Chapter 531: Exposure

After eating lunch alone, Yun Shang wandered around the hotel, and was about to go back to take a nap, when Gu Shinian and Lao Jin hurried over at the corner of the street.

"A Chang, go back and pack your things, we're leaving now."

Gu Shinian's voice was not high, but his tone was dignified. Yun Shang's heart trembled, and he quickly retracted his half-yawned yawn, and asked, "Second Brother Gu, what happened?"

Seeing that Yunshang seemed to be frightened, Gu Shinian calmed down and said reassuringly, "It's okay, there are policemen on the next street searching every house, I think we'll find this street soon, let's go and talk to the crew now." confluence."

Yun Chang breathed a sigh of relief, and went back to the room, wearing a gray hat and gray scarf, and a dark cotton coat. The scarf covered half of her face, only her eyes were exposed. At first glance, she looked a bit indisputable. Feel.

Gu Shinian felt that Yun Chang was well dressed like this, with only her eyes showing, so that she would not be eye-catching when walking on the road. Reaching out to take the big suitcase in her hand, the two left the hotel, took a taxi, and went straight to the hotel where the crew stayed.

As soon as the car started, Yun Chang was startled.

Just leave?

Don't wait for Lao Jin?

Gu Shinian seemed to know what Yun Shang was thinking, shook her hand, and whispered, "Uncle Jin is going to find someone, and he will meet us at night."

If Lao Jin was not worried that the police would come and search, the cultural relics hidden by Yunshang would be exposed, and he would not have sent the two away in such a hurry.

Although it is safer to follow the crew, there are so many people in the crew that it is not convenient to be outside.

If it hadn't been a last resort, the few people would not have thought about returning to the crew early.

What Yun Chang didn't know was that not long after the three left, the police found the small hotel.

After searching the room where several people lived, and interrogating the hotel owner for a long time, only knowing that several people were not from R country, and knowing nothing about other information, they left angrily.

Standing at the corner of the street, Lao Jin saw the whole process of the police interrogating the hotel owner, and heard the words 'cultural relic', 'theft', and 'hita-kun transfer' popped out of the mouths of two policemen passing by, and he immediately realized that , the whereabouts and purpose of the three may have been exposed.

The one named Jiu Tian was the third buyer that he and Gu Shinian were looking for in the past two days. Since the police knew about Jiu Tian and could say words such as cultural relics, theft, and transfer, it was enough to show that the police received two other buyers. According to the report, he and Gu Shinian's purpose was deduced, and the third buyer was found in advance.

This is not the most important thing. What Lao Jin is worried about now is whether the police will use the few cultural relics in Jiu Tian's hands to set a trap for him and Gu Shinian, waiting for them to throw themselves into the trap?

It doesn't matter if something happens between him and Gu Shinian, but if their identities are exposed, it will be an international dispute.

Lao Jin originally planned to send Gu Shinian and Yunshang away and continue looking for someone, but now he heard the words of the two policemen on the side of the road, and stood at the entrance of the alley pondering for a long time, then temporarily took a break from this thought, and went on the road He stopped the car and went straight to the hotel where the crew was located.

Gu Shinian has been squatting outside behind Lao Jin for the past two days. He only knows that Yunshang has been busy for two nights and has obtained all the information he wanted, but he has never read it himself.

Now that I have time, Gu Shinian is squatting in the space with Yunshang, looking through the documents that Yunshang copied one by one.

Seeing that when Gu Shinian was flipping through the materials, his brows were tightly furrowed, and there was not much emotional bullying on his face. Yun Chang's little heart swayed for a long time, and couldn't help asking, "Second brother Gu, What's wrong with these things...?"

"No problem." Gu Shinian stretched out his arms to embrace Yunshang, and put her by his side,

Pointing to a thick pile of materials on the ground, he said, "These are not very core technical materials, they can be used as reference data, and can also serve as a guide, so that domestic research can avoid detours..."

Seeing Yun Shang's small face collapsed, Gu Shinian rubbed her head with a smile, and comforted her, "A Chang, if you avoid detours, you can save more scientific research funds and save a little more time. , is already very good."

Think about it too, how could the core technical information be placed in the office casually.

However, the batch of information that Yunshang found is not completely useless. As he said, at least it can point the way for domestic research and save everyone from detours.

At present, there is already a batch of materials in China that he and Yunshang handed in that are half a century ahead of this era. In addition to this batch of materials that can be regarded as the initial stage and introductory guidance materials, Gu Shinian believes that in this life, domestic technology It will catch up quickly and quickly overtake it.

Yun Chang didn't expect that after two nights of hard work, none of the materials she got back with fear were real core technology materials. Even though Gu Shinian comforted her and said that these materials are useful for the country, Yunshang also knew in her heart that with the materials that she and Gu Shinian had submitted before, if these materials were not the real core technology, what they could do The effect is extremely limited.

"Second Brother Gu, do you still need to hand in these materials?"

Feeling that she had done useless work, Yunshang asked a question in a listless manner, and even her spirit was depressed.

She felt wronged for herself, and felt that it was not worth running around for two nights for such a large pile of waste materials.

Also, it is not worth wasting so much A4 paper for such a little waste material.

Gu Shinian couldn't see Yunshang's listless look, and while sorting out the materials on the ground, he said, "Of course you have to hand it in, just select the steel materials and engine materials, and you don't need to take out the rest..."

Before he finished speaking, someone knocked on the door outside. Gu Shinian quickly put down the paper in his hand, left the space with Yun Shang, stood behind the door and asked, "Who?"

"It's me." Lao Jin outside the door lowered his voice and said.

Gu Shinian's face turned serious, he quickly opened the door and let Lao Jin in.

"Uncle Jin, what happened?"

"Well," Lao Jin responded, glanced at Yunshang who was standing by the window, looked at him with concern, and said in a low voice, "We guessed right, those policemen came after us."

Lao Jin did not avoid Yun Shang, and told Gu Shinian what he saw. Gu Shinian pondered for a long time, and also believed that Lao Jin's previous speculation was correct.

The third buyer, probably already received the news, and chose to cooperate with the police, waiting for them to fall into the trap.

Yun Shang listened to the two people's words from the side, with the same expression on his face, but he thought about it in his heart.

If things were really as Lao Jin speculated, then it was not suitable for him and Gu Shinian to show up.

It seems that the work of recovering the cultural relics still has to fall into her hands.

Chapter 532 Chapter Two big move

Lao Jin and Gu Shinian discussed for a while, but they couldn't come up with any useful solution for a while, so they could only go into hibernation temporarily, and wait to see the situation after these two days.

Worried that Gu Shinian would be under pressure when he was on a mission for the first time, Lao Jin patted Gu Shinian on the shoulder before leaving the house, half-explaining and half-teaching:

"Little Gu, that's how missions are performed. It's impossible to go smoothly all the time without making any mistakes. If it's really that easy, then anyone who comes out casually can perform missions. What else do we need to train in advance?

If you encounter such a thing again when doing tasks in the future, remember not to ignore the situation and rush forward, and know how to be flexible. As long as the person is there, the task will be completed one day, and if the person is gone, there will be nothing. "

Faced with Lao Jin's kindness, Gu Shinian nodded in a taught way, and sincerely thanked him.

Gu Shinian is capable, smart, has many ideas, and he is obedient when performing tasks, and he never shows any signs of failure. Lao Jin is very optimistic about him.

Seeing that he had a good attitude at the moment, Lao Jin showed a smile on his face, and gave him a clue, "Don't worry, it's not a big deal. At worst, when the crew goes back, you and Yunshang will take the dozen or so cultural relics with you first." Go back to Hong Kong City, I will stay here and continue to look for opportunities, the mission can always be completed."

After Lao Jin left, Gu Shinian turned his head and looked at Yun Shang fixedly, his expression was full of warning.

Yun Shang understood, immediately raised three fingers, blinked and swore, "Second Brother Gu, I swear, I will definitely not act in private!" No wonder!

Seeing that the other party had set up a trap for Lao Jin and Gu Shinian to fall into, how could she just sit back and do nothing?

Even if Lao Jin decides to stop for the time being and wait a few days before taking action, who can guarantee that there will be no more traps in a few days?

Besides, there is space, those various traps are useful to Lao Jin and Gu Shinian, but they are useless to her.

Only she is the most suitable for this job.

Regarding Yun Shang's vow as simple as eating and sleeping, Gu Shinian didn't believe a single word, but now he no longer looks at Yun Shang as looking at his sister, and he is even more reluctant to talk about her, so he can only think in his heart, At night, we must cheer up and watch Gu Yunshang, and we must not let her run out.

An Guosheng asked someone to say hello to the production staff in advance, and saw that a few people had returned, and the production staff did not ask any more questions. Seeing that the two had gone to the set, they also assigned work as usual. It was as if they had never left Like too.

Yun Shang stayed peacefully in the hotel, lying obediently in bed in the morning, waiting for Gu Shinian to come to see her, and then hurried to the set with Lao Jin. When it was time to eat, he sat downstairs obediently, waiting for Gu Shinian to come back to eat with her.

In the afternoon, she will close the door, clean up a few acres of land in the space, and then move about twenty cherry trees to a corner of the space, and remove the fruit trees that were originally planted there and plant them in the ground.

Before dinner, they would go downstairs early and wait downstairs for Gu Shinian to come back.

For three consecutive days, Yun Chang's obedient and docile behavior made Gu Shinian's hairs almost stand on end.

He really knew her all too well.

In the eyes of the elders, the little girl is well-behaved and sensible, but in fact she has a naughty temper inside.

If she can really keep her head on for three days without making trouble, then she must be holding back her big move.

Gu Shinian originally thought about changing the room from the opposite side to the next one so that he could watch over her at night, but when he thought that Yunshang was going to sneak out, she didn't need to go through the room door at all, and could go directly to the bottom of the hotel by using the space. Some helpless.

After realizing this, Gu Shinian knew that if Yun Shang really planned to hold back his big move, he would be unable to guard against it.

Unless he moved to Yunshang's room,

Watching her day and night.

Just when Gu Shinian was thinking about whether to take Yunshang to the set during the day, Yunshang made a move!

Lao Jin opened his eyes before dawn, and was thinking of going out to check on the police while it was still early, when he turned his head and found four more tightly wrapped black cloth bags on the table in the room.

Lao Jin subconsciously rolled over and sat up, the pupils in his eyes constricted.

He was very sure that these four cloth bags the size of a small teapot were not his belongings, and he was also very sure that there were no such things in the room when he finished smoking yesterday and was going to sleep.

In other words, someone had entered his room in the middle of the night, and he hadn't even noticed it!

Lao Jin was shocked.

His skills are not top-notch, but there are ten or eight ordinary people, and they are really not tall in front of him.

The one who can sneak into his room without him noticing is definitely the best of the best.

It's just that I don't know who this person is, what purpose he has, whether he is an enemy or a friend...

Lao Jin calmed down, moved slowly, and opened a black cloth bag with a cautious face, but when he saw the contents in the bag, his hands shook immediately, and he almost threw the things on the ground.

It is a cultural relic!

It was one of the four cultural relics that he and Gu Shinian did not recover in Country R.

Lao Jin quickly put the things on the table and opened the other three.

Sure enough, those four cultural relics were placed in the four cloth bags.

Lao Jin was considered someone who had seen the big world, but when he suddenly encountered such a strange and unreal thing, the hand placed by his side still trembled uncontrollably.

Someone walked by in the corridor, and the sound of footsteps brought Lao Jin back to his senses. He stretched out his hand and rubbed his face, rewrapped the four cultural relics, put them in his bag, and knocked on the door of Gu Shinian's room next door...

Lao Jin laid out the things one by one, and as soon as he opened his mouth, Gu Shinian knew what was going on.

Thinking of Yun Shang's good promise in person, and honestly pretending to be a quail for three days, after holding back for so many days, she finally suppressed her big move.

But, how did this girl know where the man named Jiu Tian lived? When he talked about this with Lao Jin before, he only mentioned Jiutian's name, and didn't mention any other information. Where did she go to find out...

Gritting his teeth while deserting, Gu Shinian pretended to be confused and figured out with Lao Jin the identity of the "benefactor" who sent the cultural relics, his purpose, and how much that person knew about them.

In the end, the two came to the conclusion that the man had no ill intentions towards them, and the cultural relics could be accepted with confidence.

After Lao Jin left, Gu Shinian's face darkened in an instant. He grabbed the key to Yunshang's room that he had placed on his bedside, and went to open the door of Yunshang's room. The confused Yun Shang raised her hand and beat her up.

Yun Chang was stunned by the beating.

Lying on the bed in a daze for a while, he came over and was spanked again, and was picked up by Gu Shinian when he was sleeping soundly.

Chapter 533: Acknowledge Your Mistakes and Correct Your Posture

Yun Chang knew the reason why Gu Shinian beat her, and knew that he was so angry that he couldn't escape the beating, so she blushed, buried her head in the pillow, and claimed the beating without moving.

When teaching Yunshang a lesson before, she always yelled and threatened loudly, or begged for mercy, or bravely confronted him, every time she moved a finger, she had to think of something afterwards Give him a slap, and refuse to suffer at all.

But this time Yunshang lay motionless on her stomach, as if letting him hit casually and vent her anger, but Gu Shinian couldn't continue beating her.

After a few slaps, Gu Shinian couldn't drop his raised hand. Gu Shinian knew how hard those slaps were just now.

Yun Shang's butt was destined to be swollen.

"Second Brother Gu, are you venting your anger?" Yunshang turned her face buried in the pillow to one side, pursed her mouth, and asked inhaling air.

Damn! Second brother Gu was really angry, he hit really hard, harder than ever.

Her ass is so numb it's not her own, it must be swollen.

Gu Shinian saw that she was obviously gasping for air in pain, but she was still holding back her tears. She acted like if you didn't vent your anger, you would slap him a few more times. No matter how angry you were, you couldn't vent your anger. All that was left was The distress after doing it.

"Does it hurt?"

"It doesn't hurt!" Yun Chang shook her head and replied, the expression on her face was as firm as she wanted.

Gu Shinian pulled Yun Shang up, and rubbed her big hand on her buttocks. Seeing that Yun Shang began to gasp exaggeratedly again, a smile flashed in his eyes, and he dragged her to sit opposite him.

Yun Chang was beaten just now, her butt hurt so badly that she couldn't sit still, but seeing Gu Shinian's cold face, and then thinking of how she just insisted that it didn't hurt, she quietly stretched out her hand to support the bed, borrowing the weight of her arm Strength, try to make yourself sit upright.

hold on! hold on!

Sit well, and correct your posture when you admit your mistakes!

You can't make second brother Gu angry anymore.

Gu Shinian saw Yun Shang's small movements, and laughed even more in his heart. He stretched out his hand and pulled Yun Shang, letting her lie on the bed, and then asked, "A Chang, tell me, where did you find it?" Those four cultural relics?"

"I found it at the house of the short fat man." Yun Shang thought for a while, then took out three cultural relics from the space,

Point it out to Gu Shinian, "These cultural relics were also found in his home."

Thinking of going to the house of the short and fat man named Jiu Tian last night, there were five or six big dogs in the yard, five or six tough and sweaty guards in the house, and a dozen or so policemen watching from the outside, Yun Chang pouted: A bunch of trash!

Gu Shinian glanced at the three cultural relics, and did not divert his attention, but continued to ask, "How did you find the Jiutian family?"

When he and Lao Jin discussed this matter two days ago, they only mentioned the name of the third buyer, and did not mention any other information. How did this girl find someone?

"I went to the police station to 'inquire' about it." Yun Shang raised her head, with a serious face, "After you went to the studio the morning before yesterday, I went to the police station for a walk." I'm afraid you might be worried, but Come back before noon and have lunch with you!

Gu Shinian: "..."

This girl has become a genius, it seems that she is busy.

In the morning, I had to watch him go to the set, and then go to the police to 'find out' the buyer's whereabouts, and I had to come back to have lunch with him before noon.

These two calves are short, and it is estimated that they can run a small circle.

Yun Shang continued honestly, "It took me two days to find out where the short fat man lives. I went to see it last night. There are policemen outside his house. There are dogs in the house, and there are several bodyguards in the house guarding the study. The safe, but all these cultural relics let him hide in the sundry room at the back, and the safe is empty..."

Speaking of this, Yunshang looked aggrieved, "That short fat man is so bad, I was disappointed when I saw the safe for a long time, and I have been looking for these cultural relics for a long time."

Gu Shinian was speechless again.

You go to someone's house to 'steal' things, and when you're done, blame them for hiding them too well, causing her to waste time?

This is too unreasonable.

Yun Shang didn't care about this, after confessing her "criminal process", she grabbed Gu Shinian and asked excitedly, "Second brother Gu, our mission is completed, when will we go back?"

It's been almost a month since I came out, Lao Li should have come back long ago, and Qiuqiu and Maoqiu should have come too.

I don't know if the fur ball has grown up, and has it found a girlfriend? Don't be like its mother, and forcefully delay looking for a partner until you are an old girl...

Gu Shinian pushed the three cultural relics to Yunshang's hand, motioned her to put them away, and there was no coldness in his voice when he spoke again, "The production team is also coming to an end, and we should be able to go back in a day or two."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up, she got up from the bed, leaned into Gu Shinian's ear, and whispered, "Second brother, before I go back, can I go to the museum?"

She went to the museum a few days ago, and saw several cultural relics that were hailed as national treasures in later generations, as well as some things that she hadn't seen in the exhibition hall in her previous life, and they were just stuffed in the corners so casually.

Yunshang suspected that those things that hadn't been seen in the previous life should have been accidentally damaged, or someone had taken them away and made them into private collections.

No matter what the situation is, she has to find a way to keep the things. These are the things left by her ancestors, and she feels distressed if she loses any of them.

Seeing that Gu Shinian's brows were wrinkled again, Yun Shang hurriedly raised her fingers and swore, "Second brother Gu, I swear, I will definitely not move the things in the exhibition hall, they didn't find out so quickly."

These gangsters robbed so many treasures left by the ancestors to future generations, she should take them all back.

But Second Brother Gu said that now is not the time, so she put away the most precious treasures first, so as not to get damaged or lost.

As for the other things, they will stay here for now, and when all the domestic items in the museum are collected, she will find a way to sneak over here without telling everyone, and directly ransack the house.

How can something that belongs to our ancestors fall into the hands of outsiders?

Even if it is not convenient for her to hand in the things directly to the organization in the future, she can think of other ways to hand in the things quietly.

It's fine if she doesn't have such ability, but if she has the ability, but does nothing, and leaves the treasure passed down from her ancestors in the R country museum, she will think about it every day and won't be able to eat it for a lifetime.

It is a kind of humiliation if one's own things are taken away by others and displayed in a big way for people to see casually.

Even if she took the things back and couldn't find a chance to hand them over to the organization in the end, it would be better to put these things in her space than to put them in museums in other countries to embarrass the people of the country.

Chapter 534 No recovery after childbirth

Before getting on the plane, Yunshang kept looking at the entrance with trepidation, worried that the police would catch up and stop people at the airport at any time, but when the whole crew boarded the plane smoothly and the plane took off on time, Yunshang found out that she All worries are unnecessary.

Thinking that when I went to the museum last night, I only touched the things in the warehouse, and did not touch the exhibits displayed in the exhibition hall. Yun Chang had a vague guess in her heart. The reason why the police in country R didn't fight and beat the drums to search for a few people should be the museum's Bian has not noticed that there is something missing in the warehouse.

It's just that the three wealthy families lost a few private collections, and it's not to the point where the police are under martial law all over the city and dig deep to find someone.

After trying to understand this, Yun Shang's heart that had been on her mind last night eased, and she leaned on Gu Shinian's shoulder in a good mood, looking at the clouds outside the window.

Even the deafening roar of the plane's engine, the continuous turbulence of the plane in the air, and the annoying smell of tobacco when other passengers in the cabin smoked could not stop Yun Shang's good mood.

When the plane landed at Hong Kong City Airport, it was already dark outside. Seeing Lao Jin and Gu Shinian taking out the large suitcase mixed with the props group at the luggage claim area, Yun Chang quickly stretched out his mental strength and took Lin Shang The cultural relics stored in the space in front of the plane were put back into the suitcase.

Walking out of the airport, they immediately saw Lao Li waiting by the car under the blue sky.

"How is it? Is everything going well?" Lao Li hurriedly lowered his voice and asked as soon as he got into the car.

"It's okay." Thinking of the four cultural relics that appeared in the room, Lao Jin had a weird expression on his face, and added, "We'll talk about it when we get back."

As soon as she stepped into the boundary of Hong Kong City, Yun Shang finally let go of the heart she had been carrying for twenty days, and leaned on Gu Shinian's shoulder, her eyelids gradually drooped to the familiar neon street scene outside the car window.

Yun Chang didn't know how she got back to the bed in the room, she only knew that she was woken up abruptly by the mother and son Qiuqiu and Maoqiu.

Qiuqiu pouted her fat buttocks, laying her whole body on Yunshang's chest, rubbing her head against Yunshang's left neck, while Maoqiu lay on her shoulders, rubbing her head against her right neck.

The two cats weighed 14 to 15 catties together, and Yun Chang was almost overwhelmed.

Especially seeing the position where Qiuqiu was lying on her stomach, Yunshang almost threw Qiuqiu out of the bed the moment she opened her eyes.

This big fat cat is really getting bolder and bolder. It even dared to press the position of her steamed bun.

She still wants to wear suspender skirts in the future,

If you still want to wear tight clothes, the place must not be too small!

This is a matter of her life's face, and she must pay attention to it.

Yun Shang unceremoniously pulled the fur ball away, grabbed the two front legs of the ball, and let it stand on the bed.

"Qiaoqiu! If you dare to lie on my chest in the future, be careful and I will press you too!"

As he said that, the devil's claws reached out to Qiuqiu's belly and pressed hard.

Qiuqiu didn't care about Yunshang's threats. Seeing her wake up, Qiuqiu kept meowing excitedly, and kept pounced on her, but its front paws were controlled by Yunshang, and it couldn't do anything. success.

The fur ball that was thrown aside was not the same. Seeing the little master woke up, he let out a "wow", and rushed out, just like a child, holding Yunshang's neck with two paws and not letting go, his head was still on her Rubbing back and forth on the chin, not to mention how affectionate.

Seeing this, Qiuqiu didn't struggle anymore, just looked at Yunshang eagerly, and howled in a low voice, not to mention how wronged she was.

Yun Shang was about to be petrified by Qiuqiu, so she quickly hugged it and coaxed her very affectionately.

From childhood to adulthood, Qiuqiu always packs and takes Yunshang wherever she goes, and has never been separated from it for so long.

This time, one person and one cat haven't seen each other for more than half a year, and when they meet, they become affectionately together and refuse to part. Even the fur ball has fallen out of favor in front of them.

While eating, Gu Shinian poked the head of Qiuqiu, who was stuck in Yunshang's arms, and asked Yunshang, "Ah Chang, has Qiuqiu gained weight again in the past six months? I think its stomach has fallen down." gone."

Yunshang looked at Qiuqiu's belly and saw a big puddle of meat on her lap, and shook her head against her will, "Not fat! Qiuqiu is a mother, and her stomach hasn't recovered after breastfeeding."

If Qiuqiu thinks about her like this, he must have never thought about food or tea for the past six months. How could he be fat?

Even if there is meat, it is puffiness! It's postpartum without losing weight! Definitely not fat!

Yun Shang couldn't accept the fact that Qiuqiu gained weight instead of her, so she told nonsense out of conscience.

Lao Jin and Lao Li were so teased by Yun Shang's words that the rice in their mouths almost spewed out. Looking at the ball, and then at the fur ball that almost grew into a big cat, their mouths twitched uncontrollably a few times.

This girl is really talking nonsense with her eyes open. The son of this big fat cat can give birth to a little mother cat. What kind of milk does she still feed? I have never heard of cats recovering their stomachs after feeding!

Gu Shinian was also choked by the strong reason given by Yunshang. He realized that Qiuqiu and Maoqiu were Yunshang's favorites recently, and reminded himself that he must not talk about these two things in front of her in the past few days. Bad word about cats.

After dinner, Lao Jin, Lao Li, An Guosheng who came from next door, and Gu Shinian went to the study together for a small meeting.

In the evening, Yun Shang learned from Gu Shinian that during the period when the three of them went to country R, Lao Li and An Guosheng were not idle. Several cultural relics have all been recovered by Lao Li and An Guosheng.

It's mid-March now, and half a month later, it's time for various merchants to participate in the Canton Fair. This time, Lao Li can sneak into the Lu Family Firm again and return the dozens of cultural relics he recovered to the organization.

It's just that as soon as this is over, a few people will prepare to go to those European countries to recover the cultural relics.

Yun Shang didn't have any opinion on this, and wished that everyone could act sooner and recover the cultural relics sold privately by the Yu family earlier, so that she could go home earlier.

No matter how good the outside is, how free, tolerant, and advanced it is, it is not her home.

After resting at home for two days, Yunshang put on her schoolbag again, preparing to continue going to school to be a good student.

An Yunming was standing at the door of his house with his schoolbag in his hand. He saw Yunshang going out wearing a pair of brand new jeans, with a big fat cat hanging on one leg. He scolded the two cats to let go, and moved towards him with difficulty.

Seeing this, An Yunming was about to go forward to help Yunshang carry her schoolbag, but saw her frowning, raised her hand and waved at him, whistled like a punk, and greeted in a frivolous tone:

"Hi, old-fashioned! How are you!"

Chapter 535: Wen Baobao Comes as a Guest

An Yunming immediately retracted the foot he raised, and the corner of his mouth twitched uncontrollably. With a dark face, he turned around and left.

How could he forget that this cousin is a bad temper!

Originally thinking about the half-month class she had delayed, he had to help her make up lessons, but he didn't know that he was molested by her again as soon as they met.

What a wicked cousin!

Seeing that An Yunming was angry, Yunshang shook off Qiuqiu and Maoqiu, and chased after him with a smile, "Hey! Old-fashioned brother, are you angry?"

An Yunming: "..."

Yun Shang poked An Yunming's arm, took out two pieces of chocolate from the space and handed them over, "An Yunming, Sister Yunxi said you like chocolate. Hey, I brought it back from country Y specially for you, hurry up." Try it."

If An Yunxi hadn't mentioned it, who would a fifteen-year-old boy like to eat chocolate.

An Yunming lowered his head, glanced at the chocolate in Yunshang's palm, then turned his head arrogantly and continued to walk forward. Yunshang simply peeled off the chocolate wrapper, chased after him, and stuffed the chocolate into An Yunming's mouth.

"How is it, is it delicious?" Yunshang asked with a smile.

An Yunming took a bite, and the rich chocolate sauce overflowed on the tip of his tongue. The silky and sweet taste was slightly bitter, and the taste was very delicious.

Probably because he had eaten the chocolate he wanted, An Yunming's face looked better, he nodded his head lightly, and said two words very stingily, "It's okay."

Seeing that An Yunming liked it, Yunshang took out another big handful and stuffed it, "Hey, I'll give you all. When my brother distributed gifts to everyone yesterday, I forgot to give them to you. I brought them out for you today."

An Yunming twitched the corner of his mouth, and then quickly retracted it after showing a smile, but he unconsciously clenched the hand holding the chocolate bag tightly, as if he was afraid that Yun Chang would regret it and retract it.

The cousin has a bad temper, which is bad, but she still misses him in her heart, and even remembers to bring him a gift alone when she goes to country Y, which shows that she is just naughty, not really bad.

Forget it, for the sake of chocolate, he won't bother with her.

When they arrived at the school, the students in the class saw that Yunshang had finally returned after being absent from class for half a month, and she was wearing a pair of jeans that Hong Kong City did not have, so they all surrounded her.

Especially Xu Tian and Lu Yunling, pulling Yunshang to chatter non-stop,

For a while, it was said that Yunshang would not come to school for class, and it was not good for both of them to buy snacks after class. After a while, he said that there was no Yunshang, and neither of them was interested in shopping. He yelled, next time Yunshang goes to Country Y, he must bring one for the two of them.

Being so missed by the friends, Yunshang was very happy in her heart. While in class, she explored the space mentally for a long time, looking for gifts for the friends.

It's inconvenient to give jeans. As for snacks, I've been looking for them, and only chocolate is the most suitable.

Therefore, when An Yunming saw Yunshang secretly stuffing chocolates for Xu Tian and Lu Yunling in the front row, he froze there and was directly stunned.

Didn't Yun Shang say that she gave him all the chocolate?

Then what did she stuff for Xu Tian and Lu Yunling?

So angry! Good heart plug!

He knew this cousin was coaxing him!

Yun Chang didn't know that she had offended An Yunming again. When she came home from school, she saw An Yunming's face was dark and silent, and she thought that An Yunming had encountered the troubles of puberty, so she just babbled to him. chicken soup.

When An Yunming entered the door, there was almost a black line dripping from his forehead and blue smoke rising from the top of his head.

An Yunming was not in a very good mood, and Yunshang who returned home was also in a bad mood.

Because Wen Baobao heard that they had come back from 'Country Y', so Wen Qihua and Wen Qihua ran to the house to look for Gu Shinian.

When Yun Chang entered the door, Lao Jin and Lao Li were working in the yard in a serious manner, while the two brothers and sisters of the Wen family were sitting on the sofa in the living room, one was chatting with Gu Shinian, and the other was blushing and silent , looking secretly at Gu Shinian from time to time.

As for Qiuqiu and Maoqiu, they nestled on Gu Shinian's lap to sleep on one left and one on the right, and even made small purring noises.

With a polite smile on Yun Chang's face, she greeted Wen Qihua and Wen Baobao respectively, so she went to sit beside Gu Shinian, lowering her head and teasing Qiu Qiu and Mao Qiu.

When Gu Shinian talked to Wen Qihua before, Wen Baobao couldn't get in the way. He wanted to tease the two cats nestled on Gu Shinian, but the two cats ignored him.

Seeing Yun Shang having fun with the two cats now, and Gu Shinian's eyes kept falling on Yun Shang when he was talking, Wen Baobao's thoughts moved, and he said with a smile:

"Yunshang, you haven't been to school for half a month, can you still follow the class when you go to school today? I have time these few days, if you don't understand something, feel free to ask me."

Yun Shang raised her head and said with a smile, "I remember you are one level higher than my sister. My sister has to go to school every day recently. How do you have time? Are you not going to school?"

You yourself are a king of skipping classes, you don't go to school, you go to other people's houses to chase men, and you are ashamed to say that if I don't go to class for half a month, will I not be able to keep up with the class?

Wen Baobao raised his head and smiled slightly, with a hint of coquettishness in his expression, "I'm going to participate in country Y's international violin competition in a while, and I need to practice violin more in the past two months, so I won't go to school."

After finishing speaking, Wen Baobao sneaked a glance at Gu Shinian, his eyes were bright and radiant.

Yun Chang froze for a moment, then looked at Wen Baobao seriously, "Is it the game in June?"

"You also know about this game?" Wen Baobao asked in surprise, and then thought that Yunshang came back from playing in country Y, and the sense of superiority in his heart disappeared immediately, "It's this game, I, I am Go see the world."

Yun Shang turned her head to the side and blinked narrowly at Gu Shinian, then smiled and said to Wen Baobao, "Come on."

The smile is more sincere than ever before.

Don't talk about Wen Baobao's thoughts on Gu Shinian, nor talk about how the Wen family started their business, just seeing Wen Baobao's ability to participate in an international competition at the age of 18 proves that she has some real skills of.

Even if the current competition has just started, it is far from the high level of the later generations, and it is not easy to be selected.

It's a pity that Yun Shang's sincere smile was thrown to the blind man, and Wen Baobao didn't look at Yun Shang at all, but kept on Gu Shinian.

Yun Shang didn't feel embarrassed, but seeing Wen Baobao's sticky eyes lingering on Gu Shinian so obsessively, while being funny in his heart, he also felt a little pantothenic.

Second brother Gu is so good-looking and capable, more and more girls will like him in the future. If second brother Gu has someone he likes, can he still love her like before?

Chapter 536 Confrontation

If the new sister-in-law doesn't like second brother Gu to be close to her, will second brother Gu also alienate her in the future?

Yun Shang wrinkled her face, and began to imagine that after Gu Shinian married someone else, she would be like that little cabbage soaked in bitter water, as pitiful as she could be.

Gu Shinian who was at the side didn't know what Yun Shang was thinking, seeing that her mood dropped suddenly, and even secretly stabbed him with an eye knife, his hairs stood on end in shock.

What weird things did this girl of his family think of again?

Don't bother him later.

Thinking of this, Gu Shinian hurriedly patted Yunshang's head in a courteous way, and even stuffed a snack in Yunshang's mouth with his own hands. Although the expression on his face could not be called flattering, it was full of pleasing and appeasement.

The smile on Wen Baobao's face froze, he looked at Gu Shinian, then at Yunshang, thinking of Gu Shinian's natural caring actions when they got along with Yunshang when the two went to Wen's house last time, he always felt that the brother and sister's love The way of getting along is a bit weird, and the good is a bit too much.

Especially when Gu Shinian looked at Yunshang, his face no longer had that stern and indifferent look when he treated outsiders, and his eyes were so gentle that water dripped out, as if he was not looking at his sister, but at... a lover!

Wen Baobao was taken aback by the two words that flashed in his mind, and then he laughed in his heart, thinking that he was overthinking.

Just the names of the two people, An Yunzhou and An Yunshang, like the three children of An Guosheng's family, all follow the word cloud in the middle, obviously they are brothers and sisters.

Moreover, in the living room, there is a photo of the two of them when they were young in country Y. Although the people in the photo are a little farther away, the general outline of their appearance can still be seen when they were young.

Wen Baobao felt that he was indeed a demon just now, and he would come up with such a ridiculous idea.

It's just that Wen Baobao is clear in his heart, but when he sees Gu Shinian being nice to Yun Shang, he still can't help feeling jealous.

This man is the best-looking man she has ever seen since she grew up. Although his temper is a bit unpleasant, he wears gold-rimmed glasses and curls the corners of his mouth, showing a naughty and heroic look. Know how charming it is.

Even though she had been humiliated by this man, his appearance was enough to make up for his shortcomings in character.

What's more, she is the only girl in the Wen family. I don't know how many people in Hong Kong City want to marry her. What An Yunzhou said to her last time, she can take it as if he just came back from country Y.

It is not yet clear what the status of the Wen family is in Hong Kong City.

After he stayed in Hong Kong City for a long time and knew the gap between An's family and Wen's family, she believed that this man would bow his head to her.

It's just that, before that, she didn't want to see An Yunzhou look at others with that look, even if that person was his sister.

When Wen Baobao looked at Yunshang again, the smile on his face faded, "Yunshang, I heard from An Yunxi that you are also learning the violin. Have you ever thought about signing up for the competition in June?"

Yun Chang saw through Baby Wen's little thoughts at a glance.

Her public identity is that she came back from country Y to visit relatives, but An Guosheng, Lao Jin, and Lao Li all know her details and know that she has never been exposed to these things before.

Even if Gu Shinian finds her a piano teacher and a violin teacher, she has to act like a beginner, and she can't reveal that she has learned the piano for twelve years in her previous life and has a solid foundation.

Even if An Yunxi told Wen Baobao about her learning the piano, she would only say that she was a beginner, but Wen Baobao asked her with a smile if she wanted to participate in the international violin competition in June, was she mocking her as a beginner? Can you only saw wood with a squeak?

Yun Shang has never been a person who is willing to suffer. After being ridiculed by Wen Baobao, he immediately raised his eyebrows and smiled, "My brother said that I am still young, and that the game is too tiring. He doesn't want me to suffer, and he doesn't want me I acted like a monkey sawing wood for people to watch."

Wen Baobao: "..."

An Yunzhou couldn't bear to get An Yunshang involved, and wouldn't allow her to be visited like a monkey, so what's the point of her rushing to participate in the competition?

Bear performance monkey?

Or a scumbag who deserves to suffer?

Seeing the distorted expression on Wen Baobao's face, Yun Shang smiled again and said, "My brother also said that I will learn these things if I want to learn them in the future, and I will not learn them if I don't want to. He won't force me to suffer, anyway, he can afford me. ."

Wen Baobao felt that an arrow had been shot in his chest again, and he couldn't even keep the minimum smile on his face.

Seeing that Gu Shinian and Wen Qihua were getting together, whispering gossip about Hong Kong City in the past month, Wen Baobao pursed his lips and spoke as if he was doing well for Yunshang. "Yunzhou, Yunshang is in fourth grade, you can't pamper her like a child. Girls should learn more."

Gu Shinian's face turned cold for a moment, he glanced at Wen Baobao, then turned his head to Yunshang, seeing her lowering her head and secretly making faces, a smile could not help but appear on the corner of her mouth, "What kind of skill is playing the violin? Can it be eaten?" Can I still drink it? My sister doesn't have to suffer this much, I still have some inheritance to support my sister."

The Wen family asked Baby Wen to learn this and that, just to raise Wen Baobao's worth, and to increase Wen Baobao's bargaining chip in future marriages, not to let Wen Baobao learn things and go to other people's homes to pester men .

Wen Baobao is good at learning, but the fact that Wen Qihua covered her and chased after his ass every day has spread through Wen Qihua's circle of friends to the entire Hong Kong city circle, even if she has learned all kinds of skills Skills, who can give her a high look?

Everyone has to face, in this day and age, who would want to marry a woman who has been chasing after other men but hasn't caught up yet?

Gu Shinian did not have a good impression of the Wen family, but he did not go so low as to deliberately hang Wen Baobao and ruin a girl's reputation.

And it was her compatriot brother Wen Qihua who really destroyed Wen Baobao's reputation step by step.

Wen Qihua, as the eldest grandson of Wen's parents, received an elite education and grew up. How could he be an idiot? How could it be possible to watch Wen Baobao die?

Even if Wen Qihua has no brother-sister affection for Wen Baobao, Wen Baobao, as the only granddaughter of the Wen family, can marry in the future to benefit the Wen family. If there is no urging by greater interests, can Wen Qihua act as a pusher behind the scenes and ruin Wen Baobao's reputation step by step?

It can only be said that the value and benefits of what Wen's parents planned on him far exceeded Wen Baobao's weight.

Since Wen Baobao's parents didn't treat her as a person, why would Gu Shinian bother to drag this Wen Baobao who wanted to cling to him?

Not to mention that Wen Baobao was mocking Yun Shang with a hypocritical face just now, even if Yun Shang took the initiative to provoke Wen Baobao, Gu Shinian would unconditionally protect Yun Shang, so how could he show kindness to mention Wen Baobao.

Chapter 537: Stupid

Wen Baobao didn't expect that what he said for Yun Chang's good, not only did not make Gu Shinian appreciate it, but he even made a few insinuating remarks in reverse, and his face turned black immediately with aggrieved feelings.

Wen Qihua on the side probably saw that his sister's face was not good-looking, coughed dryly, and said in a serious way, "People like us naturally don't expect girls to make money to support their families. Learning these things is just a hobby. , it's not considered hard work."

These words gave Wen Baobao a step down, but she was stimulated by Yunshang and Gu Shinian one after another, and she didn't dare to speak in a weird way, so as not to make them unhappy again.

It was getting late now, Wen Qihua hadn't achieved his goal, and seeing that Gu Shinian didn't intend to save a meal, he put down his worries and prepared to take Baby Wen home.

Wen Baobao glanced at the location of the kitchen, reluctantly picked up the bag, and followed Wen Qihua to the door.

Gu Shinian sent the two of them to the gate, just as Wen Baobao was about to get into the car, he suddenly turned around and ran towards Gu Shinian.

"Yunzhou, let's go out to have a meal tomorrow. You haven't been in Hong Kong City this month. My brother and I miss you a lot."

Gu Shinian took two steps back, distanced himself from Wen Baobao, hooked the corners of his lips, sneered ironically, looked Wen Baobao up and down, and threw out two words:

"No time!"

Wen Baobao's face darkened, and he almost cursed out loud.

It's that look again!

Last time he looked at her like this, and then humiliated her as bean sprouts, this time he actually looked at her like this again!

Isn't he afraid that the Wen family will attack the An family?

Wen Baobao's face was livid, and he gasped for a few times, almost gnashing his teeth, "An Yunzhou, you should know the status of our Wen family in Hong Kong City by now, even if you don't think about yourself, you should do it for yourself." Think about your second uncle, your second uncle is a businessman!"

The naughty smile on Gu Shinian's face was put away in a flash, and his eyes were so gloomy that water dripped out.

Wen Baobao was taken aback by Gu Shinian's sudden fierce aura, and subconsciously wanted to back away, but Gu Shinian grabbed her by the arm, almost dragging her to the side of Wen Qihua's car.

Gu Shinian threw Wen Baobao to the car window with a cold face, and said coldly, "Qihua, tell your sister that if your Wen family takes action against An Guosheng,

Will I make a move to stop it? "

Wen Qihua originally thought that Wen Baobao ran over to Gu Shinian again to whisper something closer to him, but he didn't know that just as he turned his head to light a cigarette, Wen Baobao was pulled over by the furious Gu Shinian, and directly It fell on the driver's door.

Wen Qihua's face also darkened, and he glanced at Wen Baobao very dissatisfied:

Judging by the meaning of the surname An, Wen Baobao seemed to threaten him with An Guosheng.

idiot! Knowing that this An Yunzhou has a sticky temper, it's fine if he doesn't talk softly and close the relationship, but he dares to threaten a stick! ? She was lucky not to be beaten to death with a mallet.

It is simply not enough for success, but more than failure!

Even if you want to threaten, don't you know how to find a suitable partner?

This An Yunzhou didn't even know how prepared it was for An Guosheng, she used An Guosheng to threaten An Yunzhou for a fart!

Why not use An Yunshang to threaten An Yunzhou!

Wen Qihua glared at Wen Baobao with a dark face, got down and pushed her into the car, apologized to Gu Shinian on Wen Baobao's behalf, and then quickly started the car and left.

Yunshang ran out of the yard, looked at the car going away, and asked Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, didn't the old man of the Wen family let them come and go with us? Why did these two people come here again today?"

Gu Shinian took Yun Shang's hand and replied as he walked home, "The old man of the Wen family committed a taboo, but the boss of the Wen family and Wen Qihua didn't care about breaking the taboo.

I heard from Uncle An that the boss of the Wen family seems to have lost a lot betting on horses in the past few months, including the two investments he made. There is also the matter of Yuxi last time. It is said that the boss of the Wen family traded with the seller himself, but he brought back an empty box. Old man Wen was very dissatisfied... In short, the two father and son in Wen's house have had a hard time in Wen's house recently. "

Yunshang came to his senses in no time, and said angrily, "Wen Qihua came here to look for you, is he paying attention to our family's 'ancestral property'?"

"Yeah." Gu Shinian responded, and said in a low voice, "The boss of the Wen family is in a hurry to turn around, and wants to do something serious to show old man Wen, but he doesn't have much money in his hand, so he wants us to help him invest. ."

Yun Chang burst out laughing with a "puchi".

It's interesting for the father and son of the Wen family to think about it. Lao Tzu bet on horses and failed to invest. He lost so much money, but his son was pimping everywhere and making up for Lao Tzu. The whole thing was reversed.

However, there is indeed something wrong with the eyes of these two people. Second brother Gu is obviously a poor man, but he pretended too well. The two fathers and sons of the Wen family really regard second brother Gu as a fat sheep and want to slaughter him severely.

It's no wonder that Wen Qihua took Wen Baobao to hang around in front of Second Brother Gu every day. For a little money, the two father and son actually betrayed the old man of the Wen family and blatantly sold their daughters and sisters.

Knowing that Yunshang has a bad feeling towards the Wen family, Gu Shinian said again, "A Chang, all the cultural relics in Hong Kong have been recovered. We will often go abroad in the future, and we don't have so much time to see the Wen family."

Therefore, this baby Wen will not have the opportunity to come to the house in the future.

Back in the house, Lao Jin and Lao Li had already sat at the dining table and started eating. When they saw Gu Shinian enter the door, they all showed joking smiles.

Gu Shinian turned a blind eye to the jokes between the two, and after a quick meal, he took Yunshang upstairs, took out the profile photos the two had organized in the space, and went downstairs to talk to them about business.

Lao Jin was startled when he received the two thick photos on the Internet. He opened it and saw that there were materials about the manufacture of steel and automobile engines. Here we come! I haven't heard you mention this for the past few days, so I thought you didn't find a chance!"

Gu Shinian smiled, "The photo was not developed a few days ago, I don't know what the effect is, and I didn't dare to say it, I was afraid that my work would be wasted. I just finished developing the photo today, and it is still clear to me. It can be used."

"It's so useful! Those capitalist countries have been locked down every day for the past few years, and these are things that can't be bought with money! Useful!" Lao Li also excitedly patted the table, flipping through the table one by one. Looking at the photos, I was reluctant to let go for a long time.

Lao Jin was excited for a long time, snatched the photos from Lao Li's hand and put them away carefully, and said with a serious face, "Lao Li! These materials are useful for organization, I suggest you go back as soon as possible and hand in the materials. "

"Okay! I have this idea!" Lao Li agreed without thinking.

Chapter 538: Gu Zonglin Was Robbed Of Marriage

It was already April, and Lu's House was participating in the second session of the Canton Fair. The departure date was scheduled for mid-April. Lao Li couldn't wait, and returned with the cultural relics and materials he had recovered a few days in advance.

This time, it took Lao Li half a month to come back, and upon his return, he brought big news to Yun Shang and Gu Shinian:

Gu Zonglin is married! ! !

Yun Shang's hand holding Qiuqiu's head tightened, and Qiuqiu slammed in pain, jumped up and ran. Yun Chang couldn't care about Qiuqiu anymore, her eyes widened, her face full of surprise, "What? Gu... the third grandpa is married?"

The famous old bachelor of the Gu family is finally wanted! ! !

What a surprise.

Gu Shinian was also stunned for a long time, and after realizing it, he hurriedly asked about Gu Zonglin's marriage.

Lao Li took a few sips of hot tea with his cup in his hand, and sighed, "Gu Zonglin, hahaha, this time he's been killed! After staying in Linyang for several years, he despises so many girls from the art troupe. This time Going back to the capital on a business trip, let us... take down the famous Aunt Tiger in the team!"

Lao Jinzai also kept laughing beside him. Seeing Gu Shinian and Yunshang's confused faces, he introduced the situation of Gu Zonglin's new daughter-in-law to them:

"...named He Ruiying, three years younger than Gu Zonglin. I used to be in the Special Warfare Brigade, and my skills are good. I often beat up the boys in the Special Warfare Brigade to cry and howl. In private, I called He Ruiying a 'Tiger Aunt'." No.

Like Gu Zonglin, He Ruiying is too old and doesn't want to get married, so the leaders above are so anxious to match her up, but He Ruiying only has one, and anyone who wants to marry her has to beat her in fists and kicks.

He Ruiying looks okay, but many people want to marry this thorn rose back. But her conditions are really harsh, even the special warfare brigade can't beat her, and the others are even worse when they come to her. Just like that, He Ruiying was delayed until thirty and still hasn't gotten married. "

When Lao Jin said this, Gu Shinian and Yun Shang became even more curious.

既然这个贺瑞英拳脚功夫这么厉害，还非要嫁能打过她的男人，难不成，顾宗霖把贺瑞英揍了一顿？

It can be seen that Yunshang and Gu Shinian know Gu Zonglin well, and his boxing skills are not particularly good, so how could he beat He Ruiying?

Lao Li laughed happily at the side, and then Lao Jin said, "I happened to meet those two people fighting this time, haha, He Ruiying pressed Gu Zonglin on the training ground in front of all of our old players and beat him up. a meal,

After the incident, the two of them didn't even change their clothes, they drove directly to get their marriage certificate. Oh, by the way, it should be He Ruiying who escorted Gu Zonglin to get the marriage certificate! "

Yun Shang: "..."

The young lady is so handsome!

Just grab a man and get married!

Gu Shinian: "..."

The third grandpa is really a waste!

To be snatched by a woman to be the 'Master of the Village'!

Yun Chang glanced secretly at Gu Shinian, and said earnestly, "Second brother Gu, you must practice your boxing skills well." Don't let a woman marry you like your third grandfather!

Gu Shinian patted Yun Shang's forehead, and stuffed a biscuit into her mouth, gagging her mouth.

Yun Chang swallowed the biscuits in a few mouthfuls, and asked Old Li curiously, "Uncle Li, is that how Grandpa Gu followed?"

"That guy! He doesn't know how to be beautiful in his heart!" Lao Li smiled meaningfully, and said to Lao Jin beside him, "I used to look at that kid Gu Zonglin and He Ruiying with wrong eyes. It's been so many years. This guy can be considered to have plotted He Ruiying back."

After all, Gu Zonglin is from the Gu family in the capital, and also the deputy political commissar of the Linyang Military Region. If he didn't want to, who could force him to get married?

It's a new society now, and the practice of snatching marriages has long been out of the question.

For the next period of time, Gu Shinian took old Jin and Lao Li to stay in country Y for two months under the pretense that there was a problem with the liquidation of the ancestral property. .

During this period of time, Yunshang has been staying alone in Hong Kong City, um, the euphemistic name is... housekeeping.

Fortunately, she has Qiuqiu and Maoqiu to accompany her, and An Yunming to accompany her when she goes to school every day. On weekends, she can go shopping and watch movies with Xu Tian and Lu Yunling. taste.

Wen Qihua came to the house to look for Gu Shinian twice, and after knowing that he had returned to country Y and would not return in a short period of time, he never came again.

Wen Baobao must have heard about Gu Shinian's going to country Y, and ran to the school to find Yunshang, wanting to find out where Gu Shinian lived in country Y, but was fooled by Yunshang with a fake address.

The violin competition was at the end of June, and Wen Baobao was thinking about Gu Shinian all his heart. He probably wouldn't come to see her until she came back from Country Y.

Of course, when Wen Baobao found out that the address she had given was fake and Gu Shinian was nowhere to be found in Country Y, even if she wanted to settle accounts with her, he would have to wait until she came back from Country Y.

It happened to be summer vacation at that time, if there were no accidents, she would already be in country Y at that time, even if Wen Baobao wanted to settle accounts with her, he would have to wait until she came back from country Y.

The time was spent by Yunshang going to and from school step by step. After the final exam at the end of June, Yunshang and An Yunming were promoted to a level smoothly and became a fifth-grade student.

Yunshang just had a summer vacation here, and Gu Shinian, Lao Jin and Lao Li also checked out the information of several buyers in country Y, as well as the whereabouts of the cultural relics.

Before the group of people officially took action, Gu Shinian made a special trip back to Hong Kong City, and took Yunshang and the two cats to Country Y.

Same as when doing missions before, Lao Jin is still in charge of action, Lao Li and Gu Shinian are in charge of covering, and Yun Shang is in charge of hiding things.

This time, several people made preparations two months in advance, and they found out the whereabouts of each cultural relic and the protection measures early on, and the operation went very smoothly.

This time, Yunshang honestly didn't touch anything in the Museum of Country Y, but before returning to Hong Kong City, she still couldn't help but go for a walk around the museum, remembering some of the treasures belonging to the country one by one, and prepared to hide it from everyone in the future. Someone secretly came over to get all these things back to the country.

The successful completion of the task of several people should be something to be happy and to celebrate, but the good mood of Yunshang and Gu Shinian only lasted until they boarded the plane back to Hong Kong City.

Looking at Wen Baobao, who was sitting in the front row and looking back at her with a dark face, Yun Shang raised her eyebrows slightly, and greeted him as if nothing had happened, "Ah! Have you participated in the violin competition? How did you improve your grades? "

As soon as these words came out, Wen Baobao's face darkened even more, he secretly glared at Yun Shang, and then looked at Gu Shinian with an aggrieved expression.

Chapter 539 Vacation

Looking at Wen Baobao, who was sitting in the front row and looking back at her with a dark face, Yun Shang raised her eyebrows slightly, and greeted him as if nothing had happened, "Ah! Have you participated in the violin competition? How did you improve your grades? "

"Yunzhou, last time I went to school and asked Yunshang for your address in Country Y, but she deliberately gave me a false address. I searched for you here several times, but I couldn't find anyone."

Wen Baobao said that he was very wronged, pouted, and glanced at Yunshang from time to time, as if your sister was a good thing at all.

Gu Shinian had never heard Yunshang mention this matter, but now when Wen Baobao said that she went to school to look for Yunshang, her face turned cold, "You went to school to look for my sister again? I said last time Didn't you hear clearly?"

Is this woman out of her mind?

The last time I threatened him at the door of the house and made him drag and drop him in front of Wen Qihua. I haven't seen you for two or three months. How could I be so cheeky and run over to try to scare people like nothing happened? up?

Gu Shinian frowned irritably, he felt that a woman like Wen Baobao who had no self-knowledge and felt good about herself was really troublesome. If he hadn't had a bottom line in his heart, he really wanted to solve Wen Baobao once and for all.

Wen Baobao didn't expect that Gu Shinian not only didn't hear the fact that Yunshang gave her a fake address, but instead turned his face again, blaming her for going to school to find Yunshang again. Angry and embarrassed in my heart, I looked sideways at the expressions of the fellow contestants, leaned on the back of the chair, and explained to Gu Shinian in a low voice, "Yunzhou, I just went to ask Yunshang for your address in country y ..."

"Baby Wen." Gu Shinian interrupted Baobao Wen directly, and said again in a cold voice, "I meant it. My sister didn't tell you my address in Country Y. I meant it. I said it a long time ago. I don't like you, I'm not interested in you, don't you understand?"

"Pfft!"

Yun Chang couldn't help laughing out loud, and seeing Baby Wen's face flushed, she quickly covered her mouth and buried her head in Gu Shinian's arms to prevent the laughter from overflowing from her throat.

The baby in this article really has the temperament of remembering to eat but not to beat.

It is obvious that Gu Shinian's character is a stick-headed dude who knows how to play and loves to play, but this baby just doesn't have a long memory, and goes to the 'stick' again and again to find a sense of existence. If Gu Shinian doesn't beat her, who will he beat?

If Gu Shinian really had a better tone towards Wen Baobao,

That's the crappy one.

Wen Baobao didn't expect that Gu Shinian would not give her any face at all, and even said that he didn't like her in front of all the acquaintances. After realizing it, he wished to go up and slap Gu Shinian, and then find a crack in the ground to sneak in.

Yunshang looked at Wen Baobao in the front row, then looked at Gu Shinian, and asked in a low voice, "Second brother Gu, do you think Wen Baobao will sue old man Wen after returning home, and then trouble Uncle An?"

Gu Shinian put his arms around Yunshang, and whispered into her ear, "It's okay. Old man Wen is not a fool, how could he go to feud with someone just because of a child's quarrel. Besides, Uncle An is not as good as you imagined." Weak, he still has some contacts in Hong Kong City, but it's just not conspicuous on the surface."

An Guosheng took root in Hong Kong City with a mission back then. On the surface, he was a serious businessman, but secretly he dealt with people of all kinds.

During the few months in Hong Kong City, Gu Shinian was surprised to find that An Guosheng's contacts were wider than he imagined. Whether it is a government official, a businessman, or a member of a gang, An Guosheng can know each other, and there are some trustworthy so-called friends in various industries.

An Guosheng has such a wide range of paths, even if the Wen family wants to touch him, they have to weigh whether their teeth are strong enough.

After several hours of turbulence, the plane finally landed at Hong Kong City Airport. After getting off the plane, Wen Baobao turned his head and gave Gu Shinian and Yun Shang a cold look, then got off the plane angrily with his violin in hand.

It was An Guosheng who came to pick him up from the plane. They got into the car and drove all the way home.

It's the end of July now, and the weather in Hong Kong City is getting hotter and hotter every day. Even though Yunshang is wearing a simple skirt and sandals, she is still dripping sweat from the sun outside the car window.

Gu Shinian moved the balls and fur balls that were on Yunshang's body to the bottom of his feet, and put his big hand on the car window to block the sun for Yunshang, while holding a fan in his other hand to keep fanning Yunshang, Lest she go home and cry about being sunburned.

Lao Jin also wiped the sweat from his head, and complained to Lao Li, "It's still comfortable in the capital, and the weather is not so hot. Get up early and go for a walk at night, not to mention how comfortable it is."

Lao Li leaned towards Lao Jin and smiled, "No matter how comfortable you are, you can't enjoy it, unlike me, you can go back in two days!"

Hearing what Lao Li said, Yunshang thought about it, and turned to Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, I don't have any tasks recently, can I go back too?"

If she can't go back to Linyang, she can always go back to the capital to see the old man, right?

It's been more than a year since we met, and she really misses the old man.

Most importantly, she is really hungry for food in the capital.

Gu Shinian didn't speak, but turned to look at Lao Jin. Obviously, he was waiting for Lao Jin's answer.

Lao Jin looked at Gu Shinian, then looked at Yunshang, and finally looked at Lao Li, thought for a while, and said, "Wait back and tell the higher-ups, see if I can apply for a few days off for you two."

Back home, Mei Yingxue had already prepared herbal tea for a few people, and Yunshang poured a big bowl of it in one go, before she collapsed on the sofa and let out a long sigh of relief.

The welcome banquet in the evening was eaten at An Guosheng's house. When Gu Shinian came back from the next door with Yunshang, Lao Jin and Lao Li were sitting on the sofa watching TV, and each was holding a bowl of white water noodles. eating.

Seeing the two of them entering the door, Lao Jin put down the bowl, wiped the corner of his mouth and said, "Xiao Gu, Yunshang, I just applied to the higher-ups, this time you two can go back with Lao Li, and then rest in the capital Two days, wait for Lao Li to complete the task, and then come back with Lao Li."

Yun Chang's eyes lit up immediately, she cheered, ran a few steps upstairs, turned her head suddenly, thanked Lao Jin, and then ran up to pack her things.

The five sets of cosmetics I bought in country y this time will be brought back, one for each of Lin Wenlan, Bai Qingyue, great aunt Cheng Guo, and two aunts.

And the clothes she bought for Lin Wenlan and Bai Qingyue one after another in the past six months, all of which had to be packed and brought back.

By the way, domestic radios are not easy to buy. I will go to the street tomorrow to buy some new radios and give them to my close ones when I go home.

Chapter 540: Go Home

Bai Yancheng picked up the phone, and suddenly heard Yunshang's voice calling her father, thinking that there was something wrong with her ears.

Isn't your daughter in Hong Kong City? It is said that he went to country Y a few days ago, why did he hear his daughter's voice on the phone?

I must have missed my daughter too much, I misheard.

When Yun Shang heard that there was no response from the other side of the phone, she glanced at Gu Shinian suspiciously, and tried to shout again, "...Dad?"

Immediately afterwards, there was a crackling sound from the microphone, and Bai Yancheng's uncontrollable joyful voice, "Xiao Qi!? Is it Xiao Qi?"

"Dad, it's me." Yunshang covered the microphone and asked in a low voice, "Dad, were you too excited just now and fell off the chair?"

Bai Yancheng glanced back at the chair that fell on the ground, was silent for a moment, then raised his voice and said, "What are you talking about! Your dad is in his teens, do you think he is a little boy, can't sit still?"

After complaining about Bai Qingming with his daughter, Bai Yancheng asked anxiously, "Xiaoqi, where are you now! Why did you call back at this time, is something wrong?"

At the end of the question, Bai Yancheng's voice changed a little nervously.

Yunshang and Gu Shinian are not unreasonable people. Now that the situation is so tense, it is impossible for them to call him from abroad. That is to say, these two children are now in China!

When the two of them went out to perform missions, the old man said that they would have to go out for at least two to three years. It has only been a year. Why did the two children come back? Is it possible that something is really troublesome?

Bai Yancheng panicked a lot.

Realizing that Bai Yancheng was really in a hurry, Yunshang quickly suppressed her desire to tease Bai Yancheng, and said, "Dad, I am back with Second Brother Gu. I will arrive in the capital on the 14th and take two days off. to go back."

Bai Yancheng understood Yun Shang's meaning, opened the calendar on the table, glanced at it, counted the days, and said, "Xiao Qi, your mother is leaving the company, and you will probably come back the day after tomorrow, so you can wait in the capital city." , when the time comes, I will go to the capital to see you with your mother."

The goal was achieved, Yun Chang hung up the phone with a smile on her face, and after Gu Shinian paid the phone bill, the two bought some food and hurriedly followed Lao Li to the train.

Bai Yancheng put down the phone and was not in the mood to stay in the office. He checked the time and saw that it was almost time for lunch. He put his military cap on his head and got up to go home.

The security guard Xiao Liu saw that Bai Yancheng was not going in the direction of the cafeteria, but to go home to the courtyard. If he didn't know, he followed up and asked, "Chief, aren't you eating in the cafeteria at noon?" That's right, if you don't eat it, you have to wait until next month, what a pity.

Bai Yancheng seemed to have just seen Xiao Liu following behind him, turned his head, and ordered in a very gentle manner, "I'm going home for lunch today, you don't have to follow."

This kid has been waiting for this big bone meal for a month, so it won't delay him going to the cafeteria to grab food.

Looking at the back of Bai Yancheng going away, Xiao Liu scratched his head, always feeling that the head of his family seems to be in a particularly good mood today.

This is the first time that the chief is so happy since Xiaoqi went to the capital to accompany the old man.

There must be something happy.

Xiao Liu finally gnawed on the big bone he was thinking about in the cafeteria, and Bai Yancheng was also telling Aunt Wu at the moment to make more snacks that Yunshang likes in the past two days, and he is going to the capital to send them to Yunshang in two days .

Bai Qingming and Bai Qingyue who was called back by Bai Yancheng's phone call hurriedly finished their lunch and went upstairs to pack their luggage...

Yunshang didn't know that Bai Yancheng's family went back to the capital as soon as he put down the phone. Now, looking at the Bai family on the platform where you slid over to pick her up, her eyes almost fell out of shock.

Standing at the front was Bai Yancheng, followed by Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo,

Bai Qingming and Bai Qingyue kept bouncing around looking into the train, looking for Yunshang.

All the members of this family were wearing straight military uniforms and accompanied by guards. Standing on the platform, they were particularly eye-catching.

With such a big battle in the family, and wearing such formal clothes, Yun Shang instantly felt like a hero who had returned with honor.

She touched her face, turned around, and asked Gu Shinian with a confused expression, "Second Brother Gu, did I do something important that I didn't even know? For example, did I win glory for the country? Hero..."

"Stop dreaming, get out of the car!" Gu Shinian pinched Yun Chang's face, interrupted her imagination, dragged out the luggage stuffed under the bed, and pulled Yun Chang towards the end of the carriage.

Almost the moment Yun Shang jumped out of the car, Lin Wenlan pulled her closer to her arms. She wiped her tears while looking at Yun Shang. Seeing that she had grown taller and the baby fat on her face had faded, she cried out repeatedly, "thin" in distress. up'.

Cheng Guo on the side also nodded again and again, and pinched Yun Chang's arm full of small flesh, and also opened his eyes and said nonsense, "I'm sorry, go back and let Aunt Jiang make up for you."

The corners of Yunshang's mouth twitched a few times, and she secretly pinched her chubby belly, and decided to pull Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo into the room as soon as she got home, so that they could take a good look at the flesh on her stomach, so that they would not let her go to bed again. Eat those tonic soups and soups.

There are only two days off, and she still wants to save her stomach to eat the delicious food she misses!

Yun Shang thought so, and did the same. As soon as he entered the house, he ran over and called the old man first, then dragged Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo into the room, opened his little shirt, and exposed his chubby belly, to show that he ate and slept well outside, and was definitely not thin. She doesn't need any of those supplements.

It's a pity that when Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo looked at her, the filter was too thick, and they could almost see her small ribs through her chubby belly. They felt that when the child was away from home, no matter how good the food was, how good the life was, there would be no home. People are around to protect you, that is, you have suffered, and you are thin if you are not thin.

With this mentality, even after watching Yun Shang's belly full of soft flesh, the two firmly believed that their child had lost weight!

Therefore, it must be supplemented!

It has to be supplemented!

When Yun Shang listlessly followed the two of them out of the room, the old man and Bai Yancheng had passed Gu Shinian and knew Yun Shang's performance this year.

Knowing that Yunshang is busy with Lao Jin and Lao Li, while they are worried about Yunshang, they are only full of pride.

While guarding outside, they held the gifts that Yunshang casually stuffed to the two of them with a confused expression, and got together to guess Yunshang's whereabouts this year.
