentence after another, letting Jiang Shengnan know what two chickens mean to the villagers. At this time, she seemed to have been extremely frightened, her face was pale, and her fingertips were also turning white, wishing she could bury her head in the cracks of the ground, as if she would not hear Aunt Wang's yelling.

Although the two chickens were found, they were all dead, and were picked up by Lai Batou again. Aunt Wang didn't dare to provoke Lai Batou, and it was as if she was grabbing the last straw. Blocking the village entrance and not giving way, Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan insisted on paying her two old hens that could only lay eggs.

The captain said that he wanted to send Aunt Wang to the commune, but to the villagers, the city people who came to learn agriculture were outsiders, and no matter how bad Aunt Wang was, they were also villagers. They couldn't send their family members to the commune just because of outsiders. .

The words that scare Aunt Wang can only become empty words in the end.

Seeing that things froze again, Jiang Shengnan turned his head and looked straight at Yunshang, his lips moved, and when Yunshang looked over, his eyes dodged, and then he said in a voice that everyone present could hear:

"Yunshang, do you have money? The car is coming soon, if we delay, we won't be able to get home before dark."

Yun Chang was stunned, what did Jiang Shengnan mean by these words without beginning or end.

Does she have any money on her and what does it matter when the car arrives?

Could it be that Jiang Shengnan wanted to push this matter on her?

Bai Qingming also didn't understand what Jiang Shengnan meant, but Aunt Wang had been causing trouble for Jiang Shengnan and Tian Li, but at this moment she asked Yun Shang if she had any money, and messed up whether the car had come, which attracted everyone's attention For Yun Shang, this is obviously not a good thing.

After reacting, Bai Qingming immediately returned to Yun Shang's side, and stopped blocking Aunt Wang for Jiang Shengnan and Tian Li.

Yun Shang frowned, looked straight at Jiang Shengnan, and said, "I'm here to participate in the agricultural activities organized by the school, not to go shopping in a department store. How can I have money on me? What do you mean by these words?"

Jiang Shengnan turned his head away,

With red eyes, he said, "I want to say, if you have money, first help us to give Aunt Wang five yuan. The car is coming soon, we have no time to delay, she insisted that the chicken was stolen by me and Tian Li. If yes, then we will pay her five yuan. Then we can go home early."

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief.

She had a good impression of Jiang Shengnan and Tian Li. For a moment, she was really afraid that Jiang Shengnan would put the chicken-stealing matter on her head. , Let people know and laugh at her.

However, although Jiang Shengnan didn't push the matter to her, he dragged Tian Li into the water at this moment, saying that he wanted to compensate Aunt Wang five yuan with Tian Li. This behavior still made Yunshang feel a little nervous.

She can understand that Jiang Shengnan refuses to admit to stealing the chicken because of his timidity, but Jiang Shengnan can't just get a companion for himself because of his timidity, and regardless of whether Tian Li is willing or not, he can just say that he wants Tian Li. Li and her should compensate Aunt Wang five yuan, right?

The matter was done by Jiang Shengnan alone, so why should she ask Tian Li to lose money with her without Tian Li's consent?

Tian Li obviously didn't expect Jiang Shengnan to say that, she stared wide-eyed, looked at Jiang Shengnan in surprise, and screamed after a while: "Jiang Shengnan! If you want to pay, you can pay it yourself! I didn't steal the chicken, why should I give it?" Her money!? You have to be a good person and come to the wronged person yourself, don't pull me!"

Jiang Shengnan knew that he was wronged, so he pursed his lips tightly, and let Tian Li scold him without saying a word.

"I knew it was these two little cousins who did it! You all heard it, they both admitted it! They didn't steal my chicken, why would they have to pay for it!"

"And you! She asked you to give me five yuan. If you don't keep the money today, don't think of leaving our village!"

When the two started arguing, Aunt Wang became even more violent. This time, she not only pointed at Wang Li and Jiang Shengnan to scold, but also pulled Yun Shang out, insisting that she pay for the chicken.

Bai Qingming's lungs were about to explode, and he gave Jiang Shengnan a hard look, and said to the leading teacher who had been scolded for being dizzy, "It's getting late, I'm afraid you can't solve this matter, so you should send someone to sue the police."

The teacher who led the team was not very old, so he couldn't make trouble with Aunt Wang. Now that Jiang Shengnan was holding back, it was not so easy to settle the matter.

Turning around, he stopped responding to Aunt Wang's yelling and scolding, and picked a few fast-running boys to go to the commune to find someone.

The teacher who led the team took a strong attitude and sent someone to the commune. Aunt Wang also lowered her curse voice, rubbing her sore and swollen cheeks, and waited for someone from the commune to give her justice.

When the captain saw that things were getting worse, his face turned pale with anger, and angrily walked towards the commune holding the dry tobacco bag, without even looking at Aunt Wang.

Knowing that the matter here would not end so soon, Bai Qingming didn't bother to stay and watch the fun, and dragged his well-behaved sister who was almost dragged into the water, and planned to go to the commune to wait for the bus first.

Aunt Wang still wanted to stop her from asking for money, but after she was pushed away by Bai Qingming with a cold face, she didn't dare to pester Jiang Shengnan any more, and only held Jiang Shengnan alone, saying that she promised to pay five yuan, so she couldn't speak Not counting.

"Don't play with that girl from Jiang's family in the future, she looks very neat, but she is actually a no-brainer! She has a bad heart."

Walking on the road, Bai Qingming complained to Yun Shang angrily, and was very angry that Jiang Shengnan asked Yun Shang to borrow money in front of so many people.

At this time, ordinary apprentices only spend about 18 yuan a month, and some people even spend less than 5 yuan a month.

Jiang Shengnan asked Yunshang to borrow five yuan from the very beginning. This is simply telling everyone in disguise that Yunshang has never been short of money, and he can easily spend a month's expenses of ordinary people on his body.

They are in other places, and the principle of not revealing their wealth should always be kept in mind. Jiang Shengnan said it so blatantly, and it is not a good thing to lead a female teacher. What is the use of helping a half-grown child?

The most hateful thing is that Jiang Shengnan himself refused to admit that he stole Aunt Wang's chicken, but when everyone was helping her and helping her quarrel with others, he said that he would pay for the other's chicken. What's the difference?

Speaking of the inside and outside, it is not an exaggeration to eat the inside and outside.

Besides, the matter was almost over just now, Lai Batou picked up two dead chickens from Aunt Wang's house, and she came to Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan in a fuss, just looking for a punching bag. As long as the two of them don't admit it, Aunt Wang will not be able to make a fuss no matter how Proton is, and the production team leader will definitely ask Aunt Wang to pull Aunt Wang away and close the door to deal with Lai Batou's picking up chickens.

But as soon as Jiang Shengnan opened his mouth, he asked Yun Shang to borrow money to pay for the chicken. Didn't he just put the handle in the other party's hands?

Although Aunt Wang is an asshole, there is a saying that is true: Why should they lose money if they didn't steal other people's chickens?

Although the Jiang family is doing well, they are not rich enough to give Jiang Shengnan five yuan as pocket money. Jiang Shengnan is not an idiot. She can ask Yunshang to borrow so much money to compensate Aunt Wang. I feel guilty for doing something wrong to others.

Yun Chang didn't know that Bai Qingming, who has always been straightforward, also analyzed Jiang Shengnan's stealing chicken through Jiang Shengnan's simple two sentences, and nodded obediently to the side, fooling Bai Qingming, "I see, I have a normal relationship with her. I will stay away from her from now on."

Bai Qingming immediately felt that his sister was too caring and obedient, took the luggage from Yunshang's hand and carried it on her shoulders, drooling and said, "This matter will not be resolved so quickly today, when we arrive at the commune, my brother will take you first." Go to the restaurant!"

When the two arrived at the commune, they first went to the only state-run restaurant, ordered a portion of simmered noodles, ate lunch happily, then went to the nearby cooperative to buy popsicles, and squatted on the side of the road waiting for the car to come.

After the car that picked up the students arrived, the teacher who led the team led Jiang Shengnan and his group back. Seeing Yun Shang on the back of the car, Tian Li wrinkled her nose and snorted coldly at Jiang Shengnan. To Yunshang:

"Look, Yunshang, that old shrew scratched me! I'm so mad, it's all Jiang Shengnan's fault!"

From Tian Li's ears to her chin, there were five red and swollen marks, and blood oozes from the deepest part.

"How did it happen?"

Yun Shang was taken aback, this Tian Li usually likes to be smug, and she doesn't know how angry she is when her face is caught like this.

Tian Li's eyes turned red, and she glared at Jiang Shengnan angrily, "It's not because of her! If she hadn't talked too much about losing money, I wouldn't have been embarrassed by others."

Yunshang glanced at Jiang Shengnan who kept his head down and said nothing, but didn't agree with Tian Li's words, and asked about the follow-up of the matter, "How did the commune people solve it in the past?"

"That family was talking nonsense. They seized on Jiang Shengnan's promise to pay the money and insisted that we stole her chickens. The people from the commune went over and scolded the old shrew, and criticized the production team leader, saying that he didn't even The people in the village couldn't manage well, so the teacher brought us back."

Yun Chang nodded.

Things were more or less the same as she had imagined. The people in the commune don't like Aunt Wang's smacking and rolling. Neither Tian Li nor Jiang Shengnan are educated youths. When they go to the countryside, they become part of the village.

They are students who came from the city to study agriculture, and they will return to the city after a few days. The people in the commune will also worry that some of them have unusual identities, and naturally they will not cause trouble for themselves because of the villagers for no reason.

Besides, the reasons Aunt Wang said are all fallacies and heresies. They cannot be taken as evidence that Tian Li and Jiang Shengnan stole chickens. The people in the commune are not fools. lose money.

The car sped all the way and returned to Linyang before dark. Before getting out of the car, Tian Li grabbed Yunshang's watch and said, "Yunshang, it's better for you to treat me. I will treat you well from now on. If you don't Jiang Shengnan is ready!"

After finishing speaking, she whispered, "I'm not a fool, can't I see that her teacher looks down on me on weekdays! Hmph, I really thought I would listen to everything she said, this time she is mad at her!"

Yun Shang: "..."

This fool!

Who is angry with whom?

Obviously he was tricked by Jiang Shengnan, he jumped up in anger, and felt that he had the upper hand, and Jiang Shengnan suffered a lot.

Yun Shang waved to Tian Li in a funny way, and followed Bai Qingming into the courtyard.

The Zhu family suddenly found out that Zhu Hongjun, who was arrested for making broken shoes, and Director Zhu, who was secretly taken away for investigation, were all plotted against.

When the members of the Yu family in the capital city came to Yangyang, it was a woman named Chen Qian who instructed Yu Ying to connect with the Zhu family, so that the Zhu family was implicated by the Yu family and lost their job as the director of the Revolutionary Committee.

There was also the matter of Zhu Hongjun and Gu Mingzhu being blocked on the bed, which was also planned by Chen Qian.

The reason for the attack was that Zhu Hongjun was secretly investigating Chen Qian, and wanted to vent his anger on his father, so Chen Qian would plot against him.

By the way, that woman named Chen Qian, nicknamed Erya, was a neighbor of Commander Bai's daughter when she was in Fenyang, but Commander Bai's daughter didn't like Chen Qian and ignored her all the time.

Later, when I arrived in the provincial capital, the Erya lived near the military area for a while, and seemed to have lived with relatives in the military area for a few months. Later, for some unknown reason, Erya asked the relatives to drive out of the house.

Later, Erya moved to the vicinity of the steel factory. In October last year, Erya found someone to buy a job index and became a regular worker in the steel factory.

After finding out the news, the other two houses of the Zhu family were about to explode.

After hundreds of years, the Zhu family's ancestral tomb finally smoked, and the man from the big house became an official!

Still the director of the Revolutionary Committee!

Who would have imagined that before the position of the director was warmed up, a little girl would be calculated to disappear. The Zhu family also got involved with an elder nephew, how can they bear this bad breath?

Originally, they wanted to find someone to teach Erya a lesson, and then make some losses, but when they investigated Erya, the Zhu family found that Erya had a large single room under Erya's name, and Zhu Yongjun, who was also a regular worker in the steel factory, My mind suddenly floated.

These days, when looking for a partner, everyone first looks at the house, then the job, and finally the appearance and composition.

If she could have a room in the provincial capital, it would be a sow that someone would rush to marry her.

This Erya is young, has a house and a job, and her family is still extinct. If she marries someone over, wouldn't she just get a house and a job quota for nothing?

Besides, since the eldest uncle's family was identified as bad elements, the people in their house have been affected to some extent when they went out. Even his work was transferred from the office to the workshop in the factory, and from the steel factory to the staff. frontline workers.

These are all sins committed by Erya. Isn't it right for her to compensate him even with the house and work?

Zhu Yongjun felt that he was so smart that he could think of such a perfect way to burn all the materials and go out to prepare for the house and work indicators.

.....

The steel mill held another social gathering this weekend. Erya couldn't resist the invitation from the workers. As usual, she changed into a dusty dress that didn't fit well and had several patches, and entered the large conference room.

The female workers who participated in the fraternity were all neatly dressed and had bright smiles on their faces. Erya was like a gray mouse breaking into the sun, out of place with the whole venue, very inconspicuous.

After the workers around her made new friends one by one and left, Erya sneaked out of the big meeting room while everyone was unprepared.

She is going to go to university in the future, so how could she associate with this group of workers who can only do coolies, and find a cage for herself early?

Her future man will either be Gu Shinian, or a young Yingjie who is no worse than Gu Shinian, and the gang of rough old hats in the steel factory, even Xiao is not qualified to think of her!

Thinking of Gu Shinian, Er Ya's mood became dull again.

In her last life, she went to the countryside this year to be an educated youth. At the same time, Yunshang also left Linyang this year, saying that she moved to the capital to accompany Mr. Bai.

In the next few years, every time she wrote to Chen Cuiqiao's family, she would carefully ask about Gu Shinian and Yun Shang's situation, and wanted to know everything about Gu Shinian, big and small, through other people's descriptions and Yun Shang's whereabouts. matter.

It's just that for three years in a row, she asked about the situation of Gu Shinian and Yunshang for three whole years, and every time she got the news that those two people had never returned to Linyang, even Gu Zonglin, Gu Shinian's third grandfather got married, Gu Shi Neither Nian nor Yunshang ever came back.

At that time, she only thought that her cousin deliberately did not tell her about Gu Shinian and Yunshang, but now it seems that her cousin may not have been lying to her.

Although every time my cousin writes a letter, she will use all kinds of insulting words to humiliate her with the things she likes Gu Shinian, but the cousin is spoiled and conceived, and has a bad temper, but she doesn't bother to lie to her about this kind of thing .

So, after Gu Shinian and Yun Shang left in the last life, they really didn't come back for several years.

Where did they go in the last life?

Er Ya was thinking about something in her mind, she walked out of the factory with her head down, and walked slowly towards the dormitory, without noticing that someone was following behind her.

From the office area of the steel factory to the residential area, there is a big water bubble. In summer, many children of steel factory workers will swim and bathe in the big water bubble, which is very lively.

Hearing the cheers of the children in the water fight, Erya came to her senses, stopped and looked into the water.

Unexpectedly, before she turned around, she covered her hands behind her back and pushed vigorously, only to hear a "plop", and there was no sign of Erya on the road.

In the water bubble, the children were having a water fight in full swing. Even if someone heard the sound of falling into the water, they would think that it was a child from some other family who jumped down to play in the water. How could anyone guess that it was Erya who was pushed down.

Standing by the side of the road, Zhu Yongjun watched Erya struggling desperately in the water bubble, until she lost all strength and was about to sink, then he called out to the distance: "Come on, someone! Fall into the water!"

Seeing someone running over with a flashlight in the distance, Zhu Yongjun took off his vest, jumped into the water with a splash, and swam quickly towards Erya.

At this time Erya was completely unconscious, Zhu Yongjun swam over quickly, hooked Erya's neck with one hand, and pushed up Erya's large sack-like clothes from bottom to top with the other hand, and took them off along her head .

Noticing that there were enough people on the side of the road, Zhu Yongjun held Erya, who was only wearing underwear, and swam ashore. Doing cardiopulmonary resuscitation, the big hands swam up and down Erya's underdeveloped body, taking advantage of Erya in front of the crowd of onlookers.

Among the crowd who came around were children, members of the steel factory, and workers who had just come off work. Seeing Erya with only her underwear left on her upper body, Zhu Yongjun, who went into the water to save others, was even naked. In such a situation, everyone was so shocked that they couldn't recover for a long time.

Even the flashlights in everyone's hands will shine on the two of them unconsciously, so that everyone can clearly see every movement of Zhu Yongjun giving Erya first aid... No, it should be in high-definition and uncensored. Ya cheap the whole process!

After the cardiopulmonary resuscitation, Er Ya was still not awake, Zhu Yongjun raised his head anxiously, and shouted at the crowd in panic: "What should I do now? What if I still can't wake up? Hygienist! Where is the hygienist? What should I do now? Comrade Chen Qian is only fifteen years old, everyone must find a way to save her..."

Originally, when Er Ya was rescued, her hair was messy and sticking to her face. Although everyone knew that she was probably a steel factory worker, they couldn't see her face clearly, let alone her name. As a result, Zhu Yongjun's voice directly called out Erya's name and age. After tonight, everyone in the steel factory probably knew that Erya was naked and Zhu Yongjun groped her upper body. .

The onlookers were only frightened by the naked scene of Zhu Yongjun and Erya for a while, but now, after hearing Zhu Yongjun's words, a few of them are sober enough to recall it.

What kind of hero is this who saves people? He is clearly a blind man who deliberately harms people's reputation under the guise of saving people!

A family member of an employee took off the clothes of his own child and forcibly put them on Erya. He was about to call for help to send Erya to the hospital, but Zhu Yongjun's eyes lit up, and he quickly put Erya on the ground, pinched Erya's nose, and talked with his mouth. The mouth started artificial respiration.

After repeating it a few times, Arya finally coughed a few times and breathed again.

Before Erya woke up, Zhu Yongjun turned around and jumped into the water, retrieved Erya's sack-like clothes, and called everyone to help Erya to the hospital.

Knowing that she was kissed, hugged and touched by Zhu Yongjun in front of everyone, Erya cried and screamed, and beat Zhu Yongjun desperately, wishing to stab him with a knife.

"It's you! It's you who pushed me into the water! I'm going to sue you for murder, and I'm going to the police to sue you for murder!"

Zhu Yongjun took a step back and looked at Erya accusingly, with a very hurt look on his face, "Comrade Chen Qian, I don't expect you to send me a pennant to thank me for saving my life, but you can't take revenge and slander me as a lifesaver. Who is the murderer? What kind of enmity do we have, why should I kill you?"

The person who looked at Zhu Yongjun suspiciously before reacted, yes! These two people had no enmity in the past, and they have no grudges today. Why did Zhu Yongjun want to kill Chen Qian?

Then Chen Qian is just an ordinary worker, and she is still a little girl who hasn't grown up with a movie. Besides paying for her life, what benefit can killing her have?

Erya sat on the bed and wailed loudly, feeling that the sky above her head had collapsed.

Although she came back from later generations, knowing that this is nothing in later generations, but in this day and age, a big girl, undressed and hugged by a man who also undressed, kissed and touched her To be watched by a large crowd is simply a shocking scandal, and it is extremely immoral.

Even if she married this man named Zhu Yongjun, after what happened today, she would be judged by others when she went out in the future, not to mention that she looked down on people like the steel mill from the bottom of her heart.

She had planned it all, she would take the university entrance examination and give Gu Shinian her clean body, but now that such a scandal happened, how could she have the face to go out and meet people? How can I have the face to say that my body is innocent and worthy of Gu Shinian?

Zhu Yongjun does not admit that he pushed Erya into the water, and Erya has no witnesses to prove that he was pushed into the water. People around him feel that although Zhu Yongjun's performance in saving her was not appropriate, it would not be to the point of murder. In a blink of an eye, he shouted loudly:

"Zhu Yongjun! What are you! Do you think that if you push me into the water and rescue me, I can marry you? You are dreaming! I will not marry you even if I die! You should die as soon as possible." !"

It must be so!

Zhu Yongjun wanted to marry her, but knowing that she would not agree, he deliberately pushed her into the water, and then rescued her ashore, taking advantage of her in front of so many people, who would marry such a dirty person like her in the future? In this way, she will be forced to marry him by public opinion!

Wanting to understand all this, Erya's eyes were bloodshot with hatred, she rushed over, and scratched Zhu Yongjun's face fiercely with her sharp nails:

"You toad! Idiot! You want to marry me? You are worthy! I will sue you for being a hooligan! I will put you in prison for the rest of your life!"

Zhu Yongjun got a paw, and his temper also came up. He kicked Erya unceremoniously, pointed at her nose and scolded:

"You go and sue! I'm going to sue you for playing hooligans! You look like bean sprouts, and you can't give birth at first sight. Who would want you? You are just planning on my kindness, warm-hearted, and deliberately jumped into the water bubble. , lead me to save you, so that you can plan to marry me, Zhu Yongjun!"

Speaking of this, Zhu Yongjun looked up and down Erya's dry and flat figure, and the disgusted expression on his face should not be too obvious.

"Tell me about you, you are a lesbian, how can you be so shameless? You took off your clothes as soon as you got into the water to seduce me. Do you think that I will marry you? You are dreaming!"

Er Ya was so angry that her lips trembled.

These rotten things were obviously done by that scumbag, but in the end he blamed her, saying that she took off her clothes to seduce him.

It's just too shameless and dirty!

If she can take off her clothes in the water, then she can swim up by herself. Does Zhu Yongjun need to save her?

Seeing that Erya was too angry to speak, Zhu Yongjun was very proud of himself, but he still put on a gesture of a man who doesn't care about women, and picked up the clothes hanging on the hospital bed to rescue Erya:

"The clothes you're wearing today, look, the clothes are too big, you must look like a sack, if you didn't take off your clothes by yourself, you probably fell into the water, and the clothes were washed away by the water. It came out of the top of the head."

Erya's eyes were red, her throat was itchy, and Zhu Yongjun's eyes were very sincere. She even suspected that she had made a mistake, and felt that Zhu Yongjun did not push her into the water. He saved her only to save others, nothing else. The purpose, otherwise he wouldn't have shouted that he wouldn't marry her bean sprouts.

As for the clothes on her body, it is very likely that they were washed away by the water as Zhu Yongjun said. After all, the clothes are too loose for her.

Erya had just been soaked in water, and besides being frightened, her emotions were too agitated, as soon as she calmed down at the moment, she couldn't hold herself back, and she passed out again.

What happened at night quickly spread in the steel mill. Some people said that Zhu Yongjun was plotting against Erya. Some people thought that Zhu Yongjun was a hero who saved lives. Diving, leading Zhu Yongjun to save her...

No matter what kind of guess it is, almost no one in the factory thinks that these two people will get married because of this incident.

After all, as soon as Erya woke up, the two began to fight each other, and there was no possibility of sitting down to talk at all. If the factory really got these two people together, maybe everyone's brains could be beaten into a dog's brain. If someone dies, who will be responsible?

It was not easy in the factory to urge the two to get married, and Zhu Yongjun never showed up in front of Erya. When a worker asked him when he planned to marry Erya, he turned his back on him directly, saying that he yearned for a like-minded revolutionary relationship and would never. Just because he learned to do good deeds once, and joked about his lifelong affairs, he would not marry Erya.

Zhu Yongjun didn't talk about Erya here, and his little life was very nourishing, but the life of Erya who had just been discharged from the hospital was difficult.

Now everyone in the steel factory knows that Zhu Yongjun hugged, touched, and kissed her body, and some people said that she didn't know the integrity of the government, and deliberately took off her clothes to seduce Zhu Yongjun. Zhu Yongjun also looked down on her and refused to marry her...

These gossips filled Erya's ears all the time, and she would be pointed at wherever she went.

As a result, tens of thousands of people in the entire steel plant basically know her face. Whether they are going to work in the workshop or returning home after get off work, male workers will deliberately walk in front of her, secretly aiming at her underdeveloped chest .

Even if you go to the cafeteria to eat, there are many female trade unions who rush to her aggressively, take a closer look at her face, then look at her flat figure, and ask her directly if she took off her clothes to seduce Zhu Yongjun. Don't want her.

In just one week, Erya's emotions collapsed, and she stayed in the dormitory and dared not go to work, or even go out to meet people.

But even so, Er Ya's life is not easy. She lived in a multi-person dormitory, and besides her, there was another female worker living there. When something like this happened, the others in the dormitory took her as a virus, as if looking at her made their eyes dirty.

Erya also thought about changing jobs, using her job in a steel factory for a job in another factory, but there are only so many people coming and going in the Linyang factory, and there are fellowship parties between factories every year. In the end, she couldn't escape these rumors, and could only let more people know about her scandal.

In addition to changing jobs, she could apply to go to the countryside as an educated youth to escape this matter, but when she thought of the hardships she had suffered in the countryside in her previous life, and her young but old face, she immediately dismissed this idea.

Even if she were to marry Zhu Yongjun, it would be impossible for her to go to the countryside to become an educated youth again.

Different from Erya's anxiety and embarrassment, Zhu Yongjun's life is getting more and more moist now. Every day, workers who have not yet found a partner invite him to dinner, and then they gather together to ask him the details of rescuing Erya.

Zhu Yongjun is so honest and honest. Whenever someone asks him, he will say, including that he carried Erya who was only wearing a small vest ashore, pressed Erya's stomach to drain water, pressed Erya's chest to give her cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and gave Erya mouth to mouth. Do artificial respiration, one by one, explain clearly.

When some people asked Zhu Yongjun what Erya's flat body felt like when he touched it, although Zhu Yongjun reprimanded everyone not to talk nonsense and ruin Erya's reputation, the reminiscence expression on his face was enough for everyone to understand.

In this way, whenever Erya felt that the rumors between the two were about to subside and was about to go back to work, Zhu Yongjun would add fire to them, and through the word of mouth of the male workers, Erya became a male worker. The most popular and hottest female worker in the mouth.

After a period of time, Erya finally couldn't hold it anymore, and took the initiative to find Zhu Yongjun, wanting to talk to him about the two of them.

Erya asked for help, so naturally he didn't dare to have the same attitude as before, Zhu Yongjun was saving face, he didn't sneer at Erya anymore, but his face was still not good-looking.

Probably because Zhu Yongjun's attitude was too bad before, Erya actually accepted Zhu Yongjun's cold face well, and didn't dislike the other party's bad attitude at all.

"Zhu Yongjun, I'm here to thank you for saving my life..."

As soon as Erya opened his mouth, Zhu Yongjun turned his head and looked defensive, "I said, I was just passing by, and I saw you fell into the water and picked you up by the way, but I didn't intend to marry you. Don't say you are now I regret it, and I want to marry me to repay my kindness!"

Erya: "..."

Zhu Yongjun turned his head and looked Erya up and down, with a mocking smile on his lips, "If you really feel that you can't live on, you can marry me if you want, first tell me how much dowry you have and what you do at home... Say it first, I don't want the dowry if it's less, and I don't want it if the family can't help me!"

Erya almost vomited blood.

This Zhu Yongjun is simply a rascal!

Based on Zhu Yongjun's appearance, she would not choose to marry him even if she was blind!

"Zhu Yongjun, I have a deal here, do you want to do it?"

Seeing that Erya didn't mention the issue of marrying him, Zhu Yongjun lost interest and asked casually, "What business?"

"I will give you money, and you will marry me in a fake..." Erya pursed her lips, paused for a moment, and continued, "I will give you three hundred yuan, you will marry me in a fake, and you will get divorced in three months. Do you want to do it?"

Zhu Yongjun didn't expect that Erya would ask him for a fake marriage, and even offered such a high price to marry him, so he was stunned for a while, not knowing how to accept the offer.

In Zhu Yongjun's plan, he will use public opinion to force Erya to ask him for help step by step, and then try to take Erya out and wander around the factory twice, creating a feeling that the two are already together. illusion.

If Erya still refuses to marry him, then he will act as if he was thrown away by Erya, sad and unable to work, and let the factory force Erya to marry her.

As long as the two get married, the house under Erya's name and the job quota in his hand, shouldn't he have the final say?

But what is the meaning of Erya's operation of fake marriage?

If he doesn't agree to a fake marriage with Erya, will she spend money to find someone to marry, and then divorce after three months?

Three hundred yuan! It is almost a month's income of urban workers. How many people can resist this temptation?

But if he agrees to a fake marriage with Er Ya, if she really wants to divorce after three months, can he still become a second-marriage leader for three hundred yuan?

Seeing that Zhu Yongjun didn't speak for a long time, Erya thought that Zhu Yongjun disagreed, so she got up and prepared to leave.

"Okay, I agree." Zhu Yongjun pulled the corner of his mouth and looked straight at Erya, "But once I get married, if I get divorced, I will become the head of the second marriage, and it will be difficult to find a wife in the future. Three hundred yuan is too much." Less, at least 800 yuan!"

Isn't it just a fake marriage! As long as he is married and has a marriage certificate, he can turn this fake marriage into a real one!

If you want a divorce, it depends on whether he agrees or not!

Erya was naturally dissatisfied with the price proposed by Zhu Yongjun. After bargaining, the two finally settled the deal at 500 yuan.

Before getting married, Erya gave Zhu Yongjun 300 yuan. After three months of divorce, Erya gave Zhu Yongjun another 200 yuan.

After negotiating the conditions, the two got married with great fanfare. Of course, with the marriage of the two, no one in the steel mill would make fun of Erya's scandal.

It was only with the passage of time that Erya gradually realized that she had entered the den of thieves and jumped to Zhu's lair on her own initiative.

Let alone a divorce now, whether she can save her life in Zhu's house is another matter. What's more, Zhu Yongjun not only used all means to force her, he even coveted the big single room under her name, and the fact that she is now in the steel factory. of jobs.

Of course, these are things for later.

Chapter 516, Part 2

"Xiao Qi! Hurry up! The train is coming in soon!"

On the platform, Bai Qingming grabbed Yunshang and quickly caught up with Lin Wenlan in front.

Bai Qingzheng graduated from the military academy. He came back from the capital today and stayed at home for a week before reporting to the southernmost military region.

Gu Shinian came back with Bai Qingzheng, although Gu Shinian said that he came back this time to visit Aunt Zhang Chunni and Deputy Political Commissar Gu, but Bai Qingming felt that Gu Shinian mainly came to see Yunshang.

The train quickly stopped on the platform, and when the passengers had almost got off, Gu Shinian and Bai Qingzheng got off the train one after the other, and strode towards them.

Seeing the two elder brothers, Yun Chang unconsciously smiled, shook off Bai Qingming, and ran over with open arms.

Seeing Yun Shang running over, Bai Qingzheng couldn't help but opened his arms to catch her, but when Yun Shang reached Bai Qingzheng, he turned a corner and threw himself into Gu Shinian's arms behind him.

Bai Qingzheng's face darkened for a moment, and he gave Gu Shinian a sideways glance with fire in his eyes, and stretched out his hand to pull Yun Shang out of Gu Shinian's arms.

"Xiaoqi, you are only welcome to your second brother Gu, and you don't welcome the eldest brother back, right?"

In the past few years, Bai Qingzheng's aura has become more and more powerful. How dare Yun Shang offend Bai Qingzheng? She clasped her elder brother's arm with both hands, and kept uttering good words:

"Where! I miss my elder brother the most. I think about it every day. I wish my elder brother would be assigned to our Linyang military region!"

Gu Shinian was too lazy to watch Bai Qingzheng's naive game of fighting for favor, so he rubbed Yunshang's head, first greeted Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingming who were picking him up at the station, then shook Yunshang's hand, and the group walked out of the station .

After arriving home, Gu Shinian went to see Zhang Chunni and Gu Zonglin first, and then came to Bai's house before dinner, preparing for a welcome feast.

It had been a long time since the Bai family had such a full staff. With the addition of Gu Shinian's five children, Bai Yancheng and his wife, and Aunt Wu, the eight of them sat around the dining table and ate their dinner lively.

Qiuqiu and his son, Maoqiu, squatted on Yunshang's legs from left to right, and meowed a few times from time to time to show that he was also a part of the family.

After dinner, Bai Yancheng brought Bai Qingzheng and Gu Shinian into the study as usual, asked them how they were doing at school, and mentioned a few things that Bai Qingzheng should pay attention to when he arrived in the southern military region, and finally sent Bai Qingzheng away. Clean and upright, he turned his attention to Gu Shinian.

"At that time, I heard from the old man that the date of your departure has been set?"

"It's fixed. I'll leave in a week and go directly to Hong Kong City." Gu Shinian paused, then continued, "Uncle Bai, I might take A-Shang with me when the time comes..."

"I know." Bai Yancheng raised his hand to interrupt Gu Shinian's words, his brows twitched unconsciously, "The old man called and said about it yesterday. Your Aunt Lin doesn't know about it yet, you Don't mention it first, I will find a chance to tell her tomorrow."

Thinking of Lin Wenlan's enthusiasm for pampering Yunshang, Bai Yancheng was so worried that his intestines were almost knotted.

How would he speak about this? Could it be that he wanted to tell Lin Wenlan that your father-in-law took the initiative to apply to the organization and arranged a task for your daughter. He will go to Hong Kong City next week, and he will not come back until a few years later?

To put it this way, Lin Wenlan's violent temper could blow his head off.

Bai Yancheng rubbed his brows, sighed a long time, and asked Gu Shinian, "What should you do when you go out to perform tasks and study? Do you go back to study after the task is over and then go to class, or do you learn things by yourself over there, and come back to talk to you in the future?" Graduated at the same time?"

Gu Shinian replied seriously,

"Uncle Bai, it's too time-consuming to go back to school after completing the task. I'm going to study by myself and go straight to the army when I come back."

Bai Yancheng nodded, looking at Gu Shinian with a somewhat indescribable expression, "Shinian, all these years, your Aunt Lin and I have treated you like our own child, and never treated you as an outsider. When we go to Hong Kong City, You still need to take extra care to take good care of Xiao Qi for me and your aunt Lin."

Bai Yancheng couldn't help but want to cry when he thought that his cute and cute daughter would not see each other for a few years.

How nice my daughter is! In front of his daughter, Lin Wenlan never dared to flirt with him. If Lin Wenlan knew that her daughter had sent his father to Hong Kong City, wouldn't he have to sleep in the study for a year?

Thinking about the days to come now, I always feel a little fuzzy in my heart.

Of course, sleeping in the study is secondary, the most important thing is that he is also reluctant to part with his daughter.

It's been several years since he went out, what should he do if he misses his daughter?

Gu Shinian has already figured out Bai Yancheng's temperament, and he made a serious promise to Bai Yancheng, "Uncle Bai, don't worry, when I get there, I will take a good look at Yunshang and urge her to eat well, read more Order some books, learn more things, and definitely don't let her go out and run around."

"That's good." Bai Yancheng put down the teacup, opened the bottom drawer of the desk, and took out a thick oiled paper bag for Gu Shinian.

"Here is 3,000 yuan, you should keep it for Xiao Qi. You will be staying outside for a few years, you should pay attention to buying new clothes for her for a few more years. If you like other things, as long as they are not too much, you will buy them for Xiao Qi Yes. When the money is spent, ask the comrades over there to pass me a letter, and I will remit it to you."

The money was given to Yun Shang by Bai Yancheng, but Gu Shinian didn't refuse and took it directly.

Although he and Yunshang have accumulated less than 20,000 yuan of private house money one after another over the years, the three thousand yuan is not a small sum. If Yunshang knew that Bai Yancheng had given her so much money, she would definitely be happy for half a month.

When Gu Shinian came out of the study, he greeted Lin Wenlan, and then, under Bai Yancheng's frowning gaze, he took Yunshang out for a walk.

Yun Chang knew Gu Shinian so well. As soon as she entered the training ground, she lowered her voice and asked, "Second Brother Gu, did you call me out to talk about something serious?"

"Yeah." Gu Shinian responded lightly, and asked in a relaxed tone, "Guess what's going on."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she grabbed Gu Shinian's arm, and asked with surprise, "Second Brother! Is that settled! Can you go to Hong Kong City now!?"

Gu Shinian didn't hold back, dragged Yun Shang to continue walking, and whispered back, "A Chang, it's not just me, you have to go too."

Thinking that I can bring Yunshang to live in Hong Kong City for a few years, Yunshang can wear all kinds of beautiful clothes in a fair manner, eat all kinds of delicious food without limit, and let her pick up the piano, violin, and Gu Shi that she learned in her previous life. I feel that this mission is very worthwhile.

Compared with the credit after completing the task, he wants to see Yun Shang's incomparable growth.

Knowing that she was leaving for the provincial capital in a week, Yun Shang couldn't close her mouth in excitement, she followed Gu Shinian, giggling from time to time.

Yun Shang and Gu Shinian were all happy, but Bai Yancheng's life was difficult.

His premonition was correct. When Lin Wenlan heard that Yunshang was going to Hong Kong City with Gu Shinian, and that she might not be able to return until a few years later, she immediately picked up the white porcelain teacup at hand, and almost opened it to Bai Yancheng.

"Bai Yancheng! Are you crazy! How old is Xiaoqi? You are willing to send her out? Others don't know the situation in Hong Kong City, don't you? There was just a mess a few days ago, you Don't worry? In your eyes, you have nothing but credit, don't you!"

Lin Wenlan was beaten while talking, and in a short while Bai Yancheng was beaten up all over the room, with paint on his body and neck.

Fortunately, Lin Wenlan remembered that Bai Yancheng had a meeting tomorrow morning, so he avoided his face when he scratched people, otherwise the majestic Commander Bai would definitely wear the hat of fear, the one for the whole army to see.

"Wen Lan, don't worry, don't worry! Our Xiaoqi's task is to be responsible for eating, drinking and having fun in the past, and nothing else! Those tasks are performed by other comrades. Our Xiaoqi was the oil bottle back then. No danger!"

Bai Yancheng said everything about the Yu family's affairs, and finally said with a cold face, saying that this is a glorious task entrusted to Yunshang by the organization. Cai Kankan kept his head.

But even though he didn't have to be beaten anymore, Bai Yancheng was also deprived of the qualification to sleep in the bedroom. That night he spent a miserable night in the study, and Lin Wenlan didn't even allow him to cover him with a quilt.

For the next few days, Lin Wenlan didn't go to work anymore, and took Yunshang around Linyang every day to prepare her luggage.

The new clothes alone filled a large box. If Yunshang hadn't stopped her, Lin Wenlan would have even called Cheng Guo, planning to ask Cheng Guo to go to the Friendship Store to buy some new clothes for Yunshang.

Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming only thought that Yunshang was going to the capital to accompany Mr. Bai, but when they saw that Lin Wenlan wanted to pack up the whole family for Yunshang to take away, they were so jealous that they twisted their heads. One was jealous that Yun Shang could wear such brightly colored and beautifully styled new clothes, and the other was jealous that Lin Wenlan prepared so many delicious food for Yun Shang that he couldn't eat.

So the two happily decided that the two of them would eat half of the delicious food that Lin Wenlan prepared for Yun Shang!

In the next few days, such a picture often appeared in the Bai family. Lin Wenlan and Aunt Wu filled the Yunshang box with delicious food one after another. Pick up something delicious to eat.

Lin Wenlan didn't stop them, only the two of them ate too much, so they said a few words, and after a few times, the two of them stopped doing it.

A week passed quickly, and on the day of departure, Bai Yancheng drove himself, and together with Lin Wenlan, sent Yunshang, Gu Shinian, and Bai Qingzheng by the way to the train.

Yun Chang's originally excited mood quickly subsided after the train started. Thinking of Bai Yancheng tidying her berth on the train over and over again, Lin Wenlan's eyes were red, and she hugged her, lowering her voice and whispering in her ear, Yun Chang's eye circles turned red unconsciously.

Bai Qingzheng was going to fetch hot water right now, Gu Shinian reached out to wipe away the tears from the corners of Yunshang's eyes, and said in a low voice, "Ah Chang, there are many uncertainties in this mission, maybe he will come back in a few months When the time comes, Second Brother will bring you back to see Uncle Bai and Aunt Lin."

Yun Chang nodded, took out an apple from her pocket and took a bite. The sweet taste of the candy heart overflowed in her mouth, which made people feel better.

Organizationally, the preparations for this time were very good. The two of them prepared two sets just for their new identities. The other people who did the mission also went to Hong Kong City on their own through the channel of visiting relatives, and then met at the designated place when they got there.

Yun Chang even felt that Bai Qing was assigned to the southern military region, and he also came with a secret mission.

Bai Qing was coming back from fetching water. Seeing the red corners of Yunshang's eyes, he knew that she had just cried. He rubbed Yunshang's head, then took out his poker cards, and prepared to play the simplest train pulling game with her.

The rules are so simple that they are mentally handicapped, that is, each person takes turns to play cards one by one, pressing one by one like a train, during the process of pressing, two cards with the same number are found, the upper one is the locomotive, the lower one is the tail of the train, and the middle ones All the cards belong to the party at the end of the train.

After Yun Shang heard the gameplay, her disgusted eyes almost rolled into the sky.

Is Bai Qingzheng looking down on her, or is he really treating her as mentally handicapped?

Although she doesn't play poker very much, she did go out with Gu Erge a lot in her previous life. She is not too familiar with the various ways of playing poker.

If you really want to play, she tortured Bai Qingzheng to death so easily, how dare you not see her clearly?

"Brother, your IQ can only pull trains, you can't play with me and Brother Gu, we two go to the next room to find someone to fight the landlord, you can find a three-year-old child to pull the train with you."

Seeing that Yun Shang was in a better mood, Bai Qingzheng smiled, and didn't care about Yun Shang's words of pushing him into the crack of the door, and pulled Gu Shinian to play Dou Dizhu with Yun Shang.

Bai Qingzheng already had a high opinion of Yunshang, but as soon as he got started, he realized that Yunshang was really good at playing cards.

Unlike ordinary people playing cards with luck, Yun Shang's brain is like a high-speed machine, and every time he and Gu Shinian's cards are counted to death.

At the beginning, Bai Qingzheng was thinking of letting the water go, and wanted Yunshang to win a few more times, so that he could be happier. But after a few hands, Bai Qingzheng realized that Yunshang didn't need him to give in at all, even if he showed his best form, Yunshang's brain could easily abuse him.

Even if Gu Shinian was indispensable to help Yunshang feed the cards, it was already very rare for her to count the cards in his and Gu Shinian's hands.

The train moved slowly on the vast land, the three of them played poker all the way, or listened to Bai Qingzheng and Gu Shinian chatting about their time in the military academy, or whispered about the current affairs of the capital, Yunshang was not at all Feeling hard.

It was probably the reason why Bai Yancheng greeted them in advance. In the box of the three of them, there was no passenger from the beginning to the end. As long as the door of the box was closed at night, the few of them could sleep peacefully without worrying about their luggage getting in the way. Questions not to be lost.

After a long journey, the train finally stopped at the terminal station. Bai Qing was just changing into a brand-new military uniform, his neck was tightly buttoned, his face was serious, his whole demeanor changed immediately, like a sharp knife about to be unsheathed, his whole body was filled with the smell of death.

On the other hand, Gu Shinian and Yunshang were dressed like returned overseas Chinese. Gu Shinian was wearing a brand new suit, gold-rimmed glasses, and his handsome face. He should be an elite man, but The evil smile at the corner of his mouth, the half-smile look in his eyes when looking at people, and the posture of leaning against the door frame of the box as if his whole body was boneless, made him look like a gentle scum.

Bai Qingzheng couldn't recognize him anymore, it was obviously the same person, a few minutes ago he was sitting there upright, his words and deeds had a military look, but in just a few minutes, it was a different person like.

It's just... so touching!

There is also Yunshang, wearing a brand new skirt, the fabric and style, it looks like it was bought at the Friendship Store.

There was also a small red leather bag on her shoulders, and she stood beside Gu Shinian gracefully. She was supposed to be a cute and sweet girl, but it was matched with her shallow, slightly contemptuous eyes. The noble energy came out all at once.

The two stood together, and no one would believe that they were not brothers and sisters.

Although there were not many expressions on their faces, the condescending and condescending attitude was easily brought out through the behavior of the two of them.

The corner of Bai Qingzheng's mouth twitched, he stretched out his hand to pinch Yunshang's face, squeezed out a smile, and said, "Xiao Qi, take care of yourself outside, don't be reluctant to spend money, if you encounter something that can't be solved, let Shi Nian take care of it at home." Believe me."

Yun Chang nodded obediently, feeling more reluctant in her heart.

Facing Gu Shinian, Bai Qingzheng didn't have such a good temper anymore. He snorted coldly, and looked up and down Gu Shinian in disgust. Although his movements were light, they were full of strength. He punched Gu Shinian twice in the chest: "Take care of Xiao Qi outside!" Or else I'll take the skin off of you, a gentle scum!

Yun Shang: "..."

Brother, don't think I can't see your little tricks!

Do you really think I'm blind if you bully Second Brother Gu with petty tricks in front of me?

Gu Shinian knew that Bai Qingzheng was feeling uncomfortable, so he didn't bother with him, smiled, and said meaningfully, "You just arrived here, don't be too impatient, and be careful in everything."

Bai Qingzheng nodded, with a straight face, got out of the car without looking back, and left in the direction of the military area.

Only then did Gu Shinian and Yunshang put in the luggage that could fit into the space, and left the station with only the empty suitcase, heading towards the customs.

The three of them didn't say a word when they got off the bus, and they didn't look back at each other, as if the two parties just happened to buy tickets and bought the same box, and they were just strangers who didn't know each other.

The two of them completed the formalities, passed the customs very smoothly, and boarded the ship to the port city.

Sitting in the car that came to pick them up at the pier, Yunshang turned her head all the way and looked at the street scene outside the car window.

In this period, Hong Kong City was not as brilliant as the four Asian tigers, and there were not many Europeans and Americans living here.

Although the clothes of pedestrians on the street are not like the mainstream army green popular in China, they are not too fashionable either. Most of the women wore colorful plaids and fluffy buns, and many women wore old-fashioned cheongsams. Most of the men wore shirts tucked into their trouser waists, and their hair was combed so shiny that a fly could split their ends.

There are many European-style buildings on both sides of the street, and there are all kinds of shop signs on them. At a glance, Yunshang took a closer look and found that there are different types of signboards on them, but they all have the characteristics of the times. Even the upper bunk The names, such as "Jinji Commercial Firm", "Wangjia Rice Shop", "Mrs. Pei", "Wenchang Ya" and so on, all have a strong style of the Republic of China.

There are many vendors setting up small stalls on both sides of the street, and the upstairs balcony is full of clothes. Sandwiched between these European-style buildings are side streets and narrow alleys, inside which are crowded low houses and privately built buildings everywhere. Various styles are blended together, which is not obtrusive and full of life.

Different from domestic ones, there are already many cars on the streets of Hong Kong City, and there are some human rickshaws interspersed among them. In the small urban space of Hong Kong City, it transports guests who are busy with their lives.

Yun Shang even saw an advertisement for coffee on the dark green tram body. This is the only advertising method she has seen so far, and it has been used in future generations.

Although the Hong Kong city at this time was far less than one-tenth of what it was in the glorious period of later generations, it had already taken on a distinct Hong Kong flavor.

Inclusive, free.

There are all kinds of races on the street, the cars are constantly flowing, the sound of horns, loud voices, noisy, Cantonese, English, Shanghainese, and other local dialects fill Yunshang's ears all the way, making people's brains so noisy All hurt.

The car quickly passed through the noisy neighborhood and stopped in front of a small two-storey western-style building with a small garden. Yun Chang got out of the car and found that the second uncle with a new identity was already waiting in the living room.

Yun Chang knew in her heart that this second uncle, as well as the other two people in the house who were in charge of purchasing and security, were the executors of this mission.

However, although everyone's ultimate mission goal is the same, the division of labor is different. Yunshang and Gu Shinian didn't have the idea of inquiring about other people's missions. They just wanted to return some treasures to the country while completing their duties. .

After going upstairs to freshen up, the two followed the second uncle and two other people into the study.

"My surname is An, and my name is An Guosheng. I came to Hong Kong City in 1947 under the arrangement of the organization. I have lived here for 20 years and am very familiar with it. Hong Kong City is different from China, and many things cannot be done in the domestic way. How to do it, where you are going in the future, what you need to do, feel free to ask me if you have any questions, so as not to make mistakes and make it difficult to clean up."

As soon as Uncle An opened his mouth, he revealed his identity as an old jerk, and mentioned Gu Shinian in a non-essential way, hiding a knife in the cotton, but it won't make people uncomfortable. People suddenly paid attention to it.

Gu Shinian sat up straight, smiled and said, "I see, thank you, Second Uncle."

Seeing this, Yun Chang quickly nodded, "Second Uncle, I also know."

The second uncle who has two more nephews and nieces: "...". The identity adapts so quickly.

"This is the new identity for the two of you." An Guosheng handed the two documents to Gu Shinian and Yunshang, motioning them to write them down quickly.

According to the information, Yunshang only changed to An's surname, but did not change his name, while Gu Shinian even changed his name and surname, calling him An Yunzhou.

The identities of Yunshang and Gu Shinian are the children of An Guosheng's eldest brother who went to country Y in the early years, that is, the people who live in An's house. This time, An Guosheng's eldest brother died of illness, and the two children came across the sea. He defected to An Guosheng.

In the information, there are An Yunzhou and An Yunshang's experiences in country Y since they were young, and there are also a few photos of their childhood. If you look carefully, there are indeed shadows of Gu Shinian and Yunshang in their eyebrows.

The two quickly wrote down the information, and An Guosheng introduced the identities of the other two comrades to them. One of them was surnamed Li and the other was surnamed Jin. They were their housekeepers and bodyguards.

In addition, An Guosheng also arranged for part-time workers who specialize in cleaning and cooking. They would come to take care of the lives of several people every day during the day, and would not stay here at night.

An Guosheng's family lived next door, a small three-story bungalow. Before Yunshang and Gu Shinian came over, the An family had already opened the wall between the two houses and made a moon door. From the outside, it looked like two houses. A house, in fact, is no different from a family inside.

Yun Shang also understood An Guosheng's practice of placing the two in the bungalow next door.

An Guosheng's ostensible identity is a well-known big businessman in Hong Kong City, his wife and children must not know that he has another identity, and she, Gu Shinian, and two other comrades all came with missions. Li rarely had to exchange news, or have a small meeting from time to time. If he lived in An Guosheng's house, he would inevitably feel inconvenient.

In addition, Yunshang and Gu Shinian's superficial identities came back with a large amount of family property. Since they are two people, the two live next door to An Guosheng. Since they seem close, it is convenient for An Guosheng to take care of them nearby. There is also an independent space, which is convenient for everyone to perform tasks.

Just as they finished talking, there was a knock on the door outside, and a childish voice came in, "Dad! Dad! Have you brought back my brother and sister? Mom took me to see my brother and sister!"

An Guosheng coughed dryly, glanced at Yunshang and Gu Shinian, and went to open the door.

"Yunzhou, Yunshang, this is your second aunt, and these three are your cousins, come and get to know each other."

An Guosheng has two sons and a daughter. The eldest child is An Yunxi. He is sixteen years old this year. There are two sons, the eldest is An Yunming, who is fourteen years old this year, with clear features, and they are well-educated by An Guosheng and his wife. The youngest is An Yunlang, who is only seven years old this year. He is at the age when people hate dogs, and he is very naughty.

Second Aunt An's name is Mei Yingxue, a very poetic and picturesque name, and this name suits her very well. She doesn't look particularly pretty, but she has a bookish aura on her body, which is very similar to Lin Wenlan's temperament, and she is very comfortable to get along with.

Looking at An Guosheng's family in front of her, her nominal second uncle and second aunt, and three and a half older children standing side by side, Yunshang clearly realized for the first time that she is now in Hong Kong City, not in Hong Kong. Linyang is not in the capital city either. She is not Xiao Qi of the Bai family in the capital city anymore, but the niece of An Guosheng, An Yunshang who just came back from country Y to visit relatives.

After having a sumptuous feast at An's house, Yun Shang couldn't bear to go back to her room to sleep. Gu Shinian couldn't take care of rest, and followed An Guosheng to arrange a school for Yun Shang.

When Yunshang woke up, she found that she was the only one at home. She knew in her heart that Comrade Li and Comrade Jin should be out to do some work.

Taking advantage of the fact that there was no one at home, Yun Chang quickly changed her clothes, and went upstairs and downstairs to look at the layout of the whole small western-style building.

The small garden in front is about 40 square meters. It looks pitifully small, but it is extremely rare in a Hong Kong city where the population is rapidly expanding and every inch of land is expensive.

The whole small bungalow is a European-style building, with two floors and seven rooms in total. There are two large bedrooms on the sunny side upstairs, a small study room and a bathroom on the opposite side.

The downstairs is also the same layout, but there is an extra guest room.

The living room is very large, about 60 square meters, with a huge crystal lamp hanging above the head, and a set of antique mahogany sofas underneath.

Directly opposite the sofa, against the wall is a high mahogany table with a dial telephone and an aluminum kettle on it. Next to it is a slightly lower mahogany cabinet, on which there is a black and white TV. There is no remote control, and the switch must be turned by hand.

It can be seen that the sofa and high table in the living room, as well as the mahogany cabinet on which the cushions are placed, are a set, placed in the living room with bright and clean windows, it looks very high-end.

Thinking of the relatively simple decoration of her bedroom, and comparing it with the rather 'antique' living room, Yun Shang knew in her heart that these shiny things,

After walking around upstairs and downstairs, Yunshang was very familiar with this house.

Yunshang was about to go to the study to find some recent Hong Kong city newspapers. Mei Yingxue was carrying a bag in her hand, leading An Yunxi and a woman who was about fifty years old and wearing a gray cloth slanted top across the yard. The Moon Gate from inside came over.

"Yunshang, this is Mother Chen, your second uncle is here to take care of you and Yunzhou..."

Mei Yingxue paused for a moment, took Yunshang's hand, and said heart-to-heart, "Yunshang, according to my opinion, you and Yunzhou can come to our place for dinner, it would be great if our family is lively.

But your second uncle said that you and Yunzhou are not used to the taste here, so you can feel more comfortable eating by yourself.

Chen Ma is very good at craftsmanship, I picked several people to choose Chen Ma. I also made an agreement with her that I will come here every morning and go back at night, you and Yunzhou will use it first, if it is not suitable, then tell me, and I will help you change people. "

Mei Yingxue had a warm smile on her face, and her words were gentle and gentle, which made people feel warm when they heard it.

For Mei Yingxue's thoughtfulness, Yunshang was very grateful. After solemnly thanking An Yunxi and Chen Ma, she took Chen Ma to the kitchen and went upstairs and downstairs. Tell her about the situation at home.

After returning to the living room, Mei Yingxue took out a new set of clothes and said to Yunshang, "Yunshang, your second uncle and Yunzhou have gone to handle the transfer procedures for you. These are school uniforms. Try to see if they fit. If it doesn't fit, I'll change it later for you."

Yun Chang looked at the white shirt and blue skirt in Mei Yingxue's hand, her eyes lit up, her mind was only thinking of beautiful clothes, and she completely forgot the previous sentence "Your second uncle and Yunzhou will handle the transfer procedures for you".

Changing into the new school uniform, Yunshang looked at the mirror very smugly for a long time. Although the new school uniform was a little bigger, but this ocean-like color exuded a fresh and natural girlish feeling, and Yunshang's mood also followed suit. Ceng Ceng flew up.

Mei Yingxue looked up and looked up and down at Yunshang who came down from upstairs, "Oh, it's a bit big. I'll cut it for you later."

An Yunxi also pulled Yunshang to look around, then turned to Mei Yingxue and said, "Mom, Yunshang looks good in this dress! It looks better than Baby Wen!"

Mei Yingxue nodded in agreement, "It's pretty. I'll take you to a department store tomorrow and buy you some new clothes."

Yunshang mumly responded, blinking her eyes, not knowing who the baby Wen was talking about in An Yunxi's mouth.

Seeing this, An Yunxi pulled Yunshang to do science popularization for her.

According to An Yunxi, Wen Baobao's father is one of the well-known businessmen in Hong Kong City, and his business is bigger than that of An Guosheng. Wen Baobao is the only girl in the Wen family. She looks a lot like a popular actress. The school belle is also one of the most popular marriage partners in the Hong Kong business district.

Such a small and fresh introduction gave Yun Shang the illusion that she had switched from a spy war drama to a school romance drama and a wealthy family's grievance drama.

She was so scared that Yunshang kept thinking in her heart: I am a red and expert socialist successor, a flower bone flower carefully cultivated by the motherland, and I came to Hong Kong City to find cultural relics for the country! I'm here to find cultural relics! I'm here to find artifacts...

Realizing that she and Mei Yingxue and An Yunxi might not agree with each other in terms of perspectives and ideas, Yunshang was so frightened that she quickly took off her clothes and fooled the two of them away.

You can't get away without being fooled, she is a person who is greedy for food, fun and enjoyment, what if she can't control herself and degenerates from thought to body?

She really can't imagine that she is like An Yunxi, who cares about which female celebrity is good-looking, which male celebrity is handsome, the school's family is rich, and many people want to marry her...

She also did these ordinary things in her previous life, and now Yun Shang feels guilty just thinking about it.

She is determined to dedicate her life to the cause of socialism!

How can it be so tacky?

How can you waste your youth on such mundane things!

Yun Shang sat on the sofa and thought about it for a long time, finally heaved a long sigh, and confessed with guilt in her heart: There is no way, she is about to degenerate, she is simply a layman.

When it was almost dark, Gu Shinian and An Guosheng came back from outside.

Knowing that he would become An Yunming's classmate, and that he would go to school with An Yunming every morning, and go home together at night, and there was no chance to skip class or not do homework, he was directly stunned.

What crime did she do to leave the comfortable schools in Linyang and go to Hong Kong City to be a good student who attends classes honestly?

Gu Shinian saw Yun Shang's expression of resistance, suppressed the smile on the corner of his mouth, and continued, "I also asked my second uncle to hire a piano teacher and a violin teacher for you to help you pick up all the things you have learned before. stand up....."

Before he finished speaking, Yun Shang gritted his teeth and asked, "Gu Shinian, do you have a grudge against me?"

"A-shang, if you've finished your studies, I can have an explanation with Aunt Lin when I go back. Do you want me to tell Aunt Lin that you sleep in class every day here, and try every reason not to do homework when you go home?

The piano and violin you have learned before are easy to pick up. When I go back later, I can still tell Aunt Lin that you are busy learning piano and violin every day, and you are doing very well. Do you think Aunt Lin will be happy to hear that? "

Between the lazy kid and the smart kid, Yunshang decisively chose the latter.

Although being tired is a little tired, which may make Lin Wenlan happy, she is still willing to be a little tired.

Besides, she has been learning the piano and violin in her last life, but she hasn't touched it for a few years, and she can pick it up after a little practice without much trouble.

There are only a few middle schools in the boys' and girls' schools in Hong Kong that accept both boys and girls. At the beginning, Gu Shinian thought about letting Yunshang go to Yinghua Girls' School, so that he wouldn't have to worry about Yunshang receiving love letters from boys like in his previous life.

It's just that after inquiring about the girls' school with An Guosheng, Gu Shinian gave up the idea.

The management of the girls' school is far stricter than Gu Shinian imagined, and with a free and undisciplined personality like Yunshang, going to a girls' school must have some hardships.

In addition, he and Yunshang still have missions on them. Once they have clues about cultural relics, no matter which country they are in, he and Yunshang will rush there at any time.

For girls' schools with strict management, it is not so convenient to ask for leave.

After comprehensive consideration, Gu Shinian chose St. Mark's Middle School where An Yunming is. With An Yunming's "cousin" under his protection, Yunshang can be less harassed at school, and the driver can pick up and drop off two students together. It is very convenient for people to go to and from school.

"Ah Chang, this school comes out of Chinese, Mandarin, history, and some literature courses, and other subjects are taught in English. You used to go to a bilingual school. I'm not worried that you can't understand. But in Comrade An In the eyes of other comrades, you can't understand everything at once..."

Yun Chang asked with a bitter face, "Second brother, so I have to act?"

Damn, how can I play this play?

Her external identity is that she is an overseas Chinese who just came back from country Y to join her relatives. The teaching in English should be the same as the teaching in her mother tongue, there should be no problem at all. But my family knew about my family affairs. In the eyes of An Guosheng and the other two comrades, she was just an old hat who just came from China. How could she understand English teaching?

Thinking of the predicament facing Yunshang, Gu Shinian couldn't help laughing, "Don't worry, I discussed it with Comrade An today. In order to prevent you from being ruined, first find someone to help you with English tutoring. There are also Chinese lessons. Bu, here are all traditional characters, you have to get used to it for a while. Fortunately, it is still summer vacation, you have two months to study, and you can go to school after you can keep up with the school schedule."

Yun Shang was really relieved, it would be good if she had two months to adapt, so she wouldn't worry about revealing her secrets.

"Second Brother, Second Aunt said that she will take me to the department store tomorrow, so you can go with me. You are a rich young man who has inherited billions of dollars of wealth. You just came here, so you have to buy some clothes to suit your personality."

Gu Shinian was obviously not used to his status as a dandy, his face froze for a moment, and then he nodded in agreement.

The most indispensable thing in Hong Kong City is high-rise buildings, which are densely crowded together. Even if you don't look at people, just look at the signs, you can still feel the bustling and lively center of the block.

At that time, department stores were divided into three types: high-end foreign department stores such as Martha and Daimaru, local brands such as Wing On and Daidai, and old state-owned enterprises such as Yuhua and Zhongqiao.

Mei Yingxue took Yunshang and Gu Shinian's family for a stroll, and Yunshang noticed that the high-end clothes in it sold for seven or eight hundred yuan, which was equivalent to an ordinary worker in Hong Kong City. monthly income.

Just looking at the price tag, Yun Shang felt a pain in the flesh, even though the money in her space could be exchanged for tens of thousands of Hong Kong dollars.

Mei Yingxue has a very sharp eye in choosing clothes, she can tell at a glance whether the clothes are suitable for Yun Shang, she doesn't even need to try them.

Chapter 517

They only walked around for half an hour, and Yunshang and Mei Yingxue already carried seven or eight bags, large and small.

However, the bag in Mei Yingxue's hand contained something, but the bags in Yunshang's hand were all empty, and all the things were put in one bag for Gu Shinian to carry.

And Gu Shinian is like a real dude right now, with a cigarette in his hand, which was not lit, and a man's handbag in the other, he raised his head, looking around casually impatiently, He didn't have the slightest sense of carrying bags for the two of them.

It was almost six o'clock when they got home.

Chen Ma finished dinner and went home. Lao Li and Lao Jin each held a bowl full of vegetables, squatting side by side in front of the sofa to watch TV.

Seeing that the two came back, Lao Jin quickly swallowed the food in his mouth, and greeted them, "I'm back! This mother Chen is a good cook, I left half of the food for you, go and eat!"

Yun Chang washed her hands and face, and came out of the kitchen with her rice bowl in her hand. Seeing that the two of them had sofas and insisted on squatting, she couldn't help asking curiously, "Uncle Jin, Uncle Li, why don't you sit on the sofa, why do you insist on squatting?" What about eating?"

"This stuff is too soft, I'm not used to sitting on it." Lao Jin chuckled, and continued, "I'll go out and get some small benches back tomorrow."

Yun Shang pressed the soft sofa, thinking that this reason was a bit cute.

Lao Li finished shoveling the food in his mouth, and said to Yunshang, "By the way, Comrade An found some teachers for you today, and said that you will start making up lessons tomorrow. You need to learn English and traditional Chinese characters. Listen Say you still want to learn the piano, what kind of piano... This opportunity is hard to come by, you have to seize the opportunity and study hard."

Yun Chang nodded quickly, "Don't worry, Uncle Li, I'm determined to study hard, and I must not reveal my secrets."

Gu Shinian answered from the side, "Ah Chang has a good mind, two months should be about the same, and he can keep up with the start of school."

As soon as they had eaten, An Guosheng came over from the next door, closed the door with his backhand as soon as they entered, and called the three of them into the study to discuss matters.

Yun Shang tactfully took a few cups of hot tea and quit, sat on the sofa and turned the TV volume up to cover the voice of the conversation in the study.

After An Guosheng left and Gu Shinian returned to the room after washing, Yun Chang slipped in immediately.

"Second brother, do you have a mission?"

When asking questions, Yunshang's eyes were round and round, shining brightly, full of excitement that was eager to try.

Yun Chang was required to cooperate with the task, but Gu Shinian did not hide it from her. He went to close the door and said in a low voice, "Next month, the Wen Family in Hong Kong City will hold a banquet to celebrate Mr. Wen's birthday. An Guosheng will get It is confirmed that the birthday present given by Wen's parents to Mr. Wen is a volume in the copy of "Yongle Dadian"..."

""Yongle Dadian"!?" Yun Shang was shocked.

"Yongle Dadian" is known as the largest encyclopedia in the history of the world. It has more than 20,000 volumes, more than 10,000 volumes, and about 370 million words.

In another world, the exact location of the original "Yongle Canon" cannot be determined, but the copy was destroyed in the flames of war, and the remaining 800 volumes are scattered all over the world.

If the volume "Yongle Dadian" that appeared in Wenjia is true, one can imagine how precious it is.

"The businessmen in Hong Kong know that the old man of the Wen family likes to collect antiques. Every year he celebrates his birthday, his children will find ways to give him various cultural relics and historic sites.

An Guosheng said that the dog's head that came out of Yu's old second-hand shop is now in Wen's house, and it was a birthday gift received by the old man of Wen's family on his birthday in 1964. "

Yun Shang's face was so ugly that he asked Gu Shinian, "Did An Guosheng say what the origin of this writer is?"

Gu Shinian sneered at the corner of his mouth, and his voice was gloomy, "The businessmen who came from China in the early years made enough money for the country, so they hid here and never went out."

Yun Chang immediately regained her spirits, holding Gu Shinian's hand, her eyes sparkled, and she said in a low voice, "Second brother, are you doing something big!?"

Gu Shinian looked at Yunshang, a smile slowly appeared on the corner of his mouth, "Okay, this time I will do something big."

For a family like the Wen family who made a fortune out of the country's financial crisis, the two of them did not have the slightest psychological concerns when they started fighting.

Those things are precious treasures belonging to the country, national treasures shared by hundreds of millions of people in the country, and the Wen family hides them privately in their own homes, so they may not be able to suppress the nobility of national treasures.

"By the way, second brother, An Yunxi told me about this Wen family yesterday, saying that she is the only girl in the Wen family who is in the same school as her. She is the school belle and one of the most popular marriage partners in Hong Kong City."

Speaking of which, Yunshang squinted at Gu Shinian, and teased him, "Second brother, let's go and take a good look at what this baby Wen looks like. If it is really good-looking, I will compare it with Wen to find you a wife in the future." Look for the baby!"

Gu Shinian pinched Yun Shang's face unceremoniously, and twisted it half a circle, "A Chang, what does a granddaughter of the Wen family look like, does it have anything to do with us being a big ticket?"

Yun Chang quickly shook her head, "...No."

"It's good to know, and next time you talk nonsense like this, let's see how I deal with you."

After being reprimanded, Yun Chang went back to the room in despair.

In the next few days, Yunshang followed the teacher to make up lessons all day long, learned English with Gu Shinian in the morning, and studied piano and violin alone in the afternoon, so busy that she didn't have time to play and go shopping.

The children of An Guosheng's family, seeing two cousins suddenly coming to the house, felt that it was very novel, and they stopped going out to play with their classmates every day, and often stayed here instead of going back.

After a few days of make-up classes, Yunshang and Gu Shinian showed a little bit of their extremely high language talent, and their learning effect improved rapidly. The happy Lao Li and Lao Jin ate three more bowls of rice, and they kept saying that they should study hard and strive for it. Follow An Guosheng out early to walk around (treasure hunt) in various houses.

Time passed slowly while Yunshang was studying every day, and when it came to the birthday of the old man of the Wen family, An Guosheng randomly picked up a few gifts, brought Gu Shinian and Yunshang, who were newly dressed, and brought the driver Mr. Li, the bodyguard Lao Jin, went to Wen's house early.

Compared with An Guosheng's family, Wen's family is obviously much more expensive. Whether it is the large bungalow or the interior decoration, it is a higher grade than An's family.

The old man of the Wen family had his 70th birthday this year, and there were a lot of guests here. Almost as soon as Yun Shang stepped into Yun's house, he stretched out his energy to check the gifts brought by these guests.

Whenever they saw something that looked like antiques, they would quietly signal to Gu Shinian, and then Gu Shinian pretended to be inadvertent, and slowly found out the identities of these people.

After entering the living room of the Wen family, Yunshang did not choose to check the Wen family's study, but immediately explored the spiritual power underneath, wanting to see if the Wen family would specially repair the secret room to store the collected antiques .

Sure enough, under the Wen family's study room, there is a secret room of fifty or sixty square meters, inside which are neatly placed a row of shelves, on which there are all kinds of simple or heavy antique cultural relics.

Yun Shang noticed that the dog's head smuggled out by Yu's second child was displayed on the middle shelf, which was very conspicuous.

Before the birthday banquet started, the juniors of the Wen family gave gifts to Mr. Wen one by one in front of all the guests.

Among them, the most suitable one is the volume of "Yongle Dadian" presented by the eldest son.

After getting the gift box containing "Yongle Dadian", Mr. Wen was obviously not in the living room anymore. After saying a few words in a hurry, he took the gift box into the study.

Yun Chang leaned close to Gu Shinian's ear and whispered, "Second brother, there is a secret room underneath, and the entrance is in the study."

Gu Shinian nodded, winked at An Guosheng, exited the living room carelessly, went outside and said a few words to Lao Li Laojin who was sitting in the car, and hurried back to the living room before the birthday banquet started.

Seeing Yun Shang poking her head and looking around, Gu Shinian knocked Yun Shang's brain and put his arm on her shoulder, with a smile on his lips, he said in a low voice, "A Chang, don't do it privately, I understand ?"

The small flames in Yunshang's eyes were half extinguished, and she asked very unhappy, "What a rare opportunity today, I can clean up all his collections by standing at the door of the study! Why can't you do it?"

If she misses this opportunity today, when will she find another chance to come to the Wen family to raid the house again?

Gu Shinian sighed secretly, and rubbed Yun Shang's head reassuringly, "A Chang, do your duty, and don't take the credit of other comrades. After Uncle Jin and Uncle Li succeed, we will find a way to come and raid the house."

When everyone comes out to perform tasks, the most important thing is to keep their duties.

At work, everyone has different tasks. If Yunshang does it without authorization, it is tantamount to stealing the tasks of the other two, and also stealing the opportunity of the other two to make meritorious deeds in disguise.

To put it seriously, this is the behavior of bad guys.

Besides, he and Yunshang are just a cover thrown up by the organization. The people who actually carry out the task are Lao Li Laojin and An Guosheng as an assistant.

Those who can perform such an important task are not the elite among the elites. There is really no need for him and Yunshang to worry that these two people will not be able to complete the task.

During the meal, the Wen family toasted at the table to thank them, and Yun Shang finally saw the legendary Wen Baobao.

With a very delicate melon-seeded face, fair skin, almond-shaped eyes and a fine nose, black and smooth hair hanging down her shoulders, the whole person looks agile and elegant, full of fairy spirit.

Yun Shang looked enviously at Wen Baobao's long legs, turned her head, poked Gu Shinian and asked, "Second brother, do you think I can grow long legs in the future?"

"It can grow." Gu Shinian nodded affirmatively, "As long as you eat more and exercise more, you will definitely grow legs."

Yun Shang: "... I don't want to have long legs!

Yun Shang murmured, "Actually, whether you look good or not depends on your face, and even short legs can make a great beauty." For example——her grown-up!

Gu Shinian couldn't care less about discussing long legs with Yun Shang at the moment. Several grandchildren of the Wen family, led by the boss of the Wen family, came to their table to toast.

Knowing that Gu Shinian and Yunshang had just returned from country Y, the boss of the Wen family smiled and asked about the situation in country Y, and introduced several grandchildren of the Wen family to Gu Shinian, asking him to know more about it. When the time comes, come to Wen's house to play.

Yun Shang noticed that Wen Baobao's eyes lit up the first time he saw Gu Shinian. During the next toast, Wen Baobao squeezed in from behind and clinked glasses with Gu Shinian.

The pink bubbles in the eyes are almost impossible to hide.

An Guosheng naturally noticed this too, and was worried that he would not have the opportunity to come to Wen's house a few more times. Seeing Wen Baobao's performance, he immediately felt relieved.

After returning from Wen's house, several people went to the small study to exchange information.

Gu Shinian poured a cup of tea for each of them, and finally sat across from them and said, "I've noticed that Wen Jinsheng (Old Man Wen) got the scroll before the banquet, and then went into the study, until the banquet was over. I haven't come out. I speculate that the Wen family has a secret room, and the entrance should be in the study. However, the key to the study is carried by Wen Jinsheng, so it may take some effort to get in."

Lao Jin took a sip of his tea and put down his teacup, "I made an observation. There are eight bodyguards in the front and back yards of Wen's house. Wen's house has a banquet today. According to common sense, security issues are more vigilant than usual. I think these eight The bodyguards should be all the security personnel of the Wen family, and these eight people should take turns to be on duty on weekdays."

An Guosheng nodded, "What Lao Jin said makes sense, how about it, I will take Xiao Gu and Yunshang to Wen's house again in two days, and then you can observe it outside and see if you can not disturb people. writer."

Lao Li leaned on the back of the chair and said lazily, "Old Jin, can you pick the lock?"

The expression on Lao Jin's face was distorted for a moment, his face darkened, and he said angrily, "Yes! I am a professional in lockpicking! No lock can stop me, so don't try to steal my task!"

Lao Li chuckled, "That's fine, it's still the old rules, I'll meet you outside when the time comes."

After talking about the business, the study was quiet for a moment. An Guosheng rubbed his teacup and asked jokingly, "Little Gu, you are eighteen now. Is there anyone for you at home?"

That Wen Baobao seemed to be very interested in Gu Shinian, if Lao Jin and Lao Li missed, let Gu Shinian start with Wen Baobao, maybe he could achieve his goal.

The girl who is only seventeen years old is quite naive, so she should be easy to deceive, and besides, that baby Wen looks pretty good, so Gu Shinian won't be at a disadvantage.

Gu Shinian: "..."

Seeing An Guosheng's smile getting more and more weird, Gu Shinian twitched the corner of his mouth and said, "...Second Uncle, I can sacrifice some things for the mission, but not my body."

This An Guosheng, do you really think he can't see what he's planning?

Wasn't it because he was worried that Lao Jin and Lao Li's mission would fail, and wanted him to get in touch with Wen Baobao, and use Wen Baobao to get the national treasure out.

It's just too bottomless.

Lao Li and Lao Jin didn't know what the two of them were arguing about, but An Guosheng already understood what Gu Shinian meant, and although he was sorry, he didn't say anything more.

After all, the mission has just begun, and Lao Li and Lao Jin haven't made a move yet. Everything will be discussed after the first operation is over.

Yun Shang couldn't wait for a few people to come out of the study, and went upstairs to wash and go to bed early.

Gu Shinian came up from downstairs, ready to chat with Yun Shang for a while, and pushed open the door, only to find that he was already fast asleep, and the quilt was kicked aside. Gu Shinian picked up the quilt to help her cover her belly, stood beside Yunshang's bed in silence for a long time, then turned and went back to her room.

Wen's invitation came earlier than An Guosheng expected. After receiving the call, An Guosheng quickly asked Yun Shang and Gu Shinian to change their clothes, and drove to Wen's house.

Before getting off the bus, Yun Shang blinked at Gu Shinian, "Second brother, that baby Wen must be at home."

Taking advantage of everyone's unpreparedness, Gu Shinian stretched out his hand and pinched Yun Shang's face, and quickly let go before she got angry, and said with a vicious smile, "Punishment!"

Yun Chang immediately thought of what Gu Shinian said last time. He made a grimace at Gu Shinian, covered his face and quickly ran to the other side of An Guosheng, away from Gu Shinian.

After entering the living room of Wen's family, as Yun Chang expected, Wen Baobao was sitting on the sofa with a ladylike figure, talking with Wen Jinsheng. The old man introduced the identities of Gu Shinian and Yun Shang.

"I just came back from country Y, are you still used to staying in Hong Kong City?" the old man of the Wen family asked with a smile.

Hearing this question, Gu Shinian couldn't hide the disgust in his eyes, "It's not bad. It's just that Hong Kong City is a bit small and there are too few things to play with." It's not fun!

An Guosheng showed an embarrassing look on his face, and quickly explained to Gu Shinian, "My nephew grew up in country Y, and he has a straight temper. He can say whatever he wants, and he is not used to the way we Hong Kong people speak."

The old man of the Wen family didn't expect Gu Shinian to have such a good appearance, he looked gentle and gentle, he looked like an elite, and he turned out to be a stickler. I was stunned for a moment, laughed a few times, and said, "I think it's pretty good, you young people, you should be straightforward and easy to make friends, and you will be popular."

Wen Baobao on the side was obviously also somewhat disillusioned, looking at Gu Shinian, the expression on his face was indescribable.

Yun Chang was almost dying of laughter watching from the side.

In order to avoid being entangled by Wen Baobao, Gu Shinian almost played out this image of the stick.

The old man of the Wen family coughed dryly. The boss of the Wen family received the signal and asked Gu Shinian with a smile, "I heard from your uncle that you are planning to settle in Hong Kong City when you come back this time? Have you brought back all your family business over there?"

Gu Shinian glanced at An Guosheng, with a smile on his lips, and said pointedly, "Second Uncle released the news so soon?"

An Guosheng's expression remained unchanged, and he replied with a smile, "My elder brother and I have always had a good relationship. I am very happy that you and your younger sister can come back and settle down." So, of course, such a good thing must be shared with everyone.

Gu Shinian pulled up one corner of his mouth and smiled, leaned lazily on the sofa, and said to the old Wen family, "My second uncle is right, I am ready to bring my sister back to settle down, and the industry over there will naturally slow down. Check and sell. Why, Uncle Wen is planning to buy a property in Country Y? My property over there has not been cleared yet, if Uncle Wen is interested, he can go to Country Y for field inspection."

Gu Shinian and An Guosheng simply asked and answered, and successfully conveyed what they wanted to express.

The boss of the Wen family now thinks he has mastered the psychology of the two of them. In all likelihood, An Guosheng really welcomes his nephew and niece to come back, but looking at An Guosheng, a nephew named An Yunzhou, he is not completely stupid. He probably has some reasons for An Guosheng in his heart. There is a grudge, or in other words, An Yunzhou is guarding against An Guosheng.

Realizing this, the head of the Wen family smiled a little bit more, and even Baby Wen looked at Gu Shinian with bright eyes again.

The old man of the Wen family put down his teacup, stretched his voice, and said slowly, "Guosheng, do you have any plans for your nephew to come back this time? What line of business are you planning to do?"

An Guosheng frowned in distress, "I've been thinking about this for the past few days. But Yunzhou doesn't seem to be interested in doing business, and I haven't decided which line to enter yet."

Yun Shang listened for a long time, and finally knew what the Wen family was thinking.

This family is really shameless!

I heard that she and Gu Shinian came to Hong Kong with a large amount of property to settle down, and I saw that Gu Shinian was very defensive towards An Guosheng in his words, and even made an idea of the property in their hands.

It's like everyone else is stupid.

Gu Shinian seemed to have sensed Yun Shang's thoughts, he squeezed Yun Shang's hand calmly, then withdrew his hand at random, and acted as a 'dandy' again.

Yun Shang was soothed, hid behind Gu Shinian, and once again stretched out her spiritual power, trying to check the cultural relics in the secret room.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he entered the study with mental strength, he saw Lao Jin entered the Wen family's study through some unknown means, and was bending over, squatting in front of the bookshelf to find the entrance to the secret room.

Probably because Yunshang's spiritual probing was too reckless. As if he had noticed something, Lao Jin suddenly raised his head and looked in the direction of the living room. Even through a wall, Yunshang could feel Lao Jin's sharp His eyes pierced like sharp knives.

Yun Chang was taken aback, quickly withdrew her mental strength, and acted like a quail honestly.

There are two people in the living room, one intends to delay time and create opportunities for Lao Jin and Lao Li, while the other intends to get closer to Gu Shinian and wants to bring Gu Shinian into the business, so the conversation between the two parties is infinitely prolonged .

It wasn't until Yun Shang became sleepy after hearing this that An Guosheng took the two of them up to leave.

As soon as they went out, Wen Baobao chased them out, stood at the door, and said to Gu Shinian with a smile, "Brother Yunzhou, grandpa asked me to come out to see you off on his behalf."

With her back to the two people, Yun Chang's eyes almost rolled into the sky.

Brother Yunzhou~?

Tsk, she's so familiar and calls her so affectionately, why doesn't she just call Darling!

It's all Gu Shinian's fault!

A big man, what's the point of being so attractive? He dressed himself up beautifully, he really wanted to recruit a few more peach blossoms, so that he could slowly choose a sister-in-law for her!

Seeing that Gu Shinian didn't speak, Wen Baobao took a step forward and stood next to Gu Shinian, "Brother Yunzhou, you just returned to Hong Kong City, so you shouldn't be familiar with Hong Kong City, right? I'm free tomorrow, why don't you take Yunzhou?" Brother Zhou going out for a walk?"

Gu Shinian didn't expect that this baby Wen could not wink so much. He turned his head and looked up and down baby Wen several times with his naked eyes. Just when Baby Wen shyly lowered his head and his cheeks were flushed, Gu Shinian hooked the corner of his mouth, and squeezed out a sneer from between his teeth.

Wen Baobao raised her head in surprise, and directly bumped into Gu Shinian's undisguised, disgusted and disdainful eyes, but this was not the most embarrassing thing for Wen Baobao, what made her feel even more humiliated was Gu Shinian's next sentence talk.

"Are all the girls in Hong Kong City bean sprouts like you? Or are the girls from country Y good-looking, good-looking, and delicious!"

Yun Shang: "... Gu Shinian, you are doomed!

An Guosheng: "... This brat, the mission is not over yet, isn't he afraid of being kicked out by the Wen family when he comes next time?

Wen Baobao: "...!!!"

She is the girl with the best family background and the prettiest appearance in Yinghua Girls' School! Is this man blind? What's so good about big cows abroad? Can it be prettier than her? Is the skin good with her?

As soon as they got into the car, An Guosheng couldn't help reaching out and patting Gu Shinian, and said through gritted teeth, "You brat! You! You wait! I'll report to the organization when I get back!"

It's so irritating!

Substitution! Be sure to change to someone else with the domestic application!

No one would rush to offend someone just as soon as he had a relationship with the mission target! ? As I said just now, can the Wen family let them in in the future?

This kid is obviously doing sabotage, and he doesn't want the mission to proceed smoothly!

Lao Li was driving, Lao Jin quickly turned around and asked An Guosheng, "What happened?"

"Ask him!" An Guo pointed at Gu Shinian angrily, and continued, "We just got in touch with the Wen family, and this kid offended the only granddaughter of the Wen family. Let's come back again, the Wen family appointed us to take us out with a big stick! How else can we do this task?"

Both Lao Jin and Lao Li's expressions changed. Lao Jin looked at Gu Shinian in disbelief. Lao Li kicked the gas pedal to the end, turned his head, and looked at Gu Shinian in a daze.

There was an instant silence in the car, and after a long time, Lao Jin asked Gu Shinian sharply, "Comrade Gu Shinian, what's going on? Why did you do this?"

Gu Shinian put away his free and unrestrained spirit, sat up straight, and said with a very serious expression, "Don't worry, Baby Wen won't tell the Wen family what she said. Even if she said it, the Wen family will. It won't do anything to us, after all, the Wen family still wants me to do business with them."

An Guosheng's expression changed for a long time, and he asked Gu Shinian, "Are you sure?"

Gu Shinian nodded, "I'm sure, the Wen family will wish for us to come more in the future."

Seeing that the three of them were still puzzled, Yun Shang interjected, "You guys don't understand girls' minds! Wen Baobao is the school girl, and only others can praise her! She has the face to tell others about me. Brother Gu said that she has a bean sprouts figure, so she would not be a school girl, and it was a joke that everyone recognized.

Don't worry, that baby Wen will at most hide in bed and cry secretly, and won't reveal a word. "

There are at most two consequences of this incident. One is that Wen Baobao regards Gu Shinian as a scourge from now on, and will take a detour when seeing him in the future. The second is that Wen Baobao will become more frustrated and courageous, and pursue Gu Shinian more blatantly.

I just don't know which one Wen Baobao will choose in the future.

After listening to Gu Shinian's explanation, An Guosheng, Lao Jin and Lao Li looked at each other with strange and puzzled expressions on their faces.

Are all the ideas of girl dolls so weird?

I was laughed at face to face, why don't you ask your family to call you back, and hide in bed and cry?

If someone laughed at the small place of a man, nine and a half out of ten would beat them back face to face, and the remaining half were still in wheelchairs, and it was inconvenient for them to do it by themselves.

Lao Li rubbed his face, and gripped the steering wheel again with stiff hands and feet, and the car moved forward steadily again.

An Guosheng looked back at Gu Shinian from time to time along the way, and before getting out of the car, he finally couldn't help asking, "Xiao Gu, have you talked to someone?" Otherwise, why do you understand the girl's mind so well?

Gu Shinian glanced at Yun Shang with a smile, and replied in a low voice, "My A-Shang is a girl, and she has this temper."

Yun Shang's face quickly turned red, and she stared at Gu Shinian accusingly: I am not! I do not have! Don't talk nonsense!

Seeing that the other three people in the car were looking at her and couldn't help laughing, Yun Shang puckered her mouth, punched Gu Shinian twice, jumped out of the car and ran into the house.

Back in the house, several people entered the study again.

As soon as Lao Jin sat down, he picked up his teacup and drank it vigorously, then clapped his hands, and looked at the two excitedly, "It's confirmed! There is indeed an entrance to a secret room in the Wen family's study room! It's right behind the bookcase, and I'm worried that there will be noise when moving the bookcase." , I didn't dare to make a move, let's discuss it again and see when it's appropriate to make a move!"

"The sooner the better!"

"Just tonight!"

An Guosheng and Lao Li spoke at the same time.

Gu Shinian sat on the side and nodded slightly, as if he agreed to act at night.

Several people made an action plan, came out early to finish their meal, and then went to bed to prepare for the night's action.

When Gu Shinian opened the door and came in, Yunshang was lying on the bed reading a magazine. When he saw Gu Shinian, he immediately sat up from the bed and asked in a low voice, "Second brother, how are you doing? Do you have a plan?"

"Well, let's do it tonight."

Gu Shinian's voice was very calm, Yun Shang couldn't hear his emotions, fell silent for a moment, and asked, "Second brother, are you not optimistic about what you will do at night?"

"No." Gu Shinian sat down on the bed and said in a low voice, "I'm thinking about how Lao Li will send the things back to China after they are brought back. We need to recover more than these two cultural relics. If they both help Lao Li cover the customs, with the shrewd temperament of those two people, they will see the problem sooner or later."

Before, he was easily persuaded by Yunshang out of enthusiasm, and took over the task without considering the consequences. Now that he thinks about it, there are still many loopholes in his and Yunshang's plan, and these loopholes, any one of them It is possible to expose Yunshang's secret.

He was careless.

These years of smooth life made him lose the vigilance he should have, and almost put Yunshang in danger.

Yunshang was not as pessimistic as Gu Shinian, and rubbed her head on Gu Shinian's arm lightly, "Second brother Gu, don't worry, if there is really danger, I won't help Lao Li cover up by then. Lao Li and Lao Jin is a powerful person, and they will find a way to solve the problem."

"En." Gu Shinian responded, rubbed Yunshang's head, and said, "These things are not urgent, let's talk about the actions at night first."

Yun Chang raised her head, looked at Gu Shinian with sparkling eyes, her face was full of surprise, "Second brother! Can I do it too?"

"Well, let's put away the rest of the things after Lao Li and the others get their hands in the evening. If the Wen family loses one or two things, they may still be suspected in the circle of friends. If the things in the secret room are seized If they copy it, their suspicions can only be placed on those gangs. It is safer for us."

Yun Chang nodded excitedly, as if Gu Shinian was right in everything he said.

No matter what, as long as she can copy the house by hand, she will be happy!

.....

The night was getting darker. After resting in the space, Yun Chang, who had been vigilant all the time, heard a slight noise from downstairs, and knew that Lao Jin and Lao Li were about to leave.

The sound of the car starting at the door gradually faded away in the dark night.

Yun Shang quickly turned over and sat up, changed her clothes, and was about to go to the next door to wake up Gu Shinian, but Gu Shinian had already gotten up, and gently knocked on Yun Shang's door.

The two of them didn't turn on the lights, they didn't even go down the stairs, they just took advantage of the space and stood outside the small bungalow.

The location of An Guosheng's house can be regarded as a prosperous area. There is an asphalt paved road at the entrance, and the car will pass by without leaving any traces.

Yunshang moved the car out of the space, quickly climbed into the passenger seat, and the two quickly drove towards Wen's house under the cover of the night.

When they were about to reach the place, Gu Shinian asked Yunshang to put the car into the space, and the two of them walked along the road for about a hundred meters, and saw the family car parked among the dense branches of trees on the side of the road, the location was fairly hidden, If you don't pay attention to observe, you can't find it easily.

Yun Shang searched over mentally and found that there was no one in the car, so she quickly pulled Gu Shinian and ran towards Wen's house in front.

Unlike Lao Jin who dodged the guards at the front and rear doors, Yunshang used the space to easily lead Gu Shinian into Wen's house.

Worried that they would startle the two people who were working, Yun Shang and Gu Shinian didn't even come out of the space, and sat in the space, paying attention to the movement outside.

Yunshang's mental strength came out, and she saw Lao Li standing under the study window waiting to meet Lao Jin, while Lao Jin quickly shuttled in the secret room. In addition to the original target dog head and the copy of "Yongle Dadian", another The three very small ancient objects that did not take up space were put into the bags prepared in advance, and then they left the secret room swiftly, and left Wen's house evasively along with Lao Li.

After confirming that Lao Li and Lao Jin had left Wen's house safely, Yun Shang led Gu Shinian into the secret room and moved into the space together with the shelves and antiques.

Looking at the empty secret room of Wen's house without leaving a single thread, Yun Shang expressed her satisfaction.

Coming out of the secret room, Yunshang mentally scanned the study, and found a small safe in the desk cabinet, which contained some documents and materials, as well as a few land deeds of Beijing and Shenshi, plus a few wads of cash and a little jewelry. As usual, Yun Chang was searched and taken away unceremoniously.

She can keep the cash and spend it slowly, she keeps the jewelry as a family heirloom in the future, and those few land deeds are secretly handed over to the organization after returning.

The Wen family started their business only after suffering from national disasters, but they even dreamed of returning to China as a Hong Kong compatriot one day and taking back the real estate in Beijing and Shenshi. Dream it!

After leaving Wen's house, the two quickly took a shortcut and returned to An's house. Because of the shortcut and the fact that the speed of the car was more than half faster than that of Lao Li, the two of them washed up and lay on the bed when they got home. Talent discredited into the house.

Yun Shang kept paying attention to the movement outside, and when she heard Gu Shinian open the door to greet Lao Jin, she turned over and got up, and followed her downstairs.

Seeing that Yunshang also came down, Lao Jin and Lao Li didn't say much. They sat in the study downstairs, and Lao Jin placed the five cultural relics he brought back on the table one by one.

"This dog's head is the goal of our mission." Lao Jin first pointed to the dog's head that glowed dimly under the light, and introduced it to Gu Shinian and Yun Shang.

"The remaining four items are familiar to you from the copy of the "Yongle Dadian". These two pieces... If I am not mistaken, these two pieces should be oracle bone inscriptions. This wine vessel, if it is real, It should be something from the Shang Dynasty."

After introducing the items on the table, Lao Jin gritted his teeth in distress, "There are still a lot of good things in the secret room of the Wen family. It's a pity that we can't get them back without help."

Yun Chang thought to himself: It's a pity, those things are left in my space for a good stay, and I will hand them all over to the organization when I find a chance in the future!

Lao Li looked around the five things for a long time, then suddenly raised his head and asked, "I said Lao Jin, then there is nothing else in the secret room of Yu's family? For example, money, jewelry, you didn't get some back? We With such a large expenditure outside, we must get some funds for the organization, right?"

I really can't come out and don't know that my trouser pocket is clean.

He is considered a high-income group in the country, but when he came out, he really felt that the money was not enough.

An ordinary piece of clothing made of thin cloth in the department store can cost him a month's salary, not to mention those watches and cameras, which are so eye-catching.

Lao Jin snorted angrily, "I don't think you want to get funds for the organization, but for yourself, right? In the capital, you used to search for our special tickets every day to make delicious food. Now that you have arrived in Hong Kong City, you don't need a ticket for eating, and there is no limit, isn't that what you want?"

This old Li, seeing Tian'er went out to find a place to eat delicious food, the little money in his pocket was all eaten up by him, so what kind of funds are not enough to spend.

In front of Gu Shinian and Yun Shang, Lao Li couldn't help but glared at Lao Jin angrily, and argued, "Why does it suit me? I just have a meal and you still have an opinion? Don't eat it?" What do you do when you're full?"

This Lao Jin, how could he say that in front of the two children?

More delicious than the two children, where will he put his old face in the future?

Lao Jin looked at Lao Li's rounded face and smiled narrowly, "Old Li, remember to look in the mirror tomorrow morning to see if your face is getting bigger."

Lao Li suddenly became angry, took a sip of cold water while holding the quilt, sat down and forcibly changed the subject, "Okay, let's get down to business. I'll go to the customs office tomorrow morning to have a look. It's better to send these things back as soon as possible. "

According to Lao Li's thinking, when the item is in hand, it is best to send it away overnight, so as to avoid any accidents caused by long nights and dreams.

But no matter how impatient he was, he knew that the customs would not open at night, and if he wanted to go back overnight, the only way was to swim across.

This is obviously a very stupid idea.

Even if he could escape the inspection and swim in the water smoothly, he would not dare to take these precious cultural relics into the water.

Not to mention the roll of paper cultural relics, even these bronze wares, he is also afraid that they will be damaged after being put into the water.

Looking at these things, Lao Jin felt a little worried, thought for a while, and then went back to ask Gu Shinian for his opinion.

"My advice is to wait."

Chapter 518

As soon as the words fell, Lao Li raised his eyes and looked over, "Xiao Gu, I don't need to tell you how precious these things are? Don't send them back sooner. What if something happens again and the things are lost?"

This time, An Guosheng was lucky and knew the whereabouts of the dog's head. If he lost it again, where would the big guys go to find the dog's head?

"Uncle Li, if the Wen family lost something, they must call the police. At this time, the customs must be very strict. We can't take risks at this time."

Lao Jin said, "I think what Xiao Gu said makes sense, Lao Li, wait a little longer, and invite these treasures back after the wind has passed."

Old Li sighed, stretched out his hand and gently stroked the dog's head, "Then we have to find a safe place to hide these things."

Lao Jin yawned and patted Lao Li on the shoulder, "Tomorrow, I will discuss with Comrade An Guosheng and see if he can find a safe place."

"I have an idea." Gu Shinian said suddenly, and when Lao Jin and Li looked over, he continued, "Ah Chang and I are overseas Chinese who have brought a large amount of ancestral property and returned from country Y to settle down. Chang can store these things in the bank in the name of saving the ancestral property, and take them out after the wind has passed."

The two thought about it for a while, and both felt that Gu Shinian's idea was a good idea.

They could ask An Guosheng to deposit his things in the bank, but An Guosheng has been in Hong Kong City for many years, even if he had valuables in his hands, he must have deposited them in the bank long ago.

At the moment when the Wen family lost things, if they knew that An Guosheng went in and out of the bank to deposit valuables, they would definitely be suspicious.

However, An Guosheng took his nephew and niece to Wen's house on the day when Wen's treasure was stolen. This kind of coincidence also brought An Guosheng into the sight of the police.

But if Yunshang or Gu Shinian were the candidates for storing things, it would not be so suspicious. After all, many people in Hong Kong City knew that these two people came back with their ancestral property.

In Hong Kong City, it is very common to deposit ancestral property in the bank for safekeeping.

Coupled with the play that Gu Shinian and An Guosheng performed in the Wen family, the Wen family knew that Gu Shinian was very wary of An Guosheng.

He gives people the impression that he has no city mansion, is arrogant and dandy, but he is not stupid. He didn't believe in An Guosheng, so it was logical to deposit his ancestral property in the bank instead of entrusting it to An Guosheng for safekeeping.

Gu Shinian's words successfully persuaded Lao Jin and Lao Li. They sighed for a long time at the treasure on the table, carefully wrapped it up, put it in the box, and then handed it over to Gu Shinian.

Lao Jin patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder, "Go to bed early, I will accompany you to the bank tomorrow morning."

Gu Shinian nodded, carried the suitcase in one hand, and took Yun Chang upstairs with the other.

After returning to the room, Yunshang didn't even open the box, and directly transferred the cultural relics to the space through the box, and then found a few pieces of jewelry from her collection and stuffed them into the box, planning to store these pieces in the box tomorrow. bank.

Early the next morning, before a few people had finished their breakfast, An Guosheng rushed in with a pale face and stiff hands and feet, as if he had seen a ghost.

"Something has happened!" An Guosheng said with a dull expression after entering the door, and asked Chen Ma to leave first, turned around and closed the door, and walked straight to the study.

Yun Shang and Gu Shinian glanced at each other, each carrying a bowl of wonton, and followed behind into the study.

At this moment, An Guosheng didn't care about the fact that Yunshang also followed in,

Sitting on the chair, rubbing his face vigorously with his hands, he said in a frustrated voice: "...The Wen family went to the police station to report to the police in the morning, saying that in the secret room... everything was lost."

Lao Jin and Lao Li Qiqi were stunned.

Lost everything?

what does this mean?

The two of them got back five cultural relics, why did the Wen family say that they lost all of them?

An Guosheng didn't look at the expressions of Lao Jin and Lao Li at all, stared at the table, and continued, "It's all the antiques, and there are thirty-six shelves in the secret room, all of which were stolen... one thing Neither stayed."

"Fart!" Lao Jin slammed the table and stood up angrily, "This Wen family is really nothing!"

Seeing that An Guosheng didn't know what happened, Yunshang kindly explained to him, "Uncle An, Uncle Jin and Uncle Li went to Wen's house last night and brought back five antiques. Uncle Jin was so angry because he Qi writers are talking nonsense."

Lao Li also nodded darkly, "Yes, I didn't expect the Wen family to play such a trick."

They just took five things, but Wen's family said they lost them all, and made a fuss to the police station, just trying to make things worse and force the police station to find them back sooner.

Of course, the Wen family has other benefits in doing so.

At present, everyone in the Hong Kong business district knows that the old man of the Wen family is fond of antiques, and that he has at least a hundred pieces in his personal collection, including several pieces that can be called national treasures.

Such a large amount of wealth, I don't know how many people are secretly coveting it.

The Wen family excused the loss of five cultural relics, and reported to the police that the secret room where the treasures were stored had been ransacked. It may not be telling the public that the old man of the Wen family does not have a single antique in his hands.

Wanting to understand these things, Lao Li and Lao Jin were very depressed.

The two of them just took five items, but the Wen family came and claimed that the remaining one or two hundred cultural relics were also lost. Isn't this putting the matter on the two of them?

If the organization believes the words of the Wen family and thinks that they are greedy for the country's treasure, what future will there be in the future?

Lao Jin and Lao Li, brothers and sisters in distress, looked at each other, trying to understand their situation together.

An Guosheng was so startled by this turn of events that he couldn't recover for a long time. After a while, he said, "Lao Jin, Lao Li, did you just say that you took the things back last night? You also took the objects?"

Lao Jin nodded, "Well, the things are now in Xiao Gu's place. If you want to see them, let Xiao Gu go upstairs to get them."

"Only five? Nothing else?" An Guosheng asked unwillingly.

Lao Jin and Lao Li wanted to cry even more now.

Look, even An Guosheng didn't believe that the two of them only took five things after hearing the Wen family's report.

Gu Shinian swallowed the last wonton, and said to An Guosheng, "Uncle An, it's five things. After Uncle Jin and Uncle Li came back yesterday, we discussed it and planned to deposit the things in the bank early this morning. You How do you feel?"

An Guosheng was overjoyed, his face looked better instantly, he rubbed his hands happily, and said, "Okay, let's do it like this. But it's better for you to come forward to handle this matter, and I'll have someone take you there later."

He didn't ask the three people what kind of cultural relics they were except for the dog's head and the copy, and he didn't ask for a look.

His task is to find out the whereabouts of a large number of cultural relics, and cooperate with the three people to recover the cultural relics. He will complete the tasks within his duties, and he will pay attention to the matters outside his duties and will not interfere easily.

After breakfast, a few people went out, and the well-informed newspapers outside rushed to report the theft of the Wen family's secret room.

The citizens in the streets and alleys are also discussing, guessing the value of the stolen treasures, guessing the identity of the thief, or guessing whether the batch of things was stolen or not.

Gu Shinian carried a small suitcase in one hand and Yunshang in the other. After showing his identity information at the bank, he rented a safe and deposited the suitcase in his hand.

In the next few days, the police station went back and forth in order to recover the things in the secret room of the Wen family. They almost ransacked the entire land in Hong Kong three times.

As expected, An Guosheng fell into the eyes of the police station. Several waves of police officers came to the house, not only asking about An Guosheng's visit to Wen's house, but Gu Shinian and Yunshang were also questioned several times. He inspected the two bungalows with vigor.

The matter of Gu Shinian going to the bank to rent a safe was also brought out by the police to question him, but Gu Shinian played the role of an unpopular young master to the fullest, and asked the police angrily if he had never seen money and wanted to go to the bank. Let's see what An's most valuable ancestral property looks like...

Yunshang originally thought that the police would not let go of any clues, and it was very likely that Gu Shinian would lead the way to the bank to check it out. Unexpectedly, Gu Shinian gave him a slap in the face, and the gang of policemen did not make this request in the end.

Later, Yunshang thought about it in private, and understood the police's approach.

What the Wen family lost were not only five national treasures, but also storage racks. They lost nearly two hundred antiques, large and small. There were so many things that the small box in Gu Shinian's hand couldn't fit.

If the matter really had something to do with Gu Shinian, he wouldn't go to the bank to rent a safe at this juncture and arouse their suspicion. After all, this kind of behavior is no different from throwing oneself into a trap.

It can be said that the people in the police station have entered into a misunderstanding of thinking. Gu Shinian ran around in a fair manner, but on the contrary, the suspicion on several people was reduced by a little bit.

Of course, the things in the bank have been replaced by Yunshang, even if the police go to check, they can't find anything.

One month after Wen's family reported the case, the police's search efforts were only slightly reduced. However, the theft of Wen's secret room has become the most valuable case in the history of Hong Kong City, no, it should be the most valuable stolen item in the history of the world.

Watching the newspaper report on the progress of the theft in the Wen family's secret room every day, Lao Jin and Lao Li, the blamers, were so angry that their teeth itch every day.

They obviously took five things, so why did the shameless Wen family say that they were like devils crossing the border, and even stole more than 30 shelves from the Wen family?

What can they do with a shelf? Split it and burn it as firewood?

Every day when Yun Shang looked at the black faces of the two, she would secretly laugh.

However, Yunshang has already started school at this time. I only found out when I went to the school that the middle school in Hong Kong City is not divided into junior high school and high school, but a five-year system. At this time, middle school took six or seven years.

Before that, students have to go to primary school for six years.

An Yunming started school early, this year he is in the third year of middle school, that is to say, he will have to go to middle school for four years before he can be admitted to university.

Yun Chang collapsed directly.

Since she started school, she has skipped grades all the way, and she will be able to go to high school after the start of school this year, and after two years of high school, she can be recommended to go to university.

Calculating the time, she will be able to graduate from university in seven years at most, but when she arrives in Hong Kong City, she will have to stay for another three or four years just for middle school. This is a serious waste of her youth and energy. time!

She is a red and professional socialist successor. Wouldn't it be good to graduate early and work hard for the cause of socialism?

Why waste her great youth in middle school! ! !

However, even if Yun Shang was unwilling, under the coercion and oppression of Gu Shinian and An Guosheng, she still gave in cowardly.

On the first day of school, Yunshang was sent to school by Gu Shinian almost with tears in his eyes. After completing the admission procedures at the grade director, Yunshang walked slowly at a slow speed, wishing to go to the classroom The longer the better.

An Yunming looked at Yunshang's wrinkled and almost distorted face, and was immediately amused. He stepped forward and grabbed Yunshang's arm, dragging and pushing it into the classroom.

Before entering the classroom, Yunshang asked unwillingly, "An Yunming, tell me, can you skip a grade in your middle school?"

"Call me cousin." An Yunming corrected a sentence very seriously, and then answered her question, "You just came back from country Y, and the history and Chinese courses will be delayed, and there is little hope of skipping a grade."

Yun Chang gave up, stopped struggling, and sat behind An Yunming honestly, sitting at the same table with him.

Yun Chang is good-looking, and came in with the bully in the class, and sat in the same seat as the bully, and caused a sensation as soon as she entered the classroom.

The two sat in the middle, just like two pieces of fragrant char siew, causing the students in the class to look up from time to time.

Yun Chang didn't feel any discomfort from these scrutinizing gazes. She put her schoolbag into the desk bucket, picked out a random book and put it on the table, then took out the jerky, and slowly began to grind her teeth.

Although An Yunming next to him is one year younger than his classmates, he has always been the number one in the class, and he has long been used to these gazes, so he doesn't take them seriously either.

However, seeing his 'cousin' act like killing her without reading a book and trying her best to dawdle, she was still a little speechless.

Take out the textbooks of the first class from Yunshang's desk bucket, and put them under Yunshang's eyes, "The first class is Chinese, class is about to start, you should read the book first, and preview it."

Yun Chang's eyelids lifted, and she gave An Yunming a sideways glance, "You're lying! Today is the first day of school, and the first class will have a class meeting." There may be a seat reserved.

An Yunming: "..."

The girl at the front table kept turning her head to look at the girl quietly, and couldn't help but turn around, patted the back of Yunshang's hand on the table, "Are you a new transfer student?"

Yun Chang looked up and saw a girl with a round face and short hair, so she nodded.

The girl glanced at An Yunming, and then said, "My name is Xu Tian, what's your name?"

"My name is An Yunshang."

"An Yunshang?" The other girl at the front table also turned around, looking at Yunshang with bright eyes, "It's like An Yunming's name, you two are brother and sister?"

Yun Chang shook her head, "No, it's siblings."

An Yunming: "...". This cousin is too vicious! It's not easy at all.

The two girls in the front row didn't know what An Yunming was complaining about. Seeing that Yunshang was so tender, like a child, she was actually An Yunming's sister, and they couldn't believe it.

However, this does not affect the two people's closeness to Yunshang.

Then the girl who turned around patted Yunshang on the shoulder carelessly, and said with a smile, "An Yunshang, my name is Lu Yunling, and I'll treat you to Dutch water after school later."

, "Yun Chang didn't understand, so she turned her head and poked An Yunming, "Brother Yunming, what is Dutch water?"

An Yunming's face turned red with anger.

He wanted to ignore Yun Shang, but An Guosheng and Gu Shinian both told him to take good care of Yun Shang at school.

Talk to her, but Yunshang's temperament is too bad, he recognized her as a sister as soon as he replied.

So angry!

Xu Tian and Lu Yunling didn't see the eyebrow-eye lawsuit between the two of them, seeing that Yunshang didn't even know what Dutch water was, they burst out laughing, "An Yunshang, where did you transfer here? No Dutch water?"

"No." Yun Shang honestly shook her head, and began to miss the taste of Arctic Ocean soda in her heart.

On such a hot day, if you come to have a sip of iced soda, the taste is simply not too refreshing!

Hiss, I can't think about it, my saliva is about to come out!

Xu Tian looked Yun Shang up and down curiously, and saw that she was wearing a school uniform and ordinary white sneakers on her feet, but the pen she put on the table and the beautiful belt watch on her wrist all showed that An Yunshang's family Conditions should be fine.

I became even more curious.

"An Yunshang, where did you get here?"

"Country Y." Yun Shang continued to stuff the strips of meat into her mouth, and answered silently in her heart: Hit our motherland, from the mainland!

Seeing that the two girls continued to chat with Yunshang, An Yunming put down his book in dissatisfaction, raised his head and said, "The teacher is coming."

When Xu Tian and Lu Yunling turned around, An Yunming pursed his lips, and reasoned with Yun Shang sternly, "Yun Shang, my cousin said, let me watch you in school, you are not allowed to skip classes, you are not allowed to be lazy, you are not allowed You deserted, if you are disobedient, I will tell my cousin when I get home."

Yun Chang turned her head in surprise, and looked at An Yunming, with a clear expression on her face: I never expected you to be such a snitch!

An Yunming was angry and annoyed, and also very helpless. He felt that he wanted to reposition his relationship with Yunshang.

Maybe what Yun Shang said is right, she is the elder sister, and he is the pitiful younger brother who is being bullied.

The class bell rang quickly, thinking that the female teacher in a pink plaid skirt walked into the classroom, put the book in her hand on the podium, stood in front of the blackboard with a green background, briefly said a few things to pay attention to when starting school, and asked Yunshang to stand Get up and introduce her to the students in the class.

Before Lu Yunling and Xu Tian talked to Yunshang, they lowered their voices, except for a few students nearby, the rest of the class didn't know her name, and where she was transferred from.

Now after hearing the teacher's introduction, the students in the class suddenly became agitated, whispering to each other, discussing something.

After the first class was over, several girls gathered around, scrambling to say, "An Yunshang, you transferred back from country Y, so your English must be very good, and you have to copy your English homework for me in the future." Copy it."

"Yes, yes, you copy our English homework for us, and we treat you to eat."

Yunshang hasn't experienced this feeling for a long time. It seems to be back in the school of the previous life. The students in the class will copy homework and cheat at the beginning. Girls will have their own small circle and treat each other to eat. ...

Such a relaxed campus atmosphere was beyond her experience in Linyang School.

Yun Shang is no stranger to this kind of situation, and after a few words, she became one with the girls.

Seeing that Yunshang quickly integrated into the small group in the class and adapted well, An Yunming was stunned.

He always thought that it would be difficult for Yunshang to make friends with such a bad temper, and he would have to take care of Yunshang a little more in the future.

But he didn't expect that Yunshang would make friends so quickly, and he would directly throw his cousin aside.

An Yunming finally understood that his cousin was not mean at all, she was just deliberately bullying him!

Seeing Yunshang hooking shoulders with the girls in the class and quickly developing into a friendship of going to the bathroom together, An Yunming was heartbroken, drooping the corners of his mouth, and started reading in silence.

When school was over, Miss Xu Tian did what she said, and she really dragged Yunshang away from An Yunming to the commissary, took a bottle from the pile of colorful sodas in the old-fashioned big freezer, turned around and handed it to Yun skirts.

Looking at the soda bottle with white mist in Xu Tian's hand, Yun Chang couldn't react.

"Xu Tian, is this Dutch water?"

"Yeah," Xu Tian took another bottle, took a sip from the cap, and said with a smile, "Dutch water is delicious, try it."

Yun Shang looked at the bottle of Dutch water that looked like orange juice, and reached out to take it. After thinking for a while, she said to Xu Tian, "You invite me to drink Dutch water, and I'll bring you dried meat tomorrow."

In the end, Yun Shang didn't drink the bottle of Dutch water with pigment added. She exchanged it with the boss for a popsicle and gnawed on it while following An Yunming into the car. It was the end of her first day of student life in Hong Kong City.

When he got home, he told Gu Shinian honestly about his performance in school, including the matter of her bullying An Yunming.

"Second brother, don't worry, the students in the class are easy to get along with, and those who are not easy to get along with... I will use jerky to make an excuse, and I will definitely not let myself suffer."

Gu Shinian let go of what he had been thinking about for a day, and he unconsciously showed a gentle, almost pampering smile on his face, "That's good, I can rest assured that you are happy at school."

He knows Yunshang too well, as long as she is willing, she can easily get along with anyone, and she will grasp the proportions just right, and will never let herself be forced to wrong herself.

Yun Shang picked up a chopstick and roasted the goose, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother, where are Uncle Jin and Uncle Li? Did you go out with them today too?"

Gu Shinian: "Well, there is news that An Guosheng has an informant with the Yu family. We are going out today to find someone."

Yun Shang then asked, "Have you found anyone?"

"Not yet." Gu Shinian gave Yunshang a chopstick of choy sum and asked her to eat more, and then continued, "The man was not at home after we passed, and Uncle Jin asked me to come back first. He and Uncle Li are going Keep an eye on people downstairs."

According to the Yu family, the cultural relics they sold over the years were all sold through the hands of an informant named Hai Ge. Now as long as you find this Hai Ge, you can know the identity of the large number of cultural relics sold by the Yun family. whereabouts.

It's just that the population of Hong Kong City is so large, and the turnover of personnel is also high. In addition, Brother Hai is in this business, and his vigilance is far higher than that of ordinary people. It is not so easy for several people to find Brother Hai in the vast crowd. .

Lao Jin came back after one o'clock in the middle of the night. Seeing Gu Shinian waiting in the living room, he rubbed his brows and shook his head wearily, "I didn't see anyone after waiting for most of the night. Didn't come back."

Gu Shinian nodded, took out a very ordinary gray top from under the sofa, put it on and went out, "You and Uncle Li have been staring at it for most of the night, I'll go over and change Uncle Li back to rest."

Lao Jin looked at Gu Shinian's back and didn't stop him. He didn't enter the study until the door was closed, took out a pen and paper, and prepared to report the progress of the task here.

In the next few days, Yunshang followed An Yunming to school obediently every day, while the others searched all over Hong Kong City for Brother Hai.

Two months after the theft of the Wen family's secret room, the police also began to gather their manpower, and they stopped digging around Hong Kong City. Lao Li and Lao Jin decided to send the five cultural relics back as soon as possible.

Gu Shinian chose a day with good weather, got up at five o'clock, and took Yunshang to the most famous tea house in Hong Kong City for Cantonese morning tea.

At 6:30 in the morning, there were already a lot of people in the teahouse. When I walked in, a waiter came over with a big kettle, asked how many people were drinking tea, and helped find a seat.

The lobby on the first floor was already full of people, and the two of them followed the buddy to the second floor. As soon as they went up, they saw a row of bird cages hanging above the deck. Full of breath.

If it wasn't for sure that she was in the teahouse, Yunshang would have thought she was in the flower and bird market.

After the buddy explained, Yun Shang knew that these bird cages belonged to the guests who drank morning tea. Everyone gets up early in the morning to walk the birds. After walking the birds, they come to drink morning tea and read the newspapers. A busy or leisurely life begins in this way.

There were only two of Yunshang and Gu Shinian, and the assistant took them all the way to a seat by the window, where they shared a table with an old man who was reading a newspaper.

Gu Shinian helped Yunshang iron the cup, poured a cup of tea, and let Yunshang drink it slowly, while he called in a dim sum cart that was pushing back and forth in the narrow aisle.

Yun Shang looked over with great interest, the dim sum cart was steaming hot, and there were various kinds of dim sum in the steamer inside.

Following Yun Shang's taste, Gu Shinian ordered four kinds of dim sum, including siu mai, shrimp dumplings, pork ribs, and glutinous rice chicken.

The dim sum at this time are all real ingredients, through the almost transparent skin, Yunshang can see the shrimps wrapped in sauce, the attractive crimson color of the shrimps alone, hooks Yunshang's index finger Great move, full of happiness almost overflowing.

Yun Shang tasted every dim sum, and finally gave Gu Shinian some advice, "Second brother, if you can bring me here for morning tea every day, I promise to eat well, and I won't be picky about food anymore."

Seeing that Yun Shang really ate a lot this meal, Gu Shinian was also very happy to eat, and was very happy in his heart.

"Okay, as long as you can get up in the morning."

The smile on the corner of Yunshang's mouth froze immediately, thinking of the difficulty when she got up in the morning, she lowered her head and silently stuffed snacks into her mouth.

With a teasing smile on Gu Shinian's face, he said again, "It's unrealistic to come here for morning tea every morning, how about bringing you here once a week?"

Satisfied, Yun Shang stuffed the last shrimp dumpling into her mouth, took a few more sips of hot tea, wiped her mouth clean, and followed Gu Shinian downstairs contentedly.

After coming out of the teahouse, Gu Shinian found a place to call home, and with the consent of Lao Jin and Li, he took Yunshang to the bank for a stroll, and then drove back home.

Before getting out of the car, Yunshang took out five tightly wrapped cultural relics from the space, carefully put them into bags, and handed them to Lao Li.

Gu Shinian washed his face, came over and said, "A-Shang and I went in and only took cultural relics. In the empty suitcase, there were some jewelry that A-Shang bought in a department store, and they were temporarily stored in the bank to hide."

For Gu Shinian's prudence, Lao Jin expressed his satisfaction, and praised Yunshang for the first time, "Comrade Xiao Yunshang is very good, what money have you deposited in the bank? Go back and tell Lao Li, let him come back again." Go to the department store and buy you a new headband."

Yun Chang was speechless.

Gu Shinian was clearly talking about jewelry, but in the mouth of a straight steel man like Lao Jin, it became a headache.

Jewelry bought in department stores refers to earrings, necklaces, brooches, etc. Head flowers are things that children can buy with pocket money. Can jewelry be the same as head flowers?

If you really put a few worthless flowers in the bank, people will know that you have to laugh your teeth out.

Yun Chang smiled at Lao Jin very upset, turned around and went upstairs.

If she stayed any longer, she was afraid that she would not be able to bear the difference with Lao Jin.

Lao Li put away his things, dragged Lao Jin to mutter a few words, then went to the next door to call An Guosheng, and they hurried out.

This time, I didn't come back until the next morning.

Seeing that the two of them dragged Gu Shinian into the study as soon as they came back, Yun Shang wisely carried her schoolbag and prepared to follow An Yunming to school.

But before Yun Chang could go out, Gu Shinian called to stop her.

"A-Shang, the customs is ready. Uncle Li will send the things back today. Do you have anything to bring?"

Yunshang's eyes lit up, and she asked Gu Shinian, "Uncle Li will go back now?"

"Well, you have to go through the customs before noon, you..." Gu Shinian paused, knelt down, and said with a troubled expression, "Ah Chang, don't follow me to the customs."

"no!"

Yun Shang refused straight away, dragged Gu Shinian upstairs and said, "I'll go to the customs to see off Uncle Li, and I'll come back after watching him go through the customs."

Worried that Gu Shinian would disagree, Yunshang grabbed his arm and climbed up, whispering, "Second brother, I'll just walk behind him and watch him come back after passing the customs. I promise, as long as everything goes well there, I will Don't do it!"

Even if Lao Li said that the customs was ready, Yun Chang was not at ease.

It took them a lot of effort to retrieve the five national treasure-level cultural relics. If they can't pass through the customs and let these cultural relics pass outside again, it will not be so easy to take them back.

Gu Shinian's expression kept changing, he hesitated for a long time, and finally nodded in agreement, "Alright, Second Brother will accompany you later..."

Yun Chang cheered, and ran back to the room like a gust of wind, packed up the gifts she had saved for her family bit by bit, and prepared to let Lao Li take them back.

After a few people went out, Yunshang found out that An Guosheng asked the Lu family in Hong Kong City to help the Canton Fair, and used Lao Li as an employee of the firm to go through the customs with the people of the firm.

It was the first time Yunshang knew that there was also the Canton Fair during this period. And according to Gu Shinian, the Canton Fair is held twice a year, one in April and one in late October to November.

Lao Li was lucky, just in time for the Canton Fair, the customs on both sides were busy with people coming and going, and the inspections were easier than before. In addition, the Lu family had some status in the port city, so Lao Li mixed in with the commercial firm, inconspicuous and mediocre. Passed the customs safely.

Yunshang stood outside the customs and worried for a long time, thinking that if Lao Li revealed his stuff, she would take the cultural relics back to the space as soon as possible, and she was determined not to let the national treasure pass away.

Seeing that Lao Li passed the customs easily at last, Yunshang was worried for a long time before he was relieved.

It was almost noon now, Yun Shang leaned on the passenger seat and applied for benefits with Gu Shinian.

"Second Brother Gu, I have been a good student for several months, how are you going to reward me?"

Gu Shinian put one hand on the steering wheel, stretched out the other hand, fastened Yun Chang's seat belt, and asked her, "Take you to eat?"

"Don't eat." Yun Chang shook her head, pointed to the billboard in front of her and said, "Ban Shang said that a new movie is coming out recently, so take me to the movie."

Thinking that Yun Chang's performance was really good recently, Gu Shinian thought about it, nodded and agreed.

"Okay, it's almost noon, let's go to dinner first, and then take you to the movies after dinner."

Yun Chang's eyes flashed, and she continued to push forward, "Second Brother Gu, Lu Yunling who was sitting in front of me said that the radio station is playing the Beatles song recently, which is very nice. I think I need a new radio."

Gu Shinian: "..."

The Beatles?

Thankfully she figured it out.

Seeing that Gu Shinian didn't speak, Yun Shang grabbed Gu Shinian's sleeve and pulled it softly, "Second brother~!"

"purchase!"

Gu Shinian surrendered decisively.

Yun Shang then asked, "Second brother, do you think I look good in school uniform?"

Gu Shinian nodded without even thinking about it, "Looks good! My A-shang looks good in anything she wears." Even if it doesn't look good, you have to say it looks good, otherwise the little girl will find a way to torment him to death.

"Second brother, I'm so pretty, will you buy me another camera and take more pictures for me as souvenirs?"

Gu Shinian really thinks that Yun Shang's proposal is good. After the two missions are over, they will not have the opportunity to come to Hong Kong City for about ten years, and the next ten years will be the era of rapid development of Hong Kong City, so it is time to shoot more photos for Yun Shang. Some photos for souvenirs.

Yun Shang asked for a day off, and Gu Shinian followed Yun Shang's wishes, eating out, watching movies, and shopping for cameras. Knowing that the sky was getting dark, the two of them carried seven or eight bulging bags. The paper bag went home.

Not long after An Yunxi sent Baby Wen away, he saw the lights in the yard next door turned on, and walked over with the invitation letter left by Baby Wen.

Seeing that Yunshang was holding a new dress and comparing it to the mirror, An Yunxi asked curiously, "Yunshang, have you gone shopping with your cousin?"

"En!" Yun Chang replied crisply, turned around, and showed An Yunxi the new clothes, "Sister, does this dress look good?"

"Looks good, sister Yunshang is good-looking, she looks good in anything she wears." An Yunxi blushed, and praised Yunshang very delicately.

Seeing Yun Chang's happy brows and eyes, An Yunxi also showed a smile on his face, and asked, "Yun Chang, where is my cousin? The Wen family sent an invitation letter to my cousin..."

As soon as she heard the word "Wen's family", Yunshang's nerves tensed up, and she interrupted An Yunxi directly, "Wen's family? Is it Wen Baobao's house?"

"Well, Wen Baobao sent it here in person. You are not at home. She waited for a long time and went back before dinner."

Yunshang's cheeks were bulging, and she yelled upstairs angrily, "An Yunzhou! Come down for me! Baby Wen sent you another invitation letter!"

I didn't realize that this Wen Baobao was actually a flexible and stretchable character. Gu Shinian had slapped her in the face, saying that she didn't like her flattened bean sprouts figure, but she still had the cheek to approach Gu Shinian.

Is this a plan to get rid of the remaining layer of skin?

An Yunxi didn't know the reason for Yunshang's sudden anger, she was stunned for a moment, and then asked, "Yunshang, don't you like Wen Baobao?"

"I don't like it!" Yun Shang replied firmly.

An Yunshang was really surprised this time. Although Wen Baobao didn't say it clearly, she could tell that Wen Baobao should like his cousin.

That Wen Baobao is beautiful, has a good personality, and has a good background. If Wen Baobao didn't go to a girls' school, there would be many people outside who wanted to pursue her.

On the other hand, An Yunzhou, apart from his good-looking face and being good to his sister Yunshang, what other advantages does he have?

People who were close to An's family spread the word, saying that she is a good-looking cousin, straightforward, generous, and very personable. She deserves to be from country Y.

At first glance, these words are all exaggerations, but if you really think about it carefully, which sentence is not a roundabout way of saying that my cousin is a stick?

He looks great, what does a big man want such a good look for? I can't rely on my face to eat.

Has a straightforward temper, doesn't it mean that my cousin has a bad temper, can't speak, and doesn't know how to restrain his emotions and look at people's faces?

A generous shot, combined with the previous one, is the image of a person with a lot of money.

According to those people, apart from being able to see his face, his cousin has no other advantages. Logically speaking, Wen Baobao is enough to match his cousin, and judging from his own situation, Wen Baobao It should be the best marriage partner that my cousin can find.

She couldn't figure out why Yunshang rejected Wen Baobao so much.

Seeing that An Yunxi's expression was wrong, Yunshang put down the clothes in his hand and asked, "Sister, did Baby Wen tell you something?"

"No." An Yunxi looked back at the direction of the stairs, seeing that Gu Shinian hadn't gone downstairs yet, she lowered her voice, "Yunshang, I'll tell you something quietly, don't tell others."

Have a secret?

Yun Chang's eyes flashed, and she nodded solemnly, "Sister, don't worry, I will definitely not say anything."

"Yunshang, I think Baby Wen seems to like his cousin."

Yun Shang: "..."

Cheap cousin, you really have sharp eyesight, you can see at a glance that Wen Baobao is plotting against Second Brother Gu!

Chapter 519

Yunshang pulled An Yunxi closer to the kitchen, very gossip, "Sister, did you see it too? Let me tell you, Wen Baobao was scolded by my brother last time."

Wen Baobao made An Yunzhou scold him! ?

An Yunzhou scolded their school's beauty?

What exactly is going on?

Wen Baobao looks so good-looking, can An Yunzhou still scold him?

Seeing that An Yunxi's eyes were widened in shock, Yunshang recounted that she disliked Wen Baobao's dry lentil sprouts figure in the past, saying that she was not as good as the women in country Y.

After finishing the matter, he said very maliciously, "Sister, think about it, my brother even said that he doesn't like her, and even said something so ugly, can that baby Wen not be angry..."

An Yunxi nodded, "I'll definitely be very angry, if someone says that about me...I'll beat him up!"

Yun Shang continued to analyze, "Baby Wen hates my brother to death, what do you mean she sent an invitation letter to my brother herself?"

"Yeah, what do you mean?" An Yunshang was also puzzled.

Yun Shang said with certainty, "It must be that she wants to take revenge on my brother! If she tricks my brother out and finds someone to beat him up, where are we going to find the murderer? Even if she really likes my brother, but She is a girl, let my brother say that, and ran to our house with the cheek, do you think she is too shameless? Such a girl, what kind of good person can be? "

An Yunxi was moved by Yun Shang almost instantly.

What Yun Shang said makes sense!

My cousin scolded Wen Baobao, how could Wen Baobao still like my cousin?

She must want to take revenge on her cousin, or continue to pester her cousin in a shameless manner.

Thinking about it this way, in An Yunxi's heart, the gleaming halo on Wen Baobao's head suddenly shattered, and it became a joke in her heart from the school belle. It would be good not to avoid Wen Baobao in the future, and Wen Baobao would use An Yunxi to send her an invitation letter, or inquire about Gu Shinian's news, it would obviously be impossible.

After the two gossiped, they came out of the kitchen. Gu Shinian had already showered and went downstairs.

Yunshang snatched the invitation letter from An Yunxi's hand, and angrily stuffed it into Gu Shinian's hand, "That baby Wen sent it to you!"

Gu Shinian took a look at the invitation letter, and asked An Yunxi, "Did the Wen family send the invitation letter to Second Uncle?"

An Yunxi frowned, thought for a while, and said, "I didn't hear from my dad that Wen Baobao came over this afternoon and only sent this invitation letter. But this is an invitation letter sent to you by Brother Wen Baobao ...He shouldn't send an invitation letter to my dad, right?"

Gu Shinian casually threw the invitation letter on the coffee table, and said with a worried face, "No! I don't know the Wen family very well. Last time I went back to the old man of the Wen family to celebrate his birthday, I even paid for a birthday present.

This family is really addicted to receiving gifts! It doesn't matter that old man Wen is an elder, brother Wen Baobao is only a few years older than me, and he sent me an invitation letter for my birthday. This is making me look like a fool, trying to cheat me out of money! "

An Yunxi was dumbfounded.

She thought of many reasons why Gu Shinian would not go to Brother Wen Baobao's birthday party, but she never thought that Gu Shinian would find such a weird reason.

However, Yunshang felt that Gu Shinian's analysis was extremely correct, so she stretched out her thumb, looked serious, and praised Gu Shinian very sincerely:

"Brother! You are so right! This writer is just looking for all kinds of excuses to cheat you out of money.

Let's not play with the Wen family's gang of money fans who are desperate for money! "

An Yunxi: "..."

Looking at the pair of brothers and sisters who praised each other, An Yunxi felt that his mind was numb, and he had the illusion that he couldn't keep up with their thoughts.

If An Yunxi lived in later generations, he would definitely use one sentence to describe his mood: I often feel out of place with them because I am not perverted enough.

After dismissing the bewildered An Yunxi away, Yunshang took the invitation letter and looked at it for a long time, seeing that it indeed said that Gu Shinian was invited to the birthday party, she threw it aside in disgust.

"Second brother, Baby Wen is still coveting your beauty."

Yun Shang's words successfully changed Gu Shinian's face, and even the teacup in his hand almost fell to the ground.

"A Chang, what did you say?" Gu Shinian put down his teacup, bent down and looked straight at Yun Shang, "Say it again."

"That's what it is!" Yun Shang was very unconvinced and argued, "You don't know what reputation you have outside now, do you? People outside have said that An Guosheng's nephew, except for his face, can see everything else. is useless.

Tell me, you can only see the rest of your face, so what is it that Baby Wen covets your beauty? "

The expression on Gu Shinian's face was distorted for a moment, and then he looked at Yun Shang without a word.

What the little girl said made sense, but he was speechless.

Yun Shang patted Gu Shinian's hand reassuringly, and assured him, "Second brother, don't worry, I will definitely protect your beauty and safeguard your innocence."

Gu Shinian: "..."

Before Gu Shinian taught her a lesson, Yun Shang giggled and rushed upstairs, locked the door and hid in the room before Gu Shinian went upstairs.

"Yunshang, open the door."

The door was knocked lightly, and Gu Shinian's voice was calm, even with a gentleness that could not be concealed.

"You want to hit me again, I won't do it!" Yun Chang covered her mouth and shouted.

In his previous life, Gu Shinian's temper was not that of a young man, and his life was so simple and monotonous, even worse than many old people.

Only when she teases Gu Shinian hard enough, he will tear off the mask of gentleness and elegance on the surface, and will teach her a lesson angrily, will have more vivid emotions, and will be like a real big boy.

It's a pity that after a long time, Gu Shinian won't be fooled anymore.

In this life, Gu Shinian's temperament is more human than in his previous life, and he is no longer withdrawn and alienated like in his previous life, but Yun Shang will still tease him habitually.

Seeing that Yun Chang didn't open the door, Gu Shinian leaned against the door frame, lowered his head, the corners of his mouth slowly curved, and the faint smile in his eyes gradually became stronger.

"A Chang, open the door, Second Brother will take you out for supper."

Yunshang is a delicious food. When he heard that there was something to eat, he couldn't lie down immediately. He opened the door, and before Gu Shinian could speak, he rubbed his head against Gu Shinian's chest, "Second brother, I was wrong, next time I dare not make fun of you anymore."

She had a thorough understanding of Gu Shinian's temperament, and knew that if she acted like a baby, Gu Shinian would have nothing to do with her.

In order to keep his ass from being beaten, he still had the cheek to beg Gu Shinian for mercy.

In Hong Kong City in November, the weather was still very warm. Gu Shinian took a shower at night and was wearing a thin shirt.

Yun Chang's head rubbed against his chest, and the thin strands of hair got into his clothes, scratching the position of his heart, and the itch went straight to the bottom of his heart through the shortest distance, it was numb, warm and soft.

Gu Shinian had never experienced this strange feeling in his two lifetimes, so that the hand he was about to stroke Yun Shang's head froze in mid-air.

Unable to get his response, Yun Chang quietly turned her head, her head rolled over Gu Shinian's chest, and she secretly glanced at him from bottom to top.

Seeing that Gu Shinian was looking at her blankly with his head down, the expression on his face was either sad or happy, and there was a strange light in his eyes, as if he was completely immersed in his own thoughts.

Sensing that Gu Shinian's mood was not right, the smile on Yunshang's face gradually faded away, she slowly raised her head, and asked cautiously, "Second brother, what's wrong with you?"

Gu Shinian came back to his senses, subconsciously gave Yunshang a smiling face, dropped his big hand, and rubbed it on Yunshang's head, but when his palm left the top of her head, the soft strands of hair passed through his fingers, and finally disappeared. At the fingertips, Gu Shinian felt a sense of reluctance.

It's like... I can't bear to let go of the smooth and soft hair under my hands.

Seeing that Gu Shinian was distracted again, Yun Shang said again, "Second Brother...?"

Facing Shang Yunshang's probing eyes, Gu Shinian coughed unnaturally, closed the door for her, and walked downstairs holding her thin wrist.

"Ah Chang, what do you want to eat?"

Gu Shinian's voice was unbelievably gentle, Yun Shang felt the hairs on his arms stand on end, looked at Gu Shinian's face, thought for a while, and tentatively said two words:

"dumpling?"

"Okay." Gu Shinian replied with a smile, and took her hand all the way out the door, never letting go.

Not far from the small bungalow is a bustling neighborhood, and it only takes ten minutes for the two of them to walk there.

Many restaurants are closed at night, but there are food stalls on the other side of the street. The two of them strolled all the way, and Yun Chang's mouth never stopped. From fish balls, to bowls of wings, to egg waffles, the little belly swelled unconsciously. Eat well.

In the end, I also forgot that I came out to find dumplings.

"Second brother, is Uncle Jin going to stare at that brother Hai again?"

"Well, this person is too important." Gu Shinian took Yun Shang's leftover egg waffles, ate them in a few bites, and continued, "I'll pick up Uncle Jin's shift in the middle of the night. Yunming is going to school."

As soon as the matter of going to school was mentioned, Yun Shang became wilted again, and even her voice became a little lower.

After returning home, Gu Shinian watched Yun Chang wash up and go to bed obediently, then closed the door for her, changed into disguise clothes, and went out to meet Lao Jin.

.....

Lao Li returned to the capital this time, only half a month back.

When Yun Chang came back from school, she saw the familiar big package on the bed, she looked happy, and rushed over to open it.

A letter was placed on the top, and below it were two new sets of clothes, two pairs of new leather shoes, a large bag of dried meat, a large bag of dried fruit, chocolate, and a large bag of special treats that the old man often ate. pastry.

Yun Chang knew at a glance that the new clothes and shoes were prepared for her by Cheng Guo, and that the big bag of dried meat was made by Aunt Jiang, and the dried fruit and special snacks should be found for her by the old man in the courtyard. As for the chocolate, Cheng Guo should have bought it for her at the Friendship Store.

Yunshang first tore a piece of jerky and stuffed it into her mouth. It had a strong aroma and a little bit of cured flavor. The familiar taste spread on the tip of her tongue, and the happiness in Yunshang's heart almost overflowed.

Knowing that Gu Shinian and a few others were downstairs in the study, Yun Shang put on new clothes, looked at the mirror happily for a long time, then ran downstairs and sat on the sofa waiting for Gu Shinian to come out.

In the study, An Guosheng frowned, pointed to a black and white photo in the newspaper and showed it to several people, "That's right, this person's name is Luo Hai, and he is the Brother Hai we are looking for."

"He's not dead, is he?" Lao Jin grabbed the newspaper and quickly read the report, then slammed the table and said, "Great! He's not dead yet! That's right, no wonder we couldn't find him, so he was chopped up Yes, he must have hid and recuperated."

An Guosheng took the newspaper from Lao Jin's hand and handed it to Gu Shinian and Lao Li to read, "You also recognize the person. My side asked someone to connect with the gang, and the other party gave the voice, within three days Give us Luo Hai's whereabouts."

Lao Li and Lao Jin suddenly became excited.

If they were in China, it would be easy for them to find someone, but in the unfamiliar Hong Kong city, on their own, it would be too difficult for them to find someone with only a name and no photo.

At the critical moment, an old man like An Guosheng who went to Hong Kong City in his early years had to come to exert his strength.

After talking about Luo Hai's news, An Guosheng said another exciting clue, "The Wen family has been inquiring about Yuxi's whereabouts recently, and they seem to have some clues."

The other three looked at An Guosheng in unison, waiting for his next words.

"I went out for morning tea yesterday and met Wen Jinsheng in a teahouse. The person who drank tea with him was a businessman who made a living by buying and selling news. I asked that person, and Wen Jinsheng asked him to inquire about the news that he got from Luo Hai back then. As for the whereabouts of the jade seal that went out, he met Wen Jinsheng because he had a clue to sell to the other party."

As soon as the voice fell, Lao Jin reacted almost instantly.

"Lao An, what do you mean, we still have to start with the Wen family for the whereabouts of Yuxi?"

An Guosheng nodded, "Wen Jinsheng has some contacts, and he has more sources and channels than us. We can't fight for contacts, and if we inquire about the news by ourselves, it is easy to alarm Wen Jinsheng. Since it is not appropriate to make big moves, then Let's just sit back and wait for the rabbit, we will guard the Wen family, and when Wen Jinsheng finds Yuxi, we will find a chance to get the things back!"

Wen Jinsheng claimed that he lost an antique cultural relic in a secret room. In addition to his heartache, he will definitely use all his connections to find the person who stole it.

For a person who is obsessed with cultural relics and has no shortage of money in his hands, while recovering lost cultural relics, he will definitely search for news everywhere and be eager to acquire new cultural relics.

If the Wen family knew that he, An Guosheng, was also inquiring about Yuxi's whereabouts, maybe Wen Jinsheng would put his suspicion on An's family.

In this way, Lao Jin, Lao Li, and Gu Shinian must also pay attention to avoiding the eyeliner of the Wen family when performing tasks. When the time comes, everyone will easily hold their hands and say nothing, and if they are not careful, their identities will be exposed. .

If that time comes, all of them, including Yunshang, and his wife and children next door, will be in danger.

An Guosheng's concerns were thought of by the other three people in the study. Gu Shinian thought about Yunshang's delicate little face, fell silent for a moment, looked at the others and said, "Sun Wenqihua, head of the Wen family, last time An invitation letter was sent to me for my birthday, but I didn't go, I'll go to Wen's house tomorrow to make up for Wen Qihua's present."

An Guosheng looked at Gu Shinian, heaved a long sigh, patted him on the shoulder and said, "Little Gu, what the Wen family wants is the 'ancestral property' you brought back from country Y, you don't have to be shy when dealing with the Wen family." Baby Wen."

Gu Shinian raised his eyebrows slightly, then smiled and said, "I'm a big stick who just came back from abroad. I'm a fool with a lot of money and love to play. Naturally, I have to deal with boys who can play with the Wen family. Girls, no one likes to take them out Play."

An Guosheng laughed immediately, "It's good that you understand."

This kid is really a thief.

His intention is to only go out to play with the grandchildren of the Wen family in the future.

That's fine, Wen Baobao is a girl's family, no matter how thick-skinned she is, she can't do anything like go out with a few men.

Besides, even if Wen Baobao can risk his face and follow him out, there are many places in Hong Kong City that are only suitable for men and not suitable for girls.

As the leader of the character group, Lao Jin has already turned his head and started to think about where to get some activity funds so that Gu Shinian can go out to eat, drink and have fun in a better and smarter way.

After talking about the business, Gu Shinian came out of the study, and immediately saw Yun Shang sitting on the sofa watching TV.

Seeing that she was wearing a new set of clothes that she hadn't seen before, she knew in her heart that this should be brought by Lao Li to help Yunshang go back this time.

And Yunshang was waiting in the living room wearing new clothes, in order to let him see if the new clothes look good, and let him praise her.

"A Chang, this dress looks good."

Before Yun Shang could speak, Gu Shinian began to praise Yun Shang very much.

Yun Chang raised her eyebrows, she was very smug in her heart, but she still pretended not to care.

Gu Shinian looked amused, dragged her upstairs, closed the door, and whispered to her the two pieces of news that An Guosheng had brought back.

"Second brother, are you going to contact the Yun family?"

"Yeah." Gu Shinian was silent for a while before responding, "I've thought about it, I just need to make friends with the men from the Wen family."

Resolutely don't give Wen Baobao a chance to get close to him, otherwise Ah Chang will get angry.

Yun Shang knew that Gu Shinian was going to be busy with serious business, so instead of being petty like before and not allowing him to have contact with Wen Baobao, she patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder very generously and told him like an adult :

"Go, this is business. Even if it's acting, you should do it well. At least you have to fool the Wen family."

Before playing petty temper with Gu Er Ge, angry Wen Baobao took the initiative to approach Gu Er Ge, it was just that she was playing around with Gu Er Ge, and wanted Gu Er Ge to coax her.

Besides, with Second Brother Gu's indifferent attitude towards others, even if Baby Wen tried his best, Second Brother Gu wouldn't give her a second look, so she wasn't worried.

Gu Shinian clutched his chest, staring blankly at Yunshang.

Logically speaking, he should be relieved that Yun Shang doesn't play petty temper and doesn't make trouble with him. He is gratified that his little girl has grown up and is sensible, but why is his heart more stuffy?

Even, there is a little grievance.

Does his family, A-Shang, not want him anymore?

Knowing that he was going to get in touch with Wen's family, and knowing that he would often meet Wen Baobao in the future, why didn't she act like a baby with him and threaten him not to talk to Wen Baobao?

Until Gu Shinian returned to his room, he still couldn't understand why he felt so aggrieved.

As soon as An Guosheng found out the whereabouts of Luo Hai, he rushed to the small fishing village with Lao Jin and Lao Li.

The three of them stayed in the village for a whole week, tried all kinds of means, and finally pried Luo Hai's mouth open, telling the whereabouts of most of the cultural relics.

The remaining dozens of cultural relics, because the time is too long, Luo Hai really can't remember.

Although they couldn't get all the clues of the trafficked cultural relics, maybe more than half of them were asked, which was enough to surprise them.

What a few people didn't expect was that just a week after they left, Gu Shinian told Wen Qihua that Wen Jinsheng had joined Yuxi's current 'master'.

"...in the hands of a person from country Y. Wen Jinsheng sent his eldest son to talk to him yesterday. Wen Qihua said that the other party is not satisfied with the price offered by the Wen family."

The cigarette butt in Lao Jin's hand was clearly extinguished, and finally he took a deep puff, crushed the cigarette butt, and asked Gu Shinian, "Xiao Gu, did Wen Qihua say who that country Y man is?"

"I didn't ask." Gu Shinian said in a very calm tone, seeing that the other three were silent, he added again, "We will get this jade seal back sooner or later, the more we ask now, when Yuxi disappears, we will become more suspicious."

In the final analysis, it is right to make a fortune in silence.

Since Wen Jinsheng is obsessed with antiques and cultural relics, let Wen Jinsheng be the mantis, and they will be the orioles behind the mantis, staring at Wen Jinsheng directly, and picking up Wen Jinsheng's wool one after another.

Lao Jin and Lao Li glanced at each other, and they both saw the look of approval in each other's eyes.

An Guosheng took out the notebook recording Luo Hai's confession, and handed it to Gu Shinian, "Luo Hai has recruited, here are the whereabouts of ninety-seven cultural relics, all of which were sold through Luo Hai's hands. The remaining few Ten cultural relics, it's been too long, Luo Hai can't remember them."

Gu Shinian took a look at the notebook, and saw that only a few of the buyers on it were from Hong Kong City, and there were only 22 pieces of cultural relics sold in Hong Kong City.

The remaining seventy-five pieces of cultural relics were all fled abroad. Apart from a few countries in Europe, there were even a few items that were sold to country R next door.

The anger in Gu Shinian's heart was like a wave, surging up one after another. At the end, his eyes were firmly fixed on the names of the cultural relics living in country R, and his face was slowly stained with anger. .

"Uncle Jin, you are the team leader. You are here to make our next plan. Which country should we go to first?"

When Gu Shinian asked these words, his eyes kept falling on the few cultural relics in country R, and the strong will in his eyes made Lao Jin unable to ignore them even if he wanted to.

Lao Jin rubbed his face that had been stiffened by the contents of the notebook for a long time, and happily complied with Gu Shinian's wishes:

"I've been to R, and I'll start when I get back the jade seal!"

Yun Chang didn't know that the task had made a great breakthrough. She had just bought snacks from the grocery store and was looking at Wen Baobao standing in front of her, speechless.

"Yunshang, is your name Yunshang? I heard Yunzhou talk about you. My name is Wen Baobao."

Yun Shang was expressionless, "I don't know you."

Wen Baobao didn't care about Yun Shang's cold face at all, and even the smile on his face didn't change a bit, "I recognized you at a glance. You went to our house with Uncle An last time, I remember you."

Shit! You patronized my second brother Gu at that time, and you didn't even give me a wink, remember me from the air?

Isn't this fooling people!

Yun Shang continued to remain expressionless, and said, "I didn't see you when I went back to the Wen family, and I still don't know you. I'm going home, let me go."

Wen Baobao finally felt embarrassed this time, the smile on his face froze, and he almost couldn't hang on.

Seeing that Yun Shang was about to leave with her schoolbag on her back, Wen Baobao stopped in front of Yun Shang again, and asked with a blushing face:

"Yunshang, your brother, he, he... hasn't he told you about me?"

The expression on Yunshang's face finally fluctuated, she didn't speak, and looked at Wen Baobao with the eyes of a fool, until Wen Baobao felt uncomfortable and almost turned around and ran away.

"It's strange for you to ask questions. I don't even know you. Why does my brother tell me about you?"

After Yun Chang finished speaking, she was afraid that she would be stopped by Wen Baobao again, so she ran towards An Yunming.

This brat, seeing that she was stopped by Wen Baobao, didn't even go to help her!

An Yunming took Yunshang's schoolbag and asked her, "Why does Baby Wen want you?"

Yun Chang's face darkened immediately, and she glared at An Yunming fiercely, and said angrily, "You know it's Wen Baobao, so why didn't you come to help me just now?"

"She bullied you?" An Yunming looked surprised, "Didn't my sister say that Wen Baobao likes my cousin? It's too late for her to flatter you, so how could she bully you?"

Yun Chang felt that An Yunming was not fun at all, and he was not as good as the seven-year-old An Yunlang.

At the very least, when An Yunlang gets up, he can amuse her. This An Yunming is simply a little old-fashioned.

When they got home, Gu Shinian was already waiting at the door, Yunshang handed Gu Shinian the schoolbag, and while walking home, complained to Gu Shinian.

"Second brother, Wen Baobao came to school to find me. I asked you if you told me about her."

Gu Shinian's expression turned cold, and he asked Yun Shang, "What else did she ask?"

"No, I said I didn't know her, and then I left."

After Yunshang finished speaking, she moved up to Gu Shinian and said, "Second brother, tell the truth, have you seen Wen Baobao in Beijing recently?"

"Well, she went out to play with Wen Qihua a few times. When I went to Wen's house these days, Baby Wen was always there."

When Gu Shinian was speaking, the corner of his eyes kept falling on Yun Shang's hand, and seeing that she really poked at him secretly and stretched out her claws to pinch him, the corners of her mouth curved up a bit.

Noticing that the little claws on his waist were soft and weak even for pinching people, Gu Shinian bent down, pointed at his face with a smile, "A Chang, pinch here."

Yun Shang: "..."

Is Gu Shinian crazy?

Take the wrong medicine! ?

She was obviously cold and cold outside, but now she looks like a puppy. Why is this change so scary?

Yun Chang shivered abruptly.

Seeing Yun Chang staring at him blankly, unable to recover for a long time, Gu Shinian continued, "Don't pinch? If you don't pinch him next time, don't do it secretly again."

Seeing that Gu Shinian's handsome face was about to leave, Yun Chang subconsciously stretched out her claws, and pinched Gu Shinian's cheek.

Rubbing vigorously, a sudden look flashed across his eyes.

No wonder he always likes to pinch her face, with such a soft touch, she also likes to pinch her.

The next day was Sunday, when Yun Chang woke up and saw that Gu Shinian was dressed neatly again, ready to go out like a gentleman, the alarm bell in his heart rang immediately.

"Second brother, where are you going?"

"Why did you come out in pajamas?" Gu Shinian went upstairs and slipped Yun Shang into the room, "You stay at home, I'll go to Wen's."

Yun Shang put on a thin sweater and asked Gu Shinian, "How about the Wen family's purchase of jade seals?"

"I'll go over and have a look, there should be a letter today."

"Then I'll go too." Yun Shang couldn't sit still, "The Wen family has lost something once, so how can they not have a long memory. I'll go over and have a look, and I'll take care of the places that are inconvenient for you to check."

Gu Shinian thought for a while, patted Yun Shang's head and walked outside, "Change quickly, I'll wait for you downstairs."

When the two arrived at Wen's house, Baby Wen was indeed sitting in the living room. Seeing Gu Shinian entering with Yunshang, Baby Wen's eyes lit up, and then he lowered his head aggrieved.

Gu Shinian squinted at Wen Baobao, frowned and winked at Wen Qihua who was sitting on the sofa, and silently asked Wen Baobao why he was here.

Wen Qihua spread his hands, indicating that he had no choice but to control Wen Baobao.

After the two of them sat down, Gu Shinian lazily leaned on the sofa, looked around the living room, and asked Wen Qihua, "Why don't you see the old man and Uncle Wen? I've come home, so why don't I go with the old man and Uncle Wen?" Say hello, or you will have to be told again when you go back."

"Brother Yunzhou, grandpa and my dad went out for morning tea early in the morning, and are not at home now." Wen Baobao brought out two cups of tea, put them in front of Gu Shinian and Yun Shang, and said cheerfully.

Gu Shinian frowned, turned black in front of Wen Qihua's words, and asked Wen Baobao very angrily, "My sister said that you went to school to look for her yesterday? Why are you looking for my sister? Do you know that my sister is courageous?" Little, what if I get scared by you?"

No one expected that Gu Shinian would suddenly turn his back on him, and it was still in Wen's living room, in front of Wen Baobao kissing his eldest brother.

Not to mention Wen Qihua was stunned, even Yunshang was a little confused.

Wen Baobao was even more frightened by Gu Shinian's sudden anger and took a few steps back. He first looked at the dazed Wen Qihua, then at Yunshang, and finally said aggrievedly, "She is your sister, can I help you?" What are you doing? I just want to get to know your sister. You haven't come to see my elder brother for several days, so I just want to ask your sister what you are doing at home. " ill!

Yun Chang secretly complained in her heart.

The corner of Gu Shinian's mouth twitched, and he didn't even want to talk to Wen Baobao anymore. He turned his head and said to Wen Qihua very rudely, "Next time I have an appointment outside, I won't come home."

Wen Qihua also came back to his senses, the look in Wen Baobao's eyes was indescribable, probably he didn't expect his own sister to pester a man like this.

"Okay, I'll call you in advance next time I find you." After Wen Qihua finished speaking, he looked at Yun Shang beside Gu Shinian, "Is this your sister? Why haven't you mentioned it before?"

Gu Shinian raised his eyebrows slightly, "You think I'm you?"

You talk about your sister as a school beauty all day long, and when it's beneficial to take it, you can't wait to strip your own sister and send her to the other party's bed.

His little sister can't be petted enough, she talks about it all day long for outsiders to hear, that's not petting, it's showing off!

Moreover, Wen Qihua flaunted to his so-called friends all day long that his sister was a school belle, so he never thought about what those friends would think of Wen Baobao in their hearts?

Whether it's a man or a wolf, it can't be seen on the surface. When Wen Qihua showed off Wen Baobao, he never thought about whether those so-called friends of his would use the greatest malice in their hearts to YY Wen Baobao?

It's just that these are private matters between Wen Qihua and Wen Baobao, and have nothing to do with him, so there's no need for him to remind Wen Qihua.

In addition, every time Wen Baobao went out to play with Wen Qihua, she never saw her particularly dislike Wen Qihua introducing her as the school belle.

Since the person involved doesn't mind, then he will take it as a joke, there is no need to be troublesome.

Gu Shinian had a bad attitude, but Wen Qihua seemed to be used to it, and didn't feel anything was wrong, instead, he talked to him about other things with a smile.

Wen Baobao stood by the side for a while, seeing that Gu Shinian refused to talk to her after scolding her, he felt embarrassed, ashamed and angry, and also had a faint fear.

She was not mistaken, the way An Yunzhou looked at her just now was cold and frightening, looking at her as if looking at a lifeless stone, without any emotion.

Wen Baobao couldn't help looking up at Yunshang. The girl sitting on the sofa had exquisite eyebrows and fair skin, especially her pair of eyes, which were bright and bright. When she smiled, they curved like crescent moons. There are also looming dimples on the side, which is very cute.

Sitting next to An Yunzhou, he would unconsciously lean towards her from time to time, while the man who had always been cold to her would subconsciously stick out his arms or stretch out his hands to protect her. The relationship between the two brothers and sisters was very good at first glance.

Wen Baobao took a look at Wen Qihua, then sat on the opposite sofa sleepily, his eyes vaguely fell on Gu Shinian, and he couldn't bear to look away for a long time.

Yun Shang rubbed the goosebumps on her arm, admiring Gu Shinian's determination.

Such a beautiful girl, with a sticky gaze on her body, even a man can't stand it, yet Gu Shinian can't change his face, treating her as nothing.

Wen Qihua probably felt that his sister's appearance was too embarrassing, coughed dryly, and asked Wen Baobao to go to the kitchen to get some fruit, and then asked Gu Shinian, "Yunzhou, what did you think about what my dad told you last time?" gone?"

"I've thought about it carefully, and I'm not interested." Gu Shinian impatiently pushed the gold-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose, and complained to Wen Qihua, "You know, I don't like doing business, and I don't like doing business. Business information. The business experience that Uncle Lin said gave me a headache when I heard it. How can I do business? I think it's good to deposit money in the bank, and I'm not afraid of losing money."

Wen Qihua: "... You have all your money in the bank, but you haven't invested it, how can you lose money?

Unless the bank fails, there is the possibility of losing money.

Yun Shang was amused by Gu Shinian's words, and quickly turned her head to prevent the two people from seeing the smile on her mouth.

It's just that the moment Yunshang turned her head to the side, out of the corner of her eye, she saw a few people entering the gate of Yu's house.

Taking a closer look, the person walking in the front was Wen Jinsheng, the head of the Wen family, followed by Wen's eldest son, followed by four men who looked like bodyguards.

Yun Shang noticed that Wen's eldest son was carrying a small suitcase in his hand, and the four bodyguards surrounded the suitcase faintly in the middle of it as protectors.

Yun Chang became excited all of a sudden, stretched out her hand, and scratched Gu Shinian's palm as a signal.

Gu Shinian held Yun Shang's hand tightly, and after she turned her head, she nodded lightly, signaling Yun Shang to act according to circumstances.

Old Man Wen walked in front. Although he didn't show it on his face, his eager and relaxed pace revealed his good mood.

Lin's parents were already trying to keep a straight face, but the smile in the corner of his eyes couldn't be hidden no matter what.

Seeing that the two were about to enter the door, Wen Qihua hurriedly got up to meet them, and Wen Baobao also ran out of the kitchen, calling out to Mr. Wen.

On the other hand, Gu Shinian got up slowly, and stood there to greet Wen Jinsheng and Wen Qihua's father, without any intention of approaching them.

Yun Chang followed suit and stayed firmly in place.

Wen Jinsheng has been in a depressed mood for several months, and today finally something gratifying happened. He was in a good mood, and he didn't think Gu Shinian and Yun Shang's behavior was too contemptuous and impolite, so he waved his hands at them with a smile, and took The eldest son walked upstairs alone with the suitcase in his hand.

ah! Wen Jinsheng really changed his habit of checking cultural relics in the study downstairs?

After Yun Chang was surprised, she kept secretly happy in her heart.

Do you really think you can keep the jade seal by changing the place?

dream!

Yun Shang looked at Wen Jinsheng's hastily going upstairs, and explored the space mentally, and then looked at the freshly baked jade seal that had just entered the space, and his eyes were almost narrowed with joy.

The moment Wen Jinsheng and the eldest son entered the door, Yunshang unhesitatingly stretched out her mental strength, and put the jade seal that Wen Jinsheng had just obtained through the suitcase into the space before it had time to warm it up.

At this moment, seeing Wen Jinsheng rushing upstairs to play with the treasure he just got, Yun Shang raised her ears wickedly and listened to the movement upstairs.

Sure enough, the sound of "crackling" and Wen Jin's furious curse came from upstairs soon.

More than ten seconds later, Wen Jinsheng ran downstairs in three steps at a time, holding the empty suitcase containing the jade seal in his hand, gritted his teeth, and asked his eldest son with a livid face:

"Are you sure that thing is coming back? You saw it put in with your own eyes, didn't you!"

Wen's father and son looked at the empty suitcase that almost hit their faces in confusion, and asked in puzzlement, "Yeah, Dad, what happened?"

"Snapped!"

The empty suitcase in Wen Jinsheng's hand fell to the ground, and he flicked it several times before stopping completely.

Wen Jinsheng's face was pale, his lips trembled uncontrollably, and it took a long time before he squeezed out a few words, "...empty, empty, the box is empty..."

Everyone in the room was stunned.

What does it mean that the box is empty?

Could it be that Yuxi was not brought back?

Wen Jinsheng's head was dizzy for a while, and his body swayed a few times. Wen Qihua hurried forward to support Wen Jinsheng, and his eyes fell on the empty box on the ground.

"Grandpa, the box is empty... Is that foreign devil who lied to our family and didn't give us something?"

Wen Jinsheng's mouth trembled violently, and even the skin on his face began to twitch. He turned his head and looked straight at Yunshang and Gu Shinian.

Gu Shinian's image outside was that of an unsophisticated young man, so he couldn't understand the meaning of Wen Jinsheng's eyes, so Yun Shang hurriedly took Gu Shinian's hand and said goodbye to the Wen family.

Chapter 520 Who is unlucky

Wen Jinsheng felt that the An family was very unlucky!

Very very very bad luck!

The last time An Guosheng brought these two nephews and nieces to visit, his collection of decades disappeared like a ghost that night.

Today An Guosheng's two nephews and nieces came to the house, and he worked hard to get them. Yuxi, who was carefully invited back all the way, ran away in the box again!

Isn't this bad luck?

It's the ultimate mourning, and it's the kind of mourning that specializes in mourning writers!

If it hadn't been confirmed that these two people were the farthest away from him from the beginning to the end, and had never been close to the box, he would have suspected that these two people did it.

Luo Jinsheng's face twitched violently, he pressed his chest with one hand, and fixed his eyes on Gu Shinian who walked out of the gate of Wen's house, wishing to poke two holes in him.

"...Qihua, don't associate with this kid in the future." This kid is too wicked!

Wen Qihua didn't dare to disobey Wen Jinsheng when he was furious. Although he was puzzled and unwilling, he still agreed with interest.

After Wen Jinsheng finished speaking, he turned his head to look at his eldest son, and then at the four bodyguards behind him, his eyes flickered unclearly.

After a long time, Wen Jinsheng forcibly suppressed the smell of blood rushing to his throat, his face was livid, and he walked towards the gate with unconcealable anger.

Several bodyguards, as well as Wen's father and son, didn't dare to intervene, so they quickly picked up the empty box on the ground and followed behind Wen Jinsheng.

The car was driving rapidly on the road, and Yunshang was sitting in the passenger seat, her mouth almost grinning to the ears.

"Second brother, what do you think old man Wen will do next?"

There was a smile in the corner of Gu Shinian's eyes, the corners of his mouth curled up a little, and his voice was relaxed and cheerful, "I came back with an empty box, of course I went to settle accounts with the seller."

If you don't tear it up, the Wen family can only admit this dark loss, and your property will be empty. Go and fight with the seller, maybe you can recover some losses.

Even though the Wen family has repeatedly confirmed the authenticity of the items with the seller, and carefully put the items into the box, the two parties will get both money and goods, but Wen Jinsheng finds that the box is empty when he gets home, so he will naturally believe that the seller moved it. hands and feet.

Even if he has no evidence of the opponent's manipulation.

Seeing Yun Shang's foolishness in the passenger seat, Gu Shinian added with a smile, "Also, Old Man Wen may think that we two are too unlucky, so ask Wen Qihua not to deal with me in the future."

Hong Kong people believe this.

If he were old man Wen, he would probably think that he and Yun Shang were too evil and unlucky.

Yun Chang's small face was straightened, and she puffed her cheeks and said, "In terms of bad luck, who can compare to their literary family? People have copied decades of collections, bought a treasure, and got nothing back. Box, is this bad luck for us, or old man Wen himself?"

snort! It's true that a cow doesn't know its horns, and a donkey doesn't know its face!

Who is unlucky in the end, can he not have a letter number in his heart?

Gu Shinian was not as excited as Yunshang, and old man Wen didn't let the Wen family get along with him, which was exactly what he wanted.

The old man Wen has already squeezed the wool twice in a row. In a short period of time, the Wen family should have nothing to gain.

If you want to squeeze wool, you have to give the other party time to grow new hair again, right?

That's what Yun Shang said, and after a while, he forgot about being called unlucky, and discussed with Gu Shinian what he said after returning home.

Originally, getting back the jade seal should be the task of Lao Jin and Lao Li. After taking it, they just let her get it back. They have to explain the whole process to Lao Jin and Lao Li.

Moreover, Lao Jin had to write a report to the organization, and the specific process of retrieving the jade seal had to be reported to the top. Therefore, she and Gu Shinian had to work out this rhetoric.

However, she is not going to take the credit for getting back the jade seal.

She is just an oil bottle, and she does her duty, as long as she does her job well, so what is she doing in the limelight? .

Besides, she is not a soldier, so what's the use of asking this old bastard for credit? It's better to push the work to Second Brother Gu and earn more credit for Second Brother Gu.

Gu Shinian also meant the same thing, but Gu Shinian's purpose was completely different from Yun Shang's. He didn't want to take the credit of Yunshang, but he wanted to protect Yunshang, and he didn't want her ability that was different from ordinary people to be exposed to outsiders.

With him standing in front of her, Yun Chang can just calmly and boldly make a fortune without worrying about her secret being exposed.

When they got home, Lao Li and An Guosheng went out to inquire about the people who bought cultural relics from Luo Hai in Hong Kong City. Lao Jin was writing a report in his study. Those news things, and the next action report.

Gu Shinian sat across the desk with Yunshang, took out a small box from Yunshang's backpack, put it on the table, and pushed it over to Lao Jin.

Lao Jin didn't take it seriously at first, and joked with a smile, "What's the matter, what's the big day today? Are you two buying me presents?"

Although there was joy in the corners of Gu Shinian's eyes, his solemn expression and his careful movements when pushing the box made Lao Jin realize that the things in the box were not simple.

Lao Jin suppressed the doubts in his heart, opened the box carefully, and when he saw the contents inside, he jumped up from the chair in shock.

He opened his mouth wide, looked at the jade seal in the box, and then at Gu Shinian. His lips trembled for a long time before he asked a few words, "This, this, this is the jade seal?"

Gu Shinian nodded, "It's Yuxi, the one we're looking for."

Lao Jin still couldn't believe it, so he stretched out his hand and rubbed his face vigorously, and then carefully looked at the baby in the box. He was silent for a while, and his excitement eased a little.

"Comrade Gu Shinian, you have done a great job! You have done a great job! Come on, tell me what's going on first?"

Gu Shinian's expression remained unchanged, and he told Lao Jin what he had discussed with Yun Shang on the road.

Yun Chang sat on the side and nodded repeatedly, adding a few words from time to time, and the two quickly explained the forged mission process clearly.

According to their arguments, Wen Jinsheng didn't find the box was empty as soon as he got to the bedroom on the second floor, but a full ten minutes later.

During this period, Gu Shinian once borrowed Wen's bathroom, and he took advantage of the opportunity to go to the bathroom, climbed to the second floor through the window, took advantage of Wen Jinsheng's opportunity to leave the bedroom temporarily, and walked into the box Yuxi.

This is why Wen Jinsheng opened the box and found that he came back with an empty box.

At the end, Yun Shang also gossiped and described to Lao Jin how Wen Jinsheng was so angry that he almost vomited blood.
