Chapter 541 Digging a hole for yourself

Gu Shinian distributed the gifts he had brought to the Bai family, and returned to the Gu family with his luggage, and Yun Shang quickly instructed Bai Qingming to open his suitcase and distribute gifts to the family.

The presents for the old man, Bai Yancheng, and uncle Bai Yanming are the pipes she specially searched for, as well as tea leaves, and the gifts for Lin Wenlan, Cheng Guo, and Bai Qingyue are a set of cosmetics, and Some cloth clothing. The gift for Bai Qingming was the latest radio and some snacks unique to Hong Kong City. Bai Qingming was so happy that he held the radio and would not let go, even reluctant to put down the meal.

After the family had eaten, Yun Shang held the tonic soup that Lin Wenlan and Cheng Guo specially made for her, sipped it with wrinkled faces, and followed the old man into the study...

Watching the old man take out the big envelope from the desk and push it in front of him, the soup bowl in Yunshang's hand almost fell to the ground.

"What? Lord! Is this my salary?"

The old man nodded with a serious face, and there was unconcealable pride in his voice, "Well, the salary is not bad, and I will give you every penny, six hundred yuan!"

Yun Chang blinked, and then blinked again, to confirm that she was not mistaken, there was indeed a thick stack of banknotes in the envelope, and her happy eyes were bent with a smile.

"Grandpa, the organization is really good. I just went to be an oil bottle, and even paid me a salary..."

Yunshang paused for a moment, then approached the old man in a vicious manner and said, "Master, if you have such a good job next time, you can win it back for me, and I can still do it!"

You still get paid for being a tow bottle, such a good job, it's a fool who doesn't do it!

The old man's eyelids twitched, he stretched out his hand and pulled Yun Shang over, poked her forehead and asked, "You still say! I haven't asked you yet, what happened to the two documents you followed Gu Shinian to find? Why did you get credit for the organization?"

This little girl's move can really cause trouble when she goes out. How dare she and Gu Shinian go to the country R factory to steal information, so she won't be afraid of being caught and causing trouble?

And that Gu Shinian, who usually looks quite calm, went out and messed around with Yun Chang, it's really unreliable!

Yun Chang was shocked by the news the old man said again, and after a long time of stunned, he came back to his senses and asked, "Master! You said that I have made meritorious deeds!?"

"That's right, it's all recorded in the file for you." The old man replied angrily, and then said, "Quick, tell me what's going on, how can you mess around with the time?"

What if something goes wrong? "

Among several grandchildren, this little granddaughter is the one who suits him best. She is smart, good-looking, courageous, and has a tight grip on money. The key is that she has a good temper and gets along well with him.

If something really happened to the little granddaughter outside, it would really kill him.

"Master, don't worry, Second Brother Gu and I stepped on the spot many days in advance, we made sure we were sure of it, and we didn't mess around."

Seeing that the old man was still frowning and unhappy, Yun Chang thought for a while, and then said, "Master, in fact, the second brother Gu got those materials, so I squatted outside and waited for him, and didn't follow him in." It's all done by Brother Gu, so I'll follow suit. Don't worry about getting angry.

The old man is a person who can't tolerate sand in his eyes. Hearing what Yunshang said, he immediately stared at him and asked with a tiger's face, "So, is there any merit for your credit? Shouldn't you be credited for this credit in the organization?"

Yun Chang's heart tightened again, and she quickly waved her hands and said, "No, no, no! Master, I also contributed. I helped Second Brother Gu on the periphery, and I did my best."

This credit is indeed meritorious, but what is meritorious is not that I took the credit for second brother Gu, but that I was willing to be the hero behind the scenes and give the credit to second brother Gu.

Otherwise, I will go out to perform tasks every day in the future, and you may not see your most caring granddaughter for many years!

The old man's face softened a little, he took out the money in the envelope and stuffed it into Yunshang's hand, sighed, "I want to listen to your Uncle Jin and Uncle Li outside, and if you have any problems, just tell Shi Nian, and if you can't solve it, give it to me." Call at home, don't be afraid to call back from Hong Kong City, it will cause trouble at home, understand?"

Yun Chang's eyes became hot, and she nodded. She was about to ask the old man about the situation at the research base, but she stared at the six hundred dollars in her hand and was stunned.

This is not quite right!

She's just a fool, doesn't hold a job, and she's not a soldier, so how can she be paid if she's well organized?

Could it be that she was conscripted?

Thinking of this, Yun Chang's face turned pale, and she looked at the old man in shock, "Master, me, why do I have a salary?" I just want to be a fuel bottle, not a soldier! ! !

The old man was annoyed by Yun Chang's unpromising appearance, he glared, and said, "Didn't you take the initiative to apply for the mission? If you don't give you a name in the army, take a false job, what capacity do you take the mission?"

Now that you have a job, you have to have a salary. Regardless of whether it's a drag bottle or a real effort, anyway, I went to Hong Kong City in a serious manner, and this salary can't be less!

Yun Chang was dumbfounded.

So, did she dig a hole for herself, bury herself, and then make the hole that day?

Yun Chang suddenly felt that the six hundred yuan in her hand was too difficult to handle. She was unhappy with it and didn't want any of it.

"Grandpa..." Yun Shang was interrupted by the old man as soon as she opened her mouth with a mournful face, "Take it! This is your salary, take it for yourself. From now on, you will get a salary of 50 yuan a month, which can support you tall."

Yunshang: "...Master, I just want to ask, after I finish the task, can I get rid of this vain job?"

Don't do any work, and still get paid for nothing, isn't this just empty pay?

She really felt uneasy about taking the money. She is a red and expert socialist successor, how could she do such a bad thing like being paid for nothing! ? I am so sorry for the teachings of the party and the people, and I am too disappointed in the organization's expectations of her!

The old man tilted Yunshang, and didn't speak for a long time, until the expression on Yunshang's face couldn't freeze, and he said angrily, "Finish the task well first! I want to be a deserter before I even think about it! I'm sorry that the organization entrusted you Are you a glorious mission? Are you worthy of the organization's expectations of you?"

Yunshang: "... " Grandpa, you have changed, you even used my words to gag me, you are no longer the grandfather who loves me the most!

Yun Chang couldn't drink the remaining half of the bowl of soup. She left the study with a bitter face. Before she could react, she was pulled aside by Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming.

"Sister, brother, is something wrong?" Seeing that the faces of the two were not very good-looking, Yun Shang hurriedly protected the soup bowl with one hand, and pushed Bai Qingming away with the other.

Chapter 542: Toad

"Xiaoqi, let me ask you something." Bai Qingming took the soup bowl in Yunshang's hand and put it aside, scratching his head irritably, "When did you and our sister meet someone named Sun Hongbing?"

Bai Qingyue became anxious when she heard it, and pushed Bai Qingming with a dark face and scolded, "Little Six, what are you talking about? I told you that I don't know you. Why do you ask Xiao Qi?"

Bai Qingming ignored Bai Qingyue and stared at Yunshang without saying a word, as if she wanted an answer.

Yun Chang blinked her eyes and was confused for a long time. She couldn't remember who Sun Hongbing was in Bai Qingming's mouth, so she had to look at Bai Qingyue for help.

Bai Qingyue was silent for a while, and reminded Yunshang with a very ugly face, "Xiaoqi, it's the educated youth who was sent down to Xinglin Village, the one who wrote a letter to the courtyard a few years ago."

Before he finished speaking, Bai Qingming became anxious, and asked with a dark face, "What? Then Sun Hongbing wrote you a letter a few years ago? Why didn't you say it earlier!"

Yun Shang suddenly widened her eyes, looked around, dragged the two of them out of the door one by one, and asked, "What's going on? Sis, is that toad pestering you again?"

Bai Qingyue pursed her lips and did not speak, while Bai Qingming said angrily, "Then Sun Hongbing found the compound a few days ago and said he was looking for our sister. I happened to meet him at the gate and sent him away." Otherwise, if it spreads to the big courtyard, I don't know how many gossips will be caused."

The quality of some military wives in the compound is really not very good. If you know that a gay man is looking for Bai Qingyue to come to the compound, you don't know how to arrange Bai Qingyue in private.

It was obvious that Sun Hongbing, the toad, wanted to eat swan meat, and clung to Bai Qingyue in a shameless manner, but when it got into the mouths of those people, it would turn into Bai Qingyue's ignorant, hooking up outside, and Sun Hongbing came to the door.

Even if some military wives could think that it was Sun Hongbing who wanted to climb high, and those who deliberately approached Bai Qingyue to get involved with Bai Qingyue, but it was the lesbians who suffered from this kind of scandal.

Bai Qing is going to the southern military region, and Xiao Qi is not at home this year. As the only male at home, he naturally has to protect Bai Qingyue so that a toad that appears out of nowhere can target him What about Jiashui Lingling's sister?

Yun Chang was really surprised this time, and asked with a puzzled look, "Sister, did Sun Hongbing write to you after that?"

"No." Bai Qingyue shook her head, and said with a dark face, "I just received that letter, but I didn't reply, and I don't know why this person popped up out of nowhere."

Regarding Sun Hongbing's behavior of reappearing and finding Dayuaner,

Bai Qingyue's expression was bewildered and disgusted. It's like walking on the road and stepping on dog shit twice in the same place. It can't be shaken off, and it stinks.

Yun Shang also felt that this person belonged to brown sugar, and if it got on it, he couldn't get rid of it. To be able to return to the provincial capital from Xinglin Village in just two or three years, and even go to the courtyard to find Bai Qingyue, is obviously extremely unreasonable.

Besides, it's not a year without holidays, and it's not yet the time for the educated youths to approve family leave, but Sun Hongbing appeared in the provincial capital at this time, and most likely returned to the city.

It would be fine to say that Sun Hongbing's family is a bit powerful, but when he was in the village, Sun Hongbing's clothes were not too outstanding. If there is nothing tricky about it, her name is written upside down!

Realizing this, Yunshang's face darkened, and she asked Bai Qingming, "Little Six, did Sun Hongbing say which unit he works in now?"

"Tch!" Bai Qingming sneered, with a cold look on his face, "It's said that he went to work in a steel factory, and he's still a temporary worker."

Bai Qingyue said annoyedly, "It's my fault too. Last replay, I went to a department store with two lesbians in my regiment. I ran into Sun Hongbing on the way. I didn't take it seriously at the time. I didn't expect Sun Hongbing to find the military area. Come."

Thinking of Sun Hongbing seeing her on the road, ignoring the sideways eyes of passers-by, shouting her name and chasing her urgently, Bai Qingyue's face darkened a little.

Bai Qingming put on a straight face, and said very unhappy, "Sister, what does this have to do with you? Then Sun Hongbing is not in the right mind. Even if you haven't met him, he will come to you sooner or later. He, Sun Hongbing, can't show up in the provincial capital." , you won't go out for shopping in the future, will you?"

Yun Chang didn't expect that Bai Qingming could say such mature words after seeing each other for a year, nodded in agreement, and then asked the two of them, "Does Mom and Dad know about this?"

Bai Qingming: "Parents don't know about this. I drove him away as soon as I saw Sun Hongbing that day, and I told Grandpa Zhou that when he comes back in the future, he will be locked up by the comrades of the Political Science and Engineering Department, and the steel workers will be locked up." The factory leaders came over to lead the workers."

Bai Qingyue sighed, rubbed Yunshang's head and said, "Xiaoqi, I have discussed it with Xiaoliuzi, and I will tell my parents about this when I go back tomorrow, so that Sun Hongbing will not come to the military area to find him casually in the future." I."

Yun Chang didn't understand what the two of them meant. This matter was clearly arranged properly, so why did she come over and ask her if she recognized Sun Hongbing? Could it be that Bai Qingming wanted Lao Yun's family to find out the details of Sun Hongbing's going to the countryside?

Thinking about it, Yunshang also asked the question, and Bai Qingming nodded quickly, and said in a low voice, "I have inquired about it, and now the educated youth are not allowed to return to the city, unless they are due to medical treatment, or there is a work quota at home. The educated youth were allowed to return to the city. Sun Hongbing is now a temporary worker in a steel factory, which means that this person did not return to the city through formal channels. You should call Uncle Yun tomorrow and ask him to go back to the village to find out why Sun Hongbing came back. of."

If he dared to violate the policy and return to the city privately, he would report Sun Hongbing to the Revolutionary Committee, and he must be driven back to the countryside.

Toad sneaked back to the city and didn't keep a low profile. He even dared to jump around the gate of the military area to damage Bai Qingyue's reputation. Who else would he step on?

Yun Chang nodded, hooked his hands at the two of them again, and waited for the two of them to come closer, then lowered his voice and said, "Don't tell Mom about this when you go back, just tell Dad, let Dad check it out. What's going on.

If this Sun Hongbing managed to return to the city through his family, he could be sent back to the countryside. In case someone is behind the scenes and wants to target our family through Sun Hongbing, let Dad handle it. "

Now that the situation is so tense, there are countless families that have fallen in the compound, but the development of the Bai family is getting better and better.

Mr. Bai and Mr. Gu came out of the mountain again to be in charge of the secret base. Two brothers, Bai Yanming and Bai Yancheng, one is working steadily in the capital, and the seat under the buttocks is safe, and the other is guarding the Linyang Military Region, controlling the entire military region The water is tight, and no one can get in.

The generation of the grandchildren of the Bai family is also about to rise up. The three brothers of Dafang are developing well in the army. After graduating from the military academy, Bai Qingzheng of the second bedroom also went to the southern military region with special missions. The future will not be bad.

Although Bai Qingming's temperament is a little simpler, he has become more mature and sensible than before this year. No matter what kind of work he will be engaged in in the future, as long as he has the support of the Bai family, Bai Qingming's development will not be bad.

The elders can hold on, and the juniors below count as one, and they are all figures who can stand on their own. The development momentum of the Bai family is so strong, how can other families not be afraid?

If it were Yunshang, if he met someone like the Bai family, he would probably feel upset.

Chapter 543: Here Comes the Toad

The three of them planned well, but they forgot that there is a saying that plans cannot keep up with changes.

Just as Yunshang and Gu Shinian finished their vacation and followed Lao Li on the train going south, Sun Hongbing came to the gate of the family courtyard of the Linyang Military Region again.

It was lunch time at this moment, and there were people coming and going at the gate of the compound, and there were soldiers and military family members who were getting off work and preparing to go home for dinner.

Sun Hongbing was wearing a clean white shirt, a pair of black leather shoes covering his feet, and a pair of black-rimmed eyes on his nose. He looked like a literary youth, standing in the family courtyard Diagonally opposite, under the shade of the trees, he stared eagerly at the boulevard leading from the gate to the family courtyard.

Uncle Zhou had just had lunch, and he was staring at his presbyopic eyes energetically, staring at the gate with a good look, afraid that someone would sneak in.

When he turned his head, out of the corner of his eye, he caught sight of Sun Hongbing under the shade of a tree not far away, and he immediately regained his energy.

Isn't this the four-eyed toad that the little six sons have been urging thousands of times to never put in? Why did you sneak over here again!

Uncle Zhou immediately put down the cattail fan in his hand, straightened his back, stood at the door of the reception room, stared at Sun Hongbing unblinkingly with a tiger's face.

As long as he dared to lean over, he would immediately fork him away.

Sun Hongbing was stared at by Uncle Zhou's tiger eyes, subconsciously shrunk his neck, and then realized that his neck shrunk was too obscene and not grand enough, and immediately raised his head and chest, pretending to be calm and looking back.

The eyes of the two fought fiercely for a long time before Sun Hongbing took the courage to stride towards the gate of the courtyard.

"Stop!" Uncle Zhou shook his body, stood in the middle of the gate, and stopped Sun Hongbing, "I've been watching you for a long time, sneaking around, do you want to cause damage!"

If you are an honest fool, get out and let you go, and if you dare to stick around like last time, I will take you away as an enemy agent!

Sun Hongbing looked at the old man who was about to call the People's Liberation Army to take him away last time, and his calves couldn't help trembling a few times. He licked his chapped lips, forced himself to calm down, and said in a very polite tone:

"Comrade, I am a steel factory worker, the most honorable working class, how can I be a bad element who wreaks havoc..."

"Whether you are a working class has anything to do with you being a bad element? Aren't all bad elements hidden in the working class to wreak havoc?"

Uncle Zhou didn't wait for Sun Hongbing to finish speaking,

Immediately shouted back at the top of his voice, and drove Sun Hongbing away while talking, "Go, go, go! This is an important military area, and idlers are not allowed to approach it. Hurry up! If you don't go, the comrades from the political engineering department will take you for interrogation! "

Sun Hongbing was in a hurry. Seeing a family member who had just come out of the compound at the door, he shouted at the top of his voice, "Comrade, I'm here to find someone! You can't drive me away! I'm here to find Comrade Bai Qingyue." She lives inside, how can you drive me away without asking!"

Uncle Zhou was also angry, with a dark face, and pushed Sun Hongbing angrily, "The little six said that their family didn't know your name, what are you doing? Hurry up! Chief Bai's family returned to the capital two days ago , even if you go in, you won't see anyone!"

How could Sun Hongbing believe Uncle Zhou's words, he just felt that Uncle Zhou was talking nonsense and organized him to go in to find Bai Qingyue, or that Bai Qingyue was deliberately avoiding him and making Uncle Zhou lie.

"You lied! I saw Bai Qingyue before, how could she have returned to the capital two days ago? You didn't call Bai Qingyue for me, and you lied and cheated others. This is irresponsible for work! This is redemption." Professional behavior!"

Sun Hongbing's voice was not low, and with a sense of exasperation after becoming angry, he instantly attracted the attention of passers-by at the gate of the compound.

Especially the military wives who had just come out of the compound, their eyes were astonishingly bright, and they looked over excitedly.

Uncle Zhou was not used to Sun Hongbing being so ignorant, so he immediately ran back to the reception room and called the security department.

After finishing the work, he came out and pointed at Sun Hongbing, "Okay! Don't you want to go in, wait here, and I'll let someone take you in right away!"

He's seen a lot of people like this kind of stalking around, jumping up and down, trying to get in touch with the chiefs in the compound. With just such a little fighting power, you still want a toad to eat swan meat and climb up to the daughter of the Bai Commander's family?

Go dreaming!

Let him go just now, he's so ignorant, when the comrades from the political engineering department come, he won't be able to leave even if he wants to.

Squatting at the gate of the military compound all day long, stalking Bai Qingyue who doesn't know him, isn't this playing hooligans in broad daylight?

Besides, Bai Qingyue is the daughter of the Commander's family, and someone like Sun Hongbing who doesn't know the details suddenly came to him and wanted to get in touch with the Commander's family. What did he want to do? What's the intention? Is it the bad elements lurking in the working class who want to obtain military secrets from the Bai Commander's family in this way? Or, the bad guys want to attack Commander Bai through Bai Qingyue...

Once Sun Hongbing was taken away by the comrades of the political engineering department, these problems would have to be checked one by one.

Even if it is confirmed that Sun Hongbing is not a bad guy, but simply wants to pursue Bai Qingyue, his stalking method can still be labeled as a hooligan.

Sun Hongbing was born in an ordinary worker's family. He went to the countryside as an educated youth just after graduating from high school. He had never entered the society, and there were no soldiers among the people he met.

Seeing that Uncle Zhou didn't stop him now, he immediately puffed up his chest, put on a smile that he thought he was polite, and said to the military wife who was watching the fun, "Comrade, you are a member of the military who lives in the compound, right?" Can you help me pass a message to Comrade Bai Qingyue of Bai Siling's family, saying that an old friend is coming to see her and let her come out."

Those military wives were not high-ranking men, and they couldn't talk to Lin Wenlan at all on weekdays, so how could they agree to pass on a message to Sun Hongbing.

Coupled with Uncle Zhou's unceremonious expulsion of Sun Hongbing before, and the phone call to the political engineering department, it shows that Sun Hongbing is not a guest of the Bai family, but is listed by the Bai family on the list of people who do not accept visitors. No matter how much he liked to watch the excitement, he didn't dare to help Sun Hongbing go to the Bai Siling's house to watch the Siling's family have fun.

Otherwise, because they like to watch the excitement, they lose sight of the future of men, and they really have no place to cry.

The military wives looked at me and I looked at you, but none of them answered Sun Hongbing's words. Just as Sun Hongbing was frowning, thinking about whether to change the addressee, a line of soldiers ran over at a uniform pace.

Chapter 544 Lost!

Sun Hongbing looked at a row of armed soldiers standing in front of him with a dazed expression. The leading guard platoon leader looked at him with a serious face and sharp eyes. He raised his arm and waved his hand. They were escorted into a row of small bungalows at the gate of the military area.

A few comrades from the political and engineering department who followed closely behind the guard battalion soldiers knocked on the military family members who were watching the excitement at the door, and entered the reception room next to them with a straight face...

Bai Yancheng's family had just returned to the military region, and before they had time to enter the door, Section Chief Ma of the Political and Engineering Department came over.

Hearing that Sun Hongbing had come running over again, and the comrades from the political engineering department were stepping up their interrogation, Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming were taken aback.

The two of them didn't dare to waste time, so they told Tulu about Sun Hongbing's repeated visits at the door of their house.

Knowing that there are wild boars who want to shove their juicy cabbage, Bai Yancheng's coffin face turned black instantly, and he gritted his teeth and asked Section Chief Ma, "Has there been a problem in the interrogation?"

Ma Kechang looked embarrassed, glanced at Bai Qingyue, and said in a low voice, "It's still under trial. Before I came over, the kid insisted that he was just here to see Qingyue, and wanted to talk to Qingyue... Uh, talk to Qingyue." friend's."

Bai Yancheng's face became even darker, he didn't even enter the house, and walked to the gate with Chief Ma.

"Xiao Liuzi mentioned this person to me. He said that he was an educated youth who went to the countryside in 1966. He was in the village of Xiao Qi's grandmother's house. I will have a good interrogation later to see how this person returned to the city and the procedures for returning to the city. If you fail to meet the requirements, once you find a problem, immediately notify the leader of the steel factory, and people from the street office will come to pick you up."

Chief Ma immediately realized the seriousness of the problem.

Sun Hongbing is tender-skinned and only 20 years old this year. When the comrades in the political engineering department interrogated Sun Hongbing, they didn't know that he was an educated youth who had just rebelled against the city.

Hearing Bai Yancheng reveal Sun Hongbing's identity as an educated youth at this moment, Section Chief Ma instantly realized that this Sun Hongbing most likely returned to the city through improper means.

Wanting to understand this point, Chief Ma almost cried because of Sun Hongbing's stupidity.

He had never seen such a stupid person as Sun Hongbing. After finally using the means to return to the city from the countryside, not to mention being low-key, go to work in a safe and sound manner, and try to change myself from a temporary worker in a steel factory to a regular worker as soon as possible. I have to jump up and down to join Bai Qingyue, and put myself He bumped into the muzzle of the gun, isn't this courting death?

If it were someone else,

I will definitely solve the work problem as soon as possible, and then try to change the entry time, so that even if the higher-ups find out that there is a problem with his return to the city, there is no way to embarrass him.

If the luck is even worse, there is no way to change his entry time, but as long as Sun Hongbing becomes a regular employee of the steel factory, the people in the street office will also lift it up high and put it down gently. Go to the countryside to be an educated youth.

But this Sun Hongbing was fine, he was so dazed, he went out without thinking and killed himself...

With Bai Yancheng's reminder, it only took more than ten minutes for the comrades of the political engineering department to question Sun Hongbing thoroughly.

Not only did they find out that there was a problem with Sun Hongbing's procedures for returning to the city, but he also asked the name of the person who gave Sun Hongbing a fake medical record to help him return to the city and helped him find a job in the steel factory...

Sun Hongbing was about to cry right now, he had never seen this kind of battle in his life.

Didn't he just want to have a date with Bai Qingyue, to be the son-in-law of the commander of the military region? Why don't he let the People's Liberation Army take him to a small room with a gun and interrogate him repeatedly?

Is it possible that dealing with family members of the People's Liberation Army is so scary? What the three generations of the ancestors did, and what their composition was, had to be clearly explained. If the composition is not good, he is not qualified to have sex with the daughter of the commander's family, which is too scary.

After receiving the call, the steel factory and the sub-district office rushed over. At the same time, Sun Hongbing's parents, his two older brothers, and his three younger siblings also came.

Seeing that everyone had arrived, Section Chief Ma told everyone about Sun Hongbing without hesitation, and emphasized in his words that Bai Qingyue didn't know Sun Hongbing at all.

The leaders of the steel factory and the people in the street office knew that there was a problem with Sun Hongbing's return to the city, and they ran to the gate of the family's courtyard in the military area every day, trying to have sex with the daughter of the commander of the military area. very ashamed.

This Sun Hongbing is really shameless! Trying to ruin the reputation of the girl's family and forcibly have sex with someone, isn't this a hooligan? It's too embarrassing for the steel factory, and it's too embarrassing for the street office that sent him to the countryside for re-education!

The leader of the steel factory apologized and expressed angrily that the factory was also deceived by Sun Hongbing, not knowing that he was an educated youth who returned to the city through improper means, so he was recruited into the factory.

But from now on, the steel mill can no longer have employees like Sun Hongbing who are backward in thinking and lazy about work. Not to mention becoming a full-time worker, even a temporary worker, it is impossible for him to do it.

The people on the street also expressed that they promised to take Sun Hongbing back to strict education and control, and make a note of it in the files. They would also send him back to the countryside as soon as possible to receive re-education from the poor and lower-middle peasants, so that he would realize his mistakes as soon as possible.

Sun Hongbing's family was scared and ashamed, and they huddled outside the reception room, not even daring to lift their heads.

Sun Hongbing was completely dumbfounded.

The People's Liberation Army still cares about the return of educated youths to the city? Didn't the People's Liberation Army let him go after he finished explaining the matter? Why did he recruit the leaders of the steel factory and the people from the street office?

no! It was hard for him to meet a nobleman, and he was able to return to the city from that corner, so how could he let these people send him to the countryside again!

It's a pity that there were soldiers from the guard battalion holding guns at the door of the reception room. Even if Sun Hongbing didn't like it, he didn't dare to make trouble in the army's territory.

As soon as he got out of the reception room, Sun Hongbing's father couldn't help kicking him, kicking Sun Hongbing like shit.

This careless thing! What an embarrassment to their old grandson's family! Even if he wanted to date the daughter of the Commander's family, he should first find a way to get to know someone, and after slowly getting closer, he should find a way to come over.

It's good now, instead of being a son-in-law for the commander of the military region, he was arrested and interrogated as a hooligan. Not to mention losing his job and being sent back to the countryside, his family members would also have to lose face with him, and it might even affect the jobs of the boss and the second.

Sun Hongbing's two elder brothers were also angry, and went up to help his father beat Sun Hongbing to vent his anger. In the end, the people from the street office stepped forward and separated the father and son who were in a ball.

What a shame! If you want to fight back, you won't even look at them if you kill them!

Such stinky hooligans, they all want to beat them up!

Chapter 545: Behind the scenes

"Dad, did the interrogation find anything? Did someone instigate that Sun Hongbing to come towards our house?" As soon as Bai Yancheng entered the door, Bai Qingming leaned over and asked.

Bai Yancheng raised his eyebrows slightly, and asked in surprise, "You thought of that too?"

It shouldn't be, if it is said that Xiao Liuzi has a lot of minds in eating, drinking and having fun, he believes it, but if it is said that Xiao Liuzi has keen political tentacles, he can see through the whole thing at a glance that there is something unusual behind it, he absolutely does not believe it of.

"Someone is really playing tricks behind the scenes?" Bai Qingming's eyes widened, and he also looked surprised, "Dad, who is going to make things difficult for our family?"

How shameless!

What's the matter with a capable frontal guy with a clear sword and a clear gun, but behind his back, he's scheming against people, and even scheming against a girl?

What a villain!

Bai Yancheng rubbed the center of his brows, sat down a little tiredly, and said, "It is said that it is a family named Zhu, who used to be very close to the Yu family, and presumably wanted to help the Yu family out."

It's just that the Zhu family is too brainless. Even if they want to borrow a knife to kill someone, they should at least find a knife that has been sharpened. This Sun Hongbing is so blunt that he can't even cut a tree leaf, and that Zhu family is still trying to stab the Bai family secretly. ?

Isn't this daydreaming!

At this moment, Bai Qingming was only full of admiration. He pouted and sighed, "Oh my god! Our Xiaoqi is really amazing. Guess it right! As soon as I say this, Xiaoqi Qi said that there was a ghost behind the scenes, and it was directed at our house."

Bai Yancheng was stunned for a moment, "What did Xiao Qi say? It's no wonder."

That's right, Xiao Liu knows how to eat and drink all day long, how could he think of so many things, those words would make sense if Xiao Qi said them.

Thinking of Bai Qingyue being pestered by Sun Hongbing's disgusting play for several days and his reputation being damaged, Bai Qingming was so angry that he couldn't sit still. Just thinking about whether to call the group of children in the compound, go out and find a way to beat up Sun Hongbing, and then go to Zhu's house to make trouble or something, Bai Yancheng spoke again:

"Sixth son, Sun Hongbing has to investigate this matter again. It is not up to Sun Hongbing to decide whether or not the Zhu family is playing tricks. You should be quiet these few days and don't go out to make trouble for me."

The flames of revenge in Bai Qingming's mind were extinguished immediately, and he replied sleepily, leaning on the sofa and not moving.

It is not difficult at all to investigate Sun Hongbing's matter clearly.

Bai Yancheng just asked the guard to call the steel factory, and directly asked the factory leader to talk to Zhu Yongjun about the consequences of slandering the family members of senior military officials, and the truth came to light.

The whole incident was indeed related to the Zhu family, but the person behind the scenes was Erya who was plotted by Zhu Yongjun to make a fake marriage into a real one.

And the reason why Erya unabashedly borrowed the name of the Zhu family and urged Sun Hongbing to entangle Bai Qingyue was not to seek bad luck for Yunshang and the Bai family, but to use the power of the Bai family to destroy the Zhu family so as to achieve Get rid of Zhu Yongjun's purpose.

The reason behind the whole incident is ridiculously simple, and Erya's scheme against the Bai family and the Zhu family seems to be a self-protection method out of helplessness, but anyone who really understands the key points understands the whole thing Things are never as simple as they seem.

Erya plotted against the Bai family, and she was not afraid of being found out by the leaders of the military region and the steel mill, because Erya knew in her heart that she was standing in the position of the weak, and had no choice but to use the Bai family when she was desperate, and she didn't mean to make trouble with the Bai family .

As the superior and the strong, the Bai family, not only can't lower their face and care too much about her as a weak person, but also have to find a way to help her get rid of Zhu Yongjun, otherwise, what will the people in the military region think of Bai Yancheng?

After all, in the whole incident, the Bai family had nothing to lose except Bai Qingyue's reputation was slightly damaged.

Besides, now everyone pays attention to the military and civilian fish and water family, Erya, as a commoner, encounters difficulties, how can Bai Yancheng, as a high-ranking military official, stand by and watch?

Even if the Bai family didn't help Erya get ahead, the matter would have become a big deal. If Erya divorced Zhu Yongjun again, the leaders of the steel factory and the trade union would not dare to persuade them to make peace as before.

Why did Erya have the guts to plot against the leaders of the military region?

Isn't it because I want to divorce Zhu Yongjun, but I can't do it all the time!

If outsiders like them try to persuade them to reconcile and not persuade them to break up, Er Ya will not know what will happen next time.

Erya's calculation was very good. First, she pulled out a toad like Sun Hongbing from the memory of her previous life, paid someone to create a fake medical record, and helped Sun Hongbing return to the city. After finding a temporary job and finding an opportunity to get to know Sun Hongbing, she revealed intentionally or unintentionally that she had lived at a relative's house in the military region for several months and knew the two daughters of Commander Bai's family.

Sun Hongbing already had thoughts about Bai Qingyue, otherwise he would not have written a letter to Bai Qingyue rashly, and without the exact address, he sent the letter to the military region.

Erya mentioned Bai Qingyue in front of Sun Hongbing, but it was because she fell asleep and met the pillow, which was exactly what Sun Hongbing wanted...

After Bai Yancheng knew the ins and outs of the whole incident, he felt as sick as if he had eaten a fly.

Erya is an orphan, and she once lived in Chen Cuiqiao's house, strictly speaking, she can be regarded as a member of the military.

If Er Ya came to ask for help in a serious manner, even if it was for the sake of Chen Cuiqiao's man, the army would say hello to the leader of the steel mill and help her divorce Zhu Yongjun.

It's a pity that Erya didn't see through this point, and only knew how to use tricks to calculate people. Even if her experience made people sympathetic, her behavior style, as well as her heart and means, made people not feel good about her.

What's more, in the whole incident, Bai Qingyue was the most innocent and the one who lost the most.

Just because Erya was tricked by Zhu Yongjun, she could plot against Bai Qingyue without any scruples, ruin Bai Qingyue's reputation, and even try to use the Bai family to help her get rid of Zhu Yongjun. Why is she so shameless, thinking of good things? ?

He plotted against Bai Qingyue, and wanted to use public opinion to force Bai Yancheng to help her out?

It's just wishful thinking!

Even if it is forced by public opinion, the Bai family can't be too fussy with Erya on the public face, but in private, Bai Yan really wants to clean up Erya and vent his anger on his daughter, isn't it easy?

Bai Yancheng can secure his position as the commander of the military region, and when the situation is so tense, he can control the entire military region tightly. How can he be a simple person under coercion?

Don't say that you must retaliate, at least protect your family, and you still have the ability to prevent your family from suffering.

The leaders of the steel factory are about to collapse. Why do all these broken things happen in their steel factory?

Chapter 546: Thief

First, the temporary worker went to the military region to entangle the daughter of a high-ranking military official, who was arrested as a hooligan.

Immediately afterwards, it was revealed that the official worker named Chen Qian had instigated this matter behind her back, and the purpose was to get the Bai family to take action against the Zhu family so that she could divorce Zhu Yongjun.

The hearts of the leaders of the steel mills are like fucked up dogs.

They really couldn't understand Erya's weird way of thinking, and couldn't figure out why she wanted to divorce Zhu Yongjun so much.

Obviously she fell into the water bubble and was rescued by Zhu Yongjun, and the two married voluntarily. It's only been a year, why are they arguing about divorce?

Even if she wants to get a divorce, she can't use tricks to scheme against others!

Even if the factory did not approve of their divorce before and persuaded the two of them several times, it was out of good intentions, and they didn't want to see two young people treat their marriage like a joke, get married as soon as they said it, and leave as soon as they said it.

If Er Ya really feels that life is difficult, she can raise it with the factory with a strong attitude, or she can go to the Women's Federation to make decisions for her. Why do you have to make simple things so complicated?

Do you really think senior military officials are so calculating?

Sure enough, when the leader of the steel factory went to the military area and asked Bai Yancheng his opinion on how to deal with Erya with a blushing face, Bai Yancheng didn't mean to let Erya go because of her poor situation.

"Comrade Chen Qian is also a member of the military. She once lived in the compound for a period of time. While enjoying the care of the military members in the organization, she should also assume the responsibilities of the military members. As a member of the military, you must be more enlightened than ordinary people! Comrade Chen Qian Her actions are discrediting all the military subordinates, and she must not be lightly forgiven for her mistakes just because of her status as a military subordinate."

Didn't that Erya want to use public opinion to force him not to argue with her, and to force him to help her divorce?

Then he can also use Erya's status as a member of the army to talk things out, put a big hat on Erya, and make her pay the due price for her actions.

Let everyone see clearly that he, Bai Yancheng, is not so grand, if he dares to plot against his daughter, then he has to plan to be revenged by him!

Besides, Er Ya's handling of this matter is really unreasonable. There are a lot of people in this world who can't live on. What if everyone learns from Erya, instead of going to the organization to solve problems, and instead playing tricks on people?

Er Ya sat in the office of the factory committee calmly,

Waiting for the factory leaders to come back from the military region and bring back the news that the Bai family doesn't care about her, they are also planning to divorce Zhu Yongjun while the iron is hot.

The leaders of the steel factory did come back from the military area soon, but unfortunately, they didn't bring back the news that Erya wanted. Instead, they called the security team in the factory and sent Erya to the police on the charge of trying to tarnish the image of senior military officials.

After that things are simpler.

Er Ya was labeled as a villain, and Zhu Yongjun was worried that he would be implicated, so he unilaterally divorced Er Ya through the factory.

And the steel factory also directly reported the criticism to the whole factory because of Erya's crime, and transferred Erya's files back to her hometown as quickly as possible.

In other words, Erya was not streamlined and returned home by the steel factory, but was directly expelled and expelled from the ranks of steel factory workers.

When Zhu Yongjun married Erya, he originally wanted to calculate Erya's house and job, but because of the short time, he had to divorce Erya before he could act, and became a second-marriage leader.

It can be said that in this calculated marriage, Zhu Yongjun didn't get anything other than five hundred yuan and the name of his ex-husband who was a villain.

At the same time that Bai Qingyue's plot came to an end, Yun Shang also encountered some trouble in Hong Kong City.

As soon as the new semester started, Gu Shinian followed Lao Jin and Lao Li and flew abroad by plane, leaving only Yun Shang bitterly as a left-behind child.

On the first weekend after school started, Yunshang took Xu Tian and Lu Yunling to the department store together, had dinner outside, and then returned home before dark with a few kraft paper bags.

Mei Yingxue was worried that Yunshang would be scared if she lived alone, so she cleaned up the room for her at home, and sent An Yunming and An Yunxi over to call Yunshang to live in, but Yunshang sent them away with a few words.

The two families lived next door to each other, and the courtyard in the middle was still connected. For Yunshang, since Gu Shinian was not at home, there was no difference between her living in her own room and An Guosheng's house. Anyway, she felt empty and panicked.

After An Yunming and An Yunxi left, Yunshang closed the door and looked back at the empty living room, feeling more and more that the house was eerily quiet.

Thinking that Qiuqiu and Maoqiu were upstairs, Yunshang quickly turned off the chandelier in the living room, ran upstairs, hugged Qiuqiu and Maoqiu into bed.

I don't know if it's from her heart, but Yun Chang always felt that Qiuqiu and Maoqiu were very docile tonight, and her heart was beating violently, as if something was about to happen.

There was silence outside, I don't know how long it took, Yun Chang was in a daze, and seemed to hear someone talking.

She subconsciously held her breath and listened carefully again, and she actually heard a clear creaking sound and someone whispering.

Yun Chang's heart trembled, and her mental strength condensed into a bundle, and she probed towards the place where there was movement.

In the dark night, four tall men were wandering back and forth by the wall behind, as if looking for a climbing point.

..... It's too late to code the following content, I'll change it in 20 minutes.....

The hearts of the leaders of the steel mills are like fucked up dogs.

They really couldn't understand Erya's weird way of thinking, and couldn't figure out why she wanted to divorce Zhu Yongjun so much.

Chapter 547 Fear

Yun Chang quietly stood close to the pillar at the gate, her heart tightly huddled together.

Mental power detected that a few people outside had chosen their positions, and they were cooperating with each other to climb up the wall. Yun Chang resisted the fear in her heart, forced herself to calm down, and mental power quickly searched the space for tools at hand.

baseball bat?

no! That thing is too light, not human enough.

ax?

no! This is in my own yard, chopping people with an ax or something, it's too bloody and violent, it would be bad if the house is turned into a haunted house.

Boning knife?

Not to mention it! With a knife, the flesh and blood are separated, and she will be left with a faint feeling in her heart, what if she can't eat meat in this life?

Seeing the four people from outside the wall turning in one by one, Yun Chang was in a hurry, thinking of the rockery on the other side of the small flower bed in the courtyard, she immediately stretched out her mental strength, rolled up the top stone of the rockery, and followed the rock just turned over. The four people who came over the wall smashed one by one.

"Tom! Tom! Tom! Tom!"

There were four sounds in succession, and the four people who had just climbed over the wall and came in, before standing still, fell one by one at the corner of the wall.

Yunshang quietly breathed a sigh of relief, worried that the four people who had fainted at the base of the wall would wake up early, Yunshang found some ropes to tie them up, put a paper bag on their heads, and took them into the space.

Next is the time to clean up the scene. Yunshang endured the fear in her heart, forcibly suppressed the urge to vomit, cleaned up the blood at the base of the wall, and then put the stone that hit people into the space, after cleaning the blood on it , and put it back into the rockery in perfect order.

September in Hong Kong City is still the hottest time of the year, and the cleaned stones are placed on the rockery, and no water vapor can be seen within an hour.

Back in the room, Yun Chang was no longer as cold and decisive as she was when she hit someone, nor was she as calm and calm as when she was cleaning the scene.

Looking at the four strong men with guns who were locked into the space by her, and the blood that kept spreading from under the paper bag, fear rushed into Yunshang's heart again belatedly.

She fell to the ground, looking at the thick blood on the ground, her fingers trembled unconsciously, and her whole body wobbled unconsciously.

She is not afraid! These people are bad people!

They... came to kill her!

Someone bribed the people on the road and wanted her life! ! !

After being soberly aware of this again, Yun Chang's face was pale and almost transparent, and a slight chill appeared in the back of the vertebrae.

This is not something she can solve!

Yun Shang wiped away the tears that kept oozing, stood up holding the doorknob, stumbled and ran downstairs, and dialed the phone number Gu Shinian had left for her.

Gu Shinian was having dinner here, and when she received a call from Yunshang, she heard her trembling voice talking about the burglar in the house, and that those people had guns on them, and they were aiming at her life. Yes, for a moment he was completely astonished.

All kinds of phone calls comforted Yun Shang carefully, and then asked about the specific process. Knowing that Yunshang had knocked those people unconscious one by one, tied them up with ropes, and trapped them at home, Gu Shinian breathed a sigh of relief while talking to Yunshang while writing and drawing on paper, Tell Lao Jin, Lao Li, and An Guosheng what happened in Hong Kong City.

An Guosheng has lived in Hong Kong for many years and has known many people on the road, so he naturally knows the rules on the road.

Some people spend money to buy Yunshang's life. If a real person on the road accepts the order, they will do everything possible to complete the task. Those who went in the first wave did not succeed, and there will be a second wave and a third wave until the task is completed.

If it is an ordinary gangster who takes money to do things, then it is possible that after killing the four brothers, he will be scared out of his courage and dare not trouble Yunshang again.

But the most important thing now is to find out who wants Yun Shang's life behind his back, so as to solve the problem at the root.

There was danger over Yunshang, so Gu Shinian couldn't stay there any longer. After discussing with Lao Jin and Li, they decided to let Gu Shinian and An Guosheng meet in Hong Kong first.

After all, Yunshang's life is in danger at any time now, and those people have guns in their hands. After Gu Shinian returns, he can protect Yunshang close to his body,

And An Guosheng also has some contacts on the road, and this time when he goes back, he can help find out who is behind the scenes who troubled Yunshang.

Gu Shinian and An Guosheng acted quickly, and returned to Hong Kong City the day after receiving the call.

When the two entered the door, Yunshang was moving the four of them out of the space and locked them in small warehouses in the backyard, so that they could be interrogated separately.

"Ah Chang!"

Gu Shinian was carrying his luggage, and as soon as he entered the door, he called Yun Shang. Before entering the house, he saw Yun Shang running over from the backyard and plunged into Gu Shinian's arms. A bunch of them overflowed.

"A-Shang, it's okay, the second brother is back..." Gu Shinian hugged Yunshang with one hand, and stroked Yunshang's thin back with the other, his movements were gentle and compassionate, soothing Yunshang's emotions one by one.

As soon as he thinks of someone sneaking into the house in the middle of the night with a gun on his body, and intending to kill Yun Shang directly, Gu Shinian feels terrified for a while, and his heart is so heavy that he can hardly breathe.

It was he who helped Yunshang speak, so that she took over the task of recovering the cultural relics, followed him to Hong Kong City, and lived such a life of fear. If something happened to Yunshang, he probably wouldn't be able to survive.

"Second brother, I, I'm not very scared." Yun Shang raised her head from Gu Shinian's arms, her eyes were full of panic, like a frightened rabbit, her eyes were panicked, ignorant and fragile, but she looked at her closest and most trusted person In front of him, he pretended to be a superficial firmness.

"I can protect myself."

Looking at Yun Chang's tightly pursed lips, her face without a trace of blood, and her small fist with veins bursting out as she tightly clenched her skirt, Gu Shinian seemed to have been stabbed in the heart, every time It hurts to breathe.

Yun Shang is very courageous. She dared to evacuate the entire museum by herself, and even went to the factory in R country alone to help the organization get back some precious materials. If he hadn't been reminded and suppressed carefully, she could still do it Do something bolder.

But Yun Shang is also very courageous, since the incident in her last life, she has not been able to see blood.

The small bloodstains caused by some small disputes did not have a great impact on Yunshang, but once someone was seriously injured in front of her, or the scene was too bloody, Yunshang's mood would be affected.

In severe cases, even the world in her eyes will turn blood red, and she is very afraid of contacting people, and she can't even smell the smell of meat.

Yun Shang has space on her body. Compared with her life safety, Gu Shinian is more worried about the pressure she will bear, worried that she will encounter a particularly bloody scene and scare himself again.

Chapter 548 Hands-on

Yun Shang didn't know that she had an unhealthy mental side, and Gu Shinian had been careful not to let her see too bloody scenes.

At this moment, although Yun Chang's complexion was very ugly, and her mood was not too stable, it was still within the range she could control, and Gu Shinian finally let go of her tugged heart.

Yun Shang has been restraining her inner fear for the past two days. Seeing Gu Sinian now, the grievance in her heart suddenly rose, but it overwhelmed her fear and made her feel more at ease.

"Second Brother Gu..." Yun Shang wiped away the wetness from the corners of her eyes, raised the corner of her mouth and said, "I knocked those people unconscious with stones, and locked them in a small warehouse in the backyard. Who is going to kill me."

Gu Shinian's palm slid up from the back of Yunshang, landed on the neck behind her ears, and rubbed it soothingly a few times. Seeing that she turned her head comfortably, her head unconsciously rubbed against his palm, and the corners of her mouth curved slightly. "A Chang, leave this matter to the second brother. You go upstairs to sleep first, and the matter will be resolved after you sleep."

Yun Shang blindly trusted Gu Shinian. When she saw him, she seemed to have regained her backbone. Even if someone bought her to kill her, it was not a big deal.

When An Guosheng put away his luggage and came over, Gu Shinian had already coaxed Yunshang upstairs, and the two of them closed the gate of the courtyard, and entered the small warehouse behind one by one...

A few hours later, the door of the small barn opened again. While wiping the blood on his hands, Gu Shinian slowly walked out the door, whispering to An Guosheng and walking forward.

"Xiao Gu, how did you ask?"

"I've asked them separately. These are the people in the lower ranks. Their status in the gang is average, so they can't be regarded as core figures."

An Guosheng frowned, and said, "...it's a new gang, I'll go out and ask someone later to see who this gang is."

"Yeah." Gu Shinian squatted by the sink and washed his hands, and continued, "I didn't find out who wanted to trouble A-Shang. But A-Shang is soft-tempered and won't easily make enemies with others. I reckon, this We still have to look for people we know."

An Guosheng nodded and said, "I think so too. Yunming said that Yunshang is very popular in school and has never quarreled with classmates. I also think that the people behind are here for you."

Gu Shinian stopped washing his hands, turned his head to look at An Guosheng, "Uncle An, could it be that the Wen family did this?"

Before An Guosheng could answer, Gu Shinian hesitated and shook his head again.

"It shouldn't be. If the Wen family really did it, what are they planning?"

Wen Qihua gets closer to him every day, the purpose is to let him invest in the business of the Wen family's big house, and use his 'ancestral property' to help the Wen family's big house deal with the other two families of the Wen family.

Even if he rejected Wen Qihua, the Wen family should still trouble him. How could they bypass him and go directly to Yunshang?

Even if the Wen family wanted to use Yunshang to threaten him to take money, they should kidnap Yunshang and then blackmail him. How could they run for Yunshang's life as soon as they made a move?

This kind of operation, not only cannot bring any benefits to the Wen family, but will also provoke a big enemy who will never die to the Wen family.

Even if the Wen family's brains were flooded, they would not do such thankless things.

However, if it wasn't the Wen family who did it, then who did it?

After he arrived in Hong Kong City, he never had conflicts with other people.

Could it be that it was born for An Guosheng? Do not! It is also impossible to be born for An Guosheng.

If the black hands behind the scenes were targeting An Guosheng, then these four people would go directly to Mei Yingxue and An Guosheng's three children. How could they let An Guosheng's wife and children go and come to An Guosheng's niece instead? trouble.

This doesn't make sense either.

The two of them pondered outside for a long time, but they couldn't figure out the origin of the mastermind behind the scenes. They could only go out to find people on the road to inquire about the news based on the clues they had just obtained through torture.

.....

An Guosheng's connections over the years have not been in vain, and they are very reliable when it comes to critical moments.

The two went out and set up a table in the restaurant, and invited a few people from the road to have a feast of favors. By the evening, the news had almost been found out.

Looking at the news sent by the other party, Gu Shinian was both surprised and somewhat expected.

The matter is indeed related to the Wen family, but Wen Baobao did the whole thing alone, and has nothing to do with the rest of the Wen family.

The Wen family's business is so big, and the relationship with Taoism is also inextricably linked. If it was Wen Qihua, or any male member of the Wen family, it would not be these few people who did it, but the core figures in the gang.

Of course, if it was not Wen Baobao who came forward, but someone else from the Wen family, this matter would not be so easy to find out.

An Guosheng sat in the car, squinted his eyes and flicked out the cigarette butt, turned his head to look at Gu Shinian's gloomy face that was almost dripping, and asked, "How do you want to deal with this matter?"

Gu Shinian looked at the neon lights outside the car window, and asked in an erratic voice, "Uncle An, those two old gangs probably don't want to see a new gang rise in Hong Kong City, right?"

An Guosheng understood Gu Shinian's meaning immediately, smiled and said, "It's natural. Hong Kong City is such a big land, and gangs are fighting for territory every day. New gangs want to emerge to grab food? Heh! Basically a dead end."

Gu Shinian sneered, lowered his voice, and said, "Uncle An, I have to leave this matter to you. I will release those four people tomorrow, and you help find a few brothers from the old gang to follow and break their legs. Then think of a way to let them see the scene where the brother who did it touches Wen Baobao."

Yun Shang didn't know that she had an unhealthy mental side, and Gu Shinian had been careful not to let her see too bloody scenes.

At this moment, although Yun Chang's complexion was very ugly, and her mood was not too stable, it was still within the range she could control, and Gu Shinian finally let go of her tugged heart.

Yun Shang has been restraining her inner fear for the past two days. Seeing Gu Sinian now, the grievance in her heart suddenly rose, but it overwhelmed her fear and made her feel more at ease.

"Second Brother Gu..." Yun Shang wiped away the wetness from the corners of her eyes, raised the corner of her mouth and said, "I knocked those people unconscious with stones, and locked them in a small warehouse in the backyard. Who is going to kill me."

Gu Shinian's palm slid up from the back of Yunshang, landed on the neck behind her ears, and rubbed it soothingly a few times. Seeing that she turned her head comfortably, her head unconsciously rubbed against his palm, and the corners of her mouth curved slightly. "Ah Shang, leave this matter to the second brother, you go upstairs to sleep first, and the matter will be solved after you sleep."

Chapter 549: Make it clear

A gossip has recently spread in the Hong Kong business district that Wen Jinsheng's only granddaughter is disfigured!

It is said that just after coming out of school, a few gangsters were pressed against the school gate, swish, swish, swish! In front of everyone, she cut off two large lumps of flesh on her face, saying that her cheeks and the tip of her nose were all cut off.

Yun Shang also heard the news, sneaked into Gu Shinian's room, and asked him the authenticity of the news with a gossip face.

After all, Wen Qihua was getting along with Gu Shinian and his brothers all day long a few days ago, so he should know this kind of gossip better than outsiders, right?

Gu Shinian was in a good mood, put down the gun that was being slowly wiped and was confiscated by Yunshang, turned around and said, "The rumors are true. Wen Baobao has offended people on the road, and the other party is taking revenge."

Yun Chang's eyes widened at once, and he grabbed Gu Shinian's hand and asked, "Second brother Gu, what's going on?"

Isn't the Wen family an old cow critic? Spending money all the year round to guard bodyguards to patrol, why are there still people on the road who have trouble with the Wen family?

"A Chang, I found out what happened last time. The four people you arrested were brought by Wen Baobao with money..."

"Did Wen Baobao really do it?" Yun Shang was stunned for a moment, and then asked with a dark face, "Just because you didn't agree to invest in Wen Qihua's business?"

Although Gu Shinian told her that the matter was settled, he didn't tell her who was behind the scenes two days ago.

At this moment, a straight ball came unexpectedly, and Wen Baobao's skin was lifted off, which made Yun Shang somewhat overwhelmed.

One is that Yunshang has always felt that she and Wen Baobao get along fairly harmoniously, neither have they quarreled publicly, nor have they fought secretly in private. She really doesn't understand that Wen Baobao hates her. What is her reason for buying fierce?

This is simply too unreasonable.

The second is that Gu Shinian was unwilling to tell her who wanted her life before, but now he said it directly without hiding anything, which somewhat surprised Yunshang.

"It's not because I don't agree to invest. This matter has nothing to do with the rest of the Wen family. Wen Baobao did it alone."

Yun Chang was even more confused, "What's the reason? I haven't offended Baby Wen."

Gu Shinian simply turned around, pulled Yunshang to sit down on the chair opposite, pondered for a long time, and carefully tested Yunshang's tone: "...Ah Chang, Wen Baobao thinks that I spoil you too much,

I get too close to you, that's why I don't like you. "

Gu Shinian is not interested in knowing why Wen Baobao wants to hurt Yunshang, but this does not prevent him from benefiting from this matter, provoking his intentions like a light touch, and then testing Yunshang's intentions. manner.

Yun Shang didn't know that Gu Shinian was taking the opportunity to test her attitude. After Gu Shinian learned the reason why Wen Baobao shot her, she felt as if she had been struck by lightning and couldn't recover for a long time.

Yun Shang looked at Gu Shinian in disbelief, and stumbled out a few words, "...Second, second brother, what are you talking about?"

What a weird reason! ?

She and Gu Shinian's identities in Hong Kong City are brothers and sisters! Is it not normal for brothers and sisters who have no father and no mother to depend on each other for life?

Is this Wen Baobao magically disabled?

She can't even look down on the relationship between other people's brothers and sisters!

Seeing that Yun Shang was still confused, Gu Shinian raised his eyebrows slightly, and once again put on a weird smile on his face, "A Chang, I mean, Wen Baobao is jealous. She thinks we don't get along well. Brothers and sisters, it's like... the target."

"Squeak~!"

Yun Shang was so startled by Gu Shinian's words that she almost fell off the chair, but Gu Shinian stretched out her hand to help her, and then she sat up straight again.

It's just that Yunshang is sitting still, but his thoughts are still floating in the sky at the moment. Looking at Gu Shinian's slightly playful complex eyes, Yunshang's jaw almost dropped in shock, and his big eyes widened. Diliuyuan, with his small mouth slightly open, stuttered:

"She, she, me, you, this, how is it possible?"

Gu Shinian pinched the corner of Yunshang's mouth with a smile, and felt that her expression, which was the same as that of Qiuqiu seeing a ball of wool, was so amusing. He couldn't help but rubbed his fingers on her soft lips, and his voice became low and gentle, "How is it impossible?"

"But, Keke, you are Gu Erge!" Yunshang stared at her eyes, but couldn't help but stumbled when she opened her mouth, "I, I call you brother!"

Gu Shinian nodded, his eyes were locked on Yunshang, his tone was calm, but he said with a hidden turmoil, "A Chang, I allowed you to call me by my name in private a few months ago."

"That's different!"

Yun Chang retorted subconsciously, but Gu Shinian didn't give her time to react, and followed her voice to ask:

"Why is it different?"

"I, I, I, I..."

Yun Shang was completely confused by Gu Shinian's question after sentence. After "I" for a long time, her mind became more and more confused. She stared blankly at the corner of Gu Shinian's smiling mouth, and mosquito coils began to turn in her eyes. lock up.

Seeing Yun Shang's expression of who am I, where am I, and what happened, Gu Shinian secretly sighed, and was about to end this topic, Yun Shang suddenly reacted, her eyes widened, with a face full of condemnation Look at Gu Shinian.

"Gu Shinian! Aren't we discussing why Wen Baobao thinks so? You've led me into a ditch!"

We are discussing Wen Baobao's disfigurement, discussing why Wen Baobao has such a weird thought, you don't answer the question seriously, why do you just slip along the sloping ditch, take me to the wrong side with you, and discuss that I should call you Brother, is it time to call your name?

Is now the time to discuss this topic?

If you don't answer such a serious question, why are you figuring it out every day! ?

The most important thing is, if I call your name in private, if you take revenge later, my ass will suffer again!

I'm not fooled!

The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth twitched a few times, and the expression on his face was indescribable, "A Chang, Baby Wen would think so, so it's because we gave her the wrong signal when we got along. Otherwise, no one would go to Think that way."

Yun Shang: "..."

I do not have! I'm not! Don't talk nonsense!

I never gave Baby Wen the wrong signal!

If there is, it must be given by you, I am hot and professional... Bah! I am recognized as the national sister!

The expression on Yun Chang's face was too bitter and bitter, and Gu Shinian was immediately amused. After thinking for a while, he softened his voice again and said:

"A-Shang, it's up to me. If I can restrain myself, Baby Wen won't notice."

Yun Chang was dumbfounded again.

Second Brother Gu said, 'If he can restrain himself, Baby Wen won't notice it', not 'Baby Wen won't misunderstand,' so, is this a misunderstanding, or... a misunderstanding?

Chapter 550: Playing and Developing!

Second Brother Gu said, 'If he can restrain himself, Baby Wen won't notice it', not 'Baby Wen won't misunderstand,' so, is this a misunderstanding, or... a misunderstanding?

Thinking of that possibility, Yunshang was so startled that the hairs on his back were counted down, and his fingertips turned white.

"Second brother, I, you, you..." Yun Shang stuttered, slowly stood up from the chair, and moved her toes back little by little, "Second brother, you, you have to restrain yourself Son!" I'm your sister!

As soon as these words came out, not only Gu Shi Nian was stunned, but even Yun Shang wanted to bite off his tongue.

It's over, what did she say?

Second Brother Gu said before that if he had restrained himself, Baby Wen would not have noticed it, but now she is following Second Brother Gu and saying such things, isn't it to lead Second Brother Gu to misunderstand?

Obviously what she wanted to say was to ask Second Brother Gu to restrain his emotions now, and to speak clearly before speaking, and stop saying things that misunderstood her, as soon as he said it, everything changed!

Yun Chang's face turned red all of a sudden, she lowered her head, and unconsciously rubbed her toes on the ground lightly, wishing she could slip through a crack in the ground.

A smile flickered in Gu Shinian's eyes, but he responded calmly, "Okay, I will restrain myself in front of people from now on."

Yun Shang: "..."

Damn! What the hell!

Brother Gu is crazy... No! Brother Gu must have been time-traveled!

Yun Chang's whole body was stiff, and she slowly raised her head, looking at Gu Shinian as if she had seen a ghost, her eyelids twitched unconsciously.

"Second, second brother..."

"A-Shang, we agreed before that we will not call my second brother..." As soon as Yun Shang spoke, Gu Shinian frowned and interrupted her, his meaningful eyes fell on Yun Shang's face, and added, "You can call me by my name in private."

The little girl can be considered to have reacted.

It's not in vain for him to waste so much time talking.

However, looking at the little girl's appearance, it seemed that she couldn't accept it for a while. That's right, this matter was too sudden for her, if she came here today, if she pushed it any further, the little girl should turn against him.

Gu Shinian straightened his face,

Pointing to the chair, he motioned to Yunshang, "Shang, sit down, let's talk about Wen Baobao's disfigurement."

Yun Chang pursed her lips, looked at the chair, then at Gu Shinian, pondered for a long time, and between listening to gossip and immediately avoiding Gu Shinian and going back to the room, she decisively chose the former.

She decided to trust Gu Shinian for the time being, and if he dared to bring up the topic again, she would turn against him and ignore Gu Shinian for three days.

Gu Shinian had already figured out Yun Chang's temperament. Seeing her sit down on the chair with a stiff body, she pulled the chair towards her with her hands, and when Yun Chang couldn't help but want to jump up, she quickly let go. Leaning back, the distance between the two of them was opened again.

Seeing that Yun Shang breathed a sigh of relief, Gu Shinian's lips curled up, he sat up straight, and said slowly, "Baby Wen secretly found people on the road to do it. I sent those four people away a few days ago. After releasing them, let Uncle An find someone to break their legs, and try to let them know that their legs were broken by Wen Baobao... There is a private relationship between the Wen family and the two big gangs in Hong Kong City, those four people don't doubt the authenticity of Wen Baobao finding someone to break their legs..."

"The reason Wen Baobao asked someone to do it is that she paid for my life, but those four people took the money and did nothing. Did Wen Baobao think they lied to her?" Yun Shang asked.

Gu Shinian nodded, with a very serious expression on his face, "Those who are gangsters, the most taboo is to make people lose face, otherwise the whole gang will be looked down upon when they go out. The people under their hands have suffered a lot. The leader will naturally want to find his place..."

Through Gu Shinian's narration, Yun Shang quickly smoothed things out.

Those four people came over the wall to kill Yun Chang. Although Gu Shinian tortured and interrogated those people, he didn't send them to the police station. He just confiscated their weapons and drove them out.

Entering and murdering a house is not a small crime. Even if it was an attempted murder, after those people were sent to the police station, they would have to squat for at least ten years before they could come out.

Gu Shinian's act of letting people go directly was considered to have given the gang great face, and made those people owe a big favor.

Those people took revenge on Wen Baobao, first, to find the place where their legs were broken, to support the face of the gang, and second, to use practical actions to repay the favor owed to Yun Shang and Gu Shinian.

Based on these two reasons, the members of the gang didn't care about Wen Baobao's identity as the eldest lady of the Wen family, and arranged for a few face-to-face brothers to block Wen Baobao at the school gate, ruining Wen Baobao's appearance.

And the property under the name of the Wen family has been harassed by people these days. It is said that the old man of the Wen family vomited blood from anger, and the grandchildren of the Wen family have been yelling about this matter all day long, spending money every day to find people on the road Drinking, wanting to find out exactly who is having trouble with their Wen family...

Yun Chang didn't know what to say for a while, but felt that Gu Shinian was really black-bellied, and just talked about it, so that Wen Baobao, and Wen's family, and the gang that took money to do things started killing each other.

To what extent the two sides will fight in the end, and whether there will be deaths, no one can say now.

Of course, even if the Wen family made peace with the gang in the end, Gu Shinian was not afraid that they would suspect him.

You know, the brothers An Guosheng arranged only carefully asked Wen Baobao the way after the action was over. It was the four brothers whose legs were broken who saw two people talking and misunderstood. Baby Wen, what does it matter to others?

In fact, you can understand it when you think about it. After all, they are all punks. If you just break someone's leg, you will be afraid of being caught by the police. make sense.

As for the four people whose legs were broken, it was difficult not to misunderstand when the murderer bowed his head and talked to Wen Baobao.

In the final analysis, no one is to blame for this matter. If you want to blame it, you can blame both of them for doing bad things. This is retribution.

After knowing the cause and effect of the matter, Yun Chang almost went out in a daze, and returned to her room with a deep kick and a shallow kick.

Hugging the glued ball casually, Yunshang stretched out her hand and patted her still hot cheeks, and unexpectedly remembered the almost explicit words that Gu Shinian said before.

What the hell is going on here?

When did Gu Shinian think about her like that?

Her body is only fourteen years old! Gu Shinian was so brazen as to attack her, it was... so insane!

Could it be that he had thought about her in the last life, right?

Thinking about it this way, Yun Chang's complexion suddenly twisted, and he cursed a few words:
Beast! How dare you play with my old lady!
